Pampans who have not yet visited the Frontier Centennial at Fort Worth or the Centennial exposition at Dallas will have to hurry if they want to get in under the wire.

While it may seem like pressing a bit, we suspect there is sufficient news value attached to the fact that the end is near, to warrant calling your attention to these things in this space.

The Texas world fair in Dallas does not close until Nov. 30, and plans are under way to reopen it again next year, but the fun and hilarity of the Fort Worth Frontier shows will run into a dead-end a week from tomorrow night.

Billy Rose, New York showman and director general of the Fort Worth celebration, says that the Fort Worth end of the great Centennial definitely will come to its conclusion on Halloween night.

Paul Whiteman and his famous orchestra, as well as Everett Marshall, Metropolitan Opera baritone; Sally Rand, of fan and bubble dance fame; Jack Powell, comic black-face drummer; Cardini, card and cigar trick artist; and the Remos Wonder Midlets, will continue with the show through the scheduled closing date, Joe Venuti and his dance band will continue to augment Whiteman's Orchestra in playing for dancing at the Casa Manana.

So, there remain only eight more days to see Casa Manana which the nation's greatest theatrical critics have praised unreservedly. Rose says, "There never was a Casa Manana before and I do not know how soon there will be another."

Casa Manana revue, a cavalcade of world's fairs, is presented on a revolving stage 130 feet in diameter or 3 1/2 times the size of the Radio City stage in New York. It is the most gigantic cafe theater ever built and nearly one half million people have seen the Casa Manana revue.

If it's Casa Manana you want to "do" or Sally Rand's nude rambles you want to see, you'll have to hurry, hurry, hurry, as the "big show" barker has yelled down through the years.

TODAY'S SAFETY TOPIC.
Think of SAFETY and the doctor won't have to think of you.

"Who do you think will be elected President—Roosevelt or Landon?" asks the inquiring reporter of a man on the rear platform of a Santa Fe train passing through Pampa. HIS ANSWER: "Who's Landon, who's Roosevelt?" never heard of 'em. Is it true that the dust storms here are so bad that you can cut 'em up and use 'em for park benches?"

A Pampa rider won't believe that the sea monster was seen off Scotland; it could hardly have traveled that far since he saw it the other evening.

A press agent's yarn tells of a goat wandering into a studio and eating a scenario, but fails to reveal if the animal was saved.

Eastern horticulturists are studying a survey of the rose growing industry in Texas recently compiled by the Agricultural Research Advisory Bureau in New York in connection with its activities looking to the betterment of agriculture thru scientific research.

According to the bureau's report, Texas, with 1,500 acres given over to commercial rose growing, and shipments totalling 7,000,000 bushes during the past year, has been chosen as the most practical field laboratory for the survey of this growing industry.

In its study of the experiences of several of the larger rose growers in Texas, the bureau finds that sulphur, available in Texas at low cost, provides the most effective method of combating two of the major diseases to which roses are subject, mildew and black spot.

Ability of the Texas rose growers to control these fungous diseases with sulphur treatment is largely responsible for the commercial success of this plant industry, the bureau survey indicates.

Announcing the results reported by Texas nurserymen, the bureau advises dusting the rose bushes with sulphur at regular intervals to control mildew. Black spot can be controlled by spraying with lime sulphur. Last year Texas nurserymen used thousands of pounds of sulphur to keep the rose acreages in healthy condition, the bureau said.

Coming

DR. EUGENE MAUCH

SPEAKER WILL REVIEW 'GONE WITH THE WIND' WITH THE WIND

Altar Society Will Sponsor Address in City Hall

Dr. Eugene Mauch, O. S. A., of Amarillo, will give a review of the book, "Gone With the Wind," a best-seller, when he is presented tomorrow afternoon in a public program sponsored by the Altar Society of Holy Souls church at the city club room in the city hall.

The program is scheduled for 3 p. m. and there will be a nominal admission charge. Dr. Mauch, serving his second year as dean at Price Memorial college at Amarillo, came to Texas from Villanova college of Villanova, Pa., where he was dean of the school of arts for several years. He is a member of the Augustinian order, famous over many centuries for its learned scholars.

The book he is to discuss has become the most widely read and most talked of novel of the year, and its popularity promises to keep growing. A copy recently secured by the public library here is in constant demand, afternoon in a local garage Mitchell. Mrs. W. H. Davis is chairman of the committee which arranged the program.

CARL BRASHEARS DIES OF A BRIEF ILLNESS

Carl Gilbert Brashears, 39, resident of Pampa for the last 10 years, died yesterday afternoon in a local hospital following a brief illness and operation.

During his residence in Pampa, Mr. Brashears operated a trucking business, specializing in oilfield hauling. He also was wholesale dealer for Wilcox oil and gas in the Pampa territory until a month ago when he sold his holdings to Hampton and McWilliams, and moved to his ranch seven miles east of Miami.

Mr. Brashears became ill last week but he was not worried about his condition until Monday night when he became worse. He was rushed to Pampa hospital Tuesday night.

Surviving Mr. Brashears are his wife, a step-son, Bobby Caldwell, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brashears, Eastland, five sisters, Mrs. R. B. Dawson, Tulsa, Mrs. S. C. Thompson, Dallas, Mrs. Joe Niver, Pampa, and Misses Mattie and Goldie Mae Brashears, both of Eastland, and one brother, Burton "Doc" Brashears of Pampa.

Mr. Brashears' father is ill at his home in Eastland and has not been notified of his son's death. A great uncle, Housh Brashears, 80, of Ranger, and Misses Mattie and Goldie Mae Brashears, both of Eastland, and one brother, Burton "Doc" Brashears of Pampa.

Funeral services will be conducted at 6 o'clock this evening in First Christian church with John Mullen, pastor, officiating. Tomorrow the body will be sent to Eastland by Pampa Mortuary.

Palbearers will be Joe Berry, Birdie Vaught, Fred Cullum, A. G. Post, Frank Griffin and Sherman White.

Battleground Monument Will Be Unveiled And Dedicated Near City

Appropriate unveiling and dedicatory ceremonies will be held in the near future at the monument which has been placed on the site of the battleground where Lieutenant Baldwin led his famous charge of the wagon train and rescued the German sisters from Indian captivity in 1874, according to Ivy E. Duncan.

The monument was placed on the battleground last week, after being shipped to Pampa from San Antonio by truck. It is located south and east of a point on highway 88 1/2 miles south of Pampa.

DELIBERALIZATION OPPOSED

Amarillo Man Is Arrested, Charged With Passing Bus

372 FOOTBALL FANS IN CITY FROM LUBBOCK

SPECIAL TRAIN BRINGS LARGE CROWD FROM SOUTH PLAINS

A heavy mist greeted 372 Lubbock football fans when they left a special train at the Santa Fe station at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Spirits of the trippers were not dampened by the rain, however.

The occasion was the annual battle between the Lubbock high school and Pampa high school football teams which is staged every other year in Pampa. This afternoon the big Westerners were on the long end of the dope over a light Harvesters eleven.

Led by the Lubbock high school band, the trippers marched up Cuyler street to the high school gymnasium. Later cars and school buses were provided to take the visitors to the game.

Led by the Lubbock special, also carrying a delegation of Amarillo fans, was met in Panhandle by M. P. Downs, Dick Hughes, C. H. Walker, Garnet Reeves, E. B. Emerson, Tom Aldridge, Guy McTaggart, H. L. Polley, Jim Collins, Joe Bryant, Tommy Chessler, representing the Junior chamber of commerce welcome committee. The Pampans passed out slips of paper telling visitors of the arrangements for their comfort.

Last night on the 100 block on North Cuyler street, the Pampa high school pep squad, students and citizens gathered in a huge pep rally. Enthusiasm of the assembled throng gave the Harvesters, underdogs in the game, renewed hope.

RAIN IS FORECAST AS COLD WEATHER RECEDES

Pampa and its immediate vicinity climbed out of the sub-freezing temperature bracket today and indications were that the mercury would continue a steady rise, although rain is forecast for Saturday.

According to the government temperature recording instruments of the Pampa Daily NEWS, the low point here last night was 31 1/2 degrees, just a half-point below freezing.

The thermometer reading remained at this point through 7 o'clock this morning when it began to go up slowly, reaching 36 at noon today.

Friday was cloudy in the Panhandle and the sun, although on the verge several times during the day, had been unable up to early afternoon to break through.

A drizzling rain began falling shortly before noon, with indications that it might continue throughout the remainder of the day.

TO DEDICATE SCHOOL
MORNING, Sept. 23 (AP)—Dedication of the new Skelly school, 15 miles west of Stinson, will be tonight under the sponsorship of the Pampa chamber of commerce. E. B. Wilaney is superintendent of the school.

The new building was opened on the first day of school. Pupils attend from the Skelly, Continental, Cabot and other camps in the vicinity.

Drive to End Similar Violations Begun By Officers

A war to the end to enforce the state law prohibiting motorists from passing standing school buses without first coming to a full stop was launched today by the Gray county sheriff's department and Joe Shelton, superintendent of buses for the Pampa Independent school district.

Although a warning was issued several weeks ago by Shelton, he reported today that numerous violations of the law have been committed.

First arrest of the present school term was made today when officers filed a complaint against E. R. Proper, of Amarillo, who is charged in county court with passing a Pampa school bus on the Amarillo highway this morning. Proper is under $500 bond for appearance in county court Monday morning.

"We feel that motorists unthinkingly violate this law," Mr. Shelton said today, "but it is so important to the safety of school children that it be observed that prosecution of every violator will be pressed in an endeavor to stop the practice."

The state school bus law provides a penalty for violation of this regulation of not less than $19 fine nor more than $500, or confinement in the county jail not to exceed 90 days, or both fine and imprisonment.

The law states: "When any school bus stops on the highway, every operator of a motor vehicle approaching the bus from any direction shall bring his vehicle to a full stop before proceeding in any direction and shall not start up until the school bus has finished receiving or discharging passengers."

EXPLOSION AT SAYRE KILLS SCHOOL JANITOR

SAYRE, Okla., Oct. 23 (AP)—One man was killed instantly and another injured early today when a blast ripped away the roof of the east wall of the south wing of the new junior high school here.

H. T. Conner, about 55, school janitor, was killed when he lighted a match in a classroom to examine a gas leak in a radiator.

E. P. Laney, about 50, a workman who was standing in a corner of the room, was stunned and received minor injuries.

Laney said he believed that gas had leaked in under the floor of the one-story structure.

Windows in the school were shattered and residents near here said the explosion was heard for miles.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE
NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Elizabeth Smith, 18-year old unwed mother convicted of killing her newborn son by throwing him off the roof of a Bronx apartment house was given a suspended sentence today by Judge Harry Stackwell. District Attorney Samuel Foley of the Bronx recommended mercy for the girl, who was convicted of second degree manslaughter. Judge Stackwell placed her under probation for three years.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM
High school athletes cry when they can't do their best or are taken out of the game—never when they are hurt. Warren McDaniel is a pretty game kid. It takes more bravery than you think to play football and play hard.

Warren was one of the best backs on the Gorrilla football team. Yesterday afternoon at Miami he was tackled and he heard the bone in his leg snap in two, and the pain in his leg was as nothing compared to the pain of knowing that he would not play again this season. He was as stoical as a Spartan as they put him in the back seat of a car and brought him to the doctor's office in Pampa. There was never a tear in his eye, but his teeth were set and there was a hard glint in his grey eyes. Ahead of him he saw long weeks in bed and on crutches; behind him—well he had done his best and it was pretty good. The barren days to come will seem like minutes next fall when he is playing on the Harvesters team!

LOBBYISTS FOR CORPORATIONS 'BEHIND MOVE'

DEFINITE OPPOSITION TO CHANGE BOBS UP IN HOUSE
AUSTIN, Oct. 23 (AP)—The house of representatives went on record today by a large majority in opposition to deliberation of the old age pension law. The vote was 75 to 42. The resolution recited that it was the "will and pleasure" of the house that the deliberation amendment to the omnibus tax bill be deleted.

Taxi Driver From Amarillo Fined After Collision

Car of Hutchinson's Agent Wrecked Near City

V. R. Smith of Amarillo, driver of a Hammond Taxi company car that city, was fined $25 and costs this morning in justice E. F. Young's court on a plea of guilty to charges of failure to give right-of-way to an approaching car on a public highway.

Charges grew out of an automobile accident three miles west of Pampa on U. S. Highway 60 yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. No one was injured, but both cars were badly damaged.

Smith, according to City Patrolman Bob Irwin who accompanied an ambulance to the scene of the accident, was driving to Pampa with a passenger from Amarillo when he attempted to go around a car being operated by Joe Spoomore of Pampa. Before the driver of the taxi could cut back on his side of the road, he ran head-on into a car driven by Miss Lucille Chance.

Hutchinson county home demonstration agent from Borger, the officer learned.

The rear wheels of the car driven by Miss Chance were knocked from the car and left in the barrow pit near the crash while the car careened across the ditch into a fence. Smith's car was turned across the pavement. Both were smashed in front.

The passenger in the Amarillo taxi had not been located this morning. It is not known whether he was picked up by a passing motorist or walked away from the scene of the accident.

County authorities this morning reminded Smith that it was a violation of the law to operate a taxi between cities and that a stiff penalty could be assessed.

'CLEAN GLASS' MAY HOUSE 50,000 GERMS

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23 (AP)—A newly washed drinking glass, when inverted on an unwashed tray, picks up on its rim 40,000 to 50,000 bacteria. Most likely in its new dwellers are pneumonia, tuberculosis and influenza organisms.

This glass is a link in the "disease chain of dirty dishes," which the American Public Health association was informed today never has been broken. It is a chain perpetuating personal infections.

The germ-picking glasses were found by scientific tests in Washington, D. C., and reported today by James G. Cumming, M. D., and N. E. Young of the District of Columbia department of health.

Safe dishwashing was declared both cheap and feasible. Take the dishes from the wash water. Dr. Cumming said, and put them in a rinsing dish, which may contain either 170 degree Fahrenheit water or water containing a solution of hypochlorite. After that it is safe to rinse them even in cold water. The result, he noted, is a 99 per cent reduction in bacteria.

NINE AMERICANS DRAW TICKETS ON FAVORITE

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Oct. 23 (AP)—Nine American tickets on the Cambridgehire favorite, Dan Bulger, were drawn today from the big drums in the nineteenth Irish Hospitals sweepstakes.

Total receipts of the sweeps were $2,707,291 ($1,535,455). A total of 11,608,965 ($8,044,825) was set aside for prizes.

Most of the morning's draw involved horses which already have been scratched from next week's Newmarket race, each holder of a ticket on a scratched horse getting $50 ($2,965).

Residual prizes, with each of ten being worth $896 ($4,380), will be drawn tomorrow.

Each drawer of a ticket on the winning horse wins $30,000 ($150,000), on the second horse, $13,000 ($75,000) and third, $10,000 ($50,000).

There will also be 100 cash prizes of $100 ($500) each.

TRINIDAD IS MYSTIFIED BY SEVERED LEG

VICTIM HUNTED; DOG DRAGGED MEMBER TO LAWN

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 23 (AP)—A gruesome murder mystery on which authorities had for a clew only the cleanly severed leg of a girl or a small woman, excited this southern Colorado town today.

A dog dragged the leg to the front lawn of Mrs. V. E. Burson yesterday. She notified Sheriff Ray Marty.

Tony Herrera and Emil Gomez, both of Trinidad, told Marty they saw the leg wrapped in newspapers Monday in an arroyo near here, but thought it bear meat and paid little attention. The newspapers were in Denver October 15, but Marty quoted physicians as saying the leg had been amputated not more than three days before it was found.

Fears were expressed that the victim might be Frances Vigil, 18, waitress, missing from her home here since Sunday.

Deputy Coroner Robert Sipe said the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cresencio Vigil, approached him a few hours after the discovery being known and related the girl left home in the company of a man, whom Sipe would not identify.

Mother Of Ten Does Not Care Whether She Wins Money In Stork Derby

TORONTO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Red haired Mrs. Pauline Clarke doesn't care whether she receives the "stork derby" fortune left by Charles Millar in an ironic will that bequeathed brewery stock to prohibitionists and jockey club shares to haters of horse racing.

"I am a mother because I want to be," she said today, reviewing her claims to the prize Millar allotted for the Toronto mother bearing the most children in the 10 years following his death in 1928.

"If there's money in it all right," the former "Madame X" of the contest said, "if there isn't—that's all right, too. You see, I'll still have my babies."

Mrs. Clarke's position is perhaps the most difficult of all; five of her ten children have been born in the five years since her husband left her.

These children, though fatherless in the eyes of the law, are all properly registered. The extra-legal circumstances of their birth do not decrease their value as proper entries in the derby.

Mrs. Clarke, only 24, talks candidly. When her husband left her, she began life with this man. They were to be married as soon as she was free.

But her husband did not divorce her. More babies came.

Couzens Dies

Multi-Millionaire Was Partner of Henry Ford

DEATH CLAIMS SEN. COUZENS, FRIEND OF FDR

Death—James Couzens ended the drama that James Couzens packed into his poor boy-to-millionaire career after a climactic "curtain call" that doubtless will be remembered long after the heat of this political campaign has died away.

Only a week ago, ill with a kidney malady that had troubled him several years, the Michigan senator left Harper Hospital to appear with President Roosevelt when the latter brought his campaign to Detroit.

It was Couzens' way of exemplifying his support of the President.

With the presidential train on its way, Couzens returned to the hospital.

There he died at 4:30 p. m., yesterday, shortly after an emergency operation. The Ontario-born multimillionaire, who had served in the Senate as a Republican since 1922, was 64 years old.

Senator Couzens entered politics after seeing an original $2,500 investment with Henry Ford pyramid to millions. Although a Republican, he alienated himself from many party leaders by his persistent independence, and was defeated for re-nomination last month after giving his unqualified endorsement to President Roosevelt.

A coal yard clerk in 1903, Couzens became associated with Ford when his employer backed the Dearborn inventor with funds to start his automobile factory. Couzens purchased $2,500 of shares in the company.

Breaking with Ford in 1915 over policy of the company, Couzens sold his interests in 1915 to the Fords for more than $29,000,000.

"I was worth millions before I realized we had started," he often said.

Philanthropies of the senator amounted to millions of dollars, much of it devoted to crippled children.

Senator Couzens supported much of the new legislation in the last Congress.

Funeral services will be held at Wabek, the Couzens' suburban Bloomfield Hills home. Funeral plans had not been completed today.

RESIDENT REPORTS CAR STRUCK BY SCHOOL BUS

D. B. Barber reported to city police officers yesterday evening that his car, driven by a daughter, had been struck by a Pampa Independent school district bus at the intersection of North Cuyler street and Kingsmill avenue. The driver of the car reported that the bus failed to stop.

Police Chief Art Hurst and school authorities were checking the report today. They had not talked with the driver of the truck early this afternoon. Mr. Barber said that a rear fender on his car had been damaged. He stated that both car and bus were being driven north.

Thrift Room Need Is Council Topic

P-TA Body to Send President to Convention

Continued need for clothing and funds in the thrift room sponsored by the Parent-Teacher associations was stressed at the meeting of city Parent-Teacher council yesterday afternoon.

Cash is needed to supply school children with underwear and other garments that are not supplied in the donations of used clothing. Boys' clothing, especially, are never plentiful in the room's supply, because boys usually wear out clothes before outgrowing them, and few are given to the thrift room. Shoes are another item that must often be purchased outright.

A $100 gift from the Lions club has practically all been spent, as has $12.50 received from the sale of quilts given last spring by the sewing room. The thrift room has purchased 115 garments and six pairs of shoes, and has issued 450 used garments and 30 pair of shoes from the regular supply. Several children have been sent to the Red Cross, which has a shoe fund.

The room will be open only on Wednesday afternoons after this week. B. M. Baker association will supply the workers next week, and other units will follow in turn.

In addition to discussing the thrift room, the council yesterday voted to send Mrs. J. M. Turner, president, as its delegate to the state convention in Fort Worth and chose Mrs. I. W. Spangler as treasurer following the resignation of Mrs. P. W. Garman.

Supt. R. B. Fisher spoke, discussing needs of the schools and explaining the teacher retirement amendment which will be voted on at the general election next month.

L. C. Pough of Borger visited friends in Roxanna and Skellytown this week.

Mrs. O. L. Smith, postmistress of Roxanna, was in Amarillo Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Norris, Mrs. George Stanley, and Mrs. W. W. Huges were Amarillo visitors Tuesday.

Miss Violet Polyak, of Eunice, N. M., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. L. Smith of Roxanna, was called home Monday by the illness of Miss Paquette. Miss Paquette is a former postmistress of the Skellytown office.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCorley and daughter will leave Sunday for Wichita Falls, and the Centennial in Dallas.

Mrs. George Allen, who underwent a tonsillectomy Tuesday, is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer, Ralph Romack and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Romack of Borger left Sunday for Yale, Okla., where they were called by the serious illness of their father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cockerill of the Cabot Co. left for the Centennial in Dallas. They will visit in Louisiana on their return here.

Mrs. Wesley Black entertained the New Deal bridge club at her home Wednesday evening, with John Horner as a guest. The Halloween motif was carried out throughout the refreshments and decorations.

High score for ladies went to Mrs. Bill Price, and high for the gentlemen, to Fred Price.

Players included Messrs. and Meses, Fred Price, Bill Price, J. C. Jarvis, S. C. Dickey, Carl Williams, Horner and Mrs. Black.

Ladies Aid. Members of the Ladies Aid met at the community church Thursday afternoon for a business and social meeting. A hymn, led by Mrs. Hazel Thurlow, opened the meeting, followed by devotional conducted by Mrs. John Beigle, and a prayer by Mrs. Boyd.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. C. Jarvis, president, with the following appointments: Meses, V. P. Francis, Hazel Thurlow, E. E. Gallamore, social services, Mrs. H. C. Boyd, chairman of missions.

A chill and oyster supper was planned for November 3rd, before the meeting was adjourned for the social hour. In the contests Mrs. W. P. McKicken, Mrs. J. W. Lee and Mrs. Jarvis received prizes for the contest.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served by Meses, Ray Hawkins, Lee and Boyd, who were dressed in gay Halloween costumes. Ladies present to enjoy the afternoon were Meses, E. M. Stafford, S. C. Dickey, E. O. Conyers, Hawkins, Beigle, Boyd, Jarvis, Earl New, Lee, W. R. Hinkley, Ralph Fozzie, Callanore, J. B. Speer, George P. Haselton, Francis, Wesley Black, Ed. Pachett, McKicken, Joe Wedge, Edwards, Thurlow, W. W. Hughes, and Jarvis.

The next meeting will be held November the 5th at the church.

Large advertisement for Buick cars. Features 'SPECIAL CENTURY ROADMASTER LIMITED' and 'FOUR WONDROUS NEW REASONS WHY: "It's Buick again!"'. Includes a Buick logo and a price tag of $765. Text: 'SENSATIONAL is the fervor with which the American public has taken to its heart the brilliant motor cars offered by Buick this year. Indeed, the sweeping success of the 1936 Buick program flatly challenged us and our great parent General Motors to a momentous decision. Should we continue this amazingly popular line of cars into next year, perhaps the prudent thing to do—or should we dare broad improvement upon their spectacular excellence? We felt there was only one right answer to that question, the bold and progressive answer—and that's why insiders now forecasting 1937 are already saying: "It's Buick again!" That's why on top of $15,000,000 recently spent re-tooling and re-equipping Buick's great plant, we appropriated and are now spending $14,500,000 more. That's why every car in the 1937 Buick line—the SPECIAL, the CENTURY, the ROADMASTER and the LIMITED—has more beauty for dazzling style, more power for breath-taking action, more room for full-family comfort, more downright "road-command" for safety and pleasure. See them. YOU'VE GOT WHAT IT TAKES! $765. You can afford the new Buick. It's easy to buy and thrifty to own. BOBBY WILSON IS PLAYING WITH DODGERS GRID ELEVEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Professional football, unlike the tendency of major league baseball, is no old settlers' picnic.

The old guard or the salaried grid ranks is finding it tougher and tougher to hang on with the upward surge of fresh talent that is pouring in from cross road colleges and big universities throughout the land.

The pace has been stepped up in the last two years with several alterations of the rules tending to make speed of foot more essential and take the stress off mountainous defenses. And that's where youth comes in.

Take the case of the Chicago Bears, current leaders of the western division of the league. Four of their starting players are first year men, Denny Fortmann, 20, Colgate, and Eddie Michaels, 22, Villanova, guards; Joe Stydahar, 22, West Virginia, tackle, and Ray Nolting, 22, Cincinnati University halfback.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, setting the pace in the eastern division, perhaps is the youngest team in the circuit. Except for the veteran backs, Warren Heller and Ed Matesic, none of the players has seen more than two or three years service in the league.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Redskins are loaded with 1935 college stars, all seeing active professional service. The Dodgers have Bobby Wilson, Southern Meth-

MISSISSIPPI DATE AT FETE IS OBSERVED

GOVERNOR TO PARDON 'EXES' WHO WILL RETURN

DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP)—Greeting officials of the Texas Centennial and the city of Dallas here today, Governor Hugh White of Mississippi said he would gladly extend executive clemency to "all the former Missisippians now in Texas if they will come back to Mississippi."

The governor said he had heard so much of the prominent part native Missisippians have played in the development of the Lone Star state that he was ready to pardon "out ex-citizens for any crime which caused them to leave the state."

A cold, dreary downpour of rain greeted the Mississippi governor and a party of approximately 1,000 Missisippians upon their arrival here today for "Mississippi day" at the Texas Centennial.

Because of the rain, a part of the outdoor program of entertainment was canceled, but Governor White assured Mayor George Sergeant of Dallas that "we're going to have a good time—rain or shine."

Accompanied by 57 of his colonels, dressed in full military regalia, and scores of citizens in holiday mood, Governor White was the guest of the Mississippi club of Dallas at a breakfast shortly after his arrival at 8 o'clock.

One of his first acts was to commission 14-year-old Hugh White, son of E. F. White, secretary of the Mississippi club, as a colonel on his staff.

Governor White beamed with pleasure as former Governor Pat Neff, president of Baylor University, said in welcoming the Missisippians to Texas:

"We acknowledge ourselves debtor to Mississippi for the part its sons and daughters have had in the progress and development of Texas. We are proud of their record, we are proud of Mississippi for them."

A tour of inspection of the Centennial grounds, climaxed by a "governors' ball" will feature the day's program. Governor White will be greeted by Governor James Allred of Texas tonight, and the two governors and their wives will lead the grand march at the ball.

Tomorrow, the Missisippi party, augmented by a group of students and alumni of Missisippi State college will attend the Missisippi State-T. C. U. football game.

The Missisippi party will return Sunday night after a visit to Fort Worth during the day.

BALTIMORE GIRL WED BONAPARTE 131 YEARS AGO

Bill, The Conqueror, Was Son of Tanner's Daughter

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—The friendship between Britain's king and Mrs. Ernest Simpson of Baltimore recalled today the part played by a Baltimore belle of an earlier generation in a romance of kingship.

More than a century ago—Dec. 24, 1803—Miss Elizabeth Patterson, beautiful daughter of a Baltimore merchant, married Jerome Bonaparte, brother of Napoleon. Jerome took his bride to France in 1805.

Napoleon, furious, annulled the marriage by imperial decree after the pope had declined to do so. She went to England, gave birth to a son, and later returned to Baltimore where she died in 1879.

The son, Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, also came to Baltimore. He had two sons. One served with the French army in Crimea; the other, Charles Joseph Bonaparte (1851-1921), won a distinguished place in American politics.

There is ample precedent on King Edward's side if he wishes to marry Mrs. Simpson. Under the English royal marriage law of 1772, only one thing could stop him; the "disapprobation" of both houses of parliament.

A whole line of British kings descended from William the Conqueror, who was the child of Robert, Duke of Normandy, and Herleva, a tanner's daughter.

The last English king known to have marriedmorganatically was George IV. Mrs. Maria Smythe Weld Fitzherbert was twice widowed and six years his senior when George secretly married her while he was Prince of Wales in 1785.

PRESIDENT TO TALK AGAIN IN PENNSYLVANIA

FINAL ADDRESS TO BE IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (AP)—Back at the White House after two days of the most arduous motor campaign in southern New England, President Roosevelt today began making plans for at least one more major speech next week before his final pre-election address in Madison Square Garden the night of Oct. 31.

While the President has not named the date and place of this appearance there was talk it would be made in eastern Pennsylvania, probably Scranton, either en route to New York for the Statue of Liberty celebration next Wednesday or between that day and his Garden engagement.

Mr. Roosevelt has two engagements before he goes to New York to participate in the Franco-American Statue of Liberty ceremonies in the harbor next Wednesday. Tonight he addresses from the White House 19 climbers being held in various cities. They are known as the "business men's dinners for Roosevelt."

Monday he will dedicate a new chemistry building at Howard university here.

Good weather may induce him to embark tomorrow on a week-end cruise down the Potomac to relax after the unumtious New England scenes and prepare for his final drives.

Arriving by auto two hours behind schedule in Stamford, Conn., last night, after touring a dozen industrial towns in the Connecticut and Naugatuck valleys, the President reboarded his special train and from the rear platform expressed thanks for a "very warm reception."

The crush of people at the Stamford station was such that several school children were knocked down. As at previous stops in the larger industrial towns, police were unable to cope with scores who insisted on scooting between the moving official cars. At one point a woman was

MISSION SWALLOW IN CALIFORNIA TAKE OFF

Crawford Named Captain of Texas 'Rangerettes'

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif., Oct. 23 (AP)—The padre of the "Jewel of the Missions" gazed up at the eaves of Mission San Juan Capistrano today and said:

"The swallows have gone."

To Father A. J. Hutchinson it was just another anniversary of the clocklike takeoff of thousands of swallows on San Juan's day.

"For seventy years I have seen this happen," remarked the old potter maker, Ramon Yorba.

"Since I was nine," said one of the Indians of the mission, Jose Doran, aged 73, "I have witnessed this miracle, and my parents told the same thing. Every October 23 the swallows leave, and without failure they return on St. Joseph's day, March 19."

Ornithologists well know that the swallows go south in winter, before the snows, and return in the spring. They say the California swallows head for Mexico and South America, going as far south as Patagonia.

Half of Hollywood salutes Joan Crawford as a Kentucky general, the only honor of its kind conferred on a Hollywood actress. The other half will now fall in line since Governor James V. Alfred of Texas commissioned her a captain, the highest post in the Texas Rangerettes.

Saluting will have to be executed in and around the "Love on the Run" set where Miss Crawford is teamed with Clark Gable in making their next picture which is rumored to be a swift-moving comedy Robert Young, who has been kept busy the last few months running back and forth from London to Hollywood to keep up with both his local and foreign contracts, is now in Hollywood to become Clark Gable's newspaper buddy in the picture.

knocked down by a car as she tried to slip through the procession.

There were many minor injuries along the route as crowds swarmed into the streets from unroped sidewalks, many trying to hop on running boards and rear bumpers.

AL SMITH TO GIVE ADDRESS IN PITTSBURGH

SCORES NEW DEAL IN HEATED CHICAGO SPEECH

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Alfred E. Smith, former democratic candidate for president, turned toward Pittsburgh today to continue his attacks on the new deal after he was satisfied "millions and millions of Jeffersonian democrats" would vote for Gov. Landon.

He speaks in Pittsburgh Saturday night.

In his speech last night, the third he has made against the Roosevelt administration since the first of the month, he said the Jeffersonian democrats "are out on a limb today, holding the bag, driven out of the party, because some new bunch that nobody ever heard of in his life before came in and took charge of things and started playing everything."

He said the new deal is "playing football, and the rank and file of the American people are the football."

"On November 3," he continued, "I am perfectly satisfied that millions and millions of Jeffersonian democrats—democrats who believe in the fundamental policies of the democratic party, who regard it as their political byword, democrats who believe in the 1932 platform and want it enforced—will go to the polls and so cast their votes as to let the new deal play football, while a different administration will give a sane, orderly, sensible comprehensive administration under Gov. Landon of Kansas."

Smith said he was speaking against the new deal because he believed he was "actually helping to save the democratic party."

Discussing the government debt at length, he said it would take 65,000 years to pay off the $34,000,000,000 he asserted was now owed by the government, if at the rate of one dollar a minute.

"Who is going to pay it?" he asked, then answered, "We are."

"When I hear this talk about soaking the rich," he continued,

"you know if we took all the rich men in the country and stood them on their heads and took everything away from them including their undershirt, you could not begin to pay any part of it."

He said the money to pay the debt "is going to come out of pay envelopes, from the proceeds of the sale of stock on the farm, from the cash register in the office of the small business man, and from the treasurer of the large corporations."

He said the allocation of relief funds to the various governmental departments by the President instead of having Congress distribute the appropriations "means dictatorship."

RACES OPEN

ARLINGTON DOWNS, Oct. 23 (AP)—Despite chilly weather, some 6,300 racing fans poured $106,000 into the mutual windows at the Texas Jockey's club fall inaugural at Arlington Downs yesterday. The mutuel was higher than last year's opening day, when attendance was almost double yesterday's shivering crowd.

Roy Sewell returned yesterday from Long Beach, Calif., where he attended the funeral of his father, L. B. Sewell.

MRS. ZIONCHECK IS BACK IN TEXARKANA

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 23 (AP)—Mrs. T. M. Nix, mother of Mrs. Rubye Zioncheck, said today her daughter had returned to her home near here and there was "nothing to worry about."

The widow of the late Washington congressman was sought by Dallas police yesterday after a man who said he spoke for Mrs. Bob Lott, a sister, telephoned a missing person report.

The man told officers Mrs. Zioncheck and another sister, Miss Thelma Nix, had failed to return to Dallas from the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial celebration Wednesday as scheduled.

"They had a trip to make," Mrs. Nix said, "and they completed it as scheduled. I do not understand why Mrs. Lott should get overwrought about Rubye's absence because if any accident had happened we would have been notified. I don't know who this man is who went to police about the disappearance, but he was not speaking for the family and had no official connection with the so-called disappearance. Rubye is at home and there is nothing to worry about."

Mrs. Nix said Mrs. Zioncheck was "unavailable for conversation."

After the disappearance was reported to police yesterday Mrs. Lott said she felt no concern for the safety of the pair and did not understand how the "rumor" started.

TRAPPER CONFESSES GAME WARDEN SLAYING

NEGAUNEE, Mich., Oct. 23 (AP)—Prosecutor John O. Voelker announced today that Raymond Kivela, 27-year-old upper Michigan trapper, had confessed the woods slaying of a game warden who was ambushed and his body dynamited.

The confession came 30 hours after scattered bits of the body of Andrew Schmelz, 45, veteran conservation officer, were found by searchers in a swamp of the sparsely settled Carp river district to which the game warden went to investigate illegal trapping activities.

Kivela tearfully related the prosecutor said, that he waited until Officer Schmelz walked along a wooded ridge trail, 200 feet away, and then fired two shots from a small caliber rifle, both bullets penetrating the body near the heart.

Then he dragged the game warden's body into a nearby swamp, went to Ishpeming where he purchased 100 sticks of dynamite, and waited 14 hours until early Wednesday morning before returning to the swamp to blast the body.

The prosecutor said Kivela would be arraigned today but declined to make public the reason the trapper gave for the crime.

Miss Violet Durrett, and Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Johnson are leaving today for the Centennial.

ECONOMY SEEMS NEED IN POLITICS, ALSO

By the time Nov. 3 rolls around it will have cost somebody close to $20,000,000 to give the American people a presidential election, and it is a nice question whether the trusting gentlemen who put up all that money will get out of it anything remotely approaching their money's worth.

The national committees of the two major parties, according to a story in the New York Times, will have spent upward of $13,000,000. The various state, city, congressional, and Senate committees will have spent at least $6,500,000 more.

An old-fashioned American, to whom a million dollars still looks like a great deal of money, could be pardoned for wondering if any large part of this enormous total was actually needed.

It costs money to buy radio time, charter special trains, hire halls, and pay all the other bills incidental to sending the candidates around the country, of course, and both Mr. Landon and Mr. Roosevelt have been doing a lot of traveling.

When money is poured out at that rate it can mean only that the rival campaign managers figure the electorate needs to be yelled at, written to, button-holed, cajoled, browbeaten, and generally propagandized until it will shamble off to the polls in a stunned silence.

But does the electorate need anything of the kind? Isn't it at least a fair assumption that the vote Nov. 3 would be just about the same if the two parties had spent only a quarter of what they actually are spending?

In spite of what cynical political wiseacres sometimes assume, the American people are not dumbbells. They have had ample opportunity to size up the candidates, compare their records, meditate on the virtues and defects of the New Deal, and decide whether they want to go along with the old management or install a new one.

It is important, of course, that Mr. Landon and Mr. Roosevelt get every opportunity to appear before the electorate and expound their ideas. Since we have to take politics as we find it, it is probably equally important that the machinery of local politics be properly oiled.

These tons of mail that registered voters toss in the wastebasket, these 15-minute broadcasts by party stooges, these doorbell ringings by earnest folk who bore their victims to distraction, these frantic stump tours by fifth-string party hacks—these are surplus, pure and simple.

We have heard much, this year, about economy in government. A little economy in politics would seem to be indicated, too.

DAILY WASHINGTON LETTER

By Rodney Dutcher

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The "farm states" in the main originally were conceded by the Republicans and claimed by the Democrats. Subsequently, their loss was mourned by the Democrats and the Republicans claimed them for Landon.

Right now the electoral intentions of the region as a whole seem to be more or less of a toss-up, as the farmers lately are reported to be veering toward Roosevelt again.

As a matter of fact, each side claims a late-campaign drift in its own direction among the farmers. But, as far as this correspondent can learn, nobody can guess surely within shooting distance as to what proportion of the farmer vote will go to Landon, Roosevelt, or Lemke.

A late swing to Roosevelt doesn't necessarily mean that a majority of farmers will be with him Nov. 3—no one knows how much of a swing that would require.

And the best reason one finds for believing preponderant reports of such swing is the fact that, after many months of heavy Republican propaganda, the New Dealers have lately cut loose with what conceivably may be an effective counter-propaganda campaign.

The farmer is important in states well removed from the so-called "grain belt." Rural New York, rural Michigan, rural Ohio, rural Pennsylvania—all are strongholds of Landon sentiment as opposed to Roosevelt strength in the cities.

In numerous states the extent to which rural voters repudiate the New Deal will decide whether large Democratic urban majorities can be overturned.

One reason the farmer vote is so hard to guess is, according to competent authority, that the individual and individualistic farmer is uncommunicative. Scouts who penetrate the rural areas and try to ascertain the farmer's political sentiments say he is more than likely to just sit on a fence and grunt.

Republican stress on an increase in agricultural imports since 1933 and on the big increase in federal expenditures and national debt have made a deep impression on farmers, most of whom perform a thrifty almost to excess.

To a remarkable degree these arguments have offset the definite improvement in the average farmer's economic position under the New Deal.

Democrats have been busy telling the "true story" of imports all over the middlewest and telling the farmer not to worry about the national debt.

Late-campaign Republican propaganda, aside from repetition, is stressing the "un-Americanism" or "Communism," of the New Deal and asserting that four more years of Roosevelt would mean confiscation of farms and homes.

But if there has been a marked drift back to Roosevelt, there's no more likely reason for it than the success of the New Deal farm propagandists in selling the idea that the farmers need expect few favors from Washington in the next four years if they walk out on the Democratic ticket now.

Farmers have been assured that Roosevelt's election is fairly certain and that in any event there will be a Democratic Congress upon which they must depend for further benefit checks and other sweeteners.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

This is Pagliacci's story, though he never tells it. You pick it up in the bars and in the cafes along Broadway.

They all knew him, the bars and the cafes. The theater doors and the hobo camps, too. He has been hungry in many cities, and because of this he has found a philosophy that most of us would do well to consider.

"After you've been hungry—really hungry," he asks, "what else is there that can really matter?"

But to his story—in the lingo of the jungle camps, they call him a read kid. This means that by the time he was 10 years old he was away from home, riding the rods, sleeping by campfires in corner lots and drinking coffee out of tomato cans—when there was coffee to drink.

He wound up in New York, in the big town, and he got to know a BIG SHOT who was knifed in a tavern some time ago. He kicked around in the badlands of prohibition, the dives that were mastered by gangsters, and he came into contact with the night-life crowd.

Understand now, he didn't fall for that gangster stuff. He kept on the right side of the track. He earned a respectability the Big Shots laughed at—but they respected it, and him for it.

And there was a girl—a dark-eyed, ripe-lipped glamor girl who was toasted by the producers and quired by the Tophat Johnnies. She was in the Follies—or maybe she was the Scandals. Anyway, Pagliacci fell in love with her.

She kept his devotion to herself, being the shy type, but she always managed somehow to see her, to have a bright word when she won applause in a new show.

The Wrong Murderer By HUGH CLEVELY

Chapter Four Questions by Lawson

It seemed that Little could not remember Mahony's name. A flash of mild amusement came into Mahony's eyes and vanished. But he did not remind Little of his name.

Lawson, it appeared, had a better memory. "Yes, I've met Mahony with poor Ross," he said.

"What I can't understand is the extraordinary behavior of the people in the car behind you," went on Lawson.

"Dur-ing this short exchange of conversation, though nothing had been obvious to any spectator, the two men had been quietly engaged in weighing one another up."

Conversation became general again; tea was brought in. Soon after tea Mahony thanked the Littles for their hospitality and left.

"Thank you," said Lawson. "And now if I'm not being impertinent, what were all the impertinent questions he was asking?"

"He wasn't really asking impertinent questions," answered Elsa. "He only wanted to know whom I was going to the dance with tonight."

"Did he want you to go with him?" asked Lawson.

"I hope so," she said. "I should like to think my girlish charms had left him quite unmoved. But he's not going to the dance; he said so."

"Where does he come from?" asked Mr. Little.

"He's a journalist of sorts, I believe," answered Lawson. "He's been in China for the last four years as correspondent of an American newspaper."

"Oh! That's what he does, is it," commented Mr. Little.

"That was the conclusion which he had actually come to. It struck him that it was unlikely that Mahony had learned anything from Ross, and that, even if he had, there was little he could do except to warn the Littles, and his warning would only provoke derision."

Mahony had no intention of warning the Littles of Elsa's danger. He could only too easily imagine the effect of telling Vincent Little that Lawson was planning to kidnap his niece.

He had a simple dinner at his lodgings, and after dinner he changed into Billy's fancy dress. From a suitcase he took the Luger automatic pistol which he had been accustomed to carry in China, and carefully oiled and cleaned it. He drove away from his lodgings in his new car at a quarter past nine, and arrived at the Albert Hall just before half past 11, and the ball had not long started, the huge floor was already fairly crowded with dancers in fancy dress and masks. Harlequins, cardinals, knights, South Sea Islanders, Prompateurs, mingled in a colorful, richly dressed, good-humored throng. More and more people were arriving every minute, and the bars were doing a roaring trade.

WARREN MCDANIEL, GORILLA BACK, SUFFERS BROKEN LEG AT MIAMI

WARRIORS WIN

PAMPA SCORES FIRST
AFTER CARL BROWN
ADVANCES BALL

Warren McDaniel, crack Gorilla halfback, received a broken leg early in the game with the Miami Warriors yesterday afternoon with his team in the lead, 6 to 0. When the final whistle sounded, Miami had a 37 to 6 game in the bag.

The little Gorilla's leg was broken when he was tackled. The break was above the ankle. Four other members of the team were also placed on the injured list with knee and ankle trouble. The old weather was believed responsible for the large number of accidents.

Coach Bob Curry's youngsters jumped into a lead in the first quarter when Carl Brown, 230-pound tackle, broke through the Miami line and picked off a Miami fumble in the air. The giant raced 40 yards to the Miami 3-yard stripe before he was overhauled and brought down by Locke. On the next play Hubert, quarterback, went over on a spinner play. The try for extra point was wide.

That was the last scoring of the day for the Gorillas. Miami took a hand in the game and with Russell leading the way, scored repeatedly the rest of the game. Locke, ace punter and passer, assisted in the scoring with some nice passes.

Injuries started weakening the Gorillas in the first quarter. Five regulars were on the bench before the close of the third period. The reserves played good ball against their more experienced opponents but were unable to stop the touch-down parade.

Minnesota And Pitt Picked

The biggest surprise was when they fell before Panhandle by a huge score. Coach Curry said today that Miami has a team that should give the best class B outfits in the section a tough battle.

The Gorilla starting lineup was: Crane and Cunningham, ends; Solomon and Brown, tackles; Goshaw and Miter, guards; Wisley, center; Hubert, quarter; Kidwell and McDaniel, halves; Esslinger, full. Substitutes: Watkins, O. Harrell, P. Harrell, Andis, Whisler, Robinson, Gavitt.

Lacrosse for Texas Urged by Grid Fan

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22 (AP)—St. Mary's of Texas (San Antonio) combined business—football—and pleasure—lacrosse—here today.

The St. Mary's gridder held their last workout before meeting Western Maryland college here tomorrow. Part of that workout was scheduled as a brief period of instruction in lacrosse, the Indian stick-swinging game which is so popular in Maryland.

J. C. Simms, business manager of athletics at St. Mary's, had heard about lacrosse. When he came to Baltimore, he fell in with some lacrosse enthusiasts, including Bobby Pool, former coach at Harvard.

At Simms' suggestion, Pool agreed to gather a handful of sticks and come out for morning practice. Fritz Stude, Mount Washington's star lacrosse goalie, agreed to come along also and aid in the instruction.

Simms said he would like to see St. Mary's introduce the game into Texas.

Up at Westminster, the Western Maryland gridder stuck to football in their last workout.

BY HERBERT BARKER.
NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Quoting 4 to 5 and take your choice against either of the old saws: "Discretion is the better part of valor," and "nothing ventured, nothing gained," this corner goes into executive session and emerges with the following strictly unguaranteed comments on this week's football slate:

- Minnesota-Purdue: "Dat ol' debil," the law of averages, is hard to beat but Minnesota has been whipping us so consistently that it seems relatively unimportant. Purdue has come up with a first-class, high-scoring array sparked by Cecil Isbell. We'll string along with the Gophers.
- Pitt-Notre Dame: None tougher to figure than this one. However, this ballot goes for Pitt.
- Tennessee-Duke: Duke is the choice.
- Marquette-Michigan State: Marquette.
- Washington-California: Washington.
- Fordham-St. Mary's: The Galloping Gaelis to crack that tough Fordham defense.
- Princeton-Navy: A timid bow to the Tiger.
- Tulane-North Carolina: Tulane's the answer.
- Illinois-Northwestern: Northwestern.
- Southern California-Stanford: It should be close but the nomination goes to Southern California.
- Texas Christian-Mississippi State: Mississippi, narrowly.
- Holy Cross-Carnegie Tech: Carnegie Tech.
- Yale-Rutgers: Yale.
- Georgia-Auburn: Auburn.
- Vanderbilt-Georgia Tech: More woe for Vanderbilt's Commodores.
- Louisiana State-Arkansas: Louisiana State.
- Ohio State-Indiana: Ohio State.
- Oklahoma-Nebraska: Nebraska's Huskers appear to have a well-defined edge.
- U. C. L. A.-Oregon State: U. C. L. A.
- George Washington-Wake Forest: George Washington gets the nod.

BEAUMONT HIGH WANTS
THANKSGIVING GAME

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—Coach Burns Franklin of Beaumont high school here has a football team this season he believes is the equal of any in the nation and he wants to prove it.

He issued a challenge today for a game with any strong high school eleven, on their own field, Thanksgiving day or the Saturday following the holiday.

Franklin's team has won five consecutive games, as rolled up 167 points to 12 for the opposition, features Wilson Schwenk, 175-pound, 6 foot, triple threat quarterback and is composed entirely of veterans. Franklin is a graduate of the University of Illinois.

MISSISSIPPI'S
TITLISTS LOSE
TO DALLASITES

DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP)—The first of the state's undefeated, unified teams to risk their records in intercollegiate league football this week came through with flying colors last night when North Side (Fort Worth) turned back an out-of-state invader.

The Steers beat Koscusko high, defending Mississippi state champions and undefeated this season, 18-0.

In other Thursday games Adamson (Dallas) won over St. Joseph's (Dallas) 33-0 and Harlingen downed Rio Hondo 47-0. Neither was a conference contest.

Thirty-two district games are scheduled today and tomorrow. The results should give an accurate estimate of strength in the various conference races.

Says Aggies Should Beat Baylor's
Bears

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT
DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP)—Man for man the same team that interlarded to victory over Texas Christian last week, Texas A & M's new found powerhouse collides with Baylor's Bears at Waco Saturday in a predicted thriller.

Baylor officials have forecast a sellout throng of 12,000 for the Southwest conference's top attraction. It's homecoming day at Baylor and the "exes" stirred by last week-end's fairy tale win over the University of Texas, started arriving in droves today.

Two of the section's most publicized ball carriers—Dick Todd of the Aggies and Lloyd Russell of Baylor—meet for the first time. Todd, the sophomore running demon who personally attended to the 18-7 rout of Texas Christian last week, is the "end man" for the Cadets' magic lateral pass plays.

Biggest grid hero of the nation last week was Russell, "crooning quarterback," who led his Bruins in a last period surge that bagged 21 points and a 21-18 triumph over Texas. Critics, although admitting Baylor teams are notoriously erratic, rate the game strictly a toss-up.

The Aggies will be defending an undefeated, untied record—the last "pure" club in the Southwest conference.

Crippled Rice Institute, victors over Georgia's Bulldogs last week despite its hospital list, will be back in prime condition for the Texas game at Houston. Coach Jimmy Kitts said Jake Schuchie, sophomore star of the Georgia victory, would be ailed and abetted in the backfield by Capt. Buck Friedman, Roy Royall, Dan Cofe, Johnny Neece, Bill Brandon and others—many of whom have been ailing the last two weeks.

Halfback Bill Pitzer was Texas' most serious casualty last week-end, but his place probably will be filled by fleet Jud Atchison, quite a bright spot in the Longhorn lineup the last two games.

Texas Christian will attempt to do something about the conference's feeble intercollegiate showing in a clash with Major Ralph Sasse's Mississippi State eleven at Dallas' Cotton Bowl. "Slingin' Sam" Baugh, who played on bruised legs against the Aggies, may not see much service but Coach Leo Meyer has David O'Brien, somewhat of a passing artist himself, to plug the spot. Sasse has Ike Pickle, a running halfback, and "Chunkin' Charles" Armstrong, the "Sammy Baugh" of the Southeastern conference, as his main offensive hopes. The starters have lost but one game—that to Alabama on an 89-yard "statue of liberty" play.

Four of its best backs on the injured list, Arkansas moves into Shreveport to meet powerful Louisiana State University, decidedly the underdog. Jack Robbins, the ace-triple-threat, Bobbie Martin, Allan Keen and Sloan are alling Coach Fred Thompson said, however, he would depend on his aerial antics as his best defensive against the Louisiana States.

Matty Bell's Southern Methodist's take a rest this week-end prior to the opening of their conference scheduled against Texas at Austin next week.

BORGER PUPS FAIL TO ARRIVE FOR GRID TILT

Coach Tom Herod and his Junior high school football team took the field and several fans braved the cold but the opposition failed to arrive. The Pampa aggregation was scheduled to play Coach Bill Teal's Bulldog Pups from Borger.

A mix-up in dates sent the Pups to Plemmons yesterday afternoon. Coach Herod was told when he called Borger. The Pampa aggregation was scheduled two weeks ago. Coach Herod wrote to Coach Teal confirming the date but the letter must have strayed.

Games for the junior high boys are being scheduled with Plemmons, the Wheeler Ponies, Borger Bull Pups and one or two other teams.

The team this year is big with several experienced players in the lineup.

-SPORT-SLANTS

By ALAN GOULD

The Yale football team reflects personality of its irreplaceable captain, Larry Kelley, judging from the manner in which the Bulldog gridder outsmarted Cornell, Pennsylvania and Navy to run up three victories in their first three starts.

The boys in blue took advantage of the inexperienced Cornell players and dug deep into their bag of tricks to win. Against a potentially powerful Pennsylvania eleven, Yale looked like a truly smart team, outwitting the Quakers at every turn. There have been some attempts to account for Penn's failure to take advantage of its scoring chances with the explanation that the Red and Blue giants failed because they were over-anxious. Perhaps. But, more likely, it was simply because Larry Kelley and company were smart enough to make the Quakers play right into their hands.

Yale's victory over Navy was scored in a typical Kelley manner. Just when it appeared that the Middies were destined to send Yale down to defeat, Kelley popped up with a play, intentional or otherwise that changed the entire complexion of the contest.

Navy Wonders Why

Navy was leading the Ell eleven 7-6 late in the third period. Tony Mott of Yale got off a booming punt which Sneed Schmidt, Navy back, fumbled on his own 25-yard line. Schmidt and Bob Carey, Ell end, were rolling around trying to get their fingers on the bounding ball when along came Kelley to kick the oval out of their reach and toward the Navy goal line. The official must have been convinced that Kelley's act was intentional or they would have ruled it a foul. It is anything but "cricket" to kick intentionally a loose ball.

Kelley picked up the rolling ball three yards from the enemy goal line and carried it over. No score was allowed, but the ball was given to Yale on the 3-yard marker. In two plays Yale was over the line, and enjoying the margin which was to prove sufficient for victory.

Once again Yale walked off with the long end of the score while the foe wondered how and why it was beaten.

One of the tricks the Yale eleven used in trouncing the inexperienced Cornell eleven was the ancient Statue of Liberty play. The incident was discussed in a recent fanning bee and caused "Moon" Duote, president of the Southern Football Officials' association and Rose Bowl official in 1935, to recall the occasion when a version of the Statue of Liberty play enabled Tennessee to score over Louisiana State university. Duote was one of the greatest backs under Mike Donahue at Auburn. He won fame by kicking a field goal from the 40-yard mark off a head-gear, an act which caused the Southern conference to bar the use of head-gears for kicks. A week later Duote showed he really did not need the head-gear by booting a field goal from the 50-yard line.

Too Much For Tigers

"The most spectacular play I ever saw on the gridiron enabled Tennessee to beat L. S. U. by one touchdown at the close of the 1934 season," said Duote.

"With the score tied and about one minute left to play, Tennessee pulled a fake kick from a modified Statue of Liberty, from which a long pass developed. This special formation had been purposely shown the L. S. U. team several times during the game, only with the side back taking the ball on an end run to his left. Each time Tennessee was thrown for a loss.

"At the most opportune time, Tennessee faked an end run. Vaughn, the Volunteer passer, instead of giving the ball to the man faking the end run, held the ball behind his back until the whole L. S. U. team had passed him in pursuit of the side back who had cleverly faked the end run, and then nervously made a long pass to Rose, the Tennessee end who

Each GIANT to GET $4,655 FROM SERIES

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP)—Although they lost the world series, the New York Giants will be consoled with $4,655 for each player who was assigned a full share of the world series money. The victorious Yankees are collecting $6,430.55 apiece.

The losers' shares are record "cuts" of the largest world series "gate" on record, while the Yankees come close to the record for a winning team.

The official figures were announced yesterday when Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis mailed the checks to 36 Yankees and 32 Giants as well as the members of the second, third and four-place clubs in each league.

Total receipts were $1,304,399, including $100,000 from the sale of radio rights.

The captain, former test pilot for the Curtiss-Wright Airplane Company, and flying school instructor at Nashville, Tenn., will be making his third airplane crash. It will be the pup's first nose-dive in a plane, however.

"Contact has been begging to ride with me every time I've gone up this season, and now I'm going to give in," says Captain Frakes.

"We both expect to make our bows to the crowd after it is over."

The airplane crash is the last act of a thrill show which will begin at 3 p. m. Sunday in the Cotton Bowl.

ALF LEE BILL GIVES LONDON INTRODUCTION

GOP CANDIDATE TALKS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 23 (AP)—Gov. Alf M. Landon told Oklahomans today that the new deal has "deserted" democratic party principles and upheld the constitution.

"Real democracy, I know," the republican presidential nominee said, "will fight shoulder to shoulder with us in this battle to save our American form of government and our country."

The Kansan spoke in the coliseum after an introduction by William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray, former democratic governor of Oklahoma.

Pausing here near four hours on his final trans-continental campaign trip, Landon said Murray, by introducing the republican candidate, was "severing political friendships" and opening himself "to political penalties."

"Only a threat to our form of government itself could cause a man like Governor Murray to take this step," Landon said, naming John W. Dill, U. S. senator, Bea-bridge Colby, Joseph E. Ely, James A. Reed and Lewis W. Douglas as other democrats "who are putting their country above party name."

"Countless other democrats feel as strongly as they do," he continued. "They may have made no open break, but they will state their position emphatically at the ballot boxes next month."

Landon said President Roosevelt had made a "deliberate attempt... to break down the confidence of our people in the integrity and independence of the Supreme Court."

"It is only natural," he added, "that real democrats should join republicans in the defense of state's rights—of home rule—against greater centralization of power in Washington. The party of Jefferson has always been the jealous guardian of state's rights."

The nominee said "there is no problem that I am more eager to solve" than "the growing farm tenancy problem," which he termed "one of the most serious long-time problems confronting the nation."

"It is our pledge to extend, within the limits of sound finance, adequate credit at reasonable rates to capable tenants and experienced farmers, for the purchase or refinancing of farm homes."

"Protection of the family-type farm is the philosophy that runs like a thread through the republican platform."

The Roosevelt administration, the governor continued, is "desperately worried" over the election and has "resorted to coercion" in using WPA funds "whimsically."

Former Gov. William Murray began his introduction of Landon with the statement that he spoke "in default of the chief executive of the state."

Shortly before, Governor E. W. Marland, democrat, had said Murray's introduction of the republican nominee would remove him "forever from democratic party influence in Oklahoma."

"He will do Landon any good, nor Roosevelt any harm," said Marland.

"He is like Al Smith; when the party won't play his way, he takes his ball and glove and he goes home to join some other gang."

attached in the form of amendment by the Senate

"I'm for liberalization," Westfall told the House, "but it should be done in a separate bill so we would have a chance to discuss it and amend it."

"It's not democracy when the Senate takes advantage of your desire to get revenue to cram down your throats a law of the magnitude of the old age assistance act without your having an opportunity to discuss it and change it."

Westfall protested against "steam-roller tactics" and urged the House to reject the conference report when it is submitted.

AUSTIN, Oct. 23 (AP)—The Senate today adopted a free conference report on a bill to provide for Texas participation in benefits of the federal unemployment insurance program.

The vote was 23 to 6, sufficient to put the law into immediate effect if it should receive 60 votes in the House. The House had postponed action until Monday.

The bill imposes a tax of nine-tenths of one percent of the total payroll on employers of eight or more persons for the present year ending Dec. 31, one and eight-tenths percent for 1937, two and seven-tenths for 1938, 1939 and 1940, with future rates based on benefit experience.

The employer who pays the state tax may deduct the amount from a federal tax already levied, the former being 90 per cent of the latter.

GRAMS STORIES ARE TOLD BY DEER HUNTERS

AND 36 MEN KILLED IN HUNTS WILL NOT TALK AT ALL

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 23 (AP)—There'll be plenty of new deer hunting yarns to tell round the old general store this winter.

Lodge rooms and club corridors, too, will echo to tall tales of the season now at its height throughout the west. There'll be humor and strange incident—and regret over avoidable tragedy.

For 36 men have paid with their lives for going hunting this fall. Four hunters disappeared. Game wardens, despairing over the nation's deer-hunt death toll, predict it will exceed 50.

Sportsmen will dwell instead upon fine catches and freak kills. "They'll tell about Eidon Powles, the Salt Lake, Calif., hunter who had his clothes ripped off by an injured deer before he managed to choke it to death.

Edward Davis, pitcher for the Bureau Falls, Calif., CCC nine, felled his deer with a well-aimed rock in California, also three hunters circled for deer, fired simultaneously and found they had killed their own mate.

John Walker, Prescott, Ariz., went hunting coyotes a day before deer season opened, and was shot through the thighs by a friend. "I'm putting aside my gun for good," he promised.

In New Mexico a hunter fired three times at what he thought was an elk. It was a parked automobile!

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ARE MEETING IN BORGER

BORGER, Oct. 23.—Annual session of the upper Texas branch of the Royal Neighbors of America is being held in Borger today and tomorrow with delegations from many Panhandle cities in attendance.

Business was transacted at the morning session following registration of delegates. This afternoon was to be devoted to competitive drills and a school of instruction. A banquet will be tendered the delegates tonight.

Presiding over the meeting will be Mrs. Eva Huskey, state president.

A New York gossip column says if Governor Lehman is re-elected, Jack Dempsey will be made chairman of the State Athletic commission, with another post offered present boss, Harry Kipke of Michigan is called the originator of the punt, pass and prayer system.

The Graham plan, which taboos post-season games, will be tossed right out of Duke's stained glass windows if the Blue Devils win all their games and get the call to the Rose Bowl. "Bet all the tea in China on that."

Until Fordham comes up with some sort of an offense, this bureau will have to string with St. Mary's... just what Notre Dame has been hiding, if anything, is bound to come out at Pittsburgh.

GOVERNMENT DEFENDERS ROUTED FROM ESCORIAL

Spain's opposing armies braced on three fronts today as diplomats assembled to renew London neutrality debate in the peninsula civil war.

Insurgent troops of Gen. Emilio Mola routed government defenders from mountain positions at Las Navas del Marques, 15 miles west of strategic El Escorial, delayed reports disclosed.

The advancing forces occupied the town of Navas yesterday after beating socialists from the jagged passes with a concentrated fire of artillery, machine guns and rifles.

The complicated situation in the British capital, where replies from three fascist nations were to be aired in opposition to Russian charges, held only slight hope for amicable settlement of diplomatic difficulties.

Italy and Germany, accused with Portugal of aiding Spanish insurgents, had their replies ready to the Soviet allegations. The answer from the Lisbon government was en route to London by government seaplane.

ARMAMENTS OF WORLD SHOW HUGE INCREASE

GENEVA, Oct. 23 (AP)—A vast increase in the armaments of the world was shown today by the League of Nations armament yearbook for 1936. National defense budgets generally showed an increase over the previous year.

The book placed Soviet Russia's combined armed forces at 1,300,000. Italy's army was stated to total 527,600. Japan's 237,600 and France's 642,875.

The league said the book has been unable to obtain accurate official data on Germany's armed forces, but "according to unofficial publication the effectives envisaged for the German army would be 550,000 officers and men."

FLASHES OF LIFE

IRONTON, O.—Constable Clarence Munyon was shot in the head and didn't even suffer a headache.

Munyon said a motorist he stopped to question fired five shots at him. Four went wild, the fifth struck him in the forehead.

He went to a doctor, had the piece of lead removed from the flesh and returned to work.

CURB ON CELEBRATORS

NEW YORK—There won't be a hot time in New York on election night if Sanitation Commissioner William F. Carey has anything to do with it.

He ordered street flushers distributed to strategic points as auxiliary fire apparatus, in case of celebration bonfires.

Then he sent out instructions to cart away all lumber and refuse that might supply fuel for such fires.

HOMING BALLOTS

ABERDEEN, Wash.—Eight votes from thousands of miles in three directions will be counted here next month.

One will come from St. Paul's Island in the Bering sea, six from the Canal Zone and one from Manila. Mrs. Xetta B. Averill, now flying the Pacific on the first regular passenger flight, plans to return her ballot on the Clipper.

CHOOSE

OMAHA, Neb.—At least one woman voter in Omaha has become surfeit with politics.

Her request for removal of her name from voters' registration records was taken under advisement by the election commissioner. She said she was disgusted with politics, she said, because none of the presidential nominees was satisfactory to her.

PLANE RAID ON MADRID IS MADE IN DAYTIME

MADRID, Oct. 23 (AP)—Machine-gunning Fascist airplanes, in their first daytime raids on Madrid, swooped over the capital four times today while terrified women ran through the streets.

Anti-aircraft guns kept up an incessant roar from the rooftops of the besieged city. The damage, however, was stated to be negligible and government leaders believed the repeated raids were intended merely to demoralize Madrid.

No attempt was made to bomb the city but one fighting plane sprayed the brick walls of Montana barracks with machine-gun fire.

The first visit was at 8:30 a. m., when two bombers circled high over the city, dropping leaflets demanding surrender of the capital.

'DEAD' VETERAN WILL MEET BROTHER TODAY

RENO, Nev., Oct. 23 (AP)—Jesse Owen Gifford, 41-year-old world war veteran who disappeared from his South Pittsburgh, Tenn., home eight years ago and who three years later was reported dead, was expected to meet his brother, Henry, in Reno today.

Gifford was located in Reno a few days ago after he had applied for his bonus—already paid to his wife, who believed him dead—at the local veterans' bureau.

His brother, accompanied by Travis K. Hedrick, Chattanooga (Times) newspaperman, and another unidentified friend, arrived here last night by automobile. They were registered at a local hotel under the names of "Atkins," "Clements," and "Long."

OIL INDUSTRY COURSES OFFERED TO RESIDENTS

J. R. Eddy, state supervisor of evening vocational training, met with a large group of oil field workers in the high school gymnasium last night where he discussed petroleum industry courses that the state department of education was prepared to offer.

Chief interest was shown in the following courses: elementary and advanced mathematics; method of production; drilling practice; and natural gas.

The group will meet again Monday night at the same place to organize classes and select teachers. Any other interested in the course are invited to attend.

Death Sad Blow to Helen Keller

A career which, through its 50-year devotion to Helen Keller, blind and deaf mute, provided inspiration for many similarly afflicted persons, ended with the death of Mrs. Anne Sullivan Macy, above, 70, at the Long Island home she shared with Miss Keller. Mrs. Macy, herself almost blind in her later days, taught Miss Keller how to enjoy the world she could not hear or see.

His brother, accompanied by Travis K. Hedrick, Chattanooga (Times) newspaperman, and another unidentified friend, arrived here last night by automobile. They were registered at a local hotel under the names of "Atkins," "Clements," and "Long."

AUSTIN, Oct. 23 (AP)—Orville S. Carpenter, director of the old age assistance commission, announced today approximately 87,000 checks would be mailed November 1. He said only 1,500 new grants would be added to the 85,270 October payees, because of a shortage of funds.

Of the 104 players on the Kansas State college freshman football team, 33 were team captains in their high school grid days.

SOVIET RUSSIA DROPS DIPLOMATIC BOMB SHELL

(By The Associated Press) SOVIET Russia today dropped a diplomatic bombshell into the international neutrality meeting which was interpreted by Moscow observers as virtual withdrawal from the Spanish non-intervention agreement.

The document, announced in Moscow just as the non-intervention committee was meeting in London, was handed to the British chairman of the group by the Soviet ambassador.

It said Russia should not consider herself bound by the agreement any more than are other nations. Three of these—Italy, Germany and Portugal—have been accused by Russia of sending arms to Spanish insurgents.

STATE TO REST

BORGER, Oct. 23.—The state was scheduled to rest its case this afternoon in the dual trial of Raymond and Grundy Morrison of Pampa, charged with cattle theft in 84th district court now in session at Stinnett, with Judge E. J. Pickens presiding.

Raymond Morrison was found not guilty on a single indictment yesterday by a district court jury. Each of the brothers was indicted on two counts.

CONSTRUCTION RESUMED BORGER, Oct. 23.—Construction of a huge sewage disposal plant at Stinnett, to serve both Stinnett and Borger, was resumed yesterday with 20 men at work. Thirty additional workers will be placed on the job next week. Work on the project was suspended in July.

Alabama's right tackle, Bill Young, was a triple-threat back in high school.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS MAP? ST. LOUIS, DES MOINES, OKLAHOMA CITY, CHICAGO, MINNEAPOLIS. To dramatize the differences in weather which may affect your motor, the cities on the map above have been purposely misplaced. Of course you know that the very same gasoline which gives the rapid-fire pep in torrid Mexico would be a sputtering dud in frigid Alaska. But do you know that average U. S. cities: such as St. Louis, Des Moines, Oklahoma City, Chicago, and Minneapolis; all have seasonal differences in climate as great as the variation between Alaska and Mexico? That is exactly why Phillips 66 Poly Gas is 100% custom-tailored... made differently for the different seasons of the year... matched and re-matched every month to the specific weather in each city in which Phillips 66 Poly Gas is sold. This protects your engine against changes in climate. Keeps it running at top efficiency no matter what the thermometer reads. Makes it lively, responsive, and economical all year round. Gives you more cool power in summer and faster starting in winter. To discover today's greatest gasoline value, try just one tankful of the new Phillips 66 Poly Gas. You will actually feel the difference—and you will save money, too, because it costs no more than ordinary gasoline. Phill-up with Phillips for Greater Mileage

MERCURY HITS 30 DEGREES IN PLAINS AREAS

Texas Has Coldest Weather of Year

(By The Associated Press)
Texans dug their overcoats out of the moth balls today as a biting "norther" extending south to the Gulf Coast, brought the coldest weather of the year to the Southwest.

The sting of the cold wave whipping off the frozen Rockies was sharpened by contrast with the balmy, warm weather prevailing earlier in the week.

Sub-freezing temperatures chilled the West Texas plains region, where there were flurries of snow and sleet, while other sections were wet from rain, drizzling rains.

The mercury dropped to 30 degrees this morning at Amarillo and Lubbock, while the extreme north Panhandle was gripped by even lower temperatures. Trees and vegetation were ice-coated in the plains region.

Ableene had a low reading of 35 and 1.86 inches of rain, drizzling from heavily-overcast skies. Wichita Falls rainfall was 1.32 inches, with a temperature of 35—the lowest there since last April. Light mist continued to fall. San Angelo reported a low of 37, and 1.46 inches of rain.

Steady showers increased the Dallas precipitation to .73 of an inch. It was damp and sloppy at Dallas, with the temperature hitting a low for the year of 42. Fort Worth reported .86 of an inch rain and 40-degree weather.

Snow at Amarillo provided 23 of an inch of moisture, but there was no killing frost. The weatherman there said tonight would be slightly warmer in the Panhandle, with continued cloudy conditions.

A stinging northeast wind blew through Central Texas, dropping the mercury to 44 at Austin. Overnight rainfall totaled .11 of an inch. Corsicana also had a low temperature of 44 with nearly half an inch rain.

At Tyler, slow rain fell all night and the temperature touched 46. Longview was 47 with light rain. Texarkana's minimum was 45 and rainfall there amounted to .52 of an inch overnight. Texarkana rainfall in the last 48 hours totaled 1.05 inches.

Paris reported a low temperature of 45 last night and one inch of rain. A cold drizzle was falling steadily today. Sherman's minimum was 39 and that area had 2.56 inches of rain in the last 24 hours.

The "norther" reached the Gulf Coast at Corpus Christi last night and reduced the temperature to 56. Corpus Christi had a trace of rain and expected the coldest weather of the year over the week-end.

El Paso had a low of 44 and a trace of rain.

ART OF DRINKING LOST IN HUSTLE, CANS CLUB CHIEF

CHICAGO (AP)—Club life and the art of drinking have faded from the average American's knowledge because he is in too much of a hurry to get somewhere and do something, says Albert Auwaerter, new manager of the exclusive Chicago club. "Men join clubs to escape the routine of home," Auwaerter declares, "or to mingle with their social peers and enjoy service. The younger generation, however, does not even know how to order a drink."

"The idea most young men have of a party is to gulp down half a dozen cocktails and grab the hors d'oeuvres from the buffet. After the sixth cocktail they don't care what they eat."

MAYOR PLANS TO MAKE BRAIN TRUST OF PUBLIC

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The general public will comprise his brain trust when he takes office, declares the youthful William B. Hartsfield, who best veteran Mayor James L. Key in the recent mayoral race. Hartsfield ran on a reform ticket. He says that in automobile rides he will make throughout the city, for recreation, he will pull up alongside the curb and interview persons at random about city problems.

BLACK-DRAUGHT For Clean System Helps To Prevent Sickness

One of the advantages of Black-Draught is that, if it is taken at the first disagreeable feeling of constipation, one or two doses usually bring relief. Prompt relief, such as that, is well worth while. Constipation is too dangerous to be neglected.

"A clean system for health" plan has saved thousands of people much useless sickness. They keep a package of Black-Draught in the family medicine cabinet and take this purely vegetable laxative at the first sign of constipation. They say the relief it brings is mighty hard to beat.

Find out, by trying it, why so many people prefer Black-Draught when it comes to buying a laxative.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Oct. 20 (AP)—A sudden desire of the House of Representatives to give the Senate some work was one of the big developments of the second week of the legislature.

The House had done very little at the time its urge to stimulate the Senate was noted, except inquire into affairs of the pension administration, and the Senate had done virtually nothing.

The Senate had the valid explanation that under the constitution all tax bills must originate in the House, and not one had originated.

The night the House revenue and taxation committee met to consider more than 30 bills proposing taxes to raise money for pensions, the situation apparently had become acute.

Rep. R. L. Reader of San Antonio put the idea into words in urging a favorable report on his bill to boost the tax on crude oil production five times its present 2 cents a barrel.

"If you don't do anything else," he pleaded, "just leave the enacting clause in my bill so we can send it over to the Senate. Let's put the boys to work. They say they haven't a thing to do, and they are right, as right as a fox."

Rep. B. E. Quinn of Beaumont also urged action "to get out a bill of some sort" and give the Senate an opportunity to get busy.

"What difference does it make what bill you report?" he asked. "If any bill is passed by this legislature it is going to be written in conference committee, and the sooner we get it across the hall the better."

During the discussion it developed that Quinn's measure was the same old omnibus bill which failed to pass the last legislature after the Senate tacked on a sales tax.

Rep. C. E. Nicholson of Port Arthur objected to the "hurry up" procedure of the committee, explaining that many persons had come long distances to be heard and that the public had a right to give its views on tax measures.

"About this tax matter," he said, "I feel like a novice who was invited to join a game of cards. The novice watched the players awhile and remarked: 'I don't know much about cards, but I recognize all the moves.'"

A little later the committee kicked overboard its whole plan for hearings on the bills, gave a favorable report to one omnibus measure, turned thumbs down on a sales tax proposal by Rep. Elmer Pope of Corpus Christi and knocked off for the night.

SCHMIDT WILL BE IN CHARGE AGAIN IN 1937

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23. (AP)—L. W. St. John, Ohio State university's director of athletics, said today that Head Football Coach Francis A. Schmidt "undoubtedly" would be in charge of the Bucks again in 1937.

In reply to a question raised as the result of rumblings heard since the Bucks have lost to Pittsburgh and Northwestern on successive Saturdays, St. John said today that no contract was signed, and that none was necessary.

In his three years at the helm, Coach Schmidt's teams have lost four games of 19.

Francis A. Schmidt will undoubtedly be reappointed the same as any other member of the faculty when such appointments are made next spring. I see no reason for raising such a question.

Coach Schmidt came to Ohio State three years ago from Texas Christian university under what was announced as a three-year contract, the first pact ever made with a Buckeye coach for more than one year. Director St. John said today that no contract was signed, and that none was necessary.

In his three years at the helm, Coach Schmidt's teams have lost four games of 19.

EXES ARE IN CHARGE OF WTSTC ANNUAL HOME COMING PROGRAM

CANYON, Oct. 23.—Among those ex-students of the West Texas State Teachers College who have taken a prominent part in the plans for their annual home coming are Lee Gilmore, superintendent of schools at Wheeler and president of the Ex-Students association of the college; Fernan Sawyer, superintendent of schools at Canadian and member of the executive board of the Ex-Student association and J. B. Speer of Skellytown public school, another member of the board.

It was through these men that the barbecue was made a feature of this year's home coming. "We ex-students enjoy the barbecue more than any other single feature of the day. It gives us a chance to eat together, and to stand or sit around in the sunshine and visit in the most comfortable and informal way," said Fernan Sawyer of Canadian. J. B. Speer, stated his appreciation of the barbecue in this manner: "We like a barbecue; it just belongs to any big gathering in the Southwest, for it's a part of our tradition."

Professor T. M. Moore of the Agriculture department of the college will have charge of the barbecue again. It will be open to all who wish to attend at the low price of 25 cents. Meat will be prepared by the barbecue expert, John Snider of Amarillo.

Texas Gets Nomination Then Mitts 70,000 In Thanks

HOUSTON, (AP)—Albert Thomas didn't quit campaigning when the voters of the eighth Texas district gave him the Democratic nomination for congress. He went to work and covered his district—thanking his supporters.

For five weeks he covered Harris county shaking hands with every person he could meet. At the close of his original campaign he estimated he had met 70,000 persons in the county. At the close of his hand-shaking fiesta he estimated he had met all those persons again.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE. STATE OF TEXAS. County of Gray.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the 31st District Court of Gray County, Texas, and to me as Sheriff of Gray County, Texas, directed and delivered, on a judgment rendered in said court on the 28th day of January, 1936, in favor of J. E. Murfee, Jr., and against Mrs. Nellie D. Eller in the case of J. E. Murfee, Jr., vs. Mrs. Nellie D. Eller, No. 4259 on the docket of said court, I did on the 8th day of October, 1936, at 1:45 o'clock P. M., levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situate in the County of Gray, State of Texas, more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

All of Lots Fourteen (14) to Twenty-six (26), both inclusive, in Block Number Two (2), being all of the South half of Block Two, in the Eller Addition to the City of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, and all of Lots One (1) to Thirteen (13), both inclusive, in Block Three (3), being all of Block Three, of the Eller Addition to the City of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, according to the recorded map or plot of said Addition on file in the office of the County Clerk of Gray County, Texas; and on the first Tuesday in November, 1936, it being the third day of said month, at the courthouse door of Gray County, in the City of Pampa, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., I will proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash all the right, title and interest which the said Nellie D. Eller had in and to the above described property on the 14th day of September, 1929, or at any time thereafter, to satisfy a judgment in the sum of Eighteen Hundred Thirty-one and 31/100 ($1,831.31) Dollars together with interest from the 8th day of January, 1936 at the rate of ten per cent per annum and $7.00 costs of suit, and my fees for executing this writ.

Witness my hand this 8th day of October, 1936.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance.

In Athens, which represented the center of Grecian art, religion, and culture, Paul preached the famous sermon on Mars Hill. This sermon, fortunately, has been recorded in the 17th chapter of Acts. From Athens he went to Corinth, which was called "the eye of Greece," a great commercial center that also rivaled the greater Athens in its culture and magnificence.

In Corinth, where commercial prosperity and outward splendor covered depths of vice and licentiousness, Paul found two of his own race, Aquila and his wife, Priscilla, with whom Paul had the additional bond of a fellow craftsman, for all were tentmakers.

Here in Corinth, living with Aquila and Priscilla and working at his trade from day to day, he supported himself while he carried on his real work as a Christian missionary and evangelist. Every Sabbath, we are told, he spoke in the synagog, bringing his Christian teaching to both Jews and Greeks.

What was the quality of this religious work that Paul was doing in the ancient city? What was there about it that was real, and permanent, and of genuine interest for today?

The answer to this is found in an immortal writing in two great letters of Paul, addressed to the Christians in the church that he established at Corinth. This is what we call the 13th chapter of First Corinthians which, as divided into verses in our King James version, has 13 verses, corresponding to its number in the book.

Here is Paul's great eulogy of love as the basic fact of true religion and of all that is fine and best in man's relations with his fellowmen.

Henry Drummond, in this little booklet that he wrote about this chapter, called love "the greatest thing in the world," and this chapter is certainly the greatest sermon or exposition that ever dealt with love.

In the King James version, the stateliness and beauty of the periods failed to suggest the truer and deeper meaning, because the word "charity," which in later versions has been rendered as "love," has come to have a more limited meaning than it had when the early translators did their work.

With the substitution of the word "love," the depth and fullness in the thought have been emphasized and brought into harmony with the richness and power of Paul's eloquence.

Love is the one great requisite of true living. Prophecy, charity, faith, all are nothing if there be not the reality of love. Love is the source and flowering of all the virtues. It is allied with truth, and beauty, and righteousness; and it is the one abiding and permanent thing where all else fails in a changing universe.

Love is the secret of understanding and the enlarged life. As a later poet has expressed it, inspired by Paul's own great poem:

"Race after race hath cut its likeness of its Maker; as the eyes grew large with love."

COLLEGE TEACHES SENSE OF HUMOR

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The University of Florida now has a course designed to develop one's sense of humor.

The school's catalogue lists the course as "Types of Humorous Literature," with appropriate credits, but W. E. Moore, instructor, said the study has the following aim: "To develop the student's ability to view life from the standpoint of the spectator at a comedy, to perceive the comic elements in situations and in people without being upset by them, and above all, to recognize the comic elements in himself."

FINDS FROG FOSSIL

LAWRENCE, Kas. (AP)—The fossil skeleton of a frog, virtually complete, has been added to the paleontological museum at the University of Kansas. Dr. H. H. Lane, curator, said the finding of frog and other amphibian fossils was not unusual, but the discovery of a complete skeleton was rare. It was in formation indicating an age of approximately five million years, Dr. Lane said. The find was made in Wallace county, Kansas.

THE DAILY EYE-OPENER IN EUROPE

Up And Down The Air Waves

We heard the "Home Folk Frolic" on KPND around noon. The last few days this has been heard sometime during the late afternoon.

Tonight's NBC hit programs are as follows: 6:15, Uncle Ezra's Radio Station; 6:30, Lum and Abner; 7:15, Singin' Sam; 9:30, Court of Honor; 9:30, Red Grange, football.

Scary stories are in the making for a big Halloween show which is to be staged over KPND on that date. If the information that we have been able to gather is correct, you'll want to tune in for that program.

Columbia Broadcasting System would like to have you tune in the following programs, tonight: 6:30, Goose Creek Parson; 6:45, Boake Carter; 8:00, Hollywood Hotel—and many other entertaining programs.

The football fans of Lubbock are real fans. From the number of Lubbock citizens who are in Pampa for the game this afternoon, it would seem that they had moved to town.

Sometimes while we listen to the announcer during the programs from the Borger studio of KPND, we thing that he is through and has gone some place, but pretty soon he starts all over again, and finally tells us just what he wants us to know.

Yesterday, we noticed that Paula, who does the "Paula Plans"

LET'S KNOW TEXAS AND TEXANS

BY WILL H. MAYES.

In this column answers will be given to inquiries as to Texas history and other matters pertaining to the State and its people. As evidence of good faith inquiries must give their names and addresses, but only their initials will be printed. Address inquiries to Will H. Mayes, Austin, Texas.

Q. How many states are now claiming the right to tax E. H. R. Green's $80,000,000 estate under their inheritance tax laws? G. B.

A. Four states are claiming that he was one of their citizens in a way to subject the estate to inheritance taxes, which in Texas would amount to about $12,000,000. They are Texas, New York, Massachusetts and Florida.

CRAYON PROJECTS IN TEXAS HISTORY

It is easy to teach children history with colored outline pictures of historical subjects and colored crayons. History taught in this way is never forgotten and a "Centennial Projects, Texas Under Six Flags," contains 26 pages of outlines on many phases of Texas history and events, with cover showing the Texas Capitol under six flags, each in its correct color. Mailed postpaid for 25 cents. Send order to Will H. Mayes, 2610 Salado Street, Austin, Texas.

Q. Who was Henderson Lookum? H. K.

A. Texas historian, native of Tennessee; West Point graduate in 1832; lawyer; served in Tennessee State Senate; came to Texas in 1843; lieutenant in Mexican war; wrote Texas history in two large volumes, published in 1856; lived at Huntsville and was trustee of both colleges there; died while on a visit to Houston in 1856.

Q. How did Anahuac get its name, what does it mean, and what part did it play in Texas history? J. P. P.

A. Anahuac, an Aztec Indian word meaning "country by the water," was established by Gen. Manuel Teran in 1830 as a Mexican military post and named for a Mexican province. It was an important port and the scene of the arrest and imprisonment of Travis and Jack, resulting in an open outbreak between Texans and Mexico.

It goes without saying that Morgan, Stanley & Company will lead the syndicate which will handle the new issue. It is expected to run to the tune of $150,000,000. The offering will be made either late in November or early December. Data for SEC filing is now being prepared.

ANACONDA. Recent spurt of activity in the shares of Anaconda Copper are attributed to the prospect that the dividend rate will be increased. This is expected because of the larger earnings brought about by higher red metal prices and by curtailing demands. It is also said that the 1936 net will exceed the $1.29 a share reported for 1935. Paying at the rate of $1 a share annually and because of the tax on undistributed profits there is the possibility of a dividend extra before the close of the year. In addition to the buying on the part of portfolio accounts there has been some British switching from Cerro de Pasco into Anaconda.

MERGER. Informed utility circles report that negotiations are now underway for a Public Service of Illinois and Commonwealth Edison merger. It is said that the Illinois Commission will approve. The last merger plan which fell through in 1933 called for an exchange of shares. The figures were three Public Service of Illinois for each two of Commonwealth Edison. This plan may be repeated.

BUYING. Recent buying of Corn Products is attributed to so-called Standard Oil interests. At least sources usually active for Standard Oil are doing the buying. Two reasons are given. The first is that the company's sale of package goods has been holding up nicely. The second is that the corporation's feed business is showing marked improvement.

From the speculative point of view the chemists say that the shares are behind the rest of the list now enjoying bullish activities. Floor traders report that about 50 per cent of the current buying is of short term character.

STRONG. Bondholders of southern railroads are cheered by earnings reports and prospects. Officials of such carriers insist that the outlook is constructive. Traffic results and bookings are good. This because farmers are more prosperous and because cotton

GRIDIRON HEROES

BACK IN 1903 Walter Eckersall, weighing 138 pounds, entered the University of Chicago. In one year the "little giant" became the talk of football.

Ecky, a quarterback, made the varsity in his freshman year. He scored a 52-yard touchdown against Illinois, and three field goals against Wisconsin.

He had an extremely educated toe, and twice during his career registered five field goals—against Wisconsin and Nebraska.

Eckersall is looked upon in Maroon annals as the greatest star Chicago ever produced. He was an excellent field general, could snake his way down the field with the best of them, and never flinched before the drive of backs nearly twice his size. For three successive years he made Walter Camp's All-America squad.

REASONS FOR RETIREMENT PLAN ARE OUTLINED BY R. B. FISHER

Law, love, and temperance are as old as the human race. They are as timely as a morning paper. Every one has to answer his own question, if he will break, violate, or misuse these.

It provides a business-like plan for retirement of teachers who can no longer render their best service due to advanced age or physical disability.

It keeps open the paths of promotion and thus attracts and retains young persons of high type and ambitions.

It protects the pupil from ineffective instruction, due to worried, depressed teachers.

It increases the dignity of the teaching profession, and decreases the number who leave it for other work.

Most teachers shoulder heavy responsibilities, such as dependent relatives, during their earning years, and have no children of their own to turn to when earning days are over.

Monthly payments to a retirement fund aids teachers in saving for old age, and tends to protect them from becoming the prey of every member of the family needing a "loan."

School work cuts teachers off from ready contacts with commercial and industrial life favorable to fortunate investing.

Twenty-seven states and many large cities now have retirement systems for teachers. Sixty per cent of the teachers in the United States are now under some retirement system.

ONE ELECTION—FOUR VOTES DARRINGTON, S. C.—Four persons cast ballots in a referendum on at $41,000 Darrington bond issue. All voted for the issue.
