LOBBY TO BE DOUBLED AND SHOPS ADDED

THE NEW PAMPA Fastest Growing City in Texas—Panhandle Oil
And Wheat Center

(VOL. 30, NO. 21) (Full (AP) Leased Wire) PAMPA, GRAY COUNTY, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 29, 1936. 8 PAGES TODAY (PRICE FIVE CENTS)

Plan now to attend the Panhandle Centennial celebration at Pampa June 2, 3, 4, and 5, with which is combined a Pioneer's Roundup and Oil Men's Reunion. It is a GREATER celebration for the whole Panhandle.

Twinkles

Colorado, in barring jobless persons, is inconsistent in still admitting fishermen.

Some other sections have "stern and rock-bound coasts," while in this country the boundaries are obscure and the rocks used to mark them have been carried away to make rock gardens.

We've made good progress in kindness to animals, but kindness to plants—especially trees—is still all too rare in this plains country where trees should be considered sort of sacred.

What is so rare, too, as the correct time in a crowd?

About the best music you can hear these days is "restrained." It is either in radio transcriptions or movies. The cans make no mistakes—you can make 'em over and over until all is technically correct.

Musing of the moment: One of the hardest things we do is to tell job applicants that hope of employing them soon is remote. Many persons aspire to work for which they are by temperament or training unqualified. And many make poor preparation for the art of applying for a job. The obvious disappointment of a person who needs a job badly always leaves us in a state of depression. But smart are they who give most thought to other applications, other possibilities, and little to pinning.

Brevitorials

GOVERNOR ALLRED is more thoughtful of the old folks than they imagine. The chances for new taxes sufficient to maintain old age assistance are much better than they would have been had he called a special session of the legislature before now. Accumulations from liquor taxes are great enough to start the pay checks. What they may be expected to total has been demonstrated. When the legislature meets in a few weeks—as we believe it will—there will be no time for subterfuge. Primaries will be near enough to force the legislature into adequate legislation. Moreover, investigations of applications have been under way and there was no reason to believe that the pensions could be started on an efficient basis throughout the state before July 1.

This is the time of year when students are supposed to give a bit of serious thought to scholastic matters. Especially the boys are likely to awaken to the fact that athletics, dates, loafing, and the like are only incidentals. And these boys who go to universities and colleges poorly prepared for serious study are the ones who come home without halos and headlines.

IN WORKING up a first class sense of social responsibility Uncle Sam is forced to recognize a number of facts which have been overlooked in the past. Back in 1929, for instance, you didn't hear anything about federal relief. States didn't do much for the unemployed, except to build roads. The unemployed didn't think of asking our Uncle for aid. Figures compiled by Collier's show that there were 45 millions of persons employed in 1929, and three millions were unemployed. Today there are forty millions on private payrolls, five millions on work relief rolls, and at least five millions unemployed.

Success of day after day is a new situation in American government. The first pact failed when the Articles of Confederation collapsed. The federal government we now use was the result. Current pacts are important in that they delay the time when the government may have to precede states in most functions. The pacts such as that on oil are slowing a transition period and conceivably preventing much strife.

ONE OF THE most interesting round-ups of Centennial Year in Texas is the summer round-up of the children who will enter school next fall. The summer round-up of the children is the major health project of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The local parent-teacher group of each community endeavors to have parents who have children ready to enter school next fall, take these children to their family physician for a physical examination so that any defects they might have may be corrected during the summer.

LOVE MOTIVE IS HINTED AT POISON TRIAL

WITNESS CLAIMS MRS. PATTERSON LOVED CATTLEMAN

GREENVILLE, April 29. (AP)—The housemaid who watched 12-year-old Dorothy McCasland die in agony, allegedly from poison, testified today that immediately after the child passed away her (Dorothy's) mother, Mrs. Velma Patterson ordered her to "keep your little mouth shut about me buying that poison."

The maid, Annie Cooper, had just been told of Mrs. Patterson being "deeply in love" with Jimmy Wallace, a Long Oak cattleman, and saying she "would marry him if it wasn't for the children."

The witness told of the 34-year-old brunette widow, married three times, that she saw the poison bottle from Jan. 7 until Feb. 10, when little Dorothy became ill. Mrs. Patterson's other daughter, Billie Fae 11 had died a short time before Dorothy was stricken.

Miss Cooper testified of hearing a conversation between Mrs. E. E. Lemons, beauty shop operator, Commerce, and Mrs. Patterson, in which Mrs. Lemons asked the woman if she had "put out rat poison."

Mrs. Patterson was quoted as replying: "No, why?"

Mrs. Lemons then said, according to the maid: "Well, I thought maybe you had and Dorothy got hold of it."

"No, there's never been rat poison here," the maid said Mrs. Patterson replied.

A few minutes after Dorothy died, Miss Cooper testified, Mrs. Patterson called her into the living room at her Commerce home and told her:

"You keep your little mouth shut about me buying that poison."

Miss Cooper had related how Mrs. Patterson had had her ex-husband, W. W. (Dexter) McCasland, father of Billie Fae and Dorothy, go to town and buy poison before Dorothy's death.

Aluminum Boat Performs Well On Davis Lake

Natives of this section thought the recent rain had affected them yesterday afternoon when they actually saw a boat in the Panhandle. And what a boat.

It was solid aluminum and was made at Cabot Shops west of Pampa for Tom Cabot of Boston. Yesterday afternoon, R. G. Allen and Art Swanson of the Cabot company, accompanied by William Plimley and Harry E. Houtz took the boat to the Mel Davis lake southeast of LeFors and, after a christening ceremony, floated the craft. It gave a perfect performance.

Mr. Cabot, one of the country's leading sportsmen, is an enthusiastic canoeist. One of his hobbies is to take a canoe to the headwaters of a river and run rapids, and falls for many miles. He will use the Pampa-made boat for that purpose.

The craft weighs only 70 pounds and 10 per cent of that weight is in the oak keel. It is 16 feet long. To be used for the purpose the boat is 33 1/2 inches wide at the midship and is only 15 inches high at the bow and 13 inches at midship.

There are few aluminum boats in the country and probably none like the one made here.

People You Know

The Easter Sunday clothes of a boy are the doings of a proud mother—sometimes, and sometimes they are not. When every boy in the Sunday school class has new Easter clothes except one or two, then it is not sometimes.

This boy had no new clothes Easter Sunday, and he sat quietly in his seat, rather to his shame, but not one bit ashamed. Then the teacher, a wise one, hearing all the boys talk about their clothes, said:

"Boy, come here." And he pinned his yellow rose on the boy's shirt, saying, "I wish I had a rose for every one here, but I happened to see This Boy first."

But of course, he didn't.

'Who'll Help a Poor Congressman?'

Holding out his hat for "collection" for a defense fund, Representative Marion A. Zioncheck, the "Peck's bad boy" of Congress, was in high spirits despite the fact that he was peering between jail bars when this picture was snapped in Washington. The Seattle congressman, fined $25 for speeding, was jailed when he tried to walk from the courtroom before sentence.

Governor Recalls Colorado Troops

Ban Against Labor Is Lifted in New Orders

DENVER, April 29. (AP)—Governor Ed C. Johnson revoked his declaration of martial law along the Colorado-New Mexico boundary today and ordered the Colorado national guard troops recalled.

The governor proclaimed martial law and sent guardsmen into a mile-wide strip along the 360-mile southern border April 18.

Between 30 and 50 troops have patrolled roads leading into the state, and have turned back several hundred non-residents seeking entrance.

Governor Johnson said, in lifting the embargo, that it could not be continued against labor, because of Colorado's relations with other states. He notified Adj. Gen. Neil W. Kimball at his headquarters near Trinidad, to recall the troops at once.

In his martial law proclamation the governor said he took the action to halt a "threatened invasion of alien and indigent workers."

Clarendon And Canadian Given Fete Invitation

Two civic clubs in this territory heard the story of the Panhandle Centennial celebration yesterday—the Rotary club at Canadian and the Lions club at Clarendon.

Carl Benefield made the main talk at Canadian after Mayor W. A. Bratton had extended an official invitation to the Canadian people to attend the celebration here June 2-5.

A string quartet composed of Harry Kelley, Wincer Baker, Buck Koonce, and James Herring furnished entertainment. Others in the group were C. T. Hunkapillar, president of the Pampa Rotary club; Carl Boston, Paul Owens, and Philip R. Pond. Dr. C. H. Schulzky was program chairman for the local trippers.

At Clarendon, Olin E. Hinkle president of the Pampa Lions club introduced the program. Judge Ivy E. Duncan made the principal talk on the Centennial. The Lions male quartet, composed of Jack Dunn, Bob Rose, Chick Hickman, and Dude Balthrope, sang several numbers. A. M. Teed accompanied the party.

Excellent responses were received in each place.

WPA WORKER SENTENCED

WICHITA FALLS, April 29. (AP)—Wade L. Allison, Burk Burnett WPA workman, faced an 18-month jail sentence today in connection with the death April 10 of R. H. McFarlane, WPA project superintendent. A county court jury convicted Allison last night of negligent homicide. McFarlane, brother of Congressman W. D. McFarlane of Graham, was injured fatally in a fight after Allison was discharged from the works project.

'BAD BOY' OF HOUSE SILENT ON MARRIAGE

He Talks About Everything But Nuptials; Preacher Admits Marrying Pair.

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—Rep. Marion Zioncheck of Washington state today prepared a brief on congressional immunity with one hand and received congratulations on his day-old marriage with the other.

Still doggedly refusing to admit or deny he was married yesterday to Ruby Louise Nix, 21, blonde and pretty PWA stenographer, he quipped:

"I don't let one hand know what the other is doing."

The brief dealt with immunity from arrest. He said it was inspired by his skirmish last week with police when he was fined for speeding and content of court.

But what about his honeymoon plans? "Interrupted newsmen. "Who, me?" he came back with exaggerated surprise. "Well, I'll tell you, that sounds like a good idea. I think I'll propose to her."

Informed that the Rev. Paul R. Diehl of Annapolis, Md., had confirmed that he married the couple, the congressman said:

"This all reminds me that there is a connection in the ocean and the ocean is full of commotion."

After several more unsuccessful tries, newsmen left their pockets bulging with quotations from Zioncheck on practically every subject except his marriage.

Among his pronouncements were: "A challenge to meet the American table tennis champion for charity's sake."

"That he can train turtles and make friends with monkeys in the zoo."

"That he can play the piano, sing, and play golf."

"And that he has few rivals when it comes to making Irish stew."

Demonstrations followed each assertion.

While this was taking place in his apartment, the bride, a former employe in the office of Rep. Dies (D., Tex.), said she first heard of the 35-year-old representative when she was working on Capitol Hill last year.

Earlier Zioncheck said he met her last week when she telephoned him that she thought he was a "pretty swell fellow."

He added that he "went down to look her over and found her OK."

TRAIN IN VIRGINIA

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 25. (AP)—Texas Centennial boosters awoke today in the Blue Ridge mountains of Virginia. The party, including Gov. James V. Allred of Texas, stopped here for two hours and moved on to Richmond in its special train. Last night Gov. Martin L. Davey of Ohio, met the Centennial special in Cincinnati's $42,000,000 new railroad station. More than 800 persons assembled to hear the University of Texas band.

B. W. Kelley returned this morning from Gainesville, where he took Mrs. Kelley and children to reside for several months.

Scout Cavalcade To Be Elaborate Centennial Event

Names of chairmen of all committees which will have charge of the colorful Cavalcade of Scouting will be announced after the meeting Monday night.

The spectacular show will be staged Tuesday night, June 2, the first day of the Centennial celebration. Governor Allred will be here that day to open it with an address. He will be attended by an honor guard of uniformed Scouts, selected from every troop in the council. Each troop may designate one boy for this honor guard in any way it chooses.

Next Sunday, the Cavalcade will be the subject of a radio broadcast over radio station KPND. A thrilling and amusing incident in the life of one of the scouts to be honored in the Cavalcade will be told in dramatic form.

Scoutmasters recently emphasized that the Cavalcade would not be a pageant, as they have been produced here, nor yet a Scout circus. They believe they have planned something that will be unique, different and interesting. For that reason they chose the name "Cavalcade" for their show.

Possibly 600 Adobe Walls Council Scouts will be encamped here the first day when all will appear in the parade and pageant.

SENATE WILL OPEN HEARING ON TOMORROW

STIFFER OPPOSITION IS EXPECTED IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—The administration's $803,000,000 tax bill was passed by the heavily Democratic House today over opposition votes of the Republican minority.

The bulky measure, designed to raise funds to meet bonus and farm relief costs and embracing a complete revision of the corporate tax system, now goes to the Senate where the finance committee already has begun its consideration.

Tomorrow, Secretary Morgenthau will testify before the committee at its first hearing.

A somewhat warmer reception awaited the measure in the Senate committee than it would have received last week. Criticism of the proposal was less in evidence among the Democratic committee members and many of them were forecasting its approval.

Linked with application of the normal 4 per cent income tax on dividends, it is expected to bring in $623,000,000 additional to help meet President Roosevelt's request for farm and bonus funds.

The vote on passage, cleft among party lines, was a mere formality which sealed the tentative approval given the bill yesterday. With only four changes—all proposed by the Ways and Means committee in charge of the legislation, the 236-page measure had been hustled through the amendment stage with such speed as to give rise to protests of "unfair" and "steam-roller" tactics.

Its backers claim it will lead to more equitable taxation, particularly as between corporations and partnerships, and at the same time remove the greatest loophole for tax evasion—the ability of individuals to avoid high surtaxes on incomes by impounding income in corporate surpluses.

Republicans contended the bill would shake the stability of business, tend toward creation of monopolies and fall far short of its estimated yield. They have branded it dangerous, unsound, vicious and radical.

In addition to the revenue to be produced from the new corporate tax plan, $100,000,000 is expected from an 80 per cent "windfall" levy on processors who did not pay A.A. processing taxes and $83,000,000 from temporary continuation of excess profits and capital stock taxes.

The latter ultimately would be repealed, along with the present corporate income tax of 12 1/2 to 15 per cent.

The new corporation rates would range up to 29 1/2 per cent for corporations with taxable income of $10,000 or less and up to 42 1/2 per cent for larger ones.

Coming Soon

Mrs. Will M. Benton of Amarillo, above, will be one of the Legion Auxiliary officials who will attend the district convention here Saturday and Sunday. She is a member of the child welfare committee and in charge of its radio programs. For two years she was chairman of the rehabilitation committee. Friends are suggesting her for the office of department president of the Texas Auxiliary.

BCD TO SELECT GIRL TO ENTER BEAUTY EVENT

Pulchritude Pageant Will Be Staged In Amarillo

A special committee of the Board of City Representatives in choosing Pampa's representative in the pageant of pulchritude to be held at Amarillo in connection with the West Texas chamber of commerce. Her name will be announced in a few days.

Besides appearing in the pageant, she will likely appear in parades and in a short entertainment presented by a Pampa cast.

AMARILLO, April 29. (AP)—When the pageant of pulchritude is presented here in connection with the "West Texas Cavalcade," will be in a modernistic setting of green and gold.

For the last two weeks, Oma Link Rowley, scenic artist, has been at work on the stunning stage setting in spacious municipal auditorium.

The pageant, known officially as "West Texas Cavalcade," will be presented two nights, Monday, May 11, and Tuesday, May 12.

Added to the stage setting for the second night will be a throne to which "Miss West Texas" will ascend by popular vote of those attending.

Admission to the pageant will be by the convention's registration badge.

Prior to the presentation of the West Texas beauties, talent from the towns affiliated with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be introduced in a special entertainment.

Dr. R. P. Parcells, in charge of the revue, hopes to obtain enough talent to change the entire program each night.

Except for the Balladettes and Balladors, the honor-winning group of singers from Amarillo college, there will be no talent from the host city.

Billy Rose, noted New York producer and in charge of staging Ft. Worth's Frontier celebration, may come to Amarillo to assist in staging the revue.

The North Texas Teachers college stage band will furnish the musical background for both the revue and the pageant.

So far the only other talent selected by Dr. Parcells is Albert Terry of Canyon, musical prodigy, and a Brownwood trio, Misses Margaret Wilson, Beverly Taylor and Genevieve McInroe, pupils of Miss Mavis Douglas, vice director at Howard Payne college.

GARNER UNOPPOSED

AUSTIN, April 29. (AP)—No opposition has appeared openly against the re-election of President John N. Garner as Democratic committee man from Texas with the state convention which will make the decision only one month away.

NEW STRUCTURE WILL ACCOMMODATE SIX FLOORS

Construction of a two-story brick addition to the Adams hotel here will be started early in June, it is announced by W. A. Adams, El Paso ranchman and owner of the present building.

The addition will join the present structure on the north and will be built to support six stories eventually. It will be 87 feet along the front by 42 feet deep. The older building, erected in 1927, is 63 by 140 feet, with 86 rooms.

The first floor of the addition will double the size of the lobby and provide six new shop spaces, most of which are already taken under lease reservations. The second floor will have 14 large, modern rooms with individual baths, hot and cold running water, large windows, and other desirable appointments.

At the same time, the original structure will be refinished and redecorated and provided with new hardware.

Total cost of these items and the addition will approximate $40,000, according to G. M. Holt, veteran hotel man who is manager of The Adams.

Mr. Adams said he was launching the expansion program as an expression of his faith in the future of Pampa and to provide employment. Now of El Paso, he formerly lived in Fort Worth. He expressed the hope that other persons with capital would show similar faith in Pampa, and would join him in an era of substantial construction.

Sketches of the new structure are being placed in the hands of several architects for submission of plans. The architecture, however, will conform to the present building.

Both rooms will be finished in assorted color combinations such as the traveling public has come to expect in the better hotels. About half of the rooms will have tub baths and the rest shower baths. Locks will be of a type which permits locking the doors ajar for ventilation in summer.

The shops are expected to include a drugstore, beauty parlor, coffee shop, and similar ones which will serve the hotel guests and that section of the city.

Five Killed and Three Injured in Louisiana Wreck

LUTCHER, La., April 29. (AP)—Five persons were dead and three others were in a hospital today seriously injured from an accident last night on the New Orleans-Baton Rouge highway four miles north of Lutcher in which two trucks and an automobile crashed and burned.

Although there were no witnesses to the crash outside of those in the machines involved, Dr. G. L. Daudet, coroner of St. James parish who investigated the wreck today, expressed the opinion that the trucks hit head-on, the automobile crashed into them and the mass of wreckage burst into flames trapping some of the injured and burning them to death.

The dead: Vernon Hebert, 25, New Orleans; Virgil Hebert, 23, his brother; Leon Worrell, Zachary, La.; Byrd L. Rhea, 50, attached to the United States engineers office at Baton Rouge, burned to death; and Fenton Cline, 23, also attached to the engineers office, burned to death.

The injured were: W. F. Cobb, 60, of Zachary, critically hurt; Annis Lee Hebert, 20, New Orleans, undetermined condition and Earl Ray McClure, 20, of Zachary, serious condition.

Parker Named as Wendel Kidnaper In a Confession

BROOKLYN, N. Y., April 29. (AP)—District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan said today Ellis Parker Jr., was named in a statement by Harry Weiss as having directed the kidnaping of Paul M. Wendel.

Weiss, the prosecutor said, charge Parker "fired" Wendel the day he was abducted, helped in the torture by which Wendel's "confession" to the Lindbergh crime supposedly was obtained in a Sheepshead Bay hideout, and supervised writing five Wendel "confessions."

"I saw Park yank the ropes that pulled Wendel up and down like a jackrabbit," Geoghan said Weiss told him of the torture.

Geoghan said Weiss told of Parker, disguised in goggles and a false moustache, pointing out Wendel to his abductors on a midtown Manhattan street.

Weiss, indicted for participating in the abduction, was arrested yesterday in Youngstown, O., and returned here. Parker, son of the renowned Burlington county, N. J. detective, and Murray Bleefeld, also named in the confession, are under indictment. Both are fugitives.

K. H. Dolly, Berger attorney, was here today.

WE HADN'T MISSED THEM

Ordinarily accurate, the Bureau of Labor Statistics has probably over-reached itself in estimating that 35,000 persons have left the dust bowl and moved to California.

Admittedly, many persons have temporarily or permanently left certain parts of the dust bowl, especially parts of Kansas, Colorado, and New Mexico. The number leaving Texas is relatively small. And because a person leaves the dust area and goes to California is not proof that the "bowl" is not inhabitable. Persons move to California for a thousand reasons, or no reason at all. Because of harvests which include almost every month, common laborers in great numbers have gone there. Many are hard hit. The state wants no more of them.

The EPIC and Townsend movements in California caused many persons to believe that Utopia was to be found in California. They were bitterly disappointed. Nearby Nevada, which knows California, contributed only 602 persons to the total. Oklahoma sent thousands. From Texas went 3,560 persons, but most of them could not be said to be from the drought area.

Such movements are causing labor disturbances. Colorado is using military forces to prevent an influx of farm workers. As long as the unemployment problem is as acute as it is now, the free and easy migrations of other years are taboo. U. S. employment bureaus are, however, seeking to move workers to seasonal employment.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The House's adverse vote on a request for added counsel fees for the Senate lobby committee had some interesting angles.

Not long ago the committee disclosed that six congressmen, led by Representative Sam Pettengill of Indiana, had lived at the home of a railroad-public utility lobbyist for awhile last summer.

These men and their friends represented enough strength to be responsible for the margin in a 153-137 vote by which the House defeated Senator Black's request for $10,000 for defense against court action by William Randolph Hearst.

Pettengill, Clark of Idaho, Scragham of Nevada, and Sutphin of New Jersey voted "No." The other two "tenants," Cary of Kentucky and Feisinger of Ohio, didn't vote.

The California "Hearst bloc" was also important. Of the 20 California congressmen, only Buck, Costello, Colden, and Scott voted favorably.

And only two Republicans—Marcantonio of New York and Stefan of Nebraska—voted to uphold the Black committee.

Those were the chief factors behind a unique spectacle which found the House defeating a resolution which had been unanimously passed by the Senate.

Governor Landon of Kansas plans to take one of his first political hurdles with a running jump.

Although he seems to be far out in front in the race for the Republican presidential nomination, embarrassment for him has been foreseen because the Social Security Board turned down the Kansas plan for co-operation to receive old age, blind, and other pension aid in the federal program.

A special session of the legislature is required if Kansans are to receive federal benefits at any early date. At such session, according to all reports, wets and dries of Kansas are sure to stage a knockdown battle. The dries want the state on an alcoholic basis of half of 1 per cent and the wets naturally don't.

It was charged that Landon might be willing to delay benefits to avoid embarrassment, since his record is bone dry, and anything which would accentuate that fact would hurt his candidacy in most populous states.

Landon has decided to call the special session, however, and now seeks to determine whether a satisfactory social insurance plan requires a constitutional amendment or merely a legislative act.

His friends predict that if he is put on the spot as to alcohol, he will declare for "beer for revenue."

Reports from Baltimore indicate that the reaction to Roosevelt's campaign-opening speech there was even more sour than the thin applause seemed to indicate—at least, among old-line Democratic politicians.

It is objected that the speech was too idealistic, philosophical, and inspirational—"hokey" is the word the ward bosses use—and that Roosevelt made an almost unforgettable error when he failed to pay tribute to or even mention the late ex-Governor Ritchie, a New Deal foe.

SPEAKER HITS TAX POLICIES AND SPENDING

CHAMBER CONTINUES ATTACKS ON FDR PROGRAM

By JAMES R. BRACKETT
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, April 28. (AP)—A leader in the chamber of commerce of the United States declared today that it is up to the Roosevelt administration itself to speed the re-employment of idle millions by curbing government spending and changing new deal tax policies.

Fred H. Clausen of Horicon, Wis., chairman of the chamber's committee on federal finance, said in a speech prepared for delivery today at the chamber's 24th convention: "Notwithstanding the repeated challenge of the administration that private industry assume the obligation of re-employment, new exactions of government have had the direct effect of retarding that very process."

Attacking both the "wealth tax" act of last year and the pending bill to revise the corporate tax structure, he urged that "the federal taxing power be returned to its proper function and be limited to the raising of the revenues required for the economical administration of government."

The chamber, he said, "considers that the outstanding problem that America faces today is the inability to control public expenditures and obtain a balanced federal budget."

Business men are much concerned over it, he said, and "that concern is deepened when we realize that there is no convincing general recognition by those in authority of the serious situation."

This year's tax proposal, involving among other features a graduated tax on undistributed corporation income and removal of the present exemption of dividends from the normal 4 per cent income tax, was assailed by Clausen in these words:

"Five times since 1932 and we wonder what the end can be. Shall we cry out in despair 'O Lord, how long—and how much?' After an intensive training period of the past three years, I realize that we are combatting the opinions of economic advisers most of whom never operated a private industry nor met a factory payroll."

"Since the 1933 policy of economy vanished into thin air," he said, "only one formula to replenish the treasury has been in evidence: More taxes on men and corporations engaged in industry and commerce, and drain the reservoirs required for productive enterprise."

"The tax bill now before Congress is just another expression of this formula, fearful in its conse-

HORSES ARRIVE FOR AMARILLO RACE MEET TO BEGIN MAY 8

AMARILLO, April 29.—With dozens of thoroughbred horses already quartered in the stables and requests for stall space coming in daily, officials of the Tri-State Fair Racing association are busy these days and nights getting ready for the opening of the spring meeting to be held here May 8 to the 16.

All lovers of horse racing are in their annual anxiety this week, for Saturday the Kentucky Derby will be run. All is excitement on the turf front.

Of course, the Kentucky Derby is a quences and destructive of American business solvency."

Record-breaking has been the interest among horse owners in the coming Tri-State that officials vision the greatest meeting ever held in Texas on a minor track.

The most gratifying thing about the reservations for the spring races is that over 90 per cent of the horses entered are thoroughbreds!

With a program of improvement

top in the horse racing world, but here in the Panhandle all the thrills that attend great races may be enjoyed. Favorites being left at the post, longshots, romping in, jockeys being thrown by unruly mounts, and the general mill of a high-strung crowd are things akin to all race tracks.

Record-breaking has been the interest among horse owners in the coming Tri-State that officials vision the greatest meeting ever held in Texas on a minor track.

The most gratifying thing about the reservations for the spring races is that over 90 per cent of the horses entered are thoroughbreds!

With a program of improvement

well underway at the Tri-State track, and this is the chief show of faith by the men who own the blue-bloods, it is no wonder officials visualize in the near future a 'big apple' rating for the now famous Amarillo track.

At the Tri-State, fans will find the paddock, the finish line, the pari-mutuel department, and the spacious grandstand as convenient as any plant in the country. Although not all of the $15,000 improvement job will be done in time for the spring meeting enough will have been finished to give the fans an insight into the truly great plant that is being built in the Panhandle.

On Wednesday, May 13, the Tri-State will run the West Texas Chamber of Commerce handicap. It will carry a purse of $500 and will draw some of the best distance thoroughbreds in the country. Horse owners have found the wonderful % in oval at the Tri-State to be a great place to let their horses run for experience which they will need in the summer racing season on the major tracks.

The Tri-State track bed has been kept in such fine condition that never has a horse broken a leg or spilled here as a result of a bad spot in the oval. This is a record that few tracks anywhere can boast of. It is because of this excellent condition of the Tri-State, the prompt payment of purses, and the impartial treatment given by the officials which has lured so many stable owners to enter the Tri-State's races.

The Tri-State's policy of cooperating with state and county officers in keeping the meetings free from bookies, touts, and other undesirable persons from operating has been a big factor in building and keeping the faith of the fans who support the project.

TEXAS RANGERS USE PLANES IN BORDER PATROL

They Spot Smugglers From Air in the Big Bend

AUSTIN, April 29 (AP)—Texas Rangers, famed for their exploits astride a horse, today employ airplanes in their search for smugglers in the mountainous, sparsely-settled Big Bend country adjacent to the Mexican border.

Zooming over peaks of the Chisos mountains and dipping deep into narrow canyons of the Rio Grande, international boundary, modernized Rangers chase "young Mexicans gone outlaw," who ply a steady trade of theft and smuggling.

Advent of airplanes in patrolling Brewster county, five miles the size of Rhode Island, coordinated the new and the old transportation, airplanes and horses. Rifles, likewise, are standard arms, along with "forty-fives."

"In five hours we can patrol an area that it takes a month to cover by automobile and horse," explained Ranger Pete Crawford, who, with Ranger Levi Duncan, comprises the Rangers' air patrol. "To catch them used to take days and weeks at a time with horses and pack outfit."

Horse and pack mules still are indispensable. Few roads penetrate the wild country and none criss-cross it.

Rangers, customs men and border patrolmen, riding in airplanes furnished by the air patrol detachment of the United States coast guard, spot smugglers, their hide-outs, and their mountain trails.

Directions are dropped to Rangers and others waiting at strategic places with horses. Sometimes trucks may be used to transport horses and men to vantage passes for the search.

Mounted men begin the chase on ground while those in the airplane circle overhead, keeping an eye on the smugglers' band and directing the mounted men below.

Rangers and cooperating agencies of the federal government operate from a camp on the Rio Grande in the heart of the Big Bend. Nearby is a radio broadcasting unit by which planes are summoned from San Antonio. Two or three hours are required to reach the landing field in the mountain valley.

Italians Fight For Lives When Blacks Attack

WITH THE ITALIAN ARMY ON THE SOUTHERN FRONT AT GORRAHEI, Ethiopia, April 29. (AP) (Reuters)—The Italian troops here faced an extremely critical position when 5,000 Ethiopians attacked last night. Only the magnificent courage of a battalion of native Somali averted possible disaster.

The Ethiopians, firing from the surrounding bush, poured a deadly hail of bullets into the camp, where even the war correspondents were warned that they must be ready to fight for their lives.

After a night-long battle, the Ethiopians were driven off, leaving 600 dead. The Italians lost 10 officers killed and 23 wounded.

Dan Belew underwent an emergency appendectomy at Pampa-Jarratt hospital last night. His condition today was favorable.

Townsend Called 'An Old Fossil,' Reports Claim

LOS ANGELES, April 29. (AP)—Testimony that Dr. Francis E. Townsend admitted he was not optimistic about passage of his old age pension bill through the present Congress featured a congressional subcommittee's records today.

"Well I haven't been kidding myself. I expected nothing this session or maybe the next, or the next," Dr. Townsend was quoted as saying by the "fax" witness of the subcommittee's first public hearing, O. Otto Moore, Denver, Colo., lawyer.

Moore was a member of the congressional action delegation sent to Washington in January, 1935.

The subcommittee, in recess now until tomorrow, was told by Moore that when he advised Dr. Townsend his followers should be informed of the hopelessness of immediate pension legislation, the physician replied:

"What do we care. Those old fossils don't know what it is all about." "Old fossil" seemed a common term among leaders of the movement as Moore told of once hearing Robert E. Clements, then secretary-treasurer of the pension organization apply it to Dr. Townsend in the latter's absence.

The witness said he advised Dr. Townsend and Clements:

"You know that $200 a month to every one in the country over 60

Addis Ababa Due To Be Occupied Within 3 Days

ROME, April 29 (AP)—Tropical East Africa rains bogged down the Italian offensive against Sasa Baner today, causing the southern troops to call a temporary halt while the motorized forces rumbled on toward Addis Ababa.

The three southern columns, worn down by their drive against the stout Ethiopian defenses, were ordered to rest at positions already occupied.

Marshal Pietro Badoglio's main column of 15,000 Italian white soldiers, riding in trucks down the imperial highway from Dessye to Addis Ababa meantime was climbing the central plateau directly toward Emperor Haile Selassie's capital.

The last communique from the commander-in-chief reported yesterday that this spearhead of his attack had driven in 140 kilometers (about 92 miles) from Dessye.

Italian military experts expected the occupation of Addis Ababa to be carried out—without encountering opposition—within two or three days at the most.

The only major task remaining then to complete the fascist conquest of Ethiopia, these sources said, would be elimination of the army of Ras Nasibu, standing in the way of the southern Italian forces before Harar, second city of Ethiopia.

SINGING PUPILS OF COUNTY WILL MEET IN SONGFEST AND SEND GROUP TO DISTRICT MEET

Gray county schools will have their Centennial Songfest at Harvester Park Friday evening. The Centennial Music meet of district one is scheduled at Canyon that morning, and this county will be represented there by the Girls' Glee club of Pampa high school, numbering about 130 girls.

All schools in the county have announced plans to have pupils attend the songfest here, and bands will be sent by schools which have such organizations. Pupils have learned the same Centennial songs this year, and will be able to sing together in massed choruses.

The same songs will be heard on the program at Canyon, and in June children from schools all over the state are to meet in Dallas for a songfest at which 50,000 pupils are expected.

The Pampa Glee club is to sing during the opening hour of the Canyon meet, when Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas Teachers college, will welcome the visitors and Dr. L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, will respond with a short address.

The Teachers college band with play and the Stamps Centennial quartet will sing. This program is to start at 9:45, and from 10:45 to 12 the massed chorus will sing. Attendance of 2,500 pupils, the district quota is expected. Miss Nell Parmley, state supervisor of school music, will direct the chorus with the aid of a sound unit.

With favorable weather, the meet will be in Buffalo stadium. The public is invited; no admission will be charged. Dr. Hill has announced that privileges of the college will be granted to singers during the day. The historical museum will be open all day and special guides will be on duty to direct the groups.

The program for choruses has been announced as follows:

Entire group: Texas, Our Texas (as recorded); Beautiful Texas (one verse); Texas, Pride of the South (one verse).

Junior chorus: Sing a Little Song When You Are Happy (as recorded); Over the Heather (as recorded); The Leaf and the Bird (as recorded); Battle Hymn of the Republic (one verse).

Entire group: The Bluebonnet, Flower of Texas (one verse); Rounded Up in Glory (chorus and first verse); Will You Come to the Bower (one verse).

Senior group: Stars of the Summer Night (as recorded); Old Blanche (one verse); O, Susanna (as recorded); Billy Boy (as recorded); Whoopee T. T. Yo (as recorded); Old Chisholm Trail (as recorded); Home Sweet Home (as recorded); The Eyes of Texas Are Upon You (as recorded).

HARVESTERS AND EXES TO PLAY FINAL GAME OF SEASON AT NIGHT, MAY 11

FALL TRAINING CAMP WILL BE IN MOUNTAINS

BOYS WILL BE TAKEN TO EAGLE NEST LAKE

Spring football practice for Harvesters prospects will end in a blaze of light. The occasion will be a night game with the ex-harvesters to be played under the lights at Harvester field on the night of May 11, beginning at 8 o'clock. An admission charge of 10 cents for students and 20 cents for adults will be made to defray expenses.

Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejan announced the big surprise to the boys out for practice yesterday afternoon. In the workout which followed there was "murder" committed. Every boy tried to outshine the other and get the call to start the big game.

Several boys have failed to report for practice and it will be hard for them to catch up while the bunch is working. Also they will lose out on fall training camp, which will probably be held at Eagle Nest lake in the New Mexico mountains. The 25 boys who will make the trip will be selected from those showing up best during the next two weeks of practice.

On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, a scrimmage game will be played between the Harvesters and the exes in school. The former stars will take the field smarting from a 12 to 0 licking handed them by the prospects in a game three weeks ago. The exes are holding secret workouts to smooth out an offense, which will probably be through the air because of the smallness of the Harvester backfield.

No admission will be charged for the Friday scrimmage and the public is invited to see the boys in action. A large crowd witnessed the last scrimmage, which saw several little Harvesters shine against their huge opponents.

Coaches are working on a new offensive formation which is expected to suit the size and speed of the players. It will be altogether different from Mitchell formations of the past. It will feature double splines, end runs, sneaks and deadly passes.

Also to be given much consideration during the next two weeks will be a pass defense. That is the chief worry of the coaches. The backfield this fall will not average 5 feet, 7 inches and the weight will not average more than 148 pounds per man.

The line will be slightly heavier, but will still look like pigmies against other teams in the making. Amarillo will have a line averaging more than 180 points to the man with a team average at about 175 pounds. Lubbock, Borger and Plainview also have big teams coming up. Probably the toughest of them all will be Capitol Hill of Oklahoma City which will be composed of young giants with terrific speed for their size.

The Harvesters have the toughest schedule in history ahead of them. They will meet no less than five potential champions of three different states.

King Oil and Voss Cleaners Win Ball Games

Playground ball, often a game of big scores, hit its stride yesterday afternoon with the opening of the local playground ball league. Only two scores have been turned in to The NEWS and both were close, one going extra innings. Managers of home clubs are again asked to see that reports on their games are in the hands of The NEWS' sports writer before 9 o'clock the morning after the game is played.

King Oil yesterday took nine innings, two over the regulation number, to defeat the Phillips 66 team 4 to 3. A home run by Sharp was the deciding factor and came in the ninth with one man out. Previously Riley of King Oil had hit for the circuit.

The game was a pitchers' battle all the way. Poe went the distance for the victors with John Dewey making a great showing for Phillips. Glazebrook caught Poe. R. O. Dewey rounded out the brother act for Phillips.

Voss Cleaners also had a nip-and-tuck battle with the Baptists, finally winning 6 to 5 in the last inning. Patrick hurled great ball for the cleaners but failed to overshadow the work of Martin of the Churchmen. Sheridan was behind the bat for Voss Cleaners, with McWright receiving for the losers.

Dallas Wins 5 In Row As Oilers Beat Buffs Again

Galveston Defeats Oklahoma City 6 to 5

(By The Associated Press)

Today's games: Fort Worth at San Antonio, Dallas at Beaumont, Tulsa at Houston (night), Oklahoma City at Galveston (night).

The Texas league race tightened today with Dallas and Tulsa threatening to mix it with Oklahoma City and Houston in the tussle for the lead.

The Dallas Steers ran their winning streak to five in a row yesterday by downing the Beaumont Exporters, 6-1, and the Tulsa Oilers beat the Houston Buffs, 8-3, to sweep a 4-game series. The Galveston Buccaneers recorded their third win in 12 starts by stopping the loop-leading Oklahoma City Indians 6-5, and San Antonio defeated Fort Worth 8-2.

Jim Parker turned in a brilliant pitching exhibition for the Steers, limiting the Exporters to four hits, one a homer by Tebbets. The Steers bunched eight hits off Cook and Coffman with nine walks and had little trouble handling the Exporters. The victory moved the Steers to third place and dropped the Exporters to fourth place in the standings.

A 5-run rally in the eighth enabled Tulsa to stop the second place Buffs. The Oilers collected 11 hits off Mike Cvenogros and Manager Ira Smith. Thomas went the route for Tulsa and limited the Buffs to nine blows.

Joe Gibbs celebrated his return to the league by pitching shutout ball for eight innings after Oklahoma City made five runs off Tom Daves in the first. Gibbs returned to Galveston from Baltimore and his performance was welcomed by the hapless Buccaneers.

The Fort Worth Cats' loss to San Antonio was their 12th in a row. Abe Miller held the Cats to six hits, three of which came in the second for Fort Worth's two runs. San Antonio collected 15 blows off Greer and Terhune.

Brevity Is Fast Becoming Kentucky Derby's Favorite

Jockey Is on Winning Streak That May Continue

BY ORLO ROBERTSON, Associated Press Sports Writer.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 29 (AP)—A low-headed boy, neatly dressed in a riding habit, lolled outside one of the 111 Downs' green-painted barns. Occasionally his eyes wandered over to a nearby paddock where another boy, not so neatly attired, was cooling out a horse.

Scores of men walked past, paying little heed to the boy, except to wish him "good morning." The horse attracted less attention as he walked round and round the small circle almost like a robot.

Suddenly a broad smile broke the boy's countenance as if he was dreaming. Then with a sigh of contentment, he settled back into his chair with an air that said—"all's right with the world."

And content he might well be for the boy was Wayne Wright; the horse, J. E. Widener's Brevity. Together they form the feared combination for the 62nd running of the Kentucky Derby on Saturday.

Brevity is feared because of his great speed, Wright because he not only rides among the leading riders, but he's on a winning streak. Jockeys say that when a rider is hot, he's mighty tough to stop. Already the 21-year-old Rexburg, Idaho, blond veteran has won three stakes and more than $150,000 this year. He took the Santa Anita handicap with Top Row, the Santa Anita Derby with Mrs. Silas B. Sibb's He Did and the Florida Derby with Brevity.

"Why shouldn't I feel confident?" asked Wright. "He's beaten everything that's opposed him this year and in a manner that left little to be desired."

That just about tells the relief of horsemen and laymen alike, as they thronged into the city today. Except for a scattered few, they went no farther than Brevity when asked to name their selection for the Derby.

The barber extolled the merits of the big bay as we lay in his chair. The colored bootblack on the corner informed us that the Widener flash had won five of his starts and would run away from those other "nags."

A waitress paused long enough from feeding the hungry mob to give us a confidential tip. It was Brevity.

The complexion of the race was changed some as the result of yesterday's developments, but Brevity was not affected.

Mrs. Silas B. Mason's He Did stepped into the picture more seriously by whipping Mrs. F. C. Mar's Sangreal and Grand Slam from the Bomar stable in the final Derby trial of one mile. W. S. Kilmer's Ned Reigh was listed as a doubtful starter as the result of developing a high fever following his trip from New York.

A more definite line was expected today on the highly regarded trio trained by James Fitzsimmons when the veteran trainer's assistant, Geo. Tappan, sends the Wheatley's stable Teufel, and William Woodward's Granville and Merry out for a serious workout.

Yesterday they did nothing more than gallop while Major A. C. Taylor's Indian Broom was reeling off a mile in the sensational time of 1:38 3-5. Some ventured the opinion that "The Indian" world record holder for one and one-tenth miles, might prove more dangerous than first thought.

Meanwhile, downtown, Derby interest quickened as the hotel lobbies became more crowded, taxicabs became harder to get and each incoming train brought in his share of the expected crowd of 60,000.

And Hoffman's California ranch . . . Bob Quinn has moved his family from Brooklyn to Boston . . . Members of the Cheme street baseball team out in Detroit are singing the blues . . . Their first sacker, Joe Louis, has quit for the season . . . With Joe out of the lineup, the Cheme streeters lost their first game of the season last Sunday.

Casey Stengel figures his youngsters look too harmless out there, so he has ordered one and all to start chewing tobacco . . . Buddy Hassett, Linus Frey, Jimmy Buecher, Ben Gerahy, et al, are stuffing their cheeks full and trying to look like the Gas House Gang . . . George Jeffcoat, the curve ball specialist from South Carolina who virtually was born with a chew in his mouth, is giving the other colts some helpful hints.

PLAINVIEW POLO TEAM WILL PLAY PAMPANS TWO GAMES

Sunday's rain brought joy to Pampa's polo players who immediately scheduled games for Saturday and Sunday afternoons on the local field north of the city on Hobart street. El Rojo club of Plainview will provide the opposition. Game time will be 2:30 o'clock each day.

The Plainview Reds appeared here to open the season several months ago. They won one game and tied the other with the newly organized Pampa club. Despite bad weather and a poor playing field, the Pampans have been working hard on their game and the players now feel they are ready to go to bat with the best clubs in this section.

Polo, one of the most exciting games of the day, is new to Pampa, hence large crowds are expected to watch the games here. Freezing weather greeted the previous two games but despite the weather handicap, large crowds attended.

The local field is being leveled, rolled, and improved in every respect. The rain of Sunday gave the players their first opportunity to work on a smooth field. Their hitting has shown remarkable improvement in practices since the rain and timing and riding is much better.

Several changes will be made in the local lineup. Huff is ill and will be unable to play. Alternating at the No. 1 position will be Bill Harwell, Wiley Reynolds, and Otto Studer. Dr. M. C. Overton, captain, will play the No. 2 position. At No. 3 will be Jack Cooper. Hub Burrows will play No. 4. In a utility role will be Bob Gordon.

El Rojo will line up with Bub Humphries at No. 1, Charlie Crenshaw at No. 2, Blackie Norris at No. 3, and Button Stephenson at No. 4.

Both teams will be superbly mounted. The Pampans' horses have been learning fast and are expected to show more speed and ability than in previous games. Plainview's horses are veterans and their riders know their every move.

RUFFING AND YANKEES BEAT INDIANS 2-0

TIGER DOWNS SENATORS IN LONE VICTORY FOR WEST

By ANDY CLARKE, Associated Press Sports Writer.

The eastern teams are off to a good start in the campaign against their rivals from the west, where both major league pennants wave.

The first inter-sectional brushes of the season over the eastern clubs find themselves with five victories, against one for the clubs from the inland cities.

The Detroit Tigers downed the Washington Senators 8-1 yesterday—lone victory for the west. In the National league the Pirates went down before the Phillies 9-7 and the juvenile Reds were defeated 5-2 by the Boston Bees. In American league encounters, the Yankees shut out the Indians 2-0, the Red Sox beat the White Sox 11-8 and the Athletics defeated the Browns 4-2.

Three fine pitching performances were turned in with Charley Ruffing, the big Yankee flinger, topping the others with a four hit shut out over the Indians.

Harry Kelley, the 30-year old rookie of the Athletics, led the Browns down with six bingles and two runs. Lefty Joe Sullivan, making his first start of the season for the Tigers, held the Senators to eight hits.

Hank Greenberg got his first homer of the year as the Tigers lambasted two Washington twirlers. Goose Goslin also hit for the circuit.

Cy Blanton, sensational rookie of last season, was knocked from the box for the fourth time this season as the Phils down the Bucs. He lasted only three and two-thirds innings. Old Tom Zachary started on the mound for the Phillies but was shelled from the mound after five and one-third innings.

The Red Sox murder's row took kindly to the offerings of four Chicago pitchers getting 16 hits with Jimmie Foxx hitting his fifth homer of the year. Billy Werber made one of the most sensational catches of the season when he ran down the stars of the dugout and with one hand on the roof, speared a fly with the other.

Ray Bengt, pitching for the Bees, held the Reds hitless for five innings. The Bees made 14 hits off Bell, Browns, 400.

Runs: Gehring, Tigers, 16; Gehrig, Yankees, and Foxx, Red Sox, 14.

Runs batted in: Dickey, Yankees, 17; Trosky, Indians, 16.

Hits: Gehring, Tigers, 7; Dickey, Yankees, 6.

Home runs: Trosky, Indians, and Foxx, Red Sox, 5.

FAVORITES TO CLASH IN 2ND ROUND TODAY

JAMESON, CHANDLER WIN EASILY IN TOURNEY

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT, Associated Press Sports Writer.

SAN ANTONIO, April 29 (AP)—True to form through first round matches, favorites started bumping into each other in the second round of the Texas Women's Golf association tournament here today.

Mrs. Dan Chandler of Dallas slight favorite, drew one of the rising young stars of Texas in Miss Betty Edwards. The Dallas beauty played well in recent Florida tournaments and sounded a stern note of warning in disposing of Mrs. Ben Harrison of Austin yesterday 7 and 6.

Mrs. Chandler struck her steady stride in beating Mrs. Joe Tate of San Antonio, 6 and 5, and slipped but four shots over men's par for the 13 holes played.

Miss Betty Jameson, the critics' choice to reach the finals opposite Mrs. Chandler, had one of the state's gamest campaigners to battle in Mrs. Jed Roe of San Antonio, who went 21 holes to eliminate Mrs. George Rohrer of Galveston. Miss Jameson played leisurely in her five-over-par performance that routed Mrs. George Paschal of San Antonio, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Jack Lapham was favored over Mrs. A. E. Brown of San Antonio after her steady shooting in a 6 and 5 triumph over Mrs. W. E. Sankey of San Antonio.

Another Dallas youngster, Miss Marie Levi, who ousted one of Houston's best, Mrs. Ike Handy, 3 and 2, plays the El Paso veteran, Mrs. Otto Armstrong, former southwestern champion.

Miss Helen Warren of Dallas drew a stern foe in Mrs. P. J. Lewis of San Antonio, sister of Mrs. Chandler. Miss Warren was impressive in a 6 and 4 victory over Mrs. E. R. Holland while Mrs. Lewis played flawlessly in dropping Mrs. Otto Morris of Fort Worth, 7 and 6.

Decidedly on the game that has made her one of the state's most feared players, Mrs. R. E. Winkler of Fort Worth, who eliminated Mrs. Karl Hohlitzelle of Dallas, 6 and 5 meets Mrs. Fred Dodge of Port Arthur, who went 19 holes to eliminate Mrs. Harry Scott of Houston.

Mrs. C. M. McCullough of Amarillo, who, after dropping the first five holes to youthful Jane Hopkins of Dallas, came back to win 4 and 3, meets Mrs. W. W. Nealey of San Antonio, who ousted Mrs. Sydney Hurst of Dallas, 1 up.

Playing dangerous golf, Miss Hilda Urbantke of Austin, took her place in the slants of Paul Derringer in eight innings.

Rain and wet grounds caused postponement of the Giants-Cards and Dodgers-Cubs games.

FORD V-8 TRUCKS DO MORE WORK AT LESS COST...

because they have RESERVE POWER AND EXTRA STRENGTH!

ON long or short hauls—up steep grades—through gravel or gumbo, Ford V-8 trucks have the reserve power to deliver their loads on schedule and no favors asked.

The mighty V-8 engine is conservatively rated by Ford at 80 horsepower—more than is needed for most work. And this is one of the main reasons for a Ford truck's economy. Because, with so much reserve power, the Ford V-8 does its work easier, with less effort. The engine operates efficiently and at low cost because it is usually below "peak." The whole truck, straight through to the rear axle, gives you longer life than would be possible with a relatively underpowered, over-worked unit.

And V-8 power is coupled with extra strength in the Ford truck . . . Frame, clutch, rear axle—in fact, the whole chassis, including springs, is ruggedly built to insure users the greatest possible freedom from servicing cost.

But the best way of all for you to learn for yourself exactly what a Ford V-8's reserve power and extra strength means, is to ask for a demonstration. Call your Ford Dealer today. Put it up to him to prove this great Ford truck's advantages to you.

and here's the proof!

Benj. Cain of Cain's Truck Lines, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, says: "The first trip to Franklin, Pa., and return with a 12,000 lb. load of oil well drilling equipment more than substantiated my claims and now I am telling you the Ford truck is making me more money than I ever expected to make in the trucking business."

M. C. Rogers of Enid, Oklahoma, says: "The regular load on my Ford V-8 truck consists of a 2,500 gallon semi-trailer gasoline tank. Operating cost has been very low. Total expense for repairs at 40,000 miles was $15.60 and gasoline mileage an average of nine miles to the gallon."

O. E. Mullan of Mullan Bros., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, says: "These are two of my five Ford delivery cars which I am at the present using. They are very economical as to gas and oil consumption and I might add that the last car traded in ran 62,000 miles with absolutely no repairs being made."

L. D. Shannon, owner of the Shannon Feed Co., Tulsa, Okla., says: "We operate seven Ford trucks and I want to say they are most satisfactory in every way. We previously operated heavier and more costly units but are planning to replace them as quickly as possible with Fords as they are doing the job better and more economically."

A. D. Stoddard, Chief Engineer of the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co., says: "For a number of years our company has been using Ford cars and pickups as standard equipment for employees engaged in the cementing of wells. "We have found that the block exchange by the Ford Motor Company and also the purchase of replacement engines is an aid in giving the service we desire. We are able to replace motor, front and rear ends, and various parts with very little delay and feel that all of this has been a great aid."

Chapter XXIX

Toby drew back. "But you're mistaken!" she said. "You must think I'm someone else."

"I'm not mistaken!" The man's eyes gleamed dangerously. "You're my Dream Girl. I've been looking everywhere for you and now that I've found you, you're not going to get away. We're going to be married. Now. This afternoon!"

Toby knew now where she had seen him. It was the man who had followed her that afternoon a few weeks before. She had slipped into a store and evaded him.

But she could not do that now. As though reading her thoughts, the man caught her arm. "Come on!" he said. "You're going with me!"

Toby tried to free her arm. This was insane, a nightmare! She was one of the busiest streets in New York in the middle of the afternoon. There must be dozens of people about who looked to the right and to the left. There had been dozens of people about a moment before. Now, suddenly, there was no one.

"But you can't!" she began. "Oh, yes, I can. Dream Girl, I love you. Don't you understand? You're the one I've been searching for. We're going to go away together."

A madman, that was what he was! And he might be dangerous. He looked as though he would be dangerous. Toby raised frightened eyes. "Please let me go," she said. "You're hurting my arm."

She tried again to draw away, but the man chuckled knowingly. "Oh, no!" he leered. "You're not going to get away from me this time. Come on—we've got to hurry!"

He took a step forward, pulling at her arm roughly. "Panic-stricken, Toby forgot caution. She forgot everything except that somehow she must get away from this insane man. "No!" she cried. "No!"

And then a figure hurled itself between her and the stranger. A voice snapped. "Take your hands off that girl!"

It was Marty Hyatt! Toby had no time to wonder where he had come from. Marty was there, beside her. She cried—"Oh, Marty, make him go away! Make him go!"

was no reason for further alarm, though he said to Toby, "If you get any more of those 'fan letters' let me know about it. We'll have them investigated. You can't afford to take chances."

At the Model League office Toby heard stories of other girls who had had somewhat similar experiences. The League did everything possible to protect models, under no circumstances giving out names or addresses, checking telephone calls, occasionally even taking legal measures. Now and then, however, as in Toby's case, this vigilance would be circumvented.

Presently everyone forgot about Jonas Huckleberry. Harriet was busier than ever with her shopping, counting the days until Clyde came to be back. She and Toby were to take part in a fashion show—an important one, for buyers.

The show was to be given at a hotel and there was a rehearsal in the morning. As usual, the climax of the affair was to be a wedding scene. Harriet was chosen for the bride.

Toby had to leave the rehearsal for another appointment, and stopped at the apartment on the way back. There was a letter for Harriet and she dropped it into her purse.

She did not think of the letter again until near the close of the show. A maid was helping Harriet into the ivory satin wedding gown. Toby, waiting in her bridesmaid costume, turned suddenly.

"Harriet," she said, "you're the loveliest bride I've ever seen."

Harriet smiled. "It's a beautiful dress, isn't it?"

"It is, and the way you look, wearing it, you'd certainly tempt any man into matrimony."

"But I won't marry any man. I want a certain one."

That was when Toby remembered the letter. Because of course, it was from Clyde. She had recognized his handwriting. Toby said, "Heavens, darling, I brought you a letter and forgot all about it."

She went to her hand bag, rummaging through it and came back. "Here it is," she said. "I'm terribly sorry I didn't think of it sooner."

"That's all right," Harriet smiled as she tore open the envelope. Someone spoke to Toby and she crossed the room. It was several moments before she was back. She came up to Harriet, and stopped abruptly. "Harriet!" she exclaimed.

Paul Muni's tenth picture "The Story of Louis Pasteur," the Metropolitan production now showing at the La Nora theater as a First National release, will take its place among the big smash hits of the screen from a box office standpoint according to Mr. Carl Benefield, manager of the La Nora theater.

"The Story of Louis Pasteur" may prove to be an even greater box office picture than "I am a Fugitive from the Chain Gang." Mr. Benefield declared. Remember this picture is here for two days only. So see it today.

At the Rex theater is showing "Three Live Ghosts" featuring Richard Arlen at the head of a fine cast. The picture deals with the adventures of three soldiers who returned from the war to find themselves officially "dead," the plot concerns their humorous wanderings through London without names or identities. # MASSACHUSETTS BALLOTS 4 TO 1 FOR LANDON IN PRIMARY

FOR PILES UP BIG LEAD OVER BRECKINRIDGE

LIBERTY LEAGUE HIT BY PROFESSOR AT JOHNS HOPKINS

BY LEONARD B. SHUBERT,
Associated Press Staff Writer,
WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—
Sharp political eyes on Capital Hill peered intently today at the primary figures of Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, seeking an indication of how these great industrial states—with a bloc of 55 electoral votes—will line up November 3.

Democratic leaders were particularly interested in the Keystone state's preferential primary vote in which President Roosevelt had his first state-wide contest.

The chief executive piled up an overwhelming lead over Col. Henry Breckinridge, anti-new deal democrat.

Mr. Roosevelt's vote, with 3,248 of the state's 7,983 districts reporting, was 312,288, as compared with 17-204 for Breckinridge.

Senator Borah of Idaho, unopposed on the republican ballot in Pennsylvania, polled 183,704 votes in 3,022 districts. In several counties there was a write-in vote for Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas, former President Hoover and Senator
Vandenberg of Michigan.

The vote in Massachusetts, in which Landon received more than four times the combined vote of four other republicans, also attracted interest.

With returns in from 1,492 of the Bay State precincts, the vote stood:
Landon, 71,224.
Hoover, 6,773.
Borah, 4,175.
Vandenberg, 1,953.

Col. Frank Knox, 1,819.
The majority of the preference votes in Massachusetts' democratic primary were cast for Mr. Roosevelt, but no effort was made to tabulate the total immediately.

Democratic leaders here contended the total vote would not be an exact indication of his strength because, they said, many voters who cast ballots for 38 Roosevelt-pledged delegates did not trouble to write in his name in the space provided for preference.

The 33 republican delegates will go to the Cleveland convention un-pledged.

The preferential vote in Pennsylvania is not binding on delegates to the two national conventions. Under an old law Borah would be the "popular choice" of the republicans.
The party leaders, however, said they expect an unopposed delegation.

included the democratic state convention in Kansas, where the state's 22 party delegates were instructed to vote for President Roosevelt at the national convention in Philadelphia.

Mr. Roosevelt was hailed by the convention as a "sincere friend of agriculture and the middle-west."
The convention criticized what it called the "shortsighted and unsympathetic attitude of the Kansas state administration in fighting the insurance of bank deposits."

In the capital, democratic leaders made arrangements to have a substitute staff ready to serve at the convention June 23, in the event
Congress still is in session.

Criticism of the American Liberty league, arch foe of the new deal, came last night from Dr. James S.
Hart, professor of political science at Johns Hopkins university.

In a broadcast address from New York, Dr. Hart said the nation faces a danger "that the so-called American Liberty league will lead us blindly to perpetuate our past in a world the founding fathers never knew."

An attack on the administration's agricultural policies was made by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, speaking in Sioux Falls, S. D.

Referring to President Roosevelt as "my fifth cousin about to be removed," Col. Roosevelt last night predicted a republican victory in November through the work of "the younger people."

Col. Roosevelt attacked the AAA, saying it curtailed the wealth of the nation and established "an un-American doctrine by twisting the form of government."

New Battleships Will Be Built

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The House naval committee paved the way today for legislation to permit the building of two new battleships if and when President Roosevelt sees need for them.

The proposed measure would authorize the laying of two keels next year as recommended recently by Admiral William H. Standley, acting secretary of the navy.

Standley was said to have told the President that the estimated sum of between $80,000,000 and $100,000,000 needed for the huge craft would not be required immediately. He said approximately $4,000,000 would be needed for the first six months' work and probably could be taken from available navy funds.

99-YEAR OLD FIDDLER WANTS TO PLAY AT CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION

GALVESTON, April 29. (AP)—He has been playing the fiddle 87 of his 99 years and Capt. William F.
Bristol plans to ask Gov. James V.
Allred for a spot on the Texas Centennial exposition grounds at Dallas where he can perform.

He bows with the left hand, the instrument tucked beneath his chin and partly covered by his grey beard.

Galveston folk say Capt. Bristol is "a good fiddler," and his execution of "Shoot that turkey buzzard,"
"Leather britches," and "Arkansas Traveler," is "nothing short of marvelous." Bow firmly grasped in his left hand, "his eyes take on a far-away look" when his accompanist strikes the first note, "he saws away energetically" and "Turkey in the straw" takes on a new meaning to descendants of generations that stomped out its rhythm on dusty barn floors.

The centenarian was born Dec.
3, 1936, the year Sam Houston made Texas independent and Andrew Jackson, seventh president of the United States was completing his second term. He is positive, however, the happiest six days of his life occurred when he was 12.

His father sent him and a negro from their farm in Burke county, N. C. to sell a load of apples at Camden. He traded a basket of fruit for a fiddle in a store window and joyously played it the six days of the journey home.

Nearing home, fear of his father's displeasure took the joy out of his music. "I stopped the horses and hid my little fiddle under a fallen tree," he said. "Parting with it was the hardest act of my life."
He never saw it again as negro children broke it.

Soon after he played a neighbor's fiddle in the presence of his father and the latter was so well pleased he bought one for the boy.
"I have not stopped fiddling since that day and don't intend to while I have life."

Capt. Bristol says he recalls the presidential campaign of 1840 and the slogan: "Tippecanoe and Tyler too," that put William Henry Harrison in the White House.

Below 50 Degrees Foods are Safe

After exhaustive tests extending over several years, the United States Department of Agriculture recommends that unsealed foods held for human consumption be stored at a temperature below 50 degrees Fahrenheit.

A few simple summertime observations convince you of the wisdom back of this recommendation. It is common knowledge that tainted, moulded, or spoiled foods do cause certain severe discomforts, and not infrequently, serious illness especially among children during the hot summer months.

Your Electric Refrigerator Dealer can positively guarantee that his refrigerator will constantly hold a uniform temperature below 50 degrees Fahrenheit, no matter how hot the weather. It is important that you be assured on this point.

Electric Refrigeration also gives you two kinds of cold. Dry Cold and Moist Cold. Different foods require different moistures as well as a constant below 50 degrees temperature. Be sure that the refrigerator you are using can guarantee this constant temperature.

SHIKAT STILL CHAMPION IS STATE RULING

ALI BABA'S VICTORY IN DETROIT IS DISALLOWED

NEW YORK, April 29. (AP)—By a rather complicated process of reasoning, the New York State Athletic commission has decided that Shikat is the "trust buster" of wrestling, still is heavy-weight champion here even though Ali Baba, the mustachioed Turk, tossed him out of a Detroit ring last week.

As a result of this decision, made yesterday, a general movement to do something about the uncertainty of the situation was underway today.

Madison Square Garden promptly booked a match between the two title claimants for next Tuesday in place of the Ali Baba-Chief Sanookie match which the commission refused to sanction while Ali and his manager, Adam Weissmuller, set out from Detroit to press their claims here.

The commissioners had two perfectly good reasons for refusing to concede the title had changed hands. Chairman John J. Phelan said, "First, all wrestling bouts in Michigan are billed as 'exhibitions,' no championships are recognized there and no decisions are given, and second that it's a foul under the New York code to have an opponent out of the ring and 'we don't award championships on fouls.'"

Nevertheless they decided if Ali was to wrestle in New York it would have to be against Shikat and that if he should beat the German he would be recognized as champion.

Townsend Speaker Talks Before 200

J. T. Newsome of Dallas, assistant state manager of Townsend clubs, addressed about 200 persons in the district courtroom here last evening on the Townsend plan and organization work that is being done in Texas.

More than 500 clubs are now functioning, he said, and from Jan. 1 to March 1 the membership doubled each month. Leaders expect membership to quadruple by Dec. 1 of this year. In the United States more than 12,000,000 members are enrolled, and increasing by 1,000,000 each month.

"Indications are that the large majority of congressmen from Texas this year will be elected by the Townsend vote and will go to Washington pledged to enact the plan into the law of the land," he declared.

"Interest in the local club and through this congressional district is growing rapidly, with a membership representing every cross-section of the citizenship," said Dr. R. M. Frost, local president. "At an early date a candidate for congress will be endorsed."

Mr. Newsome's next speaking engagements are in Muleshoe, Plainview, Snyder, and a district rally at Lubbock.

NO VIOLATION

AUSTIN, April 29 (AP)—The court of criminal appeals today ruled that failure to draw negroes on grand and petit juries did not violate state and federal constitutions and statutes in absence of testimony showing discrimination. The decision was in the case of Frank Brown, convicted in Jackson county of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

OIL NEWS AND NOTES

Panhandle and Other Fields

Hearing Conducted

AUSTIN, April 29. (AP)—The railroad commission, represented by Laton Stanberry, chief of the oil and gas division, conducted a hearing here today on conditions in the Clarkwood and Corpus Christi fields in Nueces county.

Clarkwood operators reported on an agreement among themselves to give wells within the townsite three-fourths of the production of wells outside. They will confer with commission engineers on the mechanical means of applying it.

Stanberry commented the arrangement, which will have to be approved by the commission before it is effective, would give the wells with in the townsite "far the best of it" with reference to the acreage factor.

Speakers urged that not too much emphasis be placed on potential, arguing it would encourage operators to engage in wasteful practices. Operators in the Corpus Christi field reported that the failure to burn millions of cubic feet of gas being discharged into the air had created a serious fire hazard.

Max Coker, commission engineer, estimated from 55,000,000 to 60,000,000 cubic feet of gas was being wasted in that manner, and if the present drilling program continued, by June 1 the figure would be approximately 100,000,000 cubic feet. There now are 65 wells, and 18 rigs are running.

"About five per cent of the gas production goes into pipelines," Coker said. "The rest is discharged into the air."

He testified as to gas-oil ratios, citing one well which was producing more than 200,000 cubic feet of gas to each barrel of oil.

RAIN PLEASES OIL MEN

TULSA, Okla., April 29. (AP)—Just as rain is good for the farmer, it is good for the oil industry too.

So today reports of general precipitation in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas and other dried-out farm lands was a cause for more than a little optimism among oil men.

"Yes sir," said one old time observer, "rain livens things up in the oil business."

"Farmers who've been putting off field work haul out the old tractors and get into the fields. They tear into town for supplies and equipment. Seeing a chance of a crop, they travel around a bit more."

"Now that takes tractor fuel and gasoline. Same way with city folk. Rains green things up. Make spring beautiful. People get out in the old bus to look over the countryside. Begin thinking of vacations."

"When you figure that sort of thing is going on all over the country, why, think how much more gasoline and motor oil is consumed every 24 hours after spring breaks."

In the refining end there was cheerfulness as contract orders held up uncommonly well during the week. The refined product kept moving out steadily to distributors. A slightly drab tone in the wholesale price of gasoline could be overcome easily by a spell of warm weather to step up demand.

Crude prices were unchanged. Some producers were uneasy as the output continued at a comparatively high point. A decrease of some 4,000 barrels daily in the production of crude hardly was a circumstance to the increase of the previous week, more than 40,000 barrels daily.

Oil Stocks Increase

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—A 1,208,000-barrel increase in domestic and foreign crude oil stocks in the week ended April 18 compared with the previous week, was reported today by the bureau of mines.

The report showed material gains in both crude oil production and consumption. Daily average crude production was 2,985,000 barrels, an increase of 45,000 barrels over the average of the previous week and the highest average ever recorded.

Daily average crude runs to stills increased from 2,755,000 barrels for the week ended April 11 to 2,795,000 barrels for the week ended April 18. Imports of crude remained at a relatively high level with a daily average of 105,000 barrels, compared with an average of 133,000 barrels for the previous week.

became ill. McCasland at the time was visiting his former wife.

Several days before the child's death Miss Cooper said she overheard Mrs. Patterson tell an automobile dealer she would be able to get her wrecked car out of the garage within a few days.

"I'm down, but will have money soon," the defendant was quoted as telling the dealer.

Miss Cooper also told of a trip she made to a drug store with Mrs. Patterson. She said Mrs. Patterson ordered a poison, explaining to the clerk she "wanted to kill rats—they're about to take the place."

The druggist did not have the poison but recommended a common rat poison which Mrs. Patterson purchased, Miss Cooper testified.

The maid said Mrs. Patterson told her then: "That's not what I want. Miss Cooper added that she had never seen a rat about the Patterson home."

At three o'clock the morning of Feb. 17, Miss Cooper said Dorothy lay groaning in agony and calling for a doctor, "but he didn't do anything but sit with her until 8 o'clock, when I called a doctor."

"I told Dorothy the doctor would be there in an hour and she watched the clock and moaned," Miss Cooper said.

"Oh, why doesn't he come," the child said, "the sickness of Dorothy, told how Mrs. Patterson forbade her to administer medicine."

"Mrs. Patterson gave me strict orders that she would give all the medicine herself," Miss Cooper testified.

The witness then went on to tell how, on the day before Dorothy died, she "appeared to be resting fine." That was Sunday, Feb. 16.

"At 1 a. m. Monday, when everybody else was in bed, McCasland rose and went to town to buy some tobacco," the maid said. "Then Mrs. Patterson got up and told Dorothy to take a dose of powder."

"The child vomited the first dose and her mother gave her another one."

"When McCasland came back, he asked Dorothy if she wouldn't take some rest medicine."

"Dorothy said: 'what kind are you going to give me, daddy?'"

"McCasland said: 'I'm going to give you a rest powder.'"

"Then Dorothy told him: 'Just so you don't give me the kind

Alibi Offered In Bronte Bank Robbery Trial

Minor Langford was admitted to Pampa-Jarratt hospital last night for treatment of burns. His condition was not serious.

Mrs. Clyde Gold is confined to her home by illness.

LA NORA Today

While at least one witness identified Charles Franklin White, youthful Amarillo mechanic, as the man who held a gun on her during the robbery of the First National bank at Bronte the morning of July 1, 1935, first defense witness this morning testified that White was in his barber shop in Amarillo, 400 miles from Bronte, at about one o'clock on July 1, 1935.

White and Jack Walker, the latter now serving a life term in the New Mexico penitentiary on a robbery conviction, are on trial in federal court here for the robbery at Bronte in which nearly $400 in cash and a number of checks were taken.

Walker yesterday entered a plea of guilty. A third man, Allen Hall, arrested with Walker at Memphis, Texas, last August, was questioned in connection with the robbery but subsequently was released.

Fourteen-year-old Claire Gilreath, who happened to enter the door of the bank as the robbery was in progress, today walked over to White and confidently pointed him out as the gunman who stood at the front door of the bank.

Mrs. E. E. Bechtelheimer has returned from Dallas, where she attended the international convention of beauticians and cosmetologists last week here. Her daughter, Miss Virginia Lee Bechtelheimer, accompanied her from Fort Worth, where she has completed a course in the Sellers school of beauty culture.

Roy Bourland is on a business trip to Wichita Falls.

REX Today

Another gave me—it makes me so sick!" In describing how Mrs. Patterson wanted to marry Wallace, the maid quoted the woman as saying the cattleman was "a nice looking fellow, well raised and from a nice family."

Miss Cooper said she saw Wallace and Mrs. Patterson together many times.

"The maid, in substantiating McCasland's testimony, confirmed that Mrs. Patterson had sent her ex-husband to town Jan. 7 to buy groceries, chicken feed and poison. Miss Cooper said Mrs. Patterson told McCasland to charge the items.

Miss Cooper, young divorcee who had her original name restored about five years ago by court action, has been confined voluntarily in the Hunt county jail since March 11.

McCasland, another material witness, also has been in jail. The state yesterday offered expert testimony to show that poison was found in Dorothy's body.
