CLAIMS ONLY ARMIES COULD ALTER STATUS

SANCTIONS FAILED, HE TELLS LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

GENEVA, July 1. (AP)—Anthony Eden of Great Britain told the League of Nations assembly today it should not, in any way, recognize Italy's conquest of Ethiopia. He declared, however, that "only military action could succeed" in changing the present situation. "In present world conditions this could not be considered as a possibility," the British foreign secretary added.

He recommended the continuance, after the assembly has taken action to suppress sanctions in the Mediterranean sea.

Eden spoke while Geneva heard warnings of wholesale resignations of smaller powers from the league, and after the assembly had listened to biting criticism of great powers from the South African delegate because of their recession from sanctions.

Eden pledged to Premier Leon Blum of France the full cooperation of Great Britain "in rebuilding an authoritative league."

"The league, he said, should not be abandoned because it had failed once."

Methods by which international law is to be enforced should be amended, he declared, so they will correspond to the action which nations are willing to take.

The time to tackle the question of league reform, Eden asserted is at the September session of the assembly.

LIVESTOCK AT RODEO WILL BE WILD, VICIOUS

Entire Panhandle To Enjoy Holiday at Canadian

CANADIAN, July 1.—Canadian and the entire Panhandle is in a happy mood for the enjoyment of the Anvil Park Rodeo—recognized as one of the few really outstanding rodeos of the state.

The dates are July 2-4. Canadian people will be joined by residents from other sections and other states in greater numbers than ever before.

Here, in a western setting, the champions and the various classes of rodeo competition, have the proper atmosphere for doing their level best. This year very attractive cash prizes and merchandise awards in the main events are offered and it is a certainty a large number of world-renowned bronc busters, ropers and bulldozers will scramble to get in the money.

The worst outlaws in horse flesh ever wrangled together are ready to do the job. When they receive their final ration of barbecue and oats early next Thursday morning, their broncs will break from the bucking chutes as vital, frenzied wild animals whose instinct often outwits human skill.

Calving roping under rodeo rules.

Remember those extra pennies you get every time you buy a gallon of gas? Well, gasoline tax collections for the 1935-36 fiscal year are expected by George H. Sheppard, state comptroller, to reach an all-time high of $40,000,000. He attributes a major portion of the increase to more efficient tax collection methods, particularly to strenuous efforts to prevent evasions by illegitimate dealers.

And, since inauguration of the gasoline tax law, the levy in Texas has yielded $248,898,826, of which $195,159,478 has been allocated for highway purposes, including local road bond retirement, and $51,423,457 to the available school fund. ZIONCHECK OUSTED FROM PLANE, RESUMES TRIP BY TRAIN

'RAISES HELL IN HANGAR' AT CHICAGO STOP

AIRPLANE COMPANY IS AFRAID TO TAKE HIM UP

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Bounding from an airliner to a detective squad car and finally to a train, Washington's fun-loving roving Representative Marion A. Zioncheck—sped toward Seattle today to campaign for re-election.

All was orderly during the visiting congressman's six-hour stay in Chicago—until he was ordered out of a passenger plane. Then all was confusion—a welter of indignant statements, hurried telephone calls, double-time action.

Zioncheck and George Bishop, member of the Washington, D. C., police force who accompanied him here from the national capital, were comfortably seated in a Northwest Airlines plane last night.

Then F. J. Bixler, traffic agent, said Zioncheck had been refused passage because he had not purchased tickets in advance and because the plane has a capacity load when he arrived at the Municipal airport.

"I must admit we were afraid to take him up," Bixler added. "We are very careful not to endanger the lives of our passengers. We told him to get off. He refused. Finally we ordered all passengers out. While he was raising hell in the hangar, we reloaded the passengers and took off."

The legislator left on the Milwaukee railroad's Olympian promptly at 10:15 p. m. Central Standard time.

He ended an unwanted silence at the terminal to discuss his recent detention in Washington for mental examination and his flight from a hospital at Towson, Md. The reason for the action, he maintained, was that "I favored certain bills which certain interests opposed. He named neither names nor measures. Eight men, he added, "pounded on me and took me off to the hospital."

Dallas Taxicabs Are Still Idle; Drivers Blamed

DALLAS, July 1. (AP)—Implied criticism from a board of arbitration failed to swerve 500 striking taxicab drivers today in their demands for a closed shop.

Nearly 300 cabs operated by the city's five major companies remained idle in their garages. A sixth and smaller concern did a land-office business with its 26 cars after coming to terms with the strikers, who called their third strike since May 27 Monday night.

Despite the arbitration board's stand, strike leaders declared the walkout would continue "until all the companies have met the demands of the union for a closed shop and fair working conditions."

The board issued a statement saying: "The committee on arbitration spent the better part of 10 days in going completely into the affairs of the taxicab situation. By agreement of both operators and drivers their decision was to be final. The committee increased the drivers' pay from 25 to 33 1-3 per cent, decided many other things in favor of the drivers, but did not find for the closed shop."

"The drivers claim the operators have violated some of the agreements. Their grievance was not called to the attention of the board."

Boy Killed in Train Wreck

AUSTIN, July 1. (AP)—The swift flood waters of tiny Wood's creek today coursed over partly submerged freight cars and the engine of a Missouri-Pacific train which crashed from a washed-out bridge near Kyle, Texas, last night, killing a 10-year-old boy.

Rescuers found the body of Walter Wiley Teague, of Fort Worth, crushed in the wreckage. His name was listed as L. W. Teague, Fort Worth.

J. C. White, 52, engineer of the train, was cut and bruised. He is from San Antonio.

Fears for the fireman, George Craig, 54, also of San Antonio, were eased an hour after the wreck. He was believed trapped in the wreckage at first but rescuers found him after he crawled from his cabin, where he was trapped for a while by escaping steam.

The bridge over the creek gave way under the train's weight as the result of torrential rains. During the afternoon a deluge of between eight and 10 inches swelled the stream to flood proportions.

POLICE QUIZ SMALL SON IN BRICK SLAYING

PSYCHIATRISTS STUDY BOY IN ATTEMPT TO SOLVE CASE

CHICAGO, July 1. (AP)—Jimmy Thompson, precocious seven-year-old boy whose weird account of the slaying of his mother has puzzled investigators, faced questioning by psychiatrists today.

The lad, roused from bed late last night, was closeted for a half hour with officials attempting to solve the enigma surrounding the death of Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle, Chief of Detectives John L. Sullivan announced he would be turned over later to Dr. Harry Hoffman, criminal court psychiatrist, and added:

"Although there are many clues and angles, I'm afraid we have made no definite steps. It is just as big a mystery as ever. We are holding no one except the boy."

Jimmy has told detectives a huge man of negroid appearance crept into their hotel room early Monday, crushed his mother's skull with blows of a paving brick and choked her as he watched the assault. Portions of the statement were regarded with skepticism.

Captain William O'Brien questioned the youth's assertion that he saw his mother slugged at 1:30 a. m. and then went back to sleep until 6:30 a. m., when he coolly dressed and went to notify the desk clerk. There was an outside chance, the captain said, that the boy struck his mother because he was disgruntled at leaving his paternal grandparents' home to rejoin her. Jimmy's claim that the intruder choked Mrs. Castle was disproved by coroner's physicians.

Meanwhile, investigators advanced the theory that the comely night club hostess might have been slain by an ex-convict who knew the second of her three husbands.

The 24-year old woman married J. W. Bolin in Pueblo, Colo., in July, 1926. Subsequently, Bolin was sentenced to the Colorado prison for robbery. Later she married Peter Castle, a Chicago butcher. They were divorced a year ago.

In an effort to learn more of any possible prison connections, police sought Edward Lynch, alias Ernest La Vergne, for questioning. They said he had served a term in the Colorado penitentiary at Canon City.

Sidney Schaps, cabaret master of ceremonies listed as an admitted admirer of Mrs. Castle, was released.

Opera Performers In France Strike

PARIS, July 1. (AP)—Striking opera performers danced on the stage of the closed opera company today with police guards for an audience.

The entire company voted last night to begin an "occupational strike" shortly after the curtain fell on the last performance of the season.

The professional walkout added one more worry to the harassed socialist government, whose decision to dissolve rightist leagues was upheld by the chamber of deputies after vociferous debate.

The chamber approved the government decree against the four nationalist organizations by a vote of 375 to 192.

Employees of the state-owned opera demanded the resignation of the director and new wage agreements. They will occupy the theater, they said, until their demands are approved by the management.

Threats of impending events "rang through the parliamentary chambers during arguments of rightists and government supporters."

FAST FREEZING AND LOW COSTS

The past ten years have been crowded with the history of electric refrigeration progress. Improvement has followed improvement—temperature controls, direct expansion, better insulation, constantly refined mechanisms, and new refrigerants. There is really little basis for comparison between the old and the new electric refrigerators except that both the new and the old give a good account of themselves when it comes to fast freezing and below 50 degree food compartment temperatures.

From the customer's viewpoint most all of this remarkable progress in electric refrigeration has resolved itself into lower costs. The price or first cost has been just about cut in half, which greatly reduces interest charges and depreciation. The new units are much better so that service costs are now almost negligible. Year after year operating costs have been constantly reduced so that electric refrigerators have never been so good or so economical as they are in 1936!

MISS STALLINGS AND MR. KLINGER MARRY IN BRIDE'S HOME

MORNING HOUR IS CHOSEN FOR THE CEREMONY

HOME WILL BE HERE AFTER TRIP TO MOUNTAINS

Miss Lois Stallings and Robert Klinger were married in a pretty morning ceremony yesterday at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stallings, at Slaton. They left immediately for a motor trip to the Colorado mountains, and will be at home at 314 N. West after July 15.

A score of relatives and friends attended the wedding, which was solemnized by the Rev. C. G. Sewell, pastor of the Slaton Baptist church. The ring ceremony was read under an arch of ferns, and in a double doorway. On each side were bridesmaids holding three yellow roses, and a tall basket of yellow daisies. Bows of yellow daisies, sweet peas, and gladioli further decorated the room.

Miss Yida Wood lighted the candles while Mrs. L. B. Hagerman, pianist, played "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice, Saint-Saens. A vocal solo, "I Love You Truly, Bond, was sung by Mrs. C. F. Anderson with accompaniment by Mrs. Hagerman, who also played the Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin," and during the ceremony, MacDowell's "A Wild Rose."

Miss Stallings wore a frock of powder blue, sheer trimmed with matching lace, and carried an arm bouquet of small yellow roses tied with white. Miss Evelyn Stallings, her sister's bridesmaid, was dressed in shell pink lace with a shoulder bouquet of yellow roses. Mr. Klinger was attended by D. C. Hartman of Pampa.

The wedding was followed by an informal reception and breakfast. The bride cut the first slice of the three tiered white and yellow wedding cake which centered the dining table, flanked with yellow tapers. Miss Eunice Florence served the cake, while Miss Ruby Catching poured coffee.

Guests registered in the bride's book where Miss Cora Sealy presided. Those present from out of town were the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cowart and Ruth Cowart of Lubbock, Miss Sue Vinson of Pampa, and F. E. Hartman of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Mrs. Klinger wore a printed navy sheet ensemble with navy hat and black patent accessories as a traveling costume.

She has taught public school music in the Pampa system several years, and has also taught at Slaton. She has attended Baylor, the Colorado teachers' college, and Texas Technological college.

Mr. Klinger has lived in Pampa the past three years and is office manager for the General Atlas carbon company here.

Engaged late in May and was followed by a number of courtesies for both. The bride was also complimented at Slaton while spending the past month there in her parents' home.

Club Alternate To Short Course Elected Tuesday

The largest international meeting of women in the history of the world was described to Priscilla Home Demonstration club yesterday in the home of Mrs. W. D. Benton by Miss Ruby Adams, county home demonstration agent who recently attended the meeting of Country Women of the World at Washington, D. C.

"There were 23 nations represented with a registration of 6,700, to discuss their home problems; for what the home thinks and does today, the nation thinks and does tomorrow," Miss Adams said. Mrs. Joe H. Lewis presided at the business session when Mrs. Norman Walberg was elected as alternate delegate to the state short course at College Station this month.

Miss Adams demonstrated sponge cake jelly roll, but used in place of the jelly a lemon filling which she considers more suitable for a summer recipe. The recipe she used was from page 78 of the Gray County Home Demonstration Club cookbook.

The roll was served with iced tea to Mmes. T. L. Anderson, C. E. Chatham, and Y. B. Ellis; Miss Marie Farrington, Beryl Tignor, Erdine Benton, and Adams, guests; Mmes. Guy Farrington, J. M. Daugherty, R. A. Kennedy, J. R. Spearman, Walberg, E. A. Shackleton, Benton, C. A. Tignor, and Miss Donnie Lee Stroope, members.

Girls' Class Is Entertained at Swimming Party

A swimming party was given yesterday afternoon to entertain pupils in Mrs. Jess Clay's class of First Methodist Sunday school. Mrs. J. W. Crisler and Mrs. Travis Lively assisted in entertaining.

Guests of the class were Carolyn Darnell, Randall and Joan Clay, Joe and Jerry Crisler, and Lamar Lively. Members present were Sara Frances Giddens, Joella Shelton, Edna Mae Trainer, Phyllis Perkins, Patricia Lively, Betty Joy Stover, Earlene Shotwell, Evelyn Kidwell, Gloria Robinson, Billy Sackett, and Mary Spencer.

Old Furniture Is Given New Finish To Improve Room

"At first my 35-year-old dresser that grandmother gave me looked hopeless," declared Lois Jean Daugherty, bedroom demonstrator for Sunshine 4-H club. "With instructions given by Miss Ruby Adams, home demonstration agent, and Miss Donnie Lee Stroope, club sponsor, we set forth to refinish it."

"Using 1/2-starch paste to remove the varnish, then giving the dresser a bath of vinegar, we were soon ready to start revarnishing. The first coat of varnish was allowed to dry 24 hours, then I spent a few minutes rubbing it with steel wool and linseed oil, a thorough cleaning to remove rough particles."

"Another coat of varnish was applied and allowed to dry 24 hours. This process was followed for three days, and now I have a dresser with the appearance of a new one at a cost of less than a dollar and a few hours' work."

CAKE BAKING HINT

Dampen with water the waxed paper before lining an angel food cake pan, warns Miss Donnie Lee Stroope of Priscilla Home Demonstration club. Miss Stroope finds that the tendency of sponge cakes to stick to the paper is thus avoided. She recommends this for sponge cakes that are to be cooked in a large, shallow pan.

CALVARY BAPTIST WMU
Women's Missionary union of the Calvary Baptist church will continue a study of the W. M. U. manual in a meeting at the church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Mrs. F. E. Leach is teaching this class, which meets weekly and invites all women of the church to attend.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Staff Writer.

By the first of July most of the boys and girls from prep school and college are at home ready to entertain the crowd and be entertained in turn by the other young people.

First and foremost, it's necessary to have on hand a supply of certain foods in order to be ready for emergencies at any hour of the day or evening. Boys and girls in their teens always are hungry, and, anyway, it's fun to raid the pantry and ice-box and set out an informal repast.

Keep on hand a supply of sugar syrup so that cold drinks can be made quickly. To make this, cook two parts of sugar with one part of water until syrupy.

Keep Supplies On Hand.
Always have ginger ale in the refrigerator. It can be used with fruit juices for cold drinks or combined with ice cream to make a more substantial cooler.

Chilled watermelon is a treat on a hot evening and needs no accompaniment. Bottled fruit juices, such as loganberry, grape, pineapple and lime, are reliable standbys.

Sandwich spreads, crackers, cookies, plain and stuffed olives, ripe olives, cheeses in variety, several kinds of canned fish for sandwiches and salads, potato chips, marmalade and preserves offer a good selection of foods for the pantry.

Two or three kinds of bread—pumpernickel, whole wheat and white—are desirable in the bread box, too. With the crackers for appetizers and various breads for sandwiches, your young people will be well supplied.

Tiny appetizers made on a cracker foundation, and open-faced sandwiches are easy to make and attractive to serve. Cheeses of all Four ounces Roquefort cheese, 4 tablespoons butter, 1-3 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon paprika.

Cream cheese and butter, working with a wooden fork. Season with salt and paprika, and spread on rounds of hot buttered toast. Make a border of thin slices of stuffed olives. Pimento stuffed olives are best for this.

Anchovy always adds a decidedly swanky touch to foods. Brie and anchovy canapes make tasty mouthfuls. Mash four ounces of Brie with a fork until soft and smooth. Place a small mound of cheese in the center of a small square salted cracker. Make a depression in the

REVIVAL OPENS OUTDOORS WITH MANY PRESENT

Evangelist Is Here To Speak Twice Daily

Launching an outdoor revival, an unexpectedly large crowd gathered on the lawn of Harrah Methodist chapel last evening to hear the first sermon by the Rev. W. E. Peterson of Shawlwater.

His subject was Essentials of Evangelistic Victory. He named as the three essentials, vision, determination, and sacrifice. This evening the sermon subject will be Barn Builders.

Seats have been arranged for 400 on the church lawn, and the public is invited to hear the evangelist. Services will start at 8:15 each evening, following young people's meetings, adult prayer service, and the children's booster band, all meeting at 7:45.

Morning services started today and will continue at 10 o'clock daily in the church auditorium. Song periods start each of the evening meetings, with Miss Josephine Lane as pianist and the Rev. Lance Webb, minister, as song leader.

Quick Method Used For Making Cheese

"My family especially enjoys processed cheese with macaroni," says Mrs. Joe Lewis of Priscilla Home Demonstration club. "Processed cheese looks and tastes much like American cheese, but requires only 24 hours of ripening. It is quickly and easily made and will remain quite fresh for a week."

Mrs. Lewis reports that there is no expense involved in making the cheese.

Conclave Queen

As a rule, democrats frown on royalty. Nevertheless, those assembled at Philadelphia selected charming Miss Marion Fore of Texas to reign as queen of the democratic national convention. She is pictured above after her coronation.

BETHANY CLASS
In a business meeting yesterday, Bethany class of First Baptist church planned a covered dish luncheon for July 9 at 12:30. Mrs. T. L. Anderson was hostess at her home, and served lemonade to Mmes. H. B. Landman, Oscar Baker, H. L. Watt, and H. C. Wilkie.

LAST-OF-JUNE WEDDINGS ARE REVEALED HERE

MISS HOPPER AND MR. GUTHRIDGE WED LAST WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Guthridge are at home at 705 N. Cuyler following their marriage on June 23. The Rev. Lance Webb, pastor of McCullough - Harrah Methodist churches, read the ceremony at his home with Miss Adeline Brazel and Mrs. Arle Kendrick as the only witnesses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hopper of Muskogee, Okla. She has made her home here for more than a year with her sister, Mrs. J. K. Garman, and has been employed as secretary to the manager of Pampa theaters.

Mr. Guthridge, whose parents reside in Chickasha, Okla., is with a drilling company which operates in the Panhandle field.

WALKER-WEATHERFORD NUPTIALS ARE READ
The marriage of Miss Sylvia Weatherford, daughter of Mrs. A. S. Cambren, and Henry Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Walker, was solemnized Monday evening at 8 o'clock by E. C. McKenzie, pastor of Francis Avenue Church of Christ, at his home.

Parents of both witnessed the ring ceremony, as did Miss Catherine Walker, sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Walkenhorst.

The couple will be at home here, where Mr. Walker is employed with the Peake construction company. Both have resided here for a number of years.

RUNAWAY BRIDE

By Helen Welshimer © 1936 NEA Service, Inc.

that a whole city of turrets waited beyond. "Stop!" She stamped a foot in a fragile golden slipper. Bob was probably driving along the Long Island bay tonight, with a white moon in the sky, wash of waves against the shore, and somebody who might be Sylvia or anyone else at his side Bob would get over it "What does it matter whom I marry?"

She wanted to sink back on the bed and cry, but she didn't. Instead she went down to dinner; a slim, graceful figure in a gypsy-skirted dress made of layers of gold and brown mousseline, with a bodice of gold, and half a dozen golden bracelets dangling on her arms. This night, when the trumpet and the clarinet and the drums swung into it, she danced, too.

Marcia laughed lightly as she went from one pair of arms to another. She knew that the men were giving her appraising looks. She was heartless in their eyes! She had left one of their kind at the altar—or almost at the altar. She had insulted their sex. They wanted to punish her, but they wanted to kiss her first. All but Phil. He was steady, reassuring, gay, and kind. She was glad when he cut in on the dancing. There were acres and acres in which to stroll on the deck. There were squash courts and there were lounges and salons, and the sun shone on bright blue water all the way.

More than once, Marcia thought that she might forget in time. More than once she reminded herself that she couldn't forget—that people couldn't run away from anyone who had set up a residence in their hearts.

"In time, young lady, though your heart will turn over like a pancake when he passes, you may get back your appetite," she told herself. "That's something. After all, you used to be fond of lots of things—caramel pie and spaghetti and banana fritters and shrimp a la Newburg—". She laughed with a sense of lessening tension.

She mentioned Bob to no one until the last night out. For the sixth time she had donned a dinner dress from the trousseau. A molded one of pale lavender silk this time. The music was softer tonight, softer and sweeter as the boat neared the coast of France. It began to rain, too, and the thunder made a background for the drums, when there were drums.

She was dancing with Phil when he said, "Let's go on deck. I need to breathe. Tomorrow I'm going to see Camilla!"

They sat in their chairs, watching the rain play darkly on the water, save when the lightning made a quick green path through the sky. They were comfortable. "Camilla?" Marcia took up the theme.

"The girl I've loved since I

IT'S JUST CHOLERA MORBUS -- DON'T WORRY -- WE'LL GET YOU HOME -- IT AIN'T FATAL

OH, BUT THIS IS THIS TIME! FELLERS, THIS IS MY LAST ILLNESS -- TELL MY MOTHER I'M SORRY I SNUCK OFF AN LEFT TH' COAL BUCKET EMPTY, AN' TELL MY PA I'M -- OH -- OOH -- GATHER CLOSE, FELLERS!

WE WILL -- WE WILL -- THAT IS, IF ANY OF US MAKE IT! I GOT A FEELIN' COMIN' ON MYSELF --

WELL, THIS IS FINAL! I'VE SWORN OFF MANY TIMES BEFORE, BUT THIS IS FINAL!

A deck steward came by, calling Phil's name. "Radiogram for you, sir," he said.

Marcia sat quietly, while he excused himself and read it by the flare of two matches. A radiogram! Always the only friend she had at sea was being drawn gently but surely into the world on shore.
