"Contrary to the general impression, the present drought conditions are by no means injurious to agriculture as a whole but may even be considered slightly favorable," says Arthur Jenkins, editor of the Farm Journal.

"The first thing to remember—and business men seem to overlook this fact—is that agriculture is national. No section of the country predominates national outlook as far as income is concerned, despite the fact that the middle west has had so much publicity about its troubles. The probability is that the total farm income for 1936-1937 will be as high as expected three months ago, and may be higher. This is borne out by government statistics and other agencies which have analyzed conditions in every state in the union."

"The reasons for this should be fairly obvious. Farm income is made up of the volume of production times the selling price per unit. The selling price varies, roughly, inversely as the volume. Hence a drought that reduces production volume is at the same time raising prices."

"As a matter of fact many studies indicate that the variations in price are somewhat greater than those in volume—a shortage of five per cent under a normal supply of a farm crop raising the price considerably more than five per cent, and vice versa. In the recent case of potatoes, for example, an unexpected running out of old crop supplies caused an almost vertical rise in prices, although the shortage was actually a slight one."

"If agriculture had its choice, it would no doubt prefer a moderate production of all crops in all sections at fair prices to all. That never happens. There are always irregularities, and the droughts of 1936 are merely some of the exaggerated examples of this principle."

"Almost everybody meets up with some sudden disillusionment as they plod along life's highway. . . . It stuns quite a bit, but serves to bring one to a realization that humans are strange creatures. . . . Many of us are like flap-jacks, never knowing which way to flop."

"Others of us are very similar to a bull in a china shop. . . . Most of us talk too much. . . . Occasionally, if we let our tongues run too freely, they will cause a wound, deeper than we had intended. . . . However, a burning conscience should chastise us for it, and it usually does—albeit the damage has been done."

"Poison ivy to the person who isn't big enough to double-check himself before going too far. . . . At times this column breathes deeply. This is one of them."

"This note is pinned on our desk: 'Congrats to Amarillo Daily News. Tack finally referred to Pampa as PAMPA, and NOT Amarillo.' Apparently, Tack, you ain't been doing right by Nell, or something."

"Woman phones to inquire if author of this space isn't Oklahoma. . . . Something he wrote the other day leads her to guess as much. . . . Some we have asked about it, say this could be complimentary or otherwise. . . . The woman's guess, though, is wrong. This, by the way, is no reflection on Oklahoma."

"May Stevens, of Canadian, sends this poem which fits in so well in this last week of August. It's called 'Vacation Time' and goes like this:

LATE AFTERNOON.
Friends away on a trip all past week.
On the bank of a trout stream or creek
They were casting a line.
O Vacations are fine!
Must be great! We'd like 'em go for a week.

NEXT DAY.
They got home late last night,
Tired and sore,
Sunburn, skeeter bites, chiggers galore.
We stayed home and didn't fuss.
We enjoy work, that's us.
A bit envious? We're not, anymore.

"Because we make reference here occasionally to that old favorite, the hamburger sandwich, the same contributor sends this little story along:

O, THE JUICY HAMBURG!
Daughter, ten years old, was attending her first club convention with her mother. They were having lunch, with other delegates, at a first-class restaurant where the service was excellent.

WAR SECRETARY GEORGE DERN IS DEAD

SPES BLAMED IN FAILURE TO BLAST ARMIES

REBELS FAIL AT IRON BUT TAKE MADRID'S WATER SUPPLY

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Rebel airplanes bombed Madrid Wednesday night, private unconfirmed information reaching London tonight averted. Damage to Madrid was said to have been slight.

BY ELMER W. PETERSON.
WITH SPANISH GOVERNMENT FORCES AT IRON, Spain, Aug. 27 (AP)—Wearry government leaders tonight said spies among their own militiamen had frustrated a plan to blow advancing rebel armies to bits in a field planted with dynamite.

The government chiefs, however, said a two-day rebel onslaught on Iron had failed under the government machine gun fire which killed hundreds of insurgents. They said their own losses were trivial, but official estimates stated they were about half the rebel casualties.

Before the rebels launched their attack yesterday morning, the government leaders said, large quantities of dynamite had been buried under passes through which the insurgents were expected to advance.

Wires were stretched from the explosives to positions well behind the defending lines, and government advance posts were withdrawn to draw the rebels through the trap.

When the passes were filled with rebels, the defending officers pushed their detonating machines.

Nothing happened.

Today, when the valley was recaptured, an inspection disclosed the wires had been cut. The government leaders blamed spies within their own ranks.

BURGOS, Spain, Aug. 27 (AP)—(By courtesy to Hendaye, France)—Gen. Emilio, rebel troops drove into their lines three miles closer to Madrid today after five days of bloody fighting.

The troops, aided by artillery and planes, captured important positions on Cerro Nevero, dominating the Lozoya valley about 40 miles north of the capital.

Nervous Gunman Robs Sudan Bank

Bandit Escapes With $2,200 Cash This Morning

SUDAN, Texas, Aug. 27 (AP)—A lone, nervous bandit robbed the First National bank here of $2,200 at 10:15 o'clock this morning and escaped.

Unmasked and clean-shaven, the gunman first asked for the bank's president, P. E. Boersen. Informed Boersen was not in, the bandit waited about 60 seconds and drew a small-caliber revolver on L. I. Anthony, assistant cashier.

Anthony complied. He said he put in about $1,300 in $20 bills, $500 in $5 bills, $350 in $10 bills, and about $50 in $1 bills. No silver was taken.

Backing out of the bank, the gun in his right hand and the bag in his left hand, the gunman locked the bank door. He fled southward in a 1931 Buick sedan with yellow wheels. His route was toward Worth, Cochran county.

Twelve miles south of here he could have turned west toward Portales, N. M., east toward Lubbock, or could have continued southward.

South Plains officers immediately were notified of the robbery.

Negro's Arrest Believed to End Thefts by Gang

WACO, Aug. 27 (AP)—A gang suspected of widespread stealing of corrugated iron and other materials was believed broken up, Sheriff W. B. Mobley said today, with the filing of their first complaints at Madisonville, Caldwell and Cleburne against Clarence Slaton, a negro.

Slaton was arrested in a truck loaded with 7,000 pounds of corrugated iron, identified as stolen at Caldwell. The sheriff said an attempt was made to sell the iron here.

The Madisonville charge involved theft of a pipe cutter, also recovered. The Cleburne case involved theft of a tool chest, unaccounted for, and 300 pounds of corrugated iron, also still missing, at Grandview.

Sheriff Mobley expressed his opinion about six other persons, some of them whites and some negroes, were implicated in the thefts.

COURT MARTIAL REVEALED FOR MOFFETT SON

LOSS OF DOCUMENTS CHARGED TO NAVY OFFICER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Lieut. William A. Moffett, Jr., charged with losing confidential naval documents, has been court-martialed by the navy.

This was learned authoritatively today although findings of the court martial, which was conducted with great secrecy last May, have not been disclosed.

Moffett, an aviator stationed at the naval station here, is the son of the late Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the bureau of aeronautics, who went to his death in the crash of the dirigible Akron.

The officer drew the documents from Navy files to aid him in preparing for examinations for promotion. Navy officials said it was customary for officers to be given permission to use confidential files when studying for examinations.

The missing papers were said to have been placed in Moffett's automobile from where they disappeared in some manner not known either to authorities or to Moffett.

The nature of the documents was a closely guarded secret although there were said to include confidential publications used in signal work.

The recommendations of the court martial board were sent to Rear Admiral Gilbert G. Rowcliff, judge advocate general of the navy, and to Rear Admiral Adolphus Andrews, chief of the bureau of navigation.

Ordinarily several months elapse between the conclusion of a court martial and the publication of the board's findings.

Eleanor Holm Jarrett has a staunch defender of her conduct on famous champagne odyssey to the Olympics in Charles MacArthur, playwright-husband of actress Helen Hayes, with whom she is pictured on return to New York from a vacation in Europe.

The swimming star's conduct was "exemplary" during the time she was at his table, MacArthur said, denying she was his companion at a party.

District's Credit Men To Meet Here

Two Organizations Will Convene on Sept. 13

Pampa will be the convention city for the Panhandle-Plains Secretaries' association and the Panhandle Credit Granters association in a joint session here September 13 at the Schenker hotel. A combined meeting of the association will be held in the morning. The afternoon sessions will be convened separately.

A program is being arranged and more than 100 persons are expected to attend. In the past, bi-monthly meetings of the secretaries' association were held. Recently it was decided to have semi-annual conferences. Pampa was selected as the first convention city.

Rollo Townsend of Amarillo is president of the Panhandle-Plains Secretaries' association. J. R. Hazzelwood of Amarillo is president of the Credit Granters association which is open to credit managers or representatives of stores doing large credit business.

Mexican Highway Open After Flood

LAREDO, Texas, Aug. 27 (AP)—C. E. Barber of Lake Charles, La., was quoted by the Mexican Trans (news) agency today as saying flood waters at Llimon, Tamaulipas, last week reached a stage of 15 feet, causing much damage to homes and crops.

Detachments of federal troops were detailed to aid stranded motorists along that section of the Laredo-Mexico City highway. Garbert, according to the agency, said reports of damage elsewhere on the highway were "greatly exaggerated."

The highway was opened again for traffic Sunday with numerous cars traveling between Laredo and Mexico City, the agency reported.

HAD CONTINUED WORK THROUGH LONG ILLNESS

BURIAL PROBABLY TO BE IN HIS HOME STATE, UTAH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Sinking into a coma after a prolonged illness, George Henry Dern, 64-year-old secretary of war in the Roosevelt cabinet, died here today of cardiac and kidney complications following an influenza attack.

He died at 10:55 a. m. (EST) at Walter Reed hospital. Six members of his family were near his hand as he died.

Word immediately was telegraphed to President Roosevelt, who at the time was near Bismarck, N. D., aboard his special train on a drought inspection trip.

Simultaneously, orders were drafted for army posts throughout the country to lower their flags to half staff and to fire a mourning gun every half hour after reveille tomorrow. After the blowing of retreat tomorrow night, 19-gun salutes will be fired at all posts.

Funeral Not Planned.

Plans for the funeral of the secretary of war were not immediately announced. It was indicated his body would be taken to Utah, where four years ago he occupied the governor's chair, since the law specifies that only men who served in the military forces can be buried in Arlington National Cemetery here.

All of the army will pay him homage, however, with officers wearing mourning bands and black crepe upon their sabres for 30 days. A guard of honor was ordered immediately to the hospital.

There were scores of expressions of sorrow immediately after word of Dern's passing spread through the capital. Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary of war, who becomes acting secretary said the nation has suffered an "irreparable loss."

Gen. Main Craig, army chief of staff, said "Secretary Dern was a true friend of the army. He worked unceasingly in behalf of national defense."

Family at Bedside.

Members of the secretary's family at the hospital were his widow, his daughters, Mrs. Harry Baxter and Miss Elizabeth Dern, and his sons, William, John and James.

Dr. Fritz Meyer, noted German heart specialist called here from Boston at the direction of President Roosevelt, was in consultation with

President Will Attend Funeral

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The White House said today that President Roosevelt would arrange to attend the funeral of Secretary Dern who died here this morning.

A presidential secretary told reporters that Mr. Roosevelt, now on a tour of drought states, was informed of Dern's death when his train stopped at Steele, N. D.

The chief executive, by telephone from the train, ordered all flags in the District of Columbia and all army posts lowered to half staff and requested Secretary Hull to issue a public statement officially notifying the people of the United States of Dern's passing.

McNutt, Murphy Being Mentioned To Succeed Dern

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Two names entered prominently today in speculation over a successor to Secretary of War George H. Dern, who died here today after a long illness.

Paul V. McNutt, governor of Indiana and a former national commander of the American Legion, and Frank Murphy, high commissioner to the Philippines, were among those frequently mentioned.

Harry H. Woodring, assistant secretary and another of those spoken of in this connection, became acting secretary of war today and will continue to act as head of the department until a successor has been named by President Roosevelt.

Murphy now is on leave as high commissioner of the Philippines to make the race as Democratic candidate for governor of Michigan. Observers here considered even mention of his name was contingent on the outcome of the Michigan political campaign.

McNutt has long been interested in military affairs. He served in the artillery during the world war, and has been a civilian advisor to the fifth army corps board and to the secretary of war, representing Indiana.

Murphy, a lawyer and a former mayor and congressman, also served in France with the infantry and in Germany with the American army of occupation.

Lumber Dealers Learn FHA Plan Details in Talks

Lumber dealers of this section of the Panhandle are ready to discuss with clients the construction of residences under Federal Housing administration plans.

More than 30 dealers met yesterday in city hall with FHA officers who went into all technical parts of the FHA program. They learned how to fill out application papers and are ready to cooperate with prospective builders. Earl O'Keefe, president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Pampa, told the FHA representatives that his company was willing to cooperate in any way possible.

Here for the meeting were P. L. Luttrill, associate director of the northwest Texas district of the FHA, M. R. Carp, staff valuator, and Phil C. Record, assistant to the director.

Lumber dealers from Pampa, MeLean, Shamrock, Borger, Canadian, Perryton, Allison and Wheeler were at yesterday's meeting.

The FHA program has been somewhat of a mystery to lumber dealers, contractors and prospective home owners in the past. Now the lumbermen can intelligently give necessary information to applicants, it was stated.

Ex-Crown Prince of Spain Rests After Slight Hemorrhage

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Alfonso de Borbon, Count of Covadonga and erstwhile heir to the Spanish throne, was reported resting comfortably today at the Columbia Presbyterian medical center where he was rushed last night after suffering a hemorrhage.

Dr. Antonio Valenti and Dr. Louis Ruffolo of the hospital staff said the count was in no danger and that the hemorrhage was slight.

The count is a sufferer from hemophilia, a condition which causes his victims to bleed excessively from the slightest wounds. The disease is common to male descendants of the Hapsburg-Battenberg line, and is transmitted through the women of that family, who, however, are not affected.

Invalid Girl and Two Boys Burned With Farm Home

CORSICANA, Tex., Aug. 27 (AP)—Funeral services were planned today for three persons who were fatally burned late yesterday when a farm house in the Pursley community fourteen miles southwest of Corsicana was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

The dead: Dixie Lorene Massey, aged 23 years, invalid daughter of J. D. Massey of Pursley and Leonard Davis, aged four years, and Johnny Davis, aged two years, sons of Mrs. Myrtle Davis of Corsicana.

Officers who investigated circumstances surrounding the tragedy reported that Miss Massey and the two lads were alone at the house at the time of the fire. The mother of the children, officers said, had left them at the Massey home and was en route to Corpus Christi. The mother had not been located this morning.

Funeral rites for Miss Massey were held this morning while the two for children will be buried this afternoon.

Suit for Damage By Bus Settled

The damage case brought against the Panhandle Stages Co. by Larry Ray, and which ended in a mistrial in district court here last month, has been settled out of court and an order for dismissal was entered on the local docket yesterday afternoon.

Ray, injured last December when one of the defendant's buses between Pampa and Amarillo overturned in a ditch, had sought damages of $30,000 in the original petition.

Army doctors just before the war secretary died.

During the night, it was disclosed, Dorn had been placed under an oxygen tent in an effort to prolong his life.

Dorn's death, friends said, followed a general physical breakdown originating in a severe attack of influenza when he was governor of Utah five years ago, and from which he never fully recovered.

Since then he has suffered from recurrent influenza attacks and severe colds which gradually weakened him and placed an extremely heavy strain on his heart.

Dorn—twice governor of Utah before rising to the cabinet—entered Walter Reed the big army hospital here on July 13 for "rest, treatment and a physical check" after he became ill during an inspection of army engineer projects on the Delaware river in Pennsylvania.

In April he spent six weeks in the hospital after contracting influenza on a similar inspection trip down the Atlantic intra-coastal waterway. He was brought back to the capital by plane.

President Roosevelt and high ranking army officers were cognizant of the seriousness of Secretary Dorn's condition for nearly a year. Although no announcement was made it was learned immediately after Dorn entered the hospital the last time that doctors entertained little hope for his recovery.

Specialists from Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore were called into consultation with the army medical center's staff in late July, but Dorn had become too weakened by the long fight he had made to respond to treatment.

President Roosevelt visited the ailing cabinet officer at the hospital shortly before departing on his mid-August inspection trip through the New York and Pennsylvania flood areas, and since that time has received frequent reports on Dorn's condition.

Despite his illness, Dorn began work early in August on his annual report. He consulted with General Malin Craig, chief of staff, and other department officials but was unable to continue the work.

Hospital officials reported that Dorn was making progress toward recovery until, in mid-August, uremia developed.

Woodring assumed the duties of acting secretary pending an appointment by President Roosevelt.

Lawyers Defeat Proposals to Ask Various Probes

BOSTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The American Bar association today defeated a resolution calling for an investigation of alleged "abuses" in the prosecution of Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings, now serving life sentences for participation in the San Francisco preparedness day bombings.

The association, voting in rapid succession upon a group of resolutions which had been submitted by members, also defeated a proposal to request an investigation of the Black Legion and another for an investigation of the arrest of strikers at the R. C. A. plant in Camden, N. J., and at scenes of other labor troubles.

The Mooney-Billings resolution proposed appointment of a special committee to investigate and report to the association within four months. It proposed that if it were found the alleged abuses existed the association should render such legal aid and other assistance as might be deemed necessary.

Riot Leaders in Killing of Japs Executed Today

SHANGHAI, Aug. 27 (AP)—Chengtu authorities executed two alleged ringleaders of Monday's rioting. Chinese reports said here today, while Japanese asserted the bodies of their two slain countrymen were found outside the city walls.

The Japanese said Chinese had rioted in Chengtu to prevent the reopening of a Japanese consulate there, killing the two Japanese and wounding others.

Smuggling of Japanese goods into North China continued unabated, rarely causing an international incident at Tientsin when a crowd of Japanese sought to prevent the Chinese customs from confiscating 2,000 bags of smuggled sugar.

Paper Is Listed Unfair to Labor

SEATTLE, Aug. 27 (AP)—The Seattle central labor council stood pat today on its listing of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer as "unfair to organized labor" and in supporting the newspaper strike of the Seattle chapter of the American Newspaper Guild.

The strike, which closed the newspaper August 14, was discussed at the regular meeting of the council last night.

Rowland Watson, American Federation of Labor representative here, concluded an investigation into circumstances under which the council placed the newspaper on the "unfair" list while printing trades unions held contracts with it. Watson said his report would be made direct to William Green, President of the A. F. of L.

Fifty Pacific northwest newspaper publishers, meeting here, endorsed a resolution of the American Newspaper Publishers association protesting to Green "the lawless acts of certain affiliates of the A. F. of L. at Seattle," and pointing out "that such action if condoned by the A. F. of L. means a great loss of confidence in all contracts with union labor."

RRA Appointments Announced for Five

DALLAS, Aug. 27 (AP)—D. P. Trent, regional director of the Rural Rehabilitation Administration, announced today appointment of Dr. J. T. Sanders, of the Oklahoma A. & M. college, and W. J. Green, formerly of Washington, as assistants.

Trent said Dr. Sanders' acceptance depended upon obtaining a leave of absence from the college. He said Dr. Sanders would have charge of land utilization.

Green was formerly district agent for southeastern Oklahoma and once chief of the co-operatives and community service division of the administration in this area.

Trent also announced appointment of Tulane Smith, formerly of Mineral Wells, as his executive assistant; C. E. Davis as personnel officer, and R. R. Lordan of Galveston as regional loan officer.

COUNTRY CLUB, South Bend, Ind., Aug. 27 (AP)—Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., made a courageous defense of her Women's Western Closed golf title today to defeat Mrs. Opal Hill, of Kansas City, in a quarter final match which went 19 holes.

Two up on Mrs. Hill through the 14th, Miss Miley lost the next three holes, then rallied to take the 18th and square the match and won at the first extra hole with a par four, which Mrs. Hill just failed to match when a four-foot putt failed to drop.

ALLIES DESERT SPAIN, CLAIMS BITTER LEADER

Neutrality Pact Is Blow to State, He Says

(Editor's Note: The following interview with Indalecio Prieto, strong man behind the Spanish socialist government, was delayed eleven hours by censor).

MADRID, Aug. 27—Spain is the "Ethiopia of Europe," deserted by those nations whose vital interests should compel them to be her active allies, Indalecio Prieto, socialist "iron chieftain," declared today. Prieto, former minister of public works, spoke these bitter words in the early hours of this morning at his apartment in the well-defended, sandbagged ministry of marine.

"What help has France and Great Britain given us in our direct hour?" he asked. "None at all, while Germany, Italy and Portugal are providing our rebel enemies with all the material they want."

Prieto holds no official position but as leader of the parliamentary socialist party is the most important man behind the government. "The diplomats of Europe are very busy over their plan for a convention of neutrality and non-intervention," he continued.

"But what good is such a convention to us? None at all!" Eternally he went on.

"It will in fact damage our cause. Obviously France and Great Britain will sign it and keep their word while Germany, Italy and Portugal will sign it and go on helping the rebels as before."

"What will they say if Franco (Gen. Francisco Franco, the rebel commander-in-chief) wins and gives the Balearic Islands to Italy or Germany as a reward for their aid?"

"The Balearics, off Spain's eastern coast, might affect the balance of power in the Mediterranean if they fell into the hands of a militant power."

Court Dismisses Attack on Well Spacing Orders

AUSTIN, Aug. 27 (AP)—Attorney General William McCraw was advised today that a three-judge federal court, in an opinion filed at Tyler, had dismissed the suit of J. O. Whittington in which the constitutionality of the Railroad Commission's oil well spacing regulations was attacked.

McCraw said Whittington sought to restrain the commission from interfering with the production, sale or disposal of oil from a well drilled on a small tract in Gregg county, alleging the commission rule 37 was invalid.

Whittington also attacked the validity of a commission order of Feb. 3, 1936, directing him to stop production from the well and instructing the pipeline company not to transport such oil.

The attorney general's department defending the suit, claimed the spacing regulation and the order were valid under both state and federal constitutions. It further contended the well was unlawfully drilled.

The opinion was by U. S. District Judge T. M. Kennerly, who, with District Judge R. J. Hamilton and Circuit Judge J. C. Hutcheson Jr. composed the court.

Head Coach for Lions Sought as Vinzant Resigns

GREENVILLE, Aug. 27 (AP)—Joe I. Bergin, superintendent of schools, said today school board members would begin immediately a search for a head football coach to fill the post vacated by Dennis Vinzant.

Vinzant accepted last night the position of assistant football and head basketball coach of the Texas State Teachers college at Commerce.

Bergin said he hoped to find a successor to Vinzant in a "few days." Officials did not indicate Milton Moffett, Vinzant's assistant, would

Relatives Wait As Miners Hold Shaft in Strike

BEUTHEN, Polish Upper Silesia, Aug. 27 (AP)—Wives, mothers and children waited today at the head of a coal mine shaft at Maladom-browka, where 300 miners have been on a hunger strike for five days.

Daily at noon, the still-imprisoned miners underground lift their voices in a "hymn of sorrow."

The underground chorus chants the strikers demands; the strikers above the ground chant a response. And the women and children weep.

The miners swear they will not emerge until their overdue wages are laid on this table.

SLOW DOWN AT NIGHT

Here is some worth-while advice to motorists: As soon as darkness descends, slow down pronto!

In spite of the fact that the bulk of cars are operated almost entirely during the day, well over half of all the fatal accidents last year occurred at night. Sixty-nine per cent of the victims were pedestrians. And the death rate for the evening rush hours was over 100 per cent greater in winter than in summer, due to darkness.

Unconsciously or otherwise, many motorists chronically "overdrive their headlights"—that is, they could not bring their cars to a stop within the illuminated distance before them. And more powerful lights are no cure for this—they produce glare, a potent cause of head-on car crashes, and are justly illegal in most states.

The pedestrian, of course, is not wholly free from blame. It has been extensively publicized that one should always walk on the left side of the highway, facing on-coming traffic—but a great many night-walkers apparently haven't heard the news yet. And many of them also don't seem to realize that to walk on a dark highway wearing dark clothes is an invitation to the coroner. Light refraction is an eccentric thing—and a darkly-dressed pedestrian often can't be seen by the motorist until it is too late.

Thus, we need education for the pedestrian as well as for the auto driver. But in the meantime, the driver should take every precaution—and even go to what may seem ridiculous lengths—to operate his car safely. After all, he is in command of a potentially lethal vehicle that literally kills more men than does war. Don't take a chance!

MILLIONS FOR PATRONAGE

Michigan's antiquated spoils system costs its taxpayers a million dollars or more a year! That is the conservative estimate of the state's civil service study commission.

Among the evils of expensive patronage, the commission listed excessive labor turnover, inexperienced, incompetent, and untrained help, political activity of employees, unfair salaries and overstuffed payrolls.

What to do about it? Inaugurate civil service, the commission urges. But first launch an impartial and exhaustive survey of the patronage system to get the facts and figures before the voters.

This course is open to every state, one that should prove eminently worth while.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

WASHINGTON.—Of absorbing interest to the Washington observer are the contrasting systems of strategy being employed by the two major parties as they swing toward the stretch drive for the November election.

The Republicans, in their "build-up," have stressed Landon's common sense, his canny spending, his ability to save pennies. They picture him as a "horse-and-buggy," prairie-state, small-town man, with his feet solidly on the ground.

The Democrats are endeavoring to convince the voters that the Kansan is not big enough for the job, that he lacks the experience and the statesmanlike qualities which a president should have, and the Democratic strategists are doing everything possible to promote the idea that they are running a superman against an opponent who has yet to prove himself of presidential stature.

Landon and his advisers must meet this threat. And it is a certainty that G. O. P. strategists will be trying vigorously to do so from now on.

Spirits of New Dealers, however, have been noticeably higher during August.

Scouts sent out by the Democratic high command return with reports that there is a "creeping sense" of doubt as to Landon's ability to cope with the major national and international problems which will beset the president who takes office on Jan. 20, 1937.

The New Dealers say this is attributable to two things: 1. Landon's acceptance speech, which they contend was uninspiring in both content and delivery.

2. The Spanish situation and the threat of European war, with the many complications that would face the United States. This factor, say New Deal insiders, has alarmed some eastern conservatives who hate Roosevelt and wish they could feel sure that Landon would be strong enough to meet possible future world stresses and strains.

Further optimism is engendered by the Democratic belief that National Chairman John D. M. Hamilton has not lived up to the reputation he built at and after the Cleveland convention.

Roosevelt is not overlooking any bets along the line of whittling down Landon, as his Chautauqua speech proved. There he stressed by implication what he considers his superior qualifications for dealing with war's perils.

Roosevelt will appear constantly on the stage as a man of action, of wisdom, of experience, of great deeds. The idea will be drilled into the heads of the voters that they are being asked by the Republicans to turn out a president who knows all the ropes and replace him with one who has yet to prove his fitness to lead a great nation.

This new "buildup" of Roosevelt, apparently the central point of Democratic strategy from now on, is what the Republicans must watch and combat. They can't depend merely on what their leaders have said all along—that the country would vote "against" Roosevelt rather than "for" Landon.

The best tip now is to watch the larger and more important polls, such as those of the American Institute of Public Opinion and the Literary Digest. The politicians of both parties are doing that—intently.

Opposing chieftains in Spain's civil war now are using the hot air in their press releases for poison gas along the front lines.

The viol player of the Philadelphia symphony is transferring to the St. Louis symphony. Maybe the can double at first bass for the Cardinal baseball team.

This because it is black, naturally, the edges of the ball, or in fact any part of the ball, do not stand out as clearly as colored. Therefore, professional players, if possible, avoid the 8-ball to play in the sense that from a difficult position or with the cue ball a long distance from the 8-ball, because it is more difficult to see clearly. In reality, this fact was what started the now common saying, 'behind the 8-ball,' used in the player's vernacular in the sense that being in any kind of a difficult point on the table, many times calls for the remark that one is 'behind the 8-ball.' In other words, they use this to explain any difficult situation which may confront them in the game."

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

That most "name" players have as many idiosyncrasies of stage as they enact behind the footlights is common knowledge to those who observe them in their private life.

Fannie Brice, for instance, can't memorize the lyrics of a new song unless she is riding in a taxicab. At least she insists as much. When her husband, Billy Rose, composes a song that she doesn't like, she ridicules it in no uncertain terms.

Lynn Fontanne seldom loses her temper, but she can become mighty stern. She likes to gossip with aviators. Alfred Lunt is an expert cabinet maker and cook.

George Gershwin is an ideal guest at festivals, because he is always willing to play the piano. It is said he will play for hours and never has to be begged. Indeed, his willingness to play endless medleys of his own compositions gave rise to a rather tart observation one early daybreak.

"I'll bet Gershwin's music is still being played a hundred years from now." Q. Gershwin is alive, it will, came the reply.

George White likes to play one of the leading roles in his shows—but seldom for more than two weeks at a time. His private hobby is collecting the bones of his life.

When George Cohan starts rehearsals, he seldom has more than half a script. He fills in and writes as the rehearsals progress. Baseball

HOW'S YOUR HEALTH

By DR. JACOB CALDSTON

LITERALLY, Glaucoma means a green eye. Glaucoma is a disease of the eye due to increase of pressure within it and results in the hardening of the eye structure, the destruction of the retina, the sensitive lining membrane of the eye, and eventually causes blindness.

It is estimated that there are more than 100,000 blind persons in the United States. About 10 per cent of all blindness is caused by glaucoma. Frequently the disease literally steals upon its sufferer, without his being aware of his gradual loss of vision. Glaucoma, however, occasionally strikes with the suddenness of a bolt from the sky.

Unless the glaucoma sufferer promptly seeks the aid of an eye expert (ophthalmologist), carries out the doctor's advice faithfully and remains under medical supervision permanently, he is in very serious danger of losing his sight.

To understand the disease Glaucoma, we must appreciate the physiology of the eye. The eyeball proper is covered by a hard, inelastic and unyielding cover known as the sclera.

Talks to parents

"NECKING" By Brooks Peters Church

When young people reach the teens, one of the most important questions in their lives seems to be "shall we neck?"

The parents are frankly puzzled. To many of them the idea is a new one to none of them was it ever a matter of frank discussion.

There have always been girls who held hands and let themselves be kissed on many occasions; there have always been boys who preferred girls who were free with such favors. But 20 years ago there was a certain veil of reticence thrown about such matters. Parents certainly were never let into their children's private affairs of the heart.

Today the matter is openly talked about, but the parents do not know how to deal with the situation. If they are shocked at the way their boys or girls behave, they are laughed at as old-fashioned, or less shut out from their children's confidence. To accept completely all that the children do seems to them shirking responsibility. The children themselves are probably no better or no worse than their forebears. They are, however, much more frank.

One mother, hearing of her daughter's first kiss, was shocked and said so. Her attitude of horror made the child feel ashamed and soiled. From that time on, the girl told her nothing, and the breach between them grew wider year by year.

TODAY IS OURS by NARD JONES

Chapter III At the sound of Virginia's voice, Judith and Steve sprang apart.

"Damn!" said Steve in a low voice. "She'd naturally choose this time to come popping in here. I'll skip along, Judith. I can see you tomorrow."

Judith turned in the hallway. "There's no need for your running away, Steve. Please stay a little while."

Stephen stayed, finding it impossible to do anything else. Into the little apartment, as if on the crest of a typhoon, came Bob and Virginia Bent—with Toby Lynch.

"Hel-lo," Steve exclaimed Toby, extending his hand. Without enthusiasm Steve shook hands with him, returning his greeting with an unenthusiastic, "How are you, Toby?"

The two were as unlike as possible. Steve Fowler was tall and solid and thoughtful. Toby was small, almost round, and apparently had never possessed a continuous train of thought in his life. Yet, mysteriously and unaccountably, he managed to get along in the world quite as well as Steve.

Virginia shot a glance toward Judith. "Wasn't Steve a dink?" "On going out, did you? We thought we'd just drop in for a five-cornered chat. That thing Bob is holding behind him isn't his hat. It's a bottle of cocktails."

"And what cocktails," mentioned Toby. "The best special." With an effort Judith tried to project herself into a lighter mood. She held out her hand for Bob's container of cocktails. "I'll chill them in the refrigerator a while. . . . There are cigars on the little table there."

Steve followed her into the kitchen. "What's the idea of encouraging them to stay?" he whispered. "You know I wanted to talk to you."

Not looking at him, she opened the refrigerator door and set the bottle of cocktails against the icy pipes. "I can't seem to find the key," he said quietly. "And I think everything was clear, wasn't it, even before they came?"

"You mean we're finished?" "I mean we're friends. And that's all."

Steve was about to speak when Toby's raucous voice carried into the kitchen. "If you two don't get away from that refrigerator those cocktails will have no chance at all to chill."

Resignedly, Steve returned with Judith to the other room. He looked at Toby, his eyes clouded with ill concealed contempt. He had never cared much for Lynch, and he liked him even less now. More than once he had suggested to Judith that she should have nothing to do with him.

"But he's perfectly harmless," Judith always defended. "And he's a good friend of Virginia's and Bob's—so what can we do?"

Steve had said nothing to Judith about the story that was drifting around. It was one of those stories which a man will hide from the women of his acquaintance, no matter what he thinks of the protagonist of the story. Toby was supposed to have persuaded a girl to share his apartment with him in lieu of marriage. Part of the story was that they were very much in love, and were to marry—but this failed to condone the matter in Steve Fowler's mind. He had never seen Toby Lynch in the company of a young woman, and this lent credence to the story rather than not. For Toby was a congenial soul, who, under ordinary circumstances, would find an escort wherever he went. Steve had never discussed the story with Judith, but the rumor had persisted, drifting from one to another, and steadily gaining proportions with each new telling.

As Steve looked at Toby now a question formed in his mind: In all the time they had known Toby, why had he never invited them to his apartment? He had visited the Bents countless evenings; and often, like this, he would find them in a visit to Judith and Steve. Yet now he had ever been asked to be Toby's guest. Indeed, not even Bob Bent knew just where Toby Lynch lived.

The conversation, chilled a little by Steve's silence and Judith's obvious preoccupation, went rather badly. Finally, after a few minutes, Steve went to the kitchen and brought out his cocktails. They warmed the loquacious Toby into a running fire of comment, and succeeded in mellowing the Bents. But Steve drank little, and Judith always limited herself to one cocktail.

Yet Virginia made no move to leave, and Judith realized that she intended to keep herself and Toby and Bob there until Steve Fowler had departed. Plainly Virginia wasn't going to leave Judith alone with him again.

As length she set down her glass and got up. Steve looked relieved—but he was to suffer disappointment. "Judith," she said, "let's you and I go over to my apartment and scare up some sandwiches. These males look hungry, and I can tell they're dying to discuss the baseball scores."

Toby grinned at Bob. "The perfect wife," he complimented. "How does a mug like you manage to keep her?"

Virginia met this with a pleasant laugh, and stared Judith out the door. When they had gone, Bob said, "I don't keep her, Toby. She keeps herself. That's one of the advantages of having a wife who's self-supporting. She knows she can leave any time she wants to. So she doesn't see, and she's perfectly happy."

Steve laughed. He turned to Steve speculatively. "I've been expecting you and Judith to take the leap any day now, Steve."

Thoughtfully Steve twisted his pipe in his fingers. "Well . . . you see, I don't agree with Bob exactly. Her attitude of horror made the child feel ashamed and I could marry if I were willing to have her keep her job. But I'm not. I've always had an idea that a man should support his wife."

"I had that idea, too," Bob said, grinning. "But Virginia convinced me that a man should support his wife."

In any event, their children probably will strike a balance between the two extremes of primness and license.

me that I was wrong. I've always been a weak-willed person."

"There's nothing wrong with both the wife and the husband working," Toby insisted. "It's the solution to modern conditions. Or at least, it's been the solution for the past five or six years. This Guy Dan Cupid never heard of a depression. He just goes around raising the devil as if there were no such thing as a salary cut. I think Bob's dead right, Steve. He paused and looked at Fowler. "You can carry pride too far, you know."

"It's not entirely a matter of pride," Steve told him. "I've never believed a married woman should work—not when there are thousands of single girls looking for jobs and not finding them."

"That's a specious argument," Bob put in. "Oh, I'll grant that there are some married women working in offices—married women who could get along on their husband's salary. But mostly they're women who are so well trained that their job could not be filled by the average single girl looking for a job. Let's take Virginia and myself as an example. Suppose I hadn't married her? She'd be working at her job, just as she is now. So what difference does it make to the unemployment situation whether we're married or unmarried? No, Steve . . . I think you're trying to work up a logical economic argument to justify your pride."

Steve smiled slowly. "Maybe so." "Well, put in Toby, twisting impatiently in his chair. "I'd even go one step further than Bob."

"What do you mean?" asked Steve, raising his head.

"Bob and Virginia took a big chance when they married."

"With due respect to Bob, I can't see that they did," Steve argued. "Both have jobs. Either job would probably support the two of them, if they were single. I know it's a sacrifice. I can't see that they too any chance at all."

"You're wrong, Steve," said Toby, rising and walking toward the box of cigars on the little table. Carefully he took one up, lit it, and . . .

"Look here. It's a well known fact about human nature that people want what they can't have. Suppose Bob and Virginia had wanted to marry only because it looked as if they couldn't? Then discovered af-

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS.

HOLLYWOOD—Unreal parade: After watching his way through most of his latest film, "Old Hutch," Wallace Beery packed up his rod and reel and went to his mountain retreat at Silver Lake to get away from it all . . . and fish. Carol Ann, who has her own pole made to order for her size, went along, of course . . .

Old Hutch's fishing was just what he needed. He had been "sittin'" by a stream, and Beery's looking for trout, which takes activity . . . "Old Hutch" was made before in 1920, with Will Rogers, but they called it "Honest Hutch" then.

Joan Blondell, ex-Mrs. George Barnes, became the cameraman's bride after he photographed her in several pictures. Barnes met his fifth bride-to-be, Betty Wood, in the same way, through a camera lens . . . But this time there were 150 other chorus girls beside Betty passing in review there.

Harvesters Heed Call Of The Wild Between Camp Practices

Startling Change in Lineups Made by Coaches

By BILL ANDERSON

MONUMENT LAKE, Colo., Aug. 27.—Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejean have been doing things to the Harvesters football squad since they arrived Sunday evening, all the way from 2 to 8 o'clock. Practice sessions started Monday morning and the changes in the lineup started the boys themselves.

Could race for a week about the beauty of the camp site and the courtesy extended us by the City of Trinidad which has extended to us the use of the beautiful grounds, sleeping quarters, mess hall and dining room, fishing, swimming and boating privileges, and one of the best cooks in the nation.

The boys are having the time of their lives. They go boating every day, fish whenever they can get away, hike over the mountains, and eat with a capital "E."

Workouts opened Monday morning with exercises and signal drills. The afternoon session was an old-fashioned practice of running plays, passing, punting, etc.

Now for some startling information about the lineups. Although a "first string" has been named, coaches lined the first team up as follows for running plays:

Earl Rice, center; J. P. Mathews and Sherman Morgan, guards; Ivan Nobilit and L. Jones, tackles; R. Jones and Glen Maxie, ends; Woody Weidridge, quarter; Doyle Elnoe and Floyd Stevens, halves; Roy Showers, full.

The second string, whose cry is "we're going to take your place," was:

Buck Haggard, center; Don Smith and Bill Stiles, guards; Raymond Johnson and LaFolia Watts, tackles; Tippy Reynolds and Harry McManahan, ends; J. W. Graham, quarter; Boyd Owens and Albert Ayer, halves; Woody Clements, full.

Also being used regularly are Norman Cox, Erudus Redman, Melvin Turner, Arthur Harding, John Henry Nelson and Junior McKay.

All the boys are in excellent condition.

dition. They show little respect for the mountains, which they climb with abandon. There hasn't been a sign of illness or injury to date.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and son, Brent, were waiting for us when we arrived at camp. They stayed over night but left Monday morning at 6 o'clock when the Pampa-Danciger Road Runners meet the Voss Cleaners, Panhandle softball champions.

Admission to the novel game will be the same as usual, 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men.

But the Road Runners play softball and the Voss Cleaners play baseball, announce the skeptical ones. That's right, but the advantage one way or the other will be overcome by the Road Runners having to play softball and the Voss Cleaners having to play baseball.

The business managers, Brown and Drake, have difficulty keeping the footballs out of the lake, it is so close to the playing field. Onan Barnard and Dick Benton are also here and having a big time. I have to do all the work.

Mr. Fisher this morning declared that Bill wasn't stretching the truth "much" about the beauty of the place and the animals. While at Monument Lake, Mr. Fisher said he saw all kinds of animals roaming around.

A CCC camp has been established near the lake and a mammoth beautification program is in progress. Adobe cabins of the latest type are being erected. A large recreation center is also being built. By next year, Monument Lake will be one of the beauty spots of Colorado, he predicts.

CUBS' ABILITY TO REPEAT IS BIG QUESTION

FOUR STRAIGHT WINS SNAP THEM OUT OF DOLDRUMS

BY SID FERER, Associated Press Sports Writer.

Can the Cubs repeat? That's as big a question mark in the red-hot National league race today as the ability of the Giants to keep up their scintillating pace.

Back home from the most disastrous road trip of the campaign, the pennant holders are showing definite signs of snapping out of their doldrums.

The situation today is just about parallel to what it was last Sept. 4. On that date, the Cubs were in third place, 2 1/2 games back of the league leading Cardinals and half a game away from the Giants. They started one of the greatest winning streaks in the book that day, took 21 straight games, and nailed the pennant to their mast.

Today they're in third place, 2 1/2 games off the Giants' pace and a game back of the crippled Cardinals. They've taken four straight now, winding up with a twin win over the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2 and 4-1, to give them a record of five victories in their six starts since returning to Wrigley Field.

Before them are nine more games at home, including a four-game series with the Giants next week.

The injury ridden Cards took their third straight beating in his nineteenth pitching victory to stretch the winning streak of Bill Terry's galloping crew to 14 straight.

Wes (Bad Boy) Ferrell limited the Tigers to five hits for a 7-0 triumph. The Brooklyn batted the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-3, for the second straight day.

Vernon Kennedy pitched a fourth game as the White Sox slugged the Athletics 6-3.

The lowly St. Louis Browns again took over the job of chief batter of the American league's leaders, the Yankees, by pushing four runs over in the fifth inning to sew up a 5-2 win.

"Singing Joe" Cascarella chalked up a five-hit pitching performance to give the Senators a 14-1 win over the second-place Cleveland Indians.

Owens Advised To Profit From Amateur Status

LONG BEACH, Calif., Aug. 27 (AP)—A former world sprint king advised Jesse Owens today he is making a mistake in turning professional because he can make $10,000 as an amateur.

Charles W. Paddock, the last white United States winner in the Olympic 100-meter dash, contends Owens can net at least $20,000 a year for the next five years while retaining his Simon pure athletic status.

As professional, Owens' career would be ended in twelve months at least, Paddock asserts.

"If, however, Owens should stay in the amateur ranks, he would be good as a 'live name' for at least another five years," he said. "Owens could write, speak on the radio, act and run all over the world, making at least $20,000 a year and getting a training in business which would help him to carry on after his amateur athletic day had ended."

DALLAS TAKES GAME WITH MARBERRY PITCHING

(By The Associated Press) Finalists' Games

San Antonio at Dallas, Beaumont at Fort Worth, Galveston at Tulsa, Houston at Oklahoma City.

Big Fred Marberry, former major league hurler, again has demonstrated conclusively he is not washed up as a pitcher.

Last night he set San Antonio down with five hits as the league leading Dallas Steers blanked the Missions 5 to 0 to even their current Texas league series. Only one Mission reached first base.

The 18 hits Beaumont garnered off T. Paul le Blanc, Fort Worth rookie, were not enough and the Cats eked out an 8 to 7 victory over the Shippers.

After coming from behind to tie the score at Tulsa, the Galveston Bucs lost to the Oilers 6 to 5 when Ivan (Gober) Crawford, scored from second base on an infield out in the ninth inning. The victory marked the fifteenth of the season for Newell Kimball.

Ed Hall, Oklahoma City center-fielder, was the hero of the Indians 2 to 1 triumph over the second-place Houston Buffs. With two out in the ninth, he poked out a bingle that scored Bilgere from second with the winning tally. In the fourth Hall knocked Ed Bilgere home with the irbe's other counter.

Semi-Finals of Tennis Doubles Set for Friday

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 27 (AP)—Play in the men's doubles in the national doubles tournament has narrowed down to the semi-finals today, with the four top-ranking teams as the survivors—Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, the defending champions; Don Budge and Gene Macko, the U. S. Davis Cup doubles combination; Frankie Parker and Gregory Mangin, the dangerous New Jersey pair, and Bobby Riggs, the national clay court titlist, and his Los Angeles townsman, Wayne Sabin.

Instead of spreading the men's semi-finals over two days, the tournament committee decided to save both for tomorrow when Allison and Van Ryn will oppose Riggs and Sabin and the Davis Cuppers will attempt success against the Jerseyites.

All but one of the women's semi-final brackets have been filled. After Mrs. John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, and Carolin Babcock of Los Angeles, the second seeded team, oppose Helen Federson of Stamford, Conn., and Jane Stanton of Los Angeles, all the survivors will be given Friday starting times.

These include Helen Jacobs and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan, winners for the past two years; Kay Stammers, England, and Alice Marble, Palm Springs, Calif., and Mme. Syl-vit Henrotin, France, and Mrs. Dorothy Andrus, New York.

Inter-City Tennis Games Set Sunday

Ten Matches in Park Arranged With Amarillo

Amarillo tennis players will come to Pampa Sunday afternoon for matches with local players. Ten matches have been scheduled, two in each of the five events: men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles, women's doubles, mixed doubles.

Play is scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock on the courts at Central park. Players who have already scheduled games on the courts for Sunday are asked to play them off in the morning or after 6 o'clock at night, when the last matches should be over.

Amarillo's players will be in charge of Miss Twillie Mae Gibson who conducted the recent tennis tournament in that city.

The tournament is being arranged by the sports department of The Pampa Daily News. Players to compete against Amarillo will be selected from the Pampa winners of the recent summer recreation program tournament. Several out-of-town players were admitted to the tournament but only Pampans will be eligible to play in the matches with Amarillo.

Large crowds are expected to attend the matches. Excellent view of the courts can be had from the bank north of the courts.

Boxing Promoter Is Seen as Next Role for Jolson

NEW YORK, Aug. 27 (AP)—Al Jolson, who dished out $10,000 a few days ago to become a boxing manager, eyed the added role of promoter today as he rubbed elbows with fistic highlighters in Manhattan.

The stage and movie singer, talking enthusiastically of his recently acquired featherweight, Henry Armstrong, St. Louis Negro, said he wanted to sign articles for a ring headline to meet his fighter in Los Angeles in November.

Tony Canzoneri, the king of the lightweight, is his immediate objective, Jolson admitted.

"My scrapper would have to give away about nine pounds to Canzoneri," he said, "and that's a lot of weight for little fellows. But I'm sure it would be a good 'go' for I like my boy's chances."

"I'll offer up to $25,000 for the bout," he said before he left California to pay Wirt Ross $10,000 for Armstrong's contract. The young Negro recently whipped Baby Canzoneri.

Eason Loses In Semi-Pro Battle

WCHITA, Kas., Aug. 27 (AP)—The field was reduced to five teams in the national semi-pro baseball tournament today and four of them will see action tonight.

Buford, Ga., only undefeated team remaining, will play Bismarck, N. D., defending champions, at 8 p. m., and Duncan, Okla., will play Hollywood at 10 p. m.

Duncan eliminated Eason, Okla., with a 15 to 4 defeat last night, accomplishing the game-calling 10-run-or-better margin in the seventh inning Arkansas City, Kas., suffered its second and final defeat at the hands of Wichita, Kas., 6 to 3.

Grand American Is To Climb Shooting

VANDALIA, Ohio, Aug. 27 (AP)—Trapshooting's greatest show—the grand American handicap—went in dress rehearsal today as the nation's premier marksmen staged a 100-target preliminary event built on the same lines as the classic which climaxes the 37th annual program Friday.

The marksmen, according to their averages for the year on registered targets, are handicapped by being moved back from the traps. The poorest shooters stand on the 15-yard mark and the experts on the 25-yard line, with the others scattered between.

No winner of the preliminary ever has won the grand American, which is the top prize any shooter can annex. Ray Zweiner of Blooming Prairie, Minn., is the defending preliminary champion.

Referee Who Gave Famous Long Count Dies Facing Charge

CHICAGO, Aug. 27 (AP)—"Long Count" Dave Barry is dead.

The famous referee of the second battle for the world's heavyweight title between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, died in Soldier Field September 22, 1927, died last night in a hospital after a six weeks illness from a nervous breakdown and a liver complaint. He was 47 years old.

Barry gained fame because of his "long count" in the seventh round of the memorable battle when Dempsey knocked Tunney sprawling. Barry admitted he counted 14 over Tunney because Dempsey refused to retire to a neutral corner after scoring the knockdown, as prescribed by the rules of Illinois State Athletic Commission.

At the time of his death Barry faced a second trial on a charge of conspiring with others to embezzle $54,473 from the Amalgamated Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago. The appellate court had reversed the first lower court decision, which brought a one year jail sentence for Barry, and had remanded the case for retrial.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Aug. 27 (AP)—John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, achieved more than he bargained for in speaking at Dallas.

He aroused the ire of three veterans of the war between the states, J. P. Prescott, 92; M. L. McCurdy, 94; and J. H. Kennedy, 92.

After reading Hamilton's criticism of President Roosevelt, the trio marched to Democratic campaign headquarters and made contributions. Two used canes; the third, crutches.

Lieut.-Gov. Walter F. Woodul, visiting Pat M. Neff Jr., assistant attorney general, said the prospects for the salary amendment to be voted on in November were bright.

The amendment would increase salaries of the governor, the attorney general, the comptroller, the secretary of state, the treasurer and the commissioner of the land office.

It would cost each citizen just one-tenth of a cent a year to put the salaries of our constitutional officers in line with other states," he said.

Woodul and Neff have been mentioned as possible candidates for the attorney generalship two years hence.

Max Bickler, supreme court justice, has proof that the state capital burned November 9, 1881.

Bickler's father, Jacob Bickler, conducted a private school in Austin, and on that date noted in a class register that pupils were dismissed for the "burning down of the capital at 12:15 p. m."

The same register showed that classes were excused on Sept. 26 in respect to President Garfield, who was being buried. Garfield was assassinated in a railroad station at Washington, D. C.

Hugh Green, veteran file custodian, says Governor Allred is a very hard worker.

"He works harder than any governor I've seen in 26 years here," Hugh said. "He wears everybody around him to the nub."

Hugh should know. He has kept his job under more administrations, probably, than any other state employe.

He keeps the records of business transacted between offices of the governor and the secretary of state.

In the first primary, Senator Clint C. Small, campaigning for re-election, had a distinction not accorded other candidates. He was hanged in effigy.

"But it didn't do the other side any good," Small laughed. "I won anyhow. It didn't worry me."

Small twice was unsuccessful in bids for the governorship.

On the basis of police statistics, young automobile drivers in the capital are better drivers than their elders.

While 137 persons under 20 years of age figured in crashes last year, only 16 have done so this. About as many accidents involving drivers between 20 and 60 have occurred this year, but there is a big increase for those over 65.

Growing Coolness Boosts Crowds at Centennial Ground

DALLAS, Aug. 27 (AP)—Texas Centennial exposition officials hailed prospects of cooler weather today as a possible impetus to larger crowds.

They based their hopes on heavier attendance the first of the week, as compared with earlier in the month.

Today was set aside as Waco re-creation day, American Radio Relay league day, Matagorda and Rusk county day, McTague and Coleman county agricultural day, and the fourth and last of Ohio days.

The program included a floor show of singing, dancing, instrumental and rollerskating numbers by 23 Waco children, under the direction of D. B. Palmer. They were selected in a recent Waco amateur contest.

Yesterday's attendance was 32,695.

Joint Appeal on Arms Embargo Is Sent to Powers

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Great Britain and France, authoritative sources said today, have sent a joint appeal to all European powers which have not place embargoes on Spanish arms shipments to do so at once.

At the same time, informed quarters confirmed that France is planning to form a committee of all interested powers at an early date to coordinate embargo measures and deal with any further neutrality proposals.

The committee may meet at London.

France informed Great Britain, it was understood, that she had received a communication from Portugal indicating that country was willing to put an immediate embargo into effect.

Besides Great Britain and France, Germany has announced an arms embargo.

The appeal, which included a proposal to ban all types of airplanes, was sent to Rome, The Hague, Brussels, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade, Bucharest, Sofia, Ankara, Athens, Warsaw, Riga, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Osl, Helsingfors and Prague.

The international committee, informed quarters said, also was likely to discuss the problem of Spanish atrocities and attempt to alleviate the suffering of prisoners.

Mexican Senate Riots as Prelude To Party Peace

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 27 (AP)—Leftist blocs of Mexico's congress were dissolved today to help President Lazaro Cardenas stop wangling within his official family.

The House bloc voted unanimously to heed the President's wish and dissolve but rioting preceded the Senate vote last night.

Fifty persons were injured before 50 police arrived and restored order in the Senate, which finally voted 30 to 0 to end the leftist wing's organization.

Five minutes before, the Senate voted to expel Jose Maria Davila, successful candidate in the federal district in recent elections.

The expulsion was considered by informed circles to be a gesture of defiance to Davila's sponsor and left wing's political adversary, Emilio Portes Gil, who resigned the presidency of the national revolutionary (government) party last week after the leftists refused to approve five senatorial contests.

Flight to Spain Likely as King's Plane Is Tuned

(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press) INNSBRUCK, Austria, Aug. 27.—The impression grew here today that former King Alfonso might make an impulsive decision to fly to Spain as an American-owned plane held for a fortnight on legal technicalities was tuned for a take-off.

DRY PASTURES ARE SOURCE OF DROUGHT WORRY

Winter Prospect Is Worse Than That Of 1934

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—A lack of green pastures in the nation's interior today worried drought relief leaders. By this date in the drought two years ago, rains had broken the arid spell in many parts of the country and pastures had improved after August 1, with the result that livestock feed was saved for winter needs.

LANDON SLAPS AT NEW DEAL FINANCE, THEN TURNS HOME

HIDDEN TAXES AND SPENDING WASTE PLAYED

CANDIDATE DEMANDS 'COCKEYED' TAX REPEAL

By O. A. MARTIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
ABOARD LONDON TRAIN EN ROUTE TO TOPEKA, Aug. 27 (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon left behind him a charge of "wasteful" new deal spending and "cockeyed" tax legislation as he swept through Illinois today on a schedule of 10 rear platform appearances and a visit to Abraham Lincoln's tomb.

The republican nominee was speeding toward Topeka on the return leg of his first presidential campaign invasion of the east.

In the last of three addresses, he told a Buffalo, N. Y., audience that American youth faced "a heritage of debts and mortgages" through new deal expenditures.

Landon demanded the immediate repeal of the law taxing corporations according to amounts of income withheld from distribution. This legislation the Kansas described as "cockeyed." He said the entire tax structure, federal and state, needed overhauling.

"We are living in a fool's paradise—far beyond our income," Landon told his Buffalo audience, arrayed in a semi-circular grandstand and on chairs blanketing the baseball diamond.

Landon said "hidden taxes" which he described as taxes on "such things as food, clothing, gasoline and cigarettes," now supply 51 cents of every dollar collected by the federal government as compared with 41 cents in 1932.

"In other words," he said, "the share of the cost of government falling mainly on those with incomes of $25 a week or less has increased 25 per cent during the three years of the present administration. They are paying far more than their rightful share of the cost of government."

The nominee set forth four principles of government finance—"The government must guard and preserve its source of income . . . must make sure it gets a dollar's worth for every dollar it spends . . . must not get in the habit of spending more than it receives . . . must prepare for the rainy day."

He was due to reach Topeka tonight.

TRIPLE PLAY

ARKANSAS CITY, Kas. (AP)—Crossing a river on the way to a grass fire, firemen discover flames coming up from the bridge floor, put out the blaze and went on to the original call. As the truck neared the station on the return trip Fire Chief Harry McCullough saw smoke rising from a grocery loading dock and promptly scored the third out.

Sally Uses Palms

Sally Rand, glamorous and captivating dance star at the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial, discarded her famous fans, as a tribute to the fertility of the Rio Grande Valley, and introduced her latest creation, "The Palm Frond Dance," the movements of which depict the progress of the Magic Valley. The new dance has caused as much of a sensation as did Miss Rand's fan and bubble dances.

SINGLE LEADER TO TAKE OVER SPANISH ARMY

RUMORED DISSENSION HAS HAMPERED THE LOYAL CAUSE

By RAMON BLARDONY
(Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press)
MADRID, Aug. 27.—Spain's socialist government, consolidating positions on the far flung battlefields of civil war, mapped plans today for organizing the army under "single leadership."

Unity of action, subordinating local and minor victories by peasant and volunteer forces to general plans for concerted offensive, was sought by the government.

(Uncensored dispatches from Madrid have said dissension among Army officers and the war ministry hampered vigorous assault against fascist rebels. Apparently the plan announced today sought to overcome this difficulty and coordinate militia, regular army troops, rough garbed miners and peasants into a uniformed force.)

"It is better to have one single commanding leader," Indalecio Prieto, militia organizer, asserted. "No matter how bad he may be, than 20 good staff men working without coordination."

"The latter applies contradictory operations or dispersion of strength and therefore wastes energy."

The government claimed capture of the towns of Arja and Cabanas de Virtus in northern Burgos province, the death of 300 rebels and ammunition near Irun, bombardment of Ceuta and the sinking of a rebel transport ship.

(Hendaye, France, dispatches said 200 were killed at Irun after rebels made a slight advance. Exploding shells, in French territory forced evacuation of the area between Hendaye and Behobie.)

Studio Buys Fifty Rabbits, Gets More

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 27 (AP)—Oren Haglund, prop man, got more than he bargained for, rabbits and guinea pigs being what they are.

The script for the film "Green Light" called for 50 rabbits and as many guinea pigs. Haglund ordered them for immediate delivery. That was some time ago.

The crates containing the animals were opened today. Haglund counted 72 rabbits and 89 pigs.

The additions are not considered mature enough for screen careers.

Theodore Roosevelt was youngest president of the United States to take office. He was 42 at the time.

The first power driven plane to carry postal matter is said to have been designed and flown by Hans Glade, German, in 1909.

Freedom of Seas Demanded by U. S. In Spanish Note

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27 (AP)—Insisting upon freedom of the seas for American shipping, the United States today notified the Spanish government it has no right to bar merchant vessels from rebel-controlled ports unless it can apply an effective blockade.

In a formal note dispatched to Madrid last night, Secretary Hull served notice that the mere action of the Spanish government in describing coastal territory held by rebels as a "war zone" was not sufficient under international law.

To make such a "no admittance" sign binding, the secretary of state said in effect, the Spanish government must demonstrate its ability to enforce it.

Authorities on international law explained an effective blockade can be constituted only by "a force sufficient to render ingress or egress from the port dangerous."

In a verbal communication on August 20, the Spanish government notified the American embassy and other maritime powers of the creation of the war zone and asked that American merchant vessels be warned in order that "possible incidents might be avoided."

Farley Message Favoring Blanton Remains Mystery

ABILENE, Aug. 27 (AP)—Mystery surrounding a telegram signed "Hon. James A. Farley," the message of which endorsed the candidacy of Thomas L. Blanton on the eve of his defeat in Saturday's democratic primary, remained unsolved today.

First, James A. Farley, the Democratic national committee chairman, denied sending the telegram.

Yesterday the Abilene office of the Western Union Telegraph company announced it had been advised by the Washington, D. C., superintendent, that an error was made in recording the telegram over the telephone and that it should have been signed "Hon. James I. Farley."

In Fort Wayne, Ind., Congressman James I. Farley of Indiana denied having sent the telegram.

"I had nothing at all to do with it," the Indiana congressman was quoted as saying. "I did not send a telegram, a letter or anything else." The telegram, expressing hope Blanton would be renominated, was received by the Abilene Reporter-News.

Blanton, congressional veteran and termed "watchdog of the treasury" by his colleagues, was defeated by a Duval county judge, Clyde Garrett of Eastland.

Non-Stop Flight Plane Is Tested

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 27 (AP)—Dick Merrill and Harry Richman took off in their monoplane "Lady Peace" from Floyd Bennett airport at 8:26 a. m., eastern standard time, today on a non-stop test flight to New Foundland.

The plane, loaded with about 900 gallons of gasoline, almost as much as the pair intended to use on their proposed round-trip flight to London, was given a long run across the big airport before it rose.

At the edge of the field waited an ambulance, several radio police cars, and an emergency squad.

Merrill, veteran transport pilot, pulled the big ship into the air smoothly, however, Richman, cafe and theater singer, was to maintain radio phone contact with radio control points along the eastern coast.

Richman said he hoped the actual flight to London could be started Friday afternoon, weather permitting.
