Should Mother Take A Job?

A mother's first responsibility is to her children...

Written Exclusively For AP Features
By ANNA W. M. WOLF
Author and Lecturer on Child Care

Despite radio and other voices the government does not encourage mothers of young children to go to work. Though today there is a great need for women in both war industries and civilian work, the first to go, it is believed, should be women without children and women with other children who can shift pretty well for themselves. Says the War Manpower Commission.

"The first responsibility of women with young children in war as in peace, is to give suitable care in their own homes to their children."

Great Britain has adopted this same policy; even in that sorely pressed nation where both men and women have been drafted for industry, mothers of young children are exempted and are not obliged to go to work.

Nevertheless in both England and America many such mothers do go and in many cases they cannot be blamed. With a chance to earn money as never before, come also opportunities for themselves and their families—medical care, better housing and clothing, much needed fun and recreation and perhaps educational advantages as well.

Before a woman goes to work she should ask herself several questions? Are the things she can buy with her money more valuable for herself and her children in the long run, than a home with the mother herself in control? Even if she can provide properly for her children's health and safety under the care of relatives or elsewhere, how are the children going to get along without the warm mothering that the young ones crave from their own mothers? How will she feel when her children, as even the healthiest are bound from time to time, get sick? Little children rebel against separation from their mothers. Sometimes they rebel openly and directly; oftener they show their anger by getting mischievous and hard to manage.

If a mother decides that in spite of the obvious problems caused by her absence she must nevertheless go to work, she should choose, when she possibly can, a day-shift that will leave her free to be home for her child's supper and bedtime.

Both here and in England experience has shown that if a mother must be away from home, a day-care center is better in most cases for young children than care in the home of relatives or in a foster-home. There are now many such centers operated under government (Latham Act) funds, or by social agencies and churches and sometimes also by the factories. The right kind of a day-care center is much more than a parking place for children. It is a place where they live and play and make things and where they learn the valuable lessons of give and take that come with getting together with other children.

Even with father away and mother at work, a child still has a right to a home of his own.

Miss Laneous Notes

MARY WHALEY

We must admit, although we hate to do it, that the early morning hours are really the nicest in the whole day. Just as the sun is coming up and nobody else is up but us, we feel like the world is ours alone.

It is so quiet and the air so crisp and cool that we begin to feel like a millionaire. The sky is crossed with red gold clouds and light blue shadows that change in shape and hue while we watch.

The birds stop yawning off they do such things, stretch their wings and chirp back and forth to each other with the most cheerful sounds that make up step lightly.

The whole effect of quiet early mornings is to make us glad to be alive and even glad we got the chassis out of a warm-bed while it was still night outdoors.

It makes us wonder about a lot of things and since nobody is around to talk to or speak to, we can walk along accompanied only by our thoughts.

We think of war and bombs and death and destruction and it is so hard to imagine them in such peaceful surroundings that we move these thoughts into another compartment of our mind and shut the door for awhile.

Then we think of the peace that will come and we let our thoughts stay with this idea. A promise of better things to come is in the very air we breathe.

HELPFUL HOUSEHOLD HINTS

WAR demand for rubber and copper means your electric cords must last for a long time. So give them proper care. Don't play "tug of war" like the young lady above. Take a firm grasp on the plug itself and pull it out quickly.

How to INCREASE the LIFE of Your ELECTRIC CORDS

When you're finished with appliances with detachable cords—irons, toasters, etc.—pull out wall plug first, then appliance plug.

Coil cord loosely over hooks of rack; never coil it free of knots or kinks. Avoid bending; they break insulation.

Don't run cords under rugs where they'll be walked on. Keep cords away from radiators and steam pipes. Don't wrap them around hot appliances.

Take care of little troubles before they become big. Repair frayed cords with friction tape. Bend grooves of loose-fitting plugs to make them fit securely.

Howard Leads In Typhus Eradication Throughout State

Howard county has made more progress than any county in the state toward eradication of typhus fever, V. A. Cross, sanitarian for the Big Spring-Howard county division of the Midland-Ector-Howard County Health unit was informed recently at a statewide meeting of unit sanitarians in Austin.

The statement was made by V. M. Ehlers, chief sanitary engineer for the state department of health. Howard county has had several rodent extermination campaigns during the past year, and comparatively few cases of typhus have been reported this year as opposed to a disturbing increase the year before. One of the biggest programs toward eradicating rats, which carry fleas with the infection was the city-wide one-day campaign which touched almost every household in the municipality.

Discussing other health matters, Cross said that one of the biggest matters still was that of surface toilets. He urged every family in town which now uses a surface toilet to make an effort to replace it with water closet facilities. In cases where sewer connections cannot be made, cesspools and septic tanks will be permitted. Application to the health office will bring aid in securing materials.

By and large, cafes are doing better in maintaining sanitary facilities, said Cross. He had to close one recently until the kitchen was cleaned and two others cleaned up under a close-up threat.

The milk supply is steadily improving in quality and Cross expressed satisfaction with progress being made. He said that there was some wilding of milk sales by individuals within the city contrary to health ordinances.

Another project which the health unit is planning to push is that of getting tops on garbage cans before the fly season starts again.

War Board News

A weekly column contributed by members of the Howard county USDA War Board.

Adjusting Breeding Stock To Range Conditions

Over stocking exhausts the feed on a ranch in maintaining cows in condition too poor for profitable calf production, and similarly with sheep and goats, wool and mohair clips are lighter in weight. It is the opinion of Robert R. Lancaster of the A. and M. College Extension Service staff, that conservatism calls for adjustment of breeding stock to minimum range feed usually available regardless of rainfall, except in rare, severe drought, this leaves an annual surplus to be grazed by steers or wethers.

"Most conservative ranchmen," observes Lancaster who is Extension pasture specialist, "adjust breeding stock to any likely range conditions. They take up the slack with steers or wethers—by winter feeding if necessary and by spring grazing in favorable seasons. That maintains breeding stock in best condition and for longer service; increases number and size of offspring; maintains range condition; and produces meat with less risk and expense and with overhead of breeding stock."

Experience bears this out. One pasture at the New Mexico Experiment Station made 75 per cent more beef with 22 per cent less cows than another. The larger number of cows on the latter, which was about the usual rate, were undersized, the calves were fewer and lighter in weight. Adjustment of grazing animals to seasonal ups and down in forage indicates use of some steers or mutton which are the most readily saleable and buyable of stock. Yearlings may be bought or carried over to utilize surplus grass above the needs of a reduced breeding herd or flock.

When a dry spring limits grass, steers may be sold in April. A prolonged drought, limiting both grass and feed crops, would require fall sale of steers with the heifers and cull cows. The reduced herd should have range feed 19 years out of 20.

Saving Time In Dressing Turkeys

The shortage of labor reaches into all activities. Even produce dealers who will be buying turkeys in volume from now until the end of the year probably will find that their biggest problem is getting enough hands to dress promptly this year's record production of birds.

But producers can help to relieve this difficulty even before marketing their turkeys. George F. McCarthy, poultryman for the A. and M. college Extension Service, says that if they do not feed their turkeys grain just prior to sending them to market it will give the dealers a big lift. . . . And, incidentally, save themselves a bit of money, too. . . . Birds marketed with their crops full of undigested grain will be docked in price. In addition, the produce houses will have to decrop them.

This further hampers the labor problem. Decropping is a big job which takes a lot of hands away from the normal process of dressing to do something which could have been done before the turkeys left the farm. Plenty of water the night before marketing will help to empty over-stuffed crops. If producers will cooperate

Ceiling Prices Fixed On Beer In County

Ceiling prices on beers have been announced by the Office of Price Administration for the Lubbock district, which includes Howard county. Generally speaking, the top prices on popular brands are 18c and 13c for 12 ounce bottles and 39c and 29c on 32 ounce bottles.

Taxes may not be added to the ceiling prices, the OPA rules, and it further orders all places handling malt beverages to post the ceiling prices.

Brands listed at 18c and 39c ceilings are: Blatz, Budweiser, Coors, Hamm's, Kingsbury, Miller's High Life, Harry Mitchell (Premium), Muehlebach, Pabst, Prager,

Homemade Bulldozer Adapted To Use On Row Tractors

American ingenuity is bridging many of the gaps in the supply of farm equipment by creating satisfactory substitutes from materials available on most farms. One very useful article of this type is a homemade bulldozer attachment adaptable to row tractors. It has served usefully in several instances.

In passing along the idea, M. R. Bentley, agricultural engineer for the A. and M. College Extension Service, says that the cash cost of a homemade bulldozer has been as low as $6. This, of course, was in cases where the builder had a terracer blade and other necessary parts lying idle around his place. One of several uses for the bulldozer is making fills in terraces. Fills five feet in height have been made.

The attachment requires few parts. The principle ones are push bars at either side running from the drawbar, and the other the grader or terracer blade at the front of the tractor. The bars may be of four inch wooden pieces, or automobile frames, or two and one-half inch pipes. Where the drawbar runs the width of the tractor attaching the push bars is relatively simple, but should be made as flexible as possible. With a short drawbar, more skill will be required to make a dependable hook-up.

In cases where a grader or terracer blade five or six feet long is not available the dirt pushing scoop may be built up of two-inch hardwood lumber on an angle iron frame with a cutting blade of steel bolted along the lower edge.

In many cases the power lift for the tractor cultivator or lister may easily be adapted to the bulldozer. With one type of power lift the connection with the blade has been made by running two small chains or cables from the top of the blade over pulleys or rollers on a frame attached to the front of the tractor and back to the power lift near the operator's feet. The minimum desirable lift for the blade is probably about 12 inches.

Changes Planned For Coupon Books

The Office of Price Administration has announced a simplification rationing program, effective Dec. 1, under which all "B" and "C" books issued by local War Price and Rationing Boards will contain fewer coupons than in the past, but each coupon will be good for more gallons than heretofore. No increase in the amount of gasoline allowed is involved, however.

All "B" and "C" coupons issued throughout the country on and after Dec. 1 will be worth five gallons each, as compared with the present value of two gallons for coupons of those types in the east and midwest and three gallons in the far west.

The new supplemental gasoline ration coupons of five gallons value will be issued with the designation, "B-2," and "C-2," on their face. As present "B" and "C" and "B-1" and "C-1" coupons run out, they will be replaced by the new higher-unit-value coupons. Meanwhile, outstanding coupons issued before Dec. 1 will continue to be worth only two gallons in the east and midwest and three gallons in the far west. OPA explained that "B-1" coupons are a reprint of the earlier "B" coupons, they are used in the same way and have the same value. The same thing is true of "C" and "C-1" coupons.

While the change does not mean more gasoline for holders of supplemental ration books, it does mean that they will receive their rations in more convenient form. "It is expected that many car owners, for example, will now buy five-gallon units as they customarily did before rationing began. Consumers will have fewer coupons to endorse."

Texas Federation Opposes Subsidies On Farm Products

DALLAS, Nov. 18 (AP) — Opposing subsidies on farm products, the Texas Farm Bureau Federation says "we do not believe in a low priced food guarantee for a high income population as a means of preventing inflation."

The subsidy opposition was expressed yesterday by the federation's annual convention in a resolution which also said:

"We hold it is unfair to pass on to present and future taxpayers part of the grocery bill of civilians who today are receiving the highest wages and salaries ever in taxes, by the men and boys who known, and which must be paid, return at the end of the war."

In another resolution, the federation declared for control of inflation by taxation of large incomes and by control of wages and industrial prices, as well as agricultural products.

After the convention closed yesterday, directors reelected J. Walter Hammond of Tye, Taylor county, president for the fifth consecutive year; renamed W. M. Deck of Perryton vice-president, and J. H. West of Bishop secretary-treasurer.

Among those named directors for two-year terms was J. P. Maxwell of Roston, Lamar county.

Foreign Malaria Is Not Spreading

CINCINNATI, Nov. 18 — The failure so far of foreign malaria to spread to the American civilian population even though several thousand malarious troops have been brought home for hospitalization offers evidence that war-born control measures eventually can banish the disease as a problem in the United States.

This was the prediction today of Brig. Gen. James S. Simmons, chief of the Army's preventive medicine division, who said wartime programs instituted by the armed forces, the U. S. Public Health Service and other agencies could achieve that objective if coordinated into a single national program that would be carried on after the war.

The general said the programs now in effect ranged from establishing virtually mosquito-free "safety zones" around military posts and hospitals to the training of hundreds of civilian doctors to cope with malaria in case of relapses among cured troops.

DOG 4-F, MASTER 1-A — Frederick Corbett (above) of Boston was ordered to report for induction in the same mail that brought a letter from the Army saying his German shepherd dog, Wolf, had been turned down as "too gentle."

Kate Smith swaps stories again with Mrs. Rusco of Los Angeles, California

YOU REMEMBER the Rusco family, don't you? They're the folks who wrote to Kate Smith last March, telling her about baking 110 dozen cookies and 5 cakes each month for the boys at Camp Callan. Well, Mrs. Rusco has written Kate again, and this time—

"We are still going to Camp Callan every month," Mrs. A. L. Rusco says. "We've been experimenting in our kitchen, concocting recipes for cookies. And how the soldier boys gobble them up! "Thanks a lot for your interest in what we call our 'little bit on the road to Victory!'"

"YOU KNOW, Mrs. Rusco," Kate answers, "when you first wrote me about the hundreds of cookies and cakes you were baking with Calumet, with never a failure, I surely was impressed."

"And now when I hear that you're still spending so much time and effort baking for our soldier boys, well—Mrs. Rusco, I'm proud of you!"

"Seems your family's mighty active—and I bet when mealtime comes they want hearty filling food. Next time you give them a piping hot stew, try these fluffy Calumet Dumplings to go with it!"

Railway Groups Get Strike Ballots

Strike ballots have been received here by members of the 15 standard railway labor organizations cooperating in the national wage increase-union shop movement.

Ballots have gone to all members and union officials said they also were being sent to non-members.

The issue is simply whether to strike or not to strike to enforce demands for a 20-cent per hour wage increase, a minimum hourly wage of 70 cents, and an union shop agreement.

A letter from J. F. McCluskey, general chairman for the Texas & Pacific system board of adjustment for clerks and freight handlers, added that "no strike will occur, however, until all reasonable efforts to secure a reasonable settlement have been exhausted." Deadline for voting on the strike issue is Nov. 25.

Foreign Holdings Must Be Reported By End Of Month

Citizens of Big Spring and Howard county who own any property in foreign countries were reminded Thursday by Postmaster Nat Shick that they have through Nov. 30 to file reports of their foreign holdings with the treasury department.

Shick pointed out that it is necessary for the government to have as complete information as possible on the American stake abroad to assist the military authorities and the civilian governments on the fighting fronts and to bring about sound solutions of the post-war problems.

Report forms (FFR-500) may be obtained through commercial banks or from the federal reserve bank in Dallas. Penalties are provided for those who willfully fail to file reports.

No More Taxes George States

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 (AP) — The treasury had blunt notice from Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the senate finance committee today that it will be wasting time if it tries to get congress to pile more taxes on the $2,142,000,000 proposed in the new revenue bill coming before the house next week.

"It won't be any use for the treasury to ask the committee to raise any substantial additional amount," George told this reporter. "If they want to get $10,000,000,000 more in the way they have proposed, they'll be coming to a goat's house for wool."

The wool analogy was used before, when Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.) of the house ways and means committee remarked that "you can shear a sheep (taxpayer) every year but you can skin him only once."

The treasury had sought the larger amount largely through stiff increases in individual and corporate income taxes but its proposals were rejected by Loughton's committee, which voted to extract only about $154,000,000 more from individuals, $616,000,000 additional from corporations and about $1,372,000,000 more in excise levies on liquor, amusements and other items.

Here 'n There

Lieut. and Mrs. John Camp Adams, now at Ardmore, Okla., are the parents of a daughter, Jerene, born Nov. 8. Mrs. Charley Adams, paternal grandmother, is in Ardmore and had hoped to witness the presentation of the air medal with oak leaf cluster to her son in ceremonies last Sunday but rain forced cancellation of the affair. Lieut. Adams, who arrived in Hawaii aboard a Flying Fortress at the height of the Pearl Harbor bombing, is a veteran bombardier. Mrs. J. C. Adams is the former June Rust of Forsan.

Pooled interviews have been scheduled at the USES office for next week and the succeeding week. A Fort Worth aircraft firm will have a representative here Nov. 23 and a shipbuilding unit from Pasco, Wash. will be represented here Nov. 23-30.

L. N. Brashears, US Navy recruiter, was here Thursday morning interviewing those interested in navy enlistment. He or some other member of the San Angelo sub-station stops each Thursday morning in the postoffice basement.

Jean Porter, daughter of Harry C. Porter of Big Spring, continues her rise in Hollywood. She now is working on a picture to be billed as "Mr. Co-ed," in which she is co-starred with Comedian Red Skelton. It is to be a color picture. Recently she completed the picture, "The Youngest Profession," in which she was given her best role to date.

Firemen Wednesday evening made a run to 1019 Johnson street to extinguish a grass fire. Police made a call to the vicinity of 16th and Nolan in response to reports that boys were throwing rocks.

Personnel at the county clerk's office received a Christmas card Thursday from Cpl. H. C. (Chick) Poindexter, former Big Spring resident. The card read, "From somewhere in the Southwest Pacific area come best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year." Cpl. Poindexter is with the 928th Signal Corps battalion.

Trustees Approve Audit Of Schools

Trustees of the Big Spring Independent School district Wednesday evening approved an audit, set reopening dates for two schools, passed on resignations and replacements in addition to announcing holiday dates for local schools.

Thanksgiving will be observed as usual with a double holiday on Nov. 25-26 and two full weeks will be allowed for Christmas. Schools will dismiss the afternoon of Dec. 17 and resume classes on Jan. 3, 1944.

Nov. 29 was set as the date for reopening the Kate Morrison Americanization school and the Lakeview (colored) schools. Both have been recessed during the cotton harvest season. Their terms continue into the normal summer recess to make up for last time.

Trustees received and approved the audit report filed by Merle J. Stewart, who recently completed a check on school fiscal records.

Resignation of Mrs. Jim Anderson, who is joining her husband, Roy Anderson, a flight instructor at Coleman, and Lillian Jordan, home economics instructor who is entering the printing business, were accepted. The board approved the naming of Mrs. Ruth Johnson as a successor to Mrs. Della K. Agnell, who has a leave of absence; Mrs. F. M. Auringer as a successor to Mrs. Anderson; and of Mrs. Ira D. Lauderdale as a fifth grade teacher in East Ward, replacing Mrs. Geneva McAllen, who is out due to illness.

War Fund Grows With More Returns

While teams from the Lions clubs contacted new prospects and sought increased subscriptions from some who already have given, scattered returns Thursday cut the Howard county National War fund deficit to less than $4,000.

The Rotary club and Kiwanis club each gave $75 to stimulate the "over-the-top" drive this week. The Cowper hospital and Dall. Herald joined the list of first increasing subscriptions to help raise the $17,900 quota.

Among organization contributions were those by the auxiliary to the firemen and engineers brotherhood ($10), auxiliary to order of railway conductors ($5), Order of Eastern Star ($25). Vealmoor community, which had not been heard from, made its initial incomplete report of $40.

Pat Kenney, general chairman, said that reports were expected Friday from the T. & P. roundhouse, the car sheds and the railway clerks.

Two reports from the 16 teams working on the Lions club clean-up effort had been reported, said Kenney.

A grand way to celebrate

Thanksgiving this year is to share your turkey dinner with one or more boys from a nearby camp. Soldiers or sailors would enjoy nothing better than spending this great American holiday in a real American home.

You may have to trim the traditional menu but plenty of the good old Thanksgiving treats are still untouched by wartime restrictions.

Since STUFFING is one of the important parts of the feast, here is a good stuffing to fill a 10-pound bird. Mix lightly 10 cups day-old bread, crumbled, 1 cup cooked diced celery, 2 teaspoons salt, 2-3 cups melted margarine (of course you can use butter if you have plenty), 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-3 cup minced onions, 2 teaspoons dried or finely chopped parsley, 1-4 teaspoon powdered sage and 1-3 cup hot milk.

To keep stuffing in fowl light and fluffy, loosely drop it into cavities and never press down. Merely shake a little to get the stuffing in place. It must have space to expand while cooking. If you have stuffing left over it can be baked separately in a shallow baking dish.

Place the stuffed TURKEY on a rack in an open roaster and allow about 35 minutes per pound for a bird weighing from 8 to 10 pounds, 30 minutes per pound for one that weighs from 10 to 15 pounds and 25 minutes for the fowl that weighs over 15 pounds. The temperature should be about 300 degrees, which is moderately slow. Baste after 30 minutes with 1-3 cup fat melted in a cup of boiling water. Use drippings in the pan when this is gone.

You may want some extra seasonings in the stuffing, so you can put in the cooked giblets chopped. (Most persons want the giblets for the gravy, however.) Raisins, prunes, nuts (chestnuts, walnuts or peanuts), mushrooms or apples are good. A cupful is added to flavor this amount of stuffing.

Test the turkey by carefully piercing with a long thin fork under a leg or wing. Never pierce in the breast as this would let out juices and flavors as well as mar the appearance of the royal bird.

the turkey in lusciousness for this feast, so try this steamed CRANBERRY MOLD. It is economical and simple to make. Mix together 3 cups flour, 5 teaspoons baking powder, 2-3 teaspoon salt, 1 cup sugar, 2-3 cup milk, 1 cup washed, halved cranberries, 2 eggs, beaten, 1-2 cup shortening (melted), 1 teaspoon mace and 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind. Fill a greased mold 2-3 full. Cover tightly and steam 3 hours. Serve hot with cranberry sauce.

Your Thanksgiving dinner can be a true holiday meal even if you don't have turkey. You can have all the traditional trimmings with an alternate meat, a golden citrus salad and a glossy pumpkin pie with cream cheese flutings around the top in place of the old favorite, whipped cream.

There are still enough apples, dates, figs and raisins and nuts to fill the fruit bowl for a festive table centerpiece. And sprinkle some cracked nuts nearby.

More citrus fruits are now appearing daily in the markets and halves of grapefruit make an attractive opening course. Diced grapefruit and sliced oranges with a few raisins or grapes are also appropriate. Crab, shrimp and other fish cocktails appeal to some folk. And you might like to serve hot elder or steaming vegetable juices in the living room for a preliminary.

Good stuffing is a "must" in most Thanksgiving menus. This

SWEET POTATOES can be candied by using half molasses, maple or corn-syrup if shy on sugar. Boil sweets (allowing one per person) until tender. Cool and peel. (This can be done day ahead.) Halve the cooked potatoes and arrange in shallow, greased baking pan. For 10 potatoes, boil together for 10 minutes, 1 cup dark brown sugar, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 cups water, 3-tablespoons margarine or butter, 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon salt and 1-4 teaspoon pepper. Pour over the potatoes and bake 30 minutes in moderate oven.

If the oven is too full, cook the potatoes on top of stove in covered pan over low heat.

A jellied salad saves last minute preparation time. HARVEST SALAD is easy to make: Dissolve a package of lemon or orange gelatin in 1 2-3 cups boiling water or fruit juices. Cool and let thicken slightly. Stir in 1 cup chopped cabbage, 1-2 cup cooked green beans, 1 tablespoon each minced onion, chopped pickles and olives. Add 1-3 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika and 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice. The dessert usually vies with

GREEN BEANS, BRUSSELS SPROUTS, BEETS or CAULIFLOWER offer a choice. Vary the colors and textures of the vegetables. Diced carrots or turnips are best when mashed potatoes or squash are on the menu. Green beans or beets put zip into the main course when mashed rutabagas are served.

CRANBERRIES, now quite plentiful, are an important item for the National feast. If you want to switch from the usual sauce or jelly, you may serve cranberries in juice, sherbet, salad, relish or steamed pudding dessert.

year when having a turkey alternate, put your best stuffing into a DUCK or CHICKEN or shoulder of veal. With plenty of brown gravy, your main dish will go over with a bang.

Vary the STUFFING in flavor and texture by including half a cup of salted peanuts, chopped prunes or sausage meat to each four cups of stuffing. Allow about a cup of stuffing per serving. Bake any extra in a casserole and pass with the "seconds."

POTATOES are now abundant, so have mounds of fluffy mashed whites or yellow sweets. And there is a wide assortment of other vegetables. CARROTS (if sweet potatoes are not served),

What do you like about Coffee

Strength?

DOWN HERE in the Southwest we have several schools of thought on coffee. Some graduates insist the best coffee is strong, black, and hot. Others prefer it light and delicate, flavored with cream and sugar. Or sugar alone. Then there's the minority who are content any which way—just so long a saucer accompanies the cup! It doesn't matter which school you support. Admiration is blended to accommodate all tastes. It has sufficient heavy bodied coffees to enable anyone to make a "strong" cup. By using less coffee, a lighter brew of course can be made. In neither instance is there a sacrifice of Admiration's wonderful aroma and flavor.

LAMOFILM—THE PERFECT PROTECTION

Buy Admiration in the Lamofilm Package. This specially designed container, thrice sealed against flavor loss—(moisture, air, and deterioration of freshness)—gives you vacuum-pack protection. All the goodness of Admiration's famed blend is locked in at the roasting plant. And it stays in too! You'll instantly observe this when you open a new package. How? By the generous, fragrant aroma that will flood the room.

FOR FIFTEEN MINUTES OF FUN, Tune in PARKER WILLSON and His Coffee Grinders, 12:30 Noon Weekdays, Lone Star Chain.

Furloughed Soldier Runs Into Hard Luck

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., Nov. 18 (AP)—Pfc. Lewis Vik of Hennepin, Minn., looked forward, as any soldier would, to a week's furlough home from Fort Bliss, Tex. But then hard luck struck and this is what happened:

His train was snowbound five days last week at Sanborn, Minn. When the drifts were cleared and he resumed his journey his train collided with another and there was additional delay.

Then he lost his ticket and had to buy another.

Once home he wired the camp for an extension of furlough, but no answer came and he started back.

Five hours after he began the return journey a telegram came granting the extension.

Private Vik's remarks are not quotable.

Bulls-eye—Indeed, bulls-eye is the word to describe the accuracy of Lieut. R. C. Ryan, bombardier aboard a Liberator which recently sank a Jap destroyer north of New Guinea. The bomber was about to pass up what appeared to be a reef when anti-aircraft fire drew it back. After two hours of maneuvering in order to get a run on the enemy warship, Lieut. Ryan "laid his egg"—a 1,000-pound bomb—squarely on the destroyer, sinking it. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ryan of Cleveland, Ohio, Lieut. Ryan received his wings and commission at the Big Spring Bombardier School with class 43-4 on March 11 of this year.

November Campaign Shows Guard Growth

AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Strength of the Texas State Guard will be increased to more than 25,000 officers and men as a result of the recruiting campaign conducted during state guard week Nov. 7-13, Adjutant General Arthur Knickerbocker believes.

Knickerbocker said final reports were not in but that they were expected to show an increase of nearly 10,000 members in the state's military force.

Before the campaign the guard contained 16,000 officers and men, he said.

State agricultural experiment stations receive $4,620,500 in federal funds in 1942.

ACC Ex-Studes To Gather At Church For Program

The Big Spring chapter of the Abilene Christian College Ex-Students' association, one of the largest in the entire state, will join Monday at 8:30 p. m. in the college's unique homecoming by radio.

Meeting at the Church of Christ for a banquet affair, the Big Spring chapter will listen to the program being broadcast by several stations, including Abilene and Lubbock, and which will include music by the band, a capella chorus, a brief address by Don H. Morris, president, and a statement by Ernest Finley, president of the student's association.

The local affair will be under the direction of J. B. Collins, who is president of the board of trustees for ACC. Program arrangements are in charge of a committee of Louise Holden, Katherine Malloy and Eddyth Wilson.

It is probable that a successor to Jack Daugherty, who served as president of the Big Spring unit until he moved from the city, will be named as will other officers. All exes in this immediate territory are being urged to attend, and those in adjacent cities where there are no ACC ex-student's association are being invited.

Cold Weather Comes Later Than in 1932 According to Record

Sensitive citizens, with fresh memories of tumbling out Nov. 8 and 9 into frigid temperatures of 26 degrees, are hard to convince that this year's first frost was not the earliest on record.

It was earlier, but by no means the earliest. According to statistics compiled by F. E. Keating, superintendent of the U. S. Experiment Farm, since 1930 the average earliest frost was on November 13. The latest spring frost averages April 2.

In 1932 the earliest killing weather came on October 25 following an early spring with the last frost recorded on March 30.

Again in 1936 the earliest killing frost was on November 2 with the latest spring frost for that year recorded on April 7. Cold weather also came a little earlier in 1958 on November 6 with the latest recorded on April 9.

Since 1930 the latest killing frost on record is March 11, 1935, with the earliest in 1932 on October 25.

AUSTIN, Nov. 18 (AP)—Advising Texas mothers to safeguard children against winter's health hazards, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, emphasized the dangers of diseases affecting the respiratory system.

"Respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments prevalent in summer," Cox added.
