

TEX'S TOPICS

It often happens that a man is not thoroughly familiar with his own town. Take Alex Schneider, of the hotel Schneiders, for example—it's been at least two years or more since the new Pampa postoffice was opened, and he never was inside of it until Tuesday of this week.

Probably no person in town has more frequent business with Uncle Sam's post office, but Mr. Schneider never got around to going inside of this one until now.

And when he did go to the post-office it wasn't to transact his own business. He merely went over when a visitor asked him to accompany him to the federal building for identification purposes.

Sen. Morris Sheppard, of Texas, who spoke here the other night, is a democratic man's man. Upon arrival in Pampa he joined the shirt-sleeved brigade and registered at his hotel sans coat as an out-and-out exponent of solid comfort as well as of the New Deal.

Shades of the Red Riding Hood Seven papa and mama bears left their snug home in the mountains near Alpine, Tex., and began catching young goats. Ranchmen killed five of the adult bears and wounded two. The cubs escaped with their injured elders. "Grandma" couldn't take it.

Declaring "no colored finger-nail girls need apply" for jobs in his office, Cape Town businessman says scarlet diglits are in bad taste. . . . Maybe the man doesn't realize men no longer kiss the girls' hands.

There's the Missouri man who had his first shave in 52 years the other day. He estimates he has saved $800 by steering clear of razors. He could have added the pile if he had shaved the short whiskers and sold 'em to an upholsterer.

In Chicago a columnist on Candidate Frank Knox's newspaper has declared he is for President Roosevelt. Some of the scribblers were a bit frank with his knoxs.

Even a machine-age civilization hurtling breathlessly toward destiny must go into second gear once in awhile. That's the way it is with the seasonal lull which takes place each summertime sometime after the second week in July and the first of September has started. For instance:

A doctor and a businessman breeze a golf ball yesterday afternoon because one of them thought it would be more fun to sit on the side porch with a cool drink, and the other one agreed.

And: A county executive was overheard speculating on the possibility of adding an extra week to his vacation without wrecking the business.

And: Summer clothing has been taken up by some of the most spacious individuals in Pampa, we are told. Everyone agrees that the only sensible thing to do in hot weather is to do as little as possible, and still get everything accomplished.

Likewise: There has been a conspicuous falling off in the daily list of new developments in the news, which is one of the reasons why it seemed worthwhile to write these lines.

Which draws to the conclusion that the week temporarily is paying close attention to the warning sign: Go slowly—Men taking it easy for the summer.

Down in Florida two men are claiming the parentage of triplets, just born. For this they are awarded the week's prize in they don't know when they're well off' contest.

Today's encouraging words: In spite of the current economic conditions and the un-employment situation, young Americans now coming of age have an excellent chance of getting a job, an excellent income, according to a famous statistician.

The average white man of 20 years now has an even chance to live to be 69 years of age. His chances of getting a job are excellent, so long as he continues to train himself in some particular field.

Millions are unemployed, it is true. Actually, however, the figures represent less than one-fifth of the employable population. His chances, then, are four out of five, even during the depression period. It is almost impossible to have talent, training and energy and not come out on top.

Today's average youth will attain what is considered an income adequate to a fairly good standard of

APPORTIONMENT FOR SCHOOLS IS FIXED AT $19

Amarillo Member of Board Votes in Opposition

AUSTIN, July 16 (AP)—Prospective state per capita aid to the public schools was a new high today as a result of the board of education setting the apportionment for the 1936-37 school year at $19.

With scholastics numbering approximately 1,500,000, the schools are slated to receive $780,000 more in state aid by virtue of the increase of the per capita apportionment from $18.50. The current $18.50 allotment was higher than that for any previous year.

The board's action gave rise to the possibility that the state ad valorem tax rate for school purposes would be increased. Under the comptroller's revenue estimate, the automatic tax board would have to raise the rate from its present 20 cents to around 22 1/2 cents on the $100 valuation to pay the apportionment.

Most members of the board of education said, however, that they hoped the property tax would not be increased. They voiced the opinion that the comptroller's revenue estimate was low and that returns under the 20-cent rate would be sufficient to meet the appropriation.

The vote to increase the apportionment was 5 to 3. Ghent Sanderford of Austin, R. S. Bowers of Caldwell, Tom Garzard of Tahoka, John W. Laird of Lufkin and J. G. Strong of Carthage composed the majority. J. O. Gulek of Amarillo, Ernest Alexander of Dallas and Mrs. J. E. Watkins of Henderson voted against it.

The automatic tax board is expected to fix the tax rate near the end of this month or in August. The contention has been made that the board will set a rate sufficient to raise only $17.50 per capita regardless of the action of the board of education.

DEPUTIES OFF FOR DALLAS TO RETURN GYPSIES

Five To Be Returned To Face Theft Charges

Deputy Sheriffs O. T. Lindsey, of Pampa, and L. S. Thulin, of McLean, accompanied by Mrs. Nannie Belle Worley, left for Dallas this forenoon in two cars to return five gypsy prisoners, held there on Gray county theft indictments.

The gypsies, three men and two women, are charged with participating in the theft of $1200 from Mrs. Worley's car when they stopped her car on the LeFors-Pampa road, Oct. 29, 1930.

Attaches of the local sheriff's office said the deputies are expected to return with the prisoners some time tomorrow.

The gypsies were indicted at a special session of the grand jury last Monday, following identification by Mrs. Worley in Dallas last Saturday.

Official Family Enjoys Outing

A fishing party of ten Pampans tried their luck six miles north of Canadian late yesterday afternoon—and wound up with a splendid steak supper instead of a fish fry.

Members of the party included City Manager C. L. Stine, City Attorney John Sturgeon, Police Chief Art Hurst, Mayor W. A. Bratton, City Clerk William Craven, Water Superintendent A. J. Crocker, City Commissioner W. T. Fraser, L. P. Duval, R. W. Lane, and Dr. T. J. Worell. "Woody" Woodington.

They caught some fish, however, but not enough to go around. City Manager Stine reported today. Supper was served in the clubhouse at the outing spot.

Honors for catching the first fish went to Mayor Bratton. Some members of the party returned last night. Others stayed over because of the heavy rainstorm in the Canadian district and arrived in Pampa early this morning.

Coughlin Calls Roosevelt 'Liar And Betrayer'

PRIEST, SMITH LINE UP WITH DR. TOWNSEND

THIRD PARTY ALLIANCE IS ANNOUNCED AT CONVENTION

CLEVELAND, July 16 (AP)—The Rev. Fr. Charles E. Coughlin aligned himself with Dr. Francis E. Townsend today and in an address to the Townsend national convention termed President Roosevelt a "betrayer and liar."

"The founder of the National Union for Social Justice told the Townsend delegates, 'as far as the National Union will not endorse any candidate which it endorses for Congress can support the great betrayer and liar, Franklin Roosevelt.'

"He who promised to drive the money changers from the temple has built up the greatest public debt in the nation's history," he said. "Is that driving the money changers from the temple?"

Fr. Coughlin declared "he has adopted communistic measures. The National Union will not endorse any candidate who advocates the reelection of the great betrayer, Franklin Delano Roosevelt."

He said he was forced to "repudiate" the philosophy of Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican nominee for president.

Shortly before entering the public auditorium for his address, which was announced only last night, Fr. Coughlin met with Dr. Townsend and a Townsend director, the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, head of the share-the-wealth movement.

"We will stand together against this unholy trinity of Landon, Roosevelt and Broderick," said Fr. Coughlin after the conference.

In his reference to Landon in the address, Fr. Coughlin said "today when Mr. Landon advocates the restoration of the gold standard, I am forced to repudiate his philosophy and platform as a return to the days of economic slavery."

Coughlin heads the Union for Social Justice. Smith the share-the-wealth organization and Townsend the $200 a month pension drive.

Townsend said Chairman James A. Farley of the Democratic National committee was "trying to

WPA SUPERVISOR GIVES ATTITUDE IN LOCAL PARK

Clarifies Disputed Points in Talk With Officials

Work on fairground park will be delayed through lack of material if man power is available, according to Guy C. Holder of Amarillo, district supervisor of divisional operations of the Works Progress Administration.

Mr. Holder, in session this morning with the city commission, clarified points that have bothered the commission. He revealed that the increase in pay will not make a drain on the material allotment because the hours of labor have been reduced. City commissioners, in session Monday took the wage change to mean that the material fund would be absorbed by the salaries paid. They were informed by local WPA officials that the hours of labor would be the same as before.

Under the wage scale adopted on July 6, effective as of July 1, a common laborer will receive 30 cents an hour. He will be allowed to work a maximum of 105 hours a month and receive a maximum monthly earning of $31.50. The old scale called for the man to work 140 hours a month and commissioners were figuring the salary on that basis. Intermediate laborers will be paid 50 cents an hour and skilled laborers $1.

The local fairground project has not employed enough men to warrant purchase of more material than that received or ordered, Mr. Holder pointed out. He told commissioners that a purchase order for $1,900 worth of lumber for stables should be received this week. He assured them that a requisition for more material would receive prompt attention.

Before the park project is completed, WPA will spend $51,259.70

LEWIS LIKELY TO DEFEY AFL'S TRIAL ACTION

SUSPENSION VOTE IS POSTPONED; TRIAL IS SUBSTITUTED

(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, July 16 (AP)—John L. Lewis, leader of the American Federation of Labor's rebels, was represented today as feeling that the A. F. of L. executive council acted without authority in summoning him and 11 other union leaders to stand trial August 3 on charges of "insurrection."

His opinion that the council's summons had no basis in A. F. of L. law led to speculation that he might defy the order and refuse to stand trial. The labor world, agitated for weeks over the possibility of a great schism in the A. F. of L., awaited his decision eagerly.

Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, only smiled when told that the council had decided last night to postpone a vote on a proposal to suspend the insurgents. The council, yielding to entreaties of members working for delay and eventual peace, agreed to hold the trial instead.

Lewis' allies in the fight to bring all the workers in each large industry into one big union, its violation of A. F. of L. policy, look to the mine union chief for the lead.

If he decides to stand trial, they also will answer the summons. If he ignores the council order, as he ignored President William Green's invitation to the council meeting July 15, they also will fail to show up, labor men believe.

The council decided to order the trial for two reasons: (1) To give its peace-makers headed by George M. Harrison, president of the Railway Clerks, another chance to try to arrive at a compromise agreement between the industrial unionists, headed by Lewis and the craft unionists, who believe that many workers should be organized into various craft unions according to the trade they work at.

(2) To give council members a new cause for suspending the 12 rebel unions if the peace efforts fail.

A substantial majority in the council favored suspension at the meeting recessed last night. They indicated that Lewis and his committee for industrial organization were plainly violating federation policy in their plans for industrial unionization in steel, automobiles and rubber.

Japan Will Act 'Independently'

NO RELIEF FOR NATION'S BAKE OVEN FORECAST

Devastating Drouth Slowly Destroys Middle West

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—As a blistering sun beat down upon millions of acres of hard baked fields in the vast middlewest today, forecasters saw no relief ahead from a 13-day heat wave and prolonged aridity which has inflicted damage that crop experts estimated would exceed that of the 1934 drouth.

Harassed farmers looked to skies discouragingly clear for signs of moisture which might soften parts of their plantings. Weather bureau reports showed only a spattering of rain in the drouth belt during the past 24 hours.

Grain authorities studied reports indicating corn losses would be distinctly greater than in 1934. Irreparable damage was reported to corn in Oklahoma, Kansas and eastward throughout Indiana. The crop loss to the nation to date was estimated at more than a billion dollars.

Traders rushed to purchase corn and in the C. Chicago market its futures swiftly mounted to the highest price permitted in any 24 hour period. The "ceiling" was hit almost at the opening of the trading session. Wheat also rose rapidly.

Deaths from heat exceeded 4,100, with most of the fatalities centered in Michigan, the middle Mississippi and lower Ohio valleys. New all time highs were established at Peoria, Ill., where the mercury reached 114 degrees, at Keokuk, Iowa, with 112, Wichita, Kas., 110, Oklahoma City, 106, and Springfield, Mo., 106.

Rains from a trace to 34 of an inch fell in Green Bay, Wis., Indianapolis, Ind., Louisville, Ky., Springfield, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., Helena, Mont., the southern states and Rocky mountain regions.

A 5-hour downpour totaling 4.83 of an inch fell in Austin, Texas. Warm weather continued in Colorado and Wyoming, with cooler temperatures but no substantial relief in prospect for Montana. A cattle expert said the drouth had caused a shortage of 300,000 cows in Wyoming and that the situation was "more serious than most people believe."

FDR and 3 Sons Sail Off Coast

His first stop was set for Petit Manan Island, about 25 miles away from the harbor, southeast of Mt. Desert Island where he spent the night. Tomorrow, the Sewanna, with plenty of lobster and freshly caught flounders aboard, will strike out across the choppy Bay of Fundy for some sailing along the southeasterly shore of Nova Scotia.

WOMAN SLAPS PISTOL FROM HAND OF MAN

WOULD - BE - ASSASSIN STRUGGLES WITH POLICE

(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press) LONDON, July 16.—A discontented subject of King Edward VIII leveled a loaded revolver at his monarch today in what seemed to be an attempt at assassination.

But the man, seized by police after his gun had been knocked from his hand by a "woman in grey," said his act was only a protest and a charge of "unlawful possession of a firearm with intent to endanger life."

Rushed to a crowded constitution hall, where he was overwhelmed by police while King Edward rode on to Buckingham palace and remained for eight days on a charge of "unlawful possession of a firearm with intent to endanger life."

Police said his name was George Andrew Mahon and that he was a newspaperman. They held back a jeering, cat-calling throng while he was whisked from Bow street to prison.

"The woman in grey," spectators said, knocked a loaded revolver from the hand of a stocky, full-faced man who aimed it at the king as he rode at the head of troops to Buckingham palace.

In a violent scuffle, the weapon was precipitated into the roadway. Police took the would-be assassin into custody.

The prisoner's name was given by police as George Andrew Mahon, described as a newspaperman. He was charged with intent to endanger the king's life and with unlawful possession of a firearm.

Authorities described him as middle aged, slightly bald and seemingly club-footed.

He limped to the dock in Bow street station and was remanded for eight days.

Simon Blamed
Detective Inspector John Sands, giving formal evidence of the arrest, said the prisoner told him en route to the station: "It's all the fault of Sir John Simon, (the home secretary)."

"I wrote him last night and phoned him this morning," "King wasn't hurt in any way, was he?"

"I didn't want to hurt him in any way," "I only did it as a protest."

His remarks were not immediately explained.

Sands, who described how the man was taken into custody by constables, said: "I was handed this five-chambered revolver (the produced the weapon) which was loaded with ball and ammunition in four chambers, but not in the top chamber which gave immediate access to the barrel."

He stated there was no evidence the weapon had been fired for a considerable time.

The assailant pushed his way thru ranks of spectators and bobbies as the king, in uniform, clattered down Constitution Hill on his way to the palace after presenting colors to troops.

Brought to the dock after the brief but desperate scuffle, the prisoner stood trembling violently, shifting from one leg to the other, wiping his face and drumming the sides of the dock with clenched fists.

Name Not Mentioned
Inspector Sands produced two rounds of ammunition taken from the man, along with a black-bordered envelope containing a postcard portrait of the king and a newspaper on which was pencilled: "May I love you?"

Mock Wedding Is Amusing Shower Program Feature

KELLERVILLE, July 16.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Friddle, who were recently married, were honored by the Skeely employes of the McClain district with a party and shower this week.

A womanless wedding was the clever entertainment feature of the evening. Before an altar banked with sunflowers and decorated with bells, George Berlin acted as minister to unite W. M. Midew, the bride, and C. B. McIntyre, the groom. A Taylor gave the bride away.

Attendants were Walter Elliott, as maid of honor, P. B. Smith, Bestman, D. C. Blackerby and A. W. Rogers, bridesmaids, J. M. Baumgardner and M. A. Ray, flower girls, Thomas Boyd, page, Mr. Cox, ring bearer, Robert Florence acted as master of ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Friddle were presented with many lovely gifts which were inspected before refreshments were served to 72 guests.

Room Decoration Is Club Subject

When selecting wall paper, the size of the room, adjoining rooms, exposure and furniture all have to be considered, said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent to Hopkins county Tuesday afternoon in her talk on refinishing walls.

She continued by saying that when paper is too gay it makes selection of suitable pictures, drapes or spreads difficult. With a paper patterned with large and indistinct figures, colonial type furniture can be used in an interesting effect. Paper and woodwork in a room should harmonize, Miss Adams stressed.

She showed a variety of patterns suitable for bathroom, bedroom, living room, and kitchen.

The club met with Mrs. Opel Franklin, who served refreshments to a visitor, Miss Lorene Manning, and members Mrs. R. I. Davis, G. Pinnell, E. F. Vanderburg, Jim Hopkins, C. P. Couss, Robert Brown, and Mrs. Brown will be next hostess on July 28.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smarts and burns, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

Woman and Lover Will Die Tonight

OSSING, N. Y., July 16.—Mrs. Frances Creighton, prostrated 17 weeks in her Sing Sing prison cell, but declared sane and healthy in a special examination, looked today to Governor Herbert H. Lehman as her only hope to escape death in the electric chair tonight for the poison killing of Mrs. Ada Applegate.

Everett C. Applegate, husband of the victim, will die with Mrs. Creighton unless the governor intervenes.

Governor Lehman made public without comment last night a report of his commission of five, including four physicians, saying they found "no evidence of disease" after examining Mrs. Creighton.

Prison attendants at Sing Sing have reported the last few weeks that the 36-year old condemned woman seemed paralyzed with fear at her approaching execution and was able to retain only liquid nourishment.

Mrs. Creighton and Applegate were convicted of murder in the death last September of Mrs. Applegate, a 268-pound woman. The state charged the defendants with her poison in an egg nog. Both families occupied the same house at Baldwin, Long Island.

"A 20 cent investment has already paid me $1.70," reported Miss Faye Davis to Hopkins Home Demonstration club Tuesday. Early in the spring Miss Davis purchased black wax and round pod valentine bean seed and planted them in her garden.

In addition to a small amount for table use, she has canned 11 pints of beans. "There is an indication that she will have a beautiful supply of beans a little later."

HUBER, BEATEN LAST NIGHT, TO PLAY ROAD RUNNERS HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

YOUNG HURLS DANGEROUS TO 9-5 VICTORY

JIMMIE BALDWIN WILL UMPIRE AGAIN FOR TEAMS

Cy Young, in a Road Runner uniform for the first time last night, hurled the Pampa-Danger Road Runners to a 9 to 5 victory over the Huber Blackfaces in Berger. The veteran was a little wild in spots, walking getting him in trouble in every inning the Blackfaces scored.

The Huberites will be in Pampa tomorrow night in an effort to break the new existing 4 against 4 tie in games won and lost between the two teams. Daily, the righthander who defeated the Birds July 4, will be on the mound for Huber, probably opposed by Lee Daney. Game time will be 8:30 o'clock.

An old favorite umpire will return for the game. He is little Jimmie Baldwin, small but mighty when it comes to calling balls and strikes. Baldwin is back from Louisiana and is working in Berger. He called an excellent game last night.

Manager Huffman of the Blackfaces sent his new hurler, Wilkinson, to the mound but he lasted less than two innings. Nash relieved and was greeted with more base hits. Lefty Carithers was called in from the bull pen in the fourth and subdued the Birds with one hit the rest of the way. He pitched the side via the strikeout route in the fifth and seventh innings and fanned two in the ninth. Young had eight strikeouts.

Six Putouts For Setz

Big Grover Setz, Road Runner center fielder, staged a one-man show when he had six putouts. Neither Poindexter in left or McNabb in right had a chance. Setz also got his bluegown working for doubles in the first and second innings and a walk in the fourth on five trips to the plate. Poindexter got a single and double and Lisle came through with a pair of singles.

Dingman, Huber second baseman, got his batting eye in order last night to bang out a single and triple to score two of Berger's runs. Brown, right field, got a pair of singles. Ross got the other extra base blow, a double.

Al Summers was still missing from the Road Runner lineup. The little second baseman was injured July 4 in Berger when he was charged while trying to make a double play to end the game. His knee was so badly injured that he got back in a uniform. He was not used in the game, however, but may play some here tomorrow night.

The Road Runners opened the scoring in the first inning. McNabb, first batter, was safe on Spencer's error. Bailey went out but Setz came through with a double, scoring McNabb. Hale singled to score

Wilkinson retired in the second under a barrage of hits. The first two batters walked but he got the third out. Bailey singled and Setz doubled as Nash took the mound. Nash walked. Hale and Cox singled to score Setz. The next two men went out.

The fourth inning saw Carithers take up the mound assignment after Nash had hit Bailey and walked Setz and Cox. Hale sacrificed in between. Poindexter greeted Carithers with a double, scoring two runs. McLarry walked and the next two were outs.

Borger scored one in the fourth on Ross' double and Brown's single. Another resulted in the fifth on Dingman's triple and Tucker's single. Wilson singled. Warren walked. Dingman singled a run across and another resulted from an error to end Borger's scoring in the sixth.

Young showed plenty of stuff in holding the powerful Blackfaces to eight hits. He threw a large assortment of curves with a nice change of pace.

WESTERN GOLF MEDAL IS WON BY M. ZADALIS

YATES SETS OUT TO DEFEND TITLE IN OMAHA

BY WILLIAM WEEKES, Associated Press Sports Writer.

OMAHA, Neb., July 16 (AP)—Charlie Yates, the husky Atlanta blond who spent two days watching other sharpshooters pick the Happy Hollow club course to pieces, went into action today in defense of his Western Amateur golf crown.

Yates, by his 5 and 3 triumph over Red Elms of this same Happy Hollow club last year at Colorado Springs in the championship final, was not required to qualify. What he saw during the two days of qualifying play, however, must have made him a little fidgety.

His opponent today, in the first 18-hole match play test, was Gene Milbourn of Omaha, whose qualifying 146 appeared a little feeble compared to what others did.

Matt Zadalis, employed by the city of Omaha to operate a power grass mower on a public course, cracked the private club layout for a pair of 69's for a 36-hole total of 138 and the medal. Zadalis was only one stroke over the tournament qualifying mark of 137, established by Johnny Lehman of Chicago, at Rockford, Ill., in 1932.

The medalist today, his 26th birthday, was Bob Fraser, a fellow townsman. The runnerup for medal honors, W. Don Edwards of San Jose, Calif., who missed a not so long putt on the 18th hole to miss a tie with Zadalis and took 139 strokes instead, was matched with a former teammate at Stanford university, Jack Hoerner who turned in 74-73-147.

The business of preserving the respect of the Walker Cup delegation in the field was up to Yates and Johnny Goodman of Omaha. Goodman scored 70-75-146 and drew a neighbor, Bob Doran.

The other Walker Cup squadsmen, Walter Emery of Oklahoma City, couldn't make his putter behave and was dismissed for taking 75-78-153 for the two days.

Tulsa Defeats Houston 3 to 1

(By The Associated Press)

TODAY'S GAMES:

Dallas at Beaumont (day). Fort Worth at San Antonio (night). Oklahoma City at Galveston (night). Tulsa at Houston (night).

Rain and wet grounds kept six Texas league teams idle in the lower part of the state last night, but a crowd of 2,000 family nighters defied threatening skies to watch Tulsa defeat Houston 3 to 1.

Fire works in this lone game of the circuit was supplied by Goober Crawford, Tulsa second-sacker. His dazzling stops of a line drive and a grounder did much to hold the Burfs to one run.

Tulsa got its three runs off Left-handed Herbert Moore on his wobbly first inning. Thereafter he set them down with ease. George Milled pitched top-flight ball for Tulsa but could be thankful for Crawford's story-book fielding.

Games at Beaumont, Galveston, and San Antonio were called off.

THE AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH PROGRAM

There now are some tens of thousands of farmers in the United States who, having graduated from State agricultural colleges, know the importance of scientific research into problems affecting the husbandman, but they remain definitely in the minority.

The Department has just begun its new fiscal year and has before it a broad program of research designed to better the condition of farmers.

Through Congressional action, the department is in an advantageous position to pursue research investigations.

Marketing problems constitute one field of investigation, indeed one of the most important fields. If the farmer cannot dispose of his crops, he has no business.

The research program extends into the home. Not even what is called the born housewife, who knows how to use a pinch of salt and how to cook until done, knows everything.

So the program moves on to include the dairy industry, the building of roads and bridges, questions of farm tenancy, share-cropping, periods of seasonal employment, and everything else which touches the lives and interests of the millions of men and women who still draw their living from the soil and upon whom the city dwellers are dependent for their sustenance. It is a vital matter.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON—Decades ago, a railroad magnate, one Vanderbilt, stirred up much resentment when he coined a slogan—"The public be damned!"

In case you were thinking that long strides of enlightened progress have been made since, your attention is called to the reason there is no longer any federal co-ordinator of transportation, whose job was to point out methods by which railroads could have lots of money by modernization and elimination of waste.

Incredible or not, railroad executives, railroad labor, and even federal officials charged with regulating the railroads ganged up to block continuation of the office of Co-ordinator Joseph B. Eastman. They didn't say the public could be damned, but that was the effect.

Eastman was empowered to order railroads to consolidate facilities and otherwise cut out waste. Rather than be dictatorial, he gave the industry a chance to effect these ends by itself.

But he kept urging methods of modernization, standardization, and cheaper buying, and suggested solutions for the problem of facilities made obsolete through buses and trucks.

Railroad executives, under leadership of J. J. Pelley, decided they were "being told how to run their business." They didn't like to have their mistakes pointed out to stockholders.

Behind them were New York bankers who, acting as railroad fiscal agents, foresaw reduced profits. Railroad labor unions, their memberships hard hit by unemployment, made an agreement with operators to oppose continuance of the co-ordinator.

And finally there were members of the I. C. C. itself, jealous of Eastman's exalted prominence, who joined in the fight.

The recent meeting between Senator Wheeler, who is chairman of the Senate committee investigating railroad financing, and Oris P. Van Sweringen, who made something of a record as a wizard of railroad financing, was in the nature of a surprise party.

The committee had been trying to dig into the intricacies of the so-called three-billion-dollar Van Sweringen railroad empire and had met with what it considered obstructive tactics when it asked for information.

Hearings were called to put the heat on Mr. Van Sweringen. He pleaded that he was a very busy man; he would send his lawyers on a Monday, but couldn't get to Washington himself until Tuesday. The committee agreed.

The lawyers asked for a private session with Wheeler, which was granted. Wheeler was tough and demanded that they sign an agreement to produce promptly what the committee asked for. They said they would have to take time out to decide.

A couple of hours later the lawyers returned to report: "Mr. Van Sweringen happens to be in town and would like to talk to you privately."

It developed later that Mr. Van Sweringen had motored to Washington on Sunday.

At first he emphatically refused to sign any agreement. Wheeler then announced that Van Sweringen would be called to the stand the next day, with a veiled threat of contempt proceedings.

The railroad man repented overnight, the agreement was signed, and the hearing was canceled.

A boxer who dwarfs the Ambling Alp has just come over from Europe. If he proves fond of reclining in the ring, an apt nickname would be Everest.

The Indian potentate who offers $10,000 to anyone who will put him to sleep can get a valuable tip by writing to Mr. Joseph Louis, Detroit, Mich.

"Wifehood is a state not lightly to be approached." Two others, for jobless itinerants at least are California and Colorado.

Frederic J. Haskin. A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily News' Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. Please give the attendance, gate receipts, and fighters' share of the Louis-Schmeling bout. E. H. W.

A. The crowd was estimated at 60,000 with an actual paid attendance of 39,878. The gross gate was $647,531; net gate $464,945. Louis' share was $139,433.50 while Schmeling received $150,000.

Q. Is there a transparent metal? W. A. B.

A. The National Bureau of Standards says that there is no transparent metal. Very thin gold leaf is translucent but not transparent. A film of silver can be deposited on glass that will be so thin that, with a proper arrangement of lights, objects can be seen through it. In this case, the glass supports the silver which could not exist in a self-supporting film of the required thinness.

Q. Was the past season a good one in the theater? L. N.

A. It is said to have been the best in five years, both artistically and financially.

Q. Who succeeded Mahatma Gandhi as head of the Nationalist party in India? G. S.

A. Jawaharlal Nehru succeeded as leader of the All-India Nationalist Congress. Mahatma Gandhi is living quietly in Delhi.

Q. For what is glycerine used besides medicinal purposes? A. R.

A. It is used in the treatment of leather, in soap, cosmetics, as a culinary ingredient to keep baked goods fresh, to prolong the life of rubber products, in brake units, in photography, and in vulcanizing. Glycerine is also an important ingredient in the manufacture of high grade inks, typewriter ribbons, carbon paper, and printing fluids.

Q. What device was used at the recent political conventions to measure noise? E. R. B.

A. The soundometer was installed by the broadcasting companies for this purpose.

Q. How extensive is China's coast line? E. R.

A. China's coast line is 2,150 miles long, or with indentations about 5,000 miles.

Q. How does the number of deaths from tornadoes compare with that caused by automobiles? F. R.

A. It is estimated that 121 die in automobile accidents for every one who loses life in a tornado.

Q. Why are some beaches hard enough for automobiles to race upon, while others are so soft that walking is difficult? C. T.

A. The shape of the grains of sand determines the hardness of a beach. Round grains make soft beach. Round grains make soft pack and form a harder beach.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER NEW YORK—Mark Barron, the war correspondent, ran into a situation on the way home from Ethiopia recently that follows the Hollywood scenario formula to a T.

Just before boarding ship, one of his foreign editors assured him there was a princess on board.

"We've been unable to find her," he admitted. "If you run into her on the way over, cable us a story."

Charged with this assignment, Barron spent the better part of two days in a fruitless search for the missing princess.

"You look worried," suggested a chic young thing in the ship's bar that afternoon. "Anything on your mind?"

"Not at all," Barron grinned. "In fact, I was just thinking how much fun we had dancing last night. Are we going to do the same tonight?"

"Till meet you on deck at 9 o'clock," she agreed.

Later that evening—that is to say, after several hours of dancing to the domantic strains of a crack ship orchestra, Mark suddenly said:

"To hell with that princess—I don't think she's on board anyway!" Noting the wide-eyed expression of the pretty, he explained, "I've been trying to find a princess ever since we sailed. My office wants a story, but so far I've been unable to locate her."

The girl beside him suddenly burst out laughing. "Why didn't you tell me that?" she giggled. "Whom do you think you've been dancing with every night anyway?"

Irving Mills, I'm convinced, wasn't kidding when he said, "I think Duke Ellington is far and away the finest musician in America."

HOW'S your HEALTH

Low Backache. Pain in the region of the small of the back can be both excruciating and incapacitating. Indeed, a person with the proverbial lumbago or sacro-iliac sprain is frequently a grotesque picture of helplessness.

But against the acute cases which develop suddenly and which are completely crippling, we may set the more numerous instances in which low backache is mild but persistent. Such sufferers are prone to carry their burden with some little complaint and to try home remedies such as heat application, back plasters and liniments.

Not infrequently the chronic sufferers of low backache become neurotic. They then are always complaining and their neurasthenia overshadows the underlying condition.

The causes of low backache are numerous. Organic diseases, such as those affecting the kidneys, the reproductive organs and the circulatory system, may cause pain in this region. Different types of arthritis, things then keeping alive. They began to inquire first about the world they lived in, to spend themselves, and to spend their leisure hours in groups, at what might seem a game of 20 questions.

and keep him in the same state of interested receptivity, encouraging his inquiry, leading him on and on in the paths of knowledge, joining with him in the search for truth, instead of talking down to him and dulling his curiosity, school might once more connote pleasure rather than pain.

WORLD'S OLDEST MEDIC SHOWS UP YOUNGSTERS VIENNA (AP)—Dr. Sigmund Stran-sky, 73, is probably the world's oldest university student of medicine. He had been studying five years, and expects to take his final medical examinations with his grandson. "Exactly 50 years ago I received my doctorate in philosophy," he says. "I want to show my grandchildren, who complain how much harder examinations are nowadays, that even an old man can pass them. "Of course I have to do a lot of studying, because if I fail in my last tests wouldn't my grandchildren laugh?"

Talks to parents School—Leisure By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH It would probably surprise most children, and for that matter, many grown-ups to hear that the word "school" is derived from the Greek word meaning leisure. School was once a privilege which only those who possessed spare time to spend could use. Even the rich were often too busy for school. Fighting was man's work; sewing, weaving, spinning, cooking, bearing and rearing children, woman's.

JAYCEES SELL ON-TO-DENVER TICKETS HERE

BLACKWELL OILERS TO MEET PAMPANS IN TWO GAMES

Pampa Jaycees, 40 strong, started selling tickets this morning for the "On to Denver, Road Runners" baseball games to be played here on the night of July 25 and the afternoon of July 26. Tickets are 40 cents to both men and women.

The Saturday night game will be something new. It will not be called until 10:30 o'clock, after the stores have been closed. The change from the regular game hour, 8:30 o'clock, was made at the request of clerks in stores who want to see the game. Election returns will be largely completed by that hour. Late returns will be available at the game.

The Blackwell Oilers of Shawnee, Okla., second team to enter the Denver Post baseball tournament, will meet the Road Runners in the two games. An added attraction at the Saturday night game will be the broadcasting of election results at regular intervals.

"Two thousand at each game" is the slogan adopted by the baseball committee of the Junior chamber of commerce in its drive to raise money to send a championship team to Denver. The 1935 Road Runners took third money last year. This year the competition will be stiffer than ever.

The southwest will send some of the crack teams to the little world series, as the tournament is known. Huber Blackfaces of Borger was the sixth club to send its entry check. Borger has strengthened and is still strengthening. The Eason Oilers of Enid, Okla., is another club that will be a stumbling block. The Blackwell Oilers of Shawnee are already being talked as the team to beat.

Several of the newcomers who will strengthen the Road Runners will be here for the series with the Blackwell Oilers. Others, including Fred Brickell, will join the team in Denver.

Pampans are urged to purchase tickets to the benefit games and see tournament contenders in action.

Justin Devine Is Also Texaco Dealer

Through an error the name of the Schneider Hotel Garage, Justin Devine, manager, was omitted from the list of Texaco dealers offering free trips to boys to the Texas Centennial celebration. The advertisement appears in the News, telling boys how to become eligible to win the free trips.

A theater seating 1,500, to be dedicated to students killed in the World war, is under construction on the Stanford university campus.

Trainmaster Is Rotary Speaker

In keeping with the celebration of Railroad Week in Pampa, R. W. Prentice, trainmaster of the Santa Fe for this division, told of railroad service in a talk yesterday before the Rotary club. He praised Pampa as a railroad center and told of the good business given his company during the past years.

Railroads have a good safety record and are making improvements in their services, including increased speed, perfected air brakes, more comfortable seats and air-conditioned cars. Fares have been reduced during the last few years as much as forty per cent. He told of the improvements in engines, the experiments which were being made with new type engines, timbers, of which the railroads use use-fifth of that produced, and the checking rails for defects.

Visitors for the meeting were James E. Lyons, W. V. Jarratt, O. T. Hendrix, and E. D. Clodfelter, Enid, Okla. Walter F. G. Stein was introduced as a new member of the club.

Canadian Valley Credit Members Meet at Amarillo

More members and a steadily increasing volume of business were reported for the Canadian Valley Production Credit Association, according to Mr. C. L. Thomas, a director of the association, who returned Tuesday from a meeting of the directors of a group of Panhandle-Plains production credit associations held at Amarillo, July 13 and 14. Mr. Thomas declared that directors from all over this territory report that their associations are making very satisfactory progress. Farmers and stockmen are getting a better understanding of this new system of credit and are coming to like the idea of budgeting their loans.

Mr. Thomas pointed out that the borrowers find that this method enables them to get along on less money and that getting the money as it actually is needed reduces the cost of the loan. He said that borrowers are beginning to realize just how low the cost of a production credit association loan really is.

It was reported at the meeting that the Canadian Valley Production Credit Association had increased its volume of business from $70,000 at the end of June, 1935 to $165,000 at the end of June, 1936. It also was brought out, that the association had net earnings of $5,227.00 for the year 1935, which included accruals as of Dec. 1, 1935 and that the net earnings during the first half of 1936 were $2,026.00.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that the association is attempting to build up adequate reserves to take care of any losses which may occur in hard times. Mr. Thomas declared that the facts brought out at the meeting convinced him that stock purchased by members of the association is being protected adequately and that in the long run it will prove to be an excellent investment.

He said that farmers and stockmen in this territory are making more and more inquiries about the association and that many of the most prominent men of this county are becoming members.

DIFFICULT LIFE HUTCHINSON, Kas. (AP)—L. E. Baird, playing in a tournament golf match, fired his ball into a tree and when it failed to fall he sent his caddy to investigate. The caddy found the ball, along with another one, in a bird's nest. Buddy Ebsen, the dancer, has an extensive library on ships and the sea. Charles Ruggles raises turkeys for profit—he hopes.

Walk a lot and eat what you want, when you want it, is Margaret Grahame's recipe for health. The English actress follows this advice and enjoys perfect health.

RADIO PRIEST TO GIVE TALK AT CONVENTION

SOUTH DISAPPROVES AS TOWNSEND ASSAILS PRESIDENT

BY SCOTT HERSHEY, Associated Press Writer. CLEVELAND, July 16 (AP) The Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin of Detroit arrived here today for a surprise address before the second National Townsend convention and immediately went into conference with his National Union for Social Justice advisors.

The radio priest was reported conferring with Sylvester McMahon, his national secretary, and other aides regarding the subject of his address.

Southern delegates already had voiced loud disapproval of convention speeches criticizing the Roosevelt administration and claimed that 16 states, including four in the east, were behind them in their drive against affiliation with any third party.

Dr. Townsend and the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith of Louisiana, self-styled heir to the share-the-wealth following of the late Senator Huey P. Long, soundly lambasted the New Deal in addresses yesterday and Martin F. Smith, congressman from Washington and temporary convention chairman, declared "my friends, we are not going to lose with Lemke, we are going to triumph with Townsend."

Smith's statement touched off a demonstration. The founder of the plan for payment of $200 monthly pensions to the aged with the aim of resultant prosperity for everybody told the convention that the National Union, Share-the-Wealth clubs and "other groups of unhappy and dissatisfied voters are ready to work with millions of Townsends to insure that passage does not gain a foothold in the government."

Sweltering delegates wildly cheered the gaunt pension chief's attack on the Roosevelt administration for "deliberate and devilish planning to break down the American government."

"Every act of the government... has been predicted upon the heedless advice of the President when he said: 'Try something. If it works, try it some more. If it does not work, try something else.'"

"If that is not the advice of a total incompetent or a reckless fatalist who is incapable of thoughtful planning on a national scale, what is it? I believe that the advice to his official family was deliberate recklessness intended to augment the disaster that has befallen us."

Rattler Escapes In Court Room

LOS ANGELES, July 16. (AP)—Robert S. James' calm denial that he killed his seventh wife goes under the fire of prosecution cross-questioning today in a courtroom still jittery over a rattlesnake's brief escape.

The barber did not know Mary James was dead, he testified yesterday, until he found her body floating in a lily pond last August.

The state charges that he murdered her to collect on her life insurance—submitted her to the lily tortoise by rattlesnakes, drowned her in a bathtub and then dumped the body into the pond.

James' story was matter-of-fact, smoothly related and without any dramatic touches. A snake supplied these during yesterday's sessions.

Legal, at their court exhibit in the trial, squirmed out of its box and glided over the courtroom floor. Women screamed and climbed chairs. Other spectators poised for flight. Balliffs vainly belabored for order.

The snake, one of a pair the state charges were purchased for the alleged torture of Mrs. James, disappeared under a bookcase. Two reptile experts corralled it and put it back in its box.

GYPSIES' DEFIANCE BRINGS STRICTER CONTROL BY NAZIS BERLIN (AP)—Coordination of wandering gypsy tribes presents a real problem to Nazi authorities. The nomads have passively resisted all attempts to force them to become tractable citizens of the third reich.

Police now have been ordered by the ministry of the interior to take stricter measures to "induce" tribesmen to settle down and send their children to school. Country fairs are to be sharply watched, and a close look-out for hidden arms.

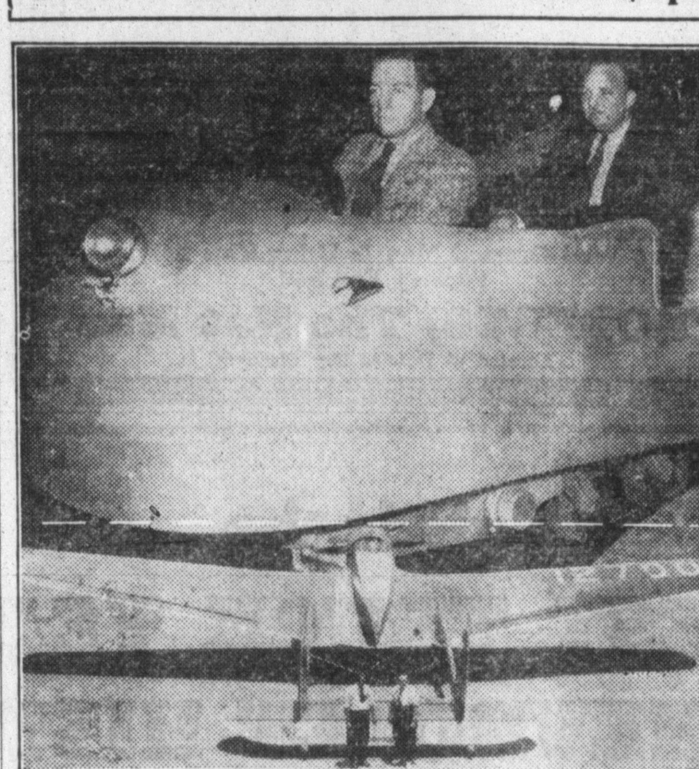

Foreign gypsies are strictly forbidden to enter the reich. Because Vienna owns 70,045 dwellings and 3,225 stores, the Viennese think their capital is the largest "householder" city in the world.

Third Party Hope Has Their Votes

The unswerving support of at least four devoted backers is assured Representative William Lemke of North Dakota, as he carries on his campaign for the presidency on the Union Party ticket. The staunch Lemke-ites in question are his wife, Isabelle, shown seated on the chair arm; Robert, William, Jr., and Mary, left to right in rear. Radiating their pride and confidence in him, they pose with the third party standard-bearer in the garden of the Lemke home in Fargo.

HOUSE OF SHADOWS

by Ida R. Gleason
© 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
CLAIRE FOSDICK sets out to drive to the lonely mountain home left her by her eccentric uncle, LYMAN FOSDICK. Claire is trying to decide whether to marry NICK BAUM, to whom she owes money. She also hopes to find a valuable and mysterious jewel owned by her uncle and believed to be hidden in the house.

Her car is wrecked by a log across the road. PAT MAGAN, an old friend, and BOB STEELE, a young engineer, arrive on the scene and take Claire to the mountain house where EB SPRATT and his sister, SUSIE, are the caretakers.

DAN DALLAS, the hired man, reports that the watchdog has been shot.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER III
A menacing chill seemed to grip the room, focusing upon Dan Dallas who held the dead dog in his arms. Why should anyone kill the watch dog? The answer suddenly seemed closely connected with the log across the road. Evidently someone else was interested in the House of Long Shadows. Why?
In spite of Claire's effort to shake off the sinister impression, she felt a shudder of inexplicable terror.

Bob Steele looked at her anxiously and then said, "I think we had better give things the once over, and the sooner we start the better."

Susie was sobbing softly. "Poor Trigger! The poor old dog!" Then she wiped her eyes. "Come on, Dan. Get a lantern and help me bury him. We'll dig a grave down in the aspen grove."

"If you don't mind, Miss Spratt, I think you'd better not do anything about the dog tonight. It might be just as well for you to say inside until tomorrow," suggested Pat.

The woman turned with a surprised expression. "What do you mean? Of course it was an accident, just like the log falling down on the road. Probably some hunter took the dog for a wild animal."

"We're not so sure of that, Susie," answered Claire.
For a minute a look of fear showed on Susie's tear-streaked face. Then she shook her curly papers unbelievably. "Go on now, Claire. You'll be saying next that Eb and me ain't very good caretakers. You haven't found anything wrong, have you?"

The light fell on the baseboard, and she saw a sign in the shape of a broken arrow, a facsimile of the carving on the mantel in the library.

"Not a thing, Susie, and I don't expect to," Claire assured her. "But I agree with Mr. Magan. You'd better not go out to bury the dog until morning."

"Just as you say, Claire," Susie's tone showed she was still unconvinced. "But that log just happened to fall down and it must have been a mistake about Trigger. I'm sure of that."

As the door closed behind Susie and the man, Bob Steele turned to Claire. "This dame with the compelling eyes—you don't figure she'd lie to you, do you, Claire? She rather overdoes the protesting act."

"I've never known her to lie," Claire answered. "Susie's inclined to be flighty at times, but her brother keeps a firm hand on her. She's been with the family ever since she was a very young girl, except three years when she worked in the city. We've always trusted her implicitly."

Pat laughed. "Pull up, Bob. Faithful family retainers and all that stuff. No good trying to work up any case against them. Come on, let's shove off."

The next hour was spent in going over every inch of the old house, much to Eb Spratt's disgust. In his opinion, night was the time for sleeping, not prowling up and down stairs.

"It's bad for my rheumatiz," he grumbled to Susie in the privacy of the kitchen, "this stayin' up 'til all hours just because a lot o' youngsters don't know enough to go to bed. Why do they want to pick this time o' night to look the place over?"

The tall old clock in the library was striking midnight when finally the three young people decided to call a halt in the unsuccessful search.

Pat threw himself into a big chair and wiped his forehead. "When I'll begin to sprout sideburns myself if I stay here long. All this old-fashioned grandeur. I'll bet if anyone should try to horn in here, it would be some nut on the track of a carved walnut bedstead or something."

"Probably it's too dark to make it worth while looking around outside tonight, isn't it?" asked Bob. "Goodness yes," answered Claire. "We'd better call it a day and get a fresh start in the morning."

Accordingly, rooms were assigned to the young men and, after bidding them goodnight, Claire lighted a glass lamp and made her way up the gloomy stairway to the bedroom directly under the cupola. This was a large room and had been Lyman Fosdick's. Everything in it remained as he had left it.

Wearily pulling off her riding boots, the girl climbed up on the high four-poster bed and threw herself down. Tired as she was the thought of the mysterious shot that had found its mark in the dog still persisted, carrying with it a subtle warning.

What was this unseemly force that seemed to be closing about her? She stirred restlessly, Nick Baum and his hold on her father. These two young men whose path had crossed hers so curiously. What did she really know about them, anyway? Pat had said the dog was alive when they went around to the barn—but was it still alive when they came back into the house? Susie and Eb. And where did Dan Dallas fit into the picture?

Claire's mind swung back to Pat Magan, and she smiled in the darkness. Again came the remembrance of strong arms lifting her in the darkness. Had it been Pat? She hoped so, though she did not ask herself why. A rolicking, care-free newspaper man with an impish smile and Irish blue eyes shaded by very black lashes—well, what of it? Bob Steele had blue eyes, too, very nice eyes, and he had looked at her with the same admiration that many men had given her.

They were both very different from Nick Baum, though Nick was the handsomest. His manner was everything a woman could desire, too.

Claire shivered a little as the ing, the glass lamp in her hand was shattered into bits, putting out the light. The girl stood, stunned in frozen terror. The menace that hung over the place had struck again—this time at her.

She fumbled her way to the door and raced down the stairs, one thought only in her mind. Someone had tried to shoot her. Just as Trigger had been shot.

Panic-stricken, Claire ran down the hall. Pat's door jerked open and he rushed to her. Afterward she remembered he, too, was fully dressed.

"What is it, Claire? What's happened?" He caught her and held her close with one arm when she stumbled against him, while he struck a match with the other hand and lighted a lamp that was on a table.

Gasping, she told him, clinging to him like a frightened child. "Shot at you!" His mouth set in a hard line.

"Yes, and there wasn't any sound."

"Probably a gun with a silencer. We didn't hear the shot that got the dog either. I'm going to get that devil or know the reason why! Claire, if anything had happened to you—" He looked down at her in a way that sent a warm thrill through her. For an instant she forgot her danger.

By this time the rest of the household had been aroused and Susie came running toward them, her face pale.

"Claire—you hand!" she screamed, pointing to an ugly dripping gash on the girl's wrist.

Harold Lloyd Is Fond of Jewelry

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 16. (AP)—A man, not a woman, lists the most valuable jewels among Hollywood's movie stars.

Harold Lloyd is the man. Norma Shearer admits first place with jewels among actresses.

Charles Chaplin is the wealthiest star. Mary Pickford is the wealthiest actress.

Joan Crawford ranks next to Norma Shearer with jewels.

Both Tom Mix and Joe E. Brown have more jewelry than Diamond Lil Mae West.

These are some of the facts written into the year's records of the county tax collector.

The comedian with the horn-rimmed glasses, Lloyd, also ranks as the greatest realty holder in the county among movie stars, as well as having the most valuable furniture. His furniture assessment is $75,000, that being merely a part of its value.

Jewelry assessments on the tax list include Harold Lloyd $30,000, Norma Shearer $11,800, Joan Crawford $10,000, Tom Mix $7,500, Joe E. Brown $5,000, Constance Bennett $3,500, Mae West $3,500.

A change in the law conceals the greatest portion of the Chaplin and the Mary Pickford wealth, as well as large shares of wealth of other stars.

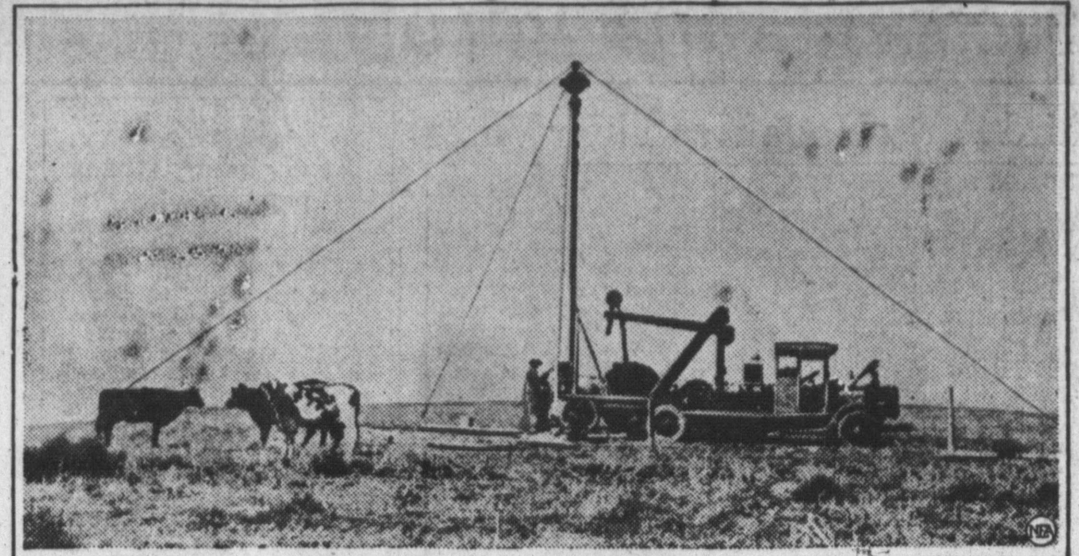

Feeling somewhat disappointed, Claire backed out of the narrow space and set the lamp on the floor so that she could move the bed back. The light fell on the baseboard, and she saw a sign in the shape of a broken arrow, a facsimile of the carving on the mantel in the library. The arrow pointed toward the hall outside the room. Here a narrow stairway led to the cupola above. It must mean those stars, Claire reasoned, since nothing else broke the expanse of that wall except a small bookcase.

Excitedly she put on her coat, and, lamp in hand, climbed the creaky steps to the cold, drafty cupola. It was a round, open structure with a conical roof, boasting an imposing weather vane. The cupola made a fine lookout when the owner of the House of Long Shadows had wished to view the country around. Claire had been up there many times, and even in the darkness, had the sensation of long vistas of far valleys and roads, though, she could not actually see them now.

The wind whipped sharply about her and a bat swooped past her in the darkness. With a shiver, Claire began to look along the wall and floor for another sign. The old cupola in the dead of night had lost all its fascinating daylight charm. It was a place of sinister menace.

Her search was unrewarded and she decided to go back to bed. But first she walked to the railing that edged the lookout. As she stood peering down into the darkness suddenly, without warn-

Undaunted Farmers 'Dig in Under Drouth' for Water

With water sources rapidly becoming depleted in the scorching heat and drouth, these Nebraska farmers battled on undaunted, "digging in under disaster." Drilling in the baked soil, they are attempting to sink a well for watering their thirsty stock at the Loup City Farmsteads in Nebraska, in a section which has been hard hit by the drouth. POLLY MORAN WILL DIVORCE HER HUSBAND

ACTRESS REFUSES TO SIGN ASSAULT COMPLAINT

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., July 16 (AP)—Even a doctor couldn't keep Polly Moran in bed today as the plump star of film comedy set out to divorce the real estate broker who didn't like being "Mr. Polly Moran."

The broker's most important engagement, however, is 13 days hence. Under his real name of Martin Malone he must appear in justice court July 29 for preliminary hearing on charges he assaulted his actress wife with a deadly weapon when the dawn came up on Beverly Hills yesterday.

Polly, a veteran of 23 years of movie making, said she would consult her attorney on the question of marital freedom from the 32-year-old Malone and take the required legal steps after the criminal case is settled.

"There's absolutely no chance for a reconciliation," she declared. "I feel sorry for Mr. Malone, but I'm through."

At the advice of her physician, Dr. Frank Nolan, the actress refused to sign the assault complaint against Malone and a deputy sheriff had to supply the signature.

As Polly told the story, with gestures for the news photographers, highly dramatic incidents preceded the screams of "Don't kill me!"

which aroused the neighborhood about the Malone-Moran mansion and brought a siren-screaming car of officers to the door early yesterday.

"Marty (friend husband) is starting to campaign for some judge," the comedienne related. So to help him, I suggested we begin a drive to get one of those firefighting machines for the forestry service boys. You know—it climbs hills, jumps over ditches and even survives earthquakes.

"So Marty went out Tuesday evening to see a man about a deposit on the outfit. About three o'clock he came in. I was just getting into bed. I saw something was the matter so I smiled and said pleasantly, 'what's eating you, Marty, you look awful.'"

"I'll show you what's eating me," he says, and he went over and got the gun out of the drawer. "I'm going to blow your brains out and mine, too," he says, "and do you know why?"

"Put down that gun, Marty," I said. "I don't know what you're talking about."

"Somebody just called me Mr. Polly Moran," he says. "What do you think of that?"

Her husband, a former college boxing champion, flourished a .38 caliber automatic and pointed it at her, said Miss Moran, "and I looked down the barrel and saw a bullet sitting there.

"I screamed bloody murder. I guess an angel must have had her arms around me, because I heard the click-click-click of the gun but it didn't go off."

Sheriff's Deputies Walter Schottmiller and Robert Jurgeson said Malone waved the automatic at them and noted he had been drinking. He resisted arrest, they said.

The nervous, disheveled broker posted $500 bail to gain his freedom from the Beverly Hills jail. "I must have been celebrating," he explained.

SLAYINGS REMEMBERED

MEXICO CITY, July 16 (AP)—Mexico's students demonstrated today in commemoration of the first anniversary of the machine-gunning of five school boys in Villahermosa, capital of Tabasco state. The killings, which inflamed students throughout the country, caused the exile to Costa Rica of Thomas Garrido Canabal, political boss of Tabasco for 13 years. The five killed had been demonstrating against Garrido.

The new German library at Leipzig, which is to contain every book or publication issued in Germany, is to have a smokers' terrace.

Hugh Herbert is adding a repertoire of barnyard imitations to his comedy lines. On his ranch, he raises chickens, ducks, goats and bullfrogs. They provide the examples.
