HOME TOWN TALK

By Beddy

AN organization of the city which is improving rapidly and showing much interest in its work is the band. Members, in increasing numbers, are practicing twice weekly, Monday and Thursday evenings at the district courtroom.

Some method of aiding the band should be devised. Uniforms should be provided, and other things that are really needed. Big Spring people who attended the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Abilene commented that a number of smaller towns were represented by bands. There are a number of very accomplished musicians here.

We do not, however, concur in criticism of the Chamber of Commerce in connection with the band. Goodness knows that organization already is making a depleted budget fund stretch as far as it possibly can.

If everything of merit in the city were cared for as it should be the budget would have to be nearer $30,000 than $15,000, which it is not.

THE mail brings a questionnaire from the Gainesville, Texas, Daily Register. Gainesville, like Big Spring, needs a municipal auditorium. The Register is gathering information from cities having them. However, the two-cent stamp was wasted on its letter to The Herald. The first question is all we had to answer. It is: Does your city have a municipally owned auditorium?

Other questions are as to the seating capacity, cost of construction, equipment, how financed, how long it has been in use, where it is located with reference to the business section, what other auxiliary rooms are included in the building, the principal uses to which it is put.

But, there are some questions we can answer. They are: Does your city have any movement on foot for a municipal auditorium, and if so, what action has been taken. What other auditoriums have your city that are used for public purposes and their seating capacities? Has your city ever undertaken a campaign for a municipal auditorium and if so, what were the results?

Church Opens Revival Here

A large and interested group of people greeted Evangelist S. A. Ribble, at the Church of Christ, 14th and Main streets, last night. Paul's Determination to Know Christ was the subject, the text being found in 1st Corinthians 2:2. The speaker showed that Paul could have entertained his audiences with scientific lectures, or could have charmed them with the stories of the heroes of old, but he chose not to do so.

He determined to know nothing but Christ. Not that he was unable to tell them of other things, but for their Christian teaching and training he purposed to preach about the one character and the one thing in that character that would help them to higher planes of usefulness," said Mr. Ribble. "Not only did he tell about the life of Christ, but contrary to most teachers, he enlarged upon his death; especially if he died a shameful death as did Christ. But the success of his effort depended upon the shedding of his blood, for by this we have made atonement for our sins," he continued. "Like Paul of old he had determined to know nothing save Christ and him crucified during this meeting."

Services every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8:15 o'clock.

PRINTERS TO MEET
The local typographical union will hold a regular meeting this evening in the Crawford Hotel, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

CLEVELAND, June 3 (AP)—Admission of airplane pilots and motor transportation drivers may be discussed at the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in session here. Spokesmen for the convention, conducted in closed sessions, said that while there was no definite program to enlarge the brotherhood and that no action will be taken at the present gathering, some of the delegates have considered the possibility of taking in pilots and interstate and cross country bus and truck drivers. C. W. Burbank of Los Angeles, assistant grand chief, pointed out that the brotherhood's membership has been hurt by the development of motor and aerial transportation as well as greater efficiency on the railroads.

HOBBS TEST RUNS WILD; DAM BUILT

Shell A-1 State Makes 2,000 Barrels, Fifty Million Feet

HOBBS, N. M., June 3.—Coming in unexpectedly at ten o'clock this morning Shell's No. A-1 State, section 22-18-33, was making an estimated fifty million cubic feet of gas and 2,000 barrels of oil daily, from total depth of 4,001 feet. The well was out of control. Dams were being thrown up to care for the oil, which was sprayed over the countryside by a brisk wind.

Mile From Bowers
The well is a mile southeast of Humble No. 1 Bowers, which is a produced from 4,196 feet and has been estimated as good as a 7,000 barrel well.

Rigs for two miles north of the Shell's new well have been shut down due to the fire hazard created by the oil spray. Just 100 yards south of the well is a perfectly formed natural basin large enough to hold approximately 250,000 barrels of oil. This completion indicates an extensive pool within two miles of New Hobbs.

VAN'S LARGEST
VAN, Tex., June 3 (AP)—Estimated to have a daily production of 50,000 barrels, the largest well brought in in the Van field, the Pure Oil Company's I. W. Thompson No. 1, an offset to and one location east of the 50,000 barrel Murphree well, spouted free today. The Thompson well was brought in from a depth of about 2,900 feet, the oil sand being encountered 100 feet higher than in the Murphree well, and measuring fully 500 feet in thickness, according to the log.

SCHLICHER
Phillips-Interstate's No. 1 Whitten, Schleicher county wildcat, which for more than a week has been making 750,000 cubic feet of wet sweet gas, and a baller of over 50-gallon oil hourly from sand at 6,300-36 feet, had drilled to 6,470 feet in blue shale unchanged.

NEAR TEXARKANA
The Timberlake-Tidwell Company began drilling operations in the eastern part of the state when they spudded in their Tidwell No. 1 test about 4 miles south of New Boston, 23 miles west of Texarkana. Several thousand acres in leases are held by the company which planned to drill day and night.

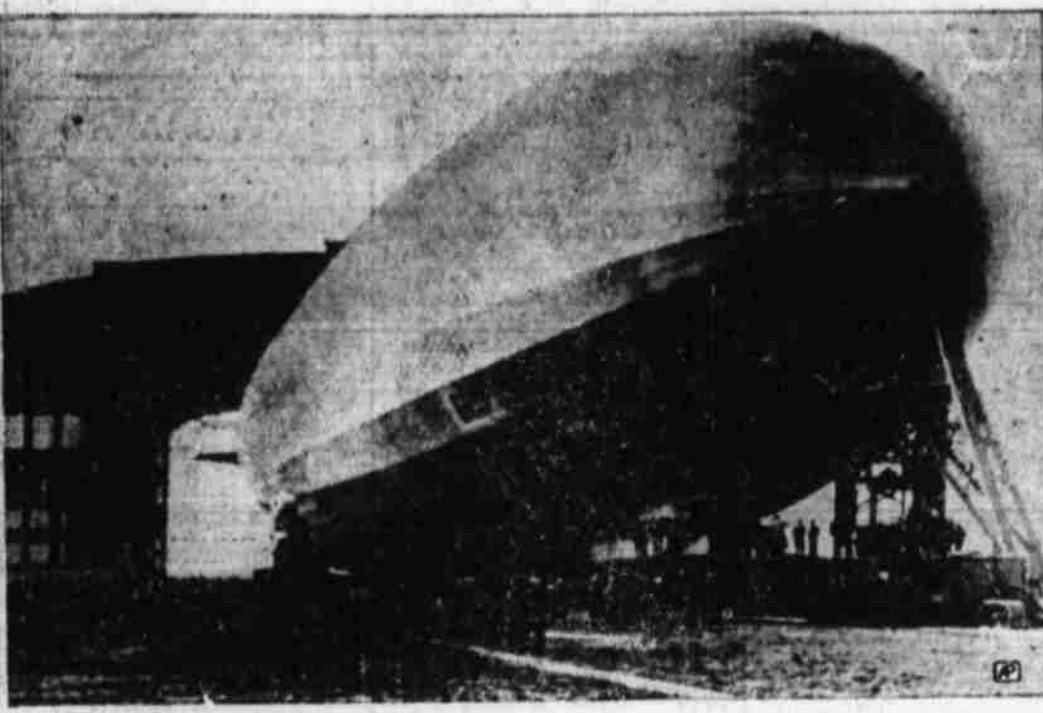

DAILY PRODUCTION
TULSA, Okla., June 3 (AP)—The daily average production of light gravity oil in Oklahoma fields coursed upward 21,010 barrels during the week ending May 31 to total 680,570 barrels, according to the estimate of the Oil & Gas Journal. All state fields, excepting St. Louis Pearson, reported increased production.

The Journal's estimate for the entire United States 2,598,731 barrels of both light and heavy gravity oil an increase of 22,662 barrels over the daily average for the week ending May 31 was 9,547. West Texas fields lost more than 2,000 barrels during the past week from the daily average. The entire midcontinent area gained 21,409 barrels in light oil and 7,620 in heavy. Kansas registered slightly more than a 2,000 barrel gain, reporting 134,920 as a daily average. The Gulf coast and southwest Texas heavy oil areas continued upward. Eastern fields dropped slightly and the Rocky Mountain area gained. California lost 14,800 barrels in daily production.

GAS PRICE DOWN
OKLAHOMA CITY, June 3 (AP)—Price of retail gasoline took a dip today, with a reduction of one cent a gallon announced by the Magnolia Petroleum Company. The 18-cent a gallon price schedule now is in effect. Rates of 19 cents for white gasoline and 22 cents for "red" gasoline had been in effect here since April 16. Red gasoline also dropped one cent. Other major companies announced they would lower the existing prices as soon as they received word from division headquarters.

Two suits of clothing and three pairs of trousers were stolen from the Family Service Laundry, 900 Main Street sometime Monday night, according to a report of the robbery given the sheriff's department. Officials of the laundry have been unable to find where the robber effected entrance. The loss was discovered Tuesday morning when the place was opened for business.

LEGION TO HELP WITH EXPOSITION

Sham Battle Added To Program; Publicity Arranged

The American Legion post, in a special meeting Monday evening, decided to join in the Oil Jubilee of July 3, 4 and 5 by putting on a sham battle and firearms carnival, "Over The Top," in the special stadium to be erected for the Jubilee. This will be a feature attraction for the final evening of the Jubilee.

The local legion members will be assisted by a national guard artillery unit stationed at Abilene, it was announced.

The publicity committee, in a session Monday afternoon, awarded the official decorations contract to the Westex Advertising company of Big Spring and San Angelo. This concern will sell decorations for store fronts to merchants wishing them, and at prices stipulated in the contract with the Jubilee committee. It will also string banners and flags across the principal business streets in a fashion similar to the decorations program used during the Airport Opening last summer. This concern held the contract for that event.

The committee, having already received ten "24 sheets" posters, to be placed on large billboards in Big Spring and five or six other cities, voted Monday to buy 200 "one sheets," which will be placed on buildings and other suitably located surfaces throughout this section of Texas. J. Y. Robb, of the R & R Theatres, offered the services of his regular poster men, for this work.

The large posters will be placed as follows: three in and near Big Spring, two in Midland, one in Lamesa, one in Stanton, one in Colorado, perhaps two in Sweetwater or one in Sweetwater and one in San Angelo. Signs were placed on the electrically lighted oil well derrick, on the court house square, late Monday. This is considered one of the most effective advertising methods yet adopted. More than 3,000 windshield stickers advertising the Jubilee have been printed and are being distributed in all the principal oil field towns, as well as other places. These are available at the Chamber of Commerce offices and the Jubilee headquarters, fourth floor of the Petroleum building.

Murphy To Speak In City Wednesday

E. E. (Pat) Murphy of San Angelo, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress from the 16th district, will speak at the district court room here Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, his friends here have been advised. The public is urged to attend this meeting and to hear Mr. Murphy, who is making an active campaign for the nomination and who is reported by those who have heard him to be an interesting speaker.

BOY SCOUT CAMP WILL OPEN SOON

Local Men Lacking In Interest, Say Officials

Scouting in Big Spring is not in healthy condition, reports made Monday evening at a business session of local council and troop members indicated. The most astonishing report was that local scouts are showing little interest in the Buffalo Trail area summer camp, to be held at the regular camp of the Concho Valley council, on the Concho river north of San Angelo, June 16 to 20.

It was announced by the area executive, A. C. Williamson, that reservations for a place in the camp must be received by him, in Sweetwater, by next Monday. Cost per boy per week is $7. The boy may stay two weeks if he chooses. The plan is to have 100 boys in camp each week, if possible.

Many boys from Sweetwater, Colorado, Midland and other towns in the area are registering. Big Spring is showing distinct backwardness compared with them. A boy will get more real benefit from a week or two weeks in scout camp than from twice that time spent in summer school and vastly more than if he were just wandering around home. Mr. Williamson pointed out, "Let a boy attend camp once and he'll be a working, interested, developing scout thenceforth."

C. S. Holmes, area president and founder of the oldest Boy Scout troop in the state, decried the lack of interest being shown by men of the city. "We have too many good men here who start strong but they are quarter horses. They don't last," he declared. George White, a troop committeeman of one of the four local troops, said that a visit by him to the area rally in Sweetwater last week showed him just how little was being done here compared with activity in other cities. Rev. S. B. Hughes, troop committeeman for No. 4, at the East Street Baptist church, made a good report of development of that troop. He promised to canvas members and their parents relative to attending the camp.

C. P. Garratt, scoutmaster of the First Christian church troop, called a meeting for Tuesday evening at the church to talk with the boys about the camp. Phillip Stusser and J. H. Smith, young leaders of Boy Scouts of their assistance in enlisting the boys for the camp. Marcus Williamson, recently retained as assistant area executive, for the western section of the area, was present. He is just beginning his work and will spend most of his time in Big Spring and Midland, with trips to cities further west to organize new troops and aid those recently started.

BUTCHERS TO MEET
The local union of meat cutters will hold a regular meeting at 8 o'clock this evening in labor hall.

GOLF TOURNEY
Members of the Lions Club will clash in the first tournament on a miniature scale tonight at 8 o'clock at the Meyer Court course. The club members will be the guests of Charles Quereau, owner of the course. After tonight's tournament a team to represent the club in inter-club tournaments will be selected.

ENVOYS OF TWO CAMPS ARE NAMED

Tentative Rules Under New Law Will Be Topic

FORT WORTH, June 3 (AP)—Representatives of major company and independent oil producers who will meet in Dallas Wednesday with representatives of pipe line companies in an effort to agree on tentative rules under the new pipe line law, were announced here today.

Mid-Continent
Representatives of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, Texas division, which includes operators of both classifications, were announced by J. D. Collett of Fort Worth, chairman of the statewide committee on proration. Representatives of the Independent Association of Texas, named by Tom Cranfill of Dallas, president, were announced at the offices of the association here.

Purposes of the meeting is to see if proposed rules can be drawn up and presented to consideration of the railroad commission as the unanimous judgment of the oil industry of fair and impartial rules. Should this succeed, and the commission approve and promulgate the rules, it would avoid the expected litigation from the various branches of the industry who will participate in the meeting.

The mid-continent committee named by Collett consists of E. G. Allen, of Dallas, production manager of the Shell; R. R. Penn, of Dallas, independent; Charles T. Francis of Wichita Falls, independent; C. F. Rosser of Fort Worth, independent; M. B. Sweney of Dallas, Sun Oil Company. The Independent Petroleum Association committee consists of the following independent operators: Cranfill, Claude Witherspoon of San Antonio, Charles L. Morgan of Fort Worth, George Calvert of Fort Worth, Rupert Ricker of San Angelo, and two others to be named later.

Cotton Coop Head Here Wednesday

C. O. Moser, vice president of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, will be in Big Spring Wednesday for a series of meetings and speeches in which Federal farm board plans for aiding Texas cotton producers will be presented.

Mr. Moser will meet at 10 a. m. with the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, all of whom are urged to be present. He will appear at the Business Men's Luncheon Club at noon, at the Methodist church. At 2 p. m. he will deliver an address at the court house to which both farmers and business men are invited.

One of the matters to be discussed, it is reported, is the possibility that a branch office of the cooperative may be placed in Big Spring.

The Store That Quality Built

The Barbers galloped to the fore with another game Monday afternoon and night. The Bankers went equally swiftly to the rear, minus another fray. Ganoway, losing for the Bankers, lost a tough one. His support did everything but bolster. Stevens at short thought perhaps the ball had teeth, or something, and when West muffed Tinsley's high one to center allowing two to go across it didn't help matters any. As far as that is concerned, however, Lois Madison, the skipper of the Barbers' hopes, jerked Gibson before he had a chance to find the rubber mat on the mound. Gibson walked one player, Hutchins made an error to get on, and another placed on a fielder's choice. At that moment the high sign was given to Tinsley who dashed in from right field to assume the role of orbit heaver.

The Bankers have lodged a protest on the game they dropped Sunday to the Laundry. They based their protest on a decision of Umpire Bruce Nesbitt, founding it upon a rule violation. Just what disposition is to be made of the protest is undecided. Nesbitt was wrong. The protest asks the game to be thrown out and played over. That's one way of making money. It costs three dollars to protest a game. What we crave is bigger and better protests. Voluminous ones. And more of the same.

West and Hutchins combined to beat Tinsley out of a no-hit game Monday. West spoiled his day with a single in the fifth inning, and Hutchins added insult to injury with one of the same in the sixth frame. Tinsley, incidentally, got the only extra base hit of the day, with the exception of Hicks' four ply. Tinsley doubled, after informing the fans who had parking places on Tinsley's neck, that he was going to do so.

Cosden and Richco—one great big family, with a railway track running between the front yards—will meet this afternoon. Should Cosden cop it will go into a clinch with the Laundry for second place. Should Richco win, the places will not be effected. Garcia, the snappy little Mexican hunter, will be on the mound for Richco. Which means that Cosden is going to have to do something besides make gasoline.

Since the addition of several Mexican players to the various corners of the city league teams, an increased attendance has been noted. The Mexican fans are dashing through the turnstiles and dropping their quarters in the chubby fists of Tiny Reed. They came to see their fellow countrymen in action. With the addition of a few more of them it is possible we might move Juarez down here and let it offset the Dusty Diamond.

Blevins, catcher for the Laundry, has assumed managership of the Laundry, succeeding Bruce Nesbitt. Blevins says he intends for no foolhardiness from anyone, including us, and that he intends to have his charges win the first half in a walk, or a dog trot at the most.

BANK DROPS RAGGED TILT

Tinsley Hurls Two-Hit Game For Shavers

Receiving ragged support from the men behind him, and giving up hits when he hurt, Ganoway, youthful pitcher for the Bankers, dropped another Monday when the Barbers ran across 13 tallies while the Bankers were gleaming two.

By virtue of their victory over the custodians of the basement floor, the Barbers were a game in the lead today, sitting on top of the world.

The Bankers made two runs in seven innings—one in the first and one in the final. P. Madison scored in the first when he was walked by Gibson, stole second, went to third on Hutchins error and skipped homeward on Gunter's error.

The final tally to grace the Bankers' sheet came in the last when West went to first on Skagg's error, advanced when Payne, hitting for Ganoway, went out at first and went home on a passed ball.

Tinsley Right
It took Tinsley just a few minutes to inform the Bankers he was right, despite the fact that he had hurled a hectic game in the field against Merrick and Bristow Sunday.

After Gibson had seen three men face him Tinsley galloped in from right field and relieved the initial starter, although not a hit had been registered off the youthful one.

Tinsley held the blanket over the Bankers until the fifth inning when West ruined his chances for a no-hit game with a single. He gave up another single to Hutchins in the sixth.

The Barbers tallied in the first inning when C. Madison was walked by Ganoway, tallying when McPeak overtook Thurman at third. They added three in the third when C. Madison went to the initial bag on Hutchins error. Gunter, went out at second on L. Madison's drive, C. Madison and L. Madison tallying on Hicks four ply clout.

6 In Fourth
Six runs were added in the fourth. Patton arrived on Stevens' error, Gibson was hit by a pitched ball, Hutchins dropped Tinsley's long one to center, allowing Patton and Gibson to tally. Tinsley tallied on C. Madison's single, Madison crossed on Gunter's single, L. Madison again forced Gunter at the second sack. Madison stole second, went to third on a passed ball and stole home, slipping past McPeak. Hicks added the final tally of the inning. One was added in the fifth when Patton walked, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and home on Tinsley's long double. After two were away, Skagg went to first on Stevens' error, Hutchins advanced him, the two tallying on Patton's hot single, to close the Barbers' assault for the day.

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

There is one thing which iting my heart awal. Altho try hard to succeed, my husnd, to whom I have been married thirty years, has turned his back on me because he y I have teased and nagged in all our married life. I ad I have done lots of it, but has been the cause. He is money-mad and falsely accuses of being extravagant. I have helped him to buy a home which we both own and have done everything I could to forward his prosperity. He makes over $200 a month, but never gives me a cent unless I ask him for it. I should have quit him long ago if it had not been for the children. I would walk through hell fire for them, were it necessary. I still love him, strange though this may seem. What should a woman do under these circumstances? Please omit address.

No outsider can apportion with exactitude the responsibility for the failure of a marriage thirty years old and blessed with children. Could your husband unfold his side of the story it would probably reflect far more seriously than you concede on your behavior as a wife. But, however that may be, your disputes about household expenses are needless and unworthy.

As you state the case, he is to blame. Yet the penuriousness you condemn may be due to his anxiety that the family shall not suffer when his nonproductive years come. If the amounts he saves out of his modest income of $200 a month are wisely invested what you call "money madness" may be prudent foresight, even though carried to an extreme.

Nagging will not correct the real or fictitious evils against which you chafe. On the contrary it is a wretched habit which only adds fuel to the flame. Since you will never be happy separated from the man you love, why not have a heart talk with him? You jointly own your house. Therefore in the name of God and common sense make that house a real home! Then the children will cherish better memories of it than your useless quarrels have hitherto inspired and return to it to cheer and bless your declining years.

Pathetic though it is, nevertheless it is true that squabbling about dollars and cents is a prolific cause of domestic ruin. I believe you may avoid that result if your attachment to your husband and children is not swayed by self-will and pride. Show him and them that the law of kindness can rule your tongue. Clear the way for mutual admissions and readjustments. Lavish a little affection on him as well as on the youngsters. Arrange for a weekly allowance sufficient for your requirements and do your utmost to keep within its limit. Drop bitter words and take up generous deeds. Win your mate by these means in order that both he and you may forget the ghastly past and begin again on a sure foundation of respect for each other's personality and rights.

I am a girl, eighteen, deeply troubled with sex disturbances which hamper my work. I have no parents or family to whom I can go. Can you give me any advice? Please do not give my address nor print any more of my letter than is necessary.

For the scientific handling of your difficulty, which is exceedingly common in adolescents, consult a reputable woman physician. For its practical solution exercise self-control and use every means available in work of recreation, social intercourse or hygienic measures which increase your resolution to be mistress of your own soul.

Then sublimate sex. Lift your ideas about it out of the sensual realm, embody them in the best men and women you know, and fortify them by the cultivation of reverence for the inviolability of personality, whether in yourself or others. Idealize the holy mysteries of race procreation if you would not be damned by its pollutions.

You quote maxims, but in the conduct and growth of your life habits are as far above maxims as cash in the bank is above a worthless promissory note of a bankrupt. In fact, good habits are pious maxims incarnated, instinctive and aliye. Professor William James describes these as the fly wheel of society and its most precious conserving agent. They keep us all within the bounds of contingency. On the other hand, bad habits require ruthless handling. St. Paul portrays the evils you mention as a set of bloodthirsty monsters for whom the tumbrel of the executioner waits at the door. See that they meet their doom or they will doom you. Strive to commit the delusions of lust to the custody of an automatic repulsion. Every day your postpone this policy adds to its chances of failure.

Do you urge that it cannot be done? My answer is that countless women and mothers have done it. The virtues you deem impossible are securely housed in their lives. So keep at it. Continuity of training in clean thinking and action is the chief agency for making the nervous system function toward chastity. Do not temporize with the situation. Cut the entire issue out as the surgeon excises a foreign malefic growth from the body. You are the daughter of a Holy Father. Tell Him, this, ask for His almighty grace and it will not be denied you.

'KONJOLA PUT ME BACK ON ROAD TO GOOD HEALTH'

Dallas Lady Eagerly Endorses
New Medicine—Found Relief
After Other Medicines
Failed

MRS. F. L. BETHEL

"For four years my system was in a rundown condition and for the past eight months, stomach and kidney disorders have caused me much suffering," said Mrs. F. L. Bethel, 406 Avondale street, Liberty Heights, Dallas. "Gas formed after each meal and I had a burning sensation from my throat to the pit of my stomach. My kidneys were sore and did not function properly. I had pains across my back, and I was steadily losing in weight and strength."

"I finally decided to try Konjola and this medicine has put me back on the road to health. I am no longer troubled with the stomach condition. My vitality and general health have improved immensely, and I am free from those terrible pains in my back. I sleep soundly at night and my whole system has taken on new life."

When taken for six to eight weeks, Konjola, the new and different medicine, will work wonders that will astonish those who suffer from the stubborn ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Big Spring at Collins Bros. drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—adv.

PAINS QUIT COMING

Kentucky Lady Took Cardui and Tells How She Was Greatly Benefited.

Hopkinsville, Ky.—"I used to have headache and dizziness, and at times would have severe cramping spells," says Mrs. Mackey Scott, of 102 South Kentucky Ave., this city.

"This unfitted me for my work or any pleasures that I wanted to enter into. I am naturally a very active woman and I did not feel like I wanted to give two or three days at a time to aches and pains. So I looked around for a remedy. I had heard a great deal about Cardui and seeing it advertised I decided to take it. I took four bottles and it did me a world of good. It seemed to regulate and strengthen me. I quit having headaches and felt fine."

"I have never ceased praising Cardui to my friends and neighbors for what it did for me."

"For more than fifty years, women who had suffered, or who had gotten into a run-down, weak condition, have been enthusiastic in praising Cardui for the benefits obtained from its use."

Cardui is extracted from herbs having high medicinal value, and contains nothing harmful or injurious. Get a bottle of Cardui from your druggist, today, and try it in your case. NC-230
