TEX'S TOPICS

Having been around and about these United States a bit, TOPICS must take time out now to say that never have we come in contact with anything that quite equals the old-time howdy-stranger hospitality that springs from the breast of Pampa.

This welcome-to-you spirit possibly goes a long way in explaining the rapidly with which newcomers grow to become attached to Pampa and its environs. With a smile and a handclasp waiting for you at every turn, one just can't help liking it. It's mighty good paving material for the highway of civic progress.

Things a tenderfoot learns: That early settlers in these here parts had to shoot wild mustang ponies for food. . . That 35 types of barbed wire are used on cattle ranges in far west Texas. . . That there is such a thing as a fishing rodeo, and that the one that will attract wide attention to the Texas gulf coast this summer will be the tarpon rodeo which opens at Port Aransas next Friday.

There'll be plenty of shootin' goin' on in Texas the Fourth of July. We are told that 27 separate celebrations will be staged between July 2 and 5. Many of these will feature rodeo and wild west events. Three on July 3 and 4 will be Rocksprings, Cotulla and Lubbock. July 3, 4 and 5 events are scheduled for Borger and Canadian.

Looks like a busy summer for the ice man. With the coming of the automatic refrigerator his retail market may have been curbed some, but now he has found an amazing new field for his chilly product—railroads of the west.

It has just been estimated that western roads alone will use 275,000 tons of ice this summer in air conditioning the cars of their trains.

Recently we stepped from an air-conditioned train at a New Mexico stop-over, going from a temperature of about 70 degrees to a street level thermometer reading of 101 in the shade. It gave a rough idea of just what the ice man really is doing for cross country travelers in the hot belts.

Times have changed a lot. It hasn't been so long since theaters were dark in the summertime because it was too hot for the patrons. Now the modern ice-cooled movie houses beckon to the public with an offer of comfort in sizzling weather.

We were reading last night of an old newspaper in Ohio who clipped something from the paper of a nearby editor in which newspaper "policy" was discussed. Somebody had asked the editor this question: "What is the policy of your paper?"

In reply he wrote: "The policy of this paper has never been defined in words—so the years of its service has enabled the patrons to judge its merits. If a definition of its policy were to be written, however, it would be something like this:

"To print a homey, neighborly, interesting newspaper that will be feared by nobody and liked by all. To sympathize with those in sorrow; to help those in trouble; to advance the social, religious and business interests of the neighborhood; to refrain from printing anything that will have a tendency to lower the moral tone of the home; to refuse all undignified and questionable advertising; to assist the officials in keeping peace in the community and promoting respect for law and order; to boost the neighborhood, the land, the crops, the roads, the public buildings, the schools, the churches, and all efforts to make the world better; to assist the local merchants in aiming their advertising at the public needs of the immediate time; that the readers may have confidence in the statements in the advertising columns; to promote a spirit of cooperation in the community that will help people to be better neighbors, better customers, better earners."

I Heard . . .

A local negro who received his bonus Monday yesterday and who was being besieged with requests for loans, declared, "Ah is not goin' to loan a single dollar without good security an' 10 puh cent interest puh month." His statement about the interest was stressed.

That air passenger service between Pampa and Fort Worth and Dallas will be inaugurated soon.

TOWNSEND GAINS IN MAINE VOTE

PLANTERS ARE GIVEN BLAME FOR BEATING

BACK BRUISES SHOWN BY MEMPHIS WOMAN

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 16 (AP)—Cotton strike sympathizers added the purported flogging of a Memphis woman and a Little Rock minister to charges of terrorism against east Arkansas planters.

Miss Willie Sue Blagden, 29, former social service worker, exhibited two black and blue bruises five inches wide across her back in support of her story that she and the Rev. Claude C. Williams were whipped by six white men near Earle, Ark.

She asserted they were beaten with the belly-band from the harness of a mule when they went to Earle late yesterday to conduct the funeral of a negro tenant farmer reported "slain."

Miss Blagden returned to Memphis by train early today. She reported Williams, whom she identified as a Presbyterian preacher, member of the Religion and Labor Foundation, and vice-president of the American Federation of Teachers, had gone to Little Rock.

Efforts to reach him there were not immediately successful. Sheriff Howard Curlin of Crittenden county said he planned to go to Earle shortly to investigate.

Miss Blagden said she "certainly would assist in the inquiry if the sheriff requested it.

Landon And Knox Plan Vote Drive

Party Leaders Over Nation Confer At Topeka

TOPEKA, Kan., June 16 (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon and Col. Frank Knox clasped hands today with an avowed determination to "let the truth be known about the vital issues of the campaign" and to lead the republican party to victory in the November presidential election.

Meeting for the first time as republican presidential and vice-presidential nominees the two men stood on the steps of the Kansas capitol "in good corn growing weather" and chatted confidently preparatory to a vital study of strategy with the high command of their party.

COURT HEARS FIRST DRUNK DRIVING CASE

Case Settings For Rest Of Term Announced; Criminal Cases Are Set First

The first of a series of cases to be tried in 31st district court, charging driving while in an intoxicated condition, went to the jury today.

Arguments were heard this morning in the case of the State vs. Edna Norvell, after testimony given by about 10 witnesses was heard yesterday afternoon and this morning. J. H. Mann, Mrs. Mann and their son were among the state witnesses. They suffered injuries in a car collision, April 26 of this year.

Jurors in the case were H. C. Cattrell, J. B. Collier, John Oldham, John Tate, J. T. Hicks, M. E. Hudson, C. J. Henry, Mike T. Doyle, Jack C. Sapiro, G. A. Latus, Chas. Cousins, D. Stubblefield.

Yesterday afternoon, John W. Phillips Jr. was given a five-year suspended sentence after a plea of guilty to theft of pipe from Baker Salsbury. W. M. Simmons, indicted jointly with Phillips, entered a plea of not guilty and was to be tried this afternoon.

The rest of the week will be used in trying criminal cases. The fourth week of court will begin June 22, and beginning Monday civil cases may be tried, subject to criminal cases which may be left over from this week.

Candidate F. W. Fischer to Talk Here Tomorrow

F. W. Fischer, of Tyler, candidate for governor, will speak in Pampa at 8 p. m. Wednesday at an open air meeting to be held east of the county house.

Mr. Fischer's itinerary for today carried him from Memphis this afternoon to Clarendon for a 2 p. m. address. At 5 o'clock this evening he is scheduled to speak in Claude, and at 8 p. m. in Amarillo.

Wednesday will be another busy day for the gubernatorial candidate. His day's schedule calls for speaking engagements in Groom at 9 a. m., in McLean at 11 a. m., in Shamrock at 2 p. m., in Wheeler at 5 p. m., with the day's windup session at night in Pampa.

People You Know

Strange that the world's most avid fishermen live in the Panhandle! Far from gurgling mountain streams, mountain-framed lakes. These men and boys, it seems merely exist from one fishing trip to the next when they really live. Take Dickie Kennedy. He is typical. He will talk for hours about rods, lines, baits, spinners and never tire.

Enough to entertain him for weeks is any hole of water anywhere. Last spring, so says Melvin Qualls, he wanted to stop and fish at every creek between here and Austin where he acted in the play "Dust." Last Saturday, three days back from catching many fish in mountain streams and lakes in Colorado and New Mexico, he drafted Bill Kelley and caught perch in holes around LeFors.

PENSION PLAN NOMINATES 2 FOR CONGRESS

COUGHLIN, TOWNSEND WIN TWO PLACES, LOSE THREE

By HARRY E. FARNHAM Associated Press Staff Writer PORTLAND, Me., June 16 (AP)—Candidates endorsed by the organization of Rev. Charles E. Coughlin and Dr. Francis E. Townsend won two nominations and lost three in Maine's primaries yesterday, unofficial returns indicated today.

Candidates backed by one or both organizations were nominated by the republicans in two of three Maine congressional districts. But a democratic Townsend-Coughlin backed candidate met apparent defeat in a close contest in the first district and a republican candidate for governor, endorsed by a Townsend organization lieutenant, was defeated.

The republicans nominated Lewis O. Barrows, secretary of state, for governor by a margin of 18,000 votes over Blin W. Page, Skowhegan banker, who received 11th hour backing from Dr. Clinton Winder, member of the Townsend old age pension plan organization.

Harold F. Dubord of Waterville was nominated for governor by the democrats without opposition. The state election takes place in September.

Olson Clinches Farm-Laborites Race for Senate

ST. PAUL, June 16 (AP)—Governor Floyd B. Olson easily clinched the farmer labor party's nomination to the United States senate today as returns from yesterday's primary elections increased his huge margin over a lone opponent.

Olson, self-styled "radical" and champion of public ownership, gathered 42,976 votes in 74 of the state's 3,724 precincts to only 2,784 for the comparatively little known Carl Taylor.

Martin Nelson, defeated for governor by Olson two years ago, emerged as the republican gubernatorial nominee, with 36,083 in 598 precincts to 5,665 for A. B. Gilbert.

On the democratic side, with control of the state party at stake, the contests were much closer. Candidates supported by Joseph Wolf, national committee chairman, held narrow leads over the late backed by Congressman Elmer Ryan and Joseph Moonan.

Patrick Delaney, a Wolf entrant, gathered 17,653 votes in 714 precincts to 8,970 for B. H. Loftsgarden in the U. S. senatorial lists. Fred A. Curtis, a Wolf aspirant for the governorship, led E. E. Novak 10,930 to 9,222 in 595 precincts.

ALLIED TO NORMANGEE AUSTIN, June 16 (AP)—Governor Allred said today he would attend Centennial celebration at Normangee, Leon county Thursday.

His red hair waving, John D. M. Hamilton, the new republican national chairman, was at Landon's elbow with Henry P. Fletcher the retiring chairman, nearby to render advice.

C. H. WALKER IS APPOINTED P. M. BY PRESIDENT

Nomination Is Sent To Senate By Roosevelt

President Roosevelt today sent to the senate the nomination of C. H. Walker as postmaster at Pampa, Texas, according to an Associated Press dispatch received here this afternoon.

Mr. Walker has been a resident of Pampa for eight years, coming here from Dalhart where he was a former postmaster and newspaperman. His application received the endorsement of Siler Faulkner, Democratic chairman of Gray county.

The present postmaster, D. E. Cecil, received a recess appointment on July 1, 1931, and on January 8, 1932, was given his commission, signed by President Herbert Hoover. Mr. Cecil has been a resident of Pampa since 1922.

Mr. Walker was born in Tennessee. He moved to Texas in 1909, settling in Dalhart where his civic and community service was outstanding. After moving to Pampa Mr. Walker continued to be prominent. He was named Pampa's outstanding citizen in a voting contest conducted by the Pampa Daily News in 1932.

The nominee was postmaster at Dalhart from 1913 to 1922. In 1923 he was elected a member of the Texas legislature. He now operates the Pampa Office Supply company.

$51,150 In Bonds Cashed

Bonus certificates amounting to $51,150 were received for cashing at the local postoffice yesterday.

All were sent to Dallas, cashing point for this area, and checks will be sent arriving here tomorrow.

Up to noon today, 475 of the 550 veterans eligible to receive certificates through the local postoffice had been notified that their bonds had arrived.

A long line of veterans swamped local postoffice officials this morning, waiting to sign their bonds for cashing. The number of Pampans deciding to hold their certificates is greater than expected.

Members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars are on duty at the postoffice, assisting in identifying veterans. Veterans who have not received slips notifying them that their bonds have arrived are asked to call at the postoffice in person after tomorrow.

The average of bonds being cashed is still above the $600 mark.

AUTOMOBILE IS FOUND IN LAKE NEAR ROSWELL

May Contain Bodies Of Four Missing Tourists

ROSWELL, N. M., June 16 (AP)—New Mexico state police, anxious to determine if they at last have reached the trail's end in the search for four missing mid-west tourists, renewed today their attempt to wrest a mystery automobile from the tenacious grip of a little sink-hole north of here.

Equipped with new and more rugged hoists and cable, the officers, aided by a deep-sea diver, hoped to lift the machine found in 125 feet of water here Sunday to the bank of the rock-bound lake.

Numerous breakdowns yesterday when five eighth inch steel cable snapped as so much thread, failed to discourage the workers who believed that automobile may contain the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. George Lortus of East St. Louis, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer of Duquoin Ill., last seen in May, 1935.

Joe Dudy of LeFors was a Pampa visitor last night.

INCOME FRAUD IN LOUISIANA IS HUSHED UP

TRIAL OF FRIENDS OF LONG CEASES, SAY INVESTIGATORS

NEW ORLEANS, June 16 (AP)—Nine members of the grand jury which indicted friends of the late Senator Huey P. Long for income tax fraud today scored the United States attorney general for abandoning prosecution of the cases.

In a letter to Attorney General Homer Cummings, the jurors demanded immediate release from the Atlanta penitentiary of former Louisiana representative Joseph Fisher, one of the two men tried before the criminal cases against others were dropped.

They said there was a "gross and unwarranted discrimination" against Fisher, who is scheduled to complete a sentence of a year and a half on July 9. Abraham Shushan, former president of the New Orleans Levee board, the other man brought to trial, was acquitted.

The statement was announced here by Arthur C. Waters, who served as foreman of the grand jury which returned the income tax indictments.

The jurors, in their letter said that during the investigations which led to the indictments it was reported that those under investigation "were trying to make their peace at Washington, by political pull or by payment of the taxes claimed, or even by both means."

The reported answers out of Washington, the letter stated, "either from your office, Mr. Attorney General, or from the office of the secretary of the treasury, were in effect that the government of the United States would not compromise itself by condoning the commission of crime for a pecuniary consideration answers which wholly comported with the dignity and honor of the United States."

The jurors said that, excluding Fisher and Shushan, the others indicted "had not even been brought to nominal trial," and if the cases are abandoned they felt they had "every cause to feel aggrieved and outraged."

If the evidence revealed in the grand jury room under the guidance of the assistants of the United States attorney general, the letter stated, "it would be a gross and unwarranted discrimination."

Colorful Group From West Texas Hits Centennial

DALLAS, June 16 (AP)—A special (rain)load of men and women from Anson, Abilene and Stamford arrived here today, one of the many colorful groups yet to visit the Texas Centennial.

Members of the party planned to stage the cowboys' Christmas ball in all its old time splendor as a climax to the program tonight of the national rodeo which Leonora Barrett headed the first.

The Cowboy's Christmas ball, first given at the old Star hotel in Anson in 1885, inspired the ballad of the same name by Larry Chittenden. The song had been called the finest cowboy tune ever written.

Ms. Corrie Pool, who led the grand march of the first cowboy ball, was here to lead again tonight. The caller at the original ball, W. M. Patterson, who now resides here, planned to call the dances.

Man Wanted Here, Held in Dallas

An investigation was being conducted by Sheriff Talley and the county attorney's office here this afternoon into the purported activities of an alleged swindler arrested by Dallas authorities late yesterday afternoon.

The man is allegedly wanted in Pampa on complaints of promising restoration of sight by radium treatment.

Police Chief Art Hurst said this afternoon that he understood the man had collected $2,500 from two Pampa residents on the fake. "The suspect was taken into custody when detectives set a trap when he returned to his Dallas home to receive his bonus payment.

SOUTH'S ACREAGE NOT TOO LARGE

The National Cooperative Council, composed of 4,000 farmers' business organizations, has announced a new farm plan for consideration by Congress. One part of this plan states that the problem of crop surpluses should be dealt with by completely withdrawing from production the requisite number of acres instead of transferring these acres to other uses.

"Now it is entirely probable that such a plan as that suggested by the National Cooperative Council would be found satisfactory in the Corn Belt States, but it would be less likely to work effectively in the South.

"First of all, it approaches our problem from the wrong direction. It calls for a reduction of our cultivated acreage, in the face of a cultivated acreage that is already too small to yield a decent standard of living for our farm people. What we need over most of the South is not smaller farms but better balanced farms.

"We need that very shift of acreage to other crops that this plan inveighs against. If certain of the border states are included as Southern, we have about half the farm people of the nation. The cultivated lands of the South are already overtaxed to support the huge population that depends upon them. It is doubtful if a smaller acreage can support our population in any condition but one of poverty.

"Farm management studies indicate quite clearly that a farmer must handle a reasonable acreage of land if he is to maintain a decent standard of living. When we take the total acreage of cultivated land in the South and divide it by the total number of persons who are getting their living from this land, we find that here in the South, the number of cultivated acres per capita of rural population is very small in comparison with that of other sections of the nation. Unless many people are to leave Southern farms for the cities, the present cultivated acreage will be required to maintain them."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER

CLEVELAND—There is plenty of chance for a sob story about the downfall of some of the Old Guard bosses, as demonstrated at the Republican convention.

In some quarters, there is even an inclination to speak of a so-called spiritual rebirth of the party, on the theory that the old-line men are being replaced by fellows more honest and more obsessed with devotion to the public weal.

Anyway, former Postmaster General Walter F. Brown has been bounced from his position as Republican national committeeman from Ohio and such once-puissant figures as Charlie Hilles of New York, J. Henry Borahack of Connecticut, Jim Watson of Indiana, and Dave Reed of Pennsylvania are shown to be largely shorn of their former power.

All proved unable to direct and deliver their own delegations. Most New Yorkers here believe the Hilles rule has been broken for good. He has been a member of the Republican national committee since 1912, when he managed Taft's vain campaign against Wilson and Roosevelt.

Walter Brown has always been bitterly opposed by liberals and outstanding crusaders for purer politics. He learned his first political lesson under Mark Hanna, became state chairman, Bull-Mooseed in 1912, helped Harry Daugherty nominate Harding, and in 1928 engineered the nomination of Hoover.

Recently, he and State Chairman E. D. Schorr emphasized their control by giving Borah and their political enemies a bad beating in the primaries.

The Ohio delegation came to Cleveland with a majority pledged to Brown's re-election as committeeman. But Borah charged national committee funds had been used to bring about his Ohio defeat. Brown publicly said he didn't know anything about it.

Schorr felt that Brown was trying to push blame on him and promptly turned against him, causing Brown's defeat. Ex-Senator Watson found himself chairman of a delegation which flouted his every wish and his candidates have lost out in every fight for the jobs on the state machine.

Ex-Senator Reed argued vainly with Pennsylvania's 75 delegates to retain their "influence" by staying off the Landon bandwagon, but by the eve of nomination 50 of them had leaped aboard. Reed represents the waning political influence of the Mellons.

Roraback still controls the party organization in Connecticut. He wouldn't be so sure of it if he hadn't belatedly seen the light and declared for Landon, in accordance with the state delegation's sentiment, before he reached Cleveland.

But the great power he once wielded through alliances with Hilles and other eastern bosses was gone. He could only say, "Me, too!"

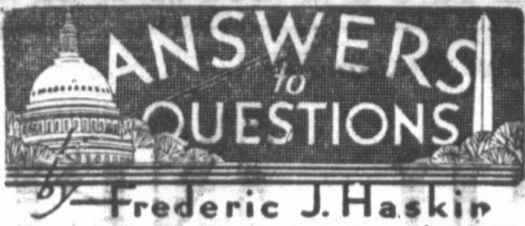

According to a recent item, even the poor nowadays are bothered with gout. Probably the pedestrians, as in "gout-atheway!"

A Cleveland editorialist suggests that the G. O. P. is changing into the grand young party. The initials, however, probably will not be changed.

Q How can children's clothes be fireproofed as a precaution for the 4th of July? E. F. C.

A Dissolve one pound of ammonium phosphate in two quarts of cold water and a clear solution is formed in which the fabric to be fireproofed should be soaked for five minutes. The garment then can be taken out and allowed to dry, after which it may be worn with perfect safety, as it is absolutely fireproof.

Q In the building industry, is the present trend toward one-family, two-family or many-family dwellings? G. T.

A For the past five or six years, the trend has been toward the one-family dwelling. These were built at an average cost of $4,000.

Q What is the salary of Governor McNutt of Indiana? Is he allowed anything for the upkeep of the Governor's mansion? A. J.

A The greater part of the governor of Indiana is $8,000 and an allowance of $8,000 more is made for maintenance of the mansion.

Q Is the climate of China more severe than that of other countries in the same latitude? N. G.

A The greater part of China belongs to the temperate zone, only a small portion of the south lying within the tropics. It has what is called an excessive climate, and has a far greater range of temperature than is usual within the same parallels of latitude.

Q What became of George Washington's collection of books? B. R.

A The greater part of his library was purchased in 1848 and presented to the Boston Athenaeum where it still reposes.

Belgian Troops Are Mobilized in Workers' Strike

BRUSSELS, June 16 (AP)—Belgian troops were ordered mobilized today to protect public services at the banks of striking workmen near 200,000.

The governor of the fortified city of Leige, where first clashes occurred yesterday, prohibited assemblies on the streets.

A panic-stricken public, faced with shutdown of stores and shops, rushed to purchase necessary provisions before all commerce was suspended.

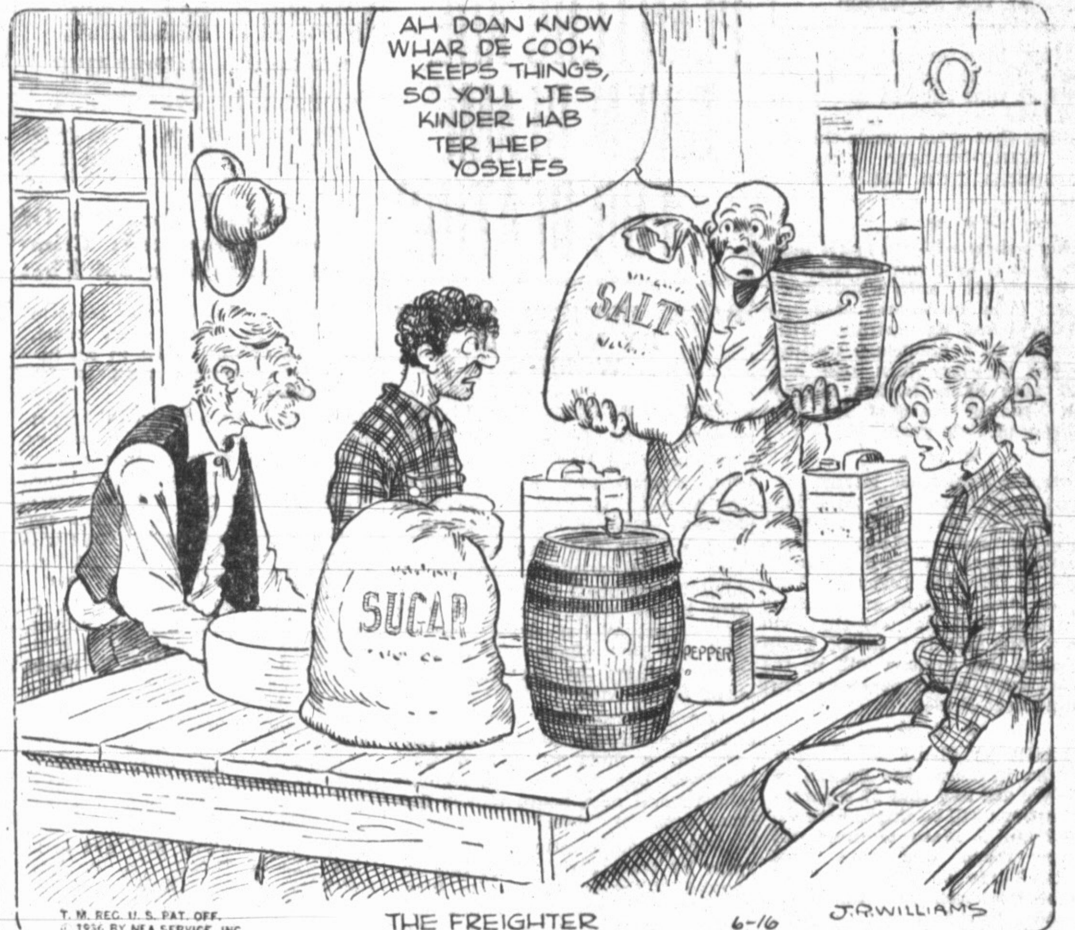

Overnight the strikers movement was joined by more than 20,000 workmen. Their demands are, in almost all instances, for higher wages.

END BEATS ROAD RUNNERS 3-0; DECIDING GAME TO BE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

SCORELESS TIE BROKEN IN 7TH AS TWO SCORE

ROAD RUNNERS LAX IN SUPPORTING LEE DANEY

Road Runner stars of last season turned on their former teammates last night to be responsible for the Eason Oilers' 3 to 0 win over the birds in the fourth game of a five game series. The deciding game will be played here on Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Dallas Patton, Tank Horton and John Clowers were the big noises in the Eason victory. Patton connected for a single and double. Horton doubled to score the first Oiler run and he scored when Clowers singled and made second on an error.

Statistically, the Oilers have the better of the four game argument although the count now stands at two-all in wins and losses. The Oilers won the opening game in Enid, 5 to 0. The birds took the second encounter, 3 to 2. Pampa jumped into a lead with a 3 to 0 win Sunday afternoon but last night the score was reversed and the count tied again.

Score In 7th
Lee Daney pitched great ball for six innings, allowing the mighty Oilers only three scattered singles. The Road Runners had gotten to Clowers for five hits in the same period. After fanning the first batter in the seventh, Daney allowed Gilchrist and Horton to double in succession, Horton's 2-bagger scored Gilchrist. Clowers beat out an infield hit and Daney, who fielded the ball, threw it away in a futile attempt to get the Enid hurler. Horton scored before Cox could recover the throw.

The other Enid run was scored in the eighth on a single by Williamson and Bates' double. Sam Gray relieved Daney in the ninth and allowed two hits but no runs. Enid threatened in the second inning when Sloan opened the inning with a triple. Gray bore down and got by without a run being scored.

The Road Runners threatened in the second, third, fourth and seventh innings but failed to push across a run when they had good, poor base running, or double plays, ruined their chances.

Cox Pulls Thriller
Although the birds lost the game, they produced the most spectacular play of the season. Cox, elongated first baseman, put the large crowd on its feet when he went deep behind first base, running with the ball, and reached out his big mitt to snag Uroan's hit and retire the side, leaving a man stranded on third.

Bates, Enid leftfielder, pulled one for the books when he raced from short left field to snare McNabb's long drive with his back against the fence. Fans were still wondering this morning how Bates reached the fence ahead of the ball.

Sam Hale, Road Runner manager, and Danes Patton, Enid manager, and a former Road Runner, tangled for hitting honors with a pair of doubles each. Sloan hit a single and triple.

Each team displayed sensational fielding gems at times. Two double plays pulled the Enid crowd and Clowers and Enid also saved scores with a pair of snappy two-outs.

Game On Friday
Friday night's game should pack the grandstand at Road Runner park. Neither manager would announce a starting pitcher. Carl Stewart might be Manager Sam Hale's choice of the peppery little Hale might come back with Leford, who subdued the Oilers Sunday afternoon.

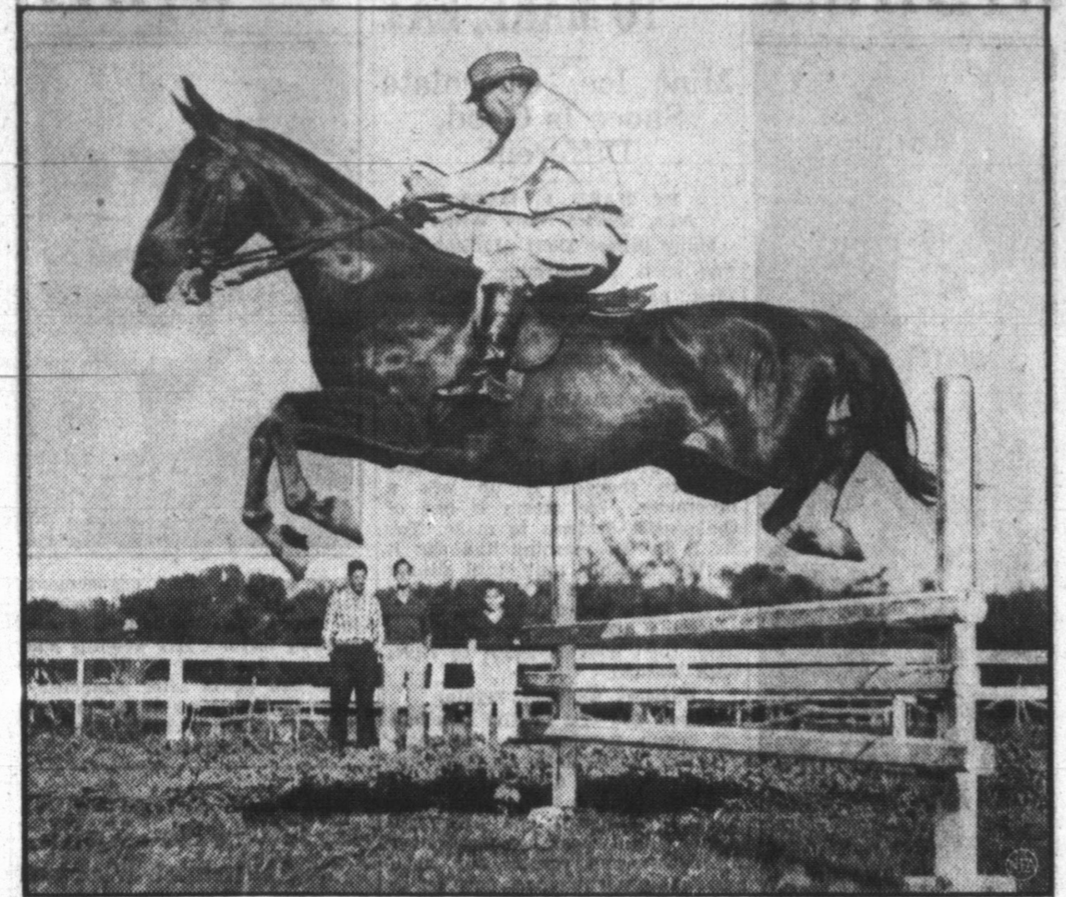

Enid plays in Amarillo tonight and in Borger Wednesday and Thursday nights. Manager Nick Urban's choice will depend on how many chumpers he has to use in the three games away from here. The Enid club will headquarter in Pampa, driving to Amarillo and Borger for their games.

Ridin' To Happy Landin'

Just as easily as he hurdled all obstacles to the G. O. P. presidential nomination in Cleveland did Governor Alfred M. Landon put his dark horse, Syc, over the barrier at Topeka, as shown in the upper photo. Shippers Wreck Dallas 4-0 As Houston Climbs In Loop

Buffs Beat Indians As Galveston Wins Game

(By The Associated Press)

TODAY'S GAMES.
Fort Worth at San Antonio (night).
Oklahoma City at Houston (night).
Tulsa at Galveston (night).

Only games scheduled. The Stars nervously watched Napoleon's retreat from Moscow as they moved homeward today after a disastrous southern invasion of the Texas League.

Still kings of the loop, but by the paper-thin margin of one game, the Steers nervously watched the rocket-like climb of the Beaumont Shippers, who only last week shoved Houston out of second position.

George Gill, Beaumont right-hander, silenced the erstwhile booming bats of the Steers in a game at the port city last night. The score was 4 to 0. Gill allowed six hits. Curt Fullerton, with seven consecutive wins behind him, gave up only eight hits but they came Cullenbine rifled one over the fence with one on in the eighth.

The Houston Buffs, meanwhile, were finding much satisfaction in nosing out Oklahoma City, 8 to 7, in a catch-as-catch-can battle which lifted the Buffs into third place again. Not long ago the Buffs were leading the league, but their descent was swift.

As late as yesterday they were in fifth place. Jimmie McLeod has played ball three years in this league. Last night he got his first homer and with it came in two runs to give Galveston a victory over Tulsa's Oilers, 5 to 3.

Tulsa got its three runs in the third when Babe Howell and Stan Schino hit home runs. In every other inning Joe Gibbs blanked the visiting Tulsons.

Fort Worth's Cats took a well-played game from San Antonio, 3 to 2. Hal Wittke fork-handed pitches, went for only nine hits while Ash Hillin for San Antonio granted 13. Wittke won his own game with a single to center in the eleventh inning.

Hopkins Takes 21 to 4 Rout

The Hopkins ball team wore out three Kingsmill hurlers Sunday afternoon with a 21 to 4 victory on the Kingsmill diamond.

Lane Guthrie was stingy with his base hits as he went the full nine innings. His brother, Luma Guthrie, was behind the bat. Bones started on the mound for Kingsmill and lasted five innings. Sherman Morgan went three innings and Cody finished the game. M. Morgan was on the receiving end of the full nine.

Hopkins gathered 18 hits off the three pitchers, one a home run by R. Parker. Kingsmill could get to Guthrie for only five safe singles, one going for the circuit when R. Cantwell scored two runners ahead of him.

TWO NEGRO BALL GAMES WILL BE PLAYED HERE DURING WEEK

Two games between negro ball clubs will be played here this week. The opening battle will be called at 9:15 o'clock Thursday night with a June Tenth game at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. Admission will be 40 cents for men, 25 cents for women and 15 cents for children.

HOLE-IN-ONE PROVES TO BE RISKY 'BEESE' THIS TIME

By PAUL MCKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—John McKinley of Chicago joined the Associated hole-in-one club with 68 others this week but got stung for his achievement.

As John saw the little pellet drop into the cup on the 13th hole, a 175 yarder, at Westgate Country club, he ran to the green. As he bent over with pride to the ball, a bee stung him so severely on the leg that he had some difficulty getting back to the clubhouse.

Howie Roberts, vice-cracking philosopher of the Chicago Daily News, reported McKinley found a hole-in-one a "risky beesee."

With 69 new cases reported, the membership in the National Hole-In-One club reached 595 this week. New Hampshire joined when W. R. Rice of Claremont dropped his tee shot on the 130-yard 15th hole at Newport, leaving only Idaho and Nevada golfers still to report. Texas reported three more to run its leading total to 67, but California, catching up daily, was in second place and running strong with 42.

In the inter-city race for ace, Indianapolis turned in three new members to take the lead with 19 as against 17 each for Dallas and Fort Worth, the runners-up. Tom Smith of East Orange, N. J., shot the longest ace of the week, scoring one on the 280-yard fourth at the Colonial Country club, East Orange.

Other new members to report included: Don Schumacher, Dallas, 11th hole, 135 yards, Glen Lakes. (Second ace of year). R. E. Hendricks, Fort Worth, 6th hole, 166 yards, Colonial C. C. (Second ace of year). Eddie Connor, Dallas, 16th hole, 155 yards, Glen Lakes C. C. I. P. McClure, Dallas, 7th hole, 145 yards, Glen Lakes C. C.

MAYBE TO GIVE THREE NIGHTS TO TEXAS FANS

FIRST APPEARANCE SET FOR SAN ANTONIO NEXT MONDAY

BY FELIX E. MCKNIGHT,
Associated Press Sports Writer.
DALLAS, June 16. (AP)—Mr. Maximilian Baer, who wore out of farming after the camera boys wearied of snapping him astride a milking stool, will devote three evenings of his crowded "comeback" routine to Texans . . . "Comeback" fans may see him at San Antonio, Tyler, and Dallas.

The former butcher boy who night-clubbed his way off the heavy-weight throne, fought in San Antonio the evening of June 22, Tyler, June 23, and Dallas, July 2. His husker but younger brother, Buddy, does six rounds on all the cards.

The Baer boys fear no one . . . or vice versa. . . they told Promoter Godby Acker of Tyler they cared but little who he obtained to face them in Tyler. . . Plans were immediately laid to put Tom Beaupre, the Dallas sensation, and George Brown, the Houston slugger, into the ring with the brothers. . . Dick Griffin, Dallas promoter who holds the strings on Beaupre's mittens, says, however, he doesn't like a Baer match—Buddy or Maxie—for his protegee at this time.

Griffin, doing the Dallas promoting, is angling for Tony Canella to meet Maxie.

Lee (Hole-In-One) Hubby of Big Spring, whose feat of dropping three aces in one year was publicized by the Associated Press, is getting fan mail. . . Some of which he doesn't know how to answer. . . One recent letter asked for explicit information as to what club he used, how he held it, how he plays directly for the hole, etc.

Houston baseball fans, urged on by the chamber of commerce, have designated Wednesday night as "Tra Smith night" in honor of the aging Buff skipper. . . Fans figure his fine relief work on the mound, plus heavy handling of the club, is responsible for the good showing.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ,
Associated Press Sports Writer.
NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Right specialist Joe Louis will lick Max Schmeling at the Yankee stadium Thursday night and will immediately sign to meet James J. Braddock for the world's heavyweight title in September. . . If you have any doubt that you can get all the 3 to 1 money you want at a dozen Broadway spots. . . chances are it will be 4 to 1 by Thursday.

It is this corner's guess Joe will administer the old sleep producer within five rounds. . . If we had to bet on it, we'd take the fourth. . . It is our personal opinion Joe can pick his round after that.

Schmeling looks just fair. . . They say he is as good as ever. . . But as Cousin Paul Mickelson of the AMS points out, that ain't good enough. Max is older and slower. . . He's easy to hit. . . Even such elods as Heinz Kohlhass had no trouble landing right hand belts during the Napanoch training session. . . Schmeling thinks he has discovered Louis' weakness, but you can forget about that. . . Joe hasn't any.

Max has a lot to shoot for. . . If he beats Louis and then goes on to recapture the title from Braddock, Hitler will do everything but make him grand viceroy. . . He'll create a special cabinet portfolio for Max, putting him in charge of all sports in Germany. . . That wouldn't be half bad for a lad who was just a fighter's second less than a dozen years ago.

MAKO ELIMINATED
LONDON, June 16. (AP)—Gene Mako of Los Angeles, a member of the unsuccessful United States Davis Cup team, was eliminated today in the second round of the Queens club tennis tournament by G. R. B. Meredith, a Leicester county player, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4.

Indians, Lagging By Nine Games, Are Facing Shakeup

Radical Changes Are Threatened by Bradley

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

While the National league seems to be pretty well resigned to a two-club race with the Cardinals and Cubs in the leading roles, and with the Giants and Pirates acting as dangerous pursuers, the clubs in the American outfit are taking desperate steps to keep their contest a close one.

Even though the ability of the Yankees to stay in front is doubted, and the Red Sox haven't performed up to expectations, the efforts especially at Cleveland, are becoming rather frantic. Always a tough spot for managers and players who couldn't produce, the lake front city is on the verge of another shakeup unless the Indians begin to improve their position. They are now in fourth place, nine games behind the Yankees and trailing the world-champion Tigers by a half game.

As they returned home from a painful eastern tour last night, President Alva Bradley threatened some "radical changes" unless a change for the better was made. That apparently didn't concern Manager Steve O'Neill, for C. C. Slapnicka, Bradley's assistant, commented:

"More-Spirit Needed"
"Apparently a fuller is a fighter or he isn't and nothing Steve can do will change his nature. If the present Indians can't show more spirit we'll have to get some players who can."

A couple of changes in the lineup were due today as the Tribe opened a series with the Yankees, but not because of dissatisfaction. Hal Trosky, home run hitting first sacker, was laid on the shelf for a week because of a bruised shin and Billy Sullivan, the clotting young catcher, shifted to first. In addition Bruce Campbell, just recovered from his third attack of spinal meningitis, was due to return to the lineup.

With the deadline for interclub trading past, without any important last minutes developments, the Indians and all other clubs will have to look to the minors for any new material they need. Despite the usual blast of the trade winds just before the June 15 limit, the only recent deals of importance were the swap of Ben Chapman for Jake Powell between the Yankees and Senators and the Boston-Washington trade of Joe Casarella for Jack Russell.

The Yanks and Senators, both needing pitchers more than outfielders, won't be benefited materially by their deal but there's a chance Russell will be just what the doctor ordered for the Red Soxers. In Lefty Grove and Wes Ferrell, supported by Johnny Marcum and Fritz Osiermuller, the Yankees have had a fairly reliable staff of starting fingers, but when it came to relief work they've had to call upon that quartet for dependable results. And that's just where Russell shines.

GRID LINEUP READY
SEATTLE (AP)—Jimmy Phelan, grid coach at the University of Washington, has already selected his starting lineup for the opening game here next fall, when the Huskies tackle the Gophers of Minnesota. Max is older and slower. . . He's easy to hit. . . Even such elods as Heinz Kohlhass had no trouble landing right hand belts during the Napanoch training session. . . Schmeling thinks he has discovered Louis' weakness, but you can forget about that. . . Joe hasn't any.

ODDS ON LOUIS TO HURT GATE THURSDAY EVE

CROWD WILL NOT BE AS BIG AS JACOBS EXPECTED

NEW YORK, June 16. (AP)—Over-confidence may not affect the ability of Joe Louis to make relatively short work of Max Schmeling in their 15-round heavyweight match in the Yankee stadium this Thursday night but it has, relatively speaking, struck a blow at the gate receipts.

With the advance sale today going beyond the half-million mark, there is no danger of any of the parties involved losing money, but the "gate" is likely to fall considerably short of the goal of a million.

Even with a belated rush for the box offices the aggregate is unlikely to exceed $750,000, which means that Louis and Schmeling each may have to be satisfied with a paltry $200,000 for their efforts to entertain anywhere from 60,000 to 70,000 on-lookers.

Until the public rush developed an unexpected million dollar "gate" for the Louis-Baer fight last September, the first since depression days, anything like a half million dollars seemed just a dream to promoters. The punching power in the fists of Louis set the new boom going, revived the hope of confidence and made the business "million dollar conscious."

Originally Promoter Mike Jacobs scaled the stadium to handle a $1,250,000 house, at $40 top, for the Louis-Schmeling bout. The least of Mike's difficulties involved the disposal of the highest priced tickets. It's the apathy of the $5 and $10 customers that has affected the advance sale.

Published reports of a Jewish boycott of the fight, because Schmeling represents Nazi Germany, persists despite denials. The New York World-Telegram said business houses have been circled with appeals to refrain from patronizing the bout. To Joe Jacobs, Jewish manager of Schmeling, this is "all very silly."

With training camp activities winding up today, or both principals, the only development of possible consequence is an injury to Schmeling's right eye. The accident, minimized by the German's handlers and himself, nevertheless has not created any extra enthusiasm for Max's chances. Schmeling already is handicapped enough, in age, speed, and punching power.

The only hope for a surprise, so far as Schmeling is concerned, is that he will connect his strong right hand early enough to upset the Brown Bomber's methodical program. Max thinks he can tag Louis and find out, at least, whether the negro can "take it." The probable answer is that Joe can "take" anything the German has to offer, including his Sunday punch, and still arrange the outcome to suit himself.

Star Javelin Throwers Will Compete Friday

DALLAS, June 16. (AP)—Two of the nation's foremost javelin throwers will match toes here Friday night in an Emancipation day program which will bring two famed negro speedsters Ralph Metcalf and Eddie Tolan, to the Texas Centennial exposition.

The javelin wielders are Alton Terry of Hardin-Simmons university and D. C. O'Neill of Southern Methodist university. In the Drake relay this spring Terry shattered the American record. The S. M. U. freshman, in private trials, has bettered his rival's mark.

Metcalf and Tolan will arrive Monday, it was announced. Louisiana track and field stars, including performers from Louisiana State, Loyola, and Tulane, were expected Thursday morning. Texas schools were expected to enter 60 leading negro athletes.

LAWN PARTY AT CHURCH HONORS MINISTER AND WIFE

PROGRAM AND PICNIC SUPPER GIVEN MONDAY

REV. AND MRS. LANCASTER PRESENTED WITH GIFT

First Baptist church honored its minister, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, and Mrs. Lancaster at a party on the church lawn last evening. This month marks the close of another year of their work with the church.

Mrs. T. F. Morton was in charge of an informal program. Miss Katherine Barrett played piano numbers. Short talks of appreciation were made by various members of the church and representatives of the departments.

T. D. Alford, Sunday school superintendent made the presentation of a beautiful set of table linen, a gift from the church, to the honorees.

A basket lunch was served on tables arranged on the lawn.

P-TA Asked to Give Information

Information regarding Centennial pageants or other Centennial celebrations given this year in schools of Texas is sought by Miss Nora Myles, 1714 Fairmount Ave., Fort Worth, she has notified Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president of the eighth district Parent-Teacher association.

Miss Myles is collecting material for a paper on the subject and Mrs. Hunkapillar requests that schools in this district which have had celebrations send the information to her so the Panhandle district will be represented in her findings. The material should be sent directly to Miss Myles.

Sewing Club Meets With Mrs. Graham For Informal Hour

Chatterbox sewing club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Curtis Graham Friday afternoon. Conversation, sewing, and inspection of "rosebud" gifts occupied the hour. Sandwiches, pie, and tea were served to Meses. A. Heflin, A. C. Houchin, R. E. Shepherd, George Hancock, E. L. Emerson, Tony Balah, and L. L. Lockhart.

For the next meeting, June 26, Mrs. Heflin will be hostess in the home of Mrs. Paul Clifford.

GID'S IDENTITY SOUGHT
FORT WORTH, June 16. (AP)—Officers today sought to learn the identity of a young woman, partially paralyzed, who seems to be under the delusion that she is in Waco. She was found lying on a pallet beside Highway 1 just west of the city. She is about 35 years old and has brown hair and eyes.

Cross Children May Need Simple Laxative

When children are cross and touchy, give them Peen-a-mint, the delightful chewing gum laxative. Peen-a-mint begins its pleasant effect as soon as you start chewing it. For its stomach-settling mint brings a clean, fresh taste to the mouth. As you chew out the laxative ingredient which is absolutely tasteless, the flow of digestive juices is increased. The laxative is mixed with these juices and carried into the system evenly and gently. Peen-a-mint doesn't grip, nauseate or cause upset and is non-habit-forming. It passes through the stomach and into the bowels so efficiently that the action is wonderfully easy and thorough. Try the pleasant, refreshing Peen-a-mint way. Doctors prescribe its laxative ingredient for both children and adults. Sold on a money back guarantee. Generous family size package 15c and 25c.

REPORT OF CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST
Report of the annual meeting of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass., June 8, 1936:

BOSTON, Mass., June 8.—An appeal to Christian Scientists to work for the demonstration of World Peace, the reading of reports by church officers on the various activities of the movement throughout the world and sustained demand for the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, marked the annual meeting today of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Election of Mrs. Elizabeth Cadwell Tomlinson of Boston as president of The Mother Church was announced. She succeeds Dr. Frank C. Colby, Mrs. Tomlinson was born in Byron, Wisconsin. After graduating from St. Helen's Hall, a well-known Episcopalian private school, she received a remarkable healing in Christian Science which brought her into the practice of this religion.

She was at one time designated as appointed by the Governor of Oregon to a conference of women's organizations in Paris. In 1914 she was in London, England, at the outbreak of the World War and did service under Mrs. Herbert Hoover in relief activities.

Approximately 6000 Christian Scientists representing every state in the Union and practically every civilized nation in the world attended the meeting. The main floor and three galleries were filled with in a short time after the church doors were opened, the overflow being accommodated in the original Mother Church where amplifiers were installed.

The Board of Lectureship carried the four corners of the globe, delivering 311 lectures with an attendance of approximately three million persons. Ten lectures were given in Africa, 59 in Australasia, 17 in Hawaii, China, Japan, Java, Ceylon and India, one in the City of Mexico, 17 in South America, 9 in Bermuda, Canal Zone and West Indies, 225 in Great Britain and Ireland, 104 in continental Europe and Scandinavia, and 2669 in Canada, the United States and Alaska.

The fruitage of Christian Science in healing all manner of disease and disorder was attested in selected testimonials read by Mrs. Jennie H. Jarvis.

As Manager of Committees on Publication, C. Augustus Norwood disclosed that through the publication of religious items and the radio-casting of religious programs and news comments from The Christian Science Monitor, friendly relationships have been established with about 2000 newspapers and 300 radio stations. Through these contacts some 150,000 friendly and constructive news items were published, while more than 6000 religious programs and 60,000 radio-casts of Monitor news were put on the air during the year.

ICE CREAM IS IDEAL DESSERT TO MAKE, EAT
Mint Ice, Chocolate Sauce Is Good, Different

By MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

Many believe Dolly Madison, who was such a charming American First Lady, served the first ice cream in the world at one of her famous dinners. Others claim that an inspired negro chef served frozen custards to his patrons even before the sparkling Madam Madison delighted her guests.

I lean to the Dolly Madison theory because I like Dolly. But whoever thought it up was a benefactor. Ice cream is one of the easiest desserts to make. You fix it in the morning and slip it in the freezing unit until dinner time or you pack it in ice and salt in the right proportions and freeze according to your preferred method, then pack it again to ripen until wanted.

Powders Simplify Making
If you use one of the excellent ice cream powders on the market the preparation is done according to the direction on the package and the whole is finished in a twinkling. If you freeze ice cream with a crank you never have difficulty about texture but when you use a vacuum pack method or the mechanical refrigerator you must be very careful about the amount of sugar and the denseness of the liquid. Pure cream makes a smooth texture but produces too rich a dessert for everyday use.

The ice cream powders take care of this problem and produce a frozen cream of deliciously smooth texture and delectable flavor.

One of the best combinations of flavors is a mint ice cream or rich parfait with chocolate sauce. A dessert of this kind enables you to start your meal with a refreshing fruit cup or to serve a fruit salad.

Mint Parfait
One large bunch of mint, 1 cup

Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST—Sliced peaches, cereal, cream, fish hash, breakfast radishes, bran muffins, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Eggplant baked with tomato sauce and cheese, toasted muffins, apple float, milk, tea.
DINNER: Tomato juice cocktail, veal birds, stuffed green peppers, buttered asparagus, fresh fruit salad, mint parfait with chocolate sauce, macaroons, milk, coffee.

sugar, whites 2 eggs, 1 pint whipping cream, few grains salt, green vegetable coloring.
Cut mint finely and put into a large bowl. Make a syrup of sugar and 1-2 cup water and pour over mint. Cover closely and let stand one hour. Strain. Beat whites of eggs until stiff and beat in mint syrup. Fold in cream which has been whipped until firm. Add salt and a drop or two of green coloring and turn into mold or freezing trays. Freeze without turning in eight parts ice to one part ice cream salt.

Plans June Bridal

It is to be a short engagement for Virginia Vanderlip, heiress to Frank A. Vanderlip's great banking fortune. Her wedding has been set for June 26, little more than two weeks after announcement in New York of her betrothal to Dudley Schoales, former Cornell football star.

Birthday Surprise Is Given Mr. Kelly In Home at Merten
A surprise birthday party was given Pete Kelly at his home on Merten lease Saturday evening, when a group of friends called with sandwiches, ice cream, cake, and punch for a supper. Bridge games furnished entertainment.

Present were Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Clasby, John Kelly, Alva Phillips, C. B. Haney, E. M. Heard, Bruce, and Pete Kelly.

chocolate drinks, too, and may be kept in a closely covered container in the refrigerator.

Bilious Spells
In bilious spells, one of the first things to do is to take a dose of Black-Draught to relieve the attending constipation. You can rely on Black-Draught whenever a laxative is needed.

Mr. T. L. Austin, of McAdenville, N. C., tells of having used Black-Draught for a long time. "There is a box full on my mantle, now," he writes. "I take it for biliousness. If I did not take it, the dullness and headaches would put me out of business. It is the quickest medicine to relieve me."

Black-Draught is purely vegetable. It is one of the most economical laxatives. Sold in 25-cent packages containing 25 doses.

Monk Rasputin Without Power In '17, Claim

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP)—A picture of Rasputin kissing an ikon and forsaking his supposed eleventh hour dominance of the crumbling regime of the Romanoffs stood today in the record of a $100,000 libel-suit.

The suit was brought by Sergius Trufanoff, known in czarist days as Illadore, against Rene-Fulop Miller, author of "Rasputin, the Holy Devil," and the book's publishers.

Illadore, a short, well-built man luttin, said he became convinced of Rasputin's evil character and preferred charges against him at a meeting of the hierarchy of the church.

At this meeting, he testified, Rasputin kissed the ikon and swore to retire from the court of the czar.

Illadore, a short, well built man with deep set eyes and an imperial beard, said he met Rasputin in 1909 and was impressed by his "saintliness and holiness because the czar believed so much in him."

His attorney asserted that the book, first published in 1928, pictured Illadore as a forger, seducer, and a filthy mouthed, vicious, disreputable person.

Defense counsel denied this charge and said it would prove all statements in the book to be true.

The fruitage of Christian Science in healing all manner of disease and disorder was attested in selected testimonials read by Mrs. Jennie H. Jarvis.

As Manager of Committees on Publication, C. Augustus Norwood disclosed that through the publication of religious items and the radio-casting of religious programs and news comments from The Christian Science Monitor, friendly relationships have been established with about 2000 newspapers and 300 radio stations.

Through these contacts some 150,000 friendly and constructive news items were published, while more than 6000 religious programs and 60,000 radio-casts of Monitor news were put on the air during the year.

Card of Thanks

EXPRESSION OF THANKS

Words seem so empty and meaningless with which to express our deep gratitude and sincere appreciation for the expressions of sympathy shown us at the death of our loved one. We want each of you to know that God's full measure will be amply meted out to each of you in return and will dissipate the clouds of sorrow that darken some day for you. And may His richest blessings be upon each of you and our heartfelt thanks will ever go out to you.

Copeland Will Take a Walk to Medical Meeting

WASHINGTON, June 16, (AP)—Senator Copeland (D-NY) said today he intended to "take a walk to the national medical society convention" at Cleveland while the Democratic National convention, to which he was elected a delegate, is meeting in Philadelphia next week.

"I'm going to the medical society convention because I think I'll have a better time and do more good there," he said in an interview. "Therefore I'm going to take a walk the other way to the medical society meeting."

Copeland said he had not talked with former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York about any joint move to walk out of the Democratic meeting. According to reports from New York, Smith has made no train reservation for the trip to Philadelphia, although he was elected a delegate at the April primaries.

Senator Copeland has been out of step several times with the New Deal measures and has voted consistently, among other things, against ratification of the St. Lawrence seaway treaty. Soon after the Roosevelt regime began it was

Texas Legends and Folklore

By Olive M. Johnson, Director of Speech Arts North Texas State Teachers College

Our Duty in Preserving Our Folklore

Texas legends furnish an inexhaustible supply of material for artists, authors, poets, and dramatists. They await the hand of a Washington Irving, a Whittier or a Joel Chandler Harris to turn them into imperishable literature. The outlook is heartening, for there is a growing interest in native literature. Professor J. Frank Doble of the University of Texas, Prof. John Lee Brooks at Southern Methodist university, and Dr. Rebecca Smith of Texas Christian university are encouraging the study of folklore and of the literature of the southwest.

There is yet to be unearthed a mass of material on the life, manners, customs, beliefs, and institutions of the southwest. There are unrecorded cowboy songs, negro songs, games, old field lore, tales of the border Mexicans, of rangers, of Jean LaFitte, the Robin Hood of the Seas, and of legendary heroes like Strap Buckner, Jesse Holmes, Paul Bunyan, Mustang Gray, and Pecos Bill.

There are customs, superstitions, weather signs, yarns about birds and snakes, Indian myths and legends, the origin of place names, and lore of the high plains, the Gulf coast, and the brush country. Surely, as Dryden said of Chaucer's tales, "Here is God's plenty!"

It would be a very great pity if such interesting native culture should be allowed to sink into oblivion. This lore is an integral part of Texas and should be preserved for future generations. It is plainly our duty to record these fleeting traditions before time has effaced them, and this duty we conceive to be one of the greatest obligations and opportunities of the Texas Centennial.

OIL NEWS AND NOTES

OIL INCREASE REPORTED

TULSA, June 16 (AP)—An increase of 26,982 barrels daily in the nation's production of oil for the week ending June 13 was reported today by the Oil and Gas Journal. Total daily production was 2,969,639.

In Oklahoma the production increased 19,800 to a total of 567,250 barrels daily while in East Texas the output decreased 6,799 barrels to 439,755 barrels daily.

The entire state of Texas showed a decrease, 5,854 barrels, to a total of 1,147,700 barrels daily and in Louisiana the production of 75,145 barrels daily was a decrease of 3,875 barrels daily from the preceding week.

Kansas production was up 16,165 barrels daily, totaling 152,325 barrels.

Eastern fields, including Michigan, increased production 1,604 barrels daily, totaling 14,011 barrels. California production increased 3,000 barrels daily to a total of 583,000 barrels.

In the rocky Mountain area there was a decrease of 1,630 barrels daily to 57,540 barrels.

Gas Production Drops

AUSTIN, June 16 (AP)—The engineering department of the Railroad commission reported today that Texas production of dry natural gas continues to decline.

The decrease, which during April averaged 14.7 per cent compared with the previous month, was attributed to a seasonal decline in demand from pipelines and a reduction in the volume stripped and blown into the air.

In April 1,520,516,000 cubic feet were produced in the state as against 1,788,250,000 in March. Similar comparative figures for the Panhandle, chief producing area, were 1,181,847,000 and 1,428,230,000 cubic feet.

"The per cent of dry gas stripped to the air has continued to decline since the first of the year and in April amounted to only 2 of 1 per cent of the total dry gas production," the report said.

"The decrease in the volume of dry natural gas processed in gas-line plants has been in part offset by an increase in the consumption of casinghead gas. In almost all districts, there has, in the past few months, been an increase in the number of wells producing casing head gas which have been connected to gasoline plants.

"The volume of gas blown into the air from gasoline plants amounted to 95,125,000 cubic feet for the Panhandle and 175,381,000 cubic feet for the state during April, compared to 23,569,000 cubic feet and 214,772,000 cubic feet respectively, for March.

Carbon black plants consumed 5,632,000 cubic feet of residue gas daily during April, while estimated daily recovery for the plants was 836,600 pounds of carbon black.

Chinese Effort For Peace Wins 3-Way Support

(By The Associated Press)

Chinese authorities, representing both the central government of Nanking and the southwest council at Canton, acted today to preserve peace between the north and south and to prevent hostile demonstrations against Japan.

The peace move of the Chinese was supplemented by three foreign nations, the United States, Great Britain, and Japan, who held warships in readiness at Shanghai.

The presence of the warships, was reported to have given Shanghai residents a feeling of security.

Military authorities at Nanking disclosed that a peace discussion was under way in human province between representatives of Nanking and Canton.

Troops of the southern provinces, which have called on Nanking to fight against further Japanese penetration in China, were reported to have halted their demonstrative march against the north.

G. O. P. Big-Wigs Arrange 3-Hour Dash by Landon

TOPEKA, Kan., June 16, (AP)—A campaign plan embracing three tours about the country for Governor Alf M. Landon was high on the agenda today as the republican presidential campaign opened a council door to Col. Frank Knox, his running mate, and a score of the party's high command.

The governor considered opening his drive with a speech at his birthplace, West Middlesex, Pa.

FDR EXPECTED TO AGAIN URGE TAX MEASURE

ADJOURNMENT WILL BE HASTENED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, June 16, (AP)—A week-long tax conference today gave rise to talk on Capitol Hill that President Roosevelt might again discuss the controversial measure with conferees in order to hasten the adjournment gavel.

Indicative of the desire to wind up the 74th congress before the start of the Democratic National convention next week was the action of house leaders in keeping the chamber in sessions until after 10:30 last night but taxes remained a stumbling block.

Senate-House conferees on the revenue bill yesterday looked into a dozen more proposals designed to strike a middle road between house provisions calling for a graduated tax up to 42 per cent of undistributed corporate dividends and the flat 7 per cent in the senate bill. After a two hour session was over without any indication of accord, there arose the possibility that Mr. Roosevelt would talk again with the conferees. Democratic members discussed the subject with the chief executive before he left the capital for his western trip. "We didn't agree on anything," said Senator King (D-Utah) after he and other senate democratic conferees went over various tax plans to "see where the revenue would come from."

Chapter 34. NO CONFESSION. "I've been an awful care to you."

Hope said to Dirk. "I've been your responsibility all along. It was you I came to see that first night. If you hadn't gone to Jersey, and spoken to me, I shouldn't have come."

"Thank you for thinking my motive was right. It was always you I was thinking of... as in the case of wiring your father."

"I believe that. I believe it was partly, maybe mostly, that I didn't believe it... I never thought of such a thing... until just now. Before last night... there were times when I hated you."

"That was why I came to you." He said quickly. "But you talked to Rupert."

"I thought there'd been a mistake—still the low voice. "I thought Chow had made a mistake. I thought I'd never see you again."

"From what, Hope?" more gently. His blood was racing with the thing she had said a moment before... about that first night at the circus, about wanting to follow him. If he could make her say all, tell all!

"Of course," after a pause. Dirk wished that he might accept the peace of mind she was so plainly striving to bestow.

"You don't mean," he said, "that you are out of danger yourself?" "Of course," she answered.

Dirk lifted the brown, platinum-ringed hand to his lips. He didn't

MINISTER AND WOMAN BEATEN BY ARKANSANS

RUMORED SLAYING WAS BEING PROBED BY COUPLE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 16 (AP)—A prominent young Memphis woman charged today that she and a Presbyterian minister were flogged last night near Earle, Ark., where they had gone to investigate a rumored slaying.

Miss Willie Sue Blagden, 23-year-old member of a prominent Memphis family, told officers that she and the Rev. Claude Williams of Little Rock were beaten by a band of men when they refused to reveal the name of the man they had gone to Earle to interview.

Miss Blagden said she was struck four times across the back and thighs with a heavy leather strap studded with brads and that her companion was lashed 14 times.

After the flogging, she asserted, she was put in a bag for Memphis and she did not know what had become of the man, identified by her as a member of the Religion and Labor Foundation. She expressed fear that he might be badly hurt.

A doctor, who asked that his name be withheld, said he examined Miss Blagden and found three bruises about five inches wide across her back and thighs.

Miss Blagden said that she and the Rev. Williams had gone to the Arkansas town in an effort to determine if Frank Weyens, negro tenant farmer, had been beaten fatally in an altercation growing out of the eastern Arkansas cotton strike.

Miss Blagden's mother, Mrs. Oia Blagden, said her daughter was a secretary for Fanny Hurst, the New York novelist, and said she was home on a visit.

The cotton strike was called in eastern Arkansas several weeks ago by the Tenant Union, an organization not affiliated with the A. F. of L. The walkout has been accompanied by charges and counter charges of violence and denial of civil liberties. Workers seek a $1.50 daily wage.

OLD AGE LAW HIT AT BY CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

SALT LAKE CITY, June 16, (AP)—Maxie Baer was back on the comeback trail today, but far from fit to encounter leading heavyweights. Opening an announced drive to regain title honors and the finances that go with them, the former heavyweight champion, downed, boxed and slugged through six rounds last night to win a referee's decision over Tony Souza, 220-pound California boxer.

Baer, weighing 226—with excess poundage around the beltline—dropped Souza for three short counts in the fifth round, but failed to follow up his advantage. He also floored the coast-battler in the second round.

Except for the two short bursts of punching, Baer was content to jaw and duck, and Souza tried in vain to land his punches.

said, "I would know every one of those men if I saw them again." Williams, at his home in Little Rock, asserted he was beaten in four or five spells and struck more than 20 times. "Five men beat me while another remained in an automobile," he said. "I am blood-shot and black and blue. The insult is unbearable. I wouldn't have believed my native South could tolerate such conditions."

ers, better parents, better children and better citizens." Generally speaking, if there is any better all-around policy than that one—it has not yet come to our attention. A visitor to our office late Monday was Frank Reeves, Jr., son of the Chuck Wagon Gossip column conductor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. The younger Mr. Reeves set his plane down at Pampa airport yesterday afternoon and took off this forenoon. Accompanied by A. D. Hatch, another Fort Worth aviator, he has been barnstorming through Texas. They flew here from Shamrock. Used to be, folks came into town to trade horses. Reeves, junior, told me he "just flew in to Pampa for a little hangar flying" and to try to trade airplanes." Reeves, known here for his excellent photography in the Pampa-Amarillo football game two years ago, still has newspaper leanings. Right now he has a pip of an idea which he hopes to work out—that of becoming a "flying reporter," a stunt that is being worked successfully on a number of the larger northern papers. Young Mr. Reeves is another shining example of Texas hospitality. His dad may not like it, but before leaving, Frank, Jr., invited us to be his father's guest in the event we get down Fort Worth way. At least, we most certainly intend to look him up and tell him that we think he has a right splendid son flying around the air-lanes. Robert Lee Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, underwent a tonsillectomy at Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

United States senate seat now held by White. In the first congressional district, James C. Oliver, backed by both the Townsend forces and Coughlin's national union for social justice, won by nearly 5,000 votes from his nearest competitor. In the democratic first district contest, however, Representative Simon M. Hamlin won renomination on the basis of complete unofficial returns, defeating Joseph W. Connolly, 38, state representative backed by the Coughlin organization. The returns gave Hamlin 3,643 votes to 3,598 for Connolly and political observers said a demand for a recount was probable.

"The newspapers seem to say that you, Mr. Attorney General, have given a free hand in these matters to the local United States Attorney (Rene A. Viosca), and we realize that you must, in the magnitude of your duties, rely in large measure upon others. But it is significant that these same press reports uniformly give emphasis to the statement that the department of the secretary of the treasury strongly disapproves."

ROARING WIDE OPEN! Fred Jacoby, Jr., outboard motor-boat champion, says: "Camels make food taste better and help me get the good out of what I eat." A CASHIER HAS TO BE fast, accurate, pleasant. Miss Travis Lander, shown at the ticket window, says: "I like to smoke at mealtime. Camels help my digestion." A SUGGESTION At mealtime, try Camels yourself and see why smokers say "For Digestion's sake—smoke Camels" Science confirms the truth of the popular phrase "For Digestion's sake... Smoke Camels" Scientists have found that Camels promote well-being by stimulating the flow of the digestive fluids... alkaline digestive fluids... necessary for good digestion. Often fatigue, worry, excitement, nervousness—all interfere with this digestive flow. Camels restore and increase it, thus assisting digestion to proceed normally and healthfully. With their finer, costlier tobaccos, Camels give mildness a new meaning. They do not get on your nerves or rasp your throat. Make Camels your smoke—for their cheery "lift"... for digestion's sake. Camels set you right. BEST-DRESSED GOLFER. Johnny Farrell was voted the best-dressed golfer at the National Open Championship matches for a number of years. He says: "A Camel puts me on the top of the world. Camels aid my digestion." Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCO—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
