CROWD AT MEET THE MULES NIGHT...A crowd estimated to be near 1,000 persons packed into the stands at Benny Douglass Stadium Thursday night to meet the coaching staff of Muleshoe High School and Muleshoe Junior High School and to meet the Muleshoe Mules, 1978 version. Introduced were the players for the freshman, Junior varsity and varsity teams. Athletic Director Mike Wartes explained some of the season expectations to the crowd.

Mules Show Style: Pick Up From Lagging Start

Starting off with a rather slow defense and proving (at first) that the offense

Muleshoe Roping Club will meet at 8 p.m. on Monday, September 4, at the Muleshoe Livestock Auction Barn east of Muleshoe.

All members of the Roping Club are urged to attend the monthly meeting.

Mark Lovelady, who recently had back surgery in Dallas, has been released from the hospital and is recuperating at the home of his sister.

He would appreciate hearing from his friends at: Mark Lovelady, c/o Karla Eubanks, P.O. Box 29, Maude, Texas 75567.

Harvey Toten, who underwent surgery at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, was removed from intensive care to a private room at the hospital on Thursday.

Family members said he is in very good condition and is in room 470.

Aleck Shafer, who was injured in an accident near Muleshoe early in August, was still listed as 'comatose' by the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Preston Lewis of Water, Inc. reported Friday morn-needed to get a little more practice working together, the Mules nevertheless came back, and made a good showing in the scrimmage against Lockney Friday night.

Fumbleitis was the big problem at the beginning of the scrimmage for the Mules, who took some time to warm up and start holding onto the elusive ball.

Failing to move the ball in the initial stages of the game, the Mules finally found the right combination to move against the Lockney eleven.

Playing in bright sunlight, the Mules backed their ears and dug in to start holding a stubborn Lockney offense.

Schools Show Loss In '78 Enrollment

With the first half week of school gone by, enrollment in the four Muleshoe public schools is down some 38 students from the first week of school last year.

In September, 1977, school enrollment hit the peak for the year at 1,717 students, which levelled off. Last year, on the first week of school, some 1,653 students were enrolled, compared to 1,615 on the third day this year.

Superintendent Neal B. Dillman said the predictions are at this time that school enrollment will pick up again in 1981 or 1982. It has been noted that not only in Muleshoe, but the surrounding metropolitan areas, including Clovis,

During the second series in the scrimmage, Terry Shafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shafer, was taken from the field with a broken arm. He was expected, however, to be back in full swing before time to play district games. His family explained that the break was a 'green' break in his left forearm.

A West Texas State University coach was scouting the game, and explained that he was scouting three Muleshoe players and one Lockney player for future Buffaloes.

Most Muleshoe saw action during the scrimmage and Coach Mike Wartes and his staff are expected to do some rearranging in the starting line prior to the first game of the season, Friday night, against the Portales Rams.

Game time will be 8 p.m. in the Muleshoe football stadium for the first game

Two Local Residents At Bush Workshop

George Bush, candidate for the Congressional seat being vacated by George Mahon, told more than 100 supporters at a George Bush for Congress Workshop in Lubbock recently, that he will win the November 7th General Election because of the grass roots organizations the campaign has generated.

Bush also told the gathering he will run an optimistic, positive campaign.

"Everyone will know where I stand on the issues. I won't kick the President of the United States," said Bush. "However, I will criticize the Carter Administration where it has erred in its policies."

"A vote for my opponent will be a vote for the continuation of the Carter Administration and an endorsement of the policies of that administration over the past two years," said Bush.

Bush cited an interview

Local Stores Will Close Labor Day

Taking advantage of the last holiday until Thanksgiving, almost all business will come to a virtual standstill tomorrow, Monday, for the Labor Day holiday.

Muleshoe Postmaster Tom Lobaugh said no mail will come into town or go out of town on Labor Day. The only mail put in the boxes will be newspapers.

Regular mail service will resume on Tuesday. Both the city hall and courthouse will be closed, along with all state and federal offices in the city.

Local grocery stores will be staying open, as will the Corral Restaurant, Gibson's, Woolley-Hurst Implement and Muleshoe Motor Company. Almost all other businesses will be closed on Monday.

Both banks and Tri-County Savings and Loan Association will be closed and there will be no school on that day.

Peace Justice Report

Speeding motorists found themselves in 'hot water' during the month of August with 127 speeding complaints filed in the office of Justice of the Peace K.B. Martin.

Another 20 persons, who were cited for driving without a driver's license also were logged in the JP office. Eleven trucks were given citations for no motor carrier authority and 10 overweight trucks were found.

In other violations filed between the first of August and the end of the month were no motor vehicle inspection stickers, eight; defective equipment, nine; running stop signs, five; public intoxication, eight; operating an unlicensed vehicle, three; no lease on file, three; failure to yield right of way, two; failure to drive in single lane, two and fail to control speed, one. Ending up the list of complaints filed in the office were two cases filed on reckless driving.

New Center Kitchen Needs To Be Supplied

For many, many people, it is a dream come true! When you drive out West American Blvd. and see the new Bailey County Civic Center and Coliseum at the west edge of Muleshoe, it shows no indication of the many years of preparation and attempts to acquire such a facility for use of people in this area.

Friday, members of the Bailey County Commissioners Court authorized the final payment of $67,000 on the facility and issued Certificates of Obligation on the final phases of construction of the building.

Bailey County Judge Glen Williams explained that although the kitchen is not completed, the rest of the building is ready for use and it will be used in future years for many functions.

One major upcoming function will be on Sept. 19, when the large arena will be utilized as a courtroom. District Judge Pat Boone will be trying a case with 27 defendants. Thus a jury panel of more than 300 persons will be summoned, as it was explained that each defendant will be allowed a certain number of prospective jurors.

Also, attorneys will be present for each defendant, as well as the prosecuting attorneys, law enforcement officers, court personnel, families and friends of the 27 defendants and onlookers.

Stoves are ready to be installed in the kitchen and cabinet work begins this week. Judge Williams said that hoods will have to be vented over the stoves, but other parts of the building are ready to be occupied.

He reminded that before the kitchen can be used, it will need to be equipped with cooking pots and instruments; dishes and tableware. The local civic, fraternal and social organizations are expected to equip the kitchen with necessary items.

Included in the building is the foyer, ticket stands, a concession, kitchen, restrooms, two offices and a small meeting room which will seat up to 125 persons. The front part of the building, which will probably see the heaviest use, is heated and air conditioned, and fully carpeted.

In the arena, 650 permanent bleachers have been installed. The floor is concrete and the building has been heated in the arena. There are two more rest rooms, along with an animal wash facility and another adjacent building which has been designed for future use by the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department.

Arraignments And Pre-Trial Held Thursday

Arraignments and pre-trials for 27 of the 30 persons charged in December, 1977 with being a combination to manufacture, deliver, dispense and distribute methamphetamine were conducted before Judge Pat Boone Thursday.

The trial will get underway on Monday, September 18, with the jury panel to report on Tuesday, September 19. Because of the large number of persons to be tried, the trial will be conducted at the Bailey County Exhibition Center and Coliseum.

Rain Skips Town; Hits At Needmore

Although the major part of an after midnight rain skipped over the city of Muleshoe early Wednesday it left more than an inch and a half of moisture in the Needmore area.

Two miles north of Needmore, Shirley Wilson reported an inch and a half of moisture as well as Billy Gore, west of Circleback. But, southwest of Baileyboro, not even a sprinkle was received.

At the same time, .11 was recorded at the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge and Rudolph Moraw, one mile south of Needmore received .3.

In Muleshoe proper, .15 was recorded.

Late in the week, daily clouds failed to produce needed moisture and moisture-stresses crops continued to wilt. Temperatures stayed in the mid to high 80's with no moisture forecast by National Weather Service.

MULE 'MANIA' STARTS...Herb Whalin, member of the Muleshoe Athletic Booster Club, shows some of the items available for all sports fans in this area. The bumper sticker or window sticker alone will cost $1 each, but buying them together, they are $1.75. They money helps buy equipment for the school athletes.

Newly proposed safety standards should make automobiles safer for children.

Improved protection for infants and small children in automobiles is the subject of a new proposal by the U.S. Department of Transportation.

The proposed safety standards will up-grade the present one that covers only child seats. The new standard will include car beds, infant carriers and child harnesses.

An important part of the up-grade will require dynamic "crash" tests with special dummies simulating a 3-year-old child and a 6-month-old infant.

Presently, the safety standard prescribes static tests. Some child restraints on the market can pass the static test, but fail to protect children during crashes. Another part of the proposal will require manufacturers of the restraint systems to label them with the weight and height of children who may safely use the system.

They must also provide instructions on how to install and adjust the system.

Also prescribed in the new safety standard is the means for securing the restraint system in the vehicles. The system would have to be attached by means of the vehicle seat belts.

The proposal would permit a special tether belt supplied by the manufacturer in addition to the lap belt as a means of attachment.

For restraint systems equipped with the tether belts, a frontal crash test at 20 miles per hour would be required without the tether attached.

This test is intended to assure a minimal level of safety performance when the tether strap is not used since statistics indicate this happens about 50 percent of the time.

The amount of force necessary to open belt buckles and release the child from the restraint would also be specified.

The closing date on this proposal is December 1, 1978.

Consumers concerned about safety standards for child restraints may submit comments regarding this proposal to: Docket Section, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 400 7th Street SW, Washington, D.C. 20590.

Crittenden Joins Texas Sesame Crew

Wayne Crittenden has joined the Texas Sesame Elevator as Assistant to General Manager Bill Wimberly, company officials announced this week. Crittenden and his family have lived in Muleshoe since 1970 where he was the Ford Tractor dealer until 1973. When that operation was closed by the Ford Tractor division of the Ford Motor Company, Crittenden continued in the used tractor and machinery business until 1976.

tion of the 1978 football season. Previously, on Thursday night, nearly 1,000 persons were in the football stands to Meet The Mules, and the coaching staff.

Head Football Coach Mike Wartes introduced the coaches, who introduced the more than 100 Muleshoe High School football players.

Coach Wartes explained to the group what the coaches expect from the current football season just getting underway, and had the players walk through some of the plays which will be seen on the field. His showing of plays should have been of great benefit to not only present football fans, but especially for women who do not know football.

He commented Thursday night, "We're proud of our teams, and we hope you will be proud of them, too. We're backing them and hope you're backing them, too."

"We are pleased to have a man of Wayne Crittenden's character and ability join Texas Sesame," commented Executive Vice President Bill Wimberly. "Wayne's background and experience in many phases of agriculture in the Muleshoe area give him the qualifications to really help both the elevator operation and our grain customers," said Wimberly.

"Getting ready for the upcoming grain harvest is carrying me a little fast on my feet right now," said Crittenden, "but, I'm really enjoying it. I look forward to working with our grain customers to help solve any problems I can."

Prior to moving to Muleshoe, he was Service manager and worked in sales for the Brownfield Ford Tractor Co., from 1960 to 1968. Later he worked for Hockley County Equipment Co., the John Deere dealer in Levelland.

Crittenden grew up on a farm near Spade, and his parents now reside in Anton. The Crittendens live at 210 Avenue J in Muleshoe. They are the parents of four children, Susan, a freshman at South Plains College; Cody, a junior in Muleshoe High School; Katy, a third grade student and Julie, in the second grade. They are members of the Non-Denominational Church in Muleshoe.

Corduroy will be popular in fall school clothes. Three piece sets consists of blazer, vest and pants. Toning stripe shirts complete the ensemble.

Doubling for warmth and water repellent will be the rugged, quilted nylon parka with hood. These will be very good for school wear.

WOMEN'S FASHIONS

Women's fall fashions focus on soft, touchable and layers.

Big shapes are evident with shoulder pads for a squared shoulder look of jackets, dresses, sweaters and coats.

Popular fabrics include soft crepe, challis, tweed, damask, Crepe de Chine, velour, corduroy and flannel.

Layering the new big look with last year's suit or dress provides the comfort factor needed for warmth and still retains versatility of the wardrobe.

Skirts are narrower, wrapped or with interesting waist detailing such as a higher front waist cumberbund.

Lengths range from below the knee to mid-calf. This year's length is regulated by the proportion created with the top.

Watch for damasks or quilted silk vests worn with the big sleeve blouse. Pants are shorter and narrower. They feature full trouser styling at the top, tapering to the ankle.

The Spencer jacket, the newest look worn with skirts, pants and vests, is short and fitted at the waist with slight shoulder pads for the squared touch.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

I am a woman in her seventies and as I have no close relatives I am thinking of going to a home for elderly people. I have been looking at several homes and I have finally got the choice down to one or two I have seen.

In the first one I can have a single room. In the second for the same price I would have to share the bedroom but we would have a livingroom and a small kitchenette. I would not consider the second idea if it were not for the fact that my companion would be a very good friend of mine and the bedroom is large with twin beds.

Do you think this would work out or would it be better to have a single room?

Mary-III.

Answer:

It all depends on your disposition and that of your companion. If you are people who mind your own business and are content to let each other run her own life, you might find such a set up very rewarding.

You could help each other in many ways--you could be there in case one of you get sick and, last but not least, you could keep each other from being lonely.

But if you are a person who likes to be alone and fill your time with books and television, you may prefer the single room.

Louisa.

You can save money and treat your guests to super-tasty hors d'oeuvres if you use leftover canned ham to make sensational tidbits to serve before dinner.

The meat may be spiked on toothpicks with pineapple or olives, or shredded and combined with mayonnaise for a spread for crackers. Or slice the meat paper-thin and wrap it around bit-size bits of canteloupe or honeydew.

RECIPE

By Sarah Ann Sheridan

A meat-based casserole needs only a salad and simple dessert to round out a nutritious meal. This is also an excellent way to use left-over baked chicken.

- 1 3 oz. can mushroom stems and pieces, undrained
- 1 envelope instant chicken-broth mix
- 1/2 c butter
- 1/2 c chopped onions
- 2 T flour
- 1 1/2 c light cream
- 3 c hot fluffy rice
- 3 c cooked chicken chunks
- 1/2 c chopped pimiento
- 2 T chopped parsley
- 1/4 t salt

- 1/4 t pepper
- 1/2 c crushed potato chips

Preparation time 1 hour. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Drain mushrooms; pour liquid into measuring cup and add enough hot water to make 1 cup. Add broth to liquid and stir till blended.

In skillet, saute onions until golden in hot butter. Stir in flour; gradually stir in broth mixture and cream; cook stirring, until thickened and smooth. Add rice, chicken, mushrooms, pimiento, parsley, salt and pepper. Turn into 9 inch by 5 inch by 3 inch loaf pan; top with potato chips. Bake 25 to 30 minutes or until chips are brown. Serves 8.

Reward Offered For Missing Odessa Girl

Catherine Ann (Fifi) Murphy, of Odessa disappeared Wednesday night, July 19. About 10:30 that evening, she and her boyfriend, Steve Fife, left The Other Place, a night club in Odessa. Fife said that they left in Miss Murphy's car, a 1975, 2-door Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme, white with dark blue on the back top, dark blue interior, with Texas License RCP 107. Miss Murphy let Fife out at his home shortly after midnight, Wednesday. Miss Murphy has been missing since that time.

Miss Murphy's car was found about 40 hours later at approximately 4:15 p.m., July 21 on the parking lot north of Permian Bank and Trust and west of Safeway in the 2700 block of North Grandview in Odessa. It was locked and the keys, on a large heavy, gold key ring, were missing. These items were also missing from it, a ladies ice-blue bowling ball with the name of "Fifi" on it; her bowling ball bag with her tan bowling shoes in it; a set of hot hair curlers, white plastic; a pair of light tan ostrich-skin ladies shoes; and a ladies light pink hard hat.

Miss Murphy is 19 years old; five feet, two inches tall; 120 pounds; short, blondish brown or dark blonde hair and Hazel eyes. When she disappeared, she was possibly wearing a black, spaghetti strap, halter-type dress, probably made of cotton; black platform high heel sandals; brown leather purse; ladies gold watch with gold band; gold ring with a small center cut diamond with small rubies around it; white gold ring with ten single cut diamonds and three full cut diamonds, a gold band with three small diamonds and a silver chain necklace with an opal pendant.

Miss Murphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. D. Murphy, Jr. of Odessa, have retained Attorney Will Hadden of Odessa as their Advisor-Spokesman in their continuing efforts to find their missing daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy has offered a reward of $5,000. The Murphys request that if you have information, contact their attorney rather than them, at 915-332-0555.

Fertilize For Quality Hay

With the right growing conditions, high quality hay can be produced as late as September and early October. And a forage specialist says producers can help Mother Nature provide the right conditions.

Don J. Dorsett, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says a high quality last cutting of hay requires fertility and prime growing conditions, especially moisture.

Dorsett says production from residual nitrogen fertilizer which was applied in April, May or June should not be expected.

"If additional hay or pasture is needed and can be used, an application of nitrogen fertilizer is the main control an individual has to increase production," the specialist says. He suggests applying at least 50 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre (150 pounds of ammonium nitrate.)

Levels of production, protein and digestibility of fall-produced pasture and hay can be near spring levels if sufficient fertilizer is applied and timely rains fall.

"The probability of September rainfall is good and should be used in planning forage activities," says Dorsett. "Take advantage of these improved forage production conditions by planning pasture and hay land fertility now."

MISSING... Catherine Ann (Fifi) Murphy of Odessa has been missing since July 19. A reward of $5,000 has been offered for information leading to her whereabouts. The above car belonging to Catherine (Fifi) Murphy, of Odessa, a '75, 2-door, Oldsmobile Cutlass Supreme, white with dark blue on back top and dark blue interior, Texas License Number RCP 107 was found July 21.

GREAT DAY!!!

Consumer Food News

Best values at Texas grocery markets this week include eggs, melons, fryer chickens and several fresh vegetable items, according to Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt.

Also, there are a number of "specials" at dairy and frozen food counters and along grocery market aisles, she says.

Mrs. Clyatt is a consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

This week's price-quality trends are the following:

POULTRY...

Eggs are a good value, with small and medium sizes the most plentiful. Fryer chickens, also a good value, when bought whole will save 8-10 cents more per pound.

Turkey prices, however, are moderate to relatively high due to limited supplies and more demand.

FRESH FRUITS...

Honeydew melons, cantaloupes and watermelons are economical choices. Varying price levels appear on peaches, nectarines, plums, prunes, grapes, bananas and pears--so select according to budget limits.

FRESH VEGETABLES...

Economical items include corn, carrots, cabbage, cucumbers, okra, dry yellow onions, yellow and zucchini squash and potatoes.

DAIRY...

Features include milk (buttermilk and homogenized milk), yogurt and a variety of cheeses.

Piggly Wiggly Introduces Price Watcher Campaign

Like many supermarket shoppers, Sally Worski is concerned about high food prices. "It's terrible," she says, shaking her head. "The prices are so high I have trouble just feeding a family of four."

Rising food costs are a problem, but people have to eat and Mrs. Worski's family is no different. So how is the New Mexico shopper coping with this problem?

Armed with plenty of paper, a pencil and a clipboard, Mrs. Worski has joined a team of Piggly Wiggly "Price Watchers" that goes from store to store checking and comparing food prices in which the findings are periodically revealed in Piggly Wiggly commercials and newspaper ads.

This new campaign works to insure that Piggly Wiggly prices stay competitive in 40 Texas and New Mexico cities, including Muleshoe, where these Shop Rite Foods, Inc., stores are located, Wally Williams, president, explained.

Following a survey on shopping habits of consumers in six area Southwest cities, the decision was made by Piggly Wiggly to lower its prices storewide because of the survey's conclusion that the majority of shoppers are extremely price conscious. Findings also showed convenience as a major factor in selecting a grocery store, followed by courteous employees, savings stamps, meat, produce and cleanliness.

To further enforce an effective campaign, Piggly Wiggly promises to "Triple the Difference" to consumers who find lower prices on identical items at other stores. If another supermarket's total is lower, shoppers just bring in their Piggly Wiggly receipt and a list of the other store's prices to receive a triple refund on the price difference. Fresh meat and produce, however, will not be included because quality, cut and trim varies from company to company.

Price watchers can be easily identified wearing green and white scotch plaid outfits, driving vividly painted yellow, green and red striped Volkswagens, specially marked as the "Price Watcher Wagon," Williams said.

ZIMMATIC

The one time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down.

About the only time you expect to see a Zimmatic broken down is when it leaves one of Lindsay's plants. Once assembled in your field, it seldom causes a problem. Those big, sure-footed towers power their way around the field, carrying water to crops.

Hour after hour, day after day. Until you decide to shut down. That kind of performance doesn't just happen. It's the result of constant testing — both in the plant and in the field. Lindsay puts these rigs through the most punishing conditions — loads of more stress in a week, usually, than they're likely to see in a lifetime of normal use.

But we know that no system is 100% perfect all the time. That's why we're ready to help with an extensive parts inventory and factory trained servicemen if you ever have a problem. Before you buy any center pivot irrigation system, be sure to let us tell you about all the advantages of owning a Lindsay Zimmatic.

Krueger Takes Stand On Right To Work Law

Democratic Senate nominee Bob Krueger, citing the upward economic growth of Texas during the past decade, said he "wholeheartedly" supports Texas' Right to Work law, which he said has contributed to that growth.

"I have always supported Section 14-B of the Taft-Hartley Act because of the positive impact it has had on our state," Krueger said. "And I will continue to support it--Right to Work must stand."

Krueger said that the fact that Texas has a Right to Work law has been a factor in the relocation of many businesses here.

"Our economic climate here is good--we have avoided most of the economic problems the Northeast has. Our Right to Work law has contributed to creating that healthy climate, and we must make sure it continues," Krueger said during a campaign stop in Muleshoe.

The Democratic nominee also accused John Tower of voting for price supports for himself, in the form of a 29 percent pay raise, but opposing price supports for the American farmers, "who needs financial aid far more than John Tower."

"We must recommit ourselves to passing legislation that will provide farmers with parity prices for their crops, Krueger said as he discussed agriculture legislation.

Krueger, who represents the 21st District where farming and ranching are major industries, outlined specific proposals he has offered aimed at remedying the problems of financially plagued farmers.

"American farmers and ranchers are having a harder and harder time breaking even and making a decent living than they have had in years," Krueger said. "Many face deeper and deeper debt. As a result, many young people are leaving farming--the average age of the American farmer today is 55."

Krueger recommended a greater commitment of federal resources to agriculture research, particularly in energy research for the farm, plentiful low-interest rate loans for farmers and ranchers who have been hurt by drought this year and land use planning at the local, rather than federal level.

The second-term congressman has cosponsored legislation creating a flexible parity system, allowing farmers to obtain up to 100 percent parity by setting aside portions of their acreage.

Krueger said he also introduced legislation to tighten inspection standards for foreign meat which currently does not undergo the same scrutiny as domestic meat.

"The current system affords foreign producers an unfair advantage," the Democratic nominee said. "Domestic producers are required to pay inspection costs, while foreign producers are not."

Krueger is also the sponsor of a bill forcing imported beef to be clearly labeled as such. "The consumer is unaware if he is buying domestic or foreign meat when he goes shopping. If my legislation is passed, imported beef will be required to bear a label informing the buyer that the meat is imported."

Krueger attacked the voting record of his Republican opponent, John Tower, saying Tower has "compiled the worst record on agricultural issues of any Texas senator since Texas joined the Union."

Krueger lambasted Tower for his support of price controls on beef, and his vote against the passage of a bill extending price support programs for wheat, feed grains and wool and increasing the price support level for milk from 75 percent to 80 percent of parity.

"It is clear that John Tower is not a supporter of American agriculture. One of his first actions on the Senate floor was the introduction of an amendment to require development of a plan to eliminate all price supports," Krueger said.

Krueger, an owner of an East Texas cattle ranch, was recently inducted into the American Cattle Breeders' Hall of Fame. "Farmers and ranchers need to be able to rely on stable long-term government policy. I will continue to see that this occurs," Krueger pledged.

An adamant supporter of right-to-work laws, Krueger said he favors the retention of secret balloting and protection of the rights of small businessmen.

"Any labor reform must in no way jeopardize right-to-work laws. Right to work must be protected... and preserved," he said.

Krueger also criticized government overspending during his appearance here in Muleshoe, saying we "cannot spend ourselves into riches."

"Our nation must follow the example of our state and live within its budget. If it requires a constitutional amendment to do so, then so be it," he said.

Krueger offered a budget amendment last May to reduce the size of federal spending by $7 billion. That amendment was defeated, however.

"Our national government simply cannot spend the next generation's inheritance and impose on our young a lifetime in debt. It did not take Californians and Proposition 13 to teach Texans about government overspending."

"The taxpayers are undoubtedly sending a message to Washington: 'Don't try to do everything for us, and don't promise what you can't deliver.'"

Krueger stressed the need for new directions in developing the full potential of all Americans.

Calling education "our best investment in the future," the New Braunfels native said the United States must not fall into an "educational materialism" which confuses the surroundings of learning with learning itself.

"We must value our children and tomorrow enough to assure that the uniqueness of each individual is nurtured and expressed. But to develop our people's potential we must not only require formal education for people of all ages, but basic opportunity for all our citizens."

According to a 600-sample poll released Aug. 2, Krueger has pulled to within 1.4 percentage points of overtaking Tower. The poll, conducted by nationally known Pat Caddell of Washington, D.C., and John Henson of Austin showed Tower is leading Krueger by a margin of only 42.6 to 41.2.

The last poll, taken when Hank Grover was still in the race, showed Tower with a five-point lead.

On Wall Street By Bob Hill

The Baltimore Canyon, hope for the East Coast and its natural gas reserves, is getting more promising by the day. There is growing evidence that the oil companies exploring for oil and gas off the New Jersey shore and have found what they have been looking for.

Texaco has drilled one discovery well but the potential gas production is far less than what is needed to make it a commercial producer. Wall Street welcomed the news with a jump in Texaco stock. It has since returned to below where it started when the announcement was made.

Exxon began drilling in March and has announced that it intends to drill to 15,000 ft., 1,000 ft. deeper than originally planned.

The decision is regarded more as a "plus" than a minus. Shell has announced that it intends to drill deeper than it originally intended.

Most offshore oil is found at depths between 5,000 and 12,000 ft. Even though the rig is over the hole, it is still expensive and difficult to drill deeper. When a company announces plans to deepen a hole, it is usually assumed that something interesting has been hit.

Drilling in the Baltimore Canyon is being watched closely because it would establish major production just offshore from a large refining area and a huge market for natural gas. It would be a plus for the oil and gas industry and the economy of the entire Eastern seaboard.

250 Attend Oklahoma Lane Demonstration

Approximately 250 area farmers attended a large field demonstration, hosted by International Harvester dealer Wooley-Hurst during his "Red Power Showdown Days" promotion.

The local farmers also entered a special sweepstakes drawing held during the demonstration of IH's Series 86 tractors. Now, their names will be placed into a regional drawing. And the winner of that drawing will be eligible for a national drawing, September 27, featuring a 160 pto horsepower, two wheel drive 1586 tractor as grand prize.

In all, eight regional winners will be eligible for the top award as well as other tractor prizes.

Also at the field day, the local dealer demonstrated "Red Power," a lineup of tractors from 100 to 160 pto hp. The field demonstration took place at Oklahoma Lane, on August 24.

Attending farmers learned about the Control Center, a departure from the add-on cab of the past, which is now an integral part of the tractor permitting maximum visibility and improved riding quality; improved transmission and Torque Amplifier with hi-lo range and 16 speeds forward, eight in reverse; and wet power disc brakes.

"We wish all our farmers the best of luck in the Red Power Showdown Days Sweepstakes," the dealer concluded. "And we thank those who attended and made the field day a complete success."

Krueger recommended a greater commitment of federal resources to agriculture research, particularly in energy research for the farm, plentiful low-interest rate loans for farmers and ranchers who have been hurt by drought this year and land use planning at the local, rather than federal level.

BEACHED... and forgotten!

This old forgotten boat is almost buried in the reeds. Can this boat in any way be compared to our talents? What of these talents that God has given us? Have they been beached, forgotten, buried?

Heaven expects us to help in this matter of creating a better world where brother helps brother by using to the fullest extent the talents He has bestowed upon us. God always provokes and prods mankind to do good works, and accomplish great things. And He says that if we dedicate ourselves to this matter He will help. But the decision to use our talents and develop them is our choice.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Comptroller Adds Dollars To Collection

Comptroller Bob Bullock said Wednesday that a new computerized payee system in his office has collected $180,000 owed the state in its first two months of operation.

"Simply stated, our computer kicks out warrants written to people or businesses who owe the state money," Bullock said. "We then hold the warrant until the debt or delinquency is cleared up."

The Comptroller said, for example, that his office is now holding 1,253 warrants totaling $605,408. The payees appearing on the warrants are notified automatically. "Most of them pay up quickly so then can get their paychecks," Bullock added.

The payee system, implemented June 1, provides strict enforcement of a new law prohibiting the Comptroller's Office from issuing a warrant (paycheck) to anyone owing the state money.

Made possible by a new statewide accounting system implemented by the Comptroller's Office recently, the new payee program will mean faster processing of warrants and more complete information available to decision-makers.

"For the first time, believe it or not, the Comptroller can tell the Legislature how many state employees there are," Bullock said.

(That figure is 160,598 as of July 31-including full and part-time and state college and university employees paid from state funds.)

State payees include employees, taxpayers due refunds, aid recipients and persons and businesses selling goods and services to the state. In order to work properly, the payee system has required that a number be assigned to every payee. Nearly all of the numbers are based on taxpayer or Social Security numbers. Bullock conceded there have been some kinks to be ironed out as the program was phased in, including delays in the issuance of some warrants because vouchers were submitted without identifying numbers.

A wise traveler never despises his own country.

-Carlo Goldoni.

"But with the help of other agencies we have things running smoothly now," he said. "This program is proving to be an invaluable tool in our efforts to collect money owed the state."

That's because he's still listed as just "Michael W. Leon" in the telephone directory. There's no mention of his wife Joan. Nor their three teenagers. After all, don't they deserve their own listings?

Well now you can let everybody know about the great things happening in your life with the new edition of your telephone directory. It's going to press soon. So if you're about to make any changes or add a dual name listing, now's the time to do it.
