GOVERNOR ORDERS SPECIAL SESSION

TEX'S TOPICS

The tooting callope, roaring lions, chattering monkeys, mountainous elephants, scampering clowns, and the billowing canvass all are in town today. . . . It's circus day—the time of the year when we long to be a kid again.

We didn't get around to the matinee performance, but if everything goes well we'll be under the big top with a bag of peanuts tonight, if for no other reason than to fill R. B. B.'s suggestion of the other day that we go out and give the animals a look at us.

If the animals have a treat coming—far be it from this space to break the heart of any little monkey. . . . One of the principal reasons we want to go to the circus tonight is to learn, if possible, what has happened to "The Daring Young Man on the Flying Trapeze."

There is a fellow whose praises were sung to the skies for many months and then all of a sudden he dropped out of the picture to be replaced by "Is It True What They Say About Dixie?" . . . Who knows, maybe he'll find out tonight how come.

Kids from Pampa and the surrounding community, according to reports, were showing principal interest this afternoon in the appearance here of "Tex," the original movie dog. . . . Rex, you know, is the dog who saved the day time upon time in the motion picture thrillers seen on Pampa's movie screens.

No use denying it, there's romance in the air these days—and the public likes it.

Checking upon the number of times different songs were sung from radio stations and upon the number of sheet sales in 1935, the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers shows that love tunes win every time. For instance, "When I Grow Too Old To Dream" scored 59,161 radio points and took first place, while it also lead the field with sheet sales of 550,000 copies.

Second came "I'm in the Mood For Love," with 26,537 points and sales of 200,000 copies. Also high on the list were such romantic lyrics as "In a Little Gypsy Tea Room," "Lullaby of Broadway," "Cheek to Cheek," and "What's the Reason I'm Not Pleased?"

If sales had not been included in the survey, one might have wondered whether the broadcasters had shot in the dark trying to please the public. But when radio listeners and other tune conscious persons dig into their pocketbooks and buy half a million copies of one song, there's no denying we like romance with our music.

Psychology students might scoff at the national liking for music billing and cooing and decide that, since 1935 was just another depression year, the buying public was seeking a sugary escape from reality. Actually, it is more probable that last year's figures show an average. Despite our supposed affection for money, machines, business, hamburgers and other anglicisms, maybe we Americans are essentially romantic. We may have found that melodic love calls and out of tune factory whistles do mix.

Most of us know Alaska is a territory of the United States almost twice as large in area as the state of Texas. Most of us, too, think of it as a land of eternal snow where salmon fishing and mining are the principal activities. Perhaps, we were a bit surprised last June to realize Alaskans send

Talmadge Buried In Cracker Vote As Russell Wins

Roosevelt Enemy Is Beaten 2 to 1 At Polls

ATLANTA, Sept. 10 (AP)—Senatorial hopes of Governor Eugene Talmadge, New Deal critic, were buried today under an avalanche of ballots endorsing pro-Roosevelt Richard B. Russell Jr. for re-election.

Russell, tenth southern Democratic leader to be renominated, President-made loyalty to the President the keynote of his successful fight for the six-year term in yesterday's party primary.

The red-suspended governor, his gubernatorial "heir apparent" and a slate of half a dozen state officers were swept out by popular majorities running up to two to one.

Russell, lean, 31-year-old, six-foot bachelor, maintained his record of no defeats in a political career which sent him from the governor's chair to the senate.

It was the first political setback for the swarthy, cigar-chewing executive who has fought Roosevelt for nearly two years.

E. D. Rivers, 40-year-old house speaker and former Talmadge ally, kept pace with Russell in rolling up a wide lead over Senate President Charles D. Redwine—Talmadge's gubernatorial choice—and Judge Blanton Fortson, another anti-Talmadgeite.

Incomplete and unofficial returns from all of the state's 159 counties, from 1,265 of 1,787 precincts, gave Russell 161,822 to 84,231 for Talmadge.

DAMAGE SUIT IS FILED IN DEATH OF JOE WILSON

$2,950 Is Asked By Aged Parents at L'Fors

An accident of last December when Joe Wilson was thrown from his horse and run over and killed by a truck on a bridge southeast of L'Fors was the basis today of a lawsuit for $2,950, filed in Gray county district court.

Plaintiffs in the action are Wilson's aged father and mother, W. S. Wilson, 89, and Mrs. W. S. Wilson, 87.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson charge that the decedent was their sole means of support and that he contributed services and financial aid for their upkeep to the value of $75 a month. Wilson was riding horseback on last Dec. 8 and was crossing a bridge on the North Fork of the Red River when he met an approaching truck, owned by the Bridgeport Machine Co., of T-peka, Kan.

It is charged that the truck was driving at a high rate of speed and that the driver failed to use care and as a result the horse Wilson was riding became frightened and threw him on the bridge.

The truck passed over his body and he was killed almost instantly, the petition recites. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson allege that their son would have continued, had he lived, to support them for the remainder of their lives.

For the loss of his services to their support, the plaintiffs ask that they recover $2,950 damages from the defendant, the Bridgeport Machine Co.

GRAY COUNTY IS GIVEN RELIEF FREIGHT RATES

AUSTIN, Sept. 10 (AP)—The railroad commission today established relief freight rates on livestock feed to 14 additional counties in the drought area.

HUNDREDS OF FARMERS WILL CONVENE HERE

SESSIONS TO BE HELD IN AUDITORIUM AT CITY HALL

Pampa will be the headquarters city for a district meeting of the Texas Agriculture association next Monday and Tuesday when hundreds of farmers from 21 Panhandle counties will gather for an all-day program, the object of which will be to re-awaken farm people to the necessity of building a strong farm organization, to serve as a training school for officers and committee chairmen, and to inform business and professional people toward farm programs.

Monday will be farmers' day, although the public is invited to attend the sessions which will open at 9 o'clock in the city auditorium. Following opening ceremonies, the chief address of the meeting will be given by Dr. R. H. Montgomery, nationally known economist and educator. Dr. Montgomery's address is scheduled to begin about 10 a. m.

An hour later, groups will adjourn to the courthouse where group meetings will be held in the court rooms. At noon they will be adjourned until 2 o'clock when they will be continued. Another general session will be held in the auditorium at 3 o'clock. At that time reports will be received from the conference groups, from county representatives and from state officials who will be here for the meeting.

The second day will be featured by a chamber of commerce membership luncheon which will be open to the general public. The dinner will be in the basement of the Methodist church at 12 o'clock. Tickets will be 60 cents. Dr. Montgomery will be the chief speaker.

Arrangements for the meetings were handled by John Turcott, chairman of the Gray County Agricultural Service, and W. H. Darrow, president of the district association; County Agent Ralph Thomas, Miss Ruby Adams, home demonstration agent, and Garnet Reeves, manager of the Board of City Development.

A party consisting of Dr. R. H. Montgomery, economist and educator; W. H. Darrow, southwestern representative of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration; Mrs. Minnie P. Cunningham, editor of the Extension Service News; R. H. Johnson, organization specialist; L. L. Johnson, recreation leader, all of A. & M. college; H. G. Lucas, president of the Texas Agricultural Association; Cliff Day, vice president, and possibly others will attend these meetings.

G-C COMMITTEE WILL MEET TO PLAN LUNCH

An attendance committee representing the Junior chamber of commerce, Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, as well as the senior chamber of commerce will meet at the BCD office this afternoon at 5 o'clock to make plans for their work in connection with the membership luncheon next Tuesday of the senior chamber of commerce. J. W. Garman, chairman, announced.

The luncheon will be in the basement of the First Methodist church, starting promptly at 12 o'clock. This morning the officers estimated that they would put between 1,200 and 1,500 cars through before the 5 o'clock deadline.

Although the officers do not want to make it necessary to stop cars and force the owners to test their brakes, they have that authority. The test is for the benefit of the car owners of Pampa and they should cooperate in every way. The state law reads that patrolmen can stop cars any time and any place for testing or brakes and other safety parts on a car. The lane method is to do away with congestion on highways and main thoroughfares. This morning several Pampa mo-

Nelson Asks Right To Inspect Books Of Miami Company

Judge W. R. Ewing, of Gray county district court, will decide on Sept. 23 whether or not Harry A. Nelson, of Miami, a stockholder of the Nelson National Farm Loan-ssn, has a right to inspect books and records of the private corporation.

Nelson, in a lawsuit instituted today, names E. F. Ritchey, R. L. Simmons and John B. Talley, of Roberts county; R. T. Alexander and M. H. Smith, of Hemphill county, and Clarence Bowers, of Gray county, as defendants in the action.

All of the defendants are directors of the organization, according to the petition, and Ritchey is secretary, with offices at Miami.

The plaintiff alleges that each and all of the defendants have refused permission for him to inspect books and records of the loan association.

He claims that he owns stock in the corporation and that he has a right to inspect the books. In his petition he asks the court for a writ of mandamus compelling the defendants to give him access to the corporation's records.

Judge Ewing set hearing on the plea for 10 a. m., Wednesday, Sept. 23.

ROBBINS CIRCUS IS GIVING TWO SHOWS IN CITY

Wild Animal Circus Fourth Largest In World

Bright and early this morning the city was invaded by the famous Robbins big three ring wild animal circus with its blaring bands, tooting call-peps, roaring lions, chattering monkeys, scampering clowns, billowing canvas and mountainous elephants, and for the day will hold forth across the street from Road Runner park, where this big circus will give an afternoon and night performance at two and eight p. m.

Requiring three circus rings and massive steel arena in which to present its galaxy of human and animal stars from the world's greatest entertainment metropolises, the famous Robbins circus now on its fifty-second annual tour, ranks as the fourth largest circus now in operation.

Outstanding among its pretentious array of "white top" headlines are riding the Riding Bartoni Family, Italian circus bareback riders; Allen Seals and his sixteen fighting lions; Schwydy's royal Bengal tigers; Harriet Schumann's leopards and pumas; Ray's zebras and baby elephants; Guilfoyle's polar bears; Barton's seals and sea lions; Robbins

600 CARS PASS THRU TRAFFIC SAFETY LANES

Highway Patrolmen Test Cars For 3 1/2 Hours

More than 600 cars passed thru safety lanes here in three and a half hours this forenoon as state highway patrolmen and city officers started the annual check on brakes, lights, horns, etc. Eight highway patrolmen, assisted by two city policemen and six special officers, started the cars thru on lanes laid out in the 400 block on W. Kingsmill ave.

"Tomorrow, beginning at 8 a. m., the officers will move to the 100 block on East Tyng street where tests will continue until 5 o'clock. This morning the officers estimated that they would put between 1,200 and 1,500 cars through before the 5 o'clock deadline.

WOULD RAISE CASH FOR OLD AGE PENSIONS

TEXAS LEGISLATURE TO CONVENE ON SEPT. 28

AUSTIN, Sept. 10 (AP)—Governor Allred today called a special session of the legislature to convene Sept. 28. The governor said the primary purpose of the session would be to raise additional revenues for payment of old age pensions.

While the governor did not commit himself at this time, it is expected the subject of enabling legislation to make other benefits of the federal social security act available to Texans also would be submitted.

"The only subject definitely in mind at this time," Allred said, "is the financing of old age pensions. There may be others. I don't know right now."

He expressed opinion that the legislation to change the old age assistance law would not be in order under his call. He declined to say whether revisions were needed.

Law "So Liberal"

"I know this," he said, "far more people are qualifying for pensions than it was estimated would. This is because the Texas law is so liberal."

The original estimate was for 60,000 pensioners, but that number already has been exceeded, and thousands of applications have not been passed upon.

The governor said he would make recommendations on means of raising additional revenue, but would not announce them now.

"I don't know how much will be necessary," he said.

He voiced hope that only one session of 30 days would be necessary. Under the law, a special session may extend only 30 days, but in the past additional sessions frequently have been called immediately.

"I also hope there will be a minimum of local bills," he added. "That always is a tough problem. I will cross that bridge when I come to it."

There would be no question, he said, as to the legislative membership since the session was called well before the general election in November.

Some have questioned whether members elected in November or old members would be qualified to sit in a session between November and January. The point has never been settled.

A committee of state officials named by Governor Allred has been studying what unemployment insurance legislation was needed. The committee has been giving particular attention to whether an unemployment insurance law would be valid under the state constitution.

In almost every part of town and on many a corner in the business district of Pampa, scenes like the above meet the eye. The upper picture shows construction work on one corner of the new high school auditorium, a WPA project, which will join Central high school on the north. Beginning of construction on this building seemed to be the signal for building activity to start all over town. On at least four corners in the business district, there are construction or remodeling projects under way.

while at the same time residential building is enjoying a boom Pampa is now leading the entire Panhandle in building for the year. Below is a scene that is typical of closing time at the four ward schools of the city. This closure of "schools out," happens to be at Woodrow Wilson school which is not so crowded this year, what with a new addition for exuberant youngsters. If you look close you will see principal, Mrs. Annie Daniels.

$30,364.50 IN DAMAGES ASKED IN NEXT SUIT

Skelly Oil Company Named Defendant In Action

R. K. Hext filed suit in Gray county district court today for $30,364.50 damages from The Skelly Oil Co., for injuries he allegedly received in a traffic accident near Pampa last June.

Hext charges in his petition that he was run down by one of the defendant's trucks, driven by Frank Ganett, an employe, as he walked across the public highway about three miles southeast of Pampa on the LeFors-Pampa road about 1 p. m., June 29.

It is further alleged in the petition that the truck driver was negligent in not reducing speed of his vehicle.

Hext claims he was struck, knocked down and suffered injuries which necessitated nine days of hospital care, and constant care since his release from the hospital. It is charged that he received a fractured skull and other injuries, some of which will be permanent.

HITLER SPEECH HURLS REDS AT NAZIS' THROATS

Master Propagandist Continues Attack On Russia

(By The Associated Press)

A widening breach in Russo-German relations echoed in the Soviet press today in answer to Chancellor Adolf Hitler's caustic comment on Bolshevism and Jews at Nurnberg, Germany.

Newspapers called the Nazi convention "Hitler's traveling circus" and observers feared serious consequences might follow insistent refusals of Germany and Russia to call off their vituperative attacks on each other.

Der fuhrer's proclamation of an economic program for Germany embracing return of its war-lost colonies stirred hostile reaction in other European capitals.

Authoritative sources in Paris said France would refuse to yield any of its mandates over former German possessions.

COUPLE SAW MAN DRAGGED INTO CAR SEAT

CENTRAL PARK CREEK IS SEARCHED BY OFFICERS

Mystery today still clouded the disappearance last Saturday midnight of Hubert Arp, 17-year-old Pampa youth, whose father, W. H. Arp, of S. Cuyler-st., expressed to authorities belief that his son had met with foul play.

Developments in the case today included the story of a South Side couple that they heard a shot, loud voices and then saw someone dragging a man into the back seat of a car about 1 a. m. Sunday.

The story, told to sheriff's deputies, gave no further clue. The couple said in their excitement they failed to get the license numbers of the automobile which had been seen near the spot where young Arp was last reported.

According to information obtained by police, the Arp boy last was seen about 1 a. m. Sunday on S. Cuyler-st. A companion said he left him there talking with two girls. One of the girls, questioned later, admitted they had been talking with the youth but said he left them to join another boy. No further trace has been found of him.

One report that he had gone to Hobbs, N. M., failed to reveal any trace of him after authorities made a check there.

Police have been unable to verify a report that the missing boy was seen at a south side pool hall as late as Monday night.

Sheriff Earl Talley, who joined in a search of the creek bottom in Central park last night, said he had been unable so far to find any motive that would lend support to the foul play theory.

As far as authorities have been able to determine, young Arp had no enemies. His father stated that he knew of no quarrels in which his son had been involved.

Mr. Arp, however, based his opinion that his son had met with some kind of accident or foul play on the fact that he wore only his working clothes when he left home Saturday evening and that he had told his father he would be back in a short time to change clothing.

The boy has never left home for more than 12 hours at a time, the father said, except on occasions when he took two short trips of which he advised his parent.

"He always wrote me as soon as he would get to his destination," the father said, "so that I would know he was all right."

The two youths who had been in the boy's company Saturday night joined a renewed search for him today. They went to the races at Panhandle, according to Judge James L. Todd, in the belief that he might be working there this week.

AMARILLO MEN URGE ROAD JOB BE SPEEDED UP

Jaycees Give Support To Efforts For Paving Road

Additional support of efforts to speed up work on paving the new Pampa-Borger highway was given last night when the Amarillo Junior chamber of commerce adopted a resolution favoring a movement to obtain state designation for the road.

The resolution was adopted at full attendance of the 24 directors of the organization. It reads as follows: "WHEREAS, there is a diagonal road existing between the cities of Pampa and Borger, Texas, which road is not at this time designated as a State Highway, and

"WHEREAS, said road services heavy traffic for both commercial and passenger service for said cities as well as serving as an important artery of transportation for the people of the Panhandle, and

"WHEREAS, the organization has been informed that civic bodies of the communities named above have requested the state highway department of this state to designate said road a state highway, "NOW THEREFORE, Be It Resolved that the Amarillo Junior chamber of commerce hereby requests the Highway Department of the State of Texas to approve and grant the applications in question to the end that such road be officially designated as a state highway and improved as such."

Henry Wilder, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Wilder, is leaving this week for North Carolina State college, where he will start his senior year in textile engineering.

WEALTHY MEN SEND $50,000 TO MAINE GOP

NEW DEALERS PROTEST SPENDING LARGE SUM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Loud shouts of victory from the anti-Talmadge camp in Georgia and a democratic-republican controversy over campaign funds sent into Maine added today to the political din.

Senator Richard B. Russell, Jr. saw a triumph for the new deal in his commanding lead over Governor Eugene Talmadge in the Georgia democratic senatorial nomination contest.

Latest returns showed Russell, Roosevelt support, had 161,822 votes against 84,231 for Talmadge, 100 of Roosevelt policies.

Under Georgia law candidates are elected by county unit votes, a system similar to the electoral college in presidential elections.

Returning, though incomplete, indicated 340 such votes for Russell as against 68 for Talmadge. Russell needed 206 unit votes to win.

The Maine campaign funds argument began yesterday as both major parties labored to make an impressive showing in next Monday's state election.

The democratic national committee announced a report of the Senate committee on campaign expenditures showed more than $50,000 had been contributed to the R-publican campaign fund in Maine by the du Pont, Rockefeller, Morgan, and other wealthy families.

John D. M. Hamilton, chairman of the republican national committee, said: "Frankly, it looks as if the new dealers were seeking an alibi in advance of the expected republican victory in Maine."

Declaring the report failed to show "the several thousand persons" who were able to give only a dollar or so, he said "any citizen has a right to contribute to a campaign as long as he complies with the law."

Borger Jaycees Lose to Elders

BORGER, Sept. 10.—Senior chamber of commerce members proved their supremacy over the Junior chamber of commerce as baseball players Tuesday evening in a benefit game at Huber park.

Headed by President Sol Morgenstein, the senior players defeated the juniors 6 to 5. A. M. Minton, Jaycee president, was captain of his team.

Proceeds went to a fund to purchase markers for street intersections here.

CAGNEY GETTING READY FOR ANOTHER BATTLE

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Sept. 10 (AP)—Red-haired, James Cagney is getting ready for another fight.

Victor in a legal knockdown-and-drag-out tussle with his former employers, Warner Brothers studios, Cagney is convinced he is on an unofficial "black list" with the major producers of filmland, he said today.

"And I'm going to do something about it," he said emphatically. "Can't say just now exactly what my plan of campaign will be—but I'm going to do plenty. And I'm going to have some important aid from within the industry."

Cagney based his "black list" theory on his assertion that nearly a dozen deals for pictures starring himself had been at the boiling point only to be doused with cold water, with scant explanation, at the last minute.

LONDON WILL SET OUT ON 15-SPEECH TOUR

TOPEKA, Kas., Sept. 10 (AP)—Speeding up his presidential campaign, Governor Alf M. Landon will set out tonight upon his second drive for votes in populous eastern states, climaxing a series of cross-country appearances with an address Saturday night in Portland, Me.

The republican nominee hurried work on his itinerary, as yet incomplete but already listing 15 talks in six states.

A revised schedule, announced last night, calls for four rear-platform appearances in Indiana, four in Connecticut, three in Massachusetts, one in New Hampshire and another in Maine, before closing the republican state campaign at Portland.

SENATOR NORRIS TO MAKE RACE FOR POST AGAIN

Democratic Support Will Be Given Aged Solon

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 10 (AP)—Senator George D. Norris, veteran Nebraska Republican independent, today became a candidate for reelection with the filing in the secretary of state's office of a petition bearing 40,504 signatures in his behalf.

The petition was filed by James E. Lawrence, Lincoln editor, as chairman of a bi-partisan Norris-for-Senator committee, only 1,000 signatures are needed.

Since Nebraska laws do not require Norris' acceptance of the petition, he automatically became a candidate. Although he is 75 years old and has expressed a desire to retire, his friends in Nebraska are confident he will make the race.

A nominal Republican throughout his career, he will go into the campaign with Democratic support, ranging up to President Roosevelt, who publicly endorsed the movement to re-elect Norris.

His opponents will be Robert G. Simmons of Lincoln, the Republican nominee, and Terry Carpenter of Scotts Bluff, the Democratic nominee. Both are former congressmen from Scotts Bluff.

Carpenter, a Townsend plan candidate, was repudiated by the Democratic state convention following the April 14 primary election and the convention urged Norris to run again.

Norris has been supporting the Democratic presidential nominees since 1928 and plans to campaign for re-election of Franklin D. Roosevelt this fall.

The petition signatures represented persons in every county of the state, every incorporated city and several unincorporated villages.

Lawrence said it was the largest petition ever filed on behalf of an individual candidate in Nebraska.

MORE THAN 200 ARE RESCUED FROM BOAT

BOSTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—The spectacular rescue of 159 pleasure-bent passengers and 53 crewmen whose excursion boat sank into fog-shrouded Boston harbor brought praise for cool seamanship today—and at the same time an investigation by the federal steamboat inspection service.

The steamer Romance, returning from a trip to Cape Cod, sank 20 minutes after a collision with the Manhattan bound liner New York, which tore a hole in her port side last night.

In those 20 minutes was enacted one of the most stirring dramas of this historic harbor.

A bridge of ladders was thrown from the liner New York to the Romance. Across it went a majority of the excursion boat's passengers. Other were saved by five lifeboats lowered by the New York.

STINNETT MAN FOUND DEAD; GUN NEAR BODY

BORGER, Sept. 10.—Winifred Johnston, 27, was found dead at his home a mile south of Stinnett Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, a bullet in his head and a small caliber rifle lying near the body.

The funeral was conducted in Amarillo yesterday.

Mr. Johnston was the son of the late Lythe Johnston, pioneer minister of the Panhandle. Survivors are the widow, two children, his mother, three sisters, a brother and two half-brothers.

ARMISTICE IS OBSERVED AT SAN SEBASTIAN

ASSAULT ON MADRID IS PLANNED BY GOVERNMENT

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Sept. 10 (AP)—Relentless fascist rebels, whose northern march has led them to the gates of San Sebastian, were reported turning their entire attention today to the projected assault on Madrid.

Insurgent commanders, who apparently agreed to an unofficial armistice in the advance on this resort city, were represented as believing submission of the major government posts in the coast was "as good as achieved."

San Sebastian was quiet for two reasons: The rebels drew up short in their march on the city and Basque nationalists took over municipal control with a strong hand. The Basques deported many anarchist soldiers who sought to destroy the resort rather than let it fall to the enemy.

The armistice, for which neither side would acknowledge responsibility, terminated temporarily a long siege featured by steady advances by rebels through surrounding territory and dispersion among government defenders opposing the fascist assaults. All firing on both sides ceased.

The key to the armistice apparently lay in a declaration by municipal Governor Ortega: "I disapprove thoroughly of the action of anarchists at Irun (which was sacked and burned during capture by the rebels). There will be no burning of San Sebastian while I am alive."

HOUSE OF DAVID CELEBRITIES, INCLUDING SCALING, WILL PLAY PAMPANS

NEGRO TEAMS TO PLAY HERE IN NEXT WEEK

LEE DANNEY TO BE ON MOUND FOR ROAD RUNNERS

Long John Tucker, Doc Talley, Andy Anderson—names known to baseball fans throughout the country—will be here Saturday night with the famous House of David baseball team which will play the Pampa-Danciger Road Runners at Road Runner park at 8:15 o'clock. It will be the last appearance of the team this year.

On Sept. 18 the Beards, with Sam Scalling, Pampa boy, in line-up, will sail for the Orient for a series of games in the Hawaiian islands, Japan and China. The team has been strengthened considerably since it appeared here in the spring.

Two new hurlers, Dacus, a left-hander, and Henry, a speedball right-hander, have been added to the hurling staff. Marlot, a hot corner artist of the highest order, has also been signed. He will take Andy Anderson's place, Anderson going to left field which necessitates sending Scalling to center. Franks has been recruited for the second base job to add both fielding and hitting power.

The rest of the team is the same as appeared here in the spring when the Road Runners won a thrilling game against the base hits and sensational plays. Lee Danney, who curbed the beards, will probably be back on the mound again Saturday night, although Carl Stewart may get the nod.

While here, the House of David boys will stage their famous pepper game. Sam Scalling has been instructed in the ways and means of doing tricks with a baseball and he will probably be one of the tricksters.

Next week will be "baseball week" in Pampa. The Road Runners will play four games against two of the greatest traveling baseball teams in the nation. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights the famous Kansas City Monarchs, negro champions of the southwest, will be here. Games time each night will be 8:15 o'clock with admission 25 cents for women and 40 cents for men.

The Negro National League All Stars, world champion negro team, will appear against the Road Runners at 8:15 o'clock on Thursday night and at 8 o'clock on Friday afternoon. Adult tickets will be 40 cents and may be secured in advance from Harold Miller, box 1662, Pampa, or by applying in person to him at Danciger Refineries, a mile east of the city on Browning avenue.

Tickets to the two games will also be available at the box office at Road Runner park on Saturday night, Tuesday night and on Wednesday night.

Booneville Salt Flats 'Need Rest'

BONNEVILLE SALT FLATS, Utah, Sept. 10 (AP)—The Booneville Salt Flats—mecca of the automobile racing fraternity—are breaking up. Said affable John Cobb of England after a record breaking one hour spin across the glistening expanse of salt in his under-slung Napier-Railton:

"The Flats need a five-year rest. They need to heal."

Cobb asserted growing popularity of the unique course in northwestern Utah had cost it much of its smoothness.

The Englishman went about prep-

Harvesters Will Scrimmage Strong McLean Grid Eleven

EMERY JEERS AT THOUGHT OF WINNING TITLE

ONLY TEXAN IN MATCH HAS INJURED FINGERS

GARDEN CITY, L. T., Sept. 10 (AP)—The second best golfer in the 1935 National Amateur championship, handsome, fair-haired Walter Emery of Oklahoma City, thinks he won't even be close to this year's championship starting Monday.

"I was just a flash in the pan," he announced today. "I just happened to have a good week last year. I've never hit the ball like that since."

The boy who played bulldog with Lawson Little in last year's final seemed more interested in the fate of Charlie Yates of Atlanta, Walker Cup teammate who arrived with a sprained ankle.

Another casualty is Jack Munger of Dallas, who cut two fingers in a friendly wrestling match. It is doubtful if he will be healed by Monday, when he is scheduled to play a first round match against Don Soccoli of Wethersfield, Conn. Ed White, another Walker cupper from Texas, has returned home and will not compete, according to Emery.

Like the Harvester coaches, Coach Bill Allen is having his worries. The scrimmage is expected to be beneficial to both lines.

Next week the Harvesters will bury themselves at Harvester field getting ready for the invasion of Central high school of Oklahoma City on the night of Sept. 18.

Strength of the Oklahomaans is unknown here. They have been working out for several weeks but no word of their power has filtered out. A lineup with weights and other statistics will be received here soon.

New Suits Are Solid Green and Form Fitting

Harvester prospects had their pictures taken yesterday afternoon by W. F. Fletcher, NEWS photographer. They boys were in their new uniforms, which are quiet but good looking.

The new suits are form fitting, of solid green color with large gold numbers on both front and back. New helmets are solid green with a gold forehead band. Sox of green, with gold stripes, were also ordered. New light weight football shoes complete the new outfits.

Coaches put their charges through a light workout yesterday after the pictures were taken. Running plays, passing and punting, and light blocking, rounded out the program.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock the Harvesters will scrimmage the McLean Tigers on Tiger field. The team will leave here about 2 o'clock by bus.

McLean has another strong team this year. Several lettermen returned and a group of eager youngsters have come up from the junior team of last year. A youngster by the name of Bogan has succeeded "Hooky" Stratton as the triple threat man. The youngster can pass, punt and carry the ball like a veteran already.

NAVY VISIONS ARMY DEFEAT AS SURE FACT

COACH WOULD RESIGN IF HE BELIEVED OTHERWISE

By DILLON GRAHAM Associated Press Sports Writer ANNAPOLIS, Md., Sept. 10 (AP)—To a navy man's way of thinking, the Army gridders got away with murder last fall and the sailors are just itching for an opportunity to get at the Kaydets and "rub it in."

Here in Crabtown By-The-Bay they're working over perhaps the stiffest schedule in navy-history. But they wager the Army game won't go down in the deficit column.

"If I didn't think we could beat the Army, I'd step down and let someone else do the job," says Lieutenant Tom Hamilton, the 30-year old head coach.

Army's artillery shelled Navy so quickly last fall the Cadets had the game in the bag before the sailors could get up a sweat. Navy must sell its tackles William and Mary, Davidson and Virginia, then bang into Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Notre Dame, Harvard and Army.

There isn't a real great running back-like Buzz Boies of 1934—on the Navy team. They've got a bunch of pretty good boys, all about on a par, and Hamilton plans to switch his ball carriers frequently.

Sneed Schmidt likely is the most dangerous of the sailor runners. He was last year's star. Bob Antrim, Bill Ingram, Frank Case and Fay Willis are other regulars. The line shapes up well except at center and guard.

There was a lot of good-natured ribbing in the all-star game. "Is this thing on the level?" one guy hollered as the Giants scored a touchdown. Two Joe Di Maggio went into the game, Dick Heekin, Ohio State back, was the unanimous choice of the pippin. "The all-star coaches gave their lads a powerful pep talk, but all Steve Owens had to do was give a few joyful rings on the Giant cash register.

The Joe Louis-Al Ettore fight sale started only last Thursday, but there is 50,000 in the strong box.

EXPERTS FEAR JACOBS MIGHT BE DEFEATED

KATHERINE STAMMERS LOOMS OMINOUSLY AS CHALLENGER

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 10 (AP)—Any number of experts attending the combined U. S. men's and women's tennis championships were seriously reckoning today with the prospect of both titles being carried abroad to England by Fred Perry and pretty Katherine Stammers.

The Brits loomed ominously over the new American survivors, Miss Stammers, if form holds true, will meet defending titleholder Helen Hull Jacobs in the semi-finals in what should amount to the outstanding match of the women's championship.

Before this meeting can take place, Miss Jacobs today must engage Gussie Raengener, promising new star in the tennis firmament from San Francisco.

Miss Stammers firmly planted herself in the thick of the fight by her smashing three-set conquest of the formidable Carolyn Babcock of Los Angeles yesterday.

In the other women's quarter-final match today the youthful Dorothy May Sutton Bundy engages Helen Pedersen of Stamford, Conn.

The remainder of today's program was filled with men's quarter-final meetings between Don Budge and John McDiarmid, and Gregory Mankin and Frankie Parker.

4TH PLACE IN TEXAS LEAGUE IS UNDECIDED

DALLAS, HOUSTON AND TULSA CLINCH BERTHS

(By The Associated Press)
TODAY'S GAMES
Dallas at Oklahoma City (night).
Fort Worth at Tulsa (night).
Galveston at Beaumont (day).
Houston at San Antonio (night).

Dallas, Houston and Tulsa were definitely "in" today in the race for berths in the Texas league play-off and Oklahoma City needed only one victory in five remaining games to clinch the fourth place.

Only the Fort Worth Cats of the second division clubs maintained a mathematical chance to reach the play-off and that chance virtually was in the realm of miracles. They would have to win five in a row and the Oklahoma City Indians lose five straight to gain a fourth-place tie.

The Tulsa Oilers clinched their berth last night by defeating the Cats, 5 to 0. Max Thomas scattered seven singles while his mates rapped Fred Johnson for 14 hits and all of their runs in seven innings.

The Houston Buffs blasted San Antonio yesterday, hoping to clinch the berth in the second game of a double-header. The Missions won the first tilt 8 to 3.

Slick Coffman hurled shut-out ball as the Beaumont Exporters walloped the Galveston Bucs 13 to 0 in the curtain raiser of a twin bill. Joe Gibbs hurled the Bucs to a 2 to 1 victory in the afterpiece.

Ralph Buxton limited the Dallas Steers to two hits as the Oklahoma City Indians trounced the league leaders 10 to 0. The Steers went hitless until the eighth.

Yanks Win American League Title; Cardinals Wallop Bees

Giants Split Twin Bill to Hold Own

BY SID FEDER. Associated Press Sports Writer.
Now that the Yankees have the American league pennant sewed up tight in their collective hip pocket, all that remains is for the Giants and Cardinals to fight it out for the National league flag and the chance to take on the homicide squad in the world's series.

But whether it's Bill Terry's league-leading Terriers or Frankie Frisch's Gas House Gang, which is 4½ games behind today, they can expect little consideration from the Yankees, who clinched the flag yesterday at one of the earliest dates in major league history and with one of the biggest leads.

No sooner had they knocked off the Indians in both ends of a twin bill, 11-3 and 12-9 than Manager Joe McCarthy told his "Murderers' Row" to "get ready to take the world series in four straight games."

The Yanks piled up the tremendous lead of 18 games over the second-place White Sox when they finally put the title on ice. The only thing in the books to beat that in the American league is the 19-game pace Babe Ruth and his Yankee company set in 1927 in taking the flag. This year's crew still has 16 games to go to catch that mark.

The clinching process of '36 was ably accomplished by Monte Pearson's eight-hit pitching in the first game, and then, Lou Gehrig set the pace in the nightcap by belting out homer number 44 (with the bases loaded) and drove in seven runs.

The Cardinals shaved a half-game off the Cincinnati National league lead by outslugging the Boston Bees 3-1 in 15 innings, while the Giants got no better than an even break in their double bill with the Cincinnati Reds, winning the opener 4-2 and dropping the nightcap 3-2.

The Cubs began kissing their last chance to catch up good bye, getting only a split in a twin bill with the Phillies, winning the opener 10-3 and then losing 5-4 in 12 innings.

The Dodgers finished on top of the Pirates 9-7.

The White Sox retained second place in the American league as Vernon Kennedy chalked up his twentieth win of the season with a 3-2, 13-inning decision over the Red Sox. The Senators took over third place by firing four homers at the Tigers for a 14-11 win.

BRUNDAGE PLAYED FOR PLAN TO SHIFT AAU CONVENTION

NEW YORK, Sept. 10 (AP)—When Avery Brundage returns home late this month, he'll step right out of the Olympic frying pan in the Amateur Athletic Union fire.

The American Olympic committee and A. A. U. head, criticized for his handling of the Olympic athletes, will find a feud brewing over the location of the national convention.

Houston was awarded the 1936 convention at the last meeting. Now a mail vote is being taken among the A. A. U. governors on the administration proposal to shift the meeting to Chicago. The vote will close October 12.

Executive Secretary Daniel J. Ferris said "the idea is to save money and time for most of the delegates."

Jack Rafferty of Houston, former first vice president of the A. A. U., and Jeremiah T. Mahoney of New York, president last year, are protesting the shift. Both went out of office last winter after losing a bitter fight within the organization to boycott the Olympics.

"Rather than come to Texas where on neutral grounds he (Brundage) would be accessible to the avalanche of criticism well deserved for his mismanagement of the Olympics games, Brundage, aided by his ward heelsers, now seeks the protection of Chicago," Rafferty charged. Mahoney voiced much of the same sentiments.

SAN DIEGO SHOW ENDS
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 10 (AP)—San Diego's biggest show, attended by 7,220,000 persons, became history today. Last midnight, a bugler sounding taps in the palace of fine arts, rang down the curtain on the 1935-36 California Pacific international exposition. The exposition's farewell party last night was attended by 62,000.

PAMPA SAFETY LANE TESTS

Every autoist should take advantage of the Texas Highway Patrol safety lanes tests being conducted in Pampa today and tomorrow.

There is no charge. Your car will be tested for safety—given a thorough check with no cost to you. It is a splendid opportunity to cooperate with the state's campaign to make the highways safe, cut down on accidents, and above all, protect your own life.

Here in America we find public officials bending every effort to insure traffic safety. Perhaps we should also adopt a few of the practices now being used abroad.

In a European country, the cars of motorists convicted of flagrant violation of traffic laws are painted with an emblem, as a warning to other drivers. It is said that this practice, newly started, has caused an appreciable decline in dangerous driving, as motorists naturally want to avoid the embarrassment and publicity the emblem gives them.

A great many thousand American motorists should have their cars so branded.

The worst class of offenders consists of those who push the throttle to the floor-board as soon as they get out of sight of a traffic officer. Excessive speed—and there are times when 15 miles per hour is excessive—is responsible for more deaths than any other driving violation. Defective brakes, steering gear and poor lights add to the list.

Passing on hills and curves and "meandering" through traffic are also potent causes of death, injury and destruction. On a myriad tragic occasions, a driver has tried to save a needless minute—at the cost of a life.

Driving on the wrong side of the road, jumping traffic lights, passing at intersections—are practices dear to the heart of the Dark Angel. They help keep our morgues and hospitals full to capacity.

Yes, it might be a good idea to adopt the branding practice in this country. A suitable emblem would be a skull and cross-bones.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

NEW YORK—Nothing quite like the propaganda effort in this campaign has ever been seen before. All the old stunts for influencing public opinion are being used, plus a very large number of new wrinkles, some of them bizarre.

High-pressure advertising and sales technique is being plugged hard at national Republican headquarters in Chicago. The technique is based on the fact that most voters don't and can't understand the issues or comprehend just what the candidate is talking about.

Democrats are sticking to more conservative and traditional methods under Charlie Michelson, although some big fellows in the administration are frankly worried as to the effects of the opposition's huge barrage of radio, screen, newspaper, billboard, grocery store, literature, and word-of-mouth propaganda.

Eight motor trucks left Chicago the other day on a Republican motor tour through Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Iowa and South Dakota. The Democrats will have sound trucks, carrying speakers and some music.

Hill Blackett, an advertising master mind for the special stunts. He heads a very large staff of advertising, radio, theatrical, and other radio specialists.

The staff prepares free vaudeville skits studded with anti-New Deal wisecracks for any actor who will take them, free anti-New Deal sermons for clergymen, and things like that.

The Republicans are said to be spending at least half a million dollars on billboards—"Vote for Landon and Land a Job."

In New York citizens find themselves being approached by "beggars" who ask for a dime and insist on telling how New Deal policies made them what they are today. Democrats insist these men are in Republican pay and that so are many barbers, hairdressers, and bartenders hired to disseminate anti-New Deal monologs in their contacts with the public.

The Republican "blackboard trick" has annoyed Democrats. That's the one where the national committee provides blackboards for butchers which say prices aren't high, but taxes are.

Then there's the device of sending women around from house to house with two market baskets, purporting to show city housewives how much less they can buy for a dollar now than before the New Deal. Democrats are trying to tell the farmers all about this.

The official Democratic propaganda machine at New York headquarters has been slower in getting organized. Most of the things it's doing are also being duplicated by the G. O. P.

Smaller newspapers through the country, for instance, receive clipshets, cartoon service with mats, and Charlie Michelson's weekly letter. Pamphlets are distributed to voters through state headquarters and county chairmen and sometimes direct through precinct workers.

A million copies of the party platform will be distributed and there probably will be a couple of dozen propaganda pamphlets eventually, each of which will have a circulation of from 500,000 to 750,000. Michelson has been working on an advertising program, but he won't try to match the Republican billboards. He thinks billboards are too expensive and not very effective.

France, seeking to cement its ties with Poland, is trying to think of something concrete to offer.

There was just one thing lacking at that well-attended Kentucky hanging—an orchestra for an overture of swing music.

Two alleged robbers, caught trying to take a bath in someone else's house at Tyler, Tex., are reported in jail now, all washed up.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — James Johnston, the Madison Square Garden boxing impresario, seldom forgets a name or a face, but there was one occasion when he was completely stumped.

Aware of Johnston's reputation, a flashy dressed gabbro stepped up and began to wring his hand vigorously. "Fancy seeing you here?" he bellowed, slapping the incredulous Jimmy on the shoulder. "How's the family? You're looking great. It's been 10 years, hasn't it?"

Johnston searched his mind frantically but could recall no such pugily as this. But he didn't let on. He pumped the other guy's hand just as enthusiastically, made bright, bawdy observations, and declared himself delighted on encountering an old friend in this unexpected fashion.

"Who was that fellow?" he asked. "Why, don't you know, Jimmy? That was, Foger Joe." The police are looking for him everywhere.

One of the British correspondents who came over at the time of the Democratic convention was idling in his hotel when a giant political rally got under way. A parade was snaking through the streets and the band blared forth with "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

"I say," Britished the Britisher, "that IS sporting of you fellows—playing 'God Save the King.'" He glared at the window and fixed attention until the last strains of the anthem were lost in the shouting.

There was a foggy cruise down the bay the other morning to meet the Conte de Savoia, and the customs cutter, as usual, was crammed to her beirly with reporters and officials.

Suddenly a ferry cut across the cutter's bow and the captain indignantly yanked the siren cord. Instantly there came an ear-splitting blast.

"Ah," observed one of the line of officials gravely, "that reminds me, I must write to my wife."

Gene Sarazen, the golfer, tells this one on himself:

On one of his cruises, he stopped off on a South Sea island and was on his way for an 18-hole workout alive with the swank island club-caddy, a native who spoke excellent English, inquired his name.

"Don't you know?" demanded Sarazen, feigning astonishment. "My Gene Sarazen, the most famous golfer in the world."

"Never heard of you," confessed the caddy. "The only American golfer we know about is Bobby Jones."

Which leaves just room enough to explain the pugilistic tendencies of Cliff Melton, the young pitcher purchased from Baltimore by the Giants recently. Last spring he gained a trial with the Yanks and ran into some severe riding at the hands of the Chicago Cubs. It upset his poise and he drifted back into the minors.

Jack Ogden, boss man in hand of the Orioles, took him in hand. "Get your moxie up," he growled. "I'll give you 100 times the time you smack a guy in the nose."

Now Cliff has hung up a number of punches on opposing ball players—and each time Ogden has paid.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Arteriosclerosis is a condition of widespread importance, for it contributes to many varieties of ill health, and is directly or indirectly responsible for many deaths.

By arteriosclerosis is meant certain abnormal changes in the structure of the arteries which alter their elasticity and reduce their capacity to conduct the blood stream. Because of this pathologic change, the nutrition of the parts to which these arteries convey blood is interfered with. Where the organ affected is vital, as for example the brain, the heart or the kidneys, the consequent damage may be far-reaching.

We do not know whether arteriosclerosis is the inevitable consequence of the wear and tear of life, or whether it is an avoidable and remediable change.

At present we know of no remedy for arteriosclerosis. We are doubtful concerning what measures to take to prevent its development. Certain conditions are, however, known to contribute to the development of arteriosclerosis. These are syphilis, rheumatic heart disease, diabetes and obesity. To these may also be added the less-defined conditions of bad nutrition and overwork.

Of conjectures on the causes of arteriosclerosis there are many. For example, it is maintained by some that high blood pressure will cause arteriosclerosis. On the other hand, many arteriosclerotics have normal or low blood pressure. Taxing work, both of a mental and physical character, has been thought to contribute to the development of arteriosclerosis. The relationship between obesity and arteriosclerosis has long been known, but the mechanism of this relationship is not as yet defined. Diabetes and arteriosclerosis are frequently associated, and it is usually believed that diabetes hastens arterial change.

Diet has long been considered of paramount importance in both the treatment and prevention of arteriosclerosis, but here again specific knowledge on what dietetic factors are effective in prevention treatment is lacking. The idea that the excessive consumption of meat and proteins in general contributes to the development of arteriosclerosis does not withstand critical scrutiny.

Sir James Mackenzie said: "I would rather see my patients pass through the declining years in comfort, even though their chief pleasures were those of the table, than having their lives made tedious and uninteresting through depriving them of that which gives them pleasure, in the hope of adding a few months to their existence."

ageable at the mere suggestion of hospitalization.

The child would not be afraid if it were not for his parents' fears. But all his life he has heard hospitals spoken of with the bated breath of horror, until he envisions them as places of punishment, little better than prisons.

In the crowded conditions under which so many people live, sickness in the home is difficult, sometimes impossible, to handle efficiently. When there is any question of surgical treatment, even a wealthy home is unable to furnish the appliances and conveniences or the sanitary conditions of a hospital.

The doctors can work with more assurance of success and less physical and nervous wear and tear in a place equipped and geared for sickness. Where, furthermore, a

So Much for Love

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

Helena Derrick, youthful head of the women's sportswear department at Helvig's store, accepts an invitation from one of her customers, Sandra Leigh, to join a week-end party at Crest Mountain Lodge.

Helena goes. Also a member of the party is handsome Peter Henderson from a nearby town. It is a case of love at first sight between Helena and Peter. Almost immediately he asks her to marry him. Helena hesitates, finally agrees.

Peter and Helena confide in Sandra and it is decided that the marriage shall take place at the Lodge.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER III.

It was Sandra Leigh herself who went for the minister, using the broken down roustabout car owned by the caretaker of the lodge. She was to return with him well before noon, and in the meantime Crest Mountain Lodge was a beehive of activity. Sandra's friends delightedly decorated the big main room of the lodge with fir boughs, and strips of colored paper which the lodgekeeper's wife resuscitated.

"These are from a New Year's party that was held here once," she told them. "And when it was over, I saved all the decorations. I had a feeling they might come in useful some time. And, sure enough, they have." She sighed romantically. "I declare, I never thought the place would see a wedding—although I'll confess I've seen a heap of love affairs begin here that I bet turned into weddings before very long."

More excited than any were Peter Henderson and Helena. For the most part they kept close to their respective rooms, trembling against the time when Sandra would return with the minister. Several times Helena, stricken by sudden panic, debated whether to escape to the station. Suppose it was all a horrible mistake? here were a hundred things that could happen. She might discover that Peter was im-provident and given to drink; for Helena had heard that these evils often went with charm. And she might learn—too late—that Peter was one of those men who found all women attractive, and was in turn sought by them. Here came back to Helena a casual remark of Sandra Leigh's: "No woman can resist that charm of his. . . ." What had she meant by that? Perhaps it was a calculated statement, a remark designed to warn a friend, to make her think.

But if Sandra had known of any reason I shouldn't marry Peter she'd have told me," Helena reminded herself stoutly.

As the morning wore on, she began to dress herself for the wedding. Sandra had told her she might have simple sportswear for the ceremony, and Helena had been mildly amused at the suggestion. In her week-end bag she had packed only three outfits: one for swimming, one for a hiking through the woods, and a sports outfit adaptable to whatever informal or night time take place. But she had never dreamed that any "informal affair" might turn out to be her own wedding!

Just as she completed dressing she heard Sandra's familiar voice on the veranda. A minister—but I found a justice of the peace, and he insists he can marry people legally!"

A moment later came Sandra's excited rap on Helena's door. At the latter's invitation she burst in. "You've never expected to be married, perfectly ghastly time! I'm finding someone who could really marry you and Peter!"

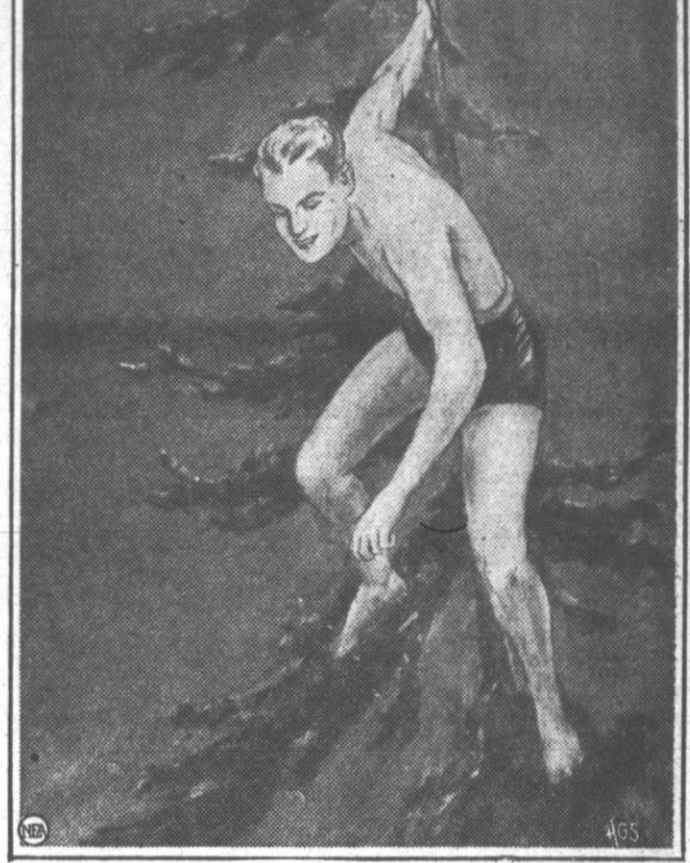

Helena laughed shakily. "Maybe that's a bad omen."

"Nonsense! I didn't mean that, you goose. But this is a wild country. They don't expect marriages, you know. Though I did find a justice of the peace. He can't see very well, and he has whiskers, but I'm sure you'll adore him. Said he wouldn't have anything to do with what he called a 'gin wedding'."

When Helena accompanied Sandra to the giant living room with its roaring fire she discovered that the Leigh girl was right. Peter had taken a drink or two, although he did not show it. Helena would never have realized it had she not detected the sweetish odor of liquor. She didn't blame him. The fact was that she rather envied the false assurance the alcohol had given Peter. How did a man feel when he was about to agree, before God and the world, to take unto himself a woman and support her for the rest of their natural lives?

She would never, as long as she lived, forget the next few moments in that tall-ceilinged room with its heven fir beams. Always she would remember the smiling faces of Sandra's friends—Ruth Sutter and her husband, Fain . . . Jack Gose and Bernard Reiter and the rest. Lora Fanchon . . . Blair Lowell who had come with Sandra—and the pleased expressions of the caretaker and his wife.

It seemed odd that a ceremony which was to bind two people for life should consume so little time. When it was over she stood as if stunned, and then suddenly Peter took her in his arms and kissed her full upon the lips. She heard the delighted squeals—they were really that, she remembered afterward—of the wedding party. Fain Sutter, and Jack Gose and the rest insisted upon kissing the bride, despite the protests of Peter; and at length she found herself in a corner of the big

Almost before they realized that Peter had climbed the tree, he dived from its topmost branch.

"No one considered, then, just what was happening—not even Helena. More with pride than with fear, she watched Peter climb recklessly, swiftly, to the topmost branch of the tall fir which stood by the shore of the lake. Almost before she had realized it, he dived! She saw his body hurtling, saw it strike the water and disappear beneath the surface.

There was cheering laughter from the crowd. Then silence. Silence during which the surface of the lake smoothed itself. Suddenly Helena knew that something had happened to Peter. She knew it even before Fain Sutter said in a queer voice, "There might be submerged stumps at the bottom . . ."

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Unreal parade: Sara Haden, the young "old meanie" of many films, has never been born—officially. Arriving in the world at Center Point, a small town 60 miles from San Antonio, Tex., some weeks sooner than she was expected, Miss Haden was not registered at the county court house. Her mother does not remember whether Sara was born November 17, 18, 27 or 28—and her father and the physician who presided at her birth are dead.

The only time she has had difficulty in proving she was born, however, was 10 years ago when she wanted a passport to London to appear with Lucille LaVerne in "Sun Up." By dint of much telegraphing and checking, she won special dispensation to travel. But it's constantly embarrassing in this way: a student of astrology, she can read her friends' horoscopes but never her own because she doesn't know

TEXAS MOHAIR CROP TOTALS FOUR MILLION

Prosperity comes to herd owners of hill country.

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 10 (AP)—Three million angora goats, sheared to the skin of nearly $4,000,000 worth of mohair, were wagging their beards on the hills of southwest Texas today, doubtless hoping there will not be an early winter.

Their owners are banking the proceeds. They are not worrying about the damage which could be wrought to their nearly-naked herds should there be unseasonably severe cold because maximum temperatures in Texas are still in the nineties.

All but about 2,000,000 of the annual 7,000,000 pound fall clip has been sold at a price generally regarded in the sheep and goat country as excellent, continuing angora herd owners in their position.

That day 300 extras were working on the lot in three films. By the end of the lunch hour all the rabbit's feet were gone. The proprietor, trusting Hollywood superstition, immediately ordered ten new cards. And he'll probably sell them, too.

HITLER AGAIN SPREADS FURY OVER RUSSIA

SPADE BATTALIONS OF GERMANY SWEAR HAPPINESS

BY WADE WERNER, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

NURNBERG, Germany, Sept. 10 (AP)—Armed with shiny spades, 43,000 bronzed and muscular members of Nazi Germany's labor corps pledged lasting allegiance to Adolf Hitler today as "happy, healthy, self-confident soldiers of work."

A smiling fuhrer, pleased by vigorous Nazi convention reception of his anti-Bolshevist crusade, heard the solemn promise to "follow you wherever you lead."

Presenting the picked battalions, Major General Konstantin Hierl, Nazi commissioner for compulsory labor service, told the chancellor: "You know mein fuhrer, that your labor men are no dissatisfied slaves, but happy, healthy and self-confident soldiers of work, who have proudly and gladly responded to the call of duty."

Hitler, a lone and striking figure, stood high above the crowd on the speaker's rostrum.

"Good morning, comrades of labor," he greeted them.

"Good morning, fuhrer," the 50,000 labor corps members responded.

Throughout the nation similar spade battalions assembled on their drill grounds. Commands given at Nurnberg were transmitted to them by radio and they duplicated maneuvers before the party of high Nazi officials which accompanied Hitler to the review.

Hitler's warning against Soviet influences brought the possibility of international complications as delegates convened for third day sessions of the annual Nazi party convention.

Unofficial reports, which could not be confirmed, spread through the party delegations that Moscow might recall its ambassador to Berlin as a result of the scathing attack on the Soviet pronounced by the German chancellor.

He bluntly condemned 98 per cent of the leadership of Soviet Russia as "Jewish parasites" and blamed Spain's civil war on the influence of Spanish Jews.

MOSCOW, Sept. 10 (AP)—Official

Soviet sources declared "we have no plans so far to recall our ambassador to Berlin," warned Germany in veiled fashion today it must not go too far in anti-Bolshevist polemics.

These sources let it be known Moscow was watching the Nazi party convention at Nurnberg closely in the belief Adolf Hitler was preparing to "spring another surprise" on Europe.

Editorial ridicule of Nazi declarations rumbled in the Soviet press in the wake of caustic criticism of Bolshevism and Jews by German Chancellor Hierl at Nurnberg.

HANER AND MUNDY TO PLAY FOR RICE OWLS

Bill Haner and Buck Mundy, two former Hatfield gridiron gladiators, plan to leave tomorrow for Rice Institute at Houston where they will enroll for the coming term. Both plan to try out for the freshman team.

Max Brown, another Pampan, will leave at the same time for University of Texas at Austin where he will be in his junior year. Max will play golf again this year.

The three boys spent the summer working for the Humble Pipelines department.

FAMED ECONOMIST HITS HIGH COURT DECISIONS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 (AP)—Stuart Chase, economist, said today that Supreme Court decisions are hampering national and regional planning to conserve natural resources.

"Planning is not a simple matter of Washington versus the states," he told the World Power conference in a paper. "The states, or parts of them, fall into regions. The most sensible definition of a region from the resource point of view is usually the basin of a great river."

"Arguing for broader planning, Chase said 'river regions cannot be planned for navigation alone, or for flood control alone, to any permanent advantage.'"

COMMANDER OF ALCAZAR WILL NOT SURRENDER

Fascist Planes Bomb Toledo; Eight Killed

BY JAMES C. OLDFIELD. (Copyright, 1936, By The Associated Press.)
TOLEDO, Spain, Sept. 10 (AP)—With supreme courage and icy calm, Col. Jose Mascarran, commander of voluntarily imprisoned rebels in the besieged Alcazar, refused a government demand to surrender today.

"With Gen. Emilio Mola (rebel leader) at the gates of Madrid, you will be the one to surrender," Mascarran told a blind-folded Socialist officer who walked into the rebel camp to present the ultimatum.

With the curt phrase: "Whatever befalls me and my men shall befall us all," Mascarran dismissed a further request to release from the Alcazar the hundreds of women and children who have camped inside the shattered walls of the fortress for the last 51 days.

As an after-thought, Col. Mascarran added: "You can send us a priest in case we need last sacraments."
Major Juan Rojo, staff officer of the government forces, braved the danger of possible death inside the Alcazar, where approximately 1,500 rebels are living, to present the ultimatum.

Rojo was led inside. Knowing that many of his former schoolmates were among the rebels, he called them by name. None answered. Mascarran eventually introduced himself and the parties began.

The talk over, fascist guards led Rojo back to the gate, rebel buglers gave the signal, and the major was released.

Once the government officer was out of range, Socialist militiamen began a deadly rain of hand grenades and dynamite into the fortress from nearby positions.

Artillery took up the fire and for three hours the Alcazar was shaken by explosions. Then the bombardment was halted for lunch and a siesta.

Suddenly three rebel bombing planes appeared over Toledo. The fascists fliers dropped eight bombs which killed four persons and injured 30 more. The air raid continued outside the city in the western section.

Screaming women and children rushed for shelter under a small bridge over a dried up stream. Militiamen returned the fire and I was forced to take cover along the roadside.

With sporadic shooting on all sides, I was able to reach the city hall as four houses in the neighborhood were destroyed by the rebel bombs.

CONTINENTAL IS SUED FOR $2,400 DAMAGES

Damages, fixed at $2,400, were sought in a lawsuit filed in district court today against the Continental Oil Co. by Charles Ellis, of Pampa. Ellis, in his petition, sets forth that last May he entered into a rental contract with the defendant for a gasoline filling station and equipment in Pampa, agreeing to rent at the rate of one-cent a gallon for gasoline delivered between April 22, 1936, and April 21, 1937. After operating the station for two months, he alleges, the plaintiff was ejected from the premises by the defendant. It is claimed in the petition that the plaintiff would have netted $240 a month in the station had he not been deprived of the premises. Inasmuch as the rental contract still had ten months to go before expiration, Ellis asks damages of $2,400 from the defendant because of the broken agreement.

torists became indignant when asked to drive their cars through the lanes. Captain M. L. Berry, in charge of tests, urges Pampans to cooperate by voluntarily having their cars checked. "Those drivers just didn't stop to think that it is for their own good that these tests are made," Captain Berry remarked. "If they had stopped to think that faulty brakes might cause them to have a serious accident and that they might be injured or might hurt some innocent person, they would not have objected. We are well pleased with the reception in Pampa. Everyone is cooperating wonderfully and I am sure they will continue to do so." With Captain Berry, whose headquarters is in Amarillo, are Sgt. George Schauer of Austin, state safety director, and Patrolmen E. C. White, Hammett Vance, J. L. Pingree, Weldon Boywell, Boyce Long and O. K. Huddleston, all from the local district. City Patrolmen Bob Irvin, City Officer W. C. Dillman and Special Officers I. S. Jamesson, Travis Lively, Jr., W. W. Cecil, A. J. Hindman, C. C. Lear and Bill Dinsmore are assisting.

has been at work on an unemployment insurance bill. Unless a jobless insurance law should be in effect by January 1, Texas employers would lose the federal payroll tax which they must pay in January. The governor said he was considering calling a statewide conference within the next month to discuss means of reducing farm tenantry in Texas. "I understand about 50 per cent of the land in most of the best farming sections is cultivated by tenants and the percentage is as high as 70 per cent in some of the blacklands," Alfred said. He said he conferred on the problem in Dallas yesterday with D. P. Trent, regional director of the rural resettlement administration. "The governor of Arkansas," Alfred said, "has announced he would hold a regional conference on farm tenantry this fall. I want to be in position to tell him what we can do in Texas. Certainly something should be done to raise the percentage of farm owners." While the governor did not commit himself at this time, it was expected the subject of enabling legislation to make other benefits of the federal social security act available to Texans also would be submitted. "The only subject definitely on my mind at this time," Alfred said, "is the financing of old age pensions. There may be others. I don't know right now."

ment but said the only course open peacefully to Germany is through negotiations with the mandate powers, principally France and Great Britain. NURNBERG, Germany, Sept. 10 (AP)—Nazi Germany's little master of propaganda attacked Bolshevism, Jews and the Soviet Russian government itself in stinging phrases today—with the polished, flashing spades of Germany's "soldiers of work" as a brilliant setting. Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels told assembled Nazis, in ten thousand victorious words that Russia was a "dictatorship of Jews," not of the proletariat; declared Bolshevism, "this infernal pest," must be "rooted out" and pictured Adolf Hitler as a "fearless knight" fighting world revolution. Organized by Young Democrats, the rally was in charge of Haywood Robbins, Charlotte attorney, who had invited party leaders and their friends within several hundred miles to gather in the "green pastures" and "make the solid south more solid for Franklin Roosevelt."

REBELS DENY PLANE ATTACKED DESTROYER

SPANISH REBEL HEADQUARTERS, BURGOS, Sept. 10 (AP)—The insurgent Spanish government junta, following an investigation, announced today a rebel plane was not responsible for the recent attempted bombing of the United States destroyer, Kane. "The Madrid government had formally disavowed responsibility for the attempted bombing, which occurred off the Spanish west coast on Aug. 30. Only this week, the rebel commander-in-chief, Gen. Francisco Franco, informed American diplomatic authorities it was barely possible a rebel plane had mistaken the Kane for a Spanish government ship." Today's announcement said the investigation disclosed no rebel plane was in the vicinity of the Kane at the time of the incident. Rebel aviators, the junta declared, are under strict orders from the high command "to respect all foreign flags and especially, as in this case, when the colors flown belong to a state which behaves in friendly and loyal manner toward the nationalist (rebel) movement."

ROOSEVELT THRILLED BY SMOKY MOUNTAINS

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 10 (AP)—Thrilled by the wonders of Great Smoky Mountain National park, President Roosevelt enjoyed a few hours of leisure in this resort city today, before leaving for Charlotte to address a southern state rally. He kept to his room at the Grove Park inn late last night dictating the only formal address he will make on his current dip into the south. "The President timed his departure so as to arrive in Charlotte shortly before 4 p. m. (CST) when he was scheduled to take the platform at the new WPA-built municipal stadium and talk to governors, senators and other citizens of half a dozen southern commonwealths. Organized by Young Democrats, the rally was in charge of Haywood Robbins, Charlotte attorney, who had invited party leaders and their friends within several hundred miles to gather in the "green pastures" and "make the solid south more solid for Franklin Roosevelt."

ALASKAN POLITICIANS

Alaskan politicians are winding up their campaign in preparation for the voting which will take place this month so that returns from distant precincts can be tabulated in time for reconvening of congress next January! Chief office being contended for is that of delegate to congress, now held by a Democrat facing stiff opposition from his Republican opponent. "Mules, boats, automobiles, trains planes all have been used by candidates to carry their message to the people of the arctic circle, including the Eskimos who welcome visiting politicians to their villages. The United States waits breathlessly for the result of the major fight. What will the Alaskans say, indirectly, of the New Deal spending policy? What will they say about Republican promises to restore the American way of living? Probably nothing. Major campaign question is the proposed abolition of fish traps, favored by the present delegate to congress. Perhaps the Alaskans have hit upon the real issue.
