'Pot' Danger Is Cited By AMA

By PAUL R. JESCHKE
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—For a younger generation increasingly going to "pot," the American Medical Association is warning about the dangers of marijuana, but prescribing lighter punishment.

The powerful medical group, speaking for 250,000 doctors, joined the anti-marijuana crusade for the first time in its 117-year history Wednesday. It labeled marijuana a "dangerous drug" and argued against its legalization but called present penalties for use "harsh and unrealistic."

The AMA said marijuana, even the weaker variety generally used in the United States, posed a "serious public health concern" similar to alcohol, but was "potentially far more harmful to the individual."

"We will be attacked by the hawks on one side, the doves on the other and even the sparrows will be disturbed," predicted Dr. Dana L. Farnsworth, chairman of the Council on Mental Health.

Possible Serious Consequences
With occasional or "spree" use of marijuana, "the medical hazard is not so great," the AMA said, "although even such use when it produces intoxication can give rise to disorders of behavior with serious consequences to the individual and to society," the AMA said.

"And, while it is true that now only a small proportion of marijuana users in the United States are chronic users and can be said to be strongly dependent on the drug, their numbers, both actual and potential, are large enough to be of a public health concern."

While the doctors stopped short of recommending an absolute abolition of punishment for drug use, they said "legislators, law enforcement officials and the courts should differentiate in the handling of the occasional user, the frequent user, the chronic user, the person sharing his drug with another and the dealer who sells for a profit."

Noted Needless Damage
"Of particular concern is the youthful experimenter who, by incurring a criminal record through a single thoughtless act, places his future career in jeopardy," the AMA said. "The lives of many young people are being needlessly damaged."

Farnsworth estimated probably 50 per cent of the college students on sophisticated college campuses have experimented with pot. He said 90 per cent who try it will stop with no injurious effect. But the remaining 10 per cent, he added, suffer serious mental problems and develop withdrawal symptoms if they try to stop.

Farnsworth said a study at Harvard indicates marijuana users are "about one-third more prone to attempt suicide than students who are being treated for psychological problems."

Congress Set To Boost Income Tax For First Time In 17 Years

President Signs Anticrime Bill But Wants More

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson reluctantly signed into law the anticrime bill, saying it "contains more good than bad." He again urged Congress to go well beyond it in controlling guns.

The President, acting Wednesday less than five hours before the legislation would have gone into effect automatically, said he reached his decision not to veto it on the advice of government agencies and "my own searching examination."

There had been strong indications Congress would have overridden a veto.

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House Judiciary Committee today approved, 29 to 6, President Johnson's bill to ban mail-order sales of all firearms, including rifles.

The bill, fashioned in the Senate, bars mail order sale of handguns, and limits over-counter sales to those 21 and over, in their home states; aid to help improve local law enforcement; seeks to override Supreme Court decisions on criminal confessions and eyewitness testimony, and authorizes court-approved wiretapping in certain criminal situations.

Asks Repeal Wiretapping
In his statement, the President asked Congress to repeal the wiretapping provision in the anticrime law.

And he renewed his plea for legislation to control sales of rifles and shotguns, as well as handguns.

The President's proposed stiffer gun controls were expected to emerge intact today from both the House and Senate judiciary committees. The House panel originally had been deadlocked on the legislation, but Johnson's approval of the crime bill was expected to pull it through.

There also are proposals pending in Congress to require registration of all firearms, but (See PRESIDENT, Page 3)

Tim Duke Competing Today For Optimist International Oratory Title

Tim Duke, 16, son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Duke, is competing today for the International Oratory title and a $2,000 college scholarship at the Optimist Club International Convention in Louisville, Ky.

He emerged yesterday as one of the top five finalists in the field of 41 orators competing from the U.S. and Canada.

By ALAN JENKS

CARACAS (UPI)—A Venezuelan jet airliner with a number of Americans among 80 persons on board was hijacked and forced to land in Cuba today during a flight that originated in Miami, airline spokesmen said.

In Miami a spokesman for Viasa Airlines said the plane landed there but he was not certain whether it had picked up passengers. He said the flight originated in San Francisco as Dominican Airlines Flight 796 but upon reaching Santo Domingo it became Viasa Airlines Flight 797.

A Viasa Airlines official said the two-engine DC9 was reported safe in the eastern Cuban city of Santiago de Cuba.

"We expect the crew and passengers will get the same royal treatment that the other Venezuelan plane got," he said, referring to a hijacking of an Avianca Airlines plane in March when Cuban authorities arranged sightseeing tours for the passengers.

The flight today carried a crew of five plus 75 passengers, he said.

He said the jet was seized while on a flight from Santo Domingo to Curacao and Caracas. It landed in Santiago de Cuba, on the eastern end of the Communist island, shortly after midnight.

The plane was Viasa's Flight 797 originating in Miami with a stop in San Juan before going to Santo Domingo.

It was the second Venezuelan airliner to be hijacked and forced to fly to Cuba. (See AIRLINER, Page 3)

Meeting On Pampa 'Plan' Set Tonight

The first in a series of meetings to formulate and project a new Comprehensive Plan for Pampa is scheduled at a special meeting of the city commission at 7:30 p.m. today in City Hall.

Marvin Springer, Dallas consultant engineer on city planning, will meet with the commission to explain the first of ten steps needed to draw up a new planning and zoning ordinance for Pampa. Springer was employed by the city in April, 1967.

Members of the city planning and zoning board have been invited to study the plan with the commission at each meeting in the series.

The first session tonight will center on a population and economic base study.

The city has entered into a contract to pay Springer $33,100 for the complete Master Plan survey.

The first three meetings will be held at two-week intervals. Monthly meetings will then be held until all ten phases of the program have been studied.

Combat Deaths Above 25,000

By JACK WALSH
SAIGON (UPI)—American combat deaths in the Vietnam War rose above the 25,000 figure last week U.S. officials said today. The Communist death toll stood at 383,935 but Viet Cong and North Vietnamese deaths dropped sharply for the second straight week.

The spokesman said 224 Americans were killed last week and 2,325 wounded. The Communists lost 1,613 dead last week, about half of the 2,134 lost the week before and down from the 4,737 the previous week. The South Vietnamese lost 286 men killed and 1,189 wounded.

Total American casualties of the war stood at 25,068 with 154,297 wounded. The casualties in the Korean War were 33,629 dead and 103,284 wounded. U.S. medical sources said deaths were lower because of advanced medication techniques and faster evacuation of wounded men.

No major ground fighting was reported today. Tension rose along the Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) as U.S. Marines guarding the border reported sighting North Vietnamese helicopters during the night for the fifth consecutive night.

There still was no indication what the reported helicopters were up to—whether they were bringing in troops, supplies, or possibly missiles for use against U.S. planes and ships. The U.S. command in Saigon still has not confirmed the sightings five (See DEATHS, Page 3)

Three Automobile Thefts Reported

A 14-year-old runaway Pampa youth has been apprehended by Amarillo police and is being held in custody in connection with an auto theft that occurred here Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning, according to a police report.

The 1967 auto was stolen from the W. L. Norton residence, 2100 Hamilton St. Norton reported the theft at 7:30 a.m. Wednesday and told police that a bicycle, apparently that of the thief, had been left at the scene.

The youth was arrested at 4 a.m. today. He was carrying an expired driver's license in the name of another person.

He was being held in custody pending notification of his parents, whom police have been unable to contact so far.

Two other auto thefts were reported to Pampa police yesterday.

Howard Bruton of Snyder, Okla., who is with a wheat harvest crew working in Gray County, told police at 1:50 a.m. today that his 1961 model auto had been stolen.

Mrs. Chester W. Van, an employee of Marie Foundations here, reported that her 1959 auto was stolen yesterday while it was parked near the factory. The theft was thought to have occurred sometime between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m.

BULLETIN

Shirley Howeth, 18, of 922 S. Finley St., was rushed to Highland General Hospital for emergency surgery around noon today after suffering injuries in a bicycle-car accident in the 800 block of S. Cuyler. She reportedly suffered lacerations and a cut artery but no condition report was immediately available.

nothing of misery in the mud of the campsite at Resurrection City.

Abernathy's top aides moved promptly to take advantage of the new backing, scheduling "brain-busting" sessions to plan new demonstrations, and arranging for "education courses for the non-poor" at Resurrection City, where visitors have not been encouraged to date.

Weather Favorable
The day turned out clear and warm—prompting many in the crowd to wade in the big but shallow Reflecting Pool between the Monument and the Memorial.

The only incident reported was the stabbing of a boy by someone in a group asking to use his camera. He was not seriously wounded.

Abernathy, King's successor as head of the sponsoring Southern Christian Leadership Conference, read a 29-page speech at the rally, ticking off a long list of demands and vowing to remain in the capital with his followers even if the government refuses to renew the permit for Resurrection City which expires Sunday.

Awaits Action
"I received my permit a long time ago," he said. "and I received it from no government, from no constitution, but from God Almighty, and I intend to stay here until justice rolls out of the halls of Congress and righteousness falls from the administration."

One emotional high spot was the speech—and song—of Mrs. Coretta King, standing on the spot at the memorial where her husband gave his "I have a dream" speech Aug. 28, 1963.

She read an excerpt from that speech: "Free at last, free at last—thank God Almighty, I'm free at last!"

She sang the spiritual "Come by Here, Lord, Come by Here." And she read a telegram from Mrs. Ethel F. Kennedy saying "My heart and my prayers are with you."

In her speech, Mrs. King said that "racism, poverty and war" were the three great enemies of white and black alike. She accused the government of having "uttered the highest platitudes and made false promises."

And, decrying "the tragic loss of two men," her husband and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, she declared: "If we do not stop this madness we will surely destroy ourselves and the whole world."

MOSCOW (UPI)—In a rare crime report for a country where murder and disaster seldom get in print, the government newspaper Izvestia Tuesday said that two coeds at a technological school were found dead and that a 30-year-old photographer had confessed to killing them. The newspaper did not elaborate.

By United Press International
Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey gave his full endorsement today to the recommendations of the national commission on riots and called for mandatory registration of guns nationwide.

"If the states don't adopt—and right away—legislation requiring the registration of all firearms, then the Congress must," Humphrey said.

PRINCETON, N.J. (UPI)—George Wallace is favored by 47 per cent of the voters in five Deep South states over other major presidential candidates, a Gallup Poll said Wednesday.

CHARLESTON, S.C. (UPI)—Gov. John Connally of Texas, Wednesday warned the Democratic and Republican parties to "run scared" in the South and not let George Wallace go unchallenged.

Connally told a news conference ending the 34th annual Southern Governors Conference that Wallace "offers no real answers, but he is attractive to many people."

SEATTLE, South Korea (UPI)—A Seoul newspaper reported today that the United States has proposed transfer of the 82-man Pueblo crew to a neutral nation pending an impartial investigation of North Korea's seizure of the U.S. Navy intelligence ship.

'Easy Sailing' For Increase Expected

By MICHAEL L. POSNER

WASHINGTON (UPI)—For the first time since the Korean conflict 17 years ago, the House was set today to approve an income tax increase to finance another war and fight inflation.

The $15-billion-yearly package of income and excise taxes, coupled with a mandatory $6 billion federal spending cut was expected to sail through after debate on the legislation started this morning, and go to the Senate for passage Friday.

The bill will put a 10 percent surcharge on personal and corporate taxes requested by President Johnson, coupled with an extension of automobile and telephone excise rates which had been scheduled to drop automatically on April 1. Also included was a requirement that corporate taxes be paid earlier.

Continue Excise Taxes
The 7 per cent levy on autos, which was to have gone to 1 per cent, would continue through the fiscal year starting July 1, as would the 10 per cent excise on telephone bills, which was to have dropped to 2 per cent.

Congress insisted upon the spending reductions as its price for boosting taxes in this election year.

Action came 18 months after President Johnson first requested an income tax boost in January 1967, and 10 months since he suggested a specific figure last August.

Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee led an economy-minded coalition in halting passage of the tax plan until their demands for domestic spending cuts were met.

There had been general agreement among lawmakers that more revenues were needed to meet Vietnam spending, now running at more than $25 billion a year; to halt inflationary trends, and to reduce a budget deficit previously expected to reach $22 billion in the coming fiscal year.

This is the first time Congress has taken up an income tax hike since the Korean War days of 1951. It reduced taxes (See INCREASE, Page 3) generally in 1964.

Withholding Increase

The surtax would take its first bite from pay checks within three weeks after Johnson signed it into law, with withholding rates going up by 10 cents for every dollar held out now. For some people, the withholding will not be sufficient to cover their tax bills next April 15.

When tax day rolls around then, Americans will be asked to figure their taxes due from existing tables. Then on top of whatever taxes they owe, they will have to add another 7.5 per cent. Although it is a 10 per cent surtax, the effective rate for 1964 will only be 7.5 per cent more because it covers only three-fourths of the year.

The tax for individuals is Mills said Congress might have effective retroactive to April 1, to extend it next year.

their chances are uncertain.

Of the gun control section of the crime bill he signed, Johnson said: "This is only a half-way step toward the protection of our families and homes. We must go further and stop mail order murder by rifle and shotgun."

"What in the name of conscience will it take to pass a truly effective gun control law?"

"No conversation in the sanctity of the bedroom or relayed over a copper telephone wire would be free of eavesdropping by those who say they want to ferret out crime," Johnson said.

Girl Scout Day Camp Concludes

The second session of Girl Scout Day Camp concluded June 14, with 101 campers and staff in attendance. Mrs. N. G. Kadingo, Pampa, was the director, and Mrs. Cecil Smyth of Miami was her assistant and program director. Mrs. James Silcott, Pampa, was business manager, and Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor was the camp nurse. Mrs. Eugene Turner was in charge of a Papoose Unit of 12, and short hikes, games and crafts were mixed with brief periods of rest for these young campers. The Papoose Unit is comprised of children of mothers assisting at camp.

The theme for camp was centered around the world of nature, and campers took many exploratory hikes, studied plant and animal life, made crafts, and completed badge requirements. Twenty-one girls earned their Indian Lore Badge, 20 earned the Gypsy Badge, and 21 earned their Rambler Badge.

Badges and Day Camp Certificates were presented to the campers by the director on the last day of camp.

A special feature of this camp was the Horsewoman Unit, in which eight Cadettes participated. Bill Tolbert, Miami, provided the horses, and Miss Betty Lou Tolbert, under the supervision of Mrs. Cecil Smyth, taught horsemanship. Mrs. Smyth reported the unit was most successful and enjoyed very much by the girls.

Scouts in this unit were Cindy McDonald, Marsha Crouch, Mar Beth Karr, Marilyn Miller, Mimi Miller, Betty Felter, Eva Whiteley, and Gretchen Skelly. Plans are being made for a Cadette Unit at Day Camp next year.

Local businessmen, teachers, ministers, employees of Celanese and "lady" bus drivers all drove buses for Scouts. Mmes. John Young, Steve Odom, Donnie Ray, James Crouch, W. K. Mackey, Jerry Davis and Curt Beck provided transportation for the drivers. Mrs. J. R. Holloway, a past president of the Quivira Council, was the official camp visitor. She reported an excellent program at camp with each girl having the opportunity to learn campcraft skills, more about nature and sharing with others, and practice in democracy.

Campers and staff for both sessions of Girl Scout Day Camp are already anticipating next year.

County Cancer Unit Awarded Honors In Meet

Gray County's Unit of the American Cancer Society, Texas Division, received top honors at the Cancer Society's annual meeting of District 3-North yesterday in the Coronado Inn.

For its Cancer Crusade, the local unit received awards for "Better Your Best" for exceeding its previous high in the money raising drive; a "12 Consecutive Year" award for bettering its best; and an award for "Exceeding the Previous Year's Crusade."

Gray County Crusade chairman Don Lane received an "Exceptional Service" award for his work during the past campaign.

The Gray County Unit was also honored with special awards in Public education for "Educational Projects" and "Open Showing Audiences."

Fifteen-year awards were presented to Mrs. Jack Foster and Mrs. Nina Spoonmore. Receiving ten year awards were Joe Page and Jack Skelly.

The awards were presented by district director Larry Fuller, of Dalhart, on behalf of the state organization.

Elected district directors were Mrs. Kermit Lawson of Pampa, Fuller, and Helen Boswell, M. D., of Canyon.

Mrs. Lawson was in charge of the morning sessions and Fuller presided at the luncheon meeting. Featured speaker was Mrs. James Stedje, Stratford, who spoke on "A Working ACS in Texas."

Rotarians Are Urged To Be 'Do'ers'

The third vice-president of Rotary International, Rex Webster, urged Pampa Rotarians to be "do'ers" and to reaffirm their beliefs in individual responsibility at the local Club's luncheon meeting yesterday in the Coronado Inn.

Webster, of Lubbock, is the Zone 1 director of Rotary International, which comprises an area bordered by Canadian, Texas, to the east, Hawaii to the west and Alaska on the north.

The speaker was introduced by R. G. Mills, of Amarillo, governor of District 573.

Webster and Mills presented the club with the district's "Significant Achievement Award" for providing the waterfront pier system at the Adobe Walls Council's new Boy Scout Camp near Mobeetie. A "Distinguished Service Award" was also given to Milo Carlson for his work on the project.

Names to district posts for the coming Rotary year were Lee Fraser, the district governor's group representative; Jimmy Thompson, district chairman of "Interact"; and David Tucker, district chairman for vocational service.

City manager Charles Hill was introduced to the club as a new member by Fred Neslage.

ENDS DISCUSSION
MOUNT CARMEL, Ill. (UPI)—Wabash County sheriff's police hefted the lead pipes and hacksaw blades found after a shake-down of the county jail and said teen-aged girls will not be allowed to talk to their young boyfriends through outside cell windows any more.

LOSING CAUSE
DENVER (UPI)—Drunk-driving defendant Lowell J. Conway told County Judge John Sanchez he drank "a few beers" before coming to court Wednesday because he was so nervous. Now Conway will have to make two more appearances in court. His drunk-driving case was continued and Sanchez ordered him to appear on another charge of being drunk in a public place—the courtroom.

BRAINWASHED
LONDON (UPI)—British diplomat Raymond Whitney, who finally returned to London Wednesday after more than a year's wait for his exit visa from Peking, celebrated the occasion by taking his family out for Chinese food.

Quotes From The News

(Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.)
 By United Press International
WASHINGTON—Mrs. Martin Luther King Jr., in a "Solidarity Day" statement:
 "This may be the last chance to solve America's problems nonviolently."

SAIGON—Tran Van San, a 14-year-old who says he was forced into military service by the Communists, explaining his surrender:
 "I never thought I would see my family again. All of my friends have been killed or wounded. I do not want to fight any more."

WASHINGTON—Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., announcing that he is no longer opposed to gun control legislation:
 "If the majority of the Senate feels it is necessary to pass gun-control legislation such as the President suggests, I will not object. Indeed, I will support it."

BOSTON—Sheriff John Sears of Suffolk County, explaining his order banning his deputies from carrying guns:
 "Frankly, I don't believe that weapons are necessary... the best police force finds that most of their time is devoted to preventive medicines."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—McDonnell & Co. says the "soundness" of the stock market's internal technical condition is the main argument for extended improvement in the list. It says that except for "minor hesitancy," it sees no obstacle to an advance in the Dow Jones industrial average to the 1967 high of 943.06 and even higher levels.

The Dines Letter says this is probably the "most selective" stock market it can remember, probably because of the "conflicting" pressures of recent months. It notes that glamor issues now are in "full flower" and "some sort of break" looks inevitable, even if it is limited to certain individual issues which have had "preposterous" advances.

The Business and Investment Service says it feels the stock market will continue to fluctuate for a time but the long term outlook is for higher been optimistic for some time from a long term standpoint, it advises investors to use "more selectivity" in purchases.

Complete dinner in a salad bowl.

Warm Weather Idea,
A Cool Salad Dish

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

A meal in a dish, yes. But this time it's a salad bowl and the ingredients include cubed meat, many vegetables, apple and potatoes. The kind of supper warm nights make welcome.

VEGETABLE MEAT
POTATO SALAD

- 1 medium apple, unpared and diced
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 cup cooked meat, cubed (beef, steak, chicken, veal, lamb, pork)
- 1 cup coarsely chopped celery
- 1 cup cubed, cooked potatoes
- 1 hard-cooked egg, diced
- 1/2 to 1 tablespoon chopped onion

- 1 cup each cooked peas and carrots
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup dairy sour cream
- 1 1/2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- Salt, to taste
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Western iceberg lettuce
- 1 tomato, cut into wedges
- 1 hard-cooked egg, sliced.

Sprinkle apple with lemon juice. Toss with cubed meat, celery, potatoes, diced egg, onion, peas and carrots. Mix mayonnaise, sour cream, mustard, salt and pepper. Pour over salad and toss until well-coated. Chill. Line large salad bowl with crisp lettuce leaves. Pile salad mixture in lightly. Garnish with tomato wedges and sliced egg. Six servings.

Hot Cakes Blend Meals
Into Breakfast, Lunch

OAK BROOK, Ill. (Sp) — Brunch is that leisurely meal which blends breakfast and lunch. It's a time to catch up on conversation and relish crisp, brown-sugar cured bacon and hot cakes. Because there is time to savor the foods, a few special touches are in order. Canned or frozen blueberries may be added to the pancake batter and some folks will forego syrup for an orange-cheese sauce topping.

When there are hot cakes to supervise on the griddle, why not cook the bacon in the oven? Arrange separated slices of bacon on a rack in a baking pan. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) about 10 to 12 minutes.

Martha Logan, home economist, has this tip for separating bacon slices. She slips the edge of a rubber scraper between the slices. Each slice comes away easily. When pan-frying several slices, it's not necessary to separate them first. Remove the desired number of slices from the package in a group. Place in an unheated skillet. The slices will separate easily when heated.

The 'E' in bacon may stand for breakfast or brunch, but the full flavor of this meat adds extra goodness to every meal throughout the day. Crumbled bacon in French dressing enhances a salad of mixed greens. Bacon also shares its sweet-smoke flavor when served atop green beans, lima beans or baked beans. The bacon may be the meat of the meal or just the garnish for many a tasty combination.

ORANGE-CHEESE SAUCE
FOR HOT CAKES

- Yield: 1-1/2 cups
- 2 packages (3 ozs. each) cream cheese
- 1/2 cup fresh orange juice
- 2 1/2 teaspoons sugar
- 2 teaspoons shredded orange peel. . . .

Allow cream cheese to stand until it reaches room temperature. Beat cheese until it is light and fluffy. Combine orange juice, sugar, and shredded orange peel. Add to cheese slowly while beating. Pour about 2 tablespoons cream cheese sauce over each serving of blueberry pancakes. Serve with crisp bacon.

SUMMER BRUNCH SUGGESTION—BACON WITH PANCAKES

COOK'S TOUR

By JEANNE LESEM
UPI Food Editor

NEW YORK — Nutritionists say we'll get people to eat what is good for them by putting the necessary nutrients in foods they like.

These enriched and "gratification foods" are probabilities for our future, says Frank W. Skeans, manager of new product planning and development for the world's second largest food manufacturer.

In an interview, Skeans also predicted a lot of growth in national foods, spurred by a buying public that is better educated, more urbanized, more traveled and with more discretionary income.

Skeans defined "gratification foods" as products that have a good taste and provide a pleasant experience but no calories at all.

"Menu studies and research show a lot of mealtime anarchy is taking place," he added. "Nobody has been taking time for breakfast, and the same thing is happening to lunch."

He said that this led to development of such new products as ready-to-eat cereals, toaster-type filled pastries and quick breakfast mixes that reconstitute with milk to provide all the necessary nutrients in one glass for the first meal of the day. Skeans said that in the past five years quick breakfast type products have grown into a $100 million business.

"Sometimes you can be ahead of the market," Skeans said of fast-multiplying new products. He recalled the premature introduction by one large company of two types of convenience foods that have since become major successes. He said a quick breakfast mix and an Italian casserole mix were withdrawn after test marketing a few years ago because the manufacturer regarded sales too low for mass production.

"The Italian casseroles had no fat and no cholesterol content, and they got a tremendous acceptance from doctors' wives," Skeans said. "They were made from a soy derivative but looked and tasted like meat."

A lot of attention has been given to the teen-age market in recent years. Now food manufacturers are aiming to sell the seven to 11-year-olds, said Helen Britt, home service director. She added that 50 per cent of the United States population will be under 30 years old by 1970.

"Toy manufacturers were the first to presell kids, then the sweetened cereal people; it is almost inevitable that others will follow," Mrs. Britt added. "Children are very hypercritical, very free with their opinions and conditioned to trying new products," she said of her own children.

"But children in general have a very fast wear-out tendency.

No-Bake Cereal Fruit Balls

Children at home? Cereal Fruit Balls are needed. Because the no-bake sweets make up moist and soft, they are grand snacks to have on hand during humid weather. They keep well in a lightly covered container in a cool place. As mothers know, cereals and fruit are good for children. Oven-toasted rice cereal is the crunchy ingredient used in this recipe. It and other breakfast cereals are economical sources of food energy, protein, minerals, and the B vitamins.

Cereal Fruit Balls

- 1 cup quartered dried apricots
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup thick applesauce
- 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
- 1/2 cup nonfat dry milk solids
- 1/2 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups oven-toasted rice cereal, crushed to make 1 1/2 cups
- Granulated sugar

Cook apricots in small amount of water until tender and water evaporates. Cool, mash and add remaining ingredients, except granulated sugar, mix well. Shape into balls, using a tablespoonful of mixture for each ball. Roll in granulated sugar. Chill. Roll in additional granulated sugar just before serving. Yield: 3 dozen balls.

With Fresh Strawberries, Serve This Molded Cinnamon Cream Dessert

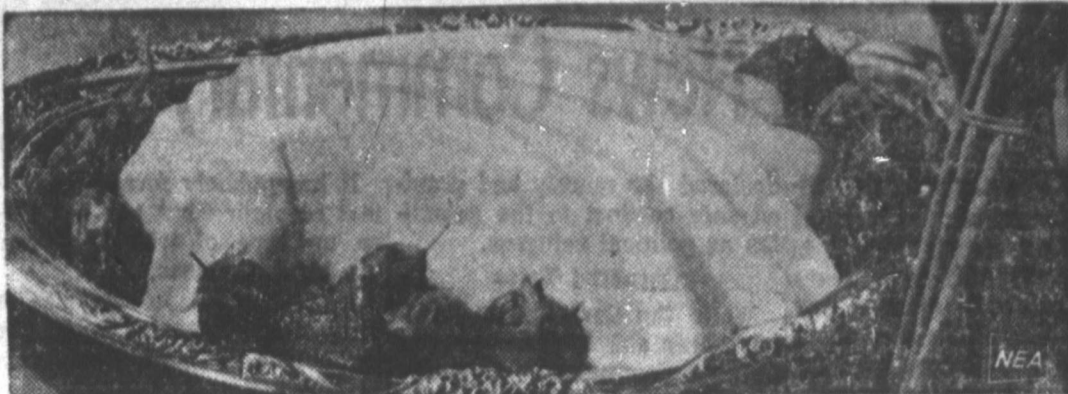

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor
For a lovely dessert after a walk, try this delicate molded cinnamon cream with fresh strawberries.

MOLDED CINNAMON CREAM

2 sticks cinnamon, 2 inches long

- 1 1/2 cups light cream
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- Fresh, frozen or canned fruit...

Heat for 10 minutes (do not boil) cinnamon, light cream and sugar. Soften gelatin in cold water and stir into hot cream mixture. Cool and chill until mixture begins to thicken. Remove cinnamon. Beat sour cream until smooth and fluffy. Fold into the mixture along with vanilla extract. Turn into oiled individual molds or into an oiled 1-quart mold. Chill until firm and ready to serve. Unmold and serve with fresh, frozen or canned fruit. (Six portions).

Fresh strawberries garnish cinnamon cream dessert.

Cereal Snack

For snacks, make cereal puff popcorn. Heat 4 cups of puffed rice or puffed wheat in pre-heated 350-degree oven about 10 minutes. Melt one-fourth cup of butter or margarine in a large skillet. Add 1/2 teaspoon of salt and the cereal. Heat over high heat about 1 minute, stirring constantly. Makes 4 cups.

Effective sunglasses should screen out 70 to 80 per cent of the harmful bands in the extreme ends of the spectrum, such as infra-red and ultra-violet, the Guild of Prescription Opticians of America reports.

Food Buying Guide

The following guide to the nation's food buys for the weekend was prepared by the Departments of Agriculture and Interior for United Press International.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. DA's Consumer and Marketing Service reports that meat and poultry and some fresh fruits and vegetables are in ample supply in food stores and supermarkets for weekend shoppers.

Broiler-fryer chickens and turkeys again head the list as being the most abundant meats.

Beef roasts and steaks and ground beef are all in the abundant class in most areas. Pork items in best supply are bacon, chops, hams, and roasts as well as smoked picnics and spareribs. Fish fillets and steaks and fish sticks and portions are fish buys to watch for, according to the U.S. Department of the Interior. Cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, onions, and potatoes should be abundantly available in all areas. Bananas, Blueberries, cantaloupes, peaches and strawberries are the fresh fruits in best supply in most areas.

Cherry whirl biscuits great with coffee.

Serve Cherry Whirl For Morning 'Coffee'

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food Editor

With so many women stopping off for coffee at friends' homes, these cherry whirls are something new and easy to make with a biscuit mix.

Pan-Fried Eggplant

Pan-fried eggplant has crunchy coating. Sift together one third cup each of enriched corn meal and sifted all purpose flour, three-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-eighth teaspoon of pepper. Stir in one-fourth cup of grated parmesan cheese. Combine 1 beaten egg and 2 tablespoons of water. Cut 1 2-pound eggplant into 1/2 inch slices; roll in breading. Dip into egg mixture, then roll again in breading. Pan-fry in butter over medium heat, about 5 minutes per side. Turn only once. Makes 6 servings.

CHERRY WHIRL BISCUITS

- 1 (1 lb.) can or jar dark sweet cherries, pitted
- 3 cups biscuit mix
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 cup cottage cheese...

Drain cherries, cut into halves. Combine biscuit mix, 1/4-cup sugar and 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel. Cut in butter. Stir in milk to form stiff dough. Roll out to a 10x14-inch rectangle. Combine cottage cheese, 1/4-cup sugar and 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel. Spread over dough. Sprinkle with well-drained cherries. Roll up, beginning at wide end. Cut into 12 slices. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees for 30 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm. Makes 12.

Foreign News Commentary

When Chile helped five escaped Communist guerrillas from Bolivia reach haven in Havana early this year fears were expressed among her neighbors that Chile was about to become a back-door base for Castro-style subversion throughout the continent.

Bolivia went so far as to bring charges before the Organization of American States that Chile had assisted in the attempted subversion of Bolivia by the guerrilla forces led by the late Che Guevara.

Chile denied the charge and declared she merely had granted safe conduct to the guerrillas as political refugees.

Garnered Votes

While the Communists never have been able to take power in Chile, a Communist-supported candidate did manage in 1964 to garner nearly a million votes against 1,400,000 for Eduardo Frei Montalva, a Christian Democrat and the eventual winner.

The Chilean Communist party is considered one of the strongest, best organized and financed in South America.

It has publicly foresworn violent revolution but has not given up hope of winning power via legal elections.

It now seeks to organize a "new left" force to topple the incumbent Christian Democrats in 1970.

SOLVE PROBLEMS

LONDON (UPI)—London's Carnaby Street, the center of the latest in "mod" fashion, has come up with an answer for girls too modest to wear a see-through blouse. The answer—an "instant bra" simply painted on.

People March But the Jobs Go 'Begging'

HOUSTON (UPI)—The new president of the Texas Restaurant Association Wednesday urged members to take a clear, nonpolitical look at the unemployment situation.

Charles M. Goodnight of Austin said thousands of jobs are available, but people won't take them.

"Yet we have the poor converged on Washington demanding that the government tax those who work to reward those who will not," he said.

He said a contractor recently needed 75 laborers to complete a job on schedule and offered $3 an hour, but only seven men responded.

BERRY'S WORIN

"Voting will be so complicated this year—it's not only which candidate looks nicest, but which movie stars support him!"

HIGH VIEW of things is afforded this young man in Amsterdam, Holland. Apparently tired of looking around cars, he can now look over them. He made this tall cycle by using two frames.

THE LIGHTER SIDE

Bad Driving Traits

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In some research projects the results can be predicted, so that they only confirm what we already know.

I place in that category a study being undertaken in Michigan to determine if bad driving traits are hereditary. The answer, of course, is yes.

Bad driving traits are handed down from mother to daughter. Everybody knows that.

The Michigan study may shed more light on the matter by showing whether bad driving traits also are hereditary in men. But I doubt it. The researchers seem to be operating from a faulty premise.

Test Male Prisoners

They plan to examine the chromosome structure of 100 maleprison inmates who have poor driving records. The object is to see how many, if any, have the so-called "double-Y" chromosome.

Women, as you know, have only "X" chromosomes. Most men have both "X" and "Y" but in rare cases they may have an "XYY" combination.

The "XYY" setup appears in a relatively high percentage of male criminals. The researchers will try to find out whether "double-Y" types also tend to become traffic menaces.

I submit that they are suspecting the wrong chromosome.

Since females have only the "X" chromosome, and since many females are bad drivers, it is more logical to assume that the "Z" rather than the "double-Y" is the culprit.

Also supporting this theory is the fact that females inherit specific bad driving traits. Take, for example, the inability to perform a parallel parking maneuver.

Trace Parking Trait

I have traced that trait through three generations and I can say with certainty that it is hereditary. For illustration purposes, let us call it the "X(P)" chromosome.

My mother-in-law never learned to drive a car but she was obviously an "X(P)" carrier. She passed the trait along to my wife who handed it on to my daughter.

There is a simple test to determine whether any given driver has the "X(P)" chromosome.

Find a block in which two cars are parked, one at each end. Then instruct the driver of your car to park somewhere between them, using the conventional parallel parking maneuver.

If she scrapes the rear fender of the front car, bangs the front bumper of the rear car and winds up with one wheel over

APPOINT LAYMEN

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—A council of laymen to advise the Vatican in such fields as art, medicine, law and communications was sworn in Wednesday, becoming the first lay consultants to the Vatican government. One member is Frank M. Folsom, of New York, an executive of the Radio Corporation of America (RCA).

ARAB ACCUSATION

BEIRUT (UPI)—An Arab guerrilla organization, Al Fatah, said in a radio broadcast Wednesday that "hundreds" of mercenaries were arriving in Israel from the African nation of Malawi to fight the Arabs.

CRITICIZE CHINA

NEW DELHI (UPI)—India accused Red China in a formal protest Wednesday of giving military training to rebellious Nagaland hill tribesmen who are fighting for independence from India.

EXPLAINS PATRICIDE

NANAO, Japan (UPI)—Police said Wednesday a 19-year-old youth told them he killed his father because he had an urge to kill someone and "if I killed a total stranger, it would only cause agony to my father."

DUCKWALL'S

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter Lisa is 17, and if I have to say myself she is a very beautiful girl. She was invited to a formal country club party by a 30-year old fellow who comes from one of the best families. He asked her if she could stay all night at his home as it would probably be a late evening and it would save him a lot of driving. (They live in one of those big homes on a nearby lake.)

I told Lisa to tell him, no, that she would not come home to sleep no matter how late the party lasts.

This morning I got a call from this young fellow's mother urging me to let Lisa stay at her home all night. Abby, I have never met this woman. She is high society and she may be very nice, but just because people have money doesn't always mean they're nice. Anyway, I told her I was sorry, but I wanted Lisa home. Now Lisa says I'm square. Am I?

MADISON MOM: I was crushed. After loving him and struggling with him for nearly 25 years, I felt betrayed and rejected. I consulted a lawyer and came within an inch of filing for divorce. I could have thrown him out and taken most of his worldly goods, but I thought, "What for? I love him. Why should I send him straight into the arms of a gal who can't get a man of her own, and thinks it fair game to go after a middle-aged lothario whose wife doesn't understand him?" I understood him only too well. He reached the age where a man needs reassurance, and I was not smart enough to give it to him.

I took him back and I'm not sorry. Now he thinks I'm the greatest. He says he's always loved me, and I believe him. We'll make mistakes and this was his. I can truthfully say that we have a much better marriage now than we had before.

DEAR MOM: If you are "square," I want to be in all four of your corners.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are middle-aged and we're watching our weight. We do all right at home, but our troubles begin when we're guests in someone's home. (I don't mean for dinner. I mean those late midnight snacks after cards, etc.)

We count our calories all week, and then the hostess puts all this stuff on the table, and pushes it onto our plates, saying, "O, I've worked so hard, you've GOT to eat this!" Or, "If you don't eat it, I'll have to throw it out!"

We have come home stuffed and uncomfortable because we couldn't get out of eating. We tell ourselves, "Never again, but on the next week-end it's the same story. How can we protect ourselves?"

Astrological Forecast
By CARROLL RUGHTER
FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 21

General Tendencies: You have very practical ideas just as this summer season commences to express itself and you would be wise to think out just what does give you the greatest amount of security where your money, assets and property are concerned, and concentrate your efforts on that vital realm of your life. Travel fine in p.m.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): That business man who has been eluding you lately can now be contacted and advice you want obtained. Get busy on that budget later. Those bills that are due should be given precedence.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20): You have the right gimmicks for getting what you desire now, without permitting others to bother you. This dress is good, fade and be off to the social fun you really like. Stop being so reticent.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): You had better start getting prepared now if you are going to get ahead on the particular practical plan, so dig up the facts, figures. Others require help from you. Be sure you give it without deliberating so much.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Talk over with real plans just how far they are willing to go to assist you with plans you now have. Contact those individuals who have the wherewithal to help you to advance from the social angle. Show you have imagination.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23): Talk over with a prominent person just what it is you had better make a final decision as to which is the most practical and most worthy. Making new contacts is the way to proceed right now. Use diplomacy.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): With all those new ideas creeping up on you, you had better make a final decision as to which is the most practical and most worthy. Making new contacts is the way to proceed right now. Use diplomacy.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): You have to be very neat and precise now if you want to make a good impression on high-level co-workers. Show that close tie that you are most devoted. Instead of making a pretense, or at least, having him or her, think so.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21): Why don't you show associates that you really have their interests at heart and carry through with agreements to the letter? Then success comes more easily. Get those contacts points cleared up intelligently.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): A day to impress others with your efficiency at work and getting the benefits that you deserve from your efforts. Co-workers are more ready and willing now to support you in your aims. Be kind instead of critical with them.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): You have a choice of amusements today, so accept those that are truly to your liking and have a ball. Make it highly romantic now and this opens your whole day in varying hues of happiness. Keep active.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): With all those duties staring you in the face at home, you had better get busy and not waste any more time. Be objective in clearing up debatable points with family. Avoid big arguments or you will regret it later.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Why not make your daily routine more workable now and impress co-workers with back and taking it easy? Don't forget to write those vital letters. Out to whatever is interesting in P.M.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... He or she will be one of those fascinating young people who use practical methods to gain the favor of others. The field of business and selling is best here, where great success is possible because of the fine mind and excellent physical qualities.

Pampa Women Attend 39th Delta Kappa Gamma Convention

Eight members of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, from the Pampa area, attended the 39th annual state convention of that organization in Dallas recently.

Representing Theta Delta chapter were Miss Mary Ewing, outgoing president; Mrs. Clementine Morgan, incoming president; and Mrs. Genie Murray, incoming second vice-president, all of Panhandle; Miss Mary Dean Dozier, incoming secretary; and Miss Claudia Every of Pampa.

From Beta Delta chapter were Mrs. Hazel Poole, incoming president; Miss Mary Reeve, member of the state committee on membership; and Miss Yvonne Goss, incoming first vice-president, all of Pampa.

Theme of the convention was "Look to the work the times reveal." Speaker for the Presidents' Dinner, at which the presidents of the 208 chapters in Texas were honored, was Miss Catherine Rathman, international executive secretary, Austin, whose topic was "Bursting with Moments."

Dr. Dorothy Johnson, Washington, D. C., a member of the Board of Trustees of the International Educational Foundation of Delta Kappa Gamma, and the nominee for international president, 1968-70, spoke at the Founders' Dinner, on "Holders of Today for Tomorrow."

Other society members present included Mrs. Nell B. McMains, Texas City, international president; two of the five surviving founders, Miss Lela Lee Williams, Dallas, and Miss Ray King, Fort Worth; the state honorary founder, Miss Eula Lee Carter, Fort Worth; and Mrs. Gladys J. McDaniel, Austin, international treasurer. Miss Jessie Sim, Denton, state president, presided at the general sessions, assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Laney, Amarillo, state first vice-president. Mrs. Laney was one of the five members who received the state achievement awards presented by Miss Norma Ewing, of Panhandle and Galveston, chairman of the state achievement awards committee. Miss Ewing also extended an invitation to the organization to hold its 1970 convention in Galveston.

It was announced the fall regional meeting for the upper Panhandle area will be held Oct. 19, in Dumas, with Dr. Madge Davis, Wichita Falls, chairman of the state nominations committee, and Mrs. Mattie Ruth Nowlin, Plainview, area director, as directors.

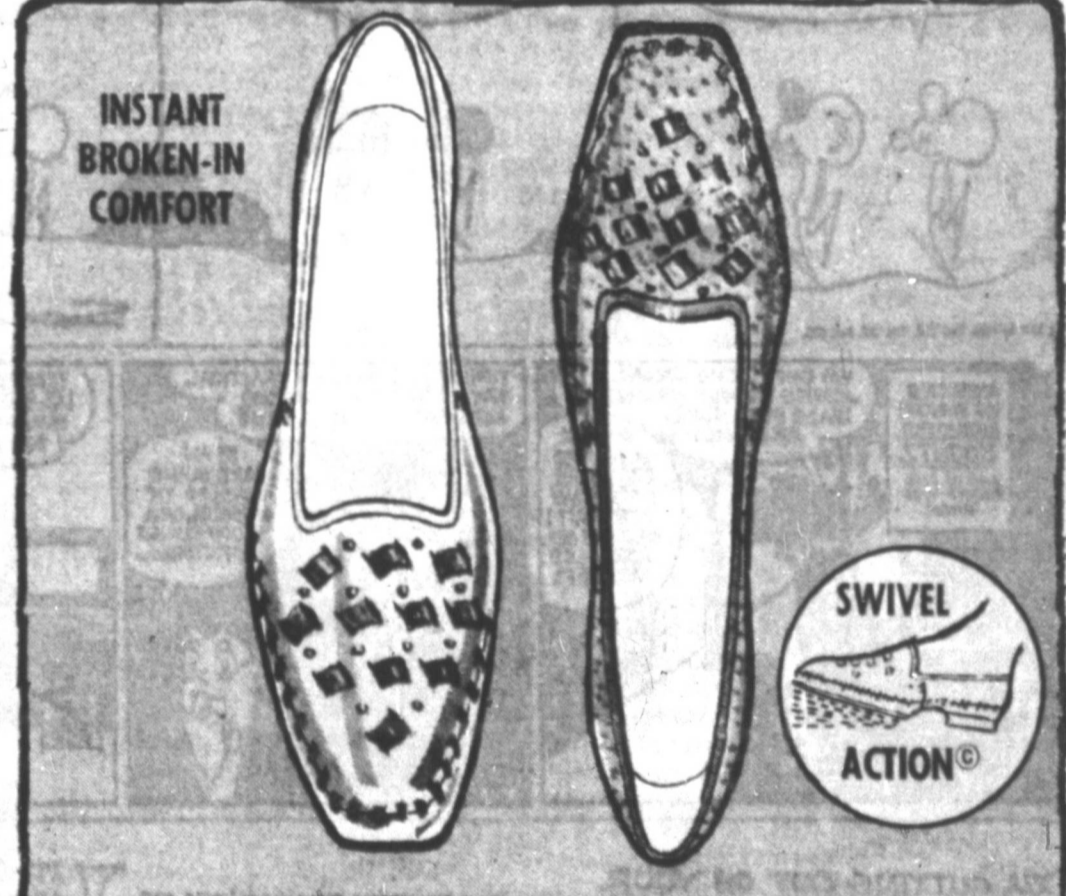

SHADED TO PERFECTION—A laminated shade is the springboard for a charming window treatment that's easy to achieve. Floral-printed cotton has been ironed to Stauffer's new Tontine Tri-Lam shade cloth which is adhesive-coated and heat-sensitive. The fabric is simply ironed on to the shade cloth, and the heat activates the adhesive. The pattern is echoed in covers for window seat and bench cushions.

Rebels Suffer First Home Defeat, 14-4

By WES DUMONT
Daily News Sports Editor

The Pampa American Legion baseball team suffered its initial home defeat at the hands of Palo Duro of Amarillo, 14-4, in a district contest at Optimist Park Wednesday night.

The Rebels now have a 2-2 record. Palo Duro is in second place with a 5-1 district mark having lost their first game of the season to undefeated Borger by a score of 6-5 at Amarillo.

Righthander Don Pierson hurled nine innings of four hit baseball to gain credit for the win. He struck out 11 batters and walked four.

Palo Duro scored eight runs in the seventh inning to virtually assure themselves a win.

A total of 11 hitters stepped to the plate in the seventh inning for Palo Duro and six got hits including three straight doubles by Johnathan Douglas, Jerry Melton and Pierson, who were batting seventh, eighth and ninth in the Palo Duro lineup.

Six runs crossed the plate for the winners after two were out in the fatal frame.

A triple by Charlie Sanchez was the top hit of the inning. Sanchez batted twice and led off the inning by flying out to right field.

Five errors aided the Palo Duro cause in the seventh inning.

Palo Duro, one of two Amarillo teams in the Northern Division, scored a single run in the second inning when Roy Stover singled in Jim Harris.

Pampa came right back in the last of the second inning as Steve Summers, son of baseball coach Lloyd Summers, singled in Larry Katara with two outs for the Rebel's initial run.

Palo Duro scored two runs in each of the fourth and fifth innings to lead by a score of 5-1 at the end of four and one-half innings.

Al Gomez, the starting pitcher for the Rebels, hurled six and two-thirds innings and was credited with the defeat. It gave the righthander a 1-1 record in district play.

Larry Kotara took off his catching gear and went to the mound for Pampa in the seventh inning.

Gomez recorded eight strike outs and allowed two walks.

However, he allowed 12 hits. Pampa failed to get a single extra base hit. Singles by John Jenkins, Al Gomez, Scotty King and Stever Summers accounted for the four hits off Pierson, whose pitching performance so throttled the Rebels that the Pampa team threatened only in the eighth inning when they scored three runs.

Only three runners were left on base by Pampa during the game.

In the eighth frame, two were down when consecutive walks to Larry Turcotte and John Jenkins loaded first and second base. Alvin Achord, batting in the third slot, was hit by a pitched ball on the second pitch and bases were loaded.

Three runs scored as a result of Al Gomez's hit into left-center field. Gomez was out, centerfielder to shortstop to third baseman when he overslid third base on the hit.

Some snappy infield plays by the Palo Duro second and third basemen had resulted in Palo Duro having two outs before Pierson had a touch of wildness.

Marichal Wins No. 13 Over Phils; Giants Hope Hurler May Win 30

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The San Francisco Giants, who started the season hoping Juan Marichal could win 20 games, now wonder whether he can go all the way to 30.

No major league pitcher has been a 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 but Marichal is off to the best start of his career with a 13-2 record and he knows a 30-victory season would make the fans forget 1967.

Marichal, who had won 93 games in the four previous seasons to rival Sandy Koufax as the No. 1 pitcher in baseball, had only a 14-10 mark last season and ended it prematurely on Aug. 25 with a pulled hamstring muscle, suffered while running in the outfield.

The 30-year old righthander posted his 13th victory of the season Wednesday night when he pitched a seven-hitter to give the Giants a 5-1 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was Marichal's ninth straight victory and lowered his earned run average to 2.57.

Mays Scores Three

Willie Mays had two triples, scored two runs and drove in another in support of Marichal, whose bid for a shutout was spoiled by Richie Allen's 11th homer of the year. Mays' triples tied him with Hall of Famer Ty Cobb for fourth place on the all-time extra hit list with 1,139.

The St. Louis Cardinals beat the Chicago Cubs 4-0 on Steve Carlton's one-hitter, the Atlanta Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds 3-1, the Pittsburgh Pirates nipped the Los Angeles Dodgers 2-1 and the New York Mets drubbed the Houston Astros 8-2 in other National League games.

In the American League, the Boston Red Sox whipped the Detroit Tigers 8-5, the Minnesota Twins downed the Washington Senators 4-0, the Cleveland

Indians beat the Chicago White Sox 3-1, the Oakland Athletics topped the Baltimore Orioles 5-3 and the California Angels edged the New York Yankees 3-2.

Mays tripled and scored the tie-breaking run on Jim Hart's single was the only Cubit off again when the Giants added two more runs in the eighth.

Aging Discus Thrower Tries For Berth On Olympic Team

By JOE SARGIS
UPI Sports Writer

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—It will be the last time around for Olympic war horses Ralph Boston, Hal Connolly, Al Oerter and Jay Silvester starting tonight in the 80th annual national AAU track and field championships.

Between them, the four have won five Olympic gold medals but age is catching up and 1968—if they are successful in winning berths—will be their last on the Olympic stage.

Of the four only Silvester, who is 31, appears certain of making the 1968 team which will go to Mexico City for the Olympics in the fall. Only a month ago, Jay reclaimed the world discus record with a mighty throw of 218 feet, four inches.

Oerter, a six-time national discus champion who holds the rare distinction of having won three Olympic titles in a row, probably will make the team, because all he has to do to get there is beat out a couple of men, but one of them is Gary Carlsen, who beat Al and Jay a year ago in the nationals.

Connolly, who is 36, was an Olympian way back in 1956 when he met and married Czech star Olga Pitokova. In training in Southern California all year, Hal made one of his rare appearances at the California relays at Modesto in May and won the hammer with a throw of 218-1.

Of the four old war horses, Boston's Olympic hopes appear to be in the greatest jeopardy. Ralph shares the world broad jump record of 27 feet 4 1/2 inches with Russia's Igor Ter-Ovanyan, but he hasn't come anywhere near that mark this year. Plagued by injuries, he will be hard pressed to be among the top three when the Olympic team is settled on in mid-September with the final trials at Echo Summit near Lake Tahoe.

FRANK L. HOGSETT, 712 S. Finley, displays a 10 lb., 1/4 ounce channel catfish which he entered in the Sports Afield Awards Program at the Pampa Tent and Awning station. This was caught at a farm pond near Pampa, using a live minnow for bait.

BULLETIN

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—Randy Matson of Pampa will be a Texan in the spotlight in the opening events of the National AAU Track and Field Championships which open the door to the U.S. Olympic team tryouts.

Matson, the world record holder in the shot put with his toss of 71 feet 5 1/2 inches, appears the class of the field in his specialty and is a threat to the AAU record of 66-11 which he set last year.

NEXT ON THE BLOCK

Boston Defeats Detroit By 8-5

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox aren't worried about catching the Detroit Tigers but they're a bit worried about what they might catch from the unruly Tiger fans.

Ken Harrelson bombed the Tigers Wednesday night by driving in four runs to lead the Red Sox to an 8-5 victory—and the Tiger fans bombed him right back.

The fans tossed firecrackers at Harrelson in right field in the ninth inning, forcing the umpires to threaten to forfeit the game if the disturbance didn't stop. Tossing things at the opposing players is an old Detroit habit dating back to the Ducky Medwick "fruit shower" in the 1934 World Series. Jim Piersall and Roger Maris were targets in recent years.

"It was ridiculous," Harrelson said after the game. "This is the only town where something like this has ever happened. Ballplayers should not be subjected to this sort of thing. Somebody might get hurt. The people in the stands were yelling obscenities and the women and children nearby could hear them. It was disgraceful."

Not Giving Up

Even though the Tigers still lead the second place Cleveland Indians by 7 1/2 games and are 9 1/2 ahead of the Red Sox, Harrelson said, "I still think we can catch them."

Harrelson, who was hit by one of the firecrackers in the back but wasn't injured, played the rest of the ninth inning in shallow right like a fifth infielder so he was out of range of the fans in the rightfield seats.

Elsewhere in the American League, Cleveland nipped Chicago 3-1, Minnesota blanked Washington 4-0, Oakland topped Baltimore 5-3 and California nipped New York 3-2.

In the National League, St. Louis blanked Chicago 4-0, Atlanta nipped Cincinnati 3-1, New York routed Houston 8-2, San Francisco beat Philadelphia 5-1 and Pittsburgh edged Los Angeles 2-1.

Harrelson hit his 15th homer, a three-run shot, in the seventh inning to erase a 4-2 Tiger lead and carry the Red Sox to the triumph. He also singled in the first Boston run in the first inning. Bill Landis got the win in relief.

Hit Century Mark

Dean Chance pitched a three-hitter to gain the 100th win of his major league career as the Twins blanked the Senators. It also was the 100th win for manager Cal Ermer. Harmon Killebrew singled in a fifth inning run for the 1,000th RBI of his career.

Luis Tiant picked up his 10th victory with a three-hitter as the Indians fopped the White Sox. The Indians snapped a 1-1 tie in the seventh with a two-run rally as Russ Snyder's infield hit and Tony Horton's single drove in the two runs.

Pinchrunner Tom Burgeimer scored from first base when Andy Kosco booted Vic Davaillo's single as the Angels beat the Yanks. Sammy Ellis gave up six hits and got the victory. Pinchhitter Floyd Robinson lined a two out, two-run double with the bases loaded in the seventh inning to snap a 3-3 tie and carry the Athletics past the Orioles. It was Baltimore's sixth loss in its last seven games.

The Pampa Daily News
61st YEAR THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1968 11

Defending Champion Tries To Break Jinx

Defending champion Bill Holstead of Wichita Falls will try to do something that no other Texas amateur golfer has ever done in the past 15 years.

He will attempt to win the Men's West Texas Golf tournament for the second time in a row at the Pampa Country Club course in competition which begins today and lasts through Sunday.

Jimmy Linn of Spearman posted the best score in practice rounds Wednesday with a 67 over the 6,100 yard, par 71 course.

The event marks the 43rd annual tournament.

The first round of the 72-hole medal play championship flight got underway today when the championship flight began at 11:45 a.m.

Holstead will try to win the tournament twice in a row for the first time in fifteen years.

Performing the feat in past West Texas golf history was Don Cheery, now on the WGA tour, and winner of the title in 1951-52. Other back-to-back winners were Bobby French ('49-'50), Doug Jones ('46-'47), Morris Norton ('36-'37) and Carnes Wilson ('33-'34).

A field of 162 entries was entered in the tournament, it was announced by Hart Warren, head professional at the Pampa Country Club.

Jack Williams, Plainview, will compete. He captured the title three years in 1953-57-63.

Deacons Take 3-Stroke Lead In Golf Event

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (UPI)—The Wake Forest Deacons, a band of easterners playing on alien, cactus dotted soil and given little chance of capturing the NCAA golf championship, take a three-stroke lead into the tourney's second round today thanks to steady sub-par shooting.

Three of the four Wake Forest players broke par over the rugged 7,100 yard, New Mexico State course and at least temporarily left the tournament favorites floundering in their wake.

The Deacons compiled an opening-day team score of 279—five-under-par.

In second place came Arizona State with 282, followed by defending champion Houston, Oklahoma State and North Texas State at 283. Florida was in sixth place at 284.

Oklahoma State's Grier Jones and Georgia's Allen Miller jumped out front in the individual competition, touring the par-71 course in 65's.

Houston's Doug Olsen and Wake Forest's Jack Lewis tied for third with 67's. At 68 were Paul Purizer of Arizona State and Albert Erskine of Michigan.

Another stroke back came Dave Barber of California-Santa Barbara, Carl Di Cesare of Florida State, John Schroeder of USC, Mike Holder of Oklahoma State, Jimmy Clayton of North Texas State, Johnny Harris of Wake Forest, Lynn Janson of Michigan State and Chip Garrius of Brigham Young.

Lewis and Harris fired the best golf for the Deacons Wednesday, but consistent shooting by Leonard Thompson (70) and Chip Lewis (73), put Wake Forest on top.

Rice Tennis Team Tied For 2nd Place

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—The fortunes of the Southern California tennis team apparently move in direct opposition to the weather.

Dark skies began dripping a steady rain at the NCAA tennis championships Wednesday, but favored USC moved into the team standings lead for the first time since the tournament began Monday.

Only three of eight singles matches could be completed on the Trinity University courts because of the rain, and two of those were won by Stan Smith and Dick Lutz of USC.

Those wins gave the defending champion Trojans 19 points in the team race with Rice and UCLA tied for second with 17.

USC's hopes for its 11th title in the 64-year history of the tournament also got a boost when one of the three remaining UCLA players was upset in the third singles match completed and another Bruin fell behind in a match interrupted by the rain.

UCLA's fourth-seeded Roy Barth was upset by ninth-seeded Pat Cramer of Miami 6-3, 6-2. Another UCLA, Ed Grubb, had lost his first set to California's Chuck Darley and was trailing in the second set when action was stopped.

Third-seeded Jaime Fillol of Miami was also having his troubles. He split the first two sets to Van Hill of New Mexico and was trailing 2-1 in the third set when the rains came.

Smith, top-seeded, defeated Tom Mozer of Tennessee 6-1, 6-1 and Lutz, seeded second, downed Keith Nielson of Brigham Young 6-4, 6-1.

Two rounds of doubles were also washed out Wednesday, and tournament officials hoped to get in all of the postponed
