TEX'S TOPICS

BY TEX DE WEESE
This is the day when other editors do the work in this column. And we may as well start the column off by expressing a word of thanks to these hard-working type-writer pounders who lighten the day's load for this space.

And so, with a "thank-you, boys and girls," we'll go into the meat of your efforts:
D. A. Davis, Snoopin' Around-er for The McLean News is nonplussed by many things. For instance, he writes:
And another thing I can't understand is why all those movie stars out at Hollywood call themselves "Miss So-and-So" when actually they have been married at least a dozen times.

From The Ochiltree County Herald:
If you want the community to laugh at you just take yourself too seriously and get the idea that what you think is very important.

Rep. Marion Zioncheck just can't keep out of the papers—and the boys in the news rooms continue to poke jibes at the laughable legislator. Here's the latest crack by the Apostle in The Donley county Leader's Temple of Truth column:
A lady wants to know how to kill ants, meaning red ants of course. All that we can do for her is to ask her to wait and see what the government does to get rid of the ants in Zioncheck's pants. They still have him cooped up for observation. No, he didn't have brown tooth stain, otherwise the investigation would continue into the next generation.

Says Editor W. Max Wade in The Canyon News:
Driving along the highway towards Amarillo we notice that the pastures are covered with cactus plants. This is something new to us as we didn't know there was much cactus in the Panhandle. Evidently the dust storms the past two years have brought in more than dust from New Mexico.

From Clyde W. Warwick's editorial column in The Canyon News:
There are 170,400 gasoline filling stations in the nation, an average of one for every 150 cars. As you speed down the highway with the tank filled, you notice that the thunder so many stations can live; but run out of gas and you wonder why the operators are so dumb as to not have built one at that exact spot.

Speaking of news, here's a new angle on political speech-making, taken from Deck's Dialectics column by H. D. W., in the Wellington Leader:
Some people say they felt the earthquake last Friday. I did not feel it at all. I was out at the political speaking and at the time the walls were reverberating with the candidates speeches to such an extent that a little thing like an earthquake or a cyclone could not be expected to attract attention.

Aubrey Dodds, in The Collingsworth Standard:
It looks like some people will do

People You Know

(BY A. F.)
There is in the mind a picture of the young Mozart, elfin and ethereal, sitting before the clavichord, playing the music that has become to be synonymous with pure beauty. That picture came to mind yesterday as little Ernestine Holmes somehow managed to let flow the wizardry of a Mozart sonata from her fingertips. Let it be said henceforth that one is indeed favored if she plays for you.

BURGLAR LOOTS DRUG STORE HERE

TRAMMELL IS NOW PURSUED BY BIG POSSE

CONVICT IS TRAILED IN WEST TEXAS MAN HUNT

FLOYDADA, June 29. (AP)—Officers of several counties concentrated between Dougherty and Roaring Springs today searching for Luke Trammell, one of the desperate convicts who escaped ten days ago from the Retrieve prison farm after killing a guard. Trammell was recognized by Raymond Johnson, operator of a filling station at Dickens, early this morning. James called Sheriff John L. Koonsman of Dickens who pursued the fugitive and engaged in a gun battle with him. Martin Koonsman, brother of the sheriff, said Trammell had deserted his car after the battle and taken to the rough cap-rock "breakers" on foot. Later information, however, supplied by Sam W. Fort, Lubbock police identification expert, was that Trammell was still in the automobile.

The fugitive was believed to have stolen an automobile in Sweetwater from Jack Fomby last night a few blocks from where an automobile thought stolen in South Texas was found deserted.

Fomby told officers he passed the car, later found abandoned, near Lake Sweetwater and noticed it had a flat tire and two men were standing by it. He said he did not stop and drove on into town where his car was stolen.

Officers said they thought the man with Trammell when he was seen by Fomby was Forrest Gibson, who escaped from the prison farm in the break. They did not know definitely whether Gibson was still with Trammell or if he had separated and gone in different directions.

The convicts' flight had been spectacular in the fact that officers

MANY CHILDREN OF PAMPA SIGN UP FOR MOVIE

Mothers Are Bringing Tots to NEWS Today

Pampa boys and girls between the ages of three and 12 years were hurrying today to register for places in the cast of the Kid Comedy which will be produced soon in Pampa by the Daily News and the La Nora and Rex theaters.

The NEWS has made arrangements with the theater management to produce a two-reel movie, similar to the "Our Gang Comedies," popular screen fare. Early this morning first applicants were registered at the NEWS office. All types of potential child actors, many accompanied by parents, entered their names for consideration of the casting director.

Upwards of 100 kiddies were registered today at the two theaters. Milton Barker, of Hollywood, who will "shoot" the local movie, will arrive in Pampa, Wednesday, July 1. All children who have registered will be notified of the try-outs. With a cast of 100 local children to be used, there still is room for more. Registrations may be made at the Daily NEWS office or at La Nora or Rex theaters.

WOMAN KILLED

CORSICANA, June 29. (AP)—Mrs. Evaline Randall, 84-year-old Stigler, Okla., woman, was killed almost instantly and Mrs. M. L. Randall, Houston, was injured when the car in which they and four others were riding struck a bridge on highway 75, near Richland, south of here shortly after noon today.

PAMPA BUILDING PERMITS FOR YEAR LEAD ENTIRE PANHANDLE

DALLAS, June 29. (AP)—Houston led the state in the issuance of building permits last week, authorizing new structures, alterations and repairs to cost $213,932. A table follows:
City Week Year
Houston $213,932 $10,260,195
Galveston 208,967 542,883

PIG CROP UP 29 PER CENT SAYS REPORT

But Will Be 20 Per Cent Below Average of 1932, And Lowest in 20 Years.

WASHINGTON, June 29. (AP)—An increase of about 29 per cent in the spring pig crop of 1936 over the very small crop of 1935, was announced today by the department of agriculture.

The government's pig crop report said there was a prospective increase of about 14 per cent in the number of sows in farrow in the fall season of 1936 over the number farrowed in the fall of 1935; an indicated increase of about 24 per cent in the total farrowing in 1936 over the total of 1935; and a moderate increase in the number of hogs over six months of age on June 1, 1936, over the number on the same date in 1935.

Although the number of litters farrowed in 1936 promises to be substantially larger than the abnormally small numbers in both 1934 and 1935, it will be nearly 20 per cent below the average of 1932 and 1933, and probably below any other year in the last 20 years, at least, the report said.

The number of pigs saved in the spring season of 1936 was estimated at 41,884,000 head, an increase of 9,504,000 over the number saved in the spring season of 1935 but a decrease of 10,359,000 head from the average of 1932-33.

In the north central states—the corn belt—the estimated number of pigs saved in the spring of 1936 was 31,041,000 head, an increase of 6,622,000 head or 32.5 per cent over the spring of 1935, but a decrease of 9,781,000 head, or 24 per cent from the average of 1932-33.

The report said that if the number of sows that farrowed in the fall season should be as now indicated, the total number of litters for the United States in 1936, spring and fall, would be about 11,338,000. This would be an increase of 2,187,000 litters, or 24 per cent over the total of 1935, but a decrease of 2,824,000 litters, or 20 per cent from the average of 1932-33.

The number of hogs over six months of age on farms June 1, 1936, as indicated by the survey reports, was somewhat larger this year than a year earlier, but much below the corresponding date in any other recent year. The indicated increase over last year was about 7 per cent or about 1,500,000 head.

Water Shortage Is Due to End Tuesday Night

Workmen were feverishly hurrying the installation of a new pump at well No. 1 today, hoping to have the new equipment operating by tomorrow night. Meanwhile, hundreds of residents of the city's suburbs were without water which was shut off Saturday morning. Saturday, City Manager Steve announced that he hoped the well would be pumping water by tonight, but when the parts came yesterday morning, he explained today, some equipment had not been shipped. It is being sent by air mail from California. A representative of the pump company is expected here today. It is not likely, it is understood, that water will be turned into lines outside the city limits, or water changed in the swimming pool until the well starts pumping.

Man Injured as Truck Hits Him

Extent of injuries received by R. K. Hext when struck by a truck on the LeFors road about three miles east of Pampa had not been determined at press time. Mr. Hext said he was crossing the road to the Baggerman home to borrow a pump when the truck hit him. Officers of the sheriff's department were investigating.

The injured man was taken to Pampa-Jarratt in a G. C. Malone ambulance. Preliminary examination revealed a broken bone in one leg, probable concussion of the brain, cuts and bruises. Mr. Hext works for George Thuit on a farm near LeFors.

THIEF HIDES IN STORE AND STEALS $240

HID IN SMALL BALCONY AT REAR, CLAIMS CRETNEY

A lone burglar, after hiding in the building, permitted himself to be locked in the Cretney drugstore, 110 1/2 N. Cuyler street, last night and looted the till at $240 in cash. The theft was discovered when W. F. Cretney, owner of the pharmacy, opened the store at 6:30 a. m. today.

It was the second consecutive Sunday night burglary in Pampa. One week ago last night thieves obtained approximately $650 from the J. C. Penney department store. Mr. Cretney said this forenoon that evidence was found indicating that the burglar entered the store through a rear door sometime during the evening and hid in a small balcony at the rear of the store.

Jess Hatcher, of the sheriff's identification bureau, obtained finger prints which Sheriff Earl Talley said he believed would aid authorities in checking several suspects. Hatcher, Sheriff Talley, and Deputy Sheriff O. T. Lindsey investigated the burglary, following the notification by Mr. Cretney early today.

The store was closed and locked at 11:15 o'clock last night by Clyde Oswalt, store employe. The burglar then went to the cash drawer, took the money and left through the rear door, according to belief of sheriff's investigators.

In order to rifle the cash drawer, the thief broke a small lock. Approximately $360 worth of checks were not taken, Mr. Cretney said. Finger prints, through which authorities hope to trace the burglar, were taken from a glass show case. Deputy Sheriff Lindsey said an excellent print was obtained.

Nothing was disturbed in the store, outside of the cash drawer, it was revealed following a thorough check today.

The Cretney store is one door south of the La Nora theater. Sheriff Talley said today that an investigation of the Penney store burglary of a week ago will be pushed along with the Cretney case. However, he said, it is not believed that the two jobs were perpetrated by the same persons.

Reservoir Lakes Are Powdered Silt, Streams Dry

BISMARCK, N. D., June 29. (AP)—Small lakes turned to "dust bowls" today furnished graphic evidence of the severity of North Dakota's most serious drought. A critical water shortage impeded in Hettinger and Adams counties. Many ponds, rivers and wells were dry. The large reservoir lake on the outskirts of the town of Hettinger was reduced to a powdery depression.

Hot southwest winds wilted what pasture remained on the hardpan prairies. Pastures were the poorest in the state's history. Farmers who had already lost their crops feared they would lose livestock, feed, too.

Federal Meteorologist O. W. Roberts said farm animals were shipped from the two counties "by the trainloads, not carloads." Trains and trucks moved along tracks and highways thru Bismarck. Twenty-eight trucks loaded with livestock bound for eastern terminals were counted in one hour yesterday by Assistant Morton County Agent D. R. Groom.

Even grasshoppers found Morton county fields too barren. So they invaded Mandan. Residents watched them feast on garden foliage. County Agent Ralph Newcomer reported 200,000 grasshoppers in the area in one afternoon. Cutworms, he added, had destroyed 59 per cent of the county's remaining supply of corn.

Agent L. O. Putnam said Burleigh county was "without a marketable bushel of grain." The last "rain of consequence" there was last autumn.

GRANT BEATEN BY FRED PERRY; ALLISON LOSES

WIMBLEDON, Eng. June 29. (AP)—Donald Budge, Oakland, Calif., star, was the lone American survivor in the all-England tennis championships today as Bryan M. "Bitsy" Grant and Wilmer Allison, the American champion, were eliminated in the quarter-final round. Allison and Grant met defeat at the hands of England's Davis cup stars, Fred Perry and H. W. (Bunny) Austin, Perry, bidding for his third straight title, cut down Grant in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3, 6-1, while Austin toppled Allison, 6-1, 6-4, 7-5. Budge advanced to the semi-final at the expense of Adrian Quist, champion of Australia, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4. Austin found Allison's backhand an easy victim for his forehand thrust. The American champion was generally below form.

Allison made a great fight, squaring the count at 5-11 in the third set after trailing 3-5 and saving four match points in the long tenth game. The American titleholder tried so desperately to keep the match alive that he fell flat on his face three times in the final game and limped off the court. As the result of his victory over

Police Arrest Local Youth For Shooting Off Fireworks

Charges of disturbing the peace have been filed against a Pampa youth for shooting off fireworks in downtown Pampa. Several boys have been detained by officers but they were allowed to go, after leaving their fire crackers at the police station. A hearing soon is scheduled. Chief of Police Art Hurst says the fire cracker "bug" is not as bad as last year but that it is bad enough. He has instructed his officers to pick up anyone found shooting off fireworks in downtown Pampa, in hospital zones or in city parks. Parents are asked to cooperate by explaining to their children that they should not shoot off fireworks in restricted areas but should stay at home to celebrate.

BLACK TALKS TO BOY WHILE USING BRICK

CHILD TELLS STORY OF KILLING TO POLICE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 29. (AP)—Before the terrified eyes of her seven-year-old son, who lay in bed beside her, Mrs. Florence Thompson Castle, 26, a comely divorcee and entertainer, was choked and beaten to death today by a huge negro who invaded her small room in a near North Side hotel. On the mirror of a dresser the killer had scrawled with his victim's lipstick: "Black Legion, Game."

Beneath the writing was a crudely drawn skull and cross bones. Mrs. Castle's purse had been looted, indicating that robbery was the probable motive for the attack. James Castle, the son, who disclosed the slaying to the clerk in the near North Side hotel, said the invader conversed with him while he was beating the mother to death. After the killer had fled down a fire escape, the boy said he went back to sleep, not realizing his mother had been killed. But when he awoke later and was unable to arouse her, he ran in terror to the hotel lobby.

Purse Empty. The police found Mrs. Castle's body, clad in a night gown, across the bed. Two halves of a brick used by the killer were lying beside the bed, covered with blood. A window to a fire escape was open. Mrs. Castle's purse lay empty on the fire escape.

The boy told the police his father was James Thompson of Boston. He said he did not know the killer. His mother, he said, had been divorced and later married a man he knew only as "Bud" Castle, who now lives in Los Angeles.

The police said they were unable to determine whether the victim had been criminally attacked. Mrs. Castle had been employed as an entertainer in a tavern until three months ago.

The boy said his mother had read the "funnies" to him last night about 7 o'clock. "She put me in bed pretty soon and I don't know how long it was before I woke up and saw the man," he told the police.

"The man was sitting over mamma and hitting her with something ... He kept on hitting her by the

FOR BIDS FOR LEADERSHIP OF 'AVERAGE MAN'

WAR CRY IS SOUNDED BY PRESIDENT IN SPEECH

PHILADELPHIA, June 29 (AP)—Democratic leaders scattered to the four corners of the country today to preach economic freedom as the keynote of their campaign to re-elect President Roosevelt.

They carried a pledge to battle "economic tyranny" directly from the President who wound up the party's convention Saturday night by accepting his renomination before an enthusiastic crowd of 100,000 in rain soaked Franklin field.

Only those near loud speakers heard the last three sentences of the President's address. "I accept," started a tumultuous ovation that all but drowned out, "the commission you have tendered me. I join with you. I am enlisted for the duration of the war." It lasted until Mr. Roosevelt drove from the vast stadium.

Halfway through his speech the President sounded his war cry: "For too many of us, the political inequality. A small group had concentrated in their own hands an almost complete control over other people's property, other people's money, other people's labor, other people's lives."

"For too many of us life was no longer free; liberty no longer real; men could no longer follow the pursuit of happiness."

"Against economic tyranny such as this, the citizens could only appeal to the organized power of government. The collapse of 1929 showed up the despotism for what it was."

"The election of 1932 was the people's mandate to end it. Under that mandate it is being ended."

Mr. Roosevelt then told how the country and its citizens had won their political freedom.

"Today we stand committed to the proposition that freedom is no half and half affair," he continued. "If the average citizen is guaranteed equal opportunity in the polling place, he must have equal opportunity in the market place."

"The economic royalists complain that we seek to overthrow the institutions of America. What they really complain of is that we seek to take away their power. Our allegiance to American institutions requires the overthrow of this kind of power."

"In vain they seek to hide behind the flag and the constitution. In their blindness they forget what the flag and the constitution stand for."

"Now as always the flag and the constitution stand for democracy, not tyranny; for freedom not subjugation; and against a dictatorship by mob rule and the over privileged elite."

The President did not mention either the republican party or Governor Alf M. Landon, the republican candidate. Nor did he mention the democratic "small business and mechanics," "the workers and the farmer," and "the average man."

Only a few street banners, worse for wear and Saturday's rain, and a bigger cash balance served to remind the city today of the five-day convention.

Led by the President, who boarded a train for Hyde Park, N. Y., a few minutes after his speech, the democrats lost little time starting home. The last of the special trains left yesterday afternoon. By evening, Philadelphia's traditional Sunday tranquility was completely restored.

PREDICTS LEAD
TAYLOR, June 29 (AP)—State Senator Roy Sanderford, candidate for governor, predicted today he would lead in the first primary as he planned a ten-speech week he said would carry him from Tyler in East Texas to Ranger in the west. "Every section of the state predicts that I shall be in the runoff with one or the other of the candidates for governor and many sections say that I shall lead in the first primary," he said.

'CACTUS JACK' GARNER MASKS MIGHT BEHIND HIS BUFFONERY

By HERBERT PLUMMER
WASHINGTON, June 29 (AP)—While Vice President John N. Garner describes himself as the "spare tire of the government," the bushy-browed, ruddy-faced Texan with the big grin and twinkling eyes is regarded in Washington as one of the most powerful figures in the Roosevelt administration.

"Cactus Jack" would be the last to admit such a distinction. He would probably laugh at the suggestion as he did once when a circus clown greeted him in the senate office building.

"I am head clown of the Hagenbeck circus," said his visitor. "And I am vice president of the United States," Garner replied solemnly—then added: "Stick around a while. You might pick up some new ideas."

Again On Ticket
A loyal supporter of the administration but a "silent critic" of some new deal policies, he was selected without opposition as Roosevelt's alternate for renomination.

Garner is essentially the same "homespun statesman" who came up through the ranks as a member of the house to become his party's leader and speaker in that body on his way to the vice presidency.

He still goes to bed at 9 o'clock and rises with the dawn, refuses to don a dress suit except on formal state occasions and enjoys fishing and baseball games.

Kink Cramps Fishing
A kink in his right shoulder now prevents him from tossing plugs with his old accuracy, at base in the rivers around his home at Uvalde.

"I just row the boat now," he says. He has a way of his own of saving his conscience for leaving the senate for the ball park.

"I always take two Republicans and one Democrat along with me, so that if any votes come up while I'm away we Democrats have a little the best of it."

He admits he saw the hilarious travesty on Washington politics, the prize-winning play, "Of Thee I Sing," as many times as he could. He particularly liked the part where Victor Moore, as Vice President Throtheadbottom, had to join a sight-seeing party to get into his own offices. He and Moore became great friends, exchanged pictures and autographs.

UNIQUE BRAND WAS PROPERTY OF CHURCHMEN

METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAD ITS OWN BRAND

LLANO, June 29 (AP)—One of the most interesting cattle brands in Texas originated in Llano county near 80 years ago, but became extinct after about 20 years. The brand was used by the Methodist Missionary Society of Castell, a small German settlement, and came into existence soon after the church was founded there in 1856.

As the pioneers had little money they donated cattle to a "missionary herd," a simple but definite contract governed the management of the missionary herd, the proceeds being placed in the missionary fund of the church, says C. H. Grote, a pioneer resident of the Castell community whose father, the late Rev. of A. Grote, originated the church.

The preacher's family supplied with milk and butter from the cows and a member of the church was appointed to take care of the herd.

The mark on the cattle was crop, two splits and underbit in the right ear, and the brand was MV, the initials for "Missionary Verein," the German equivalent of missionary society. Many of the older residents of Llano county recall the MV brand.

Historic Castell, like New Braunfels and Fredericksburg, was founded by the German colonists who came to this country during the 40's. The early German settlers who settled along the Llano river at Castell were the first substantial settlers of Llano county of whom there is record. Their colony, numbering hundreds, sailed from Europe in two ships, landed at Galveston and moved by ox cart and afoot through Houston to found Searles.

The original bell of the first church the Wends built is on exhibition in the Lutheran synod booth at the Centennial exposition at Dallas. It was cast in Europe, the metal being bought by trinkets given by members of the congregation, Mr. Biar said.

Delegates from all Texas churches are expected. Dr. J. H. Fritz, dean of the Lutheran Theological seminary at St. Louis, will represent the synod's international president, Dr. J. W. Behnken of Chicago. Rev. Constantin Beyer of Wichita Falls will preside.

The major part of the sessions will be devoted to presentation and deliberation of the doctrine of "predestination" according to the Lutheran confessions. Election of state officers also is part of the business of the convention.

"Since the body is democratic in administration," Mr. Biar says, "this convention is the clearing and count-

Texas History Thrills Crowds

One of the thrilling features of the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas is "The Cavalry," a stirring drama of Lone Star history under six

Paddock Flays AAU Officials In Newspaper

PASADENA, Calif., June 29 (AP)—Sharp criticism of local A. A. U. officials and their management of the far western Olympic track and field tryouts was made today by Charles W. Paddock, once the "fastest human" in the world.

In his newspaper column appearing in the Pasadena Star-News and Long Beach Telegram today, Paddock always a severe critic of the A. A. U., led off with the statement:

"Shooting is too good for those officials of the western Olympic coliseum who state there was a deficit. The expenses ate up the gate receipts. Even if they had not, the profits would have gone to the American Olympic committee to defray expenses for the trip from New York to Berlin, and not one cent would have been used toward financing the winners of the Los Angeles trials to New York."

Without mentioning the officials quoted, Paddock continued: "If the spectators had known and the athletes had thought that the gate receipts were not to be used to defray their expenses, the spectators for the most part would not have been present and virtually all the athletes could have competed in another section of the country."

Paddock charged the meet was mismanaged by "A. A. U. officials who do not know how to run meets," and added that "people wanted to help, but the A. A. U. as always, knew too much."

BORGANS BEAT MIGHTY HUBER NINE 9 TO 7

ERRORLESS BALL GAME IS PLAYED AT BORGER

The Phillips 66 Oilers from LeFors continue to throw surprises into Panhandle baseball circles.

Yesterday afternoon in Borger the boys from the banks of the Red river humbled the mighty Huber Blackfaces, 9 to 7, in an errorless ball game. The Phillips batters got to three Huber hurlers for 16 hits while Rex Dilbeck was holding the Blackfaces to 10 bingles, well scattered.

Filbert, Phillips first baseman, had a field day at the plate. The little lefthander cracked out two home runs and a double. Simms, new second baseman secured from Oklahoma university, made his first appearance impressive with a double and a single in four times at bat. Fountaine, shortstop, hit three singles on four times at bat.

Dilbeck went the distance for Phillips with Berk behind the plate. Huber used Carithers, Stegman, and Blair in an effort to halt the Phillips attack.

Phillips has played four games against the "big three" of the Panhandle and has two wins against two losses. They won and lost to Amarillo, lost to the Pampa-Danger Road Runners, and defeated Borger.

THE GLORIOUS GO FORTH

No one can deny they've taken their place in the sun—these brilliant American women. A week-day finds them, as a matter of course, light-heartedly assuming a full share of the work and responsibility of this busy world. But a holiday sees them off with equal enthusiasm for a carefree playtime. Fresh—relaxed—youthful—they hail the freedom of field and road and beach—and the pursuit of happiness.

Gone are the green veils and the timid gestures of other days. Gone the dull complexions—and the dragging old-fashioned grind of duty that kept them prisoners from the sun. Nowadays woman's work is done—and done in time for a wave and a beauty treatment.

How? By keeping herself posted on the newest ways to do things—the time-savers, beauty builders, feminine aids and allies. By reading, studying, comparing and experimenting—in the advertising pages of this very newspaper. Advertising is writing a great share of the modern woman's independence program.

The glorious go forth to buy, as they go to play, with assurance and the resolve to make the most of life. They know what they want and where to find it, and the right price to pay. The time and money saved are beauty aids in themselves. READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS.

MARRIAGES OF PAST WEEK ANNOUNCED; BRIDE HONORED

WEDDING READ OUTDOORS FOR YOUNG COUPLE

FORMER RESIDENT RETURNS AS BRIDE FROM ABILENE

A midnight wedding on the lawn of Francis Avenue Church of Christ united in marriage Miss Pauline Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrett, and Finley Vanderburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vanderburg.

E. C. McKenzie, minister of Francis Avenue church, read the ring ceremony at 12:15 Sunday morning. The couple was surprised by the appearance just before the ceremony of all Mr. Vanderburg's fellow employees at the Standard Food Market No. 2, who witnessed the marriage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Vanderburg have lived in Pampa with their parents for several years, and attended Pampa schools. He has been employed the past three years with the Standard markets.

COUPLE AT HOME AFTER TEXAS TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman are at home here after a trip which followed their marriage last Monday in the home of the bride at Abilene. She was formerly Miss Geneva McFarlin, resident of Abilene since leaving Pampa last year.

A group of relatives witnessed the simple ceremony read at one o'clock by the Rev. C. A. Long, Methodist minister who was pastor of First Methodist church here a few years ago. The bride wore a two-piece frock of pink, and a corsage of tulle and roses.

The couple left that afternoon for a trip to Mineral Wells, Waco, and Dallas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McFarlin. She was employed by the telephone company here before transferring to Abilene, and has visited friends in the city since that time. Mr. Chapman has been territorial circulation manager of the Daily News for several years.

MRS. BATSON IS SHOWER HONOREE

A bridal shower complimenting Mrs. Lloyd Batson, who was Miss Annie Laurie Burleson before her recent marriage, was given last week at the home of Mrs. Ovelle Batson, with Misses H. V. Turner, Calvin Whitley, and Herman Whitley as hostesses.

The rooms were brightly decorated with pink and white carnations and garden flowers. The refreshment course was also in pink and white. After an hour spent informally, a number of gifts was presented to the bride by little Wayne Batson, Mona and Georgia Burleson.

Those registering in the bride's book were Misses C. H. Darling, B. A. Sumner, Park Brown, V. F. Hobart, C. V. Batson, C. B. Batson, Maud Paulk, T. V. Lane, F. O. Guilan, A. N. Burleson, Glen Slocum, Ed Birch, Laura Brown. Misses Helen J. Daugherty, Minnie Olive Montgomery, Willie Isbell and Estelle Burleson.

Teacher Elected By Class During Outdoor Meeting

At an outdoor party in Central Park, Clara Hill class of First Methodist church elected Mrs. T. B. Barron as teacher Thursday evening. After the business meeting, games were played and refreshments were served by Misses W. J. Johnson, A. Hefflin, George Hancock, and J. W. Crisler.

Other members present with Miss Freda Smith, a guest, were Misses R. O. Pearce, L. C. Gomillion, Ralph Shine, L. C. Lockart, Bert Moore, Ray Riley, Glen Radcliff, Paul Clifford, H. M. Proper, Francis Riley, Fred Radcliff, Philip Wolfe, and Bennett.

Cucumbers Keep in Brine Solution for Almost Entire Year

"Using 10 pounds of salt that cost 14 cents, I cured 20 gallons of Long Green cucumbers for pickles, and after using and giving some to friends, I still have 12 gallons of cucumbers in brine," Mrs. N. B. Cude reported recently to Kingsmill Home Demonstration club.

Last August when there was an abundance of cucumbers Mrs. Cude put the 20 gallons in 40 per cent brine solution in a stone jar. During the winter she tested the brine at intervals with a salinometer. When she takes the cucumbers from the brine for use, she soaks them two or three days in cold water to remove surplus salt, then makes them into salad, sweet pickles, or relishes.

These cucumbers are still in perfect condition and have a fresh green color.

HOMEMAKERS CLASS
A social meeting of First Baptist Homemakers class will begin at 3 o'clock at the church. All members are asked to be present.

VISITOR FROM TERRELL GIVEN BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. James Hopkins Entertains For Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. Walter Wilson Jr. of Terrell was honored guest at a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. James A. Hopkins in her country home at Hopkins Friday.

A delicious five course luncheon was served, and the bridge was enjoyed in the afternoon. Jake E. Burkett made high score. The guest of honor was presented with a lovely gift.

Guests, in addition to the honoree, were Mrs. Robert A. Knox, Mrs. Reuben L. Weeks, Miss Cleora Stansard, and Mrs. Burkett.

Mrs. Barnes Is Skellytown Club Hostess Friday

SKELLYTOWN, June 29.—Pleasant Hour club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Berry Barnes. A short business meeting was conducted with Mrs. J. C. Jarvis acting as president in the absence of Mrs. Tomlin. Conversation and sewing were enjoyed afterward.

Delicious refreshments were served to Misses Crawford, W. S. Boyd, Stafford, W. W. Hughes, Jarvis, and the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Crawford on July 10.

Birthday Party.
Lota Mae Hughes was given a party on her fifth birthday recently by her mother, Mrs. W. W. Hughes. The afternoon was spent playing various games. Prizes were awarded to Edna Ruth McAchran, Sonny Boy Hailey, and Eugene Evans.

Lota Mae thanked each guest for a birthday gift. Ice cream and pink and white cookies with pink and white candles were served and lollipops were given as favors to Glyn Tomlin, Billie Pete Hughes, Edna Ruth McAchran, Eugene Evans, Sonny Boy Hailey, and Lota Mae.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowsher and family left Saturday morning for Ohio to spend a two-week vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer DeLawn had as guests Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nichols from Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gomillion of Pampa visited Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hughes Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hughes were Amarillo visitors Saturday.

Two Boys Have Birthday Party

A birthday party for Kenneth and Billy Frank Stephens was enjoyed by a group of their friends Friday afternoon at their home on the Wilcox lease. After the gifts were presented and games played, Mrs. J. E. Dye, assisted Mrs. J. W. Sexton, mother of the honorees, in serving ice cream, cake, and lemonade.

Guests were Raymond Rhoby, Harland Hope Juanita, Frank and Alene Barrett, Richard and Philip Bynum, Ruth Evelyn Jewell, Clifford Rhodes, Janice and Patsy King, Richard and Lanora Dixon, Jack Smith, Jack and Melvina Ironmonger, Dorothy Jean Watson, Carl and Juanita Sexton, Billie Ponder. Gifts were also received from Mrs. E. B. Richardson and Mrs. Dye.

Youthful Buttoned Shoulder Yoke

And what a Joy to Wear with Its Cool Brief Sleeves

By ELLEN WORTH

What an urge for cool frocks seems to course through us when the mercury rises. And how we are attracted to the cool low neckline and brief sleeves as today's model. It has a graceful slim skirt with an action pleat at the front.

This model is as easy as falling off a log to make. The yoke and the bodice form the sleeves. See the small diagram.

Or make it in a nice cool sheer dotted swiss in copen blue and white. Tub pastels, linens, pique, shantung, etc., are also good.

Style No. 1784 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18 years, 36, 38 and 40-inches bust. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 35-inch material with 1/2 yard of 35-inch contrasting.

Our Illustrated Home Dressmaking Book contains the latest fashions together with dressmaking lessons and the fundamental principles of sewing. Whether you are an experienced sewer or just a beginner, you will find this book helpful indeed in making your summer clothes. It is just full of ideas to enhance your own looks. SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

BY MARY E. DAGUE
NEA Service Staff Writer

Baked ham is a dish that finds special favor during hot weather. Once ham and other cured meats were not obtainable in the summer. We serve them still because they are so palatable.

But that palatableness is largely a matter of preparation. No foods respond more completely to right and wrong ways of cooking. Here are a few rules well worth following:

If you are going to bake a ham or several pounds of Canadian bacon, always let the meat stand in cold water for at least eight hours (depending of course, on the size of the cut). Both the flavor and texture will be greatly improved by this soaking.

The next time you must resort to cold boiled ham as an emergency, try ham rolls. They take only a few minutes to prepare and are most appetizing. Serve with grilled apple slices.

Ham Rolls
Four slices cold boiled ham, 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon melted apple or currant jelly, 5 tablespoons milk, 4 tablespoons prepared mustard, paprika.

Combine bread crumbs, milk, jelly, mustard and paprika. Spread a thin layer on each slice of ham. Roll and fasten with wooden toothpicks. Place in a shallow baking dish and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Baste two or three times during the baking with fruit juice or vinegar from sweet pickles.

Grilled Apple Slices
Cut tart apples, in slices about an inch thick. Core, but do not peel. Dip in melted butter and then in sugar, mixed with powdered cinnamon. Arrange on broiler and dot with bits of butter. Slide under the low flame of the broiler and cook five or ten minutes on one side. Turn, dot again with butter and cook until brown.

Corried beef is another good summer meat. A vegetable dinner, cooked in the broth after the meat has been removed is exceedingly appetizing. Press the meat between two heavy plates and, when very cold and firm, slice thin and serve. Cook new cabbage whole in the meat broth. Place on a large platter and surround with piles of baby carrots, well seasoned with butter, fingers of tender cucumbers boiled in salted water and smothered in cream, and halves of tomatoes, dipped in melted butter and fine cracker crumbs and broiled.

The meat itself is delicious served with other cold cuts, and the broth flavors the cabbage inimitably.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Sliced peaches, poached eggs on toast, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Cheese and spinach souffle, lettuce sandwiches, blackberry roly-poly, milk tea.
DINNER: Ham rolls with grilled apple slices, potatoes au gratin, buttered green beans, tomato and stuffed celery salad, chilled watermelon, milk, coffee.

'Father of Texas Cattle Industry' Taken by Death

COLLEGE STATION, June 29. (P)—Funeral services were planned on the campus of Texas A. & M. college today for Dr. Mark Francis, 72-year old "father of the Texas cattle industry."

Burial will be at Shandon, O., his family residence. Heart disease caused the death of the dean of the school of veterinary medicine of the college and chief of the division of veterinary science at the institution's experiment station.

Dr. Francis was credited with the discovery of the subcutaneous injection method for producing immunity in cattle to tick fever. That scientific step was regarded widely as playing a great part in the development of the giant Texas cattle industry.

Dr. Francis had been connected with A. & M. college 48 years and was one of the oldest faculty members in point of service. Since the organization of the veterinary school in 1916, he had been its dean.

DORCAS CLASS MEETING

A business meeting is announced for 2:30 Wednesday afternoon by Dorcas class of First Baptist church. All members are asked to be present at the church.

EIGHT HEARTS CLUB

Attendance of 155 in Bible classes yesterday was reported from Francis Avenue Church of Christ. Reception of six new members featured the church services of the day.

BREAKFAST IS FAREWELL FOR ESTHER STARK

MRS. HEROD AND MRS. STILES ARE JOINT HOSTESSES

Miss Esther Stark, who will leave Wednesday to accept a position in Los Angeles, was complimented with a breakfast at the Eagle buffet yesterday morning. Mrs. Tom Herod and Mrs. Sandra Ann Jacobs were the hostesses. The attractive table was centered with a bouquet of summer flowers in pastel colors. After the delicious breakfast, each guest presented Miss Stark with a gift of lingerie.

Places were laid for the honoree and Mrs. Jean Burton, Mrs. Walter Biery, Mrs. W. F. McDonald, Mrs. W. B. Wild, Mrs. Wilkes Hamlett of Mayfield, Ky., Mrs. Stiles and Mrs. Herod.

Leukemia Takes Life of Child

BEAUMONT, June 29 (P)—The "death sentence" physicians tenderly gave tiny Sandra Ann Jacobs of Port Arthur, has been carried out. Sandra Ann died last night, victim of leukemia, a rare blood disease whose cause and cure medical science has not yet discovered.

Physicians advised her parents last week that nothing on earth could save Sandra Ann. The child never seemed ill, nestling quietly in her mother's arms and refusing food with a gay little laugh.

NEA Opens With Attendance of 10,000 Teachers

PORTLAND, Ore., June 29 (P)—The National Education association convention opened here today with an estimated 10,000 school teachers seeking first-hand knowledge of latest methods of instruction and preparing to make a stand for freedom in speech and instruction.

Early arrivals heard Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university at Salem, Ore., stress the need for character training of children.

"Character is taught and not taught," he said. "Unless one has the correct scale of values, an education might prove to be very dangerous. An educated weakling is a disappointment; an educated rascal is a menace."

BUILDING ON THE UPGRADE
An important story in Sunday's Pampa Daily NEWS was the one which told of a peak-record being reached in city building activities during the last week, which boosted the building permit figure for the first six months of 1936 to more than a quarter of a million dollars.

Building permits naturally reflect the business pulse of any community. The fact that Pampa building has shot to its highest point since the 1929 crash, places the city high in the list of forward-marching, growing centers in this section of the nation.

Pampa has the zip to go ahead. The resources are here. Men behind the wheels of progress are doing a splendid job. A rise in building permits for the first half of the year is evidence of the confidence and faith which is being invested.

Then, too, nationally the unprecedented peace-time drive for public and private construction during the first half of 1936 produced the greatest acceleration of building since the depression halted the forward strides of that gigantic industry.

Residential building, upon which government and civic organizations have exerted the most pressure, responded by rising to the best levels since the end of 1931, as measured by The Associated Press index.

Percentage-wise, the showing is phenomenal. The estimated volume for the first six months of 1936 is half again as great as for the first of last year and nearly double the initial part of the 1932 depression low point.

In dollars, however, the building of private homes so far this year totaled about $320,000,000 compared with more than a billion dollars for the corresponding period of 1929.

Nevertheless there is a distinct shortage of homes. Real estate authorities have warned that the nation will face an embarrassing lack of houses unless building picks up sharply, private enterprise has erected model homes, corporations have offered pre-fabricated dwellings.

Public building has progressed slowly. Federal projects added to the total. Private industry turned again to expansion programs which include more and bigger buildings.

Estimates show that in first half of the present year contracts were let for buildings valued at $1,100,000,000. That gross is 58 per cent higher than the corresponding period of last year, which in turn was 61 per cent higher than the 1933 comparative. But it stands well below the total of $3,012,200 registered for the January-June period of 1929.

The most encouraging hopes are aroused by residential building. Experts significantly point out that higher rents will make it cheaper to build.

SOVIET DEMOCRACY
An editorial in the New York Times, under the subject of Russia's plan to establish a Soviet Constitution, points out that possibly one of the strong reasons for this is that Russia believes it inevitably will get into a foreign war with Japan or with Germany or with both.

The paper contends that Joseph Stalin wants to bind to himself the loyalty of the Russian masses by other ties than blind compulsion; that if Russia is to be in war, the Soviet rulers now believe that they can make a better showing with the united and reconciled nation behind them than they can if part of the citizens are controlled by force.

For this reason, it is argued, that they propose to abolish the former class disabilities in the schools, factories and other field of national life.

With China holding a national election this year to re-establish democracy and with Russia proposing a constitutional democracy, the problems of government are practically before the whole world.

The Russian experiment will be watched with interest.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD
By SALLY SAGE
(Blonde Miss Sage, stand-in to a popular star, sits in today for Robbins Coons and advises movie-struck girls.)

HOLLYWOOD—I've stood before the camera thousands of times in the last three years but I haven't been photographed yet. I am Bette Davis' stand-in. When the camera is adjusted and all the lights are focused properly, I step out of the scene and Bette takes my place.

That's my impression. But maybe I've been a stand-in too long.

But through the eyes of a stand-in, the studio has none of the glamour which outsiders think it has. I work from 8:30 to 5—or usually later. It's just a glorified factory.

That's my impression. But maybe I've been a stand-in too long.

DON'T try to become a star by starting as a stand-in. The casting directors only get the impression that you are a pale carbon copy of the star with whom you work.

DON'T sacrifice a steady job somewhere which may pay only a small weekly amount for the elusive will-o'-the-wisp of a chance for stardom. Even if by some outside chance, you get a job as extra or stand-in, the work is so irregular that in the long run, it's far from being as well paid as it seems.

Beauty Winners Beware
DON'T get the idea that winning a beauty contest with a studio contract as a prize will give you a big opportunity. During my three years in the studio, I have seen beauty contests winners come and go at six month intervals. Personally I'd rather have the monotonous hard work of a stand-in.

Practically the ONLY way to get parts now is to break in through the stage. Whenever the studio wants new faces, it invariably turns to the stage instead of to the ranks of extras or stand-ins, even though their faces would be just as "new" to motion picture audiences.

When I started, I began to have hopes of "getting somewhere." Bette has given me encouragement and has helped me tremendously by coaching me in elocution and diction. However, she knows as well as I do that if I continue as a stand-in, I probably never will get anywhere. She is trying to have me put under contract so I can live down the tag of "stand-in."

Work Has Compensations

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Frederic J. Haskin
A reader can get the answer to any question of fact by writing The Pampa Daily NEWS' Information Bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C. Please enclose three (3) cents for reply.

Q. When was Patriots Day first celebrated? W. E. A. Patriots Day, the anniversary of the double battle of Concord and Lexington, April 19, 1775, was first observed in 1894. In that year a bill was passed in Massachusetts to abolish Fast Day and to make April 19 a legal holiday. In his proclamation the governor stated that this day was rich in historical significance not only because of the battles of Lexington and Concord, but because it marked the cessation of the war in 1783 and also was the day on which the first blood of the Civil War was shed in 1861.

Q. Where is the oldest permanent settlement in the Mississippi valley? I. I. A. Kaskaskia, Illinois, claims this distinction. It is a village in Randolph county, on the Mississippi river. It dates back to 1700. It now has a population of about 100.

Q. Is the widow of Eugene Fields living? J. C. A. The poet's widow, Julia Sutherland, is located on her farm near Heaford Junction, Wisconsin. She was 79 years old.

Q. What is meant by extine? G. R. W. A. In plants it is the outer of the two layers of a spore wall, the inner one being called the intine. The intine is the protective layer, being comparatively thick and impervious and often developing a rough surface or appendages of various kinds. It is also called the exospore.

Q. How are locomotives classified? S. N. In the United States they are usually classified according to the number and arrangement of their driving and truck wheels.

Q. What is the history of the land on which the Empire State building is located? F. T. The site was part of a farm on which there were fights between British soldiers and American colonists in September, 1776. It was in 1827 that the land passed into possession of the Astor family. William B. Astor, a son of John Jacob Astor, bought the farm for $20,000. It was sold 102 years later at the rate of $8,000,000 an acre.

Q. Was the discovery of iodine an accident? E. J. A. Iodine was discovered in 1811 by a French chemist, who, in trying to make a solution of sodium nitrate, treated calcium nitrate with the ash of sea weed.

Q. Are any of Cicero's letters in existence? B. C. A. More than eight hundred of his letters are extant.

Q. Is it easier to make a male or a female parrot talk? M. P. A. The male is more responsive to teaching.

Q. What is de facto government? J. B. S. A. This is a government which is actually exercising governing power over a particular territory, irrespective of its legal authority. De facto government is distinguished from de jure government, the latter being a government which exists by legal right or by international recognition.

Q. What has become of the furniture in the boarding house room in which President Lincoln died? W. H. A. The room was reproduced in Chicago's New Museum of History, and the furniture from this little room set in Ford's theatre has been installed in it.

Q. What percentage of the words in the English language is Latin? Greek? J. D. W. A. One computation of the origin of words in the English language shows 60 per cent Saxon, 30 per cent Latin including those received through French, and only 5 per cent Greek, the remaining 5 per cent being from other sources.

Q. Are there tuberculosis hospitals in Alaska? B. G. A. There is only one tuberculosis hospital in the territory of Alaska—the United States hospital for natives at Juneau. This is a hospital managed by the Office of Indian Affairs and is primarily for Indians.

Q. Why were races discontinued on the board track at Cincinnati? J. E. A. The American Automobile association says that it was because the expense of the upkeep of this track was too great.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—Half of the fun of a big fight in New York is the bull sessions to be found in all the recognized rendezvous on those nights immediately preceding the scrap. From 10,000 to 50,000 visitors storm into town, well heeled, and there's no check-rein on the wallet or the conversation.

Drop into any hotel lobby and note the crowds arguing the pros and cons of the heavyweights. They reminisce as avidly as Vassar graduates at a class reunion.

Most of the incomers are veteran fight goers who drop their work whenever they are to attend the year's big tistic brawls. Prize fights are their Big Thrill in life (as the Derby is to its fiends), and from one season's end to the next their plans are built around getting away from the office back home and having another whack at the big town.

Jack Dempsey's restaurant is always a madhouse days before any important scrap. You couldn't wedge yourself into the place before the Louis-Schmeling fight. The boys were chinning with the ex-champ and shaking hands with all the big shots identified with the game. They like to go back home, after the fight, and casually mention those conversations with Ole Manassa Mauler.

"Dempsey said to me, 'Look here, Joe, remember that left hook in the fourth round?' ... That's the way it goes.

The night clubs and the hotel bars, plus those restaurants with national reputations, get most of the extra coin. The New York Convention and Visitors' bureau estimates that at least $200,000 was spent in New York by visitors just before the battle in Yankee stadium. The peak of the spending was reached the last two days before the fight, with the Good Time Charlies lading it out with a lavish hand during the final 24 hours. Steak dinners and hard liquor, with big black cigars and a handsome tip for the waiters—some fun, eh, kid?"

Interesting, if true, are the bureau's figures on the estimated distance traveled by the confirmed fight fans. There was a sizable contingent from California, as usual (and when wasn't there a sizable contingent of Californians around the 48 states and London. More than 600 of the boys representing outside newspapers checked in for free ducaats—which explains why your ringside seats which cost you $50 were half a mile from the ring, dearie. When they get through with the prize and the politicians, you're out in the provinces, about two whoops and a holler from that squared circle where the boys are putting the slug on each other.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Edited by DR. IAGO GALDSTON
Measles Complications
The onset of measles is usually associated with a rise in the child's temperature. The fever commonly persists until the rash begins to fade. The temperature may reach 104 degrees and even higher, during the eruption of the rash, and is not of itself indicative of any complication.

But should the fever fail to subside with the fading of the rash, or should it rise again after an interval of hours or days, then the development of one of the major complications must be suspected.

The most common and serious complications of measles are enteritis (inflammation of the small intestine), bronchopneumonia and inflammation of the middle ear. The first two may develop early.

Each of these complications arises from the headway which bacteria can make because of the weakened condition of the child's body. Measles itself is not caused by any of the bacteria responsible for its complications. It is due to a filtrable virus, very apt to flout them and do things just to shock them.

Mr. Smith, for example, will not let Mary go out with boys, but what she knows are innocent trips to the movies or dances, lest the neighbors get the idea that Mary is running wild. Let the neighbors talk. If Mary brings the young men home, and goes out with them from her own room, the neighbors will be angry. If he interferes, Mary probably will find some less innocent meeting place, and go to questionable forms of entertainment.

Public opinion is not what the neighbors say or think. It is a hidden force which one cannot weigh or measure, touch, hear or feel. It expresses itself in the manners and customs of the times. The neighbors may be out of date, they may not know the conventions of the place or country they are in. Mary is much more likely to be obeying public opinion than the meddling neighbors are. She is doing what the other girls do, and the neighbors' comment, whether spoken or implied, had better be ignored.

Hundreds of girls and boys leave home or go wrong because of their parents' fear of the neighbors.

Chapter 45
NEW YEAR
Dirk said, "He came because he was going back to Texas."

"I know," she answered. "He wanted to see me, thinking it was the last time. It was the last time."

"The strange thing was, I had been feeling easy about him. I've always known when he was happy and well. A sort of happiness always came to me, too. I had this happiness—no, it was more a kind of peace—that night. Not just because I had about decided to tell Rupert and believed he would help us, but because something told me Roddie was safe."

"You see I was feeling Roddie's quiet mood. He had resolved to go home, to give himself up. He was at peace. And so was I."

"I was lying in bed, reading. You know, after Rupert came home—after the nurses left, and I was taking care of him—the door between our rooms stayed open. Only that I might hear the little bell when he touched it. Even that was seldom enough."

"It was open that night, and I could see that Rupert's light was burning. Not the light beside his bed, but the one on his desk. I wondered at this. Everything was so still. I thought, 'He's asleep but his light is burning. I must put it out.'"

"I went quietly to the door, not wanting to wake him, and I saw him sitting at his desk, writing. He didn't see me, and I stood there thinking how white and strong his profile looked against the lamp, and how black his hair was. Once he stopped to think, and I thought he was going to turn around. But he went on writing."

"And then suddenly he looked at me. Not at me—at something beyond me. I turned instantly, and saw one of them in the shadow near the bed. I screamed, though I knew it was Roddie. It was so sudden, so unexpected. Rupert had seen Roddie in the long mirror, and Roddie hadn't seen Rupert at all."

"I don't know what Rupert thought. I only know that he was there. The pistol must have been beside him, for it was in his hand."

"Roddie was so quick, so terribly quick. I think Rupert fired first. Oh, Dirk, I know Rupert fired first. Roddie said so. It was the last thing I ever heard him say. He didn't tell me he was hurt. I told him he must go. For my sake, he must go. . . . as if he had been a thief. I told him. But he would let him know."

"Where had he got the pistol? Over and over I ask myself that. It must have been one of Torrobin's. Perhaps the one that Torrobin had stolen from Dirk."

"What did they say, Dirk? About Roddie? I mean, when the case was closed. What was the report?"

"Death at the hands of persons unknown," Dirk answered. "He would have wanted it like that."

"And he never knew," she said, "that Rupert was gone. You let him go in peace, not knowing. He knows now, perhaps. Do you think things are different—there?"

"I don't know what I think. I know only that Rupert would have gone that night, even if Roddie hadn't come. He would have gotten up, and closed the door. . . . and gone."

"Oh, Roddie!" she cried, her face against Dirk's breast. "Roddie. . . . Roddie."

She was quiet at last in his arms. From the seat in the bay-window they looked out at the world, white and still under the moon.

Dirk said, "Do you know what day this is?"

No. She had forgotten time. He knew that she had forgotten time. Knew that she didn't know Roddie had died on Christmas Eve. He was glad that she would never know.

"It's New Year's," he said. "At midnight all the bells are going to ring, so I mean, when do you want to go to sleep. My father told me that when he was a child they used all to light brand new candles when the bells began to ring. They thought it brought them luck to carry a lighted candle into the future. Thought that, carrying a light, you'd scare off everything dark and unfriendly, and everything that loved the light would see it through your window, and come and follow you. I've always thought I'd like to do that—light a new candle when the bells begin on New Year's, but I've always been doing something hilarious instead."

She looked at the snow. "I'd love to light a candle to-night," she said.

"There's a fire in the library. Let's go down, and wait there, and wait the New Year in. It will be the New Year. I've been waiting for all my life. Wait. I'll go down and put a log on. Timothy's gone to bed."

When he came back she had changed her dress, had slipped into the yellow gown. Starry and twinkling, she went with him down the dim stair, through the great tapestried hall. In the library the log-fire blazed and crackled. Two tall red candles stood on the mantle. The old half-moon couch was drawn before the hearth. There was no light in the room beside the fire. Its flames began to shorten, as they sat there, to crackle less, to glow more softly.

"Cold?" Dirk asked as they sat close.

"No, she was warm. She was thinking how many beginning there were, she said, how many fresh starts. A new day every morning. And now a new year."

"But this year's different," said Dirk. "As if life were just going to begin when we light the candles. Know what I was thinking?"

"Of Isabel?" she ventured, smiling at him.

"Oh, Isabel! That reminds me. Isabel phoned and sent you her love. She married this morning. Joe Vincent. They're off by plane to California."

"I thought it was Freddy Nevins," she said.

"Apparently not. But I was thinking of something else."

"So was I. Please turn the key under the lion's head. It bothers me."

ROOSEVELT IS NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION

Only Texans Excited As John Garner Is Named

PHILADELPHIA, June 27. (AP)—After formally adding the name of John Nance Garner to that of Franklin D. Roosevelt—a ticket forged by acclamation—the Democrats who gathered here for their national convention tonight opened wide the throttle of the party's 1936 campaign.

With Roosevelt and Garner in the leading roles, a mammoth mass meeting upon the playing field of the University of Pennsylvania was summoned to watch the nominees accept once more the party's standards and throw down the gage of battle.

This was precedent shattered. Never before has a major political party chosen its two leaders, notified them and listened to their speeches of acceptance within a space of little more than 20 hours.

As the first spectators turned to the open reaches of Franklin Field, lowering skies caused worry that the ceremonies might have to be transferred. But with the field seating 110,000 as against the convention hall's 15,000, the Democratic managers stepped to the public that only a young cloudburst would cause a transfer.

Early this afternoon—less than 13 hours after the early morning renomination of the president—the convention went through the motions of renaming Garner.

Sharp contrast marked the two scenes. Hundreds of the delegates, eight and worn from yesterday's hours of shouting for Roosevelt's name, failed to appear for the Garner ceremonies. The galleries were but empty.

Led by a band of shrill-yipping Texans, colorful in their tall white sombreros, the convention nevertheless rallied in a 20 minute ovation of shouting, marching and banner waving when Garner's name was placed in nomination. Apparently by unanimous consent, the second speeches were cut to a shadow of yesterday's 56.

As at the early morning presidential nomination, so this afternoon the conversations rules were suspended. On the motion to forego a roll call vote and rename Garner by acclamation, a single dissenting vote was sounded.

William B. Rubin, of Milwaukee, chairman of the Wisconsin delegation, boomed out the single "No." If Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the convention chairman, heard the vote he ignored it. The nomination of the Vice President, he announced was "unanimous."

Under the rules of the House of Representatives, which are in large part the rules of the Democratic Convention, unanimous consent is required to suspend the rules. Rubin's vote would have forced a roll call. He explained afterward that his protest had been against the shutting off of second speeches rather than anything else.

Garner himself remained away from the convention that acclaimed him. Sitting in his room at a downtown hotel, the Texan listened to the proceedings over the radio. He declined immediate comment.

In fact, the entire stay of the Vice President here, including his speech of acceptance, was marked by his usual inclination to hold his public utterances to a minimum.

"The senior member of the firm of (Roosevelt and Garner) does all the talking," he remarked.

The moon's temperature is believed to reach 250 degrees above zero in the sunlight and about 200 degrees below zero in the shade.

PEEWEE ERRORS ALONE DANGEROUS TO COME FROM BEHIND AND WIN 13-8

HOOPER BEATS LEFORS 5 TO 3; BORGER WINS MAGS GET TWICE AS MANY HITS BUT FAIL TO WIN

Victory was in the vengeful grasp of the Magnolia Peewees for six innings yesterday afternoon at Road Runner park, but in the last of the eighth a series of fatal errors committed at or near the hot corner wiped out the one-run lead of the battling Hoopers and gave the Little Road Runners a half-dozen runs, five of which were unearned. The Peewees had another time at bat, but their spirit for the day had been broken, and the Daniger boys walked off the diamond with a 13 to 8 victory.

While the Peewees were trying to spring a Max Schmeling, the Borger Christians were lambasting Phillips 13 to 2 at Borger, and Hoover was plastering a 5 to 3 defeat on LeFors at Hoover.

The Christians collected 13 hits off the 69 boys and made no errors. Phillips batsmen got nine hits but made eight errors. Esslinger pitched for three innings before Turner replaced him. Between them, they walked seven men, while Roberts was the only one for Phillips who walked off the field.

The climax of the Peewee-Daniger battle came in the last of the eighth when an error at second loaded the bases. An error at third let in a couple of runs. Another miscue at the same place was responsible for another score. Reed then took the mound and proceeded to balk and let in a run, and added further to the defeat by walking Doug Keyser, the smallest player on the Little Road Runner team.

Reed and Cop-Captain Claude Heiskell made a mistake in the seventh inning when they took Doyle Auld, the best catcher in the league, from behind the bat and replaced him with Richard Kilgore who made his debut at catching in a league game yesterday. The captains said they wanted to give Kilgore "some experience." Auld had played errorless ball and had collected a hit when he left the game.

The Peewees lost the game because of costly errors, but the Little Road Runners looked like ducks in the first few innings when they checked up on the array of the other time, the Peewees knocked a triple and two doubles in a row. Claude Heiskell, Speedy Foster, Dale Mills, Glen Dull led the hitting for the Peewees. Grover Lee Heiskell got a double, a clean hit, Bob Bailey led the Daniger hitting with two singles, one a triple and the other a single. Foster starred in the field for the Peewees. Cunningham caught for the Little Road Runners.

The bright spot of the melee was the pitching of Rafferty whose fling was the best seen in the Junior league yesterday. His hits tell the story. Rafferty gave his big opponents six hits, walked five and struck out nine.

He whiffed five in the first three innings. The Peewees hit Paul Montgomery all over the park, collecting an even dozen hits. At the time, the Peewees pitched and hit and two doubles in a row. Claude Heiskell, Speedy Foster, Dale Mills, Glen Dull led the hitting for the Peewees. Grover Lee Heiskell got a double, a clean hit, Bob Bailey led the Daniger hitting with two singles, one a triple and the other a single. Foster starred in the field for the Peewees. 471 Paid Customers See Doubleheader At Duncan

BY HARRY E. HOARE
The Pampa-Daniger Road Runners split a weird doubleheader with the Halliburton Cementers in Duncan, Okla., yesterday afternoon, losing the first game, 15 to 4, but winning the second battle, 11 to 6, before 471 paid customers.

Halliburton sent a new outfielder in the game. He was the well known Frank Cliff who has left the ranks of the House of David. The big fellow greeted Duncan fans, and the Road Runners, with five hits in eight times at bat.

A strong wind out of the south and a short left field fence was the lead of the batting Hoopers and gave the Little Road Runners a half-dozen runs, five of which were unearned. The Peewees had another time at bat, but their spirit for the day had been broken, and the Daniger boys walked off the diamond with a 13 to 8 victory.

DALLAS CROWD PREFERS TEXAS CENTENNIAL TO BALL GAMES

BY FELIX R. MCKIGHT, Associated Press Sports Writer.
DALLAS, June 29 (AP)—Worried are Dallas baseball club officials over the number of fans paying their way into Steer stadium to see the league-leading Mavericks perform. . . . The Texas Centennial exposition, expected to provide a boom in baseball here, has boomeranged.

In the spring, Steer officials gathered together a great club that has not disappointed. . . . Officials had eyes on Centennial throngs. . . . Now, the throngs have eyes on the Centennial. . . . They're crowding the midway at night and leaving the Steers playing to a comparative handful of customers and soda boys.

In a recent Sunday afternoon game with Beaumont, in which the league lead was at stake, only 2,000 found the way to the ball park. . . . That, temporarily, smothered plans of shifting to daytime ball. . . . "We thought we might try day ball a few days if we found the Centennial was continuing to hurt, our night crowd," said Business Manager Bob Tarleton, "but I'm not sure it would do any good."

This and that; Roy Koehler, president of the Galveston ball club, vigorously denies those rumors that the franchise would be sold shortly. . . . Even if true, Koehler said such a deal wouldn't be considered until the season's end. . . . Negotiations for October football games between Austin high school's Maroons and San Jacinto high of Houston and Mexico City's Polytechnic high, are going strong. . . . Army Armstrong, ace chucker of the Harlem state farm Hornets, made the cops like it recently. . . . He held Houston's police to one hit in a 5-0 triumph. . . . The lone bingle, a looper over the infield, came after two were out in the ninth frame.

Poses to the San Antonio Junior chamber of commerce for sponsoring another municipal golf team in the National Public Links Tourney. . . . The players will include Jack Thurmond, Lonnie Wendland, Lee Brandt Jr. and Hack Wilford. . . . San Antonio's team won the national event last year. . . . The story goes that Ed (Beartracks) Greer, ace Fort Worth hurler, was offered $300 monthly by the year around to jump the Panther club and join up with a semi-pro team. . . . Greer accepted at first and then said "nay" after discussing the matter with Manager Homer Peel. . . . Carey Selph, former Houston manager when Dizzy Dean was a hero there, stole off a few days last week, went to a semi-pro team, and was offered a whopping big annuity policy. . . . It was Dizzy making good on a voluntary promise he made Selph while in Houston during the spring.

CHICAGO, June 29. (AP)—Michigan's Chuck Kocsis, a great flinger for minding his own business on a golf course, is well on his way toward proving that the U. S. Walker cup squad will not look complete without him.

The sturdy Wolverine, who was overlooked when Uncle Sam's squad to oppose the best of the British amateurs was selected, scored an other point for his side Saturday by fashioning a decisive victory over young Paul Lespie of Louisiana State university to win the national intercollegiate championship.

Previously he had claimed a place among the country's best amateurs by shooting a 72-hole total of 293 for first position among the non-profit elements in the national open at Baltusor, along with winning the Big Ten title for the second time.

His formal activity for the rest of the season probably will be restricted to the national amateur championship tournament at Garden City, L. I. in September. He has finished his four years at Michigan, and from now on, Kocsis' foremost interest will be making a living. He has a job in a Detroit automobile plant, and unless unexpected developments arise, will pass up the western amateur at Omaha, Neb., next month.

Kocsis' drive to the intercollegiate crown was a series of exciting comebacks, climaxed by a workmanlike, and not very difficult triumph over Leslie, The Detroit Hungarian had to fire off a 35, one under par, to qualify for match play proceedings, and was forced to go extra holes to win his quarterfinal and semifinal matches from John Levinson of Yale, and Holy Cross' Willie Turnesa, respectively.

DALLAS AGAIN LEADS LEAGUE WITH 13 HITS

HARVEL BELTS COUPLE OF HOMERS AND SINGLE

(By The Associated Press)
Where They Play Today:
Beaumont at Oklahoma City, night.
San Antonio at Tulsa, night.
Galveston at Dallas, night.
Houston at Fort Worth, night.

Luther "Red" Harvel and Vic Frazier, two hardy veterans of the baseball battles, today led the Mauling Mavericks of Dallas in the return to the green pastures of several weeks ago, when the Steers were a hustling, ball-smashing team that was well-nigh unbeatable.

Harvel belted two home runs and a single as Frazier tied up the Galveston Buccaneers last night with a beautiful 3-hit performance which furnished the mainspring of Dallas' one-sided 10-3 victory.

Once again the league leaders earned their nickname of Mauling Mavericks. They belted 13 hits, including circuit clouts by Mosolf and Rema besides the two terrific shots from Outfielder Harvel's bat.

Every man but Stroner, himself no slouch at the plate, connected for a safe ball.

Frazier pitched hitless ball through six and two-thirds innings, with only 23 men facing him in the first seven innings. Second Baseman McGee fired a home run in the ninth with two men aboard to rob the Dallas veteran of a shutout.

The Steers' closest competition, the Beaumont Exporters, lost a little ground as they were forced to divide a doubleheader with Oklahoma City, winning the opener, 6 to 1 and dropping the second, 5 to 4. The Shippers lead the Indians 2 to 1 in the series.

Tulsa and San Antonio divided two games. Max Thomas pitched the Oilers to a 5 to 2 victory over the Texans and Bob Moncrief led the Missions to a 3 to 1 triumph in the nightcap.

When Hal Wilts showed signs of weakening in the eighth, Jackie Reid rushed to the aid of the Fort Worth Cats' hurler and pulled the game out of the fire for the Panthers, 4 to 2, in the second game of a doubleheader with the Houston Buffs. Reid led the threatening Buffs with one hit in two innings.

Laffoon, Hagen Take Iverness 4-Ball Tourney

TOLEDO, O., June 29. (AP)—Ky Lafoon of Chicago and Walter Hagen, the master of the links, were homebound today, $1,100 richer as the result of a thrilling win in the $4,600 Iverness invitation four-ball tourney.

Hagen clinched the victory on the hitherto three-way third place tie by getting no better than a split with the White Sox, dropping the nightcap 4-1 before Sugar Cain's four-hit pitching, after clouting out a 12-9 edge in opener.

Sixteen of the nation's leading professionals battled through seven 18-hole matches, all eight pairs meeting all other. Mangrum and Wood roared down the stretch to hand Hagen and Lafoon a three-hole set-back in the last match, their lone loss of the tourney. The second placers could have tied the tourney with a win on the final hole, but Hagen got down in two puts from 40 feet away to clinch the win.

Cubs Are Leading National League Again As Cards Lose

Brooklyn Jumps on Dizzy for 5-1 Victory

By SID FEDER, Associated Press Sports Writer
Well, the boys from Chicago have gone and done it.

One month and four days after signing up the extra starting pitcher they needed, the Cubs are back on top of the National league heap, after a drive that came close to paralleling the sky-rocking spurt with which they wound up with the pennant a year ago.

The laugh they handed the experts who said the gas house gang from St. Louis was the only outfit in the race drew a lot of echoes today, for the Cardinals were knocked out of first place by the one outfit you'd never expect to turn the trick—the Brooklyn Dodgers.

While Larry French and Bill Lee were shutting out the Giants on behalf of the Cubs yesterday, 3-0 and 6-0, Casey Stengel's boys landed on Dizzy Dean like a ton of bricks, batted him all over the lot and turned in a 5-1 victory that slid the Cards right out of the lead.

And, although Manager Charley Grimm has often said that it's the pilot pacing the parade who has to do the worrying, just where his fretting can begin is hard to see. It seems to have ended when the Cubs took over Curt Davis from the Phillies, for since his arrival in late May, bolstering the pitching staff, the Cubs have gone to town at a better than .750 pace, winning 23 of 31 ball games; have pulled themselves up from sixth to the lead, and have clubbed out an average of ten hits a game.

Their double win over the Giants yesterday, shot the New Yorkers out of a third-place deadlock with the Pirates, for the Bucs, with Cy Blanton, turning in a four-hit trick, belted the Bees in the opener of a twin bill, 11-2, and held onto third position despite a 6-4 trimming in the nightcap. The Reds, idle because of rain in Philadelphia, were only a game back of the Giants, in fifth place, when the day's warring was over.

In the American league, the New York Yankees' home-run batters were more-or-less stilled for a day, and the lowly St. Louis Browns split a doubleheader by doing some long range clouting of their own to win the opener, 6-3, after which "murderer's row" took the nightcap 7-4. The Tigers and Indians kept on in their third-place deadlock, the former shelling the Athletics 10-4 for their fourth straight victory, while the tribe was turning the trick again on the apparently "farnishing" gold-plated Boston Red Sox, 11-3, despite Jimmy Fox's 21st homer.

The Senators sank out of the hitherto three-way third place tie by getting no better than a split with the White Sox, dropping the nightcap 4-1 before Sugar Cain's four-hit pitching, after clouting out a 12-9 edge in opener.

The Shell Sluggers outslugged the Shell Sluggers yesterday afternoon in cking out a 13 to 11 victory. Nineteen hits rang off the Sun bats while Shell players collected 16 bingles.

Nichols went the distance for Sun with Hargis behind the plate. Austin yielded all the hits for Shell with Oiler his battery mate. Miles of Sun and Oiler of Shell tied for batting honors with four hits on five trips to the plate.

ROUGH RIDERS BEAT McLEAN POLOISTS 4-3

FINAL CHUKKER BRINGS VICTORY TO PAMPA TEAM

A goal by George Garrett in the fading minutes of the final chukker gave the Pampa Rough Riders a 4 to 3 victory over the McLean Mounted Tigers, polo team, here yesterday afternoon. George Dwyer, captain and organizer of the McLean team, presented a well drilled team, excellently mounted.

The visitors jumped into an early lead when Dwyer sent the ball between the uprights. Hub Burrow made it all even with a nice goal near the end of the chukker. Ed Clifton sent McLean one up in the second chukker but George Garrett evaded them before the whistle.

Hard polo featured the third period with neither team able to score. The Rough Riders went into the lead in the fourth chukker when Joe Bowers registered. Dwyer, however, kept his team in the running with a well placed shot near the whistle.

The teams battled evenly after a deadlocked fifth chukker. With a little more than a minute to go, Garrett took a pass and worked the ball through the uprights for what proved to be the winning point. Both teams battled furiously the rest of the game.

McLean players showed superb horsemanship, several of them having been rodeo hands for many years. Although not trained to follow a ball, the horses were easily controlled which made things easy on the riders.

The Pampan played without their captain, Dr. M. C. Overton, who is nursing a dislocated shoulder received in a game last week. In the Rough Rider lineup during the game were Joe Bowers, Hal Harwell, Hut Burrow, Jack Cooper, captain, Geo. Garrett, and Otto Studer.

McLean used Dwyer, Kirby, Saye, Hefner, Clifton, Tex Doyle, Pampa, was referee.

Charles Reasor Of Electra Wins Golf Tournament

WICHITA FALLS, June 29 (AP)—The crown worn by the champion of Texas public links golf rested today on the "third time" charm. When the steady swinger from the windy city defeated George Matson, Wichita, 3 and 2, in the 36-hole final yesterday he won a trophy that slipped through his fingers in two previous "Trans" finals.

Matson cracked par all week only to see his putter falter in the pinch, and fell a victim to Dawson's remarkable recoveries from the rough. The Chicagoan's medal score was one under par, Matson's one over.

The situations surrounding the games of reason and Lehman were versed as the pair turned in their score cards. Reasor had started the tournament Saturday with a mediocre 80 on his first round. He came back, however, on the second with a 71, one under par, to remain in the running.

Lehman led the entrants after 36 holes with 147 but shot his score to 154 on the last day's play to slip behind Reasor, who took a 147.

Dropping long puts and hitting powerful tee shots despite strong wind aided Reasor in his conquest of a capable field, including the defending champion, Gordon Young of Dallas.

Young had 155 Saturday, finishing sixth but fired 149 in finish with 304 and the third place award.

PLAYERS FOR ALL-STAR TILT ARE SELECTED

GRIMM AND MCCARTHY ANNOUNCE THEIR SELECTIONS

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—Charley Grimm of the Chicago Cubs and Joe McCarthy of the New York Yankees, who will manage the National and American league all-star teams in their annual inter-league battle at Boston July 7, today announced their selections of players to complete their squads.

According to the method of selection adopted this year, the fans picked 16 players for each team by their votes in newspaper polls while the managers were allowed to name five additional players to round out 21-man squads.

Grimm selected two of his own players, Curt Davis, the pitcher extensively acquired from the Phillies and Outfielder Augie Galan; two Cardinals, Jim (Ripper) Collins, who probably will start at first base since the fan's choice, Bill Terry, has withdrawn from the squad because of his ailing legs, and Shortstop Leo (Lumpy) Duchoche; and Lew Riggs, young Cincinnati lead sacker.

McCarthy's choices were pitchers Tommy Bridges of the Detroit Tigers and Mel Harder of the Cleveland Indians; Rick Ferrell, Boston's dependable backstop who may do most of the catching since Mickey Cochrane of the Tigers, originally nominated as catcher as well as manager was forced out by illness; Leon (Goose) Goslin, veteran Tiger outfielder and world series hero; and Frank Crosetti, Yankee shortstop.

In addition to the five players chosen by each manager, the pilots named coaches and trainers for their squads. Grimm selected Bill McKechnie of the Bees and Jimmy Wilson of the Phillies as his aides and named Andy Loshaw, Cubs' trainer, to perform his duties for the all stars for the fourth successive year. McCarthy picked his own right-hand man, Art Fletcher, Del Baker of the Tigers as coaches and Earle J. (Doc) Painter of the Yanks as trainer.

Johnny Dawson's Victory in 'Trans'

WICHITA, Kan., June 29. (AP)—Johnny Dawson of Chicago, the new Trans-Mississippi golf champion, was a firm believer today in the old "third time" charm.

When the steady swinger from the windy city defeated George Matson, Wichita, 3 and 2, in the 36-hole final yesterday he won a trophy that slipped through his fingers in two previous "Trans" finals.

Matson cracked par all week only to see his putter falter in the pinch, and fell a victim to Dawson's remarkable recoveries from the rough. The Chicagoan's medal score was one under par, Matson's one over.

MEET UP WITH REAL PRINCELY "MAKIN'S"

Earle White is fast at rolling "makin's" cigarettes—rolls 'em in 10 seconds with Prince Albert. "P.A. stands right at the top with makin's smokers down our way," says Earle. "Being 'crimp cut,' it rolls so sweet and easy it almost rolls itself. I average at least 70 cigarettes from every big tin—every one as rich and mellow and comforting as a fellow could want."

Take Earle's tip and roll 'em with P. A. Here's an offer to get you started: Roll yourself 30 swell cigarettes from Prince Albert. If you don't find them the finest, tastiest roll-your-own cigarettes you ever smoked, return the packet tin with the rest of the tobacco in it to us at any time within a month from this date, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage. Grand smoking for a pipe too. Don't forget that. (Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co., Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

PRINCE ALBERT THE NATIONAL JOY SMOKER

Little Al Summers, favorite of baseball fans wherever he plays, signed a contract with the Oklahoma City Indians in the Texas league yesterday afternoon before his team, the Pampa-Daniger Road Runners, met the Halliburton Cementers in a doubleheader in Duncan, Okla. Summers received a check for signing the contract and a salary hike above that area. The group from the sand hills in and about Monahans can best be explained on the basis of the relation of this area to that of Val Verde county. The Pecos river flows between these two areas, and it must have formed a natural migration route which was traveled back and forth by the inhabitants of the two regions, and thus have given opportunity for the corner-tang pieces to have found their way into the extreme western part of the state.

"We do not know just what tribe or tribes made these artifacts. Nor do we know just when they were originated, except that the evidence strongly indicates that they were developed during the prehistoric times. Once developed they must have been used by succeeding generations of aborigines, even well into modern times. In conclusion, it may be suggested that the corner-tang artifacts represented a distinct cultural element in the lives of the tribes who made and used them, and it is for this reason that they constitute objects worthy of careful study."

LOCAL GIRL MAY COMPETE IN CENTENNIAL'S QUEEN CONTEST

Here's an opportunity for Pampa beauties.

Some Texas girl, now behind a store counter, in a classroom, or in a kitchen, will be crowned Queen of the Texas Centennial Exposition by Ginger Rogers the night of July 31 in the Cotton Bowl at the Exposition in Dallas.

In addition to this honor and its attendant distinctions, the winner will be awarded a trip to Hollywood as guest of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, and will be granted screen tests which, if successful, will find her a place in pictures.

Appearances of the contestants in this official selection will be presented in four night reviews of Queen's night, electrical extravaganza, in the Cotton Bowl at the Centennial Exposition, the first of which will be held the night of July 4. Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankee will be featured in this presentation, and the radio crooner will announce and escort the winner in this first semi-final selection.

Other semi-final winners will be announced at presentations of Queen's Night on July 10, 23 and 31, the last name dated also to be the time of the final selection. Jean

Sprinkle Fails To Break Heat

Jupiter Pluvius tried feebly to bring relief from the heat Saturday night, but his best efforts brought only a scant sprinkle of rain to Pampa between 6 and 8:30 p. m.

After a still afternoon, with clouds stirred the atmosphere around 9 o'clock, but there was little let up from the humidity until later in the night.

The Santa Fe thermometer's maximum for Saturday was 104 degrees at 5 o'clock in the evening. It rose to that point from 72 at 5 a. m. and passed over the 100-mark to 101 at 4 in the afternoon.

"Generally fair," was the forecast for today.

Grady Shipp Given Vote of Confidence

LONGVIEW, Tex., June 29. (P.)—Grady Shipp, manager of the Longview chamber of commerce, indicted yesterday in Hale county for the alleged embezzlement of $224.81 from the Panhandle Plains Dairy association, was given a vote of confidence by businessmen here Saturday.

Shipp requested the meeting be called and explained the procedure whereby he received money from the dairy association. He told the gathering the sum mentioned in the indictment was a fee which he received for his services in conducting the dairy show, and the custom of paying the show manager a small fee had been followed for several years.

The offense was allegedly committed in June, 1935.

Dusting The Covers Of Texas History For THE TEXAS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF 1936

AUSTIN, June 26.—It is assumed that the Indians who inhabited Texas many centuries ago and left buried for future generations to unearth the implements with which they fought and hunted, did not suddenly discover that a hafted knife was best suited to those purposes than any other tool. Instead, like all human implements, they were gradually developed from some basic tool, which in turn had been perfected throughout the ages of man's history, declared Dr. J. T. Patterson, professor of zoology at the University of Texas, who through an interest in Texas flint artifacts, has made himself quite an authority on the corner-tang knife.

"In approaching the problem of the origin of the corner-tang knives one may assume that these artifacts did not spring into existence with the suddenness of a biological mutation," Dr. Patterson said. "A study of these artifacts supports this assumption, and indicates that the basic implement from which they were developed was a common spear head type of knife. The first indication of their origin is detectable in those flint knives in which the tang occupies a slightly eccentric position, instead of the usual central location, on the base end of the blade. Further shifting of the tang toward one of the two main edges of the blade ultimately resulted in the production of a knife with the tang located at the exact corner. This represents what we have called the diagonal corner-tang knife. That it constitutes an implement of great utilitarian value is attested to by the fact that 50 per cent of all corner-tang pieces of this design. Such an artifact represents a skinning knife par excellence.

"Specialized forms of corner-tang pieces were also developed, and two of these types are especially interesting. The back corner-tang knife represents but a slight modification of the diagonal type. Nevertheless, the location of the tang on the back edge created a knife that by other modes of hafting could be used for purposes distinctly different from that for which the diagonal type was employed. The mid-back type represents a still greater specialization of the generalized corner-tang knife. From its form and structure it would seem to be better adapted as a scraper for

COMMUNIST CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT HAS PLANS

NEW YORK, June 29. (AP)—The Communist party, under the leadership of Earl W. Browder, its candidate for the presidency, started its election campaign today "to reach 10,000,000 voters" and "flood the country from one end to the other with Red literature."

Browder was nominated by acclamation late yesterday at the final session of the party's ninth annual convention. James W. Ford, Harlem negro organizer, was named as his running mate.

Before the 20,000 wildly cheering party members that packed Madison Square Garden, Browder voiced his acceptance of the nomination by a bitter attack on the "greed" of both major parties.

The former Kansan, who as secretary of the party has taken a more and more prominent role in party affairs during the past two years, described the Republican party and Governor Landon, of Kansas, as "the vanguard of Fascism" to be stopped "at all costs."

The new deal he denounced as giving way more and more to the forces of reaction and said that workers must make themselves strong to force concessions from the Democrats.

At the concluding session of the party adopted an eight-point platform on which Browder and Ford will make their campaign and Ford will make the heading of "Put America Back to Work" it promised a 30-hour week with a minimum annual wage, extension of WPA and PWA with special attention to low rental housing, abolition of child labor, a moratorium on, and government refinancing at a low interest rate of farm loans, higher income, gift and inheritance taxes, nationalization of banking, curbing of Supreme Court, and a death penalty for lynchings.

Under the party's campaign plans, Browder will open his speaking tour in Cleveland and Akron, O., on July 4. On the same day, Ford will speak in Chicago.

2 Women Fliers Found Exhausted After Plane Crash

PORTLAND, Ore., June 29 (AP)—Having miraculously escaped death in a plane crash, two Portland women fliers rested here today after spending more than a day and night in the open.

Both were exhausted when searchers found them yesterday, and Miss Irma Westover was suffering from back injuries. The pilot, Mrs. Alyce Pashburg, escaped with scratches when their plane crashed into Archer mountain 14 miles northeast of Camas, Wash., in a heavy fog Saturday morning.

A torrential rain Saturday added to the misery of the women who were headed for the air races at Spokane, Wash., when their plane cracked up.

Late in the day they built a fire. While they were resting they heard airplanes droning overhead, but were unable to attract the attention of the fliers who swung into the search when the women failed to arrive at Spokane on schedule.

Sunday morning airmen resumed the search and located the wreckage. One of the fliers and Louis Robinson, Camas farmer, hiked in toward the wreckage and found the women struggling through the dense underbrush.

They were taken to a Portland hospital.

Chinese Troops Are Bombed by Six Airplanes

HONGKONG, June 29 (AP)—Six central government airplanes bombed Kwangsi provincial forces near Wingchow, reports from Nanking asserted today.

The planes also dropped bombs, it was said, near the trenches occupied by forces from Kwangtung province in southern Kiangsi province.

General Li declared in a speech any further delay in launching the expedition would be disastrous.

"The mission is two-fold," he said. "First we must resist Japanese aggression. Then we must remove all obstacles in the way including national traitors."

Gunboats of the Canton (southern) government were reported steaming toward the island of Hainan to forestall what was declared to be a northern attempt to capture the mountainous base.

Ten college professors, charged with membership in the central government "fascist" movement, were arrested.

Small Hurricane Damages Coast

CORPUS CHRISTI—June 29. (AP)—Portions of the Texas Gulf coast, surveyed light damage today from a swiftly-moving but small hurricane which struck between here and Matagorda Saturday, spending its force quickly as it passed inland.

No lives were lost in the disturbance.

Greatest force was felt at Aransas Pass where winds reached a velocity of 75 miles an hour. Small boats were swamped and strained. Three oil tanks on Harbor Island here were caved in by the wind.

At Ingleside, 10 miles northwest of here a refinery plant was seriously damaged.

The disturbance caused scattered rains over South Texas as it blew itself out.

Landon Casts Politics Aside in Cow Creek

Alf Landon's going fishing on a big scale for votes before long but all he was interested in here was landing some trout for the supper trying pan, as he whipped the waters of Cow creek. The nominee is shown on his first venture into the fine trout stream that runs through the McGraw ranch, where he is spending his vacation with his family. Creed at side, wearing hip boots and a leather jacket, he was fly casting with deadly seriousness as the camera caught him.
