Germans Are Smashed On Two Fronts

Woman Shoots Two Children, One Fatally

'Rather Have Them Dead Than Taken From Me,' She Says

DALLAS, May 6 (AP)—Louise Martin, 6, was shot to death and her brother, Watt Martin, III, 7, was wounded critically at noon today by their mother, known here as Mary K. Fyralley.

The children were being prepared to return to Miami Beach, Fla., with their father, Watt Martin, Jr., who was awarded their custody until Sept. 14 in an agreed judgment entered by Judge W. L. Thornton in district court here yesterday.

'I just couldn't bear to have them taken from me. I'd rather have them dead than away from me,' the woman told police.

The shooting occurred in the apartment of A. S. W. Fyralley, who is a radio announcer here under another name. The former Mrs. Martin and the children had been living here with Fyralley and she went by the name of Fyralley.

The agreed judgment provided that Martin and his former wife divide custody of the children, each keeping them for six-month periods. Martin was to have first custody, until Sept. 14.

The Martin boy was taken to Parkland hospital in a critical condition. Both children were shot through the head.

Burma Point Hit By Yanks

NEW DELHI, May 6 (AP)—American heavy bombers dropped more than 30 tons of bombs Tuesday on Japanese installations in Toungoo, Burma, blasting the enemy headquarters there and causing great damage to other buildings, a communique of the U. S. army air forces announced today.

Announcement of the raid, carried out by the 10th air force, followed by a day of the disclosure of a smashing attack Tuesday by four-engine Liberator bombers of the 14th air force on Hsinan Island, off the southern tip of China.

The attack on Toungoo was accompanied by a raid by B-25 medium bombers on railway installations at Nyanan, west of Mandalay, where hits were registered on tracks and storage sheds and a turntable was demolished, the communique said.

All aircraft were reported to have returned from these and other operations.

Jean Porter And Mother To Visit Here Briefly

HARRY C. PORTER said Thursday that his daughter, Jean Porter, and wife would visit here briefly Thursday night and Friday while enroute to Brownwood where Mrs. Porter's father, T. D. Snipes, has been reported seriously ill.

Jean, recently rising on the ladder of movie success, is recovering from an illness and will not be able to make any public appearances here.

Recently, she signed—and with a nice bonus—a long-time contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer following her handling of her best role to date in the forthcoming MGM picture, "The Youngest Profession."

Treasury Opposes House Tax Abatement Measure

Pay-As-You-Go Advocates Are Still Active

Republicans To Lead Another Fight For The Ruml Plan

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The treasury told the senate finance committee today that while there is "little room for choice" between three plans for current collection of taxes, the abatement of revenues proposed under the Carlson-Ruml measure advocated unsuccessfully by republicans in the house "is thoroughly inequitable and unfair."

In an analysis of the house-approved Forand-Robertson bill, the rejected ways and means committee measure and the Carlson-Ruml plan, Randolph Paul, treasury general counsel, said that any choice between the three measures must be based primarily on the proposals to abate 1942 tax liabilities.

"Insofar as the distribution of forgiveness is concerned, the treasury department believes that both the ways and means committee bill and the house bill distribute the cancellation of the 1942 tax on a reasonably equitable and fair basis," Paul said.

He added that the smaller amount of cancellation provided under the ways and means bill "results in a substantial increase in the revenue collections in the next few years at a time when such an increase is vitally necessary."

The treasury therefore believes that the ways and means committee bill possesses a definite advantage over the house bill," he added.

Paul said that while the Carlson bill would produce some additional revenue in the fiscal year 1944, "this aspect is more than offset by the factor of inequitable treatment of the 1942 tax."

"The treasury therefore believes that the Ruml-Carlson bill is definitely inferior to both the ways and means committee bill and the house bill," he continued.

In the important aspects of collection at the source and the current tax payment provisions, Paul said, the treasury believes there is little room for choice between the three major bills.

"All three provide for the fundamental change in tax payment methods which is necessary in our tax law," he added.

Rebuffed by the house, republican Rumlites enlisted some democratic support and carried to the senate finance committee a fight for abatement of a full year's levies in the new current-collection tax bill.

Minority Leader McNary of Oregon said a move to substitute a modified version of the Ruml "skip a year" plan of putting income taxes on a current basis would have full republican support in the committee. If it unexpectedly fails there, he said the republicans would take the issue to the floor, just as their colleagues did unsuccessfully in the house.

GO AND STAY LONDON, May 6 (AP)—William Gallacher, only communist member of the house of commons, informed the house today that he had been invited to visit India and look into the situation there.

Members promptly shouted: "Go and stay there!"

Suggestions From Originator— Wear War Stamp Flowers On This Mother's Day

PHILADELPHIA, May 6 (AP)—The mother of Mother's Day, a frail little spinster who resembles Whistler's mother, urged today that her countrymen wear war stamp flowers this year instead of the traditional carnation.

"It was done in 1918," recalled Miss Anna M. Jarvis as she sat in her Victorian parlor, darkened by blinds which hid a broken window and cluttered by a 30-year collection of Mother's day proclamations, letters, newspaper clippings and mementoes.

Jacob L. Devers New Commander In European Area

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Lieutenant General Jacob L. Devers, commander of the armored force, was named today by Secretary of War Stimson to succeed Lieutenant General Frank M. Andrews as Commander of American army troops in the European theater.

LT. GEN. JACOB L. DEVERS

Andrews was killed in a plane crash in Iceland, and Stimson said his death deprived the country of "one of its most brilliant and gallant officers."

Devers, the secretary said, already has shown "an immense capacity for organization and administration as head of the armored force," and in addition has been especially prepared for the European command by a recent trip of study and inspection to the entire European, North African and Middle East theaters of war.

"He is thoroughly cognizant with present and future plans," the secretary told his press conference. He added that Devers' arrival in England would be announced in London.

Devers was born September 8, 1887 at York, Pa., and was graduated from West Point in 1909, being commissioned in the field artillery.

During the last war he was an instructor and assistant director of the school of fire at Fort Sill, Okla., but went to Europe for several months in 1919.

REPORT ON CRASH LONDON, May 6 (AP)—The Iceland plane crash in which Lieut. Gen. Frank M. Andrews and 13 others were killed Monday occurred when the "weather was bad with a very low ceiling and poor visibility due to rain and low clouds," it was announced today by the United States army.

The announcement said the plane struck a hill in an isolated section near Grindavik and was demolished. The only survivor was the rear gunner, Staff Sgt. George A. Elsel.

Besides Lieut. Gen. Andrews, commander of United States forces in the European theater of operations, those killed include Bishop Adna W. Leonard of the Methodist Episcopal church of Washington, D. C.

Nearly 2 Billion In Goods To Russia LONDON, May 6 (AP)—The two-day district AAA meeting closed Thursday afternoon with discussions of local problems, directed by A. H. Jeffries, AAA field man, following talks on USDA War Board forms and procedure in progress since Wednesday.

Bill Channault, AAA administrative officer, spoke to the delegates Thursday morning on "Recommendations for Conservation of Provisions of the 1944 Agricultural Conservation Program," a questionnaire.

The questionnaire is to be filled out by each county and Channault explained the form and method of answering questions required.

Reds Hammer At Nazis Near Novorossisk

Hitler's Armies Are Weakened With Many Casualties

LONDON, May 6 (AP)—The Red army has advanced "far beyond" Krymskaya in the Caucasus and now is storming new German fortifications, the Moscow radio reported today in a broadcast recorded here by the Soviet monitor.

MOSCOW, May 6 (AP)—The Red army, hammering today at the northwest approaches to Novorossisk, has taken a dozen more villages in the area in addition to Krymskaya and nine other towns which the Soviets announced they captured yesterday in smashing through the Kuban delta bulge toward the Black sea port.

One of the villages is about nine miles northeast of Novorossisk in the hilly marsh country through which the Soviet troops are sweeping the Germans toward the sea in a drive gaining daily momentum.

Massive artillery barrages paved the way for new thrusts and moved down hundreds of German and Rumanian soldiers in the front lines and in deeply-fortified positions.

Soviet bombing planes sprayed the axis troops with bombs and cannon fire as they tried to cling to their defense points against the mounting pressure.

The loss of 7,000 dead and of numerous men captured in the last few days has weakened the axis forces but their strength probably remains far from crushed. For weeks Hitler has been bringing up tanks and munitions, possibly in preparation for the spring offensive in the Kuban.

The Berlin radio said that German forces had frustrated heavy Russian attacks in the Kuban bridgehead, destroying 20 Soviet tanks, and that they had halted several sporadic thrusts made by the Russians south of Novorossisk. The broadcast was recorded by the Associated Press.

Two major gains were achieved by the capture of Krymskaya, 17 miles northeast of the former Russian naval base.

It poised the Red army in a position menacing the city and it cut the German-held railway between Novorossisk and Protoka, which is 36 miles northeast of the port.

Iceland Crash Fatal To Twelve

LONDON, May 6 (AP)—The Iceland plane crash in which Lt. Gen. Frank M. Andrews, commander of American troops in the European theater, and Bishop Adna W. Leonard of the Methodist Episcopal church were killed Monday took the lives of 12 other men.

The war department, in announcing the death list yesterday, reported that Staff Sgt. George A. Elsel of Columbus, Ohio, was the only survivor. He escaped serious injury.

General Andrews' chief of staff, 39-year-old Brig. Gen. Charles H. Barth of Walker, Minn., and Leaveworth, Kan., and two chaplains were among those killed. The chaplains were Col. Frank L. Miller of the office of the chief of chaplains, Washington, and Maj. Robert H. Humphrey, Lynchburg, Va.

Camp Construction Is Tapering Off WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—War department engineers, having completed 90 per cent of a ten billion dollar program of building camps, plants, airfields and similar works in this country for the armed forces, expect to taper off a little now.

Congress likely will be asked to provide only about one billion dollars for additional construction during the next fiscal year, beginning July 1. Major General Eugene Keybold, chief of the army corps of engineers, said as he reviewed the army building program for the senate appropriations committee.

Compensation Case Reset For May 21 The suit of T. F. Alexander versus Pioneer Mutual Compensation company, scheduled for hearing in 70th district court Thursday morning, has been reset for Friday, May 21, Judge Cecil Collins said today.

Allied Gains—In the top map, arrows indicate allied drives in sections closest to Tunis and Bizerte. American and French forces pushing along the coast to Bizerte were only a few miles from the city and had captured important heights around Lake Achkel, other American forces were near Ferryville and patrols pushed close to Tebourba. The British had made an important break-through east of Medjez-el-Bab. The lower map shows the sector of violent fighting in the Kuban valley of Russia, where the Reds were pushing on Novorossisk. Krymskaya and many other smaller towns were recaptured. Shaded area is approximate German-held territory.

Miners Ignore Labor Board

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers continued to ignore the War Labor Board's efforts to solve the soft coal wage dispute today as a panel took testimony from bituminous operators.

Nearly an hour late, the panel resumed hearings behind closed doors and again the UMW was not represented.

WLB officials said Charles O'Neill continued his presentation for the Northern Appalachian operators. About 50 operators, north and south and their spokesmen were on hand.

On this third day of a two-week truce under which soft coal is being mined, there were these developments: 1—Harold L. Ickes, fuel administrator and current coal field boss for the government, set up a system where—in an emergency—coal could be seized from those who have it and diverted it to those who have not;

2—War Production Board officials indicated a nationwide dim-out would be ordered if the miners walk out again when the truce ends;

3—The United Mine Workers who defied the WLB gave no sign that they would participate in the hearings.

We Must Keep On Keeping On— If the people on the home front think there's a "breathing spell" in the financing of the war, they've got another think coming.

Howard county's war bond quota for May had come through Thursday, and it's a sizeable sum—$115,000; the largest in many months with the exception of April, when the Second War Loan was on. And this figure is to be met with the E bonds—those designed for the "little fellow," ranging in denomination from $25 to $1,000 and for sale only to individuals.

Axis Routed From Heights Near Bizerte

British Pound At Barrier Before The Plains Of Tunis

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, May 6 (AP)—Field dispatches said today Allied infantrymen had captured strategic heights both north and south of Lake Achkel in the drive upon Bizerte and the German barriers before the plain of Tunis cracked at the center with the fall of Djebel Bou Aoukaz to the British First army.

United States foot troops and armored attacked along the entire northern sector, their advance preceded by a big artillery barrage and accompanied by one of the heaviest Allied air actions of the North African campaign.

Axis troops were routed from Sister Heights rising above Lake Achkel, Djebel Achkel on the south and Djebel Chinit on the north field dispatches said, and an armored column swung from an area above Mateur toward Ferryville, the bomb-ravaged Lake Bizerte port eight miles south of the naval base.

Djebel Chinit was described as the biggest remaining barrier before the American and French units closing in upon Bizerte.

In a related drive at the southern end of the Second U.S. army corps' line, other troops pushed to a group of hills east of Sidi Khilla on the way to Tebourba, six miles east of Eddekhila and 18 miles west of Tunis.

This area lies north of Djebel Bou Aoukaz, 12 miles northeast of Medjez-el-Bab, which was won by the British yesterday.

The northwest African air forces, striking fresh blows at the Axis line along the Sicilian Straits, sank two ships and severely damaged seven more.

Flying Fortresses sank an ammunition ship in the straits and damaged another in La Goulette harbor during a raid which also damaged several small craft, blasted barracks and oil storage and unloading depots and started many fires.

Allied fighter planes carried out 1,200 sorties—individual flights—yesterday in their biggest day's effort in the battle of Tunisia.

In all, 11 Axis aircraft were shot down yesterday. Four Allied planes failed to return.

In what appeared to be a desperate fight to organize defenses on the road to Bizerte, along which both American and French forces have been pressing to distances as close as 10 miles, Axis troops counterattacked repeatedly in the area of Djebel Chinit, north of Lake Achkel.

All were repulsed and the Americans took more than 300 prisoners, most of whom were Italians.

South of the lake, Axis troops left behind on the 1,657-foot summit of Djebel Bou Aoukaz, which lies between the Sidi Salem and the Ferryville roads seven miles southwest of Ferryville, attempted to withdraw when they saw the Americans and French advancing on both sides of them.

The U.S. Second Corps, however, forced them to stand and fight. The Americans gained a considerable portion of the hill, mopping up the enemy as they advanced.

British First army troops of Lieut. Gen. K. N. Anderson, following close behind an earth-rocking aerial bombardment and artillery barrage, rushed the blood-drenched Djebel Bou Aoukaz at 5 p. m. yesterday to win that night dominating the Medjerda river valley and the road to Tebourba. Thirty prisoners were taken.

The action advanced a pincer movement against Tebourba from the southwest. United States troops already had occupied Eddekhila, six miles west of that road junction which is "half 15 miles west of Tunis."

A local advance was reported made by Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's British Eighth army on the southern front, which stretches through the mountain westward from the coastal marshes of the Gulf of Hammamet above Enfidaville.

New Liquor Law Signed

AUSTIN, May 6 (AP)—The curfew bill to shorten hours for the sale and public consumption of alcoholic beverages carried the governor's signature today but it won't become law until 90 days after the legislature adjourns May 11.

Failure to get sufficient votes in the senate to put the emergency clause into effect will prevent its provisions from becoming operative before August.

Beer sales will start at 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. during the week. The old Sunday closing law on distilled spirits sales is not affected.

Attu Island Hit By US Bombers

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The navy reported today that Liberator heavy bombers and Lightning fighters attacked Japanese installations on Attu Island, westernmost of the Aleutians, on Tuesday.

There was no report of any new action at Kiska Island, the main Japanese base 172 nautical miles east of Attu. In the first three days of this month Kiska was attacked a total of 30 times.

County's May Quota In War Bonds Is $115,600

Howard county's war bond quota for May had come through Thursday, and it's a sizeable sum—$115,000; the largest in many months with the exception of April, when the Second War Loan was on. And this figure is to be met with the E bonds—those designed for the "little fellow," ranging in denomination from $25 to $1,000 and for sale only to individuals.

"It looks big, but we'll make it," said County Bond Chairman Ira Thurman. "April's $708,000 looked big, too, but Howard countians subscribed over a million; and we haven't missed a monthly quota in a year."

To Share Mother With Whole Post

SALT LAKE CITY, May 6 (AP)—"Mother's Day" for Pvt. Vergil C. Herrington, 21, of Palestine, Tex., is something special.

Expected to arrive tomorrow is his mother, Mrs. Callie Herrington. Her son must share her, however, for she has been designated "Kearns Mother" by a vote of the men at the army air force basic training center at Kearns, near Salt Lake City. Her trip is being sponsored by the post.

A mother of six sons, three of them in the service, Mrs. Herrington will be escorted to the base by a detachment of military police of which her son is a member.

Hearing Slated On Diseased Meat

AUSTIN, May 6 (AP)—Several members of a special house committee instructed to investigate the reported sale of diseased meat for human consumption in Texas planned to leave today for Fort Worth where hearings are scheduled to get under way Friday.

Chairman Roger Q. Evans of Denison said the committee would take testimony in a hearing Friday morning at the Tarrant county court house. The committee has already visited three San Antonio packing plants, he said.

Evans said the committee expects to make a report to the house by Monday.

IN BRITAIN LONDON, May 6 (AP)—Crown Prince Olav of Norway has arrived in Britain by plane from North America, it was announced today.

DALLAS, May 6 (AP)—Texans can expect seven day laundry service for the duration as a result of a two-day conference of the Texas Laundry Owners association here.

Stuart W. Short, Galveston laundry operator, elected president of the association, said a greater volume of production would be gained by streamlined methods.

Pinch Is Beginning To Be Felt On City's Meat Supply

The fresh beef market in Big Spring was one big question mark Thursday.

It was normal in spots, reasonably pinched in others and shut off or drastically reduced in some quarters.

Several retail butcher shops reported their local supplies had not been affected visibly by the revocation of temporary butchering permits by the state war board.

State Hospital Construction Criticized

AUSTIN, May 6 (AP)—The house of representatives today postponed until Monday consideration of a proposal to authorize a continuing investigation of almshouse institutions.

The vote to postpone came after the regular committee on almshouse institutions filed a report on an inspection tour of institutions which the committee said generally had improved in the past two years.

The report added that the present board of control was doing all in its power to bring about more humane and economic conditions in hospitals, homes and schools.

The report of the regular committee was critical of some institutions and made these comments: Big Spring State Hospital—buildings flimsily constructed and should not have been accepted from the contractor.

Abilene School for Epilepsy—men's dormitories in very poor condition; some of them filthy. An air of carelessness was noted among employees and a very low morale among patients.

Gatesville School for Boys—well pleased with administration, but some of the people of Gatesville had complained that efficiency was not high.

Woman Destroys Draft Records Of Her Son

NEWARK, N. J., May 6 (AP)—A mother who was quoted as saying she believed her freedom was abridged because her sons were being drafted into military service was in parole today for action of the federal grand jury in the destruction of selective service records.

Samuel K. McKee, head of the FBI in New Jersey, said Mrs. Rose Seldner, 60, of Weehawen, had appeared at the offices of the West New York draft board and destroyed the records of her son.

The son, Max, 37, who was to have been inducted into the army Monday, appeared after his mother had been arraigned and announced he would not report for induction, U. S. Commissioner William J. Bartholomew said.

Mrs. Seldner, who has one son in the army and a third awaiting call soon, was quoted by McKee as saying the family had no religious scruple against military service, but that the sons were unwilling to kill.

LeBleu, Graves Take Honors In Women's Bowling

Annette LeBleu and Elizabeth Graves set the pattern in bowling 70th District Court the Simons bowling lanes Wednesday evening.

Mrs. LeBleu of the J&L Drug team had top game of 124 and high series of 503, while Miss Graves fired a 177 game and a 480 series.

J&L bowlers racked up games of 731, 690, 684 to hog honors in team play.

J&L bested Anthony in two games and played a tie for the third. Bliss Liquor bested the Club cafe 2-1 and Schlitz took three games by default from the Simons crew.

WAAC Recruiters Move To Lamesa

Women's Army Auxiliary Corps recruiters were cutting short their stay in Big Spring Thursday evening in order to spend Friday at Lamesa, Lieut. Raymond J. Dees, in charge of the detachment, announced.

While there have been no closed applications during the three days in which Lieut. Dees, accompanied by Lieut. Thelma Moore and Sgt. Elizabeth Allread of the WAACs, have been here, nevertheless, several good potential WAACs have been contacted. Lieut. Dees said that possibility some enrollments soon might be the result.

He stressed again the opportunity for women to enroll for special service in the army signal corps as radio operators, radio repairers, radio telephone operators and teletypewriter operators.

A limited number will be accepted for this program, be given special training and pay for it at the rate of $1,020 a year for the first three months and $1,440 for the second three. After six months the enrollees go to a WAAC training center for basic training and then for assignment by the chief signal officer.

750 Head Sold In Weekly Livestock Auction Here

Prices on the whole remained strong in Wednesday's auction sale of the Big Spring Livestock Commission company, although the market "broke" on cows with calves. Due to dry weather, demand for these animals was off.

Sales volume aggregated $33,000, with about 750 head going through the ring. Fat cows sold up to $11.50; butcher cows $7.50-9.50; fat butcher yearlings up to $14.40; ordinary butcher yearlings $9.50-11; stocker steers up to $15; hog offerings were small.

Big Bomber Burns Following Crash

SODA SPRINGS, Idaho, May 6 (AP)—A four-engined bomber from the army air base at Wendover, Utah, smashed into a mountainside two miles east of Soda Springs last night, then burst into flames.

Three bodies were dragged from the burning plane by civilian rescue crews which raced to the site. The public relations office at Wendover said the plane—presumably carrying the usual crew of nine men—was on a routine training flight. Names of those aboard were withheld pending determination of the number dead and the notification of next of kin.

YES You can still be an AVIATION CADET!

1 If you want to fight for your country in the air, where there's need for your skill and daring—if you want to be ready for a future career in aviation—the opportunity is still open to you.

2 If you have already been called for induction, you cannot apply direct for Aviation Cadet training. But, if you are assigned to the Army, you have the same opportunity open to every soldier, 18 to 26 years old, inclusive, to apply for Aviation Cadet training after you are in the ranks.

3 If you are 17 but not yet 18, you can go now to your Aviation Cadet Examining Board and volunteer for enlistment in the Air Corps Cadet Enlisted Reserve. Air Corps Enlisted Reservists are called to active duty for pre-flight training at the end of the first school semester after reaching the age of 18.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE JOINT ARMY-NAVY PERSONNEL BOARD.

Write to The Adjutant General of the Army, Washington, D. C., for booklet entitled "Aviation Cadet Training for the Army Air Forces."

Why is COTTON AN ESSENTIAL WAR CROP?

Here is what we get from our Cotton Crop: With every 500-pound bale of lint we grow, we get about

900 POUNDS OF COTTONSEED

900 pounds of Cottonseed yield about 400 POUNDS OF COTTONSEED MEAL OR CAKE, to furnish critically needed protein for our beef and dairy herds.

240 POUNDS OF COTTONSEED HULLS, totaling 640 POUNDS OF LIVESTOCK FEED, compared to the 500 pounds of lint . . . . . about 75 to 80 POUNDS OF COTTON LINTERS FOR GUNPOWDER TO BLAST THE AXIS. —and about 130 to 140 POUNDS OF COTTONSEED OIL.

We do not have a surplus of these products; we never have. We need, today, far more than we can produce from the cottonseed we are growing. We need more fat . . . the government is asking your wife to save every pound of fat "drippings." How long would it take her to save the 130 pounds of fat produced every time we grow a bale of cotton . . . and lose every time we reduce our cotton production by the equivalent of one bale?

Officers Named For Colorado Camp Fire Girls

COLORADO CITY, May 6—Organization of a Camp Fire council to further Camp Fire activities in Colorado City was completed this week with the announcement of officers. Frank Ramsdell was named president; Mrs. Neal Pritchard, vice president; Miss Billie Wyatt, secretary, and Earl Bibby, treasurer.

Heading the adult membership committee is Mrs. A. L. Whipple; camp chairman is Trust Barber; extension chairman, Mrs. Pritchard; social chairman, Mrs. A. L. Gear; award chairman, Mrs. J. Ralph Lee; civic service chairman, Jack Helton; finance chairman, Max Berman; education chairman, Mrs. J. Floyd Quinsey; and publicity chairman, Mrs. W. H. Coffey.

Members at large, who will serve on the various committees are Mrs. Ed Williams, Mrs. C. M. Epps, Rev. C. E. Cogswell, Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, Mrs. A. E. McClain, Mrs. Charles B. Brinkley, Bruce Hart, J. W. Randle, J. Y. Fraser and Mrs. Harry Ratliff.

Mrs. Henry Vaught, president of the Guardians association, will also sit in the council which will meet each second Friday evening. The most immediate project under consideration is the second session of Camp Tejas, summer camp at Buffalo Gap. In 1942, 50 Colorado City girls were enrolled for a five day period of camp. This year problems of transportation and food rationing will be worked out, if possible, by the new council.

Tentative dates for the camp have been set for July 19th. The Camp Fire work has grown steadily here since Mrs. Vaught organized the first group of this generation several years ago. Four groups and one Blue Bird group are now active.

Best way to get maximum corn production is through greater use of hybrids, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Business Women To Sponsor The Exhibit Here

Perhaps there are antiques and hobby collections more valuable, ancient and beautiful than the one which caught our eye, but something we'd heard rumored but had never seen was a "bonnet to goodness" mustache cup which will be shown this evening along with many other articles at the antique and hobby show which is being held at the T. S. Currie home, 6 11 o'clock, under the sponsorship of the Business Women's Circle of the First Presbyterian church.

Among the collections which will be displayed is a music box owned by H. D. Williams of Forean which was taken from the Germans by his grandfather in the Prussian war of 1872 and brought to America from Denmark by his father. The Rev. P. Marion Simms will exhibit his Bible which is 400 years old and a cup and saucer identical of one which is on display in the Kaiser museum will be shown by Mrs. L. L. Freeman.

Nat Shick has contributed a charcoal iron to the collection and Mrs. J. Y. Robb will show her antique clock which came from France and is 150 years old. A crystal collection like one owned by Henry Ford will be shown by Mrs. T. S. Currie along with a set of plates, Old London Views, which will be displayed by Agnes Currie.

A collection of fine linens which will also be shown by Miss Currie includes a cloth from the Philippines which is made of pineapple fibre and called "pina cloth," Switzerland linen and a Spanish "mantilla" cloth.

Mrs. J. B. Littler will show her collection of musical plates along with Mrs. Joyce Fisher's collection of milk glass.

Another outstanding feature will be Mrs. Cecil Westerman's varied collection of salt and pepper shakers which number around 250 pairs and Mrs. Roland Schwarzenbach's collection of spoons which were made of silver dollars by her grandfather as a gift to her grandmother.

These are only a few of the numerous antiques and hobby collections which will be displayed tonight.

The public is invited to attend the entertainment which is being sponsored to raise funds for carpeting the aisle and altar of the First Presbyterian church.

F/O Bill Horne, formerly of Big Spring, is now stationed at Corpus Christi as a pilot in the air corps.

The public is invited to attend a free program which will be presented this evening, 8:15 o'clock at the city auditorium in connection with National and International Music Week which is being observed in Big Spring.

The keynote of the 1943 observance "Foster American and World Unity Through Music," will be exemplified in the student program which will be presented by the Junior Chorus (top photo) which is composed of approximately 65 junior high school students and students of the Kate Morrison Mexican school (lower photo) directed by Emma Cecil Valley.

Miss Kathryn Malloy, top right, Junior High school music teacher, will direct the student program tonight.

This evening's entertainment marks the third program to be presented during the observance sponsored by the Senior Music club and assisted by other local music clubs. (Chorus photos by Kelsey.)

Dr. Egbert W. Smith Is Guest Speaker At Church Entertainment

Honeysuckle And Roses Decorate Banquet Tables

Around 150 persons attended an All-Church Night entertainment which was held at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening in connection with the observance of National "Foster American and World Unity Through Music," Week, honoring Dr. Egbert Smith, Presbyterian missionary and speaker of world affairs, who has been lecturing in Big Spring for the past four days.

The banquet was held in the church basement and the speaker's table, covered with an Irish linen cloth, was centered with a mixed bouquet of pink and lavender larkspur encircled with roses and honeysuckle. Bowls of honeysuckle and rosebuds were placed at vantage points on other tables.

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary was in charge of the meal, and serving as hostesses in charge of food and preparation were Mrs. Cecil Wasson, Mrs. J. C. Lane, Mrs. F. H. Talbott, Mrs. R. V. Middleton and Mrs. Lee Porter.

The table committee included Mrs. E. C. Bostler, chairman, Mrs. L. G. Talley, Mrs. H. C. Stipp and Mrs. Julia Beacham. Members of the Business Women's Circle assisted.

"Even though the Christian people of Korea are persecuted, they still live up to the standards of the Christian religion, Dr. Smith pointed out in his address on "Korea" which was held in the church auditorium following the banquet. He stated that the churches of Korea stood firmly for the principles which the church stood for, according to their Christian beliefs, despite the ridicule and harsh treatment they received.

The Wednesday evening address at the Presbyterian church concluded a series of talks which have been held in Big Spring by the Presbyterian missionary.

PHILATHEA CLASS ENTERTAINS WITH LUNCHEON HERE

The Philathea class of the First Methodist church met for a covered dish luncheon and business meeting at the church Wednesday with Mrs. C. R. Moad and her group as hostesses for the day.

Tables were decorated with bouquets of pink roses and honeysuckle. During a business meeting it was announced that two hostesses would serve in classrooms each Sunday morning, greeting guests and introducing new members.

Mrs. Ollie Cordill, president of the class presided over the meeting and hymns were sung. Gifts were exchanged by secret pass.

Specimens of leather tanned by the ancient Egyptians have been preserved to the present day.

Notes

MARY WHALEY

Yesterday was a red letter day but the only trouble is that nobody believes us when we tell about it. It seems incredible but it's true—we got two pats of butter with our lunch.

Now don't start any OPA officials on our trail because the waitress didn't know she did it. And don't shake a finger at us, because we didn't let our right hand know what our left was doing.

We engaged the waitress in a conversation about the time she brought us the first pat of butter and it wasn't our fault that it sort of slid under a droopy lettuce leaf that hung off the plate.

In a minute she was back again and set that little bit of rationed stuff down before us. We didn't figure out what was up.

There were only a couple of tired looking rolls to put the butter on but, gee, it was fun. Using the lettuce leaf as a canopy to hide the extra butter we ignored the curious and staring people who tried to figure out what was up.

When the meal was over, we didn't wait for dessert but hurried out before anybody could find the evidence. All in all, it was a wonderful experience that probably will never happen again.

Dorcas Class Has Luncheon

The Dorcas class of the East Fourth Baptist church entertained with a covered dish luncheon and business meeting Wednesday at the church and Mrs. J. R. Kinard, president of the class, was in charge of the meeting.

The devotional was taken from Psalms and Mrs. A. J. Hilburn gave a prayer.

Reports were heard from class committees and a review of the monthly Sunday school lesson was given by Mrs. J. G. Couch.

Those attending were Mrs. J. A. Kinard, Mrs. J. G. Couch, Mrs. J. W. Hollis, Mrs. A. D. Harmon, Mrs. J. P. Riddle, Mrs. A. J. Hilburn and Mrs. R. J. Barton.

Seniors Present Senior Play At State Hospital

Big Spring high school seniors presented the play, "Minus a Million," three-act comedy by Jean Lee Latham, at the Big Spring State Hospital Wednesday evening, directed by Mrs. Thurman Gentry.

Entertainment furnished in the third act was presented by Marlene Merwin who sang "Alice Blue Gown," accompanied by Reta Debenport; Betty Bob Diltz, who sang "Murder He Says," accompanied by Helen Duley. Billie Frances Shaffer presented a novelty twirling act and Patricia Selkirk and Stewart Smith sang a duet number, "Mary."

Joyce Martin concluded the program with impersonations.

The Canning Outlook: Sugar Limited; Cans Scarce; Glass Jar Supply Plentiful

Sugar will be made available in limited quantities, tin cans will be scarce, and glass jars plentiful, according to Rhea Merle Boyles, county home demonstration agent in a canning prospectus for the summer.

She reiterated that the OPA regional office at Dallas had authorized local rationing boards to grant home canning sugar on the RAS basis of one pound for four quarts canned fruit without surrendering book points.

While WPB order M-81 does not limit the number of cans to be available for home processed food not to be sold, there will be restrictions on containers to be used for foods for sale. All reports indicate that tin cans will be of inferior quality, and because of demand there will be a scarcity. It will be even more important that care of cans in processing and in storage be practiced.

Best information is that there will be no restrictions on jars manufactured. Three billion new closures are being made with two and a half billion of them with rubber compound flowed into rim instead of separate rubber ring. Screw bands probably will be fewer in number because they can be used several times. There will be 634,000,000 three-piece units consisting of glass cap, small rubber ring and steel screw bank. Only 144,000,000 metal lids like the well-known zinc lid will be made, and there will be 79,000,000 glass lids, lightning jars with wire clamps and shoulder rubber rings.

Plenty of rubber rings are available for jars already on hand.

Commercial pack jars, in which mayonnaise, pickles, jam, coffee, etc., are sold, may be used. Most use standard lids, and those which are slightly smaller may be fitted with small metal discs. It is suggested the original metal cap of the jar (with liner removed) may be used to hold the disc in place for the sealing instead of a new screw band. Such jar, however, should be used only for canning foods which do not require processing in a pressure cooker.

Plans have not yet been worked out for rationing canners in Texas, but a priorities system probably will be developed to favor groups which can process large amounts of food. Estimates are that there may be eight to 10 thousand steel canners available in Texas this year. There is no word about sealers being made.

From J. P. Dowell, McKinney, who handles more cooker repairs perhaps than any other person in the state comes word that repairs will take a week to 10 days longer than usual, that parts are in stock now for most of the better type cookers, that gauge repairs are out for the duration. The supply of new gauges is nearly exhausted but there may be more later. New thermometers may be secured by returning broken one with order, or by securing a priority rating of A-10 or better.

Dowell made some repair suggestions, among them the removing of a leaky petcock and filling the cover threads with joint compound such as plumbers use; of taping and threading to a larger size where threads have been stripped; of being careful about unscrewing petcocks, etc., because aluminum is a soft metal; of being careful about forcing "sticky" lids and to use a lubricant such as cooking oil or lard on the inside flange to help overcome sticky covers in some instances; to trade in cracked lids and kettles since they may not be satisfactorily repaired.

How To Get The Most Out Of Vegetables

As more fresh vegetables come on the market and your own Victory Garden yields you reap the rewards of your labor, you'll want to get every bit of food value and vitamins from these fine foods. The Department of Agriculture gives the following advice:

Don't frighten away the vitamins by crushing, bruising or soaking vegetables. Use them quickly, when prepared, and leave raw-salad making until the last minute before serving.

Use as little water as possible when cooking vegetables, and have it boiling when you drop the vegetables in a pressure cooker. Cook as rapidly as possible and only until just tender. And use the cooking water its full of the health and beauty-giving vitamins and minerals so put it into soup, sauce or gravy.

If you use frozen fruits raw, eat them as soon as thawed. Don't thaw frozen vegetables before cooking them.

Cut tops of beets and carrots to two inches to save space, but no closer. Keep in a cool, ventilated space. Keep onions and white potatoes in dry, cool darkness, but not in the refrigerator. Keep snap beans cold.

Pinch spinach loosely to prevent bruising. It's best to wash and drain it first, then store in a covered vegetable pan or waterproof bag, in the refrigerator. The same goes for radishes and cucumbers.

Home Drying Of Fruits And Vegetables

Home-drying of fruits and vegetables to replace canning to some degree is being studied by the department of agriculture's bureau of home economics. Since drying foods requires no sugar, metal, rubber or other materials used in canning, it has some advantages.

A revised version of the pamphlet "Drying Foods for Victory Meals" will soon be released. Meanwhile, copies of the original pamphlet may be had by writing to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, D. C. for USDA Farmers' Bulletin No. 191A. The price is ten cents.

Drying times in a home-made drier takes for vegetables from three to fifteen hours, for fruits from six to twenty-four hours. Sun-drying takes longer. Dried products weigh only from one third to one twelfth as much as the fresh foods and therefore take much less space in the pantry. Quick-drying preserves more of the vitamin value of the fruits and vegetables. It should be remembered.

Nutrition Yardstick--Foods You Should Eat Every Day

Here's a "nutrition yardstick," which operates all the time, regardless of stamp dates, point values or ceiling prices. Unless you get some of each food group every day, you won't be as healthy or good looking or strong for today's demands as you might be. So it's worth checking. Group I—Green and yellow vegetables. Group II—Oranges, tomatoes, grapefruit. Group III—Potatoes and other vegetables and fruits. Group IV—Milk and milk products. Group V—Meat, poultry, fish and eggs; nuts and dried beans. Group VI—Bread, flour, cereals. Group VII—Butter and fortified margarine.

Sample Ceiling Prices

Here are some of your favorite cuts of beef and lamb, with the ceiling prices for small stores in your town: porterhouse steak, 59¢; sirloin and round steak, 56¢; 48¢; beef standing rib, 10-inch cut, 58¢; beef chuck blade pot roast, 52¢; lamb rib and leg chops, 47¢; leg of lamb, 40¢. The ceiling on hamburger in these stores is 21 cents per pound.

Points And Pointers

Salad oil is down a point this month, reminding us what a great pick-up is a fresh fruit or vegetable salad tossed with homemade French dressing. Make it with lemon juice for more delectable flavor and for the added Vitamin C.

Here are two of our best bets for a salad that fills up the gaps in the day's nutrition "musts": grated raw carrots and broken nut meats, with a lemony French dressing build up Group I—green and yellow vegetables—and Group V meat, poultry, fish, eggs, dried beans or nuts. A little onion and sprightly dressing also make a top-notch salad out of a table-spoon apiece of cooked peas, green beans, carrots, beets. (Any two or three; different colors make it more inviting). Use up the leftovers, add to Groups I and III (potatoes and other vegetables).

The "variety" meats—brains and sweetbreads, livers and tongues—are down a point also. Liver is grand for most all the vitamins, iron and the re-builder, protein. Tongue is one of the most stretchable of meats—good hot or cold; goes long way in apple or salad. Since most steaks and roasts and center-cut pork chops went up a point this month, you'll be looking into these fields more closely. Bouillon cubes are no longer rationed. These are handy for stretching a gravy shopping up a point.

Easier Meat Shopping

New retail ceiling prices for beef, veal, lamb and mutton will go into effect Monday, May 17. Under this new schedule, you may be assured the prices you pay for these staple meats are no higher than the general level in your section during the first few months of the year. This is part of your protection against rising living costs.

After May 17, look in your store for an official OPA poster showing exactly what the ceiling prices are, per pound, for each cut of meat. Pork will also be listed, because cents-per-pound ceiling prices on pork have been in effect since April 1.

Shopping should be simpler. You'll know ones and fers all what to expect on beef, chuck or leg-of-lamb instead of trying to remember that Mr. A is two cents per pound higher on beef than Mr. B and three cents cheaper on mutton, as was often the case when each store figured its ceiling prices separately on the basis of its March, 1942, prices.

The new ceilings will also strike a blow to the black markets, which is all to the good for every one of us.

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE
PEANUTS IN TIMBALES
 (Point Rationed Items Are Starred)

Dinner for Four
 Peanut Timbales
 Hard-Cooked Egg Creamy Sauce
 Graham Muffins
 Head Lettuce Russian Dressing
 Lemon-Cake Dessert
 Tea
 Peanut Timbales (Meat Alternate)

1 cup chopped salted peanuts
 1 cup soft bread cubes
 2 eggs, beaten (or 4 yolks)
 3 tablespoons flour
 1-4 teaspoon paprika
 1 teaspoon minced parsley
 2 teaspoons minced onions
 1 cup hot milk

Mix ingredients and let stand 5 minutes. Fill 4 buttered custard cups. Bake 20 minutes in moderate oven.

Graham Muffins (7 or 8)
 1 cup Graham (or whole wheat) flour
 1 cup flour
 1 teaspoon soda
 1-2 teaspoon baking powder

1-2 teaspoon salt
 4 tablespoons molasses
 1 egg
 1 cup buttermilk (or sour milk)
 *1 tablespoon shortening, melted
 Lightly mix ingredients and half-fill greased muffin pans. Bake 25 minutes in moderate oven. For a change add 1-3 cup chopped raisins or dried prunes or dried apricots. To keep molasses from sticking to the measuring spoon dip the spoon in hot water frequently before adding molasses.

Lemon-Cake Dessert
 2-3 cup sugar
 3 tablespoons flour
 1-4 teaspoon salt
 3 egg yolks
 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 1-2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 2 cups milk
 3 beaten egg whites
 *2 tablespoons butter, melted
 Mix together sugar, flour, salt and yolks. Beat well. Add juice, rind and milk. Fold in rest of ingredients and pour into buttered, glass baking dish. Bake 40 minutes in pan hot water in moderate oven. Cool and serve.

* RATIONING CALENDAR *

Many Women Job Applicants Have Security Numbers

A majority of the applicants who walk into the Big Spring office of the Social Security Board to apply for a social security card are women. Some of them have babies in their arms. Most of them are, according to Manager Elliott W. Adams, going to work in some war job or to replace men who have been drafted more directly into the war effort. Before the war, most of the applicants were men.

Many of these women worked several years ago, quit their jobs when they married, decided to go back to work recently and found they had lost their social security cards. Hence, from 25 to 25 percent of the cards now being issued are duplicates. So, says Adams, here is a concrete example of why an individual should safeguard his social security account number.

The increase in new accounts has been accompanied by a decrease in requests for primary benefit payments for old-age and survivors insurance, indicating many 45-year-olds are staying on their jobs and in addition a lot of persons who were already drawing benefits have gone back to work, thereby stopping their income from Uncle Sam temporarily. Benefit payments of this type will be resumed when these workers retire from covered employment.

Payments of death benefits to dependents have increased, however. This is natural, Adams pointed out, since a larger number of persons come under provisions of the act than formerly, number of dependents of soldiers and sailors killed in the war are drawing social security benefits now, based on work performed in industry covered by the act before they went into the service.

Sept. 15, 1942, Is Apparent Date On Pearl Harbor Babes

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP) — The Journal of the American Medical Association in an editorial on medical aspects of selective service dependency regulations said today that "any child born after Sept. 15, 1942, could not be considered as having been conceived before Dec. 8, 1941, in order to classify the registrant correctly."

The editorial said that as a result of recent regulation changes "it will become necessary for local selective service boards to determine beyond reasonable doubt in certain borderline instances whether a child has been conceived before or after Dec. 8, 1941, in order to classify the registrant correctly."

"The longest possible period of gestation has not been legally defined in this country.

"In the United States each case is decided on its own merits, since there is no law in this country or England which defines the duration of gestation."

"For practical purposes the burden of proving any pregnancy lasting more than 280 days would seem to rest on the claimant. Under such circumstances the claimant would be charged with presenting overwhelming medical evidence of the gestation."

Betty Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Collins of Big Spring, received honors in three subjects at Abilene Christian College, according to a report from the registrar on the second six weeks of the spring semester. Honors are awarded to students who are in the upper ten percent of the class.

Better Meals For Fewer Points

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE, AP Food Editor

We should remember in our menu-planning that meals should taste good as well as be point-saving. After all, a meal isn't of much value even from a nutrition viewpoint if the family doesn't enjoy eating it.

You don't need to cut down on essential vitamins and minerals or spend a lot of meat points to have a really delicious dinner from soup to nuts.

Be on the alert for new spring foods in your local markets. They will afford a break in meal monotony and may be within your budget. I have found in marketing and planning meals for my family of four adults that a surprisingly large number of tasty combinations can be worked out with the expenditure of few or no ration for variety (fresh peas, mushrooms, cheese or leftover fish or fowl). Eggs should be more plentiful now and can be served in omelet, scrambled blends, soufflé or fondue.

4. Combine meat with pastry in pot pie or meat rolls.

5. For dessert serve fresh or dried fruit with a wedge of unrationed cream or blue cheese or a small ball of cottage cheese.

6. To save fuel bake puddings or cakes to be used at a future time when the oven is going for a baked dinner.

7. Sponge cakes take no shortening and less sugar than the usual butter cakes, so have them often.

8. Sliced bacon goes farther than bacon sliced at home.

9. Pay special attention to selecting foods that have variety of color, flavor and texture.

10. Have a faster dessert to finish off the dinner of creamed eggs or other meat alternates.

Defrost Your Refrigerator Regularly for Better Food Preservation Faster Freezing

Your Electric Refrigerator must work harder to keep food cold and to freeze ice cubes when the freezing unit is covered with a heavy coating of frost.

Defrost your refrigerator regularly and save money and time, both of which are highly important in these days of wartime economy.

For Better and More Efficient Operation of Your Electric Refrigerator, Follow the Suggestions Listed Below:

- Defrost your Electric Refrigerator at least once a week, and oftener if frost collects rapidly. Your refrigerator should be defrosted when as much as 1/4 inch of frost collects on the freezing unit.
- Keep foods in covered dishes or wrapped in waxed paper. They keep better, and the covering retards the loss of moisture which adds to the accumulation of frost on freezing unit.
- Let warm foods cool before putting them in your refrigerator. This saves current and also keeps frost from accumulating so fast.
- Call a competent Electric Refrigerator serviceman when your refrigerator doesn't work properly. Prompt attention to the first symptoms of trouble may save you money.

Chiropractor Measure Up To Governor

AUSTIN, May 6 (AP)—Bound for the governor's desk today was one of the legislative session's most bitterly fought bills—to license and regulate chiropractors in Texas.
The senate amended and finally passed the bill yesterday, with Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith breaking a 13-13 tie by voting in its favor, and the house accepted the amendments after stormy debate, 70 to 58.
The bill gives legal status to chiropractic in Texas for the first time.
As amended by the senate, more severe restrictions are provided than were voted in the house.

where the measure originated.
It sets up a nine-member state board of chiropractic examiners who must have college degrees and must have been Texas residents for five years.
Applicants for licenses must have completed two years of college and have studied four years in a reputable chiropractic school. Chiropractors now practicing must pass a state board examination before being licensed.
Practitioners are prohibited from advising against vaccination, anti-toxin or serum treatments, and from treating for infectious or contagious diseases.
Annual renewal of licenses and attendance at a four-day post-graduate refresher course are required.

Incentive Wage Plan Given Approval

DALLAS, May 6 (AP)—The eighth regional war labor board has given its approval of an incentive wage plan for approximately 1,500 tomato packers, employees of 55 member firms of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers association.
The board chairman, Floyd McGowan, announced that the plan was approved in the light of President Roosevelt's executive order 9228 of April 8, and to expedite packing of a perishable crop.
About 87 per cent of the vegetable growers and packers in Texas belong to the association.
Rates approved for the plan include:

for the first 100 lugs or 1-3 bushel baskets packed in a day, 7 cents each; second lugs packed 6 cents each; all in excess of 200 lugs packed, 9 cents each. Top packers can pack 20 to 30 lugs an hour.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys excrete 18 million of tiny tubes or filaments which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or steady passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 48 years. They give happy relief and will help the 18 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Says New Reserves Of Oil Located

WASHINGTON, May 6, (AP) — New oil reserves of 124,000,000 barrels, more than two thirds of it in Wyoming, have been located in the past six months, Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said today, in urging expansion of facilities for manufacture of high octane gasoline.

"There have been 48 new fields found in Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi and Oklahoma and, in the Mid-Continent area, about 15 new deposits in old fields have been tapped," O'Mahoney added.

Need A Maid? Just Offer Use Of Mink Coat

NEWARK, N. J., May 6, (AP) — Mrs. Burns has about decided on a new maid.

Applicants kept her telephone ringing until 11 Monday night—when she left the receiver off—after this advertisement appeared in the classified section of the Newark Evening News:

"Help wanted—Girl (white); General household, own room, rdio; good salary; nice home for right party; can wear mink coat for day off. Mrs. Burns, 133 Keer Avenue, Newark; WA3-2361."

The offer of use of the mink coat prompted most of the applicants to call, she said. They inquired the size of the coat before the size of the pay envelope.

To Speed Admission Of Mexican Workers

WASHINGTON, May 6, (AP) — Representative West (D-Tex) disclosed today immigration officials are preparing new regulations to expedite the admission of alien laborers into this country and that thousands of Mexican farm hands should begin crossing the border within a week or 10 days.

Revision of immigration regulations was made possible by provisions of the $26,000,000 farm labor appropriation measure signed a few days ago by the president, said West.

Red Team Overcomes Six-Point Handicap To Win Squad Game

Ike Davidson's 40-yard rabbit run staked the Whites to a touch-down lead, but it wasn't quite enough Wednesday afternoon as the rampaging Reds stormed back to win another of the heavy Steer scrimmages, 12-6.

After the two teams had squared off for a half of give-and-take without any serious threats, Ike cut off on a short run, found his way almost blocked and cutback sharply to break in the clear for his touchdown run.

Pete Cook, who proved the scoring star for the Reds, drug in a pass from Barron and broke over for a score to put his side back in the game. Near the end of the scrimmage, which lasted for about an hour and a half, he gathered in a White punt, which had gone straight up, and returned it through a befuddled field for a score.

The battle was about as evenly matched as any for the spring season and tackling and blocking were more vicious than ever, which is something considering that youngsters—short on experience—have been exhibiting more venom toward the opposition and competitors than any Steer squad in years.

Outstanding for the Reds was the end play of Winifred Cunningham, who shows promise of being one of the best natural pass smatchers on the team in many seasons. Tommy Clinkscales, lightweight guard for the Reds, exhibited a tremendous amount of aggressiveness at his position.

Gene Smith's defensive end play helped the cause of the Whites and I. B. Bryan held down one tackle well enough to let Billy Underhill and Alvin Mize alternate on the other to stop line thrusts by the Reds. Bobby White, candidate for Barkley Wood's center spot, looked good at the pivot for the Whites.

After the hard engagement Wednesday, the team likely will knock off until Monday, when the home-stretch pressure will be turned on. Line-ups for Wednesday's scrimmage were:

The Count Is Due To Win--And All By Sheer Luck

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP)—Un-rip-snoters—so why not permit them to be made eligible to a race when they grew up to be big boys simply by putting a little extra cash on the barrelhead as a penalty for coming to school late?

If Alf hadn't installed the Preakness supplementary eligibility five years ago and the Belmont supplementary just last season, the Count would have won the Derby and then kissed the boys good bye, because it would have been too late to get him in then.

But, both the Count and his owner, Mrs. John D. Hertz, probably will be the first to admit that the rangy brown lightning streak is a pretty lucky, fellow to come along after both the Pimlico and Belmont folks thought to open the back door to just such gee-gees who were given a brush-off when they were youngsters.

This back door is a little stunt called the "supplementary nomination" which Alf Vanderbilt thought up when he was at both Pimlico and Belmont.

Alf figured there must be some gallopers who were just "guys named Joe" when they were little fellows, but who grew up to be

Millard Sets A Hot Pace To Lead 365th To Win

"Miraculous" Millard, outstanding athlete of the 365th air base headquarters, had a field day at bat to lead his mates to a 9-5 victory over the 816th Squadron Wednesday as the Mess Company outlasted the 818th, 12-10, in the Big Spring Bombardier School softball play.

All Millard did was to have a perfect day at bat—three for three—with five runs batted in and a home run with two aboard to his credit. The spree raised his batting average from a mere .800 to a mere substantial .875. Pfc. Ramsey for the 816th looked good with two hits.

The who dish out the dishes spotted the 818th eight runs in the opening stanza and then snatched the game out of the fire in a free-scoring wind-swept affair. Kostick kept the 818th in the tilt with a double and a brace of singles while Soroni duplicated the feat for the Mess Company. Signorelli helped the Mess cause with a circuit blow, scoring one ahead. Sgt. Wolfe, ace Mess hurler, took over after the 818th had hit Pvt. Campbell heavily and in the opening frame shackled the squadron batters the rest of the day.

Yankees Edge Sox To Stay At The Top

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

A lot of pitching surprises, as well as surprising pitchers, have sprouted this spring in the major leagues, but none has been any more amazing than that young (?) man from Caracas, Senor Alejandro Carrasquel of the Washington Senators.

The big Venezuelan is listed in the record books as 29 years old, 30 next July, but in appearance he looks to be anywhere between 30 and 40 and his teammates say there is no telling exactly how old he really is.

Anyway, he has been with Washington for four years prior to this season without ever winning more than seven games. He reached his nominal peak last year, when he also lost seven.

In the face of this undistinguished precedent big Alex has opened the 1943 campaign by whipping the Philadelphia Athletics three times to take his place among a select little group of hurlers who have won three games without a defeat.

Carrasquel looked fast in spring training, but he was still rated as a relief pitcher when the Senators staged their inaugural win, the A's on April 20. He worked the last five innings of that affair, allowed but two hits, and received credit for the victory. Five days later he was chosen to start against the A's at Philadelphia and proceeded to shut them out on two hits.

Yesterday he beat them again 8-1 on four hits and the only run against him came on an error in the ninth.

The New York Yankees remained on top the A. L. by noosing out the Boston Red Sox 4-3 again in the ninth inning with the help of a balk by rookie pitcher Anton Karl, who got excited when the Yanks loaded the bases and threw a pitch without having his feet on the rubber.

The second place Cleveland Indians divided a doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox. They won the first game 2-1 but dropped the nightcap 5-2 when Dick Culler, Sox rookie third baseman, singled two runs across in the 11th inning. Wally Moses also stole home to add insult to injury.

Frank (Stubby) Overmire secured his place among the year's surprising new pitchers by holding the St. Louis Browns to four hits while the Detroit Tigers rapped out a 5-1 decision—their fourth straight over St. Louis this spring.

The Brooklyn Dodgers plowed the Philadelphia Phillies back into the National league cellar with an 18-6 drubbing on the strength of 23 hits good for a total of 30 bases.

The St. Louis Cardinals, having to struggle every day against the tough western clubs while the Dodgers are grazing on the tender eastern turf, were set down 2-1 in 14 innings by the Chicago Cubs as what looked to be a sure double-play grounder took a bad hop over second baseman Jimmy Brown's head. Both Claude Passeau of the Cubs and Max Lanier of the Cards went the whole route and allowed the same number of hits, 12, but Passeau helped himself by doubling home the tying run in the seventh.

New York's groggy Giants swept a doubleheader from the Boston Braves 5-1 and 7-3 after Manager Mel Ott had benched himself and Babe Barna for weak hitting.

Bucky Walters pitched and batted Cincinnati to a 2-2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a night game. He allowed only five hits and singled home two runs to gain his second success of the season.

Cage Letters Will Have To Be Mailed To Men In Service

FORT WORTH, May 6 (AP)—Coach Red Rutledge of Texas Wesleyan basketball has announced his 1943 letterman.

But there will be a few personal presentations.

You see, most of the T. W. C. cagers are in the armed services and Coach Rutledge will have to mail them their letters.

Garms Is 35, But He's Got Plenty Pep

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—"He has as much stamina as anyone on the team, and maybe more," said Manager Billy Southworth.

"He can really skip the dew," said Coach Bury Wares.

The board of strategy of the St. Louis Cardinals apparently were unanimous in its praise of Debs Garms, who, nearing 35, is the world's champions' oldest and smallest active player.

"We've used him in eight games against right-handed pitchers thus far," Southworth said. "He hasn't been hitting as well as in spring practice. I think he's trying too hard. He has the feeling that fans are always trying to draw comparisons between him and Enos Slaughter, whose place he took in right field.

"But he'll get over that. I look for him to hit for us in about every game later on."

Wares insists Garms is one of the most rugged men on the team.

"He's got a farm down in Texas," Bury appraised. "And, boy, was he in the pink when he joined us. He's as quick as a fly and has got more wind than the month of March. I've seen some of our youngsters challenge him for a run. He beat their pants off."

The fast little Texan, who came from Howard Payne College to break in the majors with the Browns 11 years ago, won the National league batting crown while at Pittsburgh in 1940 with a .355 mark.

Tigers Have A Package In Overmire

DETROIT, May 6 (AP)—The old saw about big things coming in little packages is a gilt-edged truism for the Detroit Tigers.

The Tigers happen to own the shortest pitcher in the major league scene—five-foot, seven-inch Frank (Stub) Overmire, a rookie southpaw who has made two American league starts and has two easy victories. Yesterday he dished up a four-hitter to beat the Browns at St. Louis, 5 to 1.

The Tigers plucked him out of their backyard orchard for a mere $400 at about the same time they and most other clubs were knocking each other down to get to Dick Wakefield, another Detroit rookie who received a fabulous $22,000 for his contract.

While Wakefield was battling Michigan to a Western conference title in 1941, Overmire was doing all sorts of pitching stunts for relatively obscure Western Michigan college at Kalamazoo, Mich.

A. J. (Wish) Egan, veteran Tiger ivory hunter, had tabulated Overmire's 21 college victories, including a no-hitter against only five defunct clubs while the Overmire. The Tigers agreed to clean up some unpaid college bills of approximately $400, and a few hours later Overmire was en route to Muskegon of the Michigan State league. He won 12 and lost four there.

Last season under Steve O'Neill, new Tiger manager, Overmire jumped to Beaumont of the Texas league where he won 14 and lost 11. After 15 scoreless innings in exhibition games for Detroit this spring, Overmire made his big show debut ten days ago with a five-hit 4 to 1 victory over Cleveland.

Texas Favored In S'western Track Events

HOUSTON, May 6 (AP)—More than 100 athletes will be here this week-end for the annual Southwest conference meet with the University of Texas favored to win the championship in all three divisions—golf, tennis and track.

Tennis and golf started this morning with finals to be held tomorrow. Preliminaries in the dashes are scheduled tomorrow afternoon for track, with the finals Saturday.

Full representation was reported only in golf, with all seven schools participating, but there were only five in tennis and six in track and field.

Richard (Bubba) Smart of Arkansas was expected to battle Bill Roden and Tyrrell Garth of Texas for the golf championship but the Texas title appeared headed for Texas with little dispute.

Texas had John Hickman, defending tennis singles champion of the conference, and Walter Driver, 1942 finalist, back and heavily favored to take both singles and doubles.

Relay Team To State Meet

Big Spring's 440-relay team and one other trackster were due to take off Thursday for the state meet in Austin.

Principal hope of points for the team arose from previous showings by the relay team and by Alfred (Red) Adams, a 440-yard dash man.

Whether Peppy Blount, Kenny Partridge and James Duncan, other members of the team, would enter any events was problematical but odds were that they would not. Adams, anchor man on the relay, was certain to try his luck in the 440 although he finished fourth in the regional. Boxed in, he spent too much energy on the back side passing his competitors and didn't have enough left to stave off the stretch drive. Wiser for the experience, he might place in the state.

Long John Ulrey, all-around athlete, was due to enter the discus and perhaps the shot put. He took first place in the discus at the regional meet and has worked hard for the past two weeks in adding distance. His surprise development might win him some recognition, although John got started a little late to reach his peak. A heel bruise induced him to abandon his pole vaulting—in which he was making progress.

ship, his track team did the same thing. It's Russell's first year at the Denton college.

The enemy was pushed back here today!

EVER see a newspaperman's desk at the end of a crowded day—ash-strewn, paste-smearred, littered with the grist of the news mill that never stops?

It's hardly to be compared with the desk of a great general—and yet the enemy was pushed back here today!

Pushed back by another 24 hours of truthful reporting . . .

Pushed back by community leadership in myriad war activities from bond selling to tin can salvage . . .

Pushed back by the little things that help build and sustain a nation's morale—the personal items, the pictures of the boys at the front, the helps on the home page, the laughs on the comics page and the information and inspiration throughout the newspaper.

Yes, the enemy was pushed back here again today.

He will continue to fall back so long as American newspapers have anything to do about it!

Inequalities In Representation

Now let us see what are some of the inequalities in the Representative districts of Texas, which still are under the apportionment of 1929 when the basis of representation was about 31,000. The basis under the 1940 census would be 42,700.

District 91, six counties including Howard, has one representative for 66,800 citizens. It should have two.

The 88th District, 13 West Texas counties, including Midland had a combined population of 29,700. Today that district has 66,235—and still has one Representative. It should be two districts.

Ellis County in District 100 and has two representatives with its population of 47,700, nearly eight thousand less than when it was given two representatives twenty years ago, and it was not fully entitled to that at that time.

Harris county has five Representatives. It should have twelve under the apportionment but the Constitution limits it to seven, and it is short two of that number. Dallas with more than one hundred thousand over the apportionment for seven Representatives has five. Bexar county is almost as badly unrepresented.

District 71, Nueces and two smaller counties, has one Representative. With its 138,000 people Nueces should have two and the other two counties one between them.

District 119, Lubbock and eight other counties, has a Representative for 130,000 people. They should have three between them.

Counties that are badly over-represented include Freestons 21,000, Robertson 25,000, Gonzales 26,000, DeWitt 24,000, Panola 22,000, Red River 20,000, to name only a few.

Any legislator justify refusing to redistrict with such glaring injustices facing him? If so, the people ought to be told why—now.

Washington Daybook—The Real War Cabinet

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Since we got into this war, almost a billion words have been written about the president's "war cabinet." Commentators have written reams of copy and spent hours on the air talking about how thin authority was spread; about how necessary it is to concentrate that authority in a few responsible individuals.

There were periods when this was so but out of the middle of divided authority, the true picture of the "war cabinet" is beginning to shape up.

It started when Associate Justice James F. Byrnes was pulled off the Supreme Court bench to become Director of Economic Stabilization. It was put a bit forward when Charles E. Wilson was given added powers in WPB that made him actually the supervisor of Donald Nelson in most executive matters; and when Prentiss Brown was placed at the head of OPA.

Ernest J. King. (5) The State Department, personified by aging Secretary Cordell Hull and, more importantly, Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles.

You will note that in the last three instances, I have named departments and used the phrase "personified by." That's because the departments are vital in the war cabinet, but no observers here believe the men at the head of them have been entrusted with policy-making authority to anywhere near the same extent as Byrnes or the president.

I don't mean that there are not other powerful figures in Washington. There are those men close to the president, his "advisers": the Harry L. Hopkinses, Judge Samuel I. Rosenmans, Bernard Baruchs, etc., and there is that most important fellow, Director of the Budget Harold D. Smith. By being right more often than a "curmudgeon" (as he calls himself) has any right to be, interior secretary and oil czar Harold I. Ickes has more respect in inner circles than he ever had before.

Wilson, Brown, Attorney General Francis Biddle, Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt, and the nation's No. 1 home-front leader, Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones all have their niches. Vice President Henry Wallace has one, too, and it may well be that Food Administrator Chester Davis will almost make the wartime variety. Maybe Wilson will, too.

Yet none of these others really belongs to the "steering committee" that has the final say when the chips are down. Not at the present writing, anyway.

Never since national defenses started have the reins been in so few hands.

The president's "war cabinet" today actually consists of:

(1) President Roosevelt, whose decisions are supreme in the matters of global war strategy, and in so far as the executive branch of government is concerned, supreme in matters of economic, production, labor, and manpower controls on the home front.

(2) "Little Jimmy" Byrnes, who is "czar" of the home front and probably exercises more authority than any man in the country other than the president.

(3) The War Department, personified by Secretary Henry L. Stimson and, more importantly, Chief of Staff Gen. George C. Marshall.

(4) The Navy Department, personified by Secretary Frank Knox and Commander in Chief Admiral

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 23

As Tubac sat there viewing the ruins, a rumble of hoofbeats came sweeping fast from out of the west and Tubac, black eyed, yanked up his rifle and laid it across the pommel. But he saw quick enough who the horseman was.

"We're cleaned!" Winch Face yelled. "Cleaned slick. That Stampede crowd struck the herd not two hours back an' there ain't enough beef left 't put in a basket! White Eye's dead an' all them strays we de-horned an' branded has been druv plumb over Apache Leap!"

"So they wanta play rough, do they?" Tubac snarled; and Winch Face tucked in. "To rough for me. 'Til give you somethin' all right!" Jones swore, "If I catch you tryin' to run out on me! This is a finish fight an' we're goin' to finish it. C'mon," he yelled, and spurred back up the trail. But when they came to where he'd left Sue there was nothing but the empty trail. It was mighty plain what had happened. Sue was gone, but there was plenty of sign to tell why she hadn't waited. She had had no choice in the matter. Four men had come spurting out of the brush and had gone, taking her with them.

The trail petered out within ten horse lengths and they quartered for a long half hour before they finally got the man's sign again. That outfit was slick when it came to blanking out horse tracks, but Tubac had learned from experts. By the time the sun was four hours high they were entering a country of upthrust buttes, of mesas and up-and-down canyons. They were getting close.

"Can't be over ten minutes ahead of us," muttered Winch Face, peering about nervously.

Tubac nodded. "Better keep your eyes skinned for an ambush. Like enough they've—" The rest was lost in the racking crash of a rifle whose slug cut the band neatly off Jones' hat. They were in a kind of gulley-like swale and the shot had come from a flanker's hogback just ahead and a bit to the right. You could see the smoke drifting up from the brush and Tubac, as Winch Face jumped from his saddle grabbed up his rifle and peppered the place. But the shooter had moved from the spot and his next shot ricocheted from the horn. Tubac got off the horse pronto.

"Watch 'im!" he growled at Winch Face. "Blat hell outa the place next time he shows. When you quit he'll pop up an' I'll nail 'im!"

"Yeah, but run yore eye acrost that arroyo we just came outa!" Jones took a quick look. Two riders were coming up out of the gulch bare and a third was on the trail at them and Winch Face emptied his rifle. At the last shot the drygruncher's head came above the brush and sunlight shone from his rifle. Tubac's Spencer split flames.

"C'mon," Jones muttered, swinging into his saddle. "Time to be lightin' outa here—"

"I know what I think!" demanded Winch Face, spurring his bronc alongside. "I think that hombre y'u jest handed a harp to, an' them two gunslacks that's lar-rupin' up from behind, is three of the four what run off with yore woman."

"My own idea, exactly. They've split. The fourth skunk's foggin' off with Sue while these three've dropped behind to—"

"Great Caesar's ghost!" breathed Winch Face, clapping in his spurs. "Them fellas must be ridin' 'im whirlwinds!"

A backward look showed Tubac the two men had indeed closed the gap between them by a distance which was anything but reassuring.

When they'd crossed the crest and put the ridge between them and the guns of the two Stampede men, Winch Face wanted to know how Jones expected to look for sign so long as the pair kept after them.

"Can't," declared Tubac curtly. "We got to knock them coyotes out of their saddles. No-wait! We'll drop the horses; that's serve just as well. When we come to that clump of trees just ahead, we'll drop back an' give 'em a tune from our rifles—"

"You can," Winch Face said generously. "But me, I'm foggin' right along. There's a big dust comin' down that gulch on the right."

Tubac swore, for so there was and this would not be a safe place to linger when the men who were making it debouched in this gully. There must have been eight or ten in the bunch. They spurred for the timber. Just beyond it, and with a quick call to Winch Face, Tubac swung Calllops into it. "Look there!" he cried. "Them tracks! That'll be Sue an' the one in charge of her!"

It seemed a pretty likely conclusion. "If there's a good high rise any place in this canyon I'll

Capital Comment Russian Hard Language To Learn

By GEORGE STIMPSON
Herald Washington Correspondent

I saw something today I have never seen before; while eating dinner at the National Press Club, a mouse, in broad daylight, walked up to a trap, nibbled the cheese on the trigger and got caught; Washington is teeming with rodents and the food shortage is making them insolent.

Charles Grace, 20-year-old nephew of F. G. Huntress, San Antonio newspaper publisher, was inducted into the army this week and will take his basic training at Camp Lea in Virginia; he came to Washington 18 months ago and since has been one of the assistants of Former Congressman and Mayor Maury Maverick, chief of WPB's governmental requirements section.

Russian apparently is a very difficult language to learn; at the end of six weeks one Russian class here had shrunk from 40 to 10 members. . . . If living costs in Washington continue to rise, dollar-a-year men may have to have an increase in pay.

Congressman Dick Kleberg of Corpus Christi, sizes it up this way: "There is a very patent situation here before this House and one only. That is the question as to whether or not we are going to add to the tremendous system of wheels within wheels and increase the agencies which produce red-tape and increase the restrictions by the continuation of uncertainty and confusion to those engaged in the production of the most vital of our present war needs, food."

There is a small jail, with barred cells and everything, in the Justice Department building; it is used merely for the temporary detention of prisoners and not for prolonged imprisonment.

"Following the war we are going to have literally thousands of folks roaming the streets looking for jobs," says Congressman Ed Gossett, of Wichita Falls. "Richard Roe, when he lives on a farm, even if he does not make a very good living, is a much better citizen than Richard Roe is when driven into town and on WPA. Before the war about three-fourths of those on WPA in the northern and plains section of Texas were tenant and share-cropper farmers who had been run off the land. They were run off the land not only because of power machinery, but also because of the farm program."

Washington streets seem to be narrower now that the trees are leafing.

This week I had a good visit with my good friend Arthur Ford, managing editor of the "Free-Press" at London, Ontario, Canada, and instrumental in better acquainting the American republics with one another through the medium of motion pictures.

Walt Disney's busy studio still is able to turn out entertaining shorts despite heavy commitments for Army and Navy training films. Four new stories have been okayed for production to give the studio a backlog of 17 which are in the works. And while war subjects have been completed to maintain the release schedule, upcoming are four special productions, "Reason and Emotion," "Pelican and the Snake," "Chicken Little" and "Figaro and Cleo." Four Donald Ducks are included in the lot. This priceless information may be a bit on the statistical side, but it's rather comforting, at that.

to fill all requirements of the present military program.

Dr. J. G. Ulmer, of Tyler, one of the regents of Sam Houston State Teachers College at Houston, spends a few days in Washington. . . . Among my office calls this week was Miss Vanice Broyles, of Malakoff in Henderson county, who has been working in Senator O'Daniel's office since last September; she is taking a business course at a Washington college.

Congressman Wright Patman, of Texas, has mapped out a post-war program for servicemen, to give them an opportunity to enter business when they return to their homes; arrangements, he says, should be provided to permit them to pool their resources and to obtain facilities and credit to get back into business on their own; Wright calls attention to a law passed by congress and signed by the president that permits servicemen to deposit any amounts of money in multiples of $5 or more with the government and receive 4 per cent interest on the money if it is not withdrawn within six months; "In other words, if it is deposited more than six months, 4 per cent interest is paid, but the servicemen may withdraw it any time he chooses, but no interest will be paid if it has not been on deposit more than six months"; he advises servicemen to take advantage of this law to save money to reestablish themselves when they get back home; "It helps our government in the war just as much for a serviceman to save $100 as to invest $100 in government bonds."

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—Difficult Task In Music

By HOLLIB COONS
HOLLYWOOD — Paramount's mighty mite of music, Victor Young, was handed one of the toughest musical assignments ever, doled out to a composer—that of doing an original score for "For Whom the Bell Tolls." But Victor did it. He has composed an orchestration of Spanish music which is considered something akin to opera.

Because of the dramatic caliber of the film, Young spent two months doing research on Spanish music before attempting his own original work. In that time he found that most of the music commonly identified with Spain was written by German and Italian composers.

He built his theme on a Moorish flamenco vein and concentrated on folk songs of the 17th century. After completing his research, he spent six weeks writing the score. "For Whom the Bell Tolls" runs a little more than three hours and his music is heard for two hours and 42 minutes of that time, making it one of the longest scores ever composed for a film.

In addition to radio and concert work, Young has been doing musical scores at Paramount for the last seven years. Built more like a lightweight boxer, he doesn't give the impression that he is a composer. His music does that.

A report circulating in Hollywood and which we hope is unfounded, is that Kenneth Macgowan, one of filmland's most successful producers, will resign from 20th Century Fox after he completes his current production schedule because of ill health.

In addition to giving the public some of the better cinema entertainment, Macgowan has been instrumental in better acquainting the American republics with one another through the medium of motion pictures.

crescendo. The rise showed suddenly black with horsemen and Tubac waited till Winch Face quit firing, not caring to waste any bullets. Two men left their saddles at Winch Face's side, another swayed wildly and clutched at the horn. Then Tubac came to a knee and let go. The foremost rider—and it looked like Potter—flung his arms out and pitched head first from his horse. His hat came off and rolled down the slope, and the man rolled over four or five times, too. But Tubac wasn't watching him; he was pumping lead in men still in their saddles. Hinz enolly, maliciously. To Be Continued.

1,200 Due To Compete In League Meet

AUSTIN, May 6. (AP)—Approximately 1,200 boys and girls begin arriving here tomorrow for the nation's No. 1 juvenile carnival—the Texas interscholastic league meet.

Operated as a 11-ring circus, the meet will decide state titles among high school champions in debate, declamation, extemporaneous speech, ready-writing, typing shorthand, journalism, one-act play, tennis, track and field and rural pentathlon.

Roy Bedichek, league director, said entries for the two-day meet ranked with other years, except in rural divisions.

Running as a sideshow to the main event will be the annual meeting of league delegates to discuss changes in the inter-school program which affects nearly 500,000 children.

Saturday the Texas association of secondary school principals will have a luncheon meeting to hear an address by Dr. J. G. Umstadt, university professor and authority on secondary education.

Friday morning Dr. D. A. Penick, veteran university non-salaried tennis coach, will direct a clinic for athletic directors and coaches.

Meeting with them will be the Texas interscholastic league press conference. Dr. Homer P. Rainey, university president, and Monte Barrett of San Antonio, creator of the comic strip, "Jane Arden," will be speakers.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Ford Frick casts a negative vote in the campaign to give Capt. Eddie Grant, baseball's World War One hero, a place in the hall of fame at Cooperstown. . . He just wasn't a good enough ball player, says the National league prey.

When the Phillies persuaded the Reds to take back Gar Del Savio, the unreformed semi-pro shortstop, Bill Dooly, Philadelphia baseball scribe, explained: "They just returned him marked 'Opened by Mistake.'"

SCRAP COLLECTION

Pending an official checkup, it appears that Ken (Waterbury Republican) Alyta won Frank Menke's annual Derby picking contest. Ken called them 1-2-3-4, Count Fleet. Blues persuaded the Reds to take back Gar Del Savio, the unreformed semi-pro shortstop, Bill Dooly, Philadelphia baseball scribe, explained: "They just returned him marked 'Opened by Mistake.'"

FISH STORY

Celebrating the opening—or was it the closing—of the New Hampshire season, Roger Peabody, who had spent the winter up on Cannon mountain supervising the tramway and the ski patrol, skied two miles down Cannon Trail from the summit, changed from ski boots to hip boots and went fishing in Echo lake. . . To make it a good story, he should have used his ski poles for a fly rod and caught a frozen trout.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF—

Joe Burnett, former Penn end now at the air force intelligence school at Harrisburg, Pa., tells this one. . . He was an assistant coach at Camp Daniel, Ga., last fall when a husky 250-pound farm boy turned out for practice. . .

Joe asked if he had any college, pro or high school experience—and the boy replied: "No, only semi-prairie ball."

Farmers Shown Importance Of Keeping Records

Texas farm families who made their first federal income tax returns this year have been impressed by importance of keeping records, according to Tyrus R. Timm, economist in farm management...

Since at least 95 per cent of Texas farmers, including most beginners, file returns on the cash basis, Timm stresses what should go into the record book. Income on a farm subject to tax includes all cash and value of merchandise received from sale of livestock, livestock products, crops and other sources...

Flies That Bother Bossy Cut Down Milk Production

Bossy is a sensitive soul and won't do her best when she's bothered. Hence Dr. H. G. Johnston, Texas A. & M. extension service entomologist, advises that something be done toward combatting the horn and stable flies, chief tormentors of cattle in the summer and the Gremlins who cut down on milk production.

Most effective way of controlling horn flies, according to Dr. Johnston, is a trap placed so that cows will be compelled to pass through it daily going to and from water, pasture and barn. A series of curtains within the trap framework brush the flies from the animals and they are caught in screen wire traps on the side. Plans for these traps may be had from the county agent.

Follow The Right Course In Canning

There are two kinds of talk on canning this year—one urging more of it and the other warning against the WRONG methods of canning.

This latter course can bring danger to the entire family. Only two methods of canning are safe, prevent spoilage and retain the maximum amount of food value, flavor, texture and color. One is to process in a pressure cooker meats and vegetables with the exception of tomatoes and pimientos. The other method is the water bath for fruits, tomatoes, and ripe pimientos.

Ration Procedure To Be Followed When Truck Sold

Procedure to be followed when a truck is sold is outlined by the Office of Defense Transportation to help the hundreds of persons who seem to be exchanging trucks more frequently today than before the war, according to John W. Reed, San Angelo district ODT manager.

When a truck or other commercial motor vehicle is sold, the unused ration coupons must be returned to the War Price and Rationing Board while the Certificate of War Necessity remains with the original holder. He must return it to the ODT district office or have it revised by ODT if he buys another truck, Mr. Reed said. If the new owner already has a Certificate of War Necessity he must get it revised by ODT when he acquires the new truck. If he has not, he must get one in order to operate legally or to buy fuel or tires.

After obtaining his Certificate, the new owner will apply to his Local War Price and Rationing Board for "T" rations. Fleet operators who transfer vehicles must advise the nearest ODT office of the change and return the appropriate sub-certificate. Operators changing their address, the area of operation or substantially changing the nature of their business, must inform the ODT district office of such change.

Meet The Bombardiers

Musicians, Athletes Among Cadets

There are musicians and athletes—and hobbyists of many other shades—in the new class of cadets in training at the Big Spring Bombardier School. Introducing others of the group: OHIO

An industrial chemical salesman from Toledo is Harold Frutiger. He's a product of DeVilbiss high school and the Davis business college, and his hobby is anything musical. He's played in dance bands for five years, and actually had his own band for two years. Then from Middletown he went to Mack Long, a junior clerk in the accounting department of the Republic Steel Corp. Mac is a graduate of Miami university in Oxford, Ohio. He took his B.S. degree in 1940. He's a member of the Beta Theta Pi and the Eagle's lodge, and he's an outstanding basketball, football and baseball player. Mack's goal in life is to own a sporting goods establishment.

Cleveland gives us Don Hausler, a production clerk. Don is wild about swimming, fishing, bowling and golfing. And after the war he wants to have his own stock breeding farm in Ohio. Wants to breed horses. Patrick Henry Metzger is next. He's a native of Akron, and until recently a student at Kent State university. Patrick left school in May 1941 to enlist in the army. His sports are baseball, basketball and reading western stories. Patrick's reading, he has recently been retired from the army. The next cadet, Arnold Loeb Malkin, is from Youngstown. Arnold is a former Western Reserve university man who switched to the Juillard School of Music in New York City to learn the art of tooting on a saxophone. And he can really make one moan and groan. Arnold's civilian occupation was even-ly divided between clerical work and playing in a dance band. In addition to his musical talents, Arnold swims, golfs, paints (not a house painter, an artist), tells tall stories, and can sleep 26 hours in long gear before even shifting into second. His current ambition is to be a "hot bombardier." We have another boy from Youngstown, Dan, a sheet metal worker by the name of Harry Hughes Frederick. Harry is a former Miami university student, and he's been in the army since February 1942. His brother, Dick, is in the infantry, stationed at Camp Croft, S. C.

Thomas Joseph McGuire from Cleveland was a city policeman until June 1941 when he switched to the army. He graduated from the Holy Name school in 1933, and later attended the John Carroll college for a couple of years before winning his spurs as a cop. His sports are tennis, volleyball and football, and he is a member of the Fraternal Order of Police. A resident of Reading is our next lad. He's Clarence William Pullen, a University of Cincinnati man, and the pillar of their volleyball team. Clarence is a Pi Kappa Alpha who earned his three squares a day as a machinist for the Foodick Machine Tool company. He's been in the army since last July.

Harry Kenneth Parrock hails from Youngstown. After a short period at Miami university, he got himself a job as a draftsman for the Republic Steel Corp. In July of '42 he received a better offer from his Uncle Sam, so he entered the army. Harry is an Alpha Phi, and his weakness is football, wrestling and baseball. He's got a brother in the infantry. An assembler from Cincinnati is the last cadet from this state. His name is Bob Moerlein, and he goes for bowling, football, golf, track, swimming, volleyball and strawberry cream pies with a ten pound ham for dessert. Bob's brother, Carl, is with the 99th Bombardier Group stationed at Montbrook Air Base, Florida.

OREGON From this Pacific state, the lone representative is Bob Mulloy. Bob has studied at both the Oregon State college at Corvallis, and at Pacific university in Forest Grove.

He's a Gamma Sigma, and he played varsity football and basketball both in high school and college. Bob couldn't wait to finish college. He left to join the army last July. He'd like to wind up as an athletic coach after the war!

PENNSYLVANIA There are thirteen boys from the Keystone state. Johnny Gides comes from Lilly. He's a coal miner who goes for baseball and photography. Joe Grimm is a Pittsburgh boy. He spent several years at the University of Pittsburgh, and then got himself a job as a complaint clerk. His hobbies are music and dramatics which must have come in very handy when those women customers tried to beat him out of a refund or an exchange during his department store days. The Quaker City of Philadelphia sends us Bob Grier, a salesman. He likes to sing, swim, fish, dance and play tennis. That's all.

Frederic Moles MacDowell, Jr., is a native of Chester. He spent a couple of years at Penn State college, and then went to work for the Sun Shipyards in his hometown. He's a pipefitter by trade. He's also a Tau Kappa Epsilon, a horseman, a volleyballer, a leatherworker and a battle-hardened ice-box commando. Jack Gordon Marshall is another Pittsburgh lad. He graduated from Westinghouse high school in 1936, and had worked his way up to assistant purchasing agent for the American Steel Band company when Uncle Sam wooed him. He responds, last April, Jack is partial to swimming, volleyball, softball and eating in between meals.

Daniel Boone Mason is a Reading lad. Daniel Boone spent several years at the Drexel Institute in Philadelphia, and went to work as a clerk. His sports are basketball, tennis and softball, and he's a member of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles. Charlie McCully is a sharpie from Sharpsburg. He's been in the army for over two years now, and his civilian occupation was that of laborer. He labors best around mealtimes. Archie McGrew (no relation to Dangerous Dan) comes from Indiana, that is, the town of Indiana in Indiana county, Pennsylvania. He spent several years at the Valley Forge business college, and wound up as a clerk for the Hotel Indiana. Archie goes for golf and bowling, and his goal in life is to become a smooth salesman. He wants to be like the guy in all of those traveling salesman stories. His brother, Lieutenant Jay McGrew, is in the field artillery. Archie has been in the army since March of '42. Our next cadet, Francis Richard Messert, hails from Olyphant. After graduating from the Olyphant high school in 1935, he studied for a short time at the Olyphant business school. Then he became the business agent for the Olyphant school district. Francis leans towards baseball, basketball, football and art. He also leans towards Olyphant, and confided in us that he really likes it better than Big Spring. Wonder what brought that on?

From Kittanning we have a shipping clerk, one Eugene Murphy. Murphy's hobby is photography, and he's interested only in one thing at the moment—combat. He's just dying to push around some of our little brown brothers in the Pacific. (Well, just be patient, Murphy. They'll still be there when you graduate.) Lloyd William Oswald is a native of Allentown. He's studied both at the Pennsylvania State college and the Carnegie Institute of Technology. Lloyd was an engineer's assistant with the U. S. engineers in Pittsburgh until February 1942 when he enlisted in the army. He's nuts about golf, tennis, softball, volleyball, swimming, classical music and Fats Waller. The next cadet is from Chalfont, a very cozy little community in Bucks county. His name is George Peters, and before he became one of Uncle Sam's boarders in July 1942, he had made his living as a machine operator. And the last lad from this state is an office clerk from the Quaker City. Francis Xavier Pierce is the name, and his last job was with the Breyer's Ice Cream company. Francis' ambition in life is to get married.

RHODE ISLAND Frank Domenic Pinto comes from Providence. He's a product of Rhode Island State college and Providence college, and earned his living as a radio repairman and a furniture serviceman up to 1937 when he joined the army. His special talent is playing the violin, and he's had some experience playing in dance bands. Frank's brother, Ray, is in the army, and is stationed at Camp Hood, Texas. VIRGINIA From Old Dominion, one of the original thirteen states, we have Burton Hughes Hendershott Jr., a native of Arlington. Burt studied at Drake university in Des Moines, Iowa, and at George Washington university in Washington, D. C. He's a Phi Sigma Kappa, and a rhumba and tango teacher of the first water. And when he wasn't teaching these dances, he was selling typewriters, etc., for the Remington Rand firm in Washington. He's wild about basketball, baseball, hunting, fishing, woodworking and painting. And he's even wilder about getting into combat as soon as possible.

WASHINGTON The beautiful Evergreen State comes through with a Coca Cola salesman by the name of Wallace Hertel. Wallace Hertel of Walla Walla, Washington. When Wallace wasn't working for the Williams Beverage company selling cokes in Walla Walla, he was either bowling or playing a fast game of hockey. His goal in life is to be sales manager for his firm, and he almost had his teeth in that job when his draft board interrupted him.

WEST VIRGINIA The Mountain State sends us a genuine bachelor of arts from Bethany college. He's Ralph Ed-
