We Must Average $107,000 a Day Here's that goal ... $1,791,400 Added Friday-Saturday ... 141,013 Our total to date ... 1,149,444 The week's job ... 641,956

$107,000 Per Day Must Be Sold For Bond Quota

Friday and Saturday brought over $141,000 into the till for Uncle Sam's war financing, and Howard county now has left to subscribe in the Third War Loan—

$641,956

That means about $107,000 per day through this week. There are six days to get the job done, as official announcement came through Saturday that the time of the campaign, originally scheduled to close on Thursday, Sept. 30, had been extended through Saturday, Oct. 2.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau announced the extension, and wires calling for redoubled efforts through the week came to County Chairmen Ira Thurman and Ted Grobel from state leaders.

These state officials announced a special statewide broadcast for Tuesday evening, from 10 to 10:30, when every radio station in the state will carry "Texas Heroes Speak." KBST, Big Spring, will remain on the air to broadcast this program.

"We are glad to have the extension of time," Grobel said Saturday. "And we of the committee confidently believe that a week from now Howard county can report 'mission accomplished.' We have a hard pull ahead, but the good American citizens of this county have never failed yet on a war assignment, and there is no reason to believe they will fall now.

"But there can be no letup. There even must be more work done than there has ever been done before. We ask every citizen to think bonds and talk bonds throughout this week—and we'll sell bonds."

Grobel has special committees out making contacts which are expected to mean heavy subscriptions this week. Meanwhile, school children have joined in a contest of their own, and will be out this week to canvass the city again—and reaching purchasers who probably haven't been reached before. Winning groups in the student sales effort will be presented with suitable awards.

Subscriptions Monday were expected to be sizeable, since scores of local firms joined in the "Business for Uncle Sam" day, pledging to invest in bonds in the amount of double their gross business Saturday.

Reviewing The

Big Spring —Week—

Joe Pickle

Six more days now separate us from either success or failure in the Third War Loan drive. We are too far from our goal for comfort, but if everyone would take it as a personal responsibility the day can yet be saved for Howard county. One thing that would help substantially is for every family to resolve to purchase at least one bond between now and Thursday evening.

Wonder what deposits would show if a bank call came Monday? Wonder if it would look like there had been any heavy sacrificing on a general basis?

Right now there is great interest in our water situation. Consumption has dropped within the safe level, but the realization persists that we must augment our supply tremendously. Almost everyone is agreed on this. This column suggests that the time is right for a meeting of minds on what plan to follow in securing this supply. Let's all be of one accord and pull in the same direction.

While thinking of looking ahead on the water deal, this calls to mind a post-war planning committee named months and months ago. What became of it?

At this writing, rain has barely been enough to settle the dust. We'll make out on that if necessary but may it please, the Lord (See THE WEEK, Pg. 11, Col. 3)

Naples Plain Is In Sight As Nazis Give Way

Fifth Army Pressed On Day And Night In Rugged Terrain

By NOLAN NORGAARD ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Sept. 25 (AP) — American and British ground forces have smashed their way to the mountain tops guarding the smoke-filled plain of Naples, headquarters announced today, as Allied airmen took a growing toll of German troops attempting to flee by plane from Corsica to Italy.

The American Fifth Army pressed its onslaught day and night against the strong German mountain defense line. The total of nazi prisoners taken since Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's forces landed at Salerno rose to well over 2,000.

The going was slow for the Allied attackers, who sweated up steep hillsides with mules carrying guns and ammunition where neither trucks nor tanks could travel.

But the soldiers who toiled on, routing out German strongholds as they went, had the satisfaction of looking down from the mountain tops today on low country where the enemy will lose the defensive advantages he now possesses.

At least a dozen more of the heavily-laden transports were damaged in the past two days as RAF Beaufighters kept up a vigilant patrol over the route between Corsica and the mainland.

Trapped in the northeast corner of the island by French troops, patriots and American Rangers, the Germans were attempting to escape to the mainland, but were being blasted out of the air just as they were in similar attempts to evacuate Tunisia and Sicily.

A French communique said increasing numbers of French troops had landed on Corsica and were cooperating with the patriots and Americans in exerting heavy pressure on the trapped Germans. "The combined action of Allied bomber and naval forces is rendering their evacuation very precarious," the bulletin said.

It disclosed that German troops were repulsed in a sharp engagement in the eastern part of the island.

Hull May Attend The Moscow Conference

By RICHARD MASSOCK WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—High importance of the Moscow conference on American-British-Soviet war and post-war collaboration appeared increasingly likely tonight to bring attendance of Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

While Hull informed reporters after a meeting with Ambassador William H. Standley and President Roosevelt that neither he nor the government had reached the question of whether he would go to Moscow, some of the secretary's associates termed his presence "imperative."

It also appeared possible that a new ambassador would accompany the American delegation, since Standley intends to resign his post without returning. Determined to get out of diplomacy, the admiral said goodbye to Foreign Commissar Molotov when he took leave of the Soviet capital a few days ago.

W. Averell Harriman, lend-lease expeditor at London, is expected to succeed Standley. He attended the conference with Hull and Standley which the secretary interrupted to go to the White House.

Harriman and others have been mentioned for the leadership of the American conference delegation. Britain will be represented by Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

An apparent Soviet desire to collaborate with the United States and Great Britain has been reported to the state department and high officials have expressed the view that the meeting calls for an American diplomat of cabinet rank on a par with that of Molotov and Eden.

The Moscow conference was announced by Prime Minister Churchill as intended to clear the way for an agreement among the three nations on joint war efforts and collaboration after victory. Roosevelt and Churchill are seeking a meeting with Stalin later this year to complete an accord.

Welles Resigns; Stettinius Named Undersecretary

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—President Roosevelt announced tonight the resignation of Sumner Welles as undersecretary of state and the appointment of Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., lend-lease administrator to succeed him.

Mr. Roosevelt also announced the establishment of a new office of foreign economic administration, with Leo T. Crowley, who has been in charge of the office of economic warfare, as its director. The president said in a statement the new agency would "centralize all foreign economic functions in one operating agency" combining activities formerly engaged in by the offices of lend-lease.

Welles' resignation, which had been forecast for some time, was accepted by Mr. Roosevelt, he said, "with deep and sincere regret."

The president said the career diplomat had advised him "of his desire to be relieved of his heavy governmental duties in view of his wife's health" and that he "could understand and sympathize with that desire."

Of Stettinius' appointment, Mr. Roosevelt said "his broad experience with our Allies both before and after Pearl Harbor as lend-lease administrator and his long experience as an executive in business, splendidly equipped him for his new post."

With reference to Crowley's designation as director of the Office of Foreign Economic Administration, the chief executive said he was one of the best administrators in or out of government and "I find great satisfaction in promoting him to a position which will centralize all foreign functions in one operating agency."

Former Governor Herbert Lehman of New York, who has headed the Office of Foreign Relief and Rehabilitation, has been named a special assistant to the president to perfect plans for a United Nations meeting on Nov. 9 to consider the problem of long-range world relief.

Stettinius Does Not Make Comment

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25 (AP)—Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., said through an aide tonight he preferred not to comment immediately on President Roosevelt's announcement that he had been appointed under-secretary of state, and that he planned to leave for Washington "promptly."

Stettinius came here Sept. 21 to inspect industries and facilities handling lend-lease material.

Downey Says Nazi Collapse Imminent

By FRANCIS J. KELLY WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—Forecasting the collapse of Germany within four months, Senator Downey (D-Calif.) predicted today that many of the married men scheduled for induction this fall never will see combat.

He saw no possible exception—development by Hitler's ordnance experts of some new anti-aircraft weapon to thwart the Allies' aerial blasting of the reich.

Declaring enormous damage already has been dealt Germany's munitions works, refineries and synthetic rubber plants, Downey maintained it is a cold mathematical fact that Berlin and other nazi cities could be leveled by our bombers.

Meanwhile, in the face of apparently insuperable opposition, Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) prepared for a last-ditch fight in the senate next week for his bill to defer the induction of pre-war fathers for the remainder of 1943.

The debate will start Tuesday, only two days before the Oct. 1 deadline set by the War Manpower Commission for beginning the general draft of married men with children. Opponents expect to send the bill back to committee by Thursday.

Wheeler spoke bitterly at a press conference about what he called the bungling of the general manpower situation.

"The bureaucrats in Washington cannot escape the blame for the chaos that exists in the manpower situation today," he said.

"The incompetence on the part of these bureaus—and I include the war department—is doing more to sabotage the war effort and break down morale of the people than all the fifth columnists in the United States.

Yank Bombers Blast Airfield In N. France

RAF Planes Attack Transport Targets And Sink Vessel

LONDON, Sept. 25 (AP)—American Marauder bombers blasted the Longueuesse airfield at St. Omer in northern France today and British planes attacked rail and water transport targets in northern France and Belgium and sank a medium sized supply vessel off Den Helder in north Holland, it was announced tonight.

Allied Spitfires escorted the Eighth Air Force bombers on the St. Omer raid which was accompanied without the loss of a plane by the attacking force, a joint British Air Ministry-U.S. Army communique said.

The supply vessel sunk off Den Helder was hit by a torpedo from an RAF Beaufighter of the coastal command escorted by Spitfires.

More than a dozen locomotives and several barges were damaged in the offensive patrols over Belgium and northern France carried out by Mustangs, Typhoons and Spitfires.

Fighter command Mosquitos destroyed two Junkers 88s this afternoon. Two coastal command and three fighter command planes are missing from these operations, the air ministry communique said.

Almost 48 hours after the RAF's heavy attack of Thursday night, fires still were burning late yesterday in the twin German industrial cities of Mannheim and Ludwigshafen, the air ministry said, adding that the I. G. Farben chemical works of Ludwigshafen, was among the places still in flames.

The statement said that "fresh damage done that night was severe, especially in the dock, central and Neckar Stadt areas of Mannheim."

The Marauders, keeping up their average of more than one raid a day against German fighter bases, encountered only moderate flak over St. Omer-Longueuesse. Though some enemy fighters were seen, escorting Spitfires drove them off.

New OPA Heads For Region 5

DALLAS, Sept. 25 (AP)—William B. Harrell and Harry Hall were appointed today as regional attorney and chief hearing commissioner of Region 5, Charles Braut, regional office of Price Administration deputy administrator, announced today.

Harrell, Dallas attorney who has been regional litigation attorney for OPA since February, 1941, succeeds Talbot Smith, Smith having been named hearing administrator in Washington's OPA office.

Hall, from Edinburg, has been serving in the regional OPA office as acting regional attorney. He will have charge of all matters pertaining to hearings covering violations of rationing regulations.

As regional attorney, Harrell will be chief counsel for the regional administrator and the heads of the various divisions of OPA's region five.

Braut also announced that Amos Coffman, who has been regional enforcement attorney in the Dallas office since last November, has become regional enforcement executive in charge of the regional enforcement division.

Pushing Japs Back Aussies Gain Beachhead And Threaten Depot

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, Sunday, Sept. 26 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today that Australian troops have fought their way against Japanese opposition across the Bumi river within three quarters of a mile of the enemy air and supply depot base of Finschhafen, New Guinea.

The south shore beachhead was firmly established and the Aussies drove steadily toward the town, which is on the Huon peninsula only 75 miles from Japan's strategic island of New Britain. (Enemy resistance was bitter.)

The Japanese airforce, which lost more than 40 planes last Wednesday trying to break up the Australians in their amphibious landings six miles north of Finschhafen, tried to hamper the drive but outnumbered Lightning turned back a strong enemy formation.

"Our ground forces in the face of enemy opposition effected a crossing of the Bumi river and are driving south towards the town," today's communique said.

The communique reported airforce action against Japanese shipping. In a favorite hunting ground for enemy vessels near Kavieng, New Ireland, four-engined reconnaissance planes sank a 2,000 ton cargo ship.

Off the same island near Cape St. George, an enemy cruiser was attacked and three medium cargo vessels were bombed in the north Solomon area but these were night actions and results were not determined.

Casualties At Salerno List 3,497 For Us

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—The war department reported today that American casualties at Salerno up to and including September 15 totaled 3,497 killed, wounded and missing.

The announcement noted that this period includes "September 14, the date of the German announcement that 8,000 to 10,000 American soldiers had been killed" and "an equal number captured."

The period covered by the report includes the time which the Germans made their counter-attacks on the Allied beachheads. On September 16 Allied forces took the initiative.

Missing was not broken down into parts. Covering approximately a week, it compared with American losses of 7,445 killed, wounded and missing in the 38-day Sicilian campaign. President Roosevelt gave this figure in saying that the total American, British and Canadian casualties in Sicily were 31,158.

The Moscow communique, recorded by the Soviet monitor, said Sokolovsky's troops dislodged the Germans from the fortifications covering the approaches to Smolensk and then broke into the northern outskirts of the once vital nazi stronghold on Friday.

Fierce street fighting ensued. By the end of the day the whole northern part of the city had been cleared of the enemy. This morning (Saturday) the city was carried by assault.

"In this way Smolensk, the most important enemy center of resistance, has been liberated from the Germans."

The capture of Smolensk turned the northern flank of the Dnieper river line the Germans once expected to hold as an east wall deep in Russia.

No natural obstacles bar a Russian westward drive in the area and the Soviet army can continue its advance without risk of a nazi counter-attack from there because the left flank will be protected by the Pripiet marshes.

Henry C. Cassidy, Associated Press correspondent in Moscow, called that the highway leading west from Smolensk, the finest in the Soviet union, was reported littered with beaten German troops and broken machines.

The communique also announced continuing Soviet advances northwest of Smolensk where 60 towns and villages were captured and over 600 Germans killed. A break in German morale in this area was indicated when 65 Germans came over to the Red army with their arms.

Meanwhile London newspapers, quoting Reuters dispatches from Moscow, said that Russian troops were fighting their way across the Dnieper at several points. They did not make clear, however, whether the west bank had been reached and held. The capture of Smolensk involved a crossing of the Dnieper at its headquarters where the stream was narrow and its strategic value as a barrier was less important than in the south.

The communique reported advances toward Dnepetrovsk, Kiev, Kremenchug and Gomel.

WILL MEET REQUEST PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25 (AP)—The government's request of the steel industry for two million additional tons of steel for the last six months of this year is "certain to be realized," Philip Murray, president of the United Steel Workers of America (CIO) said today.

Survivors include four daughters: Mrs. Lillian Boyce, California, Mrs. O. E. Radford, Abilene, Maedelle Birdwell, San Antonio, and Mrs. Johanna McGee, San Antonio; and two sons, Dan Birdwell of Arizona and Banton Birdwell of Florida. She also leaves four grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Joe Jim Green, Big Spring, is a relative.

Among those here for rites are Mrs. J. M. Radford, Abilene, Mr. Harrison, San Antonio, and Mrs. and Mr. Walter Ruge, San Antonio.

The Rev. James E. Moore, First Presbyterian pastor, will officiate at services and burial will be beside the grave of her husband. Pallbearers will be Joy and Bernard Fisher, Dr. C. W. Deats, T. S. Currie, J. F. Wolcott, Shine Phillips, Bob Finer and Walter Ruge.

Final tribute will be paid here at 2 p. m. today at the Eberley chapel for Mrs. Annabelle Green Birdwell, 78, widow of the man credited with giving the city its name.

Mrs. Birdwell succumbed at 9 p. m. Friday in San Antonio, where she had resided for the past 25 years. She had been in continuous ill health for two years prior to her death.

Born in Tennessee on Feb. 5, 1865, she came to Big Spring as the bride of John Birdwell, fabled pioneer character whose name was synonymous the young village. As a buffalo hunter, he was said to have given the name "big spring" to the watering hole south of where the city later was built.

When he brought his bride here, they set up a hostelry—a rambling frame structure near the railroad station.

Mrs. Birdwell was active in church, civic and social affairs of the frontier town. Her name was on the First Christian church roll as a charter member, and likewise she was a charter member of the Order of Eastern Star here.

Always a woman of good tastes, it was she who largely directed the construction of the Birdwell home (now the VFW home) at 9th and Goliad, long a "show spot" for the thriving little city.

Red Skelton And Lucille Ball Teamed In Musical, 'DuBarry Was A Lady'

Red Skelton takes a hilarious leap into the dim and distant past, and carries with him a group of noted screen personalities, in "Du Barry Was A Lady," screen musical comedy in technicolor offered today and Monday at the Ritz theatre.

The story revolves about the dream of the comedian, who plays a checkroom attendant in a night club. He is in love with glamorous Lucille Ball, star of the floor show. He dreams he's King Louis and she's his Mme Du Barry. His friends and associates of the club become characters in the adventures of the king and the charmer. Amid comical complications, gals Red foils a plot against him and then wakes up—and finds the true path to love. The comedy is embellished with a catchy Cole Porter musical score, with Tommy Dorsey and his band doing yeoman service in the harmony line. Beautiful girls in elaborate Irene costumes add glamour to the laughs. Before it is all over, Dorsey dances to his own music in the "Friendship" number.

Skelton was never funnier than as the merry monarch, and Miss Ball, in gorgeous gowns, is alluring as well as a clever actress. Zero Mostel, New York comedian, makes an auspicious bow on the screen in the picture, and Virginia O'Brien, "dead pan" singer, warbles catchy songs in her inimitable style. "Rags" Ragland and Donald Meek aid and abet in the funmaking. Roy Del Ruth directed the picture with many clever touches and the artistic technicolor photography by Karl Freund effectively brings out the girls, gowns and other beauty spots of the production. Arthur Freed produced "Du Barry Was A Lady" for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Old and New—Some of this story, "Du Barry Was A Lady," goes back in history, but the music and the robust humor are right up to the minute. Adapted from the stage success, the film version of "Du Barry Was A Lady," has been made in Technicolor, and features Lucille Ball, Red Skelton and Gene Kelly. There are plenty of gags and gals. The picture is at the Ritz today and Monday.

First Lady Back From Foreign Trip

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25 (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was heading eastward today to report to headquarters—her husband—on what she saw and learned in her 24,000-mile, 38-day journey to Australia and the South Pacific. "The president said, 'will you try to see as many of the men as you can, and find out how things are going,'" she told interviewers yesterday after arriving by plane from Honolulu. "I don't think I ever worked so hard in my life."

Mrs. Roosevelt returned with the highest admiration for the spirit, courage and skill of American fighting men.

She said: "The ones who hadn't finished their college wanted to know if they could have a chance to go on with their education; the ones who had acquired skills in the service were hopeful they could find a way to use them after the war. They all wanted to know whether they would have jobs. They took a tremendous interest in the kind of world we are going to have after the peace. "I think you will find an extraordinary amount of discussion going on about that."

Birth Rate Highest, Death Rate Lowest

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—In its first full year of World War II—1942—the nation's birth rate was the highest in 16 years and the death rate the lowest on record. The census bureau so reported today. Births totaled 2,808,996, an increase of 11.8 per cent over the 1941 figure, and deaths, not counting war casualties abroad, numbered 1,385,187, a decline of 0.9 per cent from the preceding year. The birth rate of 21.0 per 1,000 population was the highest since 1926, while the death rate of 10.4 was the lowest yet recorded.

Gaiety—Things go gaily musical at the Lyric theatre today and Monday, with the screening of "What's Buzzin' Cousin," in which Ann Miller and John Hubbard have the leading roles. Eddie Anderson (Rochester to you) and Freddy Martin's band are other attractions.

War Demands On Petroleum Hurt Program

By BRACK CURRY HOUSTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Will Texas' oil conservation program crack under the strain of mounting war demands for petroleum products? Authoritative oil men in this area today voiced concern over the possibility of production schedules that would force abandonment of conservation measures and dissipate oil reserves. Stressing their belief that Texas fields are nearing their top production rate without waste, these sources who asked not to be named, suggested that an increase of 250,000 barrels to the statewide allowable schedule would precipitate wasteful production practices. That this tendency already is apparent in sweet crude fields is indicated, they said, by these factors:

The consistent inability to produce their allowable quotas; strained bottomhole pressure in East Texas; absence of large-scale exploratory activity to ferret out new reserves to replace exhausted fields.

Railroad commission engineers estimate that underproduction will slice 128,850 barrels daily or 6.40 per cent from the October allowable figure of 2,013,000 barrels. During July underproduction totaled 6.07 per cent compared with 3.92 per cent in December, 1941. July production was 103,900 barrels daily below the allowed rate, commission figures indicated.

Noting the strain on bottomhole pressure occasioned by heavy oil withdrawals, the Oil and Gas Journal warned that the field may be "the first large pool to break under the added war burden."

At the last two statewide production hearings, East Texas representatives urgently requested a reduction in the field's 23 producing days.

Combat—The heaviest of the fighting in this war is done by the commandos who storm the coasts and strike stealthily in the night. One of the thrilling stories of these troops' operations is "Commandos Strike At Dawn," in which Paul Muni is starred. The picture is at the State theatre today and Monday.

Paul Muni Starred In Commando Story At State Theatre

Columbia's "Commandos Strike At Dawn," which runs today and Monday at the State Theatre, is known to Hollywood as the motion picture more eagerly awaited than any in recent years. And Hollywood knows the film, too, as the motion picture which exceeded even the fondest anticipations. The forthcoming film is remarkable in that, during production:

It enlisted the enthusiastic support and co-operation of three great governments—the United States, Great Britain and Canada. It was considered so important by Paul Muni that he insisted upon playing the starring role—his first screen venture in more than two years.

It marks the screen return of Lillian Gish, world-famous stage and silent screen star, after a nine year absence from Hollywood.

Its cast includes several hundred Canadian-trained Commandos, who appear as themselves and who present a grimly realistic picture of warfare, as they know it!

There are other reasons for Hollywood's interest in the new production. Irwin Shaw wrote the screen play from C. S. Forester's Cosmopolitan magazine story of a Norwegian patriot who leads a Commando raid upon a secret Nazi airfield in his beloved homeland. John Farrow, the man who made "Wake Island" and whose understanding of the war and the manner of its fighting is attested to by his two-year service as Lieutenant Commander in the British navy, directed "Commandos Strike At Dawn," with the technical assistance of Royal Canadian officers in the Navy, Army and Air force. Lester Cowan, who made last season's redoubtable "Ladies in Retirement," directed the new film. And, finally, the supporting cast includes, in addition to Miss Gish, such players as Anna Lee, who was Bronwen in "How Green Was My Valley," Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Robert Coote, English-born actor who quit his newly-won film stardom to join the Canadian air force at the outbreak of hostilities.

"Commandos Strike At Dawn" was filmed, almost in its entirety, in British Columbia.

Top Star—Rated by most standing male stars in the movie firmament during the past year, Alan Ladd carries the top role in "Lucky Jordan," featured at the Queen theatre today and Monday. It's an engrossing story about a fellow who didn't have much standing in the eyes of his fellow-men until his country called.

Radio Programs Planned To Aid Sale Of Bonds

Two radio programs have been arranged for 6:30 p. m. on Monday and Tuesday to aid in the promotion of a bond sale campaign being sponsored through the Big Spring public school system.

All guidance rooms of the high school are competing against one another as are the elementary schools to see which can sell the most war bonds on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Oil Association Meets October 13

The oil industry of West Texas will be well represented at the 24th annual convention of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, which opens in Fort Worth on Wednesday, October 13, according to B. L. LeFever, vice-president of the association.

"This year's convention program will be of unusual interest to every oil operator in West Texas, said LeFever, since the discussion will not only involve problems and plans of immediate concern to our industry, but will also be devoted to post-war planning."

Aw! Sarge Have A Heart I Gotta Wash Clothes

By HAL BOYLE
IN AN AMERICAN AIR BASE IN ITALY, Sept. 18, (delayed) (AP)—There is a conspiracy in the army against keeping clean, everyone is under official orders to keep clean and neat in the field, but—

In Tunisia there was a shortage of water. In Sicily the campaign that conquered that island in 38 working days moved so fast there was hardly time to pause to bathe. In Italy there is plenty of water for the first time and a man can wash, but there is still the perennial shortage of laundry soap.

A man never thinks of laundry soap in peace time. In war it is always something of a problem. The quartermaster, the man who tells you he is out of what you want, apparently carefully figures out how much soap a group of soldiers will need, then divides by half and sends that much along. These smelly precious golden bars, the only thing in the universe that will remove the mud and C-ration stains from a GI uniform, are put into the custody of the mess sergeant. These kitchen toscaninis are usually moody, introspective men with a temperament of a burlesque queen. But when, some night after days at the front, you take off your clothes and they stand up instead of falling to the ground you realize that tomorrow just must be Monday.

So you take your pride in your hand and in your hour of need you approach the mess sergeant thusly: "Good morning, sergeant." "Morning," he answers suspiciously. "How'd you sleep?" "Terrible. Stomach's on the blink again. I can't stand these rations, and besides I ate too much again last night."

"That's too bad. How're things at home?" "Worse. Mom needs a new pair of glasses. My nephew has the chicken pox and my girl quit her job in a war plant. Now I'll have to pay for the wedding ring when I get home."

"Gee, things are going so rough with you I hate to ask for a favor." "A favor? Waddaya mean a favor? Are you back here for some more of that laundry soap?" "I'm afraid so."

"Do you realize I need that stuff to clean my stove and make wash water for all you guys' mess kits?" "Yes, sergeant."

"Do you think that stuff grows on bushes?" "No, sergeant."

"You know I have to fight like hell to get that soap." "Yes, sergeant."

"Ain't you got any left from that piece I gave you two weeks ago?" "No, sergeant."

"What'd you do with all of it? Wash your ears? Well, here's some more, but don't tell the other guys I got any more in, and don't waste it."

With that he scrapes his fingers across a bar of soap and gives you all that sticks to the nail. You take it gratefully and go away and wash two suits of underwear, a pair of pants, three wool shirts and four handkerchiefs in a helmet full of cold water.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 25, (AP) "Victory Fleet Day" will be observed Sept. 27 when the Gulf Coast's 300,000 shipyard and large factory workers along with the others in the nation will be asked to sign a pledge to produce the necessary war materials "to blast into oblivion the enemies of free labor, wherever they may be found."

The day will mark the second anniversary of the launching of the first Liberty ship, the S. S. Patrick Henry, at Baltimore, which ushered in the greatest two-year building program in history.

L. R. Sanford, Gulf Coast director of the U. S. Maritime Commission, sponsors of the huge program, announces that on Monday messages would be sent to Admiral Land, chairman of the commission, by labor-management committees at shipyards and factories advising him that the pledges had been signed.

"By Monday," Sanford said, "American shipyards will have delivered in a scant 24 months a fleet of ships whose deadweight tonnage is more than twice the size of America's entire merchant marine before Pearl Harbor."

Amos R. Woods To Live In California

Dr. and Mrs. Amos R. Wood are leaving Monday for Long Beach, Calif., where they will make their home. Dr. Wood, who has been an optometrist here for the past 15 years, sold out his practice to Dr. W. S. Palmer this spring. Since then the Woods have been vacationing in Colorado.

Dr. Wood has retired and is going back to California in a really "going back home" since he came to Big Spring from Los Angeles, Calif., and many of his relatives—and his family—reside there.

A Woman Army Corps service medal has been authorized for all members of the WAAC who remained in the organization when it became the WAC.

THE five newly arrived WAC motor transport drivers have learned to know London's intricate streets, lanes and shortcuts in a way that has been a pride to the American officers and to Britishers who ride with them in the U. S. Army vehicles.

Twenty members of the WAC Unit in Cape Cod reported to the Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank to give their blood.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, Sept. 24, (AP) — Stocks did a bit better in parts of today's market but many leaders continued to jog along at moderately lower levels.

Dealings were on the sluggish side, throughout and transfers for the full stretch were around 650,000 shares.

Touching peaks for 1943 were Allegheny Preferreds and Engineers Public Service common.

Pleasant earnings figures gave R-K-O a modest lift. Senior issues of Electric Power & Light and United Corp. were ahead the greater part of the time. Resistance was displayed by U. S. Steel, General Motors, Santa Fe, Goodrich, J. I. Case, Western Union, Dow Chemical, Du Pont, Westinghouse and Eastman Kodak.

Laggards included Anaconda, Pennsylvania, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Douglas Aircraft and Stand Oil (N. J.).

VETERAN'S SAVINGS

PERRY, Ga.—James A. Ragan, 54-year-old negro veteran of World War I, dumped a flour sack before the cashier's cage of the Perry Loan and Savings company and said he wanted to buy a war bond.

The result was two five-hundred dollar bonds, bought with the savings which Ragan had accumulated since his return from the last war. The money was all in five-dollar bills, the great majority of them the old big-size bills.

Major Who Wanted It Got 'Excitement'

By DEAN SCHEDLER
SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, Sept. 25. (AP) —Major Charles Gallup of Chicago, Ill., who holds down an office job with the fifth air force, wanted a "little excitement." Well, he got it.

Gallup hopped into a P-38 when word came that 20 to 30 Japanese bombers, with an escort of 30 to 40 fighters, were attempting to disrupt landings of Australian troops on the beach north of inschafen, New Guinea, two days ago.

So he had a front seat to the flaming spectacle that followed as American lightnings, marauders and P-40's shot down 40 enemy planes and placed five more in the "probable" class.

(Today's Allied communique said the air battle lasted 25 minutes, and that we lost three planes, saving one pilot.)

"Our fighters," said Gallup, "hit those Nips like a ton of bricks—only a lot faster and harder."

The pilots first sighted the enemy at about 12,000 feet, and then, Gallup related, "planes from all over the sky poured down in hot dives to get into them."

"We saw thunderbolts and P-40's tearing into the Japs, sending bombers and fighters flaming into the drink. Some of those fighters almost got into the seat with the Japs, they fired at them so close."

After dropping bombs from low altitude, the Japanese attempted to get away, but Gallup said our flyers saw five or six enemy fighters heading for home and took after them.

"The first part of our flight knocked three down. Then one of the best split second deals I have ever seen happened. One Jap decided to tear around the other side of a huge cloud to try and get away. A thunderbolt coming from the opposite direction met him and his 50 calibers demolished that guy in seconds."

Flight leaders in the fight included Major Frank B. Pompkins, Palestine, Tex.

Thompson Named Associate Head

MIDLAND, Sept. 25. (AP) —Lee Thompson of Farwell, county judge of Parmer County, Friday was elected president of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association at its annual convention here.

Ben Masker, Lubbock county commissioner, was elected vice-president and James T. Hale of Tulsa, Swisher county judge, was elected secretary-treasurer.

Location and date for the next convention will be decided by the executive committee.

Gift Horse Brings Red Cross $150

A horse donated to the Howard-Glasscock chapter of the American Red Cross has netted $150 for the organization, through a special sale handled by Dr. M. H. Bennett.

George O'Bar of Glasscock county made the gift, and through the sale W. R. McGinnis acquired the animal. All proceeds have been turned over to the Red Cross.

Buys Bond—Six year old Jr. son of Lewis Hall, pictured above with his uncle, Ulysses Hall, C.M.S./c, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Hall, bought a bond this week for his uncle, now stationed with the navy at Guadalcanal. Buster has special interest in his uncle for he prayed that the navy would put him on a ship that wouldn't sink when he left for overseas duty. Ulysses wrote his nephew that his prayers had been answered as he landed safely. Buster's father is also in the navy.

George Parks Is Prisoner Of Japs

Pvt. George Parks Lawley is a prisoner of the Japanese according to cards recently received by his mother, Mrs. E. Lawley of 2622 Twenty-fourth street, Lubbock.

Pvt. Parks, who was reared in Howard county, was a member of the "Lost Battalion" of the battle of Java. The cards, censored by both U. S. and Japanese censors, were not dated. He stated he was interned at War Prisoners camp at Moulmein in Burma and was unharmed and in good health.

The cards are the first communication his mother has received from him since a letter arrived dated January 24, 1942.

He's 'Gotta' Be An Officer—Here's Why

COURTLAND, Ala., Sept. 25. (AP) — Aviation Cadet Theodore J. Badger, of Salt Lake City, in training at the army air forces pilot school here, has compelling family reasons for wanting to win his wings—and officer's bars—as soon as possible.

First, because his father, the late Carl A. Badger, was a Brigadier General in the field artillery.

Second, because his sister is an army nurse, with the rank of Lieutenant.

Third, because he has four brothers in the navy, two of whom are Lieutenant Commanders and the others Lieutenants.

And, last, because two brothers-in-law are officers—one a Colonel and the other a Major.

Cotton Harvest Gaining Speed, Grade Improves

Howard County was nearing the 4,000-bale mark Saturday in its cotton harvest—or approximately 20 per cent of the top estimates on production.

Friday evening the total for local gins was 1,834 bales and this was considered perhaps little less than half of the county's total. Thus, an apparent of 3,700 bales has been handled.

Ginners pointed out that the rate of increase over the previous week was two and a half times but added that capacity had not been reached so far as gins were concerned. The output appeared to be circumscribed only by the ability to secure pickers.

In general, there was a slight improvement noted in the quality of staple for the county's cotton with a few more bales going up to 29-32nd. Some New Mexico Acala cotton graded as high as an inch and 1-16th and some other samples of the same type pulled an inch.

However, bulk of the cotton was still hanging around the 7-8th mark and occasionally offerings sagged to 13-16th. Most cotton was classed as middling and strict middling.

Prices on government ginning ranged from 18 to 20 per cent and virtually all off the crop was going into the loan. Cotton seed picked up two dollars on the ton during the week and quotations were pegged at $54.

Film Of The Carrier 'Hornet' To Be Shown To Salvage Group

Members of Howard county's industrial salvage committee and all others interested in plans for the next scrap metal drive which opens October 1 are invited to be at a meeting at the Settles hotel (room 1 on the mezzanine) at 7:30 Wednesday evening.

The conference has been called by B. L. LeFever, chairman of the county committee, on advice from regional officials of the War Production board.

Feature of the session will be the special showing of a government film, "The Life and Death of the Hornet," which details the story of the famous aircraft carrier from which Major Jimmy Doolittle's planes took off when they bombed Tokyo in April, 1942. The career of this ship is vividly portrayed from its launching to its fighting end. The picture is a restricted one that has not been shown publicly before.

Part-Time Workers Must Have SS Cards

Boys and girls who work after school hours and on Saturdays in employment covered under the Social Security Act should have social security account numbers and give the number to each employer for his records, according to J. Hassler Strickland, manager of the Big Spring Social Security Board field office.

"Unless each person who works in covered employment under the Social Security Act gives his social security number to his employer he may not receive credit for the wages received on his old-age and survivors insurance account," Strickland said.

It was also emphasized by Strickland that each employer reports the account number together with the name of each worker to the Bureau of Internal Revenue at the end of each calendar quarter; therefore he urged that students who accept employment, part-time or full-time, cooperate with his employer in this respect.

Social security account numbers may be secured by the individual calling at the local office or securing an application, Form SS-5, from the Post Office and mailing it to the Social Security Board field office at Big Spring. Upon receipt of an application properly filled out and signed, an account number card will be mailed to the applicant.

School Buses Get Gas Allotments

Temporary gasoline allotments have been authorized by the Office of Defense Transportation; John W. Reed, district manager San Angelo, said Friday, where school authorities have delayed in filing the necessary applications or have failed to re-organize routes in accordance with the school bus conservation policy.

Total school bus mileage has been reduced about 20 percent as a result of the reorganizations already effected, according to Reed.

Uruguay To Export Meat To England

MONTEVIDEO, Sept. 25. (AP)—Minister of Agriculture Arturo Gonzalez Vidart announces that under an Anglo-Uruguayan meat contract now nearing signature in London, Uruguay will export all its available meat supply there until October, 1944, with an increase in prices over the previous contract of 3.33 per cent.

Britain is acting as the representative of all the United Nations, Vidart said.

Tulsa Whips SMU, Texas And Aags Beat Air Field Teams

LeForce, Ford Lead Winning Aerial Attack

DALLAS, Sept. 25 (AP)—Veteran Clyde LeForce and freshman Jim Ford bombed Tulsa to a 20-7 victory over Southern Methodist here today in an aerial show that brought a colorful opening to the college football season in Dallas.

The scholarly LeForce, son of an Oklahoma high school coach, passed for the first two Tulsa touchdowns. Ford, a half-pint from Fort Worth, set up the other score with his accurate pitching.

The Methodists made a game of it in the last half and furnished the top thrill of the afternoon when Bill Squires, gangling freshman from El Paso, took a punt and raced back 58 yards for a touchdown.

A crowd of 12,000 watched the Golden Hurricane blow with tempestuous fury to a 14-0 lead at half-time, then cheered as plucky second string Methodist came slashing back to give Tulsa a run for its money in the last two periods.

The Hurricane rolled to its first touchdown with only two minutes of the opening period remaining. It was on a pass over the goal line from LeForce to Barney White, another Texan. Dick Jones recovered Wayne Shaw's fumble on the Southern Methodist 28 to pave the way for the score. LeForce whipped around right end then passed to Ed Shedlosky on the three-yard line. Dell Taylor cracked left tackle and went over but Tulsa was penalized for offside. Then LeForce passed to White for the extra point.

A 58-yard pass play brought Tulsa its second touchdown just before the half ended. The Hurricane had been hammering at the Methodist goal most of the second period, once getting down to the 14, but the Mustangs bolstered and LeForce missed a field goal from the 21. Shortly afterward the Hurricanes got the ball on their 36-yard line after a punt exchange and from here paraded to the score. LeForce passed to Nolan Luhn for six and then pitched one to Shedlosky with the latter taking the ball on the Methodist 42 and racing untouched across the goal line. LeForce again converted.

In the third period Tulsa turned the fleet Ford loose on the Mustangs. Starting from the Tulsa 29, Ford passed and ran the Hurricanes down to the Methodist 10 where the surge was halted. Shaw's kick out carried only to the S. M. U. 38 and from here Ford passed to Clyde Goodnight with the latter running to the seven. Ford swiped right end and three and Taylor smashed tackle for the score. LeForce missed the extra point.

Southern Cal Downs UCLA By 20-0 Count

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25 (AP)—Southern California outclassed UCLA in today's football opener, winning by a 20-0 score. Fifty thousand persons saw the heavier and more experienced Trojans strike through the air and on the ground for three quick touchdowns in the second and third periods. UCLA had one scoring opportunity, but an offside penalty nullified a touchdown.

Into the game. He is the third string tailback, working behind Abel Gonzales and Shaw. First Squires got off a fine quick-kick that rolled out on the Tulsa 22. Ford punted back and Squires, taking the ball on the Methodist 42, raced untouched to a score. Abe Croft added the extra point.

Norton's Boys Bury Bryan In 48-6 Score

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 25 (AP)—Coach Homer Norton's 17-year-olds showed today that the team that beats them will have to overcome eleven feet-footed 10-second men who play heads-up football.

The Aggies plowed under the Bryan Field Fliers on Kyle field in the season's opener here today to the tune of 48 to 6, and four of their seven touchdowns were made as a result of interceptions and recovered fumbles.

The Aggie backs led the van of ball-hawks, but Dick Wright, center from Nacogdoches, gathered in one Flier pass and scampered 25 yards to pay.

The Aggies struck with lightning speed the third play of the game. They kicked off and Babe Hallmark of Kilgore, recovering a fumble on the Fliers' 14, showed his heels to the field in a sweeping next-play end run to score. Bing Turman passed to score. Bing Turman passed to score. Bing Turman passed to score.

In the third period Wright gathered a pass on the first play after the kickoff and ran it 25 yards to a touchdown. Turner missed his point try. On the next play after the kickoff, Butchofsky grabbed one of Barber's passes and ran the interference 49 yards to a touchdown. Only 5 feet 10 and 170 pounds, "Butch" looked like a worthy successor to Jim Thomason as blocking back in this year's Aggie backfield, and he can make-hip plenty when he gets his hooks on the piskin. Turner converted on Butchofsky's pay-dirt gallop.

Hallmark then passed to Flanagan for 51 yards a few minutes later, and Earl Beesley of Dallas passed to Turner for 39 and repeated for 16 and another Aggie counter. Turner made it 34-0 with his conversion, and Norton began substituting by teams every two or three plays. The Fliers recovered a fumble by Donald Deere of Breckenridge on the 15-yard line and Don Dudley faked a pass and ran across for the only marker and the Birdmen were able to make. The point was missed.

In the final period Norton kept sending in substitutes, and one of them, Bobby McCurry, 16-year-old Moyce City speedster, grabbed a Flier pass and ran the interception 52 yards through the entire Bryan Field team. George McAllister of Eden, a 17-year-old copy of Jarvin' John Kimbrough, kicked the extra point. McAllister "Kimbroughed" a touchdown across in this period after alternating with Hallmark, Flanagan and Turner in ripping at the tired Flier line from midfield. Herbert Turley of San Antonio converted on McAllister's touchdown.

Yanks Clinch The Pennant By Besting Tigers

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Yankees clinched the American league pennant today by scoring a run in the 14th inning on Bill Dickey's single to beat Detroit, 2 to 1.

The victory, marking the Yanks' seventh pennant in the last eight years, went to Spud Chandler who hooked up in a thrilling mound duel with southpaw Frank Overmire of the Tigers. It was Chandler's 20th victory against four defeats.

Two bases on balls paved the way for the winning run in the 14th. Bill Johnson was on second and Joe Gordon on first, with two out, when Dickey singled to center to score Johnson.

A two-base muff by rookie Frank Wakefield deprived Overmire of a 1 to 0 shutout over the champions in the regulation distance. Wakefield dropped Johnny Lindell's fly in the third inning. Lindell reached third on Chandler's grounder and scored on Chuck Stainback's fly.

The Tigers got their run in the top of the third on Overmire's single, a sacrifice and Joe Wood's single.

17TH FOR BAGBY
BOSTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Ray Mack's three-run homer in the 10th inning paved the way to a 6-3 win for the Cleveland Indians over the Boston Red Sox today, giving Jim Bagby his 17th win of the season.

CARDS EDGE PHILS
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Cardinals eked out a 5 to 4 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies today in the opener of a three-game series. Danny Litwhiler's double drove in the winning run in the ninth inning.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25 (AP)—A four-run uprising in the seventh inning, culminated by Bill Nicholson's two-run single, gave the Cubs a 5 to 3 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers today.

REDS WIN TWICE
CINCINNATI, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds took both ends of a twilight-night doubleheader from the Boston Braves tonight, 3 to 0, and 4 to 1. Behind the pitching of Joe Beggs in the opener and Bucky Walters in the nightcap, the Reds stretched their lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers for second place in the league to two full games.

SOX TAKE PAIR
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox made it 18 wins in 22 tilts with the Philadelphia Athletics by sweeping both ends of a doubleheader here today, 4-2 and 5-2.

Longhorns Are Potent In 65-6 Win Over Waco

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (AP)—Showing speed in the backfield and power in the line, the University of Texas Longhorns smothered the Blackland Army Air Field from Waco with touchdowns today 65 to 6.

The Longhorns, 1943 Southwest conference champions who lost most of last year's team to the marines, apparently regained much strength in the wartime football manpower shuffle that sprinkled the starting line-up with freshmen and Navy V-12 trainees. On their first appearance, it looked as if the Longhorns were good-to-brilliant two deep at most positions, and three deep at some.

Texas started slowly, making only one touchdown in the first period, holding Blackland scoreless. The second period brought Blackland's only touchdown, and two by Texas.

In the third, Texas got underway, counting a total of 27 points, and in the final third team, featuring little Raul Perez, a V-12 from Coronado, Calif., high school, and Robert Rados, Santa Clara letterman and also a V-12, scored three touchdowns with ease.

The big Blackland line was heavy and sluggish throughout, and its backfield could never get going. Two former Southwest stars, Fullback Jake Schuehle from Rice and End Jack Russell from Baylor, gave the army team its only score. Schuehle dropped back and flung a 40-yard pass to Russell, who ran 37 yards more to count.

But it was Bobby Coy Lee from the Austin High School Maroons, Ralph Ellsworth from San Antonio, Capt. Joe Magliola, and veteran Ralph Park of Coach Dana Bible's first team who gave evidence that the Longhorns will be a hard team to beat in the conference race this year. Park scored three touchdowns, Lee three and Rados 3. Lee added five points after touchdown to lead the scorers with 23 tallies.

Lee showed speed, Ellsworth great elusiveness, and Magliola blocked viciously. Joe Coleman, a V-12 from Hardin-Simmons, showed state at end.

OHIO STATE FALLS
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 25 (AP)—The powerful Iowa Seahawks defeated Ohio State's youthful team today, 28 to 13, before 23,496 fans—the first opening day defeat the Bucks have suffered since 1894.

Missouri Trounced By Gophers, 26-13

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 25 (AP)—Minnesota inaugurated a new grid rivalry today in auspicious style, trouncing the University of Missouri, 26 to 13 in their 1943 opener.

The Gophers, presenting a varsity which included six men who had never played a college game, showed a strong running attack and a smart pass defense which gave them a clear edge over the team rated as the standout in the Big Six.

While the Minnesota varsity did a creditable job, there was a distinct drop in performance when they went out. In fact, two lapses by the first string reserves handed the Tigers their two touchdowns.

Minnesota's attack was sparked by Red Williams, one of the two holdover backs from last year. Williams showed brilliant running and passing form, reeling off long gains, throwing one touchdown pass, and scoring another himself.

Penn Unveils Potent Team In Trouncing Princeton 47-9

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—Pennsylvania's "military secret" football team—the outfit that was supposed to have lost a pile of material to the armed forces—came out into the open today and it was quite an unveiling for 30,000 fans.

The Quakers, three-deep all the way 'round, practically chased Princeton's highly-touted Tigers out of Franklin Field as they rolled up a 47 to 9 win, the most lopsided any Penn team had ever chalked up on the Tigers in this 67-year rivalry.

The Quakers, after spotting Princeton a safety in the early minutes, piled up 367 yards rushing to the Tigers' 65, tallied in every period and, just to show how well-padded they were, had seven different players score their seven touchdowns.

Angelo Sets Pace In 3-AA With 40-0 Win Over Lubbock

If the finger was on San Angelo as the stand-out team before this year's 3-AA grid warfare got underway, an entire heavy hand is resting on the Bobcats by now. The boys from the Concho lived up to expectations Friday night in trouncing the Lubbock Westerners, 40-0. It was the first time the Bobcats had ever turned the trick on Lubbock, and spelled trouble for other 3-AA teams, since Lubbock had spanked Odessa 18-6 the week before. The Westerners hardly threatened the Angeloans, managing to get to the 13 yard line only once. Rathbone and Taff led the Bobcat scoring parade.

On other 3-AA fronts, Midland and Odessa each came through with notable wins over El Paso clubs. The Odessa first string got the ball six times and scored six times, in downing El Paso high 40-7. Midland subdued the Austin (El Paso) Panthers 32-6, and used every man on the squad during the game. Tallies against both Midland and El Paso came late in the game. Two district teams went into the defeat column. The Lamesa

Tornadoes got a setback from Brownfield, bowing 26-7. Abilene's Eagles went up to Amarillo and took a 41-12 licking, and Amarillo used its second string for nearly half the game, at that. John Dibrell's Big Spring lads stayed in the 100 per cent column with a 20-0 win over Cisco, but this didn't quite stack up with the 44-0 score Abilene handed the Loboes the week before.

Sweetwater, which had dumped Roscoe a week ago, played at Brownwood Saturday night. The 3-AA clubs have wound up their non-conference tilts, and swing into the titular campaign this week.

Bowlers To Meet At Douglass Mon.

There will be a meeting of the Big Spring Bowling association at the Douglass hotel Monday evening at 8 o'clock, according to Jack Smith, president.

All persons or organizations interested in league play are invited and urged to attend. Business will be discussion and formation of clubs.

Showing improvement but still a long way from top form, the Big Spring Steers fluctuated to an easy 20-0 win over the Cisco Loboes at Steer stadium Friday evening.

It took just seven plays after the kickoff for the Steers to tally. Half a dozen plays later they stormed back for another. Fumbles doubtless cost Big Spring two more tallies but in the fourth quarter the reserves passed for the final tally.

Every Steer squadman suited out got into the game as Coach John Dibrell gave all of his lightweights a taste of badly needed experience. So effective did they play that only once during the entire game were the Steers obliged to kick.

Cisco fell before a group of Price, scouting for Lubbock, quit in disgust in the third quarter. It was the same stuff Dibrell had used years ago when he was Dibrell's assistant at Post City.

Dewey Stevenson, the Steer's heady fullback, ran back the opening kickoff brilliantly to the Steer 45. Hugh Cochron and Bobby Barron made a first down. Stevie picked up seven yards and Barron scampered for 18 more. Cochron hit the line for four and Rusk kept the ball on the same formation, spun around and circled right end for 18 yards and the score. Stevie's kick was good.

Stalled by the Steer line, Tipton passed to Armstrong who fumbled as he caught it on the line and Big Spring covered on the Cisco 23. Barron picked up nine yards at right end and Stevie added 10 more at the same spot before he hit the line for the remaining four yards and then converted.

Tompkins, rugged fullback for the Loboes slammed the Steer wall twice for a first down as the period ended, but he couldn't go farther. Stevenson, John McIntosh and Barron combined for a first down to carry it to the Cisco 40 where Rusk fumbled and Cisco took over. PeeWee Simmons, McIntosh and Ike Davidson gained 24 yards, but a 15-yard penalty caused this to be one short of a first down on the Cisco 26. Johnson, Tipton and Tompkins picked up a pair of first downs as the half closed.

Rusk, who showed considerable improvement with his powerful running, rammed off-right tackle for 26 yards to open the third canto, but then he fumbled the next one and Tipton recovered on his own 21. Unable to go, Tipton passed to Tompkins for 8 yards but had to punt. The effort was bad, carrying only four yards and in a twinkling Stevenson had it on the two yard stripe with three to go. McIntosh fumbled and recovered to lose three. Rusk picked up four and Barron was stopped at the line. At the end of the stanza, Bobo Hardy and Simmons had rushed it back to the Cisco 10.

Simmons fumbled and lost five, but McIntosh, who the week before had passed to PeeWee for a tally, calmly duplicated the stunt. Simmons grabbed it, zig-zagged and was across. Chaney's kick was good, but an offside nullified. James Bostick, Hardy and Jackie Barron picked up a brace of first downs to terminate the ground gaining. Neither did Cisco gain. In fact, the Steer 46 was the nearest the Loboes ever came toward the Big Spring goal during the evening.

Dibrell's boys showed more form than against Colorado City, particularly on play execution. However, the line play was inspired only in spots and the fact that Cisco could run right through the boys now and then indicated a weakness in tackling as much as anything else. Still one of the team's greatest assets was its hustle, plus the fact that reserves were doing so near as well as the first string that no one any longer has a cinch on playing.

WMC Desires Statements From Bears

CHICAGO, Sept. 25. (AP)—The War Manpower Commission asked members of the Chicago Bears to submit written statements detailing their off-season employment as part of an investigation which the WMC Regional Director, William H. Spencer, said would not necessarily spread to the other seven clubs in the National football league or to baseball and hockey.

"There has been no formal complaint filed against the Bears," Spencer emphasized, "but there have been inquiries since a publicity release about a week ago told of five men who left war work to play football. We are acting upon these inquiries. This is a novel case."

Primarily, the WMC investigation is aimed at discovering if the players have certificates of availability from their employers or if they were granted leaves of absence. Spencer implied they would have to return to their jobs if they had failed to follow WMC regulations, and he indicated that the investigation may be steered to the employers themselves.

Forsan Six-Man Team Runs Over Garden City

FORSAN, Sept. 25 — The Forsan Buffaloes, always strong but forced to play second fiddle in the district No. 6 six-man football league for the past two years, stamped themselves as favorites in the loop Friday by swamping Garden City, 45-0.

Taking the lead early, the charges of J. T. Holladay were never headed and J. T. Carroll was hard put to keep a combination on the grid to hold down the Bisons. Harley Grant was outstanding for Forsan.

Starting lineups: Forsan—Harley Grant, J. B. McDonald, Dwight Painter, Robert Milliken, Sammie Porter and Darnell Peacock; Garden City—Stanley Bogard, Gene Cox, LeRoy Hunt, John Bob Frances, J. R. Overton, Jack McDaniel.

Substitutes: Forsan — Vernon Lee Gandy, Bob Wash, Gene Paperson, Glen Smith; Garden City—Denwood Ratliff, Bill Francis, George Hilger, A. J. Holster.

STERLING CITY, Sept. 25 — The once powerful Eagles of Sterling City, dominating factor in six-man football of district No. 6 for the past two seasons, lost their magic touch Friday and were hard pressed to hold Water Valley to a 6-0 victory.

However, the visitors had to fall on a blocked punt behind the Sterling goal to win.

Sterling's three lettermen backs couldn't get going against infiltration by Water Valley forwards, and similarly the Sterling City line was pressed to hold the visitors at the crucial points.

Starters for Sterling City were: Wilburn Lindsey, center; Ira Dees and Neill Reid, ends; Tommy Augustine, Billy Littlefield, and Jack Mitchell, backs.

The Third War Loan Has The Answer To Your INCOME TAX Problem

Among the securities offered by your government during the Third War Loan campaign are Treasury Savings Notes, Series C, the one issue which is acceptable in payment of Federal (income, estate or gift) taxes prior to maturity.

Since most sales efforts in the Third War Loan have centered on the E, F, and G Bonds, it is possible that the Series C offering has escaped the attention of many people who are interested in making provision for payment of income taxes.

The Series C notes are available in denominations of from $1,000 to $1,000,000, are due in three years and bear 1.07% interest if held to maturity.

However, they are acceptable as tax payments during and after the second calendar month after purchase, so that they may be used for December, 1943, and March, 1944, tax payments. And they are redeemable for cash, after six months, at 100% and interest.

These notes may be used as collateral for loans from banks only. They provide a means of meeting your income tax payments in advance, and are recommended for those who wish to make such provision.

Remember, purchases of Series C notes this month are credited to Howard county's quota in the Third War Loan. You have an opportunity of assisting in this campaign and at the same time disposing of your income tax problem.

Recruiters:

Times have changed, indeed. Gone are the days when an old line army sergeant, assigned to detached service to serve out his time for retirement as a recruiter for the army. In his place is the modern, victory version—young, pretty and energetic WACs. In Big Spring, the responsibility of helping women of this area find a place of active service in Uncle Sam's army falls to Sgt. Paula Edwards, left, and to Lieut. Mary Frances Goldmann, in charge. While they are pictured in their scout car as they hit the road in quest of WACs, a more familiar pose is in their office in the postoffice basement where they like to visit and talk with women.

Seventh Annual Meeting Of Amarillo Diocesan Council To Be Held Here At St. Thomas Church October 3rd

Plans for the seventh annual convention of the Amarillo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, which will be held in Big Spring Sunday, October 3, have been announced by the diocesan president, Mrs. W. E. McAllen of Big Spring.

The convention will open with high mass at 9 a. m. at St. Thomas Catholic church at which the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Fitzsimon, bishop of Amarillo, will deliver the sermon.

Parley theme will be "The Catholic Woman of Today: Her Duties and Responsibilities." Mass will be followed by registration in the church basement and the morning session will consist of institute session conducted by Mrs. C. W. Ratliff, district president of Lubbock, Mrs. J. H. McCue diocesan chairman of the P-T. A. Mrs. G. C. Hermann diocesan chairman of shrines and Miss Hazel Kelly of the Catholic Welfare Board of Amarillo. Reports will also be given by Mrs. J. F. Taylor of San Angelo; Mrs. J. R. Kiser of Pampa and Miss Bessie League of West Texas School of Technology at Lubbock. Reports will also be given by local women.

Lunch will be served by the women of the Big Spring Parish organizations at 12:45 o'clock and regular business of the convention will be taken up at the afternoon session when officers for the coming year will be chosen. The meeting will be climaxed with a banquet at 6 o'clock at the Settles Hotel and speakers will include the Most Rev. Lawrence Fitzsimon, the Rev. Henry Courtney of St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kans. and Mrs. Cliff Deaton, chief establishment officer at Avenger Field, Sweetwater. Musical selections will be presented by personnel of the Big Spring Bombardier School.

Delegates and visitors of the Amarillo diocese are expected to attend the meeting.

P-T. A. Meeting Held At Elbow

The regular monthly meeting of the Elbow Parent-Teachers' Association was held Friday afternoon at the school with Mrs. Brittle Cox, president, presiding over the meeting.

The next meeting which is scheduled October 8th will feature a talk by the district health inspector. Plans were discussed for a community '42 party which will be held at the school that evening.

Mrs. T. L. Jones was introduced as a new member, and others attending were Mrs. Mary Swanson, Mrs. Edna Weed, Mrs. Ray Shorter, Mrs. Cecil Long, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Miller Harris, Mrs. Melba Lee Williamson, Mrs. Bob Ashbury and Mrs. Brittle Cox.

Scout Training Course To Begin

Local women who would like to become Girl Scout leaders are urged to take advantage of an advanced training course which will begin here Thursday, September 29th, and one Tuesday, Sept. 30 at the Big Spring high school. The group will meet in room 103 at 3:30 o'clock each evening.

Mrs. James Kidd, district Girl Scout worker, will also give a primary course on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week at the high school.

The course is available to anyone interested in Girl Scout work, and will be particularly valuable to anyone who is interested in girls of scouting age.

Miss Laneous Notes

MARY WHALLEY

We came across the name of the town Flume in the news dispatches from Italy the other day. The correspondent told of heavy fighting there of the Allies against the Germans. And it all came over us what the war has done to our thoughts and ideas.

Years ago when little boys and girls had stamp albums, we had one too, one of which we were very proud. And one of our most treasured stamps was a purple, oblong stamp from Flume.

We only knew vaguely where Flume was, but the stamp was a rare one and it held an honored place in our blue backed stamp album.

Italy was a place, of course, and Italians were the people who lived there but we thought of it as we thought of Massachusetts or China or anyplace we had never been.

Now the little boys, who maybe like us had stamps from Flume that they saved in their albums, are grown men fighting on soil they never thought to see, and dying more miles from home than they ever thought they would be.

There are few places left in the world today that haven't seen or felt the scars of battle, the tragedy of war, the fires started by the schemes of a few and left to be put out by the efforts of many.

Youngsters can no longer have rare stamps from far off places and be vague as to location. For in China, in India, in Italy, in Germany or the Balban countries, a father, brother or uncle is fighting and dying there.

Cosden Chatter

WACs Live Regulated Lives To The Tune Of Bugle Calls And Whistles

From reveille to taps a WAC's life is regulated like it never was before. Such is the Army that you jump to whistles and live by bugle calls. The first whistle of the day at 6:10 o'clock means "fall out" for reveille formation. Thus the day's schedule begins.

Following squad reports, the company is marched to the drill field for a 15 to 20 minute exercise period more properly known as P. T. Or more unpopularity known it might be said. By that time everyone's eyes are open, but it is still too dark to see where one is going. After this session of stretching and bouncing up and down there are squad duties, which causes a mad dash for mops and brooms. The place is a beehive of activity with fatigue-clad WACs mopping up latrine floors, sweeping halls and stairs. Usually there is time to make beds or dress before breakfast, which is at 7 a. m. By 7:30 or 7:45 most of the WACs have already started for work.

At 12 o'clock the WACs have dinner in their own mess hall. More often than not, there are visitors, usually the officers of the guard. Special announcements are made. After dinner, the familiar sound of "Mall cav-w-w-w" hurries the girls back to the barracks. Mail call is a highlight of the day in every WAC's life just as it is to the soldiers.

The day's work for those who have regular hours is through by 4:45 p. m. Supper is at 5:30. From then on a WAC is free to go to the show, to town, to the dayroom, to the post restaurant, to bed, except on Thursday evening, when the whole company stands retreat and Wednesday evening when there is a meeting called "gripe session" or "suggestion meeting."

After the compulsory drill practice lasting for half an hour. After the drill period there is a judo class at the gym for those interested, but is not compulsory.

On Monday and Thursday evenings there is a Spanish class, on Tuesday evenings a fencing class for those who wish to attend. About every week or two, each member draws company duty in the form of either K. P. or CQ or dayroom hostess.

So the WACs work and play and their days are filled from early morning until night when the last girl has tripped over her footlocker or banged the lid down, until the last tinkling of tin curlers or those putting up their hair in bed is no longer heard, until the CQ's flashlight has been shined in the last girl's face at 11 o'clock bedcheck. Finally all is quiet and the WACs sleep.

Surrendering Japs Cannot Be Dressed

PITTSBURGH, Calif., Sept. 25. (AP) — A Japanese soldier who wants to surrender to United States troops in the Pacific must first take off all his clothing and advance in the nude, says Pvt. Albert S. Vedovelli, a veteran of Guadalcanal.

Vedovelli, under treatment for shrapnel wounds and malaria at a Modesto hospital, declared on a visit here that "U. S. soldiers have been fooled by treacherous Japs who feign surrender and then blow themselves and their captors to bits with hidden hand grenades."

He said the Japanese are made to come forward without clothing and with their hands held high over their heads, and American soldiers "are being fooled no more."

Mrs. Ira D. Williams is recuperating from a minor operation which she underwent in a local hospital recently.

Irish moss was imported from Ireland in the middle nineteenth century and used in the belief that it cured tuberculosis.

Nothing but trouble is gained by waiting until the point is reached, at which some school examiner sends the child home for the attention his parents should have given his eyes previously.

The Modern Woman's Forum met with Mrs. Cecil Collings Friday evening to discuss USO and war work, and to make plans for the coming year.

Mrs. Cecil Collings gave a paper on Pierre Laval, and Mrs. Cliff Wiley discussed "My Country and My People."

Guests attending were Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Marie G. Walker, and others present were Mrs. W. J. McAdams, Inis Deason, Mrs. Ira Driver, Mrs. Albert M. Fisher, Mrs. A. B. Wade, Mildred Creath, Mrs. J. B. Dodge, Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle and the hostess, Mrs. Collings.

Unusual Gift For Servicemen Abroad

If you've been wanting to send a serviceman abroad a little remembrance, a box of Christmas cards for him to mail back to the folks at home would be both an unusual and timely gift. For there's every possibility that the boys may not be able to get as many Christmas cards as they may need.

The army allows half-pound packages to be sent overseas without special requests and the usual boxed assortment of Christmas cards come within this weight specification. The navy puts no restrictions on the weight of packages, up to five pounds. A packet of cards, according to the Post Office would cost 3c an ounce to mail, or about 24c. This is first class postage, which may be sealed and also contain a written note from you.

But get the cards off now, otherwise the boys' cards won't be reaching home until sometime in the Spring.

HARD LUCK FAMILY BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Sept. 25. (AP) — One Belfast family lost 12 of its 13 members in the war.

In an air raid in 1941, the father, mother, six brothers, a sister and her husband and child were killed.

Friday, one of the two surviving brothers, Able Seaman Henry Clarke, was reported missing and presumed lost at sea.

The surviving brother is a war worker. There are sixty-six medical schools approved by the American Medical Association in the United States.

War Causes More Child Delinquency

AUSTIN, Sept. 25. (AP) — University of Texas investigators have found that increases in juvenile delinquency have kept pace with increasing intensity of the war.

A study of juvenile delinquency was made during a conference laboratory course in education at the University, under direction of Dr. J. G. Umstad, professor of education.

A report on the study reveals that delinquency is on the increase throughout the nation.

"War problems undoubtedly cause much of the delinquencies occurring now," the report says, "with investigators giving as causes' part-time mothers' and 'latch-key' children, emotional upsets because of broken family ties, interrupted education, and an unusual amount of easily-made money to spend."

In most cases juvenile delinquency is attributable to causes more fundamental than the immediate war situation, the educators found. A great number of children were already potentially delinquent because of poverty, lack of schooling, broken homes, racial and nationalistic rivalry, or physical and mental disabilities.

Members of the conference recommended four principles to be used as a basis of school action in combatting delinquency: (1) To give the child some status—a feeling of "belonging"; (2) Attend to his health needs; (3) Teach him a skill; and (4) Train him in an attitude of good will.

LESS FOR RUBBER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. (AP) — Bradley Dewey, rubber director, announces that less than $70,000,000 would be spent in expanding tire factories to handle influx of synthetic rubber instead of the $95,000,000 originally planned, and that only two new plants would be built.

Dewey said sites had not been definitely decided for the two new plants.

New Diseases Seen As Result Of War

HOUSTON, Sept. 25. (AP) — New diseases are filtering into North America as a result of the war, Dr. Hektor P. Froes of the Bahia, Brazil, school of tropical medicine warns.

The specialist, who is lecturing at universities at the request of the state department, cautioned that returning servicemen often bring back strange diseases.

"The tremendous expansion of aviation, with planes shuttling back and forth between the far corners of the world, is having its effect through the transportation of flies, fleas and other insects which serve as transmitting agents for disease," he said in an interview.

Author of numerous books on tropical diseases, Dr. Froes will speak at Rice Institute, the University of Houston and Baylor Medical College.

69 Mines Released From Govt. Control

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25. (AP) — Termination of government possession and control over 69 additional mines of 39 companies was announced Friday by the Coal Mines Administration. Twenty-five were anthracite mines, the others bituminous.

This brought to 930 the number of mines returned to private owners since August 21.

Interior Secretary Ickes said mines still in possession of the government, totaling about 2,449, will be restored as soon as practicable.

Officer Killed In Plane Crash

McALLEN, Sept. 25. (AP) — Lieut. Howard Gardner, Jr. Pine Bluff, Ark., was killed when his Moore Field training plane from mission crashed Sept. 23, 14 miles west of the field.

Injured in the crash was Cadet William D'Avignon of Shenectady, N. Y., who was recovering Friday, the field's public relations office announced.

Gardner's widow lives at Mission.

MOTHER'S FRIEND helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exquisitely prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium is skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable, thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling, or burning sensations of the skin. For the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

Interior Secretary Ickes said mines still in possession of the government, totaling about 2,449, will be restored as soon as practicable.

Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin lubricant. Try it tonight.

The Signs of the End: The Coming World Revolution, and Many Unmistakable Signs That Are Present In the Earth Now Which Warn the Present Generation and the Nations of World That the End Is At Hand.

Will be the sermon theme of Roland C. King at the TRINITY BAPTIST CHURCH Corner East 4th and Benton Streets Sunday Night, 8:00 P. M. A Sermon You Need to Hear

Read Matthew 16:1-3:

The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather; for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, it will be foul weather to day; for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed.

1. We have seen more Bible Prophecy fulfilled in the last two years than in the past ten years. We have entered the rapids of time. The end is near declares the Word of God. . . . Are you ready?

2. We are living today in the most significant time, from a prophetic standpoint, since the crucifixion of Christ.

3. The rising tide of the hatred of the Jew is preparing the way for the time of "Jacob's Trouble" as is spoken of in God's Word.

4. We have seen and are seeing the most gruesome and savage destruction ever to be witnessed by any people or nations.

5. Every nation under Heaven faces bankruptcy, including America. The whole world today faces the "Distress of Nations" with perplexity. What will be the outcome?

6. "Ye are cursed with a curse, even this whole nation," says the Word of God. There is always an aftermath for those men and nations and peoples, who live foolishly and shut God out of their lives. It was so with Esau. It was so with those in the days of Noah. It will be so in this day unless we confess our sins and return to God in repentance and prayer. My friend are you saved? I am not asking whether you are a church member or not, but are you saved, are you born again? Have you personally trusted Christ as your Saviour and Lord?

Sunday School at 9:45 promptly. . . Classes for all ages. 11:00 A. M. Sermon by Roland C. King, Pastor: "A BIBLE PICTURE OF A CHILD OF GOD" . . . Visit a growing church, with a going people, for a coming Lord. Twenty six additions the last two Sundays.

Universal presents Robert Paige and Louise Allbritton in a gay farcical comedy with Diana Barrymore & Walter Abel.

Bob and Louise plan a happy honeymoon in his home town, Indiana; a telephone call from her boss interrupts their well-made plans.

In New York she starts directing a play, while Bob gets busy with his radio clients and their married life becomes a series of mixups.

Abel finds out their secret marriage when he tries to get Louise married to his leading man, George Dolenz, who faces deportation.

Divorced, Louise is talked into marrying the actor; Abel's plans go awry when Bob comes into court; he gets his wife and surprise.

Meet the Stars With Luis Rosado

"My face is getting raw," moaned Danny Kaye, his voice carrying a pleading quality to the man facing him. The Broadway comedian resigned to his fate—but it was getting tiresome. This was the third time he had had to remove his make-up to conform with the requisites of the scene he was making for Samuel Goldwyn's "Up In Arms," which marks his screen debut. But Danny took it on stride, just like he has taken the knocks delivered him in his career as an entertainer.

Things began happening to Danny when he appeared for the first time on the stage. His school presented a minstrel show in which Danny appeared as a seed in a big slice of watermelon. He did all right, although his hair was very red and his ears white. Upon graduating from high school he went to work for an insurance company. That was a short-lived job when he made a mistake as an examiner or adjuster that cost the company an amount that in retrospect he generally refers to as $40,000. The business world wasn't for him, he decided. So the stage had another aspiring young entertainer.

Danny joined a summer stock theatre. When the winter came, he would try to see Broadway producers, but his efforts were hopeless—or so the producers thought, for they didn't know Danny Kaye or the stuff he is made of. He is not easily discouraged. Danny joined a dancing couple who taught him to move his feet rhythmically. Their act was booked a few months later to go on a tour of 41 one-night stands which eventually would take them out of the continent. Danny found himself in Tokyo, but his comedy routine wasn't getting the response it had gotten in the American cities. Then he became aware that the audience didn't understand him. From then on he played his act in pantomime.

To Danny that was the greatest experience and the beginning of a new type of entertaining for him. Back from the Orient, Danny quit the show in San Francisco and went to New York. Soon he was on his way to London where he was a miserable flop. It wasn't a happy man who arrived in New York. It was then he met Sylvia Fine with whom he had grown up in Brooklyn. They worked together in a revue which lasted ten weeks.

Florida was Danny's next stop, but nothing eventful happened there, until one night when he called Sylvia and asked her if she would marry him. She accepted and he was scared to death. He hoped that she would change her mind when she arrived, since he didn't remember whether he had $40 or owed that amount. Here he was with a wife and no job. So he went to work in a club where he entertained for 65 minutes straight. Most of his colleagues believed that Danny wouldn't be successful with his act, because he didn't use risqué songs or jokes. That was the engagement that brought Danny to the attention of Broadway producers. His next job was in "Lady In the Dark." After that came the great hit "Let's Face It," which got him a contract with Samuel Goldwyn.

Danny is a clever entertainer who brings a different type of comedy to the screen. When he is around no one can look gloomy, since he has that knack to cheer people with the greatest of ease. Even though he has "arrived" Danny thinks that there are still more knocks to be encountered—and when they come he will meet them as he has always done.

On the Sets With Irwin Allen

The invitation came by mail. It was typewritten, had five paragraphs of persuasive intrigue and was signed... "Sincerely, Samuel Goldwyn. Two hours later, a belated telegram, telling me that Mr. Goldwyn had sent an invitation by mail, was delivered by hand. Then the phone rang. It was a last minute confirmation of a last minute telegram confirming a last minute invitation. Came a knock at the door. A little man with green hair, purple eyes dressed in a uniform of nightmare cerise stood on the threshold and started a prepared speech, "Mr. Goldwyn cordially invites you to attend..." In Hollywood, you're not invited to parties. It's more like answering a call to a command performance.

Hollywood parties all have a purpose. Mr. Goldwyn's party had a purpose of no mean proportions. Hollywood parties all have a name. The name of Mr. Goldwyn's party was "Pin-Up". It was Mr. Goldwyn's studied decision that the men of the Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guard were "up in arms" over a lack of suitable pin-up pictures. This was a threat to morale which Mr. Goldwyn could remedy with a flick of the wrist.

So, the man who holds a record for producing only hit pictures decided to produce a hit party right on the set of his current picture, "Up In Arms." He invited the accredited photographers of the Army, Navy, Marine and Coast Guard newspapers to photograph thirty of the most beautiful girls in the world. Only by coincidence does it so happen that the beauties are all Goldwyn girls and play atmospheric parts in his three million dollar military musical. The photographers quickly accepted the invitation and came equipped with what looked like twelve million cameras. Two hundred of Uncle Sam's favorite nephews in khaki also accepted. So did several hundred other people who all looked familiar but whose names were less so.

The party was a complete success. The Goldwyn Girls, carrying little signs that gave their name and the name of the picture, posed for several hours. Danny Kaye, star of "Up in Arms" coupled with Dinah Shore, also a star of the picture, performed for several hours more, giving a preview of the film. The party was held on a set that had a fantastic stairway which seemed to go seven miles up to nowhere. It was a beautiful piece of architecture but the probable reason for the invention of elevators. The Goldwyn Girls walked up and down the seemingly seven miles of stairway, garbed only in enough covering to raise the blood pressure of fighting men from Alaska to Italy without calling off the war completely.

This smartly dressed young lady is Deanna Durbin, now working in Universal's "His Butler's Sister."

Rita Hayworth took time from Columbia's "Cover Girl" to become the bride of Orson Welles—they are very happy.

"THE FALLEN SPARROW"
Mystery and intrigue are the keynotes in this absorbing drama, adapted from Dorothy Hughes' novel of the same name and flawlessly directed by Richard Wallace.

The central figure in the story is an American who fought in the Spanish Civil War in the International Brigade. Tortured in an enemy prison to make him reveal the whereabouts of the battle flag of the Brigade, he refuses to tell and manages to escape with the aid of a friend. Recovered, he seeks out his enemies in New York where he sees something suspicious in a crowd of refugees with whom his former fiancée is amusing herself. By making hard-boiled love to three women, he narrows the suspects, and then sets a trap, almost getting killed himself as he uncovers the chief of the spy ring.

Producer Robert Fellows picked an excellent cast for this production. The standout performance is that of John Garfield as the American and he gives his role a forceful and convincing quality. Maureen O'Hara does nicely in the role of his fiancée. Walter Slezak, Patricia Morison, Martha O'Driscoll, Bruce Edwards, John Bonner and John Miljan appear in the principal supporting characters.

"The Fallen Sparrow is a tense and taut melodrama—something that will give you the creeps.

Action and romance play an important part in Columbia's "Destroyer," which stars Edward G. Robinson with Glenn Ford, Marguerite Chapman and Edgar Buchanan in strong supporting roles.

Robinson is a retired seaman who had been a Chief Petty Officer in the last war. When the present war breaks out he goes to work in the shipyards where a destroyer is being built to take the place of the one he once sailed. He applies for another commission, but is turned down because of his age. The boat is launched and through the Commander he gets a post in the ship, only to cause discord among the crew. His chief enemy is Glenn Ford, whose post he has taken. Eventually Robinson, through his own orders causes certain accidents, which cause him to be relieved from his duties. However, when the destroyer gets into action, it is Robinson who brings it back safely to port.

The picture offers quite a number of thrills with Robinson giving a very good account of himself. Glenn Ford does a nifty job, combined with hardboiledness and comedy. Marguerite Chapman carries the romantic angle rather well. Edgar Buchanan, Regis Toomey and Edward Brophy carry important roles.

WARDROBE INVENTORY

Are you making an inventory of your wardrobe this month? If not you should be, because September is the month to organize your Fall and Winter clothes. See what old clothes can be restyled and just what new clothes are needed to make your wardrobe complete. But don't wear your old clothes without a bit of restyling... even if it is just a new collar and belt.

In an effort to help you with your wardrobe inventory, I'm devoting this entire column to suggestions which I know will improve any old clothes.

SLIP-COVERS FOR HATS

The first suggestion is how to glamorize last year's little black basic hat. Cut off the brim, and bind the crown with black ribbon making a calot type or beanie out of the hat. Then make the slip covers. They're several different styles... black net covered with sequins... black net with a fur border... black net with a tiny lace ruffle. If you're a working girl these slip covers can be carried in a handbag then slipped on at 5 o'clock thus transforming a plain daytime hat into a smart dinner or date creation. These slip covers may be made to fit very securely over the crown or held on with a jeweled clip or two.

GUMPIES FOR FORMALS

Now that long décolleté dinner and evening gowns are in the background for the duration, why not take your gown, shorten the skirt, and wear a net gumpie under it. With high necks and long sleeves they're most attractive, especially in black net and worn under the shoulder straps of a black velvet or satin gown.

RETYLING FOR FURS

If you have a worn out or out-moded fur wrap, why not follow the lead of Susanna Foster and have it made into a fur lined coat? Susanna had an old beaver coat, the fur hopelessly matted and worn in spots. She bought a bolt of poinsettia-red woolen, had it made into a coat and utilized the old beaver as a lining. Incidentally you'll be seeing Susanna Foster in "The Phantom of the Opera" very soon. It's her first big role and according to the reports she's headed for certain stardom. She plays the lead opposite Nelson Eddy. Claude Rains plays the "phantom."

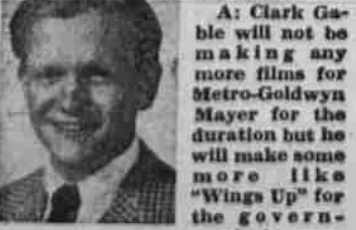

VELVET EARRINGS

Have you any old button earrings in your costume jewelry collection? If you want to make a smart accessory for an afternoon or dinner costume, try this suggestion offered by Marlene Dietrich. Marlene made black velvet earrings to wear with her simple short black dinner dress. Her gauntlet gloves were black velvet and the same velvet formed the crown and piped the lacy brim of her tiny black hat.

Quiz Box

With Dale Drum

Q: Ann McCabe, Conway, Tex.—Where is Clark Gable stationed at present and are his movie contracts cancelled for the duration?

Dale Drum

A: Clark Gable will not be making any more films for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for the duration but he will make some more like "Wings of the Government" at present he is stationed in Hollywood.

Q: Barbara Warner, Tacoma, Wash.—What is Lana Turner's address and the name of her next picture?

A: Lana Turner is now working at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, Culver City, Calif. This October she will go before the cameras in "Muscle for Millions."
Q: Isabell Main, Uniontown, Kansas—Would you please tell me the address of Tex O'Brien.

Inside Hollywood

With Edith Gwynn

Edith Gwynn

We can hardly believe it, but hear that the Chicago Tribune is sending another girl out here for a series of articles—this time on the constructive side. But that doesn't tie in with information that it also has an undercover man in Hollywood trying to get any kind of a job in one of the studios. To "obtain" and to twist overhead bits of information, no doubt... Charles Boyer telling his friends that he will be on Broadway in a play before the Fall season is over... Pat Dane's troubles are mostly from dieting...

A letter from David Niven says, among other things, that "Spitfire" will be England's biggest grosser since the War. With the possible exception of "In Which We Serve." Says it's done two hundred thousand pounds already with the end not yet in sight. It was a fairly grim letter—for David. But then, he's seen a lot of his friends splattered against walls since he left the Hollywoods... The Loew and Lyons outfit is now mailing out recordings of that "whistled film title" it registered with the Hays Office. It will be a million dollar musical—and maybe Cole Porter will do the tunes... How to get attention: Ruth Chatterton is now tramping around New York carrying a parasol... Hear that a recently announced blessed event is either a mere hallucination—or a great hoax... Evidently things are expected to pop the loudest on the Russian front. Because most of the important War Correspondents are about to be sent to that country... Bunny Waters is gradually working her way up to a fellow her own size. She has skipped from Eddie Buzzell to Jess Barker, 5 ft. 11... Red Skelton and Muriel Morris have set the date.

Hear that Paramount is negotiating for the Royal Canadian Navy Show. Sammy Ledner is up there now looking it over... Billy Wellman and Anthony Quinn have made up after a big tiff on the "Buffalo Bill" location trip... MGM has finally whittled the footage on "America" from twenty thousand to sixteen thousand feet. It will eventually go out at around fifteen... Down at the station before the Bond Cavalcade took off, Harpo Marx, standing by Mickey Rooney and Eddie Buzzell, whose backs were to him, yelled, "Hey—don't they go half-fare?"

Dotty Lamour has gone down to San Bernardino with the intention of just languishing there until Paramount takes her out of "Rainbow Island"... Fred Allen is en route to Boston to see some medical chums and if they pronounce him fit, he'll go back on the air this fall... The two baseball games (one between servicemen versus celebs; and the other between Kay Francis, Ruth Hussey, Joan Leslie and other femmes, with Dixie Falckenburg umpiring) furnished most of the lifts at the Hollywood Canteen picnic which was a terrific success. Life magazine was among the big list that covered the event. And Chef Milani deserves a posse for the swell job he did of getting thousands of bottles of beer, coca-cola and pop donated—plus ice cream and popcorn for over fifteen hundred guests... There are now nine producers in concentration at the General Service lot—besides George Baginalls UA cyclorama at that celluloid mill... Sylvan Simon tells us that because of the line run here about Bonita Granville heading a Camp version of "Kiss and Tell," they've had so many requests from men in camps for the show that he is now rehearsing a second unit of same which will be headed by Ann Rutherford... A party that really grew into a song-fest (and no wonder!) was Jane Wyman and Ronnie Reagan's. With Jane, Frank Sinatra (guest of honor), Dinah Shore and Kay St. Germaine around a piano where a wonderful cullud accompanist sat—you can imagine! Also present were Norma Shearer, Maj. Ben Lyon, Jack Carson (he's moving to a new villa in the valley), the Carey Wilsons, Ann Sothern, Bob Cobb and Sally Wright, the Jules Steins, Geo. Montgomery, Ann Sheridan and Van Johnson... Annabella left by bomber to join the Bond Cavalcade in the south... Joe E. Lewis is about to take unto himself a bride... Sympathy pouring in from everyone to Adela Rogers St. John, whose son was killed on a bombing mission over Europe... But travel is so bad around Washington now, that even the men are standing.

Billy McElroy, former Liquor Control Board supervisor here, and now stationed in Austin as superintendent of the undercover squad, was a visitor at the local board Saturday.

Liquor Control Board inspectors picked up a quantity of beer at Seagraves in Gaines county which had apparently been abandoned. The beer was taken into local headquarters but the owner is still being sought by the inspectors.

A number of certificates for cooking and heating stoves were issued by the ration panel at the local board in session this week including 16 coal and two gas heating stoves. One oil cooking stove, six gas cooking stoves and one coal cooking stove were also approved.

Two jury panels will report for duty Monday at 10 a. m. at 70th district court as the final week of the September term of court gets underway. The grand jury will convene again on Sept. 30 to complete its work for the term. A rape case, the State versus Paul Harris, has been set for Monday.

M. K. House received word Saturday morning that his brother-in-law, Dean Lewis, of Dallas, had died following a week's illness in Lafayette, La. Lewis is to be buried in Dallas, his home, Monday at 10 a. m. House will attend. Lewis was for a number of years general auditor of Southern

Leases Still Are Active

While leasing activity continued brisk over the area, drilling moved into calm devoid of exciting developments during the past week. The Cosden No. 2 Willard Head drilled ahead to 2,900 feet Saturday, carrying free oil in the hole. While it probably will be completed for a small producer, it was considerably lighter than the No. 1 Head, also located in the west-half of section 49-30-1n, T&P.

In the Vincent area where operators are experiencing difficulty in pinning down a deep lime production, the Cosden and Coffield & Guthrie No. 2 Pauline Allen, a northwest diagonal offset to the discovery No. 1 Allen in section 57-20, LaVaca, drilled at 4,074 feet Saturday without shows. This was approximately 30 feet below where the No. 1 Allen picked up its best pay zone.

The Magnolia No. 1 Willis Winters, a direct south offset to the discovery was rigging up spudder at 3,990 feet to drill in with cable tools.

To the north in southeastern Borden county, the Cosden No. 1 Etta Conrad, section 79-20, LaVaca, was still fishing for tubing at 4,040 feet but Saturday appeared to have progressed to where it might drill up obstructions if further recovery efforts failed. Limer had been set at 3,866.

Mel Richards No. 1 Erwin, northwest Mitchell county wildcat being deepened from an abandoned (Sinclair) exploration, had progressed past 3,880 feet in lime. Location is in section 1-25, H&TC. Still further to the east the W. S. Guthrie No. 1 Solomon, C. S. W. SE of section 71-97, H&TC, was reported at 2,815 feet in hard brown lime.

Unconfirmed reports had operators drilling plug in the J. B. Hawley, Jr., No. 1 J. W. Cook, section 23-34-1n, T&P, western Howard county exploration, after shifting from rotary at 3,900. Similarly, surface string was reported in on the Hawley No. 1 Cowden, 330 feet from the east and 2,310 feet from the west lines of section 18-33-1s, T&P.

Pfc. Jack McDaniel, who has been stationed at Camp Maxey, is visiting here over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. McDaniel. He was recently transferred to Lubbock where he is attending Texas Tech under the army specialized training program.

Katherine McDaniel underwent appendectomy at the Malone and Hogan Clinic Friday and her condition is reported to be improving.

Two former residents, who are now officers in the armed services, were visiting with relatives here Friday. They were Ensign Allen Stripling and wife, who were visiting his father, Fox Stripling, and Capt. O. C. Hart and wife who were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hart.

A group of colored men, accepted in the army and navy at Lubbock, have reported for induction at Fort Sill, Okla., following the army automatic 21 day furlough and the seven day turlough given after acceptance in the services in Lubbock.

Reporting for army duty are: Dillard White, group leader; Lafayette Hanible, Sr., R. B. Jones, transfer from the Waco board; Hughdie Muldrew, transfer from the Idabel, Okla., board; James Ozie Carter, transfer from the Ruston, La., board.

Accepted for the navy were Romeo Dowells, volunteer for navy induction and Willie Lee Hamilton, Bryan, Tex., transfer.

An emergency tire meeting was held Friday by the local tire panel at the ration board to okay the issuing of 40 Grade 1 tires, 58 Grade III tires, and 37 passenger car tubes.

Also approved were 20 truck tires and 16 truck tubes. The grant, received from the state in addition to this county's regular weekly quota, filled the majority of urgently needed tires and tubes on file at the office.

Pfc. Jack McDaniel is spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. McDaniel. Formerly stationed at Camp Maxey, near Paris, he has been transferred to Texas Tech for specialized training in civil engineering.

Whoever has been visiting Elmer Hensley's place at 1404 W. 4th must have some heavy lifting in sight. He reported to officers that he had lost two hydraulic jacks, both with ton capacities and better.

Among aviation cadets reporting to Brooks Field for advanced flying training is James H. Walker, 19, son of Mrs. Ruth Pittard, 607 E. 12th. Once an enlisted man and aircraft mechanic at Kelly Field, he qualified for pilot training and received primary and basic courses at Corsicana and Perrin Field. His class will graduate with wings and commissions on Nov. 3.

Maneuvers for the First and 34th battalions of the Texas State Guard, scheduled to have been held 12 miles west and three miles west of Odessa this weekend, were cancelled Saturday due to adverse weather conditions. Capt. H. L. Bohannon, commanding officer of Big Spring's Co. E, 34th Bn., said that the battalion was still on alert and that the maneuvers would be held at first opportunity.

Chamber of commerce directors will have their regular semi-monthly meeting Monday noon at the Settles hotel. Routine matters will dominate the business docket.

Nabors Opens New Paint Store

This city has a new business concern with a man at the helm who wouldn't be stopped by the wartime shortage bugaboo.

He is O. L. Nabors and his store is the Big Spring Paint and Paper Co., 120 Main street.

Now open for business, the store has complete lines of paints, including such well known brands as Pee Gee and Pittsburgh. There will be all types of paints and shades, and in addition, painters will be able to secure supplies and equipment at the store.

Also in stock is a supply of wallpaper with a wide range of patterns. Residents and business firms will find in the supply store the answer to floor covering problems for Nabors has stocked a good line of inlaid linoleum.

Soon Big Spring Paint and Paper Co. will have oil paints for artists, and Nabors also will supply mouldings. Other lines available include putty, glass, mirrors, caulking compound, plastic wood, etc.

No newcomer is O. L. Nabors, for he has been a resident here for the past 18 years, as a T. & P. employe until he opened his business. Associated with him will be his brother, Cecil, who has been a painter here for well over a decade.

St. Florian area in northern Corsica.

French fighter planes which moved to the island soon after fighting began shot down two Focke-Wulf 190s in combats resulting when swift enemy fighters swooped over the district of Ajaccio, French-held capital on the west coast, and dropped bombs at random. The communique said the bombs did no damage.

The destruction of the transport planes was considered especially important because the Germans were believed to have filled them with highly trained technical personnel. A Northwest African air force announcement said two of the destroyed transports were known to have contained a total of 100 men and the others were believed to have been equally heavily loaded.

Allied air power also was turned against the shipping lanes from Corsica to the mainland port of Leghorn, about 55 miles from the northern tip of the island. British and Canadian Wellingtons rained block-buster bombs on Leghorn's harbor last night, starting large fires among ships, and American medium bombers hit two vessels near the port.

One of the richest military prizes in southern Italy — the big chain of air fields around Foggia, where for a long time the enemy concentrated most of his bombers in the Mediterranean area — appeared much nearer the grasp of the Allies after units of the British Eighth army surged up the Adriatic coast road to the outskirts of Molfetto, less than 80 miles from Foggia.

Church News—Nazarenes Open Revival Meet

A two-weeks revival opens today at the Church of the Nazarene with the pastor, the Rev. Ivy Bohannon, filling the pulpit in the morning and evening services.

Monday the Rev. M. H. Walker and wife of Bethany, Okla., arrive to lead in the meeting. Although a young minister, the Rev. Walker has several years experience as an evangelist. Before he was called to preach, he was a sailor aboard the USS Lexington.

During the week he will be heard at 8 a. m. over KBST in the morning devotion period. There will be services at 10 a. m. Tuesday through Friday and again each evening at 8 p. m. Today Rev. Bohannon speaks on "What Christ Taught About Prayer" and on "Knowing God."

"I Will Go When I Get Ready" is the subject of the morning sermon by the Rev. R. Elmer Dunham at the East Fourth Baptist church today. Mrs. Dale Puckett will be heard in a special vocal solo. Sunday is promotion day for Sunday school and BTU classes, and at the evening service, with the Rev. A. B. Lightfoot, preaching, there will be an installation of officers.

The Church of Christ, Scientist, has as its lesson-sermon subject today: "Reality." The Golden Text is from Isaiah 64:4, citations from Psalms 145:10, and from page 205 of "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Services are held at 217 1-2 Main street.

Morning subject for the Rev. P. D. O'Brien at the First Baptist Church is "Advertising the Most Precious Thing on Earth," and in the evening he speaks on "Things That Accompany Salvation."

E. P. (Doc) Mead, Abilene, is making a return visit to the First Christian church in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. J. E. McCoy. Mead, a brother of W. L. Mead of this city, spoke at the church a month ago and members urged him to return.

Porkers Whip Rolla Miners

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 25 (AP)—Displaying a great running attack, the University of Arkansas Razorbacks overwhelmed Missouri School of Mines from Rolla, 59 to 0 this afternoon before a crowd of 3,000.

Held scoreless in the first quarter, the Porkers broke the ice two minutes after opening of the second period when Rhoddy Nicholas swung through right guard from the four-yard line for the marker. Back Harold Cox set up the scoring play by intercepting a pass on the Miner 34.

From then on, Arkansas struck almost at will, piling up 278 yards by rushing. The Missourians penetrated Arkansas territory only twice, carrying to the 45 and 25-yard lines.

The Razorbacks, noted in past years for their passing proclivities, relied almost entirely on their ground attack, using aerials for a change of pace.

Yanks Took Longer This Year to Grab American Pennant

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Although the New York Yankees of 1943 led the American league race virtually from start to finish, it took them longer to clinch the pennant than in any of their 13 previous championship seasons.

From 1921, when Miller Huggins led the Yankees to their first pennant, until 1942 they never had left the issue in doubt later than Sept. 23. It took them until that late date to clinch the QAG in 1937, when the season started somewhat later than usual and did not end until Oct. 3. This year the start also was delayed until the latter part of April, due to wartime travel restrictions that forced the teams to do their spring training in the north.

Today's victory gave the Yankees their 14th American league championship and their eighth under the management of Joe McCarthy, the only manager who ever piloted championship teams in both major leagues. McCarthy managed the Chicago Cubs when they won the National league pennant in 1929.

Ramblers Down Rice Team 6-0

HOUSTON, Sept. 25 (AP)—Ran-dolph Field's Ramblers noosed out Rice Institute, 6-0, here tonight before 12,000 spectators in Rice stadium. The winning touchdown came in the fourth quarter on a pass from Glenn Dobbs to Blain Crowther, an end, from the Rice 15.

Navy's Four Teams Each Makes Tally

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 26 (AP)—Navy's midshipmen uncovered winning combinations of four full teams today to score in every period and rout the veterans of the North Carolina Pre-Flight Clubbusters 31 to 0, in the season opener before 12,500 fans.

Way Is Open To Victory

For 18 months now the U. S. has been mainly preoccupied with preparation of an all-out assault upon its enemies on the ground, at sea and in the air. Except in the air, only a small portion of our strength has yet been pushed against the enemy.

Hollywood - Cecil B. DeMille Whips Laundry Problem

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD Note of the times: Cecil B. DeMille's private movie laundry (staffed by six property men) has been functioning smoothly so that "The Story of Dr. Wassell" will air no dirty linen.

The "Wassell" set lately has been a hospital ward, containing 60 beds, all occupied, which means 120 sheets, 60 pillowcases. At each day's end, the linen required changing. But because several other pictures at the studio also happened to be using bed linen, there wasn't enough to go around.

And any housewife can tell you where even DeMille would get on a rush order from a laundry. He set up his own, and nightly on the roof of the property department—his six trusty huskies wash and iron.

This is the second time the Old Master has likened the laundry situation. When the Japanese laundryman who had done his personal stuff for 20 years was hustled off to re-location center, DeMille said he couldn't wash without shrinking them. So he took over personally. I like to think of the great man going home to wash out his own socks!

Frank Borzage was directing Deanna Durbin and Franchot Tone in a long walkie-talkie scene for "His Butler's Sister." The two stars had to walk the length of a city block, conversing all the way.

The set was the outdoor "New York Street," covered with black cloth to simulate night. The cloth flapped noisily in the breeze, and military planes roared high above, but the sound experts merely smiled. Their "directional mike" would blot out those extraneous noises.

And it did, but they still came to grief. All the takes were spoiled—so that the dialogue would have to be dubbed in later, by the swishing of Deanna's long evening gown.

If Preston Sturges doesn't laugh at actor shortages, he at least grins at them. What he did for "Hall the Conquering Hero," when he needed five husky Marines to tramp through the story with Eddie Bracken, was to make actors out of men who were "the type."

He took James Damore, a studio laborer who once had had a yen to act; Freddie Steele, the prize-fighter, for the role of a strength has yet been pushed against the enemy. But we have reached the point now where these forces can be used with increasing effectiveness, and from here on out the enemy will feel this increased pressure where it will hurt him most.

That, in brief, is what Chief of Staff Marshall told the American Legionnaires in convention at Omaha, Neb., last week.

He emphasized that we stand at the beginning, not in the middle or near the end, of our greatest pressure upon the enemy. Our base preparations are nearing completion everywhere except in Italy, which must needs be one of our principal bases of operation against Germany.

The amount of shipping, supplies, manpower and other requirements to put the Italian base in full operation—after we have won it—is beyond the faintest conception of the average civilian. It may well take months—which is something for those who expect victory by Christmas to keep in mind. The chief of staff's sobering words were dismaying only to those who have been overoptimistic. They were actually cheering to those who have realized all along the magnitude of the task. God knows we have come a long way from the slough of despond in which we found ourselves 18 months ago, when everything seemed to be going wrong. We can see daylight now. We know we're going to win, unless we kick victory away in senseless bickering and disunity among ourselves and that the road ahead isn't strewn with roses and beds of ease.

We Americans can look the future in the face with confidence and hope, in a spirit of humility rather than arrogance; for we have had a narrow squeak and we have passed the crisis, but we still have far to go. In the strength of our arms and with the blessing of God, we shall win through to glorious victory.

If Secretary Morgenthau and the Administration come anywhere near selling that $12,000,000,000 tax program to Congress and the public, it's going to take a super-salesman. That's way, in the coming tax battle, you are going to hear more and more of Judge Frederick Moore Vinson, director of economic stabilization, and the man who is supposed to keep yanking constantly on the check-rein of inflation.

"On the homefront," he says, our deadliest and most insidious enemy is inflation. Inflation threatens the security of the people's savings. It is the mortal foe of every bank deposit, every insurance policy and every war bond.

But he's up against a problem. The Treasury and Administration have set their heart on upping the federal income tax a few more staggering billions. Congress, just back from fingering the pulse of a tax-groggery public, is in no mood to top with the kind of epidemic which may be just around the corner at next year's voting booth. The disease is a mania for making ex-congressmen out of present incumbents and nobody knows the symptoms better than the men in office.

What they're saying now is that the voters, mostly in the white collar income brackets, are being knocked tax-daffy; that they can't take much more without upsetting the whole U. S. economy. On the other hand, the economists are aware that we are hard-ly holding our own in the battle against inflation. Most of the

THE LONG NIGHT By Eleanor Atterburg

Chapter 29 Sue was still smiling when half an hour later she came to the desk where Bette was forcing herself to check charts.

"Bette, dear," and before she could stop her, Sue was on her knees, her head buried in Bette's lap. "Forgive me, can you?"

Bette just raised the girl's head, put her arms about her slim shoulders. "Of course, Susie."

"I—I tried to run away from myself this morning—I was so ashamed of what I had done, of what I had said. I've been rotten selfish, Bette. I knew you loved him right from the start. And I just wanted to take him away from you. And when I couldn't, it made me—furious."

"Please, honey. Let's not talk about it."

"But I want to talk about it. I must tell you, Bette." Sue looked up at her, eyes fathoms deep with something strangely unlike the old Sue. "I've done everything I could—pulled all my tricks to try to make him look at me instead of you, Bette. I thought I knew men. But not Scott. He's talked to me, walked across the Post with me—not for myself, but because through me he could pick up news of you. You were always too busy, so self-sufficient, he probably thought you weren't interested.

gruff, dead-pan Marine hero; Jimmie Dundee, an ace stunt man; Len Hendry, who has been standing in for Bob Hope ever since Hope came to pictures. And for the fifth he found, walking into his office one day looking for a job, a youngster named Steph Gregory, invalided out of the army, with a background in stock acting and professional football.

He looked at her for a long moment, feasting his eyes, a tender little smile flickering about his lips. "Hello, darling," he said quietly, and reached for her. "Hello—darling," she echoed, and walked into his arms.

Moments later when they could speak again, he said, his lips against her hair, his arms still holding her tight, "Bette, we have orders we're leaving in an hour." She stiffened. "Leaving?" "Yes. One of our patrols just brought in Paul Porter—which takes care of that little piece of business—but there's something else we've got to take care of. A swarm of us are taking off to soften up that Jap base. Then the boys will follow your trail over the mountain and really clean it out."

"Oh! Not that she hadn't expected it, of course. But coming so soon after—coming right now when—"

He tipped her face up so he could look into her eyes. "Will you marry me, Bette, right now?" "Now?" Dazed, she just looked at him.

"I know it sounds crazy. But I think if I could call you Mrs. Scott MacQuaid just once before I left, I'd be more sure of coming back."

"But—how could we? I mean—we'd have to have a license and a—"

Scott shook his head. "Just the Chaplain. I've asked him about it already and he's consented. It wouldn't be much of a wedding, honey, and I'm darned selfish to ask you but—"

Bette slipped her arms around his neck. "It would be a lovely wedding, Scott."

Major Scrap Looms On Future Tax Program

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON — If there is anything in the Congressional offering more important to you and Joe Doakes and me than the upcoming tax bill, I can't think of it. Congress is beginning to reassemble. For weeks, most of them have been out listening to the ground rumbles in their constituencies. I haven't had an opportunity to talk to any substantial cross-section of them yet, but those I have talked to are as tax-conscious as a millionaire's C. P. A. and what they're conscious of, neither the Treasury nor the Administration is going to like.

If Secretary Morgenthau and the Administration come anywhere near selling that $12,000,000,000 tax program to Congress and the public, it's going to take a super-salesman. That's way, in the coming tax battle, you are going to hear more and more of Judge Frederick Moore Vinson, director of economic stabilization, and the man who is supposed to keep yanking constantly on the check-rein of inflation.

"On the homefront," he says, our deadliest and most insidious enemy is inflation. Inflation threatens the security of the people's savings. It is the mortal foe of every bank deposit, every insurance policy and every war bond.

But he's up against a problem. The Treasury and Administration have set their heart on upping the federal income tax a few more staggering billions. Congress, just back from fingering the pulse of a tax-groggery public, is in no mood to top with the kind of epidemic which may be just around the corner at next year's voting booth. The disease is a mania for making ex-congressmen out of present incumbents and nobody knows the symptoms better than the men in office.

What they're saying now is that the voters, mostly in the white collar income brackets, are being knocked tax-daffy; that they can't take much more without upsetting the whole U. S. economy. On the other hand, the economists are aware that we are hard-ly holding our own in the battle against inflation. Most of the economists, at least, are agreed that the two most potent weapons against inflation are taxation and forced savings: taxation to skim off the cream of excess spending power—forced savings to spread it out over the lean years that are bound to come.

In the breach, between these two spearheads, stands kindly, hard-working Judge Vinson. It's up to him to bring off a compromise—a fusion of the two forces, without a major political disaster on one hand or a major economic one on the other.

How successful he is going to be remains to be seen. Congress will have to be sold on upping their tax rights; the Treasury on lowering its revenue-hopes; and the public on the overall program.

The Thrill That Comes Once In A Lifetime

No Hospital Waiting Lists Progress In Insane Care

A few years ago more than one thousand mentally ill persons over the state of Texas were waiting their turn for admittance to our mental hospitals. Many of these, although not classified as criminally insane, were being held in jails.

Today a citizen needing mental care may enter a state hospital as speedily and simply as he goes into his local hospital for an appendectomy.

The final gap between these two contrasting situations has been bridged within the past year. In reviewing its work of the past biennium ending Aug. 31, the State Board of Control, which administers the state eleemosynary institutions, considers the eventual abolition of its hospital waiting list, with attendant results, most beneficial of several forward steps recently achieved.

Other outstanding developments in the hospital service, either an accomplished fact, or planned for the immediate future, are: (2) Increased number of voluntary admissions; and early commitments; (3) Continuation of in-service training programs; (4) Encouraged use of the hospitals for psychiatric training in cooperation with medical centers; (5) Expansion of the Board's facilities for institutional family service for patients.

To trace these achievements from the beginning it would be work of several administrations and legislative sessions. Previous state boards of control must receive mention for their efforts in initiating improvements which are just now beginning to produce results. Finally, credit must be given to the people of Texas whose attitude toward the state's responsibilities for these handicapped people has been changed within recent years—from an attitude of apathy to one of active interest and concern for these wards of the state.

The waiting list, which at one time crowded 1,000, grew because the demand for our institutional services increased faster than the state was able to provide facilities. This growth in the number of our people needing mental treatment does not reflect a growth in the spread of insanity, but may be attributed to several factors: First there has been a steady general increase in the population itself, with its corresponding increase in the number of insane. Secondly our increasing life expectancy span has created a situation wherein our aged insane, or senile, live longer and consequently are numbered longer among the population of our hospitals. Also, as scientific medical knowledge in the psychiatric field advances, and as public confidence in our hospital grows, more and more cases each year seek treatment. All of these factors combined to burden our facilities faster than accommodations could be provided.

To relieve this situation, the 47th legislature provided approximately $3,000,000 for building additional institutions. But the building program was never realized for the war stopped all "non-essential" building, and the appropriated money lapsed. The board was unable to obtain priorities on building materials.

Nevertheless, by remodeling and expanding, the board of control finally succeeded in making rooms for the last patient on the waiting list in May, 1943. This was done by increasing the number of beds in the hospitals, by completing, despite wartime restrictions, a 120-bed ward at the Terrell state hospital, and by renovating the Confederate Home at Austin to accommodate 375 aged mentally ill, who are now being moved from other hospitals.

Texas now has custodial care of 13,456 patients in seven hospitals. These hospitals treated and released 2,071 patients in 1940; 2,224 in 1941; and 2,121 in 1942. The hospitals are located at Austin (Austin state hospital and Texas Confederate Home), Big Spring, Rusk, San Antonio, Terrell and Wichita Falls. Galveston psychopathic hospital was temporarily closed because of damages from hurricane.

Other outstanding developments in the hospital service, either an accomplished fact, or planned for the immediate future, are: (2) Increased number of voluntary admissions; and early commitments; (3) Continuation of in-service training programs; (4) Encouraged use of the hospitals for psychiatric training in cooperation with medical centers; (5) Expansion of the Board's facilities for institutional family service for patients.

To trace these achievements from the beginning it would be work of several administrations and legislative sessions. Previous state boards of control must receive mention for their efforts in initiating improvements which are just now beginning to produce results. Finally, credit must be given to the people of Texas whose attitude toward the state's responsibilities for these handicapped people has been changed within recent years—from an attitude of apathy to one of active interest and concern for these wards of the state.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Hand to Hand Fighting

Our Marines who have given such splendid account of themselves in all sectors of this global war, are taught hand-to-hand fighting tactics and are deadly in the use of the Marine Raider's knife. Every Marine carries this wicked weapon and is proficient in its use. It costs, with sheath, $1.75.

Your purchase of War Bonds and other Government Bond issues helps provide these weapons for our darling Marines. Even purchase of War Stamps could buy one of these knives which might save a soldier's life. "They give their lives—You lend your money." U. S. Treasury Department

Von Kube Called Most Brutal Nazi

LONDON, Sept. 25, (AP)—Tass, Russian news agency, calls Wilhelm Von Kube, German commissioner general of occupied White Russia whose assassination Sept. 21 was announced by the Nazis, "one of the most brutal agents of the German occupation regime and initiator of many murderous crimes."

Tass said Von Kube arrived in Minsk, capital of White Russia, soon after its occupation in 1941.

The Soviet agency added that the commissioner later boasted that under his regime the Russian population of Minsk has been reduced by 200,000 persons in less than a year.

FSA Discusses War Crop Aid

A two day meet, stressing the importance of increased production of war foods for 1944, was completed Friday by members of District Four of the Farm Security Administration in session at the Settles hotel.

Climax of the meeting was a visit by representatives to the experiment farm where supervisors and associate supervisors saw demonstrations by Fred Keating, supervisor, of the best varieties of peanuts, pinto beans, black eyed peas, soybeans, and grain sorghum that can be raised in this area. Information on planting dates, harvesting and seed was also given.

There were 38 persons present who heard the regional director, Jesse B. Gilmer of Amarillo talk Friday on the goals for 1944 and the necessity of making every effort to reach the goals.

The sessions were conducted by Marvin C. Wilson, district FSA supervisor, and Roberta E. Martin, associate district supervisor, both of Sweetwater.

Discussed were best methods to use and assistance to give to farmers to help them reach the goals of vital war crops.

There were 49 counties represented in the district with supervisors attending from offices at Pecos, Midland, Lamesa, Snyder, Sweetwater, Roby, Colorado City, Big Spring, Junction, San Angelo, Robert Lee, Ballinger and Abilene.

$200,000 In AAA Cotton Payments Due In December

Haword county farmers will receive around $200,000 in AAA payments for cotton, wheat and soil building, M. Weaver, AAA administrative officer said Saturday.

The payments which will be made to around 1,500 farmers in the county will be received here mostly during the month of December although some payments will come earlier and some later.

All applications are typed and ready for signatures now, Weaver said, and notices have been sent out to farmers asking them to come into the office to sign their applications.

Toads Trained For Trapeze Antics

Jake Douglass recently sent a large number of horned toads to a friend in Missouri.

The following article appeared in a St. Louis paper:

"Jimmie Huskison, who owns and operates a hotel and tavern in Valley Park and who is also a member of the Lions club, has always gone in in a big way for entertainment for his customers.

"The very latest thing Jimmie has acquired to entertain his customers with is a number of horned toads, which he acquired from a toad farm in Texas.

"These toads are trained to do various stunts. They run, turn over on their backs and do trapeze performing. They are very odd and interesting and it is worth anybody's time to go over and see them."

Before Pearl Harbor, the United States imported 94 percent of essential tropical commodities from the Eastern Hemisphere.

Champ—Sgt. William R. Purser, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Purser, 402 Johnson, was one of 12 boys picked for the gunnery contest at Harrington Field for one of the largest contests to date. He is national gunnery skeet champion as a result and played an important part in his team achieving second place in the contest. He was awarded a crash bracelet for his performance, and the field team members a banquet and a dance for their showing.

E. G. Christensen Killed In Action

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Christensen mailed their son his Christmas package and Friday they received a picture from him showing him and the rest of the crew beside a German plane they had downed. But Saturday they received word from the war department that Staff Sgt. E. G. Christensen, Jr., had been killed in action on September 16th.

Sgt. Christensen was an aerial gunner on a Flying Fortress named "Iza Angel II" based "somewhere in England." He had been in England for the last three months and in the service for a year.

Sgt. Christensen, who was 22 years old on February 9th, was graduated from the Big Spring high school in 1940 and assisted his father at their boot and shoe repair shop before joining the army.

He is survived by his parents, a younger brother, Leslie, stationed with the Marines in California, and a sister.

No other details were given in the war department's wire, but a letter is to follow, it explained.

'Agricultural Day' Urged At Meeting

HOUSTON, Sept. 25, (AP)—Designation of a national "Agricultural Day" was urged by the Texas Federation of Cooperatives Directors at a conference here Friday.

Feed shortages and other agricultural problems were discussed by the directors and representatives of 850 Cooperatives in Texas at a meeting in joint session with the Farm Credit Administration Board.

Among those attending were R. B. McCleish of Weslaco, manager of the Rio Grande Valley Association of Houston, and L. F. Cowden of the Consumers Cooperatives, Associated, Amarillo.
