MA'S LEAD WIDENS

R. E. Thomason Ahead In Race For Congress Seat Tamsitt, Acuff Hold Tax Collector Lead

DEBENPORT, CANTRELL, TOWLER, COLLINGS AND LITTLE ARE WINNERS

Run-Off In Tax Collector's Race; White Beats Rosser; City Boxes Complete

With all but two of fifteen Howard county boxes reported complete, including the four city boxes for the county offices and but two small rural boxes—R-Bar and Morris—not complete, it was shown Sunday afternoon that but two and perhaps only one run-off would occur for county offices.

Returns from No. 3, Big Spring, for constable, were not complete and the result of that three-cornered race could not be determined but it was conclusive that J. O. Tamsitt and Loy Acuff would run-off in the August primary for tax collector. Mrs. Ferguson was leading Small in Howard county 1160 to 873.

County Attorney James Little, County Superintendent Cantrell, Justice of the Peace Collings, County Judge Debenport, County Treasurer Towler were all re-nominated.

Of these all except Judge Debenport had but one opponent. He received a majority over two opponents.

Totals at 4 p. m. Sunday, with all boxes complete for county races except Morris and R-Bar were as follows:

M'ALPINE RITES SAID SATURDAY

He Did Not Intend To Shoot Girl Says Widow

Funeral services for Robert H. McAlpine, 38, prominent Big Spring electrical expert, who is alleged to have shot and seriously wounded a former Big Spring girl at Hobbs, N. M., Thursday night, and then held Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock at the Eberly Chapel.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. S. B. Hughes, pastor of the East Fourth Street Baptist Church. Interment was in the new Mt. Olive Cemetery. The body was returned to Big Spring Friday night by the Rix Mortuary of Hobbs.

Mrs. Annie McAlpine, widow of the man, arrived in Big Spring Friday night.

McAlpine is alleged to have gone into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Hobbs, Thursday night following a talk with his wife in which he urged her to return with him to Big Spring. According to reports from Hobbs, she refused.

Girl Is Shot

A few minutes later Miss Lorean Clark, 21, formerly an employee of the Blue Moon Cafe, Scurry street, fell with a bullet wound in her abdomen. When shot she was standing in front of a dressing table. The room was in semi-darkness.

McAlpine walked from the house and sent a bullet through his brain, it was declared. He died 30 to 45 minutes later without regaining consciousness.

The widow of the electrical contractor said Saturday that "she did not intend to shoot Miss Clark."

SOVIET IN PROTESTS

Questions Asked In U. S. Probe Cause Outburst

MOSCOW, July 26 (AP)—Investia, organ of the soviet government today editorially accuses the United States government of having interfered with the internal affairs of the soviet union through the Fish congressional commission. The congressional charges the commission with violation of the elementary requirements of international law.

Investia is particularly bitter over the form of questions asked of Peter Bogdanoff, chairman of the board of Amtorg Trading Corporation, especially those relating to Amtorg's alleged political activities and aims of the communist international in the United States and the actions of certain Russian-Americans. Among these are M. Serebriakoff, who was exiled with Leon Trotsky; M. G. Gurevich, in 1928 acting chairman of Amtorg, and a specialist in anti-line chemicals; Victor Nogin, now dead, former minister of commerce in the Lenin cabinet and director of the All-Russian Cooperative Society, and M. Platukoff, noted economist and in 1928 general director of Amtorg in New York, later a foe of Stalin.

The newspaper also challenges the questioning seeking to fix connection of Amtorg officers with the secret police.

"These anti-soviet demonstrations," the editorial goes on, "have for their purpose the destruction of the wide economic connections between the United States and the soviet union. For the benefit of the small, limited interests of certain groups such a campaign can only lead to serious difficulties for the soviet-American trade and serious damage to American financial and industrial interests."

Investia characterizes the commission's questions to soviet witnesses as "seditious, indecent, impudent, absurd and ignorant." The newspaper further declares the commission is assisted in its work by interpreters and advisers drawn from among white Russian immigrants, adventurers, gambling house keepers and other representatives of the criminal world.

"Leading circles in New York and Washington," concludes the article, "must decide whether the conduct of the commission corresponds with the real interests of the United States."

Discussing the situation with Americans here Litvinoff, foreign chief, intimated that the Soviet government would make a formal protest to the United States against the "unwarrantable and unprecedented interference of the fish commission into the affairs of the soviet union, if normal diplomatic relations existed between the two countries."

RECORD VOTE INDICATED BY EARLY FIGURES

DALLAS, Texas, July 26 (AP)—Favored by ideal weather and spurred to the polls by bitter state and county races, Texans voted in large numbers today in Democratic and Republican primaries.

When the polls closed at 7 p. m. it was estimated in many expert quarters that far more than the 787,901 vote of two years ago had been cast today. The total registration was 1,283,897.

Chief Interest
General interest centered on the 11-man race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, despite the fact there were upwards of 10,000 names listed on Republican and Democratic tickets in the 254 counties in contests running from U. S. senator to constable.

In the Democratic contest for the nomination for governor, Thomas B. Love, Dallas lawyer and state senator, sought to focus the entire fight on a test of his support of Herbert Hoover in the last presidential campaign; when Texas went Republican, but his aim was regarded as having been virtually lost in the struggle over state issues and the matching of intense personalities in the race for votes.

It seemed doubtful that the result would be accepted as a barometer of the stand of Texas Democrats on the question of party loyalty.

Morris Sheppard, Democrat, was opposed by two others for the nomination for U. S. Senator, but his selection was accepted as inevitable.

For Governor
Mrs. Miriam A. ("Ma") Ferguson, former governor, whose husband, James E. Ferguson, was impeached while governor, was confident of a comeback today. The large number of entrants in the governor's race made it seem inevitable that a runoff would be necessary. A runoff will be held in each race in which no candidate receives a majority, the two highest being participants.

Other candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor were former Congressman Jim Young, chairman of the Texas Democratic campaign committee in the last presidential race; R. S. Sterling, chairman of the state highway commission; State Senator Clint C. Small; Lieutenant Governor Berry Miller; Earle H. Mayfield, former United States Senator; Frank Putnam, Paul Loven, C. C. Moody and Dr. C. E. Walker. The last four named did not wage campaigns.

TEXANS END EXPLORING

Liquor Not Brought In Through Canyon

ALPINE, Tex., July 26 (AP)—Contraband liquor is not being imported into the United States across inaccessible and seldom-explored Saint Helena Canyon on the Rio Grande, half in Texas and half in Mexico.

Led by Nick Collear of El Paso, assistant superintendent of the United States border patrol, a party of West Texans today returned from a hazardous trip through the canyon made for the purpose of determining if smugglers had sought safety in its perilousness to put their wares across the international boundary line.

The party was forced to swim, float and crawl to complete the trip.

Several automobile inner tubes used by the explorers to support them in the turbulent whirlpool of the Rio Grande were punctured by floating cactus.

Jimmy Terrell, Sul Ross College basket ball star, narrowly missed death when sucked down by a whirlpool and had to be rescued with a rope by the others.

STERLING'S PLACE MAY BE SECURE

Small Losses to Sterling On 4 P. M. Total Count

At 4 p. m. the Texas Election Bureau reported the following total votes for the candidates for governor:
Ferguson 153,863
Sterling 107,473
Small 55,778
Love 52,778
Young 40,751

Mayfield 33,548
Moody 3,117
Loven 2,009
Putnam 2,017
Walker 1,872

At that hour a total of 525,777 votes for governor had been counted. The report included votes from 231 of 253 counties, 41 counties.

Mrs. Ferguson's lead over Sterling was 46,426.

The 4 p. m. total saw Sterling take a big lead over Small compared with earlier totals. His margin was 22,258 compared with 2,217 at p. m.

Totals at 4 o'clock for other races were:

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—Arnold 27,403, Darwin 43,316, Hst. 23,181, Parnell 64,415, Rogers 43,427, Strong 98,177, Witt 95,411

Producer Catches Fish Hook In Heart

LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—Ralph Ince, motion picture producer, seriously injured when a three inch fish hook was imbedded in his skull through a freak accident was said by physicians to be recovering today.

Attached at the Hollywood community hospital where an operation removed the fish hook, said Ince was out of danger unless infection sets in.

Ince, a brother of the late Thomas Ince, film director, and producer, was hurt yesterday while fishing along about 18 miles off the Santa Monica coast. The hook on his line had become snagged in seaweed and Ince tugged heavily to free it. The line suddenly loosened and whipped over his head, imbedding the hook deeply at the base of his skull. Although the boat was headed shoreward immediately, it was nearly four hours later when the hook was removed at the hospital.

OKLAHOMAS KILLED
GALENA, Kas., July 26 (AP)—Mrs. Roxie Meade, 31, of Picher, Okla., and F. E. Cole, 43, of Joplin, Mo., were killed when a car in which they were riding crashed down an embankment five miles west of here last night, died as a result of injuries and were not drowned. Coroner J. S. McAuley said today after an investigation. No inquest will be held.

The car left the road, plunged over the embankment, overturned several times and landed upside down in Brush creek.

Cole was talking Mrs. Meade to Webb City, where she had obtained employment, her husband said.

Three Killed In Hobbs Air Crash

HOBBS, N. M., July 26 (AP)—Three persons were dead today as a result of a plane crash late yesterday at Hobbs, N. M. They were: W. A. Mosler, Pilot, Tulsa, Okla. W. R. Lion, Hobbs.
Miss Hattie Thompson, Hobbs.
The plane crashed and burst into flames, burning the bodies beyond recognition.

A department of commerce representative was expected to arrive today to investigate the cause of the crash.

Mosler was widely known in Oklahoma as a sportsman and aviator and left Tulsa Tuesday for Hobbs, accompanied by Mervin Symmer.

The ship had been aloft about twenty minutes, witnesses said, when the pilot attempted to bank at too low an altitude. Flames burst from the craft as it struck the ground and within a few minutes the metal casing over the motor was melted.

Record Vote (Continued From Page 1) very active campaigns. A proposed $300,000,000 state highway bond program was the most stressed item in the campaign.

Reporter's Office Ransacked After Gangland Articles. ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP)—The St. Louis Star today announced that the office of Harry T. Brundage, one of its reporters who recently appeared before a Chicago grand jury in connection with his stories alleging racketeering by Chicago newspapermen, was forcibly entered and ransacked last night.

Kansas Will Have 'Speechless Race' Following Death. TOPEKA, Kas., July 26 (AP)—Death cast a shadow today over what has been one of Kansas' most spirited primary campaigns in years. Upon receiving word of the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Reed, at Montrose, Colo., yesterday, Governor Clyde M. Reed who is seeking the Republican nomination for another term cancelled the remainder of his campaign address.

Head Wins Dallas Sheriff's Race. DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—Returns from fifty precincts, twelve of which were complete, tabulated at 10 o'clock tonight by the Dallas county election bureau and accounting for 10,996 votes, showed that Hal Hood, sheriff, had defeated Schuyler Marshall for the nomination to that office by a majority of about two to one.

Jim Is Jubilant Over 'Ma's' Race. AUSTIN, Texas, July 26 (AP)—Jubilant over the race being run by his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, was expressed here tonight by former Governor James E. Ferguson as returns at 11 p. m. gave the first woman governor of Texas a lead of several thousand votes over Ross S. Sterling of Houston.

Beaumont Wins 5 to 4 Over Dallas. BEAUMONT, Tex., July 26 (AP)—Charley Wade's walk to center the ninth with two away earned the bases and gave Beaumont a 4 to 3 victory over Dallas here this afternoon. Old Dick Kinney, veteran southpaw for the Stars, strayed with hits but liberal walks. He forced across a run the ninth when he was relieved Meadows, who was greeted Wade's blow that scored as a tri.

The Last Man's Toast

THE LAST MAN has made his last toast. On July 21 Charles Lockwood, the only survivor of Company B, First Minnesota Volunteers, stood at a table in a hotel dining room in Stillwater, Minn., and carried out the pledge that was made 44 years ago.

At that time there were 34 living members of Company B. They bought a bottle of Burgundy and put it in a safe, pledging themselves to hold a reunion each year and toast their departed comrades; and they agreed that when only one man was left, he should open this bottle and toast the others.

There is something unusually appealing about this ceremony. For Lockwood is not only the one remaining member of the famous Last Man's club; he is, in a way, a symbol—the incarnation, for all of us, of the Civil War veteran.

We shall not have these veterans a great deal longer. North and south, they are going away with tragic swiftness. Each Memorial day finds their ranks thinner. Of the more than 2,000,000 men who went to arms in the Civil War, only a few scattered thousands are left.

But something remains, for us and for this gallant old Minnesota veteran. Memories—and a tradition. The first entrance of the child into school represents to him an initial contact with society. The home realm is a sheltered sphere.

Notice should be made on a proper record-card of his physical condition in its positive and negative aspects. This record should serve both as a notice of the defects which need correction, and of the conditions that prevail. It will be an excellent basis for judging the physical progress the child makes as he grows older.

The week's schedule in the City League is as follows: Monday—Barbers and Coahoma. Tuesday—Coahoma and Richardson. Wednesday—Tigers and Barbers. Thursday—Bankers and Coahoma. Friday—Coahoma and Tigers.

Dennis Lavender, West Texas golfer claimed jointly by Abilene and San Angelo, for some reason or another, has been using knowledge gleaned from the Irons by working on the Masonic building. According to those that know, he is a tile setter, which, in our opinion, is one hard place to sit. He also is fair on the sand shovel, shooting one above par in Friday's round on the sand hole on Third street. Lavender will soon appear in San Angelo to defend his title in the tourney of that hamlet. His case is interesting. He is an Abilene product, but for some reason or another, the answer of which probably goes unknown, San Angelo delights in referring to him as "Dennis Lavender of San Angelo."

Speaking of golf, we see that a Los Angeles man, gone completely with the putt-putt gaze found it too has its hazards, mental and otherwise. As he sat in a chair waiting for a twosome to get off the miniature green and move to other parts, the chair executed a pitch shot and he made a hole-in-one head as he collided with a concrete hazard. Local enthusiasts should glean the moral from that fable. In other words, never sit down and wait for the ones ahead to get through. Just shoot ahead and then claim the ball closer to the cup. Another good way to get hurt playing miniature golf is to sink a net wire. Sobah.

No seats will be reserved for today's tilt. Please bear that in mind. Unfortunately the league carpenter didn't get to erect the extra bleachers for the Abilene-Big Spring game, but we'll allow those wanting to do so to sit on top of the grandstand and see the world through a net wire. Sobah.

Texas Gold Star Mothers Embark

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—The fourteenth contingent of 233 gold star mothers embarked on the S. S. Republic today to sail for the graves of their sons in France and battlefields where they lost their lives.

Among members of the pilgrims, many of whom had left hospitals and sick beds to make the trip, was Mrs. Lenora Dyer of Fort Worth, Texas, whose son by a previous marriage, Charles C. Rascoe, died of spinal meningitis a month after the armistice was signed.

"I left the hospital only ten days ago," she said today. "But I was determined to come and my family wanted me to. They literally picked me up and sent me off, because they knew I would feel so much happier after I'd seen Charles' grave."

Mrs. Etta Horton of Irondale, Mo., who has been ill for the past two weeks and who suffered from brain-sickness on the trip to New York, embarked today with a feeling of relief.

"You can't tell me that the ocean will make me feel any sicker than the train did," she said. "I'm going no matter how I feel, for I know that once I see where Ernest lies, he was my youngest—I'll be all right."

Among those carrying memorials for the graves of their soldiers was Mrs. T. W. Couch of Grandview, Texas, whose son, Lieutenant Hutt Couch, was killed October 8, 1918, in the St. Mihiel drive.

A corner of her suitcase held a dozen jonquil bulbs from the bed which always bloomed on her son's birthday and a box of soil from the yard in which he played as a child.

Mrs. Couch expects to fulfill two missions on her pilgrimage to France. The second is a visit to the grave of the son of a Dallas, Texas, gold star mother, who is 87 years old and unable to make the long trip. The Dallas mother advertised in newspapers for a proxy for her pilgrimage and Mrs. Couch volunteered to fulfill the mission.

Humidity Alibi No Good This Season In 'Roasting' California Will Rogers Tells The Folks

By Will Rogers
Well all I know is just what I read in the papers, and what I know when I am there to know it. Now don't let them tell you it hasn't been hot here in California the past few weeks. Brother its been roasting and we haven't got the usual Alibi, "Its the humidity". We haven't even got any of that. Course its been cool in the night. (That is fairly cool) I am not going to be too big a liar just for the sake of the State. Its just been hot, thats all. Of course the papers gut he had to do was to register his position, and not drag it out into this mess. He and senator Dave Reed had a pretty set to last week. Dave told him he could go and see with a headline back there.

You can publish all the statistics and junk you want but I guess the whole country has been hit pretty hard. But I lay it to the Stock Market crash last fall. Soon as the market gets a little better we will have some cold weather. Yes we are liable to have snow just as soon as the Market gets better.

Say you know what we got out here besides the heat. Well its a fish they call it Grunion. (Not Grundy) Grunion. At certain times of the day and year why it washes right up on the bank or beach rather. You can tell where I did all my early swimming. Its just a few inches long and pretty small. If even in a story. Well people go to the Beaches by the Fords full and after a big wave come in why they make a dive and tackle these things with their hands, and the funny part of it is, they know when its going to happen just like an eclipse. The papers all announce it. "Grunion will appear on such and such a Beach at 9:43 Tuesday night, July 12, 1936. If there is any change in the Grunions arrival time like there was in Amos and Andy's, why it will be announced as soon as we hear from them."

See by the papers that Mr. Hoover's western vacation trip has been cut to two weeks in the Rockies, all on account of Hiram Johnston wanting to argue over the hair. You remember the old original over in Coventry, England, (by the way I played there in Vaudeville, many years ago, faint far from Shakespeare's old stomping ground) well that Lady had a horse, and she had a mane longer than the horses. But this one here the other day had traded her "Cayuse" for a Chevrolet Roadster, and her hair was short. Course this is all from heresy. I would miss it.

I think she come clear for its awful hard to tell when a woman is nude nowadays and when she is fully clothed. If the worst come to the worst she could always say it was an evening dress. But we do have great times out here, with Women driving nude and fish attacking people right up on dry land, and the heat 120 in the shade. We have lots of fun here. Come on out we will put you in the Movies (Copyright, 1936, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Circus Python Is Found and Killed

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—The 20-foot, 200-pound Indian python which disappeared from a cage in Sea Breeze Park eight days ago has been killed and residents and campers of the resort have started to walk rump again.
The Indian jungle monster was discovered underneath a small wooden building 200 feet from the cage it occupied by a park employe. Captain R. H. Staines, director of Sea Breeze Amusement Park killed the reptile with one shot. Since the python escaped probably a thousand persons have engaged daily in the search for it.

More Cities Bog In Heat Wave

By The Associated Press
The East and Midwest faced a blistering Sunday today as the heat wave came roasting back.
Cities in Eastern states reported to the Associated Press that the mercury was rising at noon and that the humidity was keeping pace. It was 85 degrees in New York at noon (E. S. T.) and 83 degrees in Washington at 9 o'clock.
Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa were expectant of temperatures of 100 degrees. Kansas City registered 89 at 9 o'clock and St. Louis 92 at the same hour.
Showers brought relief to the northwest. St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago all reported figures below 80 degrees.
Ohio was again bogged in the heat. It was 81 in Cleveland at 11 o'clock, and 100 in Youngstown.

Enough's Plenty, Farmer Decides After 150 Chickens Dwindle to Pair, Red Paint Recovers Fowls and Thief

There are certain persons, and noble breed they are, who, in times of adversity can take it and say nothing. And it follows, as a general thing, that this type usually knows when enough is enough and acts. Of such stuff is L. M. Milstead, Howard county farmer, made of. A year ago, Milstead had 150 chickens, good chickens, too, as far as chickens go. At least they were his chickens—150 of them—and he didn't care to give up the power of ownership. But he did.
It seems that as days merged in to weeks, and weeks into months, the original 150 chickens dwindled. Someone, somehow, was helping himself to Mr. Milstead's poultry. But he didn't say much. He belonged to the breed that takes trouble as it comes, single-handed.
150, Then Two
The 150 chickens were reduced to 12 as the months went by. Thursday night someone took 10 of the remaining 12, and when Mr. Milstead went out Friday morning to view his white egg-layers, his eyes rested on two—just two—a hen, and her boy friend, the rooster.
Before the eyes of Mr. Milstead passed the succulent visions of the 150 chickens of the past, and the picture gradually floated back to one responsible for the depletion of

Boy Dead, Agent Held By Police

That Red Paint

COLUMBUS, Ga., July 26 (AP)—A 19-year-old boy was dead of a gunshot wound today and a prohibition agent was held by police who investigated conflicting stories of the circumstances of the shooting.
Ray Rodgers was shot last night in the back yard of a residence here. W. K. Johnston, Jr., prohibition agent, said he was lying in the yard when Rodgers and a girl companion arrived in automobile. Johnston said he "flushed a light" into the automobile and that Rodgers and the girl, who told police she was Eunice Johnson, 19, grabbed for his pistol. During the fight for the gun, Johnston said, Rodgers was shot. The girl said no effort had been made to take Johnston's pistol.
The prohibition agent said Rodgers was caught in the act of delivering a gallon of liquor. Rodgers was shot once in the head. Johnston took him to a hospital where he died.
Eight states have laws to prevent guests in automobiles from suing owners in case of unavoidable accident.

Firm writes letter telling of its belief in newspaper space and of its first day's business in Big Spring.
After experiencing an unusually good business the first day of their opening in Big Spring the Oklahoma Brokerage Co. (conducting the sale of the S. Segal and Co. stock) wrote the following letter to the Herald:

Big Spring Herald
Big Spring, Texas
We have just taken a check of the receipts of the sale we opened Thursday, July 24, and which was advertised extensively through your newspaper.
We have conducted sales throughout the Southwest on stocks our company has purchased, and have rarely met with the success that the sale in Big Spring was accorded.
Sales cannot be a success, regardless of the great values one has to offer the public, unless the advertising is placed in the proper hands. Through the huge crowds your newspaper attracted to our bankrupt sale of the stock of the S. Segal & Co. in Big Spring, the sales ran far beyond our utmost expectation.
Thanking you for your co-operation in making the sale the great success it is, inasmuch as we depended on the newspaper to relay to the public the outstanding values we are able to offer, due to our buying high-prude stocks at a fraction of their actual value, we are,
Yours sincerely,
THE OKLAHOMA BROKERAGE CO.

MRS. FERGUSON LEADS

Murphy Leads Thomason For Congress In Early Returns Tamsitt, Acuff Leading For Tax Collector

CANTRELL COLLINGS AND LITTLE SAFELY IN LEAD; OTHER RACES ARE CLOSE

Prescott Presses Towler; Nichols Ahead For Constable; Mrs. Ferguson Leads

With all of the fifteen Howard county boxes heard from, twelve of them complete and three incomplete, indications were early Sunday morning that J. O. Tamsitt and Loy Acuff will go into the second primary as opponents for county tax collector. Tamsitt, deputy tax collector for the past seven years, polled 814 votes, while Acuff got 648.

The largest box in the county, Precinct Three, had not been counted at 2:30 o'clock Sunday morning. At that time approximately 900 of the 1071 votes cast in that box had been tabulated.

Judge H. R. Debenport, by a wide majority, again was elected county judge over two opponents. He had polled 1,372, more than both of his opponents registered. J. D. Cunningham polled 298 and H. C. Hooser 792.

Nichols Leads
It appeared this morning that W. M. Nichols would win the race for constable in Precinct One, over the incumbent, John T. Williams. Although he did not have a majority over Williams and John G. Ogden, he was polling a heavy vote and Precinct Three has not been counted for several hours. Nichols had 829, Williams 588 and Ogden 480.

Miss Pauline Cantrell, with 1441 had a safe lead over Robert Lawrence, with 879.

James Little, incumbent, polled 1477 votes to defeat his opponent, J. G. Whitaker, who received 920.

J. G. Towler with 1270 had a narrow lead over W. A. Prescott, 1074, for treasurer.

Running true to form, Howard county again came to the polls and gave a record vote for former governor Miriam A. Ferguson in the gubernatorial race. Votes for Mrs. Ferguson totaled 864. Other counts were, Thomas B. Love 245, Clint C. Small 520, R. S. Sterling 220, Earle B. Mayfield 108, Jim Young 45.

E. E. (Pat) Murphy of San Angelo is leading Howard county in the race for congress. He polled 1077 votes, while R. A. Thomason of El Paso received 958. Marvin L. Burkhead of El Paso received 135 votes.

C. C. Collings with 1200 had apparently defeated John R. Williams with 803, for justice of the peace.

The final count in the heavy Precinct Three box was expected to change a number of totals, but was not expected to change the results of any of the races.

Other incomplete boxes were Bar and Morris.

FIRST REPORTS INDICATE RACE WILL BE CLOSE

After having dogged the tracks of his chief opponent, Mayor E. E. Thomason of El Paso for several hours, E. E. (Pat) Murphy gained the lead in the contest for the Democratic nomination for congress from the 16th district, according to returns compiled at 1:30 a. m. Sunday by the Texas Election Bureau.

The report included returns from 25 of the 28 counties in the largest congressional district in the United States. Returns from only one county were complete.

The vote was: Burkhead 822, Murphy 5,547, Thomason 4,915.

Howard county returned, on incomplete returns, a slight plurality for Mr. Murphy.

Mitchell county reported the following incomplete vote at midnight: Murphy 497, Thomason 531, Burkhead 34.

Martin county, with eight of 11 precincts in, reported: Murphy 233, Thomason 280, Burkhead 61.

In the 17th district Thomas L. Bianton was leading Earl Earp 29-307 to 9,734 with reports from 17 counties, one complete.

Three Killed In Hobbs Air Crash
HOBBS, N. M., July 26 (AP)—Three persons were dead today as a result of a plane crash late yesterday at Hobbs, N. M. They were: W. A. Mosier, Pilot, Tulsa, Okla. Miss Hattie Thompson, Hobbs. The plane crashed and burst into flames, burning the bodies beyond recognition.

A department of commerce representative was expected to arrive today to investigate the cause of the crash.

Mosier was widely known in Oklahoma as a sportsman and aviator and left Tulsa Tuesday for Hobbs, accompanied by Mervyn Szymmer.

The ship had been aloft about twenty minutes, witnesses said, when the pilot attempted to bank at too low an altitude. Flames burst from the craft as it struck the ground and within a few minutes the metal casing over the motor was melted.

M'ALPINE RITES SAID SATURDAY

He Did Not Intend To Shoot Girl Says Widow

Funeral services for Robert H. McAlpine, 38, prominent Big Spring electrical expert, who is alleged to have shot and seriously wounded a former Big Spring girl at Hobbs, N. M., Thursday night, and then turned the gun on himself, were held Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock at the Eberly Chapel.

The rites were conducted by the Rev. S. E. Hughes, pastor of the East Fourth Street Baptist Church. Interment was in the new Mt. Olive Cemetery. The body was returned to Big Spring Friday night by the Rig Mortuary of Hobbs.

Mrs. Annie McAlpine, widow of the man, arrived in Big Spring Friday night.

McAlpine is alleged to have gone into the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Hobbs, Thursday night following a talk with his wife in which he urged her to return with him to Big Spring. According to reports from Hobbs, she refused.

A few minutes later Miss Lorean Clark, 21, formerly an employee of the Blue Moon Cafe, Sourry street, fell with a bullet wound in her abdomen. When shot she was standing in front of a dressing table. The room was in semi-darkness.

McAlpine walked from the house and sent a bullet through his brain, it was declared. He died 30 to 45 minutes later without regaining consciousness.

The widow of the electrical contractor said Saturday that "he didnt intend to shoot Miss Clark."

Curlee Wins Fiddlers' Contest; Reunion Successful
I. B. Cauble, famous breeder of Hereford cattle, cotton and grain sorghums, was elected president of the Howard County Old Settlers Association, by acclamation, Friday afternoon at the fifth annual reunion, at Cottonwood park.

Ben Allen was named vice-president and Mrs. G. L. Brown was made secretary.

In the Fiddlers' contest, held under direction of Ray Wilcox, Joe Curlee won first prize, Thompson Bostick second and D. B. Cox third.

Constantans and the pieces they played were: Joe Curlee, a medley, and "The Old Grey Mare"; Frank Logan, a medley and "Turkey In De Straw"; Bill Thomas, "Jack O Diamonds" and "Turkey In De Straw"; Jim Graves, "Soldier's Joy" and "Leather Breeches"; Andrew Franklin, "Turkey In De Straw" and a medley; Thompson Bostick, "Tom and Jerry" and "Hell Amongst The Yearlings"; D. B. Cox, "Old Hen She Cackled" and "The Old Grey Mare"; I. B. Cauble, "Natches Under the Hill" and "Devils Dream"; R. A. Thomason, "Devil's Dream" and "Sally Good'n"; W. L. Robinson, "Sally Johnson" and "Elks Across The Plains"; The Jacksons sisters and Mary Wade and the daughters of Jim Winslow, one of the old timers, added much to the musical program.

RECORD VOTE INDICATED BY EARLY FIGURES

DALLAS, Texas, July 26 (AP)—Favored by ideal weather and spurred to the polls by bitter state and county races, Texans voted in large numbers today in Democratic and Republican primaries.

When the polls closed at 7 p. m. it was estimated in many expert quarters that far more than the 757,901 vote of two years ago had been cast today. The total registration was 1,283,897.

Chief Interest
General interest centered on the 11-man race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, despite the fact there were upwards of 10,000 names listed on Republican and Democratic tickets in the 254 counties in contests running from U. S. senator to constable.

In the Democratic contest for the nomination for governor, Thomas B. Love, Dallas lawyer and state senator, sought to focus the entire fight on a test of his support of Herbert Hoover in the last presidential campaign; when Texas went Republican, but his aim was regarded as having been virtually lost in the struggle over state issues and the matching of intense personalities in the race for votes.

It seemed doubtful that the result would be accepted as a barometer of the stand of Texas Democrats on the question of party loyalty.

Morris Sheppard, Democrat, was opposed by two others for the nomination for U. S. Senator, but his selection was accepted as inevitable.

For Governor
Mrs. Miriam A. ("Ma") Ferguson, former governor, whose husband, James E. Ferguson, was impeached while governor, was confident of a comeback today. The large number of entrants in the gubernatorial race made it seem inevitable that a runoff would be necessary. A runoff will be held in each race in which no candidate receives a majority, the two highest being participants.

Other candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor were former Congressman Jim Young, chairman of the Texas Democratic campaign committee in the last presidential race; R. S. Sterling, chairman of the state highway commission; State Senator Clint C. Small; Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller; Earle B. Mayfield, former United States Senator; Frank Putnam, Paul Loven, C. C. Moody and Dr. C. E. Walker. The last four named did not wage

Liquor Not Brought In Through Canyon

ALPINE, Tex., July 26 (AP)—Contraband liquor is not being imported into the United States across inaccessible and seldom-explored Saint Helena Canyon on the Rio Grande, half in Texas and half in Mexico.

Assisted by Nick Collier of El Paso, assistant superintendent of the United States border patrol, a party of West Texans today returned from a hazardous trip through the canyon made for the purpose of determining if smugglers had sought safety in its perilousness to put their wares across the international boundary line.

The party was forced to swim, float and crawl to complete the trip.

Several automobile inner tubes used by the explorers to support them in the turbulent whirlpool of the Rio Grande were punctured by floating cactus.

Jimmy Terrell, Sul Ross College basket ball star, narrowly missed death when sucked down by a whirlpool and had to be rescued with a rope by the others.

THE WEATHER
West Texas Generally fair, except probably thundershowers in extreme west portion, Sunday and Monday.

STERLING RUNS SECOND BUT SMALL THREATENS HIM; TOM LOVE FOURTH

Witt And Strong Neck-And-Neck For Lieutenant Governor; Allred Leads

DALLAS, July 26—A run off between Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson and R. S. Sterling for the governorship seemed a probability when the Texas Election Bureau closed its tabulation for the night with the possibility that the run off might be between Mrs. Ferguson and Clint Small. Sterling's margin over Small for second place was about ten thousand, which isn't decisive, with possibly 350,000 votes to hear from.

The number of counties reported complete is not sufficiently large to furnish an accurate basis for estimating the total vote, but there seems no reason to expect it to go much if any beyond the total of 755,000 cast in July, 1928. Candidates having majorities at the close of the night were:

Senator Morris Sheppard over Robert L. Henry and G. A. Mitchner for United States Senator.

C. M. Cureton over Covey C. Thomas for chief justice of the supreme court.

O. S. Lattimore over James A. Stephens for judge of the court of criminal appeals.

George H. Sheppard over Arthur L. Mills for comptroller.

J. H. Walker for land commissioner over G. E. Johnson and J. W. Burks.

High pairs and apparent contenders in the August runoff were: Edgar Witt and Sterling P. Strong for lieutenant governor.

James V. Allred and Robert E. Bobbitt for attorney general.

Charley Lockhart and John E. Davis for state treasurer.

J. E. McDonald and Robert A. Freeman or A. H. King for commissioner of agriculture. King and Freeman were running neck and neck.

Pat M. Neff and W. Gregory Hatcher for railroad commissioner.

At 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning the Texas Election Bureau gave the following totals, including returns from 208 of 253 counties, nine complete

U. S. SENATOR—Henry, 51,662; Mitchner, 11,279; Sheppard, 152,161.

BIG SPRING TIRE DEALER'S LARGE SHIPMENT
FIRST CARLOAD GENERAL TIRES
THE ALL-WEATHER TIRE CO. BIG SPRING TEXAS

The All-Weather Tire company, dealers in General tires, is opening a "trade-in sale" Monday. Terms offered in the sale are outlined in a full page advertisement in this issue of The Herald. Above you see the carload shipment of General blowout-proof tires, ready to leave the factory in Akron, Ohio, enroute to Big Spring. The inset is of Charles W. Creighton, better known as Charlie, who made his first trip east recently and stopped on his way to the Atlantic seaboard with Mrs. Creighton at the plant of the General Tire & Rubber company in Akron. After seeing General tires made for the first time, Charlie ordered a carload sent back to the All-Weather Tire company of Big Spring, of which he is the tire sales manager and of which Jack Ellis is president and owner. Charlie, who is one of the best cattle ropers in West Texas, is shown in the oval. In the group with him are Charles J. Jahant, vice-president of the General Tire & Rubber company in charge of production; L. A. McQueen, trade sales manager; and F. C. Moore, assistant manager of the southwest district of the company at Dallas.

Record Vote
very active campaigns.
A proposed $300,000,000 state highway bond program was the most stressed issue in the campaign. Sterling, wealthy Houston newspaper publisher, championed the bond issue while most of the other candidates opposed it. Sterling also was understood to have the quiet backing of Governor Dan Moody.
Early unofficial returns showed Sterling leading in Houston and San Antonio, two of the three largest cities in the state, but Mrs. Ferguson was close behind in San Antonio. The Ferguson vote usually had been strongest in the rural sections.
Dallas County
Unofficial returns from Dallas county indicated that Miller and Love, both of whom live here, would be high candidates in this county. A large vote was reported in West Texas where Small was reportedly strong. Small was reported to have a good lead at Amarillo.
Voting was reported light in the Republican primary. The Republicans held their second primary in the state's history as a result of the G. O. P. candidate for governor polling more than 100,000 votes in 1928. Four candidates contested for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, and the Republicans also had complete state and national tickets in the field.
In the congressional contests, sixteen Democrats and Texas' lone Republican representative sought renomination. Nine of the Democrats had opposition as did the Republican. There was a three-cornered fight for the Democratic nomination for the other place, that of the retiring Claude Hudspeth of the El Paso district.
McAlpine
That was the extent of her statement in regard to the tragedy.
Mrs. McAlpine was in the house at the time Miss Clark was wounded. She had been making her residence with the Clark family, for last few weeks.
McAlpine is survived by his widow, two sons, Billy Joe, 5, and Earl Leo, 8, and his mother, Mrs. Margaret H. McAlpine of Washington, Kansas. Her age prevented her from attending the funeral of her son. He also is survived by one brother, Hugh McAlpine, Walters, Okla., who was here for the funeral, and a sister, Mrs. F. B. McKelvey of Washington, Kan., who arrived late Saturday afternoon.
Mrs. J. B. Crosswhite and Mrs. Earl Dennis of McGeorge, sisters of Mrs. McAlpine, were here for the rites.
McAlpine was the owner of the McAlpine Electrical Co., 2109 Scurry Street, owned a half interest in a brick building at that address, and was an experienced and efficient electrical expert. He had been in business for himself more than a year. Prior to that time he was associated with the Sun Electric Co. of Abilene, and had charge of the wiring of several large Big Spring building projects.
He left Big Spring at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon en route to Hobbs. He and his wife had been estranged for several weeks.
Miss Clark was reported to be in an improved condition Saturday from Hobbs.
QUAKE HITS GERMANY
DUESBERG, Altstadt, Germany, July 26 (AP)—Residents of this city were thrown into a panic by an earthquake here this forenoon which rocked furniture and shook pictures from walls.
People ran into the streets fearing a disaster but no casualties were reported.

Reporter's Office Ransacked After Gangland Articles
ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP)—The St. Louis Star today announced that the office of Harry T. Brundidge, one of its reporters who recently appeared before a Chicago grand jury in connection with his stories alleging racketeering by Chicago newspapermen, was forcibly entered and ransacked last night. The office is in the Star building.
In offering $500 reward for arrest and conviction of persons responsible for the burglary, the newspaper said it was not yet known what had been taken.
Kansas Will Have 'Speechless Race' Following Death
TOPEKA, Kas., July 26 (AP)—Death cast a shadow today over what has been one of Kansas' most spirited primary campaigns in years.
Upon receiving word of the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Reed, at Montrose, Colo., yesterday, Governor Clyde M. Reed who is seeking the Republican nomination for another term cancelled the remainder of his campaign addresses.
Announcement was made his opponent, Frank ("Chief") Haucke, would do likewise. John Breyfogle, his campaign manager, issued this statement:
"Out of courtesy to Governor Reed in the loss of his mother, Mr. Haucke has decided he will make no more speeches during the primary campaign and has so advised his state headquarters."
Hood Wins Dallas Sheriff's Race
DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—Returns from fifty precincts, twelve of which were complete, tabulated at 10 o'clock tonight by the Dallas county election bureau and accounting for 10,996 votes, showed that Hal Hood, sheriff, had defeated Schuyler Marshall for the nomination to that office by a majority of about two to one.
The tabulation also showed that William McCraw, incumbent, again had been nominated for district attorney over Robert L. Hurt. McCraw's majority on this tabulation was 623 votes.
District judges apparently nominated on the basis of the figures at 10 o'clock were: 66th district, T. A. Work over Austin Hatchell; 10th district, Claude McCallum over Cecil Simpson; 116th district, Robert E. Allen over E. M. Harndon.
George C. Purl apparently had defeated W. S. Bramlett and Claude McCallum over Cecil Simpson; 116th district, Robert E. Allen over E. M. Harndon.
George C. Purl apparently had defeated W. S. Bramlett and Claude Westerland for the state senate, with a majority over both.
Jim Is Jubilant Over 'Ma's' Race
AUSTIN, Texas, July 26 (AP)—Jubilant over the race being run by his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, was expressed here tonight by former Governor James E. Ferguson as returns at 11 p. m. gave the first woman governor of Texas a lead of several thousand votes over Ross S. Sterling of Houston.
Former Governor Ferguson said: "Since the first dispatch in which Sterling led my wife, the next governor of Texas, by some 3,500 votes, she has gained a lead of some 10,000 votes over the highway commission chairman. As additional returns come in, especially from the rural areas, I know her lead will be increased in like proportion."
"The returns have caused a good many political upsets and when all the returns are in, I look for my pre-election prediction to be substantially fulfilled," Ferguson stated.
" My wife expresses her thanks and good will to all her friends throughout the state who have contributed to this patriotic result."
Attack Victims Found On Track
SENECA, Mo., July 26 (AP)—Mystery surrounds the death of Francis King, 21, Ottawa, Okla., and the critical injuries to Lucian Long, also of Ottawa, who were found lying on the main line right-of-way of the Frisco railroad four miles west of here today.
King had suffered a fracture of the skull, a crushed chest and severe abrasions on the body, arms and legs. Long was suffering from a fractured skull.
The nature of their injuries did not lend credence to a theory that they had been struck by a locomotive and their bodies were too near the rails to have fallen from a train. King's body was on one side of the track and Long on the other. A double-barrel shotgun lay beside King. It had not been fired. They are believed to be victims of an attack.
DALLAS, Texas, July 26 (AP)—The Cosden Oil Company No. 2 McKinney in the Cosden pool, three miles west of the Petus discovery pool, Bee county, came in yesterday at 2,080 barrels on a half inch choke at 3,682 feet. The Cosden pool, with five producers, as yet has no pipe line outlet.

Beaumont Wins 5 to 4 Over Dallas
BEAUMONT, Tex., July 26 (AP)—Charley Wade's wallop to center in the ninth with two away cleared the bases and gave Beaumont a 5 to 4 victory over Dallas here this afternoon. Old Dick Henny, veteran southpaw for the Steers, was stung with hits but liberal with walks. He forced across a run in the ninth when he was relieved by Meadows, who was greeted by Wade's blow that scored as a triple.

Fatherless Youth Paroled By Moody
AUSTIN, July 26 (AP)—A general parole was issued by the governor today to Pete Bell, Smith County, sentenced to two years imprisonment for that.
The parole was issued on representation of citizens that Bell was a 17-year-fatherless youth who was repentant of his act. Furlough extensions included: Ed Lightfoot, Lubbock, prohibition, extension to August 21.

Endurance Flier's Wife Injured While Taking Him a Meal

ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP)—Mrs. Dale Jackson, wife of one of the pilots of the endurance plane Greater St. Louis, now in its sixth day above Lambert-St. Louis field, was injured today in an automobile accident while on her way to the field to aid in sending breakfast up to her husband and his companion, Forest O'Brine.
She received cuts on her forehead and one knee when her car struck a telephone pole as she swerved it to avoid a collision. Mrs. O'Brine, who was driving behind Mrs. Jackson, took breakfast to the fliers.
Jackson was advised of the accident in a note sent up during the morning refueling. At 9:11 a. m. today Jackson and O'Brine seeking to regain the refueling endurance record, had been up 122 hours. They were forced to fly over a darkened field from 8:30 until 11 o'clock last night. A power wire to the field was broken when it was struck by another plane.

Mrs. J. L. Webb and Party Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Webb and children and Mrs. S. M. Smith returned from Long Beach, Calif., last week. Their route home was by way of Yosemite National Park, across Northern Nevada into the state of Utah, with a stop in Salt Lake City for a day. They then crossed the Rocky Mountains in Colorado, stopping in Denver. After reaching Amarillo the drive to Big Spring and home seemed short, they declared.

Buick Presents Straight Eights

A synco-mesh transmission and a valve-in-head straight eight engine are the outstanding features of the new 1931 Buick line. Above—The Special Coupe. Below—The Two-Door Sedan.

Exciting the interest of the motoring world and arousing a widespread comment of approval, the new 1931 Buick line powered with a straight-eight valve-in-head motor, was presented to the public today. Offered in four new series, the 1931 Buick Eight holds many surprises for showroom visitors. Webb Motor Company is the local dealer.

... makes the new eight the outstanding car of the company's history. Many refinements have been incorporated in the beautiful new Fisher body, and changes in construction have been employed to strengthen it structurally and eliminate any possibility of noise or fumes from the engine. The driving compartment in all models has been completely insulated. No radical changes have been made in the general appearance of the new bodies, but a wealth of fine details and new appointments have been embodied to increase the luxurious riding comfort of the new Buick Eight.
Among the engineering advancements on the new Buick Eight, in addition to the synco-mesh transmission, are an engine oil temperature regulator, dual carburetion, combined intake silencer and air cleaner, new crankcase ventilating system, improved steering gear, one-piece rear axle housing, new clutches and four-point rubber-insulated engine mountings.
The new line is offered in twenty models, divided into four different wheel base lengths. The six models in the 8.50 series are carried on a 114-inch wheel base and powered with an eight-in-line overhead-valve motor, which has a bore and stroke of 2 7/8 x 4 1/3 inches. This motor is rated at 76 1/2 horsepower and provides a speed of 75 miles per hour. In the 8-90 series five models are offered on a 112-inch wheel base. The motor used in this series has a bore and stroke of 3 1/8 x 4 5/8 inches, developing 90 horsepower and a speed of 80 miles per hour. In the 8-90 and 8-90 series a motor having a bore and stroke of 3 5/8 x 5 inches drives the car at a speed of 80 miles per hour with 104 rated horsepower. Two models are presented in the 8-90 series on a 124-inch wheelbase and the 8-90 series on a 132-inch wheelbase is composed of seven models.

The new Buick eight produces a new sensation in driving; there is no apparent change in smoothness, noise or vibration from low to high speeds, and the car can be driven with great ease, comfort and safety. Silent operation, due to improvements made in the overhead valve mechanism, the use of the synco-mesh transmission, and the insulation of the body, is one of the outstanding features of the new Buick Eight.

Florida Man Tells Of Rescue at Sea

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 26 (AP)—Nearly exhausted from thirst, hunger and exposure, three men from Fort Lauderdale today told of being rescued at sea by a freighter after floating for nine days in an open motorboat.
George W. Thomas, E. W. Thompson and Eddie Nicholson, the latter a negro, were picked up Thursday night to the U. S. Coast Guard cutter 60 miles southeast of Charleston, S. C. and brought here.

Leaving Fort Lauderdale on July 18 for an outing in a 30-foot boat the men said they carried only a gallon of water, two boxes of crackers and a watermelon as provisions, as they had intended to return home the same day.
Some distance off shore the gasoline supply became exhausted. Helpless, the men were carried by the gulf stream to a point off Charleston lightship, 370 miles away, before they were picked up by the freighter.
Found collapsed in the bottom of their boat, the men were lifted aboard the Bakersfield and given food and water. They said that with their small supply of water gone they drank a gallon of lubricating oil, the only liquid aboard their boat.

THOMASON ENDS PLEA Hudspeth's Law Partner Introduces Candidate

man in the race who can do that. Although he reviewed some of the local problems which must be looked after by a representative in congress and though he was speaking to a city audience, Mayor Thomason emphasized farm and ranch problems more than any other in his legislative program.

Wool Prices
"Wool prices," he said, "now are below the cost of production. The price of cotton is below a profit-making basis. Wheat is selling at bankrupt prices." He pledged himself to do everything he can to promote a federal program which will place farm and ranch operations on a profit-making basis, emphasizing particularly a more helpful operation of farm loan banks, more thoroughgoing government support to cooperative marketing organizations and further revision of tariff schedules to place the farmer and ranchman upon a more equal footing with eastern manufacturers.

"One of the biggest problems today is that of unemployment,"

Thomason said. "More than four million men are out of work waiting this flag of Republican generosity." And he turned his empty pockets inside out. To help solve that problem, he said, he would work for legislation establishing thoroughgoing federal cooperation with state exchanges in connecting the jobless man with the manless job.

He said that he believed a man to decide the weighty issues which must arise in congress should be qualified by training for the job. Then Mr. Thomason delved briefly into a few of the issues of the campaign. He said that he favored a tariff to protect the farmers and livestock of his district. He touched upon Rio Grande river reclamation and other border problems and then ended with the sweeping promise to serve his district, the largest congressional district in the United States to the best of his conscience.

Tilden Defeats Jean Borotra

AUTREUIL, France, July 25 (AP)—France and the United States wound up the opening day of their 1930 duel for the Davis cup all even in singles victories with one for the challenger and one for the defender.

While Tilden was the Big Bill of old in beating Borotra, the bounding one, whom he had conquered seven straight times in major tournaments up to today, Lott was no match for Cochet, the former ball boy of Lyons, upon whom the French pin most of their hopes for retaining the cup. Lott pulled into a 4-3 lead in games in the opening set but was hardly a contender thereafter in the face of Cochet's fine control.

Cochet and Jacques-Brugnon will team for France tomorrow against Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn of the challenging United States

NOW! We Offer the Public Our New UNLIMITED GUARANTEE on Riversides.. "The Fairest, Strongest Guarantee Ever Written" . . . . .

RIVERSIDE TIRES have gone steadily forward for 19 years. Never has there been a time when their quality could be questioned. Their march of quality progress has been indicated by guarantees of 6,000—8,000—10,000—12,000—16,000 miles. This year guarantees were increased again, to 18,000—22,000—30,000 miles—the highest figures ever included in a binding tire guarantee. And still the quality improves!

They have now reached a degree of excellence where no mileage guarantee can indicate the true measure of service these tires will give. So now we demonstrate our faith in Riversides by what we believe to be the strongest, fairest tire guarantee ever written.

A BORN HILL CLIMBER

Oldsmobile owners who drive regularly in the mountains say that Oldsmobile is a born hill-climber. That it does its work so easily and quietly. That very little gear-shifting is required. That its running temperature is little affected by the hardest grades. Such a recommendation is of real importance—whether you ever drive through the mountains or not. For it means just so much reserve power—so much added dependability for everyday travel. You will appreciate this when you drive an Oldsmobile.

The Last Man's Toast

THE LAST MAN has made his last toast. On July 21 Charles Lockwood, the only survivor of Company B, First Minnesota Volunteers, stood at a table in a hotel dining room in Stillwater, Minn., and carried out the pledge that was made 44 years ago.

At that time there were 34 living members of Company B. They bought a bottle of Burgundy and put it in a safe, pledging themselves to hold a reunion each year and toast their departed comrades, and they agreed that when only one man was left he should open this bottle and toast the others.

There is something unusually appealing about this ceremony. For Lockwood is not only the one remaining member of the famous last man's club; he is in a way, a symbol—the incarnation, for all of us, of the Civil War veteran.

We shall not have these veterans a great deal longer. North and south, they are going away with tragic swiftness. Each Memorial day finds their ranks thinner.

For us who were born long after the thunder of the war had died away, it is chiefly the tradition, our "old soldiers" have colored our national character for a generation. They have been a standing lesson in patriotism; a constant reminder that the Union which means so much to us was bought and maintained at a heavy price.

OPINIONS OF OTHERS

Copley, Guardi and Mieris

At a time when the executives have begun work on the foundations of the William Rockhill Nelson Gallery of Art, a further addition is announced to the little group of paintings that form a nucleus of the collection.

The new purchases indicate that the Nelson trustees and their advisers are seeking to build up a general collection of old masters, which will include typical examples first of the principal schools and later of most of the important painters in those schools.

The Cure for Communism

KANSAS CITY STAR: WHILE ADVOCATING responsible government check on professional agitators who promote industrial strife, the commissioner of conciliation for the department of labor is not concerned about the possibility of Communism becoming a menace to government or established institutions in this country.

The intelligent worker in the United States knows that he is better off than the other man in a corresponding position in any other country of the world. That applies both to the level of wages and to the standards of living which that level permits.

HOW'S YOUR HEALTH

Preparing for School: Have you a child who will enter school in the fall? If so, this is a good time to check up on his condition, and to see to it that he is not called on to enter a new phase of life with physical handicaps.

It is markedly unfair to the child and to the school to allow him to undertake a new and probably strenuous activity without being as physically fit as possible.

School is one of the hurdles which the child ought to be able to jump without tripping. His chances are better if he is free from physical defects.

Every child before being sent to school should have a thorough physical examination—not a "lick and a promise," but a conscientious going-over.

Hollywood Sights

HOLLYWOOD—The musical gold rush of the past year being definitely over, most of the gay disciplines of the sharp and flat who flocked to Hollywood singing "Westward Ho! Boys!" are now moaning a blue tune which might be called "Broadway, Broadway, We're coming Back to You."

Fickle Bonanza: For the average studio song writer today the future is secure only until his contract expires or until the studio "buys up" his contract.

Medicine craftsmen months ago began trekking Broadwayward again, leaving behind deflated dreams of a bonanza which failed to endure to say nothing of homes in Beverly Hills and fleets of tricky expensive foreign cars forsaken for a performance.

Alas! Poor Chorus: The chorus girl also has had her day in the movie sun, and now is fading poorly. There will be no singing, dancing line even in the musical comedy "Sunny" which, being Marilyn Miller's next vehicle, necessarily must be musical.

BOLES HAVE VISITORS

DAGGER

by Mary Dahlberg

Chapter I: A FUGITIVE RESCUED: The half-thoroughbred leaped sideways, ears thrust forward, flanks trembling.

"Easy, Desmond! Only a rattler, boy!" The horse whinnied nervously. All around, the bare, brown plains stretched endlessly, flat, monotonous, unadorned, save for occasional dwarf oaks that fought a hopeless battle against the scorching Texas sun and blasting winds.

"That's what we're after, Desmond," she confided to her mount. "Any yearling could scramble through that gap."

"I reckon some of Villa's peons rode this break last night," she murmured, lifting the wire into place and hammering it secure. "I'll have to tell Uncle Jim to count the river herds, Hulio!"

The silence was shattered by a crackling series of detonations, but Alexandra Marley, bred on the Mexican border, knew rifle-fire when she heard it. Then her eyes marked down a clump of oaks beyond the sluggish trickle of the Rio Grande, a few hundred yards distant.

"I expect you saved my life," she said. "D'you do this sort of thing very often?" "Oh, all Pancho's men know me," she answered lightly. "They raid Uncle Jim's cattle, and swap shots with our cowboys; but they wouldn't touch me. Did you have a run-in with Pancho?"

"Anyhow, I'm staid," she protested. "I don't think that's so young." The flush spread from the low forehead to the round, brown throat that poised her small head with an effect of buoyant gallantry. "I suppose not," he admitted gravely. "I apologize, Miss—Miss—Say, what is your name?" "I'm Alexandra Marley."

"Folo ponies. But, then, it was Dick's idea to cross thoroughbreds with mustangs." "Is he, by any chance, Richard Whitton Marley Welling?" "How did you know?"

"Well, he was an eight-goal man in his day—one of the best in the British service. But as I remember, he broke his arm or something—"

"You mean to tell me all that troop are your retainers?" "We bed and feed thirty in the bunkhouse," she replied proudly. "There!" she pointed at the man who rode in the van of the column. "That's Dick. Watch him ride—and only one arm. He still plays polo. You should see him—trains his own mounts especially, so he can guide them entirely with his knees."

"Do you play, yourself?" "Dick's taught me some. Once in a while we ride teams among the cowboy, and hit a ball around behind the corral. But I never saw a real game."

"By Jove, I'd give anything to feel a mallet spring under my wrist," Howard exclaimed enthusiastically. "Fancy passing in half an hour from banditry to polo! I believe anything could happen here on the border."

"Oh, you shall have a game," she cried. And rising to her stirrups, sent a soprano yelp across the plains. "Yeaaaayy-hooool! Dick!"

What will the advent of this gallant vagabond bring to the girl to whom he owes his life? see tomorrow's chapter.

HIGHWAY CONTRACTS TO BE LET

AUSTIN, July 25. (AP)—Bids will be taken by the state highway department July 29 and 31 and Aug. 1 on 29 construction and five maintenance projects, according to a list released by Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer. The meeting will combine the regular July and August sessions of the commission. The 24 projects have been estimated to cost $2,887,000. The bidding, however, was expected to cut this figure to well below the $2,800,000 mark.

The projects call for the construction of three concrete bridges, one steel truss span, 31.3 miles of concrete paving, 36.4 miles of surface treatment and 244.5 miles of grading and drainage structures.

In addition to receiving bids and awarding contracts on the 24 projects, the commission will hear 19 county delegations on various road matters.

Projects

Following is the list of projects on which bids will be taken:

Dallas county, three concrete bridges over White Rock creek on highway 15-a; 5.9 miles of grading on Highway 114.

Tarrant county, nine miles grading and drainage on Highway 10; 7.7 miles concrete paving on concrete base course with bituminous filled brick and paving on Highway 2.

Dallas and Tarrant counties, four miles grading and drainage on Highway 121.

Leon county, 24.6 miles grading and drainage on Highway 43.

Willbarger county, 20.9 miles grading and drainage on Highway 23.

Haskell county, 14.3 miles grading and drainage on Highway 30; 13.8 miles grading and drainage on Highway 18.

Lubbock county, 28.4 miles grading and drainage on Highway 9.

Caldwell county, six miles grading and drainage on Highway 3-a; steel truss span and concrete girder spans over Plum Creek on Highway 3-a.

Aransas county, 11.4 miles grading and drainage on Highway 57.

Hopkins county, 115 miles grading and drainage on Highway 37-a.

Delegations have been registered from the following counties: Sabine, Cameron, Runnels, Bell, Brown, Kerr, Culberson, Llano, Fayette, Wood, Navarro, Hood, Galveston, Shelby, San Augustine, Carson, Brazos and Panola.

The Cameron county delegation will ask for relocation and construction of two gaps of 8.9 miles of the Military Road, Highway 12-b from Brownsville to the Hidalgo county line. Culberson county will ask the commission to advertise for bids for the construction of 13 miles of hard surface pavement from Van Horn, east, on Highway One.

The commission will be urged by the Fayette county delegation to ask for bids on the construction of 917 miles of hard surface paving on Highway 72-while Hood county will ask for the construction of a bridge across the Brazos river at Grandbury on Highway 10. Improvement of Highway 125, from Galveston to Beaumont, will be asked by the Galveston county delegation.

Start of construction of 23 miles of concrete paving from the Navasota river to the Brazos river on Highway 21 will be sought by the Brazos county delegation while the Panola county group will ask for surfacing of Highway 64 from the Sabine river to Delray, a distance of 15.5 miles. The estimated cost of the project is $400,000.

FIRE AT PORT ARTHUR

PORT ARTHUR, July 26 (AP)—Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, early today did damage estimated at between $8,000 and $10,000 when it almost completely destroyed 1200 bushels of wheat in a box car, and a pile of dunnage, the latter owned by the C. Flanagan and Sons, stevedore contractors, on the Mexican docks. The fire was extinguished after a fight of three hours.

MISS CANTRELL LEAVES

Miss Pauline Cantrell, county superintendent, will leave today for a vacation of two or three weeks. She will go to College Station for the convention of county school superintendents, later going to Galveston.

A LITTLE NONSENSE NOW AND THEN MAKES NEWS OF THE BEST OF MEN

Here is some good news for you about those Minnesota Paints and Varnishes that we have been talking so much to you about, and we are still reminding you that they are cheaper because they spread further and last longer.

Hilo Hatch says: "The door of opportunity is not locked, nor even latched. Push is the only opener you need."

Have you thought anything further about letting us install one of those cloth awnings on your windows? They will keep out a lot of sun these hot days, they help the looks of the place, too.

Oh I love the dandelion! It's a favorite flower of mine. Whether served to me in greens. Or in dandelion wine. The favorite plant of many good people in this community is the Minnesota brand; because it's so popular with the folks that have used it.

NO ARGUMENT

"I wish, Matilda, you would not talk to me while I am driving in traffic."

"We can discuss that as we go along, Adolphus."

How about a mirror door? Every home should have at least one; if you don't believe it just ask the wife, she will really enjoy one.

The old fashioned indigent tourist cooked in a tin can instead of riding in it.

And right here we would like to digress for a moment and discuss some more about those built-in features; we would be glad to have you drop by and see the ones that we have on display, they will give you ideas as to how to build them if you do not care for them as they are.

LOTS of women talk to THEMSELVES while their husbands ARE present—but they don't SUSPECT it.

Why shouldn't you have an arched opening between the living and dining rooms instead of that narrow old-fashioned door? The coat would be small. Phone us and we will send out a carpenter to tell you all about it.

MURDER! HELP!

Some of this is stolen. And some of it is not; No matter where it comes from, It all goes in the pot.

Are you satisfied with your present home? Wouldn't you like to own a dandy new home. Everything modern; nice location; good neighborhood? Just drop into our office here and draw up a chair. We have something mighty interesting to tell you.

There is no servant problem among old-fashioned people who still raise their own household help. The fight of suffrage is about all a lot of us poor boys have left, so let's all exercise that on every election that comes up. So if we voted right yesterday we all feel better today because our man was elected, but let's all be friends because we have got to stay here and live after the election is over.

AL JOLSON RETURNS TO RITZ

EX-MINSTREL MAN CLIMBS TO PINNACLE

Al Jolson, star of "Mammy," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone super-special with Technicolor, opening today at the Ritz Theatre for a three-day run, was born in St. Petersburg, Russia, and brought to America at an early age, the family making their home in Washington, D. C.

The elder Jolson—for so the family still spells the name—was fifth in a line of Jewish cantors and quite naturally wished his favorite son to succeed him in the service of the church.

Disliked Theatre.—Cantor Jolson's antipathy to the theatre must have been far exceeded by his son's love for it, for the latter, when still a lad, managed to get a part in Israel Zangwill's "Children of the Ghetto," and even to be engaged as ballyhoo man for a traveling circus. Some time after the Spanish war, while singing in a Washington cafe, his father had him placed under surveillance. He soon became ill and was at once taken home. After an astonishingly swift recovery he was off again, next being seen in an Al Reeves burlesque show.

Vaudeville experience followed—himself, his brother, and a mutual friend appeared in a sketch under the name of Jolson, Palmer and Jolson. It was during this period that the idea of using burlesque was suggested by a negro dressed in black-face work binding him instant and famous recognition.

He had been a member of Duck Stader's Minstrel for two years during which one of the Schubert-saw him end at once engaged him for the Winter Garden institution, appearing in "Bowling Green" and "The Whirl of Society." Vera Violetta, "The Honey Moon" and Robinson Crusoe Jr. stardom came with the latter. "The Virginian" which will be at among his later revues being "Big Boy" and "Bonbo."

Jolson for years resisted the offers of motion picture producers but was finally won over by Warner Bros., appearing for them in the first great special production "The Jazz Singer," a picture which broke records all over the country.

This was followed by "The Singing Fool" and the enormous picture "Say It With Songs," was his next achievement.

"Mammy," his latest and greatest vehicle, an immortalization of the old-time minstrel man, was written for him by Irving Berlin, who also did the songs.

MISS OWEN

Catherine Dale Owen, who acted with John Gilbert in "His Glorious Night" was depicted in her second picture by Lionel Barrymore, who launched her to talking screen fame, when she played opposite Lawrence Tibbett in "The Rogue Song." The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer singing and talking drama starring famous opera star will be shown at the Ritz Theatre starting Wednesday.

Gary Cooper Appears In Stirring Drama, "The Texan"

The Ritz theater's brilliant program for this week will be closed Friday and Saturday with presentation of "The Texan," with grand, grim, likeable Gary Cooper in the title role. A dramatic scene from the picture is here shown.

Gary Cooper In Latest Feature Coming To Ritz

Although he wasn't born in Texas and has had very little physical connection with that state during his lifetime, Gary Cooper will be held up to future generations as a ideal Texas man. For Gary Cooper is now "The Texan" in Paramount's second outdoor talking picture of the same name, a companion film to the recent successful western, "The Virginian" which will be at the Ritz theatre Friday and Saturday.

"The Texan" marks the fifth instance in motion picture history where the people of a section have been honored by having a motion picture named for them. "The Ken" (Alaskan) in 1924; "The Canadian" in 1926; and "The Virginian" in 1929. These five productions are believed to be the only ones listed as having the name of a people used as the title. Paramount, who made "The Texan," was also the producer of the other four pictures.

It is interesting to note the numbers of productions whose titles have included the names of states. Five states have had their names used as titles for pictures. They are: Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada and Wyoming. The entire nation was acclaimed once in the title "America."

Fifteen pictures have had "American" included in their titles, the subjects running all the way from "American Beauties" to "American Consul." "Arizona" has started eleven films in addition to the one named for it. Titles for other states in the title race are: California 4, Colorado 3, Kentucky 6, Texas 5. The latter includes "Texas Bearcat," "Texas Flash," "Texas Steel," "Texas Tornado" and "Texas Trail."

Other titles listed which include adv. names of states are "Connecticut

Lawrence Tibbett, Opera Star, To Appear In "The Rogue Song" At Ritz Wednesday-Thursday

Yankee in King Arthur's Court," "The Gentleman from Indiana," "The Girl from Montana," "The Heart of Maryland," "The Heart of a Texan," "In Missouri," "In Old Kentucky," "The Man From Montana," and likewise from Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming, "Miss Arizona," "North of Nevada," "Somebody in Georgia," "The Warrens of Virginia" and "When Arizona

FIRST PICTURE
Lawrence Tibbett, famous operatic baritone, makes his bow in talking pictures in "The Rogue Song," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's operatic drama which will come Wednesday to the Ritz Theatre. Lionel Barrymore, who is also a musician and composer, directed the new produc-

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's much discussed screen operetta, "The Rogue Song," filmed entirely in technicolor and starring Lawrence Tibbett, leading baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will open an engagement of two days at the Ritz theatre starting Wednesday.

The production, an original story by Frances Marion, with dialogue by John Colton, co-author of "Rain" and author of "The Shanghai Gesture," was directed by Lionel Barrymore. The music was written by Franz Lehár and Herbert Stothart with lyrics by Clifford Grey. The settings were made under the supervision of Cedric Gibbons and Alexander Toluboff.

Opera Star
It is believed the making of this picture was considered somewhat of an experiment inasmuch as Tibbett is the only living opera star of international reputation to have appeared on the screen. However, advance reports of the complete success of Tibbett's talking picture debut indicate that he has paved the way for a wholesale immigration of opera stars to Hollywood.

The songs in the production range from numbers of operatic magnitude accompanied by a symphony orchestra, to simple love songs and gypsy ballads. They include, "To Live, To Love," "Once in the Georgian Hills," "The Narrative," "When I'm Looking At You," "Little White Dove," "The Shame Cry," "The Rogue Song" and "The Bandit Chorus." Assisting in the musical end of the picture are Elsa Alsen, dramatic soprano, a women's chorus and a male chorus.

The filming of the songs was done in a specially prepared set of sound stages. The orchestra in each case was housed in a horn or thin wood orchestra shell in which three microphones of different frequencies were placed. Herbert Stothart heard Tibbett's voice over ear-phones, as he conducted the accompaniments in the set outside. Voice and music were put together or "mixed" in a monitor room insulated, so far as sound is concerned, from both sets.

Good Plot
It is stated that while a large number of persons will be primarily interested in the musical attractions of "The Rogue Song," the producers were careful not to allow the interesting plot of the picture to become submerged in the mass of musical numbers. It was with this in mind that Lionel Barrymore, considered to be one of the foremost directors on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer staff, was selected to supervise the filming of Miss Marion's story. Barrymore interpolated the musical numbers at consistent points in the plot with-

Queen Picture Has Much Pep

Typically American, thoroughly modern, is "Young Man of Manhattan," the Paramount filmization of Katharine Brush's big-selling novel, which comes to the Queen theatre as the main feature on a big bill Monday and Tuesday.

Here is a zip-bang romance-drama of newspaper life that runs along at a high tempo, with never a moment's let-down in comedy, action or heart-interest. Those who read the book, or its earlier form, the serial, in the Saturday Evening Post, will recall the big moments when Toby meets Ann at the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Philadelphia; when Toby and Ann have their first battle over who shall pay the rent; when Toby meets the "It" totting Puff Randolph; when Toby learns that Ann has been blinded by drinking supposed whiskey which he had left in their apartment.

Here are all these punch-packed scenes—alive on the all-talking screen, with Claudette Colbert, exotic charmer of "The Lady Lies" and "The Big Pond" as Ann; Norman Foster, juvenile lead of Broadway's own "June Moon" as Toby; Ginger Rogers, whirlwind comedienne of "Top Speed," Broadway smash-hit, as Puff, and Charles Ruggles, of "Gentlemen of the Press," "The Lady Lies" and "Roadhouse Nights" fame, as Shorty Ross.

Lamesa Chapter R.A.M., Installs

LAMESA, July 26.—Officers of Lamesa Chapter No. 339, Royal Arch Masons, elected for the ensuing capilar year here this week. They are C. R. Austin, M. E. High Priest; R. Y. Lindsey, High Priest; J. C. Loveless, scribe; Dixie Kigore, treasurer; H. E. Williams, secretary; M. D. Webb, chaplain; Bill Watson, captain of host; J. E. Barron, principle sojourner; J. B. Bennett, Royal Arch captain; J. F. Prichard, master of third veil; W. M. Morris, master of second veil; R. F. Nix, master of first veil; W. V. P. Baker, guard.

MAN OF MANY LANDS

Gary Cooper, who played the perfect English country gentleman in "Doomsday," the effervescent Frenchman in "Beau Sabreur," the doughty Swiss in "Betrayal," is a Texas plainsman who migrates to South America in his latest feature picture, "The Texan." "The Texan" is Paramount's new all-talking outdoor romance, the companion picture to "The Virginian," and will be shown at the Ritz Friday and Saturday.

FAMOUS COMPOSERS

Two famous composers are an integral part of the success of "The Rogue Song," introduction to the talking screen of Lawrence Tibbett, the famous opera star. Tibbett sings songs by Franz Lehár, who wrote "The Merry Widow," and Herbert Stothart, famous American composer, in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all color drama, which comes Wednesday to the Ritz theater. Lionel Barrymore was the director.

BATHING SUITS IN WHITE

White beach costumes were offered as the most desirable of all such costumes at a fashion review held recently. Swimming suits in white with one vividly colored band white gub hat and trousers as accessories were among the smart things shown. Shorts and shirts were also played up for lazing about the sands.

Vinson's barbecue, chicken and beef. Cap Rock, on Lamesa Highway.—adv.

out detracting from the continuity of the situations.

The setting is laid in the Caucasus Mountains with Tibbett playing the role of a swashbuckling Russian Robin Hood, leader of a group of singing bandits who steal from the rich and give to the poor. The picture is said to contain some unusually effective cavalry scenes in which a large number of Russian Cossacks participated.

Able Staff
Douglas Shearer, chief sound engineer, headed a scientific staff to take charge of the special blending of sound and color required for this Technicolor production. The color work is said to be as fine as anything yet done in the advanced medium, a particularly beautiful scene being that of an Albertin Rasch ballet of 100 girls who dance to the modernistic music of Dimitri Tiomkin.

The production contains a large cast. Prominent parts are played by Catherine Dale Owen, Wallace MacDonald, Kate Price, Lionel Barrymore, James Bradbury, Jr., Nance O'Neil, Judith Voessli, Burr McIntosh, Ulrich Haupt and the well-known Hal Roach team of Laurel and Hardy, who supply comedy relief as renegades attached to Tibbett's band.

Story and songs by Irving Berlin, screen play by Joseph Jackson and Gordon Rigby. Directed by Michael Curtiz.

Sequences in Technicolor

The Al Jolson who first electrified the amusement world on the talking, singing screen, now tops all previous performances in the kind of a role that the world has been waiting for. The genius of Irving Berlin creates this masterpiece of melody and humor for the world's greatest minstrel. Here he is as the singing, jesting Mr. Bones of the minstrel troupe. The King of Entertainers in his greatest picture. "You ain't seen nothin' so funny" till you see and hear Jolson in this rollicking laugh hit.

Sensational Price Reductions

Our 5th annual
Trade-in SALE

Prices specially marked down for this sale to the lowest they have ever been this year or any other year — and special Trade-in allowances, too, without precedent in the industry—an unparalleled opportunity to equip every car, large or small, with the one tire that brings you positive comfort, economy and safety.

Blowout-Proof GENERALS

6-ply and 8-ply Dual-Balloons;
Also the famous 6-ply and 4-ply Dual-Grip Generals

Everything in the complete General line, nothing reserved—all included at the drastic cost reductions you expect only in our one great sale event of the year.

Just once a year, with the aid of our factory we take off all limits, let down the bars and offer to the public the most outstanding tire buying opportunity given by the industry.

We aren't going to let cost stand in the way of a single buyer. Every driver ought to have these safer General Tires. While this sale lasts, every car owner can have them.

Prices sensationally lower! Trade-in allowances higher!

All you need is to bring in your car in order to save money regardless of what you paid for your last set of tires, no matter what make or brand or what condition they are in.

Your present tires will go farther now in buying Generals than they will go on the road

New or old, your tires are worth more off your wheels than on.

We can afford to pay the difference for our Annual Trade-in Sale means volume business and hundreds of new customers on our books, thousands in good-will added to our assets.

We are in business to stay, and repeat business from all customers due to our unmatched General Tire quality is something we can count on for years to come.

Even if your tires are badly worn, don't hesitate

We can recondition them for someone else to buy and can allow you plenty.

Remember we are Trade-in Headquarters and have waiting customers by the hundreds for all used tires. Don't gamble with your safety another day. Every hour on doubtful tires is made up of split-seconds of danger.

Bring in your car and roll away on the world's safest tires—Savings right at the start that give you thousands of cost-free miles—then years of General's trouble-proof mileage, security and unequalled comfort for less than it has cost you to ride on tires that can't guarantee your safety for a single season.

Be sure to bring your car—and come EARLY if you can. There's plenty of extra help to take care of everyone in a hurry—you can get your quotation quick—and absolutely no obligation on your part.

The Blow-Out Proof Tire
Will Keep You Safe—End Every Tire Hazard

EVERY MILE on doubtful tires invites disaster. Your own tires may be ready to blow out at the next bump in the road. You can't tell by looking at them.

Blowouts hide inside your tires, hidden from inspection. They breed on summer heat from glaring pavements—grow nearer with every turn of a tire wearing and weakening through internal friction. They catch you in a crisis—when safety rests on your tires' ability to stand a sudden swerve—quick pick-up—a pounding break in the pavement.

When the blowout comes, you're helpless. Wrecked without a chance to save yourself. For modern road speeds leave less than one-tenth of a second before you crash, and no human can act in that brief time.

No motorist need face such dangers. GeneralDual-Balloons remove every tire hazard from modern motoring—Blow-Out Proof—their unmatched safety proved in the most spectacular tests ever witnessed by safety experts. They have defied shocks that the sturdy steel of your car frame could not stand—have taken punishment you'll never be able to give them. They are skid-safe, too—proved by tests on wet pavement, snow and ice—taking turns 15 to 25 miles faster than you dare take them on your present tires.

Come in now during our Fifth Annual and greatest sale. Get the whole story of greater safety and actually lowered mileage cost. Learn how our drastically lowered prices, specially reduced for this sale, and unequalled trade-in allowances will equip you with 100% safe, Blow-Out-Proof Tires at savings that take all the strain off your Budget.

Owners of new cars, too, profit by this sale

If you are buying a new car or have just had one delivered and intend to replace the equipment tires with safer Generals as so many other new car buyers are doing these days... now is the time to act... This special Sale applies on new car change-overs, too.

Convenient credit terms

Special terms that make it still easier for you to get started right now on Generals. Don't wait until you are ready to pay cash. We'll gladly open a charge account for you, either regular thirty day terms or our convenient General Tire Acceptance Payment Plan, financed by the factory and free from exorbitant interest and extra charges. You take as long as you need to pay.

There will be hundreds of used tires, every make and size... reconditioned and priced for quick sale as fast as we take them in.

AMERICANS LOSE DOUBLE MATCH ABILENE, BIG SPRING WILL CLASH HERE TODAY

ALL-STARS SET FOR FRAY

Today is the day the Abilene aspirants cover the interesting stretch of Hankhead Highway existing between Big Spring and Abilene, two foremost cities west of Fort Worth. Incidentally, and penetrate the confines of the local ball park for a diamond duel.

Headed by J. Frank Norris Jr., the Abilene aggregation is alleged to have on tap a flashy bunch of Abileneans and otherwise. However, as flash as they may be, as bright and sparkling as they happen to come, the Big Spring crew should take them with much gusto. Of course there is always the probability of getting slipped up on. In a telephone conversation with none other than Harold L. Anderson, who was Prexy Anderson before he said "I do," we inquired as to the status of the strength of the Abilene aggregation. Mr. Anderson passed the question with a wave of his dimpled fist and told us he would find out if someone came by and wrote it out for him. However, we did not expect the aforementioned scribbler to do any more for us. He got the game, which is enough for any one sports writer to do in a week. The Abilene aggregation, or one equally as strong, lost a fast fray to San Angelo. We admit that doesn't sound right, but that is what the records say about it. But regardless, if the small change in your jeans is burning the seams out, just drop out to the beautiful sunken garden this afternoon, drop the said chicken feed in the out-stretched hands of Tiny Reed or his assistant, and try and find a seat. Rabbits will be welcomed as usual, although we deem it advisable to inform them the top of the fence has been saturated with a solution of itching powder, the results of which are far from pleasing. We merely mention this in passing.

WILSON IN HOMER TRIO WINS BRACE

PHILADELPHIA, July 26 (AP)—Hack Wilson, leading home run hitter of the National League, poked out his thirtieth and thirty-first homers in the first and second innings, respectively, of the first Cubs-Phillies game today. The two blows by Hack coupled with Pat Malones circuit drive helped the Cubs to a 9 to 0 lead in the second inning.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26 (AP)—Hack Wilson's 30th, 31st and 32nd home runs of the season featured the 16 to 2 hammering the Cubs gave the Phils today. The first two circuit clouts were off Collins, ace of the local staff, and the third off Willoughby. Malone and Hartnett also hit four ply swats.

Runs batted in—Wilson 2, Biades, Gelbert, Hafey, Sialer, Welsh, Rollings. Three base hits—Welsh Sacrifices—Gelbert. Double plays—Bottomley (unassisted); Rollings to Sialer 2. Left on bases—St. Louis 7; Boston 7. Base on balls—off Grimes 1; Zachery 4. Struck out—by Grimes 4. Grabowski 1; Zachery 5. Hits—off Grimes 11 in 7 2-3 innings; off Grabowski 2 in 1 1-3 innings. Wild pitches—Grimes. Winning pitcher—Grimes.

Runs batted in—Grimm 2, Hartnett 2, Wilson 5, Malone 4, Cuyler 2, Klein, Davis, D. Taylor, 2. Two base hits—D. Taylor 2, Grimm, Klein, Thevenon, English, McCurdy. Home runs—Wilson 3, Malones—off Collins 10 in 1 2-3 innings (2 out in 2nd); off Willoughby 11 in 7 1-3. Stolen bases—Cuyler, Blair. Struck out—by Collins 1, Malone 4, Willoughby 1. Base on balls—off Collins 2, Willoughby 3, Malone 2. Losing pitcher—Collins. Left on base—Chicago 10; Philadelphia 9. Double plays—Cuyler to English; Southern to Hurst.

BOSTON, July 26 (AP)—The Braves and St. Louis Cardinals broke even in a "Maraville Day" double header here today. St. Louis won the first game 5 to 4 and the Braves took the second 6 to 5.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 26 (AP)—Former Mayor Harry O. W. Spaulding, 55, for three years a fugitive from justice, was in the toils of the law today because he carried out his wife's wishes to be buried in her home cemetery.

BOSTON, July 26 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals took their first game of the Maraville Day doubleheader 5 to 4. Burleigh Grimes, former Brave pitcher, hurled his mates to victory. Score: St. Louis, 5; Boston, 4.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 26 (AP)—Joseph Doddridge Brannon, professor emeritus of the Harvard law school, died today at the age of 82 years. He was associated with the Harvard law school since 1889.

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—The Giants made it three straight over the Pittsburgh Pirates today by coming from behind with two out in the fifth to score seven runs and win 10 to 4. After a bad start, Fred Fitzsimmons settled down and held the Pirates in check while the Giants pounded the offerings of Brame and Chabon for 16 hits.

CARAWAY HOLDS SENS HARMLESS

Homer, Bases Full Is Winning Blow for Tigers

CHICAGO, July 26 (AP)—Cecil Pat Caraway restricted Washington to six scratch hits today, while his mates bunched six off Sam Jones to give the White Sox a 4 to 1 victory, their third straight in the series. None of the hits off Caraway were clean blows.

DETROIT, July 26 (AP)—A homer by Elias Funk with the bases full in the fourth inning was the crowning blow, the Yankees trounced the New York Yankees today, 12 to 8. Funk also stole home in the eighth for the final Detroit tally.

ST. LOUIS, July 26 (AP)—Behind the effective hurling and batting of Walter Stewart, St. Louis ace, the Browns showed the Boston Red Sox further into the cellar by winning today's game, 6 to 3. It was Stewart's eleventh victory of the season.

CLEVELAND, July 26 (AP)—A four-run rally by the Indians in the ninth fell one short of tying the score and the Athletics today won the third game of the series here 10 to 9. Each team did some heavy hitting, the Athletics getting 15 hits and Cleveland 14. Cochrane, Simmons and Foxg got home runs.

SAN ANTONIO, July 26 (AP)—With a revolver clutched in his right hand and a bullet hole through his head, the body of W. L. Harris, 53, was found in a tent home at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Glen Close, late Friday. He had been in ill health.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 26 (AP)—His plane, the City of Tacoma, lashed on the after deck of the American mail liner President Lincoln, Harold Bromley, Tacoma aviator, and Harold Gatty, co-pilot, left today for Tokyo from where they hope to fly back to the United States.

ALEXANDER FAILS IN MINORS DESPITE BIG LEAGUE RECORD

Illustrious big league career extending back to 1911.

Grover Cleveland Alexander this year failed to make the grade in minor league baseball, following an illustrious big league career extending back to 1911.

NEW YORK (AP)—Grover Cleveland Alexander, now 43, has been none too successful thus far in his minor league career, but he leaves a big league record in which he must get some satisfaction.

DALLAS, July 26 (AP)—If the New York Giants never do another thing for the San Antonio Indians, the Tribe will be everlastingly indebted to John McGraw for sending down Sam Leslie, slugging first baseman.

Leslie, given to the Injuns in partial payment for Jim Chaplin, big pitcher, already has proved himself one of the most dangerous batters in the Texas League. In more than 100 games at bat through Wednesday's games he had batted the ball at a 461 clip and showed no signs of flagging.

Among the playing-through regulars, however, Oscar Eckhardt, the Beaumont basher, still was head man with a mark of 390, despite his tumble from the 400 average he has maintained practically the entire season. Other leading clouters through Wednesday's games and the Fort Worth-Beaumont daytime struggle of Thursday were:

Moore High Gene Moore (Dallas) 377; Rye (Waco) 358; Hunt (Houston) 351; Fitzgerald (Wichita Falls) 350; E. Brown (Fort Worth) 345; I. Burns (Wichita Falls) 345; Schinkel (San Antonio) 345; Joe Moore (San Antonio) 344.

While neither was listed among the leading swatsmiths, Bettencourt and Kioza, the Spudder slegguns, continued to wreck opposing pitchers. Bettencourt was leading with 101 followed by Kioza, with 82. Bettencourt, with 22 homers, was eight ahead of his closest rival, Willingham of Dallas. The paragraph gives a fair idea of why the Spuds led the pack almost without a break since April.

Eckhardt was leading in total hits, 153, followed by Joe Bonovito, acting Fort Worth manager, with 150. Fitzgerald, another slugging Spud, had cracked 40 doubles, compared to 37 for Eckhardt. The injured Joe Moore of San Antonio still led the field in triples, with 12, trailed by Tavener, Fort Worth, Mishkin, Houston, and Shiver, Beaumont, each with 11 three-basers.

COCHET AND BRIGNON IN 4-SET WIN

Allison of Texas and Van Ryn Lose in France

AUTEUIL, France, July 26 (AP)—Americas' high hopes of winning back the Davis Cup lost to France in 1927 faded today as a remarkable French doubles team, composed of smashing Henri Cochet and the brilliant veteran, Jacques Brugnon, overwhelmed the American youngsters, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn 6-3, 7-5, 1-6, 6-2; in the only engagement of the second day's play.

Two To One The victory gave France a commanding lead of two matches to one to carry into the final pair of singles duels tomorrow when Bill Tilden faces Cochet and George Lott, already beaten by the French ace, tackles Jean Borotra. France needs but one more victory in the singles to win the series.

All the advantage of Tilden's conquest of Borotra in his last minute return to the Davis cup wars on the opening day was lost as the highly favored team of Allison and Van Ryn, conquerors of the French last year and winners of the Wimbledon title this summer, collapsed before the Frenchmen's game, with Allison erratic and way form, the Americans won only the third set and the impression was general that the French let that one go to give the ticing Brugnon the benefit of a ten minute rest that followed completion of the set.

Another capacity crowd of 10,000, including the president of the republic, Gaston Doumergue, saw the French veterans team in perfect fashion to dazzle the Americans and all but clinch the series with their unexpected victory. During preliminary discussions the French all but conceded the doubles to the United States but showed nothing of that attitude on the courts today.

Rotten! Table with columns for players and scores: Richardson, Clark, Winters, Connelly, Cook, Hoehn, Stanton, Payne, Moore, Haley, etc.

Texas Sits In Trees, But India Sits In Streets

CALCUTTA, July 26 (AP)—In the United States they sit in trees but in India it is the street.

Sixty women civil disobedience volunteers were refused permission to parade yesterday afternoon. Thereupon they sat down on the pavement at 5 p. m., following out Mahatma Gandhi's preachment of non-resistance to the authorities, and there they sat all night and today.

The police stood by all the while, evidently more weary and uncomfortable over the endurance contest than the women.

Chicago Cubs and made it three out of four for the series with the Cincinnati Reds by winning an exciting final game today, 8 to 5. The Robins collected a total of 13 hits off Jackie May and Elias Johnson, including a home run by Wright and triple by Frederick. Blasonette and Lopez.

Runs batted in—Cucinello, Bissonette 2, Wright 2, Gilbert 2, Gooch, Walker, Meusel. Two base hits—Walker, Gilbert, Bressler, Frederic. Three base hits—Frederick, Blasonette, Lopez. Home run—Wright. Texas Gold Star Mothers Embark

NEW YORK, July 26 (AP)—The fourteenth contingent of 223 gold star mothers embarked on the S. S. Republic today to sail for the graves of their sons in France and battlefields where they lost their lives.

Among members of the pilgrimage, many of whom had left hospital and sick beds to make the trip, was Mrs. Lenora Dyer of Fort Worth, Texas, whose son by a previous marriage, Charles C. Hanson, died of spinal meningitis a month after the armistice was signed.

Mrs. Etta Horton of Irondale, Mo., who has been ill for the past two weeks and who suffered from brain-aches on the trip to New York, embarked today with a feeling of relief.

Among these carrying mementoes for the graves of their soldiers was Mrs. T. W. Couch of Grandview, Texas, whose son, Lieutenant Hust Couch, was killed October 6, 1918, in the St. Mihiel drive. A corner of her suitcase held a dozen fragrant bouquets from the which always bloomed on her son's birthday and a box of mail from the bird in which he played as a child.

Mrs. Couch expected to fulfill two missions on her pilgrimage to France. The second is a visit to the grave of the son of a Dallas, Texas, gold star mother, who is 87 years old and unable to make the long trip.

The Dallas mother advertised in newspapers for a proxy for her pilgrimage and Mrs. Couch volunteered to fulfill the mission.

Humidity Alibi No Good This Season In 'Roasting' California Will Rogers Tells The Folks

Well all I know is just what I read in the papers, and what I know when I see there to know it. Now don't let them tell you it hasn't been hot here in California the past few weeks. Brother its been roasting and we haven't got the usual Alibi, 'Its the humidity'.

We haven't even got any of that. Course its been cool in the night. (That is fairly cool) I am not going to be too big a liar just for the sake of the State. Its just been hot these all. Of course the papers out here can always kill off hundreds with the heat some place back east. But I think the Editors here were so overcome they couldn't even get up enough energy to kill any off with a headline back there.

You can publish all the statistics and junk you want but I guess the whole country has been hit pretty hard. But I lay it to the Stock Market crash last fall. Soon as the market gets a little better we will have some cold weather. We are liable to have snow just as soon as the Market gets better.

Say you know what we got out here besides the heat. Well its a fish they call it Grunion. (Not Grunty or Grunion). At certain time of the day and year they wash right up on the bank or beach rather. You can tell where I did all my early swimming. Its just a few inches long and pretty small even in a story. Well people go to the beaches by the Ford's full and after a big wave come in why they make a dive and tackle these things with their hands, and the funny part of it, they know when its going to happen just like an eclipse. The papers all announce it. "Grunion will appear on such and such a beach at 9:45 Tuesday night, July 12, 1930. If there is any change in the Grunion arrival time like there was in Ames and Andy's, why it will be announced as soon as we hear from them."

And by golly sure enough at 9:45 on said night, a wave come in and sure enough riding it in was old man Grundy (I mean Grunion). Well everybody was a Thelie or a halfback, they made a flying tackle at em, and when their heads were pried out of the sand, it was found that each hand held two and three ounces of Grunion. So you see California again will get the reputation of being the biggest liar on earth by saying they can catch fish right out on the dry land, and the Rascals want to be lying, they will be talking the truth for the first time in years.

See by the papers that Mr. Hoover's western vacation trip has been cut to two weeks in the Rockies, all on account of Hiram Johnston wanting to argue over the Treaty. He knew it would pass. But that made no difference to him. So he just kept everybody in Washington during this terrible weather. Course Mr. Hoover is not so Camp out in Virginia some place, and I reckon its pretty cool there.

But the President should be compelled to leave Washington early in the summer, even if he is forced to miss Johnston. Mind you I believe He is sincere about this, but he knew it was going to pass, and all he had to do was to register his opposition, and not drag it out into this mess. He and senator Dave Reed had a pretty set to last week. Dave told him he could go and see the papers, and learn all that was in them, but that he would not be allowed to show them to anybody else. Well Hy went up in the air, he said he could not conceive of anything and not be able to talk about it. So he certainly bawled Dave out.

To have to read something and then keep it to yourself didn't appeal to him in the least. Well we have no monopoly on kicking 'em the Treaty. England says we got the best of it, that shows they have a sense of humor, and in Japan they are hollering their heads off, they say their Delegation didn't bring home enough ships. So if there is that much dissatisfaction, its like I have always preached, why hold these things? There is always more hatreds formed at any meeting than there is friendships, no matter what they agree to they know they should have done better. The Nations in this world that get along and never have any trouble are the ones that never meet in conference at all.

The minute one confer you find out each others short comings. But anyhow what difference does it make? The minute a war breaks out Treatys dont mean a thing anyhow. If England went to war tomorrow, do you thing this being bound to only a given number of ships would hold good? Say they would break that Treaty the minute they could get some boards and carpenters and start building. Everything is all right when things are going good, but when its bad, then nothing means anything. You naturally got to look to self preservation.

But who cares about all that? Say did you know they arrested a girl here in Hollywood the other day? She was driving down our main thoroughfare with nothing on but a heavy tan, not a stitch. A Modern Lady Gadia. She didn't even have the advantage of long hair. You remember the old oration over in Coventry, England, by the way I heard there in Waverley some years ago, that far from Shakespeare's old stomping ground? Well that Lady had a horse, and she had a mose longer than the horse. But this one here the other day had traded her "Coyuse" for a Chevrolet Roadster, and her hair was short. Course this is all from heresy. I would miss it.

I think she come color for its sayed hard to tell when a woman is nude nowadays and when she is fully clothed. If the worst case to the worst she could always say it was an evening dress. But we do have great times out here, with Women driving nude and fish at backing people right up on dry land, and the heat 120 in the shade. We have lots of fun here. Come on out we will get you in the Movies. (Copyright, 1930, McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Circus' Python Is Found and Killed

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—The 20-foot, 300-pound Indian python which disappeared from a cage in Sea Breeze Park eight days ago has been killed and residents and campers of the resort have started to walk round again.

More Cities Bog In Heat Wave

By The Associated Press The East and Midwest faced a blistering Sunday today as the heat wave came roaring back.

Cities in Eastern states reported to the Associated Press that the mercury was rising at noon and that the humidity was keeping pace. It was 85 degrees in New York at noon (E. S. T.) and 83 degrees in Washington at 9 o'clock.

Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa were expectant of temperatures of 100 degrees. Kansas City registered 89 at 9 o'clock and St. Louis 92 at the same hour.

Showers brought relief to the northwest. St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago all reported figures below 80 degrees.

Ohio was again bogged in the heat. It was 91 in Cleveland at 11 o'clock, and 100 in Youngstown.

Enough's Plenty, Farmer Decides After 150 Chickens Dwindle to Pair, Red Paint Recovers Fowls and Thief

There are certain persons, and a noble breed they are, who, in times of adversity can take it and say nothing. And it follows, as a general thing, that this type usually knows when enough is enough and acts. Of such stuff is I. M. Milstead, Howard county farmer, made of. A year ago, Milstead had 150 chickens, good chickens, too, as far as chickens go. At least they were his chickens—150 of them—and he didn't care to give up the power of ownership. But he did.

It seems that as days merged into weeks, and weeks into months, the original 150 chickens dwindled. Someone, somehow, was helping himself to Mr. Milstead's poultry. But he didn't say much. He belonged to the breed that takes trouble as it comes, single-handed.

150, Then Two The 150 chickens were reduced to 12 as the months went by. Thursday night someone took 30 of the remaining 12, and when Mr. Milstead went out Friday morning to view his white egg-layers, his eyes rested on two—just two—a hen, and her boy friend, the rooster.

Before the eyes of Mr. Milstead passed the succulent visions of the 150 chickens of the past, and the picture gradually floated back to one responsible for the depletion of the white eggers. He did. He and Merrick arrested the negro. Today a dusky resident of "the state" sings the "Fugener's Song" and leans wearily against the cell wall of the Howard county jail—victim of a man that knew that enough is enough.

Boy Dead, Agent Held By Police

COLUMBUS, Ga., July 26 (AP)—A 19-year-old boy was dead of a gunshot wound today and a prohibition agent was held by police who investigated conflicting stories of the circumstances of the shooting.

Ray Rodgers was shot last night in the back yard of a residence here. W. K. Johnston, Jr., prohibition agent, said he was hiding in the yard when Rodgers and a girl came arrived in automobile. Johnston said he flashed a light in to the automobile and that Rodgers and the girl, who told police she was Eunice Johnson, 18, grabbed for his pistol. During the fight for the gun, Johnston said, Rodgers was shot. The girl said no effort had been made to take Johnston's pistol.

The prohibition agent said Rodgers was caught in the act of delivering a gallon of liquor. Rodgers was shot once in the head. Johnston took him to a hospital where he died.

Eight states have laws to prevent guests in automobiles from remaining in case of unavoidable accident.

Big Spring Herald Big Spring, Texas We have just taken a check of the receipts of the sale we opened Thursday, July 24, and which was advertised extensively through your newspaper. We have conducted sales throughout the Southwest on stocks our company has purchased, and have rarely met with the success that the sale in Big Spring was accorded. Sales cannot be a success, regardless of the great value one has to offer the public, unless the advertising is placed in the proper hands. Through the huge crowds your newspaper attracted to our bankrupt sale of the stock of the S. Segal & Co. in Big Spring, the sales ran far beyond our utmost expectation. Thanking you for your co-operation in making the sale the great success it is, inasmuch as we depended on the newspaper to relay to the public the outstanding values we are able to offer, due to our buying high-grade stocks at a fraction of their actual value, we are,

A Joke on The Boys, The Paper And Its Readers

A joke on the boys, a joke on the paper, a joke on its readers. This is the way a story turned out recently.

It began thusly: Two boys were walking through the hills and valleys back of the old Pool place west of town and came upon a rather large puddle of water. Not only was it a good big puddle, but it bubbled exactly like a spring.

They reported their find with glee. It was "Big Spring" bursting forth in another place, they decided.

And so this paper ran the story as it was reported. But, though the original spring is running again, this was not the spring in question bursting forth in another place.

It was only a broken water pipe carrying water to the T. & P. Shops.

MRS. H. S. FAW ENTERTAINS CONTRACT CLUB

Mrs. H. S. Faw entertained the Contract Bridge Club at her home in Washington Place Friday morning.

The house was decorated with garden flowers and Mrs. Faw carried out a rainbow color scheme in decorations, bridge accessories and refreshments.

She was assisted in serving by her daughter, Jacqueline, and her mother, Mrs. Ellen Gould.

Miss C. K. Barnes won high score for members and was presented with a hostery box.

Mr. Harry Hart won visitors high score and was presented with a novelty wisk broom in a case.

Woman Spends $2,000,000 Annually For Russia

Mother of Two Children Holds Post Equal to Mellon's Here - Makes Her Own Clothes and Does Own Cooking!

MOSCOW (UP)—A modest, self-effacing mother spends the sum of nearly two billion dollars annually for Russia.

And she is not a millionaire. Her name is Barbara Nikolaevna Yakovleva, holds one of the world's big jobs. She is the U. S. commissar of finance, a post comparable to that of Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the U. S. treasury.

Her salary is $10 a month—a tenth of Mellon's—although millions of rubles pass through her hands daily.

She is the only woman member of the Soviet cabinet and only one other nation. England has a woman cabinet member.

Once an obscure revolutionist, hunted by the czar secret police, Madame Yakovleva watches expenditures of the government with the shrewd eye of a careful housewife.

In her vast financial household she employs 15,000 men and 2,000 women.

She herself, took 16 to 18 hours a day, Sunday and holidays included.

She lives in a small, 5-room flat near a workhouse and her two children.

She can scrub floors. Her husband, also a revolutionary, is superintending construction of a big factory at Saratov, on the Volga.

Years of privation and hardship taught Madame Yakovleva to be frugally practical.

That is why she does not conceal the fact that she can still scrub floors, wash dishes, make all her own dresses and do her own cooking.

She wears no jewelry or other embellishments and does not believe in short skirts, lipstick, face powder, or expensive dresses and linens. Her habitual garb is a plain, inexpensive white shirtwaist, with black skirt and list stockings.

Looks Mother's Part To your correspondent she looked the part of a good mother, a woman of quiet demeanor, neatness and great charm. She is 45, fair, with blue eyes, chestnut hair and a soft, even voice.

Her only hobbies are mathematics, music and the radio. She holds a masters degree in higher mathematics and is an pianist. She sometimes finds time to go to the theater, the ballet or a concert.

Her present high post was won by the hardest toil, and unremitting service to the revolution.

Five times she was exiled or imprisoned by the czarist regime, spending years in Siberia. She knew and worked with Lenin and Trotsky.

She is shy about herself, extremely reluctant to discuss her own life, achievements or talents, insisting that in the U. S. S. R. it is the system, not the individual, that counts.

"Our government gives everyone an equal chance for success," she said.

"I must not be regarded as an exceptional case. All women in the Soviet Union are given the same opportunity. Many other women besides, myself hold important executive positions. Several are presidents of regional governments.

"Within a few years we probably shall have hundreds of women in high administrative posts."

Picnic Honoring Visitors is Given

A chicken barbecue was given at the City Park Thursday afternoon in honor of the following visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Ridgeway of Fulton, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ridgeway of E. St. Louis and Miss Ruth Ridgeway of E. St. Louis.

The guests were: Mrs. Joe Pickle and children, Joe, Jarrell and Judith, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pickle and daughter, L. E. Mae, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pickle and son J. C., Mr. and Mrs. Miller Harris and son, James Dale, Mrs. W. D. McDonald and son, Cecil, Tommie Jordan, Gerald Liberty, Max Pickle, Bud Davis, Mrs. S. L. Baker, Mrs. R. A. ## WATER IS TO FIFTEEN FEET IN CENTER OF OLD CAVITY—80 FEET DEEP AND 200 WIDE

It Is Filling Again Because Drain For City and Shops Has Been Removed, Says Edwin A. Kelley

Without a doubt Big Spring's original Big Spring will continue to run and fill say experts here.

It has now been running, breaking out in scores of fresh spring streams under the overhanging shelf of rock, for more than two weeks according to R. L. Southard, who lives within a hundred feet of the historic old landmark of Texas.

This spring, on whose bank one of the greatest Indian battles of West Texas was fought, has been dry for almost twenty years.

It is a huge cavity over eighty feet deep and some 200 feet across at its widest part.

Children of Big Spring's old timers used to be systematically frightened by their harrassed parents with stories of the "bottomless pit."

However, the deep and narrow pool, drained dry of its countless gallons of water by the ever increasing demand of the city and the shops, one day showed its bottom to an amazed and worried citizenry.

For some twenty years then it remained dry. The T. & P., on whose land it is located, fenced it off and provided it with a caretaker to keep adventuresome people from falling onto its rocky bottom.

But now it has burst forth again. Fifteen feet of water, muddy and full of weeds, may be seen by anyone armed with a pass from the railroad.

Close Inspection This reporter made a perilous trip down the west side of the cavity and crawled through the sunflower stalks, many over two inches thick, back under the ledge of rock which hangs some twenty feet over the bottom of the pool.

More than 100 streams of water are pouring out of the loose sandstone formation under the ledge. A faint humming noise, actually impressive on a increasing in volume every moment, fills the large rock bound cavity. The air is cool and damp. Small bits of fern are beginning to appear on the ceilings of the rock ledge.

The Big Spring flows again. No one will attempt to say just how long it will take the depression to fill to the brim with clear cold water as it may be remembered by certain "old timers."

Mr. Kelly Explains There is, however, simple explanation of this seeming phenomenon. Edwin A. Kelley of the Southern Ice and Utilities Co., geologist, scholar and interested citizen has made the clearest of them all.

According to Mr. Kelley, the stratification of the rocks in the area south of town, bounded on the north by the golf links, on the south by the Big Spring mountains, on the east by a certain elevation of the ground and on the west by the San Angelo road, is bent down until it may be likened to a saucer, a half mile wide and 300 feet deep.

"This saucer," says Mr. Kelley, "is a little longer than it is wide, if you can imagine such a saucer. It is filled (under the surface soil remember) by the trinity sands which pour a part of their burden of water into its shallow bowl."

"Thus we have a full saucer over whose edges pour dribbles of running water."

"Then imagine a slight nick out of the south eastern edge of the saucer. The water would of necessity flow through this nick and gather under the edge. This nick in the edge of this shallow water basin caused the Big Spring."

Along came the T. & P. and the city engineers. They located the wells to supply the shops and the town right above the saucer. They drained out millions of gallons. The water level of the saucer became lower and lower. Soon it was lower than the nick in its south eastern edge.

"Big Spring went dry. And soon the saucer went dry. The gallons of water being drawn out were much in excess of the dribbles coming in over the rock bound edge from the trinity sands."

"The town was panic stricken. There was no water for baths—for washing one's car—for watering one's lawn—even for drinking."

"So the new wells were located. These they sunk to the south of the old waterworks and directly into the main course of the trinity sands."

"The drainage of the saucer stopped. The dribble continued; however, and the saucer refilled. Again it reached the crack in its southeastern edge. Again it spilled over. And again Big Spring is filling with water."

STYLE TALKS Little Change Necklines Fancy Smart Sox Black for Bridge BY ADA E. LINGO

Set your heart at rest my readers. Fashions for fall will not take any radical turn and thus mechanically ruin your plan to wear several early spring dresses bought in the heat of the new style movement.

NECKLINES MUST BE Dainty Gone are the old angular and unbecoming necklines. Femininity is rampant. The last summer dresses must have a small touch of something soft around them.

SKIN TONES IN STOCKINGS Chic stockings are skin color this summer season. A dark honey shade if you happen to be a belle brunette and a tawny tone if you are one of those bewitching blondes.

TAKE YOUR BRIDGE DRESS BLACK What Paris decries, America does. Miss Alice Langier writes on Paris' latest ultimatum, the black bridge dress.

First Marriage A Failure; Three Fourth Try Again

I. M. Rubnow in the New Republic: What becomes of our divorced men and women? Here arithmetic appears to be as helpful as law, religion or psychology, and even more so.

Having obtained this somewhat startling information, the statistician turns to the huge tome of the United States census report for 1920 (those for 1930, unfortunately, not yet being available), and yet very much to his amazement finds that in that year there were registered only 235,000 men and 275,000 women who had been divorced, a total of 510,000.

Broken Hearts? Have they all died of a broken heart? The hypothesis would hardly harmonize with the general observations as to the mental status of divorced persons. Some died, of course. Their number, though not given anywhere, can be computed with a fair degree of accuracy, taken all evening if necessary.

Worn all evening if necessary. For the very charm afternoon there is a charming black lace frock. Sleeveless and with tiny shoulder-cape tied with a ribbon beneath the chin.

What Paris decries, America does. Miss Alice Langier writes on Paris' latest ultimatum, the black bridge dress. "Bridge frocks will be black ones this summer, nearly all ways with a touch of white on them, according to the latest decrees of the French fashion-makers who insist that there is really nothing in the world smarter than this old magic combination, nothing more becoming and alluring."

EVERYDAY QUESTIONS

Answered By
Dr. S. Parkes Cadman

Questions from readers are answered daily by the Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Radio Minister of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Dr. Cadman seeks to answer inquiries that appear to be representative of the trends of thought in the many letters which he receives.

New York City. I have been for forty years a disciple of Robert Ingersoll. I have never seen his arguments against the Bible answered satisfactorily. I have read the replies of Gladstone, Field and Father Lambert, but all of them move so largely in the realm of speculative thought based on questionable premises that I am still unconvinced as to the inspiration of the Book. I do not believe in such a God as the Christians assert exists. I believe in some creative force far beyond the reach of my imagination through which laws have been developed that govern the actions of mankind. I don't say this in a vainglorious mood. Under these laws I have been fortunate in having strong self-reliance, yet at times when crises in my life were approaching I felt the need of more strength, but having only faith about the size of a mustard seed, I groped in the dark for outside support and found none which appealed to me. I am not positive nor am I fond of my opinions. I am seeking only to know the truth. The more I seek, the further away it seems to get. Every time I start to read the Bible I turn away in discouragement. I assume this is due to my lack of understanding as well as a lack of faith. I believe at birth I was endowed with whatever traits I have, that these were developed or dwarfed by circumstances. So an appeal to an invisible power for more strength in an approaching crisis is out of the question for me.

Yet I would welcome some spiritual support and when death comes I don't want to be a weakling nor do I wish to be scornful or cynical. I simply desire to take the matter as an entire natural result of having lived.

I appeal to you because you seem with clarity and certainty to solve the many problems submitted to you and I trust you may be able to direct me.

As it is I am entirely lacking in faith. Thanks for your interesting letter. If you have been Ingersoll's disciple for forty years you must now be an elderly man. This may account for the evident fact that as your years increase you discover the inherent weakness of skepticism as an explanation of life. When its tides begin to recede they reveal those serious questionings which cannot be silenced by doubts about the reality of the things of the spirit.

Ingersoll reacted eloquently against an impossible theory of the Bible. He had the intellectual vision to detect and the courage to expose the implications of that theory. It made the just and loving God a tyrannical monster, immoral, revengeful and cruel.

But surely you should know that few, if any, responsible Christian thinkers now defend the theory of the Bible which stimulated Ingersoll's skepticism. Its implications are no longer binding on believers

We regard Holy Scripture as the historic record of man's search for God, and of the responses which God made to that search. This great dual approach reached its climax in Jesus, who is the light of all scripture.

We read it in His radiance. What He said and did is the law of the Christian faith and order. Believing Him to be perfectly good we accept Him as the revelation of the Father. He shows us what God is and what He desires for all His children.

I submit that you can share these great privileges. Experience confirms their validity. What is there in them which is irrational? The faith that produced earth's best men and women should be worthy of your attention, and it will do for you what it has done for them in this world and the next.

Pittsburgh, Pa. What, in your opinion, is necessary in order to develop that personality, without which success seems to be impossible? Would you kindly give a list of books on the subject of personality and what constitutes its successful attainment. The basic qualifications for personality may be classified as follows: A ready, generous, keen and magnanimous mind; a courteous and considerate social behavior; a dependable and unselfish character; and a normal physical appearance which reflects the foregoing attributes.

In many instances personality has peculiar traits derived from parents or the gifts of Nature. These you may or may not have to a marked degree. But every individual can improve his or her natural endowments and the following volumes should be helpful on the subject.

Professor Allport's "Social Psychology" contains an excellent discussion of the fundamentals of your question. Supplement it with H. C. Spillman's "Personality," H. J. Randall's "Culture of Personality" and Biles Casman's "The Making of Personality." It is notable that earth's noblest personalities have been created by constant fellowship with God. The spiritual mastery and influence obtained by prayer are produced by the conviction that this devotion insures the strength and guidance of Him who "giveth liberally and upbraideth not." Therefore do not surrender the richest source of that superior character which makes you the master of life's contingencies.

TRADE AND INDUSTRY SHOWS LET DOWN AS USUAL QUIET SUMMER SEASON IS OPENED

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Business entered the dull summer period with trade and industry showing more than the usual seasonal let down, says Frank Greene in his monthly review in Nation's Business Magazine, published by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Reviewing business conditions in June, Mr. Greene points out that the general trend of factory operations was downward in line with the approach of mid-summer shut-downs, which this year will be longer, he predicts, than for several years past.

"The wholesale and jobbing business," he says, "was closely geared to small fill-in orders and actual buying. Retail trade, aided by warm weather mood of the month, was made up largely of women's wear, of a light type adapted to midsummer, and vacation goods. Earlier than ordinary sales to reduce stocks in retailers' hands were a feature in the men's clothing trade.

Restriction Pronounced

"In industry, the movement to restrict production, whether of automobiles, lumber, steel, furniture, hosiery or cotton goods was, as already indicated, quite pronounced. The result was that employment, which fell off slightly in May, sagged further. This offset some slight gains in outdoor occupations, due to the beginning of the wheat harvest in the Southwest. As regards the latter, it is to be noted that less than the normal number of men are finding employment in the wheat fields owing to the spreading use of the combine harvester-thresher.

"The stock market until well into the last week of June tended downward, an increased number of stocks about 400 in all reaching the lowest point of the year. The decline in the entire stock market was second only to that in October 1929, and the railway group's average for a while sank below the level of that November. This was due to the absence of million-dollar coal loadings during May, in contrast to larger totals a year earlier. But because of the steady in May about 200,000,000 less than did occur recently, the de-

He's For Dad

This, folks, is Pat. J. Murphy, son of E. E. Regardless of the result of the primary balloting, insofar as this youngster is concerned, E. E. Murphy is the all-time nominee for anything he aspires to . . .

again said to have sold at lowest quotations for all time.

"All in all, it will be seen that June was not an enlivening period in stocks, crop values or industrial circles. In business circles a disposition to give greater weight to the world depression was manifested on the theory that most of the bad news is out and that the real factors about trade and industry are recognized, there was a hope, if not a prospect, of improvement after the dullness of summer has passed riods of a year earlier when trade recession had begun to manifest itself. Increasing attention, in fact, was being concentrated on the idea that prices of basic products had been scaled down to a point where lowered cost would bring their own cure and consumption would be stimulated by price reduction.

"In other words, there is a growing feeling that cheaper food, clothing and housing hold within themselves elements of sure if slow improvement and of eventual progress to a point where the American dollar will buy more things than it has for a good many years past."

DRUGGISTS TO CONVENE SOON IN PLAINS CITY

LUBBOCK, Texas, July 26 (AP)—Lubbock will be a "mecca" August 12 and 13 for the West Texas Druggists, who will come here from points from Wichita Falls and Fort Worth to El Paso, and from San Angelo and Brownwood to Dalhart and Texline, to attend the semi-annual session of the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association.

The Hilton Hotel, known as the Hotel of Romance where one finds an abundance of Spanish architecture and furnishings that gives a romantic atmosphere, has been designated as headquarters for the convention.

Lee T. Stinson, of Snyder, president of the Association, will be on hand to direct the meeting and a full program of business and entertainment has been worked out by those who will attend.

Two special musical organizations will be in Lubbock all during the convention to furnish entertainment for the West Texas Druggist.

The Singing Senoras of Ralls, six beautiful young ladies, will be six as will the Cypsy girls from Sweetwater.

Lawrence Davis, from Sweetwater, Secretary of the West Texas Pharmaceutical Association has already issued orders that there will be no kidnapping, while the special delegation of Ralls Druggist will be here to "guard Singing Senoras."

The Druggist will be entertained with a banquet and a dance Tuesday, October 13, by Lubbock, while the Brehrens Drug Company of Waco will entertain the Druggist with a luncheon after the adjournment Wednesday, October 13.

W. "Tanlac" Strange of Big Spring, will speak on the program at the banquet, August 12. Strange, recognized over West Texas as one of the best entertainers will tell West Texas Druggists many new things about "The Modern Home."

E. L. Robertson, President of the Lubbock Druggists Association, together with other Lubbock druggists, are making arrangements to show all the visitors the best time they have ever had at a convention.

Small Speaker Delivers Final Appeal In City

The very last salvo of oratory and arguments for a gubernatorial candidate in the pre-primary campaign, was sounded Friday evening on the court house lawn by W. S. (Bill) Coper, editor of the Colorado Record, for Senator Clint C. Small.

Conceding that all candidates are good men, and women, and that they are qualified to hold the highest state office, West Texans should not only look with favor on the candidacy of Mr. Small but vote for him, Mr. Coper declared. "His private life, his public record and his platform stand without a peer in Texas history," said Mr. Coper.

The candidate's fight that caused the famous river bed bill to be passed over the governor's veto, along with the plea to "adjourn politics and develop Texas" were the chief items in the Small platform reviewed by the speaker. "Mr. Sterling is a wonderful man. I know him and have appreciated my associations with him. But he is going to be eliminated tomorrow not because the people question his ability but because they are not going to swallow his road bond plan," declared Coper. He declared that interest totaling $25,000,000 would be paid on a 30-year $350,000,000 bond issue, or, on a 40-year issue of that size, the interest, he declared would total $700,000,000. "It is absolutely inconceivable. The present method of financing highways is not such a burden on the people," he added.

University Band Sees England

BY NAT C. FLOYD (Special Correspondent For Abilene Reporter-News) BIRMINGHAM, England, July 4 (By Mail).—Forty-seven West Texans, within 8 miles of the post marking the very center of England, saw their quietest Fourth of July pass today in the heart of what was once enemy territory.

Half a dozen fire crackers woke the dogs and several Englishmen as members of the Cowboy Band of Simmons University, Abilene, Texas, dropped the noise-makers from their hotel windows a few seconds after the birth of another July 4 at 12:01 this morning. Dogs barked as the echoes died away and English hotel guests peered from their windows, but the quietude of England's "Holy City" at midnight soon returned, and the brief celebration was concluded.

The Cowboys, all students of Simmons U., had returned to the downtown hotel at 11:30 p. m., from the Hippodrome theatre, where they are headlines on this week's variety bill.

After a successful engagement at the Palladium in London, England's greatest variety house, the student band came to Birmingham with a record of having drawn larger crowds in London than any other act in several months—since a "command" performance for the king and queen four months ago, in fact.

"The Encore," weekly theatrical magazine published in London said in its July 3 issue, concerning the band's performances here: "The Texas Cowboy Band was a big attraction, and they proved a great success in every way, for besides being good musicians, the boys have personality and pep, and each is a showman. They played classics and jazz in fine style and introduced several melodious novelties. Rope Spinning, and other rodeo items, were presented by Captain Tom Hickman and "Hoss Fly" Kelly, while Corehn Faucett rendered sweet vocal numbers. The boys will have a successful tour of England.

During their stay here the boys have been signally honored by officials of the city and citizenship itself. The police department, rated as the most efficient in England, a country noted for the excellence of its police, forgave the boys their unintentional violations of the pedestrian traffic ordinances, and were hosts one day to Captain Tom Hickman, Texas Ranger, who is traveling with the band.

Greatest of all, however, was the reception given the band by the fire department, of which A. R. Toser is chief officer. Wednesday, July 2, Director D. O. Wiley took the boys to Highbury hospital, to play an hour's concert for the 150 world war veterans being treated on what was once the estate of Joseph Chamberlain, late, former premier. After giving a spirited program for the entertainment of the soldiers gathered on the marvelous lawn surrounding the beautiful old building, the band went to the central fire station where the firemen's band honored their visitors with a concert of American numbers, including the Star Spangled Banner, and a picked group of firemen from the 20 stations here presented a series of snappy drills with their equipment.

band honored their visitors with a concert of American numbers, including the Star Spangled Banner, and a picked group of firemen from the 20 stations here presented a series of snappy drills with their equipment.

A. P. Toser Jr., third officer and second son of the chief, was in charge. Among other relics exhibited at the conclusion of the drill was a pair of red trousers worn by his great-great-grandfather when he was chief of the Birmingham fire department. The young man (his elder brother is second officer) showed remarkable training and leadership in conducting the realistic drills.

Other Sight
The birthplace of William Shakespeare, Anna Hathaway's cottage, and Kenilworth and Warwick Castles, both in the Shakespeare country, were visited by more than 30 of the boys in an all-day tour July 3. Several stayed in Birmingham, since they had made the Shakespeare trip from London.

Today, July 4, the students went in two groups to inspect Cadbury's said to be the largest candy factory in the world. Captain Hickman and "Sheriff" Bill Watson, the latter of Abilene, accompanied the morning group. G. B. Sandefer, manager of the band, led the afternoon inspection tour.

The band's act was built in London after their arrival there from New York June 17. The band had prepared during the winter to give regular concerts of classical music this summer, but they were required to switch over to a 10-minute, rapid-fire act. With three days rehearsal before the first show at London, the band was in shape. Before the end of the week there, the act was acknowledged to be one of the best drawing cards the Palladium has had for some time. Here the act was extended to 25 minutes, and it has met with an even greater success than in London—if that be possible.

New Act
The act now consists of several snappy numbers, including the famous "Whistling Far yer Boy"; comedy roping by Knox Kelly of Post, Texas; songs by Corehn Faucett, cowgirl singer, who appears in a captivating costume; roping by the internationally known Tom Hickman, a funny song by the band trio—Jack Simmons of Sweetwater, Johnnie Means of El Paso and Nubbin Byron; in addition to Wiley's peppy directing.

Sunday will see the West Texas musicians taking a 250 mile trip to Newcastle-on-Tyne, which is within a few miles of the border of Scotland. Following a week's engagement there, the band will sail across the English channel to Holland, arriving at The Hague July 14. They will play there on the night of the 16th; at Rotterdam July 17. The 18th will be free, and the boys will work again July 19 and 20 at Amsterdam.

Berlin agents will hear the act at The Hague, with a view to contracting for their performance in the German capital. Paris had not been heard from tonight, but there is yet a possibility that the students may have the opportunity to play in that mecca of all tourists.

Lubbock Club Preparing For Kiwanis Meet

LUBBOCK, Texas, July 26.—While members of the Lubbock Kiwanis Club are busily engaged in getting ready for the annual Texas-Oklahoma District Convention of Kiwanis International that meets here September 1 and 2, other clubs in this Plains division, are also making plans to come here and help welcome the Kiwanians from other sections.

Word from Franz Gillette of Amarillo recently indicates that the entire membership of 120 at Amarillo will be here to assist Lubbock Kiwanians in welcoming the visitors to this section.

Children will likewise send their entire club here for the convention. Large delegations, if not one hundred percent attendance, is likewise expected from the other clubs in this division including Plainview, Sudan, Muleshoe, Tahoka, Big Spring, Tulla, Wellington, Vega, and Canadian.

From 1,500 to 2,000 Kiwanians from Texas and Oklahoma are expected here for the two days' convention. The clubs upon the Plains are not leaving anything undone for the convenience and pleasure of the visitors from the other cities of Texas and Oklahoma.

As one of the big features of the entertainment, the Lubbock Kiwanis Club has arranged for a special train to the Carlsbad Caverns, which will go following the adjournment of the convention late Tuesday. The party will go through the cave Wednesday and arrive back here Wednesday night. Round trip fare on the train will be about $8.00.

Raymond M. Crossman, of Omaha, Nebraska, president of the Kiwanis International will be here for the convention, as will E. Lon Mitchell, of Clinton, Oklahoma and other ranking officials of the International and District organizations.

These officials and local Kiwanians are confident that the Lubbock Convention will be the largest and the best convention ever held in this district.

Bleach Tan
before it fades to sallowness!

SUNBURN will soon make your skin grow coarse, thick and yellow, unless you tone, nourish and soothe the tissues which have suffered from exposure. Elizabeth Arden's Venetian Bleaching Cream is excellent to smooth and whiten the skin. It is a soothing and nourishing cream made with fresh lemons, which softens the skin and corrects roughness and dryness, while it bleaches tan and sallowness.
