NANKING - (AP) - The powerful Suchow garrison has begun quitting the city to go to the relief of 140,000 comrades trapped by the Communists to the south, usually reliable sources said today.

The decision to abandon bastion of East Central China

211 miles northwest of Nanking was taken in a desperate attempt to salvage forces for the defense of the capital. Suchow had stood firm under nearly a month of Communist assault. But it was outflanked by a sweeping Red drive to the south which cut across Suchow's

Greeks Said Unable To Repel Guerillas

ATHENS —(P)— Lt. Gen.
James A. Van Fleet says the Greek army is unable at present to keep Communist guerilla forces from invading Greek soil.

The head of the American military mission here said in a broadcast that the rebels led by Markos Vaflades are maintaining strong forces in Greece despite heavy losses because they are being reinforced from across the northern borders.

The United Nations Assembly in Paris adopted a resolution Saturday condemning Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia for aiding the guerillas.

There was no explanation of the move, which the dispatch said was endorsed by the executive council of the People's Assembly. The dispatch said the changes were made by Premier Enver Hoxha.

> "The perfect dancing partner should dance directly in front of you and be chest to chest," Dadey analyzed on the "You're My Ev-

he commented, and you'll just have to take his word for it. It's the offbeat dancers that louse up the floor, Dan added. "You keep bumping into them because they aren't keeping time with the music and you can't tell where they're going. Another danger is the middleaged stomp type. They push about the floor pumping and bouncing for all they're worth."

Dan prefers to do his public hoofing to a good swing band. He shuns the dull-beat society orchestras and the jitterbug out-fits. "The frantic jive some of the bands put out is strictly flipyour-lid stuff."

Concerning female partners, Dan had three final points: The gal who hums in your ar is a menace. So is the babe who insists on gabbing through a dance.

American Democracy Versus French Democracy

(Continued) I want to quote further from the article in Plain Talk by Edna Lonigan showing the difference between the original American concept of democracy and the French concept.

I quote "Until recently Americans were vigorously opposed to the Continental idea of democ-racy. To us, as to Jefferson and Franklin, citizens were not governed by anybody. They governed themselves. We would have opposed as vigorously as did John Stuart Mill any suggestion that a majority of citizens had any right control the rest. ***

"In the last few years, how ever, a great many Americans have been subtly won over to the Continental concept of democracy, with its strong central government operating in the name of the majority. Now we talk of special privileges for the 'underprivileged.' We urge Federal management of housing, medical care, schools and colleges. Federal contributions for school lunches, and Federal control of the franchise. We are already tolerant of Federal control of criminal and bolice work. We are more and financing our mayors from Washington, and encouraging them to look to Washington for their policies. Yet we seem hardly aware that the Continental form of democracy will destroy both American democracy and the American Republic,

"There are a thousand reasons change their freedom for majority persecuting anyone be-Quaker, or a Southern slave-holder or an abolitionist. How are members of 'minority groups' persuaded to support the trend to Continental democracy? How can centralism preserve the rights of Of course, the members of 'minority groups' are told that they will have more privileges if they accept the Continental, way but free men should not give up their birthrights for words. The second objection to Continental democracy is that the majorities which vote it into power do not spring up naturally, but are organized by somebody. From past history, from Greece and Rome, from Renaissance Italy and modern times, we can draw only one conclusion. The discontented masses who ask for the strong state are organized those who want to be the new The liberty of Florence 'kings. was destroyed by Lorenzo D'Medici; that of the First Republic in France by Napoleon L the Second Republic by Napoleon III, the Third Republic by Laval. The Republic in Germany was Hitler, government in Italy by Musso-lini, and the constitutional Re-

Government cannot be controlled by the citizens unless the central apparatus is restricted to very few functions, about which there is almost total agreement. the individual "It is not easy for a rich nation to remain truly democratic, Like the people of the late Middle Ages, we have forgotten how our society should function. Crystallization has set in, and with it a measure of rigidity. That is why we have not recognized the inroads made by the strong and subtle power-seekers on the integrity of our Republic. "But if we are truly ready to preserve our democracy and our liberty, we can make the United States once again a beacon light for those who want men to be free everywhere in the world." The Nation's Press

FROM WORST TO BEST'! (The Fort Wayne News Sentinel) President Truman in campaign speeches frequently denounced the 80th Congress as "the worst or second worst" in history.

Yet despite the Democratic victories on Nov. 2, nearly three-fourths of the House and fourfifths of the Senate in 1949 will be the same lawmakers who served is the 80th Congress. That means the Congress which the President will face in January is mostly the same Congress , whom he delighted in castigating.

The House will have 118 new members, the Senate 18 new mem-bers. The turnover in the House is larger, in the Senate smaller than in 1946. Will the newcombers be quickly and miraculously converted from "worst" to "best." Speaker Martin says the "President can have anything he wants from the 81st Congress" If this happens, it can only mean that, in addition to the voting of new members, the old members must do a complete turnabout. The American people will be disappointed, we believe, to witness such a demagogic turn of affairs, Does what is right before Nov. 2 suddenly become wrong in January? Does the mere fact that Tru-man, admittedly campaigning for votes, called the 80th Congress "the worst" make it a fact? Do we suddenly repudiate the integrity of reelected members of Congress? Does the election mean the Congress must suddenly veer to the left?

At this juncture the country needs a courageous spokesman for the 22 million people whose votes place them in solid opposition to this trend. Members of Congress who were re-elected received the endorsement of their constituents, That seems good evidence they want them to vote in the 81st as they did in the 80th Congress, The minority awaits a courageous voice to represent it in the interests of preserving the twoparty system in a virile republic

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—(AP)—The ock market closed lowed today after oving in a narrow range most of a session. Losses were from fractions to more than a point.

Volume was about 900,600 shares, the trading pace was comparatively let with no particular pressure desiloging during periods of selling. In the final hour the railroads turniform as a group after a highly legular performance, and most of the her sections of the market followed one.

other sections of the market followed along.

A number of favorable factors were ignored. The railroads continued reporting good net operating income for October. Lifting the freight embargo along the east coast was anticipated as a result of settlement of the maritime atrike. The west coast embargo remains in effect. The Permsylvaria lifted its embargo on less than carload lots into New York as a result of the truck strike settlement.

And the Federal Trade Commission agreed to meet with the Senate's Trade Policies Committee to work out a solution of the ban on the use of the basing point in fixing prices.

On the downside in the market were sants Fe. Nickel Plate, Southern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Standard Oll (NJ), Goodrich, Boeing, Douglas, American Smelting, Air Reduction (at a new low for the year), Westinghouse, Allied Chemical, International Paper, and Owens Illinois.

Higher were J. L. Case, Caterpillar, Gienn Martin, American Woolen, American Can, and Johns Manville.

Navy Discounts 'Mystery' U-Boat Seen in Gulf

WASHINGTON -(P)- Nav officials here discounted reports of an unknown submarine in the Gulf of Mexico. Privately, they were writing the whole thing off as a mirage inspired by enthusiasm.

The crew of a training plane from the Corpus Christi, Tex., Naval Air Base reported Friday they thought they saw a periscope 20 miles off the U. S. coast. An analysis later by base officials said the object, which disappeared in 10 minutes, was more likely a snorkel—the snout of the breathing tube used by modern submarines. Naval experts here say it could

Services were held yesterday, commemorating the founding of the church 20 years ago, High Mass of thanksgiving was held yesterday at 8 a.m.; and the Rev. Father Oscar Huber, pastor at Perryville, Mo., preached the sermon last night.

Mrs. R. J. Kiser, writing in recent issue of The Amarillo Register, official Catholic newspaper of the Amarillo diocese. explained that the first Catholic services held locally were in the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. R.

Mrs. Kiser's article said: "Aside from the bond of religion, the first Catholics had other things in common. Most of them had come to Pampa in search of CONTRACT greener fields. The majority were from Okiahoma and engaged in some branch of the oil industry.

Books Offer Clue to Important 20s, Writer

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON —(P)— Let me ask you a couple of questions.

Were you grown up and voting back in 1920 when Warren G. Roosevelt. Harding was elected President? Or have you come of age since then? Anyway, do you remember much about what happened in the important years between 1920 and

Time and a million events have left a foggy jumble in the minds of a lot of people—a sense of almost lost years.

If you're one of those you could, without much trouble, pull the jumbled pieces together and get a clear picture. You could do it by reading just a few books which are suggested in this story. Before looking at them, you may ask: Why start at 1920 and stop at 1940? Be-That was a period of getting over a war, of boom times and terrible bust, of trying to get back on our feet with the New Deal, and then getting ready for another war.

What happens in the next four years will have its roots in the 20 years between 1920 and 1340, for they laid the groundwork for what lies ahead. The easiest way I know of getting into those 20 years is by reading Frederick Lewis Allen's "Only Yesterday"—a history of the 1920s—and his "Since Yesterday"—a history of the 1930s. They're delightful books, fast and easy to read. He weaves music, literature and styles in with the politics, people and events of the two decades.

But some people may want to use Allen's books as a starting point and look for further reading to find out not only what happened but why.

Here are the two latest books on the 20-year period: Karl Schriftgiesser's "This Was Normalcy," covering the 1920s, and Dixon Wecter's "The Age of The Great Depression," which starts with the 1929 crash and goes to There's one other book, very recent, which cuts sharply but briefly across the 1920-1940 period. This is Richard Hofstadter's "The American Political Tradition Although his book, a collection
