In Death Of Eight

Juarez Police Hold Suspect

JUAREZ, Mexico (UPI)—The chief of Juarez secret police said today that Freddie Lee McKenzie, 27, arrested Tuesday in a hotel lounge, had confessed setting a Fort Worth nightclub fire that killed eight persons.

McKenzie was charged Monday with the murder of one of the persons who died in the Sunday night fire. The fire burned out most of the inside of The Grave, a racially mixed nightclub that featured two coffins as decorations.

Chief Manuel Samaniego of the secret police said McKenzie, a Negro, will be held in the Juarez jail two more days and turned over to Mexican immigration authorities, who will deport him as an undesirable alien.

U. S. to Get Word

U. S. authorities will be notified ahead of time and will be present to take McKenzie into custody when the Mexicans put him across the border.

Other Mexican officers who listened in on the interrogation of McKenzie said he told them he had gotten into an argument in The Grave with a man who had been "messing around with my woman."

"He threatened me. I got upset. I left the nightclub," they quoted McKenzie.

Samaniego said McKenzie told him he went to a nearby service station and got two gallons of gasoline in a can. He returned with it to the club, he said, warning people about to enter the club that he was going to burn it.

He said, according to Samaniego, that he poured the gasoline through the front entrance of the nightclub and set it on fire.

Robert Minard, a soldier absent without leave from Ft.

Spent Night Drinking

Minard was reported to have told them that a Negro man calling himself "Tony" picked him up Monday night near Odessa and that they drove on to Juarez and spent the night drinking.

Minard also said he was supposed to meet the owner of the car in a Juarez hotel Tuesday. A hotel clerk looked at a picture of McKenzie and said it resembled a guest who had registered as "Lonnie Smith."

McKenzie would not speak to reporters and kept his head lowered while photographers were trying to take his picture. Samaniego said that after he and his men questioned McKenzie alone, he confessed.

Communists Renewing Rocket Assault On City Of Da Nang

Reds Claim Victory In Saigon Battling

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist troops renewed their rocket assault on the city of Da Nang tonight. They claimed "victory" in the battle of Saigon, but U.S. officials said the Communists had lost 2,002 men and that only scattered guerrilla bands remained.

Fighting raged in three Saigon sectors, and in a battle for a bridge over a canal Communist gunfire and a U.S. helicopter smashed into a pagoda jammed with 500 refugees. Monks said 10 civilians were killed and 15 more wounded in the pagoda and 10 more killed nearby.

A U.S. spokesman said the Communists—probably North Vietnamese—slammed at least 15 rockets into the south side of Da Nang, lighting up the sky over the area where the I Corps Headquarters and the Da Nang Air Base are located.

However, military spokesmen said none of the rockets hit the headquarters or the airbase. There was no immediate word on damage or casualties.

Viet Cong propaganda squads scattered leaflets claiming their "outstanding victory" in Saigon. They said they destroyed 20 per cent of the thousands of Allied troops in the capital.

At gunpoint, the Communists demanded civilians join their fight. The Viet Cong vowed to keep Saigon in agony throughout the U.S.-North Vietnam preliminary talks opening Friday in Paris.

Claims Reds Losing
But Brig. Gen. Winant Sidle, chief U.S. military spokesman, said the Red drive "appears to be withering on the vine." He said Allied troops cut off Red reinforcements for the guerrillas in the capital.

"Looking at it overall, I think we will need another 24 hours before we can get a very clear picture of whether it's over," Sidle told newsmen. He indicated the end was near.

Besides the guerrillas killed in the Saigon area, more than 1,000 other Communists have been killed since the Viet Cong launched his nationwide Spring offensive Sunday. Allied losses have been light.

Despite Viet Cong claims, U.S. spokesmen said that the first three days of Saigon battling killed 30 American servicemen and wounded 323. Government spokesmen said 181 South Vietnamese troops have been killed and 608 wounded.

Civilians Suffer
The big sufferers have been among Saigon's 2 million civilians. Government spokesmen said at least 41 were killed and 1,309 wounded in the first three days.

Although it does not appear on the agenda, the possibility existed today that an announcement on the hiring of a new school superintendent would be made at tomorrow's school board meeting.

One report has been going the rounds that the new superintendent may attend tomorrow's session.

Highlights listed on the board agenda include approval of the summer school faculty, appointment of a school auditor for the 1967-68 school year, approval of due bills and vouchers for various departments, and current resignations, reassignments and employment of personnel.

No Military Reduction
(Diplomatic sources in Paris said Tuesday that Hanoi has no intention of scaling down its military activity, even in return for a total halt in U.S. bombing. However, a Hanoi delegation spokesman said on arrival that he was "very optimistic" about prospects for the preliminary discussions.)

In any case, serious military questions which must be answered in the foreseeable future appeared to be accumulating for Gen. William C. Westmoreland in Saigon, at the Pentagon and at the White House.

Garrison Rites Slated Thursday

AUSTIN (UPI)—The state headquarters of the Department of Public Safety, the police agency headed by Col. Homer Garrison Jr. for nearly 30 years, will be the scene of his funeral services Thursday.

Garrison, the dean of state law enforcement chiefs in the United States, died of cancer Tuesday at the M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston.

Gov. John Connally ordered all state flags lowered to half mast until Garrison's funeral. Connally also led the tributes in Garrison's memory.

Fine Arts Group Hears Midland Artist In Talk

Woody Gwyn, Midland artist, told the members of Pampa's Fine Arts Association, in their annual meeting last night in Coronado Inn, that paintings should not be called "good" or "bad" by contemporary critics because only time would tell their value to mankind.

All artists, including painters, seek "truth" in their work, he said, whether it be of a spiritual or subjective nature.

"Pop-art," considered a recent art form, was actually produced, though not under that identification, as early as the 1920's, when an artist did a series on egg beaters. The artists who have chosen the field of "pop-art" have a message for America, Gwyn said, in which our society is portrayed as decaying from "commercialism."

The widely-known painting of a Campbell's Soup can was actually followed by a not-too-widely-known painting showing the label peeling from the opened can, exposing the glue and unsightly mess behind. This is the "truth" in pop-art, related to our times, as the artist sees it, Gwyn said. He added that pop-art is losing the large following it once enjoyed and is being supplanted by an art-form known as "mini-art."

The "mini-artists" use a minimum of reality or subjectivity in their work, adding to the abstract quality of the painting. All art and art forms are abstract in nature, Gwyn said, including vocal art such as that performed by Mrs. Evelyn Reed of Borger, who sang for the group last night prior to Gwyn's talk.

Gwyn called vocal art "the closest to a pure art form" of all art since there was "nothing between the artist and the audience" such as the paint brushes, canvases, etc., used by the painter.

Mrs. Reed was alternate soloist for the recent performance of Brahms' "Requiem" by Pampa's Oratorio Chorus. Her performance last night was warmly received.

PARIS (UPI)—The French government said today the preliminary talks between the United States and North Vietnam will open here Friday as scheduled and that if they are successful they will be expanded into "fullscale peace talks."

Information Minister Georges Gorse made the announcement immediately after a cabinet meeting presided over by President Charles de Gaulle who was keeping in close touch with both Hanoi and Washington on the situation.

U.S. officials said earlier today they were ready to open the preliminary talks on Friday but that the Hanoi delegation had not yet confirmed it was ready to start talking on time.

The heads of the U.S. and North Vietnamese delegations arrive Thursday.

U.S. Ambassador-at-large Averell Harriman, America's chief negotiator, and Hanoi delegation Chief Xuan Thuy were scheduled to arrive Thursday—the North Vietnamese at noon and Harriman in the evening.

Record Infiltration Causing US Diplomatic, Military Problems

By MERRIMAN SMITH

UPI White House Reporter
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Record Communist infiltration of South Vietnam—at a time when Washington-Hanoi talks are about to begin in Paris—is posing tough military and diplomatic problems for the United States, according to White House sources.

The sources said Tuesday that what particularly bothers the U.S. military command are intelligence reports on the detection of more than 100,000 Communist troops moving southward from North Vietnam since the Tet offensive in late January.

The diplomatic problem lies in the fact that in announcing it would consider stopping the bombing of all the North, which Hanoi demands, the United States said it would need assurances that North Vietnam

Possible New Offensives

Washington speculation as to the reasons for the high infiltration rate include the possibilities that Hanoi is preparing for still more offensives; that the troop moves were intended for military campaigns that didn't quite come off; or that Hanoi has been rushing to build up forces in advance of the Paris talks.

In April alone, total Communist infiltration was reported at 35,000 men, about 7,000 more than in March, the previous record month.

Dispatches from Saigon indicated that almost 7,000 men moved south during the first five days of May.

U.S. officials also are concerned that no sign of a Communist restraint has been detected since Johnson's March

Miami 'Near Normal' In Storm's Aftermath

Residents of tornado-struck Miami were expected to be back in a state of "near normal activity by late today," according to Roberts County Sheriff Cy Carr, following round-the-clock salvage and clean-up operations, which started shortly after the twister struck the town of 72 Monday afternoon.

"We're in pretty good shape now and we're beginning to get our heads out from under it," Sheriff Carr said.

He said the bulk of clean-up and salvage operations would probably be completed by late this afternoon. Telephone, power and utility companies had rations which started shortly day.

"We appreciate everything everybody has done for us — our neighbors in this county and Gray and Wheeler counties, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the Highway Patrol and everybody else," Sheriff Carr said. He said he felt that "the ample help given by everybody" was of great help in completing the major part of cleaning and salvage operations, but that there would probably be no more need for volunteer help after today.

No official estimates of damage have been made, but estimates range from $400-500,000 upward to a million dollars.

Besides the heavily damaged Miami schools, three businesses and about 18 houses were totally destroyed. A lumber yard suffered heavy damage, and a number of other businesses and houses suffered lesser damages.

Yesterday, a certificate of appreciation for 50 years of humanitarian service was presented to the Roberts County Chapter of the American Red Cross by Claude M. Payne, national Red Cross Field Representative.

A Red Cross disaster van has been in Miami since 6 p.m. Monday and has dispensed more than 1,500 sandwiches.

Mayor Glen Dobson commended the Red Cross and said he wished to thank publicly "all the wonderful help" his city had received from the Red Cross and other organizations and individuals.

Miss Della Craig, of the Roberts County Red Cross, said case work by the Red Cross on an individual basis had begun and will continue until all disaster victims had been cared for.

The Salvation Army had six units in Miami following the disaster, and eight officers and 16 volunteers worked around the clock.

Area Boy Scouts from the Adobe Walls Council also assisted in salvage and clean-up operations. Six buses of scouts assisted in operations there yesterday and two more buses will help in operations tonight.

Scout Exposition Is Scheduled Here For Friday

The 1968 Scout Exposition will be held Friday in the National Guard Armory from 4 to 9 p.m.

Tom Gray, chairman of this year's exposition, said participants will consist of Scout units from the Santa Fe District.

The purpose of the exposition is for all Cub, Boy, and Explorer Scouts to demonstrate their skills to the public. Some of the skills to be demonstrated are knots, communications, signaling, and knife safety. There will be shows such as the Cub Scout Circus, Mystery House, Hill Billy band, and Davey Jones' Locker. Also there will be presented the skills of cobbler baking, Indian dancing, mapping, ski equipment, sailboat building, and many more. Webelos Scouts, a new part of Scouting, will demonstrate their activities. The units presenting these skills will be attempting to earn awards of colored streamers.

Tickets for the exposition are available from all Scouts at the price of 50 cents each. Every one under eight years old will be admitted free. Scouts will receive a percentage of the sales in the form of a gift certificate. These certificates are redeemable for Cub, Boy, and Explorer Scout supplies. All scouts in uniform will be admitted free.

Student Unrest In US Continues

By United Press International
Student unrest fed by racial and political issues continued at university and college campuses across the nation today.

At California's Stanford University, where arsonists burned a Navy ROTC building Tuesday, students continued an administration building sit-in in opposition to suspension of seven students for demonstrating against Central Intelligence Agency recruiters last fall.

Rescue Near For Trapped Miners

HOMINY FALLS, W. Va. (UPI)—A mine official said today rescue crews could reach 15 of 25 men entombed deep inside a flooded coal mine near here "sometime today."

"I'd say it looks good for today," said H. E. Sundstrom, an official of the Guley Coal and Coke Co., owners of the mine where the men have been trapped since Monday.

One Of Three Texas Heart Patients Dies

HOUSTON (UPI)—One of three patients into whom physicians at St. Luke's Hospital transplanted hearts in a five-day series of operations died today, probably because of drugs administered to keep his body from rejecting the heart.

The man who died was James B. Cobb of Alexandria, La., who Sunday received the heart of Joseph Brannon, a 15-year-old killed in a motorcycle-automobile accident.

Everett C. Thomas, 47, of Phoenix, Ariz., who received a new heart in the first operation last Friday, and John M. Stuckwisch, an Alpine, Tex., hospital administrator who received a transplanted heart Tuesday, were reported in "satisfactory" condition.

The Stuckwisch operation was more ticklish than the others. Stuckwisch, the 12th person in the world to receive a transplanted heart, was medically dead on the operating table.

But Dr. Denton A. Cooley and his surgical team, who were giving him the heart of Clarence Nicks, 26, sped up their work and got the heart in place and beating.

Cobb, 48, had been in "excellent" condition. John R. Behrens, administrator of St. Luke's, said eight hours before Cobb's death, he suddenly worsened. He died at 6 a.m. EDT, with physicians around his bed.

'How Sweet It Is'... For Jackie Gleason

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — How sweet it is!—for Jackie Gleason. "The great one" is starring with Carol Channing in "Ski-doo" for Otto Preminger, his first movie in seven years. And he will star in two more before the year is out, making him one of the most in-demand actors in the country today.

Not prone to self-effacement, Gleason acknowledged that if they didn't want him in movies he wouldn't be doing them. Sought Out
"Preminger sought me out for this picture," he said, dispatching a heaping plate of chicken chow mein at the Paramount Commissary. "And Bob Hope came to me for his picture, 'How to Commit Marriage.' 'I haven't the slightest idea what all this movie activity is about. But I like it." When the large one returns to Florida to resume his weekly television show in the fall, still another movie will be awaiting him. This third picture will be a drama as against the two comedies. The king of Florida is a celebrity in Hollywood. Because he is rarely seen in these climes, Jackie turns more heads than a blonde in a bikini. King Gleason

When King Gleason returns to his realm he may work off a hundred pounds with a back-breaking schedule. In addition to the movie he will also begin filming his television show for next season. "This year it won't be so tough," Gleason said. "We will only do three 'Honeymooners' and 20 variety shows. Those 'Honeymooners' were killers. I had to memorize thousands of lines over the year." Won't the customers be outraged if Gleason becomes another Ed Sullivan, an emcee who points to the guest stars and then fades into the wings? "No," said Jackie. "I'll do Reggie van Gleason III, the Poor Soul, Fenwick Babbit and some of the others." "But once the movie is completed and all the television shows are in the can, I'm taking off for a long vacation next June in Ireland. No work at all. I'm just going to flop down and enjoy it."

Amphitheatre Schedules Special Show

CANYON — The lights will go on in the Pioneer Amphitheatre in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park Thursday evening, May 16, at 8 and the public is invited. The occasion is entertainment of the visitors who will be in Amarillo at that time for the dedication of the Helium capsule which is an event of national significance. In order to honor the three hundred leaders of business and industry who will be in the Panhandle on that date, the Board of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation has arranged a special program in the amphitheatre which will enable the visitors to enjoy some of the accomplishments in this area and to experience the impact of an evening in the theatre. During the first section of the program, the West Texas State University Choral will sing under the leadership of the distinguished composer of this area, Houston Bright. Some of their selections will be accompanied by brass instruments in very stirring arrangements. As the shadows lengthen, the second section of the program will draw in the Kwahadi Indian Dancers of Amarillo, well known for their colorful and exciting portrayals of Indian days. The Kwahadis last danced on the stage in the Canyon at the national convention of the Men's Garden Clubs of America. The third part of the program, after darkness has come, will be a short sound and light demonstration showing the history and development of the Canyon itself and ending with horses and flags in a grand finale. Two of the functions in the program of the dedication of the helium capsule are open to the public. The first will be the program in Palo Duro Canyon. The second will be the dedication itself at 10 on Friday, May 17. This will take place at the intersection of Interstate 40 and Nelson and will include many interesting attractions. There will be a transportation exhibit, helium exhibits, shows, Don Piccard will be there with balloons for transporting riders and the Goodyear blimp will also be in evidence.

Pampans Return From Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Williams returned last night from Chicago, Ill., where they attended the spring business and educational meeting of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and its nine affiliated institutes.

Williams, president of the National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers, presided at that three-day business meeting, participated in a two-day educational program and attended a meeting yesterday of the directors of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, of which he is a member.

● Talks

formal opening session may be held Friday to get the talks underway and the real negotiating may not begin until Monday.

U.S. officials indicated belief the talks may bog down quickly into routine haggling with very little prospect of progress. They said Harriman may remain in Paris only for a week or 10 days and then return to Washington if the talks drag on. He would come back to Paris as soon as there was sign of movement in the talks, the sources said.

Propaganda Drive

Meanwhile, the United States began launching a full-scale drive to win the propaganda battle in the talks.

With an estimated 1,000 to 2,000 newsmen expected for the opening of the negotiations, U.S. sources said no effort will be spared to put across the American case.

Officials said the U.S. delegation plans to give daily, possibly twice-daily conference briefings instead of clamping down a tight secrecy veil, as had been predicted earlier.

Harriman was said to be in full agreement.

At the U.S. Embassy and at the expected site of the talks more than 300 steel-helmeted police stood guard to head off student rioters who have disrupted Paris for nearly a week.

Police erected steel barriers in front of the embassy and passers-by were not allowed to walk on the sidewalk in front of it.

Police also ringed the French foreign ministry's International Conference Center, scheduled site of the talks.

It was part of massive security precautions the French government put into effect to try to assure that student demonstrations do not imperil the talks between the United States and North Vietnam.

Student power rioting with police has swept Paris since Monday.

Note Increase Infiltration

On the political side of the upcoming talks, U.S. sources said American officials were concerned by increased infiltration of Communists into South Vietnam.

In Washington, Merriman Smith, UPI White House reporter, quoted U.S. sources as saying infiltration from North Vietnam was at a record level with 35,000 infiltrators in April alone.

The United States planned extensive efforts to win the propaganda battle of the forthcoming talks and officials said the U.S. delegation would give daily and possibly twice daily briefings to the expected 2,000 newsmen covering the talks.

W. Averell Harriman, U.S. ambassador-at-large who will head the U.S. negotiating team, was said to be in full agreement with plans to offer full briefings rather than clamp down tight security as earlier predicted.

Beverly King Heads WTCC

Beverly King, a Graham rancher and businessman, was elected president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at the organization's fiftieth annual meeting which concluded yesterday in Odessa. J. Fike Godfrey of Spur was named president-elect.

Outgoing president of WTCC is Don Wooten of Abilene.

On the agenda during the three-day meeting were panel discussions on "Vocational and Technical Training," "Petroleum and Petro-Chemicals," and "Water."

Highlighting the affair was a luncheon honoring "Top Displaced West Texans" and a Golden Anniversary banquet in which tribute was paid to some fourteen past presidents of WTCC.

A resolution was also passed which recommended that the federal government take steps to increase income taxes and at the same time reduce spending in order to facilitate a balanced federal budget.

Attending the meeting from Pampa were Bill Power, a WTCC director, and Pampa Chamber of Commerce executive vice-president E. O. Wedgeworth.

Teacher Plagued By Vandalism

A Pampa Junior High teacher reported to Pampa police yesterday afternoon that vandals had smeared paint on the apartment where he lives.

It was the second time in two weeks the teacher and his wife have been plagued by vandalism. Last week an estimated $700 damage was done to their auto. Several juveniles have confessed to that offense, according to a police report.

Exposure Charge Filed On Pampan

Charges of indecent exposure were filed yesterday by Pampa police against Carmon Thomas Ferrell, 57, 621 E. Foster, after he allegedly exposed himself to four Pampa Junior High students.

Bond was set at $2,500 by Justice of the Peace Ed Anderson.

Bond Is Set On Driving Charge

James L. Keelin, 26, of Briscoe, was arraigned before County Judge S. R. Lenning Jr. yesterday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Bond was set at $1,000.

Keelin was arrested at 8:10 p.m. Monday night by Sgt. John Thomas following several alleged traffic violations, including running a red light.

Clean-Up Drive Is Underway Here

Five truck loads of junk and trash were removed from Ward 1 yesterday and 15 were hauled away Monday as Pampa's annual Clean-up, Paint-Up, fix-up campaign continued in high gear.

R. B. Cooke, Pampa public works director, said the clean-up campaign would end in Ward 1 tomorrow and then move on into Ward 2 from Friday through next Wednesday.

Shrine Circus Is Due In Pampa Sunday, Monday

The circus with its elephants, clowns, aerialists, wild animals and pink cotton candy is coming to town next Sunday and Monday.

The three-ring Garden-Johnson Shrine Circus will stage three performances—a Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m. and afternoon and night shows on Monday at 4 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the circus will go into the Pampa Shrine Association's Crippled Children's fund.

This year's circus is all new and has not appeared in Pampa before. One of the main attractions is the Zaccchini Cannon Act in which human beings are fired from the mouth of a rocket cannon more than 150 feet into the air, landing in a net far below. For many years the Zaccchini act was the closing attraction in the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus.

Tickets for children under 12 are 75 cents and adult tickets are $1.25, according to Jerry Sims, circus chairman for the local Shrine Association.

The three performances of the two and one-half hour show will be staged at the Rodeo Grounds, east of Pampa.

● Fine

head activities for the 1965-69 season.

Other new officers are Jimmy Thompson, vice president; Mrs. Bob (Doris) Johnson, secretary; and Bill Chambliss, treasurer.

New board members elected by acclamation last night are Mrs. Bill (Judy) Frasier, Mrs. Jewell Walker, Bob Parks and Curt Beck. They will serve three-year terms.

Serving on the nominating committee were G. B. Cree Jr., Ted Gikas, John Skelly, Mrs. Harvey Nensiel and Mrs. Bert Arney. A new nominating committee, elected last night to serve for the ensuing year, includes Mrs. Billy Don Watkins and Mrs. Lynn Boyd.

Two new members of the board were named to head committees of the association. Mrs. Frasier is to head the visual arts committee while Bob Parks will serve as arts education coordinator with the local school system.

● Communists

three days of fighting in the streets.

Witnesses told UPI correspondent Daniel Southerland at least two rockets struck the pagoda in a refugee center today. The helicopter gunships were fighting Communist guerrillas who had hoisted a Red flag atop a bridge 100 yards from the pagoda and begun fighting American and South Vietnamese troops.

Southerland said the battling destroyed all but one section of the pagoda, a complex of buildings 50 yards square.

Battles broke out in two other Saigon sectors, near Cholon's Phu Tho race track and Tan Son Nhut. Near the track 24 Viet Cong were killed and three captured along with five Communist anti-aircraft machine-guns.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day well as charming. You can find just the right idea for improving all, having a greater abundance.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) — You are charming and attractive and can now operate in an elegant fashion so that you become very much more popular. Make new contacts socially who can be helpful to you in the days ahead.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Ideal time for investigating whatever has been puzzling to you for some time, and get the right answer. Out to the romantic later that can be quite successful. Show that you have a charming manner.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) — Talk over with pals what they are willing to do to assist you in your cherished aims, and be sure to do something to help them as well. Some interesting invitation is extended to you so accept.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) — Showing others that you are an A-1 citizen can impress highly favorably and make your reputation soar. You have a better method of operating now, so get busy, improve both credit and profession.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) — Showing that you appreciate the contacts that have recently come into your life, gets you many new benefits in the days ahead. Coordinating your energies with persons of varied backgrounds can now produce finer results.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) — If you hurry and get your work done early, you will have plenty of time for happy activities later on. You know exactly how to handle all of your affairs intelligently now so get busy and do so.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those magnetic and charming young people that others will want to spoil so teach early that whatever is honestly earned is best enjoyed in life. There is great ability where the artistic and the cultural are concerned, so slant the education along such lines. Be sure to give spiritual training.

Members - Pledges Phi Epsilon Meet

Members and pledges of Phi Epsilon Beta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met recently in the Reddi Room of the Southwestern Public Service building.

Mrs. Bill Caswell presided over the meeting. The secretary called roll and read the minutes of the previous meeting. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Max Patton and a social committee report was given.

For the evening's program, the outgoing officers reviewed their duties for the incoming officers.

It was announced that Mrs. D. B. Jameson has accepted the sponsorship of the chapter for the coming year.

Hostesses Mrs. Don Hufstetler and Miss Pam Noe served refreshments.

Pledges attending were Mmes. Jackie Narrell, Harold Taylor, Dennis Wyatt and Misses: Linda Cotham, Pat Howard, Linda Kirby and Audrey Mollett.

Members present were Mmes: Ronnie Atkinson, Jim Brashers, Bill Caswell, Gary Clark, Gary Epperson, Charles Hoskins, Don Hufstetler, John Lyle, Calvin McConnell, Max Patton, Jim Simpson, Jerry Wright, and Miss Pam Noe.

Registration Set For Scouts Camp

Registration for Girl Scout Day Camp for Pampa is scheduled for May 8, 9 and 10. Registrations will be taken from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., at the Girl Scout office, second floor, Cith Hall. The fee is $4 per girl. Non-Girl Scouts may register May 18-20, and the fee is $5. This is the only way Girl Scouts will be registered for Day camp. Non-Girl Scouts may bring or mail their registrations to the Quivira Girl Scout Council, P.O. Box 459, Pampa, Texas, 79065. The back page of the camp booklet is the registration form to be used for camp. Please remember to bring it with you and to fill it out completely on both sides.

The first session of Day Camp for Pampa and Miami will be the week of June 3-7; the second session will be June 10-14. Buses will leave from the north side of Furr's Super Market parking lot, 1420 N. Hobart, at 8:30 a.m. and return promptly at 4:00 p.m. Please arrange to meet your camper at that time. This year Day Camp will be located on the H. L. Ledrick Ranch, north of Pampa.

Frontier, Gunn Eros, and S&H Green Trading Stamps will be accepted as partial or total payment of the camp fee. (Only full books will be accepted.) Each book, except S&H Green Stamps, is worth $2.50; S&H Green Stamps are worth $2.00. The fees help cover the program supplies, transportation, insurance, cookouts, and other Day Camp expenditures. Senior Scouts working as program aides are not required to pay, but must register.

Day Camp Director for the first session will be Mrs. Jewell Snider, and her assistant will be Mrs. Jackson Black, both of Pampa. Mrs. Snider recently attended Day Camp Director's training at Perryton, and is the leader of Brownie Troop 18. The second session will be directed by Mrs. N. G. Kadingo, Pampa, and Mrs. Cecil Smith, Miami, will be her assistant. Mrs. Kadingo is District II Chairman, volunteer trainer, and the leader of Brownie Troop 27. Both assistant directors have been in Scouting for a number of years. Full camps are anticipated for both sessions, and parents are urged to register this week.

"Mother's Ring"
A beautiful trademark of love from Mom. The gift of a million happy memories.

Twin bands of 14 Karat gold, which symbolize Mother and Father, are joined by luxurious synthetic birthstones, one for each child in the family.

THERE IS ONLY ONE "MOTHER'S RING". It is so distinctive, so unique, that it has been awarded U. S. Patent #1,061,813. Ask for it by name, confirm it by its identifying tag.

Sturgeon Speaks To Lefors Club

LEFORS (Sp1) — Ben Sturgeon, Pampa attorney, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Lefors Art and Civic Club Civic Center recently.

Mrs. H. L. Teel introduced the program on Americanism. The speaker used the topic "Making Ballots Count". Sturgeon distributed sample ballots to the members and discussed voting procedure. The informative program concluded with a question and answer period.

The short business session was conducted by Mrs. Carl Hall, president. Various reports were given and future club plans were made. Mrs. Stroud, social chairman, invited all members and their husbands to the annual installation dinner, to be held May 6 at 6:30 p.m. in Furr's Cafeteria in Pampa.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Joe Watson and Mrs. Ray Chastain to Mmes. Harry Youngblood, Cal Hall, Jeff Bradley, Mark Harper, H. L. Teel, Howard Archer, Merry Stroud, Bob Klein and Earl Tarbet.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a 29-year-old man for the last eight months. I am 22. He's nice looking, well-mannered and can afford to show a girl a good time. He has bought me some rather expensive gifts (a stereo for Christmas and a color TV for my birthday.) He tried to give me a diamond for St. Valentine's Day, but I would not accept it.

I just don't love him and he knows it, but he says he's desperately in love with me. I never tried to lead him on. I told him from the beginning that I didn't love him and didn't think I ever could. I've even asked him to quit calling me, but he calls anyway, and if I have nothing better to do, I go out with him.

I have acted bored in his company, and been rude to him, but he can't be discouraged. Any suggestions?

TOO HONEST

DEAR TOO: If you really do not see any future with this man, don't go out with him again because the more you see of him, and the more you accept from him, the harder it will be to get rid of him. He plans to "wear you down." And if he succeeds, you'll both be sorry. A one-sided "love" doesn't last long.

DEAR ABBY: I am 31, have been self-supporting since I was 18, am well-groomed and have lots of friends. But in spite of my jolly disposition and happy smile I am very unhappy. You see, I'm one of those big-boned women who could diet herself down to nothing, but I would still be big.

I know I am fat, but I am naturally so large that if I were to lose any weight it would show in my face and neck, and I would rather be a little on the plump side than haggard and wrinkled.

This letter is a plea for more consideration on the part of those who make fat women the butt of jokes. We have feelings, too, and although we are good sports on the surface, we are crying on the in-

"Tour of Homes" By Society Club

The Pampa African Violet Society recently conducted a spring showing of violets with a "Tour of Homes." The tour began in the home of Mrs. Norman Walburg. The group then viewed the violets in the home of Mrs. Dan Glaxner. At the close of the tour the business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Charles Gilson. The society voted to contribute to the Boyce Edens Fund for research. Mrs. V. N. Osborn, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Dan Glaxner. She gave a biography of the life of Mrs. Norman Walburg.

Refreshments were served by the hostess Mrs. Glaxner and the co-hostess, Mrs. Osborn — to one guest Mrs. F. L. Denton and members Mmes. Lee Moore, W. A. Green, Norman Walburg, R. F. Dirksen, Evann Jones.

High School Youth Gave Ultimate Gift

By PRESTON KIRK
CONROE, Tex. (UPI)—"He was just a real good kid, an all-around real good kid."

Thus did W.T. Stapler, assistant football coach at Conroe High School, eulogize William Joseph Brannon, 15, good student, good athlete, good son and good citizen.

He gave the ultimate gifts Sunday—his heart, so that James Bordon Cobb, 48, of Alexandria, La., could live, and his kidney, so that William Charles Kaiser, 41, of Odessa, Tex., could live.

Brannon was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brannon of Conroe, a small town near Houston. His father, a former football player at Rice University in Houston, is a Gulf Oil Co. distributor at Conroe.

Stapler said, "He had a real good attitude. He was a good student. He wasn't one of those long-haired beatniks. He was the kind of kid you would want him to be."

The Brannon family is active in the Conroe community. His mother, Joyce, had been taking part in fund-raising activities for hospital supplies in Harris County.

The Brannons are all Catholics and members of Sacred Heart Catholic church.

Saturday, young Brannon was riding on his motorcycle on Highway 75 when it collided with a car driven by Charlie son and good citizen.

The boy was taken to Montgomery County Hospital and then transferred to Houston.

During the night, he worsened. The Rev. Timothy T. Cronin asked his parishioners at Sacred Heart to kneel and pray for the boy.

On Sunday, the boy's neurosurgeon called St. Luke's Episcopal hospital, where the world's ninth heart transplant had taken place Friday.

He told hospital administrators the boy would not live out the day. The boy's parents consented to the transplants.

On Sunday, William Joseph Brannon died—and James Cobb and William Kaiser lived.

'Hippie' Influence On Fashions For Men

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Next thing you know the hippies will be wearing crew-cuts and Ivy League suits.

Creeping conformity by the establishment to hippie raiment will force the flower children to go the clean-cut route as the vanguard of the power structure climbs into the hippie bag.

The cutting edge of male fashion are the cats in movies and television, man. Trend setters.

Increasingly, they are becoming more difficult to separate from the Haight-Ashbury inhabitants. Granted they aren't blowing their minds with LSD or speed—maybe a little pot—but it's the threads they wear and like the hair that is sprouting out all over Dig?

You go to a party these days and what do you find among the actors, agents, writers, producers, directors and press agents?

Answer: The hippie influence.

Stars Conform
Marlon Brando, Tony Curtis, Rod Steiger, Herb Alpert, among a few score others, pop up at parties with long sideburns, Nehru jackets, tight pants, pendants dangling from chains and/or beads.

Turtleneck dress shirts have become commonplace. Long hair is the mode. Sandals are in.

It's not that Hollywood males have jumped into extreme mens' wear fashions all in one leap. The transition is made gradually as the individual weighs his appearance in the mirror and in the eyes of female acquaintances.

He also is wary of what the other guys will say. So it begins by letting the sideburns creep lower toward the ear lobe day by day. Soon, the bidding in-guy has a full set of burns acquired with little or no notice.

Thus emboldened, he slips on a turtleneck. The next step is difficult. Should it be beads or a pendant.

Starts with Pendant

Well, a pendant is usually more masculine, so he opts for a heavy metal insignia of some sort on the end of a rugged looking chain. This, he swears, is as far as he will go.

But at the next party he sees his agent wearing thonged footwear and a Nehru jacket.

So he goes along with that, too. If he's rich he begins with a modified Nehru before finally working up to the real thing. Finally, he ends up with sideburns, turtleneck, Nehru jacket, pendant, sandals and tight pants — indistinguishable from everyone else at the party.

The final commitment, however, is a beard. They are seen more on writers, producers, directors and press agents than actors. A working actor usually plays clean-shaven roles.

But when performers are between pictures, the beard grows and it's hippie time all over again.

Must give the rebellious kids a real pain in the brain.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Can there be doubt any longer that the greatest new television star of the past season was Tiny Tim of NBC-TV's "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In" series?

And can anyone doubt that he is just emerging, that he is headed for a blockbuster career in all of show business?

Nothing makes this more clear than his first album, recently out on Reprise Records. It is a masterpiece, an instant collector's item that reveals his timeless feel for music both old and new, and radiates a shining innocence throughout the uproarious humor, touching ballads and new-world musical commentary. It is not merely a record, but a show, a major production that transmits the magic of the theater.

Wider Vocal Range

In addition, those televisioners who have become used to Tiny Tim's voice—his falsetto singing—will be pleasantly surprised when he sets aside this trademark occasionally on the record and reveals a wider, warmer vocal range.

I confess I sat down to the record expecting hardly more than a few laughs. But the artistry becomes immediately clear, and sustains throughout. The orchestrations, besides, are quite wonderful, catchy in the old style, intense in the new. And there, above all, is Tiny Tim making you somehow smile down deep, and trust without question his innocence of spirit.

Several months ago, after I had written several pieces praising Tiny Tim, I had dinner with an NBC-TV executive and told him the network had a real star on its hands. I think he also suspected that, but he asked me if I were serious—because, like almost everyone else, he couldn't figure out whether Tiny Tim was for real. I wasn't sure then either.

Survives Tonight Show

But I am now. If Tiny Tim weren't for real, he would have been demolished by Johnny Carson recently on the "Tonight" show. Instead, Tiny Tim was completely untouched by the usual wisecracks, left himself wholly and innocently indestructible—and transformed Carson into a straight man, winning away the audience and even the show.

I leave you with these words by Tiny Tim, recorded by NBC: "I come from New York and my dear, dear sweet parents have been so wonderful to me as well as my dear sweet friends. I have been singing ever since I can remember, years ago appearing in amateur shows in Brooklyn, and just all over the place."

"I sang in hospitals, and for the poor in the streets. I even sang in back alleys and on subway trains, just to sing what ever the people wanted to hear. All I wanted today was to spread joy all over."

I believe him. I absolutely believe him. Absolutely.

HemisFair Is Expected To Be Success

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—HemisFair officials Monday received encouragement for a successful exposition, even though attendance figures are running nearly 400,000 behind original estimates.

Economic Research Associates of Los Angeles, who before the fair opened April 6, predicted 7.2 million persons would visit the grounds, said Monday it still expects that many visitors, despite sagging attendance.

Joseph Candy, president of the 1962 World's Fair in Seattle, said Monday he thought HemisFair was "built well, dreamed well and planned well."

HemisFair is a "bigger and better world's fair than Seattle's," he said. "HemisFair has a great charm I have never seen at any world's fair."

A spokesman for the research firm said a 1963 survey indicated the fair would have 46 days of attendance of less than 27,000 during the first few months it was open. So far, he said, there have only been 18 days below that figure and summer vacations should swell the number of visitors.

The firm had predicted 1,190,530 would have seen the fair by now, but through Sunday, attendance stands at 797,035.

The director of the Mormon pavilion at HemisFair said he expects to welcome the 100,000th visitor to the pavilion today. He said the occasion would be marked by a simple ceremony.

THE LIGHTER SIDE Entertainer's Rights

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Television has often been accused of pussyfooting around on controversial issues lest it offend some viewers to the point of undermining the commercials.

That complaint may still be valid to a degree, but there are now at least a few programs on which sensitive matters are discussed in a frank, head-on, unblinking manner. The Johnny Carson Show, for example.

I happened to tune in that program the other night when Carson had Paul Newman as his guest. The two of them fearlessly aired a civil rights problem that a year or so ago might have been regarded as TV taboo.

Protect All Minorities

Most of us think of civil right in terms of racial equality, but there is more to it than that. It also embraces, among other things, the persecution of professional minorities. Such as show business people.

Carson introduced the subject. He noted that actors and other entertainers frequently are pestered by their fans when they appear in public.

On a recent evening, he said, he was peacefully dining in a restaurant when a woman sneaked up behind him, grabbed his head and kissed him. I don't mind saying that when I heard this, it made my blood boil. It certainly is a dark day for America if actors are being denied the basic right of public privacy.

Newman then related an even more horrifying experience, telling how he was nearly mobbed by admirers when he was in New Hampshire campaigning for Sen. McCarthy.

Simple Task

All Newman wanted to do, I gather, was pass out handbills, tack up posters and stuff envelopes with campaign brochures.

That he was unable to do so without attracting attention amounted to a denial of political freedom.

If this sort of thing is allowed to continue, candidates will quit inviting any of the show business celebrities to participate in their campaigns.

No candidate wants an actor's endorsement if it means a lot of publicity.

Carson and Newman are to be commended for bringing this matter into the open. The next time Congress considers a civil rights bill, it should include a provision to protect entertainers from excessive adoration.

Actors have as much right to anonymity as you and I. I say, let's give it to them.

Groom Honor Students Are Named

GROOM—Groom High School has announced that baccalaureate services will be held May 19, and commencement May 24, in the school auditorium.

The senior class has 20 members. Valedictorian will be Mike Helton, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Helton, with a grade average of 94.98.

Salutatorian will be Johnny Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brooks, with an average of 92.86. Keith Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Fields, was a close third in top honors with a grade average of 92.82.

Carolyn Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Merrick had a grade average of 91.78.

Members of the Senior class will leave Thursday for a four-day trip which will include visits to the Astrodome at Houston, and the HemisFair in San Antonio. They plan to return Sunday. They will be accompanied by High School Principal J. Lanier and Mrs. Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hunt, Coach Richard Eddleman and Mrs. Eddleman. They will make the trip by chartered bus.

SWEDEN LEADING
BANDOL, France (UPI)—Sweden's Ove Bengtsson and Hasse Nerell combined to defeat Rhodesia's Adrian Bey and Frank Salomon 6-2, 6-3 6-0 Monday and give their country a 2-1 lead in the best-of-five European zone first-round Davis Cup matches.

The matches are being played in France after demonstrations against the Rhodesian team took place in Sweden.

AUSTIN (UPI)—The state Democratic Executive Committee will meet at 8 a.m. May 14 to canvass returns of Saturday's primary election, chairman Will D. Davis said Tuesday.

Drug Investigation Ordered After Dancer's Image Loss

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—A two-pronged investigation into the drugging and subsequent disqualification of Kentucky Derby winner Dancer's Image was underway today following Tuesday's stunning announcement by Churchill Downs race track that a pain-killing drug was detected in a urine sample taken from the 3-year-old colt following his victory Saturday.

Following his announcement of the first disqualification in 9 runnings of America's most prestigious horse race, Wathen Knebelkamp, president of Churchill Downs, said the track's security forces and representatives of the Thoroughbred Racing Associations were conducting an investigation into the drugging at the request of the state stewards.

In addition, Peter Fuller, the owner of Dancer's Image, revealed upon his arrival home at Boston Tuesday night that he plans to conduct an investigation.

Hearing Planned

Fuller, and his trainer Lou Cavalari, upon whom falls the responsibility for the condition of horses he enters in a race, were informed of the stewards' findings Monday night and were told a hearing would be held no later than next Monday. Fuller, when asked if he planned to retain Cavalari, said, "I'm not only going to keep my trainer on, but if anybody should suspend my trainer, I plan to conduct an investigation."

The Boston automobile dealer then added, "I'm going to do that anyway into this matter, and offer a large financial reward to find out who the individual or individuals were who tampered with this horse."

The immediate effect of the disqualification was to move Dancer's Image from first to last in the 14 horse field with runner-up Forward Pass being declared the official winner and his owner, Mrs. Gene Markey of Calumet Farm, given the $122,600 first prize and the $5,000 gold cup. All the other horses also moved up one notch in the official result.

Jockey Loses Out

The disqualification also deprived jockey Bobby Ussery of becoming the first rider in 66 years to post back-to-back Derby victories and gave Milo Valenzuela, Forward Pass' rider, his second Derby win. The stewards' findings could also result in a 60-day suspension for Cavalari.

However, those not affected by the disqualification are any persons who may have made a wager on the race. According to racing rules, all bets stand on the original finish—Dancer's Image, Forward Pass and France's Hat.

Knebelkamp's official explanation of the disqualification was that the pain-killer phenylbutazone and/or a derivative thereof was found in the post-race urine analysis of Dancer's Image.

Kentucky racing rules state that a urine analysis shall be taken from the winner of every race and another horse from the race chosen by lot. The "other" horse involved this time was Kentucky Sherry and his tests proved negative.

Questions Sampling

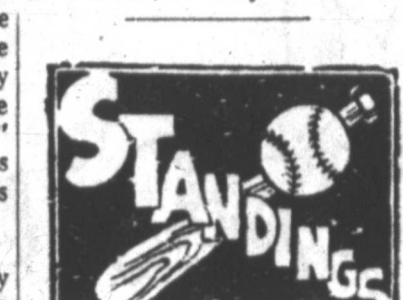

In his statement Tuesday night, Fuller suggested "the urine bottles could have been switched. I don't say they were," said Fuller, "they could have been. There are a number of things that were not as we wished that they were."

"A Churchill Downs official said that there was no security whatsoever at the track, and that anybody on the backstretch could have done something to the horse," Fuller added.

A Churchill Downs spokesman emphasized that the drug found in the urine analysis "is not a stimulant," that is, a drug which would "pep up" a horse to run better. However, one veterinarian said it would have the effect of making a horse run better because it would relieve him of any pain.

Despite the turn of events, Fuller said he still planned to start Dancer's Image in the Preakness Stakes, the second jewel in racing's Triple Crown, at Pimlico, on May 18.

English Race Driver Crashes To Death In Turbine-Powered Car At Indianapolis

By KURT FREUDENTHAL INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—England's Mike Spence, on the verge of greatness in international auto racing, crashed to his death in a turbine-powered car at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Tuesday. Three other turbines were withdrawn immediately from the upcoming 500 mile race.

He died shortly after flirting with the magic 170-mile-an-hour barrier and unofficially becoming the second fastest man ever to turn a lap at the famed 2 1/2 mile speedway.

A rookie at the Speedway seeking his first starting assignment in the 500-mile race on Memorial Day, the 31-year-old Briton, who only a few short weeks ago had no serious thoughts of challenging for racing's richest purse, died Tuesday night less than five hours after his turbine-powered machine plowed into the southwest wall.

Doctors said death was caused by multiple head injuries. Spence never regained consciousness.

The fatal accident drew immediate repercussions. Famed race car builder Carroll Shelby withdrew his three-car turbine team from this year's "500" for safety reasons.

"After complete and intensive testing," Shelby said, "I feel that at the present time it is impossible to make a turbine-powered race car competitive with a reasonable degree of safety and reliability."

Earlier, former race winner Parnelli Jones withdrew as a turbine chauffeur, saying the car he almost drove to victory last year was no longer "competitive."

Spence, ninth in International Grand Prix road racing competition last year, was the first driver killed at the speedway since 1966 when Chuck Roede cracked up on a warm-up lap on the first day of qualifications.

Spence was testing the car assigned to teammate Greg Weld when he apparently lost control, went into the No. 1 southwest turn "too high" and slammed almost head on into the wall.

The bright-red machine, its turbine still whining, then slid along the outside retaining wall for nearly 400 feet, slid another 240 feet and stopped in the middle of the track at the end of the first turn.

Earlier Tuesday, Spence was clocked in his own car, another of Andy Granatelli's wedge-shaped turbines, unofficially at a clip of 169.55 m.p.h.

Chief steward Harlan Fiegler said it seemed apparent Spence simply lost control. No mechanical defects were found.

Pinch Hit Double Defeats Harvesters, 3-1

By WES DUMONT Daily News Sports Editor
Pinch hitter Dennis Martin doubled and then scored a run to give the Plainview Bulldogs a 3-1 win over the Pampa Harvesters in a district conference baseball game here Tuesday afternoon.

Martin, a sophomore, hit for starting pitcher Carl Eaves of Plainview and came through with a double near the right field line to plate Buster Watson who had previously walked, and score what proved to be the winning margin of victory. Martin's hit came in the fifth inning when one out was recorded.

It marked the first defeat for Pampa in four contests.

In contrast to the first game between the two teams, an 8-7 affair won by Plainview, the contest was a low-scoring, low hitting game.

Pampa got four hits—two each by Steve Summers and Tommie Hawkins. Plainview also got only four hits—two by lead-off hitter Tom Baker and one apiece by Watson and Martin.

Martin's double was the important base hit in the ball game and led to Pampa's downfall.

It marked the first defeat for Hal Clabaugh who was relieved by Dick Henley at the start of the fifth inning. Clabaugh has started the last three games and suffered his first defeat in three contests.

Playing well for the two clubs were both shortstops—sophomore Ross Holman of Pampa and Ronnie McMillan of Plainview.

It was a contest in which few players were left on base. A total of three players—two for Plainview and one for Pampa—were left stranded.

Pampa scored its first and only tally in the second inning when two errors, a walk and Tom Hawkin's single led to a run. Plainview came back in the third inning when Tom Baker singled to score Ronnie McMillan from second base. McMillan got a free ticket to first base in a walk.

It was ideal baseball weather—clear skies, plenty of sunshine and no wind.

ODDS AND ENDS: West Texas State will be favored in its initial game with Wichita State Shockers opening the football season in Canyon. According to a veteran insider, West Texas rarely loses a home opener and this year should be no exception, particularly since they're playing a team which may be demoralized from its slap by the NCAA.

Pampa Team Holds Initial Scrimmage

The Pampa high school football team showed a "lot of enthusiasm, hustled well and played aggressive ball," football coach Swede Lee said Wednesday following his team's initial scrimmage.

The Green and Gold held its first workout Tuesday in a controlled situation with each of two varsity squads having the ball 50 plays.

It marked the climax of a week of practice for the new staff under Swede Lee.

Lee is pleased with the attitude of his players. Those receiving special praise were senior Phillip Long who moved to offensive tight end and did a good job of blocking on several occasions.

Gary Parrish, starting for the first time at quarterback, was evaluated as playing well after only three days at quarterback.

Lee will evaluate the performance of the line after viewing films taken of the scrimmage Tuesday night.

Pampa is preparing for its final scrimmage May 18 when fans interested in buying memberships for the Booster Club will be offered tickets.

RETURNING TO ACTION
HOUSTON (UPI)—Joe Morgan, Houston Astro second baseman who has been out of action with a knee injury since April 14, said Tuesday he probably will play this weekend when the Astros travel to St. Louis.

Astros Rout San Francisco, 7-1; Marichal Credited With Defeat

By FRED DOWN UPI Sports Writer
Leave it to the New York Mets to come up with a rookie pitcher who is being nursed to stardom on a bottle of pickle brine.

It sounds like another chapter in the hilarious history of the Mets but it isn't funny to National League batters when they face the blazing fast ball of 22-year-old Nolan Ryan.

A 6-foot, 2-inch, 180-pound righthander from Alvin, Tex., Ryan has caused consternation among rival hitters while compiling a 32 record, striking out 44 batters in 35 innings and turning in a 1.03 earned run average. He was something of a puzzle to the Mets, too, because blisters which developed on the middle finger of his right hand prevented him from pitching nine innings.

Then Met trainer Gus Mauch remembered how he toughened the fingers of former New York Yankee pitcher Hank Borowy and Tom Morgan by bathing their hands in pickle brine. Mauch bought a bottle of the stuff in a Bronx delicatessen and talked the young Texan into trying the remedy.

Pitching Juice Works
The story seems headed for a happy ending because the enterprising delicatessen owner now advertises the stuff as "Mets' pitching juice" and

Ryan hasn't been troubled by blisters in his last two games. Nolan bathed his hand in the brine between innings Tuesday night when he pitched a three-hitter to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 4-1 for his first complete game in the major leagues. Ryan struck out eight and never was in trouble after the third inning when he issued two of his three walks in the game and Bob Tolan followed with a single.

The Mets overcame the 1-0 deficit when Art Shamsky hit a two-run homer following a single by Ken Ewell in the seventh inning and clinched the victory with two more runs in the ninth.

The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Cincinnati Reds 5-2, the Atlanta Braves downed the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-1, the Houston Astros drubbed the San Francisco Giants 7-1 and the Los Angeles Dodgers scored a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs in other National League games.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers nipped the Baltimore Orioles 2-1, the Boston Red Sox edged the Washington Senators 3-2, the Cleveland Indians romped against the New York Yankees 8-0, the Minnesota Twins topped the Oakland Athletics 2-1 and the Chicago White Sox defeated the California Angels 6-4.

Wise Wins Third

Mike Ryan tripped home two runs and scored on a wild pitch during a three-run seventh-inning rally which brought Rick Wise his third victory for the Phillies. Turk Farrell, taking over with runners on second and third and none out in the seventh inning, shut out the Reds the rest of the way.

The Braves rallied to beat the Pirates after Al McBean pitched a perfect game against them for 6 1-3 innings and a no-hitter for 6 2-3. Felix Millan, who scored the Braves' first run on a single by Sonny Jackson in the eighth inning, singled home Sandy Valdespino with the winning run in the ninth.

Don Wilson singled home two runs during a four-run seventh inning and allowed seven hits in 8 1-3 innings to win his third game for the Astros, who dealt San Francisco's Juan Marichal his second defeat. Marichal, who has won four games, had a perfect game before Rusty Staub opened the fifth with his second homer of the season.

Zoilo Valdesares scored one run after a single and stolen base and tallied the other after walking and going from first to third on an infield out to help the Dodgers' Claude Osteen to his second victory. Glenn Beckert doubled home the Cubs' only run.

Water Important Commodity In Western States

By United Press International
 The virtues of oil have been extolled throughout Texas, but in the western part of the state there is a more important commodity—water.
 Water has made West Texas rich. And to help sustain its supply Texas has employed various tactics, even joining New Mexico in suing Colorado in a dispute over headwaters of the Rio Grande.

Texas and New Mexico claim Colorado has built a deficit of more than 900,000 acre-feet in deliveries during a 15-year period.
 And a group called Water, Inc., has gathered 1,500 members in an area including the eastern border counties of New Mexico, the Oklahoma panhandle and Texas west of a line extending from Gainesville on the north to Waco on the south-east and to Del Rio on the Rio Grande.

In another move, federal geological survey hydrologists have begun theoretical studies to determine the possibilities of recharging declining ground water supplies in the Llano Estacado of the high plains of Texas and New Mexico.
 The early studies will be followed by research and field testing of recharged methods considered to be most promising.

Trigg Twichell of the U.S. Geological Survey will coordinate the study as all reports are filtered through the Lubbock field office. He said a major target for study is the Ogallala Formation, the principal aquifer in the High Plains.

"Ground water pumped from the sand and gravel of this formation has been used for irrigation in the rich farming areas," said Twichell. "And this use has exceeded natural recharge from precipitation."
 The importance of water to West Texas and its New Mexico and Oklahoma neighbors can be shown in several ways, thanks to irrigation, the High Plains now enjoys one of the highest standards of living in the world.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Thomson & McKinnon says the stock market has displayed an ability to "shrug off bad news" during its long uptrend. The investment firm says some short-term vulnerability has developed which could result in a period of consolidation, adding that such a pause should "reinforce the bullish technical picture."

Eache & Co. suggests that the market already may be in a consolidation period, but predicts that "any digestive phase will be shallow in nature" and encourage some bargain hunting. It advises investors to be cautious on the near term but constructive toward the intermediate-longer term and alert for buying opportunities during phases of weakness.

C. B. Richard, Ellis & Co., in suggesting that investors use periods of weakness to add to their positions in longer term accounts, notes that many swings now are occurring in individual stocks. The firm also says it may be "worthwhile" to watch for group movements as a basis for trading.

AUSTIN (UPI)—The University of Texas will offer a course in Negro history for the first time next spring. Dr. Henry Allen Bullock Sr. of Texas Southern University will teach a class on "The Negro in America" as a visiting professor.
