

K. C. Political Gang Leaders Shot To Death

KANSAS CITY, April 6. (AP) — Charles Binaggio and Charles Gargotta, recognized political and underworld chiefs, respectively, of Kansas City's Northside, were shot to death early today in their political club here.

Police immediately began a minute investigation of gangland and political activities here in search for a clue to the double murder.

CABINET MEMBER HELD—Sultan Hamid II (above) a United States of Indonesia cabinet member and president of West Borneo, is under arrest after a sudden raid on the Hotel des Indes in Jakarta. A cabinet statement accused him of being the real leader of the attempt in January to overthrow the government. (AP Wirephoto).

Binaggio, 41, whose political power as a Democratic faction leader here has grown rapidly in the last few years, was found slumped in a chair at a desk at the rear of the club room.

One shoulder was sprinkled with cigarette ashes. There was a pool of blood on the floor. On the wall above Binaggio's body was a portrait of President Harry S. Truman.

Gargotta's body was found near the front door where he had been brought down with a bullet in the head. He had clawed desperately at a venetian blind as he fell. Police said Gargotta obviously was trying to flee for his life.

Both Binaggio and Gargotta had been shot four times in the head. Robbery was dismissed immediately as a motive. Gargotta's clothing contained twenty $100 bills, four $50 and in his billfold, a large old-style one-dollar bill.

Binaggio still wore his diamond-studded wrist watch and had $24 in his pockets. Police detectives expressed the belief the men probably were slain by out-of-town gangsters because no one in Kansas City is tough enough or brave enough to pull such a job.

Binaggio was head of a political faction opposing remnants of Pennington's once-powerful political organization.

The club where Binaggio was found shot was headquarters for his political group which controlled several populous Northside wards. Lt. Harry Nesbitt of the police homicide squad said no weapon was found in the clubroom.

The political leader recently was a witness before a federal grand jury investigating underworld activities.

Culberson Quits Governor's Race

AUSTIN, April 6. (AP) — Just two active candidates were left in the governor's race today.

Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson, stricken with heart disease, withdrew yesterday on his doctor's advice.

That left Gov. Allan Shivers, seeking his first elective term, running only against Case March of Waco, former law professor who has been beaten twice for governor.

March has been campaigning steadily for more than a year. Shivers has not formally announced but he has been tagged as a certain candidate since he succeeded the late Beauford H. Jester as governor last July.

Atty. Gen. Price Daniel has also been mentioned often as a likely candidate for governor. He has been busy prosecuting Texas' claim to its tidelands and has said he would announce his political plans later.

There has also been talk that former Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel has been thinking of running again, but it has not been confirmed. Culberson, 63-year-old 204-pound state official, went to Seton Hospital Tuesday thinking he was ill with the flu. Further examination showed he had suffered a heart attack described by his physician as "slight."

Bryn Mawr Girl Found In Florida

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 6. (AP) — A pretty 13-year-old Bryn Mawr College girl—missing since March 24—has been located at Miami Beach, Fla.

Gertrude Colton Nauman telephoned her socially prominent parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer G. Nauman, at their Harrisburg home yesterday.

Nauman left for Florida immediately with the girl's uncle—Conway H. Olmstead of Chicago.

Miss Nauman's mother said the girl was suffering from nervous exhaustion and that plans were being made to bring her back home. She had been living in a Miami Beach hotel, the mother said.

NLRB SEEKS TO ABOLISH AUTHORITY OF COUNSEL

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board told senators today that its division of powers with the board's general counsel, Robert Denham, has been a "failure." It said Denham's separate authority should be abolished.

Paul Herzog, NLRB chairman, told the Senate Expenditures Committee the board supports President Truman's plan for reorganizing the agency.

The plan calls for removing Denham's present independent authority and making him subordinate to the board.

Herzog said in his prepared testimony that the present division of power fixed by the Taft-Hartly Act has caused friction within the agency, "confusion among management and labor unions," and has provoked "uncertainty and litigation."

Witnesses representing the National Association of Manufacturers and the United States Chamber of Commerce told the committee yesterday the President's plan, if allowed to go into effect, would undermine public confidence in the board.

Herzog said the President's plan would replace "all investigatory and regulatory functions," not in him as chairman, but "in the five men who comprise the entire" NLRB.

Other functions of the general counsel as well, Herzog said, would go not to him, but to the board.

He said divided responsibility under the present arrangement has caused different sets of policies, so that:

"The spectacle of a double standard confronts management and labor when they seek guidance from the federal government at the very threshold of their labor problems."

"This double standard causes a waste of time, energy and money—for the government as well as for private parties."

Construction Of New City Rodeo Plant Stated

Construction is to start promptly on the new plant for the Big Spring Rodeo Association.

The $25,000 plant will be a concrete horseshoe stadium and will be one of the most if not the most modern rodeo units in West Texas and the Southwest.

The huge bowl will seat approximately 7,300 people. Plans call for inclusion of 100 box seats, each accommodating six people.

Contract for construction of the stands and arena was awarded to Baker Willis, Big Spring, this week. The cost figure embraces only the grandstand and arena. It does not include corrals, chutes, auxiliary structures and other items necessary to round out facilities.

The affair, located south and east of the Ellis Homes area, will be 320 feet long and 210 feet wide. Pens will be located at the open. Something like 12,000 cubic yards of earth will be moved to provide for the bowl.

This will put only the top two seats above ground level and make it possible to walk down and practically all seats. At the same time, the bowl effect is expected to practically eliminate the wind nuisance, long a disagreeable factor of rodeos in West Texas. Rodeo officials pointed out that the bowl arrangement also would eliminate the hazard of children falling out of elevated stands.

Hale polled 166 votes, winning over B. F. Logan who received 78 votes. Asbury was the choice of 44 voters in No. 3, while Underwood received 34 in No. 4.

All common school districts in the county also named trustees of their own. Election results by districts follow: Cabbie—T. M. Dunagan and E. E. Morris tied with 4 each; Asbury, 8; Hale 6 and Logan, 2.

Hartwell: Logan 6, Hale 0; no district trustees named since district becomes dormant this year. Midway: Hale 22, Logan 6; C. A. Denton 23, Woodrow Robinson 23; E. W. Davis 6, Oscar Jenkins 6; Denton and Robinson elected to fill two vacancies.

Gayhill: Underwood 12; Hale 9, Logan 1, Carl Lockhart 1 for member at large; Sam Buchanan 11; A. M. Anderson 8, D. R. Crow 8, Louis Underwood 6, M. L. Hamlin 6, Buchanan, Anderson and Crow elected to fill three vacancies.

Six Children Perish In Fire

TORONTO, Ontario, April 6. (AP) — Six children burned to death early today in a blaze which turned their home into a mass of flame within minutes.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harding, escaped through the flames with two other children. The rest of the family died in their beds.

One of the surviving children, 14-year-old Paul Harding, said, "I heard my sister Ruth calling to the others to 'Wake up, wake up, but I guess they didn't make it."

Neighbors with an extension ladder climbed to a bedroom window and screamed, "We can't get in—it's too hot," said one witness.

Another said he awakened to find Mr. and Mrs. Harding, with their two sons who escaped, hanging on his door.

"They were all holding hands," the neighbor said, "Mr. Harding shouted 'Get me a ladder.' He seemed to be crazy. He screamed, 'Call the fire brigade. My house is on fire.' Then he ran back across the road."

Firemen fought the blaze with three hoses but could make no headway. The roar of the flames could be heard for blocks.

Woman Killed In Automobile Crash South of Lamesa

LAMESA, April 6. (AP) — Mrs. Jess Ward, 55, of Talbot, N. M., was killed and three other persons were hurt last night in an automobile crash 12 miles south of Lamesa.

Two children riding with Mrs. Ward, believed to be her grandchildren, were injured. Arvin Nelson, about five years old, was in a serious condition with internal injuries. Marlene Nelson, eight years old, was not seriously hurt, nor was Ruben, N. Vela of Lamesa, driver of the second car.

Highway patrolmen said both automobiles were going north and that Mrs. Ward apparently was turning to the left when the Vela car struck her car on the left side.

Mrs. Ward was the sister of J. W. Franks, who lives near Coahoma, and J. D. Franks, formerly of Big Spring but now a resident of Hobbs, N. M.

Lattimore Gives Lie To Charges That He Is Top Russian Spy

Sen. McCarthy Is Branded As 'Irresponsible'

Far East Authority Hints 'Terror Reign', Asks Solon To Quit

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — Owen Lattimore, accused by Senator McCarthy of being Russia's top spy in the United States, swore today that the charges are "base and contemptible lies."

He said McCarthy has "flagrantly violated" his responsibility as a senator and has made unauthorized use of secret government documents.

Lattimore, an authority on Far Eastern affairs, took note of McCarthy's contention that he can prove Lattimore is or was a Communist and declared:

"I was not and have not been a Communist; and I am not a Communist now."

Lattimore made his denial in testimony prepared for a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee investigation of McCarthy's charges that Communists and Red sympathizers have infested the State Department.

In a 10,000-word statement, Lattimore said McCarthy has violated his responsibility "by making the government of the United States an object of suspicion in the eyes of the anti-Communist world, and undoubtedly the laughing stock of the Communist governments."

He accused the senator of "instituting a Reign of Terror among officials and employees in the United States government, none of whom can be sure of safety from attack by the machine gun of irresponsible publicity in Joseph McCarthy's hands."

Lattimore is director of a school of international relations at Johns Hopkins University.

Lattimore said McCarthy has: 1. "Without authorization used secret documents obtained from official government files."

2. "Vilified citizens of the United States and accused them of high crime, without giving them an opportunity to defend themselves."

3. "Refused to submit alleged documentary evidence to a duly constituted committee of the Senate."

4. "Invited disrespect to himself and his high office by refusing to live up to his word."

As for the McCarthy charges, Lattimore said that in effect they amount to an accusation of disloyalty and treason. Then he added:

"McCarthy's charges are untrue. As soon as I heard of the substance of the charges I denounced them for what they were: Base and contemptible lies."

Lattimore noted the senator had promised the Senate that any charges he made under "the cloak of immunity" he would repeat off the floor so, as Lattimore put it, "their falseness could be tested in a court of the United States. Lattimore added:

"He said that if he should fall to do this he would resign. He has been called to repeat his charges so that they could be tested in a court of action. He has failed to do so. And he has not resigned."

Lattimore declared: "I think that I would be the instrument of a great service to the country if the senator should resign."

WOULD HIKE BENEFITS Jobless Payments Extension Asked

KEY WEST, Fla., April 6. (AP) — President Truman sent to Congress today a message recommending extension of unemployment compensation payments to an additional 6,000,000 persons and raising benefits by approximately 30 per cent.

Mr. Truman sent the message to Washington by a courier in the hope it can be transmitted to the House before it recesses this afternoon.

The message calls for legislation spelling out recommendations he made in his "State of the Union" budget and economic messages to Congress in January.

White House officials said the President pleads in the message for enactment of legislation at this session along the lines of the bill supplemented by state enactments and many legislatures are meeting in 1951.

The text was not made public here, but presidential aides told reporters the five-point program suggested would up average payments by 20 per cent and extend coverage to employees of from one to seven persons. In many states the laws now apply to employers of eight or more.

One White House aide said that if the President's recommendations had been in effect in 1949, the jobless would have received $850,000,000 more in benefit payments during unemployment periods than they did under current laws.

How much more the addition of 6,000,000 persons under the coverage would have added this figure was not estimated.

Brother Of City Man Succumbs At California Home

Sam Winham learned this morning of the sudden death of a brother, Lucien Winham, 57, at his home in Oakland, Calif.

Apparently in the best of health Lucien Winham was stricken suddenly with a heart attack. A native of Shreveport, La., he had been with the U. S. department of agriculture for nearly 20 years.

Since 1942 he had been chief meat inspector for the western district. During the war inspection of meat to be shipped to the West Coast and in the Pacific fell under his jurisdiction. He had visited in Big Spring several times.

Two sons in the armed forces were enroute home today. Four sisters reside in Oakland, and two brothers, Carroll Winham of Phoenix, Ariz. and George Winham of Texarkana were due to leave for Oakland. Conspicuously from a recent attack, Sam Winham will be unable to attend the rites.

Letter Explains Cut In Hospital's Size

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — The government's action in reducing the size of the Corpus Christi Naval Hospital and eliminating its service to veterans is explained in a budget bureau letter made public today by Senator Connally, (D-Tex.).

Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson recently announced that the number of beds at the Corpus Christi hospital would be reduced from 400 to 100 by July 1 and that the 120 beds previously allocated to the Veterans Administration would be eliminated.

After noting that the Corpus Christi Naval Hospital was built of temporary construction in 1941 and that its activities were being curtailed along with those at other hospitals in an economy move, Lawson said:

"It is my understanding that in developing the current curtailment program, the Secretary (Johnson) took into consideration all existing allocations of beds to the Veterans Administration and discontinued or reduced them only in places where it could not be avoided or where it would cause a minimum of inconvenience."

"In terminating the allocation of 120 hospital beds at Corpus Christi, he was probably influenced by the fact that the Veterans Administration has a substantial surplus of beds in the former Navy hospital at Houston, which has a capacity of 837 beds and recent patient load of 606, and also by the fact that a new Veterans Administration hospital of 250 beds is nearing completion at Big Spring, and will be opened within the next three or four months."

WILL SERVE AS CONSULTANT

Dulles Named Acheson Aide

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — The State Department said today John Foster Dulles, New York lawyer and foreign policy expert, had agreed to serve as consultant to Secretary of State Acheson.

A formal announcement said the Republican leader was asked to take the position by both President Truman and Acheson.

Only last night, Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross denied reports that Mr. Truman proposed to name Dulles to a top policy post with the rank of ambassador at large.

The State Department today said Dulles "will advise Secretary Acheson on broad problems in the field of foreign affairs and on specific lines of action which this government should follow." It added:

"His work will not be confined to any specific area of the world. His broad background and wealth of experience qualify him for consideration of problems in Europe, the Far East and other areas of

JOHN FOSTER DULLES

"Mr. Dulles, whose cooperation has been extremely valuable to the department in the past, will assume his duties in about two weeks, after completing a brief vacation."

It was learned today that the Dulles appointment was worked out by Acheson and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) after Mr. Truman had authorized Acheson about 10 days ago to take such action in an effort to restore real bi-partisanship in foreign affairs.

The President, Acheson and Vandenberg finally agreed on Dulles as the best man for the job within the past day or so.

Today's announcement made clear that although he will have top rank under Acheson and Undersecretary of State James Webb he has not been given the formal title of ambassador at large. Nonetheless, it appeared that he will rank along with Ambassador Philip Jessup as one of the mainstays of Acheson in working out major foreign policy problems.

Safety Tube Is Featured At Phillips Tire

Something new in the way of safety tubes for automobile tires is now available at the Phillips Tire company.

The U. S. Royal Mid-Century Lifetube, combining strength with resilience, provides constant reserve strength within the tire, guarding against the common hazard of blowouts. Ted Phillips, manager of Phillips Tire company, points out.

The new Lifetube contains two ply of nylon cord between layers of natural and butyl rubber. The nylon center affords strength equal to an ordinary four-ply passenger tire while its butyl rubber center prevents sudden loss of air by punctures. The natural rubber outside of the Lifetube prevents slipping, of the tube within the tire.

With all its strength, the new kind of tube is light and flexible enough that it doesn't cause tires to over-heat or cause rough riding. Its resiliency permits installation with maximum efficiency in the new type low pressure tires, providing high-speed blowout protection. Tires inflated with the tube remain in perfect balance without rigidity or bulk, thereby making driving and steering easier.

In addition, Lifetubes provide up to ten times better air retention than "ordinary" tubes. They are specially treated to prevent static shock and radio interference.

The new tubes are easy to mount in any tire and require no more special repair methods than conventional tires.

Chrysler Studying Peace Offer

DETROIT, April 6. (AP) — Chrysler Corp., strikebound for 72 days, scanned a union peace offer today.

Whether the proposal would break the long deadlock over financing $100-a-month pensions remained to be seen.

However, the CIO United Auto Workers had abandoned their demand that a specific number of cents an hour be set aside in a pension trust fund.

In the dispute killing 140,000 workers this was considered significant. Chrysler has resisted a settlement on a cents-an-hour basis.

The union made its offer yesterday. It said its proposal "completely overcomes" management objections.

A previous Chrysler offer to put $20 million into a pension fund has failed to bring a settlement.

The union yesterday proposed:

(1) That an actuary determine the cost of pensions for workers retiring within the next five years. The size of Chrysler payments to a pension fund would be sufficient to keep the fund sound. Payments could be on an hourly, weekly, monthly, or annual basis.

(2) The fund would provide pensions of $100 a month, including federal social security, to all employees at 65 with 25 years service.

(3) The company would set aside money at a rate which would pay off all back and future service credits if the plan were continued 30 years. Back service means all time worked before the plan would go into effect. Future service refers to time worked from the date the plan started.

(4) If Congress boosts social security benefits, the company would continue paying into the fund at the same rate. The money saved by the company in paying a smaller portion of the $100 a month pensions would be used to amortize the plan in less than 30 years.

NTS Investigating Student's Stranding On Texoma Island

DENTON, April 6. (AP) — North Texas State College officials are investigating a hazing incident in which a student was stranded on an island in Lake Texoma Sunday night.

Dr. W. J. McConnell, college president, said Gerald Wallace of Kaufman, was blindfolded and left on the island with only a blanket and no food. He was found shivering, by men looking for two missing fishermen. The temperature had fallen to 42 degrees and the wind was blowing 50 miles an hour. Five fraternity pledges who admitted rowing Wallace to the island said they had planned to pick him up some time Monday.

Passengers Injured As Train Jumps Rails

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, April 6. (AP) — A number of passengers were reported slightly injured today when the Guadaluajara-Nogales passenger train jumped the rails near Nanchi, 200 miles northwest of here.

The report of the wreck gave no details other than that five cars—two sleepers, a coach and two private cars—overturned.

WELL, HERE'S YOUR $5 BACK

"You don't remember me, then," the woman said. "I lived next to you 12 years ago at Omar, borrowed $5 one day to buy milk and butter and forgot to pay you. Then we moved away. Well, here's your $5."

Boxer Slain By Brother-In-Law

LONGVIEW, April 6. (AP) — Gordon House, 24, a boxer, was shot to death last night in a thickly populated oil field section six miles west of here.

Deputy Sheriff Dough Hays said the shots were fired in self defense by House's brother-in-law, Leon Folmer, and "no charges are contemplated against anybody."

Moore said House fought with his estranged wife's father, C. R. Folmer, and chased Leon Folmer, her brother across several neighboring yards. Moore said Leon Folmer went to his home, got a pistol, and when House returned Folmer fired.

Officers said they found a clipping on House which referred to him as "Chief Gordon House" and "former Texas lightweight boxing champion."

Triplets Upset Couple's Plans

CONCORD, Mass., April 6. (AP) — The birth of triplet girls "flabbergasted" their father.

Attorney David Glass said he and his wife had expected twin boys to match a set of girl twins born two years ago.

"Now we'll have to think up a set of new names," he said.

The heaviest triplet weighed four pounds eight ounces and the smallest three pounds 13 ounces. They were born Wednesday at Eperson Hospital.

French Reds Fight Paris Policemen

PARIS, April 6. (AP) — Communists and police battled for an hour in the Champs Elysees last night in the most bitter street clash Paris has seen since the end of the war.

Police arrested 120 of the 1,500 demonstrators. Twenty of the 1,000 police who quelled the rioting were injured.

Fighting broke out when a police cordon prevented a Communist demonstration called to protest publication of the diary of former S. S. Col. Otto Skorzeny in the conservative newspaper De Figaro.

Tito Warns Attack May Be Impending

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, April 6. (AP) — Premier Marshal Tito told the Yugoslav people Wednesday to be ready to defend "our little country" against any eventual attack.

Speaking to a group of teachers and war veterans, Tito declared his country's armed forces are ready to meet trouble if it should come.

His speech was made in an atmosphere of resurging tension over his independent Communist stand against the dictates of Moscow. It came as defense advisors of all Russian-led cominform countries were reported meeting in Hungary.

Convicted Lawyers' Sentences Upheld

NEW YORK, April 6. (AP) — Contempt sentences imposed on lawyers who defended 11 convicted Communist leaders have been upheld by the U. S. Supreme Court in a 2-1 decision.

The sentences call for jail terms ranging from 30 days to six months for the six men, including Eugene Dennis, a Communist Party official who acted as his own attorney.

In sustaining the penalties, the Court of Appeals yesterday held that the lawyers employed "crude antics" and "willfully obstructive tactics" during the nine-month Red conspiracy trial.

The jail terms "will tend to deter imitation of that behavior in other trials," said the majority opinion, written by Judge Augustus Hand. Judge Jerome Frank wrote a separate concurring opinion.

Judge Charles E. Clark disagreed, saying the lawyers should have had a hearing before being sentenced. However, he joined the other judges in criticizing the attorneys' conduct.

40 Die In Wreck

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, April 6. (AP) — Reports reaching this city today said a train loaded with Easter holiday travelers plunged from a collapsing bridge into the flooded Indian River near Tanguis, Rio de Janeiro State, killing 40 persons and injuring 200.

Navy Investigating Blast That Destroyed Giant Flying Boat

PEARL HARBOR, April 6. (AP) — The Navy sought today to learn why a newly-mounted engine on its Marshall Mars caught fire, causing an explosion that destroyed the giant 80-ton flying boat yesterday brought to an emergency water landing and escaped minutes before 6,000 gallons of high octane gasoline exploded.

The Navy launched an inquiry to learn:

1. Why carbon dioxide extinguisher equipment failed to check quickly the fire in the newly-installed three engine?

2. Why the wing tank cell of aviation gasoline exploded after the engine fire apparently was quelled?

A Navy source said pictures taken from a navy helicopter show the fire apparently was put out several minutes before the explosion shattered the Marshall Mars. He did not elaborate.

The huge flying boat, holder of the world passenger cargo record of 301 persons and crew of seven, had developed engine trouble Tuesday. A new engine was installed and the crew took it out yesterday for a test run. Then it was scheduled to take 40 passengers to Alameda, Calif.

Fire broke out about one mile off Keelii Lagoon, the old clipper base between Honolulu and Pearl Harbor. The pilot nosed it around at 1,000 feet and brought it down.

This was not the first major accident involving a Mars flying boat. In 1945 the 72 1/2-ton Hawaii Mars crashed into the Chesapeake Bay near Annapolis only two weeks after it was launched at the Glenn L. Martin plant near Baltimore.

The plane nosed crazily toward the water after a portion of the vertical fin broke off at 6,000 feet.

The pilot crash-landed her into the bay at 135 miles an hour. The ship sank in a matter of minutes. One member of the 10-man test crew was injured.

The ship was raised, but later was scrapped.

The seven crewmen who escaped from the Marshall Mars were cheerful.

FIREMEN GO TO MEET FIRE

MEADVILLE, Pa., April 6. (AP) — The telephone rang last night in the volunteer fire department headquarters at nearby West Mead township.

"Get out in the road quick," said an excited feminine voice. "There's a fire coming your way."

The firemen followed instructions and sure enough in a few minutes a blazing truck came roaring down the highway.

The firemen stopped the truck—owned by the Burdette Oxygen Co. of Cleveland—and extinguished a fire in the truck brakes.

The driver had been unaware of the fire.

Senate Okays DP Measure

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — Legislation to let additional thousands of European refugees come to this country to make their homes passed the Senate just before last midnight.

The bill, liberalizing the 1948 displaced persons law by raising the number that can be admitted to 350,000, caps a long and bitter struggle in the Senate. Republicans and Democrats in almost equal numbers joined to put it over, by a final vote of 58 to 15.

As passed, after stormy session that lasted nearly 12 hours and set a new record on the number of roll call votes (20), it conforms in its essentials to a measure passed by the House last June.

The argument was largely over terms on which various members felt strongly—there was general agreement all along on the basic idea of admitting more refugees.

The Senate bill eliminates provisions of the 1948 act which President Truman assailed in his election campaign as discriminatory against Catholics and Jews. He repeatedly has prodded Congress for changes in the existing law.

Differences still remain to be ironed out with the House, but Senator Klugore (D-W.Va.), a leader in the fight for the legislation in the form that was approved, said he expected no difficulty in this.

On the final vote, 27 Democrats and 31 Republicans voted for passage. Opposed were 8 Democrats and 7 Republicans.

The bill would extend the present program for a year beyond June 30 and increase the number of refugees eligible for admission to this country from 205,000 to 350,000, including orphans and adopted children.

It also would wipe out requirements that 40 per cent of the DP's admitted be from the Baltic states and 30 per cent be farmers. It would advance the eligibility "cut-off" date from Dec. 22, 1945 to Jan. 1, 1949.

Together, these three changes erase the principal provisions that gave rise to the charges of religious and racial discrimination in the present law.

U. S. Drops Plans To Try Chambers On Perjury Count

WASHINGTON, April 6. (AP) — Any idea the government may have had for prosecuting Whittaker Chambers for perjury has been dropped, it was reported today.

The Justice Department, which once indicated that such a prosecution was possible, has made no further public statement. However, high officials say the matter is now closed, that no action against Chambers is contemplated.

Chambers' dispute with Alger Hiss over who told the truth before congressional committees and a federal grand jury about the alleged operations of a prewar Soviet spy ring in Washington made legal history during the last two years.

The dispute was climaxed by Hiss' conviction on perjury charges three months ago. The case was based on his denial before a New York grand jury that he had ever passed State department documents to Chambers for the benefit of the ring. Hiss, a former high-ranking State department official, was sentenced to five years, and has appealed.

Big Spring Garden Club Members Attend Flower Arrangement School

Twenty-three Big Spring Garden Club members learned to do by doing when the local Garden Club sponsored a flower arrangement school Tuesday night and Wednesday at the St. Mary's Episcopal Parish house.

Mrs. E. W. Allard of Lampasas was the leader for the school. Mrs. Allard is a national flower show judge and is authorized to teach flower show schools as well as conduct flower arrangement clinics. She is a member of the National Chrysanthemum society and American Iris Society. She has written several articles for state and national flower magazines and pictures of her arrangements have appeared on the covers of these bulletins and magazines.

Mrs. Allard belongs to the Lampasas Garden club, the Bud and Blossom club and assists in sponsoring Junior garden clubs in Lampasas, teaching flower arrangements in the home-making classes of the high school. She is a pupil of J. G. Conway and Mrs. S. Aral in Japanese arrangement. For their first attempt at arrangements, Mrs. Allard directed the local women in an adaptation of 17th century classical Japanese arrangement. During the sessions Wednesday she led them through the process of making formal table arrangements and circular formations.

Mrs. Allard's home town of Lampasas sponsors a flower show each November which brings national publicity to its some 4,000 residents. There are three senior garden clubs of 75 members and seven Junior clubs in the city. Junior clubs have contributed as many as 118 arrangements to the show. For two successive years, the show took a blue ribbon from the state organization and in one of those years took the horticulture achievement award for the state.

Mrs. Allard emphasized the idea that even though a club is located in a small town, it can still be given important recognition if the members are willing to work on worthwhile projects. She said that the Lampasas club sponsor a weekly column in the newspaper. This is written by a local club member and given local club news. She also discussed a radio clinic which the club sponsor. This is a 15-minute radio program which provides garden information. During the Easter weekend, the club will sponsor their annual iris pilgrimage. One day out of each month, Mrs. Allard teaches a flower arrangement course as a part of the regular home-making classes at the high school. On a second day out of each month, another garden club representative visits the high school to teach horticulture classes for the home-making students.

Mrs. Allard came to Big Spring after sessions in Marfa and Alpine. She left here Wednesday afternoon for Stamford where she will conduct a flower arrangement school on Thursday and Friday.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

"And ye are witnesses of these things." John 24:48.

Every age has attempted to build in a manner which would be lasting. To accomplish some task that would live on and that would mean something in ages to come. All of us have an opportunity to build a beautiful temple, one that will last forever. That temple is our individual soul. We have been given the power of salvation. We have a tiny spark of Divinity which will enable us to climb to heights yet unclimbed. We live in a world filled with trouble, doubt and disappointment and yet in some ways, a wonderful world. It presents to us the opportunity for growth, a never ending struggle for the abundant way of living. Life always demands something of us. If we are attempting to live a Christian life we are never satisfied with things as they are. There are always new tasks, new duties, new interests. We have been given a temple and it is our task to rebuild that temple with an altar fire that shall not only lead us to eternal life, but lead others with us.

We are the witnesses of a belief of the ages, a belief which has changed from day to day, from century to century but which has remained as changeless as God Himself. We witness today's Christians, we have records of those in the past, we believe in ourselves and the future. Somehow we do know in Whom we have believed. In that knowledge, we are building temples to the glory of God.

May my workmanship be perfect and my goal clear. I know in Whom I have believed and I am rebuilding a temple for Him. Amen.

Forsan Buffaloes Champs In District 90-B Meet

Forsan's Buffaloes romped to victory in the District 90-B track and field meet here, scoring 49 points.

Frank Honeycutt's Bloms topped first places in five events and a flock of second, third and fourth place ribbons to finish ahead of Stanton, which collected 22 points.

The Coahoma Bulldogs, their ranks shot by illness, finished third with 25 points followed by Sterling City with 14 1/2 and Garden City and 5 1/2. Knott did not score.

Coahoma won the junior meet with 17 1/2 points followed by Forsan with 17 and Garden City with 12 1/2.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Baseball fans concerned about automobile parking problems at Steer park, now that the area to the north of the plant is being converted into sites for houses, can rest assured that the Bronco management is trying to do something toward alleviating the situation.

Pat Stacey and Al Aton, co-owners of the local club, have just about decided to level the terrain to the west of the stadium, piling the loose dirt into the south end of the vast cavity that has existed there for a great many years.

Once that part of the canyon is filled and the dirt is trapped so it will not wash, a parking area could be cleared in the area approaching the Birdwell basin.

Stacey also thinks Carlos (Potato) Pascual is in for a better season than he was a year ago.

Patrick opines Potato looks better at the dish than he did in 1949, and that is saying a lot, considering the fact that Pascual was one of the best money-hitters in the league last year.

Announcement that Potato was to play against San Angelo the other night almost caused the Colt fans to go into mourning, according to reports.

Angelo supporters had been told that Carlos would not be back with the Steers, that he had been sold to a team in higher classification. They came the disheartening news. And the stands seemed to moan as a man, Pascual was poison to Colt pitchers in 1949.

Victoria Contract is for two seasons. The football contract signed recently by Big Spring and Victoria high schools will extend for two games. However, the Steers will not go to Victoria until the 1952 season. The South Texans come here next Sept. 22.

Longhorns Batter Midland, 10 to 2

MIDLAND, April 6.—Conn Isaacs, Big Spring high school Steers terminated their six-game losing streak by turning back the Midland Bulldogs, 10-2, in an exhibition outing here Wednesday afternoon.

The Longhorns were not to be denied from the first inning on. They broke the barrier with an eight-run outburst and coasted in from there.

Floyd (Pepper) Martin and Wayne Brown paced the ten-hit Big Spring offense. Martin had a single and a double while Brown came through with a triple and single.

Howard Jones hurled creditably for the Big Springers, setting the Bulldogs down with five scattered blows. He struck out 14.

O'Neal started on the pitching rubber for the Midland clan but was ineffective and was succeeded by Smith.

Midland won an earlier game from the Steers in Big Spring, 6-4. Big Spring will wind up its exhibition series with a Monday night game with Snyder in Big Spring.

Lamesans Turn Back Resident Bronts, 14-10

Some 300 fans braved the cold night air Wednesday to watch the Lamesas Lobos of the WT-NM league outlast the Big Spring Broncs, 14-10 in an exhibition game.

The Lobos used six hits with a brace of walks to score seven runs in a big second inning. Capping the attack was Pitcher Ed Arthur's grand slam homer. Frank Calo, Roman Loyke and Jay Haney were on the base paths when Arthur caught one of Angel Gonzales' fat pitchers and sailed it over the wall.

Loyko hit for the circuit with a man aboard in the eighth, the ball disappearing over the right field barrier.

The Broncs pined the earth and made threatening gestures in the fourth, collecting six tallies, but were never quite able to close the gap. Bobby Gonzales' homer with one on in that beat was the big punch.

Of the three Big Spring pitchers who worked, Pete Nonclares looked to best advantage.

The Broncs play their next game Friday night, meeting Sweetwater here.

Favorite Wins At Jamaica

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Kentucky Derby will be run a month from today, and as of now, Oil Capital and Hill Prince stack up as the "big two."

Oil Capitol, Tom Gray's Flamingo Stakes winner, recently arrived on the derby scene at Louisville from Hialeah, Fla., and began training in the role of a 7-2 favorite for the May 6 classic.

Meanwhile, most lines had C. T. Chinery's Virginia, Hill Prince, at 6 to 1.

But the oddsmakers were busy today shuffling their quotations for the blue grass extravaganza and it wouldn't be surprising if they move Hill Prince right up there with Oil Capitol because of the way the Chinery charger won yesterday's Experimental Handicap No. 1 at Jamaica.

It was the tall bay's first 1950 start and verified his excellent form as a juvenile. He answered the only question that needed to be answered—that he is as good as he was last year.

Ace Jockey Eddie Arcaro said just that after guiding the Prince to a length and a quarter triumph in the six furlong test, supplementing his remark with, "and that is something."

BIG D TICKET SALES BOOM

DALLAS, April 6.—Dallas already has set a new Texas League opening day attendance record and is pushing for an all-time record in professional baseball.

Dick Burnett, owner of the Dallas club, said today a check-up indicated that at least 25,000 tickets had been sold for next Tuesday's opener here with Texas when the Cotton Bowl will be used in an effort to show this city is ready for major league ball.

The Texas League record is 16,618 set in 1930 by Fort Worth. No other club in the league can beat what Dallas already has since there isn't a park big enough.

Burnett, who thinks an attendance of 50,000 will show the major leagues Dallas can step in as a member, is hopeful of filling every one of the 15,000 seats in the Cotton Bowl. The all-time opening day attendance record is 71,121 set at Cleveland in 1916.

"You can usually figure on an attendance of three times the advance sale," said Bobby Goff, general manager of the Dallas club.

Ballinger Troupe Must Get Help If It's To Figure In Flag Race

Editor's Note: This is the third of a series on prospects of teams in the Longhorn League.

BALLINGER, April 6.—The Ballinger Cats must have some reinforcements before they figure heavily in the Longhorn League flag scrap.

Manager Dutch Funderburk has been working mostly with rookies in spring training and has discovered a number of promising hands. That's a bright omen because the experienced help will be on the way in a few days when the higher classifications clubs start paring their squads.

From the early workouts and exhibition games Funderburk has discovered at least five rookies who may make the grade. They are Pitcher Walter Wallendorf, Charles Rogers and Alfred Geibler, Short Stop Jackie Campbell and Outfielder Bill Denman.

Funderburk emphasized the point that his team is far from set at this writing and that his greatest need for talent is in the infield.

A veteran of eight years in the high minors, Funderburk is making his debut as a manager. The native San Saban probably will handle most of the catching himself. He has served with such clubs as Toledo of the American Association and San Antonio of the Texas League in the past and last year caught for Temple and Gainesville in the Big State League.

The Cats are counting on a lot of help from Bill Perrin, a pitcher with Gainesville last year. Perrin had a 12-5 record in 1949. They'll dub him "Big" early in the season. Staff, he hurried for Rowell and Ballinger last year.

Star Goes Route

DALLAS, April 6.—Larry Jansen is the first New York Giants pitcher to go nine innings this spring.

The right-hander stopped a five-game losing streak in outlasting Bob Lemon to defeat Cleveland yesterday, 8-2.

Baylor Rips Ponies

DALLAS, April 6.—Baylor won, 79-64, in a dual track and field meet here yesterday with Southern Methodist. Jack Lucas of Baylor was high point man with first places in the 220-yard dash, low hurdles and broad jump and third place in the high jump to take 16 points.

ODESSA FAVORED DALLAS, April 6.—Odessa will be the favorite here tomorrow night in the North Texas track and field relay.

Jayhawks Rout Odessa Javcee In Cinder Meet

Howard County Junior college cindermen swept first places in all events to swamp Odessa Junior college, 70 1/2 to 11 1/4 in a dual track and field meet here Wednesday afternoon.

Charles Seydler, former Big Spring High performer, led the Jayhawks to victory, accounting for 13 1/2 points to grab individual honors for the day. Harold Berry and Delmer Turner, also products of the local high school, teamed with other entries to give Seydler plenty of help. Berry wound up with 9 1/2 points, while Turner topped 8 1/2.

Ken Shackelford, who made 7 1/4 points for his team, was Odessa's top individual.

Seydler took first place in the 100-yard dash, was a member of winning relay teams in the 440 and mile events and took second place in the 220-yard dash and tied with two team mates for first in the broad jump.

The Jayhawks are scheduled to visit Odessa for a return engagement next Thursday.

Eagles In Front

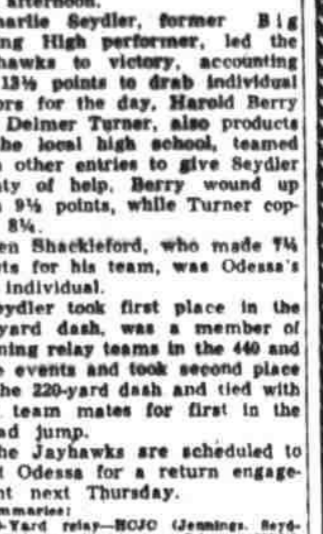

DENTON, April 6.—North Texas State took 10 first places here yesterday in a dual track meet with Howard Payne for an 85-41 victory. Luther Fambro made 13 points for the Eagles by winning the low hurdles, broad jump and taking second in the pole vault.

Houston Leads

HUNTSVILLE, April 6.—The University of Houston won an easy victory over Sam Houston State and Stephen F. Austin State in a triangular track meet here yesterday. The university scored 104 1/2 points, winning all but three of the 18 first places. Sam Houston had 38 and Stephen F., 19 1/2.

The Wind Holds Key To Success. By JACK HANDB. COLUMBIA, S. C., April 6.—Once again the Cincinnati Reds figure to sink or swim with lean Ewell Blackwell in his comeback try. Despite a rosy record in the Grapefruit League, Manager Luke Sewell knows he does not have a solid ball club. Outside few outfield changes, it's the same team that finished seventh, only one game out of eighth, last fall. With a sound Blackwell, taking a regular turn, there is hope of bettering the Reds' 1949 record. If you had to grade Blackwell as far, you'd have to say "just fair." Taking it slow and easy, he has not been firing the ball with his old zip. Maybe he will when opening day rolls around. Cincinnati officials hope for improved pitching behind Blackwell. Kenny Rattenbarger, the cagy 23-year-oldster with the "cannon ball" pitch, was the '49 ace with his brilliant 19-17. Kenny goes a long way with soft stuff and appears in good form. Herm Wehmeier, 23-year-old right-hander, should be a regular winner. Howie Fox, despite a 6-19 record last year, probably will take a turn. The fifth job is open with Kent Peterson, Johnny Hethel and Harry Fuchowski leading candidates. Eddie Grant also figures on the staff with Frank Smith, side-arming Texas right-hander, for relief.

Mahon Defends Appropriations Committee's Armed Forces Bill

While Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House armed services committee is clamoring for an additional $383 million for additional warplanes, our own Rep. George Mahon has sounded a somber note of warning.

Excessive spending for national defense will cause economic ruin of the United States, he told Congress Tuesday. Mahon was chairman of the House appropriations sub-committee which drafted the armed forces money bill just under $13 billion.

Rep. Mahon bluntly accused backers of bigger allotments for air power of waving the flag for political reasons. Then he went on to say that "The air power of the Army and Navy, great as it is, is not the thing that strikes terror into the heart of the enemy. It is our industrial capacity, our ability to fight back and to continue to fight back, that the enemy fears."

Continuing, he ventured that Russia had so few long range bombers that they could be destroyed relatively briefly.

Mahon was speaking in defense of the sub-committee's report which was adopted by the appropriations committee. He had every right to do this, for testimony has been received over nearly four months before the recommendation was made. Testimony filled four bulky volumes. Moreover, it should be remembered that it was Mahon who once before went to bat for the Air Forces when he felt that the strength was below that required for minimum safety. Having the opinion of the nation's best military minds at his disposal, he does not now feel that an impromptu and arbitrary raise is indicated.

Although he did not mention it, the proposal of Rep. Vinson could be the powder keg to touch off another bitter inter-service rivalry to grab off big bites of the increase.

There is more than a little truth in what Rep. Mahon says about flag waving for political purposes. Although the military must be kept at an adequate level, it must not become the tail that wags the dog. Not only would that bring economic ruin, but with it the threat of a militarily ruled nation. There ought to be some lesson in the fact that we have grown singularly great and remained so as a country that jealously regarded its civilian status.

In this, along with his emphasis upon a flexible and progressive fighting machine that will constantly seek new weapons and instruments, Rep. Mahon has performed a sound service.

Controlled Production Is Bound To Accompany Farm Price Support

In the Rio Grande Valley thousands of acres of vegetables are being plowed up because it's cheaper for the farmers to get rid of them that way than to pay the cost of harvest at today's market prices. Plowing them up is a dead loss to all concerned; harvesting them and being forced to sell them at current prices would be a still bigger expense to the growers.

While this slaughter of the little green pigs of the Magic Valley was going on, President Truman returned to the economic wars by calling on Congress to put a stop to the piling up of enormous farm surpluses and adopt the Brannan plan instead of "artificially high" price pegging.

The President wants legislation that would tighten production controls on products being produced in excessive amounts, and apply the Brannan plan to perishables. He underscored his advocacy of production controls by approving a bill which provides controls for potato production. What would have happened to the Magic Valley's vegetable crop if the Brannan plan had been in operation? The growers would have been guaranteed a certain price for that portion of their crops that came under production controls; the rest would have gone to market at whatever price the market offered. Thus the growers would have received adequate compensation for the approved portion of their crops; consumers would have received the benefit of lower prices on the market.

A great many growers don't want controls on what they grow. A still greater number don't like the "subsidy" idea of the Brannan plan. They ask: Why not apply this thesis to all industry? Most all want some sort of relief from ruinously low prices.

One thing is certain, however. Pegged prices without some form of production or acreage control is out the window. You still don't get to keep your cake and eat it, too.

History Behind Dispute Over Secret Documents Published

WASHINGTON, (AP)—THERE'S A LONG history behind the present dispute between Congress and the President over this question:

Does the legislative branch of the government (Congress) have a right to see secret files in the executive branch (headed by the President) if he thinks it better not to disclose them?

Herman Wolkison, an attorney of the Justice Department, has made an exhaustive study of the history behind this dispute and published his findings in the Federal Bar Journal.

The conclusion he reaches — that the Congress can't compel the President to turn over executive records — are his own, not those of the Justice Department although the Justice Department has taken exactly the same stand since the start of the American government.

THIS IS A BRIEF SUMMARY OF HIS study:

Although Wolkison says there have been many instances where Congress was turned down in its demands upon the executive branch, he lists 29 cases as outstanding.

Those 29 cases cover refusals by 17 Presidents, starting with Washington and their department heads to heed congressional demands. When the department heads refused they did so with presidential approval of their action.

(The Presidents, besides Washington, were: Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson, Tyler, Polk, Fillmore, Buchanan, Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Coolidge, Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Truman.)

'Cotton Elmer', Burned Up Over Corrected Version Of Secret Meeting, Orders Probe

WASHINGTON — Oklahoma's surly Sen. "Cotton Elmer" Thomas was so burned up after this column corrected his version of Gen. Bradley's secret testimony on the possibility of war that he has now ordered a Senate subcommittee to investigate.

The subcommittee is supposed to find out how this column got Gen. Bradley's secret testimony. Sen. Thomas had reported that the chief of staff was not worried about war with Russia. To keep the record straight, however, this column gave a word-by-word account of Bradley's remarks, which differed considerably from Sen. Thomas's version.

Following this, "Cotton Elmer" named three senators to investigate this columnist — Joe O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Willis Robertson of Virginia and Homer Ferguson of Michigan. They are now checking on all the secret transcripts to find which one might have slipped into Drew Pearson's hands. What stumps the investigators, however, is that the column also quoted what Gen. Bradley said off-the-record — which doesn't even appear in the stenographic transcripts.

So far the subcommittee suspects a certain Republican senator of leaking the story to Pearson, but I can assure the subcommittee that its chief suspect wasn't even present during Bradley's testimony.

Meanwhile, this column serves notice that any time a responsible official is misquoted on anything the public is entitled to know about this column will do its best to get the true facts.

MORE TO INVESTIGATE

What Bradley said, summed up briefly, was that Russia won't have the industrial capacity nor the atomic stockpile to start a war for at least two years. However, he warned that Russia is a bully nation and might get careless whom she pushes around. He also refused to predict what Russia might do after two years.

Gen. Bradley also made other significant observations the public is entitled to know but which this column didn't have space to print in the story now being investigated. So here is some more for the investigators to investigate.

Sen. Burnet Maybank of South Carolina questioned Bradley sharply on whether the $13 billion budget was an absolute minimum.

"I certainly would hate to see the figure become any smaller," replied Bradley. Then he declared flatly: "This amount was determined before we learned that Russia had the atomic bomb."

He assured, however, that he was willing to go along with a $13 billion budget for the sake of economy.

"In other words," suggested Massachusetts' Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, "as a good citizen you believe we should live within our means."

"Yes, but I would like to qualify that," Bradley hesitated. "You don't want to qualify the good citizen part," smiled Saltonstall.

This Bradley explained: "The eventual strength of our country depends upon its industrial capacity. We must not destroy that by spending too much from year to year. So if I came here recommending $20 billion or $40 billion for defense, you should start searching for a new chairman of the joint chiefs of staff. . .

"It is true that our forces—Ground, Air and Navy—are not sufficient now to fight a major war," Bradley emphasized. "Nor do we expect to be sufficient for such a calamity by the end of fiscal year 1951," he continued.

"But I feel that we are going to achieve the necessary forces to prevent a disastrous attack from crippling this nation. I also believe that we will be able to win a war if it comes."

He predicted that this country's "mobilization base"—its industrial potential, reserve forces and military education system—would "win a war if it is thrust upon us."

"This is a risk that we take," solemnly added the chief of staff. SKY-PILOT

New Chaplain Bernard Braskamp is probably the first chaplain in congressional history who doesn't use a prepared script in delivering the opening prayer before the House of Representatives — a matter of fascination and pride to his boss, Speaker Sam Rayburn. When Rayburn recently complimented him on it, the chaplain replied:

"Mr. Speaker, I can't pray sincerely by reading something I have prepared. That would be like telling the Good Lord: 'Look, Lord, this is my prayer for tomorrow, so be ready for it. I sit in my rocking chair at night until I have a mental outline of my invocation and, with his help,

I always find the words to express it the next day."

This doesn't mean, the chaplain hastens to explain, that he shouldn't continue to exhort God by such beautiful entreaties as the Lord's Prayer, "but once in a while I think he likes to hear from us."

The Rev. Mr. Braskamp, 63-year-old son of Dutch immigrants, gave up a promising baseball career to enter the Presbyterian ministry. The late Harry Hopkins once carried his glove at Grinnell College, Iowa, when Grinnell had one of the best college nines in the West.

Harry was one of the younger students and he used to carry my glove into the dining hall, asking for pointers on how to be a pitcher," recalls the House Chaplain. "I guess I wasn't much help, being a shortstop myself, but Harry wasn't cut out for baseball, after all. I guess I wasn't, either."

THE HOLY WEEK STORY:

Jesus Carries Cross

(Fourth of a Holy Week Series)

AND AS THEY led Him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed Him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented Him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For, behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

Losing Job Sometimes Is Best Thing That Can Happen To One

Much concern is being voiced today over the rising tide of unemployment in the nation. The picture varies from state to state, but the overall figure is placed at somewhere between four and five million. It will be suggested this spring when the colleges throw a half-million graduates upon the labor market, which already is glutted. The majority of these boys and girls eventually will be absorbed, of course, but in the meantime they must take whatever odd jobs are available and wait for openings in their chosen fields.

Unless the period of unemployment is unduly protracted, the young graduate need not worry if he fails to make a connection immediately upon going out into the world. The experience of tramping the streets and interviewing prospective employers will be good for him, and he will be more able to appreciate the big opportunity when it comes.

But unemployment can be a real tragedy for the married man with a large family, as we all learned anew during the recent coal strike when the public was called upon to aid many mining communities, where little children actually were going naked and hungry.

Sometimes the family man has only himself to blame when the loss of his job leaves him without resources. It is human nature to splurge when things are going well and there is hardly a shack in America where you will not find a car of the latest model standing outside while an expensive radio blares within. Add liquor to these luxuries, and it is not surprising that the head of the house is caught napping by the inevitable rainy day.

However, with the best intentions in the world, the paterfamilias may find himself in the same boat with his extravagant neighbor. Recently, I was discussing the case of a mutual friend with a visitor. This man had been employed for years at a good salary, but now had been unemployed for some months, and was having difficulty in getting food for himself and his family. I expressed surprise that he had not been able to save anything on his excellent salary.

"Save!" exclaimed my visitor. "Good Lord, man, do you know what it costs to raise a large family like B—'s, especially when three of the children are growing girls?"

Naturally, it would be heartless folly to minimize the evils of unemployment in an extreme case such as the foregoing. But when a man is young, strong, well-educated and without dependents, I find no sympathy for him if his first reaction to losing his job is to apply for a government handout instead of starting right in to look for another position.

Indeed, the loss of a job may prove the turning point in a man's career if he is worth anything at all. Most men, no matter how talented, tend to follow the path of least resistance, and so waste years in a routine occupation among uncivilized associates when they ought to be outside working for themselves. Under certain circumstances, unemployment can be turned into a real blessing.

It may be argued that a steady job, of whatever kind, affords security, and that security should be the goal of every man's striving, regardless of what may happen to his dreams. That argument never was valid, and never less so than in this atomic age.—R. G. MACCREADY.

Hindu Plot Discovery Throws Wrench Into New Delhi Meet

THIS COLUMN YESTERDAY RECORDED the good news of the conference in New Delhi between Prime Ministers Nehru of India and Liaquat Ali Khan of Pakistan who are trying to bring peace to their feuding nations.

Today we have to report that already this peace effort has been rudely jarred. The Bombay police announce the discovery of a Hindu extremist plot which is said to be aimed against peace and to include the assassination of Nehru.

Fourteen or more leaders of extremist organizations have been arrested. Among them is V. D. Savarkar, Hindu leader and formerly president of the militant Hindu Mahasabha. He was acquitted on charges of conspiracy growing out of the murder of the late Mahatma Gandhi, the saintly exponent of peace.

BUT WHY, IN HEAVEN'S NAME A plot against Nehru and peace? Because there is a strong party of extremists who want Hindu India to make war on Moslem Pakistan as the result of reported mistreatment of Hindus in Moslem territory. Nehru stands for the peace taught by the Mahatma whom he revered.

That's the immediate cause of the hostility. However, the real basis of the bitterness goes back for generations. It lies in the age-old religious warfare between the two peoples. With the passage of time it has become politico-religious.

It was this Hindu-Moslem split which precluded a politically unified Indian Peninsula when England signaled her intention of granting independence. The ideal would have been to bring the vast subcontinent under one government so that its diverse resources could be equally shared. But the divide was too great to be spanned. THE BATTLE OVER THE QUESTION of unity was at its height when I was in India in 1942-3, and the crux of the matter lay in the fact that the Moslems were a minority. There were roughly 90 million Moslems as against close to 300 million Hindus.

I discussed this matter with the late Mahomed Ali Jinnah, leader of the Moslems and later to be their first governor general after they received independence. Jinnah saw all the economic benefits of a unified Indian Peninsula, but he was afraid to trust that Hindu majority of 3 to 1 against him. Had it been a 50-50 break, I am sure the great man would have agreed to union.

The result, of course, was that the Indian Peninsula was split into two nations—Moslem Pakistan and Hindu India.

THAT NATURALLY CREATED SOME awkward territorial divisions and, what was worse, many nationals of each government had to be left behind in "enemy" territory. Out of this dislocation of populations have grown bloody and destructive communal feuds.

So now the point has been reached where there are factions which actually want war. And there are violent-minded people who apparently have gone so far as to plot against the life of Nehru, because he works for peace.

However, I believe we can take comfort from the very fact that the heads of the two great nations of the Indian Peninsula are meeting in the interests of peace. Someday this goal, for which Gandhi gave his life, will be reached.

Oyster Ranchman Details Joys And Sorrows Of His Business

NEW YORK, (AP)—ROYAL TONER HAS been throwing oysters in and out of beds for 40 years.

He doesn't do it for a laugh—it's his living. And it has given him a vast sympathy for people who raise century plants. "Century plants must be the only things more trouble to grow than oysters," he said.

Toner, who operates a 6,000-acre bivalve ranch, spoke with deep feeling. Right now he has some 700,000 bushels of oysters in his beds.

Operating an oyster ranch is something like dry land farming, except you can't see your crops. And it is something like running an underground hotel, except the guests stay longer and are more finicky.

"YOU GET THEM AT BIRTH AND you have to switch them to different beds three or four times," said Toner grimly. "Each time you have to dredge them up and plant them in deeper water. And they don't shell out a profit until they're five or six years old and ready for market. All that time your money's tied up."

"You have to take more care of them than you do with children, too. A man can let his kids go swimming at Coney Island, for example, but he couldn't grow oysters there.

"The bacterial count is too high," Toner explained. "The state wouldn't allow oyster beds that close to polluted areas. It's even stricter about oyster raising than about dairy farming."

The time every oyster rancher dreads most is the summer spawning time. For a few days after birth, until they settle and anchor on bits of old shell thrown on the shallow bottom, the young oysters are free-swimming larvae. They look like tadpoles under a microscope.

"WERE AS NERVOUS AS EXPECT-

ent fathers then," said Toner. "Any storm or sudden cold snap can wipe out our whole year's set—the cash money we'll be counting on five years later."

"A big storm even churns up sand and smother the older oysters. The 1938 hurricane was the worst thing that ever hit our business. It not only lifted up our packing plant and dropped it down kindling wood. It cost us about a quarter million bushels of oysters."

An even bigger blow to the $70 million a year industry was the change in eating habits that took place when Americans started ordering fresh fruit cocktail as appetizers instead of "half a dozen on the half shell."

"It is easier to cut a grapefruit in half than an oyster," admitted the rancher. But a self-shucking oyster isn't necessarily the answer.

"THE BUSINESS IS COMING BACK now—everything moves in circles," said Toner. "Do you know the Chinese raised oyster 5,000 years ago? Julius Caesar sent oysters packed in snow all the way from Erital, to Rome."

Reinecke Pool Well Production Is Stimulated

Production was being stimulated in two wells in the Reinecke area Thursday while a mile western outpost was completing.
After flowing at an estimated rate of 40 to 60 barrels per hour, Castleman & O'Neill No. 1 Griffin, 660 feet from the north and 467 from the east lines of section 51-25, H&TC, prepared to run casing.
The flow was developed Wednesday on a second drillstem test. Zone tested was from 6,845, where packer was set, and 6,829, bottom of hole. Gas was in 11 and oil in 15. Top of the reef was picked at 6,964 feet, which gives it a datum minus of 4,498. This puts it 92 feet low to the discovery Livermore No. 1 Reinecke, but only 32 feet low to the Hyser & Heard No. 1 Holley, a west offset to the discovery.
Previously a test from 6,850-76 for three hours brought gas to surface in 41 minutes. Recovery included 540 feet of fluid with 60 feet of free oil, 240 feet of gas-cut mud, 200 feet of oil and emulsion and 40 feet of mud.
Immediately south of the discovery, Livermore No. 1 Whitaker, 660 feet out of the northwest corner of section 53-25, H&TC, treated with 500 gallons of low tension acid. Then it flowed through three-quarter inch choke at the rate of 142 barrels per hour. Previously it had averaged 139 barrels after being washed in with 500 gallons of acid. The discovery, Livermore No. 1 Reinecke, a location to the north, reportedly made 131 barrels per hour after acidizing. Previously, it had made around 62 barrels per hour.
Livermore No. 2 Whitaker, a south offset to No. 1 Whitaker, drilled past 1,010 feet. C. H. Sweet No. 1 McNeil 300 feet from the south and west lines of the north-east quarter of the northeast quarter of section 53-25, a three-quarter northeast outcrop to the discovery, was below 5,180 feet. Livermore No. 2 Reinecke, direct east offset to the discovery, set 250 feet of seven-inch O. D. casing with 1,300 sacks.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, April 6, (Sp)—Automobile stocks generally, and Chrysler in particular, posted a rising market today.
Demand for motor units was sparked by new hopes for quick settlement of the 10-day old strike against Chrysler. The United Auto Workers (UAW) has announced a proposal which the company is studying. Chrysler started out 1-2 higher at 87 on a trade of 1,000 shares and quickly made further progress. Small gains were posted for General Motors, Packard and Studebaker.
Today's rise, under way off and on since last June, put the price level at or close to a new high.
Trading started out briskly but soon settled down in a routine pace.
NEW YORK, April 6, (Sp)—Wool cotton prices were 20 to 30 cents a half lower than the previous close. Mar., 32.45, July 28.65 and Oct. 26.65.

Britons Reported Drinking Less Beer

LONDON (AP)—Beer drinking Britons are drinking less beer nowadays. Latest figures show the country's production of the stuff dropped to 1,831,766 bulk barrels a month. Analysts say the slump is due probably both to high beer prices—resulting from high taxes—and the growing popularity of entertainment found outside saloons. They guess the onset of home television may aggravate it.

Japan To Drink More

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government will allow breweries and distilleries to produce 22,000,000 more gallons of alcoholic drinks in the fiscal year beginning April 1. Raw materials are more plentiful. Allowed production this current fiscal year was 94,000,000 gallons.

Belgian Roads Get Face Lift

BRUSSELS (AP)—Belgian roads are undergoing a 46 million dollar face lift. Medieval highways, left behind by rail and canal in the transport race, are getting ready to help bolster Belgium's boast as the "Turntable of Europe."
However, the 46 million dollars is only a fraction of what the Ministry of Public Works estimates is necessary. The director general of roads at the Ministry says it will take ten years and 400 million dollars to give the country a modern road network. Belgium's roads are about 100 years behind the times. Even main highways are still paved with stone cut blocks hewed by hand in southern Belgium.

THE BULL WAS REALLY THROWN—George Feldman used a baby stroller to wheel a five-day-old bull calf to the police station in Everett, Mass., after the unsteady infant was bounced from a truck on a bumpy street. The animal, unhurt but a bit vague on the art of walking, is being turned over to an animal hospital to await a claimant. (AP Wirephoto).

Howard County TB Association Meet Set For April 12

A meeting of the Howard County Tuberculosis association has been set for April 12. Among the items of business to be considered is the offering of tuberculin patch tests through the schools.
This project, carried on steadily for several years by the association, is due to get underway on April 17.
Within a few days pupils will be furnished slips to be taken home for parental approval of the routine tests. In the past some parents apparently have misunderstood the purpose of the tests and have declined to let their children participate. In the tuberculin tests, a patch is placed on the child's arm and left undisturbed for a few days. The underlying area is then examined for any reaction. In event there has been reaction this does not indicate tuberculosis. It does, however, indicate the need for further diagnosis, possibly by x-ray.

Object of the test is to discover any possible cases of unsuspected tuberculosis in their incipency. The matter for final diagnosis or treatment, in event either is indicated, is between the child and the family physician. The association only furnishes the patches which are administered by the health unit and health nurse.
Wisconsin stands eighth among the states in the number of hunting licenses sold, with 421,343.
