Latest Administration Clash
Wallace Hurls Bitter Charges At Jesse Jones

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—In a new clash between major administration figures, Vice President Wallace today accused Secretary of Commerce Jones of "obstructionist tactics" and of harassing the Board of Economic Warfare in the "single-minded effort to help shorten this war by securing adequate stocks of strategic materials."

In a statement prepared for the senate appropriations committee, Wallace, chairman of BEW, also stated that Jones, who heads the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which supplies funds for BEW buying of strategic materials, had created a "false impression" in testimony before the congressional economy committee headed by Senator Byrd (D-Va.).

"It is time to prevent further harmful misrepresentations of this nature," Wallace said, adding:

"Although the president, on April 13, 1942, transferred full control over the programming of imported strategic materials from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the Board of Economic Warfare, which operates under broad directives received from the War Production Board, Mr. Jones has never fully accepted that authority."

"He and his personnel down the line have thrown a great many obstacles in the way of our exercise of the powers given us to carry out wartime assignments. Some of these obstructionist tactics have been minor and annoying and some have been of major consequence in this job of waging total war."

In his statement, Wallace discussed the stockpiling of various strategic materials. He said congress had made funds available for such a purpose as far back as 1939 and that in the number of 1940 the RFC was given funds for stockpiling.

"From the summer of 1940 until well past December 7, 1941," Wallace said, "the Reconstruction Finance Corporation failed miserably, so far as the import field was concerned, to build the stockpiles authorized and directed by the congress nearly eighteen months before Pearl Harbor."

"During this period, of course, private purchasing of imports continued on a somewhat increased scale due to better business, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation entered into various underwriting agreements with some countries under which we agreed to take surpluses if they were not bought privately."

"This seems to us to have been a timid, business-as-usual procedure; at least it was a 'far cry' from the aggressive government stockpiling which the congress directed and authorized so that this nation might have a margin of security in its imported raw materials inventories."

Wallace referred to testimony of last December before the senate banking committee in which he and Milo Perkins, executive director of BEW, "gave evidence of the extent to which he (Jones) had delayed the foreign rubber program and cited specifically his stalling in the gathering of wild rubber in South America and the planting of rubber plantations in Africa and in the planting of cryptogamia for natural rubber in the Caribbean."

He said he was making today's additional statement because "the effort to misrepresent the facts concerning the board of economic warfare has continued."

"There are times when the sense of public duty outweighs the natural personal reluctance to discuss facts of this nature," Wallace said. "This is such a time."

Wallace listed quinine, used in the treatment of malaria, among the strategic materials required. He said that on April 14, 1942, General Douglas MacArthur wired that two million seeds (Far East cinchona bark) of a high grade strain had been brought out of the Philippines and quoted MacArthur as saying the seeds "must be planted without delay."

"I am sorry to have to inform this committee," the vice president said in his statement, "these Jesse Jones and Will Clayton (assistant secretary of commerce and director of the defense supplies corporation, an RFC subsidiary) stalled for months on this program, x x x There are times when what we need is more fights and fewer shortages."

Wallace said a plan to plant the seeds from the Philippines in Costa Rica was worked out by BEW and formally approved by the under-secretary of war October 7, 1942, after RFC officials had acquiesced in the proposal.

On October 10, Wallace continued, Jones notified BEW "the matter requires further consideration" and that these considerations continued for four months. The vice president continued:

"Mr. Jones said that our proposal was post-war planning because of the time it takes for cinchona trees to come to full maturity for profitable stripping. The Fischer trees (Lt. Col. Arthur F. Fischer brought the seeds from the Philippines) couldn't be harvested for 2 1/2 years at the earliest; normally seven years pass before stripping of the bark begins.

"During 1941 Mr. Jones may have felt that this would be a short war in which we wouldn't become involved; in any event he did not buy quinine during that period in adequate amounts for government stockpiles; during 1942 he acted as though the war might be over by 1944 if we can take his attitude toward this quinine project as a criterion. x x x

"As a matter of fact, Mr. Jones may have been considering something else. He takes great pride in the profits of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and some of its subsidiaries, as evidenced by his recent testimony before the Byrd committee.

"If the cinchona trees which we have been discussing have to be stripped after 2 1/2 years because of desperate military needs for quinine, they will yield about 10,000 ounces of quinine—and a $125,000 profit."

County Must Invest $60,000 In A Day To Meet Its War Bond Call

Only a surging drive of patriotism—the type that surmounts all odds when success is at stake—will put Howard county up to its war assignment in the matter of investing in war bonds in June.

There's about $60,000 to go. The month's allotment is $151,870. Issuing agencies Tuesday showed a combined total of $92,178.

That leaves $59,695. And there's one day left in June.

A final appeal came from County Bond Chairman Ira Thurman, who said "We face a big job as we have ever faced since the issuing of War Savings bonds was started. There is only one way to get the job done—and that is for every citizen, young and old—to put every possible dollar into war bonds and do it now. There are a lot of un-filled stamp books that can be filled and cashed for bonds. These should be attended to without delay. There may be dollars set aside for vacations that more properly should go into our nation's war chest. Our country is calling. It is up to each of us to respond."

Kiska Rocked With Six New Air Attacks

'Softening Up' Raids Number 22 In Four Days

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Six more smashing aerial attacks were made against Japanese installations on Kiska Island in the Aleutians Sunday, the navy reported today, and yesterday army planes followed up with a raid against that island and nearby Little Kiska.

In the South Pacific, meanwhile, a navy communique reported, American planes bombed "a small Japanese naval disposition" in the central Solomons but did not observe results. The action appeared to be of little consequence on the basis of a naval spokesman's interpretation. He said that while he did not know the makeup of the enemy force it might have been only a small group such as a destroyer and cargo ship or a squadron of torpedo boats.

Sunday's raids on Kiska raised to 22 the number of separate air actions carried out over that enemy North Pacific outpost in a four-day period.

The attacks against Kiska are regarded as pre-invasion, softening up raids, preparing the way for the amphibious expedition that some day is expected to smash the last Japanese hold on the American island chain.

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Japanese land and sea forces are being slammed with a mounting fury that may well mark the opening phases of a new campaign to drive the enemy farther back in the Pacific.

This became apparent today in the wake of the navy's two latest reports, listing 13 U. S. bomber raids throughout the Pacific and the destruction or damaging of 11 Japanese surface craft by American submarines.

From Kiska to the Solomons heavy and medium bombers sent their bombs crashing onto Japanese air, sea and supply bases.

Their raids came at almost the same time submarine commanders reported sinking six Japanese supply craft, damaging three others and sending a destroyer and mine layer to the bottom during battle cruises in the "Pacific and Far East."

These sinkings brought the totals for Pacific submarine action to 269 Japanese vessels—199 sunk, 29 probably sunk and 50 damaged.

Treason Cases Are Reversed

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—The United States circuit court of appeals reversed today the conviction of six Chicagoans on charges of treason and remanded their cases to the district court for a second trial.

Defendants were Hans Haupt, Otto Wergin and Walter Froehling, who had been sentenced to death in the electric chair, and their wives, Mrs. Frna Haupt, Mrs. Kate Wergin and Mrs. Lucille Froehling, who had each been sentenced to 25 years imprisonment.

They were convicted last Nov. 14, accused of harboring and aiding Herbert Haupt, son of the Haupts and one of the eight Nazi saboteurs brought to the United States in German submarines last spring.

The opinion reversing their conviction was unanimous.

Traitor Due To Hang Early Next Friday

DETROIT, June 29 (AP)—Sometime before dawn next Friday, barring a presidential reprieve, German-born Max Stephan, convicted traitor, will be hanged in the courtyard of the federal correctional institution at Milan, Mich.

Stephan, who aided the flight of a Nazi flier who escaped from a Canadian prison camp in April, 1942, has exhausted his avenues of appeal in the courts. Three times the United States supreme court has refused to review his case.

Cologne, Hamburg Blasted; Italian Port Left In Ruins

Flying Forts Make Trip Of 1,100 Miles

No Losses As City Of Leghorn Shattered With Bombs

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, June 29 (AP)—One hundred Flying Fortresses flying roundtrip more than 1,100 miles smashed the northern Italian port of Leghorn with several hundred tons of bombs yesterday, damaging a light cruiser and four supply ships and creating havoc in oil tanks, railway yards and industrial plants.

The four-engined bombers hammered at the city for nine concentrated minutes, and returned home without loss. Allied headquarters announced.

They created such ruin that an official report said, "five hours after the raid the entire port was still so heavily covered by smoke that accurate inspection of the damage was then impossible."

"Later, however," the report stated, "it was learned that all the storage tanks and an oil refinery were ablaze and that an inner 'inactive' light cruiser and four supply ships in the harbor were damaged. Little opposition was encountered and all the Fortresses returned safely."

(The Italians admitted "very great" damage at Leghorn and said 175 persons were killed and 300 injured.)

Meanwhile American medium bombers and fighters concentrated on airfields in Sardinia, setting buildings ablaze and pounding dispersal areas, and RAF Wellingtons raided San Giovanni near the toe of the Italian mainland.

Photographs of the Leghorn raid showed "one hit and two damaging misses on the cruiser, and picture interpreters also reported many hits on the oil tanks," the official report said. "Also hit by numerous bombs were the railroad lines leading to the marshalling yards and tracks east of the city, a bridge, sheds, a storage depot or two."

Hits were also scored near an iron foundry and torpedo factory. Medium bombers ranging over Sardinia encountered heavy enemy opposition both from the ground and in the air.

(New attacks upon Reggio Calabria and Messina also were reported by the Italian high command.)

MARVIN JONES

Texas Takes Over As Food Director

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Judge Marvin Jones took over today as the third war-time food administrator in less than seven months as the Roosevelt administration let Chester C. Davis go and thus evidenced new determination to put stabilization of prices over all other considerations in the nation's food program.

Jones, an affable Texan with a long agricultural background including legislative leadership in putting A-A crop control and other farm-aid legislation on the statute books, moved into the job with a record as a staunch supporter of President Roosevelt's policies.

His appointment to replace Davis was taken to mean that future food programs would be cut to patterns designed, above all else, to provide food at present or lower prices.

Controversies over food policies have marked administration war programs since the beginning. At the bottom of many of them has been the question of farm and retail prices. When the first price control law was being debated in congress, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard urged that the official responsible for production—the secretary of agriculture—should have control of prices.

He argued that price was a delicate mechanism which could be used to encourage or discourage production.

President Roosevelt and congress took a counter view, holding that control of all prices should be centered in one agency, the office of price administration.

Jones, the new administrator, has seen the food problem—and the controversies—from the White House angle. He has served in recent months as agricultural adviser to the office of economic stabilization. Many of the decisions of that agency to which Wickard and later Davis objected were recommended by Jones.

Heavy Air Battles Over Soviet Front

MOSCOW, June 29 (AP)—Violent aerial battles are swirling over the approaches to Leningrad with the Germans losing "a big number of planes" in the last 25 days, battlefront dispatches reported today.

German losses were so heavy the Nazis have changed their tactics, increasing fighter escort for bombers, and varying the times of raids, it was said.

RAF Attacks With Great Force; 25 Planes Are Lost

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—The RAF returned in great strength last night to Cologne where 1,000 bombers had blasted 600 acres of destruction in May, 1942 and laid the pattern for the city-by-city razing of German war industry.

In a double-bladed attack, British heavy bombers also struck overnight at Hamburg, submarine building center, and continued the mihelaying that official sources announced yesterday had caused the sinking of at least 400 axis vessels since the war started.

Twenty-five bombers were listed as missing. Thundering over the scene of the world's first 1,000-bomber raid for the 117th time, the RAF left fires leaping up toward the overhanging clouds.

The German high command, in its regular communique broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, asserted that "the Cologne cathedral suffered heavy damage from explosive and incendiary bombs" and that Cologne's population "suffered losses."

It was the second raid of the month against the great Rhineland industrial center which the Nazis have been reported working avidly to restore. The 1,000-bomber raid was reported to have driven out 200,000 of the city's 800,000 population and wrecked 250 factories.

The German communique reported property damage in both Cologne and Hamburg and said 26 of the attacking bombers were shot down. Thickly populated parts of Cologne were said to have been destroyed as a result of a great number of explosive and incendiary bombs.

The official bulletin gave no results of the attack on Hamburg, last hit March 3 and an air target nearly 100 times since the war began.

In secondary night sweeps, fighter command aircraft attacked enemy shipping in the channel, damaging one small supply vessel and two escort craft, the communique said. At the same time intruder patrols attacked railway targets in France.

Last night's raid was the eighth British assault on German targets in 10 days.

Cologne was the target of the first 1,000-bomber raid on May 30, 1942, when more than 600 acres were devastated in the center of the city straddling the Rhine.

Last night's attack, it was believed, may have delivered almost as great a bombardment because the RAF's latest planes carry a greater weight. Many of the squadrons in last year's attack were medium bombers.

The twin foray by the British bombers followed up a two-way attack yesterday by strong formations of American Flying Fortresses on two enemy targets in occupied France—the submarine yards at St. Nazaire and an enemy fighter airfield at Beaumont-Le-Roger, 30 miles southwest of Rouen.

Berlin asserted that 11 of the American four-engined planes were shot down during yesterday's attack. The U. S. eighth air force reported six missing.

The Americans flew in clear weather, described as "designed for high level precision bombing," and the official announcement said results were good. The fliers reported direct hits at St. Nazaire. Big fires were left at Beaumont-Le-Roger.

Director For Mines Named By Ickes

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Interior Secretary Ickes left the impression today he might operate the nation's coal mines for the government until the owners and the United Mine Workers sign a contract.

This hint was contained in a series of developments pertaining to the coal controversy yesterday in the capital.

The secretary, as fuel coordinator, appointed Carl Elbridge Newton, president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad company as federal director of mines.

On top of that, Ickes was reported to have begun setting up what looked like a long-range organization to actively supervise the war-vital coal diggings.

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Carl Elbridge Newton, 45-year-old president of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad company, was expected here from Cleveland today to assume his duties as federal director of mine operations following his appointment yesterday by Secretary Ickes.

Ickes, as custodian of the mines which the government took over May 1, designated Newton to head the organization charged with keeping coal production going until the labor dispute endangering it is past.

The secretary of the interior said Newton would become a "full time government worker, whose services are loaned by his railroad as a contribution to the war effort."

PITTSBURGH, June 29 (AP)—Slowly, but district officials of the United Mine Workers insisted surely, the more than 150,000 striking miners of the nation were returning to work today to join the 400,000 who already had ended their walkout in protest against failure to get a new wage contract and more money.

The insurgent drive against work resumption centered in Pennsylvania, where 50,000 of 55,000 anthracite workers in the east were idle and approximately 50,000 of 117,000 soft coal miners were out in the west.

Stores Go On New Schedule

A large cross-section of Big Spring's retail establishments will go on a new schedule of store hours for the month of July and August.

More than a dozen firms announced, following a meeting Monday afternoon, that for the two-month summer period they would observe this schedule.

Open 9 a. m., close 5:30 p. m., Monday through Friday. Open 9 a. m., close 3:30 p. m., on Saturday.

The move is being taken, they said, to give workers additional time off during the hot weather. It was felt that shoppers could easily adjust themselves to the shorter store day. Some other establishments, however, are not to close so early, because of special patronage they felt should be taken care of later in the evening. The following stores have announced the 9-5:30 hours:

Anthony, Burr's, Barrows, Wacker's, J&K Shoe, Baig's, McCrory's, Fashion, Swartz, Edward, J. C. Penney, White's, Ward and Sears. The schedule becomes effective Thursday.

Munitions Cars Explode—Shrapnel showered the western Colorado town of Grand Junction for hours after a fire touched off explosions in these two munitions cars in a freight yard as it pulled into the yards. In the foreground of the riddled cars are live shells and shell fragments. Four persons were hurt.

Miss Laneous Notes

MARY WEALEY

After vacation blues is an odd ailment because you can't exactly put your finger on the spot that hurts. You are rested, because all you've done is lie in bed late and throw in a couple of afternoon naps on the side each day. It can't be weariness.

It couldn't possibly be hunger, since no matter what time of day you finally got out of bed, you ate three squares and used up your families ration points for days to come.

Then it couldn't be homesickness for you've talked yourself hoarse getting caught up with all that has transpired to you and others in the year that has passed since the last vacation.

It couldn't be that you neglected to do anything you've planned for regardless of time or place or the inclinations of others, you've done just what you wanted to do, when you wanted to do it for a good ten days. That's more than you'll get to do for the next year and you realize it.

There isn't anything wrong with you mentally, physically, or spiritually and yet that first day back to work you've got a hang dog look and a low down feeling. In a day or so it will be gone. While it lasts it can best be classified only as after-vacation-blues.

Yarn Production Far Ahead Of '42

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—Over-all production of cotton, rayon and wool yarn was 40,000,000 pounds higher in the first three months of this year than in the same period of 1942, the War Production Board reported today.

Total fabric yardage also exceeded last year's record production totals by about 1,500,000 yards. But in both yards and fabrics the increases were not great enough "to meet the objectives which have been set up."

In two instances production actually fell off, but WFB said steps have already been taken to correct these declines. Production of broad woven rayon fabric was down about six per cent and output of woolen and worsted fabrics declined two per cent.

YOUR SHOES

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Feature Writer

Shoe rationing has taught us to think twice before we discard that "old pair of shoes."

To save our three pairs a year, we must remember to brush suede shoes daily with a suede brush; dust and polish kid, calf and patent leather shoes before putting them away.

The same shoes should not be worn two days in succession or be dried on a hot radiator, which burns and cracks leathers.

In rainy weather we should always wear overshoes—a new pair of shoes can be ruined beyond repair by a drizzling rain.

Get new lifts when heels become run-down, new linings when necessary, new soles and new laces. Be sure to repair shoes at the first sign of a rip in any seam.

Avoid bad habits of walking, such as scraping soles on, floor knocking heels together, and running over on one side or the other, which wear shoes out rapidly.

We should never wear a street shoe around the house and should keep shoe-trees in shoes when not being worn.

Always buy shoes that fit well, because shoes that are too large or too small will lose their shape quickly. No one these days can afford to make the mistake of buying shoes that will have to be discarded because of poor fit and discomfort.

TO: Every American on a Payroll FROM: The Secretary of the Treasury

SUBJECT: The New Pay-As-You-Go Method of Collecting Your Income Tax

Starting July 1st, both your Income and Victory Tax will be collected by an entirely new and more convenient method.

Under the old system, you were obliged every March 15th to pay either the full tax for the previous year, or a quarter of that amount. Under the new system, you will keep paid up from month to month.

After July 1st, your employer is obliged by the new law to withhold every month a part of your wages and turn the money into the United States Treasury as payment on your Income and Victory Tax.

Of course, the amount that your employer withholds will depend upon your pay and your exemptions. But this is the important point: For most of us, the amount withheld over a year's period will add up to the same that we're paying now—plus or minus a few dollars.

At the end of the year, we may owe the Government a few dollars or the Government may owe us. (See the tables below.)

You may have heard 20% mentioned as the proportion of your wages that will be withheld. Actually, this is incorrect. To figure the amount that will be withheld, take your total wages and subtract your allowance for exemptions and allowance for dependents; 20% of this lesser amount is the total that will be withheld.

Now please remember this: You must claim those exemptions to take advantage of them. Before July 1st, you must file with your employer an Exemption Certificate. If you do not do this, your employer will have no choice but to deduct 20% of your full pay check.

Here is how the new tax collection method will work: Let's say you are a working man earning $3,000 a year; that you are married, and have two children.

First of all, as a married man you are allowed a personal withholding exemption of $1,248, plus an exemption of $312 for each dependent (other than your wife). This makes a total exemption of $1,872 ($1,248 for yourself and wife, plus $624 for your two dependents), which is deducted from the $3,000 you earn before your tax is computed. You are thus paying tax on $1,128, of which your employer will withhold 20%, or $225.60 for the year. Therefore, in your pay envelope, after July 1, you will receive about $4.40 less each week.

In March, 1944, when you ordinarily would be faced with paying taxes on your 1943 income, you will file a return showing how much you have already paid, and how much your total tax actually amounted to. If, by that time, you have already paid more than your actual tax due, you will be given credit for the difference. If you owe more than you have paid, you will pay the difference.

Since this plan starts July 1, many wonder what happens to the tax payments they will already have made by that time—on March 15 and June 15.

For a great majority of people, here is what happens. . . . Your 1942 income tax is "forgiven" (either all, or most of it). The March and June installments which you originally paid on that 1942 income tax are credited, instead, as payments on your 1943 tax. With the result that on July 1st, with the year half gone, you have already paid tax on that half-year's income. In short, you are "paying as you go."

There is one thing more. Since this pay-as-you-go method leaves you just as much of your net income as you had before, you will probably find it possible to at least maintain your present rate of buying War Bonds. Do this by all means!

Taxes alone will not bring to the Treasury nearly enough money to finance the great invasion war that lies ahead. The war needs every cent of your money that does not go for the necessities of life.

Little Whirlaway, Greatest Of All, Leaves The Track

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Racing loses the champ today, and the old game just won't seem the same any more.

Whirlaway is all through with the races and heads back to the blue grass for keeps. And with him, something goes out of the turf. There have been greater horses, but there probably never was one who gave you a bigger thrill than little Mr. Big Tall.

There was hysteria that swept over Narragansett the day he and Alsb hooked up in their match race thriller-diller. They came down that long straightaway like one horse, puring it on, head to head and nose to nose. The "Sh" won by half the width of a nostril, but the wear and tear on the spectators was terrific.

Go back to his Saratoga special as a two-year-old. Those were the days when you never knew if Whirlaway was going to run straight or not. And he forgot to make the turn and slammed into the outside fence. Johnny Longden got him straightened out, but he was seven lengths back. He lit out after the leader, caught him 25 yards from home and won by a length.

And take his Kentucky Derby—the fastest of them all.

No one will ever forget the move Whirlaway made three-eighths of a mile from home that day. Some swore he went so fast they never could decide where he took over the lead.

As a four-year-old, he gave you one "bang" after another as he spotted his rivals great loads of weight and ran at them. There was the Dixie handicap, where he made up 20 lengths.

Yes, he was quite a hosa.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Sergt. Young Kid McCoy figures he ought to know how to whip Jake Lamotia in their clash at Detroit tomorrow because he has been training with Ray Robinson, who did it twice. . . . Ken Shell, Utah's golf champion, crushed his left hand in a steel roller seven years ago. He still can't close it entirely and has to have the grips of all his clubs enlarged before he can use them. . . . He doesn't recommend the stunt to golfers who want to become champs.

NAPOLEONIC STRATEGY
Nap, Reyes, the Cuban first baseman who finally has made his way into the Giants' lineup, claims that his biggest moment in baseball didn't come from a little thing like hitting a homer with the bases full but from winning an argument with an umpire. . . . Nap, just up from Cuba, got into a dispute with an arbiter last summer. . . . After listening to a few choice Spanish adjectives, the ump remarked: "You're fined fifty dollars." . . . "No savvy," replied Nap, who knew the value of a buck as well as the next guy. . . . The thrill says Reyes, was that the umpire fell for the gag and Nap still has the $50.

SERVICE DEPT.
Scuttlebutt rumor is that the best football team in America next fall will be playing for Camp Farragut, Idaho, which won't have much of a schedule. Lieut. Ray Flaherty, who'll coach, already has available Kl Aldrich, Bill Young, Clem Stralka, Ed Justice, Jim Barber and Marvin Whitton from his Washington Redskins club; Bill Radovich of the Detroit Lions, Lou Tomassetti of the Philly Eagles, Billy Jefferson of the Dodgers and Urban Odson and Bob Ewinger—just a couple of college boys from Minnesota. . . . Corp. Mickey Ferris, the ex-Red socker, has more than 100 pictures of baseball players in the "public library" he is collecting for "Soldiers in the Caribbean area. . . . The overseas edition of the Sporting News, baseball's Bible," also included items on boxing, football, track, tennis—and chesscake photos.

Uniforms worn beyond service standards by armed forces of the United Kingdom are reconditioned, dyed green and sold to agriculture workers at low cost, says the Department of Commerce.

Most Clubs To Contest In Twin Bills

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
It's going to be a great relief for the major league clubs to start another round of inter-sectional play tomorrow.

This is because tomorrow is the first of two "war relief" days designated by Commissioner Kennesaw Mountain Landis with all clubs turning over their entire receipts to the National War Fund.

Last year each club played a pair of games for the Army and Navy Relief Societies and some of them were given lustrous promotion by the clubs concerned. Nevertheless, the 16 games, played on various dates and under various conditions, netted $506,830.30.

This year baseball has profited from its experience in 1942 and has mobilized for two big relief days, June 30 and July 23, instead of scattering their dates and the whole show is being gilded with gaudy side-features. All the shows will be either doubleheaders or twilight or night games.

The program tomorrow: National League—St. Louis at New York (doubleheader), Cincinnati at Brooklyn (doubleheader), Chicago at Boston (doubleheader), Pittsburgh at Philadelphia (night), American League—New York at Cleveland (night), Philadelphia at St. Louis (night), Boston at Detroit (twilight), Washington at Chicago (doubleheader), combined Washington-Chicago squad plays Great Lakes Naval Training Station in first game.

These games will set off a busy two-week program for both leagues with a heavy holiday schedule awaiting all clubs this week-end and the annual all-star game coming up at Philadelphia two weeks from tonight.

As is customary this year, most clubs had a two-day intermission before embarking on the East-West series. The only activity in the majors yesterday was a night game at Pittsburgh with the Pirates pummeling the Cincinnati Reds 7-1.

Truett (Rip) Sewell, on the way to his most successful season, pitched steady, seven-hit ball and personally whacked Bucky Walters off the mound with a two-run triple in the second inning. The opening frame Bob Elliott contributed a two-run homer to help Sewell's tenth triumph against two defeats.

All clubs are idle today.

The measure carried $27,637,222, 198 in direct appropriations and approximately $6,000,000 in contractual authority, one of the major items being approximately $5,000,000 to provide the navy an additional 27,000 planes.

Schools Hit Hard By War

INDIANAPOLIS, June 29. (AP)—The war has hit a hard blow at the nation's schools, educators attending the 23rd annual meeting of the National Education Association agreed today.

Thousands of teachers have left their school work to take higher paying war jobs, while other thousands are in the armed forces. An official report by the NEA predicted an estimated shortage of 75,000 teachers by next fall.

Dr. Alonzo F. Myers, chairman of the department of higher education of New York University, said in an interview that about one fifth of the nation's 30,000,000 school children will return to new teachers next September.

More than 100,000 of the 250,000 teachers who will have to be hired this summer have substandard qualifications, he predicted, and given employment only because of the shortage of teachers.

Dr. Myers asserted that a high percentage of teachers who are working in war plants will not return to their former jobs next fall.

Oil Man Testifies Of Wife's Jealousy

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 29. (AP)—Under-the-table pinches from his actress-wife June Knight were Arthur A. Cameron's reward for an attempt to carry on polite conversation with film Star Betty Grable, the wealthy Texas and Indiana oil man told an Arkansas divorce court.

The incident was described by Cameron as the court heard his side of the divorce action. A cross-complaint by Miss Knight is scheduled for hearing as soon as Cameron's suit against her is completed.

"Mrs. Cameron is so jealous I'd say it was a phobia with her," said the oil man who married Miss Knight at Beverly Hills, Calif., in 1938, and separated from her at Evansville, Ind., last fall.

At one party, he said, Miss Grable was on his left, Miss Knight on his right and twice when he turned to talk to Miss Grable, his wife pinched him. Finally, he said, he persuaded Miss Grable to seize Miss Knight's hand the next time she pinched him in hopes it would "cure Mrs. Cameron of her jealousy."

Cameron said their romance began to sour in the spring of 1942 when he discovered Miss Knight had engaged a detective to follow him. He retaliated, he said, by hiring a detective to follow her detective.

Ready To Go Places--At West Point

By HAROLD V. RATLOFF
AP Feature
AUSTIN—Max Minor, the chunky guy with the piano legs, is going to West Point July 1—and that means the U. S. Military Academy will get an athlete just reaching his college stride.

Minor comes from Little Tahoka, Tex., where he first attracted attention by tying the national school record for the 220-yard low hurdles at 22.5 in 1940.

He went to the University of Texas and earned varsity letters in football and track but it was not until the past year that he really began to go places. He was on the Southwest conference and team last fall, and was a star for the Longhorns in the dashes during the past track season.

But it wasn't many years ago that Minor was told he never could compete in athletics again. As a sophomore in high school Max underwent two serious operations. It not only kept him out of part of the football season but all of basketball and track. And the doctors informed him he never could participate in any of these contests again.

"I took things easy until the next football season," Minor recalls. "That was as long as I could stand it. I finally persuaded my parents to let me try again. Through some crafty taping and padding me up, I was

Bombings Can Be Increased

A U. S. AAF BASE IN BRITAIN, June 29. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Henry F. Miller, head of the U. S. army's eighth air force service command, declared today that "we are definitely set for a great new flow of planes to this theater for the increased offensive against Germany."

"We have plenty of bombs, including 4,000-pounders," General Miller said in a press conference after he bestowed on four officers and one enlisted man the first awards for valor ever presented members of the eighth air force service-command, whose job is to keep the air force fighting.

"Our supplies are more than adequate."

"And we are ready to meet demands for a step-up by 45 per cent of the bomb load on Germany if called for."

This was a reference to reports from Washington that the Allies were planning a 45 per cent increase in the tonnage of the offensive by the end of July.

In track he set a couple of district records and won the low hurdles in the State meet. The following year he was back at the State meet to tie the national record. "I made up my mind to shoot at the State record," he said. "I had no idea that the national record was in the same time. If I had known this, I sincerely believe I could have put just a little more into my race for a national record."

Editorial - - An Open Letter To Texans In Congress

Gentlemen: Texans, which you have the honor to represent in Washington, has been going along doing its part in the war effort, proud of its contribution of 61 generals, eight admirals, and first among the states in enlisted men in the armed forces.

Texas hasn't lagged in buying war bonds, or buckling down to any war-time necessity. Rather shamefully, we must admit some war-time violations, just as other states have experienced violations ranging all the way from work stoppages in violation of War Labor Board orders to hoodlum warfare in California and mob uprisings in Detroit.

Texas and Texans were proud the other day when the new cruiser or Houston—provided by Texans' war bond purchases of more than $75,000,000—was launched at Newport News.

On this same day that Texans were glorying in launching of the new cruiser, a new phase of law enforcement came to the state that made up the funds to build the ship.

More than 5,000 cars were stopped—and searched—in an Office of Price Administration campaign at Paris, as indiscriminate effort to determine whether gasoline regulations were being violated.

The chief district OPA attorney

now has warned that other areas of the state would be subjected to the same sort of inspection; and it is to be presumed that OPA agents, as at the first inspections at Paris, will be accompanied by state highway patrolmen, state liquor control board agents, deputy sheriffs, and military police. If the OPA agent finds everything in order, perhaps the liquor control board agent can find a bottle of liquor. And, just to make sure every motorist stops, military police, deputy sheriffs, and state highway patrolmen probably will be along, as they were at Paris.

This newspaper has no sympathy with any law violation. It has no brief for any of those found to possess more gasoline tickets than they were entitled to have. A law enforcement official only should be complimented for carrying out his duties, and, in most cases, patriotic Texans will be helpful in any law-enforcement program.

It appears to some of us down here in Texas, however, that mass searching of automobiles—just to see if a violation can be found—is not the democratic way of handling the situation, nor the method congress would suggest for enforcement of laws.

For more than a century and a half you and your fellow Texans, who hold you in such high esteem,

Capital Comment -- 'Background' Is Not Much Help To Newsmen

By GEORGE STIMPSON

Herald Washington Correspondent

A huge chow dog, looking like a lion cub, hung around the Washington courthouse all day; it had followed its arrested master, who was unable to get bond and had been taken off to jail.

Washington correspondents are treated these days to many good "off the record" speeches and war movies; these are supposed to wise up the correspondents, give them background, so they can form correct opinions and interpret the news intelligently; just what good all this wisdom and background is if the correspondents can't pass it along to the home folks is a little beyond me; all they can do with such dope is to jot it down in their diaries for a book after the war; what I'm interested in learning is something I can tell my readers. Telling stuff off the record does nothing but inflate the ego.

Ran into Congressman Lyndon Johnson today; now there's a man who could, if he would, tell a lot of things about the Washington scene that would make good reading; he's in close touch with most of the top-notchers who are running this war at the Washington end.

Here are some interesting facts gleaned from Congressman Wright Patman, the walking encyclopedia of Capitol Hill: Industrial accidents since Pearl

They Call It Pacific

Chapter 26

The American officers in Brisbane wanted to know something about the Japs, and I tried to tell them what I had learned.

A few days before we sailed away from Bataan, MacArthur had talked to Jacoby and myself about the Japanese soldier.

"The Jap," he said, "is a first-class fighting man. These troops facing me on Bataan were as good as the best troops in the World War, but it would take the best troops to take them.

"Their officers spend lives heedlessly, even for unimportant objectives. The individual Jap is a fanatic. He will throw himself on a land mine to explode it and clear the way for others. Or he will fill himself on my barbed wire and let those following him climb over his body."

I recalled to the general an interview which I had two years before Pearl Harbor with Lieutenant General Masaharu Homma, then commander of Japanese forces at Tientsin, whose troops had blocked the British Concession in the North China port and stripped British men and women and slapped their faces. I told Homma that the blockade appeared to me part of a deliberate plan to drive the white man out of the Orient; but he disclaimed any such purpose on the part of Japan and denied responsibility for the inexcusable assaults on Britons—blaming them on "gendarmes whom I am unable to control."

Our talk touched Japanese-American problems and drifted to the Philippines, where two years later Homma was to turn up as commander of the invasion forces opposing MacArthur. Homma said he hoped the United States would recognize Japan's "true mission" in the Orient and would not cut off Japan's sources of needed materials. If the United States tried to oppose Japan, then war was inevitable. Many Japanese, he said, had considered it inevitable for years.

"I think I understand your American psychology very well," he said. "I think that every American believes he can handle any two Japanese soldiers. Is that not true?"

I replied, "Well we have our own ideas."

Homma went on, "I think I am right in my analysis. At any rate we are proceeding with this in mind and are prepared to lose ten million men in our war with America. How many are you prepared to lose?"

MacArthur, at the time, and later Admiral William Halsey as commander of our southwest Pacific naval forces, both gave the only possible answer to Japan's willingness to fight to the death for victory. They said, "There is only one way for America to win the war, and that is to kill Japs, kill more Japs, and kill still more Japs."

I also recounted to MacArthur on Corregidor an interview with Rear Admiral Kanazawa, whom I knew first as Japanese navy spokesman in Tokyo and later as naval attaché in occupied China. Ten months to the day before Pearl Harbor, Kanazawa had received Russell Brines and myself at his headquarters in Shanghai. After some preliminary pleasantries Kanazawa pointed to a large map on the wall and outlined in startling detail just what Japan intended to do if it became "nec-

Hollywood Sights and Sounds— U.S. Knows Of Mary Lee If Filmdom Doesn't

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—This is a report for the rest of the country. Hollywood can skip it and probably will, because it doesn't know Mary Lee very well.

Mary Lee, a full half-pint of movie star, has just made a comeback to pictures after a year and nine months of "growing up." She has grown up now—to 18 years of age, and five feet and one-half inch of height.

That's a full inch taller than she was when she came out of Ted Weems' hand into pictures four years ago to garner an army of fans—in the rest of the country, not in Hollywood.

The reason for her comparative obscurity here is the same that kept Gene Autry out of the local limelight for so long. Gene's pictures were wowing the western fans between here and New York long before the collective echoes of their wowing reached Hollywood Boulevard, eventually forcing the famous alley to give him a showing. That opened the way for Mary Lee, too, in a small way. Mary Lee was featured in nine of the later Autrys.

"But I can still walk down the boulevard without having anybody recognize me," she says. "I think my main fans on the boulevard are the clerks in the department stores—at least, some of them seem to know me. They ask if I'm not the girl who used to sing with Ted Weems. Even they don't mention my pictures."

She giggles at that. The realization does not crush her. She's already getting 500 letters a week on her new picture, "Shantytown," which is a good start toward her old average of 1,000 a week—and the film has been shown to date only in Army camps. Republic is starring her in "Nobody's Darling" as a followup, with Jackie Moran, Lewis Calhern and Gladys George in the cast.

This big career of a little girl got its start back in Ottawa, Ill., when six-year-old Mary Lee Wooters joined her father and 11-year-old sister Vera in amateur harmonizing. American Legion and Elk meetings for 50 miles around got to know them well.

When Mary Lee was 13, bandmaster Weems came to a park near Ottawa in the course of a nationwide search for a new girl singer. Mary Lee sang, and she was it. Chaperoned by Mamma

Washington Daybook Hair In Army's Hair

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — The Capital in Wartime:

The Army has hair in its hair. In spite of numerous protests from the Army that it doesn't use human hair—or spiderwebs—in its bombights, the bewhiskered story keeps popping up and long come batches of raven or golden tress—or at least offers of same.

The latest story (and the Army would like to snatch the guy that wrote it) is that military locks needed for those precious bombights should be 21 inches long. That "21 inches" must have been stuck in to confuse the enemy. It surprised the Army.

The prize offer, however, came from a patriotic midwestern woman who suggested turning over a room in her home to black widow spiders, in which sanctuary they might pin all the webs the Army could carry away. It's a nice idea if the Army had any use for black widow spiderwebs.

The Army's only explanation is that it has better bombight cross-hairs than ever were spun by a spider or fathered by a follicle.

The White House isn't the only place in Washington where Harry Hopkins carries weight.

Th other night, prowlers broke into an apartment house here. From one apartment, they stole eight $25 war bonds and other things. In another, they copped a perfectly good camera—and other things. They ransacked a third of all valuables and in a fourth, they picked up $22.50 in cash.

To the local police, it was just another housebreaking and investigation proceeded in the routine manner, which is slightly slow. Then came a call to the District commissioners from the White House—Harry Hopkins speaking. It was, it seems, the Hopkins' maid who had been robbed of that $22.50.

In less than 30 hours, three detectives concentrating on the case, had "broken it" and two suspects were under arrest, with a large portion of the loot reportedly discovered, but not the $22.50. The detectives are a little worried about that.

Some folks laughed when Rep. Walter H. Judd, Minneapolis, Minn., Republican, former Mayo Foundation fellowship surgeon and medical missionary to China, stopped outside President Roosevelt's office door the other day and tied a sterile gauze mask over his mouth and nose.

When some kiddie asked why "the disguise," the Congressman explained simply that he had a cold. Some logical thinkers ceased to snicker.

So far as I can find out, Congressman Judd is the only presidential visitor with the sniffles who ever showed any particular consideration for the President's susceptibility to colds.

and planes so frighteningly great that, we believe, America will eventually become discouraged. The American people will decide that the cost is not worth the gains. They will say, after all, the Orient is a long way off and perhaps Japan is the logical nation to govern it. Then our war will be won."

The Japanese won the first part of their war in exactly five months from the attack on Pearl Harbor to the surrender of Corregidor. At a cost of certainly not more than 100,000 men, a score of ships, and a new hundred airplanes, they smashed three of the world's great fortresses, drove the United States, Great Britain and the Netherlands out of the Far East, and conquered a vast and rich empire containing all the natural resources needed to make Japan the world's most powerful nation.

The Japanese won partly because they planned well and struck boldly and fearlessly. Mostly they won because of the indecision and slowness of the United States and our failure to send more than token forces to the Far East. While they were fighting on many fronts in the first months of 1942, and moving troops and supplies over lengthy and unconsolidated lines, the Japanese were wide open to attack at a score of points. But we reacted too slowly after Pearl Harbor. Plans alone could have held the Philippines, Singapore, Hong Kong, Wake Island, and the Aleutians, just as later they were to drive back the Japs at Midway and to hold Guadalcanal and Port Moresby.

Without planes the Japanese drives could not be stopped. The Japanese Air Force was the decisive factor everywhere. It turned the tide in the Philippines on the first day of war. With air control established, the Japanese Air Force operated like a smooth, first-class machine. Aerial co-ordination with ground troops, the result of long practice in China, was extremely effective. Their Zero fighters flew circles around our P-40's, our old Brewsters, and even British Hurricanes at Singapore.

Their Army and Navy worked perfectly together. From the technical point of view the really amazing feature of Japan's campaigns was the thoroughness and perfection of their logistics problem, the problem of supply, perfectly.

The entire Japanese plan was a desperate gamble but everything, everywhere, broke right for them. Their audaciousness paid great dividends. They were gambling that their attack on Pearl Harbor would paralyze the U.S. Navy long enough to give them time to conquer Southeastern Asia, and their calculations proved correct. They gambled that they could knock out our Air Force in the Philippines, and in Malaya, and they won. They believed that we would be too slow in sending planes to reinforce the Netherlands Indies and Singapore, and they were right. They caught our planes on the ground again, and again, in the Philippines and Malaya and even in the Indies. They used the element of surprise to the utmost.

In addition they knew every foot of ground they were to fight over. Through the years their spies had laboriously gathered all the information they needed. They knew what type of clothes and what arms and equipment to use in the jungles of Malaya and the mountains of southeastern Luzon. They knew what tactics to use to confuse our troops and terrorize the civilian population.

Soldier for soldier, our troops proved themselves better than the Japanese. In Bataan our Filipino and American troops killed an average of five Japs for every casualty in our forces, and sometimes as many as seventeen or twenty to one. These figures were later equaled by our Marines on Guadalcanal. What made the Japanese tough foes was their refusal to surrender.

Twenty-five hundred Japanese died in January and February in the unsuccessful effort to crack our Bataan flank. We took some ninety prisoners out of the whole twenty-five hundred, and most of those were too seriously wounded to go on fighting. Perhaps that number is too small to permit any conclusions regarding the health of the whole regiment. But in any case four out of five of the prisoners were suffering from some chronic disease, usually venereal. When captured their physical condition was poor, due to lack of food and water, but most of them were husky and well built, approximately 5 feet 3 inches tall weighing around 115 pounds.

THE WAR TODAY: Supply Problem One Of Biggest

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

When I came out of the far-northern Maine woods last weekend, after being cut off from news during a fortnight's fishing vacation in the wilds, naturally the first thing I demanded was what the main development of the war had been during that period, and the quick answer was:

"The coal miners are going back to work."

Characterization of a coal mining situation as the biggest current news of the war had an odd ring in the ear, but undoubtedly that appraisal was the correct one. Continuance of the coal stoppage would represent a major disaster. We have been treading dangerously close to the edge of a precipice.

The trend of the operations in all theaters now depends upon the production and transportation. Invasions hinge on the availability of equipment and supplies in the fighting zones.

In short, as this column has remarked previously, the burden of this war rests very largely on the shoulders of the civilian workers at home. We can't pass the buck to the soldiers at the front, because they are helpless without equipment.

The second most important piece of news, and one closely interlocking with the first, seemed to be Stalin's renewed appeal for the opening of a western front by the Anglo-American allies.

At the same time Moscow issued a communique which said that "everything now depends upon the manner in which our Allies will exploit the favorable situation by creating a second front in Europe, as victory over Hitlerite Germany is impossible without a second front."

That summation represents the view as I have found it among American and British military men, although it isn't yet clear just how far the Anglo-American Allies may find it feasible to go this summer. It can be said that there still is a possibility of a who's-alle in-

'A' Card Holders Get Only Recaps

Holders of "A" mileage gasoline books hereafter must get along on recaps, the local ration board officials announced Tuesday following a release from the OPA office.

In the past, "A" card holders could qualify for Grade I, II, or III tires but later this was changed to limit pleasure drivers to Grade III tires. The tightening restrictions are due to an ever diminishing supply of tires for civilian use, according to the ration board.

The one limitation on the new OPA order is that law enforcement officers who hold only an "A" card, which is a rare circumstance, may still receive Grade III tires, it was explained.

Since recap tires are obtained without the necessity of contacting the ration board, "A" card holders will deal directly with recap dealers for their tire needs in the future.

October, 1941, in crude oil ceilings for individual companies; it will bring Panhandle crude oil in line with maximum prices of comparable quality oil produced in surrounding areas; this adjustment, says OPA, will not result in any increase in maximum prices of products sold by refiners purchasing Panhandle crude, and "as there is no consumer price the action is not contrary to the President's hold-the-line order"; means an additional return to Texas Panhandle producers of $1,500,000 a year; "Panhandle area" comprises Carson, Gray, Hutchinson, Moore and Wheeler counties, which currently produces 91,000 barrels a day, compared with 4,000,000 produced in whole country.

Meat, Butter Price Rollbacks Remain

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP) — Roll-backs in the prices of meat and butter will remain in effect until final enactment of a law against subsidies.

Office of Price Administration (OPA) officials declined comment today on the action of the house and senate in voting, in different language, against food price-cutting subsidies to processors but emphasized no immediate price changes were in prospect.

OPA had announced that coffee prices would be rolled back but this program never went into effect, and it was understood today that coffee had been abandoned in favor of some other commodity possibly flour.

Cattle, Hog Population At A Peak

WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP) — The Bureau of Agricultural Economics informed Representative Thomas (D-Tex) today that the probable number of cattle on the hoof next year will be 80,000,000 head and number of hogs will reach 87,000,000, unprecedented highs.

It supplied the figures to Thomas upon his request, after he had conferred with the Office of Price Administration and the War Food Administration urging that "the ironical situation" of meat shortages while cattle and hogs are more numerous than ever be corrected.

The BAE figures follow:
Cattle and calves: 1940—62,800,000; 1941—71,500,000; 1942—75,200,000; 1943—(partially estimated)—78,200,000; 1944—(estimated)—80,000,000.
Hogs: 1940—61,100,000; 1941 54,300,000; 1942—60,400,000; 1943—(partially estimated)—73,700,000; 1944—(estimated)—87,000,000.

Mexico Climbs As A Maker Of Movies

By T. A. EDIGER

MEXICO CITY (AP)—a former prize-fighter who plays Romeo in baggy pants hitched around his thighs with a rope is the present "star of stars" in Mexico's rapidly expanding motion picture industry.

He is Cantinflas, born Maria Moreno the son of a mail carrier, and is one of the pegs on which Mexico hangs its hope of taking from Buenos Aires the title of "Hollywood of Latin-America."

Motion picture production is at an all time peak here. Last year Mexico produced 50 feature pictures, to 65 for Argentina, but production here is on the upgrade while going down in Buenos Aires. Two things are largely responsible. Argentina has been cut off the United States' priority list for raw film, and there is a shortage, while Mexico, active ally in the war, is well-supplied. Also, Mexican films are gaining in popularity, even in the United States, and Cantinflas can outdraw nearly anything produced anywhere, so far as the Mexicans are concerned.

Cantinflas' last two pictures, "The Three Musketeers" and "The Circus," outdrew Hollywood pictures three to one in Mexico, and also topped Hollywood productions in Cuba, Colombia, Venezuela, Peru, Chile and the Central American republics.

Last year the actor earned a million pesos. At the age of 31, he now is vice-president of Possa films.

On the whole, Mexican and North American pictures run a close box-office race in this capital. In the smaller towns, where the percentage of illiteracy is higher, Spanish language films outdraw Hollywood's best, even though they carry Spanish subtitles.

Mexican films also find a substantial market in the United States, principally in cities with a large Spanish-speaking population, such as Los Angeles and San Antonio. One Mexican producer, class films, has announced that it will "double" its Spanish pictures into English, and is recruiting North American actors.

There are nine movie studios in
