225 Inquiries Received

'Manpower' Campaign Results Good So Far

Results of an extensive advertising campaign to attract manpower and labor for Pampa businesses and industry have been very good to date, according to an announcement by the Pampa Industrial Foundation and the Industrial Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, joint sponsors of the program.

Some 225 inquiries have been received by the Industrial Foundation and the Texas Employment Commission in response to ads run in twenty-six area newspapers between Albuquerque and Oklahoma City since the campaign was initiated in mid-July.

Bill Ragsdale, manager of the local office of the Texas Employment Commission, said that between five and ten families have definitely moved to Pampa after finding employment as a result of the advertisements. It is almost impossible to determine how many others may have moved here because of information given them by friends or relatives, he added.

Each person who has answered the advertisement has been given or sent an application to fill out and return to either the Industrial Foundation or the Employment Commission.

The advertisements have pointed out that Pampa has a critical need for both skilled labor and trainees as well as professional people in almost every area of endeavor. Listed is the need for welders, auto mechanics, secretaries, plumbers, industrial machinists, sales, electricians, clerical, nurses, policemen, assemblers, farm workers, sewing machine operators, service station attendants and many more. Also needed are several categories of engineers and other professional people.

In addition, the advertisements stress the fact that Pampa is a fine place in which to live. Good wages, reasonable living costs, adequate housing, good schools, churches, climate and recreation and other conveniences all reflect the pride of the people of Pampa.

The advertising campaign, which will be a continuing program, came about as the result of a manpower availability survey conducted cooperatively by the Chamber of Commerce and the Industrial Foundation.

Two months ago, questionnaires were mailed to local employers to determine the type of jobs available, the number of male or female employees needed and the approximate salary range of the jobs.

HHH Defends Chicago's Policemen

WAVERLY, Minn. (UPI)—Democratic Presidential nominee Hubert H. Humphrey Saturday night defended Chicago police in actions against demonstrators who threatened to disrupt the party's national convention.

Humphrey, in a network radio interview (CBS), said, "We had intelligence of planned assassinations."

The Vice president told the interviewer, Martin Agronsky, "I saw a policeman who had been stabbed in the face with a broken beer bottle. I saw filth and manure being thrown on rugs at the Conrad Hilton Hotel."

Humphrey said that strong methods had to be used to prevent "agitators and arsonists" from marching on the International Amphitheatre, site of the convention.

On the basis of returns from the questionnaire, it was determined that Pampa has a definite void in the manpower supply in practically all kinds of labor.

Area residents have also been asked to help fill the manpower gap by writing to friends and relatives in other towns and (See MANPOWER, Page 3)

LET'S GET STARTED! — Hard work is always more pleasant when you have good company and, here, Clinton Evans, chairman of the 1968 Pampa United Fund Good Neighbor Campaign's Commercial and Industrial Division, prepares to kick off that phase of the drive Wednesday with some preliminary paper work. He is being aided by Mary Beth Johnson, Miss Pampa United Fund of 1968. This year's goal in the drive is $84,200, to be distributed among 11 member agencies including the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Salvation Army, USO, Pampa Milk Fund, Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, Medical Research Foundation, Amarillo Cerebral Palsy treatment center and Texas Mental Health Association. Both Clinton and Mary Beth urge you to contribute your "fair share" to this year's drive.

School Staff Completed

By WANDA HUFF
Pampa News Staff Writer
Pampa School trustees have announced the district will start school Tuesday with a complete staff of teachers and administrative assistants.

The board completed its 1968-69 staff late week by employing 13 teachers, a school nurse, band director and two clerical assistants.

Mrs. Mary Vaughn, R.N., was named as a school nurse to assist Mrs. Marjorie Penn, R.N.

Baker Elementary School will have a new teacher when classes start Tuesday. Mrs. Jim Cunningham, who has a B. S. degree and four years' teaching experience, will teach fifth grade.

Her husband was named as a coach for Pampa High School. Cunningham has a masters degree in education from West Texas State University and five years' teaching experience. His major was physical education, with minors in history and driver's education.

Mrs. Kathleen Denyer, who has a B.S. degree from Oklahoma A&M College with a major in home economics and business education, with an elementary education minor, will teach math at Robert E. Lee Junior High School. Another Lee math teacher is Mrs. James Pullen, who received a B.S. degree from the University of Houston and has majors in mathematics and history and two years' experience.

The new Pampa Junior High School Band director will be Darrell L. Garrison, who majored in music with an education minor and has a bachelor's in music education from WTSU.

His wife, who will teach first grade at Lamar Elementary School, has a B.S. degree from WTSU, with majors in elementary and music education, and an English minor.

The Lee School industrial arts teacher will be Duane Keah-

Invasion Possible In New Kremlin 'Switch'

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI)—Diplomatic sources said Saturday they believed Moscow apparently has decided to force Romania back into the Soviet-controlled fold through various pressures including possible military invasion.

Diplomatic reports reaching the West from Eastern Europe said "anything is possible" because the Kremlin apparently has revived a Stalin-type strategy in its Eastern European empire and evidently wants to force these nations back to their "satellite" status of the 1930's.

This major policy switch in the Kremlin is aimed at tightening the East bloc and restoring it to pre-1960 conditions in which Moscow once again will dictate policy without opposition.

(However, diplomatic reports from western embassies in Moscow doubted the Russians would invade Romania. Although conducting an independent foreign policy, Romania has a strictly orthodox Communist domestic policy. No danger exists now of an overthrow of Communism in Romania as was the case in Czechoslovakia. Romania also presents a less geographic danger to the Soviet Union because it shares no border with the West and is

LBJ Studies Threat

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—President Johnson conferred with top advisors from his ranch Saturday on the threat of another Russian invasion in Eastern Europe, but decided against returning to Washington for the Labor Day weekend.

George Christian, presidential press secretary, said Johnson received reports at the ranch on the Eastern Europe situation from U.S. officials.

Johnson warned Friday night in a San Antonio speech that the Russians may be planning another invasion and cautioned that America will not condone "unbridled aggression."

He said the country is surrounded by Communist countries.

Kremlin pressure against the independent Romania president and Communist party chief, Nicolae Ceausescu, was said to be both diplomatic and military plus attacks against Romania in the Soviet and Polish press for sympathizing with Czechoslovakia.

Wider Target

Diplomatic reports said the enormous size of the force that Moscow mobilized before the invasion of Czechoslovakia—some 650,000 troops according to official Czechoslovak estimates—suggests that Russia may have been preparing for a wider

Reports On The Crisis 'Liquidation' Of 40,000 Is Urged

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviets Saturday called for the "liquidation" of 40,000 "counter-revolutionaries" in Czechoslovakia.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda, official voice of the Russian regime, reported 40,000 "counter-revolutionaries" in Czechoslovakia and said "whatever is honest in the Czechoslovak people calls for the liquidation of counter-revolutionary gangs."

The government newspaper Izvestia reported "provocations" in Bratislava.

Troop Review Due

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States and its NATO allies will review their troop commitments in Europe as a result of the continuing occupation of Czechoslovakia by Soviet bloc forces, the State Department announced Saturday.

Czech Minister Resigns

PRAGUE (UPI)—Josef Pavel resigned Saturday as Minister of the Interior, the first victim of Kremlin pressure in occupied Czechoslovakia because he reportedly refused to work with Soviet secret police.

Pavel's downfall was announced at the Czechoslovak Communist party Central Committee which met in emergency session to discuss reshuffling the party and government leadership according to Soviet design.

Beauty Pageant, Style Show Are Featured Events

The first annual Fall Festival, Style Show and Miss Top O' Texas Beauty Pageant is scheduled to be held in the High School Auditorium Saturday at 8 p.m.

The event is being sponsored by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, which is aided in ticket sales by the high school Tru-Teens organization and the Pampa Joyce-Eltes. Tickets are $1 each and may be purchased at any participating firm or through any member of the three above-named organizations.

The program for Saturday's event includes prelude music by Sue Higdon and combo (the group will also cue the various events on the program), a four-part fashion parade, the beauty pageant and entertainment between each phase of the program. Kay Fancher will serve as master of ceremonies.

The beauty pageant will include an appearance by 11 girls and a "final look" at the five high-rated entrants. The climax of the evening will come in the Grand Finale with the crowning of Miss Top O' Texas.

All girls entered are sponsored by a local merchant, they are single and between 16 and 25. They will appear in one-piece swim suits and will be judged on beauty, poise and personality by a panel of out-of-town judges.

The winner will receive an expense-paid trip to San Antonio to HemisFair for herself and one chaperone. Rehearsals are scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Thelma Bray is in charge of arrangements for the Beauty Pageant and the fashion show as well, which will also rehearse at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Tickets are available at the following firms participating in the event: Coronado Men's Wear, Anderson's, Penny's, Anthony's downtown and Coronado Center, Behrman's, Brown-Freeman, Builders Plumbing, Ford's, Gilbert's, Heath's, Hilland Young Fashions, Richard Drug, Pampa News, Bentley's, Kyle's, Levine's, Ward's, First National Bank and Citizens Bank and Trust Company.

Net proceeds from the sale of tickets will be used in the youth activity programs of the Tru-Teens and the Joyce-Eltes.

Pampa Man Will Show Collection

The first showing of icons in the Midwest is being presented by Ted Gikas, Pampa businessman and art collector, in an exhibition through the month of September at the Pamli Galleries in Dodge City, Kans.

Because of the value and rarity of this ancient art form, icons are usually shown in metropolitan area museums only.

Icons are images painted on wood, portraying religious events, and made principally in Greece and Russia. Gikas has been interested in icons for years, having received one as a gift from a friend in 1955. This particular one, dating from the (See PAMPA, Page 3)

FUNDS NEEDED — Kirk Duncan, left, chairman of the advisory board for the local Salvation Army, discusses the construction progress of the new SA building with Capt. Jess Duncan, commanding officer. Pledges and donations totaling $10,000 are needed to complete the building and furnishings. The building is expected to cost about $54,000.

Original Executors Reinstated In Bowers Will Case At Canadian

By JEFF HOLLADAY
Pampa News Staff Writer

CANADIAN — Judge Grainger McIlhany ruled Thursday in the 31st Judicial District Court here that the original executors of the estate of the late Aubra L. Bowers were to be reinstated.

The decision followed several months of legal wrangling in which the original executors were appointed, removed, reinstated, removed again, and finally reinstated again Thursday.

It was the second time that Judge McIlhany had ruled in District Court that the original executors were to be reinstated. The ruling adhered to an earlier decision the judge had made in July on the same case.

Bowers, the late Hemphill and Wheeler County rancher and oil man, died in January, 1967 leaving his estate to his widow of Pampa, and his son, Guy, 22, a Pampa Police Department dispatcher.

The estate is estimated to include a sizable sum in cash and bonds, about 7,000 acres of land, mostly in Hemphill County, interest in a third of the Bowers gas fields, and several hundred acres of mineral rights in Gray County.

When the will was originally probated, Hemphill County Judge B. F. Conyers appointed Buff Maguire of Pampa, the family's long-time attorney, and Cal Pearce of Lubbock and Charles Pearce of Dallas, brothers of the widow, as executors of the estate.

After Guy Bowers, son of the deceased, had contested the will, Judge Conyers appointed two Allison men to administer original executors.

On appeal, however, District Judge McIlhany reinstated the original executors.

They were later dismissed by County Judge Conyers and the two Allison men, Bill Begert and Houston Stickle, were reinstated.

Judge McIlhany ruled again Thursday that Judge Conyers had no authority to appoint new administrators, pointing out that he could only do so if the original will was set aside.

The original will drawn up by the late Mr. Bowers has been challenged by his son, Guy, but it has not been set aside and legal action is still pending.

Unless the will is set aside, Judge McIlhany ruled, the court must adhere to the wishes of the late Mr. Bowers who named the original executors in his will.

The decision Thursday reinstated the original executors but has no bearing on the determination of Bowers' will,

which is being processed in other legal action.

The original executors were represented Thursday by Aaron Sturgeon and Bill Waters, both Pampa attorneys. Guy Bowers was represented by attorneys Albert Smith of Lubbock, John Studor of Pampa, Bill Jackson of Canadian, and the law firm of Crow and Crow in Canadian.

Disturbances In Police Report

Domestic disturbances, neighborhood troubles, assaults and various other assorted squabbles dominated police reports this weekend.

One of the incidents involved a man who told police that his wife had locked him out of the house. The man told officers that he wanted the help of officers to enter. The matter seemed solved when an investigating officer talked to the man and his wife a short time later. But 21 minutes after the first call, police received another call at 2:26 a.m. Saturday from the wife. She told police that her husband was hammering and pounding on the door. The police dispatcher said he could hardly hear the woman on the telephone because of the noise. When Sgt. Fred Brown arrived the second time, the woman complained that her husband had broken the door down, and hit her. The man left and didn't return after she told Brown that she wanted to file charges.

Another "break-in" was reported by a man who lives on Yeager St. He telephoned police at 3:09 a.m. Saturday and said a former acquaintance of his had broken into his home.

Professor Declares South America Must Improve Its Cattle

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Dr. Enrique Mora, professor of preventive medicine and public health at the University of Chile, said Thursday North America produced half as many cattle in 1964 as did Latin America, but got three times as much beef and five times as much milk. Mora, from Santiago, Chile, told delegates to an Inter-American symposium on livestock health, that livestock raising in Latin America must improve.

On even-numbered years, all state extension workers are called back to Texas A&M University for a one-week conference. It seems more like it was two months since we had the last one in 1966, rather than the two years it has actually been. The theme of this year's conference was "Working Toward Perfection in Extension Education Programs."

Panhandle Water District News

By FELIX W. RYALS
John Vandertulp, chief engineer of the Texas Water Development Board, has resigned to enter federal service. He will join the International Boundary and Water Commission at El Paso.
C. R. Baskin, senior assistant to Vandertulp, has been appointed to acting chief engineer. He will assume duties as acting chief immediately so that Vandertulp can concentrate on finishing the draft of the Texas Water Plan before he assumes his new duties.
In his new job, Vandertulp will be working on the systems operation of Falcon and Amistead, boundary questions between Mexico and the U.S., the hydrologic operations of the Rio Grande, feasibility studies, and the sanitation problems arising at urban areas along the Rio Grande. Of immediate interest to Texans is the fact that he will be working on the Lower Rio Grande flood control problems.
Last week this column carried a portion of an essay by Vickie Hawkins, a 1967-68 senior at Panhandle High School, on the "Importance of Water Conservation." This week we are carrying a further portion of her essay.

soil to take in water is governed by three principal factors. The first is the type of rock from which the soil was derived. The more sandy the soil, the better it will absorb water. The second is the type and amount of vegetation growing on the soil surface. Vegetation on the surface tends to break the force of the falling raindrops, and it holds the soil particles together, thus tending to prevent the soil from washing away. The third is the structure of the soil, which depends in part on the amount of humus incorporated in the soil.
"The incorporation of the plant material in the uppermost layer of the soil affects its ability to absorb water. A lush cover of vegetation does not necessarily mean large amounts of humus in the soil. The jungles in some tropical countries, for instance, grow on soil which contains very little organic material because of the high rate of decomposition. Once the tropical forest is cut down, rains wash away the soil very quickly, because there is nothing to keep the mineral particles from sticking together and closing the pores. Rain can beat down on a bare soil which has much humus in it and still be rapidly absorbed."
"It is the top layer of the soil which erodes away first, and this top layer contains more nutrients necessary for plants and animals than do deeper layers. Loss of the most fertile top soil is usually serious because in most areas it cannot be replaced except over long period of time."
"There are areas where the weathered material is deep and bedrock does not lie close to the surface but at great depth. Under such conditions even after erosion has removed several feet of the top layers, there still remains plenty of material in which plants can be grown. The loss of the top layers of a deep soil is less serious than in the case of a shallow one."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Shearson, Hamill & Co. sees in the market's behavior during the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia another test of its "stability and inner strength." Noting the popular conception that the Soviet's move strengthens hawks' sentiment in this country by undercutting our Vietnam peace efforts, Shearson, Hamill points out, "the market's behavior during the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia is another test of its 'stability and inner strength.'"

Selective Service Answers

Editor's Note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W. 9th Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.
Q—My wife and I were recently divorced. Our children will live with her. Will I lose my III-A deferment as a father because of this?
A—Probably so, but all aspects of your case will be considered. Regulations provide that you must maintain a bona fide family relationship in your home with your child or children for a II-A deferment based on fatherhood. However, if your induction into the armed forces would result in extreme hardship to your divorced wife, children, or dependents, your draft board may continue you in class III-A even though you and your wife are divorced.
Q—Recently my local board reopened my classification because of new evidence that was submitted. I believe the new classification they gave me is incorrect. May I appeal from that decision?
A—Yes. When a draft board reopens a man's classification and classifies him anew, the man has the same right of appeal before his local board and the same right of appeal to the appeal board as in the case of an original classification.
Q—Can a man be assured that he will be deferred to complete the requirements for his baccalaureate degree?
A—No. Such assurances cannot be given. A student must satisfy requirements of the regulations. The facts and the merits of each case must be considered by the local board.

$500 Bond Set

Charges of driving while intoxicated were filed Friday against Calvin Roy Cargill, 30, of 103 N. Hobart, who was arrested shortly after midnight Friday in the 800 block of N. Hobart.
Cargill was arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. L. Anderson where bond of $500 was set.

Bond was set at $500 Friday by Justice of the Peace Nat Lunsford for Alan R. Keen of Pampa, charged with child desertion. Keen recently moved to Pampa from northeast Texas and is employed with a local firm.
UNPAID FINE
COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Ignoring the law is bad on a man's conscience, a Scheelsburg, Pa., man wrote the Ohio State treasurer in a letter that included a $15 check.
The man said the money was in payment of fines he evaded five years ago for hauling a wide load on an Ohio highway. State Treasurer John Herbert turned the money over to highway use.

Some Nosebleeds Can Be Prevented
Of course there are blood disorders which cause nosebleeds and a physician is required. But the average nosebleed is only a temporary discomfort. If this type of bleeding of the nose happens too often, perhaps the blood vessels in the nose may be too fragile, or too close to the surface.
Or, bleeding may be caused by a small ulcer, which bleeds from time to time. If so, it can be easily cauterized by your physician, or a nose specialist. If nosebleeding occurs too frequently, if it becomes a recurring nuisance, a physician should be consulted.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A wonderful time to enjoy the long time in the past and for using any spare moments at all to think out how you can best build a firmer foundation for yourself in the coming months that your life is far more successful and you have more worldly success and honor.
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — A good day to contact influential persons in the world of activity and gain much information that is valuable from them. Find out how to improve credit in the days ahead. Take care not to overeat.
TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — Find just the right place where you can gain new and lucrative ideas for your greater development. Persons whose background has been different to yours are very helpful. Do not go to bed too late.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — Analyze your activities and see how to handle them with greater flair so that you make a fine impression on high-ups. Show that you are very romantic with loved one. Be willing to do some chore he, or she, expects of you.
MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — You can make arrangements with others how in the capacity of a good partner and you can be very successful. Be more concerned with the social side of your life. This makes your reputation soar.
LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) — If you are of service to those around you, you come to a real understanding now. Strive to cement ties with persons who work by your side. Write to those out-of-town even if you only send a card.
VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) — If you do only those things that give you pleasure this can be a most delightful day for you. Take time out for that hobby that pleases you so much. You are now able to see that one important person difficult to contact before this.
LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) — Doing what makes you happier and getting that feeling of security in your work is ideal now. Others make some fine suggestive ideas that can lead to a lot of innocent fun. Come out of your shell a little and

AUSTIN—The Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) announced today that it will begin a special inspection program for motor vehicles in the state starting on April 15, 1969. The program will require that all motor vehicles registered in the state be inspected by a TxDOT inspector at any vehicle inspection station, each of which will be an official vehicle inspection station. Texas Department of Transportation inspectors will inspect the engine, mirrors, front seat, front seat belt, part of the steering (including) and wheel to include rear view from the vehicle special inspection to trailer; trailers or motor vehicles with a load in excess of 4,000 lbs. The minimum does not include adjustment of the vehicle.

Auto Safety Period Starts

AUSTIN—The 1969 vehicle inspection period began today in Texas according to Colonel Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, acting director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"More than six million vehicles are expected to receive the compulsory inspection prior to the April 15, 1969 deadline," Speir said. Inspections may be performed at any of the almost 5,500 vehicle inspection stations in Texas, each of which displays the official vehicle inspection station sign. Texas law requires inspection of the brakes, lighting equipment, horns and warning devices, mirrors, windshield wipers, front seat belts in vehicles where seat belt anchorages were part of the manufacturer's original equipment on the vehicle, steering (including power steering) and wheels and rims (not to include removal of the wheel from the vehicle) on all motor vehicles registered in the state. Special inspection provisions apply to trailers, semi-trailer, ole trailers or mobile homes having a loaded gross weight in excess of 4,000 pounds.

The minimum fee is $1.75. This does not include the cost repairs or adjustments necessary to enable the vehicle to pass inspection.

Speir said the new vehicle inspection sticker will be a two and one-half inch square replica of a DPS patrolman's badge with red background. Motorists are urged to have the 1969 in-

Chairman, Gray County Historical Survey Committee — Box 676

DEADLINE EXTENDED

The Gray County Historical Survey Committee has had so many requests for extending of the Sept. 1, deadline and we have felt it advisable to do so and thus give more time to those finishing up their family, club, church etc. stories for the Gray Co. History . . . we are hearing from Gray County "Cousins" who have formerly lived here and scattered to all points of the globe and we want to thank all those who are helping spread the word to those whose addresses we may not have. . . so the latest word is — PLEASE GET YOUR STORIES, PICTURES, ETC. IN TO US JUST AS SOON AS POSSIBLE!

UNUSUAL ITEMS IN BOOK

Among the hundreds of fascinating items of historical memorabilia to be included in the official history of the County now being compiled are roster lists of the companies of U.S. TROOPS who fought the various engagements with the Indians in this county from 1872-1874; pictures of many of the INDIAN CHIEFS who participated in Battles in this area; pictures of the MARCY-McCLELLAN EXPEDITION to find the source of the Red River inspection performed as soon as possible to insure that their vehicles are mechanically safe for fall and winter driving.

in Gray County in 1852. . . a rare photo of LT. JOEL ELIOTT for whom the Fort was named. . . photos of early Gray County surveyors . . . the marriage license of the FIRST wedding performed in the County. . . a rare picture of Pampa when there was only one house . . . a picture of the FIRST building built here by the railroad in 1889. . . the first fire truck and volunteer Fire Department. . . the FIRST Courthouse at Lefors. . . pictures of Gray County's officials from the year of organization to date. . . scenes from the four corners of the County in early days. . . photos by the dozens of the pioneers, men, women, and children whose experiences were as gripping and enthralling a saga as has ever been unfolded in the history of the Southwest. . . all this and much, much more will help the Gray County Story to be told to coming generations . . . and if this is accomplished, it will not be the Committee who has made it possible but the hundreds of wonderfully generous people who have shared their personal treasures of the past for the enrichment of our mutual heritage.

Seven Prep Football Players Are Named As Probable Starters On Pampa Team

By WES DUMONT
Daily News Sports Editor

Seven football players were designated by coach Swede Lee as probable starters as the 1968 edition of the Pampa Harvester high school team prepared for its opening game with Hereford there on Sept. 13. Game time is 7:30.

On the offensive team, Dan Carlton, Jay Johnson, Ted Knight and John Jenkins were listed as probable starters.

On the defensive team, Duncan McCarroll, Randy Cantrell and Denny Johnson were probable starters.

Pampa did not play Hereford last year. The record of the Whitefaces last season was 6-4. Lee said he was "well pleased with the progress of the football squad so far in its practice sessions. The boys learned fast."

Ninety-three are out for the two-a-day practices which will be continued through Labor Day until Tuesday when the squad will limit itself to one-a-day practices.

Included in the practice sessions are 18 seniors, 28 juniors, and 47 sophomores.

Lee said "we try to stress organization in our practice sessions. We split into small groups so that the boys get as much individual attention as possible."

At the sound of a whistle, the players move to different coaches who are teaching their specialties.

Most of all, Lee likes to stress players who always do something. Least of all, Lee does not like to see a session in which some players are not participating.

At the present time, Gary Parrish is the top candidate for starting quarterback. Ross Holman is the number two signal caller.

Before the annual spring football game, Parrish was described as the better runner of the two, while Holman was described as the better passer of the two.

Lee says the passing arm of Parrish has much improved over the summer months and the two are virtually "equal" in passing ability.

Lee considers only one rule change in high school football as worthy of attention. This change limits the blocking area of the split end on offense. No longer can he block within an area of four yards on each side of the center. "This was passed because too many knee injuries resulted from blocking from the inside by the split end."

The Harvesters will use a split-I formation similar to the formations used by the University of Arkansas and the University of Oklahoma, where Lee was assistant coach in 1966-67 under Jim MacKenzie, who died unexpectedly of a heart attack.

Randy Cantrell, one of the probable starters, has been given the important position of "monster man." The monster man, according to Lee, is a rover or roaming player who plays either side of the line, either right or left of the center position. Sometimes, he lines up on the line of scrimmage and sometimes, he plays back on the secondary.

He is essentially a "second-guesser." He tries to size up the play situation of the offensive team, then position himself in such a location that he will have the greatest chance of stopping the play.

According to Lee, he must be "fast, quick and reasonably intelligent."

Hereford has an enrollment of approximately 1,020 in the top three grades, only 30 students under the classification which would put it in the same classification as Pampa.

Pampa high school players have been assigned numbers they will use in games, both at home and away.

2 New Coaches Join Pampa Football Staff

Two new assistant football coaches have been added to the Pampa High School staff, it was announced recently by Swede Lee.

The two mentors were approved by the school board at a recent meeting.

They are Jim Cunningham, ex-Tulia High School head coach, and Buddy Williams, ex-Linden-Kildare High School head coach.

Williams, 25, is now coaching as linebacker on defense. He was graduated from Callisburg, Tex. in 1961 and earned a BA degree from Texas A&M University in 1965.

He coached the freshman team at Texas A&M one year in 1966.

He played football, basketball and baseball in high school. At Texas A&M, he was center and linebacker and lettered one year.

His wife's name is Linda and they have two children, Aleisha, 5, and Leah, 1.

Cunningham, 28, coached football and track at Tulia High School during the 1966-67 school year.

He is now coaching the offensive line for the Pampa High School football team.

He previously coached at Breckenridge (1963-65), Kress (1965). At Breckenridge, he was a coach in football, basketball, track and golf. At Kress, he was a coach in football, basketball and track.

He was a starter as offensive and defensive tackle on the 1962-63 West Texas State University football team as a senior, the year he graduated.

He was graduated from DeKalb High School.

He lettered two years in football at Texarkana Junior College and two years in football at West Texas State University.

In high school, he played football, basketball and track.

His wife, Gay, will teach elementary school here in Pampa.

Cunningham will teach social studies at the high school while Williams will teach mathematics at the high school.

Gary Player Leads In Golf

CLIFTON, N.J. (UPI) — Health-bug Gary Player muled his way to a one-stroke lead in the second round of the $150,000 Thunderbird Golf Classic Saturday and then calmly went out and jogged two miles while Bruce Crampton tried to catch him but couldn't.

By the end of the day, after the energetic Player had fired his five-under-par 67 and finished his running, he was a shot in front of both Crampton and Bob Murphy with his seven-under-par total of 137 for 36 holes.

Crampton, the curly-haired 32-year-old Australian, staid, had a 68 and actually occasioned the biggest commotion of the afternoon.

He's called the "Iron Man" by those on the tour but suddenly he came up with the golden touch and tacked together five straight birdies from the seventh hole through the 11th.

The performance put him eight under par at that point and temporarily a shot ahead of Player, who had finished hours earlier and was busy with his jogging, but Crampton couldn't hold the advantage.

He three-putted from 11 feet on the 13th for his bogey to fall back even with Player, then dropped further back into a second place tie with Murphy, who had a 70 when he trapped his tee shot on the 17th for another bogey.

Nudging Crampton and Murphy, who stood at 138, was Mason Rudolph with 139 and Billy Casper with 140. Rudolph had his second consecutive sub-par round, a 69, and Casper, the tour's leading money winner, his second 70 in a row.

Aussie Wins Tennis Match Despite Rally

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI) — Wimbledon runner-up Tony Roche of Australia, surviving a whirlwind five-set assault by Southern California's Stan Smith and a disputed linesman's call near the finish, battled into the third round of the $100,000 U.S. Open Tennis Championship Saturday, but Aussie pro Fred Stolle was beaten by a British amateur.

The 21-year-old, 6-4 Smith overpowered Roche in two of the first three sets but the left-handed Aussie pro finally prevailed 3-6, 10-8, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4 to advance with fellow pros Ken Rosewall of Australia, Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., and 40-year-old Pancho Gonzalez of Los Angeles.

But there were upsets in both men's and women's singles with Stolle, a 29-year-old star who won here as an amateur in 1966 and three times reached the Wimbledon final, the chief victim.

Stolle went down before Peter Curtis, of England, his nation's seventh-ranking player 6-8, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3, 8-6. Curtis fought off two match points in the 12th.

game before he nailed down his triumph.

Eighty speeded Kristy Pigeon, 18-year-old Danville, Calif. slugger who won the Wimbledon Junior crown, also was a casualty in a 7-5, 6-4 defeat against South Africa's Maryna Godwin.

Twins Edge Chisox, 4-3
ST. PAUL, MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—Rich Rollins hit a solo homer and singled in the go-ahead run Saturday as Minnesota topped the Chicago White Sox 4-3 but it was a costly victory since the Twins lost outfielder Tony Oliva for the rest of the season with a dislocated shoulder.

Booster Club Meets Tuesday

Pampa high school football progress and the current membership drive will be topics for the Harvester Club at a meeting at 7:30 at the high school auditorium Tuesday night.

The meeting is the initial one for the group which will schedule weekly meetings on Tuesday during the school year.

Sets World Record

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (UPI)—Unheralded Vince Matthews of Johnson C. Smith College ran the world's fastest 400 meters in 44.4 seconds Saturday only minutes after Lee Evans cracked the world 600-meter record in a final high altitude tuneup meet among U.S. Olympic hopefuls.

GRAHAM RETURNS
BOSTON (UPI)—Mal Graham has signed with the Boston Celtics after missing part of 1967-68 National Basketball Association season because of a military service commitment.

Graham, a star guard for New York University, scored 290 points for the Celtics during his brief freshman pro season.

Pirates Blank Braves

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Steve Blass, moved to left field when Roy Face came in to face one batter in the first inning, pitched a five-hitter and Fred Patek's two-run triple highlighted a four-run third inning Saturday as the Pittsburgh Pirates blanked the Atlanta Braves, 8-0.

American Football League Starts Friday

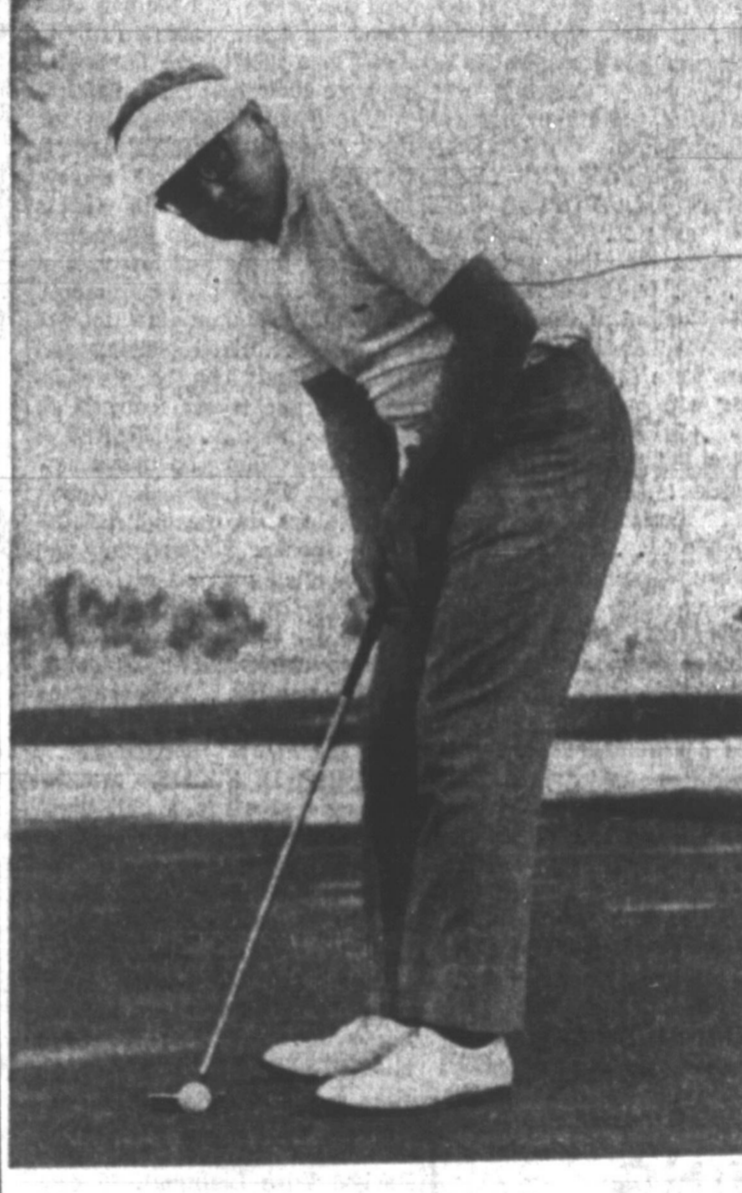

NEW YORK (UPI) — The American Football League is only nine years old but it has apparently grown up.

The AFL, treated by the established National Football League as something of a joke when it started its first season in 1960, starts its ninth season Friday night with its future looking brighter than ever.

In the early years there was a question whether the league was even going to survive but now it is starting to play the NFL on even terms.

BOBBY SANDERS, veteran Amarillo golfer, won medalist honors at the Top of Texas tournament Saturday. He scored a 70.

JOHN FARQUHAR, two-time champion, was in hot contention for an unprecedented third title by shooting a par 71 Saturday in the Top of Texas event.

Sanders Shoots 70 In Golf Tournament

Bob Sanders, Amarillo lawyer, captured medalist honors with a one-under-par 70 in the championship flight of the 31st annual Top of Texas amateur golf tournament at the Pampa Country Club Saturday.

Sanders, a veteran of the annual tournament here, recorded one of the highest medalist scores in the history of the event.

He scored two straight birdies on the final two holes to gain the lead after the first round of play. The championship flight will be cut tomorrow after 36 holes of play.

Sanders, who has been playing in the Top of Texas tournament since 1954 as a sophomore in high school, has finished no higher than ninth in the event.

Close behind the leader were Farquhar, a two-time champion in the event from Amarillo and Steve LeCrone, 1966 tiltist from Amarillo.

All had 71.

Six players were tied for fifth place with scores of 72. They were Don Bowers, Dalhart; Richard Ellis, Pampa; Jim Harren, Borger; Tom Porter, Amarillo; Jim Young, Hereford and John Shepperson, San Angelo.

Ideal weather greeted the field of 45 golfers in the championship flight. Wind was not a factor in the high scores recorded.

The four-day event enters the second round today with another 18 holes scheduled. Players will be cut at the end of 36 holes which will be completed today.

A total of 211 golfers were competing on the 6,010 yard, par 71 course as tournament officials decided to increase the field by five when interest in the event exceeded expectations.

Sunday's schedule calls for the following starting times for each flight: 10th—7:30. 9th: 8:00. 8th—8:30. 7th—9:00. 6th—9:40. 5th—10:15. 4th—10:45. 3rd—11:15. 2nd—11:45. 1st—12:30. Championships—1:15.

Houston Adds Two To Staff

HOUSTON (UPI)—University of Houston Athletic Director Harry Fouke Saturday announced two additions to the school's athletic staff.

The two are tennis Coach Paul Christian and ticket manager Jim Ausley.

Christian, a 1963 graduate of TCU, replaces Leo LeClear of the MacGregor Park Tennis Center. LeClear was UH's acting coach this past spring, in addition to his pro duties as the center.

Christian coached at Houston's Miller High the past four years. His doubles team of Ronnie Flores and Dickie Fikes won the state Class AAAA high school championship last spring.

Blond Bruce Fleisher, a brash 19-year-old youth from Miami who gave up baseball for a fling at golf, Saturday won the 1968 U.S. Amateur Championship on his... very first try when a withering charge by Vinnie Giles fell one stroke short for the second straight year.

Fleisher, who led or shared the lead in each of the last three rounds, shot an even par 70 to wind up at four over 284, good enough to withstand Giles' magnificent five under par 65, which broke Bob Goalby's three-year-old course record of 67.

Giles, who had started the final round six strokes back of Fleisher, wound up with a 72 hole total of five over par 285, the score Bob Dickson won with last year when Giles again missed by a stroke.

Fleisher never wilted before Giles' onrush, although he increased the tension when he lost half his two stroke lead by bogeying the 377-par four 15th hole and Giles birdied the 195-yard, par three 17th with a tremendous 20-foot putt.

Fleisher, however, parred out while Giles watched hopefully from the clubhouse and the Miami Dade Junior College sophomore nailed down the title.

Detroit Secures Young 'General'

By RICHARD L. SHOOK
DETROIT (UPI)—The specter of Bobby Layne has haunted Detroit quarterbacks since 1957. Now it's Bill Munson's turn to battle the phantom of success.

It's been 11 years since the lion's last National Football League title, although Detroit did finish second three straight years at the turn of the decade, and the club has been looking under every rock to come up with a field leader in the manner of the fiery Layne.

"I definitely felt that we needed a new quarterback," head coach Joe Schmidt said, "and in my book, Munson was the best one available."

"He had two excellent years as a starter before he was injured and replaced by Roman Gabriel. He is young. He is rated a very intelligent quarterback, a fine leader, a good play-caller and a good passer."

Defense Improves
Schmidt, working on the second segment of his five-year contract, spirited the defense from 13th in the league two seasons ago to third in the NFL last year.

The Lions drafted a couple of Gregs—Landry from Massachusetts and Barton from Tulsa—and they impressed so much general manager Russ Thomas was able to unload Karl Sweetman, who shared the passing with Milt Plum last year, to New Orleans for receiver-returned Walter "The Rifle" Roberts.

"I don't know how Barton ever lasted until the ninth round," a member of the Lions organization said. Barton and Landry, the team's top draft choice, both show great passing arms but limited experience in running an integrated, organizational attack plan.

"We must improve our passing attack," Schmidt said. This part of our game will be our No. 1 target in 1968."

Detroit drafted with an eye toward this end when they picked up speedy Earl McCulloch of Southern California, a top hurdler and reputedly one of the world's fastest men off the blocks.

Tight End, Charles Sanders of Minnesota, was also picked to fill a veteran-manned position and the Lions undoubtedly aided their scoring cause by selecting the nation's premier college kicker in Jerry Depoyster of Wyoming.

Roberts, of course, is one of the fastest persons ever to put on a uniform and can see duty behind McCulloch, who decided to forgo the Olympics to play for pay. Phil Odie, a slower but great-hands type of receiver with the ability to get open, is rated a likely rookie to make the grade. He comes from Brigham Young University.

Of course the Lions already have a potent offense. His name is Mel Farr, rookie of the year last season.

Farr was expected to team with Nick Eddy, the rookie from Notre Dame who missed all of last season after undergoing a knee operation during the exhibition schedule. But Eddy reinjured the knee again this year. He may be back about the second or third game.

Barney Excels
Lem Barney, who accomplished what only a few have before him by stepping into a regular cornerback spot and tying for the NFL leadership in pass interceptions (10), highlights one of the league's top defenses against the pass.

Detroit traded with Pittsburgh for defensive end John Baker and swung a deal with St. Louis for Joe Robb when regular Darris McCord retired. This plugged the only defensive hole.

"We know we still have a long way to go," says Schmidt. "We definitely feel we are on the way and getting stronger each year."

The Lions improvement depends on a lot of ifs. But Bobby Layne, and his omnipresent ghost, will be watching with a great deal of interest.

HODGE SIGNS
BOSTON (UPI)—High-scoring Ken Hodge signed a Boston Bruins contract this week for his fifth National Hockey League season.

Hodge, a forward, scored 25 goals and 31 assists for 56 points last season.

Dick Williams

SWEATY CHANGE—It was a different kind of sweat for Dick Williams last season. The Boston Red Sox manager was leading his club to the 1967 American League pennant in a tight race. This year, however, the Red Sox are virtually out of championship contention. Now, the sweat is confined to pitching batting practice. The anguish has changed from mental to physical.

Packers Favored For Fourth Title

By GENE W. HINTZ
GREEN BAY, Wis. (UPI)—Phil Bengtson makes no bones about it.

"I guess you'd have to say we're favored to take it all," he readily admits when talking about the 1968 Green Bay Packers—the team he inherited from Vince Lombardi last February.

Bengtson admits he's on a hot seat—succeeding the most successful coach in the National Football League. But, he says, there's only one thing to do—WIN A FOURTH NFL title in a row.

Any weaknesses? "Can't think of any," Bengtson answers frankly. "On paper, I guess we have to be the favorites."

Veterans of the three championships in a row man almost every position—most of them two and three deep.

Only a handful of rookies—led by first round draft choices Fred Carr of Texas-El Paso and Billy Lueck of Arizona—are likely to make the team. And, except for Carr and Lueck, few of them are expected to see much action.

Carr figures to give veteran Gary Fleming a run for the tight end job and Lueck should see a lot of action backing up Gale Gillingham and Jerry Kramer at guard.

Elijah Pitts, Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski are healthy this year—and Bengtson finds himself with an extremely deep backfield.

Despite the loss of reserve quarterback Don Horn to the Army, the Packers still have a three-deep signal-calling corps. Veteran reliever Zeke Bratkowski and a promising rookie—Billy Stevens of Texas-El Paso are backing up Earl Starr, who has quarterbacked more championship teams than any other quarterback in pro history.

The offensive line has been bolstered by the addition of Lueck and Francis Peay, the former New York Giants starter. Peay is expected to spell Bob Skoronski and Forrest Gregg at tackles. Boyd Dowler and Carroll Dale at flankers are among the best and Anderson, Bob Long and rookie Dave Dunaway back them up.

One trouble spot on many clubs—center—finds Ken Bowman and Bob Hyland, both experienced, vying for the starting job. Either is available to help Gillingham, Kramer and Lueck at guards.

The defense is as solid as ever and probably has the best set of linebackers in football history. The regulars—Dale Robinson, Lee Roy Caffey and Ray Nitschke—are backed up by Jim Flanagan, an extremely promising second year man; Dick Capp, who saw some action last year, and Phil Vanderveer.

The defensive backfield is unchanged with Bob Jeter, Willie Wood, Herb Adderley and Tom Brown starting and veterans John Rowser and Doug Hart backing them up. Jeter and Wood were all-pros a year ago. Adderley was all-pro in 1965 and 1966.

Veterans man all positions in the defensive line with Henry Jordan and Willie Davis joined by Ron Kostelnik and Lionel Aldridge and backed up solidly by Jim Weatherwax, Leon Crenshaw and Bob Brown, who is expected to miss early games because of a broken arm.

New Cincinnati Football Eleven Edges Jets, 13-9, In Exhibition

By STU CAMEN

The "Swamp Rat" is putting a bite in the Cincinnati Bengals' attack.

The "Swamp Rat," better known to his teammates as Warren to replace veteran John Stofa at quarterback. The rookie, who acquired his unusual nickname while starring at the University of Tennessee, responded by leading the fledgling club on a 70-yard scoring drive, climaxed by a one-yard touchdown plunge by Essex Johnson.

Place kicker Dale Livingston provided the rest of the Bengals' offense by booting two field goals and an extra point, while Cincinnati's defense limited New York to three field goals by Jim Turner.

Vikings Hopes Hinges On QB

By ROBERT PENICK
MANKATO, Minn. (UPI)—Bud Grant says his Minnesota Vikings were better than last year's 3-8-3 record indicated and—if either Joe Kapp or Gary Cuzzo jells at quarterback—look for improvement this year.

Kapp, former Canadian star, joined the Vikings last season. In addition, the club traded for Cuzzo, former understudy to John Unitas.

Aside from the passing attack which Grant called "Poor" the Vikings were close to being a good team last year.

The running defense should again be solid, although Grant said it would be "difficult" to forecast that Dave Osborn could match last year's output of 972 yards in the league.

"Osborn could gain less yardage. Clinton Jones could gain more, each would be valuable to us and the halfback position would be more productive than last year."

Bill Brown—still unsigned—is solid as fullback whether running, blocking or receiving. Veterans Jim Lindsey, Earl Denny and rookie Oscar Reed are the reserve running backs.

There should be no problem forming a good set of receivers from among veterans Washington, Paul Flatley, Billy Martin, John Beasley, Bucky Pope and Tom Hall; former AFL star Art Powell, and eight-year Canadian veteran Willie Fleming.

The offensive line hinges on center Mick Tingelhof, tackle Grady Alderman and guard Milt Sunde, all former Pro Bowl squad members. Rookie Ron Yary of USC last year's Outland trophy winner, is a potential starter.

The defensive line of Page and either Paul Dickson or Gary Larsen at tackle and Carl Eller and Jim Marshall at end is strong. Veteran linebackers Lonnie Warwick, Roy Winston and John Kirby all return, though there are no veteran backup men.

Paul Krause, twice an All-Pro at Washington, and rookie Charley West and Bob Bryant have the best chances to break into last year's defensive backfield of Karl Kasulke, Earsell Mackbee, Dale Hackbart and Ed Sharockman.

The Vikings are in the NFL's Central Division with Green Bay, Detroit and Chicago. Grant's evaluation: "The toughest defensive division in football."

FOURTH SIGNED
COMMACK, N.Y. (UPI)—The New York Mets signed their fourth player for the 1968-69 American Basketball Association season today when Tony Jackson agreed to terms.

Jackson, a former St. John's (N.Y.) star, was the club's second leading scorer last season with a 19.5 average.

DISCUSS PLANS
NEW YORK (UPI)—The top four teams in each major league have been called by Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert to attend a Sept. 5 meeting here to discuss 1968 World Series plans.

Detroit, Baltimore Boston and Cleveland will represent the American League and St. Louis, Cincinnati, San Francisco and Chicago, the National League.

Denny McLain

DENNY MCCLAIN, Detroit pitcher, played the organ almost as well as he pitches. McLain, rated a good chance to win thirty games this year, defeated the California Angels, 6-1, in action on Wednesday.

Outstanding Rookie Leads Miami Eleven

By STANLEY M. BROWN
MIAMI (UPI)—The Miami Dolphins, armed at last with an experienced quarterback, make muscle in both lines—youthful enthusiasm and a "great draft," are expecting their third season in the American Football League to be a winning one.

For the record, coach George Wilson is merely predicting "we'll win more games than in 1967," when Miami compiled a 4-10 record. Privately, however, Wilson and his assistants say they will be disappointed if Miami doesn't win at least seven games.

"For the first time, we are entering a season with a quarterback that isn't a question mark," Wilson said. "Bob Griese had an outstanding rookie year, and he looks improved this season."

Griese completed 116 of 331 passes for 2,005 yards and 13 touchdowns last year, in addition to rushing for another 157 yards. He threw 18 interceptions.

Blocking Improved
The blocking has shown definite improvement this year. Maxie Williams was moved from tackle to guard. Dependable Ed Goode was retained at center, veteran Billy Neighbors is the other guard and rookie Doug Crusan of Indiana has moved into the other tackle slot.

The man who may add the bomb to Griese's aerial repertoire is 23-year-old Gene Milton, a rookie from Florida A&M who runs the 100 in 9.3 and gave up

Gibson Tells Of Rat Bite

By MILTON RICHMOND
UPI Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UPI)—The guy came up to Bob Gibson and asked him to be specific.

He wanted to know what it was like to be born and brought up in a ghetto.

Bob Gibson, born and raised in one in Omaha, Neb., wrinkled his brow and took a deep breath because it was early in the day and he was still tired from the hurry up trip in from Pittsburgh where he had pitched his 11th shutout and 19th victory for the St. Louis Cardinals. He was searching for exactly the right words.

"I don't think it is something that you can just sit down and say this is the way I lived and have you understand it," he said to the guy who asked the question.

"But, for instance, when I was a kid there were a lot of things that happened to me that happened to other kids in ghettos. I can remember when I was about five years old, I was in bed, and I was bitten on the ear by a rat. I wouldn't imagine you were ever bitten by a rat. These things happen day in and day out in the ghetto."

Luncheon For Gibson
Bob Gibson's background came up because the publishers of his new book, entitled From Ghetto to Glory and written with former sports columnist Phil Pepe, had gotten together and put on this luncheon especially for the occasion.

When he had finished talking about his early boyhood and how he had made his way out of Omaha's ghetto, Bob Gibson was asked about the rest of the book's title, "The Glory." He thought before answering that one, too.

"To me," he said, "being a professional baseball player, and I'm not putting myself on the back, but being one of the best in the league, is something not quite like glory. Not the way most people think of it, anyway. I worked hard for it. I worked hard from the time I was a kid up to now and I still work hard. All this seems to me something I deserve because I did work so hard. It's not the same kind of feeling you would get, I guess, if you were a movie star. I just don't feel any glory like that."

Bob Gibson was doing his best to convey his innermost feelings. Gut reaction, some people like to call it. The 32-year-old Cardinal right-hander talked freely and although his subject dealt with emotion he succeeded in speaking about it without becoming maudlin.

He even drew a laugh at one point. That was when he was asked what motivated him to get out of the ghetto.

"Being bitten by a rat didn't help me like the place," Gibson said, laughing himself at the obviousness of it all.

He said he began to see how the other half lived at the age of 11 and 12 when he started making trips with his Little League team.

Getting Out
"We went to different little cities in Nebraska and Iowa and I saw how other people lived," he said. "I decided there had to be something better than where I was living. I felt there was a way of getting out through being a professional athlete. I wasn't aware I was going to be a professional baseball player, but I knew I was going to get out of there some way and I was going to have a better life."

Bob Gibson has made that better life for himself, for his wife and his two daughters.

There's little doubt he's going to get the Cy Young Award. He's got a crack at the MVP, too.

Fishin' Roundup

By MELVIN CLARK

A report from Roy Hunter at Greenbelt Lake states the fish are biting pretty good again. It is still a little too warm for pike to bite much, although there are a few being caught. Two or three nice ones were caught last week.

J.E. Kidd caught one 2 lb. bass, and Jude Johnson caught two bass weighing about 2 lbs. each. Kidd and Susie, Don, and Annie Wooten caught 25 crappie one night. Michael Hunter caught several nice catfish. Roy also stated that they had a nice seven foot rise in the lake.

C. R. Scarberry, 200 S. Tyng, fished Lake Fryer near Perryton last week and caught one 7 1/2 lb. channel cat, and six that weighed from 1 1/2 to 3 lbs. each. He was using "Phew" for bait.

Arlena and Leo Robinson, 805 Elm, also were using "Phew" bait along with some shrimp and caught 8 channel cat weighing from 1 1/4 to 2 lbs. each. They were fishing at a farm pond near Groom.

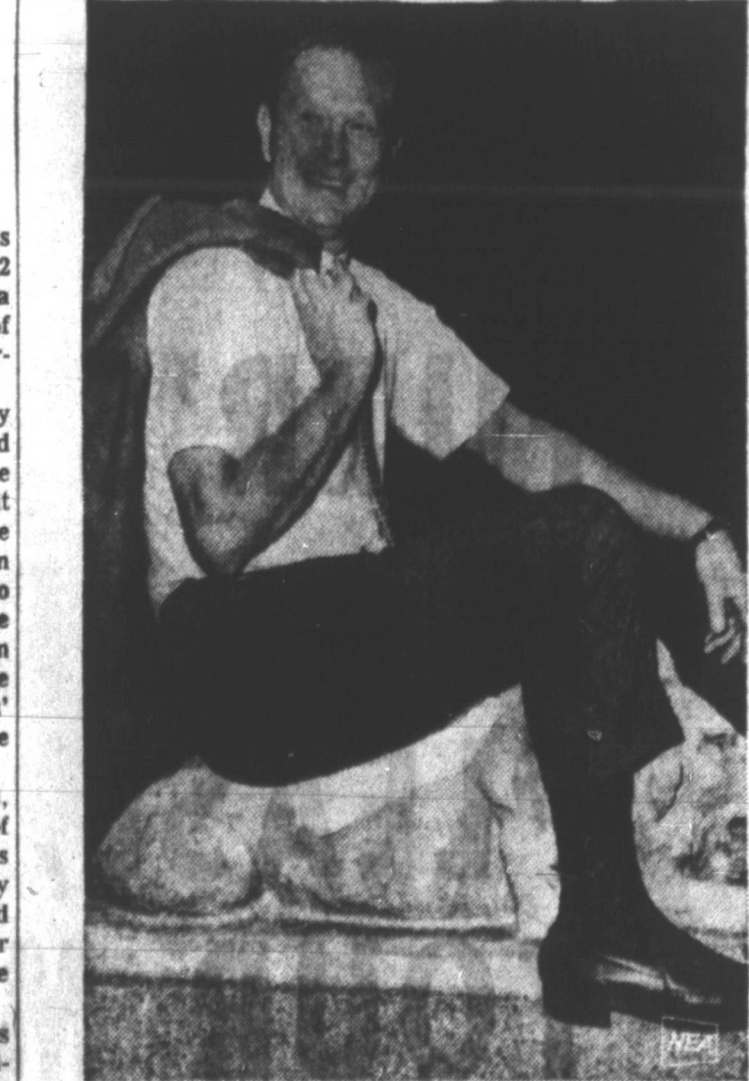

Carl Wright and his son, Richard, 808 E. Craven, fished at Finsterwald Lake near Moberle recently and caught several nice channel cat weighing 2 to 3 lbs. each. They were also using "Phew" bait. This is a nice lake and close to Pampa. The charge for fishing is $1.00 per person per day.

Roy Jones and Jess Wilburn have been fishing twice at Skip Out in Oklahoma recently. Their first trip they caught 42 channel cat averaging about 2 1/4 lbs. each, and the second trip to Skip Out their catch was 19 channel cat averaging about 2 1/2 lbs. each. They were using stink bait.

C. J. Trunky of Lefors, caught 5 bass weighing from 2 to 3 lbs. each in a farm pond south of Erick, Oklahoma using a Pulver Riser lure.

Jim Ballew was fishing a farm pond in Oklahoma using a black jitterbug and caught one 3 lb. bass. A friend fishing with him using a Rappala lure caught two 4 lb. bass.

Lee Dick went fishing with his grandsons, David, Donald and Danny Farrar at Lake McClellan. David caught all the fish—a nice mess of catfish. David was using waterdogs for bait.

A WINNING GRIN—St. Louis Cardinal manager Red Schoendienst relaxes with obvious enjoyment. There is little for him to worry about until October, when the World Series opens. His club has a huge lead in the National League and will seek to repeat as World Champions against the American League champs.

Miss Cheri Ann Jackson Exchanges Wedding Vows with Sgt. W.J. Ott

MIAMI (Sp) The First Christian Church in Miami was the nuptial scene for the exchange of vows by Miss Cheri Ann Jackson and Sgt. William James Ott, at 5 p.m. Aug. 25.

The parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jackson of Miami. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul James Ott of Belmawr, N.J.

The Rev. Thurman Boswell, pastor of the First Christian Church, performed the double-ring ceremony before a lighted cross with an arrangement of white gladiolas at the base, flanked on either side by palms. The altar rails were decorated with salad foliage with white tapers.

Mrs. Charles Clark, organist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Daugherty, Jr., who sang, "I'll Walk Beside You"; "Because"; and "The Wedding Prayer."

BRIDE

The bride, given in marriage by her father with the "Her mother and I" avowal, wore a formal gown of lace over peau-de-soie. Her cage, of peau-de-soie, was a fitted bodice with a traditional neckline and long sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands. The bodice was enjoined to a skirt with soft released pleats.

Her fingertip mantilla type veil was of silk illusion bordered with imported Chantilly lace. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and tufts of tulle with white satin streamers. Her complete attire was designed and fashioned by her mother.

ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Charles Woodfin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a street-length dress of blue peau-de-soie styled similarly to the bride's dress beneath the cage. She wore a head-dress of blue peau-de-soie rosette styled with blue net.

Serving as bridesmaids were hair and carried a basket of flower petals.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jackson wore a two-piece beige suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a gray chiffon dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Mrs. Howard Seymour, of Miami, registered the guests from a table decorated with an anniversary candle.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The table was covered with white nylon lace over white taffeta. The cloth was caught up at intervals by white satin rosettes. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

The three-tiered wedding cake decorated with blue flowers and topped with wedding bells was served by Mrs. James Tolbert, Mrs. Howard Seymour, both of Miami, and Miss Sue Teeters of Amarillo. They were assisted by Mrs. Wilford Jackson, Triska and Tammy Jackson all of Miami, and Miss Kay Lynn Pickle of El Paso.

For a wedding trip to Belmawr, N.J., the bride chose an off-white dress of wool jersey with an empire waistline and white accessories.

After their trip they will be at home at 1215 West 11th, Apt. 1, in Amarillo.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS

Pre-nuptial parties for Mrs. Ott consisted of a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Glynn Dodson with Mmes. S.J. Montgomery, James Selts, E. D. Daugherty, Jr., Ed Talley, C. W. mauve pink lace dress with matching coat, pearl gray accessories and pink mauve orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a bright blue two-piece knit suit with pink mauve orchid corsage.

Organist was Miss Melodye Anderson, and vocalist, Nathan Price. Wedding music included vocal selections of "Always", and "Dedication," sung by Price, and "True Love," sung by the bride to the bridegroom.

The church was decorated in an arch setting entwined with salal foliage and white china chrysanthemums flanked with graduated size columns. Hurricane candles with pom pom mums and salal foliage completed the church decorations.

RECEPTION

The First Assembly of God Church was the site for a reception after the ceremony. An orchid satin table cloth with silver roses at the corners was decorated with an arrangement of purple and blue flowers in a silver centerpiece.

The three-tiered white cake trimmed in orchid and blue was decorated with angel wedding bells and lovebirds.

Arvella Powell assisted at the punch service as Mrs. Gayla Rhode served cake. Norma Joyce Pratt, Panhandle, registered guests. Others assisting were Karen White, Patsy Adams, and L.A. and a Frost.

The bride's traveling costume was an aqua and white knit suit dress with white fox, and pearlized accessories.

The couple will live in Waxahatchie where they will continue their studies at Southwestern Assemblies of God College.

Showers were given by the women of First Assembly of God Church, Pampa, and LaPorte Assembly of God. The bridegroom's parents sponsored a rehearsal dinner Aug. 23.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I suppose you must get a lot of fake problems but this is the real McCoy. I am a 1st lieutenant in an infantry outfit in Vietnam. I am due to go on R&R the end of this month, and planned to meet Judy, my fiancée, in Hawaii.

Tonight I received a letter from Judy telling me that my mother is planning to go to Hawaii and "surprise" me on my R&R. My mother and Judy are rather close, but I'm sure this was not Judy's idea.

Believe me, I love my mother, but I am 25 years old and Judy is 22 and the last thing I want right now is my mother on my R&R (Rest and Recuperation) with me.

How do I tell her to stay home without hurting her feelings?

STARS AND STRIPES

DEAR SANDS: If your mother and Judy are "rather close," your mother probably knows Judy is meeting you in Hawaii so your mother may think you need a chaperone. Unless you want to be the dummy in a three-handed honeymoon bride game, better tell Mom you were "surprised" already to hear of her intended visit, so to please skip the trip.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are frantic and don't know where to turn. I'll get right to the point:

Last night I found a small corn cob pipe in my teen-age daughter's room. It had been "smoked" and still contained a small portion of something that looks like tobacco, and yet it is not tobacco. We fear it is some kind of drug or dope.

When my husband confronted our daughter with this pipe, she said she didn't know what it contained—that a boy had given it to her. We don't believe her.

Where can we go to have the contents of this pipe analyzed without a lot of unpleasant publicity? If we discover it IS dope, then what do we do?

FRANTIC MOTHER DEAR FRANTIC: If there is no private chemical laboratory where you live, get in touch with your local police department and ask for their assistance. DO NOT disregard this because you fear "unpleasant publicity." If it is not serious, you've lost nothing. If it is, you had better put your daughter into the hands of a competent professional counselor. The lines of communication between you and your daughter are obviously not open, and she desperately needs help.

DEAR ABBY: I was engaged to a wonderful boy. We were to be married in June. Five weeks before the wedding he was killed in Vietnam. What I want to know is, what should I do with my engagement ring? I'd like to keep it because it is just about the only thing I have to remember him by. But since it is a family heirloom and there are younger boys in the family I thought maybe his parents would be expecting me to give it back.

I want to do what is best but I'm not sure what it would be.

TENNESSEE DEAR TENNESSEE: The best way to find out what his parents "expect" you to do is to ask them. But the ring belongs to you, and there is no reason why you should not keep it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "RICHARD": Take it from Ben Franklin, who appropriately enough wrote to "POOR RICHARD": "Where there is marriage without love, there will be love without marriage."

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Wedding Vows Unite Miss Paulette Hinton, John Edward Gentry

Miss Paulette Loraine Hinton and John Edward Gentry were united in marriage in a double-ring evening ceremony Aug. 23. Rev. Sam Byron Hulsey performed the ceremony before the altar in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Hinton, Skellytown. The bridegroom is the son of Col. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Gentry of San Antonio.

Given in marriage and escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was dressed in Chantilly lace over peau de soie with a scooped neckline ending in a bow in the back. The formal length, straight-lined dress was designed with long, tapered lace sleeves. Her tiered mantilla of English illusion was edged with Chantilly lace and attached to a Chantilly lace bow headpiece.

A gold cross, given to her by her late maternal grandmother, and diamond-centered four-leaf clover earrings, completed her costume. She carried a formal bouquet of golden roses centered with a gold-throated white orchid and attached to a white prayer book. She also carried a white linen handkerchief trimmed with Venetian lace.

Best man was Jerry Gentry, the bridegroom's brother. Ushers were Robert D. Fugate, Tom Grantham, and Joe Grantham, all of Miami and Kim Johnson, Panhandle. James Daniel, Pampa, was crucifer and acolyte and lighted candles on the altar. Groomsman was Douglas Hinton, the bride's brother. Tall brass urns beside the altar held large white chrysanthemums and lemon leaves.

Miss Mary Beth Bowers, maid of honor, and Miss Marieke Lang, bridesmaid, wore street-length dresses of gold raw silk trimmed with white Chantilly lace, jewel neckline and bell sleeves. They carried cascade arrangements of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. Their headpieces were gold tulle with short bouffant veils of Chantilly lace bows.

For the reception in St. Matthew's Parish House, Miss Nan Hudson assisted at the bride's table punch bowl. Miss Judy Watkins served coffee at the bridegroom's table. Miss Miss Penny Powers and Miss Sherry Watkins served cake. House party hostesses were Mmes. R. A. Fugate, H. Watkins, J. R. Reeve, F. Webb and Joe Daniel Jr.

The bride's table was covered with a satin floor-length cloth, centered with floral arrangements of white mums and feathered mums, and appointed with silver.

The bridegroom's table, centered with gold and bronze mum centerpiece, was covered with an Army-Navy hand-embroidered cut work cloth of grass linen.

For the Colorado honeymoon, the bride traveled in a gold raw silk dress trimmed with white crocheted lace and white accessories. Her flowers were the white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live in Austin where they are senior students at the University of Texas. The bride is a White Deer High School graduate. The bridegroom is a graduate of Misawa Independent High School, Japan and a member of the advanced Army ROTC program at the university.

Out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Guy Hinton, Ralls; Charles C. Thomas, Prescott, Ariz.; Mr. Stephen Traut, Hastings, Neb.; Misses Rose Webb, Dallas; Mary Ulrich, Weatherford, Okla.; and Debbie Hoover, Shreveport, La.; Mmes. Andy Anderson, Ralls; Harry Bowers, Garland; and Thomas Johnson and children, Omaha, Neb.; and Drs. and Mmes. F. S. Ulrich, Weatherford and W. K. Williams and family, Denton.

PRE-NUPTIAL EVENTS Pre-nuptial events included a wedding shower July 13 in Mrs. George L. Casey's home. Hostesses were Mmes. Casey, W. J. Fagsdale, S. J. Meador, H. Watkins, Clem Followell, F. Webb, John R. Reeve, R. A. Fugate and C. Johnson.

Col. and Mrs. Gentry hosted a wedding rehearsal dinner Aug. 22 at the Coronado Inn.

A nuptial Eucharist was celebrated Aug. 23 at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church with Father Hulsey as celebrant and John McCarrroll as acolyte.

The Almagas In 1896 the first major earthquake recorded in the United States killed 41 persons at Charleston, S.C.

In 1944, 68 persons were killed and property damage was estimated at $500 million as hurricane Carol lashed the New England coast.

In 1965 Argentine President Juan Peron offered to resign to end political unrest in his country. He withdrew the offer but was later ousted and forced into exile.

Miss Elizabeth Phillips, Jimmy Johnson Repeat Vows in Church Wedding Ceremony

Candelabras accented with tall baskets of white gladioli and greenery formed the setting for the evening marriage ceremony of Miss Elizabeth Ann Phillips and Jimmy A. Johnson.

Rev. A. G. Purvis performed the double-ring ceremony in Hobart Baptist Church Aug. 23.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips, Lefors. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Johnson, 930 S. Hobart.

Given in marriage by her brother, Bill Phillips, of Ulysses, Kans., the bride was dressed in a fitted gown of bridal crepe with a high-rise bodice of scalloped lace. The long-fitted lace sleeves terminated in petal points at the wrists. Special trim was a lace cage flowing into a full shoulder train.

Her tiered veil of imported illusion was attached to a queen crown of aurora jewels. She carried yellow roses on a Bible.

Following tradition, the bride wore something old, her satin slippers; something new, her wedding gown; pearl earrings, borrowed from her aunt and a blue garter made by her aunt.

Organist, Maxine Buccanan, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Sam Patterson as he sang "Because," and "I Love You Truly." The bride's mother wore a beige knit suit with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother selected a blue dress with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

RECEPTION the church Fellowship Hall, the serving table was covered with a lace cloth over yellow satin and centered with an arrangement of yellow and white flowers in a tall silver compote.

Mrs. Jim Barnes served the three-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated with yellow roses and topped with the traditional bridal pair. Mrs. Dale Vandever, the bride's sister, registered guests, as Mrs. Donnie Barton served punch. Mrs. Bill Phillips, the bride's sister-in-law, also assisted with the reception.

For the honeymoon trip to Amarillo, the bride traveled in a beige shift with beige accessories and a rose corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live at 515 E. Craven.

Out-of-town guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Dale Vandever and daughters, Dumas; Bill Phillips and daughters, Ulysses, Kans.; Alvin Jones, and Larry Phillips, Fritch; Mrs. Claude Petty, and sons; Mrs. Leonard Sanders, and daughter; Mrs. Lola Phillips and Mrs. O.A. Casity, all of Borger.

The bride was honored with a pre-nuptial event, a miscellaneous shower in Lefors by Mrs. J.W. Hartman, Paula Hartman, Jewel Forkner, Mrs. Geneva Lisenbee and Charlene Pittman.

MRS. JIMMY A. JOHNSON nee Elizabeth Ann Phillips

MRS. JOHN EDWARD GENTRY nee Paulette Loraine Hinton

TO WED

Miss Glenda Kay Cox

Mrs. Bertha Cox, 614 Davis, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Glenda Kay Cox, to Charles Reeves Jr., the son of Mrs. Charles Reeves Sr., 1100 McCullough. Reeves is employed by Phillips Petroleum Company in Borger. A fall wedding is planned. Miss Cox is employed by Alliance Claims Service.

A thought for the day: Roman poet, Horace, said, "Force without wisdom falls on its own weight."

Couple (Continued from Page 10) Church decorations were candelabra with lemon leaves, and white gladioli. The bride's mother wore a turquoise suit with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a Navy blue suit. Both wore white gladioli corsages.

Candles and floral centerpieces decorated the reception room in Central Baptist Church. Madeline Duess and Kathy McEwin assisted at the punch and coffee service as Dana Cook and Marilyn Finnegan served cake.

The couple plan to live in Amarillo. The bride graduated from Pampa High School in 1966, and attended West Texas State University. She is an employee in a life insurance company. The bridegroom graduated from Palo Duro High School in 1966, attended WTSU, and Illinois Central University and is employed by Amarillo cafeteria.

Tiny Tim Overcomes Heartbreaks To Become A Star

By DICK KLEINER
(Part II, Conclusion)
HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Tiny Tim is somewhere in his late 20s or early 30s. All he'll say is that he is "over 19." Behind him are years of heartbreak, years of stubbornly refusing to let his nagging parents and nagging friends who begged him to go into some normal job, years of working for aittance.

"I knew," he said, "that someday I would be discovered. Whenever I sang, I said to myself, maybe tonight. I would never let down, no matter how few people were listening. If the club was empty, I sang to the chairs."

He worked for $40 a week in seamy clubs on the West Side of Manhattan, in Brooklyn, in the Bronx. He worked in one or three years, until it was closed when the waitress made the mistake of soliciting plainclothes policemen. Then he went to another one — $40 a week for seven days' work.

TINY TIM'S LAST LAUGH is well-earned. After years of plodding the circuit of sleazy clubs for $40 a week, he's tiptoeing through his tulips at the tippy top of show business.

Not, at least, until after he marries. And he says he will never marry because he knows he is very hard to live with. Once he went steady, but then realized it was wrong for him.

"I am subject to great temptations about girls," he says. "I like to look at pretty girls. One of my happiest memories was in '47 when I went to the Plaza Hotel and Elizabeth Taylor—she was 15 then—blew me a kiss. Oh, I was so thrilled!"

"I sometimes feel very tempestuous about girls. But, whenever I feel that tempestuousness creep over me, I back off—and quick."

Tiny Tim is one of the phenomena of today's show business world. He is booked heavily through next year — things like The Ed Sullivan Show, Hollywood Palace, concerts, clubs. How long his odd appeal will last is, of course, anybody's guess.

One night, he was discovered. A man from Reprise records came into a club called The Scene and heard him and thought this might make a fun record, this strange man with the falsetto voice. That was only last year. Everything that has happened to Tiny Tim has happened since that fateful night.

"I always wanted to be a big star," he says. "But I never really understood what that word 'big' meant. Oh, it is fabulous!"

The fruits of this success mean little to him. For awhile, he went wild with food, and his hotel bills were tremendous. He bought himself $1,200 worth of instruments — a banjo and two guitars. And he was able to indulge his strange passions.

He is passionate about pills. He takes some 40 a day now that he can afford them. There are pills with every vitamin known to science, pills with such ingredients as rose hips, bovine organs and wheat germs. He washes them down with mineral water or organic apple juice.

He spreads honey from spray-painted blossoms on specially imported crackers from Armenia. He nibbles away at sunflower seeds and almonds. He washes with special soaps and shampoos.

And he feels good. His eyes sparkle. His voice is excited. He makes broad, theatrical gestures. The nicest thing you can say to him is that he doesn't look much over 19, at that.

—He is enjoying every moment of his new-found fame and fortune. He is realist enough to know that it may not last, that he may be back someday singing for $40 a week. He says Wednesday but these scenes burned so deeply into public consciousness that scores of viewers were still telephoning about them last night.

The other networks also reported hundreds of phone calls since the riots. This represents a deeper viewer involvement than in any program for a long time.

Although the level of violence in programs last season was regarded as somewhat high by those who hoped for self-censorship from TV there may be ratings pressure for producers to return to that standard if there is much more televised clubbing and ear-gassing in he streets.

As one authority put it: "Television wants to help but can it permit itself to fall too far behind reality?"

Television In Review

By ROBERT MUSEL
NEW YORK (UPI) — Has the campaign against violence in TV programs, which started after the killing of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, suffered a setback as a result of the riots attending the Democratic National Convention?

All three networks have been seriously examining ways of diminishing violence in dramatic entertainment and in children's cartoons partly as a result of a widespread belief that television's example can influence the impressionable for good or evil.

But the way network spokesmen look at it at the moment there isn't much point in cutting out the shooting in a western or the pistol-whipping in an underworld drama if the viewer can switch to a news program and see citizens and the police locked in a bloody real life no-holds-barred conflict.

No networks would have dared stage in make-believe anything as violent as the battle of Chicago.

Maintain Integrity
This doesn't mean there will not be some reduction in violence next season. What it seems to mean is that if a producer genuinely believes it essential to the integrity of a program he will use it rather than, as has been suggested, dilute it to the point where it might even slightly water down a dramatic situation.

A CBS executive said the presence of TV cameras and equipment was frequently mentioned as contributing to the start and duration of demonstrations.

"All we've seen at Chicago confirms my view that this is not the case and that television simply reflects the society in which we live," he said. "It does not lead it. If society is violent you get violence on television."

A spokesman for ABC said: "No one is kidding anyone that there is not going to be violence on television. What we are trying to do is eliminate excessive violence or violence for its own sake. You're not going to get cops kissing crowds, or cowboys cuddling the rustlers. Violence belongs in some programs but it must be intelligently used."

"And, of course, there is violence in the streets for all to see on the news programs."

Provides Lesson
The battle of Chicago provided one lesson TV networks and producers might take to heart — a little violence goes a long way. CBS showed only 18 minutes of riot footage out of 14 hours of convention coverage
