

SCALING AND BASS COMING HOME TO PLAY ROAD RUNNERS HERE TONIGHT

BEARDED BOYS OF TEAM ARE KNOWN HERE

LARGEST CROWD WILL SEE TONIGHT'S GAME

Bearded gentlemen from Benton Harbor, Mich., known the nation over as the House of Davids, will be in Pampa tonight for a single game of ball with the Pampa-Dainger Road Runners. Game time will be 8:15 o'clock with admission 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men.

The game has been designated as a home coming affair, honoring Sam Scaling, leftfielder for the House of David, and Peeewe Bass, pitcher. Scaling was with the Road Runners last season and two years ago Bass hurled for the Phillips 66 club of Hoeger.

Every member of the bearded team, excepting the catcher, is known to Pampa baseball fans. They have played here before, most of them for four seasons.

Manager Sam Hale of the Road Runners will have Daney, Dilbeck, and Ledford all ready to send against the beards. Or it might be little George Bulla who gets the nod. It will be remembered that Bulla has been effective against the bearded players in past years.

No one knows who will be on the mound for the visitors. The staff this season includes Bass, Talley, Brady, Nasser, Daisy and C. Tucker, brother of the famous Long John Tucker, first baseman.

Last spring the House of Davids met a pair of reverses when they tangled with the Road Runners. One of the losses was by a single run and the other by a pair of counters. Sam Scaling had a lot to do with the first win when he collected four hits.

The popular pepper game will be staged again. This year Scaling will be one of the big three. He will replace Tucker for tonight. Talley and Anderson round out the combination.

The largest crowd of the season is expected to see tonight's game.

Three big attractions are on the Road Runner schedule for next week. On Monday night the Kansas City Monarchs, negro champions, will be here for a single game. Arrangements are being made to open a special ticket window for negro fans and also to have a special bleacher for them. The window will be east of the main entrance and the gate east of the window will be used for entry to the park.

One of the best defensive baseball teams in the country will be here on Wednesday and Thursday nights, when the Aztecs, Mexican champions, play here. All games will be at 8:15 o'clock and no increase in admission will be made.

New Junior Loop Schedule For Sunday Is Announced

Little Road Runners Will Play at Hoover

Sunday's schedule in the Junior baseball league was rearranged today after the Canadian Cubs asked that their game with the Peeeweas at Canadian be postponed until a later date.

The new schedule will send the Little Road Runners to Hoover, and will bring the Phillips 66 boys to the Peeeweas Magnolia diamond at the end of East Foster. In the schedule announced the first of the week the Little Road Runners would have been idle Sunday, the Peeeweas would have gone to Canadian and Phillips would have played Hoover.

The Canadian Cubs are organizing under a new coach, it was stated. The Cubs' diamond has not been improved to the extent that a game can be played on it, it was also said. The game will be made up later.

The Little Road Runners and Hoover have not clashed this season, neither have Phillips and the Peeeweas. The two latter teams have lost to the Little Road Runners. Hoover is undefeated, and Canadian has lost two games, one to Hoover and the other to Phillips.

No admission will be charged at the Peeewe-Phillips clash.

Longhorns Seek 4th Track Title

HOUSTON, May 8 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns sought their fourth consecutive Southwest conference track title today in the annual meet starting here.

Preliminaries were arranged in five events—the 100, 200 and 400-yard dashes and two hurdles races—for today and all finals were set for tomorrow.

Faced by Harvey (Chink) Walker, ace sprinter of the Longhorns, Texas was favored to repeat for the title, but the team was up against some stiff opposition especially from the Texas Aggies and Rice Owls.

The Aggies and Owls were rated about even. The Aggies' main bids for first honors were by Decker in the quarter-mile, Breedlove in the hurdles, Lindsey in the shotput and the mile relay combination.

ball teams in the country will be here on Wednesday and Thursday nights, when the Aztecs, Mexican champions, play here. All games will be at 8:15 o'clock and no increase in admission will be made.

NEAR-CAPACITY CROWD DUE AT McLARNIN-CANZONERI BATTLE

YANKEES AND RED SOX WIN GAMES AGAIN

FOXX AND DICKEY EACH KNOCK HOMERS IN THEIR GAMES

BY ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Rogers Hornsby, pilot of the St. Louis Browns, wonders when the dice will come seven. His team leads the American league in only one respect—in losing streaks. Refusing to acknowledge that he has a "professional" pitching staff, Hornsby has sent an otherwise respectable aggregation on the field 21 times this season and it has won only three times. Eleven straight defeats now stand in the record and the team started off the season by dropping the first five games.

The "dark horse" team of the league took the field against the Belting Barons of Boston yesterday and was defeated 9-6 with Jimmie Foxx lacing out two homers for Boston. The New York Yankees making a grand bid to overhaul the leading Red Sox, kept pace by virtue of a brace of circuit smashes by Bill Dickey which enabled them to defeat the champion Detroit Tigers 6-5. Both the Red Sox and Yankees now have won four straight.

The Cleveland Indians, also very much in the American league fight, continued their upward march by defeating the Philadelphia Athletics 4-3 for their sixth straight victory in the series which every starting pitcher has finished his game.

In the fourth American league game the Chicago White Sox downed the Washington Senators 11-6. In the National circuit the Pirates added to the western misfortune of the Giants by beating them 6-2; the Cubs outslugged the Bees 9-8; and the Dodgers put two wins together by besting the Reds 7-4. Wes Ferrell No. 2 hurler on the Red Sox squad, was batted in luscious fashion and probably would have been hooked had not Foxx belted those four baggers, each time with a runner on base.

A good section of New York's Italian quarter was on hand to see the three men of Mussolini—D'Amaggio, Crosetti, and "Pushemup" Tony Lazzeri—perform for the Yankees. Joe the Rookie, wasn't as potent with the bigscreen as he had been in previous games, but he turned in a throwing gem. After catching Charley Gehringer's fly, D'Amaggio rifled home a perfect throw to Bill Dickey which doubled Pete Fox at the plate and prevented the tying run.

Mel Harder was the winning pitcher for the Indians although Connie Mack turned up with another pretty fair flinger in the person of Lee Ross, 20-year-old right-hander from the Dixie sandlots. Each twirler allowed nine hits.

Billy Herman, the doubles king, belted his second in two innings and gave his fourth of the season to his the Cubs their win over the Bees.

Doubles: Haas, White Sox and Rolfe, Yankees, 9.

Triples: Gehringer, Tigers, Lewis, Senators and Cliff, Browns, 4. Home runs: Foxx, Red Sox, 3; Trosky, Indians and Dickey, Yankees, 6.

Stolen bases: Crosetti, Yankees and Werber, Red Sox, 4. Pitching: Grove, Red Sox, 5-0; Buehler, Indians, 3-0.

National League Batting: Terry, Giants, 556; Herman, Cubs and Jordan, Bees, 410. Runs: Herman, Cubs, 20; Moore, Giants and Cuyler, Reds, 18. Runs batted in: Norris, Phillies, 22; Leiber, Giants, 19. Hits: Herman, Cubs and Jordan, Bees, 34.

Doubles: Herman, Cubs, 14; Medwick and Davis, Cardinals, Moore and Whitehead, Giants, Jordan, Bees, Lavagetto, Pirates, Lombardi, Reds, and Camilli, Phillies, 7. Triples: Bucher and Hassett, Dodgers, Moore, Giants, Herman, Cubs, Stahr, Pirates and McQuinn, Reds, 3. Home runs: Klein, Cubs, 5; Ott, Giants, Hefty, Pirates, Moore, Bees, and Demaree, Cubs, 4.

Stolen Bases: J. Martin, Cardinals, 6; Allen, Phillies, 4. Pitching: Berge, Bees, 4-0; Gunther, Giants, French, Cubs and Walker, Cardinals, 2-0.

BLAIR CHERRY IS MENTIONED FOR TCU POST

BELIEVE AMARILLOAN TOO HIGH-PRICED FOR POSITION

By Felix R. McKnight Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, May 8 (AP)—Thumbs-down sketch on Raymond (Bear) Wolf, T. C. U. line coach now listed as head grid coach of the University of North Carolina's Tarheels:

Started football back in 1920 at North Side High in Fort Worth. Had nothing except fight, a flat chest, not enough pudgeage. Started as a halfback, failed and moved into a guard hole. Developed into a fine place-kicker and punter.

Entered Texas Christian in 1924, made the varsity in 1925. In 1926 gained fame by sending a left-footed plackkick between the bars from 40 yards to whip Arkansas 10-7. Unanimous choice for all-conference that year.

Weighted only 174 pounds but was Coach Matty Bell's pride and joy. Quit school at end of junior year to play professional baseball with Cincinnati club.

Forced to desert pro ranks after two years because of knee injury. Came back to Texas Christian in 1927 as assistant freshman coach.

Promoted to varsity line coach in 1929 when Francis Schmidt replaced Matty Bell as head coach. Helped with conference championship teams in 1927 and 1932. Picked up duties as athletic director in 1933 when Schmidt went to Ohio State. Was "father" of famous T. C. U. line of 1932, which goes down as the greatest in conference history.

Squabbled with North Carolina many weeks over $500 difference in salary before finally agreeing to sign. Picked up 1937 intersectional games with Fordham and Ohio State for Horned Frogs before leaving.

Good tip: Mike Brumbelew, former T. C. U. line star, on top in scramble for Wolf's job. Blair Cherry, Amarillo high school coach, also mentioned, too high-priced for position. Turned down similar job at Southern Methodist for same reason. Reported to be grossing as much as most coaches. Ed Kubale, Centre College coach and former Frog star, also in running for job.

This and that: Wayne Cardwell, sensational Fort Worth schoolboy half-miler who has won that even in the state meet for the last two years, will enroll at North Texas Teachers college.

Wilson, Cooper, 3d Norman Horace Mann, Termini, Lt. Flower Horace Mann, Kitchens, W. DeWitt Sam Houston Cunningham, Cf Taylor, Baker, Houghwout, P. Poe, Baker. Catchers: Kushi and Lattrell of Woodrow Wilson; Chaser of Sam Houston; Mendoza and King of Horace Mann; and G. Burford and P. Starnes of Baker. Outfielders: Anderson and Snyder of Sam Houston; Wiseman of Horace Mann; and Grossman of Woodrow Wilson. Catcher: L. Stanford of Baker. Pitchers: Shirley, Woodrow Wilson; Shofer, Horace Mann.

Beaumont Stays In Lead 2 Days By Defeating Indians

Dallas, Fighting For Top Spot, Wins A Game

(By The Associated Press)

Today's games: Dallas at Houston, night. Fort Worth at Galveston, night. Oklahoma City at Beaumont, Tulsa at San Antonio, night.

The Texas league pennant chase continued at a keen pace today with Beaumont and Dallas fighting for the top spot. Houston and San Antonio tied in third place, Oklahoma City and Tulsa almost nose to nose a notch below and Galveston about one jump ahead of Fort Worth, cellar-holders.

The Beaumont Exporters managed to stay in the lead two days straight by defeating the Oklahoma City Indians, 5-2, yesterday. The victory was the third of the season for Coffman. He held the Indians to seven blows and pitched himself out of a bad hole after the Indians filled the bases with one away in the first inning.

A ninth-inning rally good for five runs gave the Dallas Steers a 10-7 victory over the Houston Buffs. The Steers got away to a five-run lead and then saw the Buffs knot the count and go in the lead on Rizzo's homer with one on. Montague and Rensa clouted homers for the Steers.

Ash Hillin hurled seven-hit ball.

HARVESTERS WILL PLAY EXES UNDER LIGHTS MONDAY NIGHT

Harvester coaches will taper off spring training this afternoon with a complete resumé of plays learned in preparation for a clash with the ex-Harvesters under the lights at Harvester field at 8 o'clock Monday night. Admission will be 10 and 20 cents.

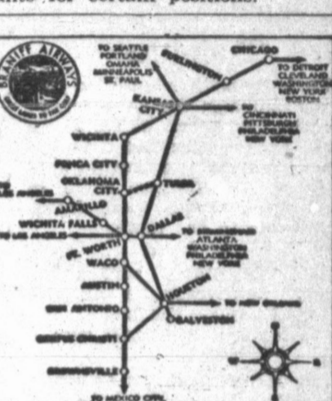

Little can be learned of the plans of the former Green and Gold stars. They are working in secret. But one thing they promise and that is that one of the best teams every to trod Harvester field will be thrown against the light but scrappy Harvester prospects.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean have been working their little batlers at top speed the last two weeks. New formations have been introduced. In the past, the in-roller type of play has been favored because of the size of the players.

to give the San Antonio Missions an 8-2 win over the Tulsa Oilers. The Oilers bunched four hits in the sixth for their two runs.

Hal Wiltse, veteran southpaw, limited the Galveston Buccaneers to seven hits to give the Fort Worth Cats a 4-2 victory. The Cats, however, had to stage a three-run rally in the ninth to gain the needed margin.

With a team that will not average 155 pounds, coaches have switched to an open type of game, featuring spinners, end runs, sneaks and passes. Blocking will be needed in the new system and that point will be given major attention when practice is resumed in the 19th.

MAHAN FACES SPEEDY TRIAL FOR 'SNATCH'

KIDNAPER JAILED AT TACOMA; CAPTURED AT 'FRISCO'

TACOMA, Wash., May 8. (AP)—William Mahan's role as "the brains" of the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping led him to a jail cell here today, facing a quick trial for the $200,000 crime.

After his capture yesterday noon in San Francisco by department of justice agents, Mahan was jailed here last night scarcely a dozen blocks from the spot where he snatched nine-year old George Weyerhaeuser from the street on last May 24.

Two blocks from his cell in another direction, federal officials prepared to arraign him within 24 hours on charges of kidnaping and mail fraud.

"We are ready to go to trial," United States District Attorney J. Charles Dennis announced.

In this office, department of justice agents and deputy prosecutors organized their case for speedy presentation before District Judge Edward E. Cushman.

Captured while sitting dejectedly in an San Francisco parking lot Thursday noon, Mahan arrived here in a chartered airplane at 10 p. m. last night surrounded by a dozen department of justice agents.

At the Tacoma airport, he was met by a dozen deputy marshals, state police and city officers, who battled a crowd of more than 400 persons who rushed the plane. Officers hustled him into an automobile in the center of a line of cars, cut a path through the crowd and dashed directly to the city jail. There Mahan was taken to a cell on the third floor. Both the solitary stairway to the jail and the one small elevator were guarded at top and bottom today.

Dennis and state officials agreed Mahan would be tried—if he pleads not guilty—on the federal indictments drawn a year ago. Pierce County Prosecutor Harry H. Johnson said he did not plan to ask a trial in state courts, though the Washington state law would allow imposition of a death penalty if Mahan were convicted.

Under the "Lindbergh law" he cannot be sentenced to death, since the kidnaped boy was not injured. The federal indictment includes two counts charging Mahan with transporting the boy across a state line.

The district attorney refused to say whether Margaret and Hermon Waley, both convicted last summer in connection with the Weyerhaeuser abduction, would be brought

CONSTIPATED* 25 YEARS, ALL-BRAN BROUGHT RELIEF

Delicious Cereal Corrected His Condition

Here is Mr. Johnson's letter: "I got a package (of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN), and before the package was gone I was very much better."

"So I have been eating it for two or three weeks, and my constipation* has gone, and I was constipated* for 25 years or more. Hoping this may help some one to better health, I am a new friend to Kellogg's ALL-BRAN."—Mr. J. B. Johnson, Lake Charles, La.

Mr. Johnson's letter is one of many. Millions and Kellogg's ALL-BRAN corrects constipation* satisfactorily. It supplies the "bulk" missing in the average American meal.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild and effective. It absorbs moisture, and gently exercises and cleanses the intestines. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Isn't it more sensible to use this natural food instead of taking patent medicines? Just eat two table-spoonfuls daily. If not relieved, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, with milk or cream, or cook into muffins, breads, etc. It is sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

Good Roads Bring Trouble SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP)—Widening of highways and elimination of curves in California have been accompanied by an increasing accident toll, said Ray Ingels, director of the state motor vehicle department. Male citizens of San Saba, Tex.,

THIS "DANGER OF COMMUNISM"

Many organizations and individuals are pushing campaigns "against communism." Some of these are wisely directed; others violate American principles and by their very absurdity make the study of communism popular.

Communism will stand or fall as an idea. And as an idea, it is something which can well be examined by the thoughtful. It is dangerous only as it appeals to the ignorant, underprivileged, and so-called "radical" elements. Rather than to forbid the mention of it in schools, it is wiser to combat ignorance and economic oppression out of which radicalism grows.

An employed, happy American is no candidate for communistic persuasion. A desperately hungry and unhappy person fears no change and is inclined to regard all changes as possibly helpful. Those who perpetuate conditions out of which grow hunger in the midst of plenty do more to spread communism than all the agitators who shout from street corners and adopt other means of propaganda.

The mere reading of a book on communism, as is done by club women, school teachers, lawyers, doctors, and hundreds of others, is not to be feared. The teaching of communism to immature minds is something else, and something to be combated in keeping the source of our democratic ideas free.

Free speech, free press, free assembly, and the right of petition are still American principles. Suppression of any of these will popularize the things attacked. We need to understand our own economics and to understand Russia's. An understood thing is seldom dangerous. Something attacked, something unknown, is quickly embraced by those dissatisfied with the present. Let us improve the present and by comparison prove our fortunate position in being Americans.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—It is seldom that Washington correspondents can get a good laugh out of the Congressional Record, and nine chances out of ten the source of the laugh is the Hon. Maury Maverick, representative from San Antonio, Tex.

Consider, for a moment, his defense of a pamphlet on Americanism issued by the New York County American Legion, which has been bitterly attacked because it espoused the causes of free speech, free press, liberty of conscience, and freedom of religion.

Maverick, a member of the Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, discussed the pamphlet at some length and finally tossed the following into the Record under the title, "The 14 points of the Red Menace":

"Since red in itself is a sin, a logical dissertation on the effects is in order . . .

"1. Congressman Sirovich of New York cannot wear his red carnation in the lapel of his coat. He will simply die. Florists will protest.

"2. New Yorkers going hunting upstate cannot wear red flannels. Many will catch pneumonia, flu, and colds. Will help doctors and undertakers, but hurt general welfare of citizens.

"3. Red wine prohibited. Discrimination as to white wines. No use going to Italian restaurants. Grape growers will protest. People will get drunk anyway.

"Seeing 'red' will also be abolished. In this many red-baiters will suffer serious inhibitions and mental maladjustments.

"5. Lure of red-headed girls, handsomeness of red-headed boys to be eradicated by federal laws. Will cause importation of non-fading German dyes to make color of hair different. This will hurt 'Buy American' campaign; besides, in this case, the importation will be a metamorphosis from Communism to Fascism.

"6. Red herrings cannot be drawn across issues. This would also be a blow to red-baiters. Old pals of Al Smith at Fulton Fish Market will protest.

"7. Music, Red Sails in the Sunset, popular hit, no doubt, subversive, Communistic, atheistic, anarchistic, and other things worse; must not be allowed.

"8. Children, the little dears, must be free of red-stick candy. This sounds innocent, but one cannot realize how sinister candy can be. It is understood they eat red candy in Red Russia; therefore, we must stop it here.

"9. Red traffic lights abolished; substitute color not determined; will give work to scientists. Accidents.

"10. Children, in getting diplomas, must not be allowed red ribbons.

"11. Red tape must be made blue; however, the change of colors will not affect red tape psychology or human nature.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Bill's voice was strained, trying to keep steady. "Oh," he said, "a wedding! Well, I think I can guess the rest. It's Jamieson, isn't it? He's a lucky guy, Toby, and I wish you both every happiness. Every happiness in the world."

"But it's not—Toby began. "It's no Jamieson?"

"No," Toby said. "It isn't."

One of Bill Brandt's hand gripped the edge of the table. "Toby," he asked, "aren't you in love with Tim Jamieson?"

"You don't understand, Bill—"

"No, I guess I don't. I didn't know there was anyone else. Well, the congratulations hold, whoever he is. I hope that he's good enough for you."

"Bill Brandt!" Toby's voice rose, exasperated. "Will you please listen to me for a minute? Will you give me a chance to go on and tell you what I've been trying to say?"

"Why, yes—sure."

"You seem to think this is my wedding I'm talking about. It isn't. It's Harriet's. She's going to marry Marty Hiatt next month. She told me last night. Other people aren't supposed to know about it yet, but I know she wouldn't mind my telling you. Marty's a peach and I'm sure they'll be happy together. Don't you think it's grand, Bill?"

He did not answer, did not seem to be listening. "Wait a minute," Bill said, leaning forward. "Let me get this straight. Did you say you're not in love with Jamieson? Is that right?"

Her eyes met his, wavered. A faint glow of pink tinged her cheeks. "Well, you're partly right—"

"What does that mean?"

"It means—the color in Toby's cheeks was definitely deeper as she hesitated, choosing the words, "that I'm in love—but not with Tim."

She raised her eyes then, eyes glowing radiantly.

For a moment Bill seemed speechless. Then he said, the words, tumbling one on another. "Toby, I haven't any right to say this to a girl like you, but I'm going to say it. I've got to. If you don't—if it isn't Jamieson you care about—have I got a chance?"

She was smiling. "You've got more than that, Toby."

He pushed back the chair, got to his feet. "Come on," he said abruptly, "let's get out of this place."

Outside he signalled a taxicab and the driver pulled toward the curb. As they waited, Bill nodded toward the cafeteria. "It's all right for corned beef," he said, "but it's a hell of a place to kiss a girl. And I'm going to kiss you, Toby."

He helped her into the cab and climbed in after her. "Anywhere," Bill told the driver. "Anywhere at all—keep going."

Twenty minutes later he was saying, "Toby, there isn't an adjective in the language to fit you. You're the kind of a girl a man dreams about, even though he knows she doesn't exist. She couldn't because she'd have to be perfect and they don't make 'em that way. Except you, Toby."

"I've got to be honest with you, darling. All I've got to offer you is a $50 a week pay check and the kind of apartment that goes with it and a couple of hundred dollars in the bank. I'm crazy about my job and I'll work hard at it, but I don't suppose I'll ever be able to do you the things you have now—a beautiful home and servants and cars and expensive clothes. You're the most wonderful girl in the world, Toby, and if you'll give me the chance I'll spend my life trying to make you happy. If you think you could marry a sap like me, if you could—oh, Toby, will you?"

She said, "Yes."

Poets have sung of such ecstasy. Musicians have set it to music. Toby and Bill had one of the hum of the taxicab motor; it was enough.

He said presently, "I told you I'm only getting $50 a week now, but I think I can get a raise. I've been working for it and Blaine half-promised me—"

"Fifty dollars is a lot of money, Bill. I used to earn $15 and I lived on it. We'll get along in grand style."

"But you're used to so much more—"

"I'll have more, Bill. I'll have you!"

Later he asked, "What do you suppose your father will say when we tell him?"

"He'll say he's getting a son he'll be proud of. He likes you, Bill. He told me so. And I think he knows the way I feel about you. Besides, father would be the last person in the world to tell anyone else who they should marry, or try to manage their lives for them. You know what his parents did to him by the interfering."

"Yes, I guess that's right. Gee, he's swell, Toby! You know I can't believe this has happened. I was so sure Jamieson was the one you wanted—"

International Sunday School Lesson

By DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic:—Effectual prayer.

Scripture Lessons: Luke 18:1-14.

1. And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2. Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man;

3. And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4. And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5. Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6. And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7. And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8. I tell you, he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9. And he spake this parable unto them, that they were righteous, and despised others;

10. Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, the other a publican.

11. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12. I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13. And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14. I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

Golden Text: God, be merciful to me a sinner—Luke 18:13.

Introduction

Two went to pray? O rather say One went to brag, the other to pray.

One stands up close, and treads on high, Where 't' other dares not send his eye; One nearer to God's altar trod, The other to the Altar's God.

—Richard Crasshaw.

"He who feels that he is not what he ought to be is already on the high road to amendment."—George Ebers.

"Archbishop Usher often confessed that he hoped to die with the language of the publican in his mouth. His wish was fulfilled, for his last words were, 'God be merciful to me a sinner.'"—Quoted by Jane Stoddard.

The Parable of the Unjust Judge Vers. 1-8

In "Men ought always to pray, and not to faint," we find Christ anticipating the parable and giving explanation of it before he states it. It is a preface to the book.

Two Characters Studied Ver. 2-4

Here are two types, the judge and the widow, clearly defined, as clearly as a verbal photograph could make them. Note them and you have a perfect picture of the times and conditions. The judge, "He feared not God." Here is a cold, careless, unscrupulous character, who boasted fearlessly of his corruption, to the point of deciding that he did not take God into account at all. He is a type that lived in that day—and is still among us—who bought his way to prominence, and asked odds of no one, save the ruling prince, even as such men today defer only to the political gangsters who put them on the ticket for a price. "He regarded not man." Though unscrupulous, he was not two-faced about it. He acknowledged that he didn't care a snap of the finger for public opinion, but was in office for the spoils; and cared not one whit for justice. Note the widow. We note her name in that day and country a widow had hardly any rights, especially if she was poor and obscure. Imagine, then, this woman, with few if any friends, and without influence, appealing to an unscrupulous judge, saying, "Avenge me of my adversary," or "Do me justice of my adversary," or "Protect me from my enemy."

Results of Preserving Faith Ver. 4-8

She came "off," until—though he would not for awhile—but afterward said within himself, "Though I fear not God, nor regard man; yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest she wear me out by her coming." The widow's perseverance got results, not because the judge believed in or desired to render justice in her case, but because she was interfering with his physical comfort, had become an annoyance to him. The Lord tells us that God permits suffering among his servants long after they have prayed for deliverance. The church of that day learned this, and they cried out, "How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge, and avenge our blood on them who dwell on the earth?" Rev. 6:10.

And yet he is long-suffering over them. (Ver. 7.) God bears long before his judgments, swift and terrible, are sent forth; but he bears long that he may have mercy. If sorrow and repentance shall be—"I say unto you, that he will avenge them speedily." He believed in and loved the old prophetic doctrine of the day of the Lord. The Herods, the Caesars, the unjust judges of the world, have their day and their day passes. The hour tarries long, but at last it comes on rapid, flaming wings, and the God who has hidden himself so long flashes forth in judgment and mercy. (J. E. M. Ross.)

The Pharisee and the Publican Ver. 9-10

It is quite apparent that this parable is a perfect picture of what Christ intends to teach, to frown down on self-righteousness. Could a more appropriate place be found for its setting than the temple? "Two men were going up to the temple to pray." Those who have been to Jerusalem have seen just such a scene. There are still the two types to be found there. In the Holy City the Pharisees still call forth the envious admiration of the people. Their ostentation still is admired and private and public processions are still in vogue. Imagine this self-righteous individual, well-dressed, dignified, outwardly reverent, going up to the Temple to perform his religious duties. See the publican, weighed

"I just don't seem to have enough hands to do everything at my house."

Haven't you often heard a weary woman, pressed on every side by household tasks and the care of children, express herself despairingly in these very words?

Nobody but MOTHER, herself, knows the endless duties that wait for a mother's two hands.

But the modern mother has a third hand and a strong capable, always ready hand to take over the work of housekeeping. This hand is her GAS SERVICE. It's the real helping hand of the home, and it costs very little for what it does.

Haile Selassie Takes Refuge in The Holy City

HAIFA, Palestine, May 8 (AP)—Self-exiled Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia, his family and two defeated generals, Ras Kassa and Ras Tsefaye, arrived today aboard the British cruiser, Enterprise, en route to refuge in the Holy City.

The emperor's face was drawn but he was resplendent in a white uniform, leggings, and spats.

Disembarking half an hour after the arrival of the British warship, the Negus, rode from the dock to a reception through streets patrolled by soldiers armed with machine guns and mounted lorries guarding against Jew-Arab disturbances.

A marine band played the Ethiopian national anthem as Haile Selassie inspected his guard of honor before departing by special train for Jerusalem.

One hundred steel-bound boxes were believed to contain the emperor's fortune of gold bars and silver Maria Theresa thalers. One small green cash box was guarded by an Ethiopian soldier as it was unloaded.
