Grandstanding

A LITTLE incident reported from Perugia, Italy, where the Italian army is in annual maneuvers, helps to explain the enormous popularity of Benito Mussolini.

Grandstanding? To be sure, but it goes over in a big way and helps to account for the tremendous hold Mussolini has upon his people.

German Woman Awaiting Trial For Dad's Death

SAN MARCOS (UP)—Without apparent anxiety, Emilie Kappelmann, 37, native born German woman, sat in a cement cage to await trial.

Kappelmann was killed by hatchet blows aimed on his head and his daughter is accused.

was meant to us—awfully mean—for two years, she said.

The death of a younger sister so grieved her father that he often asked her and her mother of being responsible and threatened to kill the entire family, the woman said.

For the past six months I have been eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and cannot praise it too highly.

"Am fifty years of age. All my life have been troubled with constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has not only helped me, but has cured me."

"I thought I couldn't like the taste of bran, but Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is delicious."—Mrs. C. J. Turner, 507 Hanover Street, Fall River, Mass.

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things which overcome constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract.

Yankees Clinch Tie, Cubs Lose Game

The Yankees clinched at least a tie for the National league flag Monday when they ruffled in the 12th inning to defeat Cleveland, but the Chicago Cubs fell back a notch in their efforts to sew up the National league title by losing to Brooklyn.

The Yankees could lose all of their remaining 12 games, with Washington and Philadelphia winning all of theirs, and be assured of a play-off. One more victory, or a loss either for the second place Athletics or the third place Senators, will put the world series in Yankee stadium.

The Cubs, on the other hand, still needed to win 10 of their remaining 14 games to assure themselves a victory over the Pirates.

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP

Two members of the 1931 Big Spring Steers will enroll in Tulsa and Baylor Universities next week. These two young men last season compiled individual scoring records that placed them at the top of the state list in their respective positions, and one, we believe, was sort of a record.

Jack Dennis scored 145 points in eight games, an average of around three touchdowns per contest goes to Tulsa. Robert Wilson of Corsicana came in second with 139. David Hopper, the Coahoma tackle, going to Baylor, scored six touchdowns in his first five games, scoring on blocked punts that rolled behind the opposition's goal line. In all he gained 146 yards - without once being called upon to carry the ball.

Captain this all-star selection by J. A. Smith; Cruz (Tigers); L. Gonzales (Tigers); J. A. Garcia (Tigers); Joe Valdez (Tigers); J. Walker (Cohoma); B. Garcia (Tigers); B. Crumier (Forsan); P. Fierro (Tigers); Lefty Wright (Tigers); Subia (Tigers); J. Juan Garcia, the Tiger first baseman and Scoutmaster, sends in the following: L. Walker (Cohoma); Madison (Big Spring); Harris (Coaden); A. Garcia (Tigers); B. Fierro (Tigers); Hutto (Cohoma); B. Wright (Tigers); Payne (Tigers) p.

It is interesting to note that up to last Sunday afternoon Lefty Wright had received exactly two votes for a pitcher's position on the all-star team. "Once then he has been named on every ballot received by this department Sunday, you remember. Wright blanked Coahoma to win a class game 2 to 0.

Sunday the Big Spring Country Club will be host to the Sand Belt Golf Association. The championship will then be officially awarded, altho passed upon, and the point leader for the year announced.

The meeting was scheduled for Snyder, but when Big Spring applied for the brief convention every city instantly agreed to the change. That afternoon the locals will round out a successful season of competition by meeting the Odessa troupe of bramae hustlers. Second place will be aimed at by the Big Spring linksmen.

Jack Kirkland, labelled the "knockout artist" from Waco, will tackle Tommy Irvin of Midland in the scintillating Friday's bill at the Casino. The announcement was made by Mr. Lex A. James.

Kirkland has beaten, among other people, young Kid Whittington, the Wellington flash. To do justice to Ray Simmons' protege, however, the Waco lad carried a weight advantage of around fifteen pounds. If Kirkland can weigh in at around 145 the two may come together in a future headline.

From the pages of the Midland Reporter-Telegram comes the following comment concerning Kirkland's opponent: "Irwin has lost but a few fights in his four year career, and these by narrow margins. He has won a great number of fights. He is a surging, always crowding sort of fighter, and one that draws the audience through the turnstiles. He is not in the Wet States May Need New Fling Says Dry Leader. WASHINGTON (UP)—Dr. Howard Hyde Russell, dry leader and founder of the Anti-Saloon League, believes it may be necessary to give wet states one more fling at liquor before they are converted to prohibition.

"Prohibition came in the war period and as a result of the war," Dr. Russell said. "It came 20 or 25 years sooner than we expected it. It didn't come too soon, though."

"We found that this early arrival made it harder to teach the truth in the 10 or 12 wet states where prohibition had been forced on them in a sense. They became angry. They heard us with fists clenched."

"These states wouldn't learn pink now, but the Waco lad will have to keep fast, elusive ring music to keep from hearing 'sweet music'."

Nevertheless, we pick Kirkland.

Enforcement - Not Repeal

WHAT POWER COULD THE PRESIDENT EXERCISE THAT COULD EFFECT THE PROHIBITION LAW?

The president has the power to appoint the following: Secret Service Staff; U. S. Marshals; The Entire Federal Constabulary; Prohibition Commissioner; Coast Guard; Secretary of the Treasury who must determine the policy of enforcement; Customs Officers; Federal District Attorneys; U. S. District Judges; U. S. Circuit Judges and other U. S. Judges; Ministers, Envoys and Consuls who negotiate treaties with foreign countries; Secretary of State; Justices of the Supreme Court who have the power to tear the heart out of the prohibition amendment and the Volstead law.

DR. ATTICUS WEBB INCLUDED ON LIST OF ENEMIES. Dr. Atticus Webb, superintendent of the Texas Anti-Saloon League, is listed by the Crusaders, national repeal organization among the nine "public enemies." The list is published from Southwestern district headquarters by Wilbur D. Bacon, director.

The nine, selected by the Washington, D. C. battalion, are described as persons "whose professional interest in prohibition is thwarting the passage of legislation in accordance with the will of the majority of the people."

"Undoubtedly," says the bulletin, "if these men could be suppressed, the prohibition movement would collapse."

The other eight "enemies" are Dr. Ernest H. Cherrington, research and publicity director of the Anti-Saloon League; Dr. F. Scott McBride, its general superintendent; Dr. Daniel A. Poling; Dr. Clarence True Wilson, head of the Methodist board of prohibition temperance and public morals; Dr. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, head of the national prohibition board of strategy; Bishop James Cannon, Jr.; Dr. D. Leigh Colvin, national chairman of the Prohibition party, and Deets Pickett, research secretary of the Methodist board.

Injunctions Are Issued Against 'Travel Bureaus'

AUSTIN (UP)—Citations were sent out on temporary injunctions secured by Assistant Attorney General Willis Gresham against "travel bureaus" in Dallas. Gresham admitted that the suits there probably will be followed by others directed against bureaus at other places.

The injunctions were asked on the ground that the bureaus involved are in reality engaged in the motor transportation business in such a way as to require them obtaining a permit from the state railroad commission.

The temporary orders have been issued in 12th district court here. No time for a hearing, has been set.

The injunctions are against the A. and P. Travel Exchange, Mrs. H. Park, operating a "coast to coast" service; J. E. Gibson, Mrs. J. B. Gibson and Earline Gibson as operators of the Dixie Bureau, Gib Auto Travel Bureau and Dallas Travel Bureau; and R. H. Bonner as operator of the Reliable Auto Travel Bureau.

Petitions set out that in arranging for transportation, bureaus act in connection or in control of motor buses in a way to make them operators within the motor bus law.

'Share Work' Drive Opens

Movement Designed To Give Employment To Two Millions

NEW YORK (UP)—Some of the nations leading industrialists and an office full of assistants in the fortress-like Federal Reserve Bank here today mobilized public opinion in a great national effort to induce the employed to "share the work" with 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 jobless.

The office is the headquarters of the co-ordination committee of banking and industrial committees of the nation's 12 federal reserve districts. It houses the machinery behind the "share the work" movement that grew out of President Hoover's recent conferences.

Directing that office is dynamic Walter C. Teagle, president of the Federal Reserve Bank of New Jersey, who has obtained a leave of absence to lead the drive.

Working beside him is chairman L. C. Walker, economist and president of the Shaw-Walker Company of Muskegon, Mich., who has already aided in making a "share the work" movement a reality in his own city.

"We must obtain a better distribution of spending power; we must restore consuming power to the unemployed," Walker told the United Press. "The circle of cumulative deflation is readily broken when all are consuming again. And the 20,000,000 wage earners in jobs can obtain security for their own jobs by sharing with the potential consumers outside."

The "share the work" plan has already proven effective on the Pacific coast, in New Hampshire, and with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

NEW YORK (UP)—The recent increase of 7 barrels a day per well in the East Texas area might have caused serious trouble to the oil industry had not major oil companies taken steps to curb the extra output. T. S. Hoge, petroleum engineer, declared today.
"The price structure would have collapsed," Hoge said, "operators in every field in the country would have disregarded proration, and the result would have been receiver-ship and the loss of billions of dollars to the American investor had not the same executives who are responsible for the price of oil in the East Texas area been 300 per cent from its low of last July 1929 for putting the industry in the best statistical position that it ever was in, stopped in promptly and efficiently at that time."
"This action came unexpectedly."

It was unjustified. Operators who wanted it, without thought of the good of the industry, worked for the restriction in the primary of two members of the railroad commission.

HOUSTON (UP)—W. S. Parish, president of the Humble Oil & Refining company which has effected a 50 per cent reduction of its oil takings from three Texas fields, described the state's resulting injunction, suit and an interruption to its primary program.
A temporary injunction restraining the company from violating provisions of the Texas primary oil taking law as interpreted by Attorney James V. Allred, was granted at Austin last night by District Judge W. F. Robertson.

Allred and Assistant Attorney General Fred A. March (now in the Humble Oil & Refining) said that it would reduce purchases of crude oil as a move to override orders of the Texas Railroad Commission.
Humble's order was announced last Friday and became effective Monday, affecting Danbury, North and East Texas fields.

Parish's statement followed:
"The company was starting considerable oil which was necessary as the production from wells which it was conducting in excess of its own consumption, for sale to other. Rather than adopt another policy, and in order to avoid inconvenience or injury to its customers and to treat their oil the same as its own oil, the company arranged through the Humble Pipe Line company to ship its own excess production and to share the excess production of its customers over and above the amount that it should consume and sell."

"This program has been interrupted by the injunction granted, we think, although we have not seen the court papers and are relying on telegraphic information from the clerk of the court."
"Before the passage of the primary purchase act, the Humble company had adopted and has since uniformly followed the policy of sharing its market outlet with its crude customers. We can not and will not purchase any more crude ties and fraud is in part of the following nature, to-wit:

(a) That in various sections of Texas certain supporters and election officials conspired to defeat the will of the people of Texas by taking transient persons off freight trains and the streets of various cities in Texas and voting in the precinct and by use of false and fraudulent affidavits, which affidavits, in many instances, were not signed by the individual and that such transient persons were allowed the privilege of the ballot and induced by various illegal means to go to the polls and cast their votes, which votes were tabulated, counted and certified to your executive committee and given the same status as the votes cast by citizens and legal voters of such precinct and voting district.

(b) That in a great number of counties along the borders of Texas residents from Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana were transported by truck and other means into the State of Texas in a systematic way and induced and allowed to vote in the August primary in the State of Texas without having paid poll tax, being a resident of the State, county or precinct that would entitle them to participate in an election in the State of Texas.

(c) That affidavits were prepared by Ferguson supporters in some sections of the State that were not a part of the official election supplies which were designated by the State and furnished to non-residents of Texas by election officials and others to form a basis for a pretended legal right to vote and showed a system of election frauds in the part of the State in which these affidavits were prepared and used; that said affidavits in numerous instances were illegally and fraudulently used for the purpose of enabling the counting and certifying of numerous illegal votes for Ferguson that constitute a part of the tabulation now before the executive committee.

Declares Negroes Voted

(D) That the instruction of your committee to county and precinct election officials was to the effect that negroes under the law of the State of Texas were not entitled to vote in said primary; that this instruction and provision of the law was violated by election officials who allowed negroes to vote in four or more different counties in this State, and that such votes in practically every instance were cast against Ross S. Sterling and constitute a part of the illegal tabulation now before your committee.

(E) That numerous and varied fraudulent votes have been cast and tabulated in numerous sections of the State controlled by election judges favorable to Miriam A. Ferguson and in many counties there has been a flagrant disregard of the instruction of your committee to county and precinct election officials in that no poll tax lists were furnished or used by the judges of the precinct, boxes, as the law requires, that any and all persons who presented themselves to such poll places were allowed to vote without regard to their legal right to do so and that said votes were counted and tabulated and constitute a part of the returns now before your committee.

"Your petitioners would show that fraudulent and illegal votes were cast as above referred to and which your petitioners of New Braunfels to furnish competent evidence as to their identity constitute a fraud on the State of Texas, and are sufficient in number to change the face of the returns and to justify annulment of this committee's certification of the name of Ross S. Sterling as the Democratic nominee for Governor of the State of Texas."

Petition in Rehearsal

"In this connection your petitioners would inquire whether your committee at this time is lawfully authorized to receive and pass upon the merits of a contest petition or whether under the law such a petition should be filed with your committee after the certification of the results has been made to the State Democratic convention and in this connection your petitioners would show to your committee that in case you can under the law receive a contest petition, your petitioners are ready, willing and anxious to present to your committee a formal, detailed petition containing the nomination of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson as Governor of Texas, and in connection therewith present to your committee competent evidence to prove the allegations therein contained at this time."

"However, if your honorable committee or the chairman thereof holds or finds that you are not at this time lawfully authorized to receive such a petition, her evidence and determine the question involved therein, your petitioners will refrain from filing said petition at this time and without the same to be filed after certification either before your committee or in a court of proper jurisdiction as your petitioners may elect."

Sam Morris Speaks Here

The Fall That Included All Topic Of Monday

Sam Morris of Stamford, who is visiting with the Missionary Baptist Church meeting on Goliad street this week spoke last night on the subject "The Fall That Included Us All." His message was an exposition of the third chapter of Genesis which deals with the fall of Adam. He said: "The fall was instigated by Satan, a personal devil with whom we must all deal. The temptation was attractive and fatal in that through this fall came the fall of all mankind. 'For as by one man sin entered and death by sin and so death passed upon all men for all have sinned.'—Romans 5:12.

Two things of special notice in the message were: First—a definition of sin. "It was not drinking, it was not adultery, it was not covetousness, it was not murder, it was not lying, it was not violating the Sabbath, it was not the usual run of deeds that are designated as sin—it was rebellion against the will of God. God forbade them from eating of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, they ate, therefore, they rebelled against the will of God."
"They were expelled from the garden, not because they had eaten of the forbidden fruit, but because God did not want them to eat of the tree of life and live forever in their fallen, un saved nature. It was not a punishment from God, but it was a precautionary measure with Him. It was not for their punishment but for their good. It was not an act of wrath but an act of mercy."
"The Blessing Of Unanswered Prayer" will be the subject tonight. The service will start at 8 o'clock. Many prayers are answered, many are unanswered; they are both a blessing. This will be an exposition of the seventh chapter of the gospel of John.

Side Quit Hurting, Got Stronger, Well; CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well. Cardui is sold at drug stores here."
