US Space Lab To Study Sun

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—The United States today launched a space lab carrying a record 25 experiments to report on the sun's increasing radiation threats and cosmic wonders.

The satellite, an Orbiting Geophysical Observatory (OGO) resembling a giant dragonfly, was headed toward an egg-shaped orbit expected to reach one-third of the way to the moon.

Its job is to examine the hazards and mysteries of earth's space environment at a time when radiation-producing flares on the sun are intensifying. Besides endangering moon-bound astronauts, solar radiation influences such down-to-earth things as weather and radio communications.

Chart Forces

measure gases in earth's upper atmosphere, look into the northern lights sky displays over the north pole and listen for puzzling radio noises from the planet Jupiter.

The 1,347-pound satellite carries more experiments than any other automated spacecraft. It is the fifth in a $224 million series of six, and its big payload is said to give intense scientific effort to taxpayers "more science for the dollar."

A smaller satellite designed solely to monitor the sun's radiation outbursts is set for launch Tuesday from Wallops Island, Va. Its results will be combined with OGO's to aid the intense scientific effort to develop a radiation warning system for Apollo astronauts.

OGO 5 left earth at 7:06 a.m. CST on the space agency's last Atlas-Agena rocket.

Communists Attack 12 American Vietnam Bases

Province Capitals Also Hit in Raids

By EUGENE V. RISHER

SAIGON (UPI) — Communist forces today attacked 12 American bases and four provincial capitals in the third coordinated nationwide attack in 33 days, according to military reports.

Military reports said the predawn attacks packed less punch than the Jan. 31 and Feb. 18 urban offensives but included the destruction of a village, the harassing of U.S. bases from the northern border to the Mekong Delta in the south and the shelling of the American Navy hospital near Da Nang, where five patients and two other persons were injured.

Shortly before the guerrillas lunged after midnight, U.S. Marines scored one of their greatest recent triumphs under the North Vietnam border where they estimate 50,000 Communists are poised for a record offensive. The Leathernecks reported killing at least 157 Communists in battle near their border bastion of Con Thien, at a cost of two Marines killed and eight wounded.

Allied spokesmen said smaller American jets for the third day in a row bombed the Red River harbor facilities near the North Vietnam capital of Hanoi Sunday. Navy pilots reported hitting only 1.8 miles from Hanoi's center, blasting a convoy of 20 trucks.

"When our first bombs hit there was a great red flash," said Lt. (j.g.) Harry M. Lane, 23, of Navato, Calif., after returning to his carrier. In South Vietnam, where allied troops reported killing more than 46,000 Communists in a month of repulsing urban attacks, manpower losses plus (See PROVINCE, Page 3)

Yarborough And Smith Coming To Pampa Tomorrow

Two of Texas' Democratic gubernatorial hopefuls will be in Pampa tomorrow for chats with party leaders and voters.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith of Lubbock will be first on the scene for a reception in his honor between 2 and 2:30 p.m. in the 31st District courtroom of Gray County courthouse.

An hour and a half later, at 4 p.m., a coffee is scheduled for candidate Don Yarborough, Houston attorney, in the Cibola Room at Coronado Inn.

Both affairs are open to the public.

The lieutenant governor will come to Pampa after stopovers in Spearman, Canadian, Perryton and Wheeler. From here he will go to Panhandle, Borger and Claude.

Yarborough will arrive in Pampa from Amarillo. In addition to the 4 o'clock reception, he is expected to attend the annual Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders banquet at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in Coronado Inn.

A third candidate for Governor, Secretary of State John Hill of Austin, stopped off in Pampa for a short time this afternoon to meet with local campaign workers. He stated he was on a swing through Panhandle towns and communities.

Committee Says Crash Land Reforms Needed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House committee says a crash land reform program is necessary in South Vietnam if the countryside in the largely agricultural nation is ever to be made secure from the Viet Cong.

Based on its past record, however, the Vietnamese government is unlikely to start a meaningful system of redistributing the land in the near future, the committee said.

In a report released Sunday the House Government Operations Committee was harshly critical of American officials in Vietnam for "uncertainty and indecision" on land reform, adding that the thrust for an aggressive new policy must come from Washington.

In another section of the report, the committee criticized the lack of "cooperation and commitment" by the Saigon government in handling U.S. economic aid.

Even with military victories over the Viet Cong, the committee warned, pacification of the countryside would be difficult unless land reform was started immediately.

The report said that since 1962, the Vietnamese government has acquired no land for the land reform program and only limited distribution of government-held land to the peasants had taken place. At the same time, however, the Communist guerrillas were operating their own land reform system that was winning them the allegiance of the peasants. Under these circumstances pacification will be difficult to achieve unless military victories over the Viet Cong are accompanied by immediate and meaningful efforts in the field of land reform," the report said.

"Unfortunately, the record of the past 14 years provides scant basis for the hope that the government of South Vietnam will institute a meaningful program of land reform in the near future."

The report brought strong dissents from Reps. John S. Monagan, D-Conn., and L.H. Fountain, D-N.C., who said the majority failed "to place its findings and recommendations in the proper context of a South Vietnam shattered and buffeted by war."

Pampan Receives Top Honors In Top O' Texas Swine Show

Mike Buck of the Pampa FFA took top honors this morning in the swine division to climax morning activities at the first day of the six-county Top O' Texas Livestock Show and sale being held in Recreation Park.

Buck's 230-pound heavyweight Poland China — also the breed champion — edged out Clyde Ketchem's 194-pound Hampshire lightweight for the grand championship. Ketchem, of the Carson County 4-H Club, had the Reserve Grand Champion.

Breed Grand Champions and Reserve Champions were shown by Mike Buck, Pampa FFA, and Brad Snell, Pampa FFA. Poland China: Jim Reeves and Eddie Wilkie, both of Pampa FFA, Durac Jersey: Clyde Ketchem, Carson County 4-H, and Buddy Dickinson, Canadian FFA, Hampshire: Gordon Davis, Pampa FFA, and Tommy Gibson, McLean FFA, Chester White: and James Meaker, Panhandle FFA, and Jim Royce, Pampa FFA, cross-and-other breeds.

Judges for the 150-entry Swine Division this morning was Eural Liner of Lubbock. This afternoon's activities started at 1:30 p.m. with judging of steers. There were 75 entries in this division. The judge was Dr. Don Pinney of Oklahoma State University. Tonight's main event will be the Junior Exhibitors Barbecue dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Show Arena. Prizes and special awards will be presented. The barbecue is open to the public at $1.25 per plate. The Top O' Texas Rodeo Association will host the barbecue.

The FFA Livestock Judging Contest is slated for 9 a.m. Tuesday. At 5 p.m. tomorrow the annual FFA Livestock Judging banquet will be held in the Pampa High School Cafeteria. Awards will be presented and results of the livestock judging contest will be announced. Speaker at the banquet will be Dr. George Hurt of the TEA Vocational Education Dept. Oil From Tanker Threatens Beach In Puerto Rico

SAN JUAN, P. R. (UPI) — Crude oil oozed from a broken vessel loaded with 7.5 million Liberian tanker into San Juan Harbor today, threatening the beaches of the Puerto Rican capital's resort gold coast. U.S. officials planned to attack the slime with a cordon of chemicals.

Teams of specialists gathered to try to lay the chemicals around the doomed halves of the 578-foot Ocean Eagle. The gallons of crude oil split in two Sunday in pounding seas at the reef-ridged entrance to the harbor, a historic graveyard for ships. All 35 crewmen were rescued without injury.

Prevailing tides normally would take the slimy, black oil out to sea, rather than eastward along the coast, but the unusual turbulence of the seas Sunday and again today, pushed some to shore.

The 12,065-ton Ocean Eagle, plight recalled the fate of the supertanker Torrey Canyon that went aground March 18, 1967, on Seven Stones Reef of the southwest tip of England. Most of the 119,000 tons of crude oil spewed into the sea and was washed up on beaches on England southern coast and in France.

The U.S. Coast Guard ordered the port closed Sunday. Patches of black oil appeared on the beach of the luxurious Caribe Hilton Hotel, about two miles east of the wreckage.

Bomb Threat On Plane Only Hoax

MIAMI (UPI) — A Bahamas Airways jet with 40 persons aboard returned to Miami International Airport minutes after takeoff today when authorities were warned a bomb might be aboard.

But after examination of the plane and about 85 pieces of luggage, the Metro Bomb Squad said no explosives were found and the plane was "secure."

Martin Hamson, Federal Aviation Administration tower chief, said the four-engine plane landed nine minutes after it took off, and the passengers and crew scurried to the ground.

Passengers assisted in the search of their luggage. The plane, Flight 304, took off from the airport at 7:34 a.m. CST en route to Freeport.

President Flying Back For Consultation on Copper Strike

RAMEY AIR FORCE BASE, P.R. (UPI) — President Johnson today wound up his first weekend rest trip outside Texas and was flying back to Washington to deal with the nation's marathon copper strike.

Aides said Johnson scheduled a 3 p.m. (CST) meeting in the White House on the seven-month long strike and was expected to send Congress a health message.

There were indications his plane might make a surprise stop between Puerto Rico and Washington. Also the wreck of the tanker Ocean Eagle in San Juan harbor, with its oozing oil threatening the island's "Gold Coast" resort beaches, added uncertainty to presidential travel plans. Johnson has been away from Washington since Friday. He visited the Houston Manned Spacecraft Center in Texas, hopped to nearby Beaumont for a visit to an old folks home and spoke at a fund-raising dinner with fellow Texans.

Saturday he flew to Marietta, Ga., where he officiated at the "rollout" of the world's largest aircraft, Lockheed's CSA Galaxy military transport, and made his unannounced flight to this base.

Within 15 minutes of landing, Johnson had marched onto the golf course. After two less than Arnold Palmer swings, Johnson won cheers from bystanders with a clean drive down the 297-yard fairway. He ignored rain. But darkness forced him off the course after three holes. The President played a leisurely 15 holes

Sunday with his son-in-law, Patrick Nugent. His wife and his daughter, Luci Nugent, babysat with grandson Patrick Lyndon Nugent, during the golf game which followed the family's attending Roman Catholic church service. The Nugents are Catholics.

Before golf, the President watched his heaviest bombers in a ground alert exercise complete with nuclear bombs.

The President inspected the rubber raft, 22-caliber rifle and other gear of a P52 Stratofortress crew's survival kit. Then he drove — at the wheel of a white convertible — to the flight line where six late "G" model B52s — more modern than those stratoforts seeing action in Vietnam — and six KC135 refueling tankers were parked.

TO RIOT REPORT

Citizens' Reaction Diverse, Confused

By DAVID SMOTHERS
UPI Senior Editor

"It will be accepted because so many people are tired of the threat of violence."

"A lot of speeches will be made and some promises, but no action. There probably will be more riots this year and then everybody will say "it's too late. Let's arm ourselves and kill them before they kill us."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate voted today to cut off its session-long civil rights debate and begin voting on a compromise bill including a federal ban on housing discrimination.

"It took 10 years or more to get the rights bill we have now and something like this will probably take to the end of the century."

"Maybe if we all got guns and shot at each other for a few summers it would get rid of the deep-seated hatred."

These were the voices of a Negro city council member in Oklahoma City, a white housewife in Rensselaer, N.Y., a middle class Negro in Buffalo, N.Y., and a white steel mill foreman in Rensselaer.

They are Americans trying to decide what a 250,000-word tome called the report of the President's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders — The Kerner Report for short — means to them and their neighborhoods.

United Press International reporters asked what people thought of the commission's warning that massive action and money is needed now; that white racism is largely to blame for the ghetto misery; that police should use restraint in facing rioters.

The answers received were as diverse and contradictory as America. These trends emerged: — Most white persons interviewed were willing to concede that racist prejudice and suppression have helped breed riot conditions, although few were willing to exempt Negroes from blame.

— Many were willing to pay more taxes if for no other reason than to keep the ghettos quiet; but there were strong reservations against such commission proposal as increased welfare benefits and a guaranteed annual wage.

There was widespread suspicion among both white persons and Negroes that major changes or sweeping legislation will not result from the Kerner report. The last consensus — if it is that — may be the most significant in light of the commission's insistence on immediate and sweeping action.

A large number of the persons interviewed — from southern whites who damn the report as a trouble maker to ghetto Negroes eager for change — simply did not seem to feel that a crash program is in the cards.

Some said the country is not ready for it. Some felt the nation could not, or should not, spend the billions necessary until the Vietnam War is over. Some shrugged off the Kerner report — named for Illinois Gov. Otto Kerner, who headed the advisory commission — as a political ploy aimed at the Negro vote in an election year.

One of these is Alfred D. Mannani, a San Francisco butcher who felt the report "is just another one of those things they have spent a lot of money putting together and will put somewhere in the bottom drawer."

R.M. Chamberlain, an insurance salesman in Pittsburgh, saw matters much the same way: "I expect the federal government to throw a little sugar around here and there, but basically there will just be a lot of talk."

Jack F. Osborne, a Nashville, Tenn., salesman, agreed, but for widely different reasons. He called the report "a license to riot" and said "I think most people in the white community have lost any faith in the federal government and its policies...they distrust any report issued by any governmental agency."

Death Toll Is Light in State

By United Press International
A comparatively light weekend violent death toll was dominated by other than traffic fatalities for the first time in many weeks this weekend.

A United Press International count that began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended midnight Sunday shows at least 25 persons died violently in Texas over the weekend.

Nine of these deaths were attributed to homicide, and a like number died in auto smashups. Two deaths were reported due to fires and two miscellaneous deaths were recorded.

An unexpected snowstorm contributed to an auto accident which took the lives of three near Marathon Sunday. Guadalupe Barrerra, 8 months; his grandmother Mrs. Cruz Silva and Mrs. Edith Zahlen of Long Beach, Calif. died in that two-car collision on U.S. highway 90.

Houston was the scene of at least five murders this weekend. A two-car collision near Avinger, Tex., killed three persons and critically injured five others Sunday night.

Killed in that collision were Raymond Menefree, 47, of Naples, Tex., Sallie Marie Bolton, 19, of Dangfield, Tex., and Tilton Humphrey, 21, of Atlanta, Tex.

Six Burglaries Reported in Area

Six burglaries were reported over the weekend to Pampa police and the Gray County sheriff's office.

The Gray County sheriff's office also reported that a 1962 International pickup, owned by International Harvester here and left at the station to be serviced, was believed to have been taken by the same person who committed the burglaries. Four tires, valued at $34.95 each, were also reported missing.

An undetermined amount of money was taken from the Price Rd. Phillips 66 service station at Price Rd. and Alcock St. The money was taken from a cigaret machine after burglars had gained entry by breaking in a door. The burglary occurred between 12 p.m. last night and 7 a.m. this morning, when it was reported.

Burglars also took an estimated $5 from another cigaret machine at another station at 210 E. Brown St., after gaining entry by breaking out a window in the rear.

An estimated $182 worth of beer and cigaret machine change was taken in the burglary of the A-OK Lounge at 219 Tng Ave. Twenty cases of beer and $14 in change from the cigaret machine was taken.

A burglary at the Continental Panhandle Trailways bus station netted someone $241 and a bus ticket. Entry was gained through an apparently unlocked rear window.

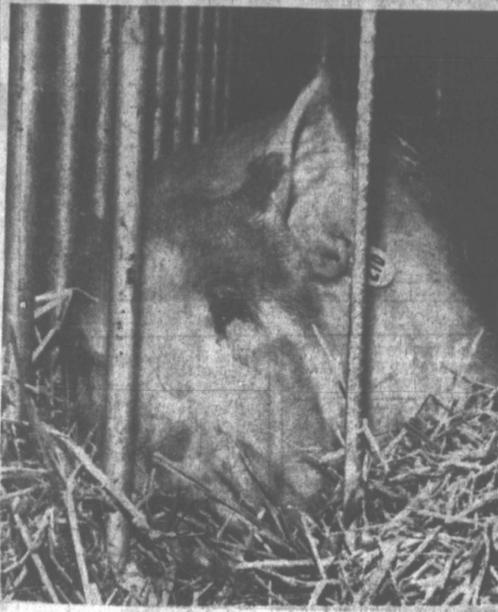

The Owl Liquor Store, 108 E. Craven St., also reported a burglary last night. Someone gained entry through the east door, breaking some glass and prying back some tin which served as a barrier. The burglar got away with an estimated $10.15 dollars and possibly some liquor.

The Baker School, 300 E. Tuke was burglarized with several windows being broken, but nothing was taken. Police said that there was no money to take.

Cheer up. Even Tarzan mis-times a leap now and then.

And don't give up on your school work. We've made it possible for many shut-in students to attend classes even though they're confined to bed. Our school-to-home service is the answer. It's a two-way communications system that lets the student speak and listen to anyone in the classroom.

It's helped many a bright youngster through some pretty gloomy confinements.

After all, we've had years and years of practice in developing phone arrangements for special problems. We offer phones for hard-of-hearing people, blind people, people who can't use their hands—phones so kids in bed can be in school. We'll be glad to tackle your problem, too. Just call the telephone business office.

Maybe we can help.

Frazier Vies With Mathis Tonight For World Title

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Frazier meets Buster Mathis for a share of the heavyweight title and Emile Griffith risks his middleweight crown against Nino Benvenuti in the first boxing contests in the new Madison Square Garden.

Buster Mathis

The four fighters were expected to weigh in at 11 a.m. today in the Garden arena without any incidents, but several black power groups and the W.E.B. Dubois Clubs of New York have promised to throw a picket line around the Garden tonight to support Cassius Clay's claim that he still is the heavyweight champion.

It took four years, a promise that the bout would be recognized for the heavyweight title and guarantees of $250,000 to arrange the meeting between Mathis and Frazier, and the match became a center of controversy as soon as it was announced.

Before the match could be made, Frazier, who gets $175,000 compared to $75,000 for Mathis, demanded that it must be called a heavyweight title bout, and the commissions of four states—New York, Massachusetts, Maine and Illinois—agreed to recognize the winner as champion.

The World Boxing Association has a bout scheduled next month between Jerry Quarry and Jimmy Ellis for its version of the title. Illinois, however, a member of the WBA, agreed to recognize the Frazier-Mathis winner as champion. Frazier refused to join the WBA tourney and Mathis was uninvited.

Mathis, of Grand Rapids, Mich., beat Frazier twice in the amateurs and has all the physical advantages—four inches in height, three inches in reach, nearly 40 pounds in weight.

However, Frazier, whose 19-0 record includes 17 knockouts and wins over Oscar Bonavena, Eddie Machen, George Chuvalo and Doug Jones, has a reputation as a puncher, and apparently that is enough for the oddsmakers to make him a 2-1 favorite.

Griffith, who lost the middleweight title to Benvenuti in April last year and regained it five months later, is a 7-5 favorite in their rubber match.

The Italian challenger, who held the junior middleweight title, has a 73-2 record. Benvenuti 27, used his speed and jab to win the middleweight title, but he couldn't cope with Griffith in the rematch.

Determined Bunch At Madison Garden

By STEVE SNIDER
UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UPI)—They're a determined bunch over at the new Madison Square Garden.

Among other things, they're determined to correct a glaring omission in the Garden's gaudy history by crowning their first heavyweight prizefight champion of the world. Well, a piece of the world, anyway.

No challenger ever lifted a heavyweight title in the old Garden, the old, old Garden or even the old, old, old Garden. In 12 title fights, the old champ always won.

That proved to be only a minor problem for the brainpower that conceived, financed, built and operates a $120 million business-sports complex including the bright new Garden.

If challengers always lose, how about two challengers? Barring a draw—and perish the thought—somebody's gotta win when "challengers" Joe Frazier and Buster Mathis collide over 15 rounds for the heavyweight championship of a world bounded on the east by New York, Massachusetts and Maine and then skipping out to Illinois.

There are two other worlds in boxing. In one, the winner next month between Jimmy Ellis and Jerry Quarry will be recognized as champion. In the other, the dethroned Cassius Clay still reigns if only in the eyes of his adherents.

However, the Garden finally will have a champion of sorts and that's important to get the new joint off on a happy footing.

The odds say perpetual motion Frazier will be their boy, disposing of 245-pound

Mathis one way or another. Neither has lost a pro fight. Mathis beat Joe twice when they were amateurs but Joe's pro record, including victories over George Chuvalo, Doug Jones, Eddie Machen and Oscar Bonavena, is the more impressive.

Frankly, trying to pick a winner is like figuring a horse race for 4-year-old maidens, hoping to sort out which one is the least slow.

We'd pass such a horse race and we'll skip Frazier-Mathis until the "book" on either one or both grows a little fatter.

And if Buster, himself, grows fatter again you can throw him away along with his book.

No heavyweight championship fights were staged in the old, old, old Garden but in the old, old place Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey both were 1-0 in title defenses.

In the old Garden, recently shuttered in favor of the glittering new palace some 17 blocks south on Eighth Avenue, Joe Louis went 8-0, Ezzard Charles 1-0 and Clay 1-0.

The closest any champ ever came to a Garden fall was Louis against Jersey Joe Walcott on Dec. 5, 1947 when Jersey Joe put Louis down on two separate occasions and still lost the decision.

The other big one in the Garden's opening boxing show has middleweight champion Emile Griffith going against Italy's Nino Benvenuti. They're 1-1 in previous bouts. Emile should make it 2-1 but with heavyweights in the wings and going for a piece of the world title the middleweight show-down is only for a select group that really cares.

Red Heads In Town Today

The All American Red Heads—World champion girls basketball team will be in Pampa to play the Pampa coaches at 8 p.m. in Harvester Field House tonight.

Playing first class basketball and entertaining sports fans with their skilled basketball wizardry, laugh provoking antics and acts, the Red Heads as always are America's Favorite Basketball performers.

This year's team is rich in championship tradition, steeped with a sports prestige that is privileged to so very few organizations—The All American Red Heads team of 1967-68 is as American as apple pie.

"How They Play The Game" will be the Red Heads' theme as they entertain thousands across the sports world this current season.

ACC Takes Title; NCAA for Trinity

By United Press International
Ablene Christian won the championship, but Trinity's invitation to represent the Southern Conference in the NCAA College Division playoffs was a very attractive consolation prize.

ACC's Wildcats, who were co-champions in 1966, sacked up the title last Tuesday night with a 96-83 defeat of Arkansas State in a game postponed from Jan. 9 when winter weather disrupted travel.

The Wildcats finished with a 6-2 league record, but were only 11-13 for the season and the NCAA committee pitched Trinity, which was runnerup at 5-3 in loop action, to meet Jackson (Miss.) State in the regionals at McNeese State in Lake Charles La., March 8-9. Trinity had a 19-6 overall record.

In the only other action involving a league team last week, the Texas-Arlington Rebels knocked off highly-ranked Pan American 108-105 and then beat West Texas State 100-92 for a 6-19 mark.

TONIGHT

Cougars Visit Walling's Buffs

By United Press International
Only West Texas State stands between the Houston Cougars and a perfect 28-0 regular season and apparently a cinch No. 1 national collegiate basketball ranking.

Coach Guy Lewis' Cougars swept past Hardin-Simmons 105-82 and Virginia Tech 120-79 last week for their eighth and ninth 100-point plus performances in a row. They have won 27 in a row this season and 28 dating back to the final game last year when they won third place in the NCAA championships.

They are averaging 99.1 points per game to the opposition's 70.6 and seem a good bet to roll on towards a return match against UCLA, now No. 2, in the semifinals of the NCAA Championships at Los Angeles in late March. They will play Loyola of Chicago in the NCAA Western playoffs at Salt Lake City next Saturday.

At Canyon
But, first to wrap up an unblemished regular schedule they must beat West Texas Monday night at Canyon. The Buffs, now 10-10, lost 78-77 to New Mexico State and 100-92 to Texas-Arlington last week.

Houston's Elvin Hayes scored 51 points against Virginia Tech to push his season total to 1,008 points—a 37.3 point average.

In other games last week, Pan American wound up a 21-5 season by losing to Texas-Arlington 108-105, but will be playing in the NCAA College Division tourney at Lake Charles La., next week end; Texas-El Paso beat Colorado State 79-67; Hardin - Simmons broke even against New Mexico State by winning 91-89 after losing 73-60, and North Texas State beat Wichita 91-79 after losing to St. Louis 74-71.

In addition to the Houston-West Texas game, Texas-El Paso is at Seattle Monday and at home to Arizona State Wednesday and North Texas closes out at Memphis State Tuesday.

Wheatley Picked To Take State

By United Press International
Houston Wheatley, Conroe, San Antonio Cole, West Sabine and defending champion Kennard probably will be the favorites when the 22-team Texas basketball tournament opens its three-day run Thursday at Austin.

Wheatley is the only undefeated survivor with its 36-0 record since Conroe knocked out Clear Creek, the only other possibility, 69-63 in a regional battle Saturday night.

AAAA — Odessa Permian (23-11), Dallas Jefferson (34-4),

Wheatley (36-0) and San Antonio Brakenridge (30-3).
AAAA—Lubbock Dunbar (28-5), Lake Highlands (29-8), Conroe (33-3) and Seguin (23-12).

AA — Colorado City (20-10), Mexia (26-7), Kirbyville (31-6) and San Antonio Cole (37-4).
A — Aspermont (27-5), Italy (24-6), West Sabine (30-1) and Louise (27-5).
B — Darrouzett (26-7), Lueders-Avoca (35-3), Prairie Valley (32-6), Kennard (41-2), Friend (28-3) and Bronte (29-2).
Wheatley and Dunbar will be the first all-Negro teams to play in the TIL tournament.

Coach To Speak This Evening

Swede Lee, Pampa football coach and athletic director, speaks before the regular Monday night meeting of the Optimist Club at the Black Gold Cage at 8:30 p.m. tonight.

Lee will talk on the over all picture of sports in the school system in Pampa. Lee says he plans to begin spring training as late as possible—probably the first week in May hoping to get in 18 workouts before final exams.

Lee commented that he was greatly impressed with the reception that he and his family received on arriving in Pampa last week and was pleased with the feeling of the people in Pampa in regard to their seeming to want a well-rounded sports program here.

Pampa Chosen To End Fourth

Monterey was picked by the Amarillo Daily News and Globe-Times pre-season poll of coaches to finish in first place in the District 3-4A baseball race with the Pampa Harvesters, who won the first game of the infant season last Friday by 11-0 over Canyon, picked to end the 1968 season in fourth place.

The Harvesters are playing their second game of the season tomorrow at 4 p.m. against Borger on the road. Coach Bobby Stephens was pleased with the Harvesters' hitting last Friday with Alvin Achord coming out in his first week to hit two homers and pitcher Alan Woodward hurling a one-hitter against the Canyon High team.

The Plainsmen led the voting with 93 points to Tascosa's 86, grabbing seven first place ballots to the Rebels three. Lubbock, which was picked fifth, drew the other first place vote.

After first week action Monterey, Pampa and Borger boast unbeaten records with Caprock, Palo Duro and Tascosa the only District 3-4A teams yet to see action.

Monterey, defending champions, drubbed Lubbock Dunbar, 21-1, Friday and swept a twin bill from Odessa Permian, 3-1 and 7-5, Saturday.

Only Amarillo, which lost to Dumas (6-5) Friday, is idle Tuesday. Other records of loop teams are Plainview (0-1), Lubbock (2-1) Coronado (1-2) and Lubbock Estacado (1-2).

In the annual poll a first place vote counted 10 points, second place nine points, third place eight points, etc. Monterey won the title with a

Frogs Won But Not on Road

By United Press International
Texas Christian won only two games on the road all season long, but the ones they did win—their first and last in league play—were the keys which carried the frogs to their first Southwest Conference basketball title since 1959 in Coach Johnny Swaim's first season.

The Frogs, who were listed along with Texas and Texas A&M as the chief challengers to pre-season favored Texas Tech, beat the Aggies 81-77 in two overtimes in their first road outing of the league race. They then closed out the regular schedule at Baylor last Saturday night with a 72-65 defeat of the Bears.

In between, they lost by a point to Texas and Arkansas, by four points to Rice, by seven to SMU and by 18 to Texas Tech on the road. But, they were the only club to win every game at home and that combination showed them out front at the end with a 9-5 record to 8-6 for Baylor, Texas and the Aggies, 7-7 for Arkansas, 6-8 for Rice and 5-9 for Tech and defending champ SMU.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy; it is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Womanpower Overlooked

Sometimes it seems that women are getting into virtually every profession and occupation in considerable numbers. Some male alarmists even purport to "think women are going to drive the men out."

Statistics in the professions are revealing: Only 7 per cent of our doctors are women, only 3 per cent of our lawyers, only 3 per cent of our pharmacists, and a skimpy less than 1 per cent of engineers. Even in teaching, though women predominate in the schools only one in five members of college and university faculties is a woman—about the same percentage as in 1910.

Sensing The News

By THURMAN SENSING

Threat to a Free Press

The right of the American public to know what is going on in the world of crime is basic to the protection of good order in the nation. If Americans are denied the right to know all the facts concerning arrests, for example, they will be unable to have a true picture of criminal activity and how their communities are endangered.

Unfortunately, the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association has taken action that seriously impinges on the right of the free press to gather facts and on the right of the people to know. At its recent meeting in Chicago, the ABA adopted new rules of conduct for lawyers and new procedures for judges.

Under the new ABA rules, it would be unethical for a prosecutor or a defense lawyer to tell newsmen anything about a pending case except the barest facts regarding a defendant's identity.

For example, a lawyer would be forbidden to cite a defendant's arrest record or previous convictions. He could not disclose whether a person charged with a crime had made a confession. No information could be released on the results of police tests administered. Nor could data be released on witnesses.

The ABA also recommended that police departments adopt similar restrictions. And judges are urged to employ contempt powers to enforce the restrictions on the police and lawyers. In addition, the news media would be barred from pre-trial hearings and from portions of a trial held without the presence of a jury.

There is terrible danger in these recommendations, which were approved by a vote of 176 to 68. The way would be cleared for prosecutors to hold proceedings that were virtually secret in nature. Police officials could conceal arrest information that would be politically damaging to officials.

The public would be deprived of information concerning dangers in its midst. The ABA rules represent a giant step in the direction of abolishing the historic freedom of the press which has been a powerful instrument in protecting the liberties of the people.

The House of Delegates of the American Bar Association has a right to make whatever rules it pleases for its own members—up to a point, that is. The cut-off point is where such rules deprive the public of necessary information and threaten the open nature of the American court system. The ABA has no writ of authority to trespass on the public's right to know through the agency of a free press. The United States Constitution, and the Constitutions of the 50 states, do not give the ABA authority to issue rules that have the force of law or that tend to cause violations of constitutional freedoms.

What the ABA rules suggest is a new form of censorship over the press. This point was made in forceful manner by one of the ABA delegates, Frank N. Bratton of Athens, Tenn.

"I do not believe," said Mr. Bratton, "that the courts should ever assume censorship over the press, because whenever the courts are allowed a censorship in any form, this will be our first step in the loss of our liberty and freedom of the press."

The proposed ABA restrictions are all the more unjustified in view of the rise of criminality in our country. The United States faces a grave crime problem, with many forms of violence threatening public order and with organized crime taking a stronger grip on our cities. In addition, there is the growth of drug-peddling on college campuses as well as in towns and cities. This crime, if it is to be eliminated, should be subjected to close scrutiny by the free press. The American people need much more information on crime and criminals, not less.

The U.S. Supreme Court has made it extremely difficult to convict law-breakers. As a result, many criminal types virtually laugh at law enforcement agencies. Now, if the ABA succeeds in depriving the public of information that only the news media can furnish, the criminal element in this nation will have won a great victory. If the press may not escape all the available facts on lawbreakers, the hoodlum element will have vastly greater opportunity to tyrannize American communities. Clearly, the House of De-

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper functions of government which will not insure answers.)

QUESTION: If Mr. R. C. Holles (co-publisher of The News) believed all these years that tax-supported schools were so bad, why then did he allow his children and grandchildren to attend them? Leo Westmyer, Santa Ana, Calif.

ANSWER: Mr. Holles says, in the first place, he is not responsible for where his grand children go to school. Also, he did not dictate to his sons and daughters which schools they would attend. Mr. Holles often has said that he continues to learn through the years, and that at one time he believed he could use political action to correct a bad situation in a political field, such as schools. He even worked to get rid of objectionable textbooks in the schools, but found the only result was adoption of books that were as bad as or worse than those he succeeded in getting removed.

Q. 2: If bond issues are as bad as your paper says, why then has the Santa Ana Register from time to time supported such bond issues as the California water plan (the biggest bond issue of all time) and local water bond programs?

ANSWER: Since The Register believes in the users paying for services received, and since those in charge of promoting the state water plan bonds and the Santa Ana water expansion bonds, guaranteed that the bonds would be retired from sale of water to the users, we gave our qualified endorsement of those bond issues.

We believe we should point out, however, that we contended in all the advance planning for the state water project that if the governments would get out of the water business, such projects could be handled better by private enterprise.

It must be remembered that when the government, local, state or federal, once invades a business field, it is nearly impossible for tax paying regulated private businesses to compete with the non-tax paying socialist businesses. So our effort is to get people to see that if government gets in a business venture it should charge the full cost of service to the users. This makes the business less objectionable than one which is subsidized by taxation.

Future of Soviet-U.S. Cultural Exchange Program in Question: It Could Be Junked

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Russia is playing hard to get in negotiating a new cultural exchange agreement.

Whether this stalling is for bargaining purposes or the real aim is to junk this ten-year-old program is still unclear. The last (fifth) two-year pact expired Dec. 31. But while the U.S. has expressed desire to continue cultural exchanges and offered a draft accord, Moscow has maintained tightlipped silence.

The Soviet embassy here, which is handling the matter, says it has no instructions and doesn't know if any will be forthcoming. There are indications an effort is being made to convey the impression that Moscow may do nothing and quietly let the program sink into limbo.

Russian stalling on this is not new. Only one of the five agreements was negotiated by the Dec. 31 deadline. The last wasn't signed until March 19, 1966, nearly three months late.

Embassy officials gloomily attribute the current delay to U.S. involvement in Vietnam. From the obviously propagandistic tenor of their comments, it would appear that if no new agreement is reached, they are set to put the blame on the Vietnam war. It would be a made-to-order alibi for them.

which is distributed in the U.S., goes begging although selling at the bargain price of less than $2 a year. Of the 60,000 a month Russia can publish under the exchange agreement, less than half are disposed of.

Chief reason for SOVIET LIFE's lack of popularity is its obvious, heavy-handed propaganda. Technically, it's a well-turned-out magazine, with numerous color illustrations of landscapes, cities, mines, plants housing projects and stalwart young men and women.

The Soviet resorts to every possible excuse to make trouble for the U.S. magazine. Several years ago, an issue with a United Nations anniversary cover was barred on the astonishing ground that it was an affront to Red China — with whom the Soviet is presumably at vehement odds. But the Kremlin indignantly held that the cover picturing the flags of all UN members insulted Red China because one of the banners was Nationalist China's.

The U.S. embassy in Moscow was notified the U.S. Information Agency, which publishes AMERICA ILLUSTRATED, could not distribute that number. USIA didn't argue. It returned the 60,000 copies to its printing plant in Beirut and replaced the protested cover, at a cost of $6,500. The issue was then rushed back to Moscow only two weeks late, and promptly sold out, much to the pained discomfiture of the Kremlin which had expected it to be junked.

This January, a youth edition drew instant furious squawks from high Soviet officials, Pravda and other leading publications. There was nothing they could latch onto to block the magazine, so they excoriated it as an attempt to mislead and pervert Russian youth.

Pull Up A Chair

By FRANK JAY MARKEY

Beware the Ides of March. That ain't a bad idea now that all the people in state and local governments have decided its O.K. to tie up everybody with strikes.

The garbagemen are striking. The teachers are striking. And it won't be long before over the country you will see the policemen, firemen, clerical employes and welfare workers striking.

And what they are doing when they strike is the same as what the rioters are doing. They are defying the law. They are obeying only the laws they like, not the law that applies to them.

Why is this happening. Well, the AFL-CIO union has started a drive to collect 1 million dollars for a "militancy fund." This is so they can aid the union officials who are sent to jail for breaking the laws under union sanction.

Civil Service was organized because it gave a life tenure, vacations, sick leave and pensions. It has always been the principal of government that public employes may not strike or decide which law they can flout.

These people who are advocating the upholding of Democracy, even teaching it in schools, are not upholding it at all. What they are doing is throwing out democracy and replacing it with Anarchy.

They are rioting against the people. They are just changing the looting of stores and homes for the looting of people's pockets.

Somehow or other history manages to repeat itself. Back in the days when the elder Henry Ford was building Tin Lizzies he enlisted the services of William Knudsen to help create his automobile business. Knudsen contributed in a large measure to Ford's success, but eventually yielded to a better offer from General Motors, Ford's competitor. There, his genius made Chevrolet the nation's No. 1 car in the low-priced field. A few weeks ago Henry Ford's grandson and namesake induced Knudsen's son, Semon, to leave General Motors and become president of the Ford Motor Company. Incidentally, the younger Knudsen is known to his friends as "Bun-ky," an appellation that would never fit his father.

Today's smile: A pretty blonde entered a dress shop and asked the manager: "May I try on that blue dress in the window?" The manager replied: "Go ahead. It may help business."

We recently came across a new word "turophile," which means "cheese lover." We've been enamored of Swiss, roquefort, cheddar and many other varieties of cheese since childhood, but until now no one has ever dubbed us a "turophile." We couldn't find the word in any of our four dictionaries, so it's possible it's one of those new words that keep cropping up and eventually find their place in our language.

Thoughts while shaving: The average temperature of the earth's atmosphere has dropped since 1960, according to the National Center for Atmospheric Research, reversing the trend before that time. The temperature now is what it was in 1850 and the scientists tell us that the temperature shift is equivalent to moving the frost line about 100 miles south. Just thought you'd like to know. . . . You're really getting along if you can remember when New York's Park Row was the home of the Big Town's newspapers.

At one time the TIMES, the TRIBUNE, the SUN, the HERALD and the WORLD were neighbors there. Today there are only three dailies in widely separated locations. . . . Don't know how they figured it, but it's estimated there are more than 700 million in unpaid doctor's bills in the U.S. That's hard to believe with the various forms of health insurance we have now. . . . Something else that's hard to believe is the story that the average railroad diesel locomotive will consume enough fuel on a 200-mile run to heat the average-size home for a full winter season. . . . Ever hear of an early American can opener? Well, we saw one the other day in a shop that specializes in reproductions. That made us wonder because our ancestors didn't need can openers because there were no cans to open. Canned foods are strictly products of the 20th century. In Grandma's day they used to do fall "canning" when fruits and vegetables were plentiful, but they stored them in Mason jars to be used during the winter. Today, hardly anyone can identify a Mason jar. . . . The Baltimore (Md.) SUN headlined a story: "Daily News Writer Wins Washington Post." Don't tell us they're raffling off newspapers now!

Country Editor speaking: "The only guy who can dictate to women and get away with it are the fashion designers."

Wit and Whimsy
Rachmaninoff told in New York a story about his boyhood. Rachmaninoff — When I was a very little fellow, I played at a reception at a Russian count's, and, for an urchin of seven, I flatter myself that I swung through Beethoven's "Kreutzer Sonata" pretty successfully.

The 'Kreutzer,' you know, has in it several long and impressive rests. Well, in one of these rests the count's wife, a motherly old lady, leaned forward, patted me on the shoulder, and said:

Countess Maria — Play us something you know, dear.

A bachelor girl is one who's hunting for a bachelor.

Changes Made In Top Management Of Celanese Corp

Celanese Corp. announced Saturday in New York City the resignation of Harold Blanke as a director and as chairman of the corporation.

John W. Brooks, president of Celanese since 1965 and a director since 1961, was named chief executive officer.

Charles C. Parlin, a senior partner in Shearman & Sterling, New York attorneys, and a member of the Celanese board of directors since 1949, was elected chairman of the board of directors.

Earl Baldrige, a director of Champlin Petroleum Co. and chairman of its executive committee, was elected a vice chairman of the Celanese board of directors.

Blanke, who is 63, will continue in the employ of Celanese, rendering consultant and advisory services.

Petrochemicals' Impact On Building Industry Grows

By FRED LANKARD United Press International From door knobs to prefabricated bathrooms, petrochemicals are having a greater and greater impact on the building industry.

The Imperial Oil Review, in a study of petroleum uses, states that "the building industry is probably the biggest single customer of the petrochemical industry."

The Canadian publication cites estimates that up to 30 per cent of all petrochemicals produced go into building materials.

Research has turned out such items as building blocks to be laid with a rolled-on adhesive. An office building has been built with glass-reinforced plastic and aluminum walls that weigh only 11.5 tons compared to 612 tons for the conventional brick and plaster walls.

Thin sheets of plastic foam are being used as insulation and when sandwiched by a stiff outer skin have shown sufficient strength for use in self-supporting roofs.

Conventional caulking compounds may eventually be replaced by a petroleum-derived caulk that can retain its flexibility up to ten times longer.

The widespread use of delicate, prefabricated dwellings protected by a huge plastic dome is not expected in the near future, but experts in the field see a steady growth for this phase of the petrochemical industry.

The most immediate impact is expected to be in the mass production of low-cost housing components based on petroleum-derived products. Assembly line production of large plastic building components is seen as the only way over the next 25 years to reduce the research and development costs of the components.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband passed away about four months ago and left me with two children, both in high school. His best friend (a bachelor) consoled me in my grief. I really don't know what I would have done without him. We lost our heads and now I am pregnant. I was told after my last child was born that I couldn't have any more, so I can't imagine how this happened.

Anyway, this friend says he loves me, but he doesn't think it would look good if we got married so soon after my husband's death. If I wait a full year that will take me into next NOVEMBER, and the baby is due in SEPTEMBER, so what should I do? Please don't give me a moral lecture. I KNOW how wrong this whole thing was, but it's too late now. Help me.

WIDOW IN TROUBLE DEAR WIDOW: If this friend intends to marry you, the sooner the better. It won't look "good" no matter what you do, but the longer you wait, the worse it will look.

DEAR ABBY: I have a very dear friend who lives in a distant city. We've been close friends since our school days together.

Recently she wrote saying she would love to visit me. I would love to have her, but Abby, I saw her briefly four months ago and she had her five-year-old son along who was a holy terror. Either she cannot—or will not—control him. Worse yet, she won't let anyone else correct him.

If I tell her that she is welcome but to please leave her son at home, I'm afraid it would end our friendship. On the other hand, I just cannot see myself putting up with that child. What would be the best way to handle this?

PERPLEXED DEAR PERPLEXED: I'm afraid you will have to put this where small matters are concerned. Benefits accrue in a m. Be sure to keep promises made.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20)—Realize that others are in a strange sort of mood in a hot later you can gain your finest aims easily. Talk over your ambitions with partners. Then confer with some expert in business matters.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23)—You get some fine idea in a m. that helps you to advance in quickly. However, be sure to follow all rules that apply to you in p.m. Morning misadventure that is helpful. Don't take any adverse chances later.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23)—There is much potential in some project you have started with a partner. You are grateful how. Then put new ideas to work. You can clearly see what is best system to get plans working efficiently.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21)—During a m. you can reach a fine agreement with a new associate, but don't try to be too close with your partner later. Be honest.

Crall Elected To Suppliers Group

Crall Products, Inc. has been elected to membership in Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association, H. R. Safford, Jr. executive vice president of the association announced in Houston.

Crall Products, Inc., headquartered in Pampa which maintains facilities in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Illinois, Colorado, Wyoming and Canada, manufactures rod clamps, paraffin scrapers, rod hangers and other well accessories. President of the company is E. A. Hickman.

Petroleum Equipment Suppliers Association is composed of approximately 140 firms representing 85 per cent of the total oilfield equipment manufacturing, service and supply industry. Its member companies operate throughout the Free World.

Teachers' Strike Suspended Today

By United Press International The first teachers' strike in San Francisco was suspended today pending study of demands for educational reforms, but in Pittsburgh, Pa., and Florida talks aimed at ending strikes staggered and stultified.

The San Francisco teachers, who struck and closed the system Friday, agreed late Sunday night to allow special mediators to consider their demands involving curriculum improvement and class size.

The agreement ending in suspension of the strike came at a meeting with Mayor Joseph Alioto, who bluntly told California Supt. of Public Instruction Max Rafferty to keep out of the dispute. Rafferty had said he would consider revoking the striking teachers' credentials.

Pennsylvania Labor and Industry Secretary John Tabor presided over talks in Pittsburgh Sunday—the first talks since 1,000 members of the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers walked off the job last Thursday.
