NATO Prepares Defense Front

By K. C. THALER
BRUSSELS (UPI)—North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) leaders meeting here this week expect to produce a "package of wide-ranging measures to shore up the alliance's defense in the face of increased uncertainty over Soviet designs," diplomatic sources said today.

The NATO Council of Ministers, gathering for a three day formal session Thursday through Saturday, is aiming at a variety of steps. They range from a freeze on further reductions of allied military contributions to the alliance, to a tightening of controls in the strategic Mediterranean, where Soviet naval power has built up to unprecedented proportions.

The strategy of the alliance, the scope of its future "flexible response" to any potential Communist aggression, the alert system against Warsaw Pact surprise moves—including the positioning of the alliance's 7,000-odd tactical nuclear weapons—are all expected to come under review.

In the wake of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia and the mobilization of the Warsaw Pact forces, allied political and military officers have been preparing detailed recommendations for a major overhaul of key provisions in NATO's defense shield.

Allied defense and foreign ministers are to give their final approval to what is expected to emerge as a major NATO "package."

153 VC Suspects Caught in Trap In Delta Village

By JACK WALSH
SAIGON (UPI)—Swarming from helicopters, boats and trucks, 2,000 American soldiers surrounded a Mekong Delta village and captured 153 suspected Viet Cong trapped in their U.S. headquarters said today.

The U.S. 9th Division infantrymen set their trap before dawn Monday and killed six Viet Cong who tried to break the encirclement of a village near Cai Lay, 40 miles southwest of Saigon.

House-to-house searches turned up 153 suspected Viet Cong who will be questioned and released if interrogators are convinced they are not Communists. It was one of the biggest catches in months.

The action coincided with statements by Gen. Creighton W. Abrams and Andrew J. Goodpaster, commander and deputy commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, that Communist offensive power had been broken and that American might now was "aiming at routing out the local level Viet Cong struggling to survive."

In addition, five 50-foot U.S. Navy "swift" boats Monday raided a Viet Cong river deep in the Delta and reported damaging or destroying 143 primitive guerrilla warehouses, 141 supply boats and 23 shore line bunkers.

The U.S. command also announced the loss of the first U.S. warplane shot down since President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam—a Marine A4 Skyhawk downed in (See SUSPECT, Page 3)

USSR Challenges US Navy Fleet In Mediterranean

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union today declared itself a Mediterranean power and challenged the U.S. Navy's 6th Fleet activity in the strategic sea.

Vice Adm. Nikolai Smirnov, writing in the defense ministry newspaper Red Star, accused the 6th fleet of trying to dominate the Mediterranean "in order to be prepared to strike blows from the sea and air against enemy targets by using nuclear and conventional weapons."

"The Soviet Union and other socialist countries are named as the principal enemy," he said.

The admiral said, "The Soviet Union, which is known to be a Black Sea and hence Mediterranean power, could not remain indifferent to the machinations of lovers of military ventures."

He said a Soviet fleet is in the Mediterranean as "a certain guarantee of peace and security in the area."

The reported presence of up to 60 Soviet warships in the sea was having a major effect on Western allied strategy, according to reports from Paris and Brussels.

(In Paris, diplomats said the Russian naval presence is causing President Charles de Gaulle of France to study the possibility of rejoining the military alliance of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO). Diplomatic sources said French intelligence reports of growing Russian naval base interests in Algeria, were causing de Gaulle growing concern. Allied intelligence said up to 15,000 Russian troops now are in Algeria, France's former colony across the Mediterranean.)

(In Brussels, NATO leaders were meeting this week amid calls for strengthening their alliance in the face of the Czechoslovak invasion and the buildup of Soviet naval might in the Mediterranean. Allied sources said the Soviet power in the sea not only directly affects the Middle East situation, where Russia backs the Arabs against Israel, but also in Western Europe.)

Students Preparing Mass Demonstration

By JAMES O. JACKSON
PRAGUE (UPI)—The Czechoslovak government today imposed restrictions on travel to the West by Czechoslovak citizens. The dramatic crackdown followed new restrictions against the press and other liberal elements of the country's society.

Student unrest against the restrictions and the continuing Soviet occupation was mounting and student leaders ignored stern government warnings and announced they would put 15,000 students into the streets Sunday in a mass demonstration against the Russians.

On Monday Premier Oldrich Cernik broadcast a warning the Czechoslovak government could not tolerate further anti-Soviet demonstrations because they could "lead to chaos and even tragedy." The students ignored this call for anti-Russian outbreaks Sunday, National Students Day.

The travel restrictions to the West were the first imposed since the August invasion.

A paragraph of a government statement issued today said "will be informed in detail long term visits and employment abroad by Czechoslovaks would be thoroughly investigated and temporarily limited in order that there will be no uncontrolled private visits and business trips."

The statement said citizens will be informed in detail long term visits and employment abroad by Czechoslovaks would be thoroughly investigated and temporarily limited in order that there will be no uncontrolled private visits and business trips."

The premier's warning to students was aimed at preventing harsh retaliatory measures by Russia and possibly to avert criticism by pro-Soviet factions which have become increasingly vocal in protesting continued anti-Russian actions.

He spoke after a week in which youths across the nation ripped up and burned Soviet flags put up for celebrating the 51st anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution and in which workers and other citizens attacked persons emerging from a pro-Soviet rally. The student leaders today said, however, they have been trying to calm their followers the past two weeks in order to save their energy for a massive show of protest Sunday.

Soviet Repression
The protest movement was aimed against increasing Soviet repression. A current example was the crushing of the Czechoslovak dream of a free press, which came today with a Soviet-imposed program of arrests, expulsions, censorship and banning of major magazines.

Journalism sources said Prague's television workers today sent a delegation to Communist party headquarters to battle against the appointment of an old line Stalinist to replace the network's current chief.

A divided and demoralized Communist party leadership has taken harsh measures against the mass media in an effort to prevent the Soviets from doing it.

The chances of direct interference by the Kremlin increased with the prospect of more demonstrations like those of the past two weeks when Soviet flags were burned and Red army soldiers spat upon. The nation's leaders warned against demonstrations that could "lead us down a dead end street."

Action against the press spread from Czechoslovak journalism to the West Monday with the expulsion of seven western newsmen, six West Germans and one American.

Nixon Endorses LBJ Policies

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter
NEW YORK (UPI)—President-elect Richard M. Nixon, endorsing the late duck Johnson administration and saying its members speak for him, hinted that "some very significant action and progress toward peace" may come before he takes office in 69 days.

Nixon, standing beside the man he will succeed Jan. 20, warned the "parties on the other side" Monday that the two administrations stand united on Vietnam, the Middle East and relations with the Soviet Union.

Nixon's endorsement of Johnson's Vietnam policy moves over the next two months will put added pressures on the Saigon government of President Nguyen Van Thieu to reverse its stand and send a delegation to the expanded Paris talks, diplomatic sources said.

Policy Briefing
The president-elect conferred with Johnson Monday and was briefed by his top aides on foreign and domestic policy.

Nixon said the White House talks were helpful in "seeing to it that in the next 60 days—this very critical period—rather than having the lapse of a lame duck presidency, in effect we might have some very significant action and progress toward peace."

Neither Nixon nor his aides would elaborate on the reference to the possibility of progress in the Vietnam negotiations.

Nixon said there are too many critical international problems facing decision in Washington and the country could not afford a gap of two months in which no action or no negotiations could occur.

"If progress is to be made in any of these fields, it can be made only if the parties on the other side realize the current administration is setting forth policies that will be carried forward by the next administration," Nixon said.

After his afternoon meeting at the White House, Nixon flew to his headquarters in New York to continue putting together a new administration and preparing a budget for submission to Congress shortly after inauguration day.

Lunch With President
Flying north from Florida Monday, Nixon and his wife went to the White House for lunch with the President and Mrs. Johnson. Then after a brief two-man meeting in the President's office, Nixon received nearly an hour and a half of briefing in the Cabinet room from ranking administration experts on foreign relations. Johnson arranged for Nixon to hear from Rusk, Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Central Intelligence Director Richard Helms and Walter W. Rostow, a foreign affairs specialist on the Johnson staff.

Johnson said he and Nixon realize the American people had a right to expect their government "to function efficiently at all times and he and I are going to do everything we possibly can to see that the wheels of government operate with maximum efficiency not only from now until Jan. 20 but for all time to come."

Johnson indicated he anticipated further consultation with the president-elect before inauguration.

United States, North Vietnam Agree to Delay the Talks Again

By LOREN JENKINS
PARIS (UPI)—The United States and North Vietnam today agreed tacitly to delay once again the opening of new Paris talks as efforts to prepare ground rules for the parley ran into a seemingly unbridgeable impasse.

Allied and Communist diplomats said there will be no meeting Wednesday. The talks, originally scheduled for Nov. 6, were put off indefinitely last week amid hopes they might get underway this Wednesday.

The deadlock stiffened further when North Vietnam today rejected renewed South Vietnamese demands aimed at denying the National Liberation Front (NLF) political branch of the Viet Cong, the right to sit at the talks as an independent negotiating team.

A Hanoi spokesman said the Saigon demand was "absurd." He insisted that Washington, in secret contacts here, had agreed to a four-party conference and that North Vietnam will demand that the pledge be complied with.

Both North Vietnam and the Viet Cong scorned Saigon's demands the Viet Cong appear at the conference table only as part of the North Vietnamese delegation—and sealed their unity with a kiss.

In a Latin Quarter auditorium Monday night, Viet Cong and North Vietnamese diplomatic chiefs freshly proclaimed their case at a rally of several hundred cheering supporters.

Xuan Thuy, the chief Hanoi delegate, said the United States must shun Saigon's demands and is "obliged to accept a four-way conference."

Madame Nguyen Thi Binh, chief delegate of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front (NLF) political arm, stood up in a green silk dress, stepped past an eight-foot-high portrait of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh and kissed the smiling Thuy.

NASA Plans to Send Three Men Around the Moon

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States announced today it will shoot three astronauts around the moon just before Christmas.

The Apollo 8 mission was set for about Dec. 21 and will last six days. If everything goes according to plan, the spacemen will circle the moon 10 times and then return to earth for a Pacific splashdown between Christmas and New Year's.

Dr. Thomas Paine, acting administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), said in making the announcement: "After a careful and thorough examination of all systems and the risks and benefits involved in each of the mission alternatives, we have concluded that we are ready to fly this advanced mission around the moon."

"Frank Borman and his crew are eager to proceed, our engineers unanimously recommend this mission, and, without being over confident, we believe that we understand the hazards involved and are now ready to take this next step forward in the nation's space program."

Borman will be the flight commander. His companions on the historic flight will be James A. Lovell Jr. and William Anders. This will be Anders' first trip into space. Borman and Lovell are space veterans.

They will be launched into earth orbit from Cape Kennedy, Fla., by the world's mightiest rocket, the Saturn B. After two orbits of the earth, they will then head for the moon and possibly as many as 10 orbits.

The space agency announcement said:

"Apollo 8 will be launched from Cape Kennedy no earlier than Dec. 21. Timing of the 'launch window' is solely dependent on technical considerations."

"Among these are the moon's monthly swings around the earth, launch restrictions at Cape Kennedy, daylight conditions in the launch and recovery areas and referred photographic lighting for sites of interest on the moon."

It will be a six-day minimum mission but the NASA announcement stressed that it was open-ended—meaning that the length depends on the success of the various experiments that will be undertaken during the complicated flight.

It would take six days simply to travel to the area of the moon and back. If everything goes according to plan, the Apollo 8 craft will circle the moon 10 times before returning to a landing in the Pacific between Christmas and New Year's.

The goal of Apollo 8 is to pave the way for putting an American on the moon during the 1969—in accordance with the goal announced May 25, 1961, by President John F. Kennedy to make a lunar landing in this decade.

The Saturn 3's first stage is nearly five times as powerful as the Saturn 1B, which launched the 11-day Apollo 7 flight in earth orbit last month.

It was Apollo 7's nearly flawless performance that caused NASA officials at Cape Kennedy, the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, and the Marshall Space Flight Center at Huntsville, Ala., to urge that

Bishops Discuss Adopting Policy On Birth Control

WASHINGTON (UPI)—American Roman Catholic bishops today worked under a renewed appeal from Pope Paul VI for support as they deliberated adopting a policy at odds with his stand against artificial birth control measures.

The bishops, some 220 members of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, gathered Monday for their fall conference and immediately began closed-door consideration of a pastoral letter on the issue.

No details of the proposed letter were made public, but a spokesman said it dealt directly with the right of a Roman Catholic couple after examining their own consciences to use contraceptives despite the Pope's encyclical banning them.

As the bishops began their conference, the Pope renewed his appeal for unity in the face of proposals by Catholic liberals to change "indispensable structures" of the church to suit their own ideals.

"We are demanding of you total and generous faithfulness to the church—not, certainly, to an imaginary church which each would conceive and organize to his own ideas, but to the Catholic Church as it is," he said during an audience for 400 monks and friars.

The Pope called on the monks and friars to oppose every "modern tendency" that would give human goals priority over communion with God and liturgical and sacramental rites.

The bishops were to submit in writing today any proposals for revising the letter, drafted by Bishop John J. Wright of Pittsburgh. The final draft is expected to be voted on Wednesday or Thursday and could be made public by Friday when the conference closes.

The statement also would put the bishops on record favoring revision of the Selective Service law to liberalize provisions for conscientious objection, including objection to a particular war.

Ferment over the birth control issue intruded on the usually academic atmosphere of the conference as about 150 priests marched singing into the downtown hotel, petitioned the bishops to intervene in the case of 41 area priests disciplined for publicly dissenting from the Pope's ruling.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Violent unrest among Mexican students exposed other areas of discontent which now seek a voice to give Mexico's ruling party its first real challenge in more than 30 years.

The violence began in July and extended well into October, and as the students hardened their position against the government they gained support from large numbers of bureaucrats, professional people and housewives in Mexico's growing middle class.

The movement began simply enough with student charges that police and troops had violated university autonomy which is a Latin American tradition.

As the government reacted with more police and troops, the students expanded upon their charges to include corruption among government functionaries and a claim that the economy mainly benefitted a new group of oligarchs which had replaced the dictatorship of the great landowners of prerevolutionary times.

Whether the student charges were valid was almost beside the point. They struck a popular chord.

For most of 40 years Mexico has been ruled by the IRP or Institutional Revolutionary Party, an umbrella party which was the outgrowth of the revolution of 1911 in which more than one million Mexicans died.

It is an all-embracing confederation of peasants, industrial workers and various other "popular" groups and it has given to Mexico that rarity among Latin American nations, a peaceful transition of power, political stability and a means of working out conflicts between various sectors of the economy. But its opponents also charge that in the intervening years it has become undemocratic and unresponsive to the rank and file, with a few leaders at the top making all the decisions.

The president, it is charged, becomes an absolute monarch for the six years of his term and, when that ends, picks his own successor.

On its side, the government charges that the student groups have been infiltrated by Communists and others representing ideas not in the best interests of Mexico. Both have a certain amount of reason on their side.

The CNED (National Democratic Students Central), for example, is flaming red and has support from some university professors.

Against government figures showing impressive growth and the distribution of nearly 150 million acres of land to the peasants is the fact that many peasants still live on a bare subsistence level.

Opponents of the government and the IRP charge that it now pays more attention to its institutional character than it does to the ideals of the revolution. But the opposition so far still is only an idea seeking a voice.

With the cost of living going up, up, up, it is rapidly affecting that fashion-minded girl, man, woman, or child. Clothes are the one thing that is not a necessity of life and yet so necessary. Proper clothes can get you a good job or improper clothes can keep you from getting a job. Considering this, clothes are essential, a very necessary item for living, rather than just existing.

The budget-minded person knows that they can be well groomed, properly dressed, and reasonably, too! These are the people who have found discount clothing stores. Pampa is fortunate to have a store such as this. Dyke's Discount Clothing, 120 W. Foster, is bringing to Pampa name brand merchandise at reasonable prices.

Dyke's has been in business since 1965. They are engaged in the business of fine clothes at a price that is unbelievably low! Their merchandise consists of easy-to-care for dacron knits and permanent press cotton blends. In stock you will find six-hundred pair of pants and over three-hundred matched blouses, numerous dresses and shoes to match.

Dyke's has a complete supply of clothing—pants, blouse and clothing for children.

Sleeveless and spare shaping can take workday chores in stride. Loose, low belts keep pace with fashion but leave the waist unhampered.

Fabrics that don't wilt in the heat become more numerous each year. This time around we have airy voiles, sheer cottons, cotton-blends, and linen-like blends that know how to behave in any climate or temperature.

Then there are the colors, colors and colors. The dresses in bright, exciting winter colors make you feel like a queen just to have them on. Color plays a big role in the well-dressed person's wardrobe today. Come in...You will love the fashions, and your budget will love the prices.

ESPIONAGE REPORTED

VIENNA (UPI)—Justice Minister Hans R. Klecatsky confirmed Monday persistent news reports that Chancellor Press Secretary Josef Adamek was suspected of selling political secrets to Czechoslovakia. Klecatsky also said former State Policeman Johann Ableithinger was charged with passing copies of secret police information on Czechoslovak refugees to an unidentified Western news agency.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 13
YOUR BIRTHDAY today: During the coming year you will find chances to level old scores, many incidents of triumph. But some will cost the loss of old friends if impulses are not disciplined well. Today's natives possess latent talent for art and poetry.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Any haste or force today will immediately draw destructive reaction. Unexpected quirks endanger relationships. Care in all mechanical operations is urged!

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): The sharp details of today's encounters characterize the future... for a long time, so call your shots with precision. Slight disagreements can escalate into quarrels.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Your feelings are easily aroused today. New arrangements are likely to blow up quickly. Seek to hold a steady course.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Safety precautions should be universal today. There is no major problem beyond normal responsibility and getting your day's work done... somehow.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Some of your recent decisions prove unfeasible. Your pride suffers. Be as flexible as you can; quit early.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Caution is not enough. Self-restraint and compliance with your intuition are needed. Odd situations tend to attack your financial affairs.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Independent actions should be carried out — with a light touch. Haste backfires. Look to your health and to safety habits.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Abide by your previous schedules! Use great care in handling tools, heavy equipment and vehicles. People take a dim view of your driving spirit.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): If possible, isolate tensions and confusions of the day. You will be glad you protected your relationships with refusal to gossip. Romance flowers suddenly (if you let it).

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Keep your adventures within a limited range! Then you can keep track of what goes on! Unplanned incidents are annoying. Review your changing situation this evening.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Use great care while commuting or on nearby errands. Postpone long journeys. Associates (and in-laws) are both somewhat stiff toward you; pay no attention. Your loved ones are right with you all the way.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): The problems relating to money reaches its peak. You can, somehow, turn the corner and from here on out follow a more constructive (and profitable!) course in these matters.

Some ways to save money on milk: use dry milk. It costs less than half as much as whole milk; or, use evaporated milk, especially for cooking; or buy as large a container as can be stored conveniently.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am an 18-year-old boy, and a freshman in a fine college. I'm an honor student, am clean-cut in appearance and have been told that I have a nice personality.

Here's my problem: Girls have been making up excuses so they won't have to go out with me. I finally got a good friend of mine to tell me the reason. He said I make the girls "feel inferior intellectually." They complain about my extensive vocabulary and my forthright and persuasive manner of speaking.

I want to become a lawyer, Abby, and I've been trying to upgrade my vocabulary. I've taken courses in speech and drama, and have developed a way of communicating.

Do you suggest that I abandon my efforts to escalate my intelligence and go back to my old ordinary way of talking. Or should I continue to improve myself?

FUTURE LAWYER
DEAR LAWYER: I'm all for improving one's self, but when it comes off as superficial arrogant and phony, it's no improvement. The most "persuasive and effective" speakers use words they are sure are understood by everyone in the company. Improve yourself, Buddy, but be yourself. You'll go over better, and you'll be a better lawyer, too.

DEAR ABBY: Here is the scene. A man goes fishing and brings home a good catch. Everybody in the family loves fish. I say the wife should clean them.

Chuck, my kooky buddy, says I'm crazy — not one wife in a hundred cleans fish anymore. I say he's crazy. So who's crazy?

TOM M.
DEAR TOM: The wife who cleans fish.

DEAR ABBY: I've read you for many years but this is the first time I've written. I've been a social worker for nearly 40 years. Since you first appeared, I've kept tabs on your batting average, and it's better than most trained social workers I know.

I have a gripe, however. When some of your self-righteous women complain of "dirty old men," you seem to accept the terminology. You never mention "dirty young women," however. I am a consultant in a nursing home in which there are many elderly men, and I have not seen a "dirty" one yet. But I see a lot of "dirty" young women on the streets every day.

By "dirty" the critical women include all older men who have an interest in sex. If "sex" is

Now is the time to check caulking around the home. Doors and windows are the places to begin. But don't forget out-of-the-way spots: floor and wall junctions, wood-column and floor junctions, and parapet and roof joints. Also check joints between masonry blocks-concrete steps and joints between house and porch or driveway.

Mrs. James A. Hedgecote, Council Piper from Amarillo Girl Scout Council extends an invitation to Quivira Council President Mrs. Richard Stowers and council members to attend a program honoring a National Piper.

Daphne Tabor will be the guest of the Amarillo Girl Scout Council Nov. 19 and 20 and will attend the program to be held at the Tascosa Country Club. Reservations to attend this event should be made through the Girl Scout office by Wednesday.

Girl Scout calendars are being sold by troops in this council. Of the 35 cents calendar charge, each troop retains 17 cents for troop projects. Many troops have been sending packages to servicemen in Viet Nam, also to orphans in Viet Nam.

Troop 25, leader Mrs. Robert Karr, held a first aid review recently, assisted by T.M. Whiteley. This review was in preparation for their Cadette Challenge of Emergency Preparedness.

Troop 136, leader Mrs. Thomas N. Collins assisted by Mrs. James Radcliff, recently held a mother-daughter costume Halloween party with every troop member and mother present. A story "The Witch of Hissing Hill" was narrated by Mrs. Collins and phantomed by Cheryl Miser.

Troop leaders were officially welcomed to Sunset Neighborhood by the neighborhood chairman Mrs. Steve Odum after the leader investiture conducted by Mrs. T. M. Whiteley, field advisor. Invested were Meses: Ray Mills, Eugene Stubbs, Wayne Jones, Jack Hillon and J. Wayne Reeder.

Questions will be answered during the Junior Workshop concerning all phases of the Junior Girl Scout Program. All Junior leaders are urged to attend or send a troop representative. Registration should be made this week to the Girl Scout office for this workshop to be held Nov. 22.

Those to attend the Craft Workshop are asked by Mrs. Jerry Davis, instructor to bring newspapers, typing paper, rags and a pencil. A $1 fee will be charged for this session.

Defense The Thing for SMU Against 'Hogs'

By United Press International
Southwest Conference coaches began making preparations to untie the four-way knot with which they have tied up the league Monday—and for the leaders the emphasis was mostly on defense.

Southern Methodist coach Hayden Fry spent most of Monday night conferring with his defensive underlings, trying to figure out what his Mustangs need to do against the Razorbacks of Arkansas Saturday.

"They (the Hogs) present a tremendous problem from a defensive standpoint in that they have such a balanced attack," Fry said after the meeting.

Arkansas' Balanced Attack
"They have an exceptional passing attack and a very strong running attack. This is a little bit unusual in that most teams are overbalanced with either passing or running," he said.

SMU trainers said the only questionable player for the Arkansas game was guard Kemp McMillan, who reinjured his ankle against Texas A&M last weekend. But the coaches felt he probably would be ready to play.

"I think we are in good shape, certainly in better shape than we were for the Texas game two weeks ago," Fry said. "We think everyone will be running by the time the game gets here."

Wait Until Saturday
Asked about his team's chances to play in the Cotton Bowl, Fry said, "I'll tell you after Saturday."

Trojans Keep No. 1 Spot In Rankings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Southern California, in the stretch run toward a second consecutive national championship, continues to lengthen its lead.

Tigers Facing 'Must' Game

Coach Fred Hedgecock of the McLean Tigers allowed as how his team is stepping into something a lot worse than a lions den Friday night when they travel to Clarendon.

This same thing happened in 1966 or almost the same thing when Wheeler and McLean tied for the district title and a coin flip determined the champion, who turned out to be McLean.

The Tigers lost their first game of the season, 27-6, to Shamrock, then downed Lefors, 22-6 and Boys Ranch, 30-14, before bowing to White Deer, 13-8.

Gruver plays at Stratford and White Deer plays Sanford-Fritch (2-2) on the Eagles home nest. It is possible for a three-way tie for the title to develop here.

Holy Cross Coach Has Faith in Big Bob Neary

WORCESTER, Mass. (UPI)—Coach Tom Bolsture of Holy Cross doesn't just have confidence in end Bob Neary—It's more like blind faith.

Neary has lived up to Bolsture's faith all season, accentuating it this past Saturday as he pulled in two touchdowns to help boost HC to a 47-20 win over the University of Massachusetts. It was HC's highest point total since a 53-6 cakewalk against N.Y.U. in 1961.

At least one alumnus who has watched the HC co-captain during his varsity career insisted Holy Cross officials should rename Neary "Flypaper" because of his sticky-fingered play.

Denver Wesley, a Wildorado, Tex., cowboy who began riding bareback broncs and bulls in high school rodeos, Monday was named pro rodeo's Rookie of the Year.

Liston Has 'Must' Bout

By United Press International
Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston and fifth-ranking heavyweight contender George Chuvalo take on obscure opponents tonight in bouts that could break—but not make—their future title hopes.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Red Berenson of the St. Louis Blues, who tied a modern era scoring record with a six-goal outburst against the Philadelphia Flyers last Thursday, tallied nine points in all during a four-game span last week and has moved into a four-way tie for second place in the National Hockey League scoring race.

Typical of Neary's surehandedness was his first reception in the rout of UMASS, leaping and stretching high above two defenders in the end zone to corral the ball.

Wesley, who joined the association in December, 1967, finished his first pro season in sixth place in steer roping and was 18th in calf roping.

Berenson Leads Scoring

NEW YORK (UPI)—Red Berenson of the St. Louis Blues, who tied a modern era scoring record with a six-goal outburst against the Philadelphia Flyers last Thursday, tallied nine points in all during a four-game span last week and has moved into a four-way tie for second place in the National Hockey League scoring race.

The latest figures released Monday by the NHL show the 28-year-old Berenson tied with New York's Bob Nevin, Montreal's Jean Beliveau and Detroit's Gordie Howe with 20 points each, four less than leader Bobby Hull of Chicago has accumulated.

He has won $12,640 in calf, steer and team roping and in steer wrestling since his first pro rodeo at Odessa, Tex., last January.

Mayo, world bareback bronc riding champion in 1966 and twice a runnerup, has won $28,260 so far this year with the national finals rodeo competition in Oklahoma City, Okla., still remaining.

Liston and Rischer, of Berkeley, Calif., are headlining a card being staged for the benefit of Ben Anolik, a former boxing promoter who is recuperating following a heart transplant.

Chuvalo, who is scheduled to meet Buster Mathis on Dec. 31, is favored over Cane, a 6-foot, 4-inch, 218-pound Italian unknown. Irving Ungerman, who is Chuvalo's manager, estimates that George is taking a $250,000 gamble but sees the Canadian tiger as an easy winner.

John McGraw, legendary manager of the New York Giants, played third base for St. Bonaventure University.

John S. Gottschalk, director of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, said Monday that

Last Half Costly for Harvesters

If the last two games are any indication, if Lubbock can play the Pampa Harvesters close during the first half Friday night then they'll not have to worry about victory.

Carlton, a senior who is playing football for the first time in three years, had another outstanding game against Borger.

Carlton finished first in the north zone in pass yardage but fifth in pass catching. The senior/catcher had 31 catches for 207 yards while wingback John Jenkins has 13 catches for 98 yards for third place.

Carlton put out a great effort, he blocked excellent, and really hurt 'em. I wish we had more like him," Lee said.

The Harvesters suffered another injury, this time it was center Moss Hampton, who bruised a knee and is on the doubtful list for the Lubbock contest Friday.

OU, Mizzou, Jayhawks All in Line for Title

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Oklahoma's belated drive to successfully defend its Big Eight football championship not only tarnished Kansas' bowl hopes but now threatens to diminish Missouri's.

Missouri, now 7-1 overall and 5-0 in the conference and reportedly leading contender for the Cotton Bowl, ventures to bid but its loss to Oklahoma unquestionably dimmed Jayhawk hopes for a New Year's in Miami. It also may have hurt Kansas' chance of landing a Sugar or Cotton classic.

Now in his 11th season at Mizzou, Devine has taken four other Tiger teams to post-season bowls—the Orange twice, the Sugar once and the Bluebonnet once.

Do As They Will Given the prevailing conditions, we may expect to be astonished with increasing frequency as the evidence of continuing moral decay comes to light.

That, from the crime capital of the U.S., is not only astonishing and perhaps of even surprising. But it is not an isolated incident. It must have been as long as five years ago that a "downtown" church in San Francisco printed in its Sunday bulletin the notice that women worshippers should place their purses in the pews in front of them when kneeling.

Minister On Politics Not all critics of the clergy are members of the "God is dead" cult. Many of them believe that He is certainly "living" and that those granted a pulpit should spend their time saying so, not absenting themselves from their posts while pursuing some kind of political happening.

Of course there is a way to cleanup politics! But it is not by attempts to get "good" men elected. That is like trying to graft good fruit onto poor rootstock! Purification must start at the roots, it must be from bottom up, not from the top down!

Denture Repairs While You Wait The shocker for all denture wearers, the one event certain to chill marrows, flutter hearts and blanch faces of all hues, is dropping and breaking a denture. Nothing is so guaranteed to crumble one's dignity as squish one's courage.

Inside Washington

Clear Road Ahead For Nixon's Huge Defense Budget

WASHINGTON — President Richard M. Nixon may have his troubles with the Democratic 91st Congress, but there should be no real difficulties for Nixon's plans to boost defense spending.

NOISY OPPOSITION—Much noisy opposition is in prospect from the Senate dovocote for defense budget increases of this far-reaching scope, especially if and when there is an end to the war in Vietnam.

When it comes to action, however, the new President's proposed defense budget increases should be able to weather the storm.

Pull Up A Chair

By JOHN KEASLER The Age of Charisma is Upon Us

Do you have charisma? Check the following list for symptoms. Charisma is a yes-yes. Be the first in your block to have charisma. Be happy if you can't pronounce it. Maybe nobody can.

Q—My husband often falls asleep in a chair at night, and if no one wakes him, he will spend the night there. Shouldn't a person lie down at least part of the 24 hours?

Q—How much sleep should a healthy adult get? A—That is something like asking how big a shoe a healthy adult should wear. There is a wide variation in the amount of sleep different persons need.

Q—What causes sleepwalking? What would happen if the sleepwalker should wake up while he is walking? A—Although the cause is not fully understood, over-stimulation or emotional tension just before going to bed is thought to be a factor.

Q—What causes sleepwalking? What would happen if the sleepwalker should wake up while he is walking? A—Although the cause is not fully understood, over-stimulation or emotional tension just before going to bed is thought to be a factor.

PAUL HARVEY NEWS You in the Lap of Luxury

The home of tomorrow will be unrecognizable by today's builders. Development of new materials and know-how is such that there will be as many innovations in housing in the next 10 years as in the past 40.

Chicago Mayor Richard Daley says the house is placed on a site and made ready for occupancy in three days! Tools necessary to apply many new construction materials are themselves revolutionary.

Without mechanization and modernization, building today's house with the hand tools of yesterday would cost two to three times as much.

The Doctor Says:

By DR. WAYNE BRANDSTADT

'Relax' is Key Word For Restful Sleep Q—Almost every night I lie in bed for hours without sleeping. I take sleeping pills but would like to get along without them. What do you advise?

Q—My husband often falls asleep in a chair at night, and if no one wakes him, he will spend the night there. Shouldn't a person lie down at least part of the 24 hours?

Q—How much sleep should a healthy adult get? A—That is something like asking how big a shoe a healthy adult should wear. There is a wide variation in the amount of sleep different persons need.

Q—What causes sleepwalking? What would happen if the sleepwalker should wake up while he is walking? A—Although the cause is not fully understood, over-stimulation or emotional tension just before going to bed is thought to be a factor.

Quirks In The News

FAST WORK
ALBUQUERQUE (UPI)—Homer Jackson, 28, worked hard to get his first white tail deer. He took five days to spot it, 2½ hours to find it after he shot and 3½ hours to haul it back to camp. Then he had to dress it down.
 But if took thieves less than an hour to spot the kill and steal it from his pickup parked outside his home Sunday night.
WRONG NUMBER
PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Emmett Roulette, 21, gambled and lost.
 Roulette, of suburban Wilkinsburg, dodged into a doorway of

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Standard & Poor's Outlook notes that the market advanced vigorously the morning after the election, suffered some profit taking Wednesday and Thursday, then resumed an uptrend. The post-election rise, the firm says, "reflects Wall Street's belief that the climate for business will be favorable under the Nixon Administration. While the list remains sensitive to news, the prospects are for further improvement in better grade stocks."
 Despite the fact that stock prices "are quite close to their all-time highs and that dramatically favorable developments are not on the immediate horizon," Shearson, Hammil & Co. sees no reason for the market to falter. "Both institutions and individuals have the motivation to seek out the money to buy stocks with special attractions," the firm feels, and "investment money is likely to gravitate to regulated industries, non-Vietnam defense spending beneficiaries, and industries with import problems."

Alexander Hamilton Institute anticipates a continuing orderly market consolidation over the short-term with an eventual upsurge near New Year's. The firm notes that spending for the rebuilding of cities, mass transportation and Social Security benefits will probably overbalance any ease in government spending on the Vietnam War and sees no likelihood of a rapid drop in the rate of inflation.

The Lighter Side

WASHINGTON (UPI)—There has been a definite trend in this half of the 20th Century toward upgrading the office of U.S. Vice President.
 No longer are our veeps automatically consigned to limbo. More and more, they are being given meaningful roles in the affairs of state.
 It is gratifying to note that President-elect Nixon intends to continue the veeply advancement. He says his vice president, Spiro T. Agnew, will be assigned duties and responsibilities above and beyond any previous veepian endeavors.
 Agnew lies in closely with my own thinking. I have long felt that vice presidents could become useful members of society if the emphasis were placed on rehabilitation rather than punishment.
 We may be approaching the time when veeps will take over many of the burdens of the presidency. Perhaps it will work out something like this:
 Early in his term the president summons the vice president to his office for an important conference.
 "I want you to play a vital part in my administration," he says. "I have already picked out a big job for you, if you are willing to undertake it."
 Anything at all, Mr. President," the veep replies. "I'm completely at your disposal."
 "Fine. I've been invited to cut the ribbon opening a new bridge across the Mississippi. Think you could handle it for me?"
 "I'll certainly do my best, sir. And I, want you to know I appreciate the confidence you have shown in me."
 The veep performs the task with skill and dispatch. Deeply impressed, the president decides to entrust him with a more demanding mission.
 "I need someone to take my place at a groundbreaking ceremony," he says. "The way you wielded those scissors has convinced me you are ready to tackle some spadework."

Television In Review

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The annual execution of television series by the ratings is beginning to pick up steam.
 Latest of the axings is NBC-TV's Phyllis Diller show, a weekly variety hour that will hardly be missed by either viewers or critics.
 The amazing thing is that insiders, including a network people, marked it for dead even before the season began; which makes one wonder why it was ever put on in the first place.
 In addition to a star whose material was overly familiar, the series had a difficult time slot—10 p.m. EST—and the murderous competition of CBS-TV's "Mission: Impossible" and ABC-TV's Sunday night movies.
 NBC-TV's midseason heir to this enviable competition will be "My Friend Tony," a series about a couple of criminologists.
Only Replacement
 The network says this will be its only midseason replacement which apparently means that the recent highly regarded special, "Soul," will not immediately have a crack at being an NBC-TV series.
 Over at CBS-TV, meanwhile, the long-running "Daktari" has already been canceled and will disappear at midseason.
 CBS-TV announced that the room for the Glen Campbell variety series, which had a summer run as the fill-in for the vacationing Smothers Brothers show.
 A number of shakeups are expected at ABC-TV. Britain's pop singer Tom Jones, for instance, will begin a weekly hour on the network at midseason.
 And it is pretty well taken for granted that the highly successful "Peyton Place" is running out its last season on the network. From then on, it will probably make enormous sums of money in reruns with the more than 500 episodes it has on

BE PREPARED
MONTREAL (UPI)—The first snow of the season fell here last week, and winter's harbinger had a clear message from someone.
 Over the weekend, thieves entered the featherweight aluminum company on St. Lawrence Boulevard and made off with a truckload of snowmobiles worth an estimated $10,000.

Some people find our bumpers a great disappointment.
 Small wonder. Putting a dent in an Endura bumper section, with anything from a ten-pound sledge to Sadie's bumbershoot, is like trying to stop an elephant with a cap gun. There's just no way.
 You see, Endura is a remarkable substance that looks like ordinary painted sheet steel, but isn't. So instead of dinging up like metal, it "gives" and then springs back. What's more, the color-matched finish is impregnated, not just laid on. So it resists cracking, peeling, fading... all those things that drive most car owners up the wall.
 Where do you find these unbeatable, unrustable bumpers? At your local authorized Pontiac dealer's, of course. On any Bonneville, Executive, Catalina or GTO.
 As long as you don't waste a lot of your valuable time trying to ding one, you won't be disappointed.
