

Charlie Skoog Dies; Funeral Will Be Today

Charlie Skoog, 63, died at his farm home 5 miles northwest of Pampa Friday afternoon. He had been in failing health for more than two years, the last five months being bedfast. Mr. Skoog had been a resident of the Pampa community for 20 years.

Born in Stockholm, Sweden, Mr. Skoog moved to the United States with his parents 47 years ago. They settled in Iowa. Mr. Skoog became interested in the Panhandle through glowing reports of the plains country and moved here to become a wheat farmer. He was a member of the Lutheran church in Sweden.

Surviving Mr. Skoog is a daughter, Miss Lillian Skoog, a student at Texas College for Women at Denton; a sister, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Rockford, Ill.; a brother, Albert Skoog, Stockholm, Sweden; his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Leopold, Amarillo; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Elgin Bouwmeester, Amarillo.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the First Baptist church by the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor. The body will be sent to Ida Grove, Iowa, by Pampa Mortuary.

Pallbearers will be A. A. Tiemann, Ernest Barrett, Stanley Kretzmeier, Ernest Crane, W. H. Hughes and Frank Hudgill.

Townsend Probe Committee Splits

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—Sharp dissension among members of the special house committee investigating the Townsend old age pension movement was disclosed today from within the committee.

Although Chairman Bell (D-Mo.) was out of town, it was learned that marked differences of opinion exist over methods of procedure and the failure thus far to call Dr. F. E. Townsend, founder of the plan to $200 monthly pensions to all over sixty.

It was said to be the view of some committee members, too, that Robert E. Clements, resigned national secretary of the organization should have been allowed, to complete his testimony before public hearings were adjourned for an indefinite period.

The committee adjourned hearings last week after questioning Clements about the financial structure of the Townsend plan and the motives of its leaders.

BANKER GIVES UP LIONS AS HE MOVES TO TOWN
HOUSTON, (AP)—Much as he loves them, Wade H. Irvin is giving up his lions.

The banker's pets have dwindled to a dozen deer, about the same number of monkeys, and six dogs. When Mrs. Irvin's death required their residence in Houston, he agreed to part with his "playthings" to save her worry about their confinement.

Three black bears, three lions and other assorted pets formerly kept at the Irvin's Bayshore estates have been disposed of.

Misses Odessa Winkler, LaRue Little, Vendell Kees, Willie Isbell, Margaret Stockstill, and Margaret Beck, all students at West Texas Teachers college at Canyon, are week-end visitors with their parents here.

DUN, BRADSTREET REPORT
NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—With Easter buying supplying fresh momentum, retail trade closely approached a six-year peak during the past week, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

At some points the volume was cut down by adverse weather, and wholesale markets were less active because occupied chiefly with last minute fill-in requirements and urgent replacements for flood-damaged stores.

"Rain, cold weather and tornadoes conspired against the extension of the previous week's gains in retail distribution," said the summary. "While sales of apparel went 20 to 25 per cent over last year's, surpassing totals back to 1929, the estimated volume of retail sales for the country as a whole was only 12 to 18 per cent ahead of that for the comparative 1935 week.

"Shoes, millinery, dress accessories, children's apparel, women's wear and men's clothing predominated in the demand, but sales of toys, gifts items, candy, jewelry and sporting goods contributed heavily to the total.

"The slower uptrend of retail distribution is expected to defer the peak of the spring season until late in April or early May, which will keep wholesalers active until summer lines will be opened."

To Take Oath
Mayor W. A. Bratton and Commissioners W. T. Fraser and Marvin Lewis will take oath of office in a public ceremony in the city commission room at 10 o'clock Monday morning. City Secretary W. M. Craven will ask the commissioners if they "ever fought a duel", etc. Mayor Bratton will then begin serving his third term in that capacity. Commissioners Fraser and Lewis will begin their second term of office. The commissioners will hold the regular meeting tomorrow night.

Board To Meet
An important meeting of the directors of the Pampa Board of City Development has been called for 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the city hall. President Gilmore Nunn will preside. Much important business is to come before the board.

Cars Collide
One man was injured, not seriously, and two cars were badly damaged in a head-on collision south of Pampa late Friday night. A. M. Higgins, passenger in one of the cars, received treatment at Pampa-Jarrett hospital. He was able to be taken to his home. J. H. Woolver was driving a Chevrolet coach north on the paving when he met a Ford roadster driven by John R. Sparkman of LeFors. Their front wheels locked, both cars being wrecked.

City Activities
The city street department has begun a grading campaign on all dirt streets. The two graders were in the east part of the city. They will proceed west to the Talley addition. The water works department has started installing a new pump bowl in well No. 3. The water column will be painted to keep it from rusting.

Good Will Trip
The Pampa chamber of commerce will sponsor a good will trip to the Bell school Tuesday night when a box supper will be given. Women of the community guarantee that at least a half chicken will be found in each box. The trippers will leave the city hall at 7:30 o'clock. A large crowd is urged to attend.

New Stamp Issue
Postmasters and employees of the postal service have been notified that the department has authorized a special sheet containing four 3-cent stamps embracing the Connecticut Tercentenary, California-Pacific exposition, and Michigan and Texas Centennial commemorative issues, as a souvenir of the Third International Philatelic exhibition of 1936, to be held at the Grand Central Palace, New York City, May 9 to 17. The new stamp will be printed in purple and will be gummed but not perforated. The souvenir sheet will be placed on sale May 9 at the branch Philatelic Agency, Grand Central Palace, New York City. Covers may be had at this agency, at 12 cents each, but uncanceled sheets may be had only from the Philatelic agency at Washington beginning May 11.

"A Natural" audition managers declared when they heard the voice of Phillip Noland, announcer for KPDN. Phillip's voice has been on the air for two days now, and it is likely to stay there. Thousands of football fans saw him perform on the gridiron as a regular Harvester last fall. He is a student in Pampa high school. His ambition was to be an athlete, but now he wants to stay in the radio field.

Labor Relations Board Loses Part of Court Battle

EL PASO, April 11. (AP)—Officials of the National Labor Relations board today lost a part of their fight in the El Paso federal district court when Federal Judge Charles A. Boynton overruled their motion to dismiss suits filed against them by the El Paso Electric company.

The case now will be tried on its merits, probably the latter part of May. Electric company attorneys said their main attack will be made on the constitutionality of the national labor relations act. They are depending on the law being held invalid in the fight to stop the NLRD from conducting any hearings in connection with complaints filed by striking union employees of the company.

Judge Boynton did not pass on the constitutional question at this time, but said that whenever such a question is squarely presented "it becomes the duty of the presiding judge to pass on it, one way or another."

NEW MOTH-PROOFING SERVICE IS DE LUXE CLEANERS' OFFER

DeLuxe Cleaners will inaugurate tomorrow a new moth-proofing service as a part of their regular cleaning routine, at no advance in prices. Clarence Kennedy, owner and manager, said that he had obtained exclusive use in this county of a new moth control system under which garments will be guaranteed against damage by moths for a period of six months, or until the next cleaning if garments are sooner cleaned.

The new method is to treat the fabric so that it becomes inedible to moth larvae. Eggs laid on a treated fabric may hatch into larvae, Mr. Kennedy said, but they will die of starvation because they have nothing to eat. The treatment is said not to change color, feel or wearing qualities of fabric.

SANTA FE TO OPERATE STREAM-LINED TRAIN TO LOS ANGELES

Santa Fe officials here were notified yesterday that the company would soon operate its first streamlined train. It will replace the Superchief, now operating, between Chicago and Los Angeles over the north route.

"The Santa Fe has just placed a contract with the Edward G. Budd manufacturing company of Philadelphia for a deluxe high speed streamlined stainless steel train of the most modern and commodious type," S. T. Bledsoe, president of the road, announced today.

Delivery is expected within six months and it is planned to place it in regular operation on its Superchief run between Chicago and Los Angeles the latter part of this year.

throughout. Sleeping berths will be wider than usual, bedrooms, drawingrooms, and compartments which can be used en suite if desired, will be generous in size.

"In the meantime, the Superchief will carry the finest of standard steel Pullman equipment and will be drawn by the big 3,600 horsepower Diesel locomotive which the road has been testing out for several months.

"The safety and smooth comfort of existing heavy steel cars, when operated at high speed, has already been fully demonstrated, and maintenance of that safety and smooth riding quality with addition of heavy new travel luxuries and conveniences has been uppermost in the minds of Santa Fe officials in designing the new train now under order."

HULL BETS 10 TO 1 AGAINST A WORLD WAR

NEUTRAL RIGHTS WILL BE SOUGHT BY SECRETARY

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—The United States' intention of seeking concerted international action to stretch a protective arm about the rights of neutral nations in war time has been disclosed by Secretary Hull.

Coupled with this revelation was a declaration by the secretary of state before a congressional committee last January, but made public only today, that the chances were "nine out of ten" against a "general war." To this Hull added an admission that the world should not harbor any "false impression" that the United States "will not fight."

It was made known authoritatively today that Hull has not definitely approached other governments upon the matter of new international action to insure neutral rights. It was added that, at present, he has no specific plan for doing so.

Speculation immediately was stirred in unofficial circles, however, over whether he might suggest the summoning of a world conference on the subject, or possibly take his proposals directly to the principal powers individually.

It was noted particularly that the secretary's views, outlined to the senate foreign relations committee three months ago, were expressed only a short while before President Roosevelt invited all 21 nations of North and South America to join in a peace conference this year at Buenos Aires.

During the January hearing on the then pending neutrality legislation, Hull deplored that the neutrality question had been "virtually dormant" since the World war because "most nations are not seriously concerned about the matter." He told the committee changing world conditions necessitated new neutrality rules.

Because of this, he said, the United States intends to "urge other nations to join at the earliest opportunity in re-examining, restating and revitalizing neutral rights under international law as they existed prior to the World war, as nearly as we find it consistent and as other nations find it consistent to do so."

Opposing a flat embargo on commodities of the character of war supplies, Hull advocated instead that such trade with belligerents be confined to "normal" peacetime proportions.

Luer Kidnaping Case Is Regarded As Closed, Claim

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., April 11. (AP)—State's Attorney Lester Geers tonight said the arrest of Lloyd (Blackie) Doyle at Dallas, Tex., "wound up" the August Luer kidnap case.

"Doyle himself was not one of the kidnapers," Geers said, "but he was one of the men who guarded Mr. Luer for the kidnap gang."

Luer, aged Alton, Ill., capitalist, was snatched forcibly from his home June 10, 1935, and held prisoner in a dungeon under a farm shed five days while the kidnapers bargained with his family for payment of a $100,000 ransom.

Later the demands were reduced to $75,000, but Luer was finally released without payment.

Seven of the kidnapers are in prison, four serving life terms. A ninth fugitive—Mrs. Vivian Chase—was found dead several months ago in a car parked behind a Kansas City hospital, presumably the victim of gangland bullets.

Two members of the original faculty of the Oklahoma normal at Ada, Okla., A. L. Fentim and Miss Kate K. Knight, still are teachers there.

An Old Sea Captain Captivated

Cast in the roles of sea captain and wife of the sea are Guy Kibbee and Shirley Temple, pictured above in a scene from "Captain January." The film opens at La Nora theater today.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE IS TINY SEA WAIF IN NEW MOVIE

The fascinating adventures of a little waif and her two grizzled old, sea-salt friends furnishes the story basis for "Captain January," a colorful, colorful Shirley Temple picture which comes today to the La Nora theater.

Somewhere on the rockbound coast of Maine the action of this most delightful of Shirley Temple's pictures is set. She is a little-toed little lady of a lighthouse, adored and jealously guarded by old Guy Kibbee the lighthouse keeper who had fished her from the sea years ago.

Her other old salt friend, Slim Summerville, constantly bickers with Kibbee, but when authorities threaten to take the girl away, the two old sailors present a united front.

Despite their strategy and an attempted flight to sea in the night, the inevitable happens, the vixenish old Sara Haden, the truant officer, takes possession of Shirley. Put not for good, however, because unexpected friends turn up to bring Shirley and Kibbee together again, and the picture to a happy close.

Shirley executes her toe-tickling new dances in company with Buddy Ebsen, who was a sensational Ziegfeld Follies dancer, while her old songwriter Lew Pollack, composed the music for her three new hit tunes.

June Lang, Jane Darwell, as the lady who has her heart set on Kibbee, and Jerry Tucker are prominent in the supporting cast of "Captain January." Produced under the supervision of B. G. DeSylva, the picture was directed by David Butler.

WOOL MARKET
 BOSTON, April 11. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin said yesterday: "The wool market is exceedingly slow. There has been a little business done here and there but not in any noteworthy volume. Pulled wools are steadier on the lower basis noted last week."

"There is some exporting of South American wools, evidently in the belief that there may be a better market for those wools abroad. The manufacturers are getting few new orders. Some specifications against old orders are being received."

"Foreign secondary markets are inclined to be easier, although the primary markets are closing fairly firm."

"Operations in the west are deplorable and at lower prices. Mohair is dull but without quotable change."

The bulletin will publish the following quotations:

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK
 KANSAS CITY, April 11. (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Considerable unevenness prevailed in the cattle trade. Choice medium weight and heavy steers in Chicago sold up to 11.00 with best lightweights at 10.50. Bulk of fed steers sold from 7.25-9.50. St. Louis had a late hog top of 10.85. A few lightweight springers suitable for the Easter trade sold up to 18.00. Fed wool lambs cleared up to 11.15 with best clipper at 9.15.

CHICAGO GRAIN
 CHICAGO, April 11. (AP)—In a general rush of buying today, wheat went skyward 2 1/2 cents a bushel. Sensationally bullish aspects of a government forecast that United States 1936 winter wheat production will be 27,000,000 to 52,000,000 bushels less than authoritative private estimates gave chief impetus to the soaring of prices.

Wheat closed firm at nearly the day's top point 1 1/2-1 1/4 above Thursday's finish, May 96 1/4, July 87-87 1/2, corn 4 1/4-3/4 up, May 60-60 1/2, oats 1/2-1/4 advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 10 cents.

MUSTANGS BEAT RICE
 HOUSTON, April 11. (AP)—Pushing over three runs in the tenth inning on four base hits off "Tightwad" Lodge, the SMU Mustangs defeated the Rice Owls here today 7 to 5, to gain an even break in the two game series. Lodge had taken over hurling duties in the tenth when Wisinger, Little Rice pitcher, suffered an injury to his pitching hand from a line drive.

Gladys Swarthout has two favorite songs for concerts and will wear no others because of sentimental attachment for them.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 11. (AP)—A rally in scattered utility copper notes, stocks and specialties today more than counteracted profit taking in the brief post-oiday session.

On the home-stretch Santa Fe again came to the front with a rush that pulled numerous issues in its wake.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended forward 2 of a point to 64.7, another new top for this index since July, 1931.

Copper equities, came in for attention in the first hour while a number of the recent leaders either idled or backed up.

Santa Fe closed at a new high for the move, up 2 1/2 points at 85 1/2. American Car & Foundry was ahead 2 1/2 at 37 1/2.

Governor Blood Is Made Texas Ranger

SALT LAKE CITY, April 11. (AP)—Gov. Harry H. Blood today received a ten-gallon hat, a season pass to the Texas Centennial exposition and was made a Texas Ranger—but still asked for "more."

After George W. Briggs, of Dallas, director of the exposition, had bestowed the honors, the governor wanted a "badge" and other Ranger equipment.

Briggs compromised by promising "a horse, boots, saddle and Ranger's star" if he visits the exposition.

Governor Blood set July 24 as "Utah day" at Texas' big show.

Former Athlete Is Sentenced to Death in Dallas

DALLAS, April 11 (AP)—A jury here today found Dwight Beard, 25-year-old North Carolinian, guilty of murder and sentenced him to die in the electric chair.

The verdict was returned after twenty hours of deliberation. Beard was convicted of murder in the holdup shooting of ex-detective John Roberts here last Dec. 25.

The youthful criminal, who once played football for the North Carolina state college, and wrestled on the varsity team, threw away a cigarette and rose as Judge Grover Adams rapped for order.

He heard his second condemnation to death within two years, without a trace of emotion.

Beard was sentenced to death in May, 1934, for the murder of Augustus Bounds, Valdeese, N. C. Merchant, who was slain during a holdup. He lived for eleven months in the shadow of the electric chair before his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. In August, 1935, he walked, weaponless from the North Carolina state penitentiary.

His mother, Mrs. Mrs. R. A. Beard, of Leonir, N. C., was not present in the courtroom when the verdict was read, though, she had attended every session of the trial since her arrival here Tuesday.

as director of the new bureau have been secured. Mr. Haskin is well known as one of the leading authorities on the workings of the federal government. His new book, "The American Government Today," is a standard on the subject. His great moving picture, "Uncle Sam at Work," was based on this book. Mr. Haskin is a man of wide travel, and of long experience in the accurate and concise reporting of facts. His position in Washington fits him peculiarly for the work the Bureau is to do.

Answering Your Questions

The Washington Bureau will act as a free information service for every reader of the Pampa Daily News. It will answer, free, any question of fact sent to it by any readers. The bureau cannot give advice or opinions on matters of law or medicine, or undertake exhaustive research, but it will answer any question of information on any subject. The reader need merely write the question clearly, enclose a 3-cent stamp for return postage, and address Frederic J. Haskin, Director, The Pampa Daily News Information Bureau, Washington, D. C., and he will receive a personal letter in reply promptly.

From day to day selected questions and answers of general interest will be printed in the paper. Questions and their answers, however, will not be printed if the person making the inquiry so requests.

News articles by Mr. Haskin, largely dealing with public and governmental subjects, will also be published in the NEWS.

Educational booklets, some prepared by government agencies, others prepared especially by the Washington bureau, will be offered to Pampa Daily News readers each day at a nominal cost covering postage and handling.

Ickes-Hopkins Feud Is Headed For White House

WASHINGTON, April 11 (AP)—The year-old contest between Harold Ickes and Harry Hopkins over the handling of relief funds headed for the white house again tonight in a new form.

The house public works bloc prepared to name a special committee to ask President Roosevelt about their proposal to earmark $700,000,000 of the new $1,500,000,000 relief money for public works, the remainder to be spent by Hopkins' works progress administration.

The dispute over how much should go for public works, of a permanent type, and how much for projects more nearly of a pure relief nature was settled by President Roosevelt last year, but that time it was held to the basis of a family row with only Ickes and Hopkins thoroughly familiar with the heated details.

Hopkins told a house appropriations sub-committee how he could spend the billion and a half himself and still might not have enough to take him through the coming fiscal year.

FLOGGING REVIVED

GEORGETOWN, Del., April 11 (AP)—Ten lashes were applied on a prisoner's back today to carry out a justice's "warning" to untrustworthy to stay out of Delaware. The flogging, a form of punishment that dates back some 300 years in Delaware, was administered to Charles Jackson, Norfolk, Va., who pleaded guilty to charge of stealing several valves from a fishery.

NEWSMEN AND MANAGERS ARE GUESTS BASEBALL BANQUET

Newspapermen of this section of the Panhandle agree that if the Pampa-Dancer Road Runners can play baseball like they can eat, they will be unbeatable again this year. The scribes learned of the eating ability of the players last night when Road Runner officials and players banqueted visiting editors and sports writers at the Eagle Buffet.

Fried chicken and trimmings disappeared like home runs over a hot field fence. This afternoon at Road Runner park, the newspaper boys will judge the playing ability of the team. The occasion will be the formal opening of the 1936 season with the Road Runners playing the Ponca City Angels, champions of the Western association last season.

A portion of last night's program was broadcast over station KPND, Pampa. Gilmore Nunn, as toastmaster, acted as inquisitor when he put team officials and visiting newspapermen on the spot. All saw a bright future for baseball. Teams at Berger and Amarillo are strengthening and fans are talking the national game as strongly as they discuss football in the fall.

Manager Sam Hale of the Road Runners unhesitatingly announced that Pampa would see a hustling baseball team this season. Every member of the team will have to be ready to deliver at all times or, he declared that games may, and will, be lost, but that it won't be for the lack of hustle. Hale saw 15 years of service in professional ball, most of it in the major leagues, and he believes in the teachings of the big league managers.

Earl Hamilton, president, and Mike Gazella, manager, of the Ponca City team failed to arrive in time for the banquet. Phillips of Amarillo also failed to have a representative at the banquet. Huber of Berger was present, predicting revenge on the Road Runners.

Newspapermen, guests of the club, were: R. B. Haynes, Miami Chief; W. J. Miller, Panhandle Herald; W. W. Simmons, White Deer Review; Howard Arnsberg, Berger Herald; Jerry Malin, Amarillo News; Allen Hodges, Pampa Press; Gilmore Nunn, Olin E. Hinkle and Harry E. Hoare, Pampa Daily News; Wes Izzard, station KGNC, Amarillo; Bob McKenzie, station KPND, Pampa. Telegrams of regret were received from T. A. Landers, McLean News; J. M. Noble, Canadian Record; and C. G. Miller, Wheeler News, and Albert Cooper, Shamrock Texan.

car when you find the car."

Talley walked to Gulf camp where he secured a ride to Pampa. The car was found about 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning, parked in front of the First Methodist church. It had a flat tire.

No cap was found in the car. Mr. Talley would like his captors to return the cap and billfold contents which included receipts, license, and other papers.

County and city officers were notified of the kidnaping and hijacking and started an immediate search for the poorly described gunmen. Three men were arrested but released after they had provided an alibi.

The driver was unable to get a clear view of his captors. They remained in the shade of the rear seat, never allowing Talley to get a good look at them. All three were young and wore fedora hats and dark suits.

and diction of the Pampans "excellent." The play was written by Ben Guill, the director, and Archer Pullingim of the NEWS.

The Lelia Lake play was a comedy in which a maid of a paralyzed invalid kills her lover, a thief, after the latter is duped by the cripple. The Panhandle play recounted the good graces of a cleric who gave his prized silver candlesticks to an escaped convict who previously threatened to knife his Grace.

Mrs. Grace Martin directed the Berger play and Leon Landon the Panhandle play.

Outstanding actors in the tournament were from Pampa, Berger and Lelia Lake. The work of Mary Adams and Arvo Goddard was easily outstanding. Judges expressed amazement that the young people were able to create an illusion of reality to the extent they did. Sound effects of continuously bawling cattle and wind added to the reaction left by the play.

Nudists Picketing Sally Rand, Who Slurs Their Plan

SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 11 (AP)—Nudist pickets wearing sandwich boards today strolled the exposition grounds here as the war between Sally Rand, fan dancer, and the nudist colony flared into white heat.

Miss Rand has been brought here as a free exposition attraction, and an ornate stage has been erected for her fan and bubble dances.

Led by militant Mary Penney, raven-haired beauty, the embattled nudists avowed they will give Sally "a battle she will never forget."

Exposition police said they would have a detail of men to see that no untoward disturbance took place. So infuriated were the nudists af-

'Blackie' Doyle Is Arrested by Police in Dallas

DALLAS, April 11 (AP)—Dallas police today arrested Lloyd (Blackie) Doyle of St. Louis, sought since 1933 in connection with the kidnaping of August Leur, aged Alton, Ill., resident, in 1933.

Doyle, under a state indictment for the Illinois kidnaping, was arrested as he rode in an automobile with a woman in a residential section.

Shortly after police placed him in jail secretly, another man and woman were arrested in a northeast Dallas apartment house.

Leur was kidnaped from his home at Alton in 1933 by desperadoes who knocked Mrs. Leur to the floor when she attempted to interfere. Frank Blake, chief of the Dallas bureau of investigation, department of justice, said.

The kidnapers held Leur for five days before freeing him in southern Illinois, Blake said. He added that so far as federal authorities learned, the criminals had received no ransom for the victim's release.

Doyle, who gave another name when arrested, was identified quickly by a federal record with his photograph and fingerprints. The other man gave his name as Wilkerson but police said they believed it was an alibi.

The fight is alleged to have followed an argument regarding the dismissal of Allison March 24 from a WPA project of which McFarlane was superintendent. Witnesses said McFarlane was struck in the back of the neck. A medical examination showed he died of a broken neck.

THE HAPPY MAN: Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.—Proverbs 3:13, 14.

What Should a Person Read?

If reading "maketh the full man," does it follow that he who does not read is an empty man? A conditional answer is yes, although radio and conversation are filling of a sort, according to the tastes of the listener and his choice of companions.

Well-rounded reading must include religious literature, headed with the Bible, books and articles on art and science, and the more worthwhile of the classics, including plenty of well-written fiction. Of the making of books there continues to be no end, but with the exception of the best sellers, the book publishing business is not profitable and its permanency is threatened by magazines and Sunday newspaper sections.

This trend is to be deplored. Not only "he who runs may read," but most of us who do any serious reading must cease running, which is difficult in this age of committee meetings and banquets.

Keeping up with current events is necessary, of course, but the skilled reader need not give extended time to reading newspapers. A smart reader of newspapers is a headline reader. He scans the headlines for things which interest him. Often the headline and the first paragraph satisfy him. An auto crash is so common that he needs only satisfy him. An auto crash is so common that he needs only note the place, time, and any outstanding circumstance which indicated the cause. "Ten killed in airplane crash during fog"—why read more?

But no one paper, regardless of its size, is enough. Aside from the home paper, which should be read carefully each day, it is necessary to watch the antics of papers with particular policies. And in this regard "The Plainsman" of the Lubbock Avalanche gives his list of daily readings:

"NEWSPAPERS: For Texas as a whole, in addition to the local and sectional papers desired, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, the Houston Chronicle and the Dallas Morning News.

"For the nation as a whole, the New York Times, the New York Daily News, the Los Angeles Times, the Christian Science Monitor (weekly).

"For the 'New Deal slant', the New York World Telegram, the New York Post.

"For the rabidly 'anti-New Deal slant', the Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Daily News.

"For the 'rock-ribbed Republican slant', the New York Herald-Tribune.

For government figures, statistics and all around federal doings, The United States News, of Washington.

"MAGAZINES: For quick check-up on all manner of things interesting, the Readers Digest (monthly); Time, the weekly news magazine (not to be taken too literally because of frequently sloppy reporting which mars its agile style.)

"For the 'New Deal slant' and pleasing special articles, Today, a weekly magazine put out by pro-Rooseveltians Ray Moley and Vincent Astor.

"For the rabidly 'anti-New Deal slant', The Saturday Evening Post's 'hymn of hate' editorial page and special articles.

"For the best short stories on the market, Collier's; for a good short-short and Princess Kropotkin's page, Liberty.

"For mental relaxation, any of the 'true detective' type or the 'pulp'—they are guaranteed to cure insomnia and take one's mind off one's troubles.

"For bright writing, couple with interesting occurrences, The New Yorker's 'talk of the town' items beginning on the first reader's page of each edition.

The above, or any well-scattered group of the above, will keep the average reader as well abreast of the times as is possible.

With the above list, this writer is not in entire accord. He can live happily without Liberty magazine, and instead of the "pulp" he prefers relaxation in the livelier of the classics. The average reader, however, will likely agree with the above in the main. Those of a literary turn of mind of course will require the Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, and a good book review magazine. Teachers often prefer the Literary Digest to Time for classroom discussions.

Every person should have at least one newspaper which he trusts and reads with keen enjoyment daily. The Associated Press is the same, whether printed in the Pampa Daily NEWS or the Dallas News; the editorial treatment, comment, and special services make one paper different from another.

The student who wishes "to get ahead" should do more than keep well informed on current events. The world has existed a long while. To know even a little about economics, art, music, literature, or science requires a lifetime of study. And the student who omits regular study of these subjects will never be known as well-read, cultured, or truly intelligent.

It is a tragedy of modern life that the richness which is this generation's heritage is enjoyed by a small percentage of the population. Too many millions reach an advanced age and find it empty because their reading has been shallow.

BARBS

Maybe that order deposing Kentucky colonels wasn't such a bad one, at that. A few million of them must be tired by now of inhaling juleps through goatees.

It seems that control of Italian business, at least, has gone to the Duke.

An aged friend has held out sturdily against the Townsend temptation, but it turns out he understood it to be $60 a month for all past 200.

Richardson to Succeed Baker On Safety Body

AUSTIN, April 11. (AP)—W. H. Richardson of Austin today held the appointment by Governor Alfred D. Baker to permanent director of the public safety commission.

Governor Alfred, announcing he drafted the Austin hardware merchant and prominent University of Texas ex-student, said he would take the oath immediately.

Baker resigned because of differences with other commissioners on policies. A two to one vote promoting L. G. Phares to permanent director culminated the dissonance.

"He was not an applicant," the governor said of Richardson, "but I insisted upon his acceptance of this draft for duty and he has accepted."

The governor said none of the commission or department of public safety was consulted in the selection of Richardson. It will be Richardson's first public office.

Nebraskan Would Ban Suicide Song

WASHINGTON, April 11. (AP)—To save the lives of persons prone to the blues, Rep. Ari Stefan of Nebraska is seriously considering a demand that the Hungarian "Suicide Tango" song be barred from the United States.

He said today he would determine whether the song, which is called "Gloomy Sunday" and narrates the woes of a suitor whose girl failed to keep a Sunday rendezvous is really as depressing as reported.

"If it is," he said, "I shall bring this fact to the attention of congress. Perhaps we'll ban it in America."

He exhibited press reports which related how the tune was prohibited in Hungary after police attributed a number of strange suicides to its melancholy strains.

The congressman then related how this week a copy of the song had been found on the body of 13-year-old Floyd Hamilton Jr., discovered hanging in his home at Sturgis, Minn.

"Everyone knows," said Stefan "the effect music has on people. In this country where there's a radio in the majority of homes, this thing might have a terrible consequence."

STUDENTS BACK AT DESKS
HOLDENVILLE, Okla., April 10 (AP)—Six hundred Holdenville high school students who walked from their classes yesterday protesting the removal of Ben J. Foster as superintendent, were back at their desks today. The board of education, which had selected Jim Ragland, county superintendent, to succeed Foster next year, called special meeting to reconsider its action.

ACOUSTICS AND SOUND IDEAS ARE SCIENTIFIC

EXPENSIVE MATERIALS ARE USED IN STUDIOS

At left is shown a corner of broadcasting Studio B of station KPBD. This studio is 14x12 feet. The central studio, 25 feet wide and 32 feet long, is of the latest shaded type of acoustical treatment. By shading is meant that the far end of the studio is dead to sound. When one speaks in that section his voice has the effect of dropping from his lips in a dead and lifeless manner, but as one walks toward the glass observation window, brilliancy is brought into play through this acoustical treatment, so that when one speaks, resonance is actually imparted to the voice, giving it more volume than it normally has.

These effects are accomplished with expensive materials adjusted mathematically around the studio and ceilings. The sound is controlled by means of acoustical felt on the walls and screens. The sound is under control to 4 of a second. The three broadcasting studios are so arranged that principals taking part in the program, the production operators and technicians, work in plain sight of one another and not by blind cues as is often the case, even in some of the larger and better known stations. The central studio is equipped with two pianos and sound machines. The largest band in the Panhandle could broadcast in the studio and still have plenty of room to spare. The floor of the studio is of hardwood, and is partly covered with expensive acoustical rugs. Cheerful curtains in pastel shades are at the windows and these may be drawn.

JUDGE DIES

NEW ORLEANS, April 11 (AP)—Judge Richard W. Walker, 79, of the United States fifth district court of appeals, died at Huntsville, Ala., this morning, federal court attaches reported here. Though retired from active duties with the court, Judge Walker still sat with the court here at intervals when an extra judge was needed.

Misses Lois Stallings and Anne Louise Jones visited in Amarillo yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Cullum of Fort Worth are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cullum this week-end.

Modern Desk

Modernistic is the general theme of furnishings and furniture in radio station KPBD. This scheme utilizes every available inch of space and achieves beauty in graceful, if sharp, lines at the same time, as in the office desk shown above. There are two of these desks in the business offices of Joe MacKenzie, manager, and Joe Bryant, commercial manager.

FAMED SERIAL TO BE HEARD OVER STATION

'FAMILY ROBINSON' TO BE FEATURE OF PROGRAM

"They said it couldn't be done but the fact that 'The American Family Robinson' to be heard every day over KPND is also broadcast on 235 other radio stations from Maine to Honolulu and from Alaska to Florida indicates that the radio world is anxious to lay another ancient ghost.

"They" refers to that little group of serious thinkers' other specialists, along Broadway and elsewhere and the "it" refers to the basic idea of a program now believed to be more widely broadcast than any previous sustaining show in radio's history.

"This is just another way of saying that 'The American Family Robinson,' presented under the auspices of the National Industrial Council, seeks to present industry's official viewpoint, via an entertainment medium.

The program is presented serially, in dramatic form. Luke Robinson, the main character, is the philosophical editor of the Centerville Herald, also known as "the paper that covers Centerville like the dew."

Luke is also pretty busy keeping tabs on Dick Collins, his star reporter, who can't help but feel that the high sounding aims of the Downtrodden are noble indeed.

Luke reminds Bill that there is no barber trust, adding that maybe the Little Wonder hair cutting bowl was no good. "Your complaint," said Luke, "that you have no chance in business is just a childish defense for lack of initiative.

RADIO TALENT IS PLENTIFUL IN THIS AREA

MANY LOCAL PERSONS WILL APPEAR ON PROGRAMS

Cecil Hunter, program director or radio station KPND, declares that there is more available talent in Pampa than in any city he has ever lived.

"I was amazed," he stated frankly. "Pampa lacks only one type of radio talent as far as the auditions to date are concerned and that is a good male baritone voice. We are in the market for a good baritone singer."

Mr. Hunter and Bob MacKenzie, station manager, have been kept busy for weeks giving auditions. They have spent all day and part of every night hearing sopranos, pianists, crooners, hill billy bands, readers, school bands, accordianists, violinists and other types of entertainers.

Mr. Hunter and Mr. MacKenzie have card-indexed all the available talent, and those persons will probably be used from time to time. A partial list of persons who will probably appear on KPND programs follows:

Smiling Sam Davis, negro, and his Symbolizers who will give a program called "Jungle Rhythms." Smiling Sam imitates famous colored pianists.

Joe Moore, yodeler; the Centennial band, Mrs. Al Gilliland, soprano; high school boys' quartet; a local German band which plays popular and semi-classical music.

Coleen McMahan, dramatic reader; Donna Leta Scott, accordionist; Bill Kern, Raymond Monday, Phillip Noland, Cecil Hunter, who will read the funny papers on Sunday.

Mrs. G. O. Hamlin, accordionist; Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Guthrie, fiddler and accordionist; Claude Higgs and his orchestra; Chief Stark and his Melodians, Ralph Emerson and orchestra; Louise Lee, KMOX blues singer; Meryl Cook, fancy pianist.

Bob Williams and Felix Gross, negroes, drummer and pianist, who specialize in playing such tunes as "Deep Elm Blues."

Mrs. Raymond Harrah, reader and story teller for children; Howard Zimmerman, singer; high school girls' trio. Ben Guill, high school dramatics teacher, will direct his pupils over the air from time to time, and his play "Dust" will probably be presented.

SPUN GLASS IS USED IN RADIO STUDIO CEILING

Scientific Equipment Made Specially For Station

At right is shown a view of one corner of the large lounge room of Station KPND. As the picture indicates the visitor can see everything that is going on in the largest studio, the two smaller studios and the production room. The floor of the lounge room is covered with a new type of battleship gray application carpet that is glued to the floor. The carpet was especially prepared for this studio.

This reception room is equipped with a large speaker, built on modernistic lines, a leather upholstered divan, built in benches along the wall, upholstered in leatherette. All doors in the studios are built like those in a refrigerator or a vault. They have an inside layer of glass to control sound. The ceiling of the lounge room is of tiled celotex, an acoustical and insulating material, and the ceilings of the studios are built of a layer of spun glass, fiber board and plaster. This material controls the sound perfectly. The walls are similarly constructed.

The broadcasting studios are equipped with absorber and deflector panels which also help to control the sound. The deflector screens are used to obtain brilliant effects and the absorber panels live up to their name and absorb sound. The walls and ceilings are four inches thick.

Other articles of equipment that are likely to cause a great deal of comment are the microphone tables which have a slot in the middle for the microphones. These tables, like other furnishings and equipment, are of modernistic design and have steel tubular legs.

The doors, like the ceilings are four inches thick. The two glass panes in the double plate glass windows which line the lounge room are two inches apart and they are floated in rubber to prevent vibration. The outside glass is one-third-second of an inch thicker than the inside pane in order to eliminate any possible vibration.

PAMPANS IN PAGEANT CANYON. April 11.—Misses Vondell Kees, Willie Isbell, and Odessa Winkler of Pampa, are among those who will appear in the Texas Centennial Pageant which is to be given April 17 under the direction of the physical education department of the West Texas State Teachers college.

Public Invited For Centennial Revue Wednesday

Kathryn Vincent Steele, director of the Vincent studio of dancing, invites the public to attend the Centennial revue which the studio will present Wednesday evening at city hall auditorium, and hopes to have as many old settlers of the Panhandle present as on a similar occasion a year ago.

At last season's entertainment, more than 30 out-of-town guests were present with practically all Pampans who have lived here 25 years. These were honor guests, as they will be Wednesday. A gift will be presented to the person who has lived longest in the Panhandle, and one to the oldest person present. Last year Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wynne received the gift as the oldest settlers, with Mr. and Mrs. Elkins second.

Among the honored guests were several old timers who have died in recent months. One was J. T. Crawford, grandfather of Mrs. Steele, who was the special honoree.

Mrs. H. H. Heiskell, Mrs. Katie Vincent, Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, and other women will wear old-time costumes to the program, and still others are planning costumes for the old-time style show, a feature of the evening.

Students will appear in clever new dances, with costumes adding effectiveness. They have been rehearsing several weeks.

Announcement has been made from the studio that a radio program planned for Sunday, formal opening day of station KPND, will be postponed because of illness among singing and expression students. This program of songs, readings, music, and tap dancing, will be given soon.

'DUCK WALK' OF EASTER PARADE WOMEN SCORED

80 Per Cent Walk Like a Duck, Is Criticism

By MARY ELIZABETH PLUMMER Associated Press Staff Writer.

NEW YORK, April 11 (AP)—Eighty per cent of the women in the annual Easter parade "walk like ducks," Miss Gertrude Mayer, head of a professional model agency said today in giving a list of hints on how to show off new clothes today.

"The biggest thing wrong with the Easter parade is posture," Miss Mayer said. "Eighty per cent of the women walk with their knees bent—a sort of 'duck walk'."

"It doesn't do justice to their clothes."

Her first suggestion for improving the Easter parade was for women to "keep knees straight and walk in a straight line, using more hip motion."

Point 2 was: "If your clothes are old, act nonchalant."

"The best thing a man can do in the Easter parade is to stay in the background," was point 3, with this coded for men: "Don't carry a walking stick unless you know how."

The other Easter parade "hints" were:

4. Don't strain your neck to see your reflection in every shop window on the avenue.

5. Don't walk stiffly, so as not to crease or crumple your new outfit; don't do unnatural things to attract attention—such as talking over-animatedly with your escort.

6. Keep your shoulders straight, head up, stomach in, arms loosely swinging with an easy grace.

7. Don't promenade with a friend whose outfit clashes with yours.

8. Don't thrust your hands in your pockets. It pulls the shoulders down and looks awkward.

9. Don't clutch your escort's arm and hang on it for dear life. If you take his arm, rest your hand lightly on it.

10. If you walk with a man in the Easter parade pick a handsome one—handsome and quiet.

Kansas had six deaths from industrial accidents in February.

ELOQUENT TRIBUTE PAID TO HOBART AT HISTORICAL BANQUET

CENTENNIAL IS ADVERTISED BY PAMPA GROUP

FRANK DOBIE PRAISES COWBOYS TO 200 AT CANYON

By STAFF WRITER
CANYON, April 11.—An eloquent tribute to the late T. D. Hobart of Pampa was delivered here last night by President J. A. Hill of the West Texas State Teachers college before more than 700 persons attending the annual banquet of the Panhandle-Plains Historical society.

Pointing to a large flag-draped picture of Mr. Hobart—presented to the Society's museum recently by Mrs. Hobart—Dr. Hill expressed his sense of loss in the absence of the longtime president of the organization, and added:

"He seemed to embody all of the virtues and none of the vices of the true pioneer. . . God bless his memory."

A moment before, the entire group had stood in silent tribute to all departed pioneers.

Tells of Centennial

During the evening, R. G. Hughes of Pampa, chairman of the Panhandle Centennial celebration to be held in Pampa June 2, 3, 4, and 5, made announcement of the approaching occasion and delivered a brief, much-applauded oration on the "sustained courage" of Panhandle pioneers. He was introduced by Olin E. Hinkle, managing editor of the Pampa Daily NEWS, who also presented, on behalf of the Junior chamber of commerce, the Jaycees' Centennial string band headed by Harry Kelley.

Other Pampans present were Judge Ivy E. Duncan, John V. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Allen, Clinton Henry, Clyde Fatheree and with the latter, Fred Hobart of Canadian.

Talks on Cowboys

J. Frank Dobie, Texas university history professor and noted author spoke on cowboys as the character contribution to world literature. Horsemen, he reminded the audience, are defined in all languages as the highest type of gentlemen while footmen—peons—are the bottom of the scale.

The cowboy described by Dobie varied considerably from the cowboy of literature and movies. He was described as highly independent, cheerful, simple in tastes and tremendously proud of his vocation. The cow country and its citizens have "flavor," a quality somewhat rare in American life, the speaker said.

In keeping with his style, he told his facts through anecdotes. The South Texas cowboy was said to be philosophical and somewhat less active than the plains cowboy. Quoting a cowboy: "Isn't God good? He gives us the night to sleep in and the day to rest in."

Ranch Ways Recalled

Dobie spoke of ranchmen who listed their assets in their heads and let the banks keep books on their liabilities, of cowboys who found "drip" coffee too technical, of Winchester rifles which were the best abstracts to land for 40 years, of cowmen who hated sheep men so much that they refused to say the Lord's prayer, of the days when "a man could buy a good beef steak, and not just veal."

A musical program completed the events of the banquet.

At the business meeting of the society, President Patrick related to the members how $40,000 which is adding to and finishing the museum was secured from the Texas Centennial commission. The construction of the addition will be begun within a few weeks.

Secretary L. F. Sheffy reported to the society that 26,623 visitors had registered at the museum during the last 12 months. Of these, 2,780 were school children. Buses of grade and high school pupils can be seen at the museum every week-end.

An office desk and chair which were the property of the late Wilbur C. Hawk have been presented by the News-Globe of Amarillo to the museum and will be placed in the Mary E. Huisabeth art gallery.

Treasurer W. L. Vaughan reported a balance of $244.78. C. Stuart Johnston gave a report of field activities which are making the society nationally known.

Comes From Bermuda

Miss Susan J. Allen of Bermuda, the first benefactor of the society, was introduced. She said that she was delighted and impressed with the work being done by the society in the museum, and in the field.

Immediately following the general business session, the Board of Directors met and re-elected officers who had served during the last year. They were: W. H. Patrick, Clarendon, president, H. E. Hoover Canadian, vice-president; J. A. Hill, Canyon, second vice-president;

L. F. Sheffy, Canyon, secretary; W. L. Vaughan, Canyon, treasurer; Floyd Suder, Amarillo, director of Paleontology and Archeology; John L. McCarty of Amarillo was elected to the Board of Directors to succeed Judge A. J. Fire of Childress. Other directors who are not officers are J. D. Hamlin, Farwell; Olin E. Hinkle, Pampa, and R. P. Smythe Plainview.

Sidelights

Judge H. E. Hoover of Canadian is the only living president of the Historical society, which is 15 years old. It has had only three other presidents—Thomas F. Turner pioneer lawyer of Amarillo, O. H. Nelson of Romero, who brought the first registered Herefords into the Panhandle, and T. D. Hobart of Pampa, one-time president of the Southwestern Cattle Raisers association. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bugbee of Clarendon were present. Mr. Bugbee is an artist, three of whose paintings hang in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum. Mrs. Bugbee (nee Kathryn Patrick) has made a unique collection of signatures of oldtimers.

Newspaper men, who were present at the business meeting Friday afternoon were O. E. Hinkle of Pampa, Clyde Warwick of the Canyon News, Frank Hill of the Tahoka News, Garford Wilkinson of the Amarillo News Globe, and Frank Reeves of Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Four who never miss the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society meeting are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Christian of Claude and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Timmons of Amarillo. The Timmons write authentic feature stories of pioneer life.

R. P. Smythe who laid off the town of Plainview and who has been state representative from his district, is a member of the board of directors of the society.

Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon recently completed a landscape in oils to be used as a background for an exhibit in the museum.

Horace Russell, Amarillo stationer and one of northwest Texas' most widely read men, has been a guiding influence in the Historical Society since its organization in 1921.

The honor guest for this year's meeting was Miss Susan J. Allen of Pembroke, Bermuda, world traveler and first benefactor of the museum.

Miss Laura V. Hammer, first county superintendent of Potter county and author of No-Gun Man of Texas, always attends the meetings of the Historical Society.

Dr. Hattie M. Anderson, first secretary of the Society, served as recording secretary for the business meeting this year. Dr. J. A. Hill says, "The museum movement in Texas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico started right here. The work which was begun less than 15 years ago has kindled an enthusiasm for history and museums which has spread over the entire state."

At a business meeting of Beta Sigma Phi Thursday evening plans were completed for a progressive dinner Wednesday evening to honor pledges, one of the events of next month in the society. The meeting was in the home of Miss Frances Stark, president. Letters from national officers regarding reports from the new Pampa chapter were read.

Child Welfare Is Project for April

Child welfare activities will be emphasized by the American Legion Auxiliary throughout the national organization during April, the chairman of the child welfare committee of Pampa unit of the Auxiliary, has announced. The organization's 8,700 local units will give special attention to planning and developing work for the benefit of the unfortunate children of their communities.

"Child welfare is a continuous activity in the Auxiliary, but in April, designated as child welfare month, we concentrate our efforts behind the child welfare program," explained the chairman. "We will endeavor during the month to give intensive study to the problem of the underprivileged child, to awaken wider public interest in the problem and to develop activities through which the Auxiliary can contribute more effectively to its solution. "The Auxiliary's first concern, of course, is the welfare of the children of veterans; children left without a father's support because of the war. There are many of these children in every community and the number is increasing daily as death and disability take toll from the ranks of veterans. We endeavor to assure for all of them the normal advantages of American childhood, keeping them in their homes with their mothers where possible, providing the necessities for health, education and a fair start in life."
