Basketball Star Leads T.C.U.'s Baseballers

By United Press International
Big Mickey McCarty sparked Texas Christian to the Southwest Conference basketball championship and now he's well on the way to helping push the Frog to the baseball title as well.

TCU knocked off erstwhile leader Southern Methodist three times last week and climbed to the top of the standings, and McCarty had a big hand, or bat, in all three.

He got four hits in TCU's 5-4 and 4-0 doubleheader sweep in Dallas on Friday, including one that drove in the winning runs in the second game, and tripled home two big runs and scored the winning tally in Saturday's 9-3 triumph at Turnpike Stadium.

The Frogs, who defend their lead against Texas A&M at College Station Friday and Saturday, now are 5-2 in league play, one-half game ahead of Baylor's 4-2 mark, one game ahead of Texas (4-3) and 1½ ahead of SMU (3-3). The Aggies are at 2-2, Rice is 2-5 and Texas Tech is 0-3.

Baylor and Texas also swept three games last week, the Bears beating Rice 3-0, 3-0 and 4-2 and Texas topping Tech 7-5, 7-2, 7-1.

Over the full season, the Texas Aggies own the best mark (8-4) after beating Oklahoma State 4-0 and 3-2 Saturday and Minnesota 3-0 and 1-0 on Friday. TCU is 7-4, Texas is 9-6 after losing to Minnesota 8-5 and 8-1 last week, Baylor is 4-3, SMU 5-5, Rice 4-6 and Tech 3-6.

In other league action this week, Texas Tech visits Rice for a Friday twin bill and a single game Saturday and SMU is at Texas Friday and Saturday.

Pensacola Leader Is A 'Changed Man' Now

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI)—Ray Floyd doesn't mind admitting there was a time when he didn't let golf interfere with his fun, but he insists he's a changed man now.

"I've really had a change in attitude," said the handsome, 25-year-old golfer from St. Andrews, Ill., who holds a one-stroke lead going into today's final round of the Pensacola Open.

"There was a time when I'd lay my clubs aside and take a holiday," he said. "But, I realized I wasn't scoring as well as I knew I should so I decided to really get serious about it."

Winner of the St. Petersburg Open in 1963, Floyd's best money year was '65 when he won at St. Paul. But he put himself on a steady golf grind this past December and his already won more than $25,000 this year.

He tied for fifth at Crosby, eighth at Los Angeles and 11th at Hope; then took third place in the San Diego Open. He was 12th last week in the Florida Citrus.

He vaulted into the lead for the $16,000 first prize in this $80,000 tournament Sunday when he turned in a sizzling 8-under-par 64 that included an almost-unbelievable eagle.

The 64 gave Floyd a 14-under-par 202 for 54 holes. Englishman Tony Jacklin, who birdied four of his last seven holes for a 68, and towering George Archer, who had a 69, were tied for second at 203.

Rodriguez Top Fuel Eliminator

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—The Texas Professional Dragsters Circuit, an experiment inaugurated with the support of the National Hot Rod Association, became a reality Sunday as George Rodriguez of San Antonio won the top fuel eliminator championship at Amarillo Dragway.

By virtue of this victory in the first of 15 pro circuit events, Rodriguez earned $1000 in prize money and contingency awards.

In addition, the San Antonio driver was awarded 50 fuel circuit points which could lead to as much as $500 in bonus money at the end of each series of three meets.

Next meeting for circuit members will be at Odessa Raceway Park April 7. Following Odessa, the circuit will move to Austin April 21 and back to Amarillo for the start of the second round April 28.

Harvesters Host Caprock Tuesday

The Pampa Harvester baseballers will play host to the Caprock Longhorns Tuesday as league play continues in District 3-A.

The Harvesters will enter the game boasting two wins over the week end. The team topped Lubbock High, 4-1, behind the five-hit pitching of Dickie Henry; and followed that victory with a stunning win over Monterey of Lubbock, the pre-season favorite, 5-0.

Alan Woodard pitched a three-hitter as the Harvesters shut out Monterey.

Port Malabar Title To Miss Wright

PORT MALABAR, Fla. (UPI)—Blonde Mickey Wright of Dallas tamed 15-mile-an-hour winds Sunday for a par 71 to win the $10,000 Port Malabar invitational golf tournament with a three-day total of 216.

Miss Wright snapped up the $1,500 first place money as she and fourth place finisher Leslie Holbert fired the only two par rounds since the tournament's opening day.

Marilynn Smith, leader of the first two days, shot a 75 Sunday on rounds of 38-37 to finish three strokes back of Miss Wright at 219.

Kathy Whitworth, last year's leading money winner on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour, skied to a 78 Sunday to finish nine strokes back at 225. She won the 1968 tour opener last week, the Orange Blossom open at St. Petersburg.

Fort Worth Wins Title

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (UPI)—Team title in the National Golden Gloves championship went to Fort Worth, who members won 17 fights during the tournament.

The title was clinched for the Texans when spunky Rudy Variantes of Fort Worth decisively outpointed Los Angeles' Jesse Cabral Saturday night in the flyweight championship bout.

Lorenzo Trujillo, also of Fort Worth, picked up the 125-pound championship the easy way—by default, as his opponent, Kenneth Campbell of Lowell, Mass.; suffered a back injury and was unable to participate in championship action.

Individual sportmanship trophies were awarded to 10 boxers including two members of the Fort Worth team—Zeke Sanchez of Odessa and Terry Daniels of Dallas.

SAYON (OW)! — Japanese wrestler Toru Tanaka is removed by opponent Victor Rivera in a recent Madison Square Garden match. Tanaka expresses some displeasure at the maneuver. It might also be described as "Tea-house of the August Moon."

Alcindor 'Polishes Off' Brilliant Year As Junior

By GARY KALE
UPI Sports Writer

Low Alcindor has nothing to look forward to until next season when he closes out a brilliant college basketball career and perhaps turns into the most high-priced pro cage freshman on record.

Leapin' Lew decided to skip the heights of Mexico City as he refused entry into the Olympic basketball trials. He is resting on his latest laurels that resulted in UCLA winning another (ho hum) NCAA tourney title.

Alcindor humbled headline-making Elvin Hayes in this year's tourney the way he handled Don May of Dayton in the 1967 championships. He was merely exercising his right of proving who is the greatest.

UCLA walloped Hayes' Houston crew 101-69 in a Friday night NCAA semi-final showdown and then waltzed to its fourth tourney title in five years by crushing North Carolina 78-55 Saturday night. Alcindor greased the Tar Heels skid with 34 points.

May, escaping another encounter with Alcindor when Dayton was selected for the National Invitation Tournament, capitalized on his freedom by leading the Flyers to a 61-48 title win over Kansas Saturday. It was Dayton's second NIT title and marked the seventh time the Ohio school had reached the tourney final.

May was voted the most valuable player and undoubtedly sharpened his bargaining power with the pros as he led a second half Dayton attack with 17 of his 22 game points.

hard-driving guard who demoralized the enemy from the inside. The UCLA trio helped set an NCAA record with the widest victory margin ever recorded in a tourney final. The previous high was Ohio State's 20-point margin over California in 1960, 75-55.

Overall, UCLA was a tremendous drawing crowd for the tourney. More than a million television viewers watched the Bruins avenge an earlier defeat to Houston in their semifinal battle. The Cougars' sole consolation was Hayes' 70 field goals in five games that broke the record of 65 Princeton's Bill Bradley established in 1965.

Another Bradley mark creeps in. Bradley made within 10 points of that figure and only a stubborn defense by UCLA, which held him to 10 points, prevented the "Player of the Year" from setting a new scoring standard.

Bradley now owns a $500,000 contract with the New York Knickerbockers. Hayes is sure to command a pretty good salary when he turns pro. But all eyes are on Alcindor's college career closeout that could produce the first million dollar deal in pro basketba.

Minnesota, Dallas Take One-Game Lead; Pipers, Pacers Play Tonight

Ray Sadecki Four-Hits Angels 4-0

Training Camp Roundup
By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The most advanced pitcher in any major league camp this spring is an almost-forgotten lefty who didn't "start" his 1967 season until Sept. 3.

He's 27-year-old Ray Sadecki of the San Francisco Giants, who pitched a four-hitter Sunday to beat the California Angels 4-0 and become the first big league pitcher to go nine innings this spring.

"Sadecki is the best pitcher we have faced so far this spring," commented Manager Bill Rigney of the Angels.

Sadecki didn't allow a hit until Paul Schaal doubled in the sixth inning, struck out 10 batters and walked three. It was his third strong effort of the spring and established him as the Giants' No. 3 starter behind Juan Marchal and Gaylord Perry.

Sadecki is a pet project of the San Francisco front office which surrendered Orlando Cepeda in order to acquire him from the St. Louis Cardinals on May 8, 1966. The deal proved embarrassing to the Giants when Cepeda led the Cardinals to the world championship and was the unanimous selection as the National League's most valuable player last season while Sadecki was a 500-pitcher until the final month of the season.

In that final month, however, Sadecki recaptured the form that made him a 20-game winner in 1964, winning six straight complete games and allowing a total of 10 runs and 31 hits to finish the season with a 12-6 record. The Giants hope that performance plus his showing this spring will make the deal look more equal in 1968 than it has so far.

The Houston Astros stretched their winning streak to eight games with an 11-4 victory over the Oakland Athletics. Ron Miller hit a two-run homer for the Astros while San Bando hit his eighth homer of the spring and Reggie Jackson also homered for the Athletics.

Eddie Watt went the first five innings and Pete Richert the last four as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the New York Mets 3-0 for the club's second straight shutout victory. Larry Haney drove in single runs for the Orioles in the second, fourth and sixth innings with a single, an infield out and a squeeze bunt.

Willie Horton singled home a run in the first inning and doubled in another in the ninth in the Detroit Tigers' 2-0 win over the New York Yankees.

Denny McLain went the first seven innings and rookie Darrell Patterson cleaned up for the Tigers.

Bob Raudam's triple, a double by Fred Whitfield and a single by Tony Perez gave the Cincinnati Reds two ninth-inning runs and a 6-5 triumph over the Cardinals. Don Pavletich continued his strong bid for the Reds' catching job by driving in four runs with two homers and a single. It was the Reds' 10th victory in 15 exhibition games.

Pete Ward drove in three runs with a homer and two doubles to lead the Chicago White Sox past the Minnesota Twins 6-5. Tommy John and Bob Locker were hit hard by the Twins but 44-year old reliever Hoyt Wilhelm shut them out in the last two innings to preserve the win.

Don Drysdale and Jim Grant combined in a four-hitter as the Los Angeles Dodgers topped the Pittsburgh Pirates 4-0; the Cleveland Indians, shut out by Ferguson Jenkins for six innings, scored all their runs off Tommy Mandile in the seventh inning of a 5-4 decision over the Chicago Cubs; Ray Culp allowed two runs in seven innings and Mike Andrews homered for the Boston Red Sox in a 6-2 victory over the Atlanta Braves.

Ride The Winners ... Built To Go ... Bultaco And Yamaha!

Riding the trails is fun—the right machine. Nothing can be more torturous and frustrating than trails with a motorcycle which has not got the right torque, the right suspension, the right weight and pinpoint steering. Have you ever noticed that the International Six Day Trial is always referred to as a trial of "man and machine"? And everyone concentrates on the big "to-do" about reliability? We have that—we have had it for years, so on designing the model we kept the word "man" in the foreground. Any trail rider will have experienced the sensation of riding along a trail, and all of a sudden there it is upon you! A rock! A log! You cannot swerve. You cannot brake! Too late. There is nothing that you can do but hit it head on. You tense up, hold tight to the bars, and clamp your teeth, in preparation for some shattering! If you are on a Bultaco all this is unnecessary, for it will simply go over the obstruction as if it weren't there! Ronnie Meers recently showed Pampa what a Bultaco 250cc could do. Ronnie won first in his class at the races in Pampa. Johnny Downs was also a winner, also on a Bultaco. Johnny won the 175cc class in racing and trial riding. This fatigue-free riding has permitted our riders to obtain 14 gold medals in the International Six Day Trial. Yamaha has traditionally refused to settle for bikes that merely cater to the "in" crowd. Instead, we set our sights on machines that would meet the demands of the "out-in-front set, the kind of men (and women) who can't be satisfied by just going along with the rest of the pack. The kind that must lead instead of follow. Now, for '68, this dedication to perfection has never been so evident. Everything about the new YAMAHA is so advanced only one name could do them justice — THE EXCITERS. Meers' Oil, 1300 Alcock, will be happy to show you their complete line of BULTACO AND YAMAHA motorcycles and help you choose the one that best suits your special needs. Make this summer one your family will always remember—buy the BULTACO, BUILT TO GO—or the YAMAHA, the bike called the EXCITER.

The paper, co-authored with Dr. Robert Esenhight of the fuel science section, was entitled "Carbon Oxide Conversion in the Afterburning Region of a Hydrocarbon Flame at Atmospheric Pressure," and was given at a session devoted to the problem of chemical reactions as sources of air pollution. Mrs. Johnson holds a fellowship in air pollution studies and has been conducting research in the Combustion Laboratory under the direction of Dr. Esenhight. ### Two Post Bonds In Local Court Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford set bonds Sunday on Dee Martinez of Pampa for carrying a prohibitive weapon, and on Jimmy Charles Jones, Perryton, for driving while intoxicated, second offense. Both were released after making their bonds. Lunsford set Martinez's bond at $500 and Jones' bond at $1,000.

THE LIGHTER SIDE Real Events Funniest

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Malcolm Muggeridge, former editor of the British humor magazine Punch, observed in a speech here last week that these are perilous times for humorists. "Your wildest inventions prove to be exceeded by the originals," Muggeridge lamented. He is so right. Columnist Art Buchwald recently wrote a funny satire about the White House denying that President Johnson was stuck in an elevator in the Pentagon. Such a denial actually happened once. Several years ago, when Johnson was Senate Democratic leader, he got stuck in an elevator in the Capitol. A UPI reporter put a squib about it in the wire. The next day Johnson called him up and denied it ever happened. Real events have topped my own wild inventions more times than I can count. I once jestingly recommended that somebody bring out a hair cream called "Greasy Kid Stuff." It turned out such a product had already been introduced. I made a facetious proposal that the trash disposal problem be solved by using garbage to build six mountains. Only to learn that such a project already was underway. It's maddening, I tell you. Try putting your tongue in your cheek nowadays and you wind up biting it. At the moment I am suffering over a column I wrote a few days ago about a lady who cleaned out her medicine cabinet and dumped the leftover pills and stuff on her geranium plants. She claimed one of the geraniums responded favorably to antihistamines. Which was downright ridiculous, and I treated it accordingly. I was still chuckling over it a few days later when I picked up a press release from the Agriculture Department. The second my eyes hit the caption I turned deathly pale. "Drugs for human pneumonia are effective on plant disease," it said. The department went on to relate that several antibiotics commonly used to treat pneumonia had been found to be a cure for a vegetable disease known as "aster yellows." This is the last straw. I am so shook up I don't even have the nerve to suggest that doctors will soon be making house calls on ailing tomato vines. If I did, I know what would happen next. I would come down with a severe case of aster yellows.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren
DEAR ABBY: I have been married to Meyer for three years. He's short, fat, and bald, but he thinks he's God's gift to women. This is my second marriage and his fourth. I am 55 and Meyer claims he's 63, but I'm sure he's closer to 70. For the last year Meyer has been chasing young girls. Believe me, he is no lady-killer, but he has plenty of money which explains why he can get a different young girl every night. He goes around in public with his girl friends and has even brought them to our apartment, knowing I will come home and catch him. He came right out and asked me to divorce him, but he is not getting rid of me so easy. I am too old to work and I don't want to get married again. I told him I made a bad deal but I'm willing to sit with it. Am I wrong? I am really satisfied with things as they are, as I don't bother him and he does not bother me.
STANDING PAT IN MANHATTAN
DEAR STANDING: Yours is a very strange marriage, but to each his own. Tell Meyer to quit chasing young girls before he drops dead. And if he wants a divorce in New York, he'll have to catch YOU.
DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are in our twenties, have been married over a year, and are expecting our first child soon. My husband works out of town six nights a week, and Sunday is our only day together, and we like to spend it alone. Here's our problem: We have two friends, a young engaged couple, who come to visit us EVERY Sunday. If we aren't home when they arrive, they wait for us outside in their car. We have hinted and tried to tell them in every polite way we know that they have worn out their welcome, but they don't seem to understand. Last Sunday when they came, I was lying down as I didn't feel well. My husband told them this at the door, but they just said, "That's too bad," and they bagged in anyway, took off their coats, and stayed all day visiting with my husband. Abby, we are at the end of our rope with these people. We hate to hurt their feelings, but
