

College Has To Pay More To Teachers

(This is the third of a series of four articles dealing with problems confronting the new Howard County Junior College, and its plans for improvement and expansion, presented in connection with the election Saturday involving authority to increase the college tax levy from a maximum of 20 cents to a 50-cent maximum.)

If the Howard County Junior College increases its operating revenues next year by some $30,000—which it hopes to do by increasing the county-wide district's tax levy—the bulk of the increase will go to paying higher instructional costs.

Voters of the district will go to the polls Saturday, July 26 to decide on authorizing a maximum tax levy for HCJC of 50 cents on the $100 valuation, against the 20 cents currently levied. Trustees of the college, however do not plan to use all the authorized increase. Highest estimate made to date is 40 cents per hundred.

Instructional salaries last year ran to about $200,000. President E. C. Dodd of the college says that this outlay must be raised to around $50,000 by an efficient and adequate teaching staff is to be maintained.

HCJC instructors' salaries average right at $2,500. This is more than $350 per year under the average of 17 junior colleges in Texas, which average for 1946-47 was $2,855. Undoubtedly it will be higher this year.

Dodd says competent instructors cannot be kept at the current low figures. In addition, new teachers must be added, if the college broadens its training program or cares for any more pupils.

The HCJC board estimates that $9,000 would be given in salary increases (if new revenues are made available), $6,500 would be allocated for additional teachers, and $3,500 would be set aside for part time instructors.

Last year the college had ten full-time and three part-time instructors. President Dodd says the need this year is for 14 full-time instructors.

Total enrollment last year was 323, this figure including evening-school and part-time enrollees. The full-time pupil load was about 250.

There is every reason to believe, school men say, that the enrollment will be larger this fall. Some predict a big increase, others a more modest one. All are confident the instructional load will be as heavy as last year.

The campaign to get higher salaries for public school teachers has its effect on the junior colleges, too. Many high schools now are paying as much as HCJC has been paying. Instructors at the college must have Master's degrees, can command better professional scale.

If HCJC expects to keep up the standards it must maintain, it will take $15,000 to $20,000 more instructional money. This is regarded by HCJC leaders as a must.

The college also will have to spend about $5,000 in plant improvement and additional maintenance. The more it grows, the more money it takes to keep plant and equipment up to required levels.

The only place the college has to go get the necessary money is to local tax rolls.

Experts Praise Economic Report

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—President Truman's analysis of America's economic assets and shortcomings drew general praise today from a Republican and a Democrat on the congressional committee seeking an anti-depression formula.

Sizing up the Chief Executive's special mid-year report, which included a description of "unprecedented prosperity" with a call for greater efforts against inflation, Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) told a reporter:

"By and large, it looks like a good, careful job. I think the most important thing the President said is that the food price and supply situation merits the most careful watching."

U. S. Tells Balkans To Respect U. N.

LAKE SUCCESS, July 22. (AP)—The United States warned the Balkan states today that any refusal to cooperate with the proposed border watch commission might bring punitive action by the United Nations security council.

The warning was voiced by Herschel V. Johnson, deputy U. S. delegate, in reply to Soviet contentions that the council could do no more than make recommendations under Chapter VI of the U. N. charter under which the present case is being considered.

Johnson said refusal of any country to cooperate with the proposed border commission would lay it open to much graver charges and action under another chapter of the charter. He presumably referred to Chapter VII, which provides for sanctions and military action.

Johnson said he accepted a French amendment to the preamble of the American resolution which would stipulate that continuation of the disturbed situation in the Balkans would be a threat to peace.

Meanwhile, Britain proposed that the council sidestep a decision on which of the Balkan countries were responsible for the current disorders in that area.

The British proposal was contained in an amendment eliminating a paragraph of an American resolution which Russia and the Soviet satellites had attacked on the ground that it presumed the guilt of Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

A spokesman for the American delegation said the British amendment would be accepted by the United States. This was one of two conciliatory moves made in this morning's council session in an effort to reconcile conflicting Soviet and American views.

The other move was made by France. The U. S. resolution referred to the report of the Balkan investigating commission which declared that any future hostile action on the part of the three Soviet satellites would be considered a threat to peace.

The British amendment proposed instead that any such action by any one of the four disputing countries should be classified as a threat.

French delegate Alexandre Parodi told the United Nations security council he had prepared a series of amendments to the American proposal for creation of a semi-permanent border watch along Greece's troubled northern border.

He did not disclose immediately the nature of the amendments, but he said their aim was to stress conciliation between the four Balkan countries and to establish good neighborly relations.

Corn Yield Placed Slightly Higher

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—The agriculture department, in a special report, today forecast this year's weather-plagued corn crop at 2,770,930,000 bushels on the basis of July 15 conditions.

This estimate compares with 2,612,809,000 bushels previously forecast on the basis of July 1 conditions, with last year's record of 3,257,927,000 and with a ten-year (1936-45) average of 2,639,102,000.

The prospective reduction from last year was said to reflect one of the most adverse planting seasons of record—a season of excessive rain and floods and cool weather.

Three Young Girls Drowned In River

HEMPSTEAD, July 22. (AP)—Rescue workers continued to drag the Brazos river near here today in search for bodies of three young girls who drowned late yesterday while on an outing at the Darling farm, 18 miles from Hempstead.

State Increase Not A New Tax, Jester Asserts

Doubling Of Rate Brings Storm Of Argument

AUSTIN, July 22. (AP)—The "I told you so's" were being exchanged in the capitol today following the automatic tax board's action in virtually doubling the state property levy yesterday.

One group was insisting that the additional 35 cents levy on the $100 valuation was in no sense a new tax; that it has long been authorized and has almost always been necessary.

The other side said it was a new tax insofar as any comparison between 1946 and 1947 was concerned. The board's action brought a sharp statement from Rep. Frank C. Oltorf of Marlin, whose comment was:

"That is the direct result of the failure of the legislature to enact a natural resources tax. Every member of the legislature who voted against or otherwise opposed such tax shares in the responsibility."

Gov. Beauford H. Jester, chairman of the automatic tax board, said in his report to the people last night, a few hours after the board met, that the legislature had greatly expanded state services including aid in education "without imposition of new taxes on the people."

Gov. Jester held firm today to his claim that no new taxes have been levied.

"The tax has always been levied, except last year when there was a surplus," Jester declared.

He explained that State Comptroller George H. Sheppard's estimate of anticipated revenue to the legislature was required by law to include the levy and that legislative spending had included all that was anticipated.

Jester said he was surprised that anyone considered the longtime-levied general fund tax as a "new tax."

He did not answer a question speculating that the property tax might not have been necessary had the legislature levied an unallocated special tax or an allocated gas gathering tax which might have freed other revenue from the board.

In 1946, the automatic tax board which follows a statutory formula in setting the tax rate each year, did away with the general fund levy entirely when this fund showed a surplus and all its obligations were otherwise cared for.

The board's action yesterday was just as "automatic." Figures presented by the comptroller actually showed that there was a need for 38.6 cents for $100 valuation. The board was limited in fixing the levy, however, by the 35 cent ceiling.

No fear was expressed at the board meeting that there will be a deficit. The law requires that a 20 per cent addition be made arbitrarily to income required and this was expected to take up the slack.

The tax set by the board followed the legislature's action in passing appropriation bills that ate up all anticipated income, as well as in allocating from the clearance fund (that feeds its surplus if any into the general revenue pot) an unprecedented amount for the $55 per capita for support of schools. Also, the legislature refused to pass a tax bill and Jester insisted it was not necessary.

City Commission Meeting Today

The Big Spring city commission was scheduled to meet at 3:30 p. m. today at the city hall.

The paving program is due to provide further discussion at the session, and recent negotiations with the War Assets Administration pertaining to buildings at the former bombardier school also will occupy a spot on the agenda.

City Manager H. W. Whitney was expected to hear from WAA officials today, but up to noon no communication had been received at City hall.

HEADS SCHOOL SURVEY

AUSTIN, July 22. (AP)—Sen. James E. Taylor of Kerens today was unanimously elected as chairman of an 18-man committee which began a survey of how best to finance the public schools of Texas.

Conflicting Claims On Java Warfare

Indonesian Chief To Explain Stand

BATAVIA, July 22. (AP)—Indonesian sources said today Dutch troops who stormed ashore on the north and east coasts of Java yesterday had been engaged in heavy fighting. The Dutch, reporting all objectives reached in the operation, said resistance was "less than expected."

A Dutch army communique placed Dutch casualties yesterday at 150 dead and wounded.

President Soekarno of the Indonesian Republic announced that former premier Sutan Sjahrir had left Java on a mission to explain the Republic's position abroad.

(Arriving in Singapore, Sjahrir said he would visit the United States, India and Australia on his mission.)

A Royal Netherlands Navy communique said landing craft of the navy and warships disembarked troops at Banjoewangi on the east coast of Java and at Pasir Putih on the north coast. It was the first amphibious operation since the end of World War II. A Dutch Army communique said the troops gained initial objectives and made additional advances.

A severe five-hour engagement in the Padang sector of Sumatra yesterday and other clashes on that island were reported by an Indonesian Army communique. The bulletin also said that on Sunday, two Dutch warships off Merak on the extreme western tip of Java were shelled by Indonesian mortars and left the area after suffering damage.

The fight, which began Sunday with the Dutch acting first, originated in disagreements over the future government of the East Indies, rich in oil, rubber, sugar, tin and other products. The Republicans call it a "colonial war," the Dutch "local police action."

Dutch troops, mainly United States-trained marines, were said to have captured four East-Java coastal points after going ashore from naval vessels in a large-scale operation yesterday. They were reported to have established bridgeheads along a 55-mile coastal road between two of those points—Probolinggo and Sitobondo.

First reports from Sumatra said Dutch troops jumped off in local actions yesterday at three towns on that big island northwest of Java—Medan in the North, Palembang in the Southeast and Padang in the middle—and had completed the Padang operation without casualties.

Three Of Four Escapees Taken

VERNON, July 22. (AP)—Vernon Edward Hill and Donald Davis, two of four prisoners who escaped from the Carson county jail at Panhandle Sunday, were taken today by Texas Ranger Jim Geer of Vernon and members of the state highway patrol.

This left only one prisoner still at large, Thomas Binkley, Jr., 37, of Graham, having been arrested at Pampa last night. The one now being sought is Leo James.

Hill and Davis were stopped by a road block they were traveling in a car reportedly stolen at Pampa. They were unarmed and offered no resistance.

Sheriff Clarence Williams of Carson county and Texas Ranger Dudley White are in Vernon to return the men to Panhandle.

Title Transfer Delay Means A Penalty

Persons who fail to make title transfer on second-hand or used vehicles within ten days' time are liable to a $5 penalty, a spokesman for the county tax collector-assessor's office said this morning.

In cases where the assignment of title on the transfer form is not filled in, the party guilty of the oversight is liable to a fine of not less than $50 and not more than $200. All papers henceforth must be executed in full and dated.

The amendments to the vehicles regulations were voted into law in the last session of the state legislature.

SP Railroad Strike Is Ended Quickly

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22. (AP)—A strike by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers which immobilized the western lines of the Southern Pacific railroad ended early today six hours and 45 minutes after it began.

Thirty-nine minutes later the first of hundreds of locomotives idled by the brief strike puffed back into service. It was a switch engine in the railroad's Oakland, Calif., yards.

L. B. McDonald, Southern Pacific vice president in charge of operations, announced at 2:45 a. m. (C.S.T.), that an agreement with the union was reached in negotiations which had continued in session after the walkout began yesterday at 8 p. m. (C.S.T.).

Shortly afterward P. O. Peterson, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, announced "an agreement has been signed and the strike indefinitely postponed while the remaining issues are settled."

Peterson said 15 of 20 points at issue, mainly affecting working rules, were settled satisfactorily for the union and that a demand for a guaranteed minimum wage increase from $10.02 to $12.95 was waived.

"I think the employees got the best of the bargain," he said.

J. V. Corbett, general manager of the railroad, said, "five of the issues were withdrawn by the union. Some were compromised and some were settled as requested. The rest of the issues as to the first 20 demands are subject to mediation."

"A compromise settlement was reached to the satisfaction of both parties."

House May Push Check On Probe Of Vote Fraud

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—With the Senate stalled on demands for a congressional investigation into Attorney General Clark's handling of Kansas City vote fraud charges, prospects mounted today that Republican leaders might turn to the House for help.

Senator Keam (R-Mo.) said he still has not given up hope that the Senate will approve his resolution authorizing an inquiry.

But with time running out on the Saturday adjournment goal, Democratic senators showed no inclination to let the matter come to an early vote.

Meanwhile, a highly-placed House Republican who asked that his name not be used said a number of representatives have been pressing for an inquiry by their chamber. He said the matter might be brought before the House administration committee today.

Thomason Eulogized By His Colleagues

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—Rep. Ewing Thomason (D-Tex.) submitted to Speaker Martin today his resignation from Congress effective July 31.

Thomason recently was appointed a federal judge for the western district of Texas.

Thomason was eulogized by his colleagues following his announcement. The speakers including Reps. Rayburn (D-Tex.), Andrews (R-NY), Mahon (D-Tex.), Arends (R-NY), Leroy Johnson (R-Calif.), Zimmerman (D-Mo.), Spence (D-Ky.), Plumley (R-Vt.), Gossett (D-Tex.), Brooks (D-La.), Kilday (D-Tex.), and Monroy (D-Okla.).

Thomason received a rising ovation when he responded to the plaudits of his colleagues.

Man-Made Rain Reported By Phoenix Paper

PHOENIX, July 22. (AP)—The Arizona Republic said in a copyright story tonight that dry ice dropped from an airliner on a cloud over Roosevelt dam had precipitated a heavy downpour of rain.

The story, datelined Roosevelt Dam, Ariz., said that "thousands of tons of water" were estimated to have been precipitated onto the mountains behind Lake Roosevelt.

"It was the first attempt to utilize in the arid desert a technique for precipitating moisture out of clouds developed only last winter by Vincent J. Schaefer, outstanding scientist of the General Electric company," the Republic Electric company, a spokesman concerned snow, Monday for the first time the process was used to make rain on a large scale in the Southwest.

The story was written by Harvey L. Mott, managing editor of the Republic, who witnessed the experiments from the ground.

Mott said 500 pounds of ice was in pellet form and was dropped in batches of 100 pounds each. The first batch was dropped on a cloud about 20 miles long and from this cloud rain fell for longer than 25 minutes.

"The entire cloud was precipitated," Mott said.

INFANT DEATHS STILL MYSTERY AFTER LAD CHANGES HIS STORY

MASSILLON, O., July 22. (AP)—The mysterious deaths of two infants in Massillon city hospital, apparently solved yesterday by the statement of a six-year-old boy, reverted again today to a puzzling conglomeration of varied stories and differences between officials.

Mrs. Roger Gue, of nearby Navarre, mother of young Roger Gue, who yesterday related to police how he accidentally dropped the two infants last June 6, said her son today had reverted to his original tale of seeing a large boy in a white coat enter the nursery in which the infants were found dying.

She declared she did not believe her son dropped the babies and told newsmen she and her husband were tricked into letting investigators talk to her son.

Young Gue, a patient of city hospital at the time the two babies died, told authorities earlier this month he saw a 15-year-old boy in a long white coat, with his arm in a sling, enter the nursery where the babies later were found.

He first changed his story to a tale of accidentally dropping the babies while playing nurse to James Ellis, a private investigator, yesterday.

HEART TROUBLE

is one of the most common diseases of the present day and the one which seems to give the patient the most concern. Of all the organs of the body, this one probably does the most actual physical work. It is the great central pump of the circulatory system which, by its alternate contraction and relaxation, forces blood through the body. The heart must function continually and consistently for the body to enjoy the maximum of health.

CONTROL OF HEART ACTION

Before the muscles of the arm contract to produce movement we first think the thought and as a result the contraction takes place. The same process is true of the heart, except that here the thought is a subconscious one. This thought, or impulse, takes place in the brain. Tiny nerve fibers then transmit it to the heart and contraction results.

There must be no interference with these nerves leading from the brain to the heart else they cannot properly transmit these impulses. If this energy or nerve force is interfered with, even slightly, the function of the heart will become abnormal.

The spine is the only place along the course of the nerves

Big Question In Politics Is: Who Can Win Over O'Daniel?

By Paul Bolton
 Herald Austin Bureau
 AUSTIN, July 22.—There's something about the hot summer days before a presidential election year which seems to bring out the politicians earlier than usual. This year the talk about the 1948 election waxed hot where politicians gather, and most of the talk revolves around the question: Who can beat O'Daniel?

Here are some of the stories floating around:
 1. Martin Dies, the former congressman from Orange, has promised to make a statement around the first of the year about his political plans. When Dies first made this observation some weeks ago, the consensus was that he would try for the senate. Now, however, it is learned from East Texas that the man who gained national notoriety as the first investigator of communism will seek his old place in congress.
 2. Perhaps as intriguing as any other story is the one that the former lieutenant governor, John Lee Smith, would be a contender. Here's the way the story goes: Smith is perhaps the best friend of Senator O'Daniel in Texas political circles—O'Daniel announced Smith was his choice for a Federal plum, although his patronage troubles prevented his nominating Smith. Smith has shown his ability for invective in the race for governor. Smith does not love former Governor Coke Stevenson and vice-versa. If the race should shape up as one between O'Daniel and Stevenson, Smith might choose to run to turn his attention to Stevenson.
 3. James V. Allred is debating the race. Probably he would NOT run if Congressman Lyndon Johnson of Austin made the race. But he would be tempted to run if Stevenson ran; had Stevenson sought another term as governor, Allred would have been a candidate two years ago.
 4. Numerous trial balloons have been going up in behalf of Governor Beauford Jester. While anything can happen in politics, it would be unprecedented for the governor to run after a single term. It's almost unwritten law that a governor serves for two terms, since no governor can finish up his work in one.
 5. Congressman Johnson is saying nothing. Congressman Wright Patman says he "has no plans" to run—and the language is significant since he used the same expression in two separate interviews, while in Austin recently. Practically all the other older members of the Texas delegation —excepting, among others, Sam Rayburn—are potentials.

 6. Outside the senatorial field, Attorney General Price Daniel disavows any current consideration of politics. The fact remains that he and Lieutenant Governor Allan Shivers stand out as possibilities in the event the governor should decide to run for the senate. Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson also is considered a potential candidate.
 7. One man who can be written off of political dope sheets because his mind already is made up is Chairman Ernest O. Thompson of the Railroad Commission. He will stand for re-election.

Railroad Man's Heroism Cited

El Paso, July 22 (U.P.)—The El Paso Times has submitted the name of W. D. Calloun Sr., a veteran switch engine foreman for the Texas and New Orleans railroad, to the Carnegie hero fund commission.

The newspaper sent in the citation after the railroad worker saved a three-year-old girl from possible death on railway tracks at Upper Valley last Wednesday.

Calloun climbed down from his engine cab to the footboard of the moving engine, leaned over and knocked the child from the rails. Calloun was thrown loose from his precarious position and tumbled down the embankment, after the child. Little Gloria suffered a head laceration, but she had escaped almost certain death.

The hero of the incident is a former star athlete and served overseas during the First World War.

O'BRIEN OFFERS COOL STORE WARM WELCOME, HOT BARGAINS

"We have the coolest store, the warmest approach and the hottest bargains in town," could well be the slogan of O'Brien's Grocery store, 1201 11th Place. George O'Brien, proprietor and a Big Spring business man since 1930, had his store air-conditioned especially for his customers. The housewife seeking to replenish the family's food supply can shop in comfort. Many buyers maintain charge accounts with O'Brien's, as an extra convenience. Since the establishment is located outside of the business zone and caters to those persons who do their grocery shopping after work hours, O'Brien's remains open each evening until 7 o'clock. On Saturdays the closing hour is 8 o'clock. The store has delivery service to its customers, and the personnel will take orders via telephone. O'Brien purchases the bulk of its meats from Armour and Co., Fort Worth, but the supply is supplemented locally. The concern's butcher is J. D. Allison. The shopper will also find that O'Brien's handles the best in fresh fruits and vegetables, items kept fresh in special cooling systems. Complete lines of all leading canned goods are a specialty.

Complete Truck And Engine Work Specialty Of Driver White

One of if not the most complete plants of its kind between Fort Worth and Phoenix, Ariz. is proving a haven for truckers and operators of heavy power equipment here. It is the Driver White Truck company located on U. S. 80 highway east of town and headed by Curtis Driver, distributor for White trucks. All types of trucks are serviced and repaired, and it is the pride of the staff that anything from a wheelbarrow to a Diesel can be put in running order rapidly. In fact, this includes service to oil field stationary engines, Caterpillars, truck motors of all kinds, buses, and transport trailers. Six spacious stalls with overhead doors means that loaded trucks can be driven inside for work. Ralph Winterrowd supervises the mechanical work and personally handles much of it along with all the Diesel repairs. Roy Treadway is salesman, Bob Lyles parts man and Homer Hart, an expert with the torch, does the welding. Hart can build or rebuild almost anything. Best possible supplies of parts are maintained, and emergency service at any hour keeps commercial operators losses through inactivity to a minimum. Normally the shop closes Saturday noon. It is no wonder the big plant is becoming service headquarters for operators in a wide area of West Texas.

MAKING ICE—Here is one unit of the massive equipment required by Southern Ice Company in making ice for local and railroad re-icing needs. This particular machine turns power for a compressor, which squeezes ammonia gas before it is sent to condensers (coolers) for liquefaction and return to brine tanks, where expansion to gas absorbs heat and causes pure water in vats to freeze. Rotary Rig To Move In For Wildcat Test

One abandonment was noted in northeast Howard as preparations were made to launch a wildcat venture in north central Howard Tuesday.

Lew H. Wentz Oil Division No. 1 E. T. O'Daniel, 3-30-in. T&P, 10 miles northeast of Costhoma, was plugged and abandoned after topping the San Andres section at 2,314 feet, nine feet below sea level and 135 feet below the Hickok & Reynolds No. 1 McGuffee, a wildcat abandoned two miles to the south after light shows in the Clear Fork. The O'Daniel test originally was slated for 4,250 for a Clear Fork venture.

Rotary was to be moved in, possibly this week, on the Lacy No. 1 P. L. Buchanan, 660 feet from the south and west lines of section 29-31-1n. T&P, approximately three miles north of Cosden refinery.

After Ray Albaugh No. 1 J. Y. Graves, southeast Dawson test northeast of Ackerly was abandoned with bad hole at 5,700 feet, Albaugh No. 1-A Graves was spudded a quarter of a mile to the west, C SW SE 48-34-4n. T&P, and was at 1,800 feet in anhydrite on a rotary venture to 6,500 feet.

Runnels Countains Schedule Reunion

Date for the Runnels county reunion has been set for Aug. 3 and the place as the MacKenzie state park in Lubbock, according to Mrs. A. B. Forbus, Abernathy secretary. All former residents of Runnels county and their families are invited to participate in the event.

Fire At Haskell

HASKELL, July 22 (AP)—Damages estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000 was caused by a fire that broke out yesterday in the attic of the Holden funeral home.

The top floor of the two-story frame building was occupied by W. O. Holden, owner of the building and the funeral home, and his family. He said most of the building's furnishings were damaged beyond repair.

Murder Suspect In Florida Case Held In Lubbock

EL PASO, July 22 (AP)—A 28-year-old Jacksonville, Fla., man was held here today in connection with the slaying of Myron D. Sutherland, 35-year-old Jacksonville resident, on July 13. The man and his bride of three days were taken into custody late yesterday when they stepped off a San Francisco bound bus. Detective Captain W. C. Woolverton said.

Woolverton said they had in their possession three large pieces of luggage and one long, slender cardboard box containing two rifles. The man had approximately $800, the detective added.

The man was identified as Wayne Franklin Woodruff, 28, who has been charged with murder according to information from Jacksonville authorities. His wife, Mrs. Jeanette Woodruff, is being held as a material witness.

Sutherland's partly decomposed body was found in an abandoned log cabin Sunday near Georgia's Okef Enokee swamp. The man's skull had been pierced in the back by a small caliber rifle bullet and an exploded shell was found near the body.

Captain Woolverton said his men watched the bus station all day after he received a telephone call from Detective R. B. Whittington of Jacksonville's police department.

Deadline Set For School Transfers

Those pupils who are counting on attending classes in schools other than their own districts have but nine days in which to effect transfers, County Supt. Walker Bailey warned this morning.

The transfers, which must be made every year, must be completed by Aug. 1, Bailey said. Application for transfers must be made through Bailey's office at the court house.

High school students who are to attend classes at Big Spring, Knott, Coahoma or Forsan are required to transfer as well as students in those districts where no schools are operated.

Hardin Simmons Vets Favor Universal Military Training

ABILENE, July 22 (AP)—Hardin Simmons University veterans favor universal military training 7 to 5. In a survey conducted by David Bost, editor of The Brand, student publication, 315 veterans were in favor of the program, 105 were against it and 15 were "indifferent."

English Crowd For Glimpse Of Rita

LONDON, July 22 (AP)—Scores of policemen were required last night to hold back crowds who milled in front of a West End theater to get a glimpse of Rita Hayworth as she arrived to attend the premiere of her starring vehicle, "Down To Earth."

The titian-haired actress, clad in a low necked gown, sat with the Duchess of Gloucester, sister-in-law of King George VI, during the performance.

In North Africa and Tibet, blacksmiths are often considered low caste or outcaste.

Army Construction Proposal Includes Many Texas Fields

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—A $225,000,000 army construction program in the United States and abroad was approved today by the house armed services committee.

It sent to the House for action a bill asked by the war department to do $100,000,000 worth of building in this country, including $5,000,000 for emergency projects, and $125,000,000 of building overseas. The latter would include $20,000,000 for emergency projects.

The bill would limit the cost of army officers' quarters both in this country and abroad to $14,500 for those above the rank of captain, and $12,500 for captains and lieutenants.

Projects proposed in the bill, for construction of family quarters and utility systems unless otherwise noted, include:

- Bergstrom Field, Tex.—$1,501,970; Briggs Field, Tex.—$1,310,800; Fort Bliss, Tex. (including William Beaumont general hospital)—$2,000,200; Goodfellow Field, Tex.—$1,310,800.

Mrs. J. D. Benson Heads Mary Circle Of Christian Church

Mrs. J. D. Benson was chosen leader of the Mary circle of the Woman's council of the First Christian church at a reorganizational meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. George Hall.

Other officers elected were Mrs. H. L. Bohanan, treasurer, Mrs. Tom Rosson, secretary and Mrs. Harry Lees, reporter. The visiting committee includes Mrs. J. R. Parks and Mrs. Lees and the telephone committee is Mrs. George W. Dabney and Mrs. R. J. Michael.

Mrs. Benson opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. A. A. Marchant explained the reason for the Woman's Council and Mrs. Benson discussed "Things We Have In Our Own Hands." The club voted to have the Juliette Fowler home in Dallas as the circle project and to pack a box for the home at the next meeting.

Others present were Mrs. E. L. K. Rice, Mrs. Justin Holmes and Mrs. Bill Bonner.

COTTON
NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular to moderately active dealings today. Early firmness and gains of almost $1.50 a bale were registered on a flurry of outside buying. Thereafter the market turned quiet and eased off on scattered profit taking the light hedge.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Scattered rails and industrials remained in the recovery ranks of today's stock market although many leaders inclined to retreat. Dealings slowed after a moderately active opening. Early gains of fractions were erased here and there and narrow irregularity prevailed near midday. Ahead at intervals were Great Northern Railway, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific (as a strike of engineers ended), International Harvester, Kennecott, Cuzco De Paco, American Telephone and Standard Oil (N.J.). Backward occasionally were General Motors, Chrysler, General Motors, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, United Air Lines, American Smelting, Westinghouse, General Electric, Pennsylvania Railroad and Union Carbide. Bonds were mixed and cotton futures steady.

Legion Sells Victory Report

The Victory Report of George Marshall, general of the armies, on World War II has been placed on sale by the Howard County American Legion post at five places in Big Spring.

Included as a part of the report is a list of names, complete so far as the post was able to obtain, of those who served from Howard county in all branches during World War II.

10 Cases Of Bad Diseases Reported

Only 10 cases of communicable diseases were reported here during the past week the city-county health unit announced today.

The week's total represented a decrease of 15 cases from last week. Whooping cough cases reported dropped from 11 to three, while there were no new cases of dysentery reported, as compared to 12 the previous week.

However, there were six cases of respiratory virus listed, which are the first reported here this season. Only one case of venereal disease was listed this week.

Add to that ever-growing number of persons who have sighted flying saucers winging their way across America's skies the names of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. (Bob) Cook.

Cook was seated in his front yard at approximately 6:10 o'clock Sunday evening gazing at an east-bound commercial airliner flying over the hills south of town when his eyes picked up a bright disc-like object traveling in the opposite direction. At first, he fancied the saucer had been tossed from the aircraft, then realized that the mysterious thing was much higher than the ship.

He immediately summoned his wife, who was in the house, and pointed it out to her. It ultimately disappeared into the sunset but another wheeled into sight, following the flight of the other.

Mrs. Cook then claimed she

Seagraves Woman Dies In Hospital

Virginia Isophine Lawler, 75, resident of Seagraves, died at 11:15 a. m. today at a local hospital, where she had been seriously ill for the past three weeks.

The body was to be taken overland in an Eberly coach Tuesday afternoon to Snyder, where rites are pending. Burial will be at Snyder.

Survivors include a brother, Tom Lawler, San Angelo; three sisters, Mrs. M. E. Conner, Seagraves, with whom she made her home, Mrs. L. M. Watson, San Angelo, and Mrs. T. S. Lockhart, Snyder.

sighted two more, much higher than the others. Bob did not catch sight of the latter two but reasoned his eye sight isn't what it once was.

It's Dangerous To Be A Farmer

It's more dangerous to be a farmer than a soldier in wartime, or a policeman at a riot, or a fireman at a fire.

This is the way the American Red Cross puts it in forcefully calling attention to National Farm Safety week, now underway.

Regardless of whether there is any concerted or private observance of the special week, there are some things that those in agriculture—the biggest industry of all—ought to know. If the national average holds good for our area, one of every six farms in Howard county will be the scene of some serious or semi-serious mishap before a year from now.

Statistics from Red Cross show that one of the nation's farm population will die or suffer by accident every 20 seconds, day and night, throughout the coming year. Somehow we are deluded by visions of pastoral placidness when thinking in terms of the farm. Ah, peace and quiet, we tell ourselves. Yet the hard truth is that there are few injuries more hazardous to the workers than farming. Tractors cranked in gear; a slip of the foot while climbing over plow points; a bad step in front of a knife-like sweep; a mis-lick with a file while sharpening a hoe; a back turned on a treacherous bull; an over-turned kerosene lantern—these are but a paltry few of the many, many possibilities for injury on the farm.

The tragic part about these accidents is not alone in loss of life, limb or time, but in that they can be prevented. All it takes is a little care. During this week we hope farmers in our area will reappraise their operations with the view of making them safer—their lives longer, their work happier.

Awareness To Threats Is Lacking

Congress has authorized the publication of the report on "Facism in Action," a comparable piece of the "Communism in Action" previously authorized for publication and distribution by Congress.

But part of the encouragement over this step is tempered by a realization of the circumstances. Congress voted for the report by a margin of 124 to 115—a bare victory. Worse still, 196 representatives were absent or not voting on this issue, indicating a lack of interest or awareness.

As was pointed out in these columns previously, the fight for democracy dictates full protection—not protection against communism alone, but against fascism and all of its roots of prejudice, hate and selfishness.

It is not at all stimulating to note that Congress is either unmindful or dissident toward this matter, for certainly men in such key positions should be alert to possibilities of attacks upon the free processes of a democracy.

This should focus attention upon a need for a understanding at the grass roots. Little can happen to us if the average man and woman understands the blessings of liberty, and is therefore on the alert for doctrines espoused against them. There is no formulae which may be applied to say whether this is anti-democratic, or that is democratic. However, native intelligence can be pretty discerning. It also can be schooled to the granting of such rights as free speech without accepting abuses which may come out of those rights. Such an attitude will do much to overcome dangerous prejudices and hates through which insidious movements hope to gain grasp upon us.

How Cat Spring Got Its Name

Cat Spring was named by early settlers who camped near a spring in the neighborhood and had to keep night-long vigilance against wildcats, says S. P. "Pete" Engelking of the Austin American-Statesman.

Engelking also passes on an interesting story told him by his grandfather, Adolph Blaschke of Cat Spring. Blaschke says as a boy he would creep through the weeds to Red Mound, near Cat Spring, and watch Indians get the clay with which they connected their war paints.

He also points to a common error in pronunciation: Frydek is pronounced "Free Deck" and not "Fry Deck" as one might think.

Ancient Victoria was first known to Americans as Cypress Grove, to the Mexicans as Las Sabinas. But when it was founded by Martin De Leon in 1824 it was named Guadalupe Victoria in honor of his friend, the first president of Mexico.

The President's true name was Juan Felix Fernandez, but he took the name Guadalupe Victoria to commemorate a victory over the Spaniards. That's what Leopold Morris of Victoria says, quoting Judge Fulmore's "Story of County Names."

John L. Bailey of Nacogdoches tells how that town got its name: An old Caddo chief lived on the bank of the Sabine. Twin sons were born. He named them Natchitoches and Nacogdoches.

Just before the old chief died, he called his two sons, commanded them that immediately after his death one, Natchitoches, should take his wife and children, turn his face toward the rising sun, and after three days march build his home and raise his tribe at the spot he had reached.

The other, Nacogdoches, was instructed to travel a like distance toward the setting sun. Thus, says Bailey, were the twin tribes of Nacogdoches and Natchitoches founded 100 miles apart.

Further, he says Nacogdoches was a blonde Indian, with fair complexion and blue eyes and yellow hair. He was the father of the Tejas, the white Indians of East Texas.

Affairs Of The World—DeWitt MacKenzie

Spectre Of War Haunts World

Ernest Bevin, Britain's ever daring foreign secretary, took his reputation as a prophet in his hands at the week-end and told a coal miners' picnic in northern England that there is no danger of another war in this generation so far as he can see.

And why should this statesman, whose voice carries around the world, raise the harrowing subject of conflict on the supposedly cheerful occasion of a picnic? Well, because it's a question which never is far from the minds of all thinking people, as you and I well know from the conversations we daily encounter. So Mr. Bevin made his prediction to calm fears, but he was quick to add this important qualification:

"But in every act you perform, you must keep in mind the children of thirty or forty years from now. Not a day passes, not a moment passes in the job in which I am now engaged without my being fully conscious that a wrong decision, wrong judgment or petulant answer may now condemn a generation."

It would have been interesting if Mr. Bevin had amplified his forecast. Had he done so I dare say it might have developed several "ifs."

The present danger of war of course lies in the continued expansion of aggressive communism. The world revolution for the spread of thatism is going full tilt, and it will keep going with increasing intensity until it strikes an obstacle which it can't move. Every new country which is absorbed in the Red campaign adds strength to Russia's powerful communist empire—and all this is gained without a major shooting war.

So far as Moscow is concerned, it can avoid war by sitting aloof and being in a position to wash its hands of any act performed by one or more of its satellites.

America and the other democracies don't want war either, and so must have circumspectly. Still they have vowed to protect weak countries from being communized against their wills by such strong-arm methods as have been employed against Hungary, Romania and Poland, among others, and now are being used against Greece.

The only way this can be achieved without precipitating war is to provide the little fellows with the wherewithal to protect themselves against the Red satellites. That is the significance of the action of the U. S. state and war departments Saturday in urging the Senate to funds to aid Greece and Turkey and start the world towards reconstruction.

Olivia Wants More Glamor Roles

HOLLYWOOD. — After a year's absence from the studios, Olivia De Havilland is again at work. And she may be gone another year unless she gets the kind of glamor role she's seeking.

The 1946 academy award winner last appeared as psychopathic twins in "The Dark Mirror" and is now portraying a mental patient in "The Snake Pit."

Wearing no makeup, straggly hair, a burlaplike dress and torn stockings, she is hardly recognizable.

"I'm now looking for a story in which I can wear beautiful clothes and not be a meanie," she said.

Henry Fonda said he missed his pal Jimmy Stewart, who is doing "Harvey" in New York. "So I called up the skinny so-and-so" (rough translation). He reported Jimmy got over his first night nervousness and is enjoying the change. Hank would like to do some stage work, too, but he goes right from "Daisy Kenyon" into "War Party."

Joan Crawford says she doesn't mind wearing the winter clothes for "Daisy Kenyon" because she's trying to take off weight. Decision on whether to scrap the Charles Laughton sequence in "A Miracle Can Happen" awaits the return of producer Burgess Meredith from Europe. The Laughton part proved too serious and may be replaced with Dorothy Lamour.

June Allyson finishes "Virtuous" in time to join Dick Powell on Arizona location for "Stations West".... Red Ingle, whose "Natural Seven" murdered "Temptation" on that hilarious record, will tour the U. S. this summer. Vocalist Cunderella G. Stump (Jo Stafford) will be replaced by her sister, Prunella. Red will play all hisibly staff and he assured me "It will all be nauseating."

Davis and Blanchard have gone Hollywood. I saw them playing gin rummy on the set of their picture.... Washington may get a jolt for "The Senator Was Indiscreet," which will show a doddering windbag almost becoming president.

Busy Gregory Peck flies to his La Jolla playhouse after his day's work on "Gentleman's Agreement." He's now trying to line up Jack Benny and Audie Murphy for "Front Page" and Jennifer Jones and Joe Cotten for "Voice Of The Turtle."

Doing two pictures at once can be confusing for a player. Piccolo the plight of Peggy Ann Garner, who is a brat in "The Sign Of The Ram" and a nice girl in "Daisy Kenyon" on alternate days.

Bradley 'Over There'

NEW YORK. — Omar Nelson Bradley, the "Doughboy's General," is going back over there.

In a period of mounting tension in the Balkans, America's most experienced field commander is being sent to Europe and the Mediterranean soon for a six-week inspection of what is left in those regions of the army he once called the greatest in history.

This brief leave from his duties as veterans' administrator is believed a preliminary to his taking over the key chief-of-staff post in the American Army upon the retirement next year of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, his wartime boss.

It will be the first return in two years for Bradley to the scenes of his victories, and he will find the situation greatly changed. What lies ahead of him on the road back?

He left Europe with the four great allies—United States, Britain, Russian and France—still celebrating the unity of a wartime triumph. He will find Europe now an arena of quarrels in which no two allies agree on what shall be done with the slowly reviving foe.

He will find there neither war nor peace—for the peace isn't yet written with the main enemy—but only a twilight compromise, under which ultimate decisions have been postponed from week to week and month to month.

He will find that the superb combat-trained, million-man American Army he led has dwindled to 200,000 men or fewer, an army containing many ten-year youngsters who never saw action, an army that suffers from the evils that have afflicted all occupation armies from pre-Roman times—venereal disease, black marketing and the softening influence of intermingling with foreign civilians in a foreign culture.

Brady undoubtedly will gather secret information that will be reflected in future American military planning. There would be no other real purpose in his going. But along his journey also will be many mileposts of memory he helped make famous in the Second World War—Hill 609 in Tunisia, Troina in Sicily, St. Lo in Normandy, the Ardennes in Belgium, the Siegfried Line and the Rhine in Germany.

But he probably won't get to visit the river Elbe area, where he linked up with the Russians to end the war and swapped the Soviet commander a jeep for a riding horse as a victory souvenir. Only Red troops patrol the Elbe these days.

Belgian Tribute To Baltimorean

BRUSSELS. — An official tribute was paid by the Belgian ministry of foreign affairs to the late James Whiteley of Baltimore, consul general of Belgium, who died June 16.

In a communique announcing the death of the American, the ministry said: "During 43 years he devoted himself entirely to the cause of Belgium and of its colony."

Before being appointed Belgium's consul general in Baltimore, Mr. Whiteley had been consul general for the Free State of the Congo.

Steps In Unifying Armed Forces

WASHINGTON. — This explains the latest step in national defense.

The Senate (July 9) and the House (July 19) have voted to "unify" the Army, Navy and Air Force.

This isn't a merger or melting together of the armed services. All it means is getting them to work better together for national defense.

The Army, Navy and Air Force will be under their own civilian secretaries and their own commanders. They'll be separate branches of the armed forces.

But all of them will be under a Secretary of National Defense. That's a new job. It's never existed in this country before.

This is it: The Senate voted for one bill to unify the services; the House voted for another.

The bills are almost identical. But there are some differences. The House and Senate will try to iron out these differences by setting up a joint committee—called a conference committee—of both houses.

It's expected an agreement will be reached quickly. Then the bill agreed to by both houses will be sent to the President for him to sign into law.

The idea of unification isn't new. It isn't something which sprang suddenly out of World War II. There's been talk of it since World War I.

A number of studies were made. But until now, no action was taken. Yet, the real drive for unification did spring out of

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Bricker Is Real Estate Lobbyist

WASHINGTON.—One of the most unusual statements made on the Senate floor in several weeks came from Ohio's status-quo Senator Bricker after President Truman denounced the real-estate lobby. Waving his arms, he told Senate colleagues that Truman had indulged in the cheapest kind of demagoguery.

In contrast Bricker's colleague from Ohio, Bob Taft, who knows what the real-estate lobby did to the Taft Ellender Housing Act, remarked that he wouldn't mind investigating the lobby himself. Bricker knows his way around any part of Washington realizes that the real-estate lobby is one of the most powerful operating in the capital's cocktail lounges. But what a great many people do not realize is that Senator Bricker is hand-in-glove with the lobby—in fact, a part of it.

Bricker is a director of the Buckeye State Building and Loan Association of Columbus, affiliated with the powerful U. S. Savings and Loan League, which employs Morton Bodfish to carry on one of the most effective and astute real-estate and housing lobbies in Washington. It is estimated that this outfit spends around half a million dollars a year lobbying.

Furthermore, one of the recent confidential bulletins issued by the Morton Bodfish lobby gleefully boasted that Senator Bricker was one of their members and pointed to the fact that Bricker had obligingly introduced four bills to help out. This confidential bulletin, of course, was not supposed to fall into the hands of the press. But it makes highly interesting reading.

Equally interesting is another fact: Bricker was not elected a director of the Buckeye State Building and Loan Association until about the time he was elected a Senator. Furthermore, he was made a director through the instrumentality of his old friend and political angel, John Galbreath, who is also a director of Buckeye State Building and Loan.

John Galbreath is a familiar figure in Ohio's real-estate financing business. In fact, he is a power. And he is also a power behind the political destinies of John Bricker. Not only has Galbreath backed Bricker every time he ran, but it is sometimes said in Ohio political circles that Bricker does not even shave in the morning without consulting John Galbreath.

All of which makes Bricker's speech denouncing Truman for criticizing the real-estate lobby doubly interesting.

NOTE—Also interesting is the fact that William L. Kaiser, the ex-capital policeman who fired two wild shots at Bricker in the Senate subway claimed he lost money in a building and loan association closed up by Bricker as attorney general of Ohio. That building and loan association was run by Bricker's old and close friend, the same John Galbreath.

BALL'S ASSISTANT

When congressmen's salaries were increased last year and they were also voted $10,000 to pay an experienced administrative assistant, it was expected that nepotism would taper off. However, it hasn't.

Minnesota's dour Joe Ball isn't the only senator who bolsters the family income by keeping his wife on the government payroll, but he seems to be one of the most sensitive about it.

When Elizabeth Ball was queried about her duties as administrative assistant in her husband's office, the Minnesota Republican brushed the telephone away from her.

"What are you trying to do," he boomed, "Smear me?"

"We were just a little curious how your wife happened to get the highest paying job in your office," was the reply.

"There's nothing wrong with that," snorted the senator. "She's the best person I could get for the job. I'm not trying to take advantage of the government. I could pay her $10,000 a year, you know. But I only give her $6,600."

"Is that all you consider she's worth, Senator?"

"I'll have you know my office is probably the most efficiently run office up here," Ball barked. "I don't pay her the full $10,000 in the interest of economy."

TOWNSENDITE CONVERTS

Believe it or not, but the austere and conservative senate finance committee heard today a lecture on the Townsend old-age pension plan at a closed-door meeting the other day.

Senator George of Georgia accidentally started the discussion when he opposed a bill to give a $90-a-month pension to Spanish war veterans over 65.

"If we keep this up," George exclaimed, "The next thing you know we'll end up by adopting the Townsend Plan."

"Maybe that wouldn't be such a bad idea after all," snapped Senator Brewster of Maine, who has been strongly backed by Townsendites in past elections.

For the next 15 minutes, Brewster gave a lecture on the virtues of providing oldsters pensions through a direct 3 per cent tax of individual gross incomes.

"Eighty, to 90 per cent of our people over 65 are indigent or dependent," declared the senator from Maine. "The social security system hasn't solved this problem, which is a disgrace in a great, progressive nation like this. Under the Townsend Plan, administrative costs would be greatly reduced for there would be no investigative work to determine need. Everybody reaching 65 would automatically be entitled to a pension."

Despite smiles on the faces of Bob Taft of Ohio and Harry Byrd of Virginia, Brewster tartly reminded his colleagues that he was "dead serious" and had always "believed in the Townsend Plan."

For a time, it appeared that the Maine Republican might win some converts, especially when Democrat Alben Barkley of Kentucky declared that he would be inclined to support Brewster's views. But war veterans wouldn't be discriminated against in what you propose."

At this point, however, the Senate buzzer, calling the Senate into session, broke up the meeting and Brewster's lecture on old-age pensions.

TRUMAN AND INDIANS

President Truman had to acknowledge that the beaded belt he received the other day from a delegation of Oklahoma Indians was not only an elegant piece of workmanship, but a perfect fit.

"It's size 33, Mr. President," explained Robert Goombi, a Kiowa tribesman, who made the presentation.

"Fine and dandy," responded Truman, whose waistline continues to reflect those brisk constitutional takes each morning. "That's exactly my size."

The President was so intrigued with the richly ornamented gift that he made his visitors promise to send him a history of various Indian characters and symbols woven into it.

He also received a gift for Mrs. Truman—a brightly colored beaded necklace. This was accepted with some misgiving.

"I'm afraid my wife won't have this very long," he grinned. "My daughter, Margaret, will take it away from her."

Indians Slice Cayuses' Loop Lead To 1/2 Game

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Our Town's baseball Broncs, who have been atop Longhorn league standings most of the 1947 season, perhaps would be much less impressive if they played all their games during daylight hours. In 12 such starts to date, the local nine has managed to win but six decisions, four of which were scored at the expense of the cellar clubs, Vernon and Odessa. Midland and Ballinger were the other victims.

Lowly Sweetwater has managed to knock the Hosses over four times running in contests where artificial lighting was not required. Ballinger turned the trick once and Midland once.

If day games exclusively were counted in the records, the resident nine would be no better than third in standings since both Midland (10 wins, four losses) and Ballinger (8-7) have made better showings.

Odessa has won seven times in 17 daylight assignments, Sweetwater six in 13 tries and Vernon six in 15 tests.

Major league scouts would be inclined to follow the records more closely in the day games than they would the nocturnal goers, although most of the scouting is accomplished at night and all the major league teams are turning more and more to after-dark games.

Hugh Willingham, the crack-jack third sacker who quit the Odessa Oilers because he couldn't find a place to live, has signed on as manager of the Seminole club in the Class D Sooner State league. That troupe, incidentally, is in last place, which is why his predecessor resigned.

Heib Stanley, one of the village's better baseball fans, played baseball with Andy Cohen, the Boston scout, at El Paso long years ago. Cohen has been hawking the local games in recent weeks to watch three or four of the Hosses in action.

Mickey Owen, one-time catcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers who is sitting out a five years' suspension because of a holiday in Mexico, will soon report to a semi-pro team in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Harold Webb, the roly-poly Midland manager, apparently thought he had that defeat coming when Pat Patterson mounted the hill against his Indians Saturday night. He put big Pat on his all-star team.

Joe Cambria, the Washington ivory hunter who put in to Big

Martin Clouts 22nd Home Run

A mere half-game separates Big Spring and the pesky Midland Indians in Longhorn league standings today.

The ambitious Tribe took full advantage of 11 base hits and the inability of Big Spring hurlers to find the plate to chalk up a 12-6 decision before a capacity house here Monday night. The win gave the visitors a 2-1 edge in the series and a 9-7 advantage over the full season's dueling.

Midland turned the trick with neatness and dispatch and without their fiery skipper, Harold Webb, who got the heave-ho from Umpire Bob Russell in Round One for protesting a called ball on the Midland tosser, Ozzie Kolwe.

Webb lost the argument and a chance to see what went on later but the incident built a fire under his charges. They sewed up the decision as early as the fifth inning, despite the fact that the Hosses outhit them, 14-11.

Pepper Martin, who was a thorn in Kolwe's side all evening, saved the Cayuses from utter disgrace by hitting a three-hit homer after two men had been retired in the ninth. Martin picked a 3-2 pitch for his 22nd round tripper of the year.

Carroll Nipp and Bob Price hit successive home runs for the invaders in the second inning. Nipp's blow coming with Arnold Davis up front.

The contest marked the debut in the local lineup of two players, Ray Mendoza at first and Herman St. George behind the dish. Mendoza gave an exhibition of fancy fielding around the gateway station but failed to connect. St. George showed a talent for handling the pitchers and had a one-baser to show for his offensive efforts.

Charley Parlier, the starting hurler for Big Spring, lasted but 2-3 innings. He was succeeded by Gerry Rodriguez, who gave up no less than ten bases on balls and five hits in the 4-23 innings he labored. Bob Blevins then appeared on the rubber and accomplished a capable job of relief tossing.

ahead—move into Oklahoma City for another crack at the sixth place Indians.

Fort Worth played with four Beaumont hurlers in running up its big score. Dwain Sloat winning his eleventh victory of the season in the process. It was his fourth shutout of the season over Beaumont.

Stan Benjamin's two-run homer in the sixth inning spelled doom for Lee Anthony, who had a five-game winning streak snapped. Cassini stole his 39th base for Tulsa, increasing his lead in this department of the league's statistics.

Tom Pullig was still hunting victory No. 8 after Shreveport mauled him last night. Four costly errors by Red Davis helped the Sports. Bob Meyer gave Dallas a little cheer, hitting a home run.

Al Rosen hit his 13th homer of the year in Oklahoma City's shutout over San Antonio. Ralph McCabe held the Missions to five hits while his mates got 11 off Frank Biscan.

Another Torrid National Loop Scrap Looming

Baseball fans are hereby given fair warning to be prepared for another hectic down-to-the-wire finish in the National league pennant race with the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals once again assuming the leading roles.

Despite the Brooks' handsome four-game buise—six and a half over the fourth-place Redbirds—the Cardinals are not as bad off as first glance would seem to imply. The schedule is heavily in their favor.

The Dodgers staged a temporary farewell party at Ebbets Field yesterday by knocking off the Cincinnati Reds in both ends of a double header, 7-4 and 4-3.

In the only other game played in the majors yesterday, the Phillies whipped the Pirates in Pittsburgh in a night game 8-1 to stay out of the national league cellar.

No other teams were scheduled, although the New York Yankees met the Boston Braves in the annual Hall of Fame game at Cooperstown, N. Y., with the Braves eking out a 4-3 decision in 10 innings.

Lasses Defeat Stanton, 28-3

STANTON, July 22 — Scoring 20 runs in the first inning, the Big Spring girls' softball team crushed the Stanton Independents, 28-3, here Monday evening.

Lefty Nell Todd, on the mound for the Big Springers, had an easy time of it in the four innings she worked, giving not a hit. Virginia Costello, who succeeded her, was touched for a solitary blow.

The visitors rapped out 34 base knocks in the five inning bout, including home runs by Todd and Catherine Redding. Loretta Meyer punished Stanton pitching for two triples, a double and a single.

The victory was the 11th in 12 starts for Big Spring and the third straight over Stanton.

Wichita Falls, Corpus 11's Early Football Favorites

Odessa Looms As Darkhorse

DALLAS, July 22. (AP)—When 1,000 coaches meet at El Paso Aug. 4-8 for the annual Texas Coaching school most of the talk will concern who is going to win the state schoolboy grid championship this fall.

Wichita Falls just as well be prepared for it: the Coyotes are going to be definitely on the spot. Wichita Falls lost few from its 1946 team and they feel at the North Texas school that this is their year—that the Big Red machine will swing to its second state title in six years.

Other teams due to figure in state title prospects are Odessa, 1946 champion; Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), 1946 runner-up, and Corpus Christi.

The cards say right now that Corpus Christi will be a finalist. District 15 again appears destined to be the toughest in the state. At least three potential state championship finalists may be listed in this sector: Corpus Christi, of course, is the No. 1 choice but Thomas Jefferson looks mighty powerful and Austin is coming up with a strong team.

It must be comforting to Amarillo Coach Howard Lynch to not be, for once, rated with the title threats. Amarillo probably will be favored to win its district title, as usual, but not to get past Wichita Falls in the first round of the state play-off.

Abilene is highly regarded in district three but takes a back seat to Odessa in championship talk. On down the line you find Denison being heralded as a powerhouse. North Side rated strong in the Fort Worth district. Highland Park (Dallas) tough as usual. Adamson (Dallas) well up there. Waco expected to find the going fairly easy in Central Texas since Temple won't be eligible to play for the district title this year. Lufkin again strong, and Port Arthur very powerful.

Speaking of football, Hardin-Simmons university is quite chesty over its chances of again having an undefeated, untied season.

Hardin-Simmons last lost a game to a college team in 1941. The Cowboys were unbeaten in 1942, were out of football in 1946 when they swept through the border conference without a defeat and walked Denver in the Alamo Bowl.

Hardin-Simmons lost to the Second Air Force in the Sun Bowl Jan. 1, 1943, but doesn't count that against its record. Service teams didn't play under the eligibility rules of colleges, you know.

With 20 lettermen, nine of them 1946 starters, Hardin-Simmons has cause to be quite optimistic. The schedule isn't too tough but, says Eugene Schooley, the school's publicity man: "We tried to schedule some Southwest Conference teams and couldn't do it."

Schooley wasn't insinuating that the Southwest Conference teams were afraid of Hardin-Simmons; they just didn't have any spots on their schedules for the Cowboys this year.

Publinks Play Gets Underway

MINNEAPOLIS, July 22. (AP)—It was bring that score down or miss the championship fight for some 150 Public Fee course golfers today as the National Public Links tournament went into the final qualifying phase.

Figuring that it will take a 36-hole score of about 151 or better to get into the pairings for match play which starts Wednesday. There were about 26 who appeared almost certain of a place. Those 26 scored 73 or better in the first 18-holes of qualifying yesterday.

Sports Roundup

Billy Gibson Taught Champs

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr. NEW YORK, July 22. (AP)—Billy Gibson, the old-time fight manager who died yesterday, not only taught Benny Leonard to box with out getting hit and piloted Gene Tunney to the heavyweight title and the million dollar gates, but he was largely responsible for bringing professional football into New York. . . . The records show that Gibson was one of the original holders of the New York Giants franchise and it never was made quite clear how Billy was left on the outside. . . . Tunney always has maintained that Billy got a rather raw deal on the football business.

Fort Worth Beaten

WACO, July 22. (AP)—Gordon Bailey's seven-hit pitching eliminated the Fort Worth Army Air Field from the State Semi-Pro baseball tournament, Austin's Realtors winning 2-1.

ONE-MINUTE SPORT PAGE

Alfred Mauldous, brother of Dick, the youthful Tulane Tennis star, was a pretty fair racketeer himself in high school. But Alfred preferred piano playing and is an advanced student at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y. . . . Ned Irish is planning to experiment with Saturday afternoon pro basketball games in Madison Square Garden this winter. "That was several thousand kids will be able to see the games," Ned explains. "and that's the way we built up pro football—by letting the kids in."

Flores, Sailor BSAC Winners

George Bruckman stole some of Sailor Tex Watkins' thunder in last night's wrestling show at the Big Spring Athletic club, but it did him little good.

Appearing in the preliminary against Salvador Flores, the Washington, D. C., veteran created such a furor the referee gave him the back of his hand and sent him to the showers. The gift victory handed the good-looking Mexican youth seemed to please the onlookers.

Flores had won the first fall in 13 minutes with a crab hold. Bruckman the second with a pin after 12 minutes of malicious in-fighting.

Watkins won about as expected. Abbott had his moment midway in the match when he pinned the ex-gob from Post, Texas, but the unpredictable Watty copped the duke by uncovering one of the ring post and ramming Abbott's head into it.

Fems To Be Guests At Game Tonight

The fairer sex will be the special guests of the management at tonight's baseball game between Big Spring and Odessa, which will be played starting at 8:15 p. m.

Women, with or without escort, can gain admission simply by paying the tax, which amounts to about 15 cents.

Humberto Baez goes gunning for his 15th pitching triumph of the campaign against the Refiners, who have been able to beat the Hosses but twice this year. Brad Trine will probably toe the slab for the visitors.

Amarillo Takes Over Top Spot

By The Associated Press
Lubbock and Amarillo changed places again, Amarillo taking over the top spot in the West Texas-New Mexico league.

Pouncing on Borger for a 14-1 victory while Pampa was beating Lubbock, 11-6, Amarillo took an eight percentage point advantage last night.

In other games, Albuquerque handed Clovis its 16th straight defeat, 6-4, in 10 innings and Lamesa edged Abilene, 6-4.

Bob Crues led an 18-hit attack against Borger with two homers, a triple, double and two singles. Bill Lonergan, Elias and Joe Bauman also hit homers for Amarillo.

Bill Jones won his 16th game as Lamesa scored six times in the eighth inning to beat Abilene, 1-0. Palmer sparked the rally with a grand slam homer.

Fanning Equals Course Record

Golf Pro Foy Fanning was right at home on his home course Monday afternoon.

Fanning whizzed around the Munny layout in 65 strokes in a practice round, collecting a 31 hit first time out and coupled that with a 34 to equal a course record Par is 74.

The young professional was at his best of the par-five 525 yards 15th, which he negotiated in three shots.

His card:

How Mr. Parker gets good telephone service

Mr. Parker just got the telephone and his family have been waiting for. He wanted an individual line because the Parkers do a lot of telephoning. But no individual lines were available because of shortages, so he took a party line instead.

Now Mr. Parker is wondering . . . "A party line . . . hum-m-m-m . . . what kind of service . . . ?"

Party-line service is good service. It's simply a service you share with neighbors and they share with you. Of course, you can't call while someone else is using the line, but on the other hand, no one else can call while you're using it, either—so it's "even Stephen!"

Party-line service is best when conversations are kept reasonably short so everyone has a chance to call—or be called. A little thoughtfulness of the other fellow, a little practice of the golden rule do wonders on a party line.

One of these days, when we've provided service for everyone waiting and there's enough equipment, we'll be around with those individual lines Mr. Parker and hundreds of other folks would like to have.

Circled Globe Five Times—

Sam H. Cole, Hobo Nobleman, Marvels At West Texas Growth

By Joe Pickle

Rounding out half a century on the road, Sam H. Cole, "King of the Newsboys" and a titular figure in the hobo world, has snatched one foot from the grave and is reviving on the tonic of the road. In Big Spring again after an absence of six years, King Cole, as he is familiarly known, paused to marvel at the growth of West Texas towns, reminisces over his panoramic adventures and to indulge in the prospects of an evangelistic career.

Cole has seen a lot of country and a lot of people since he was born in Hagerstown, Md. 57 years ago this month. Feeding newspapers has been a love since he hawked his first sales on the Your (Pa.) Dispatch and Daily when a lad of seven.

Since that time he has skirted the states more times than he can tell and hit the high spots on the globe five times—twice in the last world war. An inveterate collector, he has amassed something like 400 scrapbooks in the process, a couple of them being turned over to the Smithsonian Institute.

Cole's odyssey began at the age of 13 when, as a youthful "lunger," he took to the road with a pack. He's never stopped wandering. In the old days he was a familiar figure in the hobo jungles and from this experience has gained the title for a book he hopes to write—"The Human Mulligan." He also gained some bitter experience with Demon Rum before he finally decided you can't beat the bottle.

His reformation has given him an evangelistic fervor. After 30 years as a hobo, he plans next year to launch an evangelistic career.

"Billy Sunday done some good," he observed. "I figure I can help, too."

His creed for the Hobo Brotherhood, which he founded, and which his traveling companion, Billie Brooks, heads as president, calls for law and order and to "help others to take part in living for Christ."

He saw service in World War I and in World War II he said he organized a group of hoboes and ex-cons into a fighting unit which won commendation. In the process, related Cole, he got shot up in Italy, was hustled off to two years in prison in Germany. Released, he returned to the states and took to the road, collapsing in Huntington, W. Va. Six hours on the table did not phase him, and as soon as he was able, he took to the road, seeking the therapeutic sun of the West. Billie Brooks, his nurse, decided he needed someone to look after him, and today she marches the King's pace.

Erupting Nicaraguan Volcano Is Destroying Cattle, Crops

MANAGUA, NICARAGUA. (By Telephone to Mexico City), July 22.—Sandy ash from erupting Cerro Negro Volcano covers an area about 45 kilometers (28 miles) in diameter but so far no casualties have been reported. Many cattle have died from lack of pasture or swallowing the sand and farmers fear crops have been destroyed. By day smoke sometimes is visible here from the volcano 125 kilometers (78 miles) northwest and at night the reflection of flames can be seen. Trains sent by the government have evacuated many from among ancient Leon's 70,000 people who fear the nearby eruption may become disastrous. Others think the volcano is growing quieter and that soon the fall of ashy sand will cease.

There are several inches of the sand on Leon's cobblestone streets but there is no difficulty in cars and people getting around. Sand is kept swept off the cathedral's roof to avoid excessive weight which could cause a collapse of the old structure. Roofs of other buildings are cleared periodically.

Cerro Negro, close to Leon, puffs out black smoke and sand every thirty seconds day and night. There have been four previous eruptions of the 1,500-foot cone which first was active in 1856 and spouted again in 1867, 1914 and 1927. The last eruption continued three months. Intermittently since then there have been periods of smoke belches but without the present fall of sand or ash.

The sand is said generally by Leon people to have acid content but there has been no scientific confirmation of this. Cattle are dying, farmers say, from eating the sand and they are unable to save many because there are no barns in this country where stock shifts for itself.

U. S. Delegates Named To Next U. N. Session

WASHINGTON, July 22. (P)—President Truman Monday named the American delegation to the September session of the United Nations general assembly, and left off the list members of Congress who served at previous regular sessions.

State department officials told reporters that Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the senate foreign relations committee, Senator Connally (D-Tex) and others who served at the assembly's first two sessions had been omitted at their own request.

Secretary of State Marshall is expected to head the delegation to the next session, opening in New York Sept. 16. Mr. Truman sent to the senate the nominations of these other members:

Delegates—Warren R. Austin, U. S. senior representative on the UN security council, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Hershel V. Johnson, and John Foster Dulles.

B-29's Make Mass Flight

WASHINGTON, July 22. (P)—The strategic air command Monday said eight B-29's will make a one-stop flight from Tokyo to Washington next week in the "longest and fastest mass flight of B-29's ever attempted."

Described as a training mission, the planes will hop off at 6 a. m. (CST) Thursday, July 31, and aim at crossing between the Washington monument and the Lincoln memorial here at 10 a. m. (CST) on Friday, Aug. 1, which is Air Force Day. The distance is about 7,000 miles.

They will land at Andrews Air Field, 12 miles southeast of here. Headquarters for the strategic air command, the scheduled stop is at Elmendorf Field, Anchorage, Alaska, with a maximum of three hours allowed for refueling.

The eight ships are of the 492nd Bomb Squadron, 7th Bomb Group, 8th Air Force, based at Fort Worth. They will be under command of Lt. Col. Howard F. Hugos of Oklahoma.

The estimated time from Tokyo to anchorage is 12 1/2 hours and from Anchorage to Andrews Field, 13 hours and 10 minutes.

Summer Slump Hits Air Freight Business

AUSTIN, July 22. (P)—Air express shipments in Texas decreased two per cent in June compared with May, but increased 26 per cent this June compared with the same month a year ago.

The bureau of business research called it a summer slump. May to June gains were registered by 11 cities, with Tyler doubling its air express shipments. Other increases in this period were:

San Angelo 79 per cent; Abilene 22 per cent; Midland 21, and Brownsville 20.

Body Of Drowning Victim Recovered

WACO, July 22. (P)—The body of Donald Lee Williams, 7, was recovered from the Brazos river yesterday near the lower end of Lotts Bluff, 10 miles from the scene of the tragedy.

Joe Moore of Whitney spotted the body, climaxing a 24-hour search by approximately 75 people.

ROLL CALL OF STATES SEATTLE (U.P.)—License plates from 44 states were seen here by a mailman during one week's stroll around city streets. Only missing entries were Vermont, New Hampshire, Delaware and West Virginia.

House Approves Blank Check For Mexico Hoof And Mouth Fight

WASHINGTON, July 22. (P)—As far as the House of Representatives was concerned today Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson will have a "blank check" to finance the campaign to eradicate the foot and mouth disease in Mexico.

If the House action is approved by the Senate he will be empowered to spend any amount he decides is necessary for the campaign.

Thus, funds for the joint campaign against the disease will not be affected by the lack of a direct congressional appropriation. Anderson, under the legislation.

Mexico City Seeks Better Water Supply

MEXICO CITY, July 22. (P)—Mexico City hopes to add to its present supply of drinking water through the drilling of at least a score of new wells.

Some parts of the city are without water and in other parts there is only a supply for two or three hours a day.

The Lerma river project, still two years from completion, will add even more water to the city's supply.

In some African areas, the smelting of iron is accompanied by a religious ritual.

Honduras President Lashes Communism

MEXICO CITY, July 22. (P)—The President of Honduras, in an exclusive interview published in Excelsior here yesterday, said "Communism is a growing danger."

Gen. Tiburcio Carias Andino said "in desires and plans to establish world hegemony our continent occupies a preferred place x x x."

He urged "American unity to safeguard the individual and collective existence of our nationalities."

American Republics today, he said, "are beginning to know, understand and like one another." Newspapers, he added, are important in fostering better relationships.

LUCKY STRIKE presents THE MAN WHO KNOWS—

THE TOBACCO BUYER!

"I'VE BOUGHT well over ten million pounds of tobacco . . . so I speak with some authority when I say that season after season, I've seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy real fine tobacco—that ripe, light tobacco that makes a swell smoke."

FINE TOBACCO is what counts in a cigarette

FURNEY KING IS RIGHT! . . . And like him, scores of other experts . . . who really know tobacco . . . have seen the makers of Lucky Strike buy "real fine tobacco." After all, that's what you want in a cigarette . . . the honest, deep-down enjoyment of fine tobacco.

So remember . . . L.S./M.F.T.
