Pros, cons of youth drug unit debate

By JEFF WEST
Staff Writer

Gray County's proposed 30-bed juvenile drug rehabilitation center has become even more of a topic of conversation now that the issue will appear on the November 3 ballot.

But while voters can make their positions known, the referendum is a non-binding one meaning county commissioners do not have to abide by the outcome of the vote.

As with most issues, this one has its supporters and detractors. This article, the first of two, looks at some of the arguments both pro and con.

The proposed location of the center is the county-owned facility at Pennsylvania and Hobart that has been used as for nurses' housing since 1960 when the county owned the hospital where NBC Bank is now located.

As it now stands, there are 18 bedrooms, divided between two wings, a laundry room, dining room and a kitchen. There's also an enclosed patio in the center of the building.

Chief Juvenile Probation Officer Albert Nichols suggests converting the patio to offices for the Juvenile Probation Department. That would allow the department more space and free up some space in the county courthouse, according to Nichols. At least one of the bedrooms and bathrooms will have to be made handicap accessible to satisfy state and federal standards. Two bedrooms share one bathroom and plans call for each bedroom to house two juveniles.

A mobile classroom would be moved in so the boys could attend school without leaving the grounds. The exact location for the mobile building has not been decided. It could be on the south side between the facility and Bill Allison Auto Sales or it could be placed behind the building where it could not be seen from Hobart. The facility would be a lock-down unit and the doors would lock and unlock electronically.

The facility would be used for juveniles who have been adjudicated, or sentenced there by a court. Nichols believes the facility would pay for itself by treating juveniles from other counties. The state reimburses each county for two juveniles to go through a six-month rehabilitation program.

Currently Gray County has two juvenile offenders in programs elsewhere in the state. The state pays between $83 and $118 a day depending on the level of treatment. There would be five beds for each six-month program set aside for Gray County youths, two of which would be paid for by the state, the other three would be "scholarship" beds according to Nichols. The other 25 beds would be used for juvenile offenders from other counties. Nichols estimates that the revenue from the state for those juveniles would pay for the cost of the facility.

A chain-link fence was originally planned to go around the sides and rear of the grounds. Some people have expressed concern that a fence would have a detrimental effect on the attractiveness of the area. Others are afraid there might be barbed wire along the top like the Jordan Unit. Original drawings for the facility showed landscaping in front of the fence and County Judge Richard Peet said if the fence is the main objection the facility might could do without it.

Car crash fatal to sixth-grader

Services for Ashlyn Nicole Marcum Brandt will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at Calvary Baptist Church. (See obituary on Page 2).

The 11-year-old Pampa girl died Saturday afternoon at Northwest Texas Hospital following a two-vehicle crash Friday near Fritch.

Authorities said Miss Brandt died about 12:30 p.m. Saturday of injuries suffered in the crash late Friday afternoon involving the 1994 Buick sedan in which she was riding in the left, rear seat and a 1993 GMC sport utility vehicle.

The occupants of the GMC truck, Roland Pinza, 64, and Eileen Pinza, 65, both of Los Angeles, Calif., and Kathleen O'Laughlin, 56, of Alta Dena, Calif., were taken to Golden Plains Community Hospital in Borger where they were treated for minor injuries before being released Friday, authorities said.

Department of Public Safety troopers said the two vehicles collided shortly before 5:30 p.m. Friday on Texas Highway 136 about three miles south of Fritch. Seat belt information was not available.

The GMC sport utility vehicle was north bound on Texas Highway 136, officers said, when it collided with the four-door Buick driven by the girl's father, Travis Marcum of Borger. Troopers said the Buick appeared to have been struck in the left rear quarter panel.

Miss Brandt was a sixth grade student at Pampa Middle School where she was active in basketball and track. She received the Presidential Fitness Award and was in the A honor roll. She was a cheerleader at Skellytown.

Man still held in Mexican jail

He's brother of local woman

The brother of a Pampa woman continues to remain in a Mexican jail after being arrested last summer for carrying a .22-caliber rifle and box of shells across the border.

Rusty Salmon, 38, of Andrews, was on a camping trip Aug. 1, with a friend, Joe Coronado, also from Andrews, when the pair drove across the border to get a beer, Salmon told his sister, Sue Davis, of Pampa. Mexican federal officers stopped them at a border check near Ojinaga, Mexico. Mexican agents found the rifle during a search and arrested the Texans.

Salmon said he had used the rifle a week earlier while rabbit hunting.

Coronado, who was driving Salmon's pickup at the time they were stopped, was released two days after they were arrested.

"I'd never been to Mexico before," Coronado said, now back in Andrews. "People always said, 'You should go, it's something else.' It was something else all right, something I won't ever do again."

Salmon remains imprisoned in Chihuahua, Mexico, despite his family's efforts to free him. A man in Chihuahua, claiming to be a lawyer took $3,500 from the family and disappeared, according to Davis. They later hired a lawyer from Mexico City who said it may take a while to free him.

Davis said today that the family has been told that for $10,000 Salmon could be released by Oct. 19, but there is a question as to the validity of the offer considering the earlier payment of $3,500.

Salmon is one of at least 125 Americans who have been arrested at the border on charges of trafficking or transporting weapons. Mexican law generally prohibits the personal ownership of guns.

Gray County farmers are expected to start cutting grain sorghum this week. According to Matt Streever with the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Pampa, area farmers are finishing their corn harvest after a long, hot dry summer. Rain, forecast for later this week, however, could put the damper on harvesting the grain sorghum.

Some get area showers

Skies were mostly clear today after rolling thunderstorms brought showers to Pampa Sunday afternoon.

A fiery red sun set what few clouds there were abate this morning on the southeastern horizon.

At dawn today, Pampa, Amarillo and Dalhart reported clear skies. Only Childress reported cloudy skies today.

Water was still standing, however, in parts of the eastern Texas Panhandle after Sunday afternoon thunderstorms moved through the area. Pampa recorded only 0.04 of an inch of moisture

Sunday while a heavy storm drenched parts of southern Gray County and moved through Carson County late Sunday afternoon. Motorists along U.S. 60 reported heavy rain that cut visibility at Panhandle to less than a 100 yards about 5 p.m. Sunday.

Paulette Paul said today that it rained only enough to wet the streets in White Deer although the bar ditches south of town were full. Clarendon reported only a shower Sunday.

Siren test tomorrow

Pampa residents could hear emergency sirens tomorrow.

There's no bad weather or emergency but the sirens are scheduled to sound at 9:10 a.m. Tuesday as part of an "All School Test" of the new siren system.

Emergency coordinator Ken Hall said the city commission asked him to conduct a test to see if the sirens can be heard in the schools. The sirens are normally tested on Saturday, at noon, when there is no school. Hall got together with Pampa school Superintendent Dawson Orr who approved the test. Every Pampa school will conduct a tornado drill as soon as they hear the sirens.

Hall said since the sirens will be tested during the week he hopes not only the schools but businesses that are normally closed during would be necessary because the boys will need to use the area behind the building as a recreation area. There is about three-fourths of an acre in the back.

Peet said there are no plans for barbed wire and said metal slats would be weaved in the chain links to block the view in and out of the facility. Peet said the slats come in a variety of colors so even school colors could be used if desired.

The location and the surrounding businesses are the main points of contention about the facility. The building is surrounded by Bill Allison Auto Sales on the south, NBC Bank Plaza on the north and is across the street from Coronado Center.

At a meeting of the Pampa Economic Development Corporation May 19, real estate agent Jim Ward expressed his disapproval with the location. "I'm not opposed to the facility itself but I'm very much opposed to the location," he said.

Others, including some members of the PEDC board, expressed concern about the location at that meeting and elsewhere. Peet says the location is necessary because juvenile probation officers will work out of the facility. Juveniles on probation need a central facility to report to as many have to come on bicycles or foot. Something, he says the youngsters could not do if the facility is outside of town. Currently they report at the county courthouse.

Cody Allison of Bill Allison Auto Sales stated at a county-held public forum on the proposed facility said, "We don't see that it would hurt our business in any way. We support the facility going in there."

According to Jerry Foote, president of NBC Bank, the Board of Directors of NBC Bank has voiced its opposition to the location.

Peet also said the county needs to use an existing facility because the cost of building one new would be much higher than converting the existing building.

"It would be wonderful if we could build a multi-million dollar facility but we are limited in our resources," Peet said.

(More on the arguments for and against in tomorrow's paper).

the Saturday test will also take advantage to discuss tornado plans.

"I thought it would be a good opportunity for businesses to take a few minutes to discuss safe

Father and son attacked after driving down 'wrong street'

LANCASTER, Calif. (AP) — Two men who drove down "the wrong street" were chased, beaten with baseball bats and cut with a razor, authorities said.

Jose Valencia, 49, and his son, Jessie, got into an argument with a group of partygoers while driving past a residence at about midnight Saturday. The Valentias tried to flee but three carloads of people chased and caught them in a few blocks, police said.

"It looks like they drove down the wrong street," said Sgt. Bruce Jackson. "The three carloads chased them until they basically got out (of their cars) and fought."

Several in the crowd hit the car's windshield with baseball bats and punched the men through the open windows, Jackson said.

Both were hospitalized in fair condition today. The son's skull was fractured and his left eye was swollen shut, while his father's chest was cut with a razor.

It wasn't known how the men escaped. Their attackers left before deputies arrived, Jackson said. There were no arrests.

Better Bake Show winners named

PERRYTON — Christen Ferguson of Hansford County claimed first place at the District I 4-H Better Bake Show conducted during the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo. The show is co-sponsored annually by Tri-State Fair, Texas Wheat Producers Association of Amarillo and Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Kinsey Reeve of Deaf Smith County captured second place and Acie Hill of Lipscomb County placed third in the contest. The top winners received a rosette and prizes promoting breadmaking from the fair as well as a plaque from TWPA.

The purpose of the bake show is to promote the use of wheat, one of the panhandle's leading agricultural commodities. In addition, 4-H members learn the techniques necessary to make nutritious and delicious baked products from wheat flour and the importance of grain producers in a healthy diet.

For the contest, 4-H members prepared a yeast roll recipe of their choice. Products were evaluated according to appearance, color, moisture content, texture, lightness, flavor and nutrition. Other entries included: Cory Jackson of Gray County and Anna Holland of Wheeler County.

The 4-H Better Bake Show supports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service's educational goal for health, safety and well-being as identified by citizens across the state.

Teen Doesn't Want to Choose Sides in Family Name Game

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old girl with a big problem. My parents have been divorced for 12 years, and my mother and her family have pretty much raised me. Not long ago, my mom told me she thought I should change my last name so that our whole family has the same one. Abby, why didn't she think of this when I was 2? I'm used to my other last name.

The other reason this is hard is that just a few months ago, I visited my dad's side of the family. I learned many things from and about them, and now I feel closer to them. I don't want to hurt their feelings. What should I do?

NO NEW NAME IN OREGON

DEAR NO NEW NAME: It is difficult to understand why your mother has waited so long to suggest a name change. Of course you are used to your last name. Perhaps there is a legal reason your mother has proposed this. If not, ask her to consider a compromise and let you hyphenate the two names. Good luck.

DEAR ABBY: I'm writing about the letter from the diner who entered a Chinese restaurant 15 minutes before the posted closing time and was rushed through dinner.

Abby, in some restaurants the posted closing time means that is the time the kitchen closes; in others, the kitchen closes 15 to 30 minutes before the restaurant closes.

Abigail Van Buren

I paid my way through beauty school by working in restaurants, and every one of them meant something different by the sign on the door. I now run a hair salon, and our hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m. That means we take our first appointment at 8:30 a.m. and the last at 5:15 (but an appointment that late must be a simple, quick procedure such as a comb-out). I understand that clients want to know when they can come, not when I go home. However, the salon down the street posts a sign that closing time is 5:30 p.m., and they mean they want to get out the door at 5:30.

The best one can do in this crazy world is to ask what the hours mean.

JOAN IN TUCSON

DEAR JOAN: Thanks. Once again, the sage counsel is one we've all heard a million times. When in doubt, ask!

DEAR ABBY: My mother expects us to supply her with school pictures of our children. That is a problem because she insists on getting the large pictures that fit the frames she bought years ago. She actually demands the large pictures.

Abby, the large pictures are not in our budget, and she hasn't offered to help pay for them.

The other set of grandparents are delighted with whatever pictures they receive, but not my mother. Can you offer advice on how to handle the unrealistic demands and help us avoid the agony of a confrontation again this year?

PICTURE-PRESSURED

DEAR PICTURE-PRESSURED: Tell your mother that providing the size pictures she requests would create a financial hardship. Be firm in letting her know that if she wants large photographs, she must pay for them. Then let the chips fall where they may.

For Abby's favorite family recipes, send a long, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $3.95 ($4.50 in Canada) to: Dear Abby, Cookbooklet No. 1, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, Ill. 61054-0447. (Postage is included.)

BY JACQUELINE BIGAR

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll Have: 5-Dynamic; 4-Positive; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) ***** What seemed a quagmire yesterday now transforms to an avenue of opportunity. Take the lead. Celebrate an unexpected understanding. Allow yourself to run with spontaneity. Intuition helps you with a boss. You reach a new understanding. Tonight: Feel rewarded.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) ***** Try to see the big picture. You'll understand what has happened. What was difficult before becomes a sensational opportunity. Go with co-workers' fun ideas. Enthusiasm surrounds projects. Gather with friends, network and express your feelings. Tonight: A new spot.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) ***** News from a distance shifts your mind and ingenuity into overdrive. What you come up with is more than worth it. Allow more fun and love into your life. A boss smiles upon you. Now is the time to ask for that pay raise or promotion. Tonight: Togetherness counts.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) ***** Your faith in someone proves to be right on. You are finally rewarded for work long overdue.

Realize how much is in your favor. Someone wants to be closer to you. Don't distance yourself or place an unrelated personal problem in the way. Tonight: Enjoy friends.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) ***** Your hard-working attitude pays off. Think through a change in someone's position. Unexpected news opens doors. Return calls, and be open to suggestions. Working closely with a partner on a financial project adds to your success. Tonight: Buy flowers on the way home.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) ***** Consider what could be a positive omen. Others surround you with options. You might feel your plate is full, and it is! An unexpected work opportunity knocks on your door. You see many financial possibilities. Only affirmative answers are called for. Tonight: Celebrate.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) ***** Straighten out a situation that's been irking you. You open up a small window when this contentious associate will deign to listen. Be logical, and make rapid-fire points. Family means a lot to you. Consider a home office, or put extra effort into home renovations. Tonight: Order in.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) ***** Reach out for others. See what is happening with a critical financial and security-related issue. Creativity needs to come forth when dealing with others. Friends respond to your charm and charisma. A family member surprises you with his actions. Tonight: Hang out.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) ***** An unusual offer from a friend delights you. You seem able to adjust and keep your focus. Unexpected developments shed light on a goal. Absorb information, then discuss it. Use your strengths to create financial gain; show your fiscal savvy. Tonight: Treat someone to dinner.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) ***** You are empowered. There is little that can stop you now. You excel in communications; others hear you loud and clear. The unexpected occurs with a boss and finances. You gain because you are logical. Intuition allows greater follow-through. Tonight: Beam in what you want.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) ***** Take a deep breath first, then consider what you want. What appears as a mental flash has great potential. Follow through on your ideas, and play hunches. Intuition serves you well. Take an overview, rather than getting too focused on just one small area. Tonight: Do your own thing.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) ***** One special friendship makes all the difference. You feel good about this person, and even if he does something a bit off-color, you will look past it. Your keen intuition serves you with office gossip. You don't want to listen to unnecessary tidbits. Tonight: Have a good time.

Georges stalls, weakens after 174 mph wind gusts

By STEPHEN HAWKINS
Associated Press Writer

PASCAGOULA, Miss. (AP) — Hurricane Georges stalled and weakened today after howling ashore with 174 mph wind gusts and as much as 20 inches of rain. Thousands of people huddled in shelters from Louisiana to Florida.

New Orleans, about 55 miles west of Georges' eye, was spared a direct hit. One death was reported.

Roof damage forced 404 storm refugees out of a shelter in the coastal town of Gautier, Miss. An apparent tornado in Pascagoula damaged the roof of another shelter holding 90 people.

"The wind is really blowing out there and things are hitting the windows," said 20-year-old Rachael Alonso, waiting out the storm in a shelter in Gulfport, Miss., today with her two small children and about 300 other people.

National Guardsmen waded through chest-deep water to carry small children and lead adults to safety from a flooded housing project near downtown Mobile, Ala. In the Florida Panhandle, guardsmen had to rescue about 200 people from their flooded homes. Most Panhandle roads were under water and Interstate 10 was washed out near the Alabama line.

Power outages affected more than 380,000 customers all along the Gulf Coast today as Georges' top sustained wind slowed from 105 mph to 90 mph.

Airports and highways were closed, waves as tall as a house clipped off Alabama fishing piers and the wind peeled siding and shingles off homes and shredded palm trees. In most places the weather prevented an assessment of damage.

The wind tore down trees with "a howling sound that never quits," said Greg Myles, who stayed through the night with his wife and their teen-age daughter in their house about 100 yards from waves crashing out of Alabama's Mobile Bay.

More than 1.5 million people had been told to leave the Gulf Coast, spurring "probably the largest evacuation we have ever achieved," said Lt. Col. Ronnie Jones of the Louisiana State Police.

The storm jogged slightly to the east and kept New Orleans from suffering a double whammy — heavy rain and a storm surge that could submerge a city whose elevation averages 6 feet under sea level.

The hurricane's eye, surrounded by wind blowing at a sustained 105 mph, moved ashore this morning at Ocean Springs, Miss., between Biloxi and Pascagoula, and Keesler Air Force Base in Biloxi reported a gust to 174 mph.

The Coast Guard said today it had lost contact with a disabled freighter and the tug trying to keep it from drifting into oil platforms 26 miles off the Louisiana coast. The 17-member crew of the 490-foot Golden Star and the eight-member crew of the tug Sovereign were last heard from Sunday as waves reached 30 feet high.

"The concern right now is that everyone's OK, because they were in the worst part of the storm," said Petty Officer 3rd Class India Roderick in New Orleans.

Although the worst weather was along the coast, power outages extended as far north as Laurel, Miss., 90 miles north of Pascagoula. A state of emergency was declared this morning in Hattiesburg, Miss., 60 miles north of the coast.

At 10 a.m. CDT, the hurricane's center was sitting nearly stationary near Gulfport, Miss. It was expected to drift slowly inland.

Georges' top sustained wind weakened to 90 mph after it left the warm water of the Gulf, down from the speed of 105 it held during the night, according to the National Hurricane Center in Miami. However, hurricane-force wind of at least 74 mph extended up to 70 miles out from the storm's center.

A hurricane warning remained in force from Grand Isle, La., eastward to Destin, Fla.

Twenty inches of rain had fallen by this morning in the Florida Panhandle, with 18 inches at Biloxi, Miss., and 10 inches reported in southern Alabama.

"I'm seeing water on streets that have never had it before," said city worker Richard Brown in Pascagoula, where 15 inches of rain fell overnight.

And because Georges was moving so slowly, the weather service said the hurricane could bring 25 to 30 inches of rain in some areas.

One storm-related death was reported. A man died today in a New Orleans fire started by candles being used for light after the hurricane knocked out electricity.

Georges' effect on the South was tame compared with its path through the Caribbean, where more than 300 people were killed.

Tens of thousands flocked to New Orleans' nine shelters, including the cavernous Louisiana Superdome. The city had room to shelter 100,000 of its 450,000 people.

In the city's French Quarter, at least three Bourbon Street bars kept peddling alcohol after a 6 p.m. curfew.

At Daiquiri's D'Elite Shop, Jill Zibkow of New York drowned her sorrows in a Martini — a 2-foot-tall daiquiri in a green, alien-shaped glass. She arrived in New Orleans on Friday for her 30th birthday.

"Gee-OR-ges," the attorney said as she sat at the bar. "We're just learning how to say it now. You have to have a couple of these Martians to say it properly."

Pump prices jump a penny per gallon, reversing trend

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gasoline prices rose more than a penny per gallon at the pump over the past two weeks, reversing a yearlong trend that has seen the price fall 25 cents per gallon.

Still, many U.S. cities were unaffected by the price drop and warring market forces made the future unpredictable, an industry analyst said Sunday.

"It is too soon to tell if the reversal is short-lived," Trilby Lundberg said.

The average retail price of gasoline, including all grades and taxes, was just shy of $1.09 per gallon Friday. That was up 1.12 cents per gallon from two weeks earlier, according to the Lundberg Survey of 10,000 stations nationwide.

Prices had fallen consistently during the past year, except for a temporary jump for a few weeks in the summer.

At self-service pumps, the average price for regular gasoline was $1.031 per gallon, mid-grade was $1.138 and premium was $1.223. At full-service pumps, regular was $1.467, mid-grade was $1.555 and premium was $1.628.

The increases were not across the board. Prices were up in about a third of the U.S. cities surveyed — mostly in the West and Midwest — but down in another third, including the Rocky Mountain states. Ms. Lundberg suggested some retailers may have decided against passing on higher wholesale costs to customers.

The future was hazy because various factors were at work in the market, she added.

While crude oil prices recently rose about 5 cents per gallon, they remained below $16 per barrel — well below last year, when prices rose above $20 per barrel.

In addition, gasoline stockpiles remain high and demand has dipped with the end of the summer driving season.

"It is a tug-of-war between the crude oil price and gasoline demand," Ms. Lundberg said.

Water heater sparks fatal fire that kills two

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A weekend house fire in which two young brothers died and their uncle was hurt critically apparently started when a water heater ignited a pile of pecan shells.

Fire investigators said a trail of flames bore into the attic and gained significant ground before residents or neighbors discovered it.

"It got a real good start before anyone noticed it," Assistant Fire Chief Rodney Hitzfelder told the San Antonio Express-News in Monday's editions.

Glorian Cook, 3, and Delarian Cook, 23 months, died in the blaze that started around 1:45 p.m. Saturday on the city's south side.

The boys' uncle, 21-year-old Alfonso Rangel, underwent surgery at Brooke Army Medical Center. He was in critical condition Sunday after suffering burns on more than half of his body.

"He has to (make it)," said Annamarie Cook, Rangel's sister and the boys' mother. "He's my hero. He tried to save my children. And now he's fighting for his life."

Burglar bars covering the wooden home's windows trapped the boys, a 5-month-old sister named Erica, Rangel and an aunt. Hitzfelder said the fire, which began in the rear of the house, spread throughout the attic before engulfing the living room. Squirrels or other rodents may have hoarded the pecan shells that kindled the fire.

FOOTBALL

PAMPA — Pampa hosts Randall at 7:30 Friday night in the annual football homecoming game.

The homecoming king and queen will be crowned prior to the kickoff.

LANDOVER, Md. (AP) — For the first time in nine years, the Denver Broncos won a game without John Elway. Of course, the way the Washington Redskins are self-destructing, almost any quarterback will do.

As it was, Bubby Brister did the honors, even running the bootleg right — the play on which Elway injured his hamstring each of the last two weeks — to perfection for a touchdown pass. That started the unbeaten Super Bowl champion on their way to Sunday's 38-16 rout.

Brister was 16-for-24 for 180 yards and two touchdowns for the Broncos (4-0), who have won nine straight and broke an 0-7 streak without Elway, who decided to rest his leg and did not suit up.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The boys from New Orleans came through, and we're not talking about Peyton Manning and Marshall Faulk.

Danny Wuerffel passed for touchdowns of 15 yards to Andre Hastings with 41 seconds left in regulation and 33 yards to Cameron Cleland at 8:50 of overtime Sunday, giving the Saints a 19-13 victory over the winless Indianapolis Colts.

Manning and Faulk, both natives of New Orleans, appeared to have the game won for the Colts with a 78-yard touchdown connection in the fourth quarter. But the Saints (3-0) got the ball back with 2:49 to go, converted a fourth-and-17 with a 44-yard completion to former Colt Sean Dawkins, and tied the game with the TD pass to Hastings.

GOLF

PAMPA — Hidden Hills Seniors Association held a four-man scramble last week. Results are as follows:

First place: Whitey White, J.B. Holt and R. Abbott 61.

Second place: John Haynes, Waldon Haynes, Don Riddle and Howard Buckingham 62.

Third place: Carl Johnson, Earnest Barnett, Ralph Ridgway and Dale Butler 62.

Fourth place: Ted Erickson, Bill Abernathy and Everette Butler 62.

VOLLEYBALL

DUMAS — Dumas won over Pampa, 15-2, 15-6, Saturday in a District 3-4A volleyball match.

The Lady Harvesters host Hereford on Tuesday night with the junior varsity playing first at 6.

Pampa is 1-1 in district play and 14-5 for the season.

Canadian lifts record to 4-0

PERRYTON — Canadian boosted its unbeaten record to 4-0 with a 25-0 win over Perryton last Friday night.

Perryton falls to 2-2 for the season.

Canadian running back George Peyton led the Wildcats' offense with 154 yards rushing on 14 carries and two touchdowns. He scored on runs of 26 and 34 yards. Derek Maupin scored on a one-yard run and also threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Justin Billenwillms. Ty Dickinson added 68 yards rushing on 16 carries to the Wildcats' attack.

Canadian had 279 yards in total offense while its defense limited Perryton to 105 yards. Canadian had 11 first downs to 7 for Perryton.

Canadian's defense came up with three Perryton fumbles. The Wildcats had 92 yards in penalties, but didn't have a turnover.

Canadian head coach David Flowers is a Perryton native and played football for the Rangers.

The Wildcats host Sudan at 7:30 Friday night.

.....

IRVING, Texas (AP) — On the flight back to Oakland, Charles Woodson, Eric Turner and John Jett could've gotten together to argue over whose catch was the easiest. As for degree of importance, call it a tie.

Interceptions by Woodson and Turner prevented Dallas touchdowns, while Jett's catch went for a career-best 75-yard touchdown. Combined, they were easily the three biggest reasons why the Raiders beat the Cowboys 13-12 Sunday.

"Some teams in our league can make more mistakes (than their opponent) and win," Cowboys coach Chan Gailey said. "But we're not one of them right now."

Dallas trailed 10-3 late in the third quarter, but Jason Garrett — who had seemed infallible in his first three career starts in place of Troy Aikman — drove the Cowboys to the Oakland 7.

Michael Irvin got open in the end zone by making an inside move that shook Woodson. Garrett, however, threw the ball outside, hitting Woodson between the numbers.

"I don't know what they were thinking," the reigning Heisman Trophy winner said of his first career interception. "He threw the ball right to me. All I had to do was catch it."

Garrett had a chance to redeem himself with Dallas trailing 13-10 and 1:31 left, but his 43-yard bomb into the end zone sailed over Billy Davis and into Turner's hands.

Fort Elliott royalty

ENMU, Central undefeated

By The Associated Press

Central Oklahoma and Eastern New Mexico remained undefeated and atop their divisions in the Lone Star Conference after rolling to easy victories this weekend.

Central Oklahoma (4-0, 3-0) beat Tarleton State (0-4, 0-2) 31-17, and Eastern New Mexico (4-0, 2-0) walloped Southeastern Oklahoma State (2-2, 1-1) 30-13.

In other Lone Star games, Northeastern State (2-1, 1-1) blew out Midwestern State (1-3, 0-2) 50-25; Abilene Christian (2-1, 1-1) downed East Central (1-3, 0-2); Texas A&M-Commerce (1-3, 1-1) defeated winless Southwestern Oklahoma State (0-4, 0-3) 52-12; Texas A&M-Kingsville (2-2, 1-1) trounced Harding (2-2, 1-1) 38-6; and Angelo State (2-1, 2-0) got past Ouachita Baptist (1-3, 1-1) 23-18.

Central Oklahoma's Johnnie Jones returned one of his three interceptions 98 yards for a touchdown and Reggie Donner rushed for 120 yards and two touchdowns in the Bronchos win. Tarleton remains winless.

Eastern New Mexico led 23-7 by halftime, rushing for 251 yards and three touchdowns in the game. Southeastern quarterback Chris Enloe passed for 156 yards and two touchdowns in the loss.

OSU going where the money is

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — It's a home game for Oklahoma State. Yet Cowboys fans will be outnumbered more than 2-to-1, and the kickoff will be in Missouri.

Why is Oklahoma State giving up home field advantage, home crowd advantage and inflicting inconvenience upon its fans?

For the same reason Willie Sutton robbed banks: That's where the money is.

In what is certain to create a heated issue within the Big 12, the Cowboys will temporarily abandon their pretty campus in Stillwater, Okla., this Saturday and play No. 2 Nebraska in Kansas City's sold-out Arrowhead Stadium.

For transferring the game and selling more than 35,000 tickets in Nebraska, whose fans will happily follow their red-clad heroes anywhere, the Cowboys will bank a guaranteed $1.3 million — roughly $1 million more than if they'd stayed home.

If promoters have their way, there'll be a parade of Big 12 teams playing in Arrowhead in coming years. And they're probably going to have their way. Ticket orders for OSU-NU topped out at more than 121,000 and it'll be hard to resist the lull.

"We're hopeful other Big 12 teams will note the size of the crowd and the excitement of playing a game in Kansas City amid a bowl-like atmosphere," said Kansas City Chiefs' president and general manager Carl Peterson, who has contacted every Big 12 school.

The reason most schools resist moving games is the financial loss it causes local merchants and businesses who depend on football weekends the way toy makers count on Christmas.

In response, however, Peterson and Oklahoma State athletic director Terry Don Phillips came up with a clever and not altogether invalid argument.

What kind of town would (Stillwater, Lubbock, Ames, College Station, etc.) be without this university? Can't you give up just one home game so the athletic department can strengthen itself financially, which in the long run benefits everyone?

Other arguments may be harder to strike down. Kansas is hosting Texas A&M and Missouri is home to Northwestern State on Saturday, and the Kansas City extravaganza will surely harm their gate.

More importantly, would anyone argue that Nebraska's chances of beating Oklahoma State are not better in Kansas City than in Stillwater? Is this fair to Kansas State and the other teams competing against Nebraska for the Big 12 North title?

Of course, No. 20 Washington would argue that it's not fair no matter where you play Nebraska.

The Huskers, playing their finest game to date under Frank Solich, dismantled the Huskies 55-7 as DeAngelo Evans and Bobby Newcombe returned from injuries and ran for three touchdowns apiece.

"It was kind of a fairy tale thing," Evans said.

Elsewhere in the Big 12 Saturday, No. 5 Kansas State started slowly against the 46-point underdogs from Northeast Louisiana. But Michael Bishop got untracked and threw for 441 yards and four touchdowns and smashed the school record with 475 yards of total offense. Along the way, he teamed up with Aaron Lockett on a school-record 97-yard touchdown pass play in a 62-7 rout.

"This was not my best game," he said modestly.

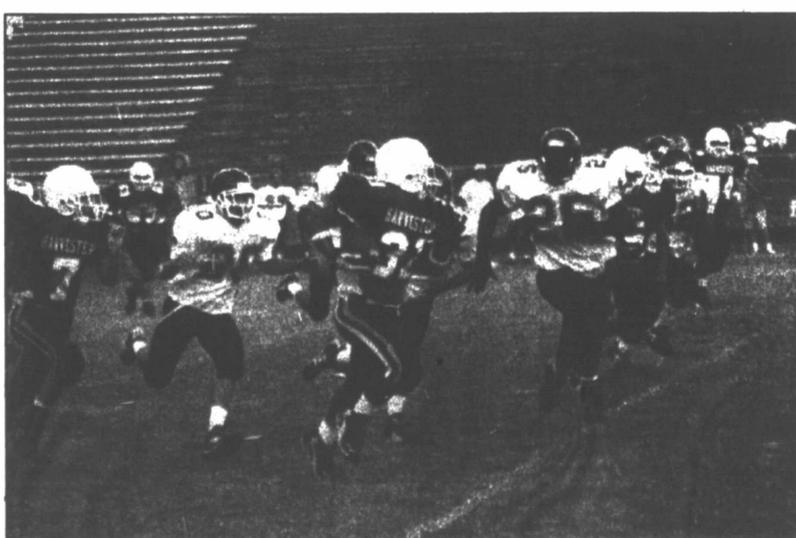

Another huge day was had by Ricky Williams, who rushed for a career-high 318 yards and six touchdowns as Texas rolled to a 59-21 victory over Rice.

Williams moved into second place on the NCAA career rushing-touchdowns list with 60, four behind Indiana's Anthony Thompson.

"I was making moves out there tonight I've never made before," Williams said. "At one point I said to myself, 'Who is this guy?'"

No. 15 Colorado which had already lost five starters to injury in its first three games, saw five more limp to the sidelines. But then Jeremy Aldrich kicked a 31-yard field goal with 2:00 remaining for an 18-16 victory over Baylor.
