Anti-War Demonstrations Across US Countered By 'Loyalty' Parades

No Agreement Is Reached In U.S., N. Viet Meeting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States and North Vietnam have held another brief meeting in Laos but still have been unable to reach agreement on a site for preliminary peace talks, the State Department disclosed Saturday.

Department spokesman Carl E. Borch told newsmen that William H. Sullivan, U.S. ambassador to Laos, called on the North Vietnamese charge d'affaires in Vientiane, Nguyen Chan, at approximately 4 a.m. Saturday, Washington time.

Borch said there was "no agreement on a site" for preliminary talks, and he replied "no comment" to all further questions.

The fact that the two diplomats are continuing to meet—they held a previous session on Thursday in Vientiane—is viewed here as an encouraging sign, although the North Vietnamese have protested even the very limited publicity which U.S. officials have given the meetings.

Aside from the continuing meetings, indications were that movement has been very slight if indeed there has been any at all in breaking the stalemate between Hanoi's view that 15 sites proposed by the United States are unacceptable and the U.S. stand that Warsaw and Phnom Penh are not suitable to the United States or its allies.

Violence Is Denounced By Negro

A Fort Worth Negro minister in Pampa yesterday denounced violence and looting and called for reasonableness in racial matters. (See picture, page 3).

Rev. Lewis C. Browning, pastor of the Independent Methodist Church of Fort Worth, said more emphasis must be placed on religious training and education.

Rev. Browning, a founder of the Youth Crime Prevention League, said the organization is planning a religious and education center in Dallas for young Negroes at a cost of $100,000. He said it would be used to coordinate efforts for crime prevention.

"No good can come from looting, terrorizing, burning and murder. Instead of tearing down our people should be building up. And one of the best ways we can do this is through religious and educational training."

Rev. Lewis, who travels in a specially equipped mobile home with a loudspeaker and a platform on the back, is in the Panhandle on a speaking and fund-raising tour.

Rev. Browning will speak at 5 p.m. today in Optimist Park.

The program, requested by Amarillo Mayor J. Ernest Stroud, will be conducted at the Amarillo Air Force Base and emphasize technical training for employment in the aerospace industry.

Humphrey Opens Campaign

By RAYMOND M. LAHR
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey opened his campaign for the presidency Saturday with history working against him but with an assortment of other political forces working for him.

Among all the vice presidents who have served in the White House, none since Martin Van Buren's victory in 1836 has been elected on his own without first succeeding to the presidency because of the death of an incumbent.

And in recent years, no candidate has been elected to the White House without first working for his party nomination in the state presidential primaries.

The Republicans did nominate Wendell Wilkie in 1940 and the Democrats nominated Adlai E. Stevenson in 1952 after both stayed out of the primaries, but both lost in the presidential election.

Misses Primaries
Although he announced just 27 days after President Johnson said he would not seek renomination, Humphrey in effect was barred from competing in primaries against his two major rivals, Sens. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota.

Sen. Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, co-chairman of the Humphrey campaign committee, told a news conference Saturday that the presidential primary route was never available to Humphrey on a "legal or practical basis."

He denied that Humphrey supporters might want to give concealed support to McCarthy in an effort to stop Kennedy in the coming primaries. He also said that trying to win primaries through write-in campaigns would be "to anoint oneself for suicide."

In the only other opposed primary races, both Democratic incumbent Gray County Sheriff R. H. (Rufe) Jordan will face W. E. (Bill) Whitsell and incumbent constable of Pct. 1, W. R. Combs, contends with J. L. Bromlow and Floyd McMinn.

The primary serves as a clearing house for candidates where more than one contender seeks the endorsement of his party. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the top two contenders then vie in the party's second primary — usually called the runoff primary — on June 1.

Write-in votes can also cast a new slant in primary elections but usually do not.

A rock hunt is planned in connection with the show today in the Plum Creek area at Lake Meredith. Cars will leave for the area at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. today.

Attorney Races Are Hottest

Primary Saturday Puts Politics In Home Stretch

By JEFF HOLLADAY
Daily News Staff Writer
Politics will go into the home stretch this week as candidates seek to clear the first hurdle in their bids for public office — the May 4 primary.

Most of the heat of the first primary is expected to be generated by Democratic contenders for district attorney of the 31st Judicial District and attorney of Gray County.

Don Cain, county attorney of Gray County, and Guy Hardin, the county attorney of Wheeler County are expected to run a close race in the battle for district attorney. The post was thrown open when veteran District Attorney Bill Waters announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

One of the toughest local political battles shaping up will be in the race for Gray County attorney. Harold Comer and John W. Warner, both well-known Pampa attorneys, are expected to run a neck-and-neck race for the newly-vacated post. The post was opened when County Attorney Don Cain tossed his hat into the ring for district attorney. Winner of the primary race will face Republican candidate Ben Sturgeon, another Pampa attorney, in the Nov. 5 election.

In the only other opposed primary races, both Democratic incumbent Gray County Sheriff R. H. (Rufe) Jordan will face W. E. (Bill) Whitsell and incumbent constable of Pct. 1, W. R. Combs, contends with J. L. Bromlow and Floyd McMinn.

Strong Measures Against Rebel Students Asked

NEW YORK (UPI)
Trustees at protest-racked Columbia University Saturday directed President Grayson Kirk to maintain "ultimate disciplinary power" over rebel students who have taken over five university buildings.

The trustees also opposed withholding punishment for demonstrators, one of the chief demands of students in their five-day-old sit-in. The sit-in is aimed at dramatizing student demands that Columbia halt construction of a gymnasium in Harlem's Morningside Park and end ties with a Defense Department project connected with the Vietnam War.

The Alumni Association also called for "swift, strong and appropriate" measures to be taken against the students involved. It condemned the demonstrations as "anarchy and mob rule."

Reconnaissance pilot reports said huge quantities of weapons and ammunition were moving freely over rail lines between Communist China and Hanoi repaired since the U.S. bombing curtailment began April 1.

Heavy Fighting
The big increase in infiltration coincided with the heaviest ground fighting in three weeks along the Demilitarized Zone—one of the key targets for the Communist supply buildup.

The U.S. Command reported 128 North Vietnamese soldiers killed in action that cost nine American Marines in action around U.S. positions at Con Thien, Camp Carroll and Quang Tri just south of the DMZ.

Despite the reports of the Communists taking advantage of the limited U.S. air raids, Saigon headquarters said all of 96 missions flown against North Vietnam Friday hit panhandle targets south of the 19th Parallel.

The air war communique reported the loss of a U.S. Air Force F4 Phantom jet, the 828th American plane to fall over the north since attacks began on August, 1964. The report said the Phantom went down "from causes unknown," and that both crewmen were missing.

The report on the Ho Chi Minh trail traffic in Laos said American pilots logged at least 10,000 sightings of supply laden trucks moving south in the first 25 days of April. This was 2,000 over the previous high for any full month in the war. The trucks were described as big vehicles between 2.5 tons and 5 tons.

Jet pilots flying the counterattack raids reported hundreds of secondary explosions indicating the strikes had destroyed tons of ammunition and bombs.

Aerial reconnaissance photos of the port city of Saiphong untouched by U.S. bombs for more than five weeks—showed all four bridges repaired and stockpiled supplies removed from once clogged docks.

W. German Vote Today Is Serious Test Of Parliamentary Democracy

STUTTGART, Germany (UPI)—An estimated 5 million West Germans vote Sunday in one of the most serious tests of parliamentary democracy since the collapse of Adolf Hitler's Third Reich.

Against a backdrop of left-wing violence and signs of neo-Nazi resurgence, the state of Baden-Wuerttemberg elects its 120-seat legislature in the last major balloting before national elections next year.

Politicians and analysts both in West Germany and abroad will study the outcome intently for answers to four questions:
—How is public opinion reacting to the wave of rioting that swept the country Easter weekend in the wake of the shooting of leftist student leader Rudi (Red Rudi) Dutschke?
—Is the extreme rightwing

American Warplanes Answering Challenge

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist war supplies are pouring down the Ho Chi Minh trail through Laos toward South Vietnam at an unprecedented rate, U.S. Intelligence sources reported Saturday. American warplanes were answering the challenge with a record number of missions into nominally neutral Laos.

North Vietnamese commanders were reported assembling hundreds of heavy truck convoys above the U.S. bomb limit in defiance of President Johnson's peace moves.

Reconnaissance pilot reports said huge quantities of weapons and ammunition were moving freely over rail lines between Communist China and Hanoi repaired since the U.S. bombing curtailment began April 1.

Police, Marchers In Clashes

By United Press International
Anti-Vietnam demonstrators clashed with police in New York's Greenwich Village and in Chicago's Civic Center Saturday during antiwar rallies across the nation.

Veterans groups countered with "Loyalty Day" parades in a number of cities.

In a separate New York demonstration, 60,000 persons held a peaceful antiwar rally in Central Park following a march down Fifth Avenue.

In Chicago, demonstrators estimated at about 3,000 strong, collided with police at the windup of a previously peaceful two-mile march from Grant Park to the Loop when they found themselves barred from the Civic Center Plaza and restricted to the surrounding sidewalks.

Many Arrested
At least 33 persons were arrested and at least one girl demonstrator was taken away in an ambulance. One man was taken to Cook County Hospital with a head injury.

Henrotin Hospital reported its emergency room treated nine injured demonstrators. Wesley Hospital said it was treating a number of the injured.

When demonstrators knocked down the rope barriers around Chicago's Civic Center, 300 police, many wearing riot helmets, waded in with clubs swinging, spraying mace.

'Old Fort Elliott' History Is Traced In Meeting Here

One hundred three members and guests of the Pampa Genealogical & Historical Society were present Friday evening at Lovett Memorial Library when Ernest Archambeau of the Panhandle Plains Historical Society presented the program, "The Old Fort Elliott Story."

Tracing the historical development of the Panhandle of Texas, Archambeau pointed out that Fort Elliott (named for Lt. Joel Elliott, killed in 1668 in the battle of the Washita near Cheyenne, Okla., while under the command of George Armstrong Custer) was established as a result of the Indian attack upon Adobe Walls in neighboring Hutchinson County and numerous depredations upon buffalo hunters throughout the area. In 1874 there were over 200 frontiersmen and buffalo hunters trading at the store located at Adobe Walls.

In February of 1875 troops under Major James Biddle located their camp on Cantonment Creek in eastern Gray County and after the Fort itself was established farther east in the summer of 1875, the camp on Cantonment continued to operate as a branch camp for 7 more years until 1882.

Fort Elliott got its first mail service in January 1878, and in Sept. of that year a Stage line was established to Claremont. On Oct. 5, 1877 the first marriage was performed in the Panhandle, between George Simpson and Mary Ann.

Breakfast Is Scheduled Wednesday To Honor Democrat Dolph Briscoe

A breakfast honoring Dolph Briscoe Jr., Democrat candidate for governor, is scheduled for 7:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn. Local friends of Briscoe are sponsoring the meeting which will last for only one hour. The gubernatorial candidate, co-author of Texas' Farm to Market Road Act and the man who led the drive to rid Texas of its $100-million screw-worm pest, will speak briefly at the breakfast. Chris Prickett, 2221 N. Wells, and Rex McAnelly, 1719 Evergreen, are boosting efforts on behalf of Briscoe in the Gray County area and are part of the group heading up next Wednesday's breakfast, to which the public is invited. Briscoe, in his campaign, says, "To safeguard the lives and property of each Texan must always be our first order of business. Riots, looting, and lawlessness that have occurred in other states do not have to happen. These things have not happened in Texas thanks to our law enforcement agencies and the dedicated officers in those agencies who have done a magnificent job under very difficult conditions. "Our best insurance against any future breakdown of law in Texas is to make it clear to everyone that lawlessness in any form will not be tolerated. "As Governor, one of my chief aims will be to improve the quality of our elementary and secondary school systems with a goal of making Texas' system the best in the nation. I believe firmly that the quality of education and vocational training available to our youth will determine the future of Texas. "Twenty years ago when I entered the Texas House of Representatives, one of our state's major problems was getting the farmer out of the mud. We found a solution then through the Colson-Briscoe Farm-to-Market Road Act and today Texas has the nation's finest system of rural roads."

Lots of Talent in Revue, But Timing Was Bad In Many Spots

By JEFF HOLLADAY Daily News Staff Writer

The Red Stocking Revue tried to frolic but failed to move at a rollicking pace and ended its two-night run here last night as an over-long show too infrequently punctuated by bright spots.

The blame must fall squarely on the shoulders of Director Jud Davis who failed to exercise his disciplinary powers to tighten the show up.

The result was that an amateur night that could have been more entertaining turned out to be less so.

The fault was not with lack of talent. There was good talent and there were good acts.

But Davis failed to take out the weak spots, failed to shorten the mediocre stuff and neglected to pare the show down to balanced proportions.

Even good movies would be dull if it were not for the ruthless man in the cutting room. Every director should know that you can't have a tight show — pace — if you give the bad stuff as much time as the good.

Unfortunately that's what tainted the Red Stocking Revue. The show was about two hours and 15 minutes long. It should have been cut to about an hour and a half.

BRIGHT SPOTS

Mary Louise Gerik, Ken Freeman, Sandra Hadley and Nora Wetherbee all performed well as soloists and gave the show substance.

Shirley Stafford and Paula Stevens, as The Trippers, a couple of "sexy" burlesque queens, provided a refreshing pace-breaker as they tauntingly bumped-and-ground across the stage between acts.

Dianne Brown and Jack Edwards turned the clock back to a more innocent age as they sang a nostalgic "Bicycle Built for Two" number.

99-Year Sentence Assessed Here

Formal pronouncement of sentence was read Friday for Henry D. Burton, convicted in April, 1967, for robbery of a Pampa supermarket in June, 1966, and assessed a 99-year penitentiary term.

Judge Grainger W. McIlhenny pronounced the sentence in 31st Judicial District Court here.

Burton and Zane Evans were jointly indicted for the robbery by a grand jury here in 1966.

Methodists Are Committed To Gifts Program

DALLAS (UPI) — Delegates to the United Conference of the Methodist Church committed Methodists last week to a $20 million program of gifts, over and above the customary giving, to help Negroes, and other minorities, the poor, and teen-agers.
 The United Methodist Church said the program is designed to "deal creatively" with problems of the cities. Its spending will be spread over four years, but churchmen will be asked to contribute the $20 million in a program to start soon.
 Bishop James K. Mathews of Boston offered the report that won delegates' approval. It said the minorities and other targets of the effort should be encouraged to give leadership to the programs. Agencies outside the church can help, the report suggested.

Egypt's Oil Industry Rebounds

By FRED LANKARD
 United Press International
 Egypt's petroleum industry, about 80 per cent of it smashed in last year's Arab-Israeli conflict, has shown a swift recovery.

The Oil and Gas Journal reports Egyptian crude oil production of some 120,000 barrels daily, just 4,000 under the pre-war level.

The recovery is based on the success of the offshore El Morgan field in the Gulf of Suez.

that took up the slack when Egypt's Sinai Peninsula fields, which accounted for over 76 per cent of the country's 1966 production, were taken by Israel.

El Morgan had just started production when the hostilities broke out in June. The field's 14 wells are now pouring out about 110,000 barrels daily and new wells are expected to lift that figure to nearly 200,000 by the end of the year.

Other production is coming from six fields along the Gulf of Suez and work is underway to put a recent El Alamein discovery on production. Estimates of the new field's initial output range from 30,000 to 50,000 barrels daily.

Repair as well as development is playing a big role in the comeback.

The country's two major refineries were shattered in an October artillery attack. Although the larger of the two, the 95,000-barrel-per-day El Nasr Oilfield Co. plant, is not yet back in operation, the Suez Oil Processing Co. plant is reported up to 80 per cent of its 64,000-barrel-per day capacity.

Rebuilding the two key refineries will be a major part of the Egyptian oil industry's complete recovery.

the problem of what to do with the El Morgan field's crude production.

For a time the answer was a 2,850-mile round trip that saw about half of El Morgan's output shipped to an Aden refinery and the products moved back to Suez distribution points.

Another product source was the 30,000-barrel-per-day Alexandria plant on the Mediterranean coast. The refinery is currently being expanded to about a 50,000-barrel-a-day capacity by 1969.

Aledo Field Deliveries Commence

NEW YORK — Deliveries of natural gas have commenced from the Aledo field of west-central Oklahoma by Cities Service Company's subsidiary, Cities Service Oil Company, and other interest owners in the field to the Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Company.

Gas deliveries will be limited to 40 million cubic feet per day for the first eighteen months of the contract. Thereafter, deliveries will be at rates of up to 180 million cubic feet per day depending on the gas reserves developed.

Cities Service owns an average of a 44 per cent interest in three wells that have been completed and a 50 per cent interest in each of three wells currently drilling. Cities Service also has a 50 per cent interest in a 9,294-acre block offsetting the discovery well and a full interest in 45,000 acres in the general area.

The Aledo field was the most prolific natural gas field discovered in Oklahoma in 1967. The discovery was completed by J. C. Barnes Oil Co. and others on a farmout from Cities Service.

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY
County Agriculture Editor

If it would rain, a lot of wheat would do no more than just pay for the cutting.

It has often been said that you have to lose a wheat crop the third time before it will make. However, after losing one this late, there is no saving it. Time is running out. Within a little more than one month we normally start the combines rolling.

Last week we advised one individual to turn his cattle in on more than half his acreage.

Some time ago a six-bushel crop of wheat would be harvested when prices were close to 90 per cent and cost of combining was somewhat lower. Today a six-bushel crop will no more than pay the rent, hauling, and cutting.

Even the experts can't predict the weather but most farmers would now agree they would have been far better off to have harvested their wheat with cattle.

With farming expense going up and prices of farm products going down, farmers face some of the toughest economics they have faced in years. It is no wonder we see so many folding up and moving to town. When they get into some of the larger cities, this creates more of a burden to city problems.

In this area it is a tough fight with drought if you are a dryland farmer. Most farm economists agree that farmers stand to make their greatest improvement in the field of farm management. We need to keep better records. We need to keep enterprise records to see what is consistently making money and what is consistently losing money. We need to take a look at other enterprises. These might be some newly-introduced enterprise to the area. It might be an old one that only a few people are using in the area.

Swine offers small operators one of the finest opportunities available in this area if you do not mind the smell and you do not mind the work. The average dryland wheat and milo farmer that does not run cattle and does not have a job on the side, is not fully employed more than three months out of the year. With the high speed farm machinery available today, one farmer, without the benefit of additional expense of hired help, can farm one dryland section on less than 600 tractor hours.

There are many new opportunities for small one-fourth time employed farmers in the big cattle feeding boom in the Panhandle. There is a great deal of opportunity in backgrounding of cattle for the custom feedlots. There is every kind of deal for a smaller farmer on a custom basis. Most feed lot operators will tell you the feed lot is very worst place to straighten out a bunch of calves. Many of the feed lots will make you some kind of a deal if you want to plant a sorghum sudan hybrid grazer, or if you want to take cattle in on your wheat.

There is a great deal of talk now about doing something for the small farmer. I regret the trend to large corporate-type farms and I recognize the fact that it was small farms that made this country great. Most of our most noble citizens and our "greats" were farm reared. There is something about tilling the soil and tending of livestock that builds character.

But I propose to you that the only permanent improvement made for the small farmers will be made by the small farmer himself through his own initiative.

Winter Cover Crop Plow-Under Date May-Under Date May-Extended

Destruction dates on winter cover crops can be extended by the State ASCS Committee in cases of severe blowing, Congressman Bob Price has advised area farmers.

Price said he had answered several inquiries by advising those requesting extension dates to apply through their county ASC Committees for such extensions on any small grains planted on diverted acreage. Price said he understood the plow-down date for the Panhandle and high plains area was May 15 but could be extended by approval of the state committee.

Conservation District News

By PAUL APPLETON

Soil and Water Conservation assistance is now readily available throughout most of the U.S. with slightly more than 3,000 Soil and Water Conservation districts, the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts has pointed out.

Total areas within district boundaries is 1.78 billion acres and covers 99 per cent of the farms in the U.S.

During the past year the state of Washington became the 28th to be completely covered by soil and water conservation districts.

Texas has the largest number of conservation districts with 184. California, has 163; Kentucky, 121; and Kansas, 105 among other states with widespread conservation service.

Dedicated to renovation, development and improvement of natural resources, the conservation districts are self-governing local units of government under the auspices of the USDA. Local districts are organized by land-owners of a county or area, usually a county. Boundaries of a soil and water conservation district usually coincide with county boundaries, but many districts encompass parts of several counties.

The district is governed by representatives (called supervisors) selected from different areas of the district.

The Gray County Soil Conservation District has five elected supervisors, each of whom serves a five-year term. The terms are staggered so that a new supervisor is elected every year.

Gray County supervisors are Robert Saylor, representing the northwest part of the district, chairman of the board of supervisors; Curtis Schaffer, representing the Groom area; James Claitt, representing the southeast part of the district; Milton Carpenter, representing the middle area of the district; and Sam Bowers, who represents the Laketon area.

Expert Says Milk Price Control Would Result In Imbalance

DALLAS (UPI)—A milk pricing expert said Tuesday that if state control of milk prices is established in Texas, housewives can expect to pay about four cents a quart more for milk and dairymen can expect to get 20 cents-30 cents less per hundredweight.

The expert is Dr. Roland W. Bartlett, professor of agricultural economics at the University of Illinois. He has written three books on milk prices and testified in numerous milk price cases.

Dr. Bartlett, at a news conference, discussed a referendum in which voters at the May 4 primaries will be asked whether they want the legislature to create a commission to regulate milk prices.

He said that 32 states have had state-regulated milk prices. Eighteen have done away with state regulation and two are likely to soon, because state regulation is "rotten to the core," he said.

Dr. Bartlett said laws by which states regulate milk prices are difficult to enforce. "They give the distributor such a wide margin that they permit all sorts of chicanery," he said. "They allow all kinds of rebates."

Dr. Bartlett was asked about one "dairy leader's" statement that unless Texas gets state-controlled prices, there will be a milk shortage. "That is a lot of baloney," Dr. Bartlett said.

Panhandle Water District News

By FELIX W. RYALS

The Panhandle Water Conservation District has had a very fine working arrangement with the Soil and Water Labor Texas A&M University. The analysis and interpretation by their laboratory has been of great benefit to irrigation farmers. The reports coming back on water samples not only spell out the sodium and chloride content but advise on the desirability of using the water for irrigation.

Sometimes the water, although borderline on salt content, may be used if good management practices are used.

Water and soil scientists have worked up some guidelines that may be applied in the particular case. For example, if a farmer applies one-acre inch of water (acre of water covering land one inch deep) containing 2,000 parts per million of soluble salts the water will add approximately 500 pounds of the soluble salts to that particular soil.

Thus, a farmer using three 5-acre inch applications of this irrigation water (a total of 15-acre inches of water) during the growing season will add approximately 7,500 pounds of soluble salts per acre. Annual application of this amount of soluble salts per acre will eventually build up sufficient salinity to affect plant growth in the soil. No one can accurately predict how long it will take to make a soil unsuitable for plant growth since all the salt added does not remain in the root zone of the plants. Heavy rainfall, or large applications of irrigation water which tend to carry the soluble salts downward may remove most of the soluble salts from the sandy soil.

Seasonal checks by proper analysis will indicate when the soil is nearing the danger point in salt concentration. When a soil is analyzed, use the following rating to indicate the expected plant response to salt concentrations:

—Zero to 0.2 percent salt (8,000 pounds per acre in each foot of soil depth): Little difficulty is expected in plant growth with a normal moisture content of soil. With limited water and non-salt-tolerant plants some damage may be expected at the 0.2 percent concentrations of salt.

—0.2 to 0.4 percent salt (8,000 to 16,000 pounds per acre in each foot of soil depth): Plants with medium salt tolerance may be mildly affected on medium to fine textured soils and severely damaged in sandy soils. Salt tolerant plants can be satisfactorily grown with proper management and adequate water, whereas non-salt-tolerant plants cannot be grown.

—Above 0.4 percent salt: Only salt tolerant plants with adequate water and careful management can be grown on these soils.

Plants vary greatly in their symptoms of injury from salt accumulations. Generally the first noticeable symptoms would indicate a low fertility condition where the plants appear stunted and unable to grow normally. As the salty conditions become more severe the plants often take on a deep bluish-green color. Crops such as wheat, oats, and barley tend to show a reddish color on the leaves as the plants approach maturity. Grain sorghums often show this reddish color to a striking degrees. Plants growing on soils with excessive salt accumulations seldom show injury, instead they will show the stunted, slow growing, bluish-green colored leaves which make it nearly impossible to detect danger early enough to irrigate to relieve the condition. The soil moisture may appear to be most adequate for plant growth, but due to the salt content it will not permit normal plant functions.

Pampa Whitewashes Lubbock Estacado, 9-0

Pampa came out of the District 3-AAAA cellar Saturday by pounding Lubbock Estacado with 14 hits and 9 big runs. Pampa, in four previous games, had found the hits very scarce, but the Harvesters turned the tables on the Estacado team. Pampa broke out of the stalls in the second inning for a 3-0 lead. Hopkins led off with a single to left. Parrish laid down a good bunt to sacrifice Hopkins up, but Boyd, the pitcher, threw the ball into right field plating Hopkins and sending Parrish to third base. Boyd proceeded to wild pitch Parrish home. Summers fanned the flame again by walking, stealing second and scoring on Holman's single.

Held down in the third, Pampa came back for one more run in the fourth. With one out, Holman laid a perfect bunt down the third base line for a single. Kotara followed with a line single to center field. Hawkins singled to center again and the ball went through the center-fielder's legs allowing Holman to score from second and advancing Kotara to third. Kotara over-ran the bag and was run down between third and home by the catcher, Hibbler. Hawkins took third base on the run down. Turcotte walked, but the rally died when Henley flied to second base.

Pampa scored again in the fifth inning to make it 5-0. With one out, Hopkins lined his second single to left field. Parrish struck out, but Summers singled to right, sending Hopkins to second. Holman promptly delivered another RBI single scoring Hopkins.

The Harvesters put the finishing touches to Estacado in the sixth. With Brown relieving Boyd, Pampa jumped on him for four runs before the dust could settle and the Estacado coach could get him off the mound. With one out Turcotte singled, moved to second on Henley's single. Brown then walked Jenkins, loading the bases. Hopkins, who went 3 for 4 came up and lined his third single into left, scoring Turcotte and Henley with Jenkins advancing to third. Hopkins took second in the action. Earp, running for Hopkins, then scored when Parrish singled.

Larry Kotara held the new Lubbock High School in check all the way, allowing only 3 hits and never being in trouble. In the second, Boyd singled but was left stranded. In the third, Lemon doubled, but was out trying to stretch it into a triple. Estacado tried to get something going in the seventh when Knapp, batting for Morales, looped a Texas Leaguer into right field for a single. Kotara promptly threw water on the fire by picking Knapp off first. Kotara struck out five and allowed no base on balls.

New Zealand Driver Wins Silverstone

SILVERSTONE, England (UPI)—World Champion Dennis Hulme, driving with blood dripping from his right eye, led New Zealand to a 1-2-3 sweep Saturday in the Silverstone International Formula 1 race.

Hulme, driving a McLaren, narrowly avoided involvement in a serious accident in the early going, and later was struck in the head by a flying stone and nearly knocked out.

With his machine traveling at over 120 miles per hour and his white coveralls suddenly splattered with blood, Hulme dropped back in the pack but managed to regain control of the car in the vital seconds after the incident.

Hulme's teammate and boss Bruce McLaren, finished second ahead of a Ferrari piloted by Chris Amon.

Hulme covered the 156 miles in 1 hour, 14 minutes, 44.8 seconds to post an average speed of 122.17 miles per hour for the 2.9 mile grand prix circuit.

Giants Hit Dodgers

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—that was all the help McCormick, the 1967 National League Cy Young Award winner, needed to gain his first victory of the year after two losses.

Jack Hiatt drove in a pair of runs with a homer and triple Saturday and Mike McCormick handcuffed the Los Angeles Dodgers on five hits in leading the San Francisco Giants to a 3-0 victory.

Willie Mays hit his second homer of the year in the first inning and as things turned out, that was all the help McCormick, the 1967 National League Cy Young Award winner, needed to gain his first victory of the year after two losses.

Lee 7th Takes District Title

Scoring in every event, the Seventh Grade track team of Lee Jr. High easily captured top honors in their division of the Panhandle Jr. High Athletic League District Meet yesterday at Dumas.

The young Rebels racked up an impressive total of 110 points, a comfortable 31 points more than their closest competitor, Dumas, followed by Perryton, Pampa Jr. High, Austin and Houston of Border in that order of team standing.

Perhaps the outstanding performance in the division was the 56 second, district record setting 440 yard stint by Rick McGuire. This was in addition to Rick's fine showing in winning the 100 yard dash in the time of 11 seconds flat. The latter was also a new school record at Lee McGuire now has set three school records this year, having earlier set a mark of 24.8 in the 220 yard dash at Perryton, as well as running a leg on the record-setting sprint relay team.

The ninth grade championship was won by Dumas, followed by Austin of Berger, Perryton, Lee Jr. High of Pampa, with 49 points Pampa Jr. High, and Houston of Berger. Lewis Davis and Dan Hood of the Rebels of Lee were the main point makers, as they continued their excellent showings in the shot and discus. Davis won the discus, and placed second in the shot while Hood threw well enough to take second honors in the discus and third in the shot put.

Dale Ammons was the individual star of the Lee eighth grade tracksters as he tied for first place in the high jump with a creditable height of 5 ft., 6 in. He also placed fourth in the broad jump, sixth in the 120 low hurdles, and ran on the fifth place 440 yard relay team. Tom Watson helped add to the point total of the Rebels with a second place effort in the broad jump, leaping 17 ft., 1/2 inches.

Lee's eighth graders as a team, with 51 points, took fifth place in the meet won by Houston of Berger. Second place team honors were captured by Dumas, followed by Perryton, Austin of Berger, Lee, and Pampa Jr. High.

Fishin' Roundup

By MELVIN CLARK

Warner Phillips broke his arm this week, so we don't have a report on Lake McClellan. (He'll probably have some big fish tale next week about that arm.)

One fisherman reported that he was fishing the Bugbee Area of Lake Meredith this week in a boat. The crappie were biting slow on minnows, so he rigged up a 1-32 oz. white bug, and put on a weighted sinking bobber. In a short time he had caught four carp with the largest being approximately 5 lbs. This was a lot of action, but wasn't much consolation for the crappie he was missing. However, the crappie were biting minnows real good at 20 to 25' depth close to Bugbee.

Public Links Golf Meet 'Wide Open'

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (UPI)—A field of approximately 100 is expected to begin play Monday in the 35th annual Texas Women's Public Links Golf Tournament with a wide-open battle in prospect.

Defending champion Mary Ann Rathmell of Houston has indicated she will not compete this year.

The tournament will be played at the Valley Inn and Country Club, hosting its first major tournament since opening almost two years ago after a complete reconstruction project. The course will play to a par 72-and 5,564 yards from the ladies' tees.

Following Monday's qualifying round, the field will be placed in flights for match play eliminate starting Tuesday. The championship bracket will contain 32 players, the other flights 16. Championship flight first round losers will make up the first flight.

Finals will be held Saturday in the first two flights, but the others will conclude on Friday.

Most of the entries were expected to compete in the annual 18-hole Marie Wohlfahrt Memorial Scotch Tournament Sunday.

High School Team Gets Spotlight

ARLINGTON, Tex. (UPI)—Fort Worth Kirkpatrick High School stole the spotlight from college performers Saturday, setting a national schoolboy record in the 2nd Annual Arlington Open Invitational Track and Field Meet.

The Fort Worth team of Wade Williams, Terry Beasley, Phillip Anderson and Charlie Copeland posted a 41.1 in the 440-yard relay, erasing the national record of 41.2, set by Fort Neches-Grove, Tex., high school in 1965.

In the university division, North Texas State and Rice each won five events to dominate the field. East Texas state and host University of Texas at Arlington had two blue ribbons each.

One stadium record fell when Mike Madigan of Southern Methodist University soared 24'3" to win the broad jump.

The only double winner of the day was North Texas State sprinter Carl Jackson who took the 100-yard dash and the 220 yard dash.

Canadian, will be opening for fishing June first.

Fishing was good in Oklahoma this past week. L. V. Hopp, 825 East Kingsmill, came home with 10 bass totaling 16 lbs. and 12 bream totaling 7 lbs. He was in a tube floater, and using black jigs. Friday he went back again and caught his full limit of bass.

Using Bombers and Hellbenders, Dave M. Preston, 328 N. Nelson, caught 16 black bass weighing from 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 lbs. over at Foss Lake.

Up to Canton Dam in Oklahoma the pike are biting on 1/4 oz. doll flies. You can catch them from the bank.

Last week over at Ft. Cobb, George Hause, 608 E. Craven, reported fishing off Clinton Pier and catching all the crappie he wanted at about 1 lb. each. They were fishing deep using minnows and jigs. People at the dam were catching crappie up to 1 1/2 lbs. each, also an 8 lb. channel cat was caught.

At Dead Indian, crappie up to two lbs. were biting real well on small minnows. The lake is still low, but this seems to help the crappie.

Fred Eroning of Lefors has been over at Texoma Lake on the Texas side, south of Madid, Okla. In two days he caught 60 crappie from hand size up to three lbs. They averaged 2 to 2 1/2 lbs. One was 15 inches long. He was using minnows and yellow jigs. The sand bass were biting too.

Bob Martin, fishing over at the Earl Mitchell Lake at Shamrock, caught two bass weighing two pounds each using a Devil's Horse.

Happy fishing, everyone!

Miller Barber In Lead At Dallas' Nelson Classic

By ED FITE
UPI Sports Writer

DALLAS (UPI)—Miller Barber, ignoring a badly swollen right hand, waltzed off and left the field in his wake Saturday with a five-under-par 32-33-65 that put him five strokes in front of the pack after three rounds of the $100,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic.

Barber, a portly Texan with only two victories to show for a little more than a decade on the tour, pitched and putted his way to within comparatively easy range of the $20,000 first money with a 10-under-par total of 200 for 54 miles.

After playing superb golf off the tee and on his approaches for the first nine, Barber had a scrambling back nine and only some superb chipping saved his hide on the way in, when he missed four greens in a row, starting with the 13th.

Harold Henning, the lesser 34-35-69 and was in second place at 205, two shots ahead of fellow-countryman Gary Player and young Kermit Zarley.

Barber's 65, along with one earlier by Bob Charles, tied the competitive course record set Friday by Jack McGowan, who was in contention at the start of Saturday's play only to falter to a four-over-par 36-38-74 and wind up in a cluster of players at even par 210.

Twins Trip Chisox
MINNEAPOLIS—ST. PAUL (UPI)—Cesar Tovar hammered a single, double and triple Saturday to pace the Minnesota Twins to a 4-1 win over Chicago and pin the White Sox with their 11th loss in 12 games.

Orioles' Phoebus Pitches No-Hitter

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Tom Phoebus, a native of Baltimore who struggled through seven years in the minor leagues before earning a chance in the majors with his home town team, pitched his way into baseball's Hall of Fame Saturday by hurling a no-hitter as the Baltimore Orioles beat the Boston Red Sox 6-0.

In recording his masterpiece, Phoebus was aided by a sensational fielding play by third baseman Brooks Robinson and a questionable call at first base on a slow infield roller.

Astros Down Cubs
CHICAGO (UPI)—The Houston Astros combined four hits with five walks for a six-run sixth inning Saturday to overpower the Chicago Cubs 8-1 and break a six-game losing streak.

The Astros began their sixth-inning surge with a walk to Jim Wynn after one out. Rusty Staub doubled Wynn to third and Bob Aspromonte was walked intentionally before Doug Rader's single scored two runs and knocked starter Rich Nye out of the game.

Indians Fall, 2-1
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Frank Howard tripped in one run and scored another after a double Saturday as the Washington Senators defeated the Cleveland Indians 2-1 in a rain-abbreviated game for Camilo Pascual's third victory of the season.

Pascual, who had yielded only a single and a seventh-inning homer by Duke Sims, was relieved by Dave Baldwin when pinch-hitter Willie Smith walked and Lee Maye singled with two out in the eighth. Baldwin never had a chance to throw a pitch before the game was rained out after a wait of one hour and 20 minutes.

At Amarillo Dragway

Texas Pro Fuel Dragsters Start 2nd Round Competition Today

AMARILLO — With first round bonus money satisfactorily distributed, second round competition on the Texas Pro Fuel Dragster Circuit begins here Sunday at Amarillo Dragway.

George Rodriguez of San Antonio, who won the circuit opener here a month ago, earned $500 of the $1,000 bonus purse on the basis of his point production in the two first round events.

The third event on the first round schedule, Austin Raceway Park's April 21st event was cancelled by rain and the bonus money was thus divided on the basis of point standings after the first two races at Amarillo and at Odessa Raceway Park.

Rodriguez's San Antonio-based fueler will be among the favorites again Sunday when time trials begin at 7 a.m.

The South Texas car, full-bodied and off to a fantastic start in circuit competition, was runner-up at the Odessa race following its victory at Amarillo. At both meets, it carted off top speed honors.

The Carroll Brothers and Chaos Kids, both of Dallas, shared second place in the first round, the Carrolls winning at Odessa and the surprising Chaos Kids qualifying for both events and finishing second to Rodriguez in the opener.

But despite the fact that those two Dallas teams have furnished Rodriguez with his principal competition for circuit bonus points, probably the biggest threats Sunday will be posed by a strong Oklahoman contingent composed of two cars which are not even among the circuit membership and Greitz and Greer, who were only going to give the circuit a trial run but who now are in the competition to stay.

The Greitz and Greer combine, which runs out of Tulsa, has long been a contender for national honors.

After a horrendous 1968 start in which driver Vic Brown wrecked two different cars at the National Hot Rod Association Internationals, Creitz and Greer have managed to win a series of key meets, including the Professional Dragster Association championships last month.

Jimmy Nix of Oklahoma City and Benny Osborn of Sand Springs are the two other Oklahoma contenders who will be in the field.

Nix, the former national champion in top fuel, is piloting a new double-A dragster this year after coming out of semi-retirement as a strip operator in Oklahoma City.

Osborn gained national prominence last year by taking the top Fuel Eliminator Championship at the Tulsa World Finals, one of the NHRA's big four national championship events.

At least 60 per cent of the current fuel circuit membership, approximately 25 cars, are expected to be in the pits Sunday morning in quest of the eight final berths. Time trials will continue until 1:30 p.m.

Other top cars which will battle for eliminator berths will be fielded by Prentiss Cunningham of Lubbock, Boyd and Griffith of Norman, Okla., Vance Hunt of Arlington, Bobby Rutledge of San Antonio, the Anderson Brothers and Danny Rightzell of Dallas, Fred Rowsey ("Banzi II") of Austin, John Weibe of Newton, Kan., and John Wilson of Dallas.

Following the morning qualifying, the top eight cars will begin eliminations at 2:30 p.m. to select a single winner. Runner-up money will remain at $500 but loser round money for the current event has been upped to $150 a round.

Super Stock, Stock, Competition and Street Eliminator purses will also be awarded and Pure Stocks and Motorcycles will compete for trophies.

One of the top Super Stock fields ever assembled is expected for the race with the new Plymouth Barracudas and the Ford Mustang Cobras get contingent head on for the first time.

Gene Snow of Fort Worth and Ken Bradley of Dallas will be in new Darts while Don Grother of Oklahoma City, Charlie Rogers and Larry Cooper of Monroe, La., and Joe Smith of Lubbock all will field Barracudas for the first time in 1968.

Top prize in the Super Stock division is $300 with $100 going to the runner up and $25 each to third and fourth place performers.

'Jogging' Gathering A Large Following

NEW YORK (UPI)—Everybody's doing it.

Swingers, congressmen, housewives, businessmen, engaged couples, secretaries and kids. They're all out there jogging.

They're not particular where they do it, either.

They're jogging around the block, around the house and around the park. And from latest reports, they're doing their daily jogging all around the country.

Hayes Jones, the U.S. Olympic champ in the 110-meter hurdles and now commissioner of recreation for the City of New York, has a brief message for all joggers everywhere.

"Keep on jogging," says Hayes Jones, who does it three times a week himself. "It's good for you and there's nothing else like it."

Each morning by dawn's early light, dozens of persons jog around Central Park here. They come in all shapes and sizes and their occupations are equally diverse. Most of the joggers are males but there are a number of female joggers also. The jogging goes on all day until sundown.

"We have set up special jogging courses in all five boroughs of the city and according to the information given me, more than 1,000 persons are using the courses," says the 29-year-old Jones, who jogs in his Olympic sweatshirt in the morning before he goes to work.

The article came from a book written by Maj. Kenneth Cooper, a physician with the U.S. Air Force. The book is entitled "Aerobics" and deals with a theory Cooper tested on servicemen. He discovered that the most beneficial exercises are running, swimming, cycling and running in place.

Cooper's findings caught on so dramatically that we've now become a nation of joggers.

Bob Knight To Stay At West Point

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bob Knight is staying at West Point as Army's basketball coach after rejecting a tempting offer to enter the Big Ten Conference coaching ranks at Wisconsin.

Knight turned down the Wisconsin job late Friday night and announced he had signed another one-year contract to stay at West Point.

The decision to stay came as a surprise since the University of Wisconsin announced Wednesday Knight would be its new coach.

But Knight, at 27 one of the nation's youngest head coaches, said from his home at West Point the Wisconsin announcement was "premature."

"I agreed on financial terms but never did say yes. I still wanted to talk with them about assistants, recruiting and other matters. I never accepted the job."

John Powless, an assistant at Wisconsin under head coach John Erickson, who resigned to enter the professional basketball administrative ranks, was finally given the Wisconsin job. He was the athletic board's No. 2 choice behind Knight.

Mustangs Topple Harvesters

The Coronado Mustangs took a liking to the Pampa Harvesters' pitching here Friday afternoon and banged out 11 hits for a 7-1 victory.

The Mustangs extended their victory skein to four straight with a fine pitching and hitting performance by Hilliard. Hilliard went 2 for 2 at the plate, including a double, and held the Harvesters in check until the last inning allowing only 3 hits.

Coronado bolted from a 0-0 tie in the second inning to score two runs to stake them to a 2-0 lead. Hungerford led off with a line single to left field and was moved to second by Byrne's single. Smith hit a ground ball to Turcotte at second but it was bobbled for an error, loading the bases. Hilliard, the pitcher, then stepped up and singled home the go-ahead runs.

Coronado made it 4-0 in the fifth inning when Kizer was hit by a wild pitch to start the uprising. Kizer moved to second when Hawkins errored on Williams' ground ball to 3rd. Holt then singled to center field plating Kizer, but Summers bobbled the retrieve and Williams came home.

In the sixth for Coronado they added three more insurance runs when Smith walked and

Markham singled, putting runners on first and second, Kizer the catcher, singled to Parrish in right field, Smith attempting to score from second, was cut down at the plate with a fine throw by Parrish. This only fanned the flame as Williams doubled, scoring Markham and Curry, who was running for Kizer. Hopkins stole 3rd then scored when Hopkins threw past Hawkins into left field, on the play making it 7-0.

Pampa finally came to life in the bottom of the 7th when Hawkins led off with a single, went to second on a wild pitch and scored on Turcotte's single.

The Harvesters threatened briefly in the 5th and 6th innings, both with two out. In the 5th with two out Summers walked, stole second and third but died there when Hopkins fled to left. In the 6th with two out Parrish doubled between left and center field, went to third on a wild pitch, but was left stranded when Holman hit back to the pitcher. Parrish led the Harvesters hitting with 2 for 2 for the day.

In winning, the Mustangs upped their conference mark to 8-6 and in losing the Harvesters dropped to 3-11. Hilliard evened his pitching record at 3-3 while Hendley dropped below .500 with a 4-5 mark.

White Deer Frosh Place At Sunray

WHITE DEER (Sp) — Representing our younger track stars of White Deer high school at the Sunray meet recently were the freshmen cindermen who came in fourth place. Two runners won second place ribbons on the 60 yard hurdles and the 440 yard dash. They are Phil Miller and Stephen Langston. Stephen also won third in pull-ups.

Other winners were Phil Miller, fourth in 100 yard low hurdles; Andy Taylor, Phil Miller, Mike Williams, and Stephen Langston, fourth in 880 yard relay; Martin Ray McCloud, fifth in 880 yard run; and Mike Williams, sixth in 60 yard high hurdles.

CONIGLIARO HELD

NEW YORK (UPI)—Commissioner William Eckert Friday gave the Boston Red Sox permission to carry outfielder Tony Conigliaro on their disabled list until such time as he is reinstated.

The commissioner said Conigliaro, who is suffering from a deteriorating eye condition, will not count towards any player limits. Placement on the regular disabled list permits Conigliaro to be eligible for pension benefits.

S'West Conference Is Due Stormy Meeting

By ED FITTE
UPI Sports Writer

DALLAS (UPI) — Southwest Conference faculty fathers, after several seasons of quiet discussions, apparently are headed for a stormy session next week-end at the annual spring meeting in Fort Worth.

Foremost controversy apparently will be the multiple charges brought against Texas A&M, some of which have already been brought into the open in newspaper accounts and admissions by A&M coach-athletic director Gene Stallings that the conference investigators had been probing at his school.

Stallings has maintained practically all of the 17 alleged charges have been cleared and there will be no repetition of the probation which erupted in his face his first year at Aggieland.

There have been reports that at least one other school also has charges pending against it, but the identity has been kept secret. The charges are reportedly of very minor nature.

The conference also will consider problems arising from the grade point level for eligibility, the league rules regarding start of fall football practice, a review of recruiting problems, and the possibility of establishing a fixed limit on the number of basketball financial aid awards and adoption of a limit on other minor sports.

The delegates also will consider a recommendation from basketball coaches that league teams be allowed to participate in post-season tournaments in addition to the NCAA tourney.

The meetings will open Thursday morning when athletic directors and head football coaches convene. Track coaches also

Mickey Stanley Is Out To Prove Hitters 'Made'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Most good hitters are born but Mickey Stanley hopes to prove they can also be made.

Stanley started this season with the worst possible label for an outfielder—"good field, no hit." Infielders can survive that tag—but not outfielders.

Stanley is considered one of the best centerfielders in the business when it comes to playing the field. But at the bat, he's been little more than pathetic—and outfielders have to earn their pay with the bat. Stanley hit just 210 last year in 333 at bats and 145 games—and took a .243 lifetime average into this season.

But when the Detroit Tigers reeled off a nine-game winning streak at the start of this season to take over first place, Stanley was playing a key role in the surge. He's been one of the American League's top ten hitters so far this season—and collected 10 hits in his first 30 trips to the plate for a .333 average, almost 100 points above his lifetime average.

What's made the difference so far?

Stanley credits his sudden development as a hitter to a change in his batting style made at the suggestion of batting coach Wally Moses.

Arnie Enters PGA Meet

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (UPI)—Ambitious Arnold Palmer has decided to take another shot this year at the one big prize that continues to elude him—the PGA championship.

Palmer's entry for the 50th PGA championship to be played July 18-21 at San Antonio, Tex., was received Saturday by the PGA headquarters.

Also received in the same mail were the entry forms of 1966 PGA champion Al Geiberger, former champion Dave Marr, Ryder Cupper Johnny Pott and tour regulars George Aronch, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Bruce Crampton.

Palmer, troubled by a hip ailment the past two weeks, is expected to be ready for the PGA meet.

SPENCER INJURED

LONDON (UPI) — Heavyweight Thad Spencer of San Francisco has suffered an eye injury in training, forcing him to postpone his scheduled April 30 bout with Eduardo Corleto of Italy, it was announced Friday.

Promoter Mike Barrett said the bout will be postponed four weeks until May 23.

ROSE VICTOR

MELBOURNE (UPI)—Ronald Rose of Australia, the world bantamweight champion, scored an impressive 10-round unanimous decision over Italy's Tommaso Galli Friday night, flooring his opponent for a nine count in the last round.

Rose, 122, floored Galli, 123, with a left hook with 50 seconds remaining in the fight, but the Italian staggered to his feet and survived until the final bell. Rose was awarded a 7-2-1 decision.

Miss Columbus, Dr. Don Berry Repeat Marriage Vows

Miss Patsy Lynn Columbus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest N. Columbus of Grand Prairie, and Dr. Don Wayne Berry of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Berry, 712 Buckler, Pampa, exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony April 14 in Grand Prairie in the Tarrant Road Church of Christ. Jay Channell, Grand Prairie minister, officiated for the double-ring ceremony.

Antonio; Michael Brown, Houston, and Danny Crow, Keiser, Ark. Candelighters for the wedding were Timothy Martin, Tony Martin, and Mike Perkins. The flower girl was Jill Wright, and ring bearer was Tony Columbus. An a cappella choir from Pleasant Grove Christian High School in Dallas sang "More," "The Lord's Prayer," "I Pledge My Love," "Faithful and True," "Be With Us Lord," and "Oh Perfect Love."

The bride's mother wore a light blue dress of Italian silk trimmed in blue lace. The bridegroom's mother wore an azalea pink lace dress fashioned in an A-line style and matching accessories. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

A reception was held in the hospitality room of the Grand Prairie State Bank. Wedding cake and punch were served from the bride's table which was decorated with a bouquet of daisies and smilax. The complimenting bridegroom's table was decorated in tones of beige and brown and the bridegroom's cake.

Dr. and Mrs. Berry left on a wedding trip to Padre Island and points in South Texas. The bride wore a yellow and white linen suit and a glemalia corsage. The couple will be at home at 918 Austrian, Grand Prairie.

Miss Spivey, Roy Davis Say Wedding Vows

Miss Nell Spivey became the bride of Roy Lynn Davis recently when wedding vows were pledged in an evening ceremony in the chapel of the Gulf Gate United Pentecostal Church in Houston. Officiating was Rev. F. D. Olson, pastor.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. May of Houston. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Davis of Canadian.

The organist, Mrs. D. H. Samuelson, presented traditional wedding music as the guests and mothers were being seated. She accompanied Laura Manly who sang "Wither Thou Goest" and Doug Henry as he sang "Every Step of the Way" and "The Wedding Prayer."

White daisies branched candelabras holding cathedral candles flanked the floor arrangements forming the beautiful nuptial setting. White satin bows marked reserved pews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father with the "her mother and I" avowal, wore a formal empire styled gown of silk crepe with alencon lace appliques. Her train was chapel length and was edged with lace. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and satin roses. She carried a crescent arrangement of glemalia and daisies.

The couple recited their vows to each other beneath an altar decorated with greenery and baskets of white gladiolas and daisies. A triangular candelabra was the focal point of the altar flanked by cathedral candles on either side. Before the altar was an anniversary candle which was lighted by the bride and bridegroom together at the end of the ceremony.

Colors of yellow and white were carried out in the dresses of the matron of honor and bridesmaids, who wore empire styled dresses in shades of yellow crepe. They carried baskets of daisies complimenting daisy appliques in the trim of the dresses.

Attendants included Miss Betty Lou Spivey, sister of the bride, as maid of honor and Mrs. Linda Moorhead, aunt of the bride, as bridesmatron. Misses Connie Miller and Paula Livesay were bridesmaids. Empire styled floor-length dresses of yellow crepe were chosen for them. Headresses for the attendants were yellow veiling attached to matching yellow bows. They carried bouquets of white daisies.

Following the wedding, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Guests had been registered at the church by Miss Debra Betts, cousin of the bridegroom, who stood by the bride's book and rice tree at the reception.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Danny Crow, Keiser, Ark., sister of the bride. Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Marvin Berry, Pampa, Miss Donna Confer, Garland, and Miss Dinah Chism, Searcy, Ark.

Best man was Dr. Marvin Berry, Pampa, brother of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were Dr. Morris E. Franklin, San policy of separate racial development, cannot be overlooked. "Texas and South Africa have at least one big thing in common. Texas is widely known as a flatland with cowboys and sixshooters. South Africa is mistakenly identified with so-called "Darkest Africa" whereas actually it is a highly developed playland of seaside resorts, miles of untrammeled beaches, modern cities, valleys, mountains and a life oriented to the sea and the outdoors. There are two official languages — English and Afrikaans, and all signs appear in both languages," she said.

"Capetown," Mrs. Johnson continued, "has a Mediterranean climate. It is a cosmopolitan city and ranks with Rio de Janeiro as the most beautiful port." At Cape Peninsula the group took the Garden Route which extends along the Indian Ocean from Mossel Bay to Port Elizabeth (See PAMPAN, Page 13)

Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Speech By High School Exchange Student

Theta Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held its regular monthly meeting recently in the home of Miss Ila Pool, Miss Mary Ewing, president, presided.

The program opened with the reading of the society's collect by Miss Claudia Everly. Mrs. C. C. Kelly introduced two guests, Mrs. Eugene Richardson of White Deer and Miss Anna Kuylenstierna of Sweden. Miss Kuylenstierna is an American Field Service student spending this year in the Richardson home and attending White Deer High School.

By showing slides and commenting upon life in her country, Anna took the group on an informative and scenic trip of her homeland. Anna, who lives in a small village where her father is principal of a school of forestry, "cycles" two miles into a nearby town to attend secondary school.

"Schools are crowded," Anna remarked, showing the picture of the three-story structure where she attended. "This school was built for 500, and it has 1,000 students."

"Saturday is traditionally market day," Anna explained as she showed scenes of market square with its ancient city hall, its hot dog stand, and its fruit and vegetable stands.

"Main Street, lined with small cars, contrasted old buildings with the new. An ultra-modern building, which is called 'the blue building' because of its color, houses offices and apartments on the upper levels with shops on the street level," she said.

"The residential area is comprised largely of modern apartment houses. 'Most people live in apartments,'" Anna said, "since house building is very expensive."

Other pictures showed the industrial centers, a steel plant and car factories, as well as logs being floated down the river near her town.

Showing a landscaped, modern rest home, Anna commented, "Sweden has one of the highest taxed people, but we have more social help."

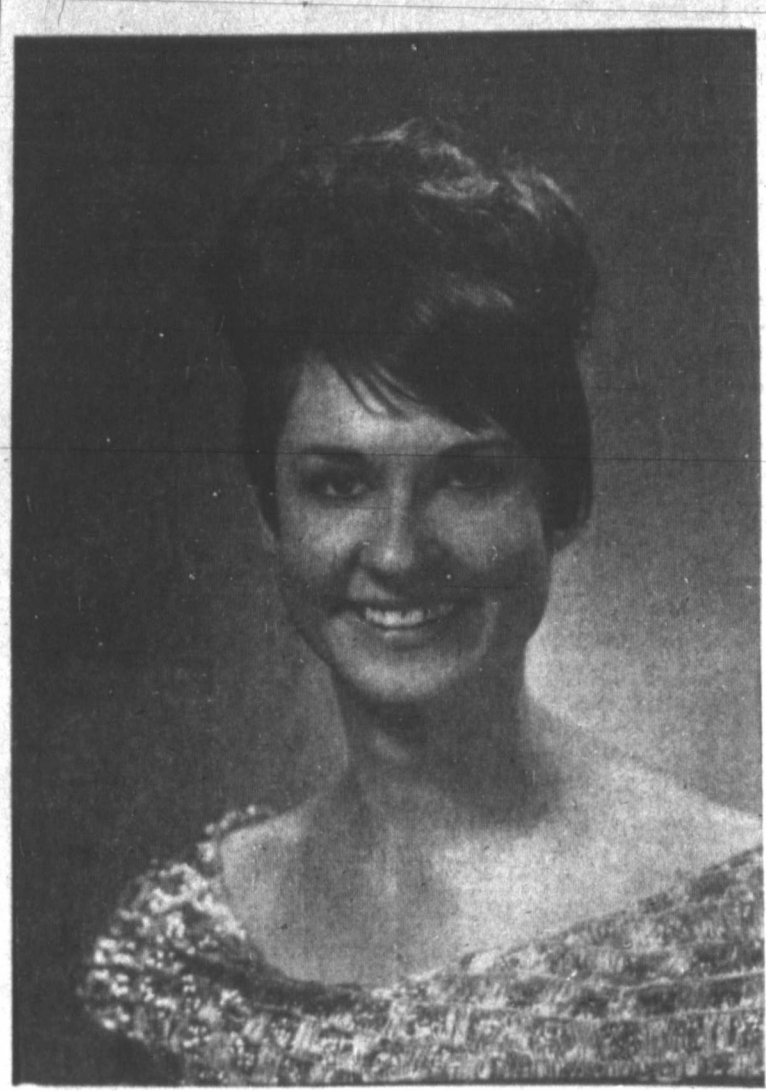

Many of the pictures depicted traditions, amusements, and customs of the Swedish people. Outstanding were scenes of skiing, Christmas trees, Nativity scenes, and the Mid-Summer Festival with the Maypole, the decorated flagpoles, and people wearing their native costumes.

Anna completed her presentation by modeling her native dress.

The meeting ended with the singing of the official Delta-Kappa Gamma song led by Mrs. John Vantine.

Assisting Miss Pool as hostesses were Mrs. W. L. Parker and Mrs. Aubrey Jones.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: John and I have been married for seven years and I think I have a problem.

When we were first married, John decided that he wanted to go back to the university and get his B.A. degree, so I agreed to continue to work and support us so he could. John got his B. A., then decided he wanted a Masters, so I agreed to continue to work until he got that. Well, right after he got his Masters, he wanted his Ph. D., so I agreed to continue working.

I've supported both of us for seven years now. I will be 28 on my next birthday and would like to quit my job and have a family while I'm still young enough.

John could easily get a teaching position at the university and support us both, but he now says he's "out of the mood" of having a family, and he does not want me to quit working. I am at the end of my rope, and any comments would be appreciated.

DISTRESSED

DEAR DISTRESSED: Part of the problem is your reluctance to look John in the eye and tell him what is on your mind—or else why would you be writing to me? If necessary, practice in front of a mirror, and learn how to say (convincingly), "Look, Baby, I have had it with the working. Let's YOU support US for a change!"

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 24-year-old "m a n" who has gone with a girl for four years, tells her she is "perfect" for him, and then balks at giving her an engagement ring? It is not the money because he is in business for himself and can well afford it.

He says an engagement ring is only a "symbol," but if I am so insecure that I need a "symbol" to be assured of his love for me, he will give me one — on the condition that I don't tell anybody.

I am about ready to throw in the towel. Can you help me?

FED UP

DEAR FED: Any "man" who would offer a girl an engagement ring on the condition that "she doesn't tell anyone," is a little boy grown tall. A 4th tell Junior that an engagement ring symbolizes that "THIS GIRL IS SPOKEN FOR" — so why the big secret?

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) - Use more diplomacy and tact at home instead of being so belligerent or you can add to instead of dissipate difficulties there. Concentrate on being more efficient in the days ahead. Then all goes smoothly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) - Making sure you get out to religious services is wise. Then you can communicate much better with those around you. Don't have contact with today. Talk over future plans and see how they can be really worked.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he, or she will be by nature a very practical-minded person so be sure you impart the finest religious, ethical doctrines so that the big ideas here can be brought to their fullest expression. Washington Window Consumer Credit Week Will Be Observed Here

By WILLIAM THEIS
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Even in this year of surprises, it will startle many people if 90-year-old Sen. Carl Hayden does not shortly announce he is giving up his Senate seat for an Arizona sunset retirement.

If he does, his seat of power as chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee will go to one of two veteran Southern lawmakers. Hayden entered Congress when Arizona became a state in 1912, serving as its first representative. He reached the Senate 15 years later, in 1927. He now is Senate president pro tempore and the dean of Congress. But his real strength is in the appropriations chairmanship. Two 70-year-old Southern lawmakers stand on the committee rungs immediately below him, and each heads another important committee. The first decision would have to be made by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee, who ranks next to Hayden on appropriations. Most Senate observers believe Russell, whose term runs through 1972, would give up his cherished military post to Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., and take over the appropriations chairmanship. Stennis now heads the Russell panel's preparedness subcommittee. If Russell for any reason should pass up the prize, Hayden's successor would be Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La. And this would be a blow to liberals concerned about funding future programs dealing with the urban crisis, ghetto rehabilitation and equal opportunity for Negroes.

Russell is a conservative and a Southerner. He is the Dixie bloc leader in the Senate, but his stance on racial matters reflects the moderating pattern of his own Georgia.

Ellender, chairman of the Agriculture Committee, reflects the less flexible racial feelings of the deep delta country.

Outspoken, he commented on the assassination of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. that he was "not surprised" because the leader of the Negro non-violent movement had been intruding into situations where he didn't belong.

If fate should put Ellender into command of the appropriations committee, another Southerner, Sen. Spessard L. Holland, Fla., would become agriculture chairman.

It's all part of the seniority system, under which long-lived southerners whose nominations have been tantamount to election, move almost effortlessly to the top.

LINE OF DUTY

THE LIGHTER SIDE Riot Control

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two weeks or so ago there were 11,000 troops on riot duty at the D.C. National Guard Armory.

This week the entire armory was given over to an industrial arts fair staged by Washington public school students.

I was told that if I paid a visit to the fair I would find something reassuring in the contrast. And I did.

At one exhibit, students were operating an offset printing machine capable of turning out 9,000 government forms every hour. That made me feel better about the future in America.

Paperwork is America's first line of defense. Without it, the great republic probably would crumble overnight.

Students Of Paperwork
According to Sol Silverman, director of the graphic arts program in the local school system, about 4,000 students are learning to operate high-speed duplicating machines, which are the backbone of the federal government.

Upon graduation from high school, many of them will be skilled enough to go right into government paperwork production. This is important.

Figures I obtained from the A.B. Dick Co., a duplicating machine manufacturer, show that the government buys about 2,650,000,000 sheets of paper a year.

Training school kids to operate the machines insures that the nation will never collapse because some of those 2,650,000,000 pages remained blank.

Beyond that is a reassuring sociology factor. Many of the students are products of the ghetto, whose inhabitants feel alienated from the American mainstream.

Part of Mainstream
If there is anything that represents the American mainstream it is paperwork. When children of the ghetto are engaged in paperwork output they are bound to feel a part of the mainstream. It gives them a sense of identification, of belonging.

This, I might add, is more than mere theory. Silverman said the dropout rate among students learning to run duplicating machines is very low.

It occurred to me that perhaps paperwork also could be used in riot control. Instead of confronting looters with weapons, police would hand them a 5-page federal form to be filled out in triplicate. When it comes to numbing the human body, a 5-page federal form, in triplicate, is even more potent than nerve gas. If the plan worked, it wouldn't file clerks.

Consumer Credit Week has been proclaimed in Pampa by Mayor Pro Tem Joe Taylor.

The special observance, sponsored by the Consumer Credit Executives of Pampa, is in salute to an American method of financing consumer goods.

Mayor Pro Tem Taylor's proclamation follows:

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, there has grown into our way of life a method of financing consumer goods, known as consumer credit, and

WHEREAS, such credit is the basis of the great economy of this nation, and the same should be so recognized,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA, that the week beginning April 28 and extending through May 4, 1968, be and the same is hereby proclaimed CONSUMER CREDIT WEEK, and everyone is urged to look into their present credit status and take advantage of consumer credit as it is afforded to them and wisely use their credit and thus be able to pay their bills promptly and at the same time be able to purchase and use consumer goods as may be needed and desired.

Actress Marian Moses Adds Class To Movie Screen Scene

By DICK KLEINER
NEA Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Hollywood can always use a little class, and we've got us a girl these days who has more class than the inner circle at Vassar. Her name is Marian Moses and she makes Princess Grace look like the check-out girl at the supermarket.

MARIAN MOSES takes a break with Peter Lawford on the set of "Buena Vista, Mrs. Campbell." Hollywood types rate Marian as the lass with the most class since Princess Grace left the movie world.

Why should this be? She had money—her grandfather started a small company named Standard Oil—and she had gone to the finest schools and she married a rising young advertising executive and she was very much in love and had four fine sons.

So she played tennis—one year she made the Wightman Cup team—and raised her family and gradually found herself growing disenchanting with high society and its narrowness.

That disenchantment, was, she says, one reason why her marriage broke up. "My husband," she says, "measured success in the number of clubs he belonged to, I felt otherwise."

At 30, then, she was at loose ends. She lived in Pasadena at the time—she was born in Pittsburgh, but grew up in New England and considers herself a New Englander—and perhaps the proximity to Hollywood is one reason she thought of acting.

Another reason is probably because she had a mirror, and could see that she was certainly more beautiful than most movie queens. She is tall, blonde, blue-eyed, and her features are assembled in a way that smacks of elegant sexiness.

It wasn't easy, becoming an actress at what, in Hollywood, is considered an advanced age. She went to many classes, studied with several coaches, consulted agents and managers and producers. One of the latter chased her around his office in that time-honored tradition, but it wasn't he who gave her her first part.

That break came on a Bob Hope Chrysler Theater on television, and from then on things went swimmingly. Today, she can have her pick of television parts—and she averages one every other week—and just shot her first pilot.

The movie career came slower. Her first was "Dead Heat on a Merry-Go-Round," in which she had a sizzling love scene with James Coburn. Her next was the soon-to-be-released "Buena Vista, Mrs. Campbell," filmed in Rome, and she found herself in the middle of a bunch of temperamental females on that one.

Gina Lollobrigida, Shelly Winters, Lee Grant, Janet Margolin and Marian were the woman involved. Producer-director Mel Frank was she says, "too nice" and didn't assert himself. The result was that the ladies screamed and yelled to get the good close-ups.

"At first," Marian says, "I was very ladylike. But when I found I was not visible in some shots where I should have been, I decided to do something about it."

"I was always very athletic, and I had been taught to fight and come out a winner. So I felt I ought to fight in this situation, too. I began crying a little."

That fearful tactic worked. She has her share of close-ups and, possibly as a result, she now has her first movie lead. She's been signed to co-star opposite Jerry Lewis in his next, "Hook, Line and Sinker."

Marian Moses seems headed for a successful career. Whether she is also successful in living remains to be seen. Her sons—who range from 15 to 8—are the centers of her life. She rarely dates, and says that one reason is because the men she likes seem to be frightened off by the size of her family.

"I think women should be allowed two husbands," she says. "One for her children and one for herself. The men I seem to prefer are not particularly good father material."

Santa Fe Income Shows Increase In First Quarter

TOPEKA, Kan. (SpI) — "First quarter of 1968 consolidated net income for Santa Fe Railway was $16.5 million or 22 per cent higher than the $13.5 million earned last year," Ernest S. Marsh, chairman of the board, told stockholders at the 73rd annual meeting last Thursday in Topeka, Kan. Net income per share of common stock was 61 cents for the first three months compared with 49 cents in 1967.

"Improvement in earnings," Marsh said, "are attributable to several factors. Transportation revenues reached a new record high of $170.4 million compared with $165.9 million in 1967, an increase of 2.7 per cent. An eight per cent increase in freight revenue reflects not only the general rate increase of approximately three per cent last August and use of higher capacity cars, but also an increase in freight carloadings of some 9,000 cars, or 2.4 per cent over the first quarter of 1967."

Although wheat shipments rose 17 per cent during this period, total grain loadings were off 16.8 per cent resulting from substantial declines in carloadings of sorghum, corn and other grain. Commodities showing increases included cotton, chemicals, motor vehicles, vehicle parts, canned goods, forest products, coal and coke.

"Improvement in net income also reflects," Marsh said, "concentrated effort on the part of management to improve efficiency of operation and to enforce strict cost control measures enabling expenses to be held to $141.3 million, slightly in excess of the $140.7 million expenditures in the first three months of 1967."

Dallas Museum Is Establishing Major Collection

DALLAS (UPI) The Meadows Museum at Southern Methodist University, is making a comeback and establishing a major American collection of Spanish art, director William B. Jordan said today.

Algur Meadows, Dallas millionaire and museum philanthropist, had previously spent $500,000 on paintings that proved to be worthless fakes.

Since then, the museum has bought only from reputable dealers, Dr. Jordan said.

The museum's latest acquisition is "Immaculate Conception," painted by a leading Spanish painter of the 17th century, Valdes Leal.

The Meadows Museum already has important works of Murillo, Velazquez, and Zurbaran.

Murillo's "Jacob Placing the Peels of Laban" was painted by the master in the 1660s. It is a dark pastoral scene, heavy in browns, although the background is airy. The large canvas is a religious work showing a part of Jacob's life.

The museum also houses modern Spanish art, such as Joan Miró and Juan Gris, contemporaries of Picasso, Miró's "The Circus" is a whimsical painting with splashes of blue, red, and yellow focusing on a seal balancing a ball in a surrealist circus. Gris is represented by his "Cubist Landscape" showing buildings and trees in browns and greens, in intersecting planes.

In rebuilding the collection, the museum will continue to emphasize Spanish works, Dr. Jordan said.

There is volleyball, basketball, trampolining, shuffleboard, ping pong, pool, swimming, mats for tumbling, wrestling, tetherball and many other quiet games. There is also a juke box with dancing allowed to the records. This would be a good time for church groups, Boy or Girl Scouts, school organizations, R. A.'s or G.A.'s and other clubs to come out and really have some group fun. The more people the better because you can play all the team games. Of course individuals are invited to come and join in the fun as well as all the families.

The cost for this fun night is free to Center members, 35 cents for those under 12 and 50 cents for those 12 and above. All sponsors are invited to come with their groups free of charge. You need not have a reservation, but we would like to know when you plan to come so give us a call.

TEEN DANCES—Parents and teens are reminded that the Center is not sponsoring the teen dance on Friday night. This was brought about by the lack of interest in coming to the Center dance caused by another dance being held outside town on the same night. Pampa can not support two teen dances in any one night.

I know a lot of parents have become interested in what they can do to revive the Center dances. If you are one of these interested parents, why not give us a call and if enough are interested we might plan a new program.

SWIM LESSONS — The Center is currently enrolling persons in the April and May swim sessions as well as the summer vacation sessions. Several classes are being offered and these are sure to be one you would be interested in.

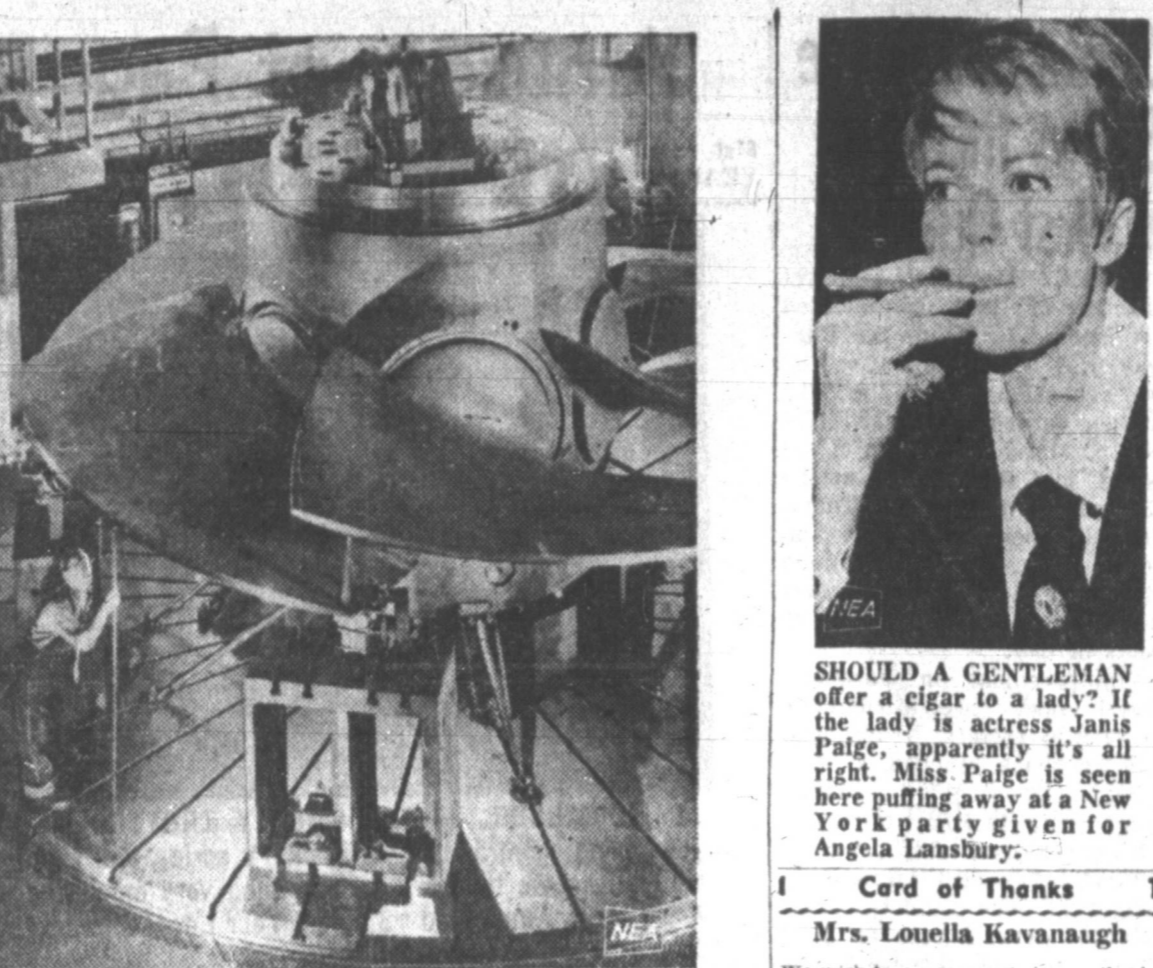

The Center uses the Red Cross swim program which includes beginners, advanced beginners, intermediates, swimmers, junior life saving, senior life saving, and Water Safety Ins. courses. The Center has added an additional class for pre-beginners called polywogs. This is for youngsters 4-6 years of age not in school and who measure 33 inches to the chin.

Enrollment for these classes is free to Center members (member ships are available) or $4 to non-members. All classes are taught by Jackie Marlar, our water safety instructor. The schedule is:

May 13-29
4-5 p.m.—Beginners
5-6 p.m.—Swimmers
June 3-14
9-10 a.m.—Polywogs
10-11 a.m.—Adv. Begns.
11-12 a.m.—Beginners.

Enrollment for the summer Red Cross learn to swim program is May 16 at 1 p.m.

MEMBERSHIPS — The Center is used through a participation plan whereby memberships are sold. These memberships are sold below actual cost so that everyone can afford to participate.

—FOREIGN NEWS COMMENTARY— Portugal's Prime Minister

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

It was 1928 when Antonio de Oliveira Salazar took over as the "good housewife" of Portuguese finances and 1932 when he became prime minister.

This week end he will mark his 40th anniversary in high public office and on Sunday will observe his 79th birthday. It will be without fanfare, for the nonsmoking, nondrinking Salazar holds to the credo that "my purpose is to be useful, not to please."

Salvation Army Girls Attend Amarillo Rally

Pampa's Salvation Army had 18 girls participating in the semi-annual area Girl Guard and Sunbeam rally in Amarillo Saturday. Capt. and Mrs. Jess Duncan, directors of the Army here, accompanied the girls.

Capt. Doris Fizer, state girl guard and sunbeam director, was in charge of the rally and will speak in the services at Pampa's Salvation Army at 6 p.m. Sunday, Capt. Duncan said.

These are the three colonial provinces with a total area of nearly a million square miles and a population of more than 12 million of whom only 500,000 are white. At heavy cost among the three, Portugal maintains some 120,000 troops.

Portugal has turned down all United Nations resolutions against its African territories. For Salazar, the international organization is the instrument of big powers.

Supports U.S.
Fiercely anti-Communist, Salazar joined NATO at the beginning and is a resolute supporter of U.S. action in Vietnam.

At home, he considers absolute freedom synonymous with anarchy and democracy as a fiction.

But so strong is his personality, that even should his successor be a liberal, it is considered that he must follow the broad lines of Salazar policy, especially in the overseas provinces.

Portugal's stake in Africa are high. The African territories contain oil diamonds, iron, copper and other minerals awaiting only development. But Portugal is the poorest country in Europe with a per capita income of only about $400.

But Salazar is not impervious to change. Portugal's greatest new six-year plan envisions the expenditure of more than a half billion dollars in agriculture alone, and a rise in per capita income to $600.

Carr To 'Get Tough' With Crime

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series of on-the-spot reports on the campaigns of the major Democratic candidates for governor.)

By DAVID ANDERSON
United Press International
Democrat Waggoner Carr, aiming straight at the gut reactions of whites who are fearful of Negro violence and crime in general, moved into the final stages of his carefully planned campaign today with his resources well conserved.

Carr said the riots which followed the murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. "were a big asset to us," and said "I feel pretty sure there will be more before the election."

Everywhere he goes, Carr presents "crime and violence" as the No. 1 issue of the campaign and Waggoner Carr as the No. 1 crime fighter in the field.

What He Said
On his radio question-and-answer show in San Angelo Wednesday he said:

"The No. 1 problem of Texas is crime. There is not a wife, not a girl, not a mother, in this state who feels she can walk the streets at night without being in danger of some act, some bodily harm, from the criminal element that has increased so much recently.

"You mothers, I want to make the playgrounds safe for your children.

"You women, I want to make the streets of Texas safe for you.

"Waggoner Carr is going to make these streets and playgrounds safe for you, particularly you ladies and children."

Turning specifically to rioters, he said, "We have been treating them with kid gloves. It's disgusting to me. It is time to get tough.

Private Citizen First
"I am going to put the lives and property of you law-abiding citizens above those of the rioters. I am not going to put any limitation on what we might do.

He repeated essentially the same refrain Wednesday in Snyder, Big Spring and Abilene, and before the campaign is over he will have presented it on 56 radio stations in every area of the state.

Carr, 48, former attorney general, is using radio more than any candidate since W. Lee (Pass the Biscuits Pappy) O'Daniel 30 years ago.

Fielding spontaneous questions from listeners can be risky, but Carr is a smooth, experienced professional.

Open for Questions

In the liquid tones of a tobacco auctioneer, he begins his show by giving the telephone number, and inviting the listeners to "ask Waggoner Carr anything you want to."

Then he launches into his ad-lib speech while he waits for a few calls to accumulate. In San Angelo that took 25 minutes, in the last month, while some of his opponents spent nearly all of their money early.

Carr carefully held back until the last month, while some of his opponents spent nearly all of their money early. He said he now has all of his advertising schedule for the rest of the campaign bought and paid for.

As attorney general, Carr involved more than 100,000 high school students in his "attorney general's youth conference on crime," and now he has lined up more than 2,000 graduates of that program to ring doorbells on his behalf.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

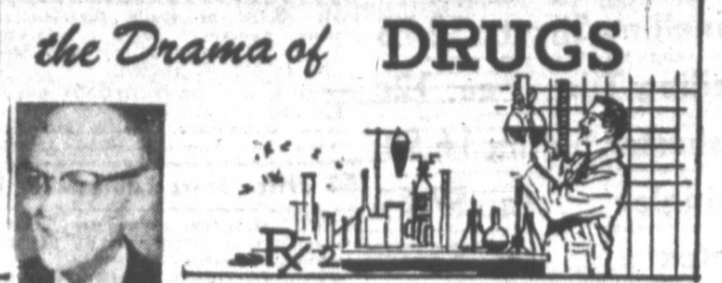

The Oral History Research Office, originated at Columbia University in 1948, collects on tape the memories and views of the great and near-great men of our time, notes The World Almanac. Taped interviews with people who have influenced ideas and events give to the historian another primary source with which to illuminate contemporary history.

the Drama of DRUGS
By Joe Tooley
A person has to be careful these days to avoid laying out money for vitamins he doesn't need, and this goes for food supplements, too. The American Medical Association prepared the following list of the general requirements for a daily food supplement.

Vitamin A-2500 to 7500 U.S. Pharmacopoeis (U.S.P.) units, Vitamin B 1 (thiamine)—0.8 to 2.4 milligrams (mg.), Vitamin B 2 (riboflavin)—0.9 to 2.7 mg., Vitamin B 6 (pyridoxine)—1 to 3 mg.

In the best American tradition, Richard Drug has 5 complete departments operated by skilled personnel: Prescription, Prosthetics, Camera, Cosmetics, Hearing Aid. Depend on each of them.
