PAMPA—A meeting to plan the annual Christmas Parade will be held at 8 a.m. Friday at the Chamber of Commerce office. The parade is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 2. Anyone is welcome to attend Friday's meeting who would like to help on the annual holiday event. Additional information may be obtained by calling 669-3241.

DALLAS (AP) — It only took jurors about two minutes to convict a teen-ager in the carjacking, rape and shooting death of a 24-year-old Dallas woman. The jury found Bruce Lee Williams, 17, guilty Tuesday as many participants and spectators were still filing out of the courtroom. Prosecutors are seeking the death penalty for Williams in the Feb. 3 slaying of Pariya Kitsuwani. Assistant District Attorney George West said the deliberation was among the shortest he had awaited in nearly two decades with the district attorney's office. "There's no set time limit upon how long a jury needs to be back" in the jury room, he said. "They obviously understood the charge." But West admitted he had a feeling jurors would not take a long time. "We did have some solid, compelling evidence in this case," he said. "There were no issues that were left unresolved."

Few voters bother to cast ballots

By NANCY YOUNG
Managing Editor

Dismal was the turnout locally and across the state in Tuesday's amendment election.

Only 5.5 percent of registered voters in Gray County went to the polls to help decide the outcome of 17 amendments. Statewide voting wasn't much better as only 8.3 percent of the registered voters in Texas decided the outcome of the election.

Voters in Gray County totaled 843. There are 15,307 eligible voters in the county, according to County Clerk Susan Winborne.

Thirteen of the 17 amendments being considered were approved across the state. The Texas Constitution has been amended 390 times since being adopted.

Local voters followed the trend set by voters across the state, but also cast a majority of ballots against two additional amendments.

As voters cast their ballots in proposition 3, state and local voters agreed that outdated and duplicative portions of the constitution need to be eliminated. Under the present constitution the governor has the authority to protect the frontier from hostile incursions by Indians and other predatory bands.

However, both local and statewide voters said no to increasing the governor's appointive powers. Propositions 8 and 10 would have seen the adjutant general and the state health and human services commissioner serve at the pleasure of the governor.

Proposition 9 would have established a panel to determine district judges salaries. State and local voters both said no, as the voters favored continuing with the legislature setting the magistrates salaries.

Local voters also agreed with voters across the state in rejecting Proposition 5, which would have allowed state employees to be paid for service on boards and commissions. Known as the state employees amendment, those against the proposition said it would be "double dipping."

Proposition 6, which will expand urban homesteads from one acre to 10, also was approved by both local and state voters.

Supporters say it will give more Texans the right and freedom to use their property as security for a loan and that most who would benefit are not wealthy but own too much land to qualify under the original restrictions.

Drug raid ends in cocaine arrests

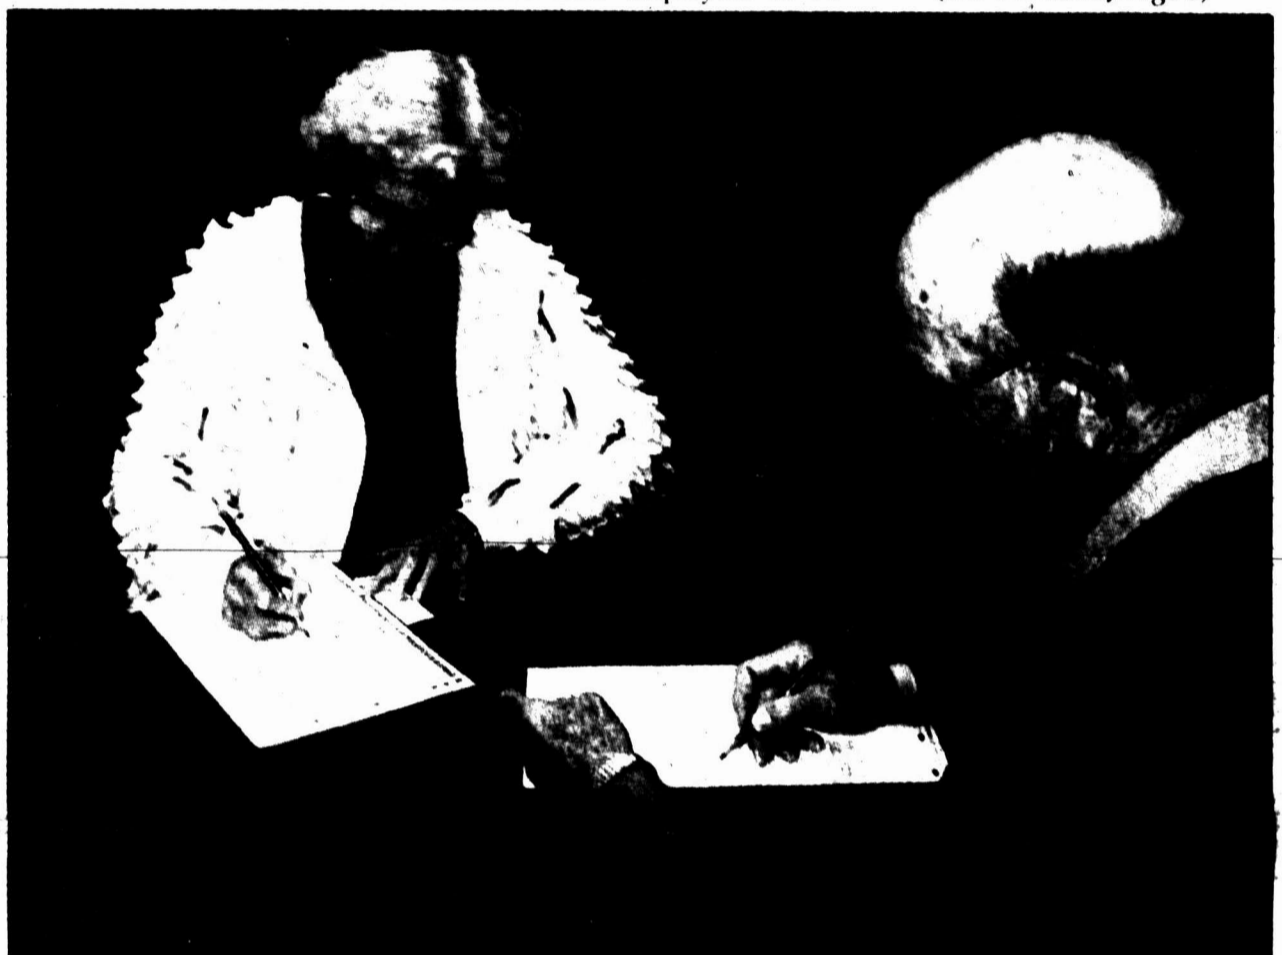

Two men were arrested on drug charges last night by members of the Pampa Police Department and the Panhandle Regional Narcotics Trafficking Task Force.

Eight officers converged on the El Capri Motel at 321 E. Brown just after 5 p.m. Tuesday and arrested Jose Martin Jacobo Pena, 35, of Mexico, who was staying at the motel, and a man who has not been identified. Seventeen grams of powdered cocaine and $300 cash were seized at the scene.

The two men were arrested while in a vehicle parked on the motel parking lot. They were taken without resistance.

Police report that Pena had been under investigation for several months and was arrested on a warrant for delivery of a controlled substance, and possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver. Formal charges against the other suspect are pending.

The charges against Pena are first-degree felonies which are punishable by 5-99 years and/or a $10,000 fine. Bond had not been set at press time.

Maxine and Carlton Freeman each brought their own lists of how they wanted to vote on the 17 constitutional amendments.

Money sought for fireworks

With less than sixty days before the year 2000 begins, Celebration of Lights still needs help paying for a fireworks show to bring in the new century.

The show will cost $6,000 but so far just over $4,500 has been raised, according to Kathleen Chaney of the Celebration of Lights.

Bill Hildebrandt, director of community services for Pampa, said the display has already been booked for Dec. 31. It had to be booked early in order to guarantee that a shooter and sufficient fireworks would be available. He said there are a number of cities planning fireworks shows for New Years Eve.

The same company that puts on the Fourth of July fireworks is scheduled to do this show. Hildebrandt said because of the demand, the "Millennium" show is a little more expensive than the summer display.

Celebration of Lights is picking up a large part of the show paying $2,500 while the Pampa Chamber of Commerce Tourism Committee has added $1,000 to the total. Both Representative Warren Chisum and the VFW have donated $500 while other organizations including Pampa Realtors and the Top O' Texas Rodeo Association have also contributed with smaller amounts.

Chaney asked that anyone wishing to donate contact her at 665-3552 665-2454 or Bill Hildebrandt at City Hall 669-5750.

Help needed to solve crime

By JEFF WEST
Staff Writer

The Gray County Sheriff's Department is looking for your help to solve a burglary that occurred last night.

Sometime between 7:30 Tuesday evening and 7:45 this morning two or more people broke into Britten Feed near Kingsmill on Highway 60. Among the items they stole was a brand new 60-gallon air compressor and a smaller air compressor. The larger air compressor was so new it was still in the box, wrapped in packing material. The owner was waiting for the right type of plug to be installed in the warehouse before he could use the machine.

The thieves took the compressor out of the box leaving it, the packing material and instruction manual.

Gray County Deputy Sana Alexander believes the crime had to involve at least two people because the compressor weighed over 200 pounds. She said the thieves did not use a large overhead door, but went through a smaller door to the side. It is theorized they backed a pickup up to the door to load the items.

Alexander said the pickup and the thieves loading the pickup, would have been visible from Highway 60. The turn-off to Celanese is just to the east of the warehouse as well.

The large compressor is black with a silver motor while the smaller one is red with a black motor and wheels.

Anyone who saw someone loading a pickup or truck last night at the location is asked to contact the Gray County Sheriff's Office at 669-8022.

Anyone who is approached to buy a compressor is also asked to immediately call the Sheriff's Office.

Union officials say, Israel earned about $100,000 annually in his dual role as chief and union head from 1993 to 1995, and made less while holding lower offices for about a decade.

Seabrook, a longtime rival of Israel, said his former opponent left inadequate records of the union's finances.

Israel's heirs have filed papers to claim the $2 million. His wife, Reesha, and lawyer, Mark Bloomberg, declined comment to the Times.

Voters

Opponents said the expansion would benefit wealthy people and would encourage some to buy expensive homes and then file for bankruptcy knowing their property would be protected from most creditors.

Gray County voters agreed with voters across the state in overwhelmingly passing Proposition 1 which specifies that the lieutenant governor will fill a permanent vacancy in the governor's office.

That amendment could be used in the near future if Governor George W. Bush is elected as U.S. President in 2000. The newly-passed amendment will require the lieutenant governor to forfeit that office if he or she fills a permanent vacancy in the governor's office.

The lieutenant governor position would then be filled within 30 days by an election among the 31 state senators. The lieutenant governor also serves as president of the senate.

If Bush is selected as the next president current Lt. Governor Rick Perry would be elevated to the governor's position.

31st District State Senator Teel Bivins is among six state senators who have indicated an interest in the position. At a fund raiser last week in Austin, he raised $200,000 for a possible statewide election to the post in 2002. Bivins represents Gray County in the state senate.

Passage of the amendment will clarify the wording in the constitution, which was written in 1876, which said that in the case of a gubernatorial vacancy, the lieutenant governor "exercises the powers and authority" of the governor.

Backers of the amendment said it was needed to provide certainty for the succession of the governor's office and make it clear that a lieutenant governor who moves up to fill a permanent vacancy for governor cannot hold both offices.

Opponents said the amendment was unnecessary because in the past, the lieutenant governor has become governor and a senator has filled his place without problems.

In all four previous successions, the lieutenant governor had assumed the actual office of governor, not just the power and responsibility.

Others amendments which passed in the statewide balloting were:

Proposition 2, which revised provisions in reverse mortgages, was approved locally and statewide

Proposition 4, which allowed the legislature to exempt from property taxes property owned by primarily charitable organizations, was approved by both state and local voters

Proposition 7, allowing garnishment of wages to enforce court-ordered spousal maintenance, was passed by both state and local voters

Proposition 11, which will allow political subdivisions to buy non-assessable property and casualty insurance from mutual insurers, was passed by both local and state voters

Proposition 12, which will give the legislature power to exempt vehicles leased for personal use from property taxes, was approved by statewide. However, Gray County voters were not in favor of the amendment.

Proposition 13, authorizing another $400 million in bonds for college student loans, passed by both state and local voters.

Proposition 14, which will allow state boards to have an odd number of three or more members, was passed both statewide and locally.

Proposition 15, permitting spouses to convert separate property to community property, was passed by both local and state voters

Proposition 16, giving counties more flexibility in determining the numbers of justices of the peace and constables they have, was approved both locally and state wide.

Proposition 17, giving regents of the University of Texas and Texas A&M University systems more flexibility in managing assets of the Permanent University Fund, passed by both local and state voters.

Ratified amendments take effect when the official vote canvass confirms the elections results, unless a later date is specified. Results are tabulated by the secretary of state and canvassed by the governor 15 to 30 days following the election.

Internet selling caskets

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Caskets for sale on the Internet. Web sites, software and national directories for funeral homes. Online obituaries and videos to preserve a loved one's memory.

Death is a burgeoning industry in cyberspace.

"This is the future," said Jack Clarkson, the marketing director of Heavenlydoor.com, who was among those gathered here this week for the annual convention of the National Funeral Directors Association.

Heavenlydoor.com lists everything from casket makers to virtual gravesite visits.

It's all designed to help customers in a difficult time while increasing profits for funeral providers, Clarkson said.

"People say the Internet seems like kind of a cold way to plan a funeral. But we think this takes the cold out and still leaves the personal part in," he said. "They can do this at home without a lot of pressure."

Many companies also create special memorials to the deceased.

Celebrate a Life.com features online obituaries and CD-ROMs that hold pictures, messages and mementos.

"We're trying to take the old and marry it with the new," said Robert Robinson, the company's executive vice president. "We do this for the non-techies, and for families that travel all over the world and aren't near the deceased."

A spokesman for the 14,000-member funeral directors association said e-commerce — along with stores that sell caskets at wholesale prices and other funeral-related businesses — still isn't a significant part of the industry.

About 35,000 caskets were sold via the Internet last year, only a fraction of the 1.8 million coffins sold overall during that time, said spokesman Ronald Troyer.

Troyer, a 31-year veteran of the business, said he expects technology to bring more changes as aging baby boomers, comfortable with computers, begin to ponder the inevitable.

"We still see a lot of funeral home directors reluctant to join the technology age," he said. "That is going to change in the next five to seven years."

The increase in nontraditional funeral service providers has prompted the funeral directors group to push for stronger federal controls. The 14,000-member association wants tighter regulation on Internet companies, wholesale casket sellers and cemeteries that also provide caskets, said Kelly Smith, another association spokesman.

The Federal Trade Commission requires funeral homes to provide a written copy of a general price list to customers. Nontraditional funeral-related companies currently are not required to follow the so-called "funeral rule."

"Our concern is that the customer ought to be protected no matter where they shop," Smith said.

Michael Turkiewicz of Portland, Ore.'s FuneralNet.com said he expects the FTC to regulate the Internet funeral-service companies when it rewrites its consumer rights rules next year. He doesn't think it will be a problem for legitimate companies.

"These new companies still have to provide customer satisfaction," he said. "That doesn't change."

Smoking limited at Disney

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (AP) — The air may get a little cleaner at Disney amusement parks.

Starting Jan. 30, smokers at Disney's theme parks in California and Florida will have to puff in smoking-designated areas, Disney spokesman Bill Warren said Tuesday.

Disney has had a long-standing policy of forbidding smoking in

A funeral home can be fined up to $10,000 for a first-time rule violation and face possible sanction by a state licensing board.

"We think to protect consumers, these same types of requirements should be extended to everyone providing funeral services," he said.

Portland, Ore.'s FuneralNet.com said he expects the FTC to regulate the Internet funeral-service companies when it rewrites its consumer rights rules next year. He doesn't think it will be a problem for legitimate companies.

"These new companies still have to provide customer satisfaction," he said. "That doesn't change."

Authorities investigate $2 million found in former union chief's safe deposit box

NEW YORK (AP) — Authorities are investigating $2 million recently discovered in the safe deposit box of a former union president who died in March.

Stanley Israel, who headed the Correction Officers' Benevolent Association for two years, lived modestly and did not appear to have income beyond his salaries as a union official and corrections officer.

"Two million dollars is a lot of money, and it raises a lot of questions," Scott Brown, a spokesman for the state Attorney General's office, told The New York Times in a story for today's editions.

Israel died in March at age 57, but left no will.

"If this money is his, then God bless him," said Norman Seabrook, who defeated Israel to become union president in 1995.

"But if in fact this is money that belonged to the (union), then I want it back," Seabrook said.

Union officials say, Israel earned about $100,000 annually in his dual role as chief and union head from 1993 to 1995, and made less while holding lower offices for about a decade.

Seabrook, a longtime rival of Israel, said his former opponent left inadequate records of the union's finances.

Israel's heirs have filed papers to claim the $2 million. His wife, Reesha, and lawyer, Mark Bloomberg, declined comment to the Times.

Weather focus

PAMPA — Mostly sunny today with a high in the mid 70s and south winds at 10-20 mph. Tonight, clear with a low of 40 and light and variable winds. Tomorrow, mostly sunny with a high of 80 and south winds at 10-20 mph.

STATEWIDE — A light freeze extended across many parts of Central and North Texas today as a high-pressure system kept skies mostly clear over the state.

Early-morning temperatures ranged from the 30s to 50s. Lows included 31 degrees at Bryan and College Station, 32 at Wink, 45 at Borger, and 56 degrees at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station.

Winds were westerly and southerly at 10 to 15 mph east of the mountains and from the north and east at 5 to 10 mph over the mountains and far west, with some gusts along the coast.

Temperatures dipped into the low to mid-30s near the Red River. Readings elsewhere were in the 40s.

The high-pressure ridge was expected to slowly move east across the state, keeping temperatures on the mild side and conditions clear.

Daytime highs were expected to range from the 60s and 70s in the Hill Country and North Texas, with near 80 degrees in the south. Clear skies and cool temperatures will return at night with overnight lows ranging from the mid 30s in the far west and over the Hill Country and northern counties to the 50s along the coast and in the deep south.

A slight warming trend was expected by Thursday, with some highs in the 80s.

Doug Warminski and Arnie Urbanczyk prepare sausage for the Polish Sausage Festival slated from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 7 in Sacred Heart Parish Hall in White Deer.

Annual White Deer Polish Sausage Festival to be held Sunday

WHITE DEER — Sacred Heart Parish of White Deer has scheduled its annual Polish Sausage Festival from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 7 at the parish hall, one block east of Main Street and the town white deer, according to Carolyn Rapstine, publicity chairman. Tickets are $6 for adults and $3.50 for children.

The 1999 festival notes its 61th anniversary. This annual affair dates back to the summer of 1938, when the Rev. J. A. Zienta, a Polish priest, was pastor. The first sausage dinner was held in an open pasture north of White Deer and large black iron cauldrons were used to steam the sausage. The rest of the food was prepared by the women in their homes. The meal was served on blank tables. An old family recipe was used which had been handed down for generations.

Approximately 150 people were served. Today more than 2,000 people are served in a modern parish hall equipped with a modern kitchen and barbecue pit. Today Alice Haiduk, Isabel Urbanczyk and their sons are the seasoning experts.

Some 5,000 pounds of Polish links will be made and served barbecued or steamed in the traditional Polish way. It will be accompanied by crisp slaw, red beans, potato salad and apricots. Takeout dinners as well as sausage-to-go will be available.

The proceeds from the festival are used for parish needs and charitable purposes.

White Deer is the only Polish oriented community in the Texas Panhandle. Sacred Heart Parish celebrated its 75th anniversary in 1988. "Roots of Faith," a historical book focusing on the Polish pioneers, was published to commemorate the celebration. The book will be on sale in the parlor where there will be a display of the history of the Polish Sausage Dinner and artifacts of the original Sacred Heart Church.

Also during the dinner a video produced by the Carson County Square House Museum, will be shown. The video tells the history of how the Poles came to Texas in 1854 and arrived in White Deer in 1909. It is narrated by nine descendants of the original Polish families.

Hospice announces free grief workshop in offering

A free grief workshop, sponsored by BSA Hospice and filled with practical ideas for getting through the holidays, is set for Thursday, Nov. 4.

"Coping With the Holidays," a 90-minute workshop for persons who have recently experienced the death of a loved one, begins at 7 p.m., Nov. 4, at BSA Hospice Conference Room, 800 N. Sumner, in Pampa.

"Many people who have recently lost someone they loved find the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays especially hard," explained Janet McCracken, family support coordinator for the Pampa/Borger area. "This workshop provides ways to take care of yourself through a hectic and sometimes difficult time."

"We want to emphasize that there is no 'right way' or 'wrong way' to celebrate the holidays when you are grieving," McCracken added. "Doing things your way is very important."

John Southern, M.Ed., a licensed professional counselor, will lead the workshop. Southern is associated with Good Samaritan Counseling Service and as a consulting counselor for BSA Hospice.

Topics include ways to handle decorating, shopping, cards, holiday music, food and cooking, traditions, spiritual concerns, post holiday plans and special projects.

For more information about "Coping With the Holidays" workshop or hospice care in general, call BSA Hospice at 665-6677.

Mom Has Plenty of Troops In Support of Custody Battle

DEAR ABBY: Since you didn't give marching orders to "In Shock and Heartbroken," whose surgeon-husband suddenly cleaned out the house and had his lawyer offer her $20,000 in exchange for custody of their children, may I offer some advice?

"In Shock," you deserve more than that jerk showed you. What kind of example is he setting for his children? More important, what kind of example will you set for them? I urge you to find the most aggressive, pit-bull lawyer in your area and tell him how you were cheated out of your marriage, belongings, means of support and children.

Many divorce lawyers will work for a percentage of the settlement rather than an up-front fee, especially in a case like yours. Your lawyer will file a motion to freeze hubby's accounts and hire a "forensic accountant" to track down what your husband must surely be hiding from you — and possibly the IRS as well. This was obviously planned for a long time, and it will take professionals to unravel the deception.

Hold him responsible. Stay and fight the good fight, and you'll never have to look back and say, "I wish I had," while your children grow up to be as selfish and manipulative as he is. I wish you love, luck, peace and victory in court!

STEAMING IN BOSTON

DEAR STEAMING: In fairness to me, the woman did not

Abigail Van Buren

ask what steps she should take to proceed. She asked only if I thought she was right to stay and fight for her children.

An attorney who will take the matter on a contingency basis should be easy enough to find. Once she whispers the magic words, "surgeon" and "prominent family," the lawyer will know there is plenty of money and publicity to be had. Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I read the letter about the surgeon who left his wife penniless and offered her $20,000 for custody of their children. I'm a family law attorney. You stated, "You have my respect for deciding to fight for your children against such odds, and I hope you prevail." While this is a sympathetic statement, I do not believe the woman is against such odds.

Depending on what state they live in and how long they've been married, she's probably entitled to at least one-half the community assets plus maintenance/alimony and child support, based on the parties' incomes. I would advise her to go to an attorney and file for temporary orders. Depending on the circumstances, the surgeon will be the one paying the attorney fees, plus maintenance and child support, until the court makes a final disposition of the property and a ruling on the parenting plan.

As he is a surgeon, I imagine he works long hours; and I imagine also that the wife has been the primary caretaker of the children. The odds are against him financially, and in her favor as the custodial or residential parent.

JAN YVONNE RINKER, GIG HARBOR, WASH.

DEAR JAN: Since more people are ignorant about divorce law than are knowledgeable about it, I'm sure your letter will be an eye-opener for many.

Several readers asked me to tell "In Shock and Heartbroken" that they doubted her husband's sincerity in seeking custody of their children — that he was either demanding them so he wouldn't have to pay child support, or using them as a bargaining chip. To quote "Dorothy in Maine":

"I wonder what he'd do if you said, 'Go ahead and take the kids.' His prospective new wife wouldn't be thrilled with that, I'll bet. Makes you want to spit, doesn't it? Hire a woman divorce lawyer ASAP. You'll prevail in the end."

 Establish strong groundwork with bosses and those in the know about money. You can't let anything be nebulous. In the long run, seeking clarity helps you and another come to terms. Accept responsibilities. Tonight: In the limelight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

 Recognize that, to some, you could be confusing, though naturally this isn't deliberate. Creativity surges in an unprecedented manner. What you know or feel is right on target. Though you are correct about a situation, distance yourself so you can get the big picture. Tonight: Make calls, surf the Internet and make weekend plans.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

 Build on established ground. Instincts help direct you in handling a partner. Friends push you hard. Think about broadening your horizons. Others want to hear what you have to say. Take time with each individual you encounter today. Tonight: Join a friend.

Dead heat in one race as voters cast ballots for offices, on issues

In a night of surprises, Democrats came within inches of winning the coveted Mississippi governor's race in a dead heat that will likely be decided in the Democratic-controlled state House.

If the most likely scenario plays out in Mississippi, Democrats stood to gain two of the top three political prizes of the off-season election after narrowly winning the Philadelphia mayor's race.

Republicans achieved their own victory in the South: complete control of the Virginia Legislature, which gives the GOP the power to redraw congressional lines and an edge for next year's expected challenge to vulnerable Democratic Sen. Charles Robb.

"We've got obviously mixed results," said Earl Black, a Rice University political science professor. "No party goes into 2000 with a clear, comprehensive national victory from these off-year elections."

With next year's presidential races in sight, Tuesday's elections provided crucial momentum. The Republican National Committee spent twice as much as the cash-strapped Democratic National Committee, pumping about $1.5 billion into races around the country.

Democrats had high hopes for a big win in Mississippi, however. With 100 percent of precincts reporting early today but some absentee ballots still uncounted, unofficial returns gave Democratic Lt. Gov. Ronnie Musgrove 49.5 percent of the vote and Republican Mike Parker, a former congressman, 48.6 percent.

Under state law, the House will elect the governor during its session next year if no candidate gets a majority of the popular vote — 50 percent plus one vote. Two minor-party candidates split just enough votes to make it likely a House vote would be necessary.

The Democrats have a better than 2-to-1 majority in the House, an advantage that was expected to continue in the next term.

"If it goes to the House of Representatives you can pretty much say Ronnie Musgrove will be made governor," said state Rep. George Flagg, a Democrat from Vicksburg. "I can't see after eight years them not voting Democratic."

Republicans said they expected to seek a recount.

"We're going have to wait another day to find out exactly what has happened," Parker told about 500 supporters who were not subdued by the close numbers.

The race was closely watched, particularly after Democratic governors won South Carolina and Alabama last year. Mississippi was the tie-breaker of the three 1999 governor's races: Republican Gov. Mike Foster of Louisiana was re-elected last month and Democratic Gov. Paul Patton easily won reelection in Kentucky.

In Virginia, Republicans retained their majority in Virginia's Senate and claimed at least 52 seats in the 100-seat House.

Gov. Jim Gilmore had pushed hard for the victory, and spending for the races was expected to top $25 million.

In Philadelphia, operatives in both major parties had expected GOP businessman Sam Katz to upset City Hall veteran John F. Street, despite Democrats' 4-to-1 edge over Republicans.

With 96 percent of precincts reporting, Street had 211,136 votes or 50 percent of the vote, while Katz had 203,908 or 49 percent.

Turnout and race were key factors in the nation's fifth-largest city, where 40 percent of the 1.4 million residents are black. Katz is white; Street will become the city's second black mayor.

Last-minute campaign appearances from President Clinton may have made the difference in Philadelphia's hard-core Democratic districts. With outgoing Mayor Edward G. Rendell as the DNC's new chairman, Democrats would love a victory in the city that will be host to the GOP presidential convention next summer.

Democrats also scored big victories in Indianapolis, where Bart Peterson defeated Republican Sue Anne Gilroy, and in Columbus, Ohio, where Democrat Michael B. Coleman defeated Republican Dorothy Teater. Both cities have been run by Republicans for more than a quarter-century.

Voters also decided a number of ballot issues. In San Francisco, voters banned ATM bank fees even though many experts consider the law unenforceable and the industry has promised a court fight. Maine voters approved a measure to legalize medical marijuana, and rejected a proposal to ban a certain late-term abortion procedure.

Tax questions for sports stadiums failed in St. Paul, Minn. and Houston, and passed in Scottsdale, Ariz., and San Antonio.

In Houston, Mayor Lee Brown, former national drug czar, won a second term and in Baltimore, Democrat Martin O'Malley was elected on platform of zero tolerance on crime. In San Francisco, Mayor Willie Brown was forced into a runoff by fellow Democrats.

In New Jersey, Democrats made slight inroads into the GOP's 48-32 margin in the Assembly. Democrats picked up at least one and possibly three seats.

In Washington state, a Republican incumbent defeated his Democratic challenger in a special election for a state House seat, assuring a 49-49 partisan split for another year. The district, along the Idaho line, hasn't sent a Democrat to the Statehouse since 1936.

Democrats control the state Senate and the governor's office.

Hawaii office shooting kills seven

HONOLULU (AP) — Hiro Uyesugi remembers his son losing his temper only once during 15 years at the Xerox Corp., when he kicked an elevator door a few years ago and had to undergo anger management counseling.

Nothing in Byran Uyesugi's history hinted at the bloodshed that erupted at Xerox's offices on Tuesday, when police say he walked into a second-floor meeting room and shot seven co-workers to death.

Uyesugi fled in a company van, but surrendered to police after a five-hour standoff. A search of his home found 11 handguns, five rifles and two shotguns owned by the former Roosevelt High School rifle team member.

"I'm going to bring him another gun so he can shoot himself," an anguished Hiro Uyesugi snapped when questioned by reporters.

The nation's latest episode of workplace violence was the worst tragedy in the company's history and the worst mass murder in Hawaii's history. It was a stunning blow in a state with just 24 murders last year and an enduring reputation as America's paradise.

"You would never think it would happen at your workplace. You hear it all around," said Andy De Leon, a Xerox employee. "But this is too close, way too close."

Uyesugi, 40, was expected to be arraigned today.

HOUSTON (AP) — Voters Tuesday rejected a proposal to use tax money to build a $160 million downtown Houston sports arena.

With 100 percent of precincts reporting, the issue lost 177,347, or 55 percent, to 146,758, or 45 percent. About 1,500 ballots with write-in votes still were being counted early Wednesday morning.

"When voters read the facts they came our way, because they know it's a bad deal and they know they have time to get a better deal for an arena, and that's exactly what we're going to do," said Harris County Tax Assessor Collector Paul Bettencourt, a leading opponent of the proposal.

Houston Rockets owner Les Alexander has said his National Basketball Association team needs a new arena, with more revenue-generating luxury boxes and club seats, to remain competitive in a league filled with new buildings.

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Players, coaches and fans celebrated with hugs, smiles and indoor fireworks as the San Antonio Spurs received their championship gold and diamond rings Tuesday.

"I'd like to thank all of you for being such loyal supporters," coach Gregg Popovich told a cheering Alamodome crowd. "Without you all, we wouldn't be here."

The ring ceremony took place before the Spurs' season opener against the Philadelphia 76ers, which the Spurs won 89-76.

NBA Commissioner David Stern presented the rings to the Spurs players who remain from last season and the coaching staff. San Antonio defeated the New York Knicks to win the franchise's first championship in June.

"This is not only a great basketball team, but a team that above all else understands a sense of community and how important they are to youngsters," Stern told the fans.

"Suffice it to say, you should be very proud of them," he said.

During the ceremony, the Spurs' championship banner was unfurled. Veteran center David Robinson gazed at it, grinned and raised a clenched fist.

The celebration was something the Spurs franchise and fans had waited 26 years to enjoy. A former American Basketball Association squad, the Spurs moved to San Antonio from Dallas before the 1973-74 season and later merged into the NBA.

San Antonio won its title during Robinson's 10th year in the league. The 7-foot-1 center had endured a decade of coaching changes, player turnover and questions about whether he truly was championship material.

Robinson proved he was, once he had fellow 7-footer Tim Duncan — the MVP of the NBA Finals — and a cohesive supporting cast beside him.

After receiving his ring, Robinson greeted 75ers coach Larry Brown with a hug. Brown was Robinson's first coach with the Spurs.

Sean Elliott, who joined the Spurs the same year Robinson did, accepted his ring dressed in a suit.

Elliott, 31, underwent a kidney transplant in August but has said he will try to return to the NBA. Elliott spoke to the crowd on behalf of the players.

"The feelings amongst these guys are if they could take a little piece of this ring and give it to everybody in the arena, they would gladly do it," Elliott said.

Each 14-karat gold ring contains a large circle of diamonds and is adorned with a spur on top.

On the side of each ring is "15-2," which was the Spurs' playoff record during their title run; the player's name and number; the championship trophy; and a hammer and rock, representing the team motto.

Harris: Borger favored by 14 over Harvesters

PAMPA — According to the Harris Report, Borger will be favored by 14 points against Pampa when the two teams tangle at 2 p.m. Saturday in Harvester Stadium.

Borger, with a 7-2 record, has already clinched a play-off spot while the 5-4 Harvesters are still in the hunt for that third-place berth.

The Harris point spread may be just a little drastic. The Harvesters have the homefield edge and are charged up after a 21-7 win over Palo Duro last weekend.

The Bulldogs could be down after taking a 30-3 pounding by Hereford.

Borger still has District 3-4A's No. 1 offense, averaging 345.8 yards per game. Pampa is ranked fourth at 300.9 yards per game.

Defensively, Pampa has the upper hand. The Harvesters are allowing 273.2 yards per game, second behind Hereford (196.7). The Bulldogs are third, giving up 308.1 yards per game.

Borger is averaging 27.8 points per game. Pampa is at 17.7.

PAMPA — The Harvester Booster Club will hold a pep rally at 7:30 Friday night in McNeely Fieldhouse.

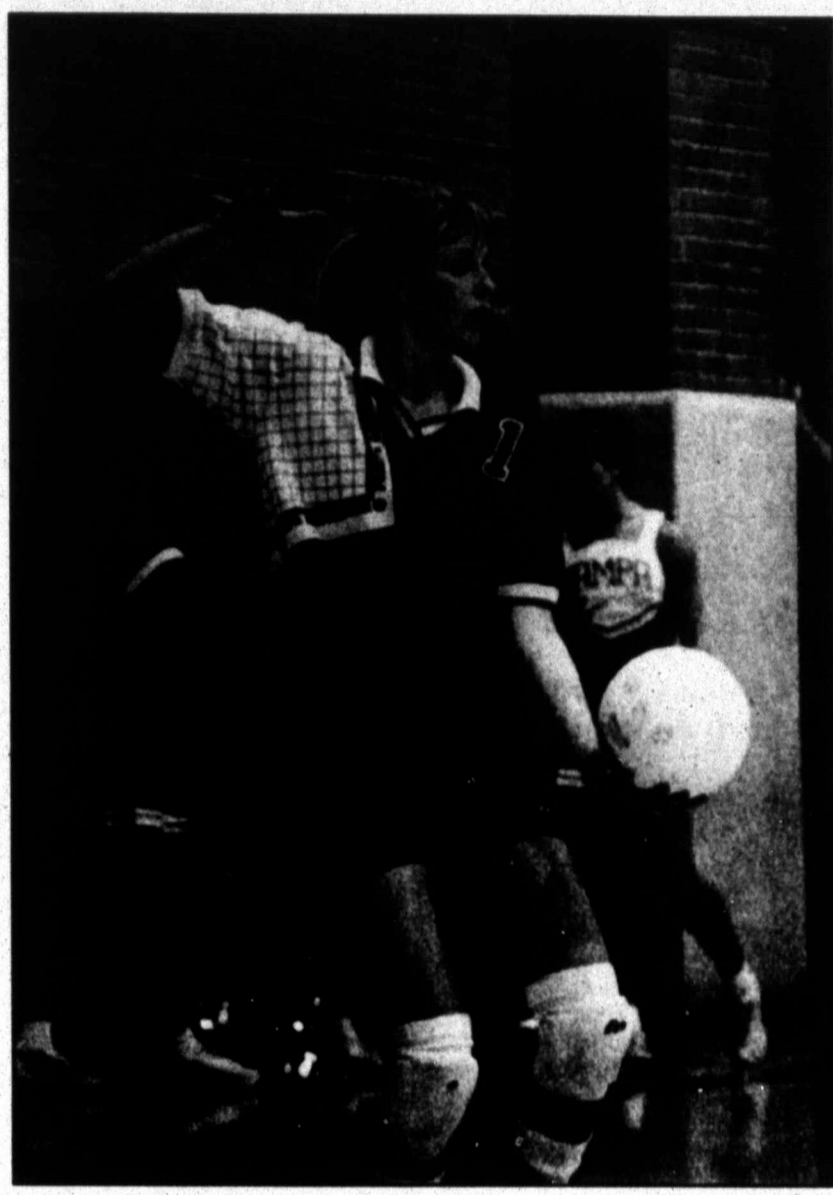

Fans are urged to come to the rally and show their support for the Pampa Harvesters, who take on the Borger Bulldogs at 2 p.m. Saturday in Harvester Stadium.

Senior players and their parents will be recognized at the rally.

Janice Bellah of the booster club also urged fans to bring their freon shakers to Saturday's game.

"Borger fans travel to the out-of-town games with their shakers. We need to bring ours," she said.

Pampa girls advance to regionals

Pampa senior Lindsey Earl had 23 assists against El Paso Bowie.

ODESSA — After struggling to a victory in the first game, the Pampa Lady Harvesters came on strong the second game to defeat El Paso Bowie on Tuesday night in the area volleyball playoffs.

Pampa won 15-13, 15-6 to set up a rematch with Hereford in the regional quarterfinals. The site and date have not been decided yet.

The Lady Harvesters used their height to good advantage against Bowie. Destiny Engel, a 6-0 junior, led the team with 9 kills while seniors Anne Gaddis (5-11 senior) and Tandi Morton (5-10 senior) added 5 kills each. Chasity Nachtigall (5-9 junior) turned in 4 kills and 3 digs.

Setter Lindsey Earl (5-8 senior) contributed 23 assists and 4 digs to the Pampa victory.

Ashleigh Patton (5-11 junior) and Lindsey Hampton (6-0 junior) chipped in 1 kill each. Mary Grace Fields (5-2 senior) had 7 digs, Alexis Amador (5-2 junior) 6, Chelsea McCullough (5-6 junior) 4, and Morton 2.

Earl had 3 aces and Fields 1 from the serving line.

Pampa improves its record to 15-16 for the season. Bowie closes at 18-8.

Hereford defeated Pecos 15-6, 15-5, in the Lady Whitefaces' area contest. Hereford has a 26-7 record.

7th graders shut out Westover 30-0

PAMPA — Mark Williams scored four touchdowns and threw for another one in leading Pampa to a 30-0 victory over Westover in a 7th grade football game last week.

Williams scored on runs of 20, 21 and 66 yards and returned an 80-yard kickoff for a touchdown. He threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Mateo Campos.

On defense, Tyrel Bolin and Andrew Fraser each recovered a fumble and Julian Salazar had a pass interception.

Dustin Langley, Tyler Doughty and Quinton Cobb had an outstanding defensive game.

Seth Foster, Michael Pergeson, Chris Veal and Tyrel Bolin played well on offense.

Pampa won the B team game 28-6.

Omar Barraza scored two touchdowns on a 5-yard run and a 75-yard pass interception.

Also scoring for Pampa were Mitchell Carroll (5-yard run) and Janssen-Ellenberger (36-yard run). Ellenberger and Dusty Lenderman had conversion runs.

Barraza, Ellenberger, Aaron Hunt and Eric Willingham each had a fumble recovery.

Both Pampa teams have 7-0 records.

Regional semifinalists

Pampa tennis team members strike a relaxing pose for the photographer. The Harvesters finished the fall season by advancing to the Class 4A regional semifinals for the third consecutive season. Team members include Ryan Mills, Matt Rains, Kerry Turner, Emily Waters, Emily Curtis, Helen Orr, Michael Cornelison, Bryce Jordan, Ashley Stucki, Michelle Lee, Brittany Kindle, Ashlei Jordan, David Philips and A.J. Smith. The team was coached by Carolyn Quarles, who is in her second year as head coach.

Chicago Bears' fans mourn the loss of Walter Payton

CHICAGO (AP) — Flags at half side the city — the sort of spontaneous memorials that often spring up after celebrity deaths were largely absent.

The Bears opened a gate at Soldier Field, and some fans dropped off bouquets and cards. More sent flowers to Payton's restaurant in suburban Aurora. At Mike Ditka's Restaurant, fans signed condolence cards and were encouraged to become organ donors.

Just north of Soldier Field on Lake Shore Drive, Mike Liberles brought his Crane High School class to the Field Museum's exhibit on Bears' history.

"I never missed a game when Payton was playing," Liberles said. His students, too young to remember Payton the running back, spoke of the man they knew through his charity work and the publicity about his illness.

"He broke records but he didn't let all this stuff get to his head. He didn't act like he was better than everybody like Michael Jordan does," said Marcus Smith, 15.

The Bears announced Tuesday that a public memorial service for Payton will be held on Saturday from noon to 1:30 p.m. at Soldier Field. The current Bears team as well as several of Payton's former teammates are scheduled to attend.

A private, invitation-only service will be held at noon Friday at Life Changers Church in South Barrington. Private visitation will begin at 10 a.m.

Payton brought glory back to a storied franchise, and to a city that had gone more than two decades without a sports championship when the Bears won the Super Bowl in 1986.

"You get disillusioned," said Mike Houlihan, a Chicago writer and lifelong Bears fan who remembers watching the team win the NFL championship when he was an eighth-grader in 1963.

McLean clinches district title

HARROLD — With one game left in the regular season, the McLean Tigers have clinched the District 2 Six-Man championship.

The Tigers clinched the title with a 62-12 win over Harrold last weekend.

Chris Hauck threw four touchdown passes, Frankie Sparling rushed for two touchdowns and Brett Montgomery caught two TD passes to pace the McLean offense.

Aaron Rice was the team's leading rusher with 96 yards on 10 carries. He also threw a touchdown pass. Sparling rushed for 83 yards on eight carries.

McLean closed out the game in the third quarter due to the 45-point lead.

McLean has an 8-1 record for the season and is 4-0 in the district standings.

Harrold falls to 3-6 for the season and 0-4 in district.

Operating Co. Cowboys shut out two opponents to win tournament

PAMPA — The Operating Company Cowboys won the Tiger League championship by defeating the Packers 6-0 and the Raiders 16-0.

The Cowboys won the title in an end-of-season round robin tournament last weekend at Harvester Stadium.

The Cowboys used strong defense to take the crown, as Jake Craig, Dylan Henley, Brody Smith, Ross Andreen, Grant Stucki, Jerrod Andis, Marcos Campos, Matthew Parks, Eric Kincaide, Mike Grajada, Michael Robinson, Taylor Fatheree all contributed to held the Packers and Raiders scoreless.

Against the Raiders in the early game, Brody Smith scored from eight yards out and Taylor Fatheree added the two-point conversion. Late in the fourth quarter Grant Stucki connected with Chase Harris on a 25-yard TD pass. Brody Smith added the two-point conversion to make the final score 16-0 in favor of the Cowboys.

In the final game of the tournament, the Packers and Cowboys held each other scoreless until late in the fourth quarter. Grant Stucki took the ball in on a quarterback sweep to make the final score 6-0. The touchdown was set up by a blocked punt by the Cowboys Jerrod Andis.

Grant Stucki of the Cowboys was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

The Cowboys finished the season with a 5-1 record.

Cowboy coaches Mando Ramirez and Dick Henley will take 25 Tiger League players to an all-star tournament Nov. 6 in Dumas. There will be an all-star tournament in Pampa Nov. 13 at Harvester Field.

Rangers trade Gonzalez to Tigers

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Juan Gonzalez is long gone.

Juan Gonzalez, a two-time AL MVP and one of baseball's most feared hitters, was traded by the Texas Rangers to the Detroit Tigers in a nine-player deal Tuesday.

"We've been working the last couple of years to acquire a marquee player," Tigers general manager Randy Smith said, calling Gonzalez "a franchise player and future Hall of Famer."

Going with Gonzalez to Detroit were pitcher Danny Patterson and catcher Gregg Zaun.

The Rangers received pitchers Justin Thompson, Alan Webb and Francisco Cordero, outfielder Gabe Kapler, catcher Bill Haselman and infielder Frank Catalanotto.

Gonzalez, known as "Juan Gone" for his home runs, was the AL MVP in 1996 and 1998. The Tigers have until Saturday to exercise a $7.5 million option on him for next year, and the sides spoke shortly after the trade was made.

Gonzalez, 30, is eligible for free agency after the 2000 season.

"We just weren't prepared to ... go into next season with that over our heads," Rangers general manager Doug Melvin said.

"I guess it heated up over the last couple of days," Melvin said. "We had talked about it at length. Randy Smith has been on vacation in Hawaii, so it was a long-distance call trying to get the deal done."

Smith, celebrating his wedding anniversary in Maui, said: "If you're going to deal with premier players, there's always a chance they'll walk. But you have to dare to be good."

"It's very difficult to entice a free agent to come to a city that hasn't won recently," he said. "Most players have to experience Detroit to see how good it is to play here."

Gonzalez, a two-time All-Star, hit .326 with 39 home runs and 128 RBIs this year. He led the Rangers to the AL West titles in 1996, 1998 and 1999, yet all three seasons ended in disappointment as each time they were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs by the eventual World Series champion New York Yankees.

"The trade hurts my feelings, because it's after 13 consecutive years with one organization, giving them my best," Gonzalez told Puerto Rico television station Teleonce.

Nonetheless, he commended the Rangers organization for the way he was treated.

"I thank the Rangers organization for giving me the opportunity to be a professional," Gonzalez said. "It's a great organization, and they treated me like a king."

Detroit went 69-92 last season and finished third in the AL Central, 27 1/2 games behind Cleveland in their final season at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers hope for a fresh start next season when they move into new Comerica Park under newly hired manager Phil Garner.

"Over the last few years, we have worked hard to develop a farm system with a high talent level and strong depth," Smith said, without which "we could not have made today's deal."

Melvin said Thompson is highly regarded, although the left-hander underwent arthroscopic surgery on his pitching shoulder Aug. 26. At the time he was put on the disabled list, then manager Larry Parrish said Thompson was "mentally beat up."

"Whenever there's surgery, there's a certain amount of risk involved," Melvin said. "He was pitching hurt, and that was affecting his last few performances."

Thompson, 26, was 9-11 with a 5.11 ERA. He was an All-Star during his first full season in 1997, but has been slowed by injuries.

In 11 seasons with Texas, Gonzalez batted .294 with 340 home runs and 1,075 RBIs.

Gonzalez played in 49 games combined for the Rangers in 1989 and 1990 before spending his first full season in the majors in 1991.

He batted .314 with 47 home runs and 144 RBIs in 1996 as Texas won its first division title, and batted .318 with 45 homers and 157 RBIs in 1998.

The Puerto Rican native put up more big numbers last season, but his production was somewhat overshadowed by his refusal to play in the All-Star Game and the strong offensive production from teammates Rafael Palmeiro and Ivan Rodriguez.

Gonzalez and the hard-hitting Rangers also were criticized after getting swept by the Yankees in the opening round. Texas has scored a total of only two runs in their last 60 postseason innings, and lost nine in a row to New York.

Gonzalez was considered a lock to be one of the reserves chosen for July's All-Star game in Boston, but he told reporters that he would not play in the classic unless he was voted in as a starter by the fans.

Melvin and Rangers manager Johnny Oates said they disagreed with Gonzalez's decision, but never criticized him publicly.

"Changes are positive, now I have to give my best. I can't say I'm going to sign with Detroit, because I still have a year left (in my contract)," Gonzalez said.

Kapler, 24, became the Tigers' center fielder once Brian Hunter was traded to Seattle early in the season. Kapler hit .245 with 18 home runs and 49 RBIs.

Cordero, a 22-year-old righty, made his major league debut and was 2-2 with a 3.32 ERA in 20 relief appearances.

Catalanotto, 25, hit .276 with 11 home runs and 35 RBIs as a second baseman. Haselman, a 33-year-old backup, hit .273 with four home runs and 10 RBIs.

Webb, a 20-year-old lefty, was 9-9 with a 4.95 ERA at Double-A Jacksonville.

Along with Gonzalez, the Tigers got Patterson and Zaun, both 28. The right-handed Patterson was 2-0 with a 5.67 ERA in 53 relief appearances and Zaun hit .247 with one homer and 12 RBIs as a backup to Rodriguez.

Spurs slips by 76ers in NBA opener

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Tim Duncan appeared to pick up where he left off in the NBA Finals last season.

And veteran guard Terry Porter wasted no time helping his new team as San Antonio defeated the Philadelphia 76ers 89-76 Tuesday night to open defense of their NBA championship.

Duncan had 20 points and 16 rebounds in 28 minutes.

But, he said, the Spurs were rusty.

"We had problems getting in a flow, partly because of their defense and partly because our offense was shaky," Duncan said.

Porter, a free agent signed in the offseason, came off the bench for 15 points, including three 3-pointers.

"I was just happy I could come in and contribute," said Porter, who helped relieve starting point guard Avery Johnson when he was in foul trouble. "I had to come in and maintain the rhythm of the team."

Porter helped David Robinson ignite a 17-0 fourth-quarter rally that broke open a close game and put San Antonio comfortably ahead.

"Terry Porter is a heck of a professional besides being a great basketball player," Spurs coach Gregg Popovich said. "What you saw tonight is exactly why we wanted him in the fold."

"Terry Porter hit big, big shots for us," Robinson added. "Terry has already proven to be a great addition."

1 Public Notice

ORDINANCE NO. 1340

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS, PROVIDING THAT THE CODE OF ORDINANCES, CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS, BE AMENDED BY ADDING A SECTION TO BE NUMBERED SECTION 12-235, PROHIBITING THE RUNNING OF A PARKED MOTOR VEHICLE FOR LONGER THAN FIFTEEN MINUTES IN OR ADJACENT TO A PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY IN DESIGNATED RESIDENTIAL ZONES WITHIN THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS; PROVIDING FOR A PENALTY; PROVIDING FOR AN EFFECTIVE DATE; AND PROVIDING FOR PUBLICATION.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS:

Section 1.

That the Code of Ordinances of the City of Pampa,

1 Public Notice

Texas, be amended by adding a section to be numbered Section 12-235, to read as follows:

"Sec. 12-235. Restricting Running of Vehicles Engines-Time Limit-Zones.

(a) Findings and Purpose. The City Commission finds that inadequate control of noise, odor and fumes from the operation of certain motor vehicles as hereinafter defined is a danger to the health and welfare of the City's population; therefore the City Commission enacts this ordinance for the purpose of protecting the public health and general welfare of its population.

(b) Definitions. "Truck-Tractor" as used in this ordinance shall mean any motor vehicle with a rated capacity of two (2) tons or more according to the manufacturer's classification.

(c) Running an Engine. It shall be unlawful for any person to start the engine of a truck-tractor parked upon a public street, parkway, boulevard or alley or parked within fifteen (15) feet of a residence located in any area zoned as a single-family dwelling district, two-family dwelling district, multiple-family dwelling district, or mobile home district as established by the zoning ordinances of the City as currently enacted or as they may hereafter be amended, and to continue running of said engine for a continuous period in excess of fifteen (15) minutes. The stopping of the engine for a period of time less than four (4) hours shall not interrupt the continuous fifteen (15) minute time frame for purposes of determining a violation of this Section. This Section shall not prohibit the parking or standing of a truck-tractor in a public street in such zoned areas for the purpose of expeditiously loading and unloading passengers, freight or merchandise."

1 Public Notice

1 Public Notice

Section 2.

It is a misdemeanor for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required under Section 12-235. Upon conviction, such person shall be subject to the penalties set out in Sec. 1-5 of the Code.

Section 3.

This ordinance shall be effective upon its adoption and shall be enforceable ten (10) days after its publication.

PASSED AND APPROVED on its first reading this 12th day of October, 1999.

PASSED AND APPROVED on its second and final reading and ordered published this 26th day of October, 1999.

CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS

ATTEST: Phyllis Jeffers, City Secretary

E-34 Nov. 3, 10, 1999

ORDINANCE NO. 1339

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS, PROVIDING THAT THE CODE OF ORDINANCES, CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS, BE AMENDED BY ADDING A SECTION TO BE NUMBERED SECTION 12-234, PROHIBITING PARKING OF CERTAIN VEHICLES, TRUCKS, TRAVEL TRAILERS, BOATS, TRAILERS, AND RECREATIONAL VEHICLES ON PUBLIC RIGHT-OF-WAY IN OR ADJACENT TO DESIGNATED RESIDENTIAL ZONES WITHIN

1 Public Notice

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF PAMPA, TEXAS: Section 1. That the Code of Ordinances of the City of Pampa, Texas, be amended by adding a section to be numbered Section 12-234. The City Commission of the City hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, subsection, paragraph, clause, or phrase hereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, paragraphs, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional or invalid.

(1) To protect the public health, safety and general welfare; (2) To reduce traffic hazards; (3) To protect property values; and (4) To enhance and improve the physical appearance of the City. (b) Definitions. The following definitions are applicable to this Ordinance: (1) Recreational dual purpose vehicle: A pickup with a slide-in camper or a van type vehicle converted for camping use, less than two (2) tons in manufacturer's rated capacity and no longer than twenty-two (22') in length, either of which is used for constant transportation and incidental camping purposes.

(2) Recreational equipment or trailer: Any boat, on or off a trailer, any boat trailer, and any utility, cargo or stock trailer. (3) Recreational equipment or trailer/oversized: Any recreational equipment or trailer whose total size or total combined (equipment and trailer measured together) size, excluding any trailer tongue, is over seven feet (7') in width or seven feet (7') in height or twenty-two feet (22') in length.

(4) Recreational vehicle: Recreational vehicle, vacation travel trailer and travel trailer are used synonymously and mean a vehicle designed for a temporary or short-term occupancy for travel, recreational and vacation uses. Such vehicles shall include any travel trailer, camp trailer, pop-up tent campers, house trailer, mobile home, motor home or house car, and any pickup camper, on or off the pickup (excluding dual purpose vehicles) except a simple shell, on or off the pickup, having no cooking or bath facilities.

(5) Truck-tractor: A vehicle with a rated capacity of two (2) tons or more according to the manufacturer's classification. (c) Parking Prohibited Upon Public Streets and Other Public Ways. It shall be unlawful for any person to leave, park or stand any recreational equipment or trailers, recreational equipment or trailer/oversized, recreational vehicle, truck, or truck-tractor upon any public street, alley, parkway boulevard, or public place within or adjacent to any area zoned as a single-family dwelling district, two-family dwelling district, multiple-family dwelling district, or mobile home district as established by the zoning ordinance of the City as currently enacted or as it may hereafter be amended.

This section shall not prevent the parking or standing of the above-described vehicles in such zoned areas for the purpose of expeditiously loading and unloading passengers, freight or merchandise and, provided, further, that any recreational vehicle may be parked upon any public street, parkway or boulevard in front of the owner's or lessee's residence for a period no longer than ninety-six (96) hours for preparing such recreational vehicle by the owner or lessee for travel or by a guest of the person residing at the property where the recreational vehicle is parked. Removal of such vehicle for any period of time less than forty-eight (48) hours shall not interrupt the continuous ninety-six (96) hour period for purposes of determining a violation of this section. Any such vehicle so unlawfully parked, after having been placarded with a notice by the City of the violation of the foregoing prohibition on any previous occasion, may be towed from its location or detained at the operator's expense.

(d) Prohibiting Parking/Adjacent to Residential Zones. It shall be unlawful for any person to leave, park or stand or permit or allow any recreational equipment or trailers, recreational equipment or trailer/oversized, recreational vehicle, truck, or truck-tractor or any public street, alley, parkway or boulevard abutting a portion of any single-family dwelling district, two-family dwelling district, or mobile home district.

Section 2. The provisions of this ordinance shall be enforceable six (6) months after the final publication date of this ordinance.

Section 3. It is a misdemeanor for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required under Section 12-234. Upon conviction, such person shall be subject to the penalties set out in Sec. 1-5 of the Code in addition to any other penalties provided in the foregoing sections.

Section 4. It is a misdemeanor for any person to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required under Section 12-234. Upon conviction, such person shall be subject to the penalties set out in Sec. 1-5 of the Code in addition to any other penalties provided in the foregoing sections.

Section 5. Any ordinance, or part thereof, in conflict herewith is expressly repealed.

Section 6. This ordinance shall be effective upon its adoption and shall be enforceable as provided under Section 2 above. PASSED AND APPROVED on its first reading the 12th day of October, 1999.

PASSED AND APPROVED on its second and final reading and ordered published this 26th day of October, 1999.

National Hospice Month celebrates 'extraordinary care'

BSA Hospice joins more than 3,000 hospice providers throughout the United States in observing November as National Hospice Month, honoring the nation's hospice professionals and volunteers. Sponsored by the Hospice Association of America and the National Hospice organization, the month-long celebration not only pays tribute to hospice providers dedicated to the care of terminally ill patients and their families, but also increases public awareness about available choices in end-of-life care. "We've found that many times someone who is facing a terminal illness doesn't know where to turn for comfort and support," said Sherry McCavit, manager of BSA Hospice-Pampa/Borger. "National Hospice Month is one part of our continuing efforts to lessen people's reluctance to talk about death and to let them know about the supportive, compassionate and pain-relieving services that hospice provides." This year's theme, "Hospice: Extraordinary Care for the People You Love," recognizes the physical, spiritual and emotional support hospice professionals and volunteers offer to patients and families coping with life's most challenging transition. BSA Hospice-Pampa/Borger begins National Hospice Month activities at 7 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 4, with a free, one-evening seminar, "Coping With the Holidays," for persons who have recently experienced the death of a loved one. John Southern, M.Ed., a licensed professional counselor, is to lead the workshop. Seminar participants can learn a number of practical ideas to help them cope with the stressful tasks and painful memories often associated with the holidays. Topics include tips for handling decorating, shopping, cards, holiday music, food and cooking, traditions, spiritual considerations, post holiday plans and special projects. To learn more about the seminar, call 665-6677.

BSA Hospice and its volunteer support group, Olivia's Angels, will host "Coping With Caregiving" workshop featuring Inez Pirie, registered nurse, hospice volunteer, and author of "Coping With Caregiving" on Friday, Nov. 5.

This workshop is offered dur-

TFB meeting slated in Waco

WACO — Farm leaders from across the state will convene Nov. 8-10 at the Texas Farm Bureau headquarters in Waco to review proposed resolutions from county Farm Bureaus that could guide the state's largest farm organization into the next millennium. The committee will consider resolutions on international trade, national policies, property taxes, farm programs and numerous other subjects. Farm policy is likely to be a hot topic as agricultural producers are currently suffering some of the lowest commodity prices in years.

The leaders will edit and consolidate the many resolutions into a policy development packet, which will be voted upon Nov. 28- Dec. 1 at the TFB State Convention in Corpus Christi. State resolutions approved there will become official policy of the TFB for 2000.

TFB Vice President and District IV Director Donald Patman of Waxahachie, will serve as chairman of the Resolutions Committee. District 11 Director Curt Mowery of Rosharon, will be the vice chairman and District 3 Director L. C. Harrison of Wichita Falls will serve as secretary.

Kody Carson of Olton, the 1999 Young Farmer and Rancher Committee chairman, will also serve as a member of the committee.

ing two different time periods at Amarillo Botanical Gardens, 1400 Streit Drive: 10 a.m.-12 noon with brunch served or 6 p.m.-8 p.m. with a light supper served. This workshop is a gift to the community and surrounding areas from Olivia's Angels and is free of charge. For more information, call (806) 212-8787 or 1-800-315-6209.

On Sunday, Nov. 7, BSA Hospice-Pampa/Borger plans its annual memorial service commemorating almost 200 patients from this area who were served during the past year. "Celebration of Life: A Time to Remember" is set for 2 p.m., at the First Presbyterian Church, 418 W. Coolidge in Borger.

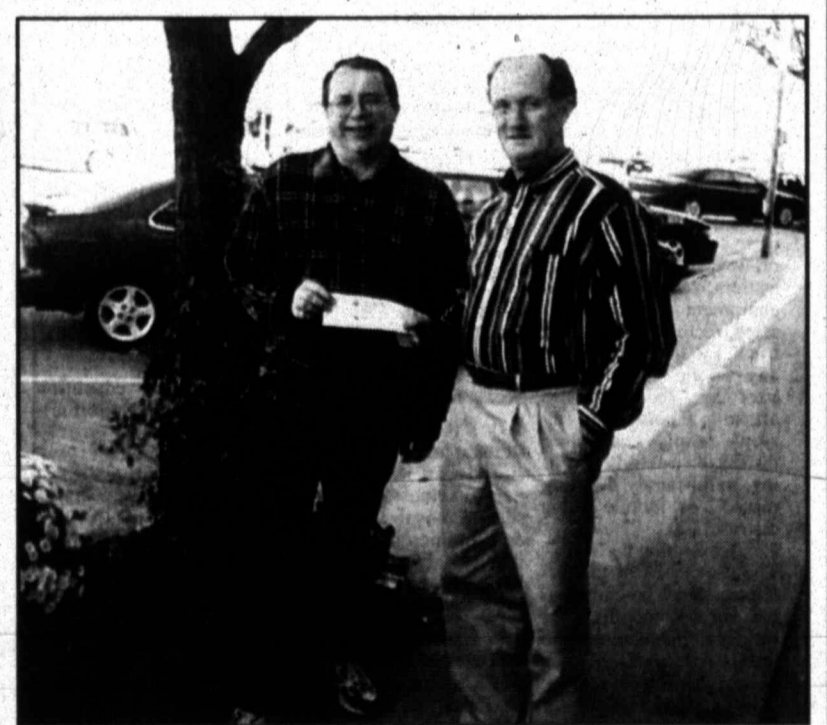

As a "thank-you" to all the businesses and organizations who help BSA Hospice through the year, staff and volunteers plan to bake breads and cookies for "Cookie Day," Nov. 10. On that day, hospice volunteers are to distribute more than 100 cookie baskets filled with the home-baked goods to BSA Hospice's special supporters throughout the panhandle. Concluding the month's activities will be the Olivia's Angels Tree Lighting Service at 5:30 p.m., Monday, Nov. 22, outside BSA Hospice main office, 600 N. Tyler, in Amarillo. The Pampa/Borger Tree of Love lighting service is scheduled for 6:30 p.m., Friday, Dec. 3, at the Pampa office, 800 N. Sumner. Both tree lighting services kick-off annual events to raise funds for special patient needs that will continue through December.

BSA Hospice provides comprehensive health and supportive services for this area's terminally ill patients and their families. These services, provided by a team of professionals and volunteers, range from high tech nursing and medical care to basic assistance with the activities of daily living and bereavement counseling.

To learn more about BSA Hospice's National Hospice Month observances or about hospice care in general, contact 665-6677.
