Chicago—100 to 110-degree heat wave intensifies drought's ravages in midwest wheat belt. Winnipeg, Man.—Wheat prices hit peak of three-day advance and drop slightly.

CHICAGO, July 4. (AP)—The season's most intense and widespread drought has rolled over the midwest today as the "critical period" for a major segment of the nation's food producing areas neared its first week's end.

Remember that recent earthquake that shook the Panhandle Plains area and you have the surprise of your life? Well, word comes from Lubbock that it was no surprise to Miss Florence Robertson, graduate student in physics at Texas Technological college.

Miss Robertson entered the news room of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche at 8:40 o'clock on the night of the quake and said, "there ought to be some kind of an earth disturbance in the Panhandle within 45 minutes."

At 9:25 o'clock the tremor was felt over a section extending from Liberal, Kans., to Pampa, Borger, and Amarillo—just 45 minutes after Miss Robertson made her prediction.

Miss Robertson said the shocks attest to both the theoretical and practical value of recent experiments in weather forecasting she and Dr. E. F. George, head of Tech's physics department, had made.

ONE OF FIRST PANHANDLE OIL DRILLERS DIES

Ellinger Is Taken by Death in LeFors Residence

William Henry Ellinger, 69, the man who drilled one of the first producing wells in the Panhandle, died Friday afternoon at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Bert Walsh of LeFors. Mr. Ellinger came here from Odessa to meet a sister, whom he had not seen in many years.

In December 1921, Mr. Ellinger signed a contract with a group of Panhandle citizens which called for the drilling of a test well 3 1/2 miles northwest of Kingsmill in Carson county. The location was made in the southwest corner of the southwest quarter of section 20, block 3, I&GN survey, and drilling in the Tipton-McCannell well began in March 1922. After many setbacks, gas pay was reached at about 2,500 feet and the test completed for about 15,000,000 cubic feet a day.

Finishing of gas in the area started an intensive leasing campaign but it was not until several years later that extensive drilling started. Later, the well drilled by Mr. Ellinger was

RAIDS NET DOZEN ARRESTS

WILL CONTINUE TO RAID NIGHT SPOTS, CLAIM

A week-end holiday sweep by Gray county and Pampa law enforcement agencies kept officers busy Friday and Saturday nights and resulted in arrests of more than a dozen persons, bringing the county jail population to its highest point in many months.

A combined raiding squad of sheriff's officers, city police and a trio of constables made a systematic round of the city's night spots last night and the night before, checking on holiday celebrations, fulfilling a recent promise for united action against various types of offenders in all quarters of the city.

The clean-up squad, active on both Friday and Saturday nights, was comprised of Deputy Sheriffs O. T. Lindsey, Ben Lockhart, and George A. Inman, Police Chief Art Hurst, Patrolmen Jeff Gutrie and Spencer Crossman, Constable O. E. Stewart, of LeFors, and Constables Earl Lewis and Jim Sullivan, of Pampa.

The biggest haul in the city-wide raiding came on Friday night when the raiding party started its tour of saloons, hotels, rooming houses, cafes and dance spots at 11 p. m. Pushing through town and visiting most of the known resorts the triple-enforced brigade of officers continued its search until 2 a. m. Saturday, according to Deputy Sheriff Lindsey.

Persons who fell into the net included men charged with vagrancy, intoxication, disturbing the peace, and assault and battery.

A result of the concerted drive, the population of Gray county jail had been swelled Saturday to 34 inmates, including major and minor offenders, some awaiting trial, some held for non-payment of fines and still others awaiting action of the court.

A partial list of alleged offenders who had been arranged in justice courts Saturday afternoon included the following: Roy Smith, vagrancy, pleaded guilty, fined $1 and costs.

W. M. Woods, disturbing the peace, pleaded guilty, fined $100 and costs.

J. H. Jester, vagrancy, pleaded not guilty, bond set at $100.

Frank Slav, pleaded not guilty to charges of disturbing the peace and assault and battery, bond fixed at $50.

Barton Summs, vagrancy, pleaded guilty, fined $15.

C. E. Porter, intoxication, pleaded guilty, fined $15.

All of these men were arranged before Justice of the Peace E. F. Young Saturday. Two others held on an alleged theft charge were

JAPANESE-PAID SPY LIKELY TO GET 20 YEARS

TRIAL TO BE CALLED MONDAY MORNING IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, July 4. (AP)—The mark of the spy is left on the United States fleet.

The Japanese paid spy, Harry Thomas Thompson, is behind jail bars awaiting the call Monday morning before the U. S. district court here for sentence. The sentence probably will be 20 years in federal prison. He was convicted yesterday of violating the Espionage act.

All along the Pacific coast visitors today to vessels of the United States fleet find certain bars of restriction up against them because of the case.

The spy operated for nine months, June 1934 to March 1935, while Admiral Joseph Mason Reeves was commander-in-chief of the United States fleet.

The tightest net of secrecy, the most rigid censorship, the most severe restrictions of visitors ever in force on the fleet were placed by Admiral Reeves. Now it is found that the placing of these restrictions followed the navy's discovery of the operations of the spy. He even operated on Admiral Reeves' flagship, the dreadnaught Pennsylvania.

For a time all visitors were barred from the fleet. For a time Reeves had an order in force in which no movement of any vessel of the fleet was permitted to be announced. All anti-aircraft guns and all fighting instruments and gadgets above decks were covered in canvas. Naval guards were trebled throughout the ship with limited visiting was again permitted.

Semi-Pro Club Leads South Section of State

How does South Texas baseball compare with that played in the Panhandle?

Panhandle fans will have an opportunity to find out on Monday and Tuesday nights when the "rasc" Southern Pacific Railroad team from Houston comes here for games with the Pampa-Daniger Road Runners. Game time both nights will be 8:30 o'clock, with no increase admission.

The Houston semi-pro team is leading that section of the state, having won from the best in the class. Several of the Texas league teams had trouble with the Railroaders in pre-season games.

With the Railroaders will be Ray Sawyer, who used to play his baseball with Coltexo of LeFors and Amarillo. During that time, Ray was a first baseman. Now he is one of the best pitchers in the circuit. He is undefeated in six starts this season. The former Panhandle star also takes his turn at first base and in right field.

Manager Hartwick of the Houston team is a former Western league star. He is one of the leading hitters on the team and leads the center field territory.

On first base for the visitors will be a big lefthander by the name of McConnell, who had a trial with the Giants this spring. He was sent to the Texas league but joined the semi-pro club instead of sticking with professional baseball.

Viebig, at second base, is one of the best looking big league prospects not in organized baseball, scouts have declared. He played three years of baseball at Texas university under Bill Dusch and is now one of his assistants.

Shortstop Higgins is the players with the great throwing arm. He has had trials in professional ball but prefers to play in semi-pro circles.

Cunningham, at third base, started the season with the Houston Buffs. He is a good fielder and hard hitter.

One of the leading hitters of the league is Pompell, who patrols the left field grounds.

Another slugger is Andrus, right fielder. He is the fielding gem of the team.

Catcher Hoffman is a 200-pounder with an arm like a sling shot. He bats lefthanded and is leading the team in hitting this season.

The Railroaders hurling staff includes three righthanders and two leftsiders. Parish and Schroeder are the fast ball pitchers. Pfardrecher is leading the staff in earned run average for the season. All three throw from the right side. Sawyer and Parks are the left-handers on the team.

Tollis, utility player, and Edgerley, second baseman, round out the team that will meet the fast-stepping Red Sox tomorrow and Tuesday nights.

The Road Runners will test the strength of Oklahoma City's leading team on Friday night when the Phillips 66 Gassers of Oklahoma City play a single game here.

The Gassers are leading the Oklahoma City commercial league with eight wins and no losses. Included in the win column for the season are a pair of victories over the Eason Oilers of Enid, Okla.

Nine players on the club have professional experience in the background. Al Jennings, former Texas league star, is manager of the team. The veteran takes his turn on the mound with the rest of the hurling staff.

while Pat McLaughlin pitched and batted the Exporters to victory in the nightcap, 3 to 2.

First game: Houston 600 000 000—6 9 2 Beaumont 134 000 11x—10 12 0 Copeland and Moore; Franks and Conroy; Twardy and Cook and Tebbets.

Second game: Houston 000 000 2—2 Beaumont 002 000 1—3 Lyons and Conroy; McLaughlin and Lorber.

Other games late night.

8,000 ATTEND ANVIL PARK'S FOURTH RODEO

BILL VAN VACTOR IS NAMED OUTSTANDING ATHLETE

(Special to THE NEWS)

CANADIAN, July 4.—Canadian's 14th Anvil Park rodeo which closed yesterday was the greatest in history. A total of 8,000 spectators overflowed the grounds and stands yesterday. More than 3,000 attended Friday.

The rodeo was undoubtedly the greatest exhibition of sports of the Old West ever held in the Panhandle. The huge crowds not only had ropers, riders and bulldozers to amuse and thrill them, but there were clowns, high school horses and mules, and trick riders.

The outstanding rodeo athlete of the show was disclosed yesterday by judges as Bill Van Vactor who starred in bulldogging and calf roping. His three-day record was used as a basis for the award. Pete Forrest of Calgary, Canada, was named the greatest bronk rider of the rodeo on the same basis. Eddie Cain of Perryton was named second and Frank Martz of Midland, third. Buddy Elison was named the best calf-roping of the show.

Hundreds thronged a dance last night at the city auditorium where Arvil Schneider's orchestra furnished the music. Old timers danced the old tunes, and fiddlers competed in a contest before the modern dance began at 10 o'clock.

In an address at the rodeo yesterday, Floyd Studer, past tribey, to the great history of Texas in a stirring Centennial address. Dr. C. E. Pyeat and eight of his mounted Boy Scouts from Cheyenne, Okla., were an added attraction the last day. Jack Eilesey of Wolf Creek and his famous horse, Pony Grey, fascinated the crowds with realistic acting. Tad Lucas trick rider gave her act, and Virgil Stapp, clown, and his superbly educated mule amused the audiences.

Winners of yesterday's events:

Calf roping, Landsey Montgomery, 17 4-5 seconds; Bill Van Vactor, second; Tex Doyle, third.

Bronk riding, Pete Forrester, Tex Doyle and Eddie Cain.

Bull dogging, Bill Van Vactor, 10 2-5 seconds; Tex Doyle.

HELEN JACOBS WINS ENGLISH TENNIS TITLE

CAPTURES WIMBLEDON FINALS FROM SPERLING

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (AP)—Over the same center sod Wimbledon court where her greatest hopes of the past lay buried in defeat and heartaches, Helen Hull Jacob's dream of winning the elusive all-England and tennis championship came true at last today.

Defeated, crushed and disappointed four times in the past as she stood on the very threshold of her first American championship came through at last to win the coveted crown and to extend her tennis reign to two continents by defeating Frau Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling of Germany and Denmark, 6-2, 4-6, 7-5, in the final round.

Eighteen thousand spectators, keen to catch the drama of Miss Jacobs' final success, released their pent-up emotions to give her probably the greatest and most wholehearted ovation Wimbledon ever will know as the grueling match ended in victory for the girl who has tried so hard and so often to win England's classic title.

She was given another tumultuous ovation later when she returned to play for the doubles championship with Mrs. Sarah Paley Fabyan against the British duo of Kay Stammers and Freda James. The British pair easily won, 6-2, 6-1, partly because of Miss Jacobs' utter fatigue, but the crowd didn't care.

WORLD'S MARK IN POLE VAULT SET AT MEET

VAROFF SOARS TO 14 FEET, 4 3/4 INCHES, NEW RECORD

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor PRINCETON, N. J., July 4. (AP)—America's foremost track and field athletes girded themselves for the coming Olympic battle by waging a spectacular fight today for national A. U. senior championships for the benefit of a crowd of 20,000 holiday enthusiasts.

Paced by such mighty performers as Jesse Owens, Forrest (Spec) Towns, Glenn Hardin and the redoubtable Don Lash, the all-star onslaught upon time and distance produced record-making performances in eight of the 22 events of the title program, witnessed the downfall of eight champions in the individual competition, and hoisted a new satellite to the athletic skies in George Varoff, blond pole-vaulter of San Francisco's Olympic club.

Varoff, 22-year-old janitor who risked the loss of his job by coming east after qualifying at Los Angeles for the Olympic tryouts, soared to a new world record of 14 feet, 4 3/4 inches.

Varoff topped the listed world mark of 14 feet, 4 3/8 inches, set four ago by Southern California's Bill Graber.

Varoff will make his bid for the Olympic team in the final tryouts next week-end at Randall's Island Stadium, New York, along with the other stars who made today's athletic show one of the best in A. U. history.

Jesse Owens accomplished two stylish triumphs. After out-running his Marquette rival, Ralph Metcalfe by a yard to capture the 100 meter dash in 10 3/4 seconds, equaling the meet record, Owens returned to the board-jump pit and cleared 25 feet, 3 inches to annex his second championship.

Lash, following his record-smashing victory in the 10,000 meter run last evening, captured his second national title and remove any lingering doubt he is America's premier distance runner by scoring another record-breaking triumph in the 5,000 meters.

Lash broke the tape for the distance, slightly more than three miles, in 15 minutes, 4 3/4 seconds. This was considerably behind the world record of 14:17 held by Finland's 1932 Olympic champion, but good enough to wipe out the championship mark of 15:14.1 set last year by Joe McCluskey.

Why You Should Own An Electric Refrigerator

Three times a day—every time you sit down to a meal—the reasons why you should own an electric refrigerator are before you, for nothing is more important in your life than the food you eat. But—after only a day or two, food that looks, smells and tastes perfectly natural may be entirely unfit to eat because of the presence of millions of bacteria that have been permitted to develop due to inadequate refrigeration.

Actual tests have shown that the most perishable foods keep fresh and wholesome for days in an electric refrigerator which insures correct temperatures of 50 degrees and lower, even in the hottest summer weather. Electric refrigerators have been tried and proven in the hottest Texas summers and they have the reverse refrigerating capacity necessary to keep food fresh and appetizing.

BLACKFACES NOSE OUT ROAD RUNNERS IN 10 INNINGS IN BORGER BATTLE

AL SUMMERS AND HALE ARE HURT IN TILTS

LEDFORD HOLDS HUBER CREW FOR EIGHT STANZAS

The Huber Blackfaces of Borger took a holiday attraction from the Pampa-Danger Roadrunners, 5 to 4 in 10 innings, in Borger. The previous night the birds swamped the Blackfaces, 9 to 5, here.

Although they won and lost, the games cost the Road Runners. On Friday night Manager Sam Hale, third baseman, was struck on the wrist by a pitched ball which kept him out of the holiday game. Yesterday, the Pampans lost Al Summers, second baseman, when he was run over by Spencer, Borger shortstop, who charged him. Summers had touched second to get Spencer and was in the act of throwing to first for a double play, which would have given Pampa the game, when the Borger shortstop charged him high. Summers was hurried to the ground and had to be carried from the field with an injured knee.

The tying run was scored when Summers was unable to make the double killing. The Road Runners failed to score in their half of the tenth. Borger came through to win the game when Huffman tripled with one away and scored on Eash's single.

For eight innings big Gene Ledford had the Blackfaces eating out of his hand. He had allowed only two runs and seven hits going into the ninth. Wilson opened the inning with a single to right. Brown, batting for Dingman, singled to center. Daily singled to center scoring Wilson. Brown being held on second. Daney relieved Ledford. Spencer attempted to sacrifice but forced Brown at third. Tucker hit a perfect double play ball to lead off the ninth. He threw to Summers to get Spencer but the latter charged Summers. The Road Runner second baseman dropped the ball and before McLarry could recover it, Daily had crossed the plate with the tying run. Big Grover Seitz, with his home run of Friday night fresh on his hat, led the Road Runner attack with three singles. Don Bailey got his eye back on the ball for a home run and a single. The other four hits were scattered.

Fred Polvogt, Borger catcher who was reported to have fractured his leg in Enid three weeks ago, appeared in a uniform and caught the entire game. He said the leg had just been sprained.

Schedule For Second Half Of Sottball Loop Drafted

3 Junior Loop Games Will Be Played Today

Phillips 66 vs. Little Road Runners at Road Runner park. Hoover vs. Magnolia Peewees at Magnolia park. Borger Christians vs. Mc's Pirates at LeFors.

Above is the story of Junior baseball in this section today. All games will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

The Little Road Runners, smarting from their only loss of the season here Tuesday when Borger defeated them in a league game, are determined to take out their revenge on Phillips.

Hoover and the Peewees, always deadly rivals on the diamond, are expected to furnish one of the best games of the day.

Borger can afford to be cocky when they take on the newly organized LeFors ball team. Their defeat of the birds was a real upset. Mc's boys, however, have been practicing hard and are laying it on the Borgerites.

Steel Industry Unionization Is Sought in Drive

WASHINGTON, July 4. (AP)—Two giant rallies will signal tomorrow the start of what may be an epic campaign to unionize the vast steel industry—a campaign that may help determine within the week whether the American Federation of Labor will be welded into one fighting unit or split in two.

Spurred on by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, labor leaders at Homestead, Pa., and Chicago made final plans today for the meetings where they will launch the long-awaited drive to bring all steel workers—half a million—into one big union.

But the big question of whether the steel industry's determination to retain the open shop will knit all federation unions into a cohesive battle unit will not be determined until next week's meeting of the federation executive council.

Until the steel industry vowed this week to keep the open shop in the face of Lewis' drive, two factions had been moving toward a final split that would have left the A. F. of L. with less than two-thirds of its present membership.

At the head of one faction stood Lewis. He and his allies believed all the workers in each big industry should be enrolled in one big union.

Max Baer arrived in Dallas on his comeback trail to announce he will post $200,000 guarantee for Jimmy Braddock if the champion will give him a chance to win back his heavyweight title in the Texas Centennial Exposition's Cotton Bowl this summer. SKELLY BEATS KING OIL FOR SEASON HALF

King Oil choked in the sixth inning and saw a four-run lead fade as Skelly Oil took the first half of the Pampa Playground ball league in a playoff series which ended Friday evening with Skelly on the long end of a 6 to 5 score. Skelly took the opening game, 10 to 4, Tuesday. Going into the sixth inning, King Oil had a 5 to 1 lead. Three juicy errors and three solid base blows netted Skelly five runs and the ball game.

The two speedball pitchers, Poe of King and Mayor of Skelly, matched ability all the way until the King boys cracked. Then Mayo tightened down and had the better of the argument in the final two innings.

"Slim Dillman put King Oil in the lead when he hit the longest home run of the season. Sharp of King contributed a four-py wallop with two men on base to give the royal boys a comfortable lead. Then came the fatal sixth when base hits and errors were combined for winning runs.

The largest crowd ever to witness a playground ball game in Pampa saw the two teams battle. They were treated to great pitching, sensational plays and the usual errors.

The second half of the league schedule will begin Tuesday evening.

ROAD RUNNERS BEAT BORGANS IN 9-5 GAME

APPRECIATION SHOWN AL SUMMERS AT GAME

The Pampa-Danger Road Runners battled the Huber Blackfaces of Borger and the "Borger night" fans here Friday night and came through with a 9 to 5 win to even the season count in games won and lost with the Blackfaces.

Seldom does the home team win a ball game when one of its players is being honored. But Friday night fans dedicated the game to Al Summers and then watched him help his team win a game with a timely hit and some nice fielding gems.

When Summers stepped to the plate in the first inning, he was presented with a 17-year wrist watch, and Mrs. Summers was given a costume set, bracelet and ring, the gift of fans. Summers, crack little second baseman, signed a contract with the Oklahoma City Indians in the Texas league last Sunday. He refused to leave the Road Runners in the middle of the season, however, and will not report to Oklahoma City until 1937. Pampa fans showed their appreciation with gifts.

The game was a typical Pampa-Borger affair. Manager Huffman sent Nash to the mound and the Borger righthander was wild enough to be good. He kept the birds at the plate with one foot loose. At that, Manager Sam Hale was unable to get away from one of Nash's wild throws and took the ball on the wrist. He had to leave the game. Bailey went from left field to third base and Poindexter went into the garden.

Nash allowed only four hits until the sixth inning when the Road Runners jumped on his pitches, after he developed a wild streak. The inning opened with McNabb walking. Summers went out on a sensational play by Spencer. Seitz drew another walk. Poindexter, Bailey, Cox and Lisle followed with singles and Pete Stegman relieved Nash. McLarry greeted him with a single to score the fifth run of the inning. The next two batters went out.

Seitz opened the seventh with a single, went to third on Poindexter's second single, and scored when Cox singled. Big Seitz, who has been swinging from the ground all season seeking his first home run, parked one of Stegman's slants over the left field fence in the eighth, scoring McNabb and Summers, who had walked, ahead of him. The home run put the game on ice for the Birds.

Huber jumped into a lead in the fourth inning when Ross and Huffman singled in succession and Wilson hit a single with two men on base to make the score 2 and 0. The Blackfaces increased the lead in the fifth on a double by Spencer and Tucker's single.

The visitors pulled within one run of the Birds in the seventh inning. Spencer opened with an infield single. McLarry made a sensational stop back of third but was unable to get the ball away in time to get Spencer at first. Tucker went out and Ross drew a walk. Huffman singled to score Spencer, and Ross raced to third from where he scored on a fielder's choice.

With one away in the ninth, Tucker doubled. Stewart hit Ross with a wild pitch and Borger appeared on the way to one of their ninth inning rallies. It was cut short, however, when Summers took Huffman's hot grounder and threw to second to get Ross. McLarry's throw to Cox beat Huffman by inches for the only double play of the game.

Lisle and McLarry combined in the second inning when the Road Runner catcher whipped a bullet throw to second to get Brown who had taken a lead on an attempted sacrifice.

This week the Road Runners will meet new opposition. On Monday and Tuesday nights they will tangle with the Southern Pacific team from Houston and on Friday night they will play the Phillips 66 Gassers of Oklahoma City. Next Sunday they will be in Perfun.

ALLRED AND SHEPPARD LAUNCH THEIR SPEAKING CAMPAIGNS

SENATOR NOT AS CONFIDENT AS GOVERNOR

JIMMIE TALKS OF VICTORY IN FIRST PRIMARY

AUSTIN, July 4. (AP)—Governor James V. Allred and the veteran United States Senator Morris Sheppard launched their speaking campaigns for renomination this week as the voters began to show a little more interest in the approaching democratic primary.

State and local politics had been overshadowed previously by the opening of the Texas Centennial center exposition, "President Roosevelt's visit to the state and the national party conventions.

Candidates will receive their first test at the hands of the electorate next week, with absentee voting opening Monday. Those who won't be at home to vote on July 25 may cast absentee ballots through July 22.

In the opening speeches, Senator Sheppard and Governor Allred based their appeals for re-election on their records in office, already vigorously attacked by the numerous candidates seeking to unseat them.

Friends of Texas' senior senator, who was co-author of the repudiated confidence that he would win handily in the first primary notwithstanding that he had five opponents and that the majority of Texans deserted him on the prohibition question.

Sheppard's most active opponent was Congressman Joe H. Eagle of Houston. Eagle hoped to go out of his home county, the most populous in the state, with a handsome majority but Sheppard's backers contended that the senator had a good chance to carry the county and at worst would lose there by only a few thousand votes.

There was talk among the Allred forces of a first primary victory but it was not as prevalent as in the Sheppard camp. Allred's followers insisted, however, that their candidate at least would come so close to a majority in the first election that no opponent would have a chance to catch him in the runoff.

Interest continued to center on the governor's race and most of the discussion in that race concerned Governor Allred's policies in regard to old age pensions. Tom F. Hunter, F. W. Fischer, Roy Sanderford and P. Pierce Brooks each hoping to gain a run-off place in the gubernatorial sweepstakes, pointed out that only 40,000 persons were on the pension rolls when the first checks were mailed this week and that the initial monthly payments totaled only $641,645, of which half was supplied by the federal government.

The reaction of the old people whose applications had not been proved and of those who received smaller than average payments was watched closely. They are exempt from payment of poll taxes and nearly all of them may go to the polls. They could easily be the deciding factor in a close race. Former Governor James E. Ferguson took the stump for Sanderford in one of the week's important developments. "Farmer Jim" long wielded great power in Texas politics. C. C. McDonald, the candidate whom he backed in Texas two years ago, was defeated in the first primary, however. Ferguson planned three speeches next week, at Lampasas Thursday night, Brownwood Friday night and San Angelo Saturday night.

News Of Interest From Nearby Towns

Wheeler
Termination of the government's WPA work schedule on June 30 brought a halt in road work on the highway east of Wheeler, a project under the works relief program. Receipt this week of authorization of renewal of the work has been announced by W. Veale, resident supervisor.

Under the new schedule, expected to start soon, provision is made for four months, beginning with July. Approximately $10,000 is designated for various operations expense during the period.

According to advices reaching the Wheeler Times office, the past few days have been devoted to unearthing the 8 1/2-inch at Porter No. 1, oil test well 6 1/2 miles south of Wheeler. With the hole bottomed at 4,250 feet, efforts are being made to clear the hole and lower the casing to approximately that depth in an effort to shut out water which has hampered drilling to some extent.

DEATHS REACH TOTAL OF 26 AFTER FLOODS

VICTORIA IS BLOCKED FROM RAILROAD SERVICE
VICTORIA, July 4. (AP)—Rescue parties cleared the Guadalupe flood area of marooned refugees today in a desperate effort to avert more deaths before the rain-glutted river dumps its menacing load into the Gulf.

The list of known fatalities was held at 26 by prompt action of boatmen who removed a number of Mexican families from a federal resettlement project in the inundated region 11 miles south of Victoria.

It had been feared some of these endangered families might have drowned but rescuers managed to carry them to safety.

High water was spreading for miles over the low-lying coastal plain, piling up inestimable crop damage, as the flood's crest, definitely past important farming towns, rolled onward to San Antonio bay. The river was falling fast upstream at Gonzales and Cuero, and the stage was diminishing more gradually at Victoria, where it reached a peak of 31.3 feet yesterday afternoon. It had dropped 10 feet to a stage of 32 at Cuero and the overflow was no longer backing up into town.

Gonzales reported 30,000 acres of cotton and corn ruined and county commissioners said it would be necessary to rebuild more than 1,000 miles of county road.

To the south, Dewitt and Victoria counties found crop, highway and railroad damage mounting into millions of dollars—just how much, it was impossible to estimate.

The little village of Leesville, perhaps the hardest hit of all by an 18 to 20 inch rain and ensuing high water, was being rehabilitated with the aid of 100 WPA workers, the Red Cross and other relief agencies. This community, with 250 inhabitants, was cut off for two days from outside communication before its plight became known.

Victoria was blocked from railroad service today and only two highways—leading to Port Lavaca and Houston—were open. Highway traffic was closed between Port Lavaca and the Rio Grande valley because the hug-the-coast route was under water at several points.

A bill to prohibit "stag" parties was introduced during the 1935 North Carolina legislature's session.

The summer recreation program has given employment for a number of jobless high school youth. Through cooperation of the city, jobs have been given to seven boys in topping the various tennis courts. YOUTH WINS IN SWIMMING POOL WATER EVENTS

Fraser Twins Take Children's Revue On Saturday

Standing room was at a premium and swimmers were as thick as bees in a hive yesterday afternoon at the municipal swimming pool where the first water carnival of the summer was held. Youth bested maturity in all the contests.

At least another will be held to settle grudges which developed yesterday in swimming and diving contests—and also in the children's revue. Hundreds of Pampanians thronged the pool in the afternoon in the only Fourth attraction held in the city.

Winners and prizes were as follows: Children's revue—first, Linda Fraser, Shirley Temple suit from Harper's; Lee Fraser, swim suit, Mitchell's. Linda and Lee are twins.

Junior boys race—up to 12, first Jimmy Riddle, pocket knife from Wilson drug; second, Charles Boyles, theater tickets to Rex and state.

Senior boys diving—Mage Keyser, swim trunks from the Friendly Men's store; second, J. H. Hulme, tie clasp from Diamond Shop.

Ladies swim race, 40 yards, free style—Betty Jo Townsend, purse, Violet shop; second, Betty Blythe and Gloria Posey, tie, beach towel from L. T. Hill, swimming bag Father's.

Junior boys, age 12 to 15, 40 yards—first, Howar Buckingham, swim trunks from Anthony's; John Kipr, theater tickets to LaNora.

200-yard race for boys 16 and over—Charles Busacke, trunks from Pampa Hardware; second, Skeet Wise, candy, Oscar McCoy.

Ladies under-water race—Betty Blythe, swim suit, Carter's; second, Betty Jo Townsend, Deak's.

What Makes the Wheels of Jumbo Go 'Round

Artist's Conception of the Innards of Billy Rose's Spectacle

Billy Rose's circus-musical comedy-drama-revue extravaganza "Jumbo" will be seen to even greater advantage during its stay at the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial than during its season-long run at the New York Hippodrome. True nearly a quarter of a million dollars was expended making the famous Manhattan playhouse habitable for the elephantine spectacle.

But the "little of cow town way out west" has gone the big town on the Hudson one better. At Fort Worth a complete circus amphitheatre has been constructed, the first to be devoted exclusively to a circus, in over seventy years. Designed and supervised by Albert Johnson it represents an investment of $300,000.00, over a third of which is allotted to electrical equipment and another $100,000.00 to paraphernalia.

Roosevelt to Speak at Monticello

Thomas Jefferson's old home, historic Monticello, a national shrine, will be the scene of a major political address by President Roosevelt on July 4, a speech hailed as an answer to Governor Landon's statement that "the fight already is on." The west front of the famed colonial mansion, near Charlottesville, Va., is shown above.

Cap Is Lemke's Pet Headgear

Wearing the cap which may become as striking a campaign "sign" as the Roosevelt smile or the Landon grin, Representative William Lemke of North Dakota, third party presidential candidate, is shown here. Friends of the nominee say they never have known him to wear a hat.

Twenty years after giving a student play at the University of Utah, the same cast, with two exceptions, returned and presented it at an alumni reunion. The Japanese Olympic basketball team averages 5 feet 9 inches in height. The McPherson Oilers amateur champions of the United States, average 6 feet 4 1/2 inches.

Americans Stop In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY, July 4. (AP)—The keys to the capital in their hands, the United States' delegates to dedication of the new Mexico-Laredo highway ended their triumphal procession tonight down the 760-mile road.

All along the route they and the Mexican officials who were their hosts had been feted and feasted.

Each tiny village along the last lap of the final day's travel was gaily decked out in flags, bunting and triumphal arches, and picturesque "charros" on horseback. Farmers with broad-brimmed hats and farm girls in native dress cried "Bienvenida" or "Welcome" as the automobile caravan sped past.

Near the old mining town of Pachuca, Hidalgo, the highest spot on the "Land of the Sky" road, Ambassador Josephus Daniels dedicated at noon the monument erected by the American colony to commemorate completion of the highway.

He praised the new road and other accomplishments of the Mexican revolution.

"In celebrating Independence day (of the United States) with Mexican friends on Mexican soil, in a changing world when as never before our countrymen are seeking to regain the spirit of '76, let us remember that our American liberties were 'born out of revolution,'" he said.

Borah Continues Monopoly Attack

FILER, Idaho, July 4. (AP)—Senator William E. Borah, saying both major parties have laid in their platforms they will "destroy monopoly in the United States," asserted today:

"If this is in fact a settled policy, I regard it as the most notable event since Lincoln struck the shackles from the slaves."

The veteran Republican, who returned from Washington yesterday, still gave no indication of his future political plans—but he told a cheering Fourth of July crowd of 10,000 that he expects to discuss monopoly and the nation's monetary problems as his main issues, "regardless of party lines or commands."

Borah listed two asserted conditions as constituting the outstanding governmental evils of the day and the principal causes of depression:

"1. Monopoly and the monopolistic power in the possession of 2,500 men in America.

"2. Failure of the federal government to take over the regulation of money, now a function of private industry."

TAXI SERVICE ASSUMED DALLAS, July 4. (AP)—Taxicab service on a reduced scale will be started Monday, it was announced today after a meeting of 30 business men with City Manager Hal Moseley and Police Chief R. L. Jones, to seek the taxi strike's end.

Jodie C. Thompson, chairman of the group, said the action was taken "because Dallas business interests could not tolerate the strike situation whereby life and property has been endangered and visitors to our city severely inconvenienced."

MEXICAN KILLED M'ALLEN, July 4. (AP)—Miguel Pena, 30, San Juan laborer, was killed when the automobile in which he was injured four miles east of here today when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into the rear end of a truck.

The Texas State Federation of Labor reports that Senator Small "went down the line" on five important labor measures during the 44th legislative session. He voted for the child labor amendment to the federal constitution and has always supported legislation that would improve working conditions in regard to their safety and sanitation. His votes dovetail with other acts he has sponsored which were designed to ease the tax burden on farmers, laboring classes and the small property owner.

Positive results from demonstrations using zinc sulphate to control pean rosette are reported from Gillespie county. It was placed in five-eighths inch auger holes, bored two inches deep and four to six inches apart around the trunk of the tree. The holes were plugged with a cork. New growth on one treated tree measures two feet long and appears free from rosette.

A progress report on five poultry demonstrations in Blanco county shows an average of 1,081 hens, 12 per cent culled, five per cent mortality, 7,584 eggs laid, approximately 15 eggs per hen per month, and a profit to date of 85 cents per hen.

Farming's Fun With Radio on Plow

Here's the answer to that musical query, "How you gonna keep 'em down on the farm?" A radio on a cultivator does it for Herschel Batey, Paragould, Ark., farmer, shown here as he enjoyed music and baseball resumes while his mule team moved up and down the cotton rows. Batteries and radio were set on the tongue of the cultivator and aerial fixed from front to back, with the cultivator frame serving as the "ground." Arkansawyers for miles around flocked to the farm to admire the innovation.

League to Watch Danzig Situation

GENEVA, July 4. (AP)—The League of Nations turning its back on the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, decided tonight developments in the free city of Danzig were so potentially grave a special committee should watch them.

The council asked Great Britain, France, and Portugal to follow the situation in Danzig where a Nazi movement to withdraw from league supervision was announced.

This announcement was made by Dr. Arthur Karl Greiser, the Nazi president of the Danzig senate, who said he demanded a revision of the free city's status on behalf of the whole German people.

The league assembly refused Emperor Haile Selassie's request of a loan for Ethiopia and voted to end debates on the Italo-Ethiopian war.

The assembly's action practically assured the lifting of league sanctions from Italy which, last year, the peace body branded an aggressor.

Spirited Battle Faces Blind Borah

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 4. (AP)—After 19 years in the United States Senate—ten continuously—Blind Senator T. P. Gore of Oklahoma faces a spirited battle in his race for renomination in Tuesday's first primary election.

The Democratic nomination will be determined finally in a run-off primary election July 28, with the two high men entered.

Leading politicians, eyeing the "battle of personalities" characterizing the contest so close they will not hazard a guess as to who will enter the run-off.

The new deal—outstanding issue in other recent campaigns—appears shunted into the background by the Democrats by old age pensions, liquor repeal, a sales tax increase and charges state and WPA workers are being used to further candidates.

Attend Canadian Rodeo Hundreds of Pampanians attended the Anvil Park rodeo at Canadian yesterday. BAER HAS SEVERAL IRONS IN FIRE BUT NONE GETTING HOT

DALLAS, July 4. (AP)—If Max Adebelt Baer, former world's heavyweight champion, doesn't land something in the way of a big-time fight in the near future, he will be away to either Honolulu or London.

Amel Hoffman, Baer's manager, said today after a telephone conversation with James J. Johnston, of New York's Madison Square Garden, he had several irons in the fire—but none were getting hot.

Hoffman said Johnston suggested a Baer-Jack Sharkey fight but Hoffman feared it would not draw enough cash customers. He said, however, he would be agreeable to a Sharkey fight if the guarantee could be made attractive.

The fight arrangements, however, were contingent on the failure of success of Mike Jacobs, twentieth century promoter, and Madison Square Garden to team on a Max Schmeling - Braddock (tub bout) fight. Hoffman said he had offered Champion Braddock $200,000 to fight Baer for the title, either here at Chicago or on the Pacific coast.

Maxie will continue on his barnstorming tour for the next few weeks, visiting, among other places, Joplin and Springfield, Mo., Oklahoma City and Tulsa. Buddy Baer, his younger brother, has been sent to his Livermore, Calif. home with two broken ribs received in an Oklahoma accident.

California produced 34,215 tons of walnuts in the 1934-35 season. Oregon, the only other state growing walnuts commercially, produced 1,903 tons in the period.

[[QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING]]

"Do Bank Examiners examine your Bank?"

YES, bank examiners visit our bank periodically and go over our records. These government officials are representatives of the State or Federal banking authorities. Every incorporated bank in the United States chartered to conduct a banking business is examined. They are visited without advance warning and the examiners have immediate access to all of the bank's cash, securities, books and records. They report at considerable length on the bank's assets, liabilities, methods, policies, loans, investments and other factors which determine its soundness. On the basis of the reports of these examiners banking authorities are able to make any suggestions or recommendations they feel are necessary or desirable. Bank examinations are an added safeguard for depositors' money—in addition to the competent management and sound banking practices of the bank.

taken before Justice James Todd Friday night and held for grand jury action.

A Memphis negro, brought to the Gray county jail by Deputy Sheriff John Cone, of LeFors, was scheduled to be charged with forgery.

Woods, who was assessed the heavy fine of $100 and costs for disturbing the peace participated in a disturbance at a South Side rooming house in which one man was severely beaten during a brawl.

In the rooming house raids, the officers entered the O. K. rooms and the Quaker hotel, armed with warrants, according to Deputy Inman.

Attaches of the sheriff's office said the raids were planned to make a thorough check of the city following a long list of complaints which had way in several of the places.

"We thought it would be a good idea to slow 'em down over the holiday," Deputy Lindsey said.

Sheriff's officers indicated the concerted drive was not just a "hash in the pan," but that a continued check is to be maintained to preserve the peace and quiet of Pampa.

WHITE ACCENT IN VOGUE FOR MID-SUMMER

COOLNESS AND CHIC ARE GAINED AT SAME TIME

BY ADELAIDE KERR, Associated Press Staff Writer.

NEW YORK (AP)—A snowstorm of white accessories has spent the fashion world.

White hats, gloves, bags, belts and buttons add cool touches to warm weather clothes for town wear. White sports clothes are favorites for the country club and white jackets and accents are good almost anywhere.

White Hats, Too. "Medium sized Bretons or boyish caps, flower toques and shark-skin berets—top printed or plain black and navy frocks. White bags—flat envelopes or deep handled models—with white linings and fittings accompany sports and street clothes.

White evening gowns are here too. Both white sports and evening clothes however, are almost invariably accented by a touch of color. Polka dot Ascot scarfs, embroidered anchors and the like give a fashion filipp to outdoor frocks, while a cluster of flowers or a colorful girdle adds sensuousness to white dance frocks of silk mousseline or chiffon.

White wraps are much in the picture. One of the smartest answers to the troublesome question of what to wear in town when it's hot is a dark linen frock with a cut out sunback and a short sleeved white jacket. Some of the most dashing evening wraps of the season are hip-length capes of white kidskin, and the sports mode is liberally sprinkled with short white swaggar coats.

Besides these white effects, hundreds of dark frocks are marked with white accents—a rippling collar of organdy, white linen collar and cuffs or a crisp white pique bow.

White sports clothes are having a big season. In the new smooth-surfaced sharkskin, which gleams like the frosting on a cake, and in linens there are quantities of two piece frocks and suits, while in crepe there are a number of simple spectator sports frocks.

TROPICS OFFER HINTS FOR HOT WEATHER MENU

FOOD CAN BE CHOSEN TO COMBAT TEMPERATURE

BY MARY E. DAGUE, NEA Service Staff Writer.

Why not turn to the tropics for suggestions for hot weather menus? In countries close to the equator, where sizzling days are the rule, men and women have learned to eat the food that best combat the temperatures.

In India curry powder seasons the main dish at most meals. Curry of chicken, with salad and dessert, makes an excellent dinner for a warm evening.

Dates and figs should not be forgotten. Natives of many tropical countries practically live on them. These foods, rich in iron, will help to balance the diet when meat is not served. Keep this in mind when planning desserts or salads.

Date mousse is nourishing and most appetizing.

Another dish inspired by our tropical cousins is tomato curry. This uses bananas—plentiful and cheap—as well as fresh coconut to achieve its unusual flavor.

Tomato Curry. Four good-sized tomatoes, 1 good-sized onion, 2 tablespoons salad oil.

Tomorrow's Menu. BREAKFAST: Berries with sugar, and cream and cereal, scrambled eggs, toast, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON: Chilled fruit cup, tomato curry, date mousse, milk, tea.

DINNER: Hors d'oeuvre of eggs and beef, broiled veal sweetbreads, creamed peas, fried summer squash, frozen fruit salad, toasted crackers, milk, coffee.

½ teaspoon curry powder, ¼ teaspoon tumeric, ½ cup coconut milk, 1 cup shredded fresh coconut, 1 cup rice, 2 bananas, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar.

Peel tomatoes and cut in halves. Peel and mince onion. Cook over a low fire in salad oil until soft and just beginning to brown. Add curry powder, tumeric and coconut milk. When mixture boils add the shredded coconut, tomatoes, salt and sugar. Cover and allow to simmer 20 minutes or until tomatoes are tender. Boil rice in salted water. When tender, pile on a hot dish and pour over the tomato sauce. Garnish with bananas which have been peeled, cut in half lengthwise and sautéed in butter.

Of course you can make this dish without the coconut. Simply substitute water for coconut milk and omit the shredded coconut.

A frozen salad often supplies just the right touch to a dinner built around a hot main course. A dessert is unnecessary after this frozen fruit salad. Serve crisp toasted crackers with the salad.

Many Expected At Services of Revival Sunday

Largest crowds of the week are expected for the first Sunday services of an outdoor revival at Harrah Methodist chapel today. The services started Tuesday, and will continue through next week. The Rev. W. E. Peterson of Shallowater is the speaker.

Congregation of McCullough Methodist church will join that of Harrah chapel today for both morning and evening meetings. The sermon subject this morning will be, "My Wonderful Christ. This evening the evangelist announces that he will tell the story of "The young man who went to sleep while courting his sweetheart."

Growing attendance marked the services last week. Meetings are in the church auditorium at 10 o'clock on week-day mornings, and on the lawn at 8:15 each evening. The Rev. Lance Webb, minister, is assisting the evangelist.

COFFEE STRENGTH REGULATOR Those family rifts resulting from the peevishness of the head of the house when his morning coffee falls short of the strength he likes are solved by the latest invention in electrical devices, a percolator that may be adjusted automatically. The percolator has a dial on which are the words, "Weak, Medium, Strong." The current automatically turns off when the coffee has reached the desired strength.

CHANGE OF ICING. For a change put two icings on your cake. First, white peppermint, topped with chocolate. Second, caramel first and then a fudge icing on top. Third, chocolate frosting with white coconut on top. These combinations are pleasant to the taste, decorative and not difficult to manage.

By JOHN SELBY

The later productions of Arnold Zweig have not been worthy successors of "The Case of Sergeant Grisca," and one might as well admit it.

But Zweig has at last produced that successor in "Education Before Verdun" (Viking), which is a war novel, an exposition of war's stupidity, and the story of a group of human beings.

This last is rather important, for there has been a kind of convention about war novels which has excused their authors when they forgot they were dealing with men, and started off hastily into the realm of "Ideas," or perhaps Ideals. Every person in "Education Before Verdun" is three dimensional, some are four.

Briefly, Zweig has told the story of Bertin, a little Jewish private who has a wife at home, something of a career in literature and a feeling which makes him know men are men, and not fodder for Big Bertha. He begins his career in the novel by doing a kindness to some French prisoners, and he continues true to form.

One of his kindnesses brings him to the point of withholding a blood-stained letter from young Sergeant Kroysing which, should it reach its proper destination, will make things very uncomfortable for certain officers. These officers succeed in murdering the sergeant legally—but the letter goes on. It brings death to the sergeant's brother, but not before the matter has had its effect even on the Crown Prince. And Bertin, who never has lost balance, comes through.

The entire transaction is merely futile, as most things seem to be in war. But because Zweig has kept his eye on the human plane entirely, it is one of the important war novels. Thumbnailed Reviews

"Report of the Company," by Dudley Vail Talcott (Smith & Haas); another story of Greenland and Norway, but this time it is centered around the writer's old fishing boat, remade to take gentleman sportsmen into the Arctic.

"The Islands," by Gerald Warner Brace (Putnam); the Maine life in conflict with the Boston life; a novel of considerable truth.

"Crimes and Justice," by Sheldon Glueck (Little, Brown); Professor Glueck exposes the futilities of "justice," and makes some potent suggestions for correcting them.

"From a Surgeon's Journal," by Harvey Cushing, M. D. (Little Brown); Dr. Cushing's observations while serving in France during the war; extraordinarily shrewd observation and deduction, but you'll need a medical dictionary to understand some of it.

Southwest

"The Lone Star State," by Norman Beasley (Doubleday, Doran); a very brief history of Texas, rather dully written.

"Millions of Dictators," by Emil Lengyel (Funk & Wagnalls); Lengyel's thesis is that the common man is really the dictator; it's a question whether he proves or not.

"It's the Law," by Dick Hyman (illustrated by O. Soglow) (Doubleday, Doran); "nut" laws, illustrated amusingly; better after a couple of drinks.

"Flowers for the Judge," by Margery Allingham (Doubleday, Doran); excellent English mystery,

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, July 4 (AP) — On President Roosevelt's special train when he visited Texas were two political opponents, United States Morris Sheppard and Congress Joe Eagle of Houston.

Eagle is attempting to defeat Sheppard for re-election. Others seeking the office are Guy B. Fisher of San Augustine county, Richard C. Bush of McLennan county, Joseph H. Price of Tarrant county and J. Edward Glenn of Bosque county.

One of the oldest senators in years of service, Sheppard plans to open his campaign with an address in Corsicana July 4.

What's in a name? A Houston wrestler thinks there is enough to justify changing his.

Andrew Lutzi has petitioned a district court to change his name to Paul Jones by which, he says, he is well known.

Lutzi, or Jones, is a candidate for sheriff.

Gov. Alfred Feis is in complete accord with Byron Utecht, Fort Worth newspaper correspondent.

Utecht made a wild ride on the motorcycle of a highway patrolman to catch the presidential special train near the San Jacinto battle with the emphasis on character and atmosphere.

OIL NEWS - - From Panhandle and Other Southwest Fields

OIL HIGHWAYS SAVE MILLIONS FOR TAXPAYERS

ANALYSIS IN VIRGINIA SHOWS BOON TO AUTOISTS, FARMERS

The highway department of Virginia, an analysis made by the Western Petroleum Refiners association reveals, returns annual dividends to the motorists and taxpayers of the state totaling 33 1/2 million dollars through its low-cost road construction program.

The huge dividends, in the form of savings in taxes and car operating expenses, amount to $13.40 for each resident of the state and $8.16 for each registered car in the state. They were made possible by constructing 5,000 miles of low-cost oil and bituminous highway surfaces rather than limiting the improved road mileage and plunging the state heavily into debt in an effort to construct high-cost type roads at $25,000 a mile on routes where the traffic fell far short of justifying such an outlay.

"If we had surfaced the 5,000 miles of oil and bituminous roads with the hard-higher-cost type surfaces," says a report of the highway commission, "the cost would have been 125 million dollars. The cost of the bituminous roads has been about $2,500 a mile or a total of 12 1/2 million dollars.

"The saving in construction cost has been 112 1/2 million dollars and the annual interest on that amount at 4 per cent is 4 1/2 million dollars. The maintenance of the bituminous roads is about one million dollars more annually than it would be on the high-cost type roads, thus saving on maintenance and construction costs of 3 1/2 million dollars annually.

"Only about one-tenth the mileage of improved roads could have been provided using the high-cost type surfaces and we would have had only about 4,000 miles of surfaced roads in the state. Our construction policy has given the motorist 8,500 miles of smooth, well surfaced roads that can be traveled in comfort without the mud and dust menace 365 days in the year. Winter damage has been serious only once or twice in 14 years and has been repaired at no great cost."

The method used in Virginia is known as "stage construction"—increasing the thickness and durability of the pavement as traffic demands by successive applications of successive materials. It gives the maximum road service to the largest number of people with the funds available.

The Virginia commission estimates one billion vehicle miles are traveled on the oil and bituminous roads each year. Using the Bureau of Public Roads estimate that a car driven over a smooth, surfaced road can be operated at 3 cents a mile less than on a muddy, rutty and dusty road, the commission reports a saving of 36 million dollars annually in car operating expenses.

Thus the total savings to Virginia motorists and taxpayers in highway construction and maintenance costs and in car operating expense is 33 1/2 million dollars annually.

Another benefit mentioned in the commission's report, the Western Petroleum Refiners association points out, is the great increase in agricultural land values that comes with increased mileage of surfaced roads.

Agricultural authorities report that the value of the average farm located on a surfaced road is $21 an acre greater than the same farm located on a dirt road. Since each improved road serves about 360 acres the 5,000 miles of bituminous roads in Virginia serve about 1,800,000 acres. On the basis of $21 an acre increase in value, farmers of the state benefited to the extent of $37,800,000 in average land valuation."

KING EDWARD'S COUSIN MAY BE QUEEN BY MAY

Marriage Odds Drop Sharply While Rumors Fly

LONDON, July 4. (AP)—King Edward VIII may don the crown of England next May with a second cousin kneeling at his side.

Two young European princesses, both talented and beautiful and relatives of Edward, have been mentioned directly in the British Press as favorites to wed the monarch.

Insurance odds against the king's marriage before his coronation recently dropped to 5 to 1 from 10 to 1.

Whether insurance companies pay will depend, perhaps, on King Edward's fancy concerning:

Princess Frederica-Louise-Thyra-Victoria-Margaretas-Phia-Ogia-Cecilia-Isabella-Christa, a granddaughter of former Kaiser Wilhelm, only daughter of the House of Brunswick and Lunenburg, and second cousin of the king himself.

Princess Alexandrine Louise, third daughter of Prince Harald, of Denmark, niece of King Christian, and great granddaughter of King Christian IX and Queen Louise of Denmark, who also were the great grand parents of Edward.

Rumors that Princess Alexandrine Louise might march to the altar with King Edward were not new last November, when they brought a vigorous denial from her father, Prince Harold. They have persisted, however.

Harold was one of eight children to divide the estate of the late King Frederik VIII of Denmark and has an annual income of about $15,000.

No dowry could be provided for the 21-year old Danish princess; it is said, but the House of Commons recently granted the king some $2,000,000 a year for royal expenses and $350,000 annually for his queen in the event of marriage.

Oil Percentage In Panhandle Is Slashed in Order

Percentage of proratable oil in the Panhandle field dropped from 1.68 to 1.55 per cent according to an order released by the Railroad commission, as of June 21. The total continued at 59,490 barrels.

The field potential, four counties, amounted to 716,494 barrels. Of that amount, 667,334 barrels was proratable oil, with the rest being exempt or from marginal wells. There were 2,793 wells producing the oil.

Gray county's 1,400 wells showed a potential of 299,023 barrels. Wheeler county, with 296 wells, had a potential of 263,504 barrels. Hutchinson county followed with 799 wells with a potential of 119,192 barrels. Carson county's 298 wells showed a potential of 34,775 barrels.

CONSERVATION HEARING SET FOR JULY 16

PAMPANS WILL ATTEND WASTE PREVENTION MEET IN AUSTIN

A public statewide hearing regarding conservation and prevention of waste of crude petroleum oil and natural gas will be held in Austin on July 16, according to a notice issued by the Texas Railroad commission.

The hearing will be the most important of the year. Many Pampa independent producers and representatives of major companies will attend the hearing. Royalty and lease owners from here will also attend.

The notice in part follows: It is hereby ordered that notice be and the same is hereby given to the public and to all interested parties in the state of Texas that the railroad commission of Texas will, at ten (10) o'clock a. m., Thursday, July 16, 1936, at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel in Austin, Texas, hold a hearing for the purpose of hearing evidence and in order to determine whether or not waste (as defined in the statute of this state) of crude oil or natural gas is taking place in this state or is reasonably imminent, and what, if any, rule, regulation or order should be made and promulgated or what, if any, other action should be taken to correct, prevent or lessen such waste and for the purpose of inquiring into the production, storage, transportation, refining, reclaiming, treating, marketing, purchasing and or processing of crude oil and, or natural gas, and the reasonable market or consumers demand therefor, and whether the conservation laws of Texas or the orders of the railroad commission are being violated, and what regulations should be adopted in the handling, transportation, sale or purchase of crude petroleum oil, natural gas and any and all products, by-products and derivatives of crude petroleum oil or natural gas in the state of Texas. All purchasers of oil within the state of Texas are hereby notified to submit to the Railroad Commission of Texas in affidavit form their nominations setting out their requirements for oil to be used, produced, and, or purchased by them during the month of August, 1936.

At such hearing, first consideration will be given to the Rodessa field in Cass county, Texas, and evidence will be heard relating to the proper spacing program and rules and regulations for the conservation and prevention of physical waste in said Rodessa field.

At the same time the commission will consider the question of the daily reasonable market for gas from the gas wells in this state with the view of prorating and regulating the daily gas well production from each common reservoir in the manner and method set out in House Bill No. 266, above referred to. All evidence and testimony bearing on this subject will be received to the end that the commission shall promulgate and regulate such production of gas for the protection of public and private interests. All purchasers of gas within the state of Texas are hereby notified to submit to the railroad commission of Texas in affidavit form their nominations setting out their requirements for gas to be used, produced, or purchased by them during the month of August, 1936.

The Shamrock company has worked out a license agreement with the University Oil Products company of Chicago for the erection of the plant to produce a top grade motor gasoline from waste natural gas.

The construction contract was signed in Pittsburgh a few days ago with the Stearns-Roger Manufacturing company of Denver. The Shamrock expects to have the new gasoline available for the winter market.

The process consists essentially of reforming the lighter hydrocarbons into new combinations which will blend with natural and straight run gasoline to give the high octane rating required for premium gasoline.

The application of the process to straight natural gasoline plants is new and may involve some expensive trial and error experimenting to perfect, but the new plant is a part of the Shamrock program for developing a further use for natural gas in Moore county.

The capacity will be 45,000 gallons of raw charge daily.

Plant construction work will take about four months and during that time 100 men will be used. After completion there will be steady employment for 20 men.

S. A. Alexander, gasoline engineer formerly with the American Natural plant in Wheeler county, will be the superintendent in charge of the new operation.

MOORE COUNTY WILL GET NEW $500,000 UNIT

SHAMROCK COMPANY TO BUILD GASOLINE PLANT

The Shamrock Oil and Gas company, large operator in the Gray county field, will start construction of a Dubbs octane gasoline plant in Moore county about August 1, it was announced by company officials Friday.

It is estimated that the plant, something new in Moore county, will cost about $500,000. The Shamrock company started operations on a large scale last year. They already have one plant in that area.

The plant will be built on the same site and immediately west of the McKee natural gasoline plant in the southeast quarter of section 309, block 44, H&TC survey. It is in the new industrial center half way between Dumas and Surray on the route of the proposed new paved road.

Another 500-boller unit will be added to the power plant and both plants operated in conjunction from a central boiler plant and controlled through a central laboratory.

A complete apparatus for fractional analysis is being installed in the new laboratory building.
