TEX'S TOPICS BY TEX DE WEESE

This talk of hot weather grows a bit ridiculous after one has spent some time with T. E. Johnson, the Amarillo scrivener...

Some day, if his invitation still holds, we plan to get our fur mittens and overshoes out of the moth-balls and maybe stick our nose 15 or 20 degrees in a some of that 300 Mr. Johnson tells about.

We chewed the fat, too, yesterday with Old Tack, the human weather vane of the Panhandle. Those north-east by southwest eyes in that half-tone at the head of his column are a trifle misleading.

Yesterday gave us our second glimpse of the Pampa suburb since coming to these Panhandle Plains, and the first chance to get around the town some.

We went yesterday thinking that about the only peculiarity we could find in them is that they live in Amarillo instead of Pampa.

Be that as it may, Pampa and Amarillo have much in common. There are times when Pampa needs Amarillo and there are equally many times when Amarillo needs Pampa.

Of course, football is another thing. Being an ardent football fan, we know doggone well we shall push, pull and shove when the time comes in hope of seeing the Golden Sandies grooving in the dust at the feet of Pampa's high school griders.

Football and inter-city relationships are two distinctly separate units. One is a lot of clean fun and sportmanship, and the other, it appears to me, is a duty the citizens of each community owe to citizens of the other for the general welfare of both.

One slip of the tongue came as we walked along an Amarillo street and remarked that we thought their new postoffice was pretty nice. We were told that what we were looking at was the old postoffice, and until we had seen the new one they plan to build over where we hadn't seen anything yet, so help you WPA.

We dropped into an Amarillo restaurant (cafe to you) and ordered one of our favorite fruits—a hamburger sandwich—and were sorely disappointed to see it listed on the menu as "hamburger," clearly indicating that there was a mistake behind the counter or in the kitchen somewhere.

If Amarillo is to hold a fixed place in our hearts, she must produce a hamburger that is a hamburger. We're just uncouth enough to resent a rebuff in the shape of potato chips and a lot of other stuff, foreign to the issue, that comes out of these Panhandle kitchens when you go in and say squarely to the pretty girls that what you really want is a hamburger.

It isn't that we have the slightest intention of being snippy or uppity about the thing—rather, it's just because we're pernickety to the "nth" degree about our hamburger sandwich. If we could find the man who put it together we'd start a popular subscription to build a monument to his flair for lasty originality.

An interesting chap we met in Amarillo is radioer Ray Hollingsworth, who has an idea he's working on now that should turn out to be a pip.

CHECK WILL BE MADE ON GRAND JURY COMPLAINT

Police Await Legal Advice on Closing At Midnight

Expected reverberations from the Gray county grand jury report which assailed alleged law violations in city and county failed to materialize today.

Both city and county enforcement agencies indicated they planned to check complaints of alleged infractions of the law and to prosecute where the complaints were supported by sufficient evidence.

Neither Police Chief Art Hurst nor Sheriff Earl Talley made any comment on the jury's action. City Manager C. L. Stine discussed the matter with the police chief this forenoon.

Indications were that county and district attorneys' offices would be requested to supply police with detailed information relative to Saturday midnight closing of dance halls in the city and county.

Officers were called upon in the grand jury report to "see that public dance halls, beer bars and liquor stores be closed, as the law provides, at midnight each Saturday and remain closed until 7 o'clock Monday morning."

"This can and must be done," the juror's report added. The grand jury also recommended that "enforcement officers stop the operation of all slot machines and gambling devices of any and all description."

TROOPS SHOT DOWN IN PASS AT ZARAGOZA

GOVERNMENT GARRISON AT VALENCIA HAS REVOLTED

PERPIGNAN, France, July 30 (AP)—Spanish mountaineers reported here today that more than 2,000 loyal troops were killed when they were ambushed in the hills outside of Zaragoza by the rebel army.

The mountaineers reported that 4,000 or 5,000 men believed to be under the command of Perez Farras, fled headlong after the surprise attack and a tentative but futile effort to meet the assault.

The other Loyalist armies marching on Zaragoza, they added, were forced to fall back nearly 60 kilometers along the Ebro river in order to keep in line with the remnants of the defeated column.

The mountaineers, who said they had marched with Loyalist forces on Zaragoza in an advance which the government hoped would wipe out the town as a rebel stronghold in northeastern Spain, told French officials that at the border village of Bagneres de Lechon, one of the main Loyalist columns was surrounded and mowed down by Fascist machine guns.

The ambush took place, they related, in a pass about 40 kilometers outside of Zaragoza. The rebels had mounted machine guns on the hills at either side of the pass, and as the Loyalist troops marched through the insurrectionists commanding the pass let go their fire.

Facist insurrectionists announced the revolt of the government garrison at Valencia, Mediterranean Spanish seaport, today even before American troops had moved toward that city to escape from revolt-torn Spain.

Thirty Americans already are in Valencia, nine entrained at the capital city today for the seaport and 75 more refugees were scheduled to leave for America tonight. Tonight's contingent includes both American and other nationals.

The cruiser, Quincy, of the United States fleet intended to pick them up. The report of the revolt in Valencia, issued from the insurgent radio station in Seville. It was not confirmed.

A battle by both ground troops and airplanes for possession of the strategic city of Zaragoza in the rebel area of northeast Spain was launched by the Loyalist government today as a report circulated in Paris that France might aid in crushing Spain's 13-day revolt.

In the Guadarrama mountains, the passes of which are gateways to Madrid, the government announced Loyalist forces were hurling Fascist insurgents back to Avila and Segovia. French senators said Premier Leon Blum told the foreign affairs committee France might be forced to aid the Madrid Loyalist regime with arms to prevent being "surrounded by dictatorships."

Blum was quoted, however, as saying that the Spanish government supplied the Spanish government so far. Nine more Americans, fleeing revolt-torn Spain, left Madrid for the port of Valencia. Other foreigners, including at least 75 Americans, planned to leave tonight.

At the same time, the insurgent radio station in Seville announced the garrison at Valencia had revolted and gone over to the rebels. To bolster its defense forces, the government confiscated its merchant marine. Authorities ordered all military and civil fliers not yet on the ground to land.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy tonight and Friday except showers in extreme west portion tonight.

Forest Dedicated To Joyce Kilmer

ROBBINSVILLE, N. C. July 30 (AP)—World war veterans and friends gathered today to dedicate a forest of towering virgin growth to Joyce Kilmer, the poet who wrote: "Poems are made by fools like me, But only God can make a tree."

The 3,840-acre tract near here will be known as the Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest. The poet died 18 years ago today on the battlefields of France.

President Roosevelt sent a message saying: "It is particularly fitting that a poet who will always be remembered in the tribute he embodies in 'Trees' should find this living monument."

"Thus his memory is forever honored and one of nature's masterpieces is set aside to be preserved for the enjoyment of generations yet unborn."

Chance For PWA Loan For Tanks Appears Slight

Policy May Deny Sending Money To Pampa

Government assistance through the medium of a federal PWA grant to pay 45 per cent of the cost of proposed water storage tanks for Pampa was threatened today, following news that Texas had received none of the money allocated for projects under the new Public Works Administration program because of a lack of certified skilled relief labor for the jobs.

City Manager C. L. Stine today filled out and mailed to PWA officials at Fort Worth the city's application for a grant to pay 45 per cent of the cost of erecting two 55,000-baller steel storage tanks here. The total cost would approximate $17,000, of which amount WPA would pay $7,500.

Mr. Stine said he conferred by long distance telephone yesterday with Julian Montgomery, Texas PWA director at Fort Worth, and that Mr. Montgomery advised that chances for the local grant appeared slim unless direct contact was made with Washington PWA officials to cite dire need for the project.

The city manager said that the failure of Texas to get a "cut" of the new federal funds would in no way hamper other federal projects for which grants and loans already have been made.

State Director Montgomery's statement said: "The state must forego the construction of all permanent PWA or similar located WPA projects that require skilled labor."

The young and pretty divorcee left the courthouse; the divorce had been granted. Her husband had not appeared to contest it. Well, she said to her companion, she had showed him. He thought I wouldn't go through with it but I did. She looked down at the little girl holding her hand. And he did not get her either. She waited at the red light to cross the street. A new car swished by. The siren sounded loudly and she looked up. In the front seat was her ex-husband, and beside him was another woman. He laughed in his ex-wife's face. Tears blinded her eyes as she crossed the street. I'll hate him even if it kills me, she said, bitterly.

Empire Trend in Fall Silhouette Is Fashion Note

By MARY ELIZABETH PLUMMER, Associated Press Staff Writer.

NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—Smaller waistlines, broader shoulders, fuller skirts a shade shorter, and richer colors—these are the main points in the fall clothes picture for American women.

Go into Louse Barnes Gallagher's tailored street wear salon—and you will also see rich furs on fall suits of black, "rose-rust," green, brown and gray mottled woolen.

Black is the leading color.

Next, and it is hard to tell which of these leads, come the rusts, greens and browns. Quite a bit of Oxford gray, too, and blues that lean toward gray or green.

The first thing one notices in the fall collections is the empire silhouette trend—a fitted diaphragm line and a full curve above. It will be a great season for the Mae West type of figure that has been on a two months' diet.

In simplicity and femininity lies the appeal of the new clothes. They aren't fussy. Although sleeves have "interest" at the top, the squared shoulder-line is clean-cut, not exaggerated.

There are not low necks for daytime. Dame Fashion decrees, "the base of the throat is the limit."

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking acids and wastes out of the blood. A healthy person should pass about 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than a pounds of waste matter.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, waste stays in the body and may become poisonous. It may start nagging backaches, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't let it lay you up.

Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills—used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get Doan's Pills.

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD TO OPEN CAMP SATURDAY

Ernest Thompson To Command New Regiment

CAMP HULEN, July 30. (AP)—Advance detachments of the Thirty-Sixth Division, Texas National Guard, the nation's largest military organization which trains annually as a unit, arrived here today for the opening Saturday of the two weeks' field exercises.

For the first time since the division returned from France a new commanding officer will be in charge. Major General George P. Rains, the new commander, succeeded Maj. General John A. Hulen of Fort Worth, last fall. General Rains will serve only until September when, as in the case of General Hulen, the army retirement regulations will remove him on account of age. General Rains will arrive Saturday with the main body of the 7,500 officers and enlisted men composing the division. Training activities will begin even before the guardsmen reach camp, as more than 2,500 of the personnel will move by truck from their home stations under conditions simulating war time movements under the new motorization plans of the army. Included in the units traveling to the camp in motor vehicles will be two new organizations, the 133rd heavy artillery and the 111th quartermaster regiment. Col. Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo, chairman of the Railroad Commission, will command the new quartermaster regiment which was created from the former division trains. Col. Raymond Phelps of San Antonio commands the new heavy artillery regiment. In the division air service this year will be another prominent figure in Texas politics, Captain William McCraw of Dallas, attorney general of Texas.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, July 30. (AP)—Extensive buying in selected aviation issues brought a rallying turn to today's stock market with gains among the favorites ranging from fraction to 2 or more points. The aircrafts were followed by the steels, alcohol, amusements and specialties. There were a few soft spots, however, and the volume was smaller than recently. Transfers were around 1,600,000 shares. The close was steady.

Ferguson Will Abandon Forum

AUSTIN, July 30. (AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, who has figured in Texas politics for more than 20 years, today announced suspension of publication of the weekly Ferguson Forum. "After 19 years of interesting and experimental discussion, I have decided that the Forum should cease from its labors and suspend publication," Ferguson said. "While I take this action with some degree of regret, I feel that I have earned a vacation and I believe the people are willing to let me have it. "It may be that at some future time I will feel that the Forum is needed in the discussion of public questions and if such a condition arises, the people can be depended upon to ask that I resume publication of the Forum."

Cooler Weather Visits Panhandle

The weatherman turned down the heat a little in Pampa today and at 11 a. m. the mercury stood at 86 degrees, just ten degrees below the July average of 96 for that hour of the day. At 2 o'clock this afternoon it was 89, also ten degrees lower than at the same hour yesterday. Although Pampa received none of it, the cooler weather is attributed somewhat to dotted rainfall thru the Panhandle sector yesterday afternoon. Thunderheads in the distance steered clear of Pampa but resulted in slight precipitation as near as White Deer in this vicinity.

Bones of Heroes May Be Placed In Silver Urn

SAN ANTONIO, July 30. (AP)—Plans for honoring and reinterring the bones of three heroes of the Alamo, found under the altar of San Fernando cathedral, will await the return of Archbishop Arthur J. Drozsaerts. He was expected back in San Antonio in ten days. Meanwhile, the bones were placed in a sealed container which rests at a secret spot in the cathedral. The superintendent of San Fernando cemetery said the bones would likely be placed in a silver urn and placed in some niche in the cathedral. The bones were those of three of the Alamo defenders during the bloody days from February 23 to March 6, 1836. Some of the bones of a fourth man also were believed to have been located. Some bits of fabric and what appeared to have been an officer's epaulette also were discovered. Mrs. L. E. Burden entered Pampa-Jarratt hospital yesterday afternoon. Miss Fern Knutson of Shamrock visited Miss Odessa Winkler Tuesday.

Collier's Wife Not Killed in Auto Accident

TULSA, Okla., July 30. (AP)—The plane bearing W. S. Collier, Tulsa airport operator injured in an automobile accident at Lubbock Tex., in which Miss Ava Courtney of Tulsa was killed, was held up at Ardmore, Okla., this morning by bad weather. Collier was en route to Tulsa to inform Miss Courtney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Courtney, who live near Inola, 40 miles southeast of here, of their daughter's death. At first Collier identified the young woman as his wife, Barbara, but last night said he was "in a flat spin" as the result of the accident and could not remember what he told authorities. Miss Courtney was employed as a stenographer and secretary at the Wilcox Oil Co. here for 12 years. She left a week ago to spend her vacation with relatives in Texas. Collier said he had been on a fishing trip on the Texas coast and on his return toward home had stopped at Abilene to pick up Miss Courtney, a friend of the family.

Negro Buries His $1,500, Loses It

JASPER, July 30. (AP)—Will Land Williams, 60-year-old Negro, suffering from shock over loss of $1,500, his life savings, arose from a sick bed today to return to work. The money, all in gold, was missed Saturday from his burial place near the mail box in front of his farm home west of here. Williams saved the money while a contractor in timber work 35 years ago and, placing it in a cast iron wagon, hauled it to a hole in the ground 15 years ago. He said he never told anyone about the gold. He believes some person with a "mineral rod" discovered it.

Railway Workers At Lubbock Enjoy 'Christmas Day'

LUBBOCK, July 30. (AP)—Today may be July 30 on the calendar, but for six Santa Fe railway employees here and at Slaton it is "Christmas day." The trainmen have had a dispute with the company over a period of five or six years, relative to their "right" for switching under a contract. The dispute went into arbitration and the decision favored the employees. This morning six checks, amounting to approximately $11,800 were received here and distributed.

As the British government began an urgent investigation to determine whether British and American banks and factories had been confiscated in Spain, the Ford Motor Co. said it had received a report its factory at Barcelona had been occupied for an unknown purpose. Spanish rebels in the northern sector contiguous to Bayonne, French border point, apparently were waiting for reinforcements from Pamplona before attempting to regain lost positions. From Perpignan, France, came a report that in Barcelona the relations between Fascists and the provincial government were becoming increasingly strained. Lawlessness and violence were the rule there. Loyalist forces, victorious in the desperate struggle for control of the summer resort of San Sebastian, set up a new provincial government. Republican forces were reported to have recaptured Tolosa, south of San Sebastian, which rebels had held for two days.

IT CAN'T BE HELPED

In the early part of a presidential election year there is a temptation to be sensible about Maine, which votes for its U. S. representatives and senators next Sept. 14.

There is demonstrable need for being sensible about Maine; i. e., the saying that "as Maine goes, so goes the nation." A man has written a book proving conclusively that Maine has nothing to do with the way the nation goes, that it's all propaganda and highly misleading.

Already, though, the Republicans, who think they have the edge in Maine this year, are getting their lips rounded to intone the ancient saying when and if the Pine Tree state swings back into line. What care they about statisticians, research and the evils of claiming something which, in a strict sense, isn't really true?

The Democrats, if they had a good, dependable northern state like Maine, wouldn't be bashful about using it for all it was worth. In fact, they did make the most of it in 1932 and 1934 when Maine so far forgot itself as to overlook its obligation to the Republican party.

In short, it can't be helped. Right or wrong, the tradition exists. Fair or unfair, some millions of Republicans fully intend to take a long breath next September 15 and say, "As Maine goes, so goes the nation"—unless Maine happens to go the wrong way. In that case the Democrats will be glad to join in on the chorus.

TEST BEFORE RELEASE

Henceforth, prisoners seeking parole from Michigan prisons must pass a systematic mental examination before being released to society.

"Only a trained psychiatrist can weed out the borderline cases," says Joseph C. Armstrong, state pardon and parole commissioner. "These cases usually slip by the ordinary penologist and become a hazard to the outside world."

Commissioner Armstrong knows what he's talking about, because Michigan dismissed its former psychiatrist for reasons of economy and discovered that this had been a rather short-sighted move. The problem of paroled men who went bad after release became increasingly worse.

The Michigan experience, therefore, is something for other states to bear in mind.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON.—No man has ever been denied the presidency because of his uncle's occupation.

The effort of Pennsylvania Democrats to strike at Gov. Alf Landon by publicizing the fact that his uncle, William T. Mossman, is a lobbyist for the anti-labor Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation can hardly be expected to switch many votes.

Even if it is proved, as charged, that Mossman worked effectively against relief and social security measures in the Pennsylvania legislature, no fair-minded person will blame the Kansas governor for that.

But the attack is a prelude, nevertheless, to a concerted New Deal effort to picture Landon as a pal or tool of the "big interests."

One phase of this attempt will come in connection with Landon's anticipated early campaign speech at his birthplace, West Middlesex, Mercer county, Pa.

Mercer county is in the congressional district of Congressman Dennis J. Driscoll, who, in the famous "Elmer" incident, first revealed that electric power companies were causing bales of fake telegrams to be sent to Congress against the Wheeler-Rayburn holding company bill.

Power companies have joined with Joe Grundy's Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association in the effort to beat Driscoll this year and Democrats will use the expected Landon rally to try to tie the Republican candidate in with the power interests and the effort to lick Driscoll.

Perhaps Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper is more helpful to the president than the other cabinet members. Or perhaps not.

Cabinet members and others have been making suggestions or recommendations for membership on the Maritime Authority, whose job will be to build up and supervise the American merchant marine. Hardly anyone suggested more than five names.

But Uncle Dan submitted 118 names! Whether any of them were underlined or asterisked isn't known. But it's understood that the secretary had told quite a number of people that he would be glad to mention them to the president for such a job and he seems to have kept his promises.

Evidence of the bitterness of internal dissension in organized labor was provided during the recently settled strike of the United Electrical and Radio Workers, a new industrial union, at the RCA plant in Camden, N. J.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, a craft union represented on the A. F. of L. executive council, had at least 30 representatives in Camden, seeking to break the strike.

Just before the walkout, President William Green of the A. F. of L. telephoned David Sarnoff of RCA and urged him to make no agreement with the strikers.

John L. Lewis and the Committee for Industrial Organization backed the UERW secretly, but not openly, preferring not to get into a fight with the IBEW while under charges of "dual unionism." But at the end Lewis went to Camden and negotiated a settlement for the strikers.

A recent rumor that Louis received a hypodermic in his arm before his recent fight, most people thought his plight resulted from Schmeling ether.

An easterner, who sold shoes to correct flat feet, tried to sell a pair to a cop, and was arrested, which shows you can't go around insulting people.

Europe, with its turmoil, luckily is far away. But the dread thought dawns that the Queen Mary might arrive here and find she forgot to cast off.

A New York women's union recently started a "sit down" strike. No unpleasantness resulted, however, until one of the members left the room.

Leader of a Russian eclipse expedition said, sourly, "We went 10,000 miles to see a rainstorm." If he took pictures of it, a midwest tour might be profitable.

THERE IS A STAR, KNOWN ONLY AS "A.C.+70° 8247." THAT IS COMPOSED OF MATERIAL SO HEAVY THAT A SMALL PINCH OF IT, IF DROPPED ON A MAN, WOULD CRUSH HIM!

THE STAR referred to above is made up of matter so dense that one cubic inch of it would weigh about 620 tons. It is only a small star, not more than half as large as the earth, and is of the 30th magnitude, far too faint to be seen with the naked eye.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK.—The gravity of the waiter situation in New York's restaurants and roof gardens at the moment recalls the lugubrious wall set forth by M. Abner Glib, that most vociferous roue of the sidewalk cafes, who wants to know just what we are going to do about it.

This sad lament, not to be taken too seriously, concerns the customers who will take anything, including long minutes because our American scheme of things has failed to devise adequate means of attracting the attention of those lackadaisical waiters who drift aimlessly about taking note of everything except the frantic signals of hungry patrons.

"In my opinion," suggested the good Abner (although nobody asked his opinion), "we should take a tip from the South Americans, who are really adept at commanding good service. There's the Argentine, for instance. In Buenos Aires nobody shouts 'Hey waiter!' Everybody else is shouting and talking to, and that would be useless competition. Down there they catch the waiter's ear with a sharply-emitted sibilant 'Psssssst!' The beauty of this is that it silthers through conversation like a well-aimed arrow, including the lackey unware and bring him to your table pronto. It's the accepted pampas custom and a good trick to learn."

"Now take Tahiti, Shanghai or Tokyo," continued Professor Glib, "and you'll find the waiter's attention is held by a sharp clasp-like sound and a fetches the waiters running. Doesn't that seem more sensible than shouting your head off or squandering a half hour on mental telepathy?"

"Of course the clasp would be no good in New York. The other guests would think you were applauding, to applaud, too. We've got to originate something new, something essentially American."

"Let me illustrate how desperate the situation really is. The other night it was 37 minutes before I succeeded in attracting any attention. Waiters pass me singly and in pairs, but none caught my frantic appeal. I finally solved the immediate problem by tripping one up and hissing an order in his ear before he had a chance to demand an explanation. That he challenged me to a duel later is beside the point. After slipping me an aperitif, I sneaked out a side door and have been in trouble ever since. In sneaking out I forgot the matter of the check and the first thing I knew the gendarmes had me for trying to run out on the house."

As a matter of fact, Dr. Glib is right; the town ought to work out some sort of agreement with the cafe owners that will assure at least a minimum of service—or the bars should be operated on a cafeteria basis so that the customers could, after slipping me an aperitif, I sneaked out a side door and have been in trouble ever since. In sneaking out I forgot the matter of the check and the first thing I knew the gendarmes had me for trying to run out on the house."

HOW'S your HEALTH

in general the prevention of kidney stone formation is favored by good personal hygiene, which includes eating moderately, attention to the bowels, regular exercise, and drinking of enough water. Kidney stone formation is most common in the early and later periods of life. Men are more frequently affected than women, and sedentary occupations seem to predispose to stone formation.

In recent years much progress has been made in the art of diagnosing the presence of stones in the urinary system. X-rays of the stones propose formation, though scattered over different parts of the bioge. Hot climates, especially in the tropics, are a source of appreciable amounts of body fluids through perspiration, effect a concentration of urine and appear thus to favor stone formation. Certain localities, such as southern Florida and southern California, are called stone areas because of the prevalence among the inhabitants of kidney stones.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD.—Frank McHugh looks at approaching "stardom" with his customary candor. "To the comedian has been presented a role once intended for Joe E. Brown and since sought by Samuel Goldwyn for Eddie Cantor without success."

Comedian Brown has terminated his long association with Warner Brothers, leaving "Three Men on a Horse" in the welcoming arms of Comedian McHugh.

And Comedian McHugh, although pleased as Punch, is not unduly excited. He considers the role of the greeting-card gentleman with a penchant for horseshoe luck "just the best part I've had—not a startling role."

Has No Star Tricks "I don't believe in this stalling stuff, anyway," he said. "I can't reach down in my bag now and pull out a bunch of stalling tricks, because I haven't any. I'm no different now than I was six years ago—and after this picture I expect I'll be used again in lesser parts. That's all right with me, too. I don't believe in sitting around waiting for something 'important enough' to come along. If I did I'd be likely not to work."

And I'm thankful for this: They're not making it a starring picture in the sense that one actor has to carry the load. They're putting almost everybody in the picture, and two or three of the roles are as good as mine."

"Almost everybody" includes Joan Blondell, Guy Kibbe, Allen Jenkins, and other tried-and-true Warnerites with whom McHugh has tramped in parts of varying importance during his five years in Hollywood.

Blood Now Perfumed "Sweet blood," commented the makeup man as he applied a pasty stream of it to the face of Gordon Elliott, actor. "See? Smell it."

He was right. The "blood" they use on movie wounds now is delicately perfumed. But more interesting was the fact that the makeup man was Arthur Stone, a veteran comedian whose experience includes repertory, stage productions, silent and talking pictures.

He learned make-up in those days when actors did it themselves. He took it up for movies when he could not find a dressmaker for picture assignments—and this despite that his calls to act are still by no means few. His latest acting was in "Fury," but when he is busy at his second profession he lets the roles go by.

"I'm happy anywhere in the production end of show business," he says. "Working on the sets, where they're doing things, is what I like. I like to keep busy."

And he looked it—happy, healthy, interested.

Second Battle of San Jacinto Will Not Take Place

HOUSTON, July 29 (AP)—Because Texas and Mexico are very friendly, the sham "second battle of San Jacinto" will not be fought.

Col. E. A. Eversberg, commander of the 141st infantry, announced the proposed engagement of 2,500 national guardsmen of the 36th division would not take place August 9 as part of Houston Centennial celebration.

He said it was believed re-enactment of the battle "might be injurious to diplomatic and business relations with Mexico."

Tom Connally to Visit Centennial

DALLAS, July 30 (AP)—Centennial officials prepared a welcome for United States Senator Tom Connally on his first visit today to the exposition.

His part of the day's program included introducing Louis J. Taber of Columbus, O., master of the National Orange, to a farm day audience. Taber was listed for a talk on recovery of agriculture.

Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Kansas contributed entries in a hog-calling contest and 20 farm girls were to try their hand in a milking contest. Yesterday's attendance was 29,509.

thing but good, and the result of such a line of development is bound to produce a cipher. Such a child should be encouraged to rebel, should have the routine of his daily life frequently broken, his habits interfered with. If in spite of trials he is good, all right. He can then go far. But it is well to be sure that he is not merely following the line of least resistance.

TEN SOFTBALL TEAMS OF AREA HAVE ALREADY ENTERED AUGUST TOURNEY

NIGHT GAMES ARE DESIRED BY AMARILLO

FOUR CLUBS LIKELY TO ENTER FROM THAT CITY

Eight softball teams from Pampa and two from Canadian have already entered the Panhandle tournament which will start here Aug. 10, the winners to enter the state tournament at Fort Worth in September as the official representatives of this district.

Four teams from Amarillo are also likely entries, it was indicated in a letter received yesterday by Jack Kreisinger, district commissioner and tournament director. The Amarillo teams will play if games can be arranged at night, their managers said, and the local committee expects to make this possible.

Coming from Canadian are the Wildcats, men's team, and the Canadian Lassies.

Pampa entries include two girls' teams, the Phillips Flyers and the Pampa Norge Sluggers, as well as the Voss, Skelly Oilers, Phillips 66, Texaco, Baptists, and King Oil in the men's division.

One girls' team and one men's will be certified as Panhandle champions as a result of tournament play, and will be eligible to enter the state tourney at Fort Worth and play for the right to go to a national tournament in Chicago later this fall.

Phillips Flyers Beat Jolly Ten In 34 to 2 Rout

In an abbreviated game on the Sun diamond yesterday afternoon, the Phillips Flyers swamped the Jolly Ten 34 to 2. Only five innings were played by the two women's softball teams.

Batteries for Phillips were Smith and Fisher, for the Jolly Ten, Lake and Kelly, Garrison, Abernathy, and Smith hit home runs to pile the score for the Flyers.

TEXAS SPORT NOTES

DALLAS, July 30.—Golf booster Arthur Pfeil of San Antonio, who made the trip to the national public links tourney with San Antonio's four man team, says Texas will be awarded either the national amateur, national women's or national P. G. A. trophy in 1937.

Pfeil quoted R. Arthur Wood, public links representative on the U. S. G. A. committee, as his source of information. Wood advised Pfeil the tournament committee had decided to award one of the three mentioned tournaments to Texas and that the particular event would be named at a November meeting.

Dallas and San Antonio were listed as the most likely spots for the event. Dallas, offered the national amateur last year, turned it down. In San Antonio has the 1937 women's trans-Mississippi scheduled.

Emmett Hussey, once a Greenville high football great who later enrolled at Rice Institute and Northwestern university, lies critically ill in a Chicago hospital.

Another high school grid team, Paris, will do its training on foreign grounds. Coach Emmett Wishard will take his Wildcats into the Oklahoma hills the last week of August for a ten-day period.

The predicted breaking-up of the Oklahoma City club is taking place. Pitchers Fred Stely, Fred Marleau and Floyd Newkirk have gone, as well as Third Baseman Bilgere.

Bannie Baugh, Texas Christian's football passing expert, is growing a beard. All for a $10 wager. The story goes he will get $20 monthly if he allows the hirsute adornment to remain during the football season.

Warlock, Pezantine second baseman, picked up five straight singles and a double in six trips to the plate recently.

Billy Edwards, the Kansas City mat terror who almost had his career cut short in an automobile accident, is back in the ring. He appeared in Waco and acted as mean as ever in pinning Roughhouse Nelson.

Judy Truelson, another Texas Christian lineman, has been named assistant coach at Riverside high, Fort Worth. And Darnell Lester, all-America center who turned down that job, is with Fort Worth's chamber of commerce.

The Roosevelt raceway on Long Island will have a public announcing system mounted on a 75-foot tower. Nineteen sound projectors will broadcast information to the crowds.

2ND DIVISION TEXAS LEAGUE CLUBS BEATEN

CURT FULLERTON WINS 14TH GAME OF SEASON

By The Associated Press
Today's games:
Galveston at Dallas (night).
San Antonio at Tulsa (night).
Houston at Fort Worth (night).
Only games scheduled.

Second division clubs of the Texas league shared a common fate—all four were defeated last night.

Curt Fullerton turned in his fourteenth victory of the season for the league-leading Dallas Steers in defeating Galveston, 3 to 2. Fullerton allowed 11 hits but was unyielding in the tight spots.

Houston's second place Buffs made 18 hits to defeat the Fort Worth Cats, 11 to 4. The Panthers, who got 14 hits, piled up a three-run lead in the third but it faded quickly.

Tulsa employed three double plays to check San Antonio rallies and behind Rood hurling, won, 5 to 2. Stein allowed the Missions eight hits and shaded Elton Walk-up in a pitchers' battle.

The slipping Beaumont Exporters rushed across three runs in the eighth to tie the score but Oklahoma City did the same things in its half and won, 8 to 5. Joe Bilgere's triple with two on won the game.

Sluggers to Play Jolly Ten Friday

After defeating the Stanolind women's team by scores of 12 to 4 Tuesday afternoon, the Jolly Ten softball aggregation has matched a game with the Pampa Norge Sluggers for Friday at 6 o'clock. It is to be played on the Sunoco diamond.

The game Tuesday afternoon was featured by a home run with three on, contributed by Robbins of the Jolly Ten.

Another girls' game has been matched for Saturday evening, when the Sluggers will meet the Lipscomb girls at Canadian. The Sluggers are practicing to enter the Canadian Softball tournament beginning next Tuesday, to compete with fast teams of the Panhandle and Western Oklahoma for a first prize of $25.

Joe Medwick of the St. Louis Cardinals won letters in baseball, basketball, football, track, and tennis, while attending Carver (N. J.) high school.

Gehrig's 32nd Homer Helps Yanks Win From Detroit

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The National League's eastern forces, a collective thorn in the side of Bill Terry and his New York Giants for years, have turned over a new leaf.

Instead of standing in the Giants' way—a habit that more than once has cost the New Yorkers the pennant—the eastern contingent is helping the Terry-men's current climb by making life miserable for the western leaders—the Cubs, Cardinals and Pirates.

In the past, the Phillies, Dodgers and Bees usually were easy pickings for the westerners, and then, up against the Giants, turned on the heat to whip the New Yorkers.

Things have been different since the last western trip. The combined eastern assault has shot the Giants securely into third place, dropped the Pirates into fourth and made the New Yorkers a red-hot threat to the Cards in second.

The Giants have been leading the way. Fresh from a two-out-of-three edge over the Cardinals, and three-out-of-four over the Reds, they belted out a 7-2 victory over the Cubs yesterday to pull up nearer the gas house gang and the league leaders.

Burgess Whitehead made four hits to lead the way as the Giants clubbed Bill Lee, who shut them out in their last two meetings.

The Dodgers handed the Cards their worst beating of the year, 22-7, in the opener of a doubleheader, and then fell short with a late-inning rally to lose the night-cap, 5-4. Ducky Medwick belted two homers to save the St. Louis club from complete humiliation.

The Bees also split, losing the nightcap to the Pirates, 10-4, after Danny McFadden's nine-hit pitching won the first game, 4-1.

The Yankees, with Lou Gehrig poling his 32nd homer of the season, slugged out a 13-3 triumph over Detroit.

Although the Yankee victory sank the Tigers out of the first division, it didn't stop the American league lead of "murderers' row" from being clipped to 8 1-2 games by the twin victory of the second place Indians over the Washington Senators, 11-6 and 6-5.

The Red Sox could not solve Elton Hoeset's slumps and wound up on the short end of a 9-3 count against the Browns.

The White Sox, with Sugar Cain pitching tight ball in the pinches against his old mates, sent the Athletics into the cellar and climbed back into fourth place themselves with a 7-5 edge.

More than a hundred of the American girls and boys—nearly one third of the team—have been given medical treatment. The track and field athletes had the biggest aches and pains, including 300-pound Jack Torrance's sore shoulder.

Already minus the 1932 gold medal winner, Eleanor Holm Jarrett, and lacking in Olympic experience, the women's aquatic team was handicapped further by the continued indispositions of Lenore Knight Wignard, who has a cold, and Ann Govevnik of Chisholm, Minn., who has an infected ear.

There was still time for recuperation, but the American mermaids may have the Dutch treat them the same way Japan did the American men four years ago.

The most serious hospital case among the rowers quartered at Grounau is Donald Bruce Hume, stroke of Washington's eight-oared crew. He has a severe chest cold.

San Francisco sport writers say they are swamped with telephone calls every day asking how many his Joe Di Maggio got. The calls come from Italian fans, who rarely ask about Frank Crosetti or Tony Lazzeri, the other New York Yankee Italian stars.

GOLFER WITH ONE ARM HITS HOLE-IN-ONE

TEXAS STILL LEADING NATION WITH 89 GOLF ACES

By PAUL MICKELSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—As proof that physical impediments can't keep a golfer from being good or lucky, Al Howard, a one-armed shotmaker from Washington, D. C., joined the Associated Press National Hole-in-One club, boosting its membership to 923.

Howard's ace was not scored on any "pitch and putt" hole either. It came on the 234-yard 13th at the Washington golf and country club, a poke that the finest professional golfers would be proud to make.

While Howard's ace was the oddest among 89 reported during the week, H. B. Hackelman of Waco, Tex., ran a good second for the human interest angle. Hackelman became the father of a baby daughter, and after seeing all was well, went out for a game to control himself. On the 13th hole, a 100 yarder, at the Waco Municipal course, Hackelman scored an ace to make it a perfect day.

Bill Healey of Atlanta collected the longest ace of the week—the 270-yard 8th at Capital City. Kenneth Ross of Arkansas City, Kan., scored one from 109 yards at the Arkansas City C. C., his ball hitting a player and bouncing into the cup.

Texas still led the inter-state parade with 89 as against 78 for Indiana and 71 for New York.

Marion Balch of San Angelo, who made an ace on the 11th hole, 200 yards of the Park Hill course, was among the new members of the club.

MORE THAN 100 ON OLYMPIC TEAM UNDER DOCTOR'S CARE

By ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor
BERLIN, July 30 (AP)—The American Olympic team will need an ambulance section unless developments on all training fronts take a quick turn for the better.

Most of the athletes' ailments were of a minor character, featuring an epidemic of colds and sore throats and muscles, but there was a watering eye for every salute in the Olympic village as the result of the wet, chilly weather.

More than a hundred of the American girls and boys—nearly one third of the team—have been given medical treatment. The track and field athletes had the biggest aches and pains, including 300-pound Jack Torrance's sore shoulder.

Little Road Runners Will Play At Borger on Sunday

Decisive Game Will Be Played in League

Come Sunday afternoon and the Little Road Runners will be playing the Borger Christians again on the Borger diamond, and the birds will be burning with a passion to avenge the only defeat they have suffered this season.

That beating was administered the last time the two clubs met. The Christians practically annihilated the fledglings in a 15 to 5 rout. The Little Road Runner weakness that day was behind the plate. Jack Cunningham let everything by one couldn't fence in a tub. It is likely that Harold Nicholson who has an impressive peg will catch for Paul Montgomery. Harold made his debut as backstop against the Peevees last week and looked good.

The Christians are the birds' biggest threat in the Junior Baseball league. The Borgans are undefeated in the second half of the season. The Little Road Runners are champions of the first half. The play-off will see the three high teams clash for the championship. These three teams will likely be the Borgans, Little Road Runners and Peevees, although Phillips and Hoover still have a good chance to nab third place.

While the Danciger kids are trying to whip Borger, the Peevees will go to Hoover, and Phillips will play LeFors.

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 30 (AP)—Sidney Wood of New York was back in the big time tennis picture today, but only after he had been "scared to death."

Discussing his victory over Frank Parker of Spring Lake, N. J., yesterday in the 49th annual Seabright invitation tournament, Wood said to Donald Budge: "I was scared to death that third set. It was the first time I was scared in tournament play since I was a kid."

Wood defeated Walker, Senior of Los Angeles and John H. Doeg of Rumson, N. J., before he eliminated Parker 6-4, 0-6, 8-6. Parker missed a passing shot at his own match point in the twelfth game, and Wood was never headed.

Wood faced John McDiarmid of Fort Worth, Texas, today. McDiarmid eliminated Barney Welsh of Rockeville, Md., 6-4, 6-2.

Wally Berger of the Braves says Claude Passeau, Philadelphia rookie hurler, is as fast as Dizzy Dean.

Wallace Doubts Desert Theory

WASHINGTON, July 30 (AP)—The theory that drouths may convert much of the farm belt into a desert was doubted by Secretary Wallace. Asked at a press conference yesterday whether he thought the area would become waste land, the secretary of agriculture smiled, shook his head negatively, but added:

"The dry years 1930, 1934 and 1936 make you want to keep your mind open."

Wallace indicated a hope that the "laws of chance" would bring sufficient moisture to prevent drouths in coming years.

"My grandfather once wrote newspaper editorials on a drouth," he said. "He pointed out that after the drouth of 1894 there had been good crops in 1895, 1896 and 1897."

Asked what long term plans could be made to offset drouth, Wallace said, "every normal granary" to store surplus crops during good years should be worked out.

He said the "drastic thing of the moment" was whether "there would be widespread rains in the corn belt" to save part of the present corn crop.

Unless there are rains, he said, the crop may be the smallest since 1881, falling short of the 1934 drouth crop of 1,386,000,000 bushels. A normal crop was 2,550,000,000 bushels, he said.

15 Lives Lost As Ship Sinks

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—The motor ship, "Material Service," was leaking badly shortly before it plunged under the wind-whipped waters of Lake Michigan with a loss of 15 lives, federal investigators were told.

A statement that the port bilge was filling rapidly came from Second Engineer Joseph Weber of Sturgeon Bay Wis. at a hearing yesterday before the commerce department's bureau of marine inspection.

He and six other men who survived the sinking of the 243-foot vessel were to testify further today.

'Ideal Man' Sought By Anita Louise

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 30 (AP)—Blonde Anita Louise, one of the most beautiful of the screen's "bachelor girls," is looking forward to marriage, she admitted today.

At the age of 19, she feels matrimony will mix successfully with her career—if the husband is carefully selected.

LAW CAREER FOR ALLRED

AUSTIN, July 30 (AP)—Governor Allred laughed today when asked what he would do two years from now, but intimated he would practice law. "After winning that election," he said, "I feel like the enthusiast at a camp meeting: I love everybody. However, I rather guess I will practice law."

Before Getting Overheated About the Candidates—

CANINE ATTORNEY

STIOUX FALLS, S. D. (AP)—Bill Hughes, charged with intoxication, appeared in court with his dog, "Prince." When Judge Ransom L. Gibbs found the defendant guilty, "Prince" emitted a pleading whine. "That dog's the best attorney you could ever get," Judge Gibbs told Hughes. "I'll fine you $25, but because of your dog I'll stay it until January 2."

RECORD VOTE CAST

DALLAS, July 30 (AP)—Texas Democrats cast a record vote of 1,019,518 in Saturday's primary. In 1934 a high of 1,000,426 was reached. The Texas Election Bureau announced about 15,000 ballots were outstanding. Results in the gubernatorial race were: Allred, 532,000; Brooks, 32,386; Fischer, 141,985; Hunter, 233,918; and Sanderford, 79,431. For railroad commissioner: Thompson, 441,987; Hardin, 160,254; Johnson, 108,492; and Morris, 166,582.

Sports experts at the Los Angeles Olympics in 1932 voted that the most finished exhibition of any sport was that given by India in field hockey.

PARTNERS WANTED

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Graduation from the University of Richmond here proved sadder than such occasions usually do for George Lacy, catcher, and Herb Hash, pitcher, on the university baseball team. Both were signed by the Boston Red Sox—but they were separated and sent to farms in different leagues. This marked the first time in four years that Hash had been called upon to pitch to anyone except Lacy, since during vacation periods the battery had remained intact on semi-pro teams.

TO FACE RING TEST

PITTSBURGH, July 30 (AP)—John Henry Lewis, 22-year-old world's light heavyweight champion, faces one of his severest ring tests tonight in meeting the hard punching 26-year-old Al Gainer, of New Haven, Conn., in a 12-round non-title bout. Promoters predicted the two Negroes would attract a $45,000 crowd, with Lewis' superior boxing ability making him a favorite over his left hooking, body punching opponent.

Forgery losses in 1928 were estimated at $200,000,000.

DIES OF INJURIES

DALLAS, July 29 (AP)—Mrs. M. C. McKeller, 40, of Gurdon, Ark., died here today of injuries suffered in an automobile accident yesterday which also claimed the life of Mrs. Annette Sargo, 45, of Big Springs. Mrs. Sargo and Mrs. McKeller were riding in a car which collided with one driven by a Dallas salesman, Leslie Houston, 27.

Daniel J. Ferris, the A. A. U. secretary-treasurer, has been with the organization 30 years.

Japs to Replace 4 Capital Ships

TOKYO, July 30 (AP)—Japan's 1937 naval program probably will provide for replacement of four capital ships, informed quarters predicted today.

Navy officials declined to comment on statements that the British government was preparing to lay the keels of two battleships next year and an assertion from Admiral William H. Standley that the United States probably would follow suit.

Expert opinion was represented as believing at least two Japanese ships would be started as part of the principal features of the "third replenishment program" of the navy. Officials are formulating the plan for a five year period with expenditures estimated at 2,000,000,000 yen ($580,000,000).

Vernacular newspaper naval writers scoffed at reports, current in London, that the Japanese navy was planning super-dreadnaughts larger than any afloat and carrying 18-inch guns.

Sixty-two runners signed for the 1936 Olympic 100-meter dash—the largest entry list for any track or field event. The marathon followed with 55.

Looks as if He's Earning His "Tip"

Twenty-four "redcaps" entered the quarter-mile "luggag race," a feature of "Railroad Week" at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas. Here the winner, Charley Langston, staggers across the tape to receive the biggest "tip" of his career as the winner.

King to Cruise Along Dalmatia

LONDON, July 30 (AP)—King Edward has chartered the yacht Nahlin for a three or four-week's cruise along the Dalmatian coast.

The King probably will join the yacht in about ten days at Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia. He will be accompanied by three or four friends.

The cruise will replace a projected vacation at Cannes, France, which was cancelled after the outbreak of the Spanish rebellion.

THERE'S A LIMIT

WICHITA, Kas. (AP)—Mrs. Margaret L. Jones told District Judge Robert Nesmith she met demands of matrimony until her husband, William L. Jones, set her to a new task—stuffing skunks. That she said, was too much and she wanted a divorce. She got it.

LOVE AFFAIRS OF PHYSICIAN ARE DETAILED

MARY ASTOR STRIKES BACK AT CHARGES OF EX-HUSBAND

LOS ANGELES, July 30. (AP)—A nursemaid's story of Dr. Franklin Thorpe's four post-marital loves countered today his charge that Mary Astor of the screen admitted having a lover named "George" before their divorce.

No sooner had the Hollywood physician filed an affidavit citing the actress' alleged confession in her diary of an illicit romance than nursemaid Nellie Richardson started her sensational disclosures from the witness stand.

Attendant to the Thorpes' four-year old daughter, Marilyn, Miss Richardson was called in Miss Astor's fight to regain the child's custody, surrendered to Dr. Thorpe when he divorced her 15 months ago. The divorce was obtained under threats to "scandalize" her, the actress asserted.

Supporting the physician's charges that his ex-wife was a person of "gross immoral conduct," his affidavit offered diary entries which Miss Astor allegedly wrote in February, 1935.

These read: "I love George and the least I can do is to save him from a messy scandal. Maybe I am being foolishly gallant, but I may also I can do no nice thing in my life."

"For the sake of peace and respite from all this emotionalism I told him (Dr. Thorpe) I would do nothing at present. My main reason for saying that is, quite honestly, I want to be able to see George for the rest of his stay here without being all upset—I want to have the last few times of completely enjoying him, then when he has left town I can start in again. I must go through with this."

"Later on I can move to have the custody (of Marilyn) changed over to me. It would be very hard for him (Dr. Thorpe) to bring up an old affair against me."

To show that Dr. Thorpe's conduct, since the divorce, has not been gauged to the best interests of the baby, Miss Astor's attorneys placed Miss Richardson on the stand in the second session.

In swift, concise strokes, Miss Astor's attorney brought her around to the assertedly amorous chapters of Dr. Thorpe's life. She peered through steel-rimmed spectacles at three intimate photographs, presented earlier, in which the surgeon and a full-blown blonde are locked in close embrace.

"Do you recognize that girl?" the attorney, Roland Rich Woolley asked.

"Yes, that's Norma Taylor."

"Was she ever at the house while Dr. Thorpe, the child, and you were living there?"

"Oh yes, several times. Many times, rather."

"Did she ever stay there all night?"

"She usually did," the nurse replied.

"When she stayed overnight, where did you find her in the morning?"

"In the bedroom upstairs."

"Was that the same bedroom Dr. Thorpe occupied?"

"Yes, it was."

Woolley then established the fact that this bedroom was connected to the one in which the baby slept by a short hallway.

"Now, how many beds were in the doctor's room?"

"There were two."

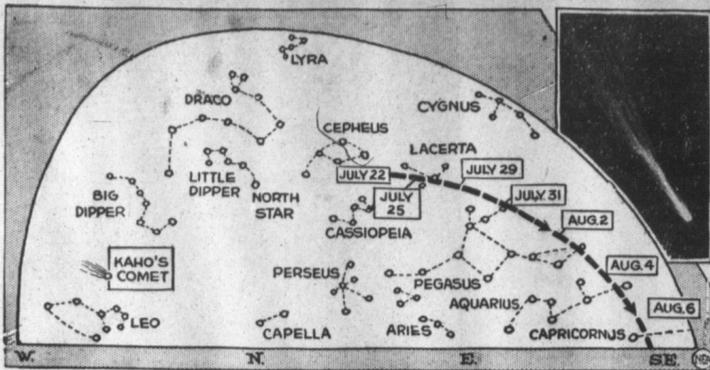

"And when you made them up in the morning, were they both rumpled?"

"No, only one was."

"Did you ever see Miss Taylor in bed?" Woolley continued.

"Yes."

How to Locate Two Comets Flashing Thru Sky

Everybody's looking up these nights in search of two comets that have come close to naked eye visibility. One is Kaho's comet, discovered recently by a Japanese astronomer of that name. The other is Pelletier's comet, located last May 15 by a young Ohio stargazer. If you have sharp eyes, you can see Pelletier's comet as it rushes through the eastern sky along the path shown on the star map above. Dates on the path give positions where the comet may be found at these times. It will be brightest and nearest the earth (close to 16 million miles) on Aug. 4. Nothing yet is known about Kaho's comet, but it can be seen, with the aid of field glasses or a small telescope, low in the western sky, just below the Big Dipper. This map is distorted slightly to include the sky area in which both comets appear. Hold the map before you, facing north, then turn toward the west for Kaho's comet and east and southeast for Pelletier's comet. Picture at upper right is that of another through the powerful telescope at Yerkes Observatory. (Copyright 1936, NEA Service, Inc.)

Distillers' Code Is Far-Reaching

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—One of the most far-reaching codes of ethics ever proposed in an industry for government regulation of its own advertising was recommended here recently to the national conference of state liquor administrators by Ernest C. Kennedy, of National Distillers Products Corporation.

Restrictions against illustrations in liquor advertising of women, youths, aviators, ships' officers, locomotive engineers, Army, Navy and Marine Corps officers, a ban against Sunday and radio advertising and injunctions against the use of such symbols of national holidays as Santa Claus, Easter rabbits, cherry trees, etc., were urged upon the State administrators by Mr. Kennedy for the entire alcoholic beverage industry from the distiller to the retailer, because he said the Federal Alcohol Administration in Washington lacked the authority to enforce such regulations whereas most of the state boards and commissions have such authority, or may obtain it.

"The code of advertising ethics we recommend," Mr. Kennedy said, "is one which we think will commend itself to all forward-looking students of the problems growing out of repeal. It is one we believe is so simple in its application and so well grounded in plain common sense, as to invite no fears that it involves censorship of the American press. No invasion of the freedom of the press is intended or implied. It is a recognition of the proprieties, not a gesture of reform nor a bi-product of fear."

The spokesman for National Distillers asserted that although he could urge the code of ethics only on behalf of his own company he felt that the great majority of distillers would subscribe to it enthusiastically were it applied fairly and equitably to the retailers and other purely intra-state dealers by state administrators, since the F. A. A. has no control over such distributors.

During the 1935-36 cold snap, 20 square miles of dead fish were sighted off the coast of North Carolina.

IRENE CASTLE BATTLES FOR DOGS' LIVES

SEEKS TO LIFT DRASTIC QUARANTINE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin, who turned from dancing stardom to assume the role of "champion of all dogs," called for a fight against the drastic quarantine on the animals today.

A rabies scare in Chicago prompted the execution of almost 400 of the pets in the gas chambers at the city pound. Police were authorized to shoot unleashed strays on sight. Transportation of dogs into or out of Cook county was forbidden.

Mrs. McLaughlin—she calls herself "the champion of all dogs"—particularly the poor man's dog—

COLONEL KNOX WILL ACCEPT HONOR TONIGHT

WILL BE NOTIFIED OF NOMINATION; WILL MAKE SPEECH

By ROBERT M. YODER Associated Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, July 30 (AP)—Col. Frank Knox, Chicago newspaper publisher and former Rough Rider, takes the center of the political stage tonight to accept the Republican vice-presidential nomination and amplify the party's 1936 challenge.

The Chicagoan officially will be notified in ceremonies beginning at 6:30 o'clock (CST) at the Chicago Stadium, one of the world's largest covered auditoriums.

His speech in reply was expected by party leaders to be the second half of the Republican party's statement of aims in the current campaign, and an outline of what it will do if installed in place of the Democratic administration.

It will supplement the address delivered last week in Topeka by his running mate, Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

The ceremonies will last about two and one-half hours. The principal oratory will be heard by some 50,000 on the scene, in the estimation of Chairman Chauncey McCormick, and by millions of radio listeners.

Partly in honor of Col. Knox service in the Spanish-American war, he is expected to declare the whole affair was grossly exaggerated.

She said she had detected no sign of the disease in her "orphans of the storm" dog refuge. She added:

"I have yet to see a case of rabies and I take in dogs suffering from exposure or starvation which would be easy prey for anything. I took in fully 8,000 dogs last year."

One ray of hope, she said, was that the new orders affecting dogs "may spell the doom of the tyrannical city dog ordinance which I have been fighting for five years."

Under the ordinance, all dogs claimed at the city pound after five days are turned over to university laboratories. In the current situation marked by three deaths and widespread treatment for bites the "grace" has been limited to 24 hours.

and the World Wars, the committee on arrangements designed a motif of Americanism, constitutionalism, and the flag" for the notification ceremonies.

The intention, McCormick said, was also aimed at signifying the party's stand on "an American way" of government.

The rectangular auditorium was hung with flags and bunting for the occasion. A fan-shaped stage was erected in the east end to accommodate some 600 Republican leaders, and distinguished guests, including Illinois candidates.

A second stage was set up outside the building. When the program opens, two casts of stage, radio and opera stars will perform on both stages, one for an officially expected attendance of 25,000 inside and the other for those on the outside.

Edward A. Hayes, of Decatur, Ill., former national commander of the American Legion, will introduce Chairman John D. M. Hamilton of the Republican national committee.

Hamilton will introduce Senator Frederick Steiwer of Oregon, Key-note of the national convention who will make the address formally notifying Col. Knox that he is the party's choice.

Jenkins Planning Endurance Run

SALT LAKE CITY, July 30 (AP)—Ab Jenkins, who has driven a million miles without an accident, completed plans today for a motor endurance run.

He seeks to recapture, at Bonneville salt flats 130 miles west of here, the 24-hour automobile speed title which Captain George Eyston of England won with a 149.09 miles an hour average two weeks ago.

"The records are all getting up to a point where they are not only difficult but dangerous to break," Jenkins said. "Side slippage is considerable at the Bonneville flats at those speeds, and it will take a longer track for any material record improvement."

"Nevertheless, I'll be using an airplane motor for the first time, and I expect to break all the records from 1 to 24 hours."

The groundhog and the woodchuck are the same animal, the former name being given to the animal in the eastern states.

A "dog university" has been founded in Lausanne, France, to train dogs to lead blind men.

Polly Moran and Husband Will Go Back Together

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., July 30 (AP)—All the shootin' is over between Polly Moran, movie comedienne, and her athletic husband, Marvin Malone, who pressed an automatic pistol against her red head and pulled the trigger two weeks ago, she said.

The gun jammed, police said. Malone found himself facing a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Polly at the time said she would get a divorce.

"They're not going to get a divorce," said Patrick Cooney, attorney and political chieftain today. "Matter of fact, they're leaving in a day or so for a long trip on Polly's sailboat."

Cooney made the statement when he obtained a continuance until August 12 of Malone's preliminary hearing set for today.

LEE JAHNCKE OUSTED FROM OLYMPIC BODY

BRUNDAGE WILL TAKE HIS PLACE ON COMMITTEE

BERLIN, July 30 (AP)—Ernest Lee Jahncke of New Orleans was ousted from the International Olympic committee today and Avery Brundage, president of the American Olympic committee, was elected in his place.

Jahncke, who was assistant secretary of the navy during the administration of President Hoover, was dropped on the technical grounds that he failed to attend two consecutive meetings of the international committee.

The ouster of the New Orleans sportsman, well known in yachting circles, came several months after he opposed the United States participation in the Olympic games because they were to be held in Germany.

Brundage's name was presented to the international body by William May Gariand of Los Angeles, a member of the committee, who lauded the career of the Chicagoan both as an athlete and leader.

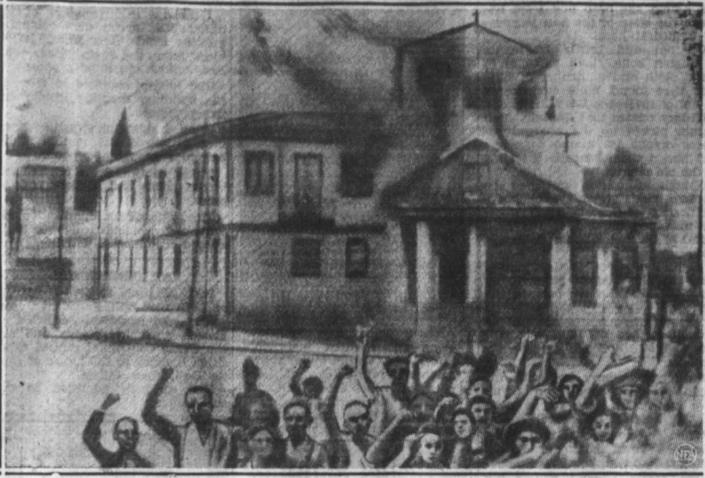

The former all-around champion and one time Olympian has been a dominant figure in amateur sport for the past decade. Brundage also was president of the American committee for the 1932 Olympic games held at Los Angeles.

Brundage was president of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States six successive times. He retired from office at the end of 1934.

He was elected to the A. A. U. presidency again last December at the annual meeting where he led a successful fight against an attempt to keep the United States out of the Olympic games.

Altogether five new members were elected including representatives of two countries admitted to the I. O. C. for the first time. The Philip-

Besieging Pennsylvania Solons

Vowing their intention to camp in the capitol at Harrisburg until the legislature passed relief measures, Pennsylvania "hunger marchers" faced a lonely weekend as the lawmakers adjourned without reaching an agreement. The sign held by leaders of the relief seekers proclaims their dislike of Senator McClure and his "gang," whom they blame for blocking passage of relief legislation.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
ANN HAMILTON, pretty young secretary in a large business office, goes to a travel agency to make plans for her two-week vacation.

BILL WARE, travel bureau employe, tries to persuade her to go to Lake Racine. Because Ann is rushed for time, Bill offers to come to her home and finish planning the trip. He comes that evening. Ann notices for the first time that he is a good-looking young man.

She finally decides to go to Lake Racine. Bill tells her he is going there, too, but their vacations do not come at the same time.

Impulsively Bill asks her to go to a movie. Ann goes.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER III
On the way to Lake Racine Ann felt that adventure was in the air. What was to happen next? She was alone, and the sight of pleasant woods and broad fields made her forget the broiling streets of the city she had left behind. A record heat wave was in progress, but already only a few hours out, she could feel cooling breezes.

Rather she sensed the cool mountain air of Lake Racine, which lay ahead of her, like a glistening blue jewel in the midst of soaring green mountains.

She thought of the vacation presents, snugly wrapped, in her luggage. She thought of the smiling face that had seen her off at the station; of her roommate, Alice, who was at the seashore; of the girls in office who were awaiting their turns at taking vacations. There was Bill Ware who, at the last minute had turned up at the station to say goodbye.

The business details of the trip had cemented her friendship with Bill and she had had two dates with him. Once they had gone up the river on the bus with the other heat-ridden people, looking for some cool air. Another time they had taken the excursion boat on the river. Bill was a good sort, she thought idly.

But then she thought of her new green bathing suit, of the evening dress—a cardinal's red—which she had picked up at a Tuesday morning sale for almost nothing. She thought of the amiable hostess at the Glenwood Inn where she was to stay, of young men like knights in shining armor, of tennis balls poised in a hand, of guava jelly (one of her going-away gifts), of the cowhorn on a long, low-slung roadster she had watched racing the train part of the morning, of electric fans, of speedboats on water, and of the travel book Alice had given her.

But when she changed trains at River Junction, and found herself once more on the dinky little mountain train which poked its way up among the high mountains on the narrow-gauge, Ann merely sat and watched the other vacationers. A feeling of loneliness suddenly beset her.

The others seemed to have brought their friends with them. They called out familiarly from one end of the car to the other. "What are you doing tonight?" a boy called, quite unabashed, the length of the car. A pretty, slim

Everything was glamorous and still and beautiful. It sent Ann's spirit soaring, though at her heart was a sensation of loneliness.

girl seated seated with her mother at the opposite end, called back, "Walk around the lake?"

"Sure. See you when," the boy answered impudently.

In the seat opposite sat a boy and a girl completely engrossed in themselves. Ann wanted them to be honeymooners, so aloof they seemed, but once the girl pointed excitedly out the window, and said, "There's our cabin, John, darling, look! It hasn't changed a bit since last year." A cabin in the woods that belonged to them. A setting for their romance.

"Come on over to our camp," "Let me know when you want to play tennis." "Cocktails at 6, and bring everybody we know." Invitations flew all about her.

Suddenly Ann felt a vast uneasiness. She was a little alarmed. Suppose she shouldn't meet even one man she liked. The mere repetition of such thoughts made her feel forlorn and lonely—afraid.

In panic she wished she had gone to the seashore with Alice. She began to wish fervently that even Bill Ware had come along. Any human being who would relieve her of this awful fear that gripped her. The specter of loneliness.

Ann got off the train, pulled her hat down over her eyes, and strode toward the porter of the Glenwood Inn, her chin up. She needed "bucking up" again. When

You know how it is. Men can get reduced rates at summer hotel, if they'll promise to go to the house dances every night. It's that bad!" Ann smiled at this disloyalty to the place.

"Plenty of pretty young girls!" the porter said, turning to grin amiably at her.

"That doesn't make me happy!" Ann said pertly, and the boy laughed.

"Women are a case!" he said. "But my girl works up here, too—in the dining room. We have a good time, just ourselves."

Ann said pleasantly, "I'll bet you do!" but her thoughts were far from complacent.

When they drove up in front of the little mountain inn, the porter took her bags in. Ann registered, and then took a quick turn about the lobby and game room, scanning the faces eagerly.

With a feeling close to panic again, she recognized none of the pretty girls. And not a single man was to be seen!

It was some comfort when the hostess at the lodge came to greet her. Almee was the same pleasant person Ann had known three years before, and talking to her was like greeting an old friend. There was an air of camaraderie about Almee as she introduced Ann to some of the other girls.

After dinner Ann wandered, alone, down to the boathouse, where she had spent many romantic moments three years before. The moon was shining down on the water. It was a night filled with enchantment, as are all first nights in the mountains after a year spent in the teeming city. There were faint rippling waves on the lake. Everything was so glamorous and still and beautiful, so different from the noise and heat and dirt of the city. It was fantastic, unreal. It sent Ann's spirits soaring again, though at her heart was the gnawing sensation of loneliness. Out there on the water were young couples in canoes. A guitar strummed.

"The worst thing about the wide open spaces," Ann mused, "is that there are not enough people in them."

She was looking at the starlit heavens when, almost in front of her, she saw a man's body launch through the air in a straight dive to the lake. His head bobbed up, and he swam back to the dock at her feet with a powerful stroke. He lifted himself up on the boards, dripping water on her feet. Then he saw her standing there in the dark.

"Oh, I'm sorry!" he said. The cold water on her stockings

Alamo Heroes' Remains Dug Up

SAN ANTONIO, July 30 (P)—All that is mortal of the defenders of the Alamo has been dug from beneath the altar of the San Fernando cathedral here.

Charred and brittle fragments of human bone, small particles of metal cloth and a number of buttons were found, mite evidence of an act of reverence 100 years ago.

History relates that Captain Juan Seguin picked up the charred remains of the 182 Alamo defenders and buried them beneath the altar of the old church.

Church authorities considered the findings, made yesterday, conclusive verification of Captain Seguin's letter in which he told of the final burial of Colonel William B. Travis' men.

Opportunity for the excavation came as the church prepared to move the altar further back in the cathedral.

had made her cry out, but now she was laughing. "Oh, that's all right."

He towered above her with his broad shoulders and trim figure of a crew man. "Are you a guest at the hotel?" he asked.

When she nodded, he said lazily, "I'm the head boatman, Ralph. Did you want a boat?"

"I'm afraid I can't paddle my own canoe," she said. Then she was glad it was dark, because she knew she was blushing. Her remark seemed audacious.

"Oh, I'll take you out a while," he said. "I don't mind. I haven't got anything else to do anyway."

Ann laughed softly in the dark. What an extraordinary young man!

Mexicans Slain In Gun Battle

MONTERREY, Mexico, July 30 (P)—Two men were slain and seven wounded, it was learned today, in a night gun fight between Red workers and members of the civic nationalist organization here. Police and federal troops rounded up more than 400 persons, including several prominent businessmen, for investigation.

Witnesses said members of the nationalistic group were holding a meeting inside their offices, half a block from the main plaza, when Red workers organized a parade.

The leftists marched in front of the building, shouting insults and firing pistols.

From inside the structure seven men answered the gunfire, using balconies as vantage points.

Firing continued for ten minutes before police and soldiers restored order.

The nationalistic organization was formed five months ago to fight alleged communistic activities.
