Contestants in Mothers' Marathon

Mrs. John Nagle

Mrs. Arthur Timleck

A race unique in history ends at midnight Oct. 31, the deadline for Toronto's bizarre $500,000 stork derby. As the marathon goes into its final days, new drama and tragedy come from the weird tangle spun by the will of Charles Vance Millar, eccentric Toronto lawyer and sportsman, who bequeathed the half million to the Toronto woman who would give birth to the most children from Oct. 31, 1926, to Oct. 31, 1936.

The descent was a problem. A stretcher was useless. Rawson tied his legs together, sat on his heavy Raeskers guide, and between the timber and boulders, the "toboggan" slide required four hours.

There were cheers from a group huddled, waiting, in the canyon. A feminine voice cried, "Lloyd!" A woman ran to the stretcher. It was Rawson's bride of a month.

SALVATION ARMY MAPS PROGRAM FOR PAMPA

A Salvation Army program for Pampa was mapped out at a state conference of Salvation Army officials held this week in Dallas, according to Capt. Herman Lambrecht, head of the new Pampa post, who returned to the city last night.

Capt. Lambrecht said work of the Army for the entire state was discussed at the conference and that final winter plans were laid. "Details of the Pampa program," Captain Lambrecht said, "will be completed in the next few days and a full announcement will be made at that time as to a definite Salvation Army program insofar as Pampa is concerned."

more than ten days before they march into Madrid.

Heavy artillery, field pieces and anti-aircraft batteries were being wheeled to the front lines to hammer Madrid's fortifications when the "big push" starts.

On the arterial highway between Madrid and Navalcarnero, advance squads of insurgents reached the vicinity of Alcorcony, eight miles southwest of the beleaguered city, after seizing Mostoles, last "vital" point in the government defense line.

In Madrid, meanwhile, the populace cheered hysterically at government announcements that Socialist war planes had destroyed at least 17 Fascist aircraft.

An official bulletin hailed the air successes as the "most marked triumph" since the civil war began 14 weeks ago.

Twelve insurgent planes were destroyed at Talavera de la Reina, the government reported, and at least five others at Seville.

Other Madrid planes, the report said, "spread panic and wreckage with juggernaut efficiency" at Fascist airports in Granada and Caceres, raining 250-pound bombs on Fascist hangars "where planes being repaired and where those recently delivered from foreign countries were being assembled."

grabbed for the firearm, which was discharged, the bullet going through the windshield.

After the gun fight that followed when the car was stopped, the victor and the woman loaded the body back into the car and drove away. They turned the car around and retraced their course.

The burned car was discovered overturned in the ditch about 25 miles from the scene of the shooting, between Amarillo and Canyon. The body was taken to a morgue in Canyon where it still had not been definitely identified at noon today.

Deputy Sheriffs Roy Carhart and John White, of Panhandle, came to Pampa last night and took Bowman, one of the hitch hikers, back to Panhandle where he joined with the other two and officers in the search for the man and woman today.

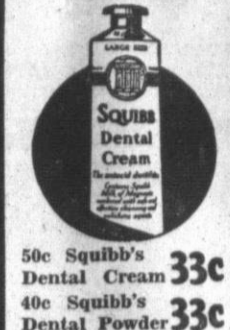

Advices from Albuquerque this afternoon stated that the automobile in which the body was found was bought there last Friday. The buyer was a Crown, N. M., man.

Panhandle authorities reported this afternoon that the search today was centering on farms near Canyon and that a man answering the description of the driver of the death car was seen at 5 a. m. today, going to a well for a drink of water.

The man being hunted is described as about 30 years of age, 145 pounds and about five feet, two inches tall.

LONDON STOPS TO VISIT TR'S AGING WIDOW

WILL GIVE CLIMACTIC SPEECH IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon, who followed the "Bull Moose" banner of Theodore Roosevelt in 1912, paused today to visit the widow of the former president before delivering the climactic speech of his eastern campaign at Madison Square Garden.

The Republican nominee turned toward Mrs. Roosevelt's Oyster Bay home after a conference with Alfred E. Smith, 1928 Democratic Presidential candidate, and Republican leaders, following a tumultuous welcome from cheering throngs that lined the streets from Penn station to his hotel.

After their half hour conference, Landon told photographers who urged them to "get closer together" that "We are as close together as we can get and we're going to stick together for a long time."

Smith, declining to predict the outcome of the election, told reporters in response to questions "I'm sure I was right" in supporting Landon.

Landon's program today included the motor drive to Oyster Bay on the north shore of Long Island for an hour's visit with Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and a view of the grave of the famed "rough rider," whose Progressive party candidacy drew Landon's support 24 years ago.

Later, the nominee planned to

Up And Down The Air Waves

By RAY D. O.

We have just been hearing some new advertisers on KPDN, and they realized that the radio is supported, solely, by its advertisers, we are glad to hear these new names. The more new advertisers, the better the programs, the better the programs, the more listeners, the more listeners, the more advertisers, and so on and so on.

Don't fail to hear the program on KPDN next Sunday between the hours of two and three in the afternoon.

You have probably missed the voice of Mel Marshall who is heard from the Berger studio of KPDN. He was called to San Antonio yesterday because of the serious condition of his brother who was injured in an automobile accident. We hope he may soon be back at his post of duty, but we hope most of all that his brother recovers rapidly.

You'll enjoy the program on KPDN next Sunday from two to three o'clock.

The old-fashioned fellow who never thought anything of walking eighteen or twenty miles in an afternoon has a grandson who never thought of it either.

A new program service previe on KPDN Sunday at 2 p. m. Hear it.

Listen to the following Columbia programs this evening: 6:30, Dixie Serenade 6:45, Boake Carter; 7:00, Kate Smith; 7:30, Sunny Melodies; Bill and Ginger; 9:00, Betty and Bob.

Plan now to be right by your radio next Sunday afternoon, and be sure you are tuned to KPDN, 1310 kilocycles, and hear the inaugural program of a new program service. It will be a delightful hour of entertainment.

Mrs. Roy W. Reeder's program yesterday afternoon seemed just a little better than previous offerings. We think she gives the listeners a most enjoyable quarter hour. Hear her as she brings us another program tomorrow at 3:15.

You won't regret listening to KPDN Sunday afternoon from two to three o'clock when a new program will be heard.

We now gather that Piccolena, the Waker Uppers Flapper, has been kidnaped, so it begins to look as though the million dollar check, recently received by Bill and Uncle Bud, might come in handy. Well, if she is handsome, she is probably worth the ransom, so pay off, boys.

Something NEW will be heard on KPDN Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, so get yourself comfortable and enjoy the big hour's show.

The NBC programs you'll enjoy this evening will be found at the following hours: 6:15, The Voice of Experience 6:30, Lum and Abner; 7:00, Rudy Vallee; 9:00, Bing Crosby and Bob Burns.

KPDN—Sunday—2 p. m.—What? A delightful one hour show.

Southern colleges will never get an even break with northern schools until coonskin coats go out of style.

Filling the schedule of the Vandenberg Trio, yesterday, we heard a very good program, so we might suggest that these boys be scheduled regularly.

EYESIGHT ENDANGERED
HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 29 (AP)—Seriously worried over his eyesight, William Powell said today he would leave for New York immediately on completion of a new picture to consult specialists. A lesion, doctors said, is forming on the left eyeball. They diagnosed it as being the result of over-exposure to sun, incurred a month ago when Powell was on a fishing trip. At that time, he was forced to stay in a totally dark room for several days.

TIPSY.
CHICAGO—A tipsy motorist who drove into a gas filling station complained that his car was "dragging awfully" and "all the tires must be flat."

Investigation revealed that for several blocks he had towed another automobile, the bumpers of which had hooked to those of his car.

101 RANCH MAY BE DIVIDED UP BY GOVERNMENT

However, Zack Miller Will Fight Any Attempt

PONCA CITY, Okla., Oct. 29 (AP)—The plow of tenant farmers soon may furrow the broad acres of the old 101 ranch, once ridden by famous cowpunchers in Oklahoma's territorial days.

Arrangements to "stake" farmers there from other parts of Oklahoma were announced by D. P. Trent, regional director of the resettlement administration, at Dallas.

It was apparent, however, that tall, stately Zack Miller, only survivor of the three brothers who made a show place of the "101," would fight any attempt of the government to deprive him of the interest he claims in the property. It has been in litigation for years.

Miller, now living in Louisiana, claims the right to redeem the entire ranch upon payment of approximately $500,000 to the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance company. He contends that sheriff's deeds to the property were, by oral agreement, mere mortgages subject to redemption.

Miller has had a streak report for each defeat he suffered in his ef-

THIS ONE THING HAS REVOLUTIONIZED RADIO!

Grunow's TONE-TESTED RESONATOR

(PATENT APPLIED FOR)

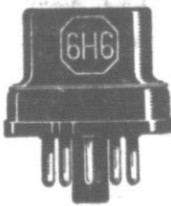

A SCIENTIFIC DEVELOPMENT—YOU WILL MARVEL AT THE SENSATIONAL IMPROVEMENT IN TONE

The Tone-Tested Resonator, combined with Super Hi-Fidelity Sound Circuit and Speaker, actually doubles the number of different "tone frequencies" reproduced—revealing richness and over-tones hitherto lost.

No longer is the speaker simply mounted on a baffle board that adds its own "tone" to every sound. Instead, a skillfully graduated series of resonance rings made of carefully selected woods replaces the old mounting board—ends "baffle board distortion"—enables radio for the first time to give absolutely pure, uniform re-enactment of the entire range of musical sounds. The result is tone perfection never before possible—the last word in radio tone.

The Tone-Tested Resonator is but one of the six major features you must demand if the radio you select is to be as good as a Grunow. Insist on Triple Speakers, the Signal Beacon which stops you at the stations of the world, the new Aladdin Color Flash Dial that simplifies tuning of foreign stations, and demand a beautiful modern cabinet. Get an All-Wave radio that gets the world, not just part of it. Many of the new Grunows use the new metal tubes—a scientific development that makes possible much better performance.

These are but a few of the important features that make a Grunow the last word in modern radio. Come in and see the radio that's never than tomorrow.

MONTGOMERY FEARS FASCISM IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—Dr. R. H. Montgomery of Texas professor, Tuesday told a legislative investigating committee that fascism was very widespread in the United States and very dangerous.

Appearing before a committee investigating reported communistic and atheistic teachings in state-supported colleges, Dr. Montgomery testified that in university classes he had found students "way to the right" and "way to the left."

He said he considered it his function to do "everything I can to drive back to the right" those with leftist points of view.

"My teaching has been that of patience, because democracy works slowly," he testified. "If I didn't believe democracy was the best process, I would go somewhere else."

Dr. Montgomery said he probably had made 100 addresses yearly for the past five years and never publicly discussed religion, the race problem or prohibition.

HOUSING CREW REPORTS FINE LOCAL RESPONSE

Sam McLean, Malcolm Macdonald and James Reilly, now carrying on a FHA educational campaign, started work in Pampa Monday under the auspices of the Panhandle Lumber Co. and are meeting with splendid response on the part of Pampa citizens, according to their foreman, Mr. McLean.

One of the most interesting and helpful features of the services obtainable under Title I is the ability to place all types of repair and modernization work under one loan. Even though various contractors and different types of materials may be required on one job, it is still possible to have them all financed at one time.

Contractors are also showing a great deal of interest in this effort to more fully acquaint Pampa property owners with the service of the Federal Housing Administration.

Mr. McLean stated that one of the most hopeful signs of the return of better business was the number of inquiries concerning building new homes. The crew will be in Pampa until Oct. 31.

CORRECTION OF OIL STATUTES RECOMMENDED

ABUSES BY REFINERIES CRITICIZED BY COMMITTEES

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—Correction of laws to halt abuses by some refineries in reporting tax payments was the recommendation today of a legislative committee which investigated conditions in the Texas oil industry during the past year.

In a report to the legislature, the investigators said some refineries often made payments on gasoline from illegal crude oil, using one permit to dispose of legitimate gasoline and another for the illegal product. Abandoned refineries were used in tax reports for the latter.

The report stated, however, that both the Railroad commission and the comptroller's department had devoted great effort to stamping out such practices.

Another practice by which some processors gave bond of $25,000 produced gasoline on which the taxes were several times that amount, then defaulted and forfeited, thereby defrauding the state, was pointed out and recommendations to prevent its continuance were suggested.

"Phantom" names, used in payment of levies on illegal crude and to baffle the commission in locating conservation law violators had been discovered, the committee said, but the comptroller's efforts forcing agents to make correct reports largely eliminated this.

The committee reported that a single form manifest regulating oil transportation was found to be impossible under existing laws, recommended changes to allow the manifest if deemed advisable.

It stated there was little need for receivers in confiscation proceedings since such matters could be handled by the commission, and termed the "formerly flagrant abuse of so-called supplemental sales" as "rackets of the first rank."

The investigators concluded said no public officials dealing with oil had been found guilty of dishonesty.

WHITAKER IS RELEASED AND THEN DISAPPEARS

HOUSTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Federal authorities released Frank Whitaker on a $1,000 bond yesterday after his arrest on a technical state charge in Georgia of kidnaping his 7-year-old son at Atlanta.

Whitaker, field man for the Texas company, said:

"My wife and I have been separated since 1933. The custody of our son has never been determined."

"I went to Atlanta two weeks ago on a vacation and to see my son. He stayed with me several days and when I left for Memphis I took him back to Mrs. Whitaker."

"I returned to Atlanta and went by Mrs. Whitaker's house. He ran to meet me and I took him away. That's all there is to it."

Whitaker said he had retained an attorney and would fight for legal custody of the boy.

His son was with him yesterday, but neither could be found today. Fellow employees refused to divulge his whereabouts.

COCKTAIL PARTY HELD ON BESEIGED TRAIN

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29 (AP)—A cocktail party—held on the floor of a darkened railroad coach while stones drummed against the car's sides—was described today by passengers who spent five hours in a Louisiana and Arkansas train besieged by strike sympathizers near Winnfield, La.

Both men and women were in the crowd that halted the train, loaded with students and fans returning from the Louisiana State-Arkansas football game at Shreveport. They surrounded the coaches, which were locked against a possible attack, hurled stones and bricks, shouted and cursed, while the passengers huddled in darkness below the windows.

A New Orleans woman, who declined to give her name, described the experience:

"An armed guard traveling on the train grabbed me and shoved me to the floor of the club car.

"All the lights were put out and the doors were locked. The guards said we couldn't even smoke cigarettes because somebody outside might see the light and shoot us.

"Everybody was pretty scared for a while but finally started drinking beer and other stuff and we had a big cocktail party with all of us on the floor.

"It was 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning before they got the train started again."

BEWARE OF COLITIS If Constipated

New "lifetime" fruits and leaves bring overnight action without artificial drugs or chemicals.

Exercise intestinal muscles. Clear the skin. Doctors say there is almost an epidemic of colitis and "piles," due to the increase in constipation. Painful, costly surgical operations are often needed when these conditions get bad. Yet in the early stages, constipation can easily be relieved.

A sensational new fruit-leaf called TAM, gives your lower bowel a good cleansing, and protects your blood against many poisons that can enter through the intestines. You can take TAM every night of your life and it won't hurt you because it's made of pure fruits and leaves boiled down into a tasty jam. No harsh, artificial laxative drugs or chemicals to irritate the colon and make it raw.

Money back unless you agree that TAM is the best laxative you've ever taken. 5 ea. jar, 39c; trial jar, 15c.

BETTER SCHOOLS FOR THE MONEY

On Nov. 3 the people of Texas will vote upon a constitutional amendment to permit the legislature to enact a teacher retirement law. Briefly, this amendment provides that each teacher coming into the profession will deposit with the state monthly a small part of his salary, not to exceed five per cent, and in no case to exceed $180.00 yearly.

It is believed that the people of the state will endorse this amendment by a large majority for the following reasons:

First, a sound teacher retirement law protects school children from teachers rendered less competent by advanced age. Such teachers will be willing to retire if they can see where the next day's living is coming from.

Second, a sound teacher retirement law tends to attract people into the profession because it gives a better guarantee of promotion, tenure in service, and security of retirement. It increases the dignity of the teaching profession.

Third, a sound teacher retirement system tends to keep many capable teachers in the classroom, because it is unnecessary for them to seek other employment financially more attractive. Many of our best teachers leave the profession early for better salaries in other lines, thereby leaving the children in the hands of the less efficient teacher.

Fourth, a sound teacher retirement system increases the efficiency of the teacher in the classroom for the following reasons: It lengthens the period of teaching efficiency by relieving the teachers' mind of the fear of a destitute old age; it improves the morale of a teaching force by keeping open the paths of promotion; and it increases the child's respect for the teacher and thereby makes his work more effective.

Another most important reason for favoring this plan is that in the long run a sound teacher retirement system means a substantial saving to the taxpayers because it makes possible the replacement of superannuated teachers, who receive the maximum salaries, by younger teachers who begin at a smaller salary; it protects the public from the waste of an expensive school plant manned by a worn-out teaching staff; and it is cheaper than a pension system. The compound interest feature, and the withdrawal privilege, make it better for the teacher and less expensive for the state. In fact, it is believed by those best informed on the subject that within a few years the state will make little or no contribution to the retirement fund because a revolving fund will accrue due to withdrawals. And since teachers under this system will not draw old-age pensions, the state should effect substantial saving. But, best of all, the children will benefit because of the retirement of the incompetent and the employment of more active teachers. A vote for the amendment is a vote for better schools for the money expended.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

PHILADELPHIA.—The class struggle aspect of the presidential campaign, if you want to call it that, reaches full heat in Pennsylvania.

Organized workers and the lower income groups in the industrial centers have in many cases worked up a hysterical devotion to Roosevelt which sometimes approaches fanatical frenzy. Labor has built itself a powerful political organization to work hand in hand with the Democratic machine.

They have taken control of the battered but active Republican machine which has served them so loyally in the past and hope, with the aid of white collar and other conservative, farmers, and frightened workers, to save the Keystone state.

This is more than a political fight. In the background are threats of strike and violence and the knowledge of stores of machine guns and gas in steel mills and factories.

The election result will only mean that one side or the other will find more or less sympathy in Washington and will be more or less solidly entrenched in the state.

No one knows how the election battle in Pennsylvania will result. There is spirit, drive, youth, direction, and leadership on the Democratic side, as opposed to superior financial resources and the inherent conservatism of this second largest state in the Union.

Big politicians on both sides are laying bets at even money. The man on the street says it looks like Roosevelt and that assertion has been made more and more frequently these last few weeks. Some of the most competent political writers in the state assert privately that this is true; others are uncertain.

One confidential poll in which your correspondent has great faith was asserted by its taker 10 days before election to indicate that Pennsylvania was approximately a 10 to 9 bet for Landon; no better, no worse.

All of which is news: Pennsylvania hasn't gone for a Democratic presidential candidate since James Buchanan was elected in 1856. She stood firm in the 1932 Roosevelt

Body nutrition influences both the state of the lining cells of the vessels called the endothelium, and the blood. The cells which line the blood vessels are important mediators between the blood which they contain and the tissues which form the blood vessels. Should the endothelium be damaged, the nutrition of the underlying vessel tissues is likely to be affected.

HARVESTERS PLAN TO GARNER WIN TOMORROW NIGHT AGAINST CLOVIS

PASSES TO BE HURLED OFTEN BY WEE LADS

WOOLDRIDGE'S ANKLE IS STILL GIVING TROUBLE

Determined to break into the win column again, a band of determined Harvesters will go to Clovis tomorrow for a game with the Clovis Wildcats tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

Although he may not start, Wooldridge will no doubt get in the game. With him out of the line-up, Graham will call signals from the short position with Ayer at half.

The line will be intact, the same boys who held the Lubbock Westerners will be fighting to beat out the Wildcats at their own game.

Five important Class B conference battles will be staged in this section of the Panhandle tomorrow from which Pampa fans who do not accompany the Harvesters to Clovis can select their morsel of enjoyment.

Probably the most important tilt will be the McLean-Wheeler battle to be staged on Mustang field in Wheeler. It will be a meeting of crippled teams with Wheeler in the worst condition.

The tale of woe coming from Wheeler reveals that Derryberry, blocking halfback, Whitman, guard, Norman, half, and Green, guard, all first string players, will be on the sidelines with injuries received last week when the Mustangs nosed out Lakeview, 7 to 6.

Pupils will meet former coach when the Estelline Cubs play in White Deer tomorrow night against Coach Gene McCullum's Bucks. The game is hoped to be a "natural" with both elevens undefeated.

Other important Class B tilts tomorrow night will be: Mobeetie at LeFors (conference), Miami at Phillips of Whittenburg (conference), Canadian at Follett (conference), Panhandle at Perryton, Groom at Claude (afternoon, conference), Shamrock, open date.

The largest number of gridiron Notre Dame ever had in uniform for one game was 83 men.

White Deer's Second String Mangles Runts In 31-0 Rout

After two victories, the Junior high "Runts" met their nemesis yesterday afternoon when they played the White Deer second string and lost 31 to 0. The White Deer victory kept the tradition of no losses on Buck field intact.

The little Junior high "Runts" threatened to score only once when Kennedy, end, broke through and intercepted a White Deer lateral on his own 4-yard line. He aired out for the White Deer goal but was hauled down on the Bucks' 10-yard stripe.

Five teams were unbeaten but tied—Olney, Breckenridge, Longview, Temple and San Benito. Olney, however, almost fell last week when the Cubs hooked in their second deadlock.

Amarillo is regarded as the class of the Panhandle although the Sandies have not played a conference game to date. It's a horse race in district two between Wichita Falls, Childress, Olney, et al.

BRECKENRIDGE TO PLAY SAN ANGELO TEAM

WINNER IS FAVORED TO WIN OIL BELT'S TITLE

DALLAS, Oct. 29 (AP)—The battle for district honors in Texas Interscholastic league football enters the crucial stage this week, headlined by clashes between unbeaten leaders in the trophy-turvy oil belt and the turbulent San Antonio area.

The spotlight of West Texas rests on Breckenridge as the Buckaroos defend their title against a fine San Angelo team Friday. Each has won four district games; all other clubs have met defeat, and the winner will be highly favored to breeze through to the title.

The eight undefeated, untied teams in the state meet stiff tests this week. Amarillo plays Plainview, Dallas Tech meets Adamson (Dallas), North Side (Fort Worth) clashes with Mineral Wells, North Dallas engages Cleburne, Hillsboro tangles with Temple, Kerrville battles Austin, Corpus Christi takes on Brownsville and Edinburg plays San Benito.

Greenville flashed back into prominence in district six by their impressive victory over Sulphur Springs, but the Lions have McKinney and Highland Park (Dallas) to contend with.

North Side is the standout of the Fort Worth district. Traditional battles, however, are still ahead and the Steers face a rugged road to the title.

Dallas Tech is ranked above the rest in the Dallas district with North Dallas and Sunset the chief opposition and it looks like a battle between Gladewater and Longview for the district nine crown.

Lufkin gets the nod in district ten but Athens is to be reckoned with in no uncertain terms. At this time Cleburne and Hillsboro lead district eleven. The latter, by virtue of victories over Waco and Corsicana, looms as the favorite.

Austin of El Paso, Paris and Palestine tell from the unbeaten, untied ranks, and Port Arthur, which had a tie against its record but no losses, went down before Amarillo's juggernaut. Incidentally it was the first time the Yellow Jackets were scored on this year.

Corpus Christi again looms as the team to beat in district fifteen, and the battle for the district sixteen title appears to be between Edinburg, Harlingen, Weslaco and McAllen, with the former favored.

Bell Pessimistic As Ponies Prepare For Longhorn Game

Arkansas Stars Are Shining Again In Lineup

(By The Associated Press) Southwest conference squads rehearsed today for mid-season performances Saturday in games that will have a bearing on the loop standing for six of the seven members.

Rice meets George Washington University in the only non-conference tilt. The remainder of the schedule: Southern Methodist vs. University of Texas at Austin.

Coach Matty Bell at Southern Methodist, disappointed at the showing of the Mustangs in practice, said he was "willing to take a one-point victory and not play the game."

The Texas Longhorns had another idea, however, and drilled strenuously against Mustangs plays. It will be the conference opener for the Ponies while the Longhorns already have been eliminated from the race with two defeats.

Arkansas hopes brightened when Robbins, Keen and Martin returned to the lineup after being out with injuries. The Razorbacks concentrated on passes. The squad will leave tonight for College Station.

The Texas Aggies worked on both their offense and defense with special attention to means of checking the Porkers' aerial attack.

Illness and injuries worried Coach Morley Jennings at Baylor as the Bruins practiced against Texas Christian formation. Brazell, back, Blue, tackle, and Boyd, end, were unable to report for practice.

Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer said "Slingin' Sam" Baugh, Texas Christian hurling ace, would divide quarterback duty with Davey O'Brien, 145-pound sophomore who showed to good advantage against Mississippi State.

The Rice Owls concentrated on blocking. Coach Jimmy Kitts said injuries might cause him to change his lineup for the George Washington game.

Park (Beaumont) at Milby (Houston). 14—Friday: Beaumont at Galveston (district), Port Arthur at Grose Creek (district). 15—Friday: Edinburg at San Benito (district), Harlingen at McAllen (district), Weslaco at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo (district).

RISKO GIVES BALSAMO HIS FIRST UPSET

Nearly as startling as the German's knockout of Louis last summer, were a pair of triumphs by Eddie (Babe) Risko, the former middleweight champion, and Eddie Cool, veteran Philadelphia lightweight, last night.

Cool outpointed the new lightweight king, Lou Ambers, in Philadelphia, in a 10-round non-title affair—Ambers' first start since winning the title from Tony Canzoneri.

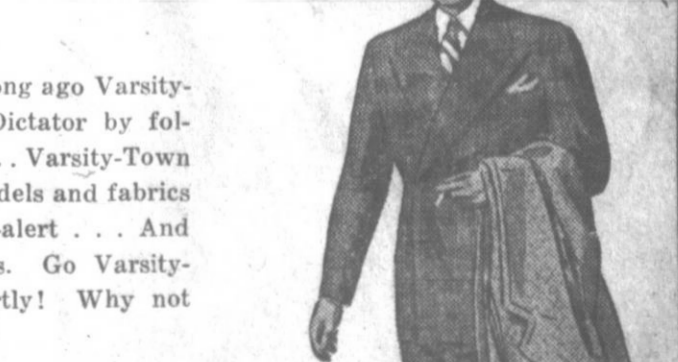

Risko, on the short end of 2 to 1 odds before the fight, punched out a clean cut ten-round win over Harry Balsamo, the middleweight knockout sensation in New York, chalking up the first loss for Balsamo since he brought his kayo punch out of the subway and turned to pro fighting more than a year ago.

Risko beat Balsamo at his own game, scoring the only knockdown of their fight with a right hand smash under the heart in the fourth frame that floored his Italian rival.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—From the way things have been going since Max Schmeling upset Joe Louis, this seems to be the year for experience to spring the fight game's surprise package by showing up younger favorites.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—Ho hum! The New York State Athletic commission has launched its annual probe of the wrestling racket...

Branch Rickey of the Cards admits he received a $300,000 offer from the Giants for Dizzy Dean. Our best football long shot this week is North Carolina State over North Carolina.

A week after his Duquesne team had surprised the football world by trimming Pitt, Clipper Smith, Duquesne coach, watched W. Va. Wesleyan (a breather) trim him 3-0.

The University of Idaho basketball team will play the U. C. L. A. quintet for the first time in uniform for the schools December 15.

EIGHT TEAMS REMAIN UNTIED AND UNDEFEATED IN LEAGUE

DALLAS, Oct. 29 (AP)—Eight teams remained in the undefeated untied class the week beginning Oct. 25, as the Texas Interscholastic league campaign rumbled down the fading October gridiron trail.

Greenville flashed back into prominence in district six by their impressive victory over Sulphur Springs, but the Lions have McKinney and Highland Park (Dallas) to contend with.

North Side is the standout of the Fort Worth district. Traditional battles, however, are still ahead and the Steers face a rugged road to the title.

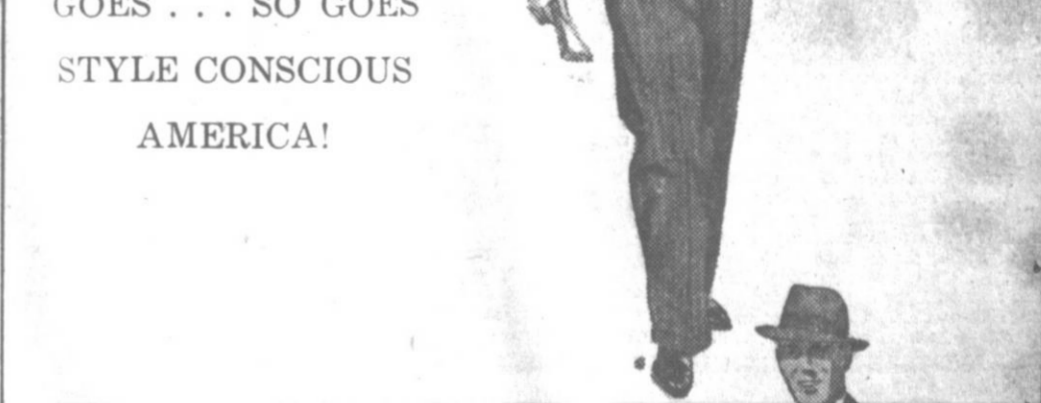

Dallas Tech is ranked above the rest in the Dallas district with North Dallas and Sunset the chief opposition and it looks like a battle between Gladewater and Longview for the district nine crown.

Lufkin gets the nod in district ten but Athens is to be reckoned with in no uncertain terms. At this time Cleburne and Hillsboro lead district eleven. The latter, by virtue of victories over Waco and Corsicana, looms as the favorite.

Austin of El Paso, Paris and Palestine tell from the unbeaten, untied ranks, and Port Arthur, which had a tie against its record but no losses, went down before Amarillo's juggernaut. Incidentally it was the first time the Yellow Jackets were scored on this year.

Corpus Christi again looms as the team to beat in district fifteen, and the battle for the district sixteen title appears to be between Edinburg, Harlingen, Weslaco and McAllen, with the former favored.

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

BY LOUS SCHNEIDER

EXPECTED.
Financing circles say that if the TVA and the Holding Company Act the found unconstitutional the utilities will start a rush of bond offerings. Informants here say that about $500,000,000 is needed for new equipment and replacements. It is shown that most all utility companies are operating near capacity levels to take care of record consumption demands.

As a hedge some underwriting houses say that if both or either of these two New Deal administration babies have good law behind them utility financing will come just the same. On this argument it is said that utility companies will have to expand production so that they will be able to compete with government sales. And in either event new financing is expected.

TOOLS.
For the fourth consecutive month the machine tool industry will report a decline in domestic orders for October. Trade insiders say that orders are off because of election uncertainties. Another reason is the Federal Reserve Act.

The latter reason restricts buying because under that act such expenditures aren't deductible from profits. But this doesn't mean that some machine tool plants are not operating at high levels. A few are still about three months behind in book-order business which is mostly foreign accounts.

FACTS.
Half of all RFC loans have been repaid. Reynolds Metals owns 46.25 per cent of Reynolds Corporation—United States Steel owns 53.46 per cent of Reynolds Corporation and also about 53 per cent of Reynolds Metals—dope that one out of Cement industry sees 1936 consumption running 40 per cent ahead of last year with the 1937 outlook bright. During depression years Lima Locomotive bought 41,400 shares of its own stock at an average cost of $17 a share—then he sold. United States Steel produces about 35 per cent of industry's current output. Since 1931 Brazil had burned about eighteen months of coffee supply to merry tune of $250,000,000—yet prices are low. Big corporations decentralizing manufacturing units so that labor difficulties will not hit more than one plant at a time.

ACTION.
The widespread revival in construction operations has helped increase Johns Manville's income. 1936 net is expected to run well above the $217 a share reported for 1935. Insiders look for favorable dividend action when directors meet next month. Another extra distribution in addition to the 25-cent quarterly regular will be announced. Or, the annual rate may be lifted to a $3 basis.

ARGENTINA.
According to grapevine reports Argentine representatives and New York bankers are in a huddle on a huge refunding operation. The dope is that the entire figure will reach $217 a share reported for 1935. It is expected to be started before the close of this year.

Further information is that the whole lot will not be placed at one time. It is expected that a $25,000,000 issue will be let out first to test the market for such an offering. If successful another block of $75,000,000 will go. The balance will be held over for 1937's January reinvestment demands.

Most all of Argentina's issues in this country carry a six per cent coupon. It is expected that the new issues will carry 4 1/2 per cent coupons. If the $240,000,000 financing is successful at the 4 1/2 per cent rate it brings the annual interest savings to around $3,500,000.

PLATINUM.
The gyrations in price of platinum is the talk of the speculative world.

Early this year it was $30 per ounce. A speculative group took hold of the metal and jacked it up to a high of $70 per ounce. From that peak the price eased to where it is now quoted at $50. According to the jewelry trade platinum may be had—89 per cent pure—at $4 under the trading figures.

The Financial Whirligig disclosed that a fast spurt in platinum was due. Later the jewelry trade was warned that a sharp dip was coming. Now it is heard that the price will life a bit from current levels and then take another fall early in 1937.

BROWN PRESIDES AT QUEEN MARY PROGRAM

Presiding as chairman of a Rotary club meeting on board the steamship "Queen Mary" on its recent return trip from England was described by M. K. Brown to members of the Rotary club yesterday as one of the highlights of his recent trip. A meeting of members of the club on board is held each Friday when the ship is at sea. The meetings are sponsored by an official of the ship's company who is a member of the Rotary club.

At the Rotary meetings programs are printed containing the names of all Rotarians and their home clubs. One member is selected to preside at the meeting. Short talks are made in most cases by some of the members, according to Mr. Brown.

W. J. Smith discussed the amendments to be voted upon at the general election, explaining and clarifying the meanings where necessary. Visitors were Bill Beechler, Amarillo, J. L. Myers, and Rotarians J. R. Phillips, Borger; Chas. Calloway, Canadian; and W. G. Riddle, Amarillo.

Mussolini Offers 1,000 Liras To African Colonists

ROME, Oct. 29 (AP)—Premier Mussolini twisted the compass on Horace Greeley today and told 500 prize-winning Italian farmers, "Go south, young man!"

Handing out prizes of 1,000 liras each to farmers who developed the best crops on reclaimed land, Il Duce declared:

"Around Addis Ababa, there are tens of thousands of acres ready for immediate occupation by several thousand Italian families. There are immense fertile fields in East Africa, awaiting only the plow guided by Italian colonists."

ODDITIES IN THE ELECTION

By EDWARD J. NEIL
 NEW YORK, Oct. 28 (AP)—Election oddities? The nation's full of them. And they're not all "Take Delaware, where a fact-checker either. The national fight among Republicans has developed this topsy turvy situation.
 Voters will find two sets of Republican electors on their ballots Nov. 3, and one set pledged to President Roosevelt. In effect, the Republicans are running a second team against themselves. Thus the vote will be split.
 Prescott, Mass., with seven votes, all Republican, is participating in its last national election. By this time in 1940 the town will be under water, part of a huge reservoir being set up in the Berkshire hills. It remains an incorporated town right up to the moment it disappears beneath the waves.
 There's a great political future in being a conductor on the North-western railroad in Wisconsin. . . Thomas J. O'Malley left the railroad to become Lieutenant governor in 1932, was re-elected in 1934, and died in office last spring. . . To replace him the Democrats nominated Edward H. Ger-vak. . . That's right, a conductor on the Northwestern railroad.
 Should a political miracle happen in Texas, and a Republican governor be elected, the state would swap the youngest governor for the oldest. The incumbent, James V. Alfred, Democrat, is 38, the Republican candidate, 78. . . Half the voters in Freedom, Wyo., cast their ballots in Idaho. The state line runs through the main street of the town.
 When storms blow up an election day it sometimes takes a week to find out how the folks voted in South Pass City, Wyo., where the vote from outlying precincts comes in by horseback. . . This is the town where women's suffrage was born in 1888.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP)—The presidential contest of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Alfred M. Landon will hold the headlines across the nation Nov. 3, but a lot of other interesting things will be happening, too, as follows:
 Alex Tinsley, justice of the peace in Ansted, Fayette county, Charleston, W. Va., will be running for the state legislature from a jail cell. He was tossed in the brig after conviction for assault on a fellow magistrate.
 He writes letters, sends out handbills from his novel headquarters, but asks no traveling nor speech-making. He was released however, over the week end until Nov. 5, when he is due back to finish his sentence.
 "Bein' in jail is helpin' me get votes," he says.
 There's something highly significant, if it can be worked out, in two election problems that face voters in Nebraska and Georgia.
 Nebraskans, for example, will judge between two candidates for state land commissioner, and at the same time will pass on a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office.
 The situation is just reversed in Georgia. Delaney Allen, nominated by the democrats for lieutenant governor, is running for an office that doesn't exist. The cavalry was dismounted recently by a new police chief, who took the attitude that if men were more efficient afoot. Socialists in Milwaukee have been opposing the mounties for years.
 Non-partisans insisted the unhurrying was politics, and the city council ordered a referendum.
 Wrightstown, N. J., has a mayoral election scheduled, but no candidate. In Woonsocket, R. I., the democrats nominated a republican for mayor, and the republicans turned democrat.
 LARGEST TRENCH SILO.
 MULESHOE, Oct. 29 (AP)—The largest trench silo in this region was completed recently by the Mashed-O ranch. It will hold 600 tons.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
 AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—In its busiest moments, the House of Representatives can find time for a laugh. It had one the other day at the expense of Rep. Clarence Farmer of Fort Worth.
 With debate on deliberalization of the old age assistance law at its height, Farmer thought a derogatory reference had been made and strode to the microphone of the loud-speaker system.
 "I just want to say to this House," he roared, "that I am not a Town-sender."
 From the rear of the hall came an answering shout, demanding "ayes and noes on that."
 Farmer joined in the laughter.
 Rep. W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi, veteran member of the legislature, and Speaker Coke Stevenson are very good friends, but frequently exchange wise-cracks.
 Pope went to the front of the House chamber recently to begin a speech. He consumed some time rolling up his sleeves and arranging papers, and just as he opened his mouth Stevenson announced:
 "The gentleman's time has expired."
 Pope was nonplussed for a moment, then grinned and went ahead with his address.
 On another occasion Pope brought a sheaf of points of order to make during consideration of a tax bill and read them over slowly.
 He had offered them all together, but insisted Stevenson rule on each separately.
 "All right," promised Stevenson; "you'll sure get the rulings."
 At the end of each point made the speaker would bang his gavel and say: "Overruled."
 Half way through the batch, Pope asked Stevenson to speak louder because he liked "the sound of your voice."
 At still another time, Pope asked permission of the speaker to make a change in a bill acted upon previously by the House, and explained in detail what the measure was about and what he wanted to do.
 "All right, I'll let you do it," Stevenson finally agreed, "but I'll have the clerk check over the bill and see if you're touching sides and bottom."
 A new expression was coined in the House of Representatives. Speaking in favor of the omnibus tax bill, a member said he was tired of the "dollarary tactics" of the opposition. Dilatory tactics is a term that often pops out in debate.
 The controversy over deliberalizing the old age pension law saw some customary alliances shattered. This was especially noticeable after Gov. Alfred in a message called for deliberalization.
 Noting the situation, Rep. Sidney Latham of Longview told the House he was a little "fogged down" and would like to be straightened out.
 "I can't seem to understand things," he said, "with Reps. Farmer and Herman Jones criticizing the governor and the governor quoting Charley McDonald."
 Farmer and Jones, representatives from Wise county, are friends of the governor. Alfred mentioned McDonald, an old political antagonist, in his address.
 FATAL APPROACH.
 HOUSTON, Oct. 29 (AP)—Police B. W. Payne says he plans to substitute a floodlight for an ambulance at the western approach to the La Porte Road bridge over Sims bayou. Five persons were killed in accidents at the approach this year. Chief Payne, saying the curving highway, the expanse, and the double bridge cause a dangerous traffic hazard, asked the city council to install flood lights at a cost of about $1,000. All fatal accidents at the spot occurred at night.
 The first waterworks system in Georgia was one in Van Wirt, Polk county.

During Roosevelt's Crowded Hours in New England

How close to his audiences President Roosevelt got on his swing through New England is shown in this picture of the throng that pressed against his automobile in Boston. His car served as the speaker's platform in Boston Common, where 175,000 persons overflowed in to the side streets.

5-1 VICTORY OVER GOP IN TEXAS PREDICTED

AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—Democratic national campaign forces here foresee a possible five-to-one Texas victory over Republican forces as a result of estimates from 93 of the state's 254 counties.
 Estimates from county chairman reporting counties show a probable total vote of 418,177, an estimated Democratic vote of 334,500, and an estimated 83,677 Republican vote.
 Harris County Chairman J. B. Lubbock, estimates 68,000 total vote with 53,000 Democratic against 12,000 Republican.
 Dallas county's vote will be three-to-one for Roosevelt, County Chairman Murrell L. Buckner estimates. He foresees 52,000 votes of which 37,500 are Democratic and 12,500 Republican.
 McLennan county is overwhelmingly Democratic with 12,000 votes out of a 13,500 total, the chairman estimates.
 Jefferson county will cast 16,000 Democratic votes out of a 22,000 total, the chairman says.
 Ben Inselman, Galveston county chairman, estimates 18,000 total, 12,000 Democratic and 4,800 Republican.
 Smith county's vote will be 8,100 Democratic out of a 10,500 total, Chairman S. S. McClendon says.
 Nueces county will return 8,475 Democratic ballots out of a 9,000 total, state headquarters reports.
 Smaller counties, without exception, predict Democratic walk-aways, headquarters say. Denton county will produce 3,500 Democratic votes and 210 Republican. Brewster county foresees a 90 per cent Democratic vote, and Panola estimates 2,900 Democratic votes as against 100 Republican, headquarters says.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

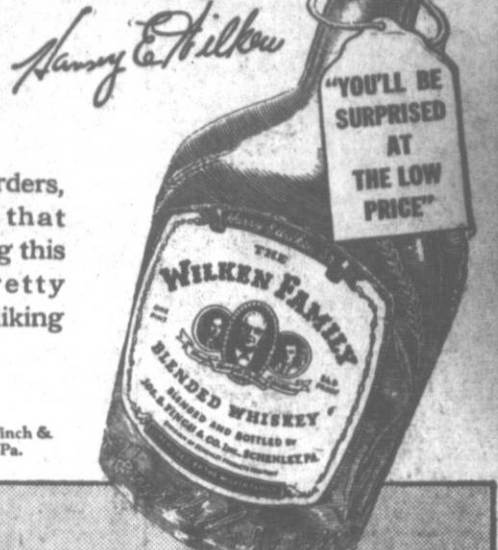

By ROBBIN COONS
 HOLLYWOOD—Unreel parade: Barbara Stanwyck, who came from the chorus lines to stardom, is doing her first movie dancing in "Banjo on My Knee," with Buddy Ebsen as partner. . . For a long time the Stanwyck screen roles were confined to drab creatures who never dressed up; then she broke away and became stylish. . . In this picture one of her costumes is an old sweater and skirt, and it reminds her of the old parts of so much she wants to hurry through the scene to change to something more like her new style.
 Sophistication Spoiled
 For that other personality-changer, Jean Muir, pictures were not too kind—just when Jean shed her pristine naturalness and turned into a movie siren, and thought the transformation a success, they cast her in a film about tenant farmers, ploughed through her new sophisticated coiffure to make her hair look unkempt, and ragged, and even broke her elegantly pointed fingernails to make her "earthier" than she ever was before.
 Sonia Henie, the skating star, has two stand-ins. . . One is the usual kind, a girl. . . The other is Bert Clarke, an expert ice skater, who stands in for her when the cameraman is trying to figure how he will "catch" a human whirlwind on ice. . . In Sonia's picture, "One in a Million," there is a scene requiring a dozen real beauties. . . The setting is a barnyard, complete with livestock, and the girls are members of an orchestra playing there. . . The studio was zealous in obtaining extraordinary beauties, even though it had to go off the lot for one or two of them. . . Came the scene, and Director Sidney Lanfield, peering through the camera to see how it looked, called out: "You girls move over there—we can't see the horse!"
 Olivia De Havilland now rates first in fan mail on the Warner lot, having finally supplanted Dick Powell in that position. . . Stars Know Their Book
 William Powell's line in "Labelled Lady" about books reminded me of an old interview with a dumb cutie who somehow or other was in pictures. . . The interview was tough going, the lady having few if any interests and no opinions. Her sister who was present, was little help. But both brightened up when reading was mentioned—"I adore movie magazines," our little friend spouted.
 Did she like books? This stumped her, but not Sister, who brightened again. "Of course," said Sister. "You have a book, haven't you, dear?"
 Yes, she had a book. What book? Sister couldn't remember. She hadn't read it. And our potential star? She couldn't remember because—she hadn't read it, either.
 But times are changed in Hollywood. Practically all the actors have read their book.
 FORT WORTH, Oct. 29.—Sam Baugh is 38 points ahead of his "pitching" record at the same time last year. This is a remarkable record when one considers that Slingin' Sam is a marked man in every game, and that opposing teams are coached hours and hours on how to stop his passes. Also, he has bettered his record in the face of the fact that he has attempted nearly twice as many forwards as in the same period of 1935.
 In the first five games of 1935 Baugh attempted 59 passes, 24 of them being completed for a total gain of 330 yards. Five of the heavens went for touchdowns.
 His percentage of completions at this date last season was 407; for the current season it is 445.

BAUGH IS 38 POINTS AHEAD OF 'PITCHING' RECORD OF LAST YEAR

CHILDRESS, Oct. 29 (AP)—A shipment of fish, said to be the largest made this year by the state hatchery at Wichita Falls, was placed in Lake Childress recently. There were 7,500 fingerlings, 750 bass, 6,300 bream, and 1,250 black crapples, or "calico bass." Less than a week before a shipment of 1,500 fish were placed in the water, and between 4,000 and 5,000 more fingerlings soon will be added. They were raised from small fry in rearing ponds at the Childress lake after being sent here from Wichita Falls.
 ALFALFA CROP GOOD.
 AMHERST, Oct. 29 (AP)—Henry Pickrell advises Davis F. Founds, assistant county agent, he is cutting six tons an acre from 26 acres of alfalfa under irrigation at his farm in the eastern part of Lamb county. He says he expects to make next year's yield nine tons. Alfalfa is averaging $10 a ton.
