Plan now to attend the Panhandle Centennial celebration at Pampa June 2, 3, 4, and 5, with which is combined a Pioneer's Roundup and Oil Men's Reunion. It is a GREATER celebration for the whole Panhandle.

Twinkles

It was a bit unkind of Tom Hunter—just before our local Panhandle Centennial—to tell Gov. Jimmie to pull up a chair before the Austin mansion hearth, and stay there.

But maybe if Governor Allred were to stay at home more he could think up excuses to declare martial law somewhere like the other hard-working governors do.

Considering Mussolini's luck in Africa, why should Admiral Byrd wish to go back to Little America and fight only the thermometer?

Advice against trying to get rich may be good, but you've got to try to amass a great deal in order to emerge from a depression with even a little.

We Texans are sticklers for principles. We can start as much tongue fluster over the smell of an Angora goat as Oklahoma can over a smelly wildcat.

Musing of the moment: Hoping that the weather man won't double-cross us, we will observe that the dust has been acting rather decent of late. Often called into court to tell about the weather in the past, we never felt flattered, why can't they call us in the prognosticate about the future?

Brevitorials.

TENANT FARMERS and rehabilitation families recommended by county agents and advisory boards will be re-settled under federal plans which may be vastly expanded if successful in the initial stages. Very few families in this county will likely be interested, although not every farm in Gray may be expected to produce an acceptable living standard. The Resettlement administration may establish itself by its record. There are many critics which doubt the wisdom of the experiment. It is true that putting city folks on farm lands has notably failed. Under the new plan however, only families now on farms—farms torn out or unsuited to produce an adequate return—will be considered under the new program.

Re-settled families will have budgets prepared for them by the federal administration. RA says that living expenses will be less than $20 a month in cash for families buying well-equipped farms from the government. It is planned that the families will use $58 worth of home-grown products each month, that each family will have running water in its bathroom, home-grown hams in its pantry, shelves of home-packed fruits and vegetables, poultry and fresh eggs and butter, and eggs from 25 hens.

WHILE THESE things may not materialize on every farm every year, they are regarded as the goal toward which to strive. Not even RA can predict the weather, guide the tornadoes and floods and make hens lay. But RA proposes to move families from poor worn-out farms to land which offers the chances for success are greater. Plans counties doubtless will protest should the movement much affect their land values, but the movement is not large enough so far to depopulate much of the drought area.

It is figured that the re-settled families will spend only $225 in cash during a year. Obviously, this won't send the children to college or buy a new car, but it will buy such essentials as food ($60), clothing ($75), supplies ($10), furnishings and equipment ($20), housing upkeep ($30), medical care ($15), and personal items ($15). Operation expenses for the farm are estimated at $116. Estimating the total cash outlay for a year at $641, the Resettlement administration concedes that this is more cash than the average farm family in Texas takes in during a year. But the farms selected will be better than the average.

BUT WHENCE the income? It is believed that the average Resettlement farmer will sell seven bales of cotton, three tons of cotton seed, two tons of sudan hay, 90 bushels of peanuts, 200 bushels of potatoes, 12 tons of cabbage, 25 fryers, five hogs, one calf, one codd, 500 pounds of butter, and 700 dozen eggs. Of course, this "average" farmer will never exist in actual life. Of an estimated cash income of $138, the farmer will use the $641 for living expenses and farm operation, pay $75 on machinery debts, give RA $315 as an annual payment on the farm, and put $117 in the bank.

EDITORIAL

SCHOOLS AS SHOCK REMOVERS

The idea has been growing that schools should not only lay the ground work of professional and trade training, but should provide information which, in later life, will tend to prevent heartaches and tragedies.

One of the major sources of major and minor tragedies is marriage. The meaning of marriage can be taught and its responsibilities impressed upon the young folk. Happy marriage relations are not instinctive, although mating is. True, it is a delicate subject, but one about which false modesty can be tragic.

Another source of great danger in this fast age is the automobile mishap. Millions are being spent to educate the public in safer practices. But what about high school pupils? While they are learning other things, can they also be taught safety? A survey made by Women's Home Companion is helpful.

"Schools are doing far too little to teach safe driving," the survey reveals. "In fact most of them give no automobile safety training. When they do try to teach highway safety, they often find themselves handicapped by having to offset the poor influence of parents. As children approach driving age they should be taught in the high schools, by experienced and qualified persons, how to drive safely. There is no good reason for not giving driving and highway safety instructions to every high-school student in the country. The essence of the bad driving problem would be attacked, for not only do the records show that drivers of high-school age are poor operators, but from our high-schools will come most of the future operators of motor cars."

"Steps have been taken toward providing driving instruction for high-school students in nine states, the District of Columbia and the City of New York. Several of the states have been doing it for some time. In New Jersey, where fifty high schools provide this training, credit is allowed to students taking the safety courses."

"In the Garfield high school, Akron, Ohio, there is a student Motor Traffic club which studies the difference between highway conditions before and after enactment of traffic laws."

"There should be more of that sort of thing."

"The most effective instruments for improving the situation, so far as the younger generations are concerned, seem to be education and example. The latter is of first importance to parents because with operation of motor vehicles, as with other phases of family life, the child is deeply influenced by what the parent does. If you are careless and reckless with your car, you cannot expect your children to drive much differently. If you scoff at traffic laws your child cannot help agreeing with you that such laws are silly and not to be taken seriously. If you are a parent who tells your boy or girl to watch out the rear window for motorcycle officers while you challenge death by stepping hard on the throttle, you have no right to expect youth to be law-abiding."

"Approximately 26,000 persons were killed in this country by automobiles in 1934, an all-time record! During that year one human being was killed by automobiles in the United States every fifteen minutes, and somebody injured every thirty-one seconds!"

"No further statistics are necessary. If only every parent in the country would think about these simple figures! If they were any kind of men or women they would do something to remedy the tragic situation. Once a sufficient number of parents realizes what it means, some sort of solution will be forthcoming."

"Members of Parent-Teacher associations, and those parents who try to be an influence for good in their communities through service clubs or other organizations, can do a great deal to arouse other parents to action."

"Since municipalities control the situation, parents must direct local attention more specifically to the matter of street and highway safety. No better mediums for accomplishing this objective exist than the organizations in which women are active. Once all have a common interest, the thing to do is to make a local accident survey. Only through systematic fact-finding studies of the problem, day-by-day in every community in the land, can we put ourselves in a position to attack the causes of accidents with their shocking toll. Before we can adequately deal with the causes, we must by careful diagnosis find out what the causes are. You will find that public safety authorities will gladly cooperate. Just as important is the cooperation of the local press, which also will be readily forthcoming."

Connally Demands Tariff Plans on 700-Pound Cattle

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—Senator Connally (D-Tex.) demanded of Secretary Hull today an explanation of this country's tariff arrangements with Mexico as regards 700-pound cattle.

In a letter to the state department head, the Texas said he was advised by the treasury department that the Canadian trade agreement, as it affects cattle of that class, has been applied also to the southern republic.

Objecting to any such application, Connally pointed out that the Canadian trade pact reduced the rate on 700-pound cattle from 3 cents to 2 cents a pound on not more than three-fourths of one percent of the average annual slaughter of such cattle in this country from 1928 to 1932.

He added that he had reports that imports from Mexico of that class of cattle totaled 5,620 during the first two months this year against 90 for the same period of 1935.

"I am writing," he said, "to inquire as to the authority of the state department and the treasury department to apply the terms of the Canadian trade agreement to importations of cattle from Mexico. It is my information that the United States and Mexico have no treaty containing a most favored nation clause. Therefore, I raise the question as to the applicability of importations from Mexico of the provisions of the Canadian trade agreement."

TEDDY ATTACKS PRESIDENT AND HIS HENCHMEN

SEN. CLARK BLAMES DEPRESSION ON OHIO GANG

By LEONARD B. SHUBERT
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—A renewed republican drive to win democratic voters away from the new deal was underway today while a democratic senator was contending that the choice in November is "Roosevelt or reaction."

The latest G. O. P. bid for democratic support came last night from Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who started his third term as president of the national republican club. He urged his party to invite the cooperation of the "hundreds of thousands of democrats who think as we do."

One of the first moves along this line came more than two months ago in New York when Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) suggested in a speech that he welcomed "Jeffersonian cooperation, not only in the battle line, but subsequently in the council chamber after next November's victory is won."

In a senate speech Monday Senator Hastings (R-Del) said he welcomed the efforts of "every democrat to see that this is the last year of the Roosevelt administration."

After referring last night to democrats who "think as we do," Col. Roosevelt said: "Let us make common cause with them. Let us invite them to fight side by side with us for the democracy we love, let us assure them not merely that we will welcome their aid but that when we triumph we will invite them to a place at the council board."

Striking at the policies of "Franklin D. Roosevelt and his henchmen," Colonel Roosevelt offered a program including reductions in government costs, revision and extension of anti-trust laws.

A democratic argument, as expressed by Senator Clark (D-Mo) in a radio address last night, was that the Harding, Coolidge and Hoover administrations were responsible for the depression because of "rotor extravagance, uncontrolled inflation, and speculation."

While the campaign orators blazed away, the leadership of the parties made their convention arrangements. Selection of Senator Steiwer (R-Ore) as his party's keynoter at Cleveland was greeted with expressions of pleasure from the supporters of Colonel Frank Knox, Senator Borah of Idaho and Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, all of whom have backing for the presidential nomination.

Authoritative democratic quarters forecast the selection of Senator Barkley (D-Ky) as the keynoter for the Philadelphia convention, and majority leader Robinson or Arkansas as permanent chairman.

The Lower Rio Grande valley's 1936 tomato acreage is estimated at 12,500, or 50 per cent more than last year.

More than 50,000 tung trees have been planted in the Beaumont, Tex., area during the past year and more than 100,000 seedlings were started.

Former Convict Admits Brutal Bathtub Murder

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—A 24-year-old former convict who police said confessed he assaulted and killed Mrs. Nancy Evans Titterton was guarded closely in a jail cell today against the possibility of a suicide attempt.

Tied to the crime by a piece of cord used in the slaying, the accused man, John C. Fiorenza, a small-statured upholsterer, was in a highly nervous condition.

For hours last night he placed his cell muttering unintelligibly while two policemen stood at the door under orders never to let their gaze wander from him.

Lights turned upon him showed he was suffering a reaction from the bravado he displayed yesterday when he showed police at the scene of the crime how he attacked and killed the attractive young writer.

Fiorenza was booked on a homicide charge late yesterday after an announcement by Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine that he had confessed the 11-day-old crime. The authorities planned to arraign him today and to take his case to the county grand jury tomorrow.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—Mickey Cochrane must have had his tongue in his cheek when he said it would take warm weather to get School-boy Rowe started. . . Rowe pitched 18 scoreless inning until the Browns nicked him. . . Max Schmeling got the biggest newspaper reception since Babe Ruth returned from his tour of the Orient. . . All the boxing writers went down the bay, plus half a dozen columnists, a dozen photographers and newsreel men. . . Could that good Munich beer the Bremen serves have anything to do with it? . . . Incidentally Der Max was burned up because he forgot his golf clubs.

The summer boxing program at Ebbetts field calls for Primo Carnera to go against the negro, Leroy Haynes, with the winner meeting Jack Sharkey and the survivor facing Max Baer. . . Interesting—if it goes through. . . Ray Wolf, Texas Christian assistant coach, didn't take that North Carolina job because of a salary difference of $500. . . Rice finally has landed Ernest Lain, sharp shooting passer and hard running back from Mexico (Tex) high. . . The kid could have had his pick of more than a dozen colleges.

Max Schmeling and Max Machon left Germany with exactly $4 between them. . . That's all the dough Germany would let them take out of the country. . . If Mike Jacobs hadn't met the boat the boys would have had to walk to the Commodore.

AGED TRANSIENT CHARGED
RAYMONDVILLE, April 22. (AP)—J. W. Suman, aged transient, was held in the Willacy county jail today on charges of kidnaping and attacking a 7-year-old girl as threats of mob violence apparently died down. Spann waived a preliminary hearing after the charges were filed late yesterday and bond was set at $5,000. Doubt was expressed that he could make the bond.

8 ARABS KILLED
JERUSALEM, April 22. (AP)—Eight Arabs were killed and 58 wounded by police today in repulsing armed attacks on Jewish settlements in various parts of the country, reports received by telegraph agencies related. As the racial rioting stormed into its third week, a communique issued by the police said masses of Arabs were still attacking Jewish settlements.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22. (AP)—More than a hundred former Texans gathered here to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Texas' independence from Mexico and formed the Texas Society of California. Phillips 66 Boys Will Be Youngest In Junior League

LITTLE TEXANS ARE NAMED ON WALKER TEAM

GOLDMAN AND MUNGER DISAPPOINTED IN SELECTION

BY FELIX B. McKNIGHT, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Two little fellows with potent golf games, Reynolds Smith of Dallas and Ed White of Bonham, boyish ambitions fulfilled, will carry Texas' banner on the United States Walker Cup team.

They become the third and fourth Texans to land places on the team, having been preceded by George Rotan, the Houston veteran, and Gus Moreland, Dallas youngster who competed in the 1934 squad.

White and Smith were selected by the five-member committee headed by Ed White, the Houston veteran, and Gus Moreland, Dallas youngster who competed in the 1934 squad.

White, 14, and Smith, 15, are the youngest ever to be selected. They are the first to be selected from Texas.

White and Smith were selected by the five-member committee headed by Ed White, the Houston veteran, and Gus Moreland, Dallas youngster who competed in the 1934 squad.

Dark Horse Team to Play 'Runners Sunday

Phillips 66 Junior baseball team will be not only the dark horse in the league, but will have the youngest team, according to the roster released by Manager Ben Romine.

The Phillips youngsters will meet the Little Road Runners Sunday in a league opener at Road Runner park. It is known that a flock of the boys who are candidates for the Road Runner team are pretty good ball players with experience.

For instance, Mage Keyser whose stock power is impressive, Fred McGahey, Harold Nicholson, Bob Bailey and others. The strength of the Mag-nolia Peevees, of Hoover, of Canadian is well-known, but observers cannot even venture a guess as to what Phillips has and will put on exhibit Sunday.

Incidentally a large crowd is expected to come out and see the two youthful teams play. Manager Romine of Phillips has only one boy on his team who is 17 years old. The others are 14, 15 and 16. He has three 14 year olds, four 15 year olds and six 16 year olds. The Peevees have two players 17 years old, the age limit for the league. The Peevees may or may not be the smallest team in the loop, depending on the size of the 66 crew, by far the youngest.

The Phillips roster: Elmer Solinger p. Melvin Turner p. Buster Roberts cf. Norman Cox ss. James Dewey 3b. Seth Cox 1b. Robert Moddrell 2b. Sam Hig-wait 1b. Roy Enox ii. Fred Vandy 2b. Ben Day p. Walter Williams c. Walter Taylor rf. Jack Ter-min rf.

While the 66 boys from the South Pampa field are playing the Road Runners here Sunday Hoover will be at Canadian tangle with the boys of the Hemphill county seat.

HOLE-IN-ONE CLUB NOW HAS 127 MEMBERS

TEXAS RAISES TOTAL TO 34 DURING WEEK

BY PAUL MICKELSON, Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, April 22 (AP)—Strange tales of fairway adventure, unbelievable but true, filtered in today as membership in the Associated Press hole-in-one club soared to 127.

Nelson Maynard, playing in a foursome at Balisorel Golf club, Short Hills, N. J., scene of the 1936 National Open, bet $1,100 that if anyone made an ace that day he would be the man. He forgoo $600; the wager until he scored an ace on the 137-yard fourth.

Mrs. Carle Robbins of Fort Smith, Arkansas state women's champion, struck out for a game of golf with the mercury only two above zero. She was rewarded when her No. 6 iron shot produced an ace on the 127-yard third hole of the Rolling Knolls Country club.

A prominent jockey, Mel Calvert, bagged a 160-yard ace on the fifth hole of the Willow Springs course at San Antonio to run Texas' hole-in-one total to the surprising total of 33, or better than a quarter of the nation's entire supply.

As the Texas sharpshooters turned in six more aces during the week to increase their top-heavy margin, 8 more states reported prize shots to run the number of states reporting to 34. The new states on the membership rolls were Rhode Island, New York, Arkansas, Mississippi, Utah, Wisconsin, Georgia, and Indiana.

In addition to those named, the newly reported and verified members include: Lee Hubby, Big Spring, Texas fifth hole, Big Spring muni. Ray Beville, San Antonio, tenth hole, Brackenridge park.

Rev. Walter E. Dorre, Houston, ninth hole, Heights Golf course. V. A. Crouch, Fort Worth, seventh hole, Worth Hills. Edgar Bradford, Fort Worth, sixteenth hole, Ridgelea course.

LEAGUE OPENS
(By The Associated Press)

Baseball returned to East Texas today with the formal opening of the East Texas league, the outgrowth of the old West Dixie loop. Jacksonville, title winner the past two years, faced Palestine at Palestine in a day contest and Gladewater was at Longview, Kilgore at Marshall and Henderson at Tyler for night games.

HANK LEIBER WINS A GAME WITH SINGLE

PITCHER PASSES OTT BUT LEIBER MAKES HIM PAY

BY ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Hank Leiber, cleanup man of the Giants, chuckled today in the satisfaction that Jimmy Wilson, pilot of the Phils, had paid for his lack of respect.

Hank was the central figure in a Polo Grounds drama that featured a day on which cold rain and darkness conspired to cause postponement of four major league games and halt two others before completion; a day on which Bob (Lefty) Grove hung up his second win of the season and weird baseball came again to the park of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

It was the ninth inning, the score was tied and the winning run was on second base. Curt Davis was on the mound for the Phils and Mel Ott was advancing to the plate for the Giants when Wilson, yelling "wait a minute," ran out to the pitcher's box for a conference. He glanced at Ott and then at Leiber, the latter swinging a couple of bats in the background. Then he made his decision.

"Pass Ott and pitch to Leiber."

Leiber began to swing those bats viciously as Davis intentionally passed Ott and the import of the insult deepened.

Hank stepped to the plate. The first ball was a little low but he leaned on the second for a clean single to centerfield. Jimmy Ripple scampered around third to home and Hank, crossing first base, looked to the Phils dugout to see Wilson disappearing into its depths. The final score was 7-6.

Grove held the Washington Senators to three scattered hits for his second win of the season as the Red Sox defeated the Nats 8-1 in a game that was halted in the seventh inning. The rangy southpaw deserved a shutout, Washington's second inning run being the result of Eric McNair's error on Jake Powell's grounder. The game was called on account of darkness and rain.

The Brooklyn Dodgers-Boston Bees game was called in the twelfth inning because of darkness with the score tied at 6-all. Dick Seibert was the man who failed for the Dodgers. With the bases loaded in the last half of the twelfth, Seibert stepped to the plate and hit into a double play.

The Athletics, showing surprising power in their last two starts, gave the Yankees plenty of trouble before going down, 7-6. Three Yankee pitchers saw duty. Bill Dickey belted his third homer of the season with two on in the third.

Borger to Give Unbeaten Huber Team a Banquet

The Pampa Road Runners started something when they invited Panhandle newspapermen and officials of other teams in the section to be their guests at a radio banquet in the Eagle Buffet two weeks ago. The program was broadcast over station KPFD, Pampa.

Tonight in Borger the chamber of commerce and civic club will banquet the high-stepping Huber Blackfaces of Borger, newspapermen and officials of other teams. Huber whipped the Road Runners Sunday and the Tokyo Giants last night.

From Pampa will go F. E. Shryock and Dan Williams, representing Danciger Refineres, sponsors of the Pampa Road Runners; Harold Miller, business manager, and Sam Hale, playing manager, of the Road Runners; Harry E. Hoare, sports editor of the Pampa Daily NEWS.

The party was to drive to Amarillo this afternoon to see the Phillips 66 team of Amarillo play the Japanese All Stars in the opening game of the season. Mayor Ross Rogers was to hurl the opening ball.

Skipper Ira Smith Is Marathon Star at Houston

(By The Associated Press)

TONIGHT'S GAMES.
Dallas at Oklahoma City.
Fort Worth at Tulsa.
Beaumont at Galveston.
San Antonio at Houston.

The Houston Buffs backed Skipper Ira Smith on the mound and fought 14 innings before they stopped the Beaumont Exporters, 6-5, last night.

Cold weather caused postponement of the Dallas-Tulsa game at Tulsa and the Fort Worth-Oklahoma City contest at Oklahoma City and rain kept San Antonio idle at Galveston.

Manager Smith was the star of the marathon at Houston, his strong right arm, after a wobbly start, holding the Exporters until Johnny Keane swatted a triple in the fourteenth to send in the winning run. Smith took the mound in the eighth and the first man he faced, Cullenbine, hit a triple. Then Smith fanned Jones and forced a bounder to short. He fanned another in the ninth, two in each of the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth and got the ninth victim in the thirteenth.

The Shippers went scoreless after making three runs in the opening inning and two in the second. The Buffs gradually pared the disadvantage and Marty Martin set the stage for the extra five acts by clouting a long homer in the ninth to knot the count.

Davis Cuppers Face Each Other

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Va., April 22 (AP)—The Davis Cuppers mixed among themselves today in the Mason-Dixon tennis tournament with Don Budge and Johnny Van Ryn as the battlers.

Van Ryn's third round victory yesterday over Roland McKee of Dayton, O., sent him against the redoubtable redhead from Oakland, Calif., in the quarter finals.

Budge ran into a miniature dust

Maybe he can give you a tip

The bellhop sees a lot of people... hears what they have to say... knows what they like to do. Ask him three questions about beer.—Which beer does everybody from everywhere know?—Which beer has an exquisite bouquet and delightful flavor all its own?—Which beer is most called for in the best hotel dining rooms and restaurants? He'll answer your three questions with one word—Budweiser.

You know there's iron in spinach, but did you know there are metal particles in barley? They come from harvesting machinery, freight cars and conveyors. They're so small...but chemically harmful to beer. So, all barley for Budweiser passes twice under strong electromagnets that lift out all the metal. For the same reason—to protect it from metal—Budweiser ages in glass-lined tanks.

Nice, gentle creatures, these buffalo. Yes—until their supply of mineral salts is threatened. Then they fight...anything...anybody. No wonder! Every living thing must have these mineral salts to go on living. A good reason why you should drink Budweiser, which contains all four; especially in hot weather, when you lose these mineral salts through perspiration.

Alloying also gives this patented Germ Processed oil its uncanny ability to "join up" with metal. All the inner engine surfaces become definitely oil-plated. WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 2c.

Senator Clash In Warm Debate On Senate Floor

WASHINGTON, April 22. (AP)—A senate firestorm over the new deal and its enemies pointed today to warming tempers as the campaign progressed.

Before packed galleries Senator Hastings (R., Del.) and Democratic Leader Robinson of Arkansas engaged Monday in one of the most heated exchanges of the session.

Hastings began with a speech striking at the administration's policies, defending the American Liberty League and Alfred E. Smith, and asking for Democratic support to defeat the new deal.

Robinson leaped to his feet and shouted his denunciation of enemies of the new deal.

Declaring that Hastings "has assumed to make a defense of Governor Smith no doubt on the theory that while Al is walking around he may walk into that unlighted and deserted camp where the Senator from Delaware dwells almost alone," Robinson added: "Al will not make that mistake."

Hastings said the Roosevelt relief policy was in a "miserable mess" and challenged new dealers not to be "afraid" to permit an investigation of what he termed "schemes to waste the people's money."

After Hastings referred to Robinson's tributes to Smith who they were running mates in 1928, the majority leader replied that he was proud of those tributes because Smith "then stood with the masses against the classes; he stood in opposition to the senator from Delaware and all that the senator stands for."

CHAPTER XXIII.

It was the letter from Jonas Huckleberry that was responsible. The sheet of pink notepaper lay on the table where Toby had dropped it and she saw it as she crossed the room to lower the window blind.

The morning sun had reached a point where its rays shone into the room with dazzling brilliance. Toby lowered the blind and went back to the davenport. Orange sticks, buffer and a tiny bottle of pink liquid were spread out before her on the coffee table. She picked up the buffer and set to work industriously on her nails.

Harriet, in pajamas and lounging robe, was curled up, almost concealed by the morning newspaper, in the biggest chair in the room.

Presently Toby said, "Harriet—"

"Yes."

"Harriet, what's it like to be proposed to?"

The newspaper crinkled and lowered so that Harriet's face appeared over the edge. "What's it like to be proposed to?" she repeated. "Hain't anyone ever proposed to you, Toby?"

The other girl shook her head. "Nobody," she said, and then smiled—

"except Jonas Huckleberry."

"So that was your first proposal. Well, that's something," Harriet dropped the newspaper. She went on thoughtfully, "If you're in love with a man and he asks you to marry him, you probably were pretty sure beforehand that he was going to. So there really isn't any surprise about it. I don't know much about proposals. There was one boy, a crazy kid, who wanted me to run off and elope with him when we were in school. And then there was another—I think he would have asked me to marry him, only he found out I didn't like him well enough."

"But what was it like when Clyde asked you?"

Harriet clasped her hands about one knee. "He just asked me. There was a pause. Then she said, 'Toby, you like Clyde, don't you?'"

"Why, of course I do."

She had tried to like him. She wouldn't for the world, let Harriet know that, though she had seen him several times, she had never been able to overcome that first impression of being uneasy when Clyde Sabin was about.

"I'm glad," Harriet said. "I've been wanting to talk to you about Clyde, but I decided to wait until you knew him. Otherwise you might not understand—" She hesitated, then went on, "Maybe you thought it was queer when I told you we had to keep putting off getting married."

Toby had thought it was queer, but she said quickly, "But lots of people do that, Harriet."

"Yes, I know—but not for the same reason. You see, Clyde and I can't be married—because he is married now."

She went on, before the other could speak. "He's been separated from his wife for years. It was a long time ago they were married. Clyde was only a boy. They soon found they couldn't get along, so they agreed to separate. They never got a divorce because he didn't care anything about it at first and then later, when she thought he wanted it, she refused. But now everything's going to be all right. She wants a divorce, too, and she's started the suit. A man always has to let the woman get it, you know, even though the trouble was her fault."

"Then—you're going to marry him?"

Harriet nodded. "Just as soon as he's free," she said. "Lots of people would think it was dreadful to be going around with a married man, but you see how it is, don't you, Toby?"

"Yes, I see—" Perhaps Clyde Sabin was all right. Toby hoped sincerely he was.

"Of course, I'm sorry about it all," Harriet continued. "I'm sorry because that part of Clyde's life has been so unhappy. But I'm going to make it up to him. You know, Toby, I'm the sort of girl who wants a home. It's going to be wonderful, making a home for Clyde. I've been in this business—modeling and posing—now for four years. Most people will tell you four years is as long as a girl can do it—five at the most. I've known hundreds of models and some of them have become famous and some have dropped out of sight. I used to think I'd give anything to get into the movies like Kay Francis and Norma Shearer, but I've changed my mind about that. What I want is a home."

Toby said, "You'll have a lovely one—Harriet, I know you will."

She thought again that she hoped Clyde Sabin was the man Harriet believed him to be. Harriet was so sweet and generous and loyal. She deserved the very finest. It hurt, somehow, to think of Harriet with a husband who'd been divorced. Toby almost wished Harriet hadn't told her about Clyde.

She hadn't liked him before. Now it was going to be harder. "But maybe I'm wrong about him," she argued. "Maybe I don't know him well enough to appreciate his good qualities."

She had to go to have some test photographs made that afternoon. Color photographs. Toby didn't know anything about them, except that Sally had called from the Model League office and told her that if the tests were good she might land an excellent job. Even if she didn't get the job, she would be paid for the tests and the rate for posing for color photography was higher than for black and white.

Duryea was the photographer. Toby had never been in his studio and she approached it hesitantly, for Duryea was famous. Duryea made the handsome photographs—always signed—that appeared in the most expensive magazines. In color photography he was a pioneer. Duryea, more than any of the other celebrated photographers, had been declared an artist.

But when she met him, he was not in the least formidable. He was short, and rather stout and wore spectacles, reminding Toby of the baker from whom she had often bought bread when she and her fore the ball. Carol would be the one chosen—

It was a pleasant afternoon and Toby decided to walk. She had gone half a block when a shop window halted her. It was a window filled with bright-colored sport clothes. Toby eyed one dress in particular, a white dress with a short green jacket and a yellow scarf. It was a style that would be becoming to her and she liked the colors.

Suddenly she became aware that a man was watching her. He was a man she had never seen before—rather shabbily dressed, wearing a dark hat.

A girl as pretty as Toby is accustomed to having men look at her, and knows exactly how to discourage them, but this one made her uncomfortable. She moved away, walking rather swiftly until she reached the corner. Then she turned her head, ever so slightly, and looked back.

The man was following, not a dozen steps away.

Hearing on Plea Of Child Actor's Mother Delayed

LOS ANGELES, April 22 (AP)—Another curtain call in the Freddie Bartholomew custody contest was set for superior court today, but there was no indication the child film actor would be present to answer it.

Hearing on the petition of the mother, Mrs. Lillian Bartholomew, to have set aside the guardianship of her son which was awarded to the boy's aunt, Miss Myllicent Bartholomew, six months ago, was postponed yesterday.

It was postponed because of another addition to the cast of the court drama.

Counsel for the 12-year-old actor's father, Cecil Bartholomew, filed a motion to abrogate the custody award, complicating an already confused situation.

The postponement was granted at the request of attorneys for the aunt.

The theme of the father's affidavit was substantially the same as that of Mrs. Bartholomew's—that Miss Bartholomew's guardianship was signed through "mistake, inadvertence, surprise and excusable neglect."

Ernest Cooper Dies Near City

Ernest Cooper, 34, died yesterday afternoon at his home 10 miles southeast of Pampa. He had been ill since March. Mr. Cooper had made his home in this section for three years, coming here from Borger.

Survivors are his wife and two daughters, Elizabeth Ann and Betty Sue. Other surviving members are his father, W. A. Cooper, Lake City, Ark., three brothers, J. T. and A. M., both of Lake City, and Doc of Borger, two sisters, Mrs. A. N. Thorn, Pampa, and Mrs. Charles Beck, Lake City.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Baptist church by the Rev. John O. Scott, pastor of Central Baptist church, and the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of First Baptist church. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery in charge of Pampa Mortuary.

REBUILDING STATION

M. A. (Mack) Graham will complete next week the rebuilding of his filling station at the end of West Foster avenue at Hobart street. The old building had been under lease for several years to D. A. Patterson. Plans for the future have not yet been released. Cost of the new station is about $3,000 without equipment.

BACK IN PRISON

MCALISTER, Okla., April 22 (AP)—Phil Kennamer, looser in a year's fight to keep his freedom, was back in the state penitentiary today serving out his 25-year manslaughter sentence. The 20-year-old youth, ordered to surrender Wednesday, arrived alone at the prison last night, dashed past reporters and photographers and up the prison steps.

$5,000 Offered For Apprehension Of Alvin Karpis

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Attorney General Cummings today placed a price on the head of Alvin Karpis, "public enemy No. 1," and his limping pal, Harry Campbell.

cue's apparent success was made by an excited miner who came to the top of the rescue shaft and shouted:

"We've got through!"

For anxious moments afterward, there was no further news from the workings, but it was surmised that the miners had reached a comparatively unobstructed gallery leading to the trapped men.

Dr. F. R. Davis, minister of health of Nova Scotia, went down the rescue shaft to carry a hypodermic needle and other medical supplies.

Other men picked up blankets and hot water bottles to be used in caring for the suffering men below.

It was not known on the surface how long it would take to get the two living men and the body of their dead companion up into the open air, but officials said they thought it would take at least an hour.

The way which lay before them was a long, twisting, narrow, low tunnel, through which it was difficult to carry anything.

The special stretchers which had been devised for the rescue had rope supports to permit them to bend around the tortuous passage-way.

Miners said they feared any jars against the sides of the tunnel might cause a landslide.

The three men in the lead of the rescue efforts were Joe Simpson,

PAMPA GREET VISITORS WITH FULL PROGRAM

THREE-DAY MEETING IS EXPECTED TO BRING 400

Pampa today welcomes parents and teachers from the Panhandle-Plains area who convene here for the thirteenth annual conference of Parent-Teacher associations of the eighth Texas district.

Preparations have been made to entertain as many as 400 delegates and visitors from other cities during the three days of the convention. Homes are being opened to several score of the visitors who will be here tonight and tomorrow night. Programs are under way for instruction and exchange of ideas, and social occasions have been arranged to vary the meeting.

Among the visitors are the district officers, headed by Mrs. J. E. Griggs of Amarillo, president. Mrs. A. Y. Troutman of San Antonio represents the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, and will appear on the conference program. Other program guests include West Texas school and college heads, health and welfare directors, musical and dramatic groups from neighboring schools.

The conference theme is The Home: Index to National Life. One program, that for the banquet this evening, will center around the Texas Centennial. The Hon. Hermon Pipkin, Amarillo attorney, will give the main address on Texas' Contributions to National Life.

Officers will be elected for next year; reports will be heard in new arrangement whereby each group will hear only the reports of associations in its own classification. Programs will all include music by Pampa's well-known young artists developed in the schools' program.

The public is invited to conference sessions at First Methodist church, beginning at 8:30 a. m., 1:30 and 8 p. m. Thursday, and 8:30 a. m. Friday. The banquet this evening at Schneider hotel, and the luncheon tomorrow in the dining room of First Baptist church will also be open if there are places left after delegates and out-of-town visitors have made reservations.

Pampa Was Host To P-TA in 1929

The district Parent-Teacher conference in session here this week is not Pampa's first. The eighth district conference was entertained here in 1929, when the City Parent-Teacher council was a young organization with Mrs. Joe Smith its president.

Mrs. C. E. Hutchins was general chairman of conference arrangements. Committee chairmen for the conference were Supt. R. B. Fisher, Mmes. R. C. Campbell, Joe Smith, W. A. Bratton, A. H. Doucette, C. T. Hunkapillar, Dave Pope, Tom Rose, C. P. Buckler, V. E. Fatheree, E. A. Shackleton, and Miss Willette Cole.

that of Mrs. Roy Bourland, who succeeded her, the association equipped and opened the school cafeteria, in which a group of underprivileged children were given free lunches daily; purchased dozens of books for room libraries, gave pictures, an electric clock, work benches for primary rooms, and phonograph records to the school; planted shrubs and trees on the campus, collected clothing for needy children, sponsored a Boy Scout troop.

Last year Mrs. L. L. McCollm was president, and activities started in past years were continued. Purchase of a motion picture machine was a major contribution to the school. Assistance to underprivileged pupils, purchase of sundry school equipment, and sponsoring such functions as the father-son program to bring parents, teachers, and pupils into closer contact, were a part of the year's work.

Throughout its history the association has cooperated with county and state P-T. A. objectives, assisted with such civic projects as the Red Cross drive and fire prevention week, and presented regular programs as outlined by the national Parent-Teacher congress.

SCHOOL IN OIL CAMP AIDED BY HOPKINS P-TA

Past Record Offers Encouragement For Future

(By Historian, Hopkins P-T. A.) "Forgetting the things of the past, and looking to the future," has been the aim of the Hopkins P-T. A. during the four years it has been organized.

Being situated in an oil community it has had to work under quite a handicap. Some of its best leaders have several times been taken away from them by transferring elsewhere. This has a tendency to slow things down. However they have a great deal to show for the time and work spent.

Mrs. Charles O'Conner was their first president, with Mrs. Burton Fitzsimmons, Mrs. George Delvar and Mrs. E. E. Edwards succeeding her. It has been through their influence that the Hopkins P-T. A. has worked with the school in the attainment of many improvements.

Pictures have been bought for the rooms. First aid equipment has been installed. A radio was given the school. A summer round-up, and a study course have been handled very successfully.

Programs have been furnished throughout these four years that have been very beneficial to the parents as well as the teachers. Their entertainments have also been worth while. The entire organization feels grateful to the people of Pampa that have come out to our school and helped in these various entertainments.

This year with Mrs. E. E. Edwards as president the P-T. A. have undertaken to furnish uniforms for the Choral club. The major problem now under consideration is a community play ground. We are all in hopes it may be successfully carried out.

The Phillips "66" club, and the Phillips Safety department have offered to help the P-T. A. in this undertaking, using the theme, "Making the Community Safe for the Child."

On High School P-TA Board

Mrs. N. F. Maddux, left, represents the High School Parent-Teacher association in the Pampa Parent-Teacher council, and has served as assistant general chairman on the local committee for conference preparation. Mrs. W. Purviance, right, is another member of the High School association's board. She is hospitality chairman. Mrs. Purviance has been active in Parent-Teacher work since it started in Pampa, and was the first president of Horace Mann association.

District Officer

Mrs. Claude Lard, second vice-president of eighth district Parent-Teacher associations, is Pampa's member of the official body. She is past president of B. M. Baker association and of the city Parent-Teacher council, and is an officer in Junior High association.

BAKER UNIT'S AID HAS BEEN GIVEN PUPILS

FOUR WOMEN GUIDED THIS ASSOCIATION SINCE 1927

A longer organization with fewer presidents, is the record of B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher association in comparison with other ward school associations of the city. The unit was formed in 1927, and has been directed by only four presidents.

Mrs. Joe Smith acted as temporary chairman until Mrs. W. A. Gray took office as the first leader in 1927. Mrs. Gray served two years, during which trees were planted on the school campus, furniture for the office and other school equipment was purchased, and a piano was provided.

Mrs. J. H. Blythe, second president, also held office two terms. The association became affiliated with the City Parent-Teacher council during her administration, and started an active program of welfare work to care for underprivileged children. Operation of a cafeteria where dozens of hungry youngsters have been fed since, was started then. Contributions were also made to the school library.

Standard rating for the association was attained under Mrs. Claude Lard, next president, then superior rating was granted during her second term. Membership then was approximately 150, double the initial enrolment.

A mothers' club was organized in this administration, and the pre-school health roundup was stressed. Welfare work continued, with the cafeteria stressed.

Mrs. Roy Holt became president next, and after serving two years was succeeded by Mrs. Cecil Lunsford, who resigned at the start of her term leaving the office again to Mrs. Holt this year.

Work started in other years has been carried on under her direction, and a recent project has been assistance to a school band. Playground equipment, band instruments, a radio, and chairs for the school auditorium were purchased, and the association even surfaced a street which connected the school with city pavement.

Underprivileged pupils have been given hundreds of meals, school garments, shoes, and school supplies to enable them to remain in classes.

Membership, after a decline last year, grew to 211 this year. The association has fostered organization of a parents' study club, room mothers' club, and band mothers' club to assist students.

Early in its history the unit started the custom of student participation in programs, and has continued this plan.

Officers credit much of the unit's progress to assistance of Principal J. A. Meek and teachers of the school, all of whom are members.

WILSON UNIT OLDEST

Woodrow Wilson school was one of the first in Pampa to form a separate Parent-Teacher association after the growth of the city made necessary more than the original central organization. Mrs. C. E. Hutchins was the first president, and was followed by Mrs. J. B. Townsend, Mrs. A. R. Warner, Mrs. A. N. Dille, Mrs. W. B. Murphy, and the present leader, Mrs. F. W. Shotwell.

Parliamentarian

Mrs. Lewis Goodrich of Shamrock, district parliamentarian for Parent-Teacher associations, will assist Mrs. H. F. Godeke of Lubbock, state parliamentarian, in a parliamentary skit on the Thursday afternoon conference.

NEEDS OF SCHOOL HAVE BEEN MET BY SAM HOUSTON P-TA IN KEEPING WITH AIM OF FOUNDERS

Project—"To buy things needed most for the school."

So read the aim of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association when it was organized in September of 1930. Members went to work at once carrying out the project, raised and spent more than $1,500 that year, added to that sum in succeeding years, and spread the aims of the organization to embrace child welfare and parent education.

Standard rating has been attained this year. Mrs. F. M. Culberson is the present head of the association, with Mrs. Carl Boston vice-president, Mrs. Luther Pierson secretary, and Mrs. Joe Shelton treasurer. Enrolment totals 214.

Parents-Children Meet. A program suggested by the national Parent-Teacher congress has been followed. A parent education study course has been conducted, in addition to the regular programs.

Boys in the school and their fathers were entertained at one meeting, girls and their mothers at another. Room mothers gathered at a tea.

A delegate was sent to the state conference at El Paso, and representatives have been present at all city and county council meetings. Gifts to the school have included a bass horn for the band, new music and records, cash to the school's Boy Scout troop, and miscellaneous supplies.

The association has also contributed, as is an annual custom, to the cafeteria, thrift room, and other welfare agencies for pupils.

A review of histories since 1930 shows that in the first year of its existence the association bought playground equipment, furniture for a teachers' lounge, a piano, phonograph and records.

First Officers Listed. Mrs. G. C. Malone was president that year, Mrs. E. Smith vice-president, Mrs. B. G. Gordon secretary, Mrs. I. Baum treasurer, and Mrs. J. I. Bradley historian. Supt. R. B. Fisher was the first to pay dues to the association.

Mrs. C. P. Buckler was elected president for 1931-32, and served two terms. During her tenure and

MITCHELL'S

"APPAREL FOR WOMEN"

P-TA Has Served Pampa and Its Schools Nearly 18 Years

START WAS IN SMALL TOWN WITH ONE SCHOOL

Foundation for Pampa's present flourishing Parent-Teacher associations was laid in September, 1918, when the first association was organized here. It was affiliated with the state congress promptly and started its course of service to the school and community.

A copy of the first printed yearbook, issued for the 1919-20 term, and other records of early years in the association are treasured now by Mrs. E. A. Shackleton.

Officers listed in the yearbook were Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, president; Mrs. Paul J. Merrill, Mrs. Maude Hall, and Mrs. O. J. Ashburn, vice presidents; Miss Nina Daugherty, recording secretary; Mrs. G. C. Blom, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. H. Doucette, treasurer.

Teachers in the Pampa school—there was only one school at that time—were W. R. Silvey, superintendent; Mary Harvey Haynes and Maude Hall; Misses Jewel Ligon, Nina Daugherty, Sisle Pipkin, Ruby Parry, Myrtle Cary, and Floy Silvey.

Committee members, in addition to officers, were Miss W. Purviance, N. J. Piddler, A. B. Sheldon, E. G. Martin, J. E. Chapman, J. M. Tate, E. A. Shackleton, James Henry, O. A. Barrett, J. H. Ayers, Messrs. L. H. Green, Nels Walberg, J. E. Chapman, and W. F. Talley. They formed an advisory committee.

Mrs. L. C. McMurtry was one of the early presidents and clippings of newspaper publicity during her tenure show that equipment of a domestic science department for the high school was a major project. The association raised and spent $1,000 for that purpose.

Mrs. Shackleton has a summary of the 1922-23 term, when she was president. The association had 81 members then. Planting of 24 trees on the school ground in an arbor day ceremony, the trees that now border the high school campus, was a major achievement reported.

The school library was also given hearty support. A book drive was conducted for primary grades; more home economic equipment was added to the school.

Funds were raised chiefly through a community picnic course of five numbers, in which 250 Pampa residents and 20 guests from other towns took part. This course added $737 to the total of $1143 raised that year.

Broadcast Will Be a Feature of P-TA Conference

A radio broadcast Thursday afternoon from 1:45 to 2:15 will be a unique feature of the district Parent-Teacher conference. It will be presented from the studios of

HIGH SCHOOL P-TA POINTS TO INTANGIBLE GIFTS AS IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTIONS

"High school Parent-Teacher association has not been a separate organization from the school; there has existed a mutual understanding and cooperation between parents, teachers, and students which has contributed to the school's spirit and progress."

So say school officials and association officers of this unit, which was organized in 1928 with Mrs. V. E. Pathree as its first president. Succeeding presidents have been Mrs. George Wallace, the late Mrs. Harry Marbough, Mrs. Ray McNeil, Mrs. J. M. Dodson, Mrs. J. B. Townsend, and Mrs. R. W. Lane, who now holds the office.

Although school equipment and other material gifts have been made by the association, its leaders point with more pride and pleasure to its record of inspiration to parents and service to students.

Cooperation with the student aid committee has been a project of recent years. Through this committee many girls and boys have been able to remain in school. No student has asked for meals, clothing, or school supplies and been refused.

The National Honor society in Pampa school has been sponsored, and national emblem pins given to members. This year 22 new members, comprising 15 per cent of the senior class and five per cent of the junior class, received pins.

Vocational guidance has been stressed, and permanent files have been compiled on this subject to be kept in the school office. Seniors are annually entertained with a buffet supper after the baccalaureate service; the class trip to Carlsbad cavern is sponsored by the association; the band and pep squad are given an annual banquet.

An effort has been made to acquaint parents with the changing curriculum. Talks and demonstrations have been given; a parents' study course has been conducted; an evening chapel program has been sponsored so parents could attend, and a "back-to-school" program was presented.

It has been the unit's policy to use students on programs to further their education and to bring school and home into contact in more ways. Financing has been through an all-school play each year, with Ben Guill of the school speech department as director, and through various projects in which the students cooperated. An example was the concession booth on a special football train last fall when students received a share in the proceeds.

Officers of the association this year, in addition to Mrs. Lane, are Mrs. W. C. Hutchinson, vice-president; Mrs. A. Cole, secretary; Mrs. Price, treasurer.

Presidents

Mrs. Roy Holt, in the top picture, president of B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher association and has been re-elected for next year, and Mrs. Earl H. Eaton, below, president of Junior High association. Both have been active in conference preparations. Mrs. Holt as publicity chairman and Mr. Eaton as chairman of registration.

STRANGE MIXUP KENTON, O., April 22. (AP) Brothers became father and son 1 day as marriage performed strange mix-up in blood relation: a John Lightner Jr., 34 was married to Mrs. Opal Shields, 39, and 1 25-year old brother, Andrew Lightner, became his son by marrying Mrs. Shields's 20-year old daughter, Laverne Shields. The marriage made the former Mrs. Shields a her daughter sister-in-law.

JUNIOR HIGH'S P-TA STRESSES WELFARE WORK

SCHOOL NEEDS HAVE BEEN FOUND AND CARED FOR

By CHARLOTTE EMBRY Historian, Junior High P-TA

Junior High Parent-Teacher association was organized in 1930. A meeting was held in April at which Mrs. Joe Smith was elected president.

Needs of the school were felt, and in this first year a good beginning was made in starting work that has been continued. The need of a cafeteria was discussed. It was stated that more than 200 students ate lunch away from home then. Magazines were ordered for the school and music memory records bought.

In the following year the great project was the cafeteria. Efforts were made to get enough supplies and materials for it. Each room chose two room mothers to work with other mothers and the teacher in any projects undertaken and to increase the membership.

Since that time rooms have held contests for the greatest number of parents present at regular meetings, with awards of such worthwhile things as books, pictures, and cash.

From the beginning of the organization, many needs of the school have been met. Welfare work has been carried on each year; a donation has been made toward buying trees for the campus; assistance has been given toward the operation of a thrift room; efforts have been made to prevent lowering of the scholastic apportionment; a move has been made to improve our picture shows; library books have been bought; funds have been raised for band uniforms; and the cafeteria has been opened.

Health, character education, thrift, safety, world peace, and problems of the junior high school, represent the broad field of topics discussed during this time.

Each year founders day is observed by the candle lighting ceremony and each year representatives bring back interesting reports from the district convention.

Since the first year the presidents who have served have been Mrs. E. C. Will, 1931-32; Mrs. W. Purviance, 1932-33; Mrs. C. E. Hutchins, 1933-34; Mrs. Porter Beck, 1934-35; and Mrs. Earl Eaton, 1935-36.

Junior High Parent-Teacher association has grown in accomplishments as well as membership since its organization.

PRIZE BOOKS RECORD STORY OF WORK DONE FOR CHILDREN BY HORACE MANN P-TA UNIT

Superior Rating Is Gained by the 310 Members

History of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association is preserved in publicity record books which have been cited for excellence, and which the past two years have been sent to the state and national Parent-Teacher conventions for display.

From 40 charter members to a present membership of 310, the association has grown in size since its organization in 1929, and has developed until the school depends upon it for financial and moral support.

Visitors Invited To View Exhibit During Meeting

Visitors to the district Parent-Teacher conference this week-end are especially invited to view an exhibition of paintings by a Panhandle artist, Mrs. H. G. Hendricks of Amarillo, while they are in the city.

The pictures are on display in the window of the Texas furniture company on Cuyler street, arranged so that they are on view from the sidewalk. Interested spectators are also invited into the store for closer inspection.

Mrs. Hendricks is one of the best known painters of West Texas, an officer in state and regional artists' societies and listed in "Who's Who, Artists of America."

Her pictures are all of original subjects, found in the Panhandle or in her travels. She has spent several seasons in Taos, N.M., mecca of artists, and last year painted for some time in Old Mexico.

CHILDREN FIRST

The first year book of a Pampa Parent-Teacher association, issued for 1919-20 term, gave as its motto, "For the Welfare of the Child," and on its cover had this question, "The love of childhood is the common tie which should unite us in holiest purpose."
