Divided Michigan Delegation Is Seen To Avoid GOP Showdown

DETROIT (U) — Uncertain advocates of Sen. Robert A. Taft and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower appeared today on a compromise to send a divided 48-vote Michigan delegation to the Republican presidential nominating convention.

As a result, a slate of 10 delegates-at-large may be chosen on a compromise basis with supporters of Taft and Eisenhower represented equally.

Similarly, Charles King, chairman of the Taft committee of Michigan, said in a separate interview his group will go along with such a slate.

John Feikens, state chairman of the Eisenhower movement, indicated that he would oppose any attempt to bring up a resolution favoring Eisenhower because of a

Russia, Cuba Break Diplomatic Relations

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Russia broke diplomatic relations with Cuba last night because she said—the island's revolutionary government turned back two Soviet diplomatic couriers carrying secret bags of documents from Mexico City.

A sharp note from Moscow said refusal to admit the two couriers deprived the Soviet legation of normal diplomatic links with the Kremlin.

Cuban sources have charged the Russian legation in Havana was a center for Communist spying and intrigues stretching through all Latin America. The English-language Havana Post said in an editorial today Cuba herself may have been on the verge of breaking relations with Moscow because of these activities.

Cuba's reply to the Moscow note said the couriers came without previous notice, required to arrange inspection-free clearance of their luggage. They were sent back to Mexico City at once after they refused to let inspectors look through their 150-pound suitcases.

The Cuban reply also noted the couriers arrived at a time when the Soviet Union had not given diplomatic recognition to the regime of Fulgencio Batista, who seized power in a military coup March 10.

Russia's legation is headed by Guennadi Fomin, charge d'affaires, and includes four accredited diplomats. A special police guard protected the legation last night. There were indications the Soviet staff would leave quite soon.

The legation is under the supervision of the Soviet Embassy in Washington. Batista recognized Russia when he was president during World War II. Since coming to power last month, he has been outspoken against communism and pledged his government to alertness against Red activities.

He has said, however, that he has no plans to outlaw the Cuban Communist party, which has about 150,000 known members.

Evacuation Of Wounded During 'Atomic' Attack Is Impressive

By WILBUR MARTIN
FORT HOOD, Tex. April 4 (AP)—The Army medical service showed in record time what it would do to handle soldier victims of an atomic attack yesterday.

It was an impressive performance. Six hundred and eighty simulated injured taken to clearing stations and hospitals by helicopter and ground ambulances in less than seven hours.

One helicopter, 19 field ambulances, and nine 2 1/2-ton trucks were used in the first maneuver medical evacuation of Exercise Long Horn, biggest military maneuver in United States history.

The mock atomic attack, and A-bomb delivered by an aggressor aircraft in the area of the 138th Infantry Regiment of the 47th Division, was a well-kept secret. So was the medical evacuation. A headquarters officer first announced it last night, giving the figure evacuated as an estimated 1,000, one-third by helicopter. Later

Col. David E. Liston, maneuver surgeon, gave exact figures: 680 evacuated; 69 by an H-19 helicopter, an estimated four per cent of the simulated wounded were flown to San Antonio.

Doctors, nurses, and medics went through full dress rehearsal on techniques of treating and evacuating the men who were strapped to litters or stretchers and placed in the helicopter or in the trucks and ambulances.

Liston termed the exercise a "distinct triumph" for the H-19 helicopter which can carry six litter patients, a medic and a crew of two.

The timing on the loading and unloading of helicopter was amazing: six minutes to load six patients, five minutes to unload. The trip for the big-bladed craft, including time to load and unload, was about 15 minutes. In a test, it took 24 minutes to unload four litter patients from a regular motor ambulance.

The 20th medical battalion of the 47th Infantry division, the third mobile surgical hospital, the fifth evacuation hospital, and a field hospital at Fort Hood participated.

Forty "critically wounded" patients were admitted to the mobile hospital as part of the program. The make-believe casualties were returned to their units after the exercise ended.

"Battle" action was routine yesterday with Aggressor forces continuing pressure on U. S. defense positions. An Aggressor military government team occupied Lampasas, a ranching town of 5,000 persons, and new figures on simulated casualties and damage thus far in the maneuvers were released.

There were also indications the 47th and 81st Infantry Divisions were preparing to counter-attack against the 82nd Airborne Division.

There have been several actual deaths in the maneuvers. Hospital reports list 333 authentic sick and injured among U. S. forces and 136 for the Aggressor.

The headquarters commander said with 95,000 troops now participating in the field, this was one-half of one per cent sickness.

In air action, simulated "KIM" figures showed U. S. had lost 82 planes in sky battles, 61 destroyed on the ground, and 82 to anti-aircraft fire. One hundred and seventy-four U. S. tanks were supposedly destroyed by planes and 218 damaged. Three hundred and thirty-two other U. S. vehicles were lost to simulated air power.

Aggressor air lost—in make-believe action—30 planes in air battles and 1,230 destroyed on the ground by strafing fighters and bombers. The 82nd Division also had eight tanks destroyed and 15 damaged.

$5 Billion Increase In Atomic Program Due To Be Asked

NEW YORK (AP)—The chief of the Atomic Energy Commission says Congress is going to be asked to expand atomic production to the tune of five billion dollars.

Commission Chairman Gordon Dean said last night that Congress would be asked to authorize possibly "the largest construction task that industry has been asked to perform."

The proposed program would take place "over a period of several years," he said at a dinner of the Greater New York Safety Council.

Dean said the United States is engaged "in a life-and-death race with the Soviet Union in the manufacture of atomic weapons."

Stevenson, Ike Write-In Votes Sought In Ill.

CHICAGO (AP)—Eisenhower and Stevenson supporters, encouraged by write-in votes in other states, today worked to bring out big write-in votes for their men in Illinois Tuesday.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's name will not be printed on the Republican ballot in the Illinois primary. Nor will that of Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois be listed in the presidential portion of the Democratic ballot. Stevenson's name is printed on the ballot for governor. He is unopposed for the nomination.

To write-in a vote for President in Illinois, the voter must draw a square and write an X so that the cross-lines intersect within the square. Then he must write in his candidate's name behind the square.

Election officials said spelling need not be exact so long as the intent of the voter is plain. "General Eisenhower" or "Adlai Stevenson," for instance, would be clear indications of the voter's intent and would be counted.

Voters using voting machines in Cook (Chicago) and Rock Island Counties can lift a slide on a machine and write-in the name of a candidate. No X is required on machine votes.

Printed on the Republican ballot are the names of Sen. Robert A. Taft, Harold E. Stassen, and Riley A. Bender, a Chicago hotel man. The only name printed on the Democratic presidential preference ballot is that of Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

VENTURA, Calif. (AP)—Abraham Poczajew, 35, Polish refugee who spent five years in a German concentration camp, believes the freedom he has found in this country to be so precious that he has asked the court to change his last name to Freeman.

The petition, filed yesterday, states that "Freeman reflects the condition of freedom which the petitioner has enjoyed since migrating to the United States."

DEMOCRATS CHEER

Truman Promises 'Open' Convention

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats today applauded President Truman's statement he favors a free and open convention for selection of the party's presidential nominee.

They noted, however, that he still neither was denying nor confirming that his personal choice for the nomination is Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

At his news conference yesterday—the first since he announced he would not accept renomination—Truman again declined to comment when he was asked whether he favors Stevenson. The President did say:

1. He will not be a candidate for the Senate from Missouri or any other political office this year. A few weeks ago he had left open the possibility of running for his old Senate seat if he bowed out of the White House race.

2. As for his plans for the future, he has lots of things in mind—all of them for the welfare of the country.

3. He is for a bill in Congress which would make former Presidents ex-officio non-voting members of the Senate. He said the measure also should include former vice presidents.

Asked about the Democratic Nominating Convention to be held in Chicago in July, Truman said he had declared before it will be free and open in the selection of a nominee—and, he added, it will stay that way.

Democrats generally welcomed the reiteration in the light of the President's decision not to seek another term. Many of them have been wondering about Truman's role in the choice of a new standard bearer.

They still look for him to take an active interest, but felt his statement amounted to a pledge he will make no attempt to dictate to the convention.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) called the President's statement regarding the convention "very honorable and a very fortunate thing for the party." It means, said Humphrey, that the convention "will have a chance to appraise the various candidates carefully and pick the best man."

Operators Stage A 'Token Strike'

DEL RIO, April 4 (AP)—Fifteen operators at the Del Rio and Wintergarden Telephone Co. staged an hour-long "token strike" yesterday.

The operators, members of the Communications Workers Local 6178 (CIO) walked off their jobs about 2:30. They returned to work about 3:30.

Mrs. Bernice Bowers, vice-president of the local, said negotiations concerning "wages and practices" had been going on since Jan. 22. The present contract expired March 31.

C. W. Johnson, company manager, said he considered the walkout a breach of contract. He said the contract contained a clause under which workers were supposed to give a 60-day notice before staging a walkout.

Mrs. Bowers said the walkout was staged after "the union was willing to take a backward step in their proposals, but the company refused to come forward."

Costello Jury Foreman Ousted By U. S. Judge

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—The foreman of the jury trying gambler Frank Costello for contempt of the Senate said today, after she was abruptly excused from service, that she had been accused of agreeing to accept a payoff.

"It is ridiculous," declared Mrs. Helen Louise Mason, the jury foreman.

Shortly after court opened today, Federal Judge Sylvester Ryan announced that two jurors had been removed from the jury. He gave no explanation.

But Mrs. Mason, a Negro, said later that she was called into the judge's chambers, and that the judge told her he had been informed she "had been approached" and had agreed to accept money.

"It's very embarrassing and it's ridiculous," she said.

She said neither she nor her husband had been approached by anyone interested in the case, and that she knew nothing about any such incident.

The excusing of the two jurors, coupled with the reported illness of a third one, made it doubtful whether trial would continue.

The jury was to begin considering a verdict today. It was the second trial of Costello on charges of contempt of the U. S. Senate Crime Committee last year.

The first one ended with the jury deadlocked 11 to 1 for conviction.

Formal Notice Is Given Steel Industry Of Wednesday Strike

NEW YORK, April 4 (AP)—Formal notice was served on the steel industry today that 700,000 steelworkers will strike Wednesday for higher wages and a union shop.

An industry spokesman said mills would start cooling furnaces immediately.

David G. McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the CIO Steelworkers of America, dropped the strike notices in the mail last night.

He also sent notices to the union's locals.

McDonald said 200 notices were sent to steel companies—several to some companies to cover various contracts and agreements the union had with the managements.

The union insisted the industry comply with the wage and other proposals by the Wage Stabilization Board. The industry balked on the ground that the government refused to authorize steel price increases sufficient to meet increased labor costs entailed in the WSB recommendations.

In Cleveland, Walter P. Reuther's 1,000,000 CIO-United Auto Workers Union pledged "100 per cent support" to the steelworkers. Reuther did not elaborate.

It appeared that only a government seizure or a presidential order for a Taft-Hartley Law injunction could stave off a strike in mills that produce 85 per cent of the country's steel.

The industry said it would resist a seizure. The union said it would fight any move for an injunction.

The Taft-Hartley Law provides an 80-day, no-strike injunction under national emergency provisions.

Wage negotiations between the industry and the union collapsed yesterday. Promptly, an industry spokesman, John A. Stephens of U.S. Steel, said companies would begin "cooling their furnaces" today.

And CIO-USW President Phillip Murray said late last night that a strike notice already had been drafted, ready to be put in the mails this morning to the companies and union locals.

He said he thought a strike would "definitely take place."

Under an agreement with Wage Stabilization Board Chairman Nathan P. Feinsinger, the union is committed to give a 96-hour notice to the industry before a strike.

This period gives mills time to cool furnaces and guard against permanent damage to equipment.

The wage talks fell through after the union turned down a company offer to boost wages nine cents an hour and provide fringe benefits.

Industry negotiators estimated the offer at 16 cents an hour. Murray figured it at 14 1/2 cents.

The union chief said he refused the offer because it was less than increases proposed by the WSB. The WSB recommended a 17 1/2-cent-an-hour increase and other benefits.

Steel pay now averages $1.88 an hour.

The industry had estimated the WSB proposal would cost companies about 30 cents an hour. It had asked a $12-a-ton increase in the price of steel to meet the cost. Prices now average $110 a ton.

But Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnsall turned down any "special price increase," and thus limited any rise to the slightly more than $2 a ton allowed under price controls.

About the time the negotiations were suspended here, Arnsall issued a statement in Washington saying pricing standards are "not going to be stretched to give a special price increase."

And, meantime, President Truman was declining at his news conference to give any hint of what he might do about the situation.

Just what he could do about a seizure was open to question.

T. F. Patton, vice president and general counsel of Republic Steel, told newsmen:

"We are convinced the President has no power under the Constitution or under any law . . . to seize the mills."

"We expect to resist seizure if attempted."

In Chicago, President Clarence B. Randall of Inland Steel Co. said a seizure would amount to confiscation and would mean "no property of any kind in the United States will hereafter be safe from confiscation."

The steelworkers have postponed their threatened strike four times on government urging.

But, Murray said yesterday, the union now has scaled its demands down to the WSB recommendations and "we cannot bargain down—we will not bargain down what we believe to be the meager recommendations of the board."

The threat of seizure came Wednesday from John R. Steelman, acting defense mobilization chief, who said the move was under consideration.

The dispute has been going on since November, creating "a series of crises. It even resulted in the resignation of Charles E. Wilson as mobilization chief. He disagreed over government handling of the situation."

Tornadic Winds Hit Louisiana, Alabama

MOBILE, April 4 (AP)—Tornadic winds skipped through Alabama and Louisiana today injuring four persons and causing heavy property damage.

The storms lashed the Alabama Gulf Coast area injuring two persons and heavily damaging a public school plant.

A violent windstorm struck New Orleans and adjoining Jefferson Parish (county), injuring two persons. The Weather Bureau said reports indicated the storm reached proportions of a small tornado at Bridge City, a community near the Mississippi River bridge at New Orleans.

The storms bore out a U. S. Weather Bureau prediction, at Washington of the possibility of a few small tornadoes in Alabama, Florida and Georgia today. Two weeks ago the bureau successfully forecast the devastating tornadoes which ravaged the Southeast.

The Mobile blow apparently did the heaviest damage in the municipal airport area, about eight miles from the city.

Vernon Dykes, a farmer, and his wife, Annie Mae, were injured when their home west of the airport was damaged.

One building at the Baker Elementary and High School apparently was destroyed, Principal Thomas Culton said. No one was inside the building at the time.

Culton said the blow swept toward the school in a northeast direction. Athletic field bleachers with a capacity of several hundred were blown down and light poles were bent.

The winds continued in their northeasterly path through about 500 yards of woods, uprooting and snapping off trees.

Equipment at the main high school at Baker was strewn over a wide area.

Six men were reported marooned aboard a powerless barge cast adrift by the winds and strong current of the Mississippi River at New Orleans.

In Gretna, across the river from New Orleans, a family of seven escaped injury when their three-room cottage was lifted from its foundation by strong winds and carried 10 feet across a road.

Those reported injured were Sullivan Guidry, of Bridge City, and Felix Gauthreaux of Gretna.

Several homes were unroofed, power lines and trees were blown down in uptown New Orleans and several small fires were started.

The 607-foot tower of radio station WTPS at Gretna was blown down.

Texas Servicemen Don't Need Poll Tax

AUSTIN, April 4 (AP)—No poll tax payment or exemption is needed by Texas servicemen who are otherwise qualified to vote, Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd is advising county clerks.

The state Constitution prohibits members of the regular or permanent military services from voting, but reserves, draftees, national guardsmen and retired regular servicemen may cast ballots while on extended active duty.

Shepperd said a three-page summary of election laws on the subject is being mailed to all county clerks to eliminate confusion.

COMMUNION OF CHRIST'S DISCIPLES SPREAD ABROAD

Scripture—John 15:1-9; Romans 15:1-27; Philippians 2:12-17; Colossians 4:7-18.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
JESUS DISCOURSE in John 15 was given on Thursday of Holy Week. In it Christ used a simile that would be familiar to those listening to Him. He said, "I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman. Every branch in Me that beareth not fruit He taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, He purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit."
 "Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you."
 "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in Me."
 "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit; for without Me ye can do nothing."
 "If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you."
 "As the Father hath loved Me, when at that time he had never been to Rome.

 In his letter he refutes forever the charge generally held that he disliked women. He sends affectionate greetings and gratitude to many women—Phoebe, "our sister," Priscilla, Mary, "who bestowed much labor on you." This Mary is apparently not to be identified with any of the other Marys. There are others including "the sister of Nereus" and the mother of Rufus "and mine."
 He also gave them good counsel: "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them."
 "For your obedience is com- abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf, but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil." He ends his letter with: "To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen."
 To the Philippians when he was in prison, Paul wrote: "Do all

MEMORY VERSE

"Ye are My friends, if ye do the things which I commanded you."—John 15:14.

so have I loved you: continue ye in My love."
 This metaphor of a vine in reference to the people of God is frequently found in the Old Testament.

The vine is familiar to all peoples. It is one of the most graceful of plants. It is distinguished for the fragrance of its blossoms, the symmetry of its fruit. Painters suggest that we study its perfection of form, color, light and shade, all united in one object.

The branches must depend upon the vine for everything. Without Christ, the Vine, we can do nothing. With Him we can do anything.

"As the Father hath loved Me, so have I loved you: continue in My love."

Spoken the day before His suffering and death, the Apostles must have well remembered His words and they inspired them to resist their enemies; to defy the commands of earthly men, to continue to preach Christ's gospel in spite of cruel persecutions.

What a world it would be if even we, small and inconsequential as we be, would remember always His words of love one to another, if we were to return love for hate, kind deeds for our persecutors instead of giving hate for hate; hard words for insults.

In Paul's time, and largely through his missionary work, the gospel of Christ had spread to many lands. In Rome there seemed to be a thriving church, and Paul knew many there—we are amazed how many he knew things without murmurings and disputings.

"That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."
 None of us can be perfect, but if we would only remember Paul's words about "murmurings and disputings," our homes and our churches would be much nearer perfection than most of them are this day.

Further Paul wrote: "Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain."

"Yes, and I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you."

In his epistle to the brethren at Colosse, Paul sent his personal greetings to his friends, telling them Tychicus, "who is a beloved brother," would declare of his (Paul's) state, as Paul had sent him to them to do so and to discover their condition and "comfort your hearts."

Our lesson is too long to name all the friends to whom Paul sent salutations, but Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, "who were with Paul, sent their greetings, too. He concludes this epistle with the words, 'The salutation by the hand of me, Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.'"

How many followers had been added to the small church group that were in Palestine when Jesus was carried to glory!

AT BIG SPRING CHURCHES

Easter Sunrise Services Planned

At Jet Drive-In Theatre This Year

For the first time since it was instituted as a community affair a decade ago, site of the Easter sunrise services will be shifted this year.
 The Big Spring Pastors association has voted to hold the services at the Jet Drive-In Theatre on U.S. 87 just south of the city.
 A man, who one year ago on Easter morning stood before the tomb of Jesus, will deliver the sunrise service message. Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church, was accorded this honor and responsibility because of his experiences and emotions at the tomb of the risen Lord, where he preached an Easter sermon last year.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by a quartet. Other service details have not been announced.

The association voted to accept the invitation of J. Y. Robb to hold the services at the theatre because they have been held successfully at drive-ins in other places.

BAPTIST

The Rev. Maple Avery will be away from Big Spring conducting a revival and Billy Rudd, educational director, will speak at both services of the East Fourth Baptist Church.

Chaplain Clark Hitt of the VA Hospital will speak at the morning service of the First Baptist Church, in the absence of the pastor, Dr. P. D. O'Brien. At the evening hour, the choir will present a cantata, "Calvary." Soloists will be Faye Shipman, Mary Frances Norman, Wayne Nance, Raymond Moore and Jonel Neel. Accompanists will be Mrs. C. W. Norman at the organ and Mrs. Margie Horan, pianist.

"The Church of the New Testament" will be the morning sermon topic of the Rev. W. P. Kirk, pastor of the Lees Baptist Church. That evening he will speak on "A King Looking for a Bale of Hay." The Rev. Scott Hickey of Abilene will conduct revival services beginning Easter Sunday and lasting through the following Sunday.

DESIGNING WOMAN

Bookcase Headboards Are Designed For All Beds

By ELIZABETH HILLYER
 Bookcase headboards are designed for single beds, double beds and in double widths for pairs of twin beds. They're made of mahogany, walnut, cherry, maple, pine and metal with glass. Although they can't be called 18th Century, Early American or French Provincial, they're designed to go with furniture groupings in these styles as well as modern, more elaborate and with attached or separate nightstands, others starkly simple. The idea caught on from the first because the bookcase headboard is both decorative and handy, and the many new ones shown in spring furniture previews indicate it will be a favorite style for some time to come.

Closed compartments are more and more often seen with the shelves, many closed by lamhour or sliding panels rather than doors. One makes turns the bookcase headboard sideways, to follow the length of a studio bed, and calls it a studio compartment. The piece of furniture provides more shelves that way, and because part of the bed fits under it by day its depth is cut down to become more comfortable to sit on. Cane panels decorate the sliding doors.

Silent and thoughtful, Daniel A. Bolich sits with finger on chin in the witness chair in Washington before the House tax scandal investigators.

BOLICH CRITICIZED

Tax Probers Call Former Colleague

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax scandal investigators today called for a former colleague for questioning in the probe of high-level U. S. officials.

Former Rep. T. Vincent Quinn (D-NY), who quit Congress to become district attorney of Queens County, New York City, was summoned before a Ways and Means Subcommittee.

Quinn, the committee heard, was one of two attorneys who conferred with former Asst. Internal Revenue Commissioner Daniel A. Bolich in Washington shortly before Bolich stopped criminal fraud proceedings against Pattullo Modes, Inc., a New York dress firm.

The case was settled on a civil basis in 1950 for about $10,000. However, it was reopened last year after the House committee began its corruption inquiry, and the government is claiming an extra $300,000 in taxes.

Bolich, a large, florid-faced man, yesterday stonily refused to answer committee questions about how he managed to spend twice as much as his government salary brought him while he was No. 2 man in the Revenue Bureau.

He also refused to explain the source of thousands of dollars in gifts and expensive favors, claiming it was his constitutional privilege to remain silent on grounds that he might incriminate himself.

He also refused to talk about his close associations with Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunwald, Washington mystery man with influence in high places.

When Bolich finally was excused, Chairman King (D-Calif.) sharply criticized him for his refusal to answer questions because of possible self-incrimination.

"In my opinion, no government official, particularly with a position of trust such as you have held, should feel it necessary to invoke this privilege," King said.

Federal Intelligence agents identified the most prolific source of Bolich's funds as Carl L. Routhahn, a Mansfield, Ohio, department store operator and former collector of Internal Revenue in Cleveland under whom Bolich began his own career as a deputy collector in 1922.

Agents said more than $30,000 came from Routhahn to Bolich between 1945 and 1950. They said $10,800 of it represented $400 a month paid Bolich while he was assistant commissioner.

Attendance High At Police School

Attendance at the police school, two sessions of which are held in the Corporation Court daily, Monday through Friday, are being well attended by city officers, officials say.

The classes are being conducted by W. D. Beasley of Texas A&M College who has held a series of these schools throughout the state.

The course is divided into two daily classes for the convenience of night and day officers. Fourteen of the Air Police who are members of the detachment at the Air Base are also attending regularly.

Some Key Cities Resume WU Service As Walkout Still On

NEW YORK (AP)—Western Union says 30 key cities plus New York City will start sending and receiving messages among themselves today despite strikers' claims that their walkout is almost 100 per cent effective.

Some 21,000 WU workers, members of the AFL Commercial Telegraphers Union (CTU), struck at 12:01 a. m. (EST) yesterday in the first nationwide telegraph strike since 1918.

A separate threat of a telephone strike set for Monday by 40,000 workers in Michigan, Ohio, and Northern California threatens to further snarl the country's communication systems.

The initial impact of the telegraph walkout, over a wage dispute, cut the usual wire message flood to a trickle. But later in the day the company announced its "key city" message circuit plan because "employees are disregarding the strike call."

The company explains its "key city" set-up this way: "The public at any one of 45 large cities throughout the country can send telegrams and money orders to any one of the other 35 cities."

"Messages to and from the cities will be accepted between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. (local time), with delivery of incoming messages continuing beyond these hours as required by differing time zones."

In Washington last night, however, Adolph Brungs, national president of CTU's Western Union Division, said: "On the basis of a late check, the strike looks exceptionally good. Western Union is sending practically no business."

Brungs added that only about 100 union workers throughout the system have ignored picket lines and gone back to work.

New York City and metropolitan area employees belong to an independent union, the American Communications Association, and are not on strike. However, CTU members are picketing the city's main office.

The company basically is depending on about 11,000 of its workers not on strike, including supervisory personnel and employees, like those in the New York area, belonging to independent unions.

The major effect of the strike thus far has been to handicap the average person who wants to send a telegram.

Not affected are private leased wires to news services, government and defense centers, and the sending of cables abroad.

Federal Mediator J. L. Mandelbaum met yesterday in Washington with union officials and Signal Corps officials representing the Army, Navy, and Air Force. The three services asked for the conference.

Later, Mandelbaum said the union agreed to "co-operate in every possible way" should an "agreed-upon emergency arise affecting the welfare of the nation during the Western Union strike."

The union is demanding wage raises and time benefits amounting to an estimated 50 cents an hour per worker. Present wages in both telegraph and telephone industries average between $1.53 and $1.83 an hour.

At Conference

His lips compressed in a thin line, President Truman faces reporters at his news conference in Washington. He announced the resignation of Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.

The move came a few hours after McGrath fired Newbold Morris from his job as the administration's corruption sleuth. (AP Wirephoto.)

McGrath FIRED

This turned out to be just a polite gesture toward a longtime political ally.

McGrath himself made it plain he'd been forced out for disagreeing with the boss—Truman—over the conduct of Morris' cleanup campaign.

Republicans hooted at the whole performance. It came 24 hours after Truman, McGrath and Presidential Press Secretary Joseph Short held a heated, sometimes fist-pounding session in plain view but out of hearing of top officials and diplomats at airport welcoming ceremonies for Queen Juliana of the Netherlands.

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, running for the Republican nomination to succeed Truman, said Morris' ouster "proved the investigation (of government corruption) was not undertaken in good faith."

"The only way to clean up matters in Washington is a complete change of administration," Taft said at Urbana, Ill., where he was campaigning.

Some Democrats put forward the view that the whole thing had happened for the best.

"Public confidence in the government will be strengthened," said Sen. Herbert Lehman (D-N.Y.).

Morris, a self-styled "Abraham Lincoln Republican" who was president of the New York City Council under the late Mayor F. H. LaGuardia, seemed to share Taft's sentiments in part at least.

Although crediting Truman with "enthusiasm" for a real cleanup, Morris blasted McGrath to a far-the-well. He said he'll leave behind a bunch of suggestions for keeping the government honest, but declared:

"I have no illusions that these suggestions will become law during the life of this administration."

Then the 6-foot-3 New Yorker let go with both barrels:

"If my associates and I haven't done anything else," he told reporters in a bleak, brick-walled room of the headquarters he was about to vacate, "we have got rid of Howard McGrath from the federal government—and it only took two months."

"Given six months we'd have got dash off a wry telegram to his successor, McGrath."

"Heartiest congratulations, and I suggest you bring a pair of asbestos trousers with you."

Truman told his news conference the second-largest and one of the most exciting he has ever held—that McGrath is free to re-appoint Morris as a special assistant to the Attorney General, in charge of the cleanup drive, if he wishes, McGrath said in Philadelphia shied away from any move in that direction.

A one-time Democratic congressman and a former Justice Department official—he supervised the FBI, among other things, in New Deal days—promised "with the help of Congress" to wipe out corruption and "restore faith of the American people in the integrity of the government."

But he also said he felt the job might well be done by the Justice Department itself—apparently meaning he had no immediate plans to call in an "outsider" like Morris.

Morris himself voiced no expectation of being called back.

"This," he observed, "looks like the end of the road."

He was mainly good-humored, and cloaked a bit for photographers, once he had digested the news of his dismissal.

But when he first got the news, he appeared stunned.

County Officer Checking Damage To A Local Cafe

County Juvenile Officer A. E. Long today was investigating damage to fixtures at the Club Cafe, believed to have been caused by a group of teen agers.

J. V. Petroff, owner of the cafe, located at 207 East Third, said up-holding in booths had been ripped and fixtures and equipment in a rest room had been broken and damaged. He estimated the damage at $600.

Damage to booths had been noticed over a period of several days, and the rest room was damaged sometime Thursday night, Petroff said.

Long was questioning several juvenile boys this morning. Petroff said groups of young boys had occupied booths which were damaged on several occasions.

Funeral Services For Edward G. T. Heinze, 56, who died in Mayo's Clinic at Rochester, Minn., Tuesday, will be held at Eberly's Chapel at 4 p. m. Saturday. Officiating will be Rev. Orval Strong. Burial will take place in the Trinity Memorial Cemetery.

A resident of Big Spring for the past 15 years, Heinze was an oil well driller by profession.

Pall bearers will be his nephews. They are Rodney and Carl Heinze, both of Andalusia, Ill.; Allen and Richard Heinze, both of Rock Island, Ill.; William Heinze, Davenport, Ill.; Charles Schulz, Andalusia, Ill.; Paul Heinze, Rock Island, Ill.; and Jack Ewing, Big Spring.

Back On The Job

Albert (Curly) Brown, night radio operator at the police department, was back on the job last night following his recovery from an attack of pneumonia. During his illness various other officers took their turns at holding down the desk job.

EYES ON OLYMPICS

Richards, Hooper Head Big Turnout At Austin

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AUSTIN, April 4 (AP)—Their eyes cocked toward the Olympic games, an army of track and field stars moved into the twenty-fifth Texas Relays today with a half-dozen records due to tumble before the effects of such mighty performers as Bob Richards, the pole-vaulting preacher, and giant Darrow Hooper, Texas A&M's weight man.

Richards comes here from La Verne College of California, where he teaches religion, for another try at the world's record held by Cornelius Warmerdam at 15 feet 8 1/2 inches.

Hooper, who thinks nothing of pitching the shot over 34 feet, should wipe out his own record of 53 feet 1 inch, hung up last year.

Richards and Hooper are considered the only record certainties among the individuals, except that there are some new events—like the 1,500 meters, 200 meters and 5,000 meters—and those will be automatic records. The relay events are likely to add several new standards and everybody is excited over a projected glittering duel in the 100-yard dash in which two of the entries have done 9.5 seconds—just a tenth of a second over the Texas Relays mark.

It's a five-division affair—university, university-college, college, junior-college, college freshman-academy and high school—with 1,082 individual entries from 110 institutions from nine states.

Preliminaries are scheduled this afternoon in all classes and there will be a smattering of finals. More prelims come up tomorrow morning then all remaining finals will be run tomorrow afternoon.

Little Leaguers To Begin Workouts This Afternoon

Workouts for the baseball team in the Little League will get underway at the City Memorial Park at 5 p.m. this afternoon. The drills will continue daily Monday through Friday until the managers have had ample opportunity to select personnel for their teams.

Interfered for the program Thursday and more were due to report today. D. R. Gartman, one of the organizers of the program, emphasized that all players would have to furnish birth certificates and urged them to get them as quickly as possible.

Senators Again Sign Newsom To Contract

By RALPH RODEN
Old BoBo Newsom is back. Newsom, who claims that he has spent more years in Washington than any other man with the exception of the late President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, has signed for his fifth hitch with the Senators.

Newsom had Bobo Newsom been working out with the Senators at Orlando, Fla., and looked pretty good.

Newsom hasn't graced the major league scene since 1948 when he was released by the New York Giants. He won 30 games for Chattanooga and 17 for Birmingham of the Southern Association the past three seasons.

Besides the Senators and the Giants Newsom has pitched for the Chicago Cubs, Brooklyn Dodgers and every American League club with the exception of Cleveland and Chicago.

Newsom found time in his travels to win 205 big league games. Bob Feller of Cleveland is the only other active major leaguer with more than 200 victories.

The showman right-hander has plenty of stories. There's the one he tells about the first time he was shipped back to the minors.

Newsom came up to the Cubs in 1932 when Rogers Hornsby was the manager. In an early season game infielder Hornsby played right field.

"I remember there were nine balls hit against the rightfield fence and Hornsby misplayed every one of them," Newsom relates.

"I never saw a guy run so much. Hornsby didn't say anything to me in the clubhouse after the game but the next day I was with Reading."

With Newsom around life with the Senators shouldn't be dull. The Cincinnati Reds spoiled Newsom's return by beating the Senators, 5-1, at Charleston, S. C.

Lefty Harry Perkowski went all the way and checked the Nats on five singles. The Reds collected eight blows off Bob Postlerfield and Sandy Cosgrove.

Russ Meyer of the Philadelphia Phils also went the distance as the Phils nipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, at Weyerross, Ga. Meyer allowed only four hits including three in the second inning when they scored all of their runs.

Cayuses Lose To All-Stars

HAVANA—Big Spring was defeated by Santiago's All-Stars, 6-5, in an exhibition game here Tuesday. Santiago had won an 8-1 decision from the Broncs the day before.

Despite the losses, Manager Pat Stacey of the Broncs said he was well satisfied with his team's performances. The Santiago team had been playing together for some time whereas Big Spring was seeing action for the first time as a unit.

An error by Ricart, rightfielder, permitted the winning run to score in the ninth inning of the 6-5 game.

Lefty Bringas hurled most of the way for Big Spring. Frank Alvarez finished up.

The Santiago club is the same one that recently beat the Havana Cubans, one of the best teams in Latin America.

The Broncs play in Greenville, Miss., Sunday and will not arrive in Big Spring until Monday evening.

Stacey said there was a possibility Polato Pascual would be returned to Big Spring.

AT ODESSA

Longhorn Thinlies In District Meet

Big Spring High School's tracksters are favored in no event in the District 2-AA Meet, which takes place in Odessa Saturday.

However, Dick Frahm should finish near the front in the shot put and Carl Preston could win the 880-yard run without causing too much surprise.

The Steers' mile relay team of Rex Bishop, Bobby Hayes, Ben Hitt and Preston should make a spirited bid in that event, too.

Hitt is also an entry in the half-mile run and could be a factor in the finals.

Odessa is heavily favored to cop the meet with boys like Joe Childress and Weldon Holley competing. Fact is, if the Hosces don't spread-eagle the field, it would be a mild upset.

Big Spring will enter a full team, save for the high hurdles. Others who will compete for Big Spring include Doyle Maynard, Jimmy Montgomery, Speck Franklin, Ronald Farquhar, Johnny Craig, J. C. Armistead, Freddy Blalack, Don Swinney, Bobby Porter, Jimmy Porter, J. C. Millican, Eugene Carpenter, Jimmy Ellison, Billy Martin, Jerry Hayes, Donald Love and Kirk Faulkner.

Winners at Odessa will compete in the Regional Meet two weeks hence.

100-yard dash—O'Dell, Wooten. 50-yard dash—O'Dell, Compton. 220-yard dash—Reynolds, Bluhm. 880-yard relay—Reynolds, Bluhm Taylor, Compton.

440-yard relay—O'Dell, Wilkerson, Wooten, Compton.

Shot put—Reynolds, Slate. Discus—Robison, Slate. High jump—Wilkerson, McAdams.

Broad jump—Wilkerson, Taylor. Pole vault—McAdams. Coach Carl Coleman will accompany the team to Midland.

Garner Plays Bowman Today

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 4 (AP)—Eight survivors of two rounds of match play, including former champion Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., headed into the quarter-finals of the Trans-Mississippi Women's Amateur Golf Tournament today at the Arizona Country Club.

Beaten was the defending champion, Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore, Md., defeated yesterday by Mrs. Lyle Bowman of Richmond, Calif., 5 and 4.

Today's lineup: Gras-de Moss, Corvalla, Ore., vs. Edean Anderson, Helena, Mont.; Miss Lindsay vs. Barbara Romack, Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Bowman vs. Pat Garner, Midland, Tex.; Mrs. Dorothy Stamps, Oakland, Calif., vs. Mrs. Cliff Prather, Phoenix.

Feature battle was between Miss Lindsay, 1950 Trans-Miss winner and runner-up the year before, and California's Barbara Romack, a 19-year-old comer.

AS TOP SPORTS CITY

Denver Has Facts To Back Claims

By GAYLE TALBOT DENVER (AP)—The citizens of Denver are not the arguing kind. They simply state that they have the greatest sports city in the United States, bar none, and then look out the window.

If pressed they will tell you that their Bears of the class A Western League outdrew every other minor league team in the nation last season, game for game.

Only one club below the majors, Seattle of the triple A Coast League, surpassed the Bears' season total of 424,000 customers.

Denver University appears to be well heeled generally, and it will not be surprising to see its football team getting about the country rather extensively before long.

Denver, understandably, feels it has as much right to be hollering for a big league franchise as any of the cities on the West Coast.

Campaign Stresses New 'Hole-In-Tip' Feature Of Y-B's

A new "hole-in-tip" feature has been added to the famous line of Y-B cigars, and this is stressed in a new Y-B advertising campaign.

The new "hole-in-tip" was first introduced on a trial basis in various test towns, to secure consumer and dealer reaction.

Field Bunched In Tournament At Augusta, Ga.

AUGUSTA, April 4 (AP)—Two slightly unsuccessful tournament golfers—Ray Gafford and Johnny Palmer—looked over their shoulders today from first place in the Masters and saw a terrible two-some.

One stroke behind the leading 69 shooters at the Masters' second round began was Benjamin Harrison Hogan—1951 National Open and Masters Champion—and Samuel Jackson Snead—the 1951 PGA champion.

Those five led the charge on par at the Augusta National's par of 36-72. Eight others sliced off one stroke.

Shooting 71 were Johnny Revoita, Fred Hawkins, Doug Ford, Lloyd Mangrum, Tommy Bolt, Skip Alexander, Lew Worsham and Joe Kirkwood Jr.

Snead was erratic yesterday, bouncing from sixes on two holes to two's on three holes.

Smart, middle of the road golfer and an especially good day off the tees gave Hogan his fancy 70.

Netters Enter District Meet

It's sink or swim for the Big Spring High School Girls' Volley Ball team Saturday.

The Steerettes go to Odessa to compete in the District meet. If they win, they become eligible for the State Meet.

The locals have lost only three games in a busy campaign and two of those were by one point.

Probable starters for the locals Saturday will be Rose Rice, Charlene Wilson, Mona Lee Walker, Nell Glover, Sue Dennis and Elizabeth Carroll.

Coach Roy Baird has been working his charges hard all week to correct fielding and base running weaknesses he spotted in the early games.

ROBINSON SWITCH MOBILE, April 4 (AP)—Manager Chuck Drennon of the Brooklyn Dodgers said today he was thinking of taking Jackie Robinson out of the cleanup spot—but he flattered to add that he meant it as a compliment to Jackie.

Corsairs Must Respect Rules Set By Skipper

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—Manager Bill Meyer let his Pittsburgh Pirates know today they will have to obey training rules if they want to stay with the Bucs.

Meyer, who fined southpaw pitcher Bill Werle $500 and suspended him indefinitely for an unexcused violation of the rules yesterday, read the riot act before the Bucs got ready to take the field against the Chicago Cubs.

"This is only the beginning. I will not tolerate any more violations of training rules. I'm through covering up. We've got too many kids on our team and I'm going to protect them," he declared.

Meyer, who is being backed to the limit by General Manager Branch Rickey, said waivers will be asked on Werle. The 30-year-old hurler, who cost the Bucs a reported $50,000 four years ago, was sent to Pittsburgh to await further instructions.

Werle didn't say what training rule he is accused of breaking. However, he intimated other Bucs players may have broken some of the rules.

"If it's coming to me, I deserve it. But I'm being made a scapegoat," he said.

Werle was the third player Meyer has fined or suspended during a quarter century of managing minor and major league baseball.

The Pirate manager made no secret of the fact that he had previously warned Werle—and all players—in either observe training rules or be prepared for disciplinary action.

ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS T&P Income Rises A Bit In Last Year

The Texas and Pacific Railway Co. experienced a slight gain in net income for 1951, according to President W. G. Vollmer's annual report to stockholders. The company's net for the past year was $8,509,651, compared to $8,251,486 in 1950. Operating revenues amounted to $77,566,514 in 1951, while the 1950 gross was $76,731,267. In his report Vollmer expressed alarm over the financial condition of the nation's railroads. The rail systems are not returning enough profits on their investments to put them on a sound financial basis, Vollmer declared. The situation will improve only when all modes of transportation are able to compete for the nation's traffic on a fair and impartial basis, the T&P president concluded. Even so, the T&P was ahead of the average Class I railroad last year in return upon investment. The T&P figure amounted to 4.54 per cent, while the estimate for all Class I railroads in the country was pegged at 3.7 per cent. In 1950, T&P returned 4.86 per cent on its investment. Passenger traffic accounted for $5,069,427 of the operating revenues, an increase of 7.4 per cent over 1950. Mail revenue totalled $3,298,694 for an increase of 13.5 per cent, while $990,928 came from the Railway Express Agency, an increase of 2.3 per cent over the previous year. Gross ton miles for 1951 amounted to over 14 billions, a gain of nearly a billion over 1950. The company paid taxes totalling $9,528,000, compared to $8,760,580 in 1950. During the year T&P made improvements to its system costing $18,534,918. Rails were replaced on 12 miles of main line, with 132 and 115 pound rail replacing lighter steel. Railway stations at several points were improved. At the close of the year the T&P had 183 diesel-electric locomotive units in operation. Twenty more units were expected early this year to make a total of 203 owned by the company. Average number of persons employed by T&P last year was 7,890. They received wages totalling $34,389,036, or an average annual wage of $4,364 per employe.

Taft, Stassen Continue Drive For Ill. Votes
CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft and Harold E. Stassen continued their drive today for votes and delegates in Tuesday's Illinois presidential preference primary. In speeches at various cities since their final drive started yesterday, the two candidates hit at the Democratic administration's policies. Each attacked the other's beliefs. Both voiced hopes for a victory for the Republican party. Sen. Taft told a Springfield audience last night the best way for the GOP to win the November election is with "an all out attack on the administration's disastrous foreign policy, unnecessary spending and unnecessary (Korean) war."

The Ohio senator predicted he would win the Illinois primary election Tuesday by a greater margin than his Wisconsin victory. He pledged to cut expenses in government and taxes. "I don't care who the Democratic candidate for the presidency is. He's bound to tie in with the same general philosophy of government followed by Harry Truman," Taft said. Stassen asked the Illinois backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for their support in a talk at Rockford. "Since I am the only national Republican candidate other than Sen. Taft entered in the Illinois primary, I extend a cordial invitation to all voters who do not approve of Sen. Taft's policy. He also told an audience at Rock Island that Taft is "the leader in having Uncle Sam pull back as a hermit" in world affairs.

Yesterday her attorney presented a letter in which her doctor said she should remain in bed for treatment. The 15 are charged with conspiracy to advocate the overthrow of the government by force and violence.
