Scanning New Books

By JOHN SELBY

Vincent Sheean's "Sanfelice" is probably the book of the week, for those who want to make choices such as that. But there will be those who believe Mr. Sheean and his publishers both are getting the cart before the horse in what they say of the novel.

For "Sanfelice" is a historical romance with a tragic denouement, and should be read as such, and not as an expression of Mr. Sheean's "problem of revolution conceived as the violent acceleration of historic processes." This seems obvious; there is a school of historiographers which will not even admit that there are historic "processes," to them there is only chaos. They can pretty well prove their point, too, as readers of Charles A. Beard's "The Discussion of Human Affairs" will know.

"Sanfelice" is the story of a woman of the upper classes who through tricks of poverty and a chance meeting at a hall finds herself in love with a lawyer's clerk and in the end the unwitting apex of the revolutionary movement in the Naples of 1799. It is difficult to see in this anything but luck, good and bad. Nor does Mr. Sheean explain himself in the book any more convincingly than outside it.

But as a historical novel, "Sanfelice" is tops. The portraits of Sir William and Lady Hamilton, of Lord Nelson, of Queen Caroline, are extraordinarily lifelike. Some of the proletarian characters do not fare so well, but what matters that in a romance? Readers of Sabatini may not care much for Mr. Sheean's latest, but readers of Dumas will.

Talmadge Asks Smith to Line Up With Him

ATLANTA, June 22. (AP)—Governor Eugene Talmadge, new deal critic, today urged Alfred E. Smith and other unged Democrats to "line up with me on my plan to fight the new deal and Roosevelt within the Democratic party."

The Georgia executive made it plain he did not intend to bolt the party ticket.

"I am a party man," Talmadge said, banging his fist on his desk. "I am opposed to Roosevelt being the nominee of the party."

"I am opposed to new deal policies. I think I've been of great assistance to the American people in bringing cases to the Supreme Court in the name of the State of Georgia in order to defeat certain new deal policies."

"But I want it understood that I am in the Democratic party and there to stay."

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, June 20 (AP)—After threatening to punch Dr. Rexford Guy Tugwell, New Deal "brain trust" member, in the nose, Rep. Eugene Worley had another thought.

"I wonder how big a man Tugwell is," he mused. "But no matter. Regardless of size, I'll take a swing for the honor of the Texas Panhandle."

Worley objected to a motion picture made by the Rural Resettlement Administration depicting scenes in drought-stricken areas of the United States.

"It's a libel on the greatest section in the country," he said.

Rep. Harold Hankamer of El Paso, smallest man in the legislature, is opposed for re-election, he said, by R. W. Page, nearly seven feet tall.

"I hope to whittle him down to my size and get most of the votes as usual," Hankamer said.

His district is the 90th and includes part of El Paso and all of Hudspeth and Culberson counties.

W. W. Bridgere, a member of the 28th and 29th legislatures, is running, unopposed, for a full term as representative from the 89th district, Place No. 2. He was elected last February for the unexpired portion of the term of Rep. William Clayton, who resigned to accept a county position.

Directors of the Centennial by resolution thanked Gov. Allred for his services in publicizing the celebration in state and nation.

The resolution noted the value of nationwide publicity was recognized by the setting aside of $500,000 for advertising and said that to back up this fund and produce other publicity excursions of various kinds were promoted.

"To dignify such excursions and obtain desired publicity by the presence of important state officials," it said, "it was frequently necessary to request the governor of Texas to accompany such parties and be the principal spokesman for Texas and the Centennial."

Neither of the Governors Ferguson, James E. or Miriam A. attended the breakfast tendered Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper at the executive mansion by Gov. Allred. They were not invited.

On the other hand, former Governor and Mrs. Dan Moody were invited, although Moody was out of town. No one would comment on the omission of the Fergusons from the guest list.

Others invited included: Bill Yeager, aide to Roper; Former Postmaster General A. S. Burleson; Mayor Tom Miller and Harry Hines, chairman of the highway commission.

MARION MILEY FACES PERIL IN DEFENDING GOLF TITLE

By LOUDON KELLY Associated Press Sports Writer DENVER, June 22. (AP)—Marion Miley, Lexington, Ky., brunette with a boyish bob, faces peril from several quarters in defending her women's Trans-Mississippi golf title this week.

"I've thought of at least eight girls here who will be awfully hard to beat," she said with a smile, "and that isn't counting the dark horses. The field is much faster than it was in the Trans-Mississippi last year."

She was not required to qualify. Miss Miley, daughter of Fred Miley, Lexington, professional, predicted "about 88" would be enough to qualify.

A total of 121 starters were on the official books as the qualifying shooting began at 7:45 a. m. Today's 31 low scorers will be placed with Miss Miley in the titular bracket with match play starting tomorrow.

Dodgers Stop Cubs Winning Streak With Mungo As Hero

Cardinals Defeated Second Straight By Giants

By SID FEDER Associated Press Sports Writer

The peil-mell winning streak of the Chicago Cubs, like all good things, has come to an end, but lingering on is the evidence that Mr. Charley Grimm and company is more than ever the outfit to beat in the National League pennant wars.

After four other clubs had failed, it took the lowly Brooklyn Dodgers, deep in the cellar, to stop the Cubs victory run at 15 straight yesterday, with Van Lingle Mungo cast in the role of Hero.

The Cubs went down fighting yesterday, losing 6-4 in the nightcap of a twin bill on the strength of two three-run splurges by the Brooklyn after Curt Davis had turned in a neat 5-hit pitching job to take the opener 7-2.

By losing the second game, the Cubs missed out on a chance to break into the league lead, for the Cardinals got their "legs" pumped back by Bill Terry's Giants for the second straight day, dropping a 6-4 decision when Travis Jackson's homer with two on sewed up the New York victory.

As it was, the Cubs stayed a half-game back in second place, just Sox in front of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who nosed out the Phillies 7-6 in a battle of homers in which Arky Vaughan hammered out a pair.

A homer also decided the other National League game, with Wally Berger clubbing the four-bagger to give the Boston Bees their series over the Reds with a final 3-2 win.

The Yanks, meantime, were dropping their second straight decision to the supposedly slipping Detroit Tigers, despite Joe Di Maggio's home run. The loss, however, only cut a half-game off the Yanks five-game American league lead, since the second-place Red Sox could not better than an even break in their double bill with the cellar-holding St. Louis Browns, who won the nightcap 6-3, after Wes Ferrell turned in the day's best pitching performance in the opener, allowing but two hits in a 9-0 shutout.

AMARILLO IS 13-4 VICTOR OVER LEFORS

DILBECK HOLDS AMARILLO TO 2 HITS FOR 5 INNINGS

Phillips of LeFors showed Amarillo fans some real baseball for five innings before they cracked and allowed their fellow workmen from Amarillo and Borger to score 11 runs during the last three innings to give Amarillo Phillips a 13 to 4 victory over the LeFors wearers of the green, yesterday afternoon in Amarillo.

For five innings Rex Dilbeck held Amarillo to two measly hits. The left-hander mixed a smoke ball with a change of pace to hit the Parrots swinging wild and often. Roy Winkler received no better treatment the rest of the game.

Hadley went six innings for Amarillo before giving way to Luke Coburn. The two allowed LeFors batters to collect into the sixth one run behind, Manager Frank Mulrooney, in charge of the team for the first time, sent Coburn to the mound to relieve Hadley. The former LeFors hurler not only pitched great ball the rest of the way but started the rally which sent Amarillo out in front.

LeFors infielders booted several balls in the late innings to help the Amarillo cause. Manager Eddie Pulliam called for a long infield workout this afternoon and a finishing practice tomorrow afternoon before the game with the Road Runners on Wednesday night.

DEMOCRATS FLAY AL SMITH AND PALS AS LIBERTY LEAGUERS

BOLT THREAT IS ISSUED BY EX-GOVERNOR

SMITH ASKS 'GENUINE DEMOCRAT' BE NOMINATED

PHILADELPHIA, June 22 (P)—The convening democrats took over the long-time republican citadel today amid predictions by leaders that the national conclave would return a thundering "no" to Alfred E. Smith's demand for the repudiation of President Roosevelt.

One after another, new dealers in command of the situation here stepped forward to denounce Smith or to shake their heads sadly over what they called his mistaken course.

Among the delegates arriving for the convention opening tomorrow, none thus far have risen to support the statement in which Smith and four other anti-new deal democrats called on the convention to put aside Mr. Roosevelt and nominate "some genuine democrat" for president.

To all appearances delegates were bent on answering Smith with a militant pro-Roosevelt rally and platform.

Pending the opening gavel, thousands of delegates and visitors busied themselves with gossip about threats of a party split, making sure meantime of their seats for the first democratic national convention in Pennsylvania history and enjoying themselves.

Chairman James E. Farley's usual broad smile faded when he was asked about the Smith statement. He answered in clipped words.

Smith's Strike Known

"This convention will nominate a genuine democrat, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

Recalling Smith's affiliation with the American Liberty League, Farley said "the objectives and connections of people of this kind are by this time thoroughly well known to every American."

The tenor of remarks by several others prominent in the party was the same.

Invoking the memory of Jefferson, Jackson and Cleveland, the Smith statement issued in New York said that to be true to the democratic party meant "taking the heavy hand of government off business," balancing the budget and ending of dele conditions.

Other signers were former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, Bainbridge Colby of New York, former Governor Joseph B. Ely of Massachusetts, and Daniel F. Cohalan of New York.

"If you fail," they said, "then patriotic voters of all parties will know unhesitatingly what standard they must rally in order to preserve the America of the great leaders of the past."

Allowance for opposition from the Smith sector had been made long since. After his December speech to the Liberty League, those "in the know" never expected him to support a new deal rejection.

Smith For London?

But this overnight summons from the right for a broad bolt against the new deal on grounds of fundamental Americanism, at the precise time when some leftists were organizing behind the third-party ticket of Rep. Lemke of North Dakota, brought up new factors. Did it mean Smith and that veteran stumpster, Reed, would support or campaign for Knox and Landon?

Was it possible to offset that appeal to a degree? Or should commitments on such subjects as farm aid and old age pensions be made explicit with the Lemke-Coughlin-Townsend audience in view?

So ran the conjecture among groups clustered beneath porticos of Roosevelt and Garner in the corridors.

Jammed hotel lobbies and downtown streets, decorations abounding and bands blaring "Happy Days Are Here Again," all told the quadrennial tale of convention fanfare for rank and file. But the leaders, secluded in rooms high above the bufile, had their platform problems to wrestle with.

One question apparently destined to arouse floor debate, the repeal of the hundred-year old rule requiring a two thirds majority to nominate, has now been set for disposition Thursday morning. Some southerners have their dander up on that. The powers-that-be expect to settle it in stride.

Gloss Phrase Adopted

Senator Wagner of New York was expected today from Washington bearing a proposed platform patterned at the White House after the new deal.

The coming of Senator Glass of Virginia today also was looked to for possible developments on the monetary plank. It was his phrase "sound currency" in the 1932 platform that republicans adopted in Cleveland.

Senator Thomas of Oklahoma planned to insist on advocating "a sound currency" backed by silver as well as gold.

Whether to confine the party's platform to broad principles, under such terms as "social pioneering," and "national solutions for national problems," or to make detailed comments was a source of potential controversy.

Secretary Wallace was known to be intent upon production control and crop insurance pledges, for example, but other leaders favored relying basically on past performances to attract the farm vote.

Wagner was understood to have a tentative plank endorsing soil conservation subsidies, rural electrification, encouragement for farm cooperatives, relief of farm tenancy, and foreign trade promotion through trade agreements. Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania wanted endorsement of his bituminous price-fixing bill which lost out in congress.

Whether to favor constitutional amendment to permit regulation of wages and hours was another source for argument. Another was an attempt by Townsendsites to get the platform to endorse their old age pension plan.

Leaders will strive to settle all points in the conference chambers, preventing any arguments from breaking out on the convention floor.

The Smith statement—and the reaction to it—vied with all other leading topics of discussion today.

Addressing themselves to the delegates, the Smith dissenters said "you must preserve the constitution, and under it the three separate, distinct and independent branches of government. To that end you must have a president who will remain within his own sphere of jurisdiction and not make the congress into a rubber stamp or try to intimidate the judiciary into an endorsement of his efforts to turn our republic into a dictatorship on the European model or an Asiatic absolutism."

Opens Tuesday

Much speechmaking and celebrating is scheduled before that point. Farley plans to call the convention together tomorrow at 10 a. m. (Central Standard time) for a brief, routine session at which a welcome will be extended by the republican city administration.

Senator Barkley of Kentucky, in the keynote at the evening session, and Senator Robinson of Arkansas, in assuming the permanent chairmanship Wednesday night, will review the record and call for a redoubled fight to keep the administration at Washington.

The platform is expected to be adopted Thursday evening. The speech nominating the president to be made by Judge John E. Mack of New York Friday morning and the renomination vote probably that night. Vice President Garner's renomination will follow.

In between, to keep the delegates diverted, the arrangements committee and the city have cooperated on an extensive program of entertainment and feasting as ever featured a political gathering.

Visitors from among the 38 democratic governors were the honored guests today. After a dinner by Major S. Davis Wilson, they will be feted at a ceremony tonight in Independence hall. The liberty bell will be tapped in their honor.

Alabama's Reply

To abide by this advice, it was said, would "necessarily involve the putting aside of Franklin D. Roosevelt and the substitution of some genuine democrat—of whom you will have many on your list of delegates."

Governor Graves and Senator Black of Alabama were among the first to speak out against the Smith statement. The former attributed it to "irrepressible egotism of people who won't play the game, unless they can be captain."

"The next thing," said Black, "we will get advice from President Shouse of the Liberty League, followed by the republican chairman. Logically the next will be Landon and Knox."

Senator O'Mahoney of Wyoming said Smith's mistakes dated back to the time when he failed to move to make the Roosevelt nomination unanimous at Chicago.

"The delegates won't ever take a walk—nor will the millions of voters," said Representative Rayburn of Texas.

The embittered disputes of 1932 over the ticket prohibition repeal and abandonment of the two-thirds rule had only a weak echo today in discussions about whether nomination should be by a simple majority hereafter. Determined southerners, liking the veto power over presidential nominations which their almost 300 votes had given that section for so long were ready to argue with controlling leaders on the issue.

rules committee, where Senator Bennett C. Clark of Missouri will wield the gavel. His antagonism to the rule dates back to 1912, when it deprived his father—Speaker Champ Clark—of the presidential nomination at Baltimore. Woodrow Wilson finally won.

Since a simple majority can sweep the rule away, it is expected to be abolished.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL IS VOTED BY CONGRESS

MEASURE IS SENT TO PRESIDENT FOR SIGNATURE

WASHINGTON, June 22 (P)—A victory for senate filibusters was recorded Saturday with final congressional approval of legislation to expand the American merchant marine through direct government subsidies.

With that measure started to the white house for President Roosevelt's signature a senate group which had blocked by hours of talk approval of a conference report on the $99,229,872 treasury-post office appropriation bill, sat smiling while the supply bill was voted.

The speechmaking-aimed at holding up final action on the appropriation measure until the house acted on the subsidy bill—went on for several hours yesterday and last night and threatened plans to adjourn congress by tonight.

It started early yesterday afternoon when the senate passed a substitute to a house ship subsidy bill. The senate measure provided for government grants up to 50 percent of the cost of building vessels. Shortly thereafter, Chairman C. G. (D- Va) of the appropriations committee sought approval of a conference report on the treasury-post office appropriations bill, which included $26,500,000 for ocean mail contracts under the present mail subsidy system.

A number of senators headed by Black (D-Mo) promptly voiced a determination to talk as long as necessary to keep the appropriation measure from becoming law before the house had acted on the ship subsidy bill.

The filibusters, vigorously opposed to the present practice of awarding contracts for transporting mail, feared that if money for continuing it was provided, the house would not pass the subsidy measure.

Under procedure which required a two-thirds vote, the house last night refused, 118 to 83, to agree to the senate amendments. Today however, it approved the senate measure, 225 to 21, with one minor amendment.

Quickly, Senator Glass—who had been awaiting that movement for several weary hours—asked approval of the appropriation bill conference report. That measure was sent to the white house without debate or record vote.

Judge Ewing Tells Hot Weather Yarn

It's been pretty hot in Pampa for several days.

If one doesn't believe it, he has only to listen to the story by Judge W. R. Ewing, of district court.

"Sitting on the bench the other day," said the judge, "I glanced out of the window and saw a dog chasing a cat. Actually, it was so hot—they were both walking."

KITCHENETTE DOOMS MAMMY

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Ample negro cooks of the traditional "mammy" type are giving way to streamlined servants. The municipal bureau noted this trend in an official report. It was explained that the more heroically proportioned women just can't fit so well into the miniature kitchens of many bungalows and apartments.

One Killed, Six Injured in Wreck

CORSICANA, June 22 (P)—One man was killed almost instantly, another is in a dying condition in a local hospital, and six others received minor injuries in an automobile accident on highway 31 two miles east of Corsicana early today. All are WPA workers, residents of Powell, and were en route to a work project when the accident happened.

C. A. Thompson, 56, died a few minutes after reaching a hospital.

D. C. Black, 65, is thought to be fatally injured.

Others receiving minor cuts and bruises about the arms, legs and bodies are:

L. P. Bills, about 45; Frank Ficklin, 45; Bud Ficklin, about 40; Alvis O. Thomas and his father, Albert O. Thomas and Melvin Beckmon.

Others in the truck not injured included Monroe Thompson, George Brown, Walter Robertson and Tom Alford.

The light truck in which the WPA workers were riding was said by Bills to have been struck by a gasoline truck which was driving in the same direction. The light truck was demolished, and the gasoline truck turned over. The gasoline did not catch fire.

It was the seventh highway fatality of the year.

Grant Defeats German Net Ace

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 22 (P)—Bryan M. Grant, tiny mite from Atlanta, made his Wimbledon debut today and eliminated Heiner Henkel, German Davis cup singles ace, 5-7, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, in the first round of the all-England tennis championships.

Grant, one of the world's greatest court-coverers, sprang a surprise in beating Henkel who had been heavily favored by most tennis experts.

His victory sent the Atlanta in to the second round with Donald Budge, of Oakland, Calif., chief American contender, Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, the American champion, and John Van Ryn of Philadelphia, all of whom won in straight sets.

Three other Americans, Gerald Stratford, W. W. Robertson and Hal Surface, were eliminated.

Stratford bowed to the defending champion, Fred Perry of England, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2; Robertson to L. de Borman of Belgium, 2-6, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4, and Surface to Nigel Sharpe of England, 6-4, 6-2, 6-1.

BEGINS FISCAL YEAR

WASHINGTON, June 22 (P)—Administrator Harry L. Hopkins reported today the WPA is ready to begin the new fiscal year July 1 with nearly $4,000,000,000 in approved projects available for the job program.
