Equipment Here

A second project involving Vietnam has been kicked off here, this one to support the men in the field.

Earlier this week, it was announced that a project had been undertaken to provide clothing for children (babies) in a Vietnamese orphanage. The project was the result of a plea from a Pampa soldier for aid for the children.

Television

By RICK DU BROW HOLLYWOOD (UPI)-Early prime time, which used to have the reputation of being the children's hour of television, can hardly lay claim to that function any more.

One reason is that sponsors learned that high ratings from children too young to have real buying power are strictly window dressing in network

At any rate, consider-day by day-the first hour of prime time on three commercial networks this season:

On Mondays, there is "The About 10 years ago Cox saw Avengers," a sophisticated Bria show by a man who billed tish spy series. And there is himself as "the fastest gun "Gunsmoke," whose excellent reputation results in part from

There is also "I Dream of Jeannie," which can pass as pretty much kid stuff. And there is "Rowan and Martin's various age groups but is very racy and suggestive for small-

Jerry Lewis Appeals

On Tuesday, "The Mod Squad" is an action-packed series about youths that work undercover for the police, and appeals basically to mature youngsters and adults. "Lancer" is a western. And, the Jerry Lewis show probably is the most definitely oriented of the three toward children. Wednesdays offer "The Virginian," another western, and "Here Come the Brides," a frontier adventure-comedy wives and other females. There Thursdays have "Daniel Boone," a frontier piece that ha always had pull with the young audience, and "Blondie." which should appeal to children wih its comic strip flavor. There are also "The Flying Nun" and "The Ugliest Girl in which concerns a young man who dresses in female clothing much of the time when he is mistaken for a famous model in London. The can afford to stay in England On Fridays, there is "The High Chaparral," a rugged western. Opposite this is "The Wild Wild West," which is also hardly kid stuff, unless you're talking about quality. And there is "Operation: Entertainment," a variety show that visits servicemen in bases around the nation. On Saturdays, youngsters can choose among "Adam-2" a police show; "Get Smart"; The Jackie Gleason series, "The Newlywed Game" and Dating Game."

Sundays, the children do have field asy. They can watch the Walt Disney hour, or "Gentle Ben," or the new science-firtion series aimed at them, "Land of the Giants." And for those a little older, there are also the Ed Sullivan Show and "The

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capa-

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license, nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself. No more, no less. It is thus consistant with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

On Three To Be Watched By RAY CROMEY

Here's Dope

Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON (NEA) - Pecause there's talk they'll attempt a new "confrontation" on election day, now is a good time to jot down a few notes about three top strategists of the Chicago youth riots.

DAVID DELLINGER, 53, was born at Wakefield, Mass. October, 1940, he refused to register for the draft. He balked even at registering himself as a conscientious objector.

As a result, Dellinger was indicted by a New York grand day in prison.
