PLAINS TURN GREEN--WHEAT YIELD LOOMS

BUILDING CONTINUING AT FAIRGROUNDS PARK

A rain is just a rain, however welcome. A rainy "spell" in the Panhandle is something else. Current precipitation is now definitely a spell. A spell unusual that moisture sinks deeply into the ground, forming the sub-soil "season" which, more than any other kind of moisture, "holds" a crop.

Slowly falling rains, followed by mist, dews, and cloudy days, have filled terraces on the farms of Gray county. They have not washed them out as sometimes occurs. Pastures, too, in some instances have been terraced. County Agent Ralph Thomas this morning said that those who have terraced their pastures are greatly pleased by the results. More extensive terracing of these lands will be the result.

Ten rainy and cloudy days have made city dwellers just a bit weary of the drastic change in the weather. Farmers, while happily noting the splendid condition of their fields, are eager to start plowing and planting. Some wheat that is very late on the ground will be plowed under to conform with the new farm program. Planting of row crops and cotton is under way in the south half of the county. In a few instances, cotton is already coming through the ground.

Country Greens Up

While rains are expected at this time of any year, the prolonged wet period is somewhat unusual and is more likely to be productive of bumper row crops when followed by occasional later rains. After such a drenching, the plains show a remarkable growth of crops and all vegetation.

Ranges which have been brown or fairly green have suddenly taken on the appearance of a well-kept lawn, well coated with patches of yellow flowers of the prickly pear. The yucca, or "bear grass," also is in flower. The second flowering of yellow plants of the prairie is also beginning, along with blossoming of some blue and red flowers.

Showers fell intermittently over the plains yesterday. Late Tuesday, Pampa received one-tenth of an inch. A similar shower fell early today. Even a smaller shower, falling on soaked highways, makes traffic difficult and chains advisable on motor vehicles. A door project, including all of the WPA projects, have been stopped by the rains.

Work Between Showers

Vital progress on the new grandstand and fences at the fairground park is being made between showers. Seats have been provided for 2,000 persons. All of the main supporting posts for the stands have been placed except four, and bracing completed for all but twelve. Eventually, the stands will seat about 3,500 persons. Box seats will not be completed in time for use during the Panhandle Centennial here June 2-5.

Further consideration of improvements at the park will be given by the city commission in a session tonight. Monday evening's meeting was postponed because of the absence of Mayor W. A. Bratton, who spent several days near Eagle Nest, N. M.

Cessation of the rains would be welcomed by the Centennial committee. The race track, recently shaped out of dry earth, is very soft and is under water in two places. The low spots will be drained. A couple of days of warm sunshine would be welcomed by all those who are using the newly graded drives within the grounds.

Court Foes of NRA Are 'Broke'

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 27 (AP)—The four Schechter brothers observed today the first anniversary of their triumph in the Supreme Court "sleek chicken" case that killed NRA by disclosing they are "broke."

The four brothers, Aaron, Alex, Martin, and Joseph Schechter, who spent $20,000 and went into debt $40,000 more to win their case were in no mood to celebrate. They were prosperous poultry dealers a year ago.

Their father, David, is about to lose the home in which he has lived for 15 years through foreclosure. Joseph, the oldest brother, who led the fight against the NRA, is out of a job.

Aaron and Alex are operating a small retail poultry store. Martin is a $25 clerk in another small poultry store. The Schechters' once thriving live poultry store, which was doing a prosperous wholesale business when the NRA case came up, is closed.

TOWNSEND CONTEMPT IS ADVISED

HOUSE GROUP VOTES 6 TO 2 TO PUNISH HIM

RECOMMEND CASE BE TURNED OVER TO PROSECUTOR

BY SCOTT HERSHEY, Associated Press Staff Writer. WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—A House investigating committee today voted six to two to recommend to the House that Dr. F. E. Townsend and two of his old age pension organization aides be cited for contempt and the case turned over to the United States district attorney.

The committee recommended that the Rev. Clinton Wunder of New York and J. B. Kiefer of Chicago be cited with Dr. Townsend for their failure to appear for examination as ordered in subpoenas.

Rep. Tolson (D., Calif.) and Collins (D., Calif.) voted against the contempt citation recommendation. They also voted against referring the case to the federal court instead of trying it in the House.

Dr. Townsend, founder of the movement to pay $200 a month from the federal treasury to everyone past 60, "walked out" on the committee several days ago. Afterward he instructed Kiefer, Wunder and other assistants to join him in refusing to answer the investigators' questions.

Chairman Bell (D., Mo.) and Rep. Gavagan (D., N. Y.), Lucas (D., Ill.), Hollister (R., O.), Ditter (R., Pa.) and Hoffman (R., Mich.) voted for the contempt recommendation as well as in favor of referring the case to the United States district attorney for the District of Columbia.

No action was taken against Sheridan Downey, attorney for Dr. Townsend, who was summoned as a witness last night and answered with a defiant letter to the committee challenging it to "punitive action."

Bell said it had not been decided when the contempt resolution would be submitted to the House but indicated it would be Friday at the latest.

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP)—Challenging "punitive action," Sheridan Downey, attorney for Dr. Townsend, today filed a motion to quash the contempt resolution.

Playground Ball Games and Pie Supper Delayed

Rain this morning caused postponement of the playground ball games and the pie supper scheduled for tonight at the Skelly Schafer gasoline plant northwest of Pampa. Announcement of the new date will be made later, probably for some night the week of June 8.

Local chambers of commerce will sponsor a goodwill trip to the event at the future date. Proceeds from the sale of pies will go toward improving the athletic field near the plant and the turning of it into a community playground.

Andrew Walker, student at Oklahoma City university, arrived here yesterday to spend the summer months.

Council Scouts Will Be Visited By Mack Graham

Boy Scout troops, their scoutmasters and scouters of the Adobe Walls council will be given a personal invitation to attend the Panhandle Centennial celebration on Boy Scout day, June 2, by Mack Graham, today and tomorrow. Mr. Graham, chairman of the Council activities committee, was named general chairman of the Cavalcade, parade and other Scout events.

Mr. Graham will drive to White Deer, Panhandle, Borger, Perryton, Spearman, Perryton, Wellington, Wheeler, Canadian, Whittenburg, and will interview scouters in those towns and urge them to bring their Scouts to the Panhandle's greatest scouting show.

Already, Mr. Graham said, troops from Borger, McLean, Morse, Higgins, Hooker, White Deer, Wellington have agreed to participate in the celebration.

Meanwhile, Scouts of the city are making plans to produce the Cavalcade of Scouting Tuesday and to march in a costumed parade, led by Governor Allred and Ranger Captain J. W. McCormick, in the afternoon.

Spurns Liberty

Though his Liberal party long has demanded independence for Puerto Rico, Antonio Barcelo, above, flew to Washington to protest freedom of the territory under the terms of Senator Tydings' recently proposed bill. The measure, under which liberated Puerto Ricans would pay full duty on their exports to America, would ruin the islanders. Liberal party leaders said recently.

MRS. HOUSTON WILL BE GUEST AT CENTENNIAL

Temple's Widow Will Come to Pampa June 2-5

Mrs. Temple Houston, wife of the now deceased famous Panhandle lawyer, who was a son of General Sam Houston, will be a guest of honor at the Panhandle Centennial celebration here June 2-5.

Mrs. Houston, who lives at Woodward, Okla., was extended several invitations, including a personal one by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Powell of Pampa. She will go from here downstate, where other honors will be given her during the Texas Centennial.

Well remembered by Judge Newton P. Willis and other lawyers of long residence is Temple Houston and his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston located in Old Mobeetie about 1881. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Houston was appointed by Governor Roberts to be the second district attorney of the Panhandle District to succeed J. N. Browning, resigned. This position he held for one and one-half years after, which he resigned to resume private practice. In 1884, he was elected senator in the state legislature for the Panhandle district. This position he held until 1888.

Judge Willis said Mr. Houston as a lawyer enjoyed a wide practice over not only the Panhandle, but also portions of adjoining states. He was noted for his culture, his education, and his gentle manners. He was an orator of unusual ability and a finished linguist who could sway audiences and juries with his speech. His remarkable memory enabled him to quote literature.

VISITING SHIPS ARE EXPECTED TO NUMBER 50

FIVE LUBBOCK PLANES ARE ENTERED ON TUESDAY

The Texas Eagle club, Pampa's air-minded organization, is flying high with plans for the air show during next week's Panhandle Centennial celebration here. Twenty-three members met last night in the city hall and completed plans for the giant air show which will be staged the afternoon of June 2.

A ticket selling campaign will be undertaken by the members, with five gallons of aviation gasoline going to the best salesman. Admission will be 40 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Club members will also sell ride tickets during the four days of the celebration.

Between 35 and 50 ships are expected to be here to compete in the various events to be staged on opening afternoon. Most of them will remain for the duration of the celebration.

Judging in the model air plane contest will take place on Tuesday afternoon. Entries will be for three types of ships and two prizes will be awarded in each division. First prize in each section will be double airplane rides with second prize single rides. Winners will be allowed to select ship and pilot.

Visiting and local flyers will be given a Dutch lunch at 8 o'clock Monday night in the basement of the city hall.

Planes for the air races will be erected Saturday. Changes necessary for association of visiting ships will be made in the landing fields. The municipal field will be used for spectators with all events taking place on the government auxiliary field.

Entry of five ships from Lubbock swelled the list yesterday. The Lubbock fliers and their ships will be: Art L. Chase, flying a Great Lakes Cirrus trainer; Clint Breedlove, flying a Taylor Cub; J. H. York, flying a Taylor Cub; M. F. Dagley, flying an OX 5 Robin; A. H. Holt, flying an OX 5 Travelair; Ray Shifflet of Mangum Okla., also entered.

Funds Allocated For Borger Road

Funds will be allocated at Washington, D. C., for work on the Borger-Pampa road, it has been learned by the Pampa B. C. D. While the amount provided has not been learned, it is believed that the only obstacles now are finding relief labor to do the work, and completing the right-of-way.

The funds are allocated in two funds. The first is to build the road from Borger to the Hutchinson county line, the second from that line to Skellytown. About 7 miles of dirt road now is not included in the first allocations.

It is believed that the highway department and district relief headquarters will take immediate steps to start the first unit of the project.

People You Know

(BY A. F.)
The woman who is kind and good and humane, therefore beautiful, called softly, "Come here a moment; I want to see you! . . . will you do something for me? I don't want you to say anything about it, but if you have a boy in your troop, or know of a boy who can't buy a swimming pool ticket, I want to buy him a season ticket. . . . I think every little old boy should have a chance to swim whether he has the money or not. And I just want to buy some boy who cannot afford one, a season swimming ticket."

She was the fourth woman within two weeks who said practically the same thing, and all were working women, counting pennies. Yet, each knows that nothing is as cheap as the price of a secret, good deed.

County Has 34th Birthday

Thirty-four years ago today, what is now Gray county cut the legal knot which for several years had bound her to Roberts county, and organized a new county with Geo. H. Saunders as county judge and Siler Faulkner as county clerk.

And then, as now, it rained. About 9 inches of rain fell within a few days in 1902, and Mr. Faulkner recalled today that the prairies were so soft that horses feet sank 6 or 7 inches in the turf.

The county seat was placed at LeFors, which was no town at the time, because of the strong rivalry between McLean and Alameda communities. Alameda was the larger, while McLean had just a few houses and Pampa almost none. Earlier, Roberts county had been attached to Wheeler county for judicial purposes and Gray was part of the same area.

Into THE NEWS office this week came Geo. D. Johns, who married Nettie V. Renner October 1, 1902 as the first couple wed in the county after its organization. Mr. Faulkner.

TALKS OF TWO GOVERNORS TO BE BROADCAST

Speeches To Be Made From Marquee of LaNora

Two governors will speak at Pampa during the Panhandle Centennial celebration, and both speeches will be broadcast by KPDN the high fidelity voice of the Pampa Daily NEWS.

Governor James V. Allred will officially open the celebration at 11 a. m. June 2, speaking from the marquee of La Nora theater. He will be introduced by Judge Newton P. Willis.

On Thursday, June 4—instead of Friday as previously set—Governor Clyde Tingley of New Mexico will speak from the same place. The time of this speech will be 10:30 a. m. While Governor Tingley will come the

SANTA FE TO SEND PEEWEE TRAIN TO FETE

FAMED MINIATURE TO RUN ON STREET IN PARADE

A unique miniature train will be the Santa Fe railroad's contribution to relics displayed at the Panhandle Centennial here June 2-5, it was announced by W. E. Goodloe of Amarillo and O. T. Hendrix, local agent.

This little train of five units, about 100 feet long, will appear in parade on June 4 and 5. It will operate under its own power. It comes from Topeka, where it was made in the Santa Fe shops. Figures in the diner, baggage-mail car, observation car, and Pullman add to the realism of the exhibit. The train is about 6 feet high, is rubber-tired and will run on the street.

Guyton, Okla., citizens have written that twenty cars will be driven to the Panhandle Centennial. There will be a band, a girls' trio, a float carrying a pioneer queen and another float carrying three couples married in 1884. These three pioneer brides were especially invited by Mrs. Grace Pool of the B. & P. W. club.

Clarendon will send two bands. W. Irwin, district Ford official, expects to send a 1903 Ford for one or more parades. Borger and Vernon chambers of commerce have pledged their cooperation.

The relics committee, including Jesse Wynne and Jack Back, is very active. Yesterday Mrs. Joe Gordon, Mrs. Sherman White, Mrs. H. L. Wilder, Mrs. DeLea Vicars, Mrs. A. H. Doucette, and Mrs. J. B. Austin received and checked in many relics at the jury room of the courthouse, which today looks like the interior of an antique shop. There are antiques from England, France, and other European countries, as well as relics from our own Panhandle area.

There is a picture of the first couple married in Gray county, old saddles, antique dresses, blankets, old pictures of Miami, McLean, Pampa, and other Panhandle towns, newspapers, shotguns, pistols, and many other things. One of the most interesting relics is a mud-stone which was taken from the head of

Evacuation Plan For 'Dust Bowl' Received Coldly

New Mexico, Kansas Officials Hoot At Scheme

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 27 (AP)—The late proposal to clear farmers out of the dust country in a long-time reclamation project ran into another cool reception today in the Oklahoma Panhandle, recently drenched by hope-saving rains.

"Evacuation"—old stuff," retorted one in the heart of the blow lands, and another replied that he and his neighbors proposed to rely on the "gumption" that enabled them to remain through five dusty years and count on more.

A plan to try for state control of the windblown acres, announced by Vice Chairman F. L. Vaughan of the Oklahoma Soil Conservation commission, was greeted by opposition from two New Mexico and Kansas officials and some sympathy from one in Colorado.

Vaughan said complete evacuation of rural sections would be recommended to the next state legislature, the plan calling for no resort to force but offering "inducements to move to greener fields," to make way for a 10-year fight against soil erosion.

The New Mexico state land commissioner, Frank Vesely, described the evacuation proposal as "ridiculous" and "too extreme," saying "it is not possible, nor practical, and even in its theory, questionable."

At Denver, Director Edward D. Foster of the Colorado Planning commission said the next legislature might be asked to prevent "misuse" of prairie lands and resultant dust.

Plan now to attend the Panhandle Centennial celebration at Pampa June 2, 3, 4, and 5, with which is combined a Pioneer's Roundup and Oil Men's Reunion. It is a GREATER celebration for the whole Panhandle.

Twinkles

If good looks help folks to get jobs, all these high school graduates we see pictured in the papers are going to give the jobless some powerful new competition.

No, we're not worried about the Centennial rivalry of Dallas and Fort Worth. We must amuse, as well as instruct, our visitors.

Aerial cameramen are going to map the dust bowl. More foolishness. These rains have washed the dust out of the air and it is no longer necessary to fly in order to check all the soil.

The youth movement is called the best route to peace. You wouldn't think so while attending a Young Democratic club convention.

It has come to the point in this country that when there is a highway accident part of the victims go to a hospital or morgue and the rest go to jail.

Musing of the moment: A glass of milk at 4 p. m. is great to relieve "that" feeling. . . . Milk accounts for more than 25 per cent of the 1,500 pounds of food eaten each year by the average American family. It is the farmer's largest single source of income. Twenty-five million cows on 5,000,000 farms provide this milk. Only 4 per cent of the milk is canned, 33 per cent is used for butter, 5 per cent for cheese, 2 per cent for ice cream.

Brevitorials

IT IS TRULY remarkable what a good rain and a few days of sunshine will do here on the plains. Growth of green things is positively startling. The hills are green, the valley are yellow. And when we refer to yellow we are reminded that we made a mental note yesterday to tell you that the cacti and yucca are blooming. The lowly prickly pear and the common yucca are neither lowly nor common when in full bloom, as they are now. The pear is a self-effacing plant in winter, obscure against the barren earth, and in summer its green blends with the grass. But now its rich flowering provides bright patches on the plains and sandhills—in far greater abundance than you would imagine.

In looking at a prickly pear, one can see that it has that "sustained courage" one hears so much about, but in this instance nature has provided a thick hide, a water reserve, the capacity virtually to hibernate during dry spells, and spines to discourage stock from devouring it. . . . The terrapin, burrowing at the root of a cacti for its meager shelter, also displays courage and an armored defense. . . . The human pioneers have melted with age. They present a flexible and pleasant personality. But underneath one suspects that their hide is tough against adversity, and while usually tranquil, they are spiny enough when aroused.

MORE AND MORE, Mexico is news. Completion of the Laredo-Mexico City highway, now a matter of a few weeks, will launch a movement of tourists which will rival that to California in a few years. The Centennial will provide acceleration. Tourists will learn, and will tell their friends, that Mexico City is "Europe in America," and unlike any other place within motoring distance.

It appears that every time an American goes to Mexico, he writes a book. WORDS is an exception, although he wrote half a small book in this column after his summer's trip. The MacMillan company shortly will bring out "Mexican Interlude," a lively yarn which is the story of a newspaperman's trip by motor from Laredo to Mexico City. It deals principally with the hospitality and courtesy of the Mexican people.

BUT COURTESY in Mexico is rather an empty thing in the

MULTIPLICITY OF GOVERNMENTS

The public has been aware of the formation of the lobbies surrounding legislative halls. These are sometimes referred to as "third houses."

With little acclaim and as little notice, another form of government-within-a-government has been established. It is based on the interstate compacts, a number of which are in existence. The largest is the Council of State Governments, which seeks cooperation between states as a means for forestalling federal encroachment on state functions.

When federal authority was said to include interstate commerce, the way was paved for regulation of nearly all business. Only if the states, by combining in groups having common interests, can perform some very necessary functions can centralization of authority—any decline of states—be slowed. These steps are not new, having been made as early as 1787.

Diversity of state laws makes an act legal in one and illegal in another. State lines abruptly dissolve the authority of state officials. In pursuit of criminals, for instance, these lines are troublesome. Federal officers, observing no such restrictions, have an advantage in crime detection.

The new plan would remove this and similar restrictions by agreements within states. And here, again, constitutionality may be questioned. Yet cooperation as between states seems to be the only barrier to an eventual breakdown of state government. Oil legislation must be made more uniform, rivers traversing several states must be controlled, criminals must be caught. Thus, through a new federation within the Union, we are struggling with a not-yet-perfect democracy.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Harry Hopkins came off unscathed from his appearance before the House appropriations subcommittee, considering the administration request for $1,500,000,000 more for WPA. That was because nobody had any ammunition to shoot at him.

The record, now public shows that this fast-talking head of the vast WPA organization was armed with an overwhelming array of facts, figures, tables, and charts while the hostile committee members, in no position to dispute this evidence, could explode only a few pop-guns in the form of isolated incidents which previously had been hashed and rehashed in Congress and the press.

Hopkins' large research and statistical staff had prepared all the answers and anyone who wanted to check over the WPA program would have needed a more or less similar staff of his own.

When Hopkins pointed out that WPA had 170,000 projects and that only 100 or 150 had been held up to public gaze as horrible examples of "boondoggling" or waste—which he insisted was a good record—none could say him nay.

But Hopkins went on farther to insist that in most instances even those criticisms were unjustified.

Defending the WPA white-collar program, he asserted that nearly all its projects had been sponsored by communities, which in many cases were bearing a large part of the cost. He answered a number of specific project criticisms as follows:

Complaint that $50,000 was allocated to make bridle paths more attractive for horsemen in Borough of Queens, New York. Hopkins: Project was sponsored by New York and Long Island park authorities as detail of long-needed park improvement program and only $20,000 was allotted.

Complaint that rat extermination project in Cleveland, O., was just so much "boondoggling." Hopkins: Cleveland Food and Drug Administration, sponsor, estimates at least 100,000 rats have been killed by 350,000 poisoned baits set by WPA workers. Federal health authorities estimate each rat causes average of $2 damage a year, meaning the city is saved a potential damage of $200,000 at a federal cost of $8,869.

Complaint that road costing WPA $81,611 was to be built between Skull Valley and Yava, Ariz., because 80 residents of Skull Valley and 75 of Yava sometimes visited one another and found the road too rough. Hopkins: County board of supervisors contributed $13,365 to this project. Road serves large cattle, goat, and mining districts, three school districts, numerous farms.

Complaint that expenditure of $4,368 to renovate books in Louisville, Ky., libraries was more "boondoggling." Hopkins: This employs an average of seven women otherwise unemployable who in four months mended 4,245 books, made 2,084 magazine covers, and perforated, pocketed, labeled, and stamped 2,406 books.

Hopkins could go on like that indefinitely. His point was that, even though administration is sometimes criticized, hardly anybody ever opposes a WPA project when it's in his own home town.

Q. Why is rice paper used for cigarette wrappers? J. J. G.
A. The paper used on most of the popular brands of cigarettes contains lime and magnesia as a filler. Such wrappers seem to have an important effect in causing the cigarette to hold fire when lighted. While commonly known as rice paper, this paper is not made from rice, but from flax and hemp trimmings, only new material being used. The flax and hemp are cut into small particles, thoroughly mixed and ground almost to a dust. This mixture is put through a washing process, crushed into a pulp, and rolled out into paper.

Q. Is Hirohito, Emperor of Japan, wealthy? H. S.
A. The emperor is said to be the largest landowner in the world. He has a palace in his empire. With four million acres of land, many houses, farms, and cattle, as well as stock in the Bank of Japan, the South Manchurian railway and the Imperial hotel of Tokyo, his wealth is estimated at half a billion dollars.

Q. Where is Gaines' Mill? H. J.
A. It is near Old Cold Harbor, about 10 miles northeast of Richmond, Va., and was the site of the second of the Seven Days' Battles in the Civil War.

Q. Please define a college, N. S.
A college, as defined by the National Conference Committee on Standards of Colleges and Secondary Schools, is an institution requiring for admission graduation from a standard secondary school, or the equivalent, and offering a four-year curriculum leading to the first degree in arts or science, of such character as to qualify for admission to a graduate school of recognized standing.

Q. Why is a space left between railroad rails? M. A.
A. It is left in order to allow for changes in the lengths of the rails due to extremes of cold in winter and of heat in summer. This is what is known as expansion opening.

Q. Is the Little Grandmother of the Russian revolution living? C. D.
A. Catherine Breshkovsky died in 1934 at the age of 90. Daughter of a Russian noble she devoted her life to the welfare of Russian peasants.

Q. Did Easter egg-rolling originate in Washington, D. C.? F. H.
A. Egg-rolling is an ancient custom. According to some authorities it originated in Mesopotamia and was a part of the religious observance of the Easter festival.

Q. What was the average of slaves on a plantation before the Civil War? H. C. L.
A. Such a figure is not available. The number on a plantation varied according to the wealth of the owner and the size of the plantation. In 1854 Martin W. Phillips wrote (in reference to South Carolina): "We now have in this estate 1,168 acres of land; on the place, 66 negroes, 20 work horses or mules, and 3 yoke of choice oxen. We plant 270 or 280 acres in cotton and 125 acres in corn. We send to the field 34 negroes. We have one carpenter and one woman who cooks for the field hands."

Q. Where is Jenny Lind buried? G. D.
A. She died in Malvern, England, November 2, 1887, and was buried in the Malvern cemetery.

Q. What became of the son of Pocahontas? D. E. K.
A. Pocahontas left one son, Thomas Rolfe, who was educated by his uncle, Henry Rolfe, in England. Thomas Rolfe afterward went to Virginia where he acquired wealth and distinction, leaving at his death an only daughter.

Q. Who is called the father of American fish culture? A. M. J.
A. Seton Green (1817-88) is sometimes so called. He is credited with making fish breeding practical on a large scale.

Q. How many dogs are trained to lead the blind at the Seeing Eye? R. C. G.
A. The school at Morristown, N. J., has, since 1929, trained and distributed 200 German shepherd dogs.

Q. What is the real name of All Baba, the wrestler? S. H. H.
A. The holder of the world's wrestling championship is named Arteen Ekizian. He is a Turk.

Q. Did the American officer who carried the message to Garcia receive a decoration for bravery from the American government? P. I. K.

A. In 1922, he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross by Secretary of War Weeks for bravery in action. Major Rowan has made his home in California since his voluntary retirement from active military service in December, 1909.

Q. How many courses in radio are given by American colleges? H. F.
A. According to American Universities and Colleges, in 1933, there were over 400 college courses in radio, largely in college engineering and technical courses.

SENATOR CONNALLY TO LEAD DELEGATES TO PHILADELPHIA

SAN ANTONIO, May 27 (AP)—Texas will be represented at the democratic national convention by a delegation instructed to cast its 46 votes as a unit for the renomination of President Roosevelt and Vice President Garner.

In addition to choosing 84 district delegates, 16 delegates-at-large, and 16 alternates, the state convention yesterday reaffirmed allegiance to the President and the doctrine of states rights, renominated Garner as national committeeman and voted for retention of the two-thirds rule for nominating Presidents.

A resolution declared the opponents of the Roosevelt policies were attempting to belittle the issues and confuse the electorate by charging the democratic administration with seeking to contravene the constitution and nullify the principles of states rights.

"We know and assert there is no more sincere adherent of democratic principles than our President and Vice President," the resolution said.

"We also know there are no more earnest champions of the rights of individual states than Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Nance Garner and the doctrine of the right of the several states to control their internal affairs represents the conviction of the democracy of Texas."

It asserted confidence in the vigilance of the Texas congressional representation to protect against any attempt to diminish the authority of the state over its internal affairs regardless of the source of such an effort.

Garner Renominated.

"We feel safe," it concluded, "to rest our case with the President, our Senators and Representatives with full faith and confidence that the liberty of our institutions and the freedom of our actions will be preserved in accordance with the principles of Jefferson and the tenets of the democratic party."

There was no opposition to the renomination of Garner as national committeeman, but the so-called "two years ago" to compose factional differences. Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Corpus Christi was renominated as national committeewoman after a brief tilt with Mrs. W. D. Ambrose of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Ambrose was defeated by a rising vote. The other candidates were Mrs. Fannie Campbell Womack of Palestine, Mrs. Harold Abrams of Dallas, and Mrs. Frances Haskell Edmondson of San Antonio, withdrew.

Pursuing a determined course of harmony, the democrats avoided any passing interest in the convention's lone floor fight, a dispute over a resolution endorsing ratification of the child labor amendment.

Proponents of the proposed change in the federal constitution, led by Everett Looney of Austin, won both in the committee and on the floor. Wearily at the convention end, delegates boomed speakers and shouted "Let's vote," only a comparative handful remained.

Holbrook Is Critic.

Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, critic of the deal, directed to the amendment numerous times in the senate. E. A. Simpson of Amarillo, who presented an adverse minority report, contended it was purely a state matter, and as such should be excluded from the presidential convention, inasmuch as it was before the legislatures of the states for ratification.

Delegates listened to monotonous reading of other resolutions and shouted approving "ayes." Among the dozen resolutions were two on peace. One urged mutual reduction in armaments and limitation on manufacture of war arms. The other favored tighter neutrality laws, limitation of military and naval appropriations and conscription of resources as well as manpower in time of war.

The democratic adopted one in favor of farmers, urging legislation to obtain parity prices. Continuation of federal highway aid was approved in another.

U. S. Senator Tom Connally of Marlin received the honor of leading Texas' delegates to the national convention. Tully Garner of Uvalde, the Vice President's son, was elected vice chairman, and Paul L. Wakfield of Austin, secretary.

Other delegates-at-large included Governor James V. Allred, Rep. Sam Rayburn of Bonham, keynoter of the convention; Mrs. Cecil Smith of Sherman; Roy Miller of Corpus Christi; Mrs. W. L. Clayton of Houston; Karl A. Crowley of Fort Worth; Mrs. W. B. Edmondson of San Antonio; Mrs. Womack; Jesse H. Jones of Houston; Murrell Buckner of Dallas; E. W. Morrison of San Antonio; Walter Woodward of Coleman; John Shary of Sharyland; Joe Steadham of Fort Worth, and Myron Blalock of Marshall.

Presidential electors were, by congressional districts:

1. Joe Pollard of Paris; 2. L. E. Lea of Orange; 3. E. A. Thompson of Mineola; 4. Wallace H. Hightower of McKinney; 5. Harold Young of Dallas; 6. George Stallworthy of Groesbeck; 7. A. A. Aldridge of Crockett; 8. J. De Lang of Houston; 9. Fred Fehrenkamp of Moulton; 10. C. T. Bass of San Marcos; 11. V. C. Marshall of Heidenheimer; 12. Ward Bankhead of Weatherford; 13. R. J. (Bob) Edwards of Denton; 14. N. M. Crain of Cuero; 15. E. H. Longley; 16. Henry Moore of El Paso; 17. Bill St. John of Cisco; 18. R. E. Underwood of Amarillo; 19. Sam Richardson of Lamesa; 20. James A. Harley of San Antonio; and 21. C. L. McCarty of Brownwood.

POLITICS at random

BY BYRON PRICE, Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington.

Politics is a perplexing business, under any circumstances, but seldom does it bring together so many bewildering elements as now are heading for the republican convention at Cleveland. If half that is being whispered comes true, the party's June show will deserve high rank among the mystery dramas of all time.

This can be said without reflecting in the least on the claims and predictions of any candidate or his managers. Whatever the final outcome, a surprising array of subterfuge elements exist, and only the convention can clear the situation.

Claims and Counter-Claims.

There is the candidacy of Governor Landon, which he himself never has conceded to be a candidacy at all, but for which great strength is claimed among delegates who publicly are saying nothing.

There are the counter-claims of the managers for Col. Knox, who predict a sudden emergence of Knox sentiment among these same non-delegate delegates.

There is the case of Senator Borah, whose supporters see him as the spokesman of the masses of republican voters and whose real intentions with respect to the convention have been a subject of wide-spread and earnest conjecture.

There is the problem of former President Hoover, talked of mysteriously among his friends as having a silent following in many state delegations, ready to carry out his wishes, whatever they may turn out to be.

There is the extraordinary mysterious string of dark horses, ranging from one or two who have been whispered of nationally for many months as real prospects, to others who scarcely have been heard of outside their own states and still others whose friends claim no delegates at all.

Few Delegates Instructed

Finally, there is the encompassing fact that, so far as recorded orders from the voters are concerned, the convention will be free to end the show any way it likes.

Most of the delegates have now been chosen. Not only is the overwhelming majority uninstructed, but a warm dispute is in progress as to what they really are thinking about and intending to do.

In most previous convention years it has been possible for disinterested observers to make up a fairly dependable table showing the relative standing of the contestants. This year the rival managers are making the tables, but they are leaving out many details, and the results are highly contradictory.

Two great blocs of delegates, in particular, are variously claimed, and all sorts of rumors are in circulation as to who, if anybody, controls them, and what will be done with them.

One is an eastern bloc, including such important states as New York and Pennsylvania. The other comprises virtually all of the south. Together, these two groups easily could control the nomination. But can they get together? Is it more than an accident that they both go uninstructed, and if so who pulled the strings?

Somebody Is Wrong.

Obviously all of the conjectures and all of the predictions cannot be right.

Somebody is riding to a big surprise. Some of the things which now appear large and important in the public eye will fade out inevitably into phantoms.

The mere knowledge that this is true adds to the atmosphere of unreality which begins to envelop the republican picture as convention time nears. It is like watching a regiment march into a battle from which many are certain never to return alive.

Hoover, Borah, Knox, Landon, Vandenberg — many names with which the public has lived on intimate terms are sure to be far bigger names or far smaller names after the mists have lifted and the myths have been exploded at Cleveland.

Chapter 17 NIGHT CHASE

Dirk glanced at the watch on his wrist. It was exactly two o'clock. He was curious, and did not turn out of the intersecting street, which ended opposite his gates, but, dimming his lights, drew up to the curb and waited. Perhaps the woman would see him. Perhaps not. At any rate, it was not in his direction she had signaled.

She appeared not to see him. A car came presently past the gates, and halted some twenty feet below. The figure emerged from the shadow and went swiftly toward it. In the light of the car lamps Dirk saw Hope's face, and, as the cape fell back, her snow-white satin gown. She stepped into the car, and was gone.

Dirk, too, was gone. He could not stop her, perhaps, but he could follow. Whatever her errand, she should not go alone. The car in which she rode—a black-and-green taxi, a pirate taxi—was flying toward the south. Dirk flew silently after it, through the empty streets.

The green taxi entered Broadway, flew through Yonkers into Manhattan. There, at Dyckman Street, it turned into Riverside Drive where all traffic signals were suspended at this hour. At Seventy-second Street it mounted the speedway, racing like mad to Fifty-seventh, and there serpentine eastward, avoiding pauses for red lights.

In the west Forties, near Sixth Avenue, it drew to the curb before a brown stone dwelling that still housed a fashionable speak-easy. For the fraction of a second it paused while a man who had been waiting in the shadow of the basement steps came out and stepped aboard.

Dirk saw him as he came, slim and dapper and quick. The door of the taxi closed behind him, and the driver turned with the traffic into Fifth Avenue. There he was forced to pause, and Dirk, pausing too, drew his car abreast of the taxi.

It had been his intention, if such a situation occurred, to speak to Hope, to take her aboard his own car, and accompany her wherever she might be bound. Since the new passenger had come aboard, however, he had abandoned such an idea. He had even a feeling that he should cease following her. Her errand was no more than a rendezvous, perhaps, and he, himself, merely a spy.

He could see her now where a light from the Avenue fell across her face and that of the man beside her. The man was dark, youthful, rather handsome. He was talking rapidly, inaudibly, with Hope, making quick foreign gestures with his hands. She sat staring before her, catching the cloak together at her throat, her eyes wide and thoughtful, her face pale.

The lights went green and they darted forward, flew swiftly southward, then at a red light, eastward again. They had reached Second Avenue in the upper Twenties, a dismal neighborhood. Beneath the elevated tracks a traffic light blazed suddenly, permitting the green taxi to fly ahead.

Dirk would have followed, but an officer beside the red signal had an eye on him. When he was released to follow, the green taxi, having turned east again, had disappeared.

Dirk flew along First Avenue, almost deserted now, and along the water-front. There was no sign of the green taxi.

His half-formed resolve to give up following had been accomplished for him. There was nothing to do now but return home. It had been hardly decent anyhow trailing her like this, when her errand was patently a secret one.

His intentions in the beginning had been honorable enough. Something, he supposed, had called her out—something she could not tell Rupert, and he, himself, had not been there to tell. Wearing Rupert's jewels, she was not safe without a protector, a body-guard of some sort.

Now that she had chosen her protector, having come forth no doubt for the sole purpose of meeting him, let any uninvited guardian accept the fact that the Pates who watch over clandestine lovers had been on her side.

Yet acceptance was not easy, he told himself, as he rode toward home. He had made himself responsible for this girl, for what she might be, for what she might do. If he had not vouched for her, pleaded and lied for her, she would not have remained in the house.

Now that he had entrenched her there, he must protect the house and Rupert. Again, the man might not be her lover, or even—as had naturally suggested itself to Dirk—her confederate in crime. She might herself be a victim, going to her death.

He put the thought from him.

Perhaps Rupert had acquainted her with the safe in the paneled wall of this room, a small cache where their granular had been accustomed to keep a bottle of old Bourbon and a few secret mementoes. Its door was invisible amid the wainscoting, and one had to know where to feel along the ridges for the hidden spring.

Dirk found and pressed it. The panel slid back, revealing the small dark aperture. Something was inside, a parcel wrapped in tissue paper. He flashed on a nearby scene and unwrapped the package. It was no more than a brush and comb, a nail-buffer, a hat-brush. They were mounted in imitation ivory and marked with a single red initial. It looked like the set that had been spilled from Hope's bag the day before.

Dirk rewrapped them wondering. They were certainly the set he had seen on the mirror-shelf when Hope had opened her door to say she would dress and go for a ride with him. Yet they were not marked with an "H", but with an "L". Perhaps they had belonged to Senorita Leonor, the bareback-rider whose substitute Hope had been. Hope had no doubt fallen heir to them, intended to return them.

Yet why hide them? They were not of sufficient value for that.

There was nothing else in the cache. He touched the spring and the panel closed. No use looking further. If she had left the jewels, they would have been there.

At twenty minutes of five he heard what was the almost noiseless closing of the front door, and presently the faint stir of someone on the stair. He looked, and saw Hope, a shadowy figure in the dim hall, open and close her door without a sound.

She was safe, at least, and she must never know. He must have either her voluntary explanation of this night, or else the opportunity to watch her unobserved and unsuspected.

Dickstein Asks Probe of Black Legion by House

WASHINGTON, May 27. (AP)—A congressional inquiry into activities of the Black Legion was demanded today in a resolution by Chairman Dickstein (D-NY) of the house immigration committee.

Asserting the measure was intended to determine whether the organization is connected with the "black shirts," which a house committee investigated last year, or has "international connections," Dickstein said the resolution would be offered during the day.

"I am informed that the Black Legion and the black shirts are the same group," Dickstein told reporters, in discussing the state investigation of the Black Legion in Michigan.

LONDON WOULD GET SUPPORT OF TEXAS GOP

ROOSEVELT LIKENED TO BENEDICT ARNOLD AT CONVENTION

FORT WORTH, May 27. (AP)—Texas republicans, their one-day campaign against the new deal over, turned their thoughts today toward Cleveland and the republican national convention next month.

The small but vociferous band of republicans which closed its meeting here yesterday picked 25 delegates and 23 electors to vote as an untrusted unit in the national gathering—but sentiment was apparent that Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas would receive Texas support.

The Kansan's name was not mentioned in the carefully-prepared speeches yesterday, but on-the-floor talk revealed the pro-Landon sentiment of the delegates.

The whooping republicans also flirted with the idea—put forward by Texas National Committeeman Rene B. Creager of Brownsville—of luring enough "dissatisfied democrats" into republican ranks this fall to swing Texas against the Roosevelt administration.

"There are enough dissatisfied democrats who believe in democratic principles to carry the state against the new deal," Creager said. In 1928 Texas voted against Al Smith.

The convention nobly voiced its approval as speakers turned their fire on President Roosevelt, who was likened to Benedict Arnold. The president, Keynote George Hopkins of Dallas said, would deliver the government to a despot—"communism."

The delegates approved a program calling for a balanced budget, instead of spending; full responsibility toward government contracts and withdrawal of the government from "all socialistic experiments that are throttling business."

The convention endorsed a proposal to distribute relief money through the Red Cross and similar organizations, and advocated abandonment of the policy of "regimenting" farmers and of putting fertile acres out of cultivation.

Creager was chosen chairman of the national convention delegation.

Texas Republic Once Included Old Santa Fe

MONTELL, May 27 (AP)—Pursuit of Centennial facts, says Mrs. Byrde Pearce Hamilton, student of early Texas history, reveals that Santa Fe, second oldest city in the United States, was within the boundaries of the Republic of Texas 100 years ago.

"A copy of an old map by Melish," she explains, "shows that the republic embraced parts of Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, and a considerable part of New Mexico, containing the town of Santa Fe. Until 1850, however, Texas did not succeed in establishing a county government in Santa Fe county, although several attempts were made to do so."

In the treaty of Velasco, negotiated after the Battle of San Jacinto, Gen. Santa Anna agreed to fix the boundary line of Texas at the Rio Grande but Mexico claimed the country west and south of the Louisiana Purchase. When Texas entered the federal union in 1846, it claimed the territory delimited by the Melish map but in 1850, relinquished all claims outside of its present boundaries in consideration of $10,000,000 with which to pay the debt of the republic.

There was much dispute about the boundaries until Senator Pearce of Maryland succeeded in getting a bill through Congress providing for payment of $10,000,000 and the surrender of claim to the disputed territory cut old Santa Fe out of Texas.

"We know and assert there is no more sincere adherent of democratic principles than our President and Vice President," the resolution said.

"We also know there are no more earnest champions of the rights of individual states than Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Nance Garner and the doctrine of the right of the several states to control their internal affairs represents the conviction of the democracy of Texas."

It asserted confidence in the vigilance of the Texas congressional representation to protect against any attempt to diminish the authority of the state over its internal affairs regardless of the source of such an effort.

Garner Renominated.

"We feel safe," it concluded, "to rest our case with the President, our Senators and Representatives with full faith and confidence that the liberty of our institutions and the freedom of our actions will be preserved in accordance with the principles of Jefferson and the tenets of the democratic party."

What is this thing called "Bouquet"?

Gardenia?... Lilac?... No—Saazer bops blossoms! Pride of old Bohemia... delightfully aromatic... delicately elusive. They come to us baled in linen so their fragrance cannot escape. No wonder they cost six times as much as domestic hops! They're worth it. Skillful brewing extracts their goodness. Result—over the foam in each glass of Budweiser hovers an exquisite bouquet that is as delightful to the sense of smell as Budweiser to the sense of taste. Thanks to these Saazer hops... plus fine barley... plus skill and experience... only Budweiser has the Budweiser bouquet and only Budweiser tastes like Budweiser!

MAY BRIDE AND JUNE BRIDE-ELECT ARE GIVEN SHOWERS

MRS. PATTON HONORED WITH PRETTY PARTY

FINLEY HOME OPENED TO FRIENDS OF BRIDE

Mrs. Jess Patton, who was Miss Louise Walstead before her recent marriage, was honored at a pretty shower in the home of Mrs. E. E. Finley last evening. Mrs. M. L. Ferguson of Austin, Mrs. Finley's daughter, was co-hostess.

Pink and white peonies and baby breath set the color note for the rooms. Guests were shown to the dining room on arriving, and served punch from a table arranged in pink and white.

The punch bowl rested on a large reflector in the center of the table, surrounded with peonies and baby breath tied with pink ribbon. Two white candles tied with pink ribbon and baby breath burned at either end of the table.

Mrs. Patton arrived last, and was presented with a beautiful corsage. The guests wrote their favorite recipes in a book for her, and included their advice for a happy marriage. Gifts were presented then, and opened to be inspected.

The guest list included Misses Esther Starns, Fern Hughes, Mary Sneed, Claudine Pope, Lona Willis, Janice Purviance, Flora Deen Finley, Mmes. Patton, G. C. Walstead, Tom Herod, W. B. Wild, H. L. Ledrick Jr., Mary Ellen Webb, Walter Berry, Harvey Todd, Russell Allen, Lee Ledrick, DeLea Vicars, J. S. Wynne, John V. Andrews, C. P. Buckler, P. C. Ledrick, I. B. Hughes, C. T. Hunkapillar, H. H. Hicks, Raymond Harrah, Siler Faulkner, Duke Balhrope, L. N. McCullough, W. J. Smith, Clarence Bassett, A. H. Doucette, W. Purviance, A. Cole, and William T. Finley.

Mrs. Ewing Will Head El Progresso

Another Milestone for the Dionne Quintuplets

CHOICE OF PRESIDENT IS MADE AT CLUB'S LAST MEETING

At a breakfast in the home of Mrs. W. Purviance which closed its season, El Progresso club advanced Mrs. W. E. Ewing to the presidency for next year after accepting with regret Mrs. S. G. Surratt's resignation because of ill health.

Mrs. Ewing had been elected vice-president for next year. Mrs. J. M. Dodson was elected to that office yesterday. A budget committee for the coming year, Mmes. J. M. McDonald, Lee Ledrick, and C. P. Buckler, was also announced at the breakfast.

The delicious covered-dish meal was served at quarter tables in rooms bright with garden flowers. R. B. Fisher was the guest speaker. His talk was preceded by an invocation by Mrs. Purviance and two songs, Tomorrow, and Since Your Path Crossed Mine, by Mrs. J. M. Dodson. Her daughter, Byron Dodson, accompanied.

Fisher spoke of the European trip he made last summer, contrasting conditions in England and Russia. England gives the impression of being at the top of civilized society, he said, stressing the substantial things of life and working to regain her lost prosperity and resume class distinctions.

He described Russia as a drab country where the people do not appear happy and where 165,000,000 people are under the strong political domination of a party numbering about 5,000,000. He believes that Russia is not strong enough mentally or physically to be a menace to other nations, but he stressed that America needs to know exactly what communism means and its dangers.

Club guests for the breakfast were Misses Eleanor Bott and Julia Alice Wood of Illinois, hostess guests of Mrs. James Todd; Misses Janice Purviance and Byron Dodson, daughters of members; and Mr. Fisher.

Members present were Mmes. C. T. Hunkapillar, Carson Loftus, McDonald, J. M. Kelley, James Todd, Lee Ledrick, P. C. Ledrick, T. D. Hobar, Dave Pope, W. M. Craven, Dodson, Buckler, John Andrews, and Purviance.

Three From Gray County Will Get WTSC Degrees

CANYON, May 27.—James Ralph Poe, Frances E. Rogers, of Pampa, and Coy C. Palmer of Alanreed, are among the 94 members of the 1936 graduating class of the West Texas State Teachers college. They will receive their bachelor degrees May 28.

Mr. Poe was a member of the "T" club, of the boxing team, and the intramurals. Miss Rogers was a member of the Young Women's Christian association, the Sosome Literary society, the International Relations club, the Prairie staff, the Le Mirage staff, the Spanish club, the Dramatic club, and the English club. Mr. Palmer was a member of the Kampus Kate, president of the Cousins Literary society, a member of the Dramatic club, the Men's Chorus, and the Madrigal. The activities of the club have kept both the students and the faculty busily engaged in preparations for the close of the spring term and the opening of the summer session which will take place June 2.

Indoor Meeting Is Conducted by Club Instead of Picnic

When rain prevented a picnic they had planned at Central park, the Book Review group of the A. A. U. W. met last evening at the Empire cafe for a supper and program. A late issue of The Southwestern Review, magazine of literature and art for this section, furnished material for Mrs. C. Wilson's talk. Mrs. Dudley Steele told the story of a new Norwegian novel, Beyond Seeing the Woods, which is a recent Literary Guild choice.

A social planned for Thursday evening by piano pupils of Mrs. Lily Hartfield and expression pupils of Mrs. T. P. Morton, teachers in the Pampa Conservatory, has been indefinitely postponed because of contagious diseases among children of the city, it was announced today. The move is made to cooperate with health officials in discouraging children's gatherings where disease might be spread.

LUNCH CLOSES 20TH CENTURY CLUB SEASON

MEETING HOUR SPENT IN SOCIAL AT THE BRATTON HOME

Twentieth Century club ended its season yesterday with a covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. W. A. Bratton, with Mmes. J. M. Fitzgerald and A. H. Doucette as co-hostesses. The lunch was served buffet style in rooms decorated with garden flowers.

The hour was spent informally, with final reports of committees as the only business. A gift was presented to Miss Kathleen Milam, in appreciation for her assistance on the program of the club's annual book shower recently.

Members present were Mmes. W. R. Campbell, F. M. Cuberson, Ivy Duncan, R. B. Fisher, Ray J. Hagan, Raymond Harrah, J. B. Hughey, Paul Kasishke, B. C. Low, Roger McConnell, R. Earl O'Keefe, Edwin S. Vicars, Ben Williams, and the hostesses.

Sewing Room to Hold Open House 1 to 5 Monday

Open house will be held from 1 to 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at the WPA sewing room on the fourth floor of the courthouse, and the public is invited to see what is being accomplished by the workers there. Mrs. Buena Birchfield, manager of the sewing room, and Mrs. Willie Baines, her assistant, supervise the project that is now being carried on by 26 women. Since the addition of 14 new workers recently, two shifts are kept busy daily.

Change of Beauty Shop Ownership in City Announced

Mrs. Velma Robinson announces the purchase of Jewell's Beauty shop, where she is assuming active management this week. Mrs. Robinson has opened and operated a beauty shop before coming to Pampa, but for the past four years has been with the theaters here as cashier.

Mrs. Jewell Ford, former owner, will remain at the shop this week. Other operators, who will continue their work, are Juanita Parks, Evelyn Crawford, and Mrs. B. R. Woods. The new management promises the same high quality of work by experienced operators to the shop's customers.

BIRTHDAY CAKE IS SERVED AS TWENTIETH CENTURY CULTURE CLUB MARKS ITS FIFTH YEAR

Last Meeting This Season Is Held Yesterday

The fifth birthday of Twentieth Century Culture club was celebrated when the last meeting of this season was conducted in the home of Mrs. Olin E. Hinkle yesterday afternoon. A decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream after the program.

Honeysuckle and mock orange from Mrs. G. C. Malone's yard decorated the rooms. Mrs. Carl Easton was in charge of the program on hobbies and vacations. She discussed the use of leisure and profitable hobbies. Mrs. Marvin Lewis gave vacation suggestions, describing interesting places in Texas and nearby states that are within easy reach of Pampa. Mrs. Delmer Ashworth spoke of the summer recreation program which the Council of Women's clubs sponsors here.

Members present were Mmes. N. W. Gaut, H. D. Keys, H. P. Lusby, E. Lewis, Lewis, Boston, L. N. McCullough, L. L. McColm, C. H. Schulkey, J. P. Wehrung, J. A. Meek, C. W. Stowell, and the hostess.

Evangelist Will Conclude Sermon Series Tonight

The last of a series of sermons on the general topic, Faith, will be preached this evening by Evangelist Claud McClung of Port Worth, who is conducting a revival at Central Church of Christ. He has spoken since the start of services last Friday on various phases of the subject.

Some of his topics have been Works of Faith, Blessings of Faith, and Abraham's Faith. Good crowds have heard him despite the rains. "We all complained of the drought; now it is broken so let's come to church and thank God. Damp weather won't hurt old clothes and hats; wear them and attend these services," said Paul A. Thompson, minister, in inviting the public to meetings at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. daily.

He announced that the regular radio program of the church, from station KPDM Sunday morning at 8:30, will feature a sermon by the evangelist this week. Plans for Sunday services include a covered dish dinner in the church basement at noon.

Eastern Star Will Banquet on Friday

The annual banquet of the Order of Eastern Star will be served at Schneider hotel Friday evening at 8, with visiting members of the order invited. Reservations must be made by tomorrow noon, by telephoning 9093. New officers are to be installed by the chapter Monday evening at Masonic hall. Mrs. Madge Murphy

FORUM LUNCH IS IN MEXICAN NOTE TUESDAY

COLOR AND MUSIC OF MEXICO USED FOR THE OCCASION

Mexican color brightened the season's close for Twentieth Century Forum yesterday, when Mrs. Mary Ellen Webb was hostess at a luncheon at her home. Tables were laid with bright colored cloths and Mexican pottery.

Flowers were held in tiny sombreroes. The menu included fruit cocktail, tamales, frijoles, salad, ices, and coffee. While it was being served, Mexican and Texas songs were played by the Vanderburg brothers, a string trio of small boys dressed in white suits and Centennial hats.

Mrs. Arthur Teed, retiring president, introduced her successor, Mrs. Arthur Swanson, who will take office at the opening of a new season next fall. A grab bag of amusing gifts completed the program, which was arranged by Mrs. Don Conley.

Members present were Mmes. Clarence Barrett, Roy Bourland, Russel G. Allen, Robert Chafin, Conley, Edward Damon, W. S. Dixon, A. B. Goldston, Arthur Holland, T. R. Martin, Max Mahaffey, M. C. Owen, Frank Perry, Swanson, Overton, Frank Walker, Ray Will, R. F. Dirksen, and Webb.

Mrs. T. L. Winton Is Hostess at Shower

Friends of Mrs. C. E. Cady complimented her with a shower in the home of Mrs. T. L. Winton on the Johns lease recently. After the gifts were presented and admired, sandwiches and cocoa were served. Present were Mmes. E. Pruitt, L. J. Berry, Odie Clanton, James Legg, C. H. Evans, Turner, J. G. Stroup, E. M. Heard, C. B. Chisum, M. E. Graham, F. H. Nash, T. E. Johnston, James.

RECEPTION FOR SENIORS GIVEN BY THE W. M. U.

Class and Sponsors Are Entertained At Church

A reception for high school seniors was given at First Baptist church last evening by the Women's Missionary union. In the guest book, 135 members of the class registered with their sponsors and school officials.

Mrs. T. F. Morton, president of the union, welcomed the guests. Dramatized highlights in the history of Baylor university and Mary Hardin-Baylor college, which originated in the Baylor college chartered in old Independence the year Texas entered the Union, made up the program.

In the cast were Catherine Barrett and Rita Holmes as today's graduates, Miss Llewellyn Shelby as Mrs. Sam Houston, Miss Kathleen Milam as Mrs. Crane, wife of Baylor's first president, Marjorie Tucker and Dorothy Jo Moore as Baylor co-eds of 1920, Mrs. C. E. Lancaster, Miss Loma Groom, and Miss Thelma Thorp as representatives of the modern Baylor college. Music between scenes was by the Lions club male quartet, another quartet including Mrs. Lily Hartfield, Miss Groom, Ernest Fletcher, and E. D. Zimmerman, and Miss Groom as a soloist.

The Rev. C. E. Lancaster spoke briefly on Choosing a College. Refreshments in Pampa high school colors, green and gold, were served. Room decorations were in the same colors, and the stage was arranged in a campus setting.

JUDGE McLEAN YARDS Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, Mrs. Geo. Walstead, and Mrs. Emmett Dwyer of Pampa were in McLean yesterday, serving as judges in a yard beautification contest sponsored by the McLean Garden club and Lions club.

and G. Day. Gifts were sent by Mmes. McClung, G. Zarnes, and James.

MISS RILEY IS SURPRISED WITH GIFTS

LUNCHEON ALSO GIVEN YESTERDAY NOON IN HER HONOR

Two parties yesterday continued the courtesies to Miss Elaine Riley, June bride-elect of Robert P. Fuller. Mrs. John Bradley, Mrs. L. C. Peddicord, and Miss Louise McLean were hostesses at a surprise shower in Mrs. Bradley's home last evening, and teachers with Miss Riley at Sam Houston school entertained with an informal luncheon at noon.

The luncheon was served in the school cafeteria, with only the faculty members present. They presented Miss Riley with a beautiful set of table linen, and a decorated rolling pin with a clever verse giving instructions for its use.

Miss Riley was invited to the Bradley home for bridge last evening, but found a large group of friends waiting her arrival. A short piano solos by Miss Thelma Gwinn, vocal solos by Mrs. Bruce Peck, a vocal duet by both, and readings by little Colleen and Mary Jo Cockrell.

After a white and gold ice course was served, Mary Jo, dressed as a tiny bride, and Sammy Stone, as a groom, presented the honoree with a bouquet of roses and were assisted by Colleen in carrying the many gifts to her.

Miss Lema Jane Butcher presided at the white and gold book where the following registered: Misses Florence Jones, Lillian Mullinax, Jill Verne Ballard, Tildie Sessions, Jill Jones, Lois Stallings, Sue Vinson, Violet Durrett, Thelma Gwinn. Mmes. Hugh Ellis, Walter Wanner, Luther Pierson, Frank Culbertson, Bruce Peck, A. L. Patrick, W. Mullinax, H. E. Carlson, Sam Ir-

SOLONS SEEK MORE REVENUE AFTER PARLEY

FDR IS DISSATISFIED WITH TAX BILL OF SENATE

WASHINGTON, May 27. (AP)—An eleven-hour quest for more revenue, possibly to be raised through stiffer taxes on undistributed profits of corporations, began today after democratic senators in charge of the tax bill emerged from a conference with President Roosevelt.

The senators were told of the chief executive's dissatisfaction with the bill. Treasury experts say that the measure, in its present tentative form in the senate finance committee would fall many millions of dollars short of President Roosevelt's request for funds.

Leaders planned to call the senate finance committee into session this afternoon, with the idea of seeing whether more revenue could be raised. Senator King (D-Utah), who is acting committee chairman during the temporary illness of Senator Harrison (D-Miss), hinted the 7 per cent rate now proposed for undistributed profits might be increased.

Originally administration officials called for a tax averaging 33 1/2 per cent on such profits, but the senate finance committee could agree only on a flat 7 per cent.

In addition the committee also decided to levy an 18 per cent flat rate on corporate income, and approved repeal of the present exemption of dividends from the 4 per cent normal income tax.

Finance committee democrats, interviewed by reporters at the portico of the White House last night, did not disclose what the President had to say about the tax bill, but majority leader Robinson (D-Ark), did assert:

"Frankly, we are seeking an amount in addition to the amount the estimates now show."

Auxiliary Will Assist VFW at The Centennial

Assistance in the concession booth to be operated by the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the Centennial celebration next month was planned by the Women's Auxiliary at a meeting in the American Legion hut last evening.

Members also planned to meet again this evening at 8, in a called session with the Legion Auxiliary, and make wreaths for use in a memorial day program.

Committees to assist at the concession booth were assigned to duty as follows: Tuesday morning, Mrs. H. W. Waddell and Mrs. C. J. Maisei; Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Jeck Dolan and Mrs. Farmer; Tuesday evening, Mrs. A. J. Stallings and Mrs. Harry Beall.

Wednesday morning, Mrs. John Bradley and Mrs. E. P. Lusby; afternoon, Mrs. B. S. Via and Mrs. E. H. Hamlet; evening, Mrs. L. O. Johnson and Mrs. Bonds.

Thursday morning, Mrs. N. F. Maddux, Mrs. L. S. Hall; afternoon, Mrs. H. A. Neaves, Mrs. H. B. Carlson; evening, Mrs. Jimmy Sturgeon, Mrs. O. K. Gaylor.

Friday morning, Mrs. L. A. Baxter, Mrs. R. L. Franks; afternoon, Mrs. J. P. West, Mrs. Bonnie Rose; evening, Mrs. D. F. Bartlett, Mrs. Al Lawson.

Court Reverses Conviction of Alleged Slayer

AUSTIN, May 27. (AP)—The Texas court of criminal appeals today reversed and remanded the conviction of Mrs. Ethel Johnson of Dallas for murder of Mrs. Bernice Blankenship in Coryell county in the summer of 1934. Mrs. Johnson had been sentenced to 25-year term.

The court affirmed its previous rulings that Glenn Warren must die for murder of "Uncle Charlie" Cansler in Angelina county and that Grady Warren must die for murder of E. C. Brown in Smith county. Motions for rehearing of the two defendants were overruled.

Mrs. Johnson was indicted on charges of murdering her son and daughter-in-law, Joe Deane Blankenship and Mrs. Bernice Blankenship.

The defendant contended that Mrs. Blankenship killed her husband, then committed suicide. A note purportedly written by the young woman and indicating that she contemplated suicide was introduced in evidence.

The court reversed the judgment on the grounds that the special prosecutor made improper reference to the note in his argument to the jury and that the county attorney in his closing argument applied to Mrs. Johnson the language which was not a reasonable deduction from any testimony.

Blue Eagle Died Year Ago Today

WASHINGTON, May 27. (AP)—It is just a year today since the blue eagle died but the post-mortem debate has not subsided.

The American Federation of Labor is still trying to revive its principles. President William Green said in a statement published today that effects of NRA's invalidation by the Supreme Court were adverse and were now resulting in strikes.

Many of the business groups represented here held that revival of the experiment was unnecessary and nearly impossible. James A. Emery, counsel for the National Manufacturers' association, said that "the country has made rapid progress and will continue to do so unless new restrictions are fastened upon it."

Donald R. Richberg, who was in charge of NRA when the Supreme Court blow fell, had no comment on the anniversary. He told inquiring newspapermen: "Let it go—there's little more to say."

Former Teacher In School Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Cox and daughter, Louene, have returned from Navasota, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Cole, wife of Dr. Charles M. Cole, and sister of Mrs. Cox, who died May 6 from pneumonia.

Mrs. Cole, the former Jewell Williamson, was a former Pampa resident, being teacher of home economics in Pampa high school during 1928 and 1929. Mrs. Cox was with her sister when she died.

BPW Club Hears Texas Program, Centennial Plan

A Texas program was heard by Business and Professional Women's club at its social meeting in city club room last evening. Vera Lard and Audrey Fowler were hostesses.

Mrs. J. M. Dodson sang a Texas song, accompanied by Mrs. John Skelly. The Texas Top-Notchers, string band led by Mrs. Jeff Guthrie, played cowboy tunes. Frances Stark told interesting Texas legends. Games of bingo entertained the members afterward, and a dessert course was served.

Announcement was made that guests of the club during the Centennial celebration here will be three brides of 1884 who were also honor guests at the Guyton, Okla., Frontier Days celebration recently. The club has invited numerous pioneer women of this section to be Centennial guests here.

Members present were Grace Pool, Lola Carroll, Frances Stark, Ann Johnson, Lillian Jordan, Ruth Hopper, Lottie Schneider, Mary Lou Downs, Mabel Gee, Clara Lee Shewmaker, Gertrude Arnold, Katie Beverly, Mildred Overall, Oree Brock, Irene Irvine, and the hostesses.

Gray and Wheeler Boys Among 100 to Be Awarded Gold Stars

COLLEGE STATION, May 27.—Names of the ranking 100 4-H Club boys of Texas, as determined by their 1935 records, have just been announced by L. L. Johnson, state boys club agent, Texas Extension Service. As Gold Star boys, these 100 youthful farm lads of the state will be awarded gold pins in honor of their achievements at the Centennial Year Farmers short course at Texas A. & M. college July 20-24.

Selection of Gold Star winners was based on the following factors: Receipts on the dollar of investment, net returns, in crop demonstrations on the relation of average crop production to that of the community, in the matter of most animals on net gain and daily gain, in dairy cattle on the pounds of milk and percentage of butter fat produced, in poultry on the eggs and receipts to the bird. Each record was certified as to accuracy by the county agricultural agent and a group of leading farmers in the county. The committee also considered the history of the demonstration, records kept and the effect of the demonstration on the boy and his community.

The list of Gold Star boys for the year includes:

Wheeler county—James Passans, Wheeler; J. C. Erskin, Shamrock; Clifford Austin, Briscoe; Richard Lancaster, Mobeetie; Rex Miller, postoffice Sweetwater, Okla.; and David Dysart, Mobeetie.

Gray county—Jiggs McDonald, Pampa; Ray Enoch, Pampa; Billy Wilson, McLean; and Henry Gless, Alameda.

Bartley county—Ernest Guilloud, Dalhart.

Carson county—Walter Britten, Carson.

Contract Bridge Club in Wheeler Is Given Dinner

WHEELER, May 27.—The Contract bridge club met with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt Friday evening. Ed Watson made high score, and Mrs. Clarice Fisher received the traveling prize.

Present for the dinner and games were Messrs. and Mmes. Ed Watson, Clint Wofford, Glenn Porter, Nelson Porter, Roy Puckett, Buck Britt, Worth Beale; Misses Cora Hall and Reba Wofford. Mrs. Fisher, Joe Hyatt, Harry Wofford, and Al Watson.

The Methodist League gave a party Friday night. Refreshments were served to Parilee Clay, Bonnie Adams, Louise Craig, Irene Hunt, Florence Merriman, Beatrice Miller, Mary Eunice Noah, Mrs. C. J. Meek, the Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Kirby.

Miss Aline Buchannon was hostess to a group of friends Saturday evening. Those present were Leo Moore, Wave Wallace, Roy Moore, Farrell Wallace, Louise Craig, Imogene Jamison, Marvin Moore, Bonnie Adams.

Renner Funeral Services Held

Funeral services for Jack Renner, 67, were to be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. Jno. O. Scott, pastor of Central Baptist church, in the chapel at G. C. Malone Funeral home. Burial was to follow in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Renner died in a local hospital Sunday night following a brief illness. He had been a resident of this city for nine years and was a painter by trade.

AGE BEFORE YOUTH.

MEADE, Kan.—A drunken pipe line worker had disarmed the city marshal and was beating him with his own club when Willis Carmichael, principal of the junior high school, stepped in and knocked the pipeliner out with one well-aimed uppercut. Three hours later the city council elected Prof. Carmichael assistant city marshal.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Colman—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two quarts of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile does not flow freely, your food will not be digested properly. You will feel bloated, your stomach will be full, and you will not be able to sleep. You will feel tired and listless. You will not be able to do your work. You will not be able to enjoy life. You will not be able to live.

Take Colman's Little Liver Pills. They will get your liver working again. They will get your bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet powerful in making bile flow freely. Ask for Colman's Little Liver Pills by name. Satisfactorily return anything else.

COUPLE HONORED BY FRIENDS FROM SEVERAL CITIES

Honoree hosts, and guests were from various Panhandle cities when Miss Evelyn Shanklin of Pampa and J. Harold Shanklin of Perryton entertained with a buffet dinner here Sunday evening, complimenting Miss Marian Hill of Canyon and Lemore Hill of Amarillo, who are to be married soon.

A Centennial motif was used in table decorations. A replica of the Alamo formed the centerpiece, and the dining room was brightened with red roses and red tapers. Place cards were in Texas colors.

Gifts presented to the honorees by the guests were heaped on the table, and opened after the three-course dinner. Miss Hill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill of Canyon, has been entertained by friends there and in Amarillo since announcement of her engagement.

Guests Sunday were the honorees and Miss Luella McDade of Dumas, Miss Allie Elliston of Pampa, Miss Ruth LaVon of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McConnell of Pampa, Bill Pittman of Amarillo, Wesley Vost of Perryton, and Carl G. Stubbs of Pampa.

NEGRO GIRL IS HELD IN DEATH OF WHITE MAN

Sooners Storm Jail But Are Repulsed At Altus

ALTUS, Okla., May 27 (AP)—A 19-year-old negro girl, arrested after the fatal shooting of a white man, was held in a neighboring town today after officers twice repulsed a crowd of 200 that had advanced on the local jail with the victim's widow in the lead.

No charges have been filed against the girl, booked as Olivia Gardner. Deputy Sheriff E. O. Rollins, said she confessed shooting S. E. Harlan, 32-year-old PWA truck driver, in self-defense after a fight.

A. W. Edwards, Altus policeman, said five officers were posted outside the jail and two others inside when the crowd started gathering near the courthouse yesterday afternoon. "Mrs. Harlan tried to gain entrance first," said Edwards in describing the scene.

"She was very nervous. But she didn't get past the platform at the entrance."

Edwards said the officers had one sword-off shotgun in sight but did not point it at the crowd. All the officers were armed, however, prepared to resist any mob action.

The crowd retreated for a short distance and a few minutes later made a second move toward the jail. "One man spoke up like he would attempt to storm the jail," said Edwards. "A very level headed citizen spoke to him, explaining why it would be the wrong thing to do. Then the crowd gave way again."

Deputy Rollins and J. G. Cornell, policeman, hastened inside the jail, placed the girl between them and started for a waiting motor car.

"The crowd started swarming around her again but didn't try to take her from the deputies," said Edwards.

As the crowd closed in the officers shouted at the citizens to "stay back." Once in the car the negro girl dropped prostrate in the back seat. Rollins drove away at high speed and the crowd dispersed.

Sheriff Henry A. Savage said the girl was taken to the jail at Hobart, Okla.

Shot late Monday night, Harlan died in a hospital yesterday. Officers said before he died he told them he had "gone down to get some medicine," and was returning to his home when he heard someone call him from the railroad station.

"I went over to see who it was and the next thing I knew she was shooting me," officers quoted Harlan as saying.

Oil Production Up

TULSA, Okla., May 27 (AP)—For the second week on record the daily crude oil production in the United States has exceeded 3,000,000 barrels, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

For the week ending May 23 the production was 3,003,985 barrels daily, just 1,455 less than the previous week which was the first time the daily output had jumped over the 3,000,000 barrels mark.

Oklahoma showed a decrease of 1,849 to a total of 558,676 barrels daily, while in East Texas production virtually was stationary, showing 455,292 barrels daily, an increase of 95 barrels.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR DIES

OIL NEWS AND NOTES

PHILLIPS WILL BUY OIL AT FULL ALLOWABLE NOW—PRORATION IS UNIFORM

The Phillips Petroleum company, relieved of remaining undesired connections by Humble Pipeline company, is now taking up to full allowances from remaining connections, it was reported today.

The Phillips company has given notice that the full takings are effective as of May 20.

In the last several weeks since Phillips announced intention to buy no more than 16,500 barrels daily in the Panhandle, Humble Pipeline has assumed connections to leases having a total daily allowable of about 3,700 barrels. Danciger, Magnolia, and the Texas company have taken some connections.

Humble has made it plain that it was not soliciting connections, but was taking over only a number sufficient to make possible adherence to proration schedules by Phillips.

Proration is now back to normal, it was stated by observers this morning. All wells are connected and all purchasers are observing allowable.

Many companies have cooperated in working out what a few weeks ago were considered dangerous inequities. It has been necessary to lay a number of pipelines to re-arrange connections.

One threat to Panhandle proration has been removed.

'LONGS' WHEAT TRADERS HOLD BAG OF LOSSES

Holdings Dumped Into Chicago Pit Tuesday

CHICAGO, May 27 (AP)—The swift collapse of an expected "squeeze" in May wheat on the board of trade left the "longs" holding a bag of losses today.

Identity of the "longs" who dumped their holding into the wheat pit yesterday after a tense struggle with "shorts" remained a mystery. Veteran traders who watched the "battle of May wheat" since its inception several months ago said it was the first time in the exchange's history that holders of wheat had been forced to accept delivery of cash grain whether they wanted it or not. A number of small traders were said to have been buying "longs," and there were indications that some of the "short" interest represented foreign accounts.

The climax in the May wheat struggle occurred yesterday just before the futures market closed. The price dropped 6 1/2 cents from an early high of 90 1/2. Dealings in the May contract, under way since last August, were terminated under a new exchange rule which prohibits trading in any future the last three days of the month in which it is deliverable.

The rout of the "longs" who bought May wheat any time since August in the hope that their inflation talk or crop disaster would enable them to sell later at a profit, without actually taking the grain, was indicated by the fact the contract was closed out yesterday within 1 1/2 cent of the lowest level of the season and 17 cents below its high. The close was 90 1/2, which represented the maximum 5 cents per bushel drop permitted in any one day by exchange rules.

companies, was estimated for a production of 1,000 to 2,000 barrels of oil.

The Cement field had produced from shallow depths since 1916. The weekly summary showed Oklahoma completed only 49 tests compared to 75 the week before.

A high point of interest among the drilling fraternity was the behavior of the No. 1 Wheeler of the Anderson-Prichard Oil corporation which flowed some oil and then salt water from the Wilcox sand.

The well may have defined the northwestern boundary of the "Maxon area" of Oklahoma City and scouts turned their attention at once to four other wells north of the No. 1 Wheeler. All are expected to find production—or salt water—within a fortnight.

An improvement in spot movement of gasoline was a monthly factor in the refining end. Contract shipments continued strong.

Prices for crude oil, gasoline and natural gasoline were firm and unchanged.

JIM WINFORD Baffles Pirates for 2-Hit Performance as Cards Win

GIANTS TRAIL BY FULL GAME DESPITE WIN

RED SOX ARE WITHIN HALF GAME OF LEAD

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Manager Frankie Frisch is wearing a big grin today over a pitching discovery that may be just what the doctor ordered to round out his staff of St. Louis Cardinals "varsity" hurlers.

Since the season opened, he has depended on the Dean boys, "Wild Bill" Hallahan, Roy Parmelee and Bill Walker as his starting set, but doubleheaders are piling up just ahead.

Jim Winford, 26-year old right hander imported last year from the Columbus Red Birds, may furnish help.

Winford started against the Pittsburgh Pirates in the nightcap of a full game in front of the New York Giants, despite the triumph of the Terrymen over Brooklyn, 7-3, behind Harry Gumbert's seven-hit twirling. It was the fifth straight win for Gumbert.

In the American league, the Red Sox, aided by Jimmie Fox's 12th homer of the year, pulled up to within half a game of the lead with a 5-4 victory over the Yanks. Bill Dickey, veteran Yankee catcher, collided with Eric McNair in a tight play at the plate, and an X-ray showed a kidney injury which will keep him in the hospital for ten days.

Trailing the Yanks and the Sox, the Detroit Tigers managed only a split in a double-bill with the White Sox, dropping the nightcap 2-9 before Sugar Cain's tight pitching, after homers by Goose Goslin and Dixie Walker helped General Alvin Crowder take the opener 12-9.

Roy Henshaw pitched the Chicago Cubs from sixth to third place in the National league with a 10-4 win over the Reds, despite Kiki Cuyler's homer. The Phils outsluggered the Boston Bees 7-2, with Johnny Moore collecting his eighth four-bagger.

The St. Louis Browns came from behind with a four-run rally in the ninth to trounce the Cleveland Indians, 8 to 5, while the Senators had little trouble with the Athletics and won handily 8-2.

British Remove Families From Jaffa Revolt

JERUSALEM, May 27. (AP)—Rising Arab anti-Jewish terrorism, mounting to the aspect of rebellion in many sections of the Holy Land, caused British officials to evacuate their families today from the Arab-dominated town of Jaffa.

The British women and children were removed from the seaport of Jaffa to the northwest Palestine port of Haifa aboard a warship, and established their headquarters later in the neighboring all-Jewish city of Tel-Aviv.

This was the third British evacuation of an Arab town in as many days.

Authorities reported no bombs were thrown, and no shots fired at Jaffa yesterday for the first time in a month, due to the drastic repressive measures being taken.

The British administration of high commissioner, Sir Arthur Grenfell Wauchope, governing under a League of Nations mandate, held several Arab centers under virtual military control.

Troops advanced in their mountain campaign against the strongholds of Arabs who plundered Jewish-owned property.

Reinforcements were expected soon for the military force, already the greatest massed in Palestine since the World war.

Lubbock Will Be Sing-Song Site

LUBBOCK, May 27.—Between 15,000 and 20,000 people are expected to attend the annual Plains-Panhandle Singing convention to be held here June 20 and 21, officially starting at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, June 20 and continuing through Sunday.

This will be a great opportunity for music loving people to enjoy 1 1/2 days of splendid entertainment. Singers of all pitches are urged to be present to make this convention the banner session of the organization in honor of the Texas Centennial celebration.

Indian's Mahmoud and Taj Akbar Run One, Two In Race

New Track Record Is Set at Epsom Downs

EPSOM DOWNS, Eng., May 27. (AP)—The Aga Khan, Indian potentate dominated the running of the derby for the second successive year and the third time in seven years today when Mahmoud raced to a new record with his more highly regarded stable companion, Taj Akbar, in closest pursuit.

Sired by Blenheim, the Aga Khan's 1930 derby winner, Mahmoud covered the 153rd running of the one and one-half miles in 2:33 4-5, to clip one-fifth of a second off the old mark established by Hyperion in 1933 and equalled by Windsor Lad two years ago. The wealthy Indian religious leader won last year with Bahram.

Three lengths back at the finish trailed Taj Akbar with Mrs. J. Shand's Thankerton another three-quarters of a length behind, third in the field of 22 three-year old colts. Lord Astor's pay up, 6 to 1 choice of the crowd, estimated at 500,000, was fourth and Lord Carnarvon's His Grace, fifth.

William Woodward's Boswell, the only America-owned colt in the field, stayed up with the leaders for nearly a mile of the up and down hill race. He found the pace too swift and the distance too long, however, and dropped back as Charlie Smirke brought Mahmoud won well in hand while Taj Akbar was driving to take runnerup honors from Thankerton.

Mahmoud was held at 100 to 8 in the betting while Taj Akbar went to the post nearly equal choice with pay up. Thankerton was an outsider at 33 to 1.

Carica, owned by the Maharaja of Rajppla who captured the 1934 running, took the lead early in the race and held it for a half-mile with Midstream in second place as Jockey Charles Smirke and Gordon Richards riding Mahmoud and Taj Akbar, respectively, held their mounts off the pace.

Thankerton moved up fast in the next half-mile, however, and held the lead at Tattenham corner as the leaders swung into the final drive. Bala Hissar, also owned by the Aga Khan, was second and Pay Up third.

Mahmoud and Taj Akbar moved up fast, however, and passed the tiring leaders in the stretch with the former winning well in hand.

Entering the straightaway, leading to the judges, Thankerton held a three-length lead but weakened as Smirke shot Mahmoud to the front with Taj Akbar in close pursuit. Taj Akbar made a gallant attempt to overhaul his stable companion but Mahmoud had enough left to stave off the closing challenge.

Dr. William Tweedell, finalist against Lawson Little last year, advanced to the fourth round with a 4 and 2 triumph over Captain G. B. Stevens; Jack McLean, the Scottish star and one of the red hot favorites, conquered H. G. MacIntosh, 4 and 3, while Robert Sweeney, American-born but for years a resident of London, defeated Lord Charles Hope, 5 and 4.

R. W. Mandry, U. of North Carolina publicity expert, sends out a long blurb telling all about Raymond (Bear) Wolf, new Tarheel coach, except, as one Dixie scribe remarked, what he thinks about the Graham plan. The baseball boys in Minnesota's "big house" have gone modern. They've given their club a trade name after reading about "Slim's Sluggers" and "Burpee's Bolognas" in the Commercial league. The nine's new name is "Sisal Sox" . . . get it? Twine is the main prison product.

A secretary works eight hours a day answering Joe Louis' fan mail . . . One guy wrote from Czechoslovakia asking Joe to send him transportation to the Schmeling fight. . . Six present and past ring champions will see Primo Carnera and Leroy Haynes do their stuff tonight at Ebbetts field.

U. S. SENATOR NAMED
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 27. (AP)—Governor Dave Scholtz of Florida today appointed Scott Marion Loftin, Jacksonville attorney and immediate past president of the American Bar association, as successor to the late United States Senator Park Trammell. Loftin, a democrat, will serve until a Senator is elected in November and seated next January.

Reports from county agents reveal that 352,300 of the 1,272,500 acres sown to wheat in 11 counties on the south Texas plains last fall have been abandoned.

First Entrant in Texas Rodeo

Iva Dell Jacobs, of Billings, Mont., first entrant to arrive for W. T. Johnson's rodeo at the Texas Centennial Exposition, opening June 6, was a bit confused when she reached the $25,000,000 Exposition lot in Dallas. So she rode right into the lobby desk. Col. Johnson found her there and is shown above presenting her with an entry blank for the major events of his show.

Last Americans Are Beaten in British Meet

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 27. (AP)—The British amateur golf championship became a strictly domestic affair today as the last two American survivors, Theodore Bassett of Rye, N. Y., and Douglas Grant, a former New Yorker living in England, passed from the tournament.

Bassett was scratched from the list when he failed to appear on the tee for his third round match. He drew a first-round bye and gained the second round via the default route. He was regarded as somewhat of a mystery man because authorities disclosed they had not seen him since the championship started Monday.

Grant, who reached the semifinal round by the championship 13 years ago, was eliminated by P. W. L. Risdon by the score of 6 and 5 in a third round encounter.

Dr. William Tweedell, finalist against Lawson Little last year, advanced to the fourth round with a 4 and 2 triumph over Captain G. B. Stevens; Jack McLean, the Scottish star and one of the red hot favorites, conquered H. G. MacIntosh, 4 and 3, while Robert Sweeney, American-born but for years a resident of London, defeated Lord Charles Hope, 5 and 4.

R. W. Mandry, U. of North Carolina publicity expert, sends out a long blurb telling all about Raymond (Bear) Wolf, new Tarheel coach, except, as one Dixie scribe remarked, what he thinks about the Graham plan. The baseball boys in Minnesota's "big house" have gone modern. They've given their club a trade name after reading about "Slim's Sluggers" and "Burpee's Bolognas" in the Commercial league. The nine's new name is "Sisal Sox" . . . get it? Twine is the main prison product.

HOUSTON AND DALLAS TAKE LEAGUE TILTS

CATS ARE NOSED OUT IN 9TH INNING BY INDIANS

(By The Associated Press)
TODAY'S GAMES:
Dallas at Tulsa (2 night games).
Fort Worth at Oklahoma City (night game).
Galveston at Houston (night game).
San Antonio at Beaumont.

The pace-setting Houston Buffaloes strengthened their place at the top of the Texas league by defeating the Galveston Buccaneers in both games of yesterday's doubleheader.

The Dallas Steers, struggling to overhaul the Reds, added a beautifully-played game to their string of victories by setting down Tulsa 2 to 1, in a 12-inning battle at Tulsa. Al Baker, the Steers' young fast-ball hurler, and Irv Stein of Tulsa matched pitch for pitch through 11 innings. Dallas tied the score at 1-1 in the ninth and Tony York smacked out a single in the 12th to drive in Les Mallon to win the game. Despite their win, the Steers lost several percentage points to Houston.

Another thriller was played at Oklahoma City between the Indians and the Fort Worth Cats. Kott, Indian center-fielder, slammed out a double in the ninth to win the game 8 to 7. The Cats tied the game up in the eighth with a 4-run rally and took a one-run lead going into the ninth. Kott's blow, however, spoiled the Cats' evening.

In the first Houston game Mike Cvangros chalked up his sixth victory of the season as against one defeat. The score was 7 to 3. The Steers took the second by a score of 2 to 1.

The San Antonio-Beaumont game scheduled at Beaumont was postponed on account of rain.

Playground Ball Managers to Meet at Church Tonight

Managers of all teams in the recently organized playground ball league will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the basement of the First Baptist church. Several important matters will be discussed and every manager is urged to be present or to have a representative at the meeting.

Coltcox took a 10 to 4 battle from Phillips yesterday afternoon in the only game reported played. Jordan was on the mound for Coltcox with Maxey behind the bat. Dewey went the route for Phillips.

On Tuesday evening the King Oil nosed out the Coltcox boys, 9 to 8 in a battle of hits and great plays.

All-Star Baseball Game To Be Centennial Attraction

Northern, Southern Divisions to Play

By FELIX R. M'KNIGHT
DALLAS, May 27. (AP)—Mail balloting on the Texas league all-star baseball game, another Centennial attraction booked for Dallas July 25, starts June 15. . . President J. Alvin Gardner predicts 20,000 fans will pack the corners of Sol Dreyfus' apple orchard.

Picked teams of the northern and southern division clubs, selected by fans with a three-cent postage stamp, will play. . . Northern teams include Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Dallas and Fort Worth. . . The Southern will be chosen from San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and Beaumont rosters.

Fans must mail their choice for each position to the Texas league office at Dallas. . . Not before June 15, however, pleads Procy Gardner. . . His force will be busy with roadwork and setting-up exercises between now and then in preparation for the letter-opening and tabulating task.

Tomorrow the eleventh annual West Texas Golf association tourney starts at Mineral Wells. . . Johnny Marston of San Angelo will defend his title. . . At least sixteen West Texas towns will have entries. . . They are Abilene, Mineral Wells, Fort Worth, Rising Star, Seymour, Big Spring, San Angelo, Sweetwater, Ranger, Lubbock, Colorado, Odessa, Eastland, Coleman, Cleburne, Hamilton and others. . . Two hundred entries are expected.

Leroy Menzing, Fort Worth Star-Telegram sport-scribe, reminds you in a bright feature that two of the nation's leading apprentice jockeys, Leroy Pierson and Russell Kastner, are San Antonio products. . . Both attended Tomas Nelson Page junior school. . . Became interested in horses after Alamo Downs opened two years ago. . . Pierson, for quite a stretch, was the nation's leading apprentice jockey. . . Both are dextrous but "wilder" took the honors away from him.

Jack Buckler, who rode the bench at Waco high and enemy gride foes as an all-American half back at West Point, is now a golf fiend. . . The almost-bald grid star competed in the Colonial tourney at Fort Worth last week. . . Was eliminated in the first round by Bennie Lee Eoynton, another former Waco high star and all-America back at Williams college. . . Now one of the nation's leading officials.

Managers of all teams in the recently organized playground ball league will meet at 8 o'clock tonight in the basement of the First Baptist church. Several important matters will be discussed and every manager is urged to be present or to have a representative at the meeting.

DUNCAN NINE HOLDS VICTORY OVER STRONG EASON OILERS

The Halliburton red-tornado from Duncan, Okla., will reach Pampa tomorrow night with a 5 to 2 victory over the highly touted Eason Oilers of Euid, Okla. . . to its credit. The Cementers will play the Pampa-Dancer Road Runners tomorrow night at 9:15 and on Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Three Road Runner aces of 1935 were in Eason uniforms. They were Gordon Nell, first base, Dallas Patton, outfield, and Tank Horton, catcher, who reported to the Oilers last week. The said nine will be in Pampa for two games next month.

Manager Sam Hale of the Road Runners will send Lee Dancy against the red-uniformed Cementers tomorrow night. Dancy has been effective on every appearance so far this season and he may be able to hold the Halliburton sluggers who have a team batting average of .311 for 10 games.

Sam Jones, outfielder, is leading the way with an average of .410 to lead Manager Ed Lowell who has an average of .409.

Although the Road Runners have no hitters in the 400 class, the team average is .316,35 or 65 better than the visitors. Leading the birds is Don Bailey, left field, who is hitting .372. Manager Sam Hale, third base, is second with an average of .366.

The Road Runner pitchers are not hurting the team batting average any to date. The hurlers are hitting within 7-100ths of the fielders.

Road Runner hitters will get a chance to look at some fancy pitching when they face the Halliburton mound stars. Five out of the six visiting pitchers spent time in professional circles and are still able to show old time form.

Manager Hale is uncertain on his pitching selection for the Friday night game. He will decide after looking over the visitors Thursday.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
(By The Associated Press)
Jimmy Fox, Red Sox: His homer in the eighth gave Boston a victory over the Yankees.
Harry Gumbert, Giants: Pitched a 7-hit win over the Dodgers and got two hits.
John Moore, Phillies: Hit homer and two doubles as Phils beat the Bees 7-2.
Jim Bottomley, Browns: His homer sent the Browns ahead in their victory over the Indians.
Dizzy Dean and Jim Winford, Cards: Forner won his seventh victory of the year by holding the Pirates to seven hits in the first of a doubleheader and the latter gave them only two hits to win the second game.

BET: 1936 MODEL.
KANSAS CITY—W. L. Boult, an automobile salesman, was showing used cars to three negroes when one of them asked the year model of one he selected. Boult told him, the prospect disagreed, and in an ensuing argument all four soon were shouting. "I'll bet $20 I'm right," said one of the prospects. "It's a bet," replied Boult, waving the money before him. One of the negroes grabbed it and all were gone before the salesman realized he had lost.

storms. The proposal, he said, probably would call for zoning the affected areas and controlling cultivation of dry land with "cooperation of farmers on a voluntary basis."

A Manhattan, Kas. Director H. J. Umberger of the Kansas agricultural conservation committee, considered wholesale abandonment of the land unnecessary. He said a more definite program should be planned before recommendations were made.

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 27. (AP)—F. N. Vaughan, vice chairman of the State Conservation commission, said Tuesday complete evacuation of all "non-urban" sections of the Oklahoma Panhandle would be recommended to the next state legislature.

Vaughan, back from a conference with federal soil erosion officials, said temporary abandonment of the area "is the only way in which the three Panhandle counties can be restored for agricultural purposes."

"We will attempt to adopt a law creating a wind erosion district of the Panhandle and other affected areas," said Vaughan.

He said the "dust bowl" was spreading and that it extended now into Harper, Ellis, and Woodward counties.

Vaughan said state conservation officials from Oklahoma, Colorado, Texas, New Mexico, and Kansas, in a conference Saturday at Amarillo, agreed that the dusty land never could be reclaimed "as long as private land owners remain on it."

One of the first acts of the court was to select a site for a courthouse, which was built by H. E. Weckesser at a cost of $2,268.50.

This courthouse was used until March 8, 1928, when the county seat was moved to Pampa and the records were stored temporarily in the basement of the old Baptist church. Previous county seat elections in 1908 and again in 1919 had been unavailing.

8 Inches at Hereford

AMARILLO, May 27. (AP)—Rain in the Texas Panhandle-Plains country is the bridge from the slough of despond to the bright land of promise.

Clouds that in recent days replaced the long-familiar yellowish-gray billows of dust, laid a blanket of rain over this vast area, bringing a precipitation that, for the first time in many well-nigh rainless years, could be measured in inches. Plainview, celebrating its 50th birthday, marched joyously behind a band making music in the rain, and women were indifferent to hoop skirts and other pioneer finery dragged through the mud.

The downpour gave a number of areas new high records for May rainfall. In Deaf Smith and Parmer counties, from Hereford to Friona, a general region that is farmed intensively, as much as eight inches fell in one week, compared with a normal of about three inches for the month.

The rain was too late to benefit most of the wheat, yet was timely, for "it is planting time in the Panhandle."

"Everything is 'right' for a big row crop this year," say farmers long accustomed to vistas of dusty fields and withering vegetation, "if normal rains continue throughout the summer."

"Seasoning for row crops over the Panhandle-Plains as a whole is the best in a number of years," says E. R. Duke, county agricultural agent here. "It is easily the best since 1931."

Promise forecast by substantial autumn rains for a bumper crop of high protein Texas wheat, faded as spring advanced parallel with drought and dust-breeding winds.

"Regardless," says J. E. Davis, Amarillo grainman, "these May rains will make a lot of wheat and give the rest of it a good lease on life."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 27. (AP)—Wheat prices dipped during late dealings today, and earlier gains were more than wiped out.

Profit-taking on the part of early buyers was more or less responsible for late setback of the wheat market. There were also improved crop reports from Kansas, with some estimates the state yield would be larger than recently expected.

Wheat closed easy, 3/4-1/2 under yesterday's finish, July 83 1/2-3/4, Sept. 83 1/2-3/4, corn 1/2 to 1 cent up, July 60 1/2-3/4, Oats at 1/2 decline to 1/2 advance, and provisions showing 2 cents to 12 cents rise.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 27. (AP)—Wheat prices dipped during late dealings today, and earlier gains were more than wiped out.

Profit-taking on the part of early buyers was more or less responsible for late setback of the wheat market. There were also improved crop reports from Kansas, with some estimates the state yield would be larger than recently expected.

Wheat closed easy, 3/4-1/2 under yesterday's finish, July 83 1/2-3/4, Sept. 83 1/2-3/4, corn 1/2 to 1 cent up, July 60 1/2-3/4, Oats at 1/2 decline to 1/2 advance, and provisions showing 2 cents to 12 cents rise.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, May 27. (AP)—The weekly weather report was issued during the morning, but failed to jar prices out of their narrow trading ruts. The government's analysis of climatic conditions followed the day to day weather reports closely.

July sold at 11.44 during the morning, Oct. at 10.44, Dec. at 10.38 and March at 10.38.

Report that an important operator on the New York Cotton Exchange had failed to meet his obligations brought no immediate response from prices.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, May 27. (AP)—(USDA)—Hogs 2,000, 5 to mostly 10 lower; top 9.65; desirable 170-260 lbs 9.45-60; 270-325 lbs 9.25-45; better grades 140-160 lbs 9.35-60; sows 8.35-85.

Cattle 3,500; calves 1,200; fed steers opening slow, steady to easier; most bids 15-25 lower; early sales fed steers downward from 8.25; choice mixed yearlings and fed heifers 8.35; butcher cows 5.00-6.00.

Sheep 4,000; spring lambs fully steady with Tuesday's close or low time; other classes unchanged; early top native spring lambs 11.75; choice lots held at 12.00; Arizona springers to shippers 11.00; other Arizonas and Texas 10.25-60.

ACCUSED OF 'GUNNING'

GALVESTON, May 27. (AP)—Testimony that George Musey, former "big time" run runner, was "gunning" for O. J. (Windy) Goss the night Musey was slain in a night club here, was given at Goss' murder trial here today.

Miss Alta Harrell was admitted to Pampa-Jarratt hospital for medical attention last night.

Mrs. Ralph Zeigler and son were taken to their home from Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Went to McLean

McLean Lions yesterday heard a report on the Panhandle Centennial celebration, made by F. G. Hughes, general chairman, and enjoyed numbers by the Pampa Lions quartet composed of Bob Rose, Dude Balthrope, Jack Dunn, and Chick Hickman. Olin E. Hinkle was program chairman. Others in the party were A. M. Teed, Clifford Braly, and Joe Gordon. Jess Cobb, McLean youth who won fifth place in a national cornet-playing contest in Cleveland recently, was introduced as an honorary member of the McLean club.

To Preach Tonight

The Rev. F. L. Paisley, minister of the Church of Christ at Mineral Wells, will speak at the Frances Avenue Church of Christ this evening, at 8 o'clock. It will be his first appearance in the Panhandle. He is widely known for his writing and speaking. The public is being invited to hear him.

Here From Indiana

Mrs. James Rittenhouse and two children are here visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph R. Thomas, and family. Mrs. Rittenhouse and Mrs. Thomas will leave in a few days on a visit to California.

Two Charged

Jack K. Randolph and R. L. East are in jail under $2500 bond, charged with operating an automobile between Kellerville and LeFors while intoxicated. Yesterday East was fined $126.25 at LeFors for driving without a driver's license. Their car collided with one driven by Amos N. Dunn of Sulphur, Okla., who with his wife and 21-month-old baby daughter were en route home from a vacation trip to Amarillo. No serious injuries were received by those in the two cars. The cars, both 1936 model Oldsmobiles, were badly damaged.
