Chinese, Jap Armies Ready For War

Both Nations Send Men To Trouble Zone

Forces Ready For Any Eventuality In New Dispute

LOCAL SETTLEMENT NOT SATISFACTORY

Nanking Government Steps In To Demand New Agreement

By The Associated Press Armies of China and Japan were poised today for action in North China if the crisis there developed into widespread conflict.

Troops On Move

There had been no serious fighting in the area surrounding Peiping for 48 hours, but the Chinese government's foreign office spokesman in Nanking said the government had ordered reinforcements to north China to support the 29th army, which has been fighting Japanese troops for the past week.

The spokesman said six divisions (about 80,000 men) were standing by "somewhere in north China."

The Japanese war office announced in Tokyo that troops will be dispatched from Japan, proper to north China to aid Japanese troops fighting Japanese troops and units of the Japanese army in Manchuria rushed to the battle area last week.

Peiping dispatches reported an agreement at Tientsin between local Chinese and Japanese authorities to settle the crisis to the satisfaction of Japan.

No Local Agreement

But the Nanking government has asserted vigorously that it will recognize no such local agreement, contending that the issues are national and must be settled through the diplomatic representatives of the two countries.

Otherwise, Nanking officials avowed, China will be forced to use her army to resist what Chinese believe in Japan's effort to attach Hopeh and Chahar provinces, just as Manchuria was detached from China proper and set up as the state of Manchoukuo in 1932.

Japan's war minister, General Gen Sugiyama, warned a council of prefectural governors that the situation may take a more grave turn at any moment.

He urged the 50 governors to prepare for mobilization of troops and be ready to requisition necessary supplies for the army's operations against China.

Three million army and navy reservists were told to hold them selves ready for a possible call.

"The crisis has exploded in north China," Gen. Kurotaro Inoue, president of the army and navy reservist association, said. "Future developments are unpredictable, but we must be prepared for the worst in order to preserve the empire."

Mexican Aviation Workers Strike

BROWNSVILLE, July 15 (AP)—Possibility of suspension of Pan American Airways service between the United States and Mexico City Sunday was seen here today in view of a strike called by employees of the Mexican Aviation company in Mexico.

The Brownsville Herald said the Mexican strike, effective after midnight Saturday, would affect Pan American planes operating in Mexico inasmuch as their planes are serviced in Mexico City by employees of the Mexican Aviation company. The newspaper said in case the strike materialized, Pan American planes will continue to operate south, but will fly over Mexico and land at Guatemala City, carrying only freight and mail.

In New York, officials of the Pan American Airways would not comment on the situation.

City Balance Gains During Past Month

Delinquent Tax Collections Continue At A Good Pace

Increase in the cash balance of the general fund was shown in the city's financial statement for June released Thursday. During the month there occurred a gain of $843.69 to leave a balance of $55,190.66.

Expenditures from the fund for the first quarter of the fiscal year are $9,443.29 less than the budget appropriations for the same period but this is largely attributed to the fact that the city's paving program has not hit full stride. The widening of Third street is expected to reduce this amount.

Back Taxes Being Paid

City Efforts At Collection Being Well Rewarded

City of Big Spring announced Thursday that delinquent tax payments were making an unusually good response to letters being mailed out, urging installment payments on arrears municipal taxes.

H. W. Whitney, city secretary, said that a large number were availing themselves of the part payment plan which is being arranged at the convenience of the tax payers, insofar as installments represented a sufficient effort commensurate with the total debt.

The letters are expected to boost delinquent payments considerably during the fiscal year. To July 1, before many of the statements had been mailed, the city had collected $4,500 back taxes, almost half of the budget figure for the year.

Ranchmen Freed In Sheep Case

BALLINGER, July 15 (AP)—John Ringer and B. C. Ringer, Mason county ranchmen, were acquitted of receiving and concealing 27 sheep stolen last December from W. M. Stansberry in Tom Green county in a verdict returned in a special session of 119th district court here this morning. The jury took the case 12 hours earlier.

There still is pending one case against the defendants, who are cousins, charging the receipt and concealment of 50 sheep stolen from Tom Ault in Tom Green county. These cases will be on call at the regular court term here in September.

Torrid Weather Returns To East

By The Associated Press Sweltering temperatures returned to the eastern half of the nation today.

Although widespread precipitation, extending from the Great Plains to Pennsylvania and the Middle Atlantic states, brought some relief, Forecaster J. R. Lloyd, of Chicago, said hot south to southwest winds were on the way with 90 and 100 degree temperatures.

B. R. Laskowski, U. S. meteorologist at Huron, S. D., said the extreme heat during the last week had caused premature development of some grain crops.

The department reported that temperatures during the last week averaged six to 12 degrees above normal, except in the south and parts of the northwest.

Long Distance Fliers View U. S. Sights

Russians Will Take Plane To Washington On Homeward Trip

SAN DIEGO, Calif., July 15 (AP)—The newest flying heroes of the Soviet Union, a non-stop record of more than 6,700 miles from Moscow to San Jacinto, Calif., to their credit, started out today to inspect American airplane factories and the world's movie capital, Hollywood.

The Russian conquerors of time and space, Pilot Mikhail Gromov, Co-pilot Andrei Yumoshoff and Navigator Sergei Danilin, motored here last night from March Field, U. S. army base to which they were taken after landing in a cow pasture. They had battled fog all the way down California, and circled back to the pasture offered a long runway for a safe landing, when they shot down from the fog banks early yesterday.

Tentative plans called for one or two days in Los Angeles, then an overnight train ride for a day's visit in San Francisco. From there the aviators plan to fly a commercial transport plane to Washington, thence to New York, where they probably will sail for Russia, July 25.

Picks His Roads With Aerial Maps

Aerial maps have been found to be of great value in following outcroppings and studying geological structures of a given area, but Penn Livingston, U. S. G. S. associate engineer in charge of a water survey of this area, has found another practical use.

He is able to map his routes over mountain roads, which often times are little more than cow trails, by examining aerial maps. Close study of the maps reveal the location or probable location of gates, saving much time in field work.

Livingston said that his crew had several months of hard work ahead before finishing the local project.

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—The interior department awarded a $163,960 contract today for the manufacture of bulkhead gate frame and track assemblies for Marshall Ford Dam on the Colorado river in Texas to the Koppers company, Baltimore.

20 Miners Killed In Explosion

SULLIVAN, Ind., July 15 (AP)—Twenty men were killed today by explosion and fire in the Glendora Coal company's Baker mine, northeast of here, Jack Ogilvie, safety engineer of the Indiana Coal Operators' association, said this afternoon.

Three bodies had been recovered and 17 additional bodies are piled in a corner of the mine shaft, according to Ogilvie.

He said the 17 bodies could not be brought out until carbon monoxide gas cleared from the shaft.

Harry Keenan, mine superintendent, said 203 men were in the mine when the explosion occurred and that all except 20 came out alive. Three of those carried out alive were critically injured, Keenan said, and six suffered slight wounds.

Keenan explained that of the 203 men in the mine at the time of the explosion, only 25 or 30 were in the area of the blast. Ogilvie said it was a gas explosion but that the actual cause had not been determined.

The mine runs two and one half miles underground toward Sullivan. The explosion was about one and three-fourths miles away from the tippie, Keenan said.

The explosion picked me and my buddies up and rolled us like footballs," said J. Cox, who suffered head and body injuries.

"Some of my buddies were thrown against the wall and they had no chance at all."

Ogilvie and Keenan said that most of those killed were crushed to death by being hurled against the walls.

Bristow Posts 77 In Angelo Tourney

SAN ANGELO, July 15 (AP)—Bill Powell, San Angelo golfer who yesterday figured in two local victories in Mertz cup play, at noon today was credited with the lowest score among nearly 40 golfers in the eighth annual San Angelo country club invitation tournament. He shot 36-38-74. Obie Bristow was second with a 36-41-77. Next was Bill Shafer of Odessa with 38-40-78.

On the first nine holes of medal play, Rufus King of Wichita Falls and Billy Bob Coffey of Fort Worth had 36. H. G. Agnew of Ballinger and Dr. J. N. Arvin of Brownwood shot 37.

Many of the favorites, among them Don Schumacher of Dallas, trans-Mississippi champion, were yet to qualify.

J. P. Bohanan of Abilene had a 38 on the first nine. Amos Melton of Fort Worth listed 39. Darrell Farmer came through with a 38, and Dr. H. E. Arvin of Brownwood had 40.

A field of between 100 and 125 was expected to qualify today.

Farm Group To Convene

1937 Govt. Program To Be Outlined At Session Here

County agents, assistants and clerks from 20 West Texas counties will gather here at the Settles hotel Friday to hear instructions on handling of performance papers on the 1937 farm program.

It was estimated that approximately 50 persons would take part in the meeting.

E. C. Martin, district agent, is to be in charge. H. F. Vance, assistant administrative officer in charge of the agricultural conservation program, likely will be here to lead in discussions. Lester Young, assistant field officer in the same department, will lead in discussions.

Those attending may receive some instruction in the interpretation of aerial maps, since it has been suggested that the larger farm counties may be given this type of map instead of the plane table map.

Other pertinent questions relative to filling out performance sheets will be talked at the meeting.

ARRESTED AGAIN

LANDSDOWNE, Pa., July 15 (AP)—Albert R. Knight, 35, arrested six weeks ago on a charge of arson after a fire was discovered in his home, was arrested again today, this time charged with attempted murder of his three daughters to collect life insurance.

Demos Split Over Future Party Policy

Death Of Leader Robinson Leaves Senate In Confusion

REPORT FDR URGED TO ABANDON FIGHT

Three Mentioned As Likely Candidates For High Post

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—Four first term democratic senators discussed the administration court bill with President Roosevelt at the White House today and immediately afterward foes of the measure hinted at a major break in the court fight.

The four senators Gillette of Iowa, Andrews of Florida, Johnson of Colorado, and Brown of

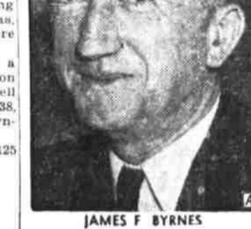

ALBEN W. BARKLEY

Michigan refused to say anything more than that he had discussed the court bill with the president.

Reports quickly spread among their colleagues, however, that they had urged the chief executive to withdraw the bill and at least three of them told him flatly they were against it.

At the same time, the opposition lined up another publicly committed senator in Maloney of Conn.

JAMES F. BYRNES

Byrnes, who said he expected to speak against the measure if debate was resumed.

He made public commitments against the bill 41, with 40 publicly for it, counting Brown who has reported to have switched.

The day's most important development in the court fight, after the death of Majority Leader Robinson of Arkansas yesterday threw the senate into confusion, came with senate democrats into two factions fighting for control of the party machinery and the legislative program.

The death of Robinson, for 15 years the party leader, left administration supporters determined to push through the court bill and such other Roosevelt proposals as the wage and hour and housing bills.

Tenancy Bill Is Completed For FD's Signature

Measure Provides 85 Million For Loans To Finance Purchase Of Farms

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—The senate sent to the White House today a compromise tenancy bill authorizing the government to lend $85,000,000 in the next three years to help tenants become farm owners.

Final congressional action came with adoption of recommendations of a conference committee named to compose senate and house differences over the legislation.

The house approved the compromise Tuesday.

The measure empowers the secretary of agriculture to lend $10,000,000 this fiscal year, $20,000,000 in the next and $50,000,000 in the third year at three per cent for farm purchases. Although tenants and sharecroppers buying land with federal aid will be given title immediately, they can not sell the properties for five years.

The measure also authorizes a $1,000,000 appropriation this year for purchase and retirement of submarginal land and $20,000,000 in each of the next two years.

Until their loans are completely repaid, purchasers of farms will be required to follow farming practices prescribed by the agricultural department.

The bill contains no civil service provisions, despite repeated recommendations of the president that all new agencies be put under the merit system.

Advocates expressed confidence Mr. Roosevelt will sign it, however. He gave it administration blessing earlier this session.

The senate approved the compromise without discussion after Senator Barkley (D-Ky.), acting majority leader, permitted it to be considered despite an earlier announcement that no important legislation would be taken up until after the funeral of Senator Robinson (D-Ark).

SIMPLE RITES FOR ROBINSON

Services To Be Held At Little Rock On Sunday

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 15 (AP)—Arkansas will bury with simple rites here Sunday her illustrious son—Senator Joseph Taylor Robinson.

The state dunned official mourning today while the senator's stricken widow and close relatives sped by train to Washington to return his body.

Recovering slowly from the shock of his unexpected death yesterday, citizens looked for a successor but none emerged clearly in the grief-stricken speculation.

Leaders said no action would be made until after the funeral to which many of the nation's highest, including vice-president John N. Garner, will come.

The body will be taken to the modest family home and later removed to the rotunda of the capitol where it will lie in state.

The regular funeral ritual of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, will be followed in services at the fashionable First Church at 3 p. m. The Rev. Bascom H. Watts, pastor, and the Rev. James Thomas, longtime friend of the Robinson family, will preach the funeral sermon.

Burial will be in Rosewald Memorial Park on the outskirts of Little Rock.

Garner Will Go Back To Capital

UVALDE, July 15 (AP)—Vice-President John N. Garner announced today he would go to Washington directly from Little Rock, Ark., where Sunday he will attend funeral services for Senator Joe T. Robinson.

Garner plans to leave Uvalde Saturday. He declined to comment on the effects Senator Robinson's death might have on the fortunes of the party and the congressional program of President Roosevelt.

For years he has followed the policy of not talking politics in Uvalde and today he showed no signs of departing from that policy.

He has been in Uvalde about a month, fishing, attending to personal business matters and resting. Although he has kept in close touch with the national capital.

The vice president declined to say why he planned to go to Washington or whether it meant the end of his vacation and whether it meant he planned to remain there until Congress adjourned.

Planes Continue Search For Amelia

HONOLULU, July 15 (AP)—Aviators of the aircraft carrier Lexington tuned their planes today to sweep tropical waters and islets again in the greatest search the naval air forces have ever undertaken.

Hope had all but reached the vanishing point of finding Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan, navigator of her world-girdling plane, who disappeared July 2 on a 2,570 mile flight from New Guinea to Howland Island.

Nevertheless the air fleet and surface craft continued scouring a 265,000 mile area, in the remote hope they would be found somewhere in the area.

Seek Convicts In Oklahoma

Texas Fugitives Flushed Near Chickasha, But Elude Officers

CHICKASHA, Okla., July 15 (AP)—Three escaped Texas convicts were sought by state and local officers near here today after the felons outdistanced pursuing officers and then disabled a farmer's car with gunfire, when the farmer hid the key.

The convicts, believed led by Pete Traxler, fugitive Oklahoma outlaw, first were seen in the vicinity when they purchased gasoline at a store near Bridge Creek. An alarm was sounded.

State and local officers, who sped in pursuit, spied the fugitive trio north of Tuttle, chased the group to Minco and then were outdistanced.

The three fugitives, the officers said, were in a car bearing a Texas license plate which was stolen near Ardmore by a trio identified as the escaped Texas convicts, who fled Eastham prison farm last week.

After outdistancing the officers, the trio raced to a farm south of Minco. There the three found an automobile and waited for Andrew Jackson, owner of the farm and car to reach the car from a threshold he was operating nearby.

Jackson said he believed the men wanted the car so he dropped the key as he strode toward his home.

When the trio was unable to find the key, Jackson said, the men fired into the motor of his car, disabling it, then sped away in the auto bearing the Texas license plates.

Officers from over southern Oklahoma and state operatives were summoned here for a search of at least a half dozen places officers believe may shelter Traxler and his companions.

SCOTTSDORO CASE AGAIN WITH JURY

DECATUR, Ala., July 15 (AP)—For the ninth time in six years a jury today weighed the fate of a "Scottsdoro case" defendant, accused in the alleged rape of two white women by nine negroes.

The jury, taking the case of Clarence Norris at 10:50 a. m. (CST) had before it a demand from the state that the death penalty be exacted.

had been critical of the Roosevelt program urged speedy adjournment of congress. The actual opening of hostilities was postponed until after burial of the beloved leader. The administration senators were lining up for Senator Barkley of Kentucky for party leader. Most of the opposing group was supporting Senator Harrison of Mississippi.

Senator Byrnes of South Carolina also figured in the leadership picture, but some senators said he would back Harrison. Byrnes, like many others, refused to comment on the leadership race until after Robinson's burial.

It would be possible for the administration to win the party control fight and lose on the court bill. Only democrats will figure in the first conflict, but republicans will vote on the court bill. All 16 are opposed to it. Foes of the measure said they would move as soon as debate resumed next week to return the bill to committee, unless a recheck of their votes showed they did not have the strength they anticipated. Some senators on the other side meantime discussed ways and means of forcing through not only the court bill but all the other legislative proposals of the president.

State Funeral To Be Held Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—Grieving senators will join tomorrow in a state funeral for Democratic Leader Robinson (D-Ark) for 24 years one of their dominant and most beloved members.

Leaders of both parties conferred today on arrangements for the service—the fourteenth of its kind in 70 years—in the gold and marble senate chamber. Forty-five senators and 23 representatives will accompany the body on a special train to Little Rock, Ark., where another service will precede burial Sunday afternoon.

The train will carry the largest congressional delegation ever to attend the burial of a senator. Tomorrow's simple ceremony will begin at 10 a. m., eastern standard time, when the flower banked coffin will be carried to the central arena of the senate chamber, near Robinson's vacant chair.

Seats of honor on each side will be reserved for Mrs. Robinson and relatives. President Roosevelt, his cabinet, supreme court justices, high officers of the army and navy, and scores of uniformed diplomats will be grouped near the speaker's rostrum. Members of the house will cluster in the back of the chamber. Work of the senate virtually will be suspended until the congressional delegation returns on Tuesday.

TENTH DEATH

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas was the tenth member of congress to die since the November, 1936 elections. Senator Norbeck (R-SD) died Dec. 20 and Senator Bachman (D-Tenn) April 23. The other seven were representatives: Cary (D-Ky), Montague (D-Va), Buchanan (D-Tex), Stubbs (D-Calif), Focht (R-Pa), Goodwin (R-NY), and Conery (D-Mass).

Scout Camp Attendance To Be Large

Increased attendance for the annual summer camp of the Buffalo Trail council is indicated by the early deposits by scouts of this area. Al Stiles, area executive, told scout leaders here Wednesday afternoon.

More than 50 scouts have paid all or part of their camp fees, he said, twice as many as had paid this time last year.

A check on Big Spring troops revealed around 39 boys planning to spend at least a week in camp at Barksdale on the Nueces. Jack Hodges, scoutmaster of troop No. 3, said that transportation had been contracted and that the local contingent would leave here early Tuesday morning.

Stiles predicted that last year's total of 241 boys in camp would be bettered in the two week stand this summer. A check Wednesday showed that a majority of the boys who made the trip to Washington are to go to camp next week.

The mess hall has been screened the executive reported, and the swimming hole is more than twice the size it was last year. Eats are to be equally as plentiful as last camp, and Sonny Jones, who has cooked for seven camps, will again be master of the skillet.

George Gentry, principal of Big Spring high school, will remain in Austin for second semester of summer school work in University of Texas. Mrs. Gentry has returned from a six weeks' visit in Calvert. She attended the Fort Worth and Dallas shows during the past week before returning here.

FDR Watches China Crisis

White House attaches said the president had no specific action in mind concerning the international situation but that he was watching developments in the far east and Europe with the greatest anxiety. The United States government, while refraining from any entanglement in the Sino-Japanese crisis, has urged peace in the Orient.

The British government has made overtures to the United States—believed to be in form of a suggestion that the nine-power treaty nations consult in an effort to achieve a peaceful settlement of the conflict—but Secretary Hull took no action.

The situation developing in Europe over the proposed non-intervention patrol of Spanish waters also was said to have caused the president some anxiety.

He summoned three diplomatic advisers for conferences on international conditions immediately after lunch. They were John Van Turkey but one of the state departments' foremost experts on affairs of China, where he was American minister for many years; Norman Davis, American "ambassador at large," and Sumner Welles, undersecretary of state.

TO WRONG PERSON

SAN ANGELO, July 15 (AP)—Seizure by inspectors of the liquor control board of 324 bottles of beer at the San Angelo Country Club Wednesday afternoon resulted in the fining of Nevelle (Red) Haley $25 and costs in county court here this morning. The charge was selling beer without a license.

The beer had been sent to the country club for visitors participating in a tournament here, but due to misunderstanding, one bottle was sold, "apparently to the wrong person," it was stated in county court this morning.

Good crop weather over the belt and private predictions of a bumper crop induced recent buyers to liquidate their holdings and take profits on a large scale. Last prices were near the bottom with July closing at 11.94 cents a pound, Oct. 12.09 cents, and Dec. 12.12 cents.

NO PLANS SET FOR SETTLERS REUNION Fate of the old settlers reunion for Howard county this summer appeared hanging in the balance Thursday. None of the old timers knew of any definite plans to hold the reunion on the regular date, July 23. Some of those who have been in charge for the past few years had withdrawn from the picture, they said, and reportedly left plans up to George Rice. No report was forthcoming from Mr. Rice. However, some of the pioneer residents were inclined to believe that the regular date would be passed this year and a reunion, under a reorganized system, would be held in August.

GAIN IS REPORTED IN CRUDE PRODUCTION WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—The bureau of mines reported today the daily average production of crude petroleum in May totaled 3,507,800 barrels, a gain of 78,500 barrels over April. The bureau said daily average production increased in all major oil fields except Oklahoma which declined from 680,600 barrels in April to 665,100 barrels in May. Texas increased 48,700 barrels; California 29,800; Louisiana, 5,700; Kansas, 5,200 and New Mexico 6,800.

Money Bill Is Approved

Senate OK's Compromise Measure For War Department

WASHINGTON, July 15 (AP)—The senate approved and sent to the White House today a compromise $194,536,063 appropriation for the non-military activities of the war department this fiscal year.

Included was a $105,000,000 flood control program, half the cost of which would come from relief funds. Some senators have predicted a presidential veto because of the provision.

After separating the war department's non-military items from the $415,000,000 appropriation for military purposes, the house voted $32,500,000 for flood control. The senate doubted that and proposed additional authorization for the army engineers to enter contracts totaling $48,000,000.

Under the compromise $52,500,000 would be appropriated directly and that same amount would be earmarked from the $1,500,000,000 relief fund for this fiscal year.

Meanwhile, the senate and house, unable to agree on appropriations for the interior department this fiscal year, sent to the White House a resolution continuing last year's appropriations for another 15 days.

The 1937 fiscal year closed June 30 with the senate and house at odds on features of the supply bill. The senate later adopted a compromise but the house failed to act. The extension resolution went through both house and senate today.

Cotton Price Off Sharply

Active Selling Forces Futures Bids Down $1.60 A Bale

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Depressed by an active selling movement cotton futures closed up $1.60 to $1.90 a bale lower. Liverpool and local speculative sources were reported the principal sellers. An abrupt drop of around $1 a bale in early afternoon was followed by a feeble rally, but in pressure was renewed in final hour and final prices were near the lows.

NEW ORLEANS, July 15 (AP)—Cotton prices dropped sharply here today and at the close showed losses of from $1.60 to $1.80 a bale compared with the previous close. Good crop weather over the belt and private predictions of a bumper crop induced recent buyers to liquidate their holdings and take profits on a large scale. A drop in wheat was a contributing cause to the decline here. Foreign interests and spot hogs were reported to be on the selling side. Trade and other demand was entirely lacking. Last prices were near the bottom with July closing at 11.94 cents a pound, Oct. 12.09 cents, and Dec. 12.12 cents.

Blanton Case Reward Hiked Allred Puts Up Additional $1,000 For Information

AUSTIN, July 15 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred today added $1,000 to an existing $500 reward for information leading to the discovery of the bodies of Luther and John Blanton who disappeared in the vicinity of the former King ranch in the lower Rio Grande Valley last November. The governor said the reward carried with it "a guarantee of protection to any individual who furnishes any information." The announcement followed a protracted conference between the chief executive, Col. H. H. Carmichael, commander of the Ranger force, and Ranger Capt. Bill McMurry, in charge of the Blanton investigation.

INQUEST INTO RIOT BECOMES A WRANGLE CHICAGO, July 15 (AP)—The coroner's inquest into ten deaths in Memorial Day steel strike riot was turned into a wrangle today with C.I.O. attorneys accusing the state's attorney's office of pursuing an anti-union policy. The dispute began during interrogation of Louis F. Selnick, a member of the union strike strategy committee at the Republic Steel Corporation plant in South Chicago.

Minister Is Accused In Death Case

Missouri Officers Announce Recovery Of Missing Money

PARIS, Mo., July 15 (AP)—Prosecuting Attorney Tom Proctor of Monroe county announced today recovery of $1,930 he said presumably had been taken from Mrs. Dennis Kelly, 45-year-old church worker, whose battered body was found late Tuesday floating in the Mississippi river near Louisiana, Mo.

Proctor said the money was taken to the home of Sheriff Russell Wilkes at 2 a. m. today by Mrs. Myra Hannan, who has made her home here with the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Newton since her childhood. He quoted Miss Hannan as saying the Rev. Mr. Newton, 51, a northern Missouri Baptist minister for 20 years who yesterday was charged with the slaying of Mrs. Kelly, had given her the money which he described as "valuable papers" Tuesday when he left to officiate at a funeral.

Sheriff Wilkes said Miss Hannan and Noel Newton, son of the accused minister, "admitted burning some women's clothing the son found in his father's car Tuesday night when he drove the machine to Moberly." The son operates an oil station here.

Wilkes said Mrs. Newton, wife of the accused minister, "made a written statement concerning her knowledge of the case" last night. The contents of the statement were not made public, however.

Proctor said "we consider the circumstantial case against the former pastor practically complete with recovery of the $1,900."

When Newton was arrested early yesterday officers said they found only $10 in his possession.

Wilkes said Mrs. Kelly was known to have withdrawn "about $1900 from the Paris Savings Bank recently."

DRIVE LAUNCHED ON N. Y. POLICY RACKET

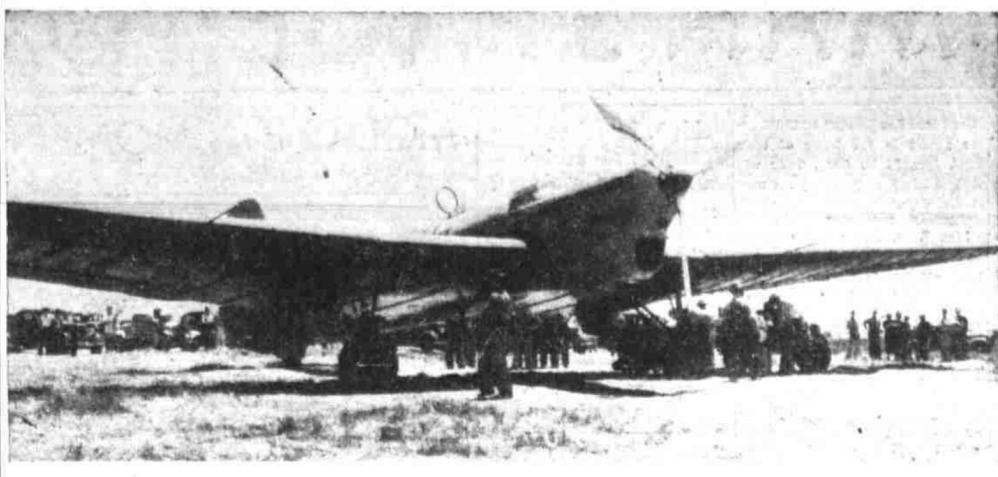

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Eight men, indicted as leaders of a $100,000,000-a-year policy racket, were sought today as Special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey aimed a death blow at what he termed organized crime's largest source of slush fund money.

The eight fugitives and four others were indicted by an extraordinary grand jury yesterday as inheritors of the policy racket of the late Arthur (Dutch Schultz) Fliegenheimer, slain in a Newark N. J. tavern in October, 1935.

One of those indicted was J. Richard (Dick) Davis, attorney for Schultz and other gangsters. The indictments charged Davis was one of three who directed Schultz's policy racket after his death.

Davis himself, testifying two years ago before Commissioner of Accounts Paul Blanshard, estimated the annual "take" of the policy racket at $50,000,000 a year.

Martin and Midland county commissioners have been working on this road project for three years, Martin County Commissioner Jess Blackford said, in discussing the crossing which is expected to be completed soon.

The committee will meet in closed session early next week when congressional bill drafters expect to have measures ready for submission.

Doughton predicted congress would pass legislation to close tax loopholes this season even though the death of Senate Leader Robin

READING AND WRITING By John Selby

"THE GREAT GOLDWYN," by Alva Johnston; (Random; $1.50) It is said that when Alva Johnston went to Hollywood to look over the prospects for an article on Samuel Goldwyn, he wired back that he had to have more elbow room.

Now Mr. Johnston's four articles have been printed without (apparently) much change. The little book they form is called "The Great Goldwyn" and it may be read in one sitting without your foot going to sleep or your eye tiring.

This information is delightful, but once said is enough. Mr. Goldwyn is a whirling dervish, according to Mr. Johnston. He shouts, he wisecracks, he spends colossal sums, he has a flair for the artistic which his early days in the glove business do not explain, he makes mistakes in syntax and pronunciation which are, Mr. Johnston thinks, quite often deliberate and for effect.

But it's difficult for anyone to make even a small book of this even though four superb articles did come out of it. By the time Mr. Johnston has told you that Mr. Goldwyn is a super-hyper-doublesuper male Malarrop 50 or 60 times you either yawn or say "So what? Or if you're a very hopeful case you say to yourself that the day for such diodes passed in 1929 and not even a super-hyper-doublesuper-colossal movie man and his press staff can bring it back.

Popularity Of Appetizer Is Deserved Reports Miss Logan

BY MARTHA LOGAN
The popularity of an appetizer tray is well deserved. One reason for this is that the sight of these colorful little bits of savories is enough to pique anyone's curiosity into tasting. But the true success comes in the piquant, spicy, and arresting flavors of these taste tempters.

For a Sunday night supper, or an evening party, a large tray of appetizers, supplemented by a fragrant, cooling drink, may form the backbone of the meal, especially if these appetizers are of a rather substantial type.

In planning for a party of this kind, it is well to order white, rye, and brown bread as well as small crackers. Get a small amount of three or four kinds of tansy cheese, pickled onions, stuffed olives, a quarter pound of each of four or five kinds of dry sausage, some green peppers, parsley, and, of course, butter, mustard, horseradish, and pickles. With such an array before you, you will be able to originate new combinations so that your tray need not show the much over-worked types so often served on such occasions.

If you have not acquired the knack of making new combinations, you may want to try some of these suggestions. Remember, if they are to be served as true appetizers for a hearty meal, make each one tiny. But if the tray is the piece de resistance of the supper party, then at least some of the canapés may be of a more generous size. Care, however, should be taken to have all combinations colorful, interestingly shaped, and well seasoned. Avoid sweets and excessively rich foods. The meats best suited for this service are Dried Beef, Goteborg, Braunschweiger, Salami, Thuringer, Smoked Tongue, Bacon, and Potted or Spiced Meat Pastes. In Frankfurts or Sausage are used, they should be either the small cocktail size or else one-half inch slices of the regular make.

A grill on the table or side table often makes possible the serving of hot appetizers. Without a grill or a maid in the kitchen, it is best to concentrate on those combinations that are served cold. Because after all the rule still holds—serve hot foods hot—be it appetizers or steak.

Slices Cheesecake Strips
Slice Cheesecake in 3-4 inch slices and then cut slices in strips 3-4 inch wide. Cut each strip in half and insert colored picks so that cheese half is on top.

Braunschweiger Deviled Eggs
Cut hard-cooked eggs in half and remove yolk. Fill with Braunschweiger which has been well mixed with a small amount of mayonnaise. Sprinkle grated egg yolk over top or lay a narrow strip of pimiento lengthwise of the egg.

Dried Beef and Braunschweiger
Spread a piece of dried beef with Braunschweiger. Roll up like a jelly roll. Cut into 1-2 inch rolls and serve on picks or leave in one piece and serve with salads or on buffet platter.

Braunschweiger Surprise
Completely cover a pimiento olive with Braunschweiger. Serve on a pick.

Braunschweiger Bits
Broil bacon slices until crisp. Break into bits. Combine with Braunschweiger. Roll into balls then roll in finely chopped parsley.

Open Genoa Sandwiches
Cut thin slices of rye bread into rectangles 1 inch by 2 inches. Spread with creole mustard-flavored butter. Cut thin slices of dill pickles and Genoa Sausage into rectangles 1-2 inch by 2 inches. Place pickle and sausage slices side by side on the bread.

Sail Boats
Make a lengthwise incision in small gherkins. Scoop out the centers of the pickles and fill with cream cheese. Insert "sail" made from a wedge of Salami.

Cornucopia
(Cooked Salami filled with cabbage slaw)
Cut thin slice of cooked Salami. Fold into cornucopia and fasten with a pick. Fill with finely cut (not too moist) cold slaw.

Open Face Lunch Meat Sandwiches
Cut thin slices of white bread and spread with creole mustard butter. Trim pieces into triangular shape. Cover with pieces of lunch meat of the same shape but slightly smaller than the bread. Garnish with small pieces of green pepper and pimiento.

Goteborg Hors d'oeuvres
Cut Goteborg sausage into one-half inch cubes. Spread with softened cream cheese, then roll in finely chopped parsley. Serve on colored picks.

CHANGES MADE IN MARTIN PRECINCTS
STANTON, July 15.—Re-blocking of boundaries, affecting three precincts of Martin county, was accomplished by the commissioners' court meeting here this week. Precincts altered were Nos. two, three, and four.

Changes were made for the purpose of reducing the size of precinct four, largest in the county and having the most roads. Commissioner Jess Blackford said.

A two-mile strip was added to precinct two along its north side giving it an increase of 28 square miles in area. A strip one mile wide was added to precinct three along its entire east boundary. Both strips were carved out of precinct four, decreasing its area considerably.

Precinct one was unaltered. Precinct two, which includes the east one-half of Stanton, will be provided with another voting box to be located near Lenorah, Blackford said.

Reformatory Girls To Throw A Real Party

PRACTICE MAKEUP

This Oklahoma reformatory "honor girl" is experimenting with lip rouge so she'll have the job done pat by the time of the big party.

By The AP Feature Service
TECUMSEH, Okla. — Romance is coming to the Oklahoma State Training school for girls—and excited inmates are getting ready to welcome it.

With fresh curtains and finger-waves, new dresses and makeup, 30 "honor girls" are preparing for their first party night, July 16.

Mrs. Creighton Burnham, school superintendent, said the parties—which may become monthly affairs—are being given to provide the girls with "social experience" against their dismissal from the school. All 30 are more than 16.

Boys wishing to attend must present references. The girls will make their own refreshments—cake and ice cream—as well as their dresses.

There will be dancing for those who like it, games and fudge-making for the others. The party house will be a rambling one-story brick cottage which has a spacious parlor.

WAY TO A MAN'S HEART. This "honor girl," figuring that a man never frowns on a good cook, puts up preserves for the gala night.

GREENVILLE, July 15 (UP)—The driver of a Dixie Motor Coach bus was fatally injured and three passengers were slightly hurt when the vehicle plunged down a 20-foot embankment near here on the Commerce highway today.

when the accident occurred. Ellis, cut and bruised, took Sanders and Miss Burkhalter, who were painfully bruise, from the bus, after breaking out a rear window. Ellis said he was unable to move Holloway, who was pinned to his seat by a highway guard rail which was rammed through the front of the bus and pierced Holloway's leg.

Holloway lost considerable blood over a period of 30 minutes that he remained in the bus before a truck driver from Paris, Auburn Fools, stopped and helped. Ellis remove Holloway to the truck in which the bus driver was rushed to the Greenville hospital.

Man Is Slain As A Prowler

No Charges To Be Filed In Shooting At Wichita Home

WICHITA FALLS, July 15 (UP)—The body of Harry L. Cook of Dallas, salesman for a brokerage concern fatally shot in the head late Wednesday night by a Wichita man who believed the man was a prowler, lay in a funeral morgue Thursday pending funeral arrangements.

Cook was shot once with a .32 caliber automatic as he stood at the side of an apartment house occupied by Joyce Johnson, young filling station manager, and his wife, who had retired. He died almost instantly.

Johnson fired the shot, he told Assistant District Attorney L. V. Abernathy, after his wife, excited by a man on seeing the man first at the back porch of their apartment and then at the bedroom window, apparently looking in. Johnson, who usually keeps receipts from the filling station overnight, said he called out to the man but "he didn't move, just kept staring in."

No charges will be filed on the basis of present information, the assistant district attorney said. An investigation to ascertain an explanation of the man's presence in the neighborhood continues Thursday.

Mrs. Cook arrived from Dallas about 5 a.m. to take charge of the body after identification, tentatively made through cards and papers found on the man's body and in his car parked nearby, was made positive by her brother-in-law, H. A. Collins of Walters, Okla., who arrived earlier.

Collins said Cook was to spend the night here after a business call at Stamford Wednesday, and return to Dallas Thursday.

Survivors include a brother Frank Cook of California, and his mother and a sister.

Uncle John Tanner of Depoy, Ky., 98, took his 71-year-old son to visit his 78-year-old brother.

Bats War On Grasshoppers

Carlsbad Cavern Inmates Aid In Ridding Area Of Invading Hordes

CARLSBAD, N. M., July 15 (AP)—Overweight bats of Carlsbad Caverns warred happily today on the crop-raiding grasshopper hordes in southeastern New Mexico.

Colonel Thomas Boles, superintendent of Carlsbad Caverns National Park, was confident his bats would vanquish the invaders.

"Give them time," he said, "and they will get rid of them all."

The activity of the cave dwellers was discovered by park rangers who noticed the bats were fatter than usual.

Dissection of several showed their stomachs well filled with what appeared to be remnants of grasshoppers.

The bats fly from the mouth of the caverns at dusk each day over a radius of several hundred miles foraging for insects.

Colonel Boles said it had been estimated that eleven tons of insects were consumed each evening by the bats.

Northeastern New Mexico's grasshopper scourge recurred with new intensity today.

Motorists reported flights so heavy that vision was obscured.

The movement—in its 36th hour—continued unbroken the general direction of the feeding grounds of the bats.

"The grasshoppers are conducting a trench warfare against our farmers," the park superintendent declared.

"But I believe the aerial attack of the bats will rout the enemy."

Officers Named One of the high points of the occasion was the election of officers of the Old Settlers' association which sponsors the annual reunion.

Bill Wilkinson, pioneer cowman and merchant of West Texas, was named president and will head the oldtimers for the coming year.

W. Y. Houston, better known as "Dick" Houston, member of the family of his name which has long been prominent in the history of ranching in Martin county, was chosen vice president.

Mrs. Morgan Hall was again elected secretary and treasurer.

A brief memorial service for oldtimers who have gone on to "the last roundup" during the past year was conducted by Geo. Shelburne.

An accord solo by Mrs. James Jones, a violin solo by Mrs. Helen Joy Daniel, fiddle music by a trio of young men, and reading of a letter from Ira Cochran of San Antonio, oldtimer unable to be present at the meeting, were among other numbers presented.

A traditional feature of the yearly reunion is a series of talks by oldtimers who describe the country and the people in "the good old days."

300 Attend Reunion Of Old Settlers

Bill Wilkinson Named As President Of Stanton Association

STANTON, July 15—Welcomed by former Martin county judge, John Atchison, approximately 300 old settlers of the Stanton region gathered on the courthouse lawn here Tuesday evening in the eighth annual Old Settlers' Reunion.

Oldtimers from as far away as New York City and California and New Mexico were present along with visitors from many other parts of Texas as well as those still resident in the old home town.

An informal get-together after the formal opening of the reunion at 6 o'clock was followed by a basket supper.

Afterward, with Turner Vance of Refugio, son of Dr. J. R. Vance Stanton pioneer, as master of ceremonies, the evening's program was presented.

Tuesday evening speakers included: Tom Grisham, Leon Jones of Tipton, Calif., Mrs. Paul Konz of Austin, Matt Grisham, and J. V. Stokes of Midland.

As a diatribe song, the audience sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

The reunion is held each year on the second Tuesday in July.

Unemployed Storm WPA Santone Office SAN ANTONIO, July 15 (AP)—A crowd of more than 500 unemployed men stormed the WPA work office early this morning, demanding that they be interviewed by those taking applications for WPA jobs.

Rocks were thrown against the side of the building and against windows as many of the men yelled: "Break down the door! We want work!"

Police were called and formed the crowd into an orderly line and after 40 had been admitted to the building, the others were dispersed without further trouble.

The demonstration came on the heels of the acquittal of Emma Tenayuca, woman leader of the Workers Alliance of America here on a charge of disturbing the peace in connection with a riot on June 29 at the district WPA office.

Asks Inquiry Into Reported Slayings

WEST PLAINS, Mo., July 15 (AP)—Sheriff Claude Garrett said today Mrs. Dortha Joliff of Willow Springs had asked him to conduct an investigation in connection with a story told her by a prisoner in the state penitentiary concerning the fate of her husband, Nate, her sister, Mrs. Jessie Deavers and Mrs. Deavers' two children.

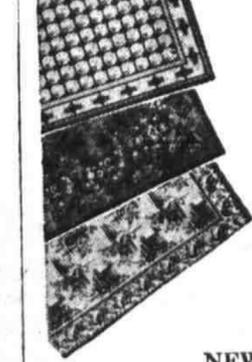

The sheriff said Mrs. Joliff had learned from the prisoner that a man the convict said he met in California told of killing Joliff in a fight near Albuquerque, N. M., and then slaying Mrs. Deavers and the children.

Charred remnants of clothing recently were found in a canyon near Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. Joliff and Mr. and Mrs. Berdeal Deavers left Willow Springs last fall to drive to California but Mrs. Joliff returned here after going as far as Hereford, Tex. A month after she returned to her home, a suit case was received at Willow Springs addressed to Mrs. Deavers containing clothing of Mrs. Deavers and her children and other articles.

There were discolorations on the clothing in which might have been bloodstains, the sheriff said.

Sharp Fight Near Madrid

Insurgents Reportedly Turned Back By City Defenders

MADRID, July 15 (AP)—Wave after wave of insurgent infantrymen counter-attacking to retain their footholds along the Coruna Road, northwest of Madrid, were reported today to have been hammered back by Gen. Jose Miaja's "Milicianos."

During the day, however, heavy fighting continued along the road which was vigorously defended by insurgents because of its strategic importance to the siege of the capital.

Madrid was awakened today by the bank of government anti-aircraft guns firing at six insurgent planes which flew over the city and finally disappeared behind low lying clouds.

Government planes continued a devastating, concentrated bombardment of Villafranca del Castillo which seemed to be Miaja's immediate objective in the struggle for control of the important highway.

Much of the town, lying south of the road and about 12 miles from Madrid, was in ruins.

Conflicting Claims
HENDAYK, Franco's Spanish Frontier, July 15 (AP)—Spanish insurgent headquarters asserted today that a government offensive at Albarracin on the Aragon front in Eastern Spain, had collapsed and Madrid-Valencia troops had been driven from all positions in that sector.

The announcement followed by a day similar claim that the government offensive against Generalissimo Francisco Franco's siege positions west of Madrid had been halted.

French reports from the government side said Franco was concentrating planes and men west of Madrid in preparation for a new attack to take the capital.

Four more government planes were shot down on Madrid's western front yesterday, Franco's communiqué said today.

A Salamanca communiqué said captured government pilots related that Gen. Jose Miaja's air force was demoralized.

PARIS-LONDON BREAK?
LONDON, July 15 (AP)—The British scheme to pacify conflicting international interests in the Spanish civil war and keep the conflict from spreading in Europe appeared snagged today on French opposition that threatened a break in the traditional Paris-London partnership.

Looking askance at Anthony Eden's proposal to grant "limited" belligerent rights to both government and insurgents in Spain, a source close to the foreign office in Paris said.

"The question is always the same: In what measure is Britain's policy to allow Germany and Italy to take advantage of the Spanish situation to crush France and cut off her Mediterranean communications?"

First reactions from Berlin and Rome indicated the plan would receive at least careful and friendly consideration from the two fascist powers that have recognized Spanish insurgency as the true government of Spain; but general objection of both France and Soviet Russia was feared here.

Home Demonstration Agent Announces Meet For Saturday

Important meetings for both women and girl club members have been scheduled for Saturday, Lora Farnsworth, county home demonstration agent, announced Thursday.

There is to be a conference of girl 4-H club sponsors, a discussion of work submitted by girl poultry demonstrators and, a committee meeting to make plans for the first annual women's encampment.

At the sponsors' confab, plans for the clothing contest to be held in the basement of the First Methodist church July 24 will be formulated.

Records of the poultry demonstrators will be checked to determine if one is deserving of a trip to the annual extension service short course at A. & M. In event the work meets requirements, a delegate will be named.

Following this parley, Miss Farnsworth will confer with a committee composed of Mrs. Duke Lipscomb, Mrs. R. E. Martin, and Mrs. H. C. Reid to complete plans for the club women's encampment at Christoval July 27-28. It is to be the first such function for Howard county club women.

Miss Farnsworth urged all club presidents to submit a list of their members planning to take part in the encampment in order that transportation may be provided.

Streets Safer Than Homes

Dynamite And TNT Combination On Balloon Doesn't Worry Dr. Picard

ROCHESTER, Minn., July 15 (AP)—Dr. Jean Picard said today he exploded TNT and dynamite caps aloft in his hydrogen-filled aircraft, but he said today he has no fear of the treacherous combination.

His "pendants," constructed of two clusters of 40 balloons each, will be anchored with two stout ropes secured to the goal posts of the football field here.

"I must have some way of breaking those ropes simultaneously," he said. "For that I am wrapping TNT fuses about the ropes and shall explode it electrically with dynamite caps."

When he wishes to descend, after reaching an altitude he estimates at two or three miles, he will cut the small four-foot sounding balloons loose from his open gondola.

Dr. Picard is awaiting favorable weather for the flight.

Carefully placed dynamite caps, connected by wires to the gondola, will sever the strings when they explode, Picard said.

Just before he touches the ground, the experimenter intends to release the top cluster, joined to the lower by rope, so he will not be dragged on the ground. Again he will use TNT.

"You see TNT will cut the rope cleanly," the balloonist said. "Then I shall drop to the ground, quite safe, I hope."

"There is really nothing to worry about if everything goes well. If it doesn't, I have a parachute."

Picard seeks to determine if a craft of many small balloons is practical for high altitude flights. He said he planned to build a huge craft of 2,000 balloons for a stratospheric flight, if the test proves successful.

Many Trucks Idle In Michigan Strike

DETROIT, July 15 (AP)—Union officials claimed today that nearly 8,000 trucks, all over Michigan, were idle in a strike for higher wages that started at midnight.

J. M. O'Leahin, business agent for the Detroit local of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Stablemen and Helpers, said that between 40,000 and 50,000 men were involved. The strike directly affects only intra-state shipments.

O'Leahin said that approval would be given by the union for unimpeded movement of perishable goods, such as milk, meat and other foodstuffs. A number of trucks loaded with such cargoes were moving as usual today, he said.

RUSSIA WARNS HER ENEMIES OF POWER OF HER AIR FORCE

MOSCOW, July 15 (AP)—The Communist newspaper "Pravda" warned Soviet Russia's "enemies" today that their capitals lie within easy range of Soviet war planes.

The warning, which pointed out the "significance" of two Soviet non-stop flights from Moscow to the American Pacific coast, was believed by foreign observers to be addressed to Berlin and Tokyo.

Both the Japanese and German capitals lie within 800 miles of Soviet air bases.

"Our industry can produce as many planes as the country needs," Pravda said. "Let this be kept in mind by foreign enemies threatening war."

DEAD MAN, INJURED WOMAN ARE TAKEN OFF TRAIN TENDER

STAUNTON, Va., July 15 (UP)—A dead man and an injured woman were pulled from the water tender of a Chesapeake and Ohio locomotive today when the train stopped here to take on water.

Engineer Jesse Grove, who discovered them, said apparently the two had been riding on the water tender and struck against a tunnel near Waynesboro or an overhead bridge.

The man, identified as Reginald Hawse, 25, of Covington, apparently had been brushed into the tank opening and the woman, Mrs. Mamie Montgomery, 25, had clambered through the 18-inch aperture to keep him above water. She was holding his head when Grove discovered the pair.

The new chemical, developed at Columbia university's college of pharmacy, has been named "Tabesethin," and was said by Dr. Oserman to be "100 per cent effective" in 80 per cent of the cases in which it has been tried so far, and totally ineffective in only four per cent.

AUSTIN, July 15 (AP)—Attorney

General William McCraw disclosed today that public building in Texas, notwithstanding termination of federal P. W. A. aid, is about twice as great as in the depression years before the federal government started extending a helping hand.

The attorney general reached his conclusion through a survey of bonds issued by political subdivisions during the first ten months of the current fiscal year. These bonds must be sent to the attorney general's department for approval.

He said the total of building and refinancing bonds was $50,184,361, compared with $37,000,000 in the two years immediately before P. W. A. aid began.

"This record," he commented, "can be interpreted in no other way than as a remarkable expression by the people of their faith in Texas' future. Certainly it is sharply in contrast with those days all of us so well remember when it was impossible to persuade a group of people even to talk about new public buildings, regardless of need. Today, taxpayers are willing to pledge themselves and to go ahead helped only by themselves, to build much needed schools, good roads, hospitals, and other types of public investment."

McCraw gave the following breakdown of the bond issues:

Independent school district, re funding, $5,140,318, new, $4,143,940 consolidated school district, refunding $150,680, new, $345,100; city refunding, $11,027,234, new, $7,818,500; counties, refunding, $7,743,690 new $3,484,735; road districts, re funding, $119,150, new $303,850; Reiff bluff water power control district $23,000; Brazos river conservatory district, $125,000; Colorado river district revenue bonds, $6,550,000; West Texas State Teachers college, Canyon, $30,000.

THE SPORTS PARADE

By HANK HART

Team rosters change quickly in three years and players who played here eight seasons ago are scattered into the four corners of the country.

Three years ago in football, the Robinson Grocers were leading the many football teams in the city of operation and the circuit had such members as the Lions Club, the Kiwanians, Linck Grocers, two Forsan teams, Crawford, the Big Brothers class of the First Methodist church, Post Office, Cosden Lab, Southern Ice, Cunningham and Phillips and The Herald.

These teams were divided into two loops incidentally, with Linck winning one title and the Lions Club copying honors in the other. Lions, in turn, lost to the Linck outfit who played off for the county title with Nap Ivey's Forsan crew and was defeated for that honor.

Harvey Krause served as manager of the championship team. Harvey owns a store in El Paso now. Cosden was managed by Claude E. Henninger, one time school master (believe it or not) who has retired from the game.

Linck's outfit was made up of the Krieger boys, E. P. and Jennings, J. V. Gant, Howard Swatzy, Frank Duley, Collins Huggins, Bucket Hare and Joe Black.

Cosden had some of the present lineup, including Skeets West, Pepper Martin and Mileway Baker. Others who wore a Cosden uniform were Vernon Whittington, present manager of the Fincher Roadrunners, Cy Terrazas, Rufa Morton, Pat Patton and Dutch Moxley.

Linck's disbanded the next season and most of the boys quit the game while the Oilers changed their name this year and are playing under a new manager, Main stays, of the Cosden team now are Freddy Townsend, Jake Morgan, Horace Wallin, Rat Ramsey, Pat Stacey and Mike Sherrod.

Among players who shined in 37 were Joe Galt, Ray Cantrell, Tiny Reed, George Gentry and Swede Wamscott. None are any of the present roster and only Galt is still around.

Speedy Moffett, Chet Fowler, Miller Harris and Sam Sain figured largely in the baseball headlines in '34. Only Sam of that quartet is still here. He broke an arm in a game with Coahoma and permanently retired from the game. Moffett hasn't played any since quitting the game here. Fowler is umpiring in the Texas League and Harris is wearing a Crane uniform in the Permian Basin league.

Closing the cuff: The score keeper in the Fincher-Shell game Tuesday night gave the Roadrunners only seven base hits. . . E. P. Ketter and George Choate collected three each and Ward Hall had three blows which makes the addition all wrong. . . Speedy Moffett is convalescing. . . Two years ago today the Lamesa baseball tournament opened. . . That was the one in which the Big Spring Cowboys went into the final round with Punkin Center and were rained out. . . They divided first and second place money. . . Looking the same except for the old waist line Curt Driver is reported doing a come-back in the softball league. . . Is this old home week? . . . A rumor has gotten out that the V. F. W. Jr. softball tournament will be held in Corpus Christi. . . That certainly isn't the logical place.

LEIBER REJOINS GIANTS AS TERRYMEN MOVE INTO FIRST PLACE

BEARS FAIL TO PHANTOM JIM TURNER

By BILL HONT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Out of the lead for the first time in a month—by only two points—the Chicago Cubs today were strict ly on their own as far as the battle with the Giants for top spot in the National League is concerned.

They can't expect much assistance from either of the other leading western contenders, the Pirates or the Cardinals. The Cubs who fell afoul of another Carl Hubbell extravaganza yesterday, 4-2, without the services of Arky Vaughan, the peppery shortstop who usually can be counted on to hit well at the Polo grounds.

The Cardinals, who will take on the Giants in the Terry men's stronghold Saturday for a four game series, also are having their troubles. A pitching staff, noted for its 20-year-old "Rockie" Jim Turner and Turner in turn turned loose a 5-hit hit of elbowing that froze the Bruins dead in their tracks by a score of 2-1.

Hank Leiber, hors de combat since his spring beaming by Bob Feller, will rejoin the Giants today.

The Boston Bees, winners of thirteen of their last eighteen starts, proved extremely unsociable hosts yesterday as they turned loose 20-year-old "Rockie" Jim Turner and Turner in turn turned loose a 5-hit hit of elbowing that froze the Bruins dead in their tracks by a score of 2-1.

Dodgers Lose

The only other National League contest—the Cards and Phillies were rained out—saw the Dodgers lose to the Reds in the ninth, 5-3. The Rhinelanders whirled the best bit of extra-curricular excitement in a scrap between Lee Grissom, the winning pitcher, and Babe Phelps, the Dodger catcher.

It ended with Empire George Magerkurth, who bounced both boys, as the indubitable winner. The Yanks landed on the Tigers for a 39-2 shellacking, ran their winning streak to eight, Red Ruffing's personal streak to five, Joe DiMaggio's home run total to 23, Lou Gehrig's string of hits to 190 and their lead over the Red Sox to six and a half games.

The Sox edged the Tigers out of the runner up spot by cutting losses with a murderous 21-hit assault that emboldened the Browns 11-5. In the other games the Indians trimmed the Senators, 11-3 and the Athletics, having lost four straight decisions at the ninth inning distance, managed to drop the fifteenth, by 6-4, to the White Sox in four and a half.

CHICKEN SEASON CLOSED IN TEXAS

Local sportsmen interested in the prairie chicken will be disappointed to learn that the fowl will not be hunted legally at any time during the next five years.

Governor Allied Tuesday signed a bill passed in the recent special session closing the season. The new law, governing the entire state, was ordered at the request of the State Game commission.

According to the commission the number of chickens is fast diminishing and, unless protected the birds will soon become extinct. Favorite home of the wild chicken is in the counties north and west of here. They are found most plentiful in Gaines, Andrews and Yukon counties than in any other section of the state.

Herd Snaps Streak By Bues Defeat

Beaumont, Behind Harris, Defeats Oklahoma City Again

By The Associated Press

Beaumont's Texas League youngsters probably have aged very little since the season started but they are proving day-by-day they can play baseball like tried and true veterans.

Against the predictions of some that the youthful Shippers were a flash in the pan, they have managed to win a majority of their games and stick at the heels of the leaders. As of July 15 the Beaumonters were in a tie for second place with Fort Worth and there were no cracks visible in their armor.

To prove their worth the Shippers last night, as an example, tackled the league-leading Oklahoma City team. The Indians took a 11 to 2 plastering, managing to lose pitching of Bob Harris, Beaumont scored in five innings and in the first they counted five times.

Elsewhere in the league it was a matter of the underdog having his day. The humble Dallas Steers dangerously close to setting an all-time league record for consecutive losses, fought fiercely to break a tie with Galveston and did it in the twelfth inning. The score was 9 to 6.

The Steers had lost 14 straight and are imbedded firmly in the cellar.

Houston, a notch above Dallas did set a record by winning its third straight game in whipping Fort Worth's Panthers 12 to 6. The Buffaloes hadn't managed three straight before all season.

San Antonio, another second division club, found the range against Tulsa to win 13 to 2. Two Tulsa hurlers had to duck and dodge while the Missions rammed home 12 runs in the three innings.

Ox Parry, Walls Sign Contracts

NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—The New York football Giants have added two more Southwestern Conference stars to their 1937 roster. They are Owen (Ox) Parry, 24-pound tackle from Baylor University of Waco, Texas, and Bill Walls, a 295-pound end, who played with Texas Christian University, of Fort Worth, Texas.

Both Parry and Walls played basketball and baseball in college. They join three University of Arkansas linemen in the Giants' southwestern delegation.

Int. League Is Fertile Minor Field

Many World Champions In Contests

BY FELIX R. MCKNIGHT
DALLAS, July 15 (AP)—Four days of international athletic pageantry, closely patterned after the Olympic games, starts under a canopy of stars here tonight for muscled sons of the United States and neighboring nations below the Rio Grande.

Second only in American athletic history to the Olympics held at Los Angeles in 1932, the Pan-American games begin at 8 p. m. when four join-clothed Indian runners sprint through the gates of the Cotton Bowl to herald the arrival of nearly 200 athletes.

Assistant Secretary of War Louis Johnson and Governor James V. Allred of Texas, official United States representatives, and a cluster of South and Central American dignitaries, will join in formal exercises while the "flame of friendship" is lighted and placed atop the towering triumphal arch.

Record holders and champions of North, South and Central American track and field events, including owners of ten world or American marks, will participate in ceremonies but hold off on actual competition until tomorrow night. Only a soccer game between the famed Argentine eleven and the Highlanders of Trenton, N. J., United States champions, will be played opening night.

Highest names of the United States track and field group will compete against the foreigners in 13 events. Scoring will be used and only individual winners determined.

Once again Glenn Cunningham, Kansas' premier miler and Archie San Román, his little fellow Kansan, will take up their 1,500 meter duel. Of almost equal fan interest will be the 800-meter clash between Elroy Robinson, who smashed the world's mark at New York last week, and John Woodruff, the lanky Pitt negro, and the pole vaulting spree between Earle Meadows, native Texan; George Varoff, world record holder and Cornelius Warmerdam.

Other Yankee stars entered include Ken Carpenter, Olympic discus king; Perrin Walker, Jack Welter, Ben Johnson, and Ray Mallot, sprinters; David Albritton and Cornelius Johnson, co-holders of the world's high jump mark; Mel Walker, Ohio State, high jumper; Errol Vaughan, 5,000 meters; Jim Reynolds, Stanford University, shotput; Allan Smith, new national A. A. U. hurdle champion and a great host of javelin throwers, Alton Terry of Texas, Bill Heitz of U. C. L. A., national A. A. U. champion and Oklahoma City's schoolboy wonder, Bob Peoples.

Three veteran marathoners, Pat Dennis of Baltimore; Mel Porter of New York national champion, and Johnny Semple of Beverly, Mass., will compete against Jose Ribas of Bonifacio, sprinter and Carmelo Di Gaeta, sprinter, Uruguay; Marcio Oliveira, crack broad jumper and Sylvio Padilha, 400-meter, Brazil; Julio Mesa, Peruvian high jumper.

Canada sent James Cartwright, its ace javelin thrower; J. L. Loaring, 400-meter star and Sammy Richardson, broad jumper.

ARE BRUINS GETTING READY TO GIVE 100 G'S FOR CARD?

By EDDIE BRIEZE
NEW YORK, July 15 (AP)—Are the Cubs really getting ready to cough up 100,000 potatoes for Joe Medwick next winter? . . . Mas Schmeling is yelling for mercy from Berlin, but all he gets from Mike Jacobs is the horse laugh. . . Glad to see Carl Hubbell back in stride. . . He's too swell a guy to pitch in tough luck all the time. . . That well-built elevator operator at the Piccadilly Hotel on West 45th St. Ken Kroucher, former U. S. ban-tweight champion. . . While waiting for a break here, he rides em up and down.

Mike Jacobs can't lose for winning. . . Less than a week after the government refunded Max Schmeling $25,000 in 1935-36 tax (out of which Mike got all Max owed him) the U. S. discovered Max still owes it about $25,000 for 1931-32 taxes. . . Ouch! . . . Don Lash, Indiana's distance star, wants to be a cop when he leaves school. . . Starn Harris lost no time spiking those reports he was "washed up" at Washington and would quit after this season.

Bulletin: Looks like Bill Tilden may be right on his Davis cup predictions. . . Parker and Little Grant are going like blue blazes. . . New York Herald Tribune says Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs has been picked as Bill Terry's successor as field leader of the Jim when Bill goes into the front of five next season. . . Now, how are they going to get Gabby away from the Cubs? . . . They still say Steve O'Neill has got to go at Cleveland after this season. . . And it's a shame, too. . . How about an announcement from Mr. Bradley that it ain't so?

The N.B.C. apparently thinks Joe Louis is in there for a good long time. It has just paid $100,000 for the radio rights for his next four fights. . . Dick Bartell is having a great year with the Giants, and that's all right because he's just about the hustling, snappiest ball player in Mr. Ford Frick's league. . . Incidentally, it's might nice to see the staid old American having a scrap or two in his own right. . . But you'll notice that Mr. Will C. Hazzide, who is inclined to lean a bit towards the right, fined his Athletics more than Mr. Frick does. . . For an ordinary brawl.

SNA FRANCISCO (UP)—The administration's social security legislation has provided a job for at least one man. A local tattoo artist instead of tattooing nude ladies on his clients now tattoos their social security number so they will be sure not to forget it.

Meyer In Sweat Over Buckeyes

PORT WORTH, July 15.—The Texas Christian University coaches are really in a sweat about the Ohio State game coming up in Columbus Sept. 25.

With the thermometer hovering around the 100 mark, Coach L. P. ("Dutch") Meyer and his assistant Line Coach Mike Brumback, are literally sweating over their chart every day, mapping out a plan of strategy.

The first call for grid workouts is for Tuesday, Sept. 7, and Coach Meyer figures he has only about 15 working days in which to get ready for Coach Francis Schmidt's Buckeyes.

"I worked with Schmidt here at T. C. U. for three years, and you can be sure that we have plenty of respect for the kind of opposition we know we are going to get up in Beautiful Ohio!" Coach Meyer observes.

"We're going to have the plays worked out and the preliminary work done by the end of the summer. When the boys show up, we'll be ready to go to work in a big way and make the best possible use of the short time available for practice."

He's Optimistic

About the general prospects for the Horned Frogs, Coach Meyer is fairly optimistic.

"We'll have a line that will be up to the standard set by Frogs eleven of the past, and we'll have a most versatile backfield that we've had for several seasons," he says.

"Our backfield will have more speed and more power than has any other backfield in the country. I believe we'll be in better shape for reserves at all 11 positions. We have men three deep at every post, and four deep at some."

The end positions are the unknown factor. Not a letterman is available for the wings. It appears from spring practice that Russell Henrich and Durwood Horner will battle it out for the starting berth at right end, while Slim Mabry and Bob Jordan are fighting for the left end spot.

As to the details of the plan, Coach Meyer is noncommittal.

"You can say that we expect to use runs, passes and punts," he explained.

TO TOURNEY

Manager Pepper Martin announced Thursday morning that he had entered the Cosden Oilers in the Lubbock Invitational tournament. The team will leave here during the middle of next week to play their first game. The tourney opens July 18.

Max Beard, Coahoma pitcher, will accompany a squad of 14 local players that will include Martin, Brandon, Doren, Ramsey, J. Morgan, C. Morgan, Cook, Wallin, Hutto, Sherrod and West.

Yankees To Benefit

Heading the list of Newark graduates will be Jim Gordon, flashy second baseman who is slated to take the place of the aging Tony Lezzeri of the Yankees. Atley Donald, who won his first 15 games as a Class AA pitcher, Babe Dalgren, whose hitting has improved to such an extent that he may be able to break into the Yankee lineup next season, and Buddy Roemer, a young hard hitting center.

There are many baseball observers who believe that the Newark club would be capable of giving the second division clubs in the American League a good struggle. Ken Wicker, Joe Boggs, Vito Tamulius, pitchers, Bill Herschberger, catcher, Gleason Keller and Seeds, outfielders, and McQuinn, first baseman, also appear to be ready for major league berths.

Cards Prize Hoop

One of the most promising recruits in the circuit is Johnny Hoop, Rochester outfielder. The Cardinals are reported to have turned down a bid of $50,000 for the fleet, hard hitting outfielder. Other promising major league timber on the Red Wing club are Lou Scobie, outfielder, Al Carnevale and Juelich, infielders; Krist and Klonek, pitchers.

The Buffalo Braves, defending champions, are sure that their young outfielder, Mike McCormick, will be able to make the grade next season. He is one of the fastest men in the league and is developing into a powerful hitter.

Other players who are expected to get major league tryouts include Vandenburg and Lohmann, Baltimore pitchers; Wilburn and Powers, Baltimore infielders; Johnny Vander Meer, Syracuse pitcher; Joost and McCormick, Syracuse infielders; Berly and Davis, Toronto pitchers; Ross and Walsh, Toronto infielders; Potosky, Toronto outfielder; and Ben Cartwell, Jersey City pitcher.

When Stanley Healey, head of an Australian farm school, called from England he took 300 letters from his pupils. He planned to read one a day.

GOODBYE, MISTER.

Way up on top of the world the Soviet government has established an observation station near the North Pole. Here are those who remained behind bidding an affectionate if cold farewell to other members of the expedition who returned in planes to Moscow.

FOR SCIENCE AND SOVIET.

Magnetologist Eugene Fyodoroff of the U. S. S. R. polar expedition is shown "in the shadow" of the North Pole as he took recordings of one of the meteorological instruments at the camp. The scientists expected to add greatly to mankind's knowledge of weather.

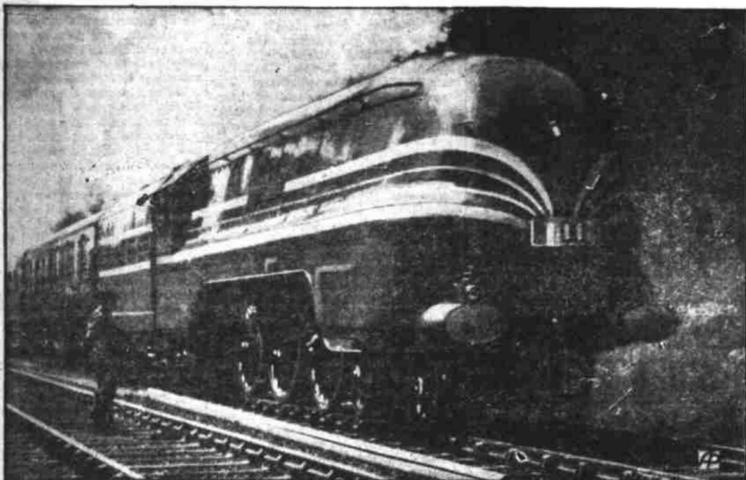

HIS IDEA.

The bearded, scholarly Prof. Otto J. Schmidt, head of the Soviet weather base at the North Pole, is shown shortly after the arrival.

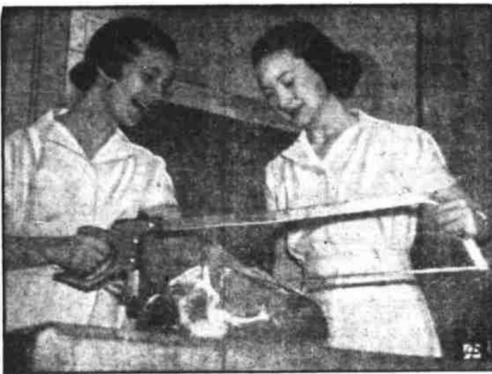

BUT IT'S A HOME.

Well-provisioned and with best communications equipment, the Soviet polar camp was established on drifting ice. Tents were pitched; ice blocks were packed about them. Here is a home-building scene a few miles from the North Pole. In spite of extreme cold and the inconveniences of heavy clothing, the men reported they were quite comfortable.

THE STREAMLINED SCOT. This blue-and-silver, high-speed express was specially designed and constructed for 6½-hour service between London and Glasgow. It takes the name of "The Coronation Scot," and will maintain the fastest schedule between the two cities.

CUTE CUT-UPS. Butchers? Oh my, no! They're butcherettes, and quite daintily and expertly they can take a cow apart. Mildred, left, 21, and Ruth Short, 19, are shown in their shop at Commerce, Ga., where they are successfully carving a career.

FINDS 'K'. Dr. Robert Bern, Viennese physician, who has just published his sensational discovery of the new vitamin "K."

GOING TO CHURCH. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd George are shown as they arrived at Welsh Baptist chapel in London where England's war-time premier was to conduct and preach at the anniversary flower service.

AHEAD OF HERSELF.

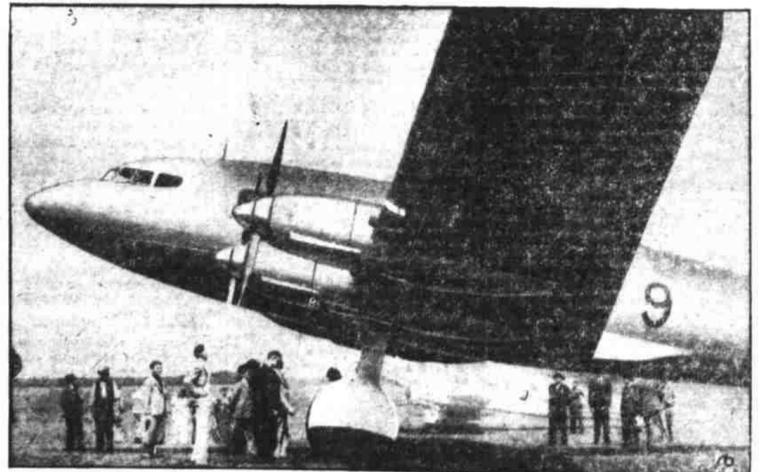

Betty Ann Laxton, 32 months old, Muskogee, Okla., has the vocabulary of an 8-year-old and is rated "above genius."

STORK'S TIP. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pesta, Sr., were waiting for that stork with financial ammunition. Before Earl, Jr., arrived at their Cleveland home, they had saved 5,000 pennies. Pennies, mother and the somewhat tired-of-it-all Earl, Jr., are shown.

MISS WEST. Shirley Joy Ellis, 19, from Seattle, was the comely emissary of the Golden Gate exposition to Paris.

ALBATROSS. This is one of 42 new types of aircraft exhibited by British plane makers at Hatfield aerodrome, Herefordshire. It is the new De Havilland Albatross, a trans-Atlantic machine which has four 550-horsepower Gipsy engines. The show provided a great increase in interest in both military and civilian aircraft.

HORSEPLAY. Here is Bob Burns, movie and radio comedian, and his wife, the former Harriet Foster, who is also his secretary, as they watched the horses on the new racetrack at Del Mar, Cal. The track is Bing Crosby's newest venture.

THE SWAT QUINS. These are the slugging quintuplets of the Chicago Cubs whose home runs and base hits are keeping their club right on top of the National League standings. Left to right Gabby Hartnett, batting nearly 400; Jim Collins and Frank Demaree, home run experts, Bill Huggins and Bill Jurges. Excepting Jurges, all were hitting well over 300.

DASHING DOT. Dorothy Round of Great Britain is shown in action at Wimbledon where she captured the women's tennis title.

BLOCK ON 8TH NEW SECTOR FOR CITY PAVING OPERATION

Another block, on Eighth between Scurry and Gregg streets has been accepted as the second project under the city's 1937 paving program.

Virtually all the curbs on the two block segment between Gregg and Main streets on Sixth it may be topped within two or three weeks.

Meanwhile, several other projects are hanging fire because of a handful of needed property owner signatures.

Gould street is almost completed for paving arrangements to Eighth street, with only a few of those along the street holding back.

town section with the southeastern part of town.

Likewise, Nolan street, lacks only a few signatures to insure paving for two blocks north from 11th street.

Bell street is another of the most likely projects and may be realized sooner than others, judging from the way unsigned gaps are being filled in.

The policy of the city commission avowedly is to accept the blocks which are signed 100 per cent first, provided they join existing pavement.

Getting ready for its paving program, the city Wednesday entered into a contract with Morgan Construction company and Brown and Son, highway No. 1 contractors.

Under terms of the agreement the city is to pay for having its rock crushed, but receive, in turn royalties on the rock used for highway operations.

At any rate the city will have on hand a reserve sufficient to pave for 40 blocks of paving and will have acquired it at a very reasonable price.

Britain Is Surgeon For Ailing Palestine

HOW BRITAIN WOULD CARVE UP PALESTINE (Inset Shows Palestine's Relation To Its Neighbors)

By The AP Feature Service After-effects of the World war continuing to agitate Europe, are now having repercussions in the Holy Land, where a British commission has proposed the partition of Palestine to end Jewish-Arab outbreaks and bring fulfillment to British promises dating from the European conflict.

In 1915, in order to unite the Arabs and lead them to throw off the Turkish yoke — Turkey then being an ally of Germany — Great Britain promised independence to the Arab provinces of the Turkish empire.

In 1917, seeking the support of world Jewry in the darkest days of the war, the British government, through the Balfour Declaration, promised a national homeland for the Jews in Palestine.

Hard To Keep Promises Fulfillment of both promises has proved troublesome.

The rising tide of nationalism among the Arab and Jewish populations of Palestine, and particularly the influx of Jews escaping from persecution in Central Europe, made peaceful solution well-nigh impossible.

The British government appointed a royal commission to investigate and make recommendations. The commission has recommended partition of the Holy Land into sovereign Jewish and Arabian states, with a new British man-

Writing Letters To Editor Life Job; Idahoan Authors 78,000 Missives

COEUR D'ALENE, Ida., July 15 (AP) — Charles Hooper of this city is believed to hold the world's record for "letters to the editor," and also for getting them printed.

To date he has written no less than 78,000 such missives. These have been sent not only to newspaper editors in the United States, but also to France, Germany, Italy and Spain, all written in the language of each of those countries, as well as thousands of letters in English to the English language papers of China, Japan and the Far East generally.

Hooper's penchant for writing letters to the editor is not merely an offspring of the English tradition which causes many an Englishman when he sees, hears or thinks something to write to the London Times, but is prompted by a sincere desire to help a bit in the way of reforming a model for some nations. He is to adopt this method of trying to get his ideas before the public.

Hooper is a native of New York and was trained for the ministry, but later became convinced that with his typewriter and the "letters to the editor" columns of most of the newspapers of the world open to him, he could reach a larger public and do more good.

"Whenever I see a wrong I want to right it," said Hooper, "and I have found that the columns of newspapers are a mighty factor in such work."

"Most of my letters have been on subjects of religion and morality, trying to correct errors and abuses in both fields. But I have also written extensively on literature, art, education, game preservation and medicine."

"In fact, I was once offered the privilege of joining the Society of Medical Authors. They believed I was a physician, though I have never studied medicine. I also prefer not to turn what writing ability I have to profit as I feel free and believe that I accomplish more results simply by letters to the editor."

Hooper said that a few of the letters he has campaigned for were the re-election of Woodrow Wilson and against prohibition at a time when such a stand was not popular.

Louisiana Begins New Program For State Medicine

BATON ROUGE, La., July 15 (AP) — Louisiana launched a pioneer program of state medicine today — free hospitalization for its poor at the expense of the taxpayer with a cool million dollars to see the thing through.

Long a subject of violent controversy throughout the nation, state medicine is about to become a reality in Louisiana.

A. R. Johnson, acting director of the hospitalization program, set in motion today with the announcement that hospitals will be established in five Louisiana towns.

Only persons certified by the department of public welfare, the state relief agency, will be eligible for treatment at these hospitals. Emergency cases of any type will be accepted, however, Johnson added.

I was very irregular, too, and had to resort to strong medicines. All this suffering made me nervous and irritable. I heard about Van-Tage and decided to try it. I have taken two bottles and I feel like a different person. The gas pains have been wonderfully relieved and I do not have heartburn like I did, and I am very regular for the first time in years. GOVERNMENT LEADER, AMERICAN TYPE

The death of Senator Joe T. Robinson is, in one respect, reminiscent of the unexpected passing of William Jennings Bryan. The Great Commoner was summoned even as he was devoting all his energies to what he held to be an impelling cause. Joe Robinson answered the final call as he was engaged in a strenuous campaign for a policy to which he had pledged his every effort.

One may have differed with these men on their viewpoints, but one must pay tribute to their courage, their energy, their devotion to principle—all attributes of American leadership.

Joe Robinson must be regarded by the nation as he was by the colleagues who knew him best: as a faithful public servant and able legislator. Words of praise uttered for him in the national capital yesterday are not to be regarded as hollow phrases; because it is a fact that Joe Robinson was held in high esteem and in deep regard by all his fellow congressmen, whether they were political friends or foes.

There are those political writers who in recent months have discussed the possible or pending "break" between Franklin D. Roosevelt and some leaders of the old-time democratic organization. They have implied that Joe Robinson was one of those who shuddered secretly at the devious directions of the new deal path; that he might be one to lead in casting off the reins which Mr. Roosevelt has grasped so tightly.

If there were truth in those speculations, it was not established by any utterance or any action of Joe Robinson himself. For one of his chief characteristics throughout his congressional career was his utter loyalty to his party and its program. Franklin D. Roosevelt is the leader of the party and as the leader has had the full support of the Arkansas senator. Perhaps Robinson's choice of course could be questioned in some instances, but never his motives of choice or his integrity in following.

Our party system of government being what it is, its proper functioning rests to large degree upon these men of courage and honesty and devotion to principle who stand outright for political aims they hold to be properly directed. Joe Robinson was one of these, a rugged governmental leader, true American type. His kind has left a deep and favorable stamp on the course of United States affairs.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Personal notes off a New Yorker's cuff: Edmund Lowe, who is in New York at the moment, likes to tell about the time he and another actor had emerged from a long fast (he had just got a job) and were looking out for a room. Finally one real estate dealer led him enthusiastically to a dungeon-like cellar below the basement to which no sunlight ever crept. The walls were mouldy and the atmosphere was damply pessimistic. "How do you like it?" asked the dealer. "Great, what?" "Yes," murmured Lowe's companion, "for growing mushrooms."

Once each year Jules Charbneau brings to New York his vast collection of "the worlds tiniest objects." And the man is mobbed before his exhibit is fairly opened. What does this odd outlay disclose? An airplane, for one thing, tiny that a grain of rice is used for a landing field. Then there is a cash-register, two inches high, that actually opens like a cash-register. A carved camel that passes through the eye of a needle. A rare, jade Buddha enclosed in the husk of a rice grain. Temple bells more than 200 years old no larger than drops of water. The Lord's prayer engraved on a grain of rice. The working model of a microscope so small that it is played with an ivory toothpick.

These are but a few of the 25,000 objects which, from a usual hobby, has become one of the world's most amazing exhibits. And they are rapidly making Charbneau wealthy.

Bert Acosta, the aviator, has been lured into headlining Spanish revue at El Toreador. The flier is back with a load of reminiscences of his activities in Spain. Incidentally, if you get by El Toreador, make it late and get a game at the murals. They'll haunt you.

Most of the firewood used by New Yorkers who are fortunate enough to own fireplaces is furnished by a woman. She is Miss Clark, and she is half owner of Clark & Williams, caterers to fireplace devotees. Her stock includes apple (which is rare and very expensive), oak, gum, cherry, yew, balsam, maple, hickory (which crackles something terrible), fir, cypress, pine (both yellow and white), ash (which is excellent for curing hams) and walnut.

Horace Heidt has solved the problem of exercising his fat Dane in the city. He has leased the roof of a block apartment, and his over-sized pal has an acre to romp and in, something like 31 stories above the sidewalk.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

WASHINGTON—Senators Henry Ashurst and Tom Connally may yet save the nation.

Into all the heavy duty argument over the Supreme Court bill, they inject the lightsome, personal touch. They add oboe and piccolo notes to the trouble-laden bass of such senators as Burke of Nebraska and Walsh of Massachusetts. And the nation should be grateful. They are as unlike in their methods as teeth and toe-nails. Ashurst, the erudite, sometimes dresses his ideas with phrases of such facility as to hide the fact he is one of the most learned in history and legislation in the senate. And he is forever the suave showman, the William Powell of lawmakers.

Connally, lacking the deft touch of Ashurst, makes up for it in the acid bite of his remarks. His sardonic style has more than once carried him out of bounds so that he has felt better to revise his remarks before they appear in the imperishable columns of the Congressional Record.

Ashurst In Action

But don't get an idea the two are wholly frivolous. They just do their work that way. They are members of important committees. Ashurst is chairman and Connally a member of the senate judiciary committee which handled the court bill.

Ashurst early this session spoke out for a constitutional amendment to revise the court and almost overnight switched over to become the champion of the President's bill to revise the court by law. "Consistency," he jibed, "is a weakness of little minds." During the current debate on the court bill he had an opportunity to explain how hard it may be for senators to be consistent, or to explain their votes.

He was asked by Senator Burke whether he was moved by a desire to make the Supreme Court change its mind when he voted 22 years ago for a bill to permit the President to add an occasional justice.

"The senator from Nebraska asked me if I supported the bill then pending for the reason indicated. Call the roll of senators and let them open the door of the sanctuary which is within the breast (he tapped his shirt with his fist) of every human being, that monitor that tells them when they are right or wrong, and on their honor they are sometimes unable to say just what particular factors determined them to vote this way or that."

Connally's Method

Connally handled the matter another way. He now opposes the court bill, but was accused by Senator Hatch of New Mexico of having supported the 22-year-old bill, and was asked why the change of heart.

"If the senator from Texas (meaning himself) does not learn anything in 20 years of service in the congress, it would prove that he had been wholly incapable of learning anything in his service among distinguished representatives in the house and distinguished senators in this chamber."

He demonstrated, however, that inconsistency was no factor in his case. It was another Connally who had voted for the 22-year-old bill, and Hatch apologized.

Hollywood

Sights and Sounds
By Robin Coons

HOLLYWOOD—Easiest rut for an actor to fall into is that of perennial officer of the law. Once a policeman always a cop—unless the actor's lucky.

They tell it on Robert Emmett O'Connor, so often seen as the detective, that his big chance to break with the role was nixed by an executive who saw the tests. O'Connor was trying to play a pretty girl.

"Every time he talked to the condemned man in the cell," the executive said, "I expected him to whip out the handcuffs from under his cassock." O'Connor's doubling has played other characters, but he's typed in his mind, too. Offhand I can't think of a single film in which he hasn't had the bracelets ready. That's how movie-typing works on casting directors.

E. E. Cive, who has contributed bright moments to some 30 films, almost fell into the cop's mold. His first picture, "The Invisible Man," had him in policeman's uniform for the first time in his long stage career, but he was a cop five films after that. The old judge in "A Tale of Two Cities" started him on a variety of cinematic costumes. Now they "see" him in practically any character role, which is how a real actor should be seen.

Appears Before Title
The policeman's role in "Dead End" is played by James Burke, but Burke is counting on it to stop up his career rather than settle it.

"I'm in the picture even before it starts," he grins. (You'll see him strutting down the dead end street before the title flashes on the screen.)

Right up with the law as a typing agency ranks the butler role. First screen butler I remember was Sidney Butler (in that early serial "The Million Dollar Mystery") and he's butted in countless films since, right up to the

Navy Extends Pacific Aerial Defense Lines

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 15. (UP)—The navy is lengthening and strengthening its "first line of defense" in the Pacific.

Before the end of 1938 huge patrol bombing planes, most powerful air fighters of their type in the world, will be dropping about almost daily over some part of an area embracing some 5,000,000 square miles. The planes will be stationed so as to be instantly available should trouble rise in the Pacific.

It is the plan of the navy to have 140 of these most modern fighting craft on duty in the great semi-circle extending from the Aleutian Islands, through Guam, Wake and Midway to the Hawaiian group and then bending eastward to Panama before another 12 months passes.

Planes designed for this duty are the PBV-2's, with a cruising range of nearly 4,000 miles, a top speed in excess of 150 miles an hour, with a full load. The full load consists of at least 10,000 pounds of gasoline, a crew of six or seven men, machine guns, munitions, and more than a ton of bombs.

More Massed Flights Planned
In order to have these fighters at strategic points, the Navy, during the next few months, will sponsor at least nine long distance, mass flights: similar to the three carried out already this year as "routine transfers."

Hardly had the planes of the VP-3-F squadron landed at Coco Solo, C. Z., after a 3,085-nautical-mile flight from San Diego than it became known at least two more Panama flights are to be undertaken in the near future, with the crews already here for intensive actual construction and operating training. The new PBV-2's are to be ferried to the Canal Zone in such instances to replace older, less formidable patrol bombers.

Three more flights across the 2,500 nautical miles from San Diego to Pearl Harbor are being planned, with two already successfully completed since Jan. 1. Seattle, near the Canadian border, and the operating base for the Bering Sea and far north waters, also is to receive two squadrons of the powerful new fighting craft.

Two Squadrons at Norfolk
On the East coast, at Norfolk, Va., the navy will station two more squadrons of the planes—which are virtual dreadnaughts of the air. They will be for the protection of the Atlantic seaboard.

In all, the navy is building 16 squadrons of the patrol bombers, and 14 will be stationed in the semi-circular "first line of defense area." Of those 14 squadrons, of 12 planes each, to be stationed in the Pacific area, five will be in Hawaii, three in Panama, two in Seattle, and four in San Diego.

The navy is closely guarding the details of the huge bombers, and likewise is maintaining strict secrecy as to the time of the pending "delivery flights."

FLAME TRAIL

By Marie De Nervaud

Chapter 19
TUNING THE TABLES
It was a good half hour after Kay and Ted had left him on the mesa before Scrap Johnson came back to consciousness. He stirred painfully, tried to sit up, then fell back as he felt himself constrained by the ropes that bound him. Swearing to himself, he strained against his bonds, and gave a snarl of satisfaction as he felt them give slightly. Alternately resting and working to loosen the knots in the rope, he finally cleared himself and staggered to his feet.

His jaws ached and his face was ugly with rage as he slowly started back to the Flying Six on foot. He had not gone far when he saw a cloud of dust in the distance, and emerging from it the figure of a horseman coming toward him at a full gallop.

As he recognized Josh Hastings, Scrap Johnson's jaw set and his hand made an instinctive grab for his gun. A savage oath burst out as he encountered the empty holster.

He had no illusions as to the reception he would get from his boss. Failure was the one thing for which Josh Hastings had no patience or sympathy, and his fire was temping when he was thwarted was something to reckon with.

"What's the meaning of this?" Josh Hastings pulled his plunging mount to a sliding halt as he came abreast of the plodding pumper. "Where's your cayuse? And where's that option I sent you to get?"

Scrap Johnson flared into Scrap Johnson's eyes, and in his reckless mood it was well for Josh Hastings that his holster was empty.

"You were too damn slow, Scrap Johnson," Scrap Johnson growled. "They best you to it."

A dark flush came over Josh Hastings' florid face. He swore.

"You mean you let Kay Crandon get there ahead of you?"

"Sure I didn't," Scrap answered sullenly. "I stopped her all right. But when I got to Old Man Warren, I found one of her punchers a guy named Gaynor, had got there ahead of me, and bought up the ridge you wanted and an option on the rest."

Hastings exploded into a string of oaths. "The foxy little fellow" he raged, then broke off short and looked keenly at Scrap. "What do you mean about stopping her? Where is she?"

A reckless disregard of consequences suddenly possessed Scrap. He was slated to be fired anyway, he might as well get all the revenge he could.

"Wouldn't you like to know?" he jeered. "I've beaten you to it with those red lips, anyway! And believe me they ain't waiting around for you! That same Gaynor guy came up and caught me off guard! damn him, but I'll get even yet! He gave a wild incoherent laugh at Hastings' expression. "Some rival you've got there!" he ended, "and is she sweet on him? Oh, boy!"

"Shut up, you drunken fool!" Josh Hastings reached over and grabbed his shoulder. "Give me this whole thing straight!"

"You've got the whole thing straight enough," Scrap wrenched himself away. "I'm resigning from your outfit anyway, here and now. 'Resigning like hell!' Josh Hastings roared. "You're fired, and the quicker you vamoose from this range, the better!"

"This don't seem to be my popular day!" Scrap Johnson swore jeeringly. "Your sweet heart's boy, I had threatened to kill me the next time he saw me. Maybe you can figure why?" he taunted.

A look of cunning flashed into his face at an idea that suddenly struck him, and he reeled over close to Josh Hastings' mount where his eye had caught sight of a gun in the saddle pocket.

Before Josh Hastings could recover from his renewed conviction that he was dealing with a drunk man, Scrap had grabbed the gun and covered him with a lightning draw.

"Hit 'em!" There was nothing drunk about Scrap's tone now, and Josh Hastings dropped his reins and reluctantly obeyed. Scrap made him see red.

"Seein' as how I'm through with this range anyway, I'll make my exit in style," Scrap sneered. "Suppose you unfasten that belt of yours and toss it over here?"

"You'll pay for this good and plenty," Josh Hastings raged as he obeyed.

"I'm not sticking around to make any payments," Scrap stomped to pick up the belt with his holstered and gun attached, with his left hand. He never took his eye from Josh Hastings or shifted his aim.

That Hike Back
Hooking the belt over his arm Scrap reached over and grabbed the bridle of his victim's mount.

"Get down," he ordered, his gun unerringly trained on his furthest boss. "Now, vamoose yourself," he ended ferociously, when this last command had been obeyed. "You can have that hike back instead of me!"

As Josh Hastings hesitated Scrap shifted his aim the fraction of an inch, and his shot thumped the brim of his victim's 10-gallon hat, and sent it spinning to the ground.

Without waiting for a further reminder, Josh Hastings turned and headed for the Flying Six spluttering with inarticulate rage.

After watching him for a second Scrap Johnson swung into the saddle and headed at a gallop for the distant blue ridges of the Bitter Root mountains.

By the time Josh Hastings reached home, his rage was no longer inarticulate, but it was none the less intense.

In the two hours during which he had indulged in the unaccustomed exercise of trudging painfully across the hard sun-baked surface of the range, he had had plenty of time to face the bitter truth that he had not only been made a fool of by his former cove-hand, but by Kay Crandon as well. Just when he had seemingly had everything in his own hand, the tables had been turned, and he was now apparently farther than ever from accomplishing his ends.

Lawson Little Returns To Form With Open Win

SHAWNEE-ON-DELAWARE, Pa., July 15. (UP)—Returning to the form which won him the American and British golf championships, Lawson Little, of San Francisco, took the $700 prize with a card of 284 in the 72-hole Shawnee open championship.

The appearance of Ted Gaynor on the scene particularly enraged him, and the taunting him that Scrap Johnson had thrown out about his being Kay's "boy friend," made him see red.

The thought of any rival was intolerable, but the idea that the man whom he believed he had p down once and for all in the past should come back to challenge him was an added outrage.

Cobb Calls Diz One Of Greatest

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15 (AP)—Dizzy Dean could become the greatest pitcher in the history of baseball by combining his natural ability with some of the strategy of the late Christy Mathewson, in the opinion of Ty Cobb.

"If Old Diz worked more on the batters' weaknesses, like Mathewson did, instead of trying to throw the ball by them, he'd probably be the greatest we've ever had," said the player whose batting and base running feats earn the record books and have earned him the distinction of baseball's No. 1 immortal.

"Matty was finishing up about the time I started and we played in different league but I saw enough of him to know he was a master workman. But I think Dean has the stuff to top any of them if he would concentrate more on the tricky side of pitching than the down now."

The old time Georgia Peach, so remarkable on the offensive he had rival teams playing Ty Cobb instead of the Detroit Tigers, rates Dean as the most valuable mound-man in the game today. He'd prefer the St. Louis Cardinals star on his staff to either Carl Hubbell of the Glants or "Lefty" Gomez of the Yankees.

PARIS (UP)—Slacks, most unkind to all but slim women, are definitely "out" this year. Paris has decreed. Instead, their place has been taken by beach pajamas and wrap-around skirts. Trouser suits with fitted jackets are considered equally smart.
