Open Letters by Pa Pampa

Today we introduce to readers of this space a new personality, Pa Pampa, who will take over the task each Sunday of conducting a column of "Open Letters."

Pa Pampa is a fellow you are going to like. If there is one thing in the world he can do, it is write letters. Each week he will write to individuals and groups around Pampa and the Panhandle, and most anyone to whom he thinks a letter should be written.

He will have words of praise and occasionally, though he is likely to prefer constructive criticism in places where he thinks it will benefit the community as a whole. Pa Pampa is not a knocker. He is a booster of the first water. He would much rather toss you a bouquet of roses than a bouquet of brickbats.

Pa Pampa is going to become a community institution. He does not pretend to be a humorist. What he writes will be written in all seriousness and in all sincerity—always with the aim in view to do what he says may in some way contribute to better understanding and make of Pampa a still better place in which to live. Here is his first batch of letters:

To Hubert Arp. DEAR HUBERT: If you're still away from home when you read these lines, I hope you will decide to come back at once and clear up the mystery that has clouded your disappearance a week ago last night. If you are just doing what a lot of other boys have done—run off on a lark—I'll bet by now that you've had enough and will come back willingly when I tell you that there is no punishment waiting here for you. Just come back, and all will be forgiven. Your father has been worrying about you. He thinks maybe you're not with it, and he's kind of kind. If that isn't the case and you're the kind of a fellow your father tells me you are, you will be back. How about it, son?

PA PAMPA. To Little Harvey Staff. DEAR SCHIVENERS: Let me congratulate you upon the splendid first edition of the Little Harvester you turned out in The Pampa Daily NEWS last week. If that one is a criterion of what is to follow, I guess Pampans can expect to see bang-up papers this fall and winter. I might suggest that your editor insist that you make your stories shorter, that you look for the human interest angle, and that some members of your staff be turned loose on feature stories.

PA PAMPA. To School Children. DEAR PUPILS—Well, here you are—off on another year of school work. I often wonder how many of you consider it a duty that has to be performed, and how many of you consider it a privilege to go to school. Here in America, where we have the finest system of schools in the world, you have the privilege of attending them and acquiring an education that forms the groundwork for the rest of your life. When you are graduated from the academic institutions into the school of life, I just wanted to say this: that the more use you make of this splendid privilege now, the easier the going will be when you reach that eventful stage in life where you are out to live your own road. Any time you waste in the schoolroom today will have to be "made up" in the school of life tomorrow. You can't get away from that, so here's hoping you make the most of a grand opportunity.

PA PAMPA. To the Robbins Bros. DEAR BOYS: My people have been complaining a bit about your circus which showed in our town last Thursday night. Seems as though you are living up to the promises made by your advance men. Practically everyone of my citizens had seen an elephant and five lions before. Now, if you ever expect to come back this way again, you'd better be truthful about what you're going to have under the tent. I can't expect you to patronize you unless you play square.

PA PAMPA. To the State Highway Patrol. DEAR OFFICERS: I want you to know that we are all very glad to see you coming to town as you did last week to conduct the safety lane tests. Pampa police, Gray county sheriff's department and our civic agencies all have been trying to cooperate on a safety campaign for a long time. Movements such as you are spreading through the state will go a long way in the direction of bringing about the desired results.

PA PAMPA. To Amarrillo Jaycees. DEAR JUNIORS: Thanks a lot, boys, for the offer you are giving to us on our drive to get the new highway project from Borger to Pampa under way. We realize that for some reason or another the work hasn't been going along on the job as it should. With assistance such as you are now offering, perhaps we can get the right parties interested in this vital project and get something accomplished.

PA PAMPA. To Pampa Chamber of Commerce. DEAR BOARDS: One in the paper where you are going to hold a membership luncheon next Tuesday noon at the Methodist church, and that you are inviting everybody to come out and get acquainted with your organization and its purposes. This is a meeting that should be attended by all who are interested in movements that will be for the betterment of our town. I also understand that you are going to make reports of activities, and that you will be ready to receive suggestions from

The week-end rains brought the total September precipitation here to 3.15 inches. The heaviest strip of Friday night's rain was confined to Bovina, Parmer county, and Hoover in Gray county.

Skellytown reported two inches of rainfall at the same time Pampa was receiving 1.81 inches. A good rain fell at Panhandle earlier in the evening. Amarillo received about 31 of an inch.

Pampa traffic was slowed down to a snail's pace during the hardest portion of the rain when the water fell in sheets, driven by the wind. McLean and other communities within a 30-mile radius of Pampa also reported good showers.

Wind of terrific velocity badly damaged a pump house and tore down several derricks on the E. W. Means lease four miles northwest of Skellytown last Friday night. A good rain fell at Panhandle earlier in the evening. Amarillo received about 31 of an inch.

Twisters seen in that section last yesterday apparently failed to reach the ground as no reports of damage to property had been received here last night.

Both districts attorney indicated that the Walton woman may be brought to the Pampa jail, Hughes, he said, was brought here for safekeeping.

People You Know

Many moderns join the church with the same dispassionate confidence and emotional attitude that they display when they join a bridge or study club, or a golf club, but not so with a gray-haired woman who never misses a service at her church. She not only attends revivals at her own church but those at all the other churches in town. Last week, she was a worshipper at the Catholic mission. She goes to all the funerals and mourns sincerely, remembering her own dead. She finds great good in the sermons of all preachers and a man has only to be a minister to gain her utmost respect. She reads the Bible daily but does not memorize its passages, and the only Bible she has is a modern, slightly-agnostic translation that fell by chance into her hands.

AMARILLO PLUMBER IS SLAIN ON FRONT PORCH

AMARILLO, Sept. 12 (AP)—As he sat on the front porch of his home here this afternoon, Luther M. Darnell, 38, a plumber, was shot and killed.

Elton Nall, 28, later walked into the sheriff's office and surrendered. Nall had a pistol in one hand and a .22 caliber rifle in the other.

Nall officers were informed, drove to the Darnell home in company of Mrs. Nall without leaving the car, Nall emptied the rifle at Darnell, he told officers.

Darnell died on the way to the hospital. Officers said that Nall had signed a statement. Darnell leaves his wife and six children.

A charge of murder has been filed against Nall, who is in the county jail.

EVERTS HALEY IS DISCHARGED BY UNIVERSITY

NEW DEAL CRITIC IS DEFINITELY OFF PAYROLL

AUSTIN, Sept. 12 (AP)—J. Everts Haley, faculty critic of the new deal, was definitely off the payroll of the University of Texas today, and whether he would get on again, Dr. R. Y. Benedict, president, said was a question for the future.

Haley, chairman of the Jeffersonian Democrats of Texas, said that if the university wanted to discharge him it was "welcome to do so." The Jeffersonian Democrats are opposing the reelection of President Roosevelt.

Dr. Benedict disclosed that Haley had not been connected officially with the university since August 31 after asking for and obtaining a leave of absence August 24.

"He had been engaged in historical research work jointly financed by the general board of education in New York and the university, and the 10-year period of the project ended Aug. 31," Dr. Benedict said.

"He has done a crackerjack job. Whether he will be reappointed after adoption of the budget for the social science department, which is late, is a matter for the future."

Asserting he did not know whether a report he had been "discharged" was true or not, Haley said he had understood he was on a leave of absence.

Haley said in a statement that in declining to grant him leave of absence to "fight the Roosevelt regime" it might be the university had "taken the easy course of firing me by inaction."

"If so, that alone is an indication of the danger of new deal tactics," he said. "Instead of a nation of free and courageous Americans, we are today a country ruled by fear."

"Instead of a nation of sovereign citizens, we are a people standing in awe of a national administration we elected to office to carry out our own will."

He said Texans were not in harmony with arbitrary power, because its "traditions and ideals are those of liberty and freedom," and he himself had decided "to quit collecting the history of Texas and fight for the ideals that made that history commendable, colorful and great."

Little Wins First Tournament as Pro

TORONTO, Sept. 12 (AP)—Lawson Little, the subject of much doleful head-shaking because of his performance since he gave up his amateur status last spring after two years of swerving the United States and British amateur championships, came into his own as a professional golfer today.

Winning his first tournament as a pro, Little staged a stirring finish to capture the Canadian open title from a brilliant field with a 72-hole total of 271 strokes.

Four times in succession the San Franciscoan bettered the par of 70 for the St. Andrews public course to smash the scoring record for the journey and record one of the lowest aggregates ever scored over a full length course.

Despite his remarkable rounds of 67, 68, 69 and 69, Little had a fight on his hands to stay in front of the field through the last 36 holes today as Jimmy Thomson, the Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., clobberer, rattled off a 69-69 for the last two rounds, starting ten strokes behind Thom-

WORLD SERIES WILL OPEN ON NATIONAL LEAGUE'S DIAMOND IN THE TEXAS LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 (AP)—The National league pennant winner, whether it's the Giants, Cardinals or Cubs—will be host to the New York Yankees and the first two games of the 1936 world series, September 30 and October 1.

Contending club owners decided that, among other essential details at a meeting today with baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis, a financial record-breaker, appears likely if the New York Giants qualify to meet the Yankees in the first "subway series" since 1923.

Such is the combined seating capacity of the club grounds and Yankee Stadium, the American League's big park, that five games on a doubleheader would result in a new record for receipts, with the $100,000 for radio rights taken into account. The all-time series "high" of $1,207,864 was set in a seven-game series between the Yankees and Cardinals in 1926.

The third, fourth and fifth games will be at Yankee stadium, home of the American league champions. The sixth and seventh, if necessary, will be played under National league auspices.

With an all-New York series in prospect, the specific dates for the title set would be September 30 and October 1 at the polo grounds; Oct. 2, 3 and 4 at Yankee Stadium and October 5 and 6 at the polo grounds, also if needed.

However, should the Cardinals or Cubs come through in the National league, a day off for traveling would be necessary.

Exclusive broadcast rights have been purchased for $100,000 by the Ford Motor company for the third straight year, Commissioner Landis announced.

He also received figures from the New York clubs showing a total seating capacity of 63,000 for Yankee Stadium and 47,000 for the polo grounds.

SEBASTIAN IS CAPTURED BY FASCIST ARMY

WAR'S TURNING POINT NOW BELIEVED REACHED

(By The Associated Press)

The city of San Sebastian, goal of a northern insurgent offensive for the last week, fell Saturday night before the Spanish fascist army of Gen. Emilio Mola.

Foreign consular officers in the city said they believed its capture marked a turning point in the civil war, now eight weeks old, and one South American consul declared "the Madrid government is lost."

The fascists, by seizing San Sebastian, gained the upper hand in that region along the Bay of Biscay and the adjacent section of the French border.

South of Madrid, in Toledo province, the government forces struggled to beat back an advance from the west. Fighting centered around Talavera de la Reina and Santa Olaya.

As the bitter struggle went on, the Madrid administration announced parliament would meet Oct. 1 to legislate a fresh code of laws to give the Spanish workers a new place in the sun.

Daniel Garcia Mansilla, Argentine ambassador to Spain and dean of the diplomatic corps, asserted at Saint Jean de Luz, France, that the Madrid government had told diplomats they must return from their haven on French soil if they wished to continue being recognized by the Spanish regime.

It was indicated in diplomatic circles at that French town that the British and French envoys would not return. Some diplomats said the Madrid administration's action was likely to place that government in a "dangerous position."

Premier Leon Blum, of France, attempting to settle strikes in various industries throughout the country, decided to make a personal attempt tomorrow to get 30,000 textile strikers at Lille back to work.

GIANTS DROP TO CUBS
NEW YORK, Sept. 12 (AP)—A fifth inning uprising which shelved Hal Schumacher to the clubhouse enabled the Cubs to cash in on Lon Warneke's four-hit pitching and down the league-leading Giants 6 to 0 in the series finale between the two clubs today.

The defeat clipped half a game from the Giants' first place margin, leaving it at 3 1/2 games as the second-place Cardinals split their double bill with Brooklyn.

The victory sent the Bruins out of town on even terms with the Giants for the season. Each team has 11 victories and 11 defeats.

Young Enli Cavaretta's eighth home run of the year into the upper deck of the right field stands, with two down in the fifth started Schumacher towards the showers.

The elongated Warneke was twirling superbly to hang up his 14th victory of the season and give the Bruins their 17th 1936 shutout. The giants got only one man as far as second base all afternoon.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN IS FOUND DEAD ON ROAD

TOP OF HEAD BLOWN OFF; GUN IS NEARBY

(Special To The News)

CLARENDON, Sept. 12—Donley county authorities tonight still were endeavoring to establish identity of a man found shot to death Saturday forenoon along the Rock Island railroad, six and a half miles west of Alameda.

Sheriff Guy Pierce, of Donley county, said tonight that indications at the scene where the body was discovered by V. J. Glazener, of Jericho, a section foreman for the Rock Island, were that the man had taken his own life.

Sheriff Pierce said the man was about 30 years old, five feet, ten inches tall and that he weighed about 150 pounds. He had bluish gray eyes, brown hair, wore light gray trousers, a gray shirt, black shoes and a brown Stetson hat. There is a scar on the inside of the man's right arm just above the elbow.

The body was found lying on the right-of-way about 20 feet from the tracks, Sheriff Pierce said. The top of the man's head had been blown off. The body was slumped across a single-barrel shotgun. There was one empty shell in the gun.

There was no means of identification in any of the man's clothing with the exception of a hat trade mark which showed that it had been purchased at Pawhuska, Okla.

[QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING]

"Can a non-depositor borrow money from your Bank?"

YES, we are glad to have loan applications from non-depositors. Naturally, our first consideration is to take care of the credit requirements of our own customers. We feel that we owe them this consideration and they, of course, through their dealings with us, have usually established credit standing.

But a non-depositor need not feel himself barred. If his reputation for integrity and honesty is established, if his credit standing is such to justify a loan of the amount which he needs, this bank will be glad to consider the application.

Whether or not you are a depositor in this bank, if you wish to borrow, we suggest that you come in and discuss the matter with us. We welcome the opportunity to employ our loanable funds for sound purposes.

either side had any intention of withdrawing their ambassadors, however. The foreign office in Berlin let it be known Hitler did not plan any such step and similar statements came from Russian quarters. Diplomatic offices in Berlin were busy throughout the day dispatching special reports to their governments, intensely interested because the speech was the first in which Hitler publicly mentioned the Ukraine.

Hints of Conquest Lesser Nazis have spoken privately and publicly of the wish for the rich territory. Drawing a picture of surplus land and materials in Soviet Russia, Hitler wailed up:

"I am not in the fortunate position of the Soviet Jews. Nevertheless, Germany's problem must be solved. There is no such thing as saying it cannot be done. 'Germany must live.' 'The nation,' he said, pleading for patience and determination, 'thank God, lives longer than one generation.'

Turning his talk to the workers, Der Fuehrer said: 'I could raise your wages to astronomical heights with three paper factories, my dear German workers, I could do it.'

"This remark, apparently referring to inflation of the currency, he followed with: 'To raise really your buying power I need 10,000 new German enterprises.'

Earlier Hitler had continued the anti-Bolshevik, anti-Jew campaigns of his subalterns. Speaking before 50,000 widely cheering young Nazis, Der Fuehrer said of Russia: 'Let him carry his Soviet star, we will conquer with the sign of the swastika.'

Greet Young Nazis Before making his speech, Hitler descended from his lofty rostrum and walked back and forth among the ranks of the representatives of the 6,000,000 uniformed members of his youth movements throughout the country.

Here and there along the smiling ranks he stopped to clasp a lad on the shoulder and speak a few words of commendation.

How to separate the rich Ukraine valley from Soviet Russia and bring it under non-communist administration has cropped up regularly in German discussions.

Since signing of the German-Polish non-aggression pact in 1934, the fertile valley has been mentioned as a possible compensation to Poland for return of Danzig, Memel, and even Upper Silesia.

Hitler, in his autobiography 'Mein Kampf' sounded the keynote of Nazi intent thus: 'We national socialists are putting a stop to the eternal Germanic procession to the south and west of Europe and are directing our gaze toward land in the east.'

ITALY APPROPRIATES NEW FUNDS FOR ARMS

ROME, Sept. 12 (AP)—'Necessities of the international situation' tonight drew extraordinary appropriations for armed forces from the Italian cabinet, which also approved an average eight per cent salary increase to 650,000 government employees, adopted many new military provisions, including a program for a permanent colonial army in the new empire.

A force of 150,000 workmen in Ethiopia, all enrolled in the black shirt militia, was announced. The cabinet, under the presiding eye of Dictator Benito Mussolini, did not make public the amount of the new appropriations.

The prominent manner in which they were referred to in a government communiqué, however, coupled with the fact that army, navy and air chiefs sat in on the sessions at which they were drafted led observers to predict they were for large sums.

NOT only are webbed feet useful to swimming birds while they are in the water, but they serve useful purposes in the air. As shown above, they aid in checking the body while landing, and, in the case of short-tailed birds, are used as rudders, for steering the birds while in flight.

SUNDAY GUEST EDITORIAL

By DICK HUGHES First Vice President of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce

IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH

In Unity There is Strength! That old adage was coined hundreds of years ago. It was true the day it was coined and it is just as true today. Pampa could benefit and profit greatly if its citizenship fully realized the importance of that simple truth and definitely presented a united front against the difficulties they must overcome and the problems that must be solved.

Each of Pampa's civic and political organizations and all of its prominent citizens have a great desire to do something that will build Pampa—make it a more permanent and more desirable place in which to live. But they do not agree on the proper plan of action; that is, they differ in their opinions about what should be done first and how it should be done.

For example: Last year, within a very short period, a group of Pampa citizens, representing the Pampa Board of City Development, went to Austin seeking state and federal aid on the Berger highway; another group, representing the city, went to Austin seeking state and federal aid to build an underpass on Cuyler street; still another group, representing the county, was in Austin with that period asking for state aid on Highway 88, better known as the Clarendon road; another group made various trips seeking ways and means of building a road straight north across the Canadian river. Each of these committees told the officials they interviewed, or at least left the impression, that the project they were working on was the most important problem confronting Pampa and Gray county and that they represented Pampa's entire citizenship in making the request.

The result: Very little, if anything was accomplished on any of the projects. There is no question but what each of the above projects were and still are of importance to Pampa, but the "political set-up" in Austin soon realized that the strong organizations in Pampa were not united. Pampa did not present a united front for projects that would build Pampa, therefore, Pampa would not present a united front against them or the men who put them in office when election time came. These officials felt safe in remaining in a state of lethargy as far as Pampa was concerned. They were safe to keep on promising and yet never take any action. Then, they may have felt that Pampa was trying to "hog the deal." At any rate, not a single one of these projects have been completed.

If all of these organizations had united and decided upon one project and each organization had put its shoulder to one common wheel—each of them appearing at Austin making the same requests; in other words, had they presented a united front at least one of the projects would have been completed at this time.

Of course some of the organizations referred to would have been compelled to "table" their pet projects for the time being, but any one of the projects completed would have been of direct benefit to Pampa. As soon as the one project was completed then they could have bound themselves together to put over another project.

A Direct Example In 1935 the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce wired Governor James V. Alfred asking him to come to Pampa to speak at the Pre-Centennial Celebration. About ten days later a letter was received from Governor Alfred, stating that he appreciated Pampa very much and that he was always pleased to appear here, but because of pressing legislative matters, it would be impossible for him to come.

A second telegram was prepared, much more time and thought being expended on this telegram than the first, and sent to Governor Alfred. This telegram was signed by the Mayor of Pampa, all of the City Officials, Col. H. Otto Studer, the Board of City Development, the presidents of the Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, the president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Commanders of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the presidents of five women's clubs, many other prominent Pampa citizens as well as the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The following day we received by wire the Governor's acceptance of our invitation.

We presented a united front that overcame his objections. That needs no explanation. There are many things that could be done to benefit Pampa both directly and indirectly (some of them referred to above). But Pampa needs some one individual or group of individuals or organization that is powerful enough to bring all of Pampa's different organizations, factions and individuals together—unite them—pick out Pampa's most pressing problem—then begin work on that problem—presenting a united front until that problem is solved. As soon as that problem is solved they can then begin work on the next most important problem, etc.

The Pampa Chamber of Commerce has that thought in mind. Next Tuesday at the noon hour, Dr. R. H. Montgomery, a noted speaker, will deliver the principal address at a meeting of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce. If you are interested in Pampa and its future development, you should be there. Sell yourself on Pampa's future and unite with that organization to build Pampa, because "In Unity There is Strength."

HOW'S your HEALTH

Medicine has its "periods" no less than economic or social development. There were periods where medical thought was dominated by the hypothesis of plethora, of the excess of certain body humors, which in practice were presumably eliminated by such drastic measures as purging and bleeding. There were schools of medical thought that viewed the human body as an animated machine, and that based their therapy on the rules of mechanics. Homeopathy, with its basic concept of "like cures like," and with its belief in the specific efficacy of drugs administered in minute doses, is a recent example of a medical "period."

Talks to parents

By INTERFERENCE. The Smiths disapproved of their daughter's marriage. The young man was unable to support a wife adequately, let alone the child who appeared a year later. The crux of the matter lay in the interpretation of the word "adequately." The young couple and child could have gotten along on their means if they had been willing to accept what seemed to their parents a lower standard of living.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Sept. 12 (AP) — Governor Alford said after a meeting at the Centennial exposition he was much impressed with the "charming personality" of Governor Henry Horner of Illinois.

Now he has new cause for praise. In appreciation of courtesies received on the Centennial visit, Horner sent the Texas governor's two boys handsome wrist watches.

"I'm for Horner for President now," Alford said.

Rep. Eugene Worley of Shamrock was found in Governor Alford's office the morning after the latter returned from the parole conference at Galveston. The governor has evinced great interest in paroled convicts and has set up a system of volunteer boards to supervise them. "Gene heard I was a great humanitarian," Alford laughed, "and came in to see me about a clemency matter."

"I thought this was a good time to approach him," Worley added. "I am taking him at his word."

The governor indicated, with a wave of the hand toward Worley, that "we have a new candidate for speaker of the house of representatives."

Worley had shown him a telegram from a friend addressed to "Eugene Worley, Speaker of the House." He wouldn't say whether he was considering the suggestion seriously.

Avowed candidates at that time were Bob Calvert of Hillsboro, Homer Leonard of McAllen, Emmett Morse of Houston and Bullock Hyder of Lewisville.

Worley is the man who threatened to punch Rexford Tugwell's nose because of a film, sponsored by the rural resettlement administration, depicting scenes in drought areas of the Panhandle.

The threat was made shortly before the national Democratic convention, but although Worley and Tugwell attended the gathering they did not meet.

"I don't even admit there is a dust bowl," Worley said.

Governor Alford picked up a good one, he thought, on his Galveston trip. En route home, he met a traveling salesman, apparently a fervent New Dealer.

"I'm not so hot for ragged individualism," the governor quoted the salesman.

It was reported that Attorney General McCraw in a moment of levity at Galveston made his first public announcement as to his political aims two years from now.

BOTTOMHOLE PRESSURE IN E-Texas Declines

AUSTIN, Sept. 12 (AP) — Engineers reported at the monthly proration hearing of the Railroad commission Friday that bottom-hole pressures in the East Texas oil field declined an average of 3.5 pounds per square inch in the last month.

Nominations of purchasing companies were not tabulated, nor were those of natural gas buyers ready. The commission said they would be prepared in a few days.

All fields except the McClintic stood on past records and asked no changes in allowables. McClintic, represented by R. M. Tilley of Fort Worth, former assistant attorney general, requested an increase of from 250 to 300 barrels. Tilley said the allowable of 800 barrels daily for 25 wells was unfair, that some wells were not paying and an increase would not hurt the rest of the industry.

"The commission wants to give everyone what it wants," said Ernest O. Thompson, chairman, "but of course if we did that a lot of oil would be produced."

EDITORS INVITED

DALLAS, Sept. 12 (AP) — Centennial officials today invited members of the Texas Managing Editors association to be guests of the exposition Sept. 20 and 21.

A full program of entertainment was promised.

When the National Pigeon show was held at the Texas Centennial exposition recently it was found that all acrobats are not confined to humans. There were 1,500 pigeons, many of which, were "tumblers"—skilled in back-flops and other acrobatic stunts.

NEW STYLES FOR WOMEN BRING FORTH EXCLAMATIONS—LATEST FASHION ROW TRENDS NOTICED

Persons Interested in Styles Should Read This

By SUE VINSON

What about fall and winter styles for men and women?—the city editor wants to know. Well, let's see.

This year's hat and last year's hat are obviously different, if they are women's hats. The difference is not so conspicuous if they are men's hats, and the same thing is true of suits, coats, and shoes.

Fashion row in Pampa is blooming with the latest things for fall. A casual look reveals the newness in the women's windows, but thorough investigation was necessary to find the fine points of difference in men's shops.

Most men themselves have no idea how to tell this year's suit from the 1935 model, except that the salesman told them it had just come in. Five years, or maybe 15, and a suit looks passe, but from one season to the next there is only a trend, and it doesn't entirely obliterate last fall's fashion points.

Notice Pattern, Men

Questioning of the heads of men's shops, who ought to know, gave these tips on how to tell whether the fall outfit is in style:

First, don't look for a difference in cut or material in the suit and whether the 1934 suit in the back of your closet will do for another year.

But in women's wear there's no use talking about trends because they change while you talk. It's the hats that strike clothes shoppers first in Pampa shops, and most of them moan something about "never could wear such funny looking things". The amusing shapes turn out pretty well on the average head, though, and start the shopper out satisfied with her looks and planning for everything that goes with a new hat.

On Up And Up

The chief point of newness in women's clothes is the fact that everything is on the up and up. Starting at the ground, shoes discreetly cover the instep and reach protectingly toward the ankle. They button, buckle, or tie on, and the colors include wine, green, and purple.

Feathers Popular

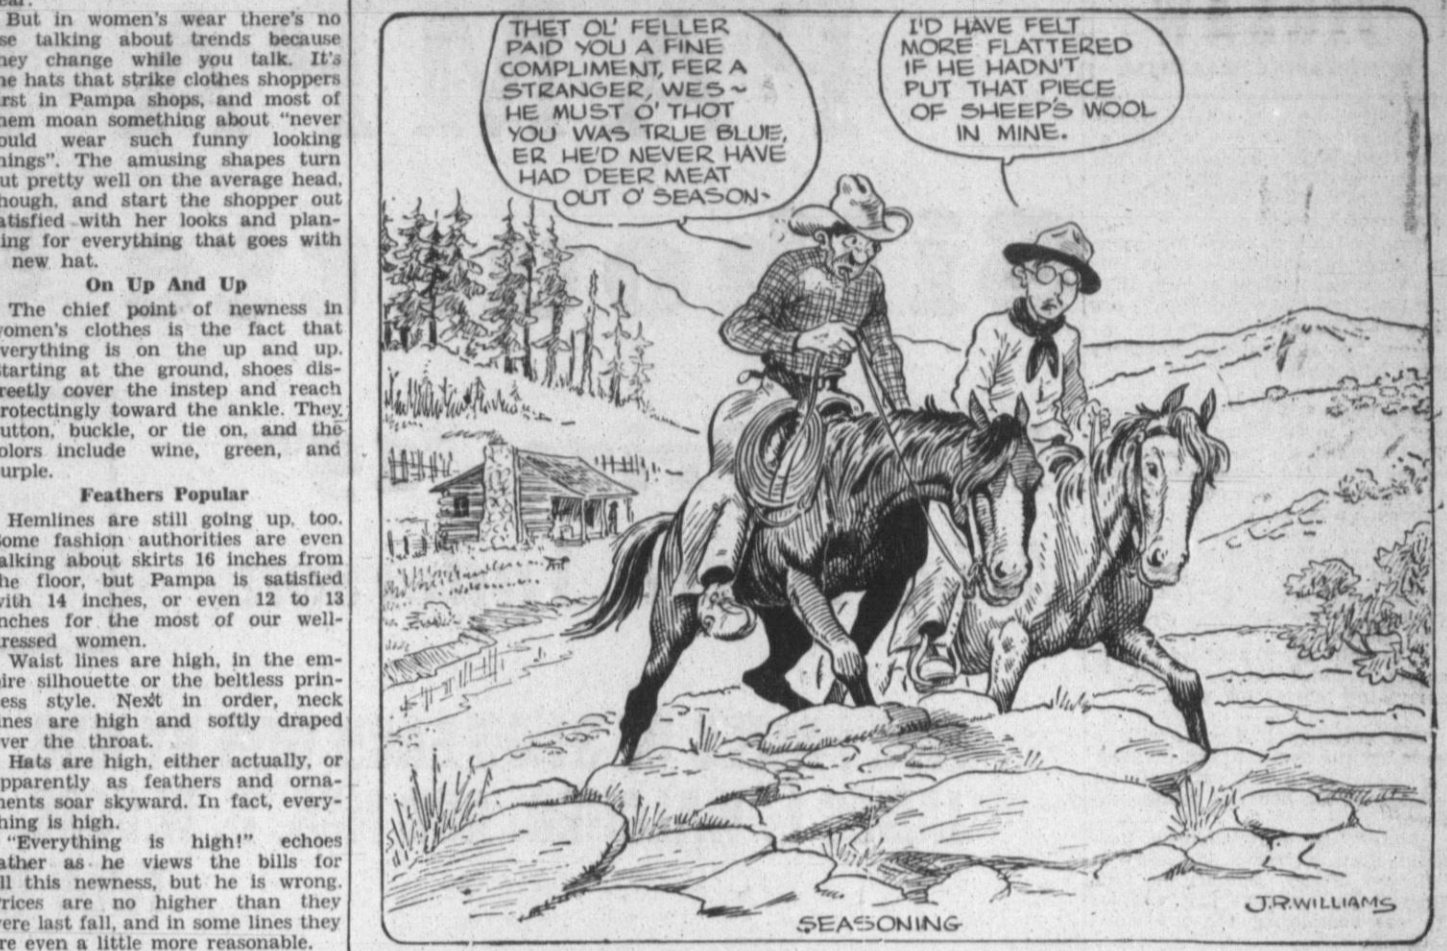

Hemlines are still going up, too. Some fashion authorities are even talking about skirts 16 inches from the floor, but Pampa is satisfied with 14 inches, or even 12 to 13 inches for the most of our well-dressed women.

Waist lines are high, in the empire silhouette or the beltless princess style. Next in order, neck lines are high and softly draped over the throat.

Hats are high, either actually, or apparently as feathers and ornaments soar skyward. In fact, everything is high!

"Everything is high!" echoes father as he views the bills for all this newness, but he is wrong. Prices are no higher than they were last fall, and in some lines they are even a little more reasonable.

THE COUNCIL IN JERUSALEM
Text: Acts 15:1-35; Galatians 2
By Wm. E. Gilroy, D. D.
Editor of Advance

The coming into the early church of Gentile converts brought problems that might have seemed easy of solution, but were difficult because the Jewish converts brought with them into their new faith in Jesus the faith and forms of Judaism.

Paul did not think of himself as less a Jew because he was a follower of Jesus. On the contrary, he believed that, in accepting Jesus as the Messiah, he was following out the teachings and prophecies of the religion in which he had been trained. Thus he said that he worshipped the God of his Fathers, though it was in the way that his former associates called heresy.

The most acute problem that confronted the church concerned the matter of circumcision. This was a rite that occupied much the same place in Judaism that baptism has occupied in the Christian church; and if we think of the Jewish converts as narrow-minded and attaching undue importance to forms in asserting that the Gentile converts to Christianity should be circumcised, we need only imagine what would happen even today if someone proposed that baptism should not be insisted upon.

The council at Jerusalem decided that it was not necessary that the Gentile converts should be circumcised. All that was required of them was that they should fulfill the moral law.

FAIR DATE SET.

Next Wednesday, Sept. 16, is the date for the one-day Hemphill county fair to be held at the city auditorium in Canadian. All exhibits are to be placed Sept. 15. Judging will be done on them the evening of the 15th. Thursday, Sept. 17, the county exhibits will be taken to Amarillo and placed for the Tri-State fair.

A special committee composed of Tom Abraham, Russell Carver and C. W. Callaway was named this week to handle the booths to be built at the city hall.

IN ARMY AIR FORCE. Joe Glass, son of Mrs. J. T. Glass of McLean, and a former McLean high school graduate, has nearly 13,000 flying hours to his credit, having covered a million and a half miles by the sky lanes.

Enrollment in Shamrock schools totaled 885, according to W. C. Perkins, superintendent. Two hundred and seventy-five registered in high school, 188 in Junior high, 296 in the North Ward and 136 in the South Ward.

TO BUY BAND UNIFORMS. At a meeting of the McLean board of city development held Monday evening, it was voted to pay $100 on the new band uniforms being bought by the city.

TRIAL DATE SET. L. Hunter Skaggs, assistant postmaster at Whittenburg, is scheduled to go to trial in federal court at Amarillo Monday on a charge of embezzling $2,815.56 from the post office there.

Skaggs, Frank Rorex of Panhandle and Edward Cleek of McLean left last Sunday to go to Dallas and intended to see the football game Monday. Officers stopped them in Electra and held them for several hours.

Rorex and Cleek were finally released, as officers said they were not implicated in the case. It was necessary for them to return home by bus. Officers held Skaggs and he was returned the next day to Amarillo.

M. P. Leaming, Carson county agent, received notice this week of an average rate of pay per acre under the soil conservation program for Carson county. This rate has been set by the state officials at an average of $8.50 per acre.

Criminal court will begin Monday in the 84th district court at Panhandle with District Attorney W. L. McConnell representing the state in the most important case will be that of the State vs. J. W. Blankenship, charged with the murder of Charley Nugent Earp.

This case was set by Special Judge Perry S. Pearson, of Amarillo, for Wednesday, Sept. 16, at 10 o'clock in the morning. A special venire of 75 jurors has been ordered to be present.

Total enrollment figures show there are 618 pupils enrolled in the Canadian public schools this fall. Of that number 242 are enrolled in high school. That is a gain of seven for the high school over figures reported at this time last year.

Ochiltree county farmers by complying with the soil conservation program will receive approximately $430-$1038 on 15 per cent of the soil depleting base, according to information received Friday by J. T. Stovall, county agent. Data released to the county agent stated that an average of $7.80 an acre would be paid in Ochiltree county, which is somewhat more than had been expected. This can be increased by practicing additional conservation methods it is reported. Payments to farmers should be made early in 1937, it is said.

SPRAYS WATER. Drilled in at 10:30 this forenoon, heavy gas pressure in Porter No. 1 oil test well 6 1/2 miles south of Wheeler, threw a spray of water over the top of the derrick for several minutes from the 4,892-foot horizon. After shutting off for a short time, this action was repeated at intervals throughout the day, but with apparently diminishing force. No oil was brought up with the gas and water.

Augmenting a mere handful of inmates held on various charges, Sheriff Raymond Waters brought the number of prisoners in the Wheeler county jail here to a record high of 24 with the addition of 16 vagrants taken from a Rock Island box car. It is said the men had barricaded themselves in the car and refused to vacate at command of the train crew in Erick. Sheriff Waters was notified and with the assistance of Deputies O. Deweese and Walter Davis, held

Hurtled From Clouds to Flaming Death

A "million-dollar thrill for a one-dollar bill"—a nocturnal air-taxi ride over a county fair-grounds at Pittsburgh, Pa.—became a trip of tragedy for eight passengers and pilot when the plane dived from an altitude of 1000 feet and was devoured by gasoline-fed flames. The grisly scene above—the removal of bodies charred beyond recognition from the fire-blackened wreckage—was witnessed by scores of persons who had been waiting to take "the next ride" in the plane. Only one passenger had the presence of mind to leap free of the plane as it fell and before an explosion started a swiftly-spread fire.

On an Old Plank Road in the Southwest Desert

Citizens of Pampa who are planning to visit the Texas Centennial in Dallas, were urged today by Tom Rose, local Ford dealer, not to miss seeing and enjoying the mammoth air-cooled exhibition in the Ford Motor Co. building at the Centennial. He also recommended that visitors to the Centennial ride over the reproduction of nine famous trails and highways of the "Roads of the Southwest" which encircle the lagoon near the Ford building.

Yuma road, the Colorado desert section of the "Old Spanish Trail," which is known in Texas as State Highway No. 3, is reproduced in part in the "Roads of the Southwest." The original Yuma road stretched across the sandy wastes of the desert between Yuma, Arizona, and El Centro, Calif. It was first built as two parallel rows of planks and was probably one of the most interesting of all highways in the Southwest.

Because of the shifting of the sands by the desert winds, early wagon tracks were obliterated almost as soon as made. After the construction of the plank road it was a constant fight between men and elements to keep the planks from being buried by the blowing sands.

The first road was made of four planks, two for each wheel track, laid across girders in the manner of a primitive railroad track. At intervals turn outs were constructed in the same manner as the regular roadway. As two cars approached the one nearest a turnout would wait for the other to pass.

About 1919 this roadway was much improved and became a state highway. At that time it was reconstructed, the plank parallel tracking being replaced by an eight-foot wide cross-way plank road with similar eight-foot turnouts holding two cars. These turnouts were built every four-tenths of a mile along the route. Now the road is paved. As construction of the paved highway progressed across the desert it was necessary to obtain quantities of water. In a small open space near the center of the dune area a well was drilled and at a depth of 153 feet a flow of water at the rate of 500 gallons a minute was struck. This well is believed to be one of the largest ever struck in the middle of the desert. With this water supply the embankment was drenched to a depth of three feet to form a firm sub-grade for the pavement. The embankment was covered with oil to prevent erosion.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP)—Stepping stones to recovery were present, in today's brief stock market session but the list as a whole was unable to get ahead. A few specialties advanced for reasons of the advances while many recent leaders were virtually unchanged and several were broken for sizable losses.

The wariness of commission house customers was attributed by most brokers partly to complexities of French fiscal troubles. It was the slowest day's proceedings in about three weeks, only 494,700 shares changing hands. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .20 a point at 68.5, duplicating its decline of Friday.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON. NEW ORLEANS Sept. 12. (AP)—Cotton prices performed uncertainly today, ending from 2 points lower to 6 points higher after a quiet session. Evening up for over the week-end, increased hedge selling and reports of more crop deterioration in the west exerted varied influences on prices.

Because the color of the darning cotton and material is usually about the same... the materials are often dark and absorb much of the light... and threads and needles are small. More light compensates for the dark material, and also serves to "magnify" the size of the needle and thread.
