Reds Intensify Attack on Cities

SAIGON (UPI)—Communist artillerymen sent their heaviest salvo in almost three months into the allied military complex at Da Nang today—65 rocket and mortar rounds. Military spokesmen said they shelled four more cities Tuesday.

In Saigon, South Vietnam protested to the International Control Commission (ICC) that North Vietnam "has not responded to the total bombing halt" but instead had "intensified the rocket shelling against populated areas in the south."

U.S. Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford last week said Hanoi had agreed to stop "abusing" the border Demilitarized Zone (DMZ) and to stop shelling cities in South Vietnam in line with the U.S. halt. The attack on Da Nang was aimed specifically at U.S. Marine and South Vietnamese bases. But the four new shelling Tuesday left civilians dead and wounded in towns from the Mekong Delta to the northern provinces.

American headquarters described casualties and damage in the two-hour rocket and mortar barrage against Da Nang as "light." It was the heaviest attack on the vital northern base since Sept. 2 when 27 persons died in a guerrilla rocket assault.

Unofficial figures showed the salvos into the four villages brought to 72 the number of (See REDS, Page 3)

Czech Students Defiant Toward Communist Rule

SITTING BACK in their seats, these city officials took a bus tour of the city yesterday afternoon to view various areas of the city for zoning problems considered under the comprehensive plan for Pampa. Railway Workers Vow To Support Strikers

By JAMES O. JACKSON

PRAGUE (UPI) — Prague college students defied the government today and voted to extend by at least one day their campus strike. Railway workers vowed to stop all trains in the capital if the Communist regime moved against the students.

About 400 students meeting in the philosophy department of Charles University voted overwhelmingly to extend a strike by all 22,000 students for 24 hours. Sentiment was for an even longer extension. But students went along with their leaders' call for only one more day to protest the collapse of Czechoslovak Communist reform.

At the meeting's start, leaders read a government statement "asking" the students to end their occupation of classroom buildings which began Monday. "I don't want to stay one more day," one youth shouted. "I want to stay even longer," the others cheered.

The leaders then read a letter of support from Prague railway workers who referred to the government statement and declared that if authorities move against the students "not a single train will move out of any of Prague's stations."

The philosophy department is the center of university student activity and the meeting's decision was expected to be followed by virtually all the campus' 22,000 students.

Their strike has spread to campuses across the nation.

Tens of thousands of striking college and high school students throughout the nation plastered their classroom buildings Tuesday with posters crying out against abandonment of Communist reforms.

Other signs went up in Wenceslas Square in the center of Prague and in store windows. On some buildings appeared resolutions by factory workers proclaiming their support for the student protesters.

The students protested with sit-ins at many schools again Tuesday heeding official warn-

Local Officials Take City Tour To See Problems

Members of the city commission, the city zoning board, city officials and guests took a bus tour of the city yesterday afternoon to inspect various areas of the city having problems of zoning specifications.

Conducting the tour was Marvin Springer, Dallas consultant engineer on city planning, who has been employed by the city to develop a comprehensive plan on Pampa's growth and development.

The tour included all areas of the city but concentrated in those areas inside the city limits where zoning difficulties arise.

Most of the difficulties concerned various businesses located in basically residential sections or undeveloped areas.

Springer and his associates are currently developing a proposed revision of zoning rules and regulations of the city. The tour was taken to consider some of the proposals.

The proposed zoning ordinances should be ready for a public hearing sometime in January. The city commission has to set a date for the hearing after it receives a resolution from the planning and zoning board.

The tour was one of a series of meetings that have been conducted during the summer and fall to consider the comprehensive plan. Future meetings will be scheduled later.

Hearing Slated For Wanda Carver Huff

By RON CROSS
News Staff Writer

A hearing has been set for sometime Friday, possibly in Pampa, for Wanda Carver Huff, 27, Pampa, to revoke her suspended sentence on bank robbery charges.

The Huff woman and Rusty Huff were charged in the March, 1967 armed robbery of the First State Bank of Miami.

Mrs. Huff was put on 10 years probation by District Judge Grainger McIlhenny and Rusty Huff was sentenced to 20 years in prison. Huff was brought back to Pampa Oct. 7, 1968, where he will face hearings, probably in two weeks, on two other charges stemming from the bank robbery.

He is also charged with assaulting an officer, and taking a car at gunpoint.

Huff was wounded after the robbery after a chase by law enforcement officers.

Mrs. Huff was taken into custody Saturday in Kansas City by Roberts County sheriff Cy Carr and returned to Miami.

She later was released on her own recognizance by District Judge McIlhenny at the request of Carr.

Carr said the woman first moved to Fort Worth, following her probation sentence, with permission of authorities. She then moved to California, with permission, and then to Kansas City, but Carr said he isn't sure she had permission to move to Kansas City.

"Actually, this has all come about by some bad rumors, more or less," Carr said.

The Sheriff said that Mrs. Huff was fired from her job at a nursing home in California when owners learned she was on probation.

"She either wrote us and then moved to Kansas City before she got permission or moved to Kansas City and then wrote us," Carr said.

"Actually, I didn't mind her moving to Kansas City, since (See HEARING, Page 3)

Saigon Still Stubborn on Talks

PARIS (UPI)—South Vietnam today again rejected taking part in Paris Vietnam talks under present conditions, Vietnamese sources said. Allied diplomats at the same time said Moscow appears to be telling the Communists to make it easier for Saigon to end its boycott and come to the negotiations.

The diplomats said the Kremlin even wants the Communists to slow down military action in South Vietnam.

In Vung Tau, Vietnam, Vietnamese sources said President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam reaffirmed the talks boycott in a closed door speech there to political followers.

South Vietnam's boycott is based mainly on a refusal to see the Viet Cong get full conference status. Thieu wants the Viet Cong seated as yet another part of the Hanoi delegation.

Le Duc Tho, the powerful member of the North Vietnam delegation, was currently in the fourth day of a Moscow stopover on his way here from Hanoi. Diplomats in Paris said the Kremlin was apparently using its influence on him. Tho stopped earlier for only one day in Peking where Chinese Communist leaders oppose any compromise with Saigon.

The allied diplomats said the Kremlin sought a toned down Communist military posture in South Vietnam in order to ease Saigon's stand against ending its boycott.

A new series of Communist shelling of allied bases in South Vietnam has raised concern here among diplomats that it may harden Thieu's stand against sending a delegation to Paris.

Unimpeachable allied sources said the United States as yet was unable to get Saigon to end its boycott. But they said Thieu may shortly agree to take part in the talks.

North Vietnamese diplomats here confirmed they have been meeting U.S. officials the past 48 hours. Ambassador Cyrus R. Vance, deputy chief of the U.S. delegation, and his opposite number, Hanoi's Col. Hau Van Lau, have been conducting the secret sessions, diplomatic sources said.

The pair was said to have made plans for getting the talks started immediately upon Saigon announcing it would attend.

Communist sources said the Viet Cong already have mapped their conference strategy. They said the guerrillas will promptly demand American forces get out of Vietnam as the first step toward settlement. The Viet Cong will lay on the conference table a timetable for U.S. withdrawal, the sources said.

Diplomatic observers said there was little doubt the allies would reject the Viet Cong plan.

Red China Loses United Nations Admission Vote

UNITED NATIONS (UPI)—Never in the past five years have Red China's chances for admission to the United Nations been so remote.

By a 58-44 vote with 23 abstentions, the U. N. General Assembly Tuesday rejected the annual resolution to replace Nationalist China with Communist China in the United Nations.

It was the widest margin of rejection since 1963 and the 19th successive year the Assembly has turned down Mao Tse-tung's government.

At the same time, it killed—perhaps for good—a resolution calling for both Chinas to be seated in the United Nations. The vote was 67-30, with 27 abstentions, against the "two China" plan, which both Taipei and Peking said they would not accept anyway.

"Once again, the majority of the Assembly has upheld the rightful position of my government in the United Nations," proclaimed a happy Dr. Wei Tao-ming, Nationalist China's foreign minister.

"By so doing," he said, "they have reaffirmed the principles and purposes of the (U.N.) charter."

The United States, breaking with Britain and France as it usually does on the China issue, was the staunchest backer of the nationalists.

Before the final Red China vote, the U.S. delegation pushed through a resolution requiring a two-thirds majority to admit Red China in place of Chiang Kai-shek's Taiwan government.

The Soviet Union announced support for admission "as a matter of principal" but did little to help Albania, Cambodia, Algeria and Cuba back Red China in debate.

Because of expanding U.N. membership, diplomatic experts felt a more accurate gauge of backing for Nationalist China lay in vote percentages.

OFF TO COURT — Pampa police Lt. John Thomas, left, escorts Bobby Charles Perry, 19, Lubbock, and Assistant Chief George Wallace, right, escorts Marie Moore, 28, Lubbock and two other Lubbock women to the courthouse where they were arraigned Wednesday morning on charges of shoplifting.

Four Arrested, Have Bonds Set For Shoplifting

Bonds of $3,000 each were set by Justice of Peace Nat Lunsford Wednesday for four Lubbock Negroes charged with shoplifting over $50.

The four were charged in connection with shoplifting over $1,300 worth of suits from Brown and Freeman's Men's Wear, 220 N. Cuyler.

According to a Pampa police report, Jim Brown, manager of the store, stopped the three women and the man outside the store with eight suits taken from the store.

According to the report, the man, Bobby Charles Perry, 19, kept the salesman busy while the three women — Marie Moore, 28; Marie Ansley Napoleon, 28, and Inell Neal Hodge, 25 — took the suits off the racks and hid them under their dresses.

The report said Brown thought the women were taking merchandise and stopped them outside the store and confronted them.

The suits then fell from beneath the women's dresses. Brown then called police, who arrested the women.

Perry had left the store in the meantime and was spotted in Hobart Street Park by officers N. W. Neece and O. W. Walters.

Perry ran and the officers gave chase on foot and caught him in the 700 block of Brown St.

According to the report Brown recovered two suits, valued at $320, from the Moore woman; three suits, valued at $325, from the Napoleon woman, and three suits, valued at $500, from the Hodge woman.

None of the four had made bond by mid-morning.

Black Panthers Have Shootout With Policemen

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Three police officers were wounded, two seriously, in a noontime shootout Tuesday with eight Black Panthers accused of fleeing in a panel truck from an $80 gas station robbery.

Lt. Dermott Creedon, 49, was shot in the chest and his partner, Sgt. Robert Flynn, 51, in the abdomen and groin after they stopped the truck a block from police headquarters.

Burglary inspector Michael O'Mahoney, 51, was grazed across two fingers of the right hand by a bullet as he dued with three suspects in an alley.

None of the Negroes was hit. Creedon was in critical condition today while Flynn's condition was listed as satisfactory.

It was the fourth gunfight between police and the Black Panthers in the San Francisco Bay area in the past 13 months.

The earlier shootouts, in Oakland and Berkeley, left one policeman and one Black Panther dead and several wounded.

Witnesses said a barrage of bullets came from inside the truck, emblazoned "The Black Panther Black Community News Service," shortly after Flynn, with gun drawn, ordered the driver and a front-seat passenger out of the vehicle.

Flynn was struck, and Creedon, standing to the rear of the truck with a revolver in his hand, crumpled to the pavement with (See PANTHERS, Page 2)

Kennedys Prepare to Observe Anniversary of JFK's Death

By DAVID HASKELL

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—"Sometimes I wonder if there is something about my family which invites violence."

This thought by Mrs. Rose Kennedy probably is on the minds of the rest of her family as they reflect on the tragedy in Dallas Nov. 22, 1963—five years ago this Friday—when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

Each member of the Kennedy family will, in his or her own way, honor the memory of JFK on the grim anniversary.

Though they may be miles apart, the Kennedys will be bound together by the fabled Kennedy spirit and family strength. There will be fleeting thoughts of what might have been—but more characteristically—more of what will be.

Will Attend Mass

Rose, the mother of the brood that has known immense personal suffering down through the years, will attend a concelebrated requiem low Mass in memory of JFK at 7:30 p.m. at St. Francis Xavier (Roman Catholic) Church in Hyannis. The father, former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, has been confined to a wheelchair since 1961. He will remain at home.

Edward M. Kennedy, the young Massachusetts senator on which shoulders now rests the weight of the Kennedy burden and glory, was undecided about his plans. He may remain in Washington and pay respect to his brother's memory in his own personal way, or he may join his mother in Hyannis Port. It was not known whether he or any other member of the Kennedy family planned to visit the late President's gravesite at Arlington National Cemetery.

The President's widow Jacqueline, now Mrs. Aristotle Onassis, arrived back in New York this week but her plans for Friday were not immediately known. A spokesman said she would probably attend a memorial Mass in New York with her two children, John Jr., 7, and Caroline, 10.

Flame of Hope

On Friday morning, Rose Kennedy is to appear on a taped segment of the "Today" television show in New York to announce the designation of the day as National Flame of Hope Day because, she said, her son's life "has been a flame of hope to so many millions of people."

Flame of Hope is a project for the mentally retarded which designs products that can be manufactured by and sold for them.

Much has happened to the family since those sad days five years ago, recalled most vividly by a photo of John Jr., saluting as the casket bearing his father passed by. The Kennedy spirit and courage have been repeatedly tested.

The family knew deep grief before the President was slain as he rode in an open car under sunny skies in Dallas. Eldest son Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., was killed in World War II, followed shortly by the death of a daughter in a plane crash.

Edward survived a brush with death four years ago in a plane crash. Then, this June 5, Senator Robert Kennedy fell victim to the same fate as JFK, murdered by an assassin's bullet.

Picked up Standard

When the President was slain, Robert became the leader of the vast following the Kennedys had amassed. He had picked up the standard of his fallen brother and, this year, decided to enter the presidential race.

On the night of his victory in the California primary, Robert was murdered. The tragedy that seems to haunt the Kennedys continued.

What Robert had tried to do was passed on to Edward. Many urged Edward to seek the presidency this year. He declined, a move his mother said was the "right decision," but she also said "he should go on in politics."

Edward, 36, said after Robert's death, "The re is no safety in hiding." He said he must pick up the "fallen standard of his brothers."

Already a move is under way to get the presidential nomination for Edward in 1972. A New York group called HOPE (Help Organize People Early) is sending out buttons bearing "EMK-1972." EMK are Edward's initials.

Jacqueline Lee Bouvier Kennedy became a symbol of strength to the nation and the world by her example of dignity and courage after seeing her husband assassinated before her eyes.

During these five years, her life was marred by only one controversy until her marriage last month to Onassis, that with author William Manchester in 1966 when she tried to stop publication of his book, "Death of a President," which she alleged was in part "both tasteless and distorted." She later withdrew her action after certain passages had been deleted.

For her, a new life began when, on Oct. 20 she married Aristotle Onassis, multi-millionaire Greek shipping magnate. But the memory of Dallas, Nov. 22, 1963, can never be erased.

New Queen Boat Goes on Voyage

GLASGOW (UPI)—With Prince Charles on her bridge and 20,000 persons watching from shore, the liner Queen Elizabeth II crunched into her dock Tuesday while leaving on her maiden voyage.

The 65,000-ton liner's crash into the wooden dock sent a plume of smoke skyward and dozens of dock workers scurried for safety. It left a 20-foot scrape on the freshly painted 960-foot hull.

But tugboats pushed the ship away from trouble and she began the first voyage under her own steam, a 13-mile journey to Greenock for final fittings before her first transatlantic venture Dec. 23.

Prince Charles stood alongside Capt. Bill Warwick on the Queen Elizabeth II's bridge for the occasion. The ship replaces the original Queen Elizabeth, which arrived in Southampton last week on the final voyage of her 28-year career.

Florida investors will use the Queen Elizabeth as an ocean-front hotel.

TRADE DECLINES

HONG KONG (UPI)—Communist China's foreign trade began declining in late 1967 and kept falling even after things began returning to normal following Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung's Cultural Revolution. Western economic experts said Tuesday. A Japanese trade group said the overall decline was 17.8 per cent in a six-months period.

IN MONEY CRISIS

European Markets Try to Aid France

PARIS (UPI) — West European money markets shut down today to aid France in its fight to save the franc from devaluation.

The woes of the monetary system were reflected in the world's largest gold market, in London. There the price of gold shot up more than 50 cents an ounce. Heavy buying orders flooded in from European centers, hiking the ounce price to $40.75, the highest gold price since mid-July when speculators were dumping British pounds in a British monetary crisis.

The heart of the trouble was a loss of confidence in the franc. In the past week speculators in the world's money markets have been dumping francs in favor of stronger currencies, especially the West German mark.

French Premier Maurice Couve de Murville Tuesday announced $400 million in budget cuts in an attempt to build confidence in France's ability to support the franc. Up to half of France's $6 billion in gold and dollar reserves had poured out in recent days to pay for the francs being sold by speculators.

In Bonn, financial sources reported a mood of jittery gloom surrounding the gathering of "the group of 10"—the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Italy, West Germany, Holland, Belgium, Sweden and Japan.

West German Economics Minister Karl Schiller, chairman of the group of national treasury chiefs, called the meeting late Tuesday. Earlier in the day he had conferred with U.S. Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler.

Day-Care Center Schedules Interviews for Applicants

Representatives from the Amarillo Center for Human Development will be here Thursday to interview applicants for the lead teacher at Pampa's Post-School Day Care Center for Older Children.

Teacher interviews will be conducted at the center in the First Presbyterian Church Educational Building, according to Bob Carmichael, a committee chairman for the center, a project of the Gray County Association for Retarded Children.

The day-care center for older children is scheduled to open Dec. 3, but unless it can enlist the help of volunteer aides, the center will not open, Carmichael said.

"We have 10 children ages 13 and older who have no other means of education on their level. These are the students who are not in any school, vocational or otherwise. The center is the only one offered in this area which tries to work with this group to develop their minds, their skills and abilities," he said.

Anyone interested in volunteering as an aide may contact Mrs. Jack Sloan, MO 4-2043 or Mrs. Harvey Nensiel, MO 4-8393. Those who want an appointment as teacher applicant may contact Carmichael, at MO 5-2323.

"No training or educational background is necessary for aides. The program is taught from 8:45 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. five days a week, 12 months a year, but each aide is asked to work only one day a week for a three-month period. We need two each day, one for each session. If we don't get enough to assist the lead teacher, the center will not be allowed to open," Carmichael said.

The program emphasizes arts and crafts, personal hygiene, bowling and other recreational skills, good grooming, following directions and socialization with groups and the public.

The center here is a satellite center of Amarillo Center for Human Development and is one of two operated here for retarded children. The centers are operated to complement the special education classes in Pampa public schools.

The other day-care center, started in January, is for pre-school children. Mrs. Jean Root is the lead teacher for the eight children currently enrolled in 12-month pre-school program. Both programs are operated under the supervision of Gray County Association for Retarded Children, Carmichael said.

The cutbacks in the reforms begun by Communist party First Secretary Alexander Dubcek were formally made a part of the Communist party line in a central committee meeting ending Sunday and were the result of Soviet pressure that began with the late August invasion by Soviet bloc forces.

Dugan Addresses Minister Group

A group of 45 ministers from Amarillo, Borger and Pampa met last night at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 1701 Coffee, with Lester Dugan, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, in preparation for the coming assembly to be held in the Robert E. Lee Jr. High School Auditorium.

Dugan spoke to the group on the subject of "Solving the Problems of This Life," based on the Bible text 1 John 3:15. Dugan pointed out that we all, "men, women and children have a problem, that is the world is ending... the real problem is grasping the magnitude of this fact."

Continuing with the scripture he showed that the text itself offered the answer by saying "he that does the will of God remains forever."

As to the responsibility of Christians in this day the matter of teaching was stressed, Dugan commented, "We must teach the heart and not the mind."

Dugan will be the featured speaker at the convention at 3 p.m. Sunday talking on "God's Way Is Love."

a bullet wound in the chest. Neither of the officers fired his weapon, police said. O'Mahoney and patrolmen John Hanifin and William McCool arrived at the scene just as three of the truck's occupants dashed from the rear of the van.

They were later identified as William Lee Brent, 37, a Black Panther captain from Oakland; Wilford H. Holiday, 35, also of Oakland and a frequent contributor to the Black Panther newspaper; and Samuel Napier, 30, of San Francisco.

"They piled out of the truck and ran up an alleyway," said O'Mahoney. "I ordered them to halt but they fired at me."

O'Mahoney said the three men cornered themselves in a blind alley and surrendered. McCool then ran to the back of the van and slammed the doors shut when he found five men standing inside. Police reinforcements arrived and the eight suspects were handcuffed and taken to jail.

They were charged with armed robbery and three counts each of assault with intent to commit murder.

One-Car Accident Results in Death

Funeral services are pending for a 47-year-old Miami woman who died Tuesday night following a one-car turnover 11 miles east of Pampa on Highway 60.

Maudena Eortz was dead on arrival at Highland General Hospital.

According to Highway Patrolman Paul Geiser, who investigated the accident, Mrs. Eortz was traveling east on the highway and the vehicle veered off to the left shoulder of the road, then back to the right and started overturning.

The woman was thrown from the car and the vehicle landed in a field. She died enroute to the hospital.

The woman was taken to the hospital by Duenkel Funeral Home, which is handling local arrangements.

Mrs. Eortz had moved to Miami one month ago from Raton, N.M.

She is survived by her husband Richard; of the home; three daughters, Sandra and Debra, both of the home; Mrs. Donna Daugherty, Amarillo; her father, James A. Mathis, Waynoka, Okla.; her mother, Mrs. Obie Mathis, Amarillo; one brother, J. E. Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Jackie Hinderlite, Clovis, N.M., and Mrs. Glenda Sims, Canyon.

she got a job there, but I'm not sure she had permission and we understand she was running around with an ex-convict," Carr said.

Mrs. Huff was employed by a Kansas City nursing home in Kansas City.

"It has been hard for her to keep a job when the people find out she is on probation and besides, I think it's best she stay in this area," Carr said.

"I also know that a lot of things said about her since she was put on probation have been nothing but rumors and we can keep a pretty good eye on her around here so I agreed to releasing her on her own recognizance," the sheriff said.

Mrs. Huff and Rusty marched into the bank, March 3, 1967, and held bank employees up at gunpoint.

According to officers' reports, Mrs. Huff held a gun on employees while pillow cases were being stuffed full of money.

A bank employee said that Mrs. Huff ordered the persons inside the bank to lie down while they made their escape and threatened to shoot them.

The pair made off with $20,000, which was later recovered. Officers finally found the pair about two hours after the robbery and shot it out with them in a field north of Pampa.

Mrs. Huff gave herself up and Rusty was wounded. He was later transferred to Amarillo, where he escaped from a hospital, but he was picked up shortly afterwards on Highway 60.

USSR in Danger As Red Summit Meeting Delayed

BUDAPEST (UPI)—The Soviet Union finds itself in danger of being in the dock of a Communist summit meeting it originally hoped would indict the renegade Chinese and Yugoslav Communists and capitalist imperialists.

The switch was the result of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia Aug. 21. Parties that before the invasion had agreed to attend a summit of the world's Communist leaders in Moscow Nov. 25 have been balking since the intervention in Czechoslovakia.

Attempts by the Soviets at a preparatory commission meeting here this week to get agreement on a new summit date, possibly for the spring, have bogged down in a procedural debate.

Hungary's Zoltan Komocsin, permanent chairman of the commission, proposed a way out Tuesday when he suggested a working group of eight parties attempt to redraft the policy document the summit would be asked to approve. The suggestion probably will be adopted today.

The draft prepared before the invasion of Czechoslovakia no longer is acceptable to Western or non ruling Communist parties.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—C.B. Richard, Ellis & Co. suggests purchases of selective high flyers during periods of weakness. It also advises investors to increase their positions in the "better acting" issues and to continue to be "more aggressive" on a short term trading basis.

Spear and Staff Inc. notes that the Dow Jones industrial average needs to gain only three per cent to be on the move is well within normal threshold of piercing the 1,000-level. It adds that barring some "unforeseen calamity" such a move is well within normal fluctuating range, yet the analyst says some good news will be necessary to push the DJ through this "magic" level.

Diamond, Turk & Co. says the market's advance resembles a "creaky old elevator straining for the top floor" and advises passengers "now getting aboard" that they are in "for only a short ride before the descent begins." It suggests profit taking on further market strength and a limitation of commitments to situations "that give promise of performing contra-market."

Youth Warned After Writing Obscene Words

A 12-year-old Pampa youth was taken into custody Tuesday night, for a while, by Pampa police after he was caught painting obscene words on the new Pioneer National Gas Bldg., 212 N. Ballard.

Robert Douthit was driving by the building and saw the youth and called police. When officers arrived the boy ran and police caught him in the 200 block of N. Gillespie and brought him to the station. Juvenile officer Bill Leonard was called at home, but, according to a police report, did not come to the station.

The boy was finally released to his mother.

Witnesses To Show Bible Film

A Bible-oriented color film will be shown at 7 p.m. today in Kingdom Hall, 1701 Coffee, as a preliminary activity of the three-day Jehovah's Witnesses assembly this coming weekend, according to Charles Regal, local presiding minister.

Lester Dugan, New York southwestern district minister, will provide narration. "The film will be of interest to all Bible students regardless of their religious affiliation," Dugan noted. "A big part of it was taken in the Middle East, where much of the Bible story is centered."

"Color illustrations are interspersed through the film to help viewers visualize many of the principal events in Bible history and to appreciate their significance for these modern days."

The convention will start at 6:45 p.m. Friday, and conclude Sunday afternoon. Sessions will be held in the Robert E. Lee Junior High School auditorium. All convention sessions are open to the public. Regal said. Seven hundred Witnesses are expected to attend the convention.

Communist barrages into population centers since the bombing of North Vietnam stopped Nov. 1. Civilian losses total 25 dead and 189 hurt in those attacks.

In its protest to the ICC, set up 14 years ago to police a peace between the Vietnamese, the Saigon government also accused North Vietnam of sending troops and military vehicles into the DMZ.

The shelling of Da Nang followed four days of steady fighting south of that city in which allied spokesmen reported at least 500 Communists dead, 51 of them in artillery barrages Tuesday.

R. E. DOBBIN ... promoted by Cabot

Ex-Pampan Given Cabot Promotion

John Andrews, vice president, Carbon Black Division, announced recently that R. E. (Art) Dobbin will succeed P. H. Delacour as president of Cabot Carbon of Canada, Ltd., following Delacour's retirement on Dec. 31.

Dobbin, who is a graduate of Northeastern University and also did graduate work at M.I.T., came to Cabot in 1940 and worked in the Boston area until his transfer to Pampa as assistant director of Pampa Research and Development facilities in 1951.

In 1954 he was made director of Pampa Research and Development, in 1961 was appointed manager of U.S. plants, and in 1967 moved from Pampa to Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, to become vice president and general manager of Cabot Carbon of Canada, his present position.

Dobbin and his wife, Barbara, have one daughter, Mrs. James (Priscilla) Simpson, and two granddaughters, Stephanie, age four, and Debra, age two, who reside in Pampa at 1909 Mary Ellen.

Commissioners Finalize Plan Of Paving Program

City commissioners were in brief session at noon today at their second special meeting in two days to finalize legislation on acceptance of the city's $353,000 summer paving program for 1968.

Commissioners also were scheduled to authorize payments for the job to the Lewis Construction Co. of Dumas and to Pampa consultant engineers Merriman and Barber for engineering fees.

Today's action was to conclude the city's overall two-year paving program in residential areas at a total cost of $1,082,000 for the paving of approximately 300 city blocks. Of this total, 204 blocks were paved in 1967 and 96 blocks in 1968.

The city's share of the overall project cost was $424,000, to be paid out of bond funds authorized by voters in 1966, and the remaining $658,000 was assessed to property owners on the improved streets.

In 1948 William Lyon Mackenzie retired as prime minister of Canada after serving 21 years, 5 months and 5 days—a record for the British Commonwealth.

Blind Girl Marches In Idalou High School Band

By MIKE WESTER
 IDALOU, Tex. (UPI)—Blind 15-year-old Pam Washam isn't a bench-sitter—she's a marcher. That's why she goes to Idalou public high school, takes the normal course load, battles her way through the crowded halls and sings in the school choir. "I wanted to go to a real high school and do the things the others did," Pam said. "That's why I was glad to get to leave the Oklahoma State School for the Blind a couple of years ago and come live with my grandparents." Pam loves most things high school girls love—boys, football, dances and she loves that big band sound too. That big high school band sound that is. She is a marcher there too, though it took a little maneuvering to figure out how she could stay in line. March In Step "We had to decide how she could march and keep in step and line," said band director Jerry Banks. "after the members agreed to help, we added a tympani (kettle drums). Most high school bands don't have these drums." Pam originally played the

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
 HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A one-hour prime time interview with Hugo L. Black, 82-year-old senior justice of the U.S. Supreme Court, will be presented by CBS-TV Dec. 3. The broadcast will mark one of the very rare occasions on which televisioners are afforded a closeup insight into the highest echelon of the judicial branch of government. Past prime time interviews with presidents, vice presidents and countless congressmen have brought the main body of the television viewing audience closer to the executive and legislative arms of American government. But, by contrast, the Supreme Court, in the video sense, has remained rather remote, for obvious and good reasons which set its members apart from politicians. Filmed At Home The Dec. 3 broadcast, which was filmed in September at the jurist's home in Alexandria, Va., is entitled "Justice Black and the Bill of Rights," and the interviewers are CBS newsmen Eric Sevareid and Martin Agronsky. "As far as we know," says Sevareid, "there is no precedent for a television interview with a sitting judge, who talks about the law, the Constitution and the court." The idea, notes CBS-TV, is that the justice will "explore the substance of his judicial thoughts and philosophy for a wide American audience." CBS-TV adds that the broadcast will include a discussion of Justice Black's "opinions of the major moral and legal issues of our times—among them obscenity and pornography, the right of dissent, and the public clamor about how the court's decisions have restricted police."

State Candidates Release Figures On Campaigns

AUSTIN (UPI)—Gov.-elect Preston Smith became the first Texas gubernatorial candidate to admit spending more than $1 million in an election. He led all state candidates in expenditures Monday though all topped previous records. Smith announced he spent $1,265,577 in his successful bid for the top state office. His opponent Paul Eggers reported spending $401,226 and said he spent more in the general election than did Smith, but the Democrat's primary total pushed his figure over the top. Lt. Gov.-elect Elen Barnes reported his expense level at $320,949 for his campaign against Republican Doug DeCuir, who said he spent only $5,614. Exceeded 1964 Costs Barnes' total alone exceeded the total spent by the candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general combined in 1964. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin reported his bid for a second term cost him $63,643 while his opponent Sproesser Wynn reported $1,787 in campaign costs. Republican Millard Neptune reported spending $7,950 in his unsuccessful race for land commissioner. The incumbent Democrat, Jerry Sadler, reported costs of only $1,327. White Spent $4,750 Agriculture commissioner John C. White reported his successful bid for re-election cost a total of $4,750 while opponent E. G. Schuhart II of Dalhart did not file an expense statement. Jesse James won the state treasurer's post with $4,767 and Manuel A. Sanchez III spent $4,687 in his campaign. Robert Calvert, longtime comptroller, reported only the filing fee of $1,000 in his expense statement. His opponent John Bennett said he spent $50.52.

Stores Remove Riot Toy Jeeps From Shelves

By JAMES L. SRODES
 NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—A toy anti-riot jeep for children has been taken off the market in this city, scene two summers ago of one of the nation's worst riots. A spokesman for Bamberger's New Jersey's largest department store, said Monday the Japanese-made toy, which comes with directions for putting down imaginary riots, will no longer be sold here or in the store's Princeton branch. The spokesman said the jeep was removed from the shelves as soon as store officials learned what the directions said. A customer who bought one in Princeton complained to a newspaper about the Christmas toy. The spokesman added that the store officials would never have allowed the product on the shelves if they had realized what the instructions contained. He said the store had been selling battery operated jeeps for years, "minus riot instructions, of course." A description included with the jeep read: "Switch on. Jeep rushes to the scene of riot. Jeep goes in all directions by mystery action. Jeep stops off periodically to turn hood over automatically and machine gun appears with realistic shooting noise." After putting down the riot, jeep goes back to the headquarters. QUEEN RETURNS LONDON (UPI)—Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip returned home Tuesday night from a two-week visit to Brazil and Chile. The jetliner carrying the Royal couple stopped en route to London at Dakar, Senegal where the Queen dedicated the corner stone of a new British Council building.

Foreign News Commentary

"Italy," a long-time observer in Rome declared, "is in a mess." It was considerable of an under-statement. The prestige of the civil service, the government and parliament rarely has been so low. The great alliance of Christian Democrats and Socialists formed in 1963 to find a solution to centuries-old social ills, has been ripped asunder by the stress of factionalism within both parties. The struggle for personal power, in the opinion of the man in the street, has led the politicians to forget their country. These are harsh judgments, and perhaps overdrawn, but a political crisis still without a solution after six months of a powerless care-taker government and renewed unrest among students and workers, has led many an Italian to long for the rise of another Benito Mussolini to take firm hold on the reins of government. It has led to speculation among responsible Italian newspapers that perhaps the only step toward stability and a new sense of direction would be an almost-unthinkable coalition between the Catholic Christian Democrats, Italy's traditional party in power, and the Communists who control one-fourth of the vote. Evidence of government disarray lay in the plan for Italian Fiat to invest in French-owned Citroen automobiles. The Italian government has a heavy financial interest in Fiat. But state planners were not told of the plan in advance. The troubles are those going back through the years, intensified now by time. Italian prosperity is unevenly divided. Only limited progress was made in carrying out promised reforms. These included reforms of judicial, educational, tax and social security programs and accelerated aid for the under-developed south. Mounting inflation nullified some of the gains. Parliamentary filibusters delayed others. The man who led the Socialists into coalition with the Christian Democrats after 16 years in opposition was 77-year-old Pietro Nenni. The delay in carrying out the promised reforms cost Nenni heavily. In the last two general elections the Communists registered strong gains, mostly at the expense of the Nenni Socialists. Last May, the Socialists walked out of the coalition and the government led by Christian Democrat Aldo Moro fell. Giovanni Leone came in as head of a caretaker government

New Rules for Emmy Awards Provide Excuse for Laughing

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The Academy of Television Arts and Sciences is good for almost as many laughs as the Hollywood Foreign Press Association. Both have awards to hand out, but the rules are changed every year.

The foreigners can plead ignorance. After all, they are staggering around in a foreign country.

No Excuse
The Emmy people have no excuse, save perhaps a dingaling membership.

One year they gave out close to a hundred Emmys. Another year there were only a dozen or so winners. This year they've changed the rules again.

From now on, according to the academy, no performer or show will be able to repeat as an Emmy winner for doing the same thing two seasons in a row.

That is, if Lucille Ball wins the Emmy this year for being the best comedienne on the air, she cannot win it next year even if she continues to be the best. It's like the Big Ten refusing to send the same football team to the Rose Bowl two years running. They want to give some of the losers a chance.

Evidently the Emmy scientists feel the same way.

President Explains
Seymour Berns, president of the academy, says the new rules assure "that every Emmy award will honor new and innovative achievements thereby answering the criticism that all too often the same people and shows were bestowed with Emmy honors."

The most ridiculous of the new rules is that performers and shows will not be eligible for an Emmy after the second season on the air.

Last year Milburn Stone won the award for best supporting actor in a drama (Gunsmoke!) after the show had been on the air for a dozen years. No one deserved it more than Stone.

Under the new rules his performances are automatically eliminated.

Make sense? No. But then the nuts and bolts in the academy seldom do.

subject of Dispute

The birthplace of John Audubon, the famous naturalist is a subject of dispute. Audubon himself thought he was born in Louisiana. Many historians believe he was born in Haiti.

Spirits of Hartsorn referred to as spirits of hart. Ammonia water was once ammonia water by heating the horns of harts or stags in closed vessels.

A council on dental care estimates that the average American 15-year-old has 11 shorn. The name originated in the ancient method of making decayed, filled or missing teeth.

MIAMI—Dave Gartner, an assistant to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, announcing Humphrey's plans before an inspection tour of Cape Kennedy:

"There'll be no meetings, no photographers, no reporters—no nothing."

The Lighter Side

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Along with 11:45 a.m. on days when the House of Representatives is meeting at noon, someone arises in the press gallery and cries "let's go catch the speaker."

Other reporters immediately spring up and all head for the door.

This little ritual doesn't mean that Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., is falling out of his chair or leaping from the window ledge or anything of that sort.

It simply means it is time for his daily press briefing.

Next year, however, "catching the speaker" could take on a more literal meaning. Some of the younger Democratic House members are expected to attempt to throw McCormack out of the office.

I rather doubt the ouster move will succeed, but I was intrigued by a proposal put forth this week by Rep. the cold world after they have Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y. He suggested that House members elect Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey to the speakership.

This strikes me as being a logical solution to the long-standing problem of what to do with defeated presidential candidates.

Regardless of what your political affiliation might be, you have surely been touched by the sight of a losing candidate wandering aimlessly about the country and occasionally making speeches to help offset the campaign deficit.

In most cases, they have eventually found someone to take them in and give them good homes, either in a law office or in a lesser governmental post.

But it seems cruel and heartless to turn them out into the cold world after they have been basking for weeks in the national limelight.

Although we have no legal responsibility toward them, they nevertheless prey upon our conscience.

If, after defeat, the runner-up automatically became speaker, it would hasten his rehabilitation and ease the pain of his readjustment.

I can think of no better way to keep the losers occupied and off the streets.

Traditionally, or course, the House has elected one of its own members as speaker. But there is nothing in the Constitution to prevent an outsider from filling the post.

Highway Official Objects to Site of New Stadium

DALLAS (UPI)—A Texas Highway Department district engineer has "strongly recommended" a location change for the proposed site of the Dallas Cowboys' Texas stadium to avoid "colossal traffic jams" with resulting "severe accidents and injuries."

Cowboy owner Clint Murchison Jr. defended his Irving site as the best in Dallas County and said stadium bond funds will be used "to correct these problems."

The objections were contained in a letter dated Nov. 15 from Dist. Engineer John G. Keller to Irving Mayor Robert H. Power.

A thought for the day: George Bernard Shaw wrote: "My method is to take the utmost trouble to find the right thing to say, and then say it with the utmost levity."

WONDERFUL WORLD OF CHRISTMAS

WHY

do stores start Christmas before Thanksgiving?

That's a question that's often asked,
and it deserves a sincere answer!

• Your newspaper appreciates the spirit that prompts many of the objections to early Christmas shopping promotions

• However, when the reasons for the urge to "Shop Early" are examined, the most critical agree it's MORE than a problem for stores alone.

• So we're happy to take this opportunity of presenting some of the problems that confront all stores at holiday time.

• Every successful store directs its best effort toward perfecting a helpful service to ALL its customers. As since many customers ask stores to make it easier for them to complete their gift shopping before the crowded post-Thanksgiving period, Christmas merchandise and displays are brought forward early to accommodate them.

• And scarcely a major store in the nation could cope with the store traffic that would be generated if any part of early Christmas shopping was postponed until after Thanksgiving. Even under present circumstances, most stores are strained to capacity during the peak of the season, to maintain the kind of store service all shoppers have learned to expect.

• When you recall the extremely crowded conditions of stores the final two or three weeks before Christmas the problem becomes evident.

• If no early Christmas shopping were done, this condition would be multiplied many fold. (Actually there would not be enough room behind store counters for enough sales people to serve shoppers during this period between Thanksgiving and Christmas.)

• The same condition exists in regard to the children's visits to Santa Claus. Thousands of children and their parents look forward to their annual visit with him, and unless he makes an early appearance, many hundreds would be doomed to disappointment simply because it's physically impossible to reach him in a shorter time.

• Those in the store business know that an extremely large percentage of the Christmas gifts that are selected are items that are in plentiful supply the entire year.

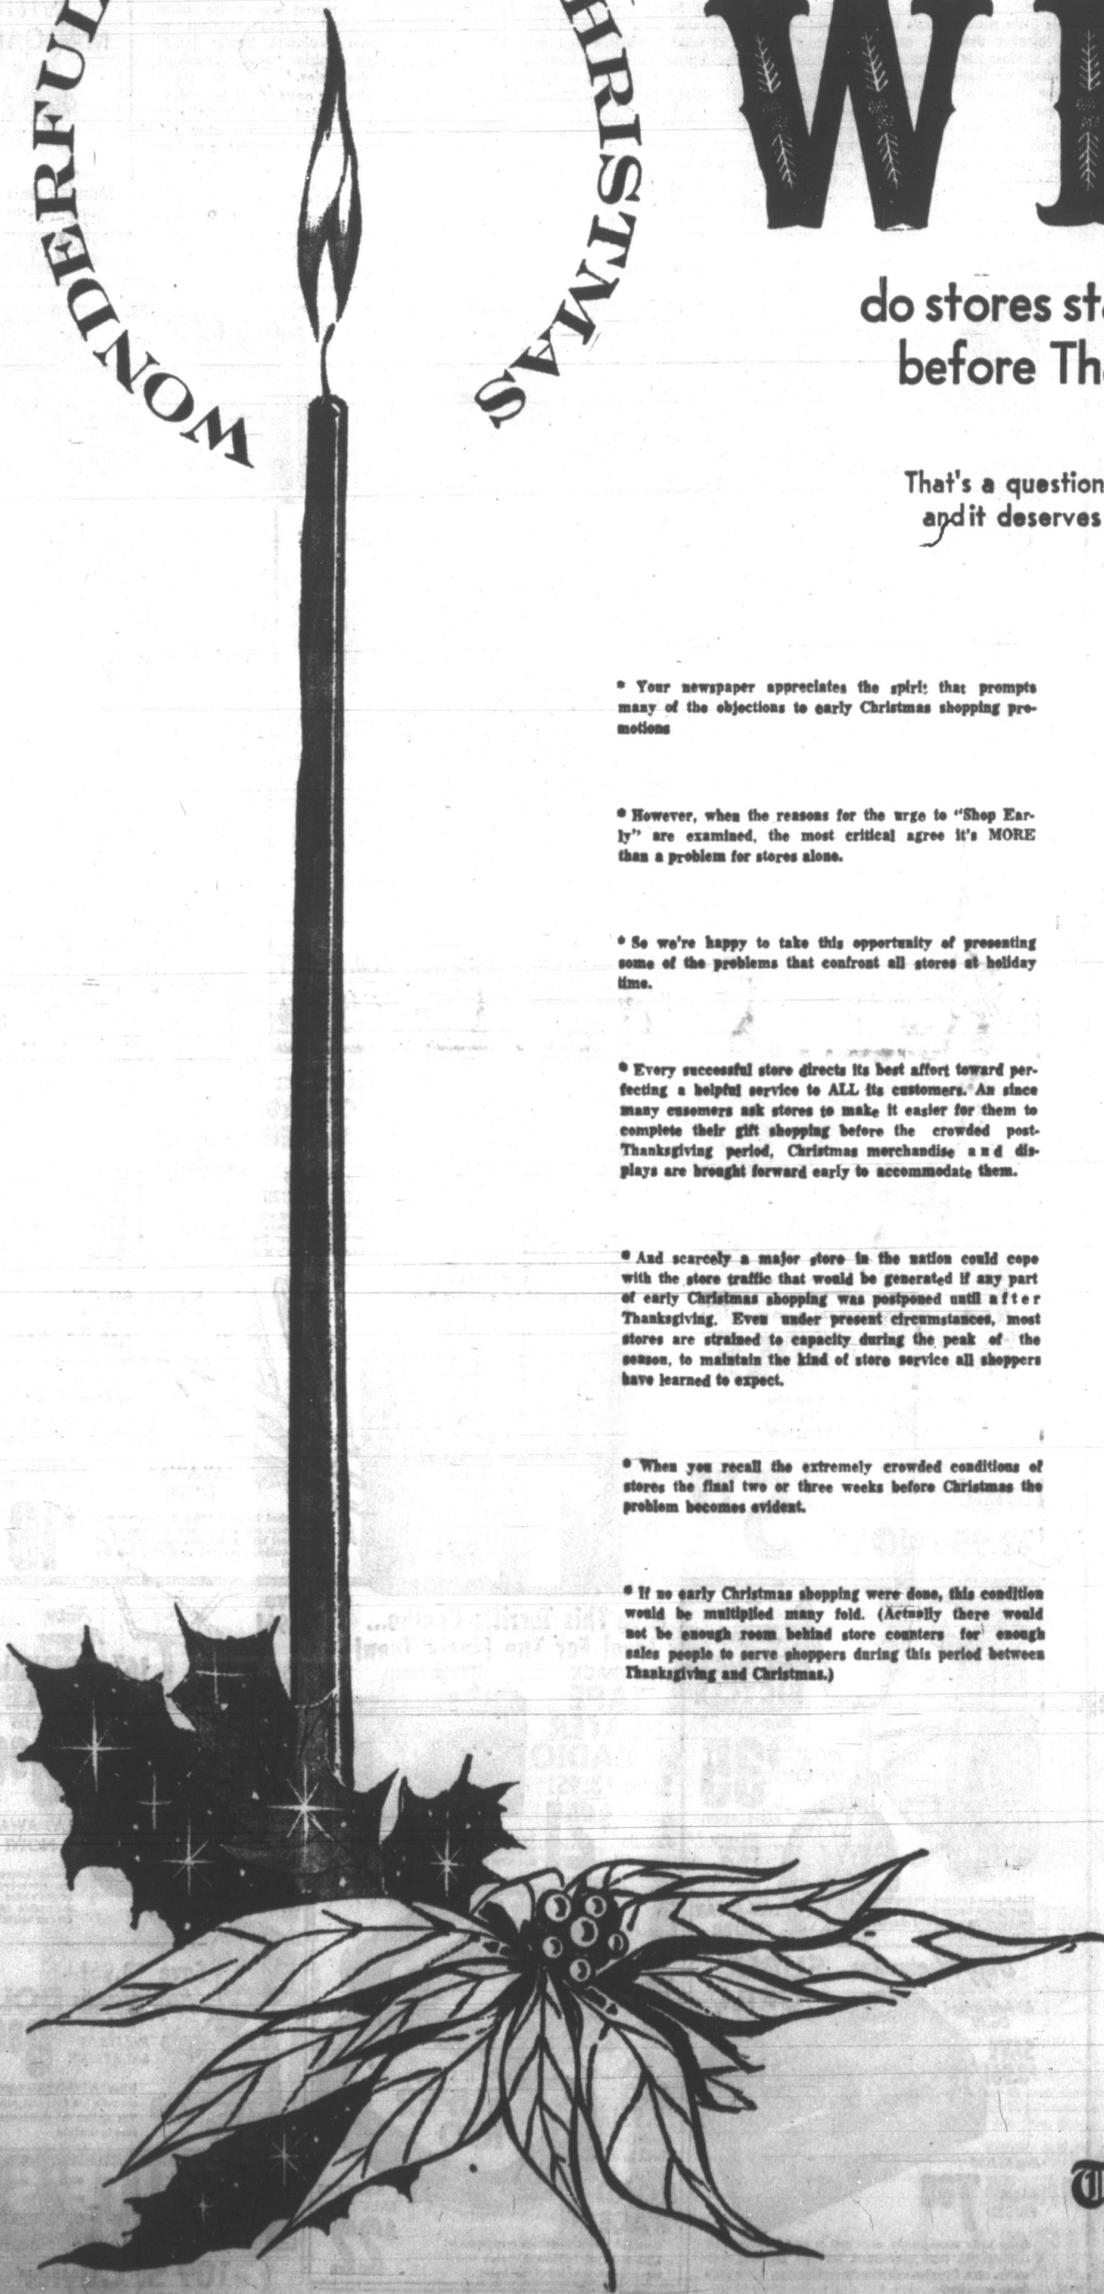

• If you were to ask the thousands of retail employees—and as a group they represent one of the largest employee groups in Pampa — they would tell you that much of the stress and strain of their Christmas would be relieved if the shopping public would anticipate Christmas shopping throughout the year. Then you'd seldom hear your friends in retailing remark, "I'm simply worn down to my knees by Christmas Eve."

• Granted that the problem is not a one-sided one, it should be recognized that stores are faced with the problems of convenient service to customers, of maintaining helpful employee relations, of providing a place where those of the public who cannot, or do not plan ahead may select the traditional gifts for their loved ones and friends.

• We are sure that if all of our storekeepers would chat with you personally and informally that you would be convinced of their sincerity and that in the true spirit of Christmas, they would not be criticized for their efforts to perform a helpful service to their shopping public.

• Finally, for all these reasons, and for others which will occur to you, don't you agree that beginning Christmas shopping early makes it easier, faster and a whole lot more pleasurable for you?

• So do yourself and your favorite stores a favor . . . start shopping now . . . while selections are at their best . . . while you have plenty of time to compare before choosing . . . while sales personnel can give you the kind of service you prefer.

Speaker To Discuss Communist Music Propaganda In the U.S.

AMARILLO (Sp) — Dr. David A. Noebel, executive assistant to Dr. Billy James Hargis of Christian Crusade in Tulsa, Okla., will speak in the Grace Baptist Church in Amarillo at 7 p.m. on Nov. 24 and in the Berger Motor Hotel ballroom at 2 p.m. on the same day.

Revolutionary folk music as the means through which communist propaganda is being infused into the minds of our students will be the topic of Dr. Noebel's address. He is the author of two books in this field, "Communism, Hypnotism and Riots and Revolution." "The Beatles" and "Rhythm, These books, published by Christian Crusade after nearly two years of investigation by a team of researchers, seek to establish a relationship between the rhythms found in certain children's music and the "more advanced" idioms of "beat" folk music, rock 'n' folk and other ultra-modern music forms, "with the resistance to authority, disorder, moral breakdown, confusion, and rebellion found in youngsters today from kindergarten to college."

"In 1961," Rev. Noebel states, "J. Edgar Hoover testified to the effect that the Communist Party had infiltrated every conceivable sphere of activity in the United States — youth groups, radio, television, motion picture industries, church, school, press, political units and cultural groups.

"Since Nikolai Lenin, the father of the Bolshevik Revolution, insisted that Communists must 'rework culture' if they dare hope for a Communist society, it is logical that music must play a vital part in the overall Communist program for a Soviet America. Hanns Eisler, one of the founders of the subversive International Music Bureau, admitted, 'Communist music becomes heavy artillery in the battle for Communism.'" Dr. Noebel stated.

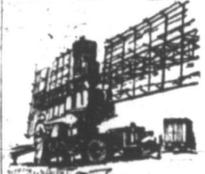

"It should come as no shock then that Marxist minstrels in the United States are presently engaged in promoting Communist artillery. The shock comes when one finds the Communists' big berths being disced and distributed by reputable music companies like Columbia Records and MGM."

When folk singer Pete Seeger appeared before the World Council of Churches in Uppsala, Sweden this past August, "it was only another indication that the tides of Council opinion are still in left field," Rev. Noebel will tell his audience.

"Because the Council's deliberations were deeply anti-American, pro-socialist and pro-Communist (according to CHRISTIANITY TODAY), Mr. Seeger doubtless felt right at home since it was only one year ago that he received the East German Communist Peace Prize."

Rev. Noebel serves Christian Crusade in a dual capacity as Youth Director and Associate Evangelist. He directs the summer session at The Summit, Youth University located in Manitou Springs, Colo., and travels extensively, speaking in more than 200 cities each year. He has just returned to the active staff of speakers after a year's leave of absence, during which time he studied for his Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Tulsa.

Franc Troubles May Affect Prices

By JAMES L. SRIDES

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The price of those little German automobiles may go up. The price of French perfume may go down. Maybe both. Maybe neither.

That's thoroughly indefinite, but it was as far as government economists here would go as they watched the currency crisis developing over the sickly French franc and the robust West German mark.

One reason for the vagueness was that many key U.S. policy makers were in Europe trying to head off a repeat of last year's world monetary crisis.

Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler and key aides were ending a week-long tour of European capitals with a series of meetings in Bonn with West German officials.

Arthur M. Okun, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, left Sunday night for a Paris meeting with French economists and other European trading partners.

Treasury and Commerce Department monetary analysts agreed that changes in either the franc or mark could bring important changes in the prices of goods those two nations sell Americans, as well as the price of American exports to France and West Germany.

Prices Change Slowly

However, they cautioned, like the British pound devaluation a year ago, prices might not change immediately or even by the full amount of any currency change.

Foreign traders are reluctant to take any action which would alter their share of a valuable foreign market, the spokesmen explained.

But this is all assuming the Germans revalue their mark and that the French devalue their franc.

Why do either? And what's the difference? The argument for revaluation of the mark is that Germany is doing too well—capturing too large a share of other nation's currencies, especially the franc. The Germans should put more chips into the pot in order to keep the game alive at a healthy level, some of the other players assert.

For the French, the story is just the opposite. Spring and summer strikes, paralyzing student uprisings and the hangover from last winter's gold crisis all have weakened the French economy and the franc.

Mark Value Up

The West German mark is worth 25 American cents. The German economy has been booming to the point where currency speculators are buying large quantities of marks as a hedge against world monetary uncertainty.

U.S. observers predicted that if the Germans did increase the value of the mark, it would fall in the range of a 5 to 10 per cent boost.

This would mean a German would demand 5 to 10 per cent more dollars for this mark—perhaps exchanging 3.75 marks for a dollar, instead of four. The franc is exchanged at 4.93 per dollar. The French don't want to, but they may have to stop the strain on the franc by devaluing—by offering more francs per dollar.

One of the problems facing the French government is that Frenchmen and other speculators are taking francs at 4.93 marks at four per dollar.

The speculators hope that the franc will fall in value and the mark increase, thus bringing a windfall profit. Additional attacks by speculators trading francs for gold has drained even more strength from the French monetary position.

In 1919 the U.S. Senate rejected the treaty of Versailles drawn up by the Paris peace conference at the end of World War I.

A thought for the day: President Woodrow Wilson spoke to the Senate on Jan. 22, 1917 and said, "There must be, not a balance of power, but a community of power; not organized rivalries, but an organized common peace."

Don Perkins strikes a pensive portrait as he watches Dallas Cowboys from the bench

Expert Chemist to Talk Today On Findings in Derby Winner

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—Less than four hours after Dancer's Image stood in the winner's circle at Churchill Downs after the 94th running of the Kentucky Derby, three men were huddled in a small laboratory on the other side of the city testing for an illegal drug.

Smith was cross-examined for 4½ hours but will step down today to allow an "expert" witness for the state, Lewis Harris of Harris Associates, Lincoln, Neb., take the stand. Harris was called as a witness by Assistant Attorney General George F. Rabe, counsel for the state commission.

At the second day of a hearing Tuesday before the

Perkins Has More Guts Than the Law Allows

By LEE MUELLER
DALLAS, Tex. (NEA) — This is Don Perkins:
Thanksgiving was approaching and Dallas' Tom Landry was counting blessings. Someone suggested that the Cowboy coach do it up formal — have a real Appreciation Day.

Landry inhaled thoughtfully and then smiled. "We're a young club and we've never had one," he said, "but if we do, it's going to be for Perkins."
This is Don Perkins:
Young Dan Reeves, another outstanding ball carrier for the Cowboys, propped his mending knee on a training table. "Perk helped me more than anybody else when I came up," he said. "I'd played quarterback in college and really didn't know much about the pro running game... he's the biggest inspiration on our club and without a doubt the best blocker in the league."

This is Don Perkins:
Cowboy quarterback Don Meredith shrugs inside his sweat suit, signs another autograph and says, "Perkins is the real article. He does not open his mouth in the huddle except sometimes when he has really been laid out on a play and I'm wondering if he can still go. He'll look up and say, 'Yeah, I can run.' That guy has more guts than the law allows."
This is Don Perkins:
A few years ago when Eddie LeBaron was quarterbacking for Dallas, the Cowboys were driving against St. Louis, needing a touchdown to win.

On third down, LeBaron called a pass play that required Perkins to run a pattern half-way, then drop back and block. The ball was snapped, a St. Louis linebacker breezed past Perkins and nailed LeBaron. Perkins apparently had missed an assignment.
On the bench, offensive coach Ernie Allen squirmed. "That's the first time you've ever done that," he said.
"Yeah," said Don, "wasn't that something?"
Allen shook his head and joined LeBaron. "That's the first time Perk has missed an assignment like that," he repeated.

"What do you mean, 'missed'?" asked LeBaron. "I told him to run the pattern no matter what."
Don Anthony Perkins. Age: 30. Weight: 195 pounds. Height: 5-foot-11. Position: Fullback. That's right, fullback. In a league that rejects defensive safeties under six feet, Don Perkins is a fullback.
They all like Perkins in Dallas, even if he were not fifth on the league's all-time rushing list, even if he did not—as Reeves says — give 110 per cent all the time, they would like him.
They liked him in San Antonio where he delivered a speech. "Best we ever had," said a quarterback club member.

They liked him in Waterloo, Iowa, and Albuquerque, N.M., too. The University of New Mexico called him spectacular. Waterloo, his hometown, said he was a nice boy.
Nice or not, Perkins is one of the team's recognized leaders. Reeves says he's the best, but the only time Perkins shows it is when he leads pregame calisthenics or represents the Cowboys at midfield. Landry is aware of Perkins' role.

When Perkins came up eight years ago, in fact, the Cowboys used him as a halfback, possibly thinking he was too small to be sent inside to destruction. Dallas soon learned, however, that Perkins preferred inside to outside. Two years later, he became a fullback, full time. It took some adjusting.

Two years ago, Perkins announced his retirement, saying he planned to go into government work for the governor of New Mexico. Then he reconsidered. "Big fellows like Ken Willard aren't usually bothered by them but when a 275-pound tackle hooks a man my size, it's a little rough." But life has begun to smooth out for Perkins. He, his wife Virginia and two children live in Albuquerque during the off-season.

SMU Trys Bears Saturday

By United Press International
The Baylor Bears who fit together last week against Tech like a gridiron jigsaw puzzle is looking to do it again in the Cotton Bowl Saturday against the bowl-happy SMU Mustangs.

The Mustangs are busy rejoicing over an invitation to the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in the Astrodome against Oklahoma and the Bears hope to catch them on the ground and put them beneath it.
In Austin, the Texas Longhorns took their second day off to go to the movies and re-run at that. The films were of their game against TCU and they will not start getting down to business of preparation for the Texas A&M game until today since they have a 12 free period between games.

The Rice Owls are looking forward to a tough game with TCU this week. Coach Bo Hagan said and hopes the Frogs' top runners Ross Montgomery and Norman Bulaich would not be in the lineup. The two have been out of action since the Texas game.
Sophomore Don Hayward will probably start at defensive guard for the Owls since Joe Barron was injured slightly last week.

In Fort Worth TCU coach Fred Taylor confirmed Hagan's worst fears with the announcement Montgomery will return for his college finale Saturday. Bulaich might still miss the game, but "We're going to give his ankle a stiff test tomorrow and see how he reacts and then make a decision," Taylor said.

Bahnsen Wins American League's Rookie Award

NEW YORK (UPI)—Stan Bahnsen was late arriving last March but he wound up at the head of the class in November.
Bahnsen, who didn't report to the New York Yankee camp until March 17 because of his military service and was afraid he would be sent to the minors, Tuesday was named the American League rookie of the year.
Bahnsen, who posted a 17-12 record with a 2.06 ERA, received 17 of the 20 votes in the balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America. There were two voters in each of the 10 league cities. Washington's fine defensive centerfielder Del Unser received the other three ballots.

me when I arrived that he had a place for me on the roster if I could throw strikes. That always was my problem."
Houk, the Yankee manager, said, "He richly deserves the honor and he owes it all to himself. I've never seen a player in better shape when he reported. He came down here with the one idea in mind of being a starting pitcher. If more players had that attitude, they'd be better off."
Houk admitted he expected Bahnsen, a 23-year-old righthander who was the Yankees' fourth selection in the 1965 free agent draft, to be a starting pitcher in 1967. But he couldn't get the ball over the plate and was farmed out to Syracuse where he posted a 9-11 mark with a 3.32 ERA.

Things were different in 1968. He started the Yanks' fifth game—against California—and won it with relief help from Joe Verbanic in the ninth. He stayed in the starting rotation and pitched well the rest of the way with 34 stars in 37 games. He completed 10 games.
NEW MANAGER
RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Roger J. Bottorff, a former University of Nebraska baseball player, has been named general manager of the Richmond Braves team in the International League.
Bottorff, a native of Lincoln, Neb., succeeds Hillman Lyons, who resigned. Richmond is a farm club for the Atlanta Braves.

Broncs Split With Reydon

Briscoe's boys kept its record unblemished but a second half spurt by Reydon's girls gave the Broncos a split in the Oklahoma town Tuesday night.
In the girls' game Briscoe held a 9-8 first period lead and tailed only 18-17 at halftime. But Reydon forged to a 32-23 third quarter margin and locked it up, 43-29.
Phyllis Aderholt's 20 points paced Briscoe and Anne Kyowell scored 22 for Reydon.
Briscoe's boys sank the host team, 66-54 with Mark Meeks scoring 22 for the winners and Kent Hawkins had 12 for Reydon.
Eriscoe led 14-13 after one period, 27-24 at halftime and pulled away to a 47-36 third quarter lead.

Your Horoscope JEANE DIXON

THURSDAY, NOV. 21
YOUR BIRTHDAY Thursday: The coming year is easier than most. The temptation is to merely drift without seeking enough change to improve conditions. Any powerful drives are aimed at trifling goals. Today's natives need adversity to bring forth their qualities.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): This is a neutral day with no strong directives at work. Stay out of the middle; needless bickering is commonplace. Cooperation is not spontaneous, so use your own steam.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Thrift is the most desirable quality now. Look after the affairs of those who depend on you. Joint investments prosper, BUT speculative moves are to be avoided.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Until theories of everybody else fail in practice, your voice will not be heard. So go along with the group.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Make an analysis of old problems. Matters you hold in trust for other people can be worked out. Allow for the stubbornness of others, and you will survive the day.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): New ventures are just as well put over. Clear the decks; abandon unprofitable sidelines. A concert tonight.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Experimentation is not favored in the usual areas. Ideas are almost impossible to sell. You simply act on them, listen to the results.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): After this confusing day the month opens up for easier living. Secrets are still not to be revealed. Do not say a word about these things!

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): A period of opportunity is open! Enlist the support of other people. Retreat from argument.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): You find yourself doing the big end of the job, virtually alone. Establish the record of how it was done and who did it.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Keep your own counsel concerning private affairs. If you have any issue at law, seek redress.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Begin clearing the decks — it will take several days — for a change of circumstances. Level with old friends on outstanding disagreements. Meditate tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Earnings can be improved, working conditions made a bit easier, if you will go into the matter the first thing Thursday. Be moderate, as well as candid.

Clean Vacuum Bottle
With school time in full swing, it is good to remember that vacuum bottles can retain a sour odor if not washed immediately. When this happens, use two tablespoons of baking soda and partly fill the bottle with water. Shake and rinse. Rub corks with dry soda.

To remove gum from material, place item in plastic bag in the freezer for several hours. Gum then peels off easily.

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 19 and have a beautiful baby whom my husband and I both adore. I was 6 months pregnant when I got married, but my husband and I are very much in love, and we are not ashamed of it. My problem is my mother. She is so ashamed of me that she's gone around saying we were "secretly" married for 6 months, and I guess some believe her and some don't. I just tell people the truth.

We're going to a family wedding out of state soon and my mother says if she hears me tell anybody we were married in January and the baby was born in April she will take me bodily from the room. I told her I wasn't going to lie about it, but she has already lied so much she looks silly. Now she says I don't have the right to make a liar out of her. So what would you do?

NO LIAR
DEAR NO LIAR: If you have been telling people the truth, I doubt if your mother's story has fooled many. Don't volunteer any of the specific dates, but if you're pinned down, stick with the truth.

DEAR ABBY: Enclosed is a yellowed, dog-eared clipping from your column. It appeared about 3 years ago, and you can't imagine how much sustenance I've drawn from it over the years. It's been an "instant tranquilizer." Would you please run it again for mothers who may have missed it?

A READER
DEAR READER: With pleasure, and here it is:

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of three daughters, ages 11, 13, and 15. These girls are driving me crazy! There is never a peaceful minute in this house. They are always fighting. When they were small they were constantly at each other's throats, but I thought they would get along better when they got older. Well, they've gotten worse, not better. We have done everything to teach them love and respect for each other, but we've failed. My husband still insists they will "outgrow" this hatred they seem to have for one another. Will they? If so, when?

GOING CRAZY
DEAR GOING: Be patient. Girls between 11 and 14 are generally stubborn, selfish, and moody. They will become more reasonable and considerate of each other when they mature. Unfortunately by that time, they'll be ready to leave home. Sorry, Mother, but why should it be any different at your house?

DEAR ABBY: You've got to help me as I have nowhere else to turn. My wife has left me. She went to live with our daughter. She caught me reading Playboy magazine, also she found several of the clippings I had from Playboy hidden around the house for my convenience. Abby, I would never actually be untrue to my wife as all I can do is look and she knows it, but she says I have hurt her pride. I am 74, and she is 70. How can I get her back?

Decorations, and refreshments Thursday were planned around the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Adair, which fell on the Senior Center meeting date last week. They were married in Hillsboro in 1908. Mr. Adair spoke during the meeting and thanked Altrusans for this honor. A card was signed by those present and presented to the honored couple.

Ruel Erwin, Odessa, was guest of his mother, Mrs. Pearl Erwin last week. Mrs. Lillian Wade, Snyder, also spent last week with her mother, Mrs. Erwin.

Mrs. D.H. Porter of Shamrock visited her mother and brother, Mrs. G.G. Miller and Bill Miller Saturday while shopping in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. George spent two weeks visiting his mother, Mrs. H.A. Carr, 92, of Ada, Okla. and their relatives in Tulsa, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs.

Tests for Foam
When buying urethane foam for mattresses or pillows, squeeze the foam firmly between thumb and index finger. It should return to shape as soon as you release it. Next, put your lips to it and blow hard. Good foam has open cells and you should be able to blow through it. Give it a good twist. The foam should immediately snap back. Don't worry about foam turning yellow. Nearly all white foam eventually yellows after exposure to the atmosphere.

Sunlight Dries Oils
Strong sunlight falling directly on your furniture will dry out the natural oils contained in leather and wood and cause the finish to bleach and fade.

LONESOME
DEAR LONESOME: Send her flowers, write her "love" letters, send her a little gift of perfume or some other frivolity, and woo her back the same way you wooed her the first time. If she doesn't forgive you, I don't know women.

CONFIDENTIAL TO GENE:
Don't marry for money. You can borrow it cheaper.

Treble Clef Has '68 Patroness Tea

More than 50 Treble Clef Club members and guests were present for the annual Patroness Tea and special musical program recently in Tarpley's Recital Hall.

Patroness members were presented a corsage as they arrived and were later recognized for their contributions to the club's scholarship fund and for their help and interest in the cultural life of Pampa.

Patroness members present were Mmes: D.V. Burton, Jack P. Foster, Gladys Harvey, Luther Pierson, Libby Shotwell, and Miles O'Laughlin of Miami.

The special musical program was presented by Mrs. Elizabeth Read and Mrs. Gayne Wheeler, pianists, and John Wheeler, clarinetist, all of Amarillo.

Mrs. Read and Mrs. Wheeler played as a duo-piano team, presenting the Bach Passacaglia, and a group of modern numbers by Milhaud, Waters, C.J. Pennington, Frank Grantham, Chester Williams, Emmett Osborne and C.V. Forsman.

Red Cross Volunteers with transportation were Mrs. J. J. Rance and Mrs. Olive Hillis.
