Court Actions Hang Over Lewis' Head

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (U) — Here's a quick run-down of the many court actions pending or in progress against John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers:

1. A pending request from the government for an 80-day anti-strike injunction under the Taft-Hartley Law.
2. The government's current request for punishment of the union for contempt of court in refusing to obey a 10-day temporary restraining order.
3. A court order barring the union from demanding four key contract clauses (union shop, welfare fund for unionists only, a clause stating miners must work only when able and willing, and memorial period work stoppages.) The National Labor Relations Board must yet rule whether these are unfair labor practices.

4. Various other actions. These include the suit of a miner for an accounting of mine welfare funds; suits by Sen. Bridges (R-NH) and Ezra Van Horn to declare themselves not responsible for any disposition of welfare funds; a court action by Charles I. Dawson to force Lewis to recognize him as the operator member of the welfare board of trustees; and damage suits brought by operators against the union, particularly in Ohio and Kentucky, seeking to collect money from the mine union for alleged illegal acts.

ANTI-KISSING RULE STIRS REVOLT AMONG HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

BETHANY, Okla., Feb. 21. (U) — A kiss is not just a kiss in Bethany. It's the object of school rules which ban the practice in public. That's the big reason five high school students were expelled indefinitely yesterday. A court battle may even be brewing.

Riddell Riggs, 16, stole the forbidden kiss Thursday night at a basketball game as he crowned pretty 16-year-old Charlotte McClain "basketball sweetheart."

That electrified this town of 2,500 just west of Oklahoma City, where the Church of the Nazarene dominates. Public kissing is in the same class with smoking, beer drinking, school dances and women wearing shorts. In short, it isn't done.

A similar queen-kissing incident in 1948 resulted in a picture of the ceremonies being banned from the yearbook.

So anticipating punishment, about 30 students walked out of classes Friday. The rebellion swelled, not just to the no-kissing rule, but to the entire set of school regulations.

Now a court fight may be in the making, for about 250 parents have taken up the kids' battle. They met last night and charged the school is ruled by one religious sect and that students who don't belong to that faith are discriminated against.

The church operates Bethany-Peniel College here.

The citizens committee organized Sunday has retained Atty. Fred L. Sikes who says they will seek dismissal of the high school principal, Mrs. Alonzo Norwood.

"If we can't get any action from the school board, we'll go to the state board of education. And if we can't get action there, we will go to court." The board meets tonight.

Dana Nursing A Sore Proboscis

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 21. (U) — Dana Andrews, in nursing what the boxing profession calls a "butterfly nose," the actor's break absorbed a punch thrown by Ex-Light Heavyweight Bob Evans yesterday during filming of a movie fight scene.

Lou Nova, onetime heavyweight title contender, was also performing in the fight sequence.

Andrews' physicians said the nose will swell considerably and cause both eyes to blacken. 20th Century-Fox studio said work on the picture, "Where the Sidewalk Ends," may be delayed.

Notice Of Election Is Posted By City

Notice calling for the election of three city commissioners on April 4 was posted Monday.

Mayor G. W. Dabney called the election, naming Robert Stripling and T. E. Rosson as judges. Ballots will be cast at the City hall fire station.

Ida Lupino Sues For A Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21. (U) — Actor Louis Hayward's second wife, his first was Ida Lupino — sued for divorce yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Morrow Hayward, 38, Beverly Hills society woman, charged cruelty. They were married in 1946. Hayward, 40, was divorced by Miss Lupino in 1945.

Mediators Busy On Phone Dispute

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (U) — The government concentrated on a part of the telephone labor-management dispute today in trying to head off a nationwide phone strike next Friday.

Federal Mediation Director Cyrus S. Ching called in company and union negotiators for the Western Electric Sales and Installation subsidiary of the Bell Telephone System.

This segment of the Bell System has workers stationed at most Bell Company offices and exchanges throughout the country and any walkout by them might bring sympathy stay-aways by phone operators and other industry employees.

Officials of the CIO's Communications Workers of America

(CWA) have said they expect other phone workers will observe picket lines to be established by 100,000 workers due to strike Friday morning at 8 o'clock local time.

CWA has said the original 100,000 strikers will be joined by an additional 150,000 after March 1 when another set of contracts expire.

Union Promises To Aid In Hearings On T & P Disputes

DALLAS, Feb. 21. (U) — Hearings before a presidential emergency board studying disputes between the Texas & Pacific Railway and four railway brotherhoods continued here today.

The hearings opened yesterday, highlighted by a union promise "to co-operate with the board in every way possible to settle these differences."

The emergency board has 30 days to hear the dispute and to report to President Truman. Both railroad and the unions are forbidden to disrupt service until another 30 days after the board makes its report.

H. C. Hobart of Houston, assistant grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, promised co-operation of the unions.

J. T. Suggs, attorney for the T&P, said the foundation of "this entire controversy is the union's attempt to cancel the time limit rules for handling claims. We believe these rules are unreasonable."

C. H. Smith of Fort Worth, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said the unions could find no proper procedure to adjust their grievances with the railroad.

He charged that since 1941 the railway had refused to allow workmen to appeal from the decision of the superintendents in denying claims.

"You now have a one-man rule, with no appeal," he told the board. "Employees are not informed as to why their claims are denied."

Russia Seized Advantage Of Nationalist Decay In China

Dr. H. H. Chang, speaking before a dinner-lecture session of the Knickerbocker Club at the Settles hotel Monday evening, spoke out sharply against the Chinese clique in China and the "clever game" the Russians played in their plan to obtain huge chunks of territory in the Far East during the waning days of World War II.
The representative of the Institute of Foreign Affairs, choosing as his theme, "America's Stake in Asia," stated he had the highest regard and warmest affection for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek but that "he had seen fit to surround himself with members of his family and his in-laws" who had only their own interest at heart.
"Russia," Chang stated, "is a nation such as ours falls only when it decays within, and its energies have been sapped."
Chang pointed out that the Chinese people became ripe for Communism because "they had lost faith in their government and had been let down repeatedly by their leaders."
The lecturer went on to explain the psychological defeat removed the will to fight within the Chinese people and they fell easy prey to the Reds.

GARDEN CITY STORE ENTERED; SCHOOL BURGLARY SAID SOLVED

GARDEN CITY, Feb. 21—For the second consecutive night, Garden City had a burglary Monday night.
And for the second time in five weeks, the Garden City Hardware & Feed store was the target.
A check Tuesday morning by Dan Houston and Lester Ratliff indicated no loss.
Meanwhile, burglary of the elementary and high school buildings Sunday night appeared to be solved. Sheriff Walter Teele, accompanied Bill Stevens of the custody.

Cigaret Tax Hike Gaining Senate Favor

AUSTIN, Feb. 21—The penny-a-pack cigarette tax increase bill won early Senate tests today.
One corrective amendment was quickly added to the bill before the Senate split, 16-10-13, against increasing the rebate to dealers to cover the cost of affixing and collecting the tax.
The House had pegged the rebate at 60 cents per pack, while Sen. Crawford Martin had sought to increase it to 80 cents. His amendment cost to the dealer of affixing the tax stamps, according to the state comptroller, amounted only to 20 cents.
The bill was the last major item of emergency legislation needing Senate clearance for the final working out of details on the entire administration program for meeting and financing elementary necessities.

Glasscock Gets Good Showers

GARDEN CITY, Feb. 21—Showers blanketed Glasscock county fairly well Monday evening, ranging from a third to three-quarters of an inch.
Garden City had three-fourths of an inch as did the Wilcox ranch on the east. The Gibson place, near Garden City, had .51, the western part of the county five-eighths of an inch, and St. Lawrence, on the south, .31. However, the rain played out sharply to the south and John Henry Compton, on the Reagan-Glasscock county line, had only a sprinkle.
The showers will be of substantial benefit to ranges, and is especially welcomed with lambing season not far away.

Area Gets Only Slight Dampening

Thundershowers brought a limited amount of moisture to the Big Spring area Monday night.
Apparently the fall was heaviest in the northwestern part of the county, with a quarter of an inch reported at Ackerly.
The Weather Bureau at the Municipal Airport here gauged .15 of an inch, and light showers were reported at Stanton, but the moisture did not extend as far south as San Angelo.

Pythians Honor Memory Of Brown

Knights of Pythias will dispense with their ritualistic work this evening in honor of Judge J. E. Brown, who died here Monday morning.
The county judge had completed degree work only last week. A short business session was to be held at the KP hall today, however, and members were to furnish a guard of honor for the body tonight.

HE'LL BECOME OCTOGENARIAN

Wednesday will be George Washington's birthday, but it means more than that to one Big Springger.
It will also mark the birth date of H. C. "Mickey" Holmes, 80-year-old city hall grounds caretaker.
He has been working around the city hall "for more than 25 years." During that time, the octogenarian hasn't missed a working day except during vacations.

With 80 years and more than 100 descendants to his credit, I. P. M. Ray paused Tuesday for his four-score milestone.
No special celebration of the occasion was planned, but Mr. Ray took time to tubulate 56 living grandchildren, 46 great-grandchildren.
His 80th birthday finds him in retirement and feeling wonderfully well except for a little cold.
Longevity runs in his family. His mother lived past her 96th birthday and had approximately 200 living descendants in five generations at the time.

Adams, Martinez, McCarthy Among Gloves Champions

Hoff Battered By HSU Lad

By WILBUR MARTIN AP STAFF
FORT WORTH, Feb. 21. — A savage attack last night created one 1938 Golden Gloves champion, gave another, and skill six more. Tom Adams of Abilene, three times light heavyweight champion, used a savage left-right attack to dethrone James Hoff of Houston in the heavyweight class. Adolfo Martinez of El Paso finally filled five years of desire by winning the welterweight title. Skillful boxing, footwork or headwork paid off for:

NEW SKIPPER—Dutch Funderburk (above) assumes the managerial reins of the Ballinger Longhorn baseball league club this season. He succeeds Red Brown, who resigned to take a coaching job in the Pacific Coast league.

Steers Launch Season Mar. 21

The Big Spring Steers will open their District 5AA baseball campaign in Sweetwater Tuesday, April 18. The Longhorns, who have been undergoing workouts for the past couple of weeks, plan to play eight practice games with 3AA teams before launching their conference program, however. Coach Conn Isaacs, who attended a 3AA schedule meeting in Lamesa Monday, said the Big Springers will play the following exhibition program:

March 21—Odessa here. March 22—Lubbock here. March 24—Odessa here. March 28—Midland here. March 30—Lubbock here. March 31—Lamesa here. April 3—Lamesa there. April 4—Midland here.

District 5AA coaches gathered in Abilene Sunday to line up the following schedule cards:

- April 18—San Angelo at Abilene; BIG SPRING at Sweetwater.
- April 21—San Angelo at BIG SPRING; Abilene at Sweetwater.
- April 25—Sweetwater at San Angelo; BIG SPRING at Abilene.
- April 28—Abilene at San Angelo; Sweetwater at BIG SPRING.
- May 2—BIG SPRING at San Angelo; Sweetwater at Abilene.
- May 5—San Angelo at Sweetwater; Abilene at BIG SPRING.

Football Drills Are Postponed

Spring football drills at the local high school were called off by Head Coach Carl Coleman Monday, less than a week after they got underway. Reasons to both coaches and players influenced Coleman's decision. Flu, influenza and pneumonia have forced a sizeable portion of athletes to bed in recent weeks. Coleman indicated the workouts would not be resumed until after the district track and field meet, which takes place in April. The workouts started officially last Wednesday and were to have extended through March 17.

Penalty Box Set Up In JC Meet

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 21. — A new wrinkle in basketball will be tried here next week during the Texas Junior College Tournament. Instead of banishing a player from the game because of personal fouls, the player will be penalized in time. Here's the plan, as worked out by Marty Karow, head basketball coach at Texas A&M: If a player gets his fifth personal foul in the first half he must go to the sidelines for three minutes. Each additional foul will cost him that much time. If the foul is in the first 15 minutes of the second half, he will be fined two minutes. It will cost him one minute of inactivity if he fouls in the last five minutes. Karow says officials will bench permanently any player committing violent fouls. He says his plan will let the fans see more of the stars in action, even if they make more than the allotted five fouls.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hapt
Horses which have been nominated for the April 23rd running of the Big Spring Futurity have been showing to splendid advantage on other tracks in recent weeks. Rayne Girl, one of the top New Orleans two-year-olds eligible here, proved to be a fine mudder in winning the quarter mile 38,000 claiming race at New Orleans last Tuesday. Time on the sloppy track was 23.3 seconds. Rayne Girl is owned by Ellis Faulk, who also has Pepper Jr., named for the April classic here. In a previous race, Rayne Girl wound up a close second. Thunder P, Joe Priest's fine quarter horse colt also qualified to run in the Futurity, won the Palatka Stakes, special quarter horse 230-yard event at Sunshine Park, Oldsmar, Fla., several days ago, negotiating the distance in 1:14 seconds. Thunder P beat Tom Carlton and Double Eagle in what was his second start there. He had earlier been beaten at Sunshine Park by a field of mature horses. Reticule and La Marga, the King Ranch two-year-olds booked here, who've been burning up the track at New Orleans, weren't able to hold the lead in the Debutante Stakes there last Wednesday. This feature event, which carried $5,000 added money, was open to two-year-old fillies and was won by Juliet's Nurse. Reticule finished a close second while La Marga ran a dead heat with Gloaming for third. Reticule and La Marga were the favorites. The King Ranch duo are handled by Earnest Lane, along with Senior Hygro, another Futurity nominee.

TOLLIE MCKOWN NAMED COACH AT BEEVILLE
Tollie McKown, who resigned recently as coach at Fairfurnis high, has assumed football coaching reins at Beeville, according to dispatches from that area. He succeeds Joe Jack Pearce, who resigned there recently. Tommy Chadwick, a Colorado City lad, is in line for McKown's old job at Fairfurnis.

FARQUHAR HOSPITALIZED AFTER FIRST DRILL
Ronald Farquhar, a strapping youngster considered one of the brightest prospects in Carl Coleman's high school football camp here, had to check out of camp and into a hospital on the first day of spring drills here last Wednesday. Young Farquhar, who played end on the B team last year, reportedly had a growth on his intestines. He'll probably miss all the workouts. Ron was under ether at the hospital last week. He uttered a loud groan upon coming out of it, not about his physical problems but because he had to pass up the workouts. Farquhar likes his football.

Three of the McMurry lads who played basketball against HCJC here the other night are getting into variety games regularly. That would be Tom Hamilton, Joe Chambers and Bill George.

BROWN STOPPED JUST SHORT OF OBJECTIVE
Wayne Brown, a regular on the Big Spring high school basketball team the past season, scored exactly 99 more points in 1949-50 than he did the season before. However, Brown had been kept regret about the campaign just completed. He lacked one point of counting 200, would have missed it easily had he been able to play in the last two games. Wayne missed those contests because of illness.

Steerette Volley Ballers Host Odessa Brigade at 8 Tonight

Big Spring and Odessa high schools girls' volleyball teams are to play tonight at the high school gym. Three games are scheduled with A, B and C squads to participate. The C-string game starts at 8 p. m.; the B game is slated for 7 o'clock, and the feature event will follow at 8 p. m.

The Big Spring regulars defeated the Odessa girls, 23-22, during the Odessa tournament Feb. 10-11. Starting lineup for the Steerettes will likely be Pat Kiser, Mona Lee Walker, Barbara Dehlinger, Jo Nell West, Mackey Younger, and Sun Craig or Rosemary Rice. Miley Tucker, Hope Ballou, Ann Elliott, Ruby Allen, June Blythe, and Jean Tindol, or Helen Powell will probably start the contest for the visitors. The local club has gone to the semi-finals in two tournaments recently, the one at Odessa and the other at Bronco. The Steerettes' ranks were riddled by illness last weekend, Miss Craig, who had rated the all-

Jones Selected On 5-AA Team

Howard Jones, lanky Big Spring senior, was named today to the District 5AA all-star basketball team in a poll of the coaches. The vote was conducted by the San Angelo Standard Times. James Blaken Brownwood, who is selected as the league's outstanding player. Jones collected four of the five possible votes. Others honored, besides Blake and Jones, were Doyle Brunson of Sweetwater, Hub Ingraham of Abilene, Jimmy Magill and Clifford Rowland, both of San Angelo. Others receiving votes in the balloting included Riley Cross of Sweetwater, Carl Nunn of Sweetwater, Don Strang of Abilene, Glen Darling of Abilene and Tom Montgomery of Abilene.

Martin's 4-H Show This Week

STANTON, Feb. 21.—Final plans are being shaped for the annual Martin county 4-H and FFA Livestock show here Friday and Saturday. Trophies are on display downtown, and prize awards have been gathered. Monday evening the Lions club voted to appropriate funds of bedding hay for the stock. Boys will groom and cut their entries in place on Friday and judging and an auction sale are set for Saturday.

Legion Assumes Lead In YMCA Cage Circuit

American Legion grabbed the lead in YMCA basketball league play by registering two victories at the HCJC gymnasium Monday night.

The Legionnaires booped the HCJC reserves, 45-47, in a thrilling opener, fighting off a determined opponent, fighting off a determined last quarter rally on the part of the Hawks.

They returned later to humble Texas Electric Service, 35-25. Grapette lost a 37-21 practice decision to Texas and Pacific in an added attraction.

Points are awarded on the basis of ten for first, nine for second and on down the line. A total of 170 sports writers and broadcasters, the season's high participated in the latest balloting and gave the standings a good juggling even if they didn't dislodge any of the top ten. Here's the new rundown: Bradley, Holy Cross, Ohio State, Duquesne, Kentucky, St. John's, UCLA, Western Kentucky, North Carolina State and Long Island University. Only two of these remained stationary from last week. Ohio State, the Western Conference power, held firm at third. Kentucky, the defending national champion, was an unshakable fifth. Duquesne, beaten only once in 22 games, climbed from seventh to fourth. UCLA moved to the vacated spot from tenth and Western Kentucky graduated a notch. St. John's of Brooklyn fell from No. 4 to No. 6. Long Island University tumbled from sixth. North Carolina State dropped one rung. Bradley, a team of exclusive Illinois talent, has been coming fast since losing games to Purdue, Kentucky and Detroit. It has won the last nine engagements, trouncing St. Louis last night, 52-45. Holy Cross, on the other hand, had a tight squeeze last week with Rhode Island State, a team with a 13-6 record—barely winning, 70-62. Ohio State, which clinched at least a share of the Big Ten crown by humbling Indiana last night, 76-65, became a definite threat for national honors. The Buckeyes, who have won 18 and lost 3, received 1,861 points—including 12 first place votes.

The lowest game score for a Michigan State basketball team was in 1901 when the Spartans defeated Michigan Normal, 12-7.

Michigan State ran up its highest basketball score in 1904 when the Spartans defeated Battle Creek, 85-4.

Bradley Replaces Crusaders In AL Writers' Cage Poll

Buckeyes Third, Kentucky Fifth

By WILL GRIMSLEY AP Staff

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. — Bradley University broke Holy Cross' five-week grip on the position and moved in today as the nation's No. 1 basketball team.

The dashing lads from Peoria, Ill., although beaten three times, won solid support from all sections of the country to amass 1,269 points in the weekly Associated Press poll.

This gave them a 125-point edge over undefeated Holy Cross although the Crusaders from Worcester, Mass., still commanded the largest number of first place votes—44 compared with 26 for the new leader.

Texans Favored In Links Meet

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Tues., Feb. 21, 1950

SWEEPSTAKE MARK ESTABLISHED HERE

Don McDaniel, Fort Worth, has set a new all-time Couden Bowling Sweepstakes scoring record. McDaniel hit the mark here Sunday for an eight-game total of 1655, which topped H. L. McNinn's old mark by 81 points. McNinn, from Amarillo, set his record of 1621 four years ago.

Almost as torrid as the Fort Worth pin-topper was Ben Brown of Lubbock, who Sunday became the third man in history to score 1000 or better. Brown drove for 1637 pins.

In all 45 keglers from Lubbock, Monahan, Abilene, Fort Worth and Big Spring posted scores for the seventh annual show last weekend and as many are due to show up Saturday and Sunday of this week, when the Sweepstakes draw to a close.

Entries are due from Amarillo, Odessa and San Angelo. A few more will probably show up from Lubbock, too, along with more local hot-shots.

Two Big Spring men were among the top nine scorers last weekend. Jake Douglass accumulated 1450 pins to wind up in sixth place while Tuney Goodson was ninth with a count of 1412 points.

Trailing McDaniel and Brown were Peck White, Abilene, 1576; Elton Lewis, Midland, 1544; W. E. Crites, Midland, 1515; and J. O'Keefe, Lubbock, 1508.

After Douglass came Chris Christianson, Lubbock, with 1420, and then Goodson. Jack Smith is director of the Sweepstakes.

Double Header Booked Tonite

FORSAN, Feb. 21.—Teams from Stanton, Big Spring, and Forsan will clash here tonight in benefit performances for the YMCA cage leagues.

The double-header is scheduled to begin around 7:30 p. m. It will pit the Stanton All-Stars against the American Legion quintet from Big Spring, and Forsan against the Coca-Cola five.

Admission charges of 10 and 25 cents will be made for viewing the games. All proceeds are to go to the league treasury.

A big promise? Yes—and one the 1950 Nash Ambassador stands ready to prove the first time you ride in it.

Here is something absolutely new in the design, construction and balance of a fine car. For here is Airflyte Construction of double rigidity. Note how much sturdier it rides rough roads... how much smoother it is, with super-soft coil springs cushioning all four wheels.

And never was a moving car so quiet... so free of wind roar, thanks to Airflyte design... so free from body-bolt squeaks and rattles.

No, nothing on earth rides like the 1950 Nash Ambassador—nor gives you so much fine-car value! Even a Custom model, equipped with Hydra-Matic Drive, costs as much as a thousand dollars less than other fine cars. See your Nash dealer.

A Bible Thought For Today—

Until he runs out of gifts. We love those to whom we give gifts, not those from whom they come. "Every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts." —Prov. 19:6.

Judge Brown Had Earned Respect Through Friendliness, Service

Passing of County Judge J. E. Brown comes as a great shock to the people of Big Spring and Howard county. Apparently in perfect health, the judge fell victim to a sudden heart attack. Most people knew Ed Brown—he was that type of man. He liked people and he loved to make new friends. By nature he was congenial and sympathetic. It is somewhat ironic, yet altogether in character, that he spent some of his last hours sitting at the bedside of a friend, offering encouragement. While he had worked several years at the Texas & Pacific shops, most of his 35 years in Howard county had been spent in operation of a farm northwest of here. One of the characteristics he exhibited and which seemed to flourish in his occupation was that of neighborliness. It was perhaps this, together with an optimistic outlook and an interest in things worthwhile, that induced friends to prevail upon him to seek public office. How well he was esteemed is evidenced by having served five terms as County commissioner, an accomplishment of small proportions in that post. At the time of his death, he was serving out his first term as judge. He took proper pride in major progress for the county's road system within the past two years. These developments, in no small measure, will stand as a memorial to him. Loss of Judge Brown confronts the commissioners court with the necessity of naming a successor. The task will be simplified by the sole process of seeking to replace a good man with a good man.

World Government Proposals Pit Divergent Views On Best Route

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been hearing testimony pro and con on the general idea of a world government, with no fewer than eight separate bills now pending on this subject. The World Federalists, the Atlantic Unionists, and the supporters of the United Nations have been heard, along with many other forms of action looking to peace and stability. The UN supporters in the main, say that we should concentrate all our efforts in building strength into that organization, which they insist is a going concern. Not so, say the federalists, the unionists and upholders of other rival schemes; the UN has degenerated into nothing but a debating society. The two most powerful groups are the World Federalists and the advocates of Atlantic Union. The chief difference between them is that the federalists want everybody in on the deal, including Russia, while the Atlantic Union people would exclude Russia and all others except Western Europe and the Western Hemisphere. One of the most potent advocates of union is Wm. L. Clayton of Houston, former undersecretary of state, who told the committee that Atlantic Union would "dispel the fear of war and greatly reduce the present unbearable military burden of the democracies," because Russia would not dare to challenge such an aggregation of powerful states. Union envisages one foreign policy one policy on defense, one currency and no customs. This, say its advocates, would create a force so materially and economically strong that no enemy would think of attacking it. It can be said of Atlantic Union that it is based on actual material and moral force, and would be made up of nations which in general see alike and have the same religious, political and economic outlook. On the other hand, World Federation would try to meld conflicting and dissimilar spiritual and economic forces into a workable whole. Compared with the practical and the workable, it is the stuff of dreams. Whether to reach for the stars or a bulwark may be the question.

Wanted: Second-Hand Village To Be Made Into Fun Retreat

NEW YORK. (U) — ANYBODY GOT A used town for sale — cheap? Burl Ives the big bearded singer is in the market for a second-hand small town in good condition if it has a mountain or two around it and the price is right. He'd like it for a purpose — to see if he can build a community where Americans can have some real down-to-earth fun again. "People don't have real fun anymore — not honest-to-god fun" complained "the Wayfarer" as he sat in slippers and ate comfortably overflowing an overstuffed chair in the Hotel Plaza. "I'd like to build a place where they could go and have fun and do the things they want — a creative place. "It would be an inside-out place rather than an outside-in place. By that I mean I'd want people to get the spirit of having their entertainment come from inside rather than from outside themselves."

New Russo-Chinese Pact Hides Some Very Interesting Things

MOSCOW'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE long-awaited Russo-Chinese treaty is held by observers generally to be far more interesting for what it conceals than for what it discloses. As Washington officials say, the full import of suspected secret agreements may appear only gradually. On the face of it the alliance would seem to be the written report of a love-feast, with Russia playing big brother to hardhit China. However, the big point is that an agreement has been reached at all. THE MANNER IN WHICH RUSSIA has kept extending its sphere of influence over northern China, and particularly in Manchuria, has been in direct opposition to the nationalistic ambitions of the Chinese Communist under leadership of Gen. Mao Tse-tung. Yet Mao appears to have won important concessions to China's sovereignty. Now that's a highly interesting development. We have observed that previous countries which have been brought into the Communist bloc by agreement—like those of eastern Europe—have become satellites of Russia. Their sovereignty rests in Moscow. There are, of course, differences between the satellites of Europe and the mighty land space of China with its population of close to 500 million. China is just too big and unwieldy to be regimented like one of the Balkan states. Moreover, Russia's operations have made it clear that she intends to use China as a base for the drive to bring all Asia into the Red fold. —IN ANY EVENT, WE NOW SHALL SEE a speeding up of the Moscow directed operations aimed at bringing the rice bowls — Indo-China, Thailand (Siam) and Burma — under control of China. Food is the pressing need of China now, and the success of the Communist drive may depend on quick access to rice. Famine already is striking hard at many millions north of the Yangtze River in China, and conditions are expected to grow worse. And what of future relations between China and Russia? Moscow has been following a well-defined program in the drive to communize the world. It would be absurd, it seems to me, to expect her to make any exception in the case of China. The new alliance of course means that Russia and China have agreed to work together in the Red offensive to take over Asia. Undoubtedly China has received concessions as an ally, but so long as the alliance lasts, just so long will China take her orders from Moscow.

Builders Of Capital Boulevards Make Virtual Admission Of $217,806 Fraud

WASHINGTON — Around the giant Pentagon Building, just across the Potomac, winds a labyrinth of beautiful boulevards built during the war at considerable cost to American taxpayers. The other day in Richmond, Va., the two builders of these boulevards, McKenzie Davidson and W. J. (Doc) Hardy, walked into court and pleaded "no contest" to four of six counts accusing them of defrauding the government of $217,806 in taxes—the same government which paid them handsomely on war contracts. Behind this virtual plea of guilty lies a long story, dating back to October 1948. The two road contractors had made out false invoices, written checks to other contractors, who then cashed the checks themselves, and generally falsified. Yet they argued, pleaded, and haggled with patient Justice Department attorneys. Finally, last July the case was sent to the U. S. Attorney in Richmond for prosecution, where, however, it dragged. It was not until Oct. 21, 1950, that the tax-evasion road builders finally were indicted. GRAVE PREPARATIONS Perhaps the gravest briefing given to congressional leaders since V-J day took place at the Pentagon Building last week. The substance of the closed-door session was that Russia must be preparing for aggressive war. The briefing was given by Lt. Gen. Alfred Gruenther on behalf of the joint chiefs of staff to members of both the Senate and House Appropriations Committees and Armed Services Committees. Gen. Gruenther was cautious in his statements, confined himself largely to a discussion of Soviet armed strength, let the congressmen draw their own conclusions. After listening to the report, however, Congressman Engel of Michigan, Sikes of Florida and Cannon of Missouri spoke out that Russia could have only one purpose in building such a powerful arsenal: to wage war. Here are some of the main facts presented by Gen. Gruenther—facts which Moscow already knows since there is no particular secret about our armed strength. Russia, he said, is spending 18 per cent of her national wealth on arms, which is triple what the United States is spending. Even taking our top budget figure of $13,500,000,000—which includes stockpiling—the United States is investing only 6 per cent of her wealth in defense. Russia has 40,000 tanks. This includes the best heavy tank in the world—the Joe Stalin Mark III. In contrast, the U. S. Army has only 7,000 tanks, none of them heavy. In the air, Russia has 17,000 planes, including 300 heavy bombers of the B-29 type. Meanwhile Soviet factories are working feverishly to build a strategic air force. Production of long-range bombers and jet fighters has been stepped up. To challenge our Navy, the Russians have 200 submarines of the latest, speediest German make. Most worrisome, however, is a new Russian torpedo piloted by an electronic brain that seeks out its own target. This ingenious torpedo can locate and blow up a ship eight miles away. Despite all this firepower, the backbone of Soviet military might is still her manpower, Gen. Gruenther stressed. Russia can muster over 500 divisions at the drop of a bomb. JOHNSON KEEPS QUIET Throughout the briefings, Secretary of Defense, Johnson took a back seat and let military spokesmen talk. At one point however, he broke in only to be slapped down by Congressman Sheppard of California. Sheppard wanted to know how reliable the information on Soviet strength was, and while a civilian expert was trying to explain that the iron curtain is drawing tighter, Johnson tried to brush aside the question. "If we can't get an answer," snapped Sheppard, "we may as well go home." The Secretary of Defense subsided. Some senators and congressmen feared the military chiefs were trying to scare Congress with their harrowing report into increasing appropriations. But, perhaps because of Johnson's stern eye, the military men made little positive comment. Gen. Gruenther brushed aside questions about increased military needs by warning: "Don't ask me. I am liable to be biased." One he quipped: "As Sen. Wherry has said, military people would fortify the moon." Gruenther also warned that we must not heed ourselves by overspending, that some people are too concerned about security and not enough about economy. Finally, Secretary of Defense Johnson broke in and suggested that the chiefs of staff should join Gen.

Gruenther in answering some of the questions. One by one, Gen. Bradley, Army Chief of Staff Collins, and Chief of Naval Operations Sherman agreed that economy comes first. Johnson beamed like a schoolteacher whose pupils are reciting the correct answers. Bradley reported that our occupation troops are in areas where they are strategically useful, and assured that we could meet any attack by quickly concentrating our forces. SPILLS BEANS This harmony over economy was finally shattered, however, when Air Force Chief of Staff Vandenberg was asked about the air force's needs. "Before Russia had the atomic bomb, the Air Force took the position that it needed 70 groups," replied Vandenberg coolly. "There is no reason to change that position now that Russia has the bomb." The talk about economy was so unanimous, however, that it disturbed Sen. Knowland of California, though he usually cautions economy. He finally broke in: "I want to know what we should spend in the judgment of the military people, regardless of what we can afford. Congress and the executive branch will determine what we can afford. But we can't make a proper evaluation if the military is going to tell us what we can afford." Gen. Vandenberg, however, remained the only definite dissenting voice to the general note of economy.

Holding Heroine's Hand Palls On Film Actor

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 21 (U)—John Lund is tired of holding the Heroine's hand. He wants action. "I would certainly welcome a change," said the actor, who is currently playing Marie Wilson's boy friend in "My Friend Irma Goes West." "When I was brought out to Hollywood in 1945, it was to play the kind of roles I had been playing on the stage. At least that was the idea I had. But I've only had one role that resembles anything I did on the stage. "Here they've got me playing opposite women in love stories. That just isn't my line. I'm an action actor." "The trouble is that Lund is at the same studio with Alan Ladd, who is first in line for the action vehicles. "Bette Davis is testing with bright blond hair for her next picture, "The Story of a Divorce." That should be better than the black mop she sported in "Beyond the Forest." Jane Russell started costume fittings last week for "Smiler with a Gun" and she's delighted to be working again. She has wearied of hitting the road to sell "The Outlaw" and has asked to be excused from further duty. Her ideal is to play some sassy roles or anything with some fire in them.

James Stewart is rightfully proud of his photoplay gold medal award for "The Stratton Story." Wonder if he recalls how reluctant he was to do the procture.

Keep Torso Warm And You Can Forget Your Hands And Feet

Ever wonder what to do to keep feet and hands warm when it's cold outside? The Army Quartermaster corps did, and decided to find out just what. Its researchers came up with some suggestions that we'll pass on here—in case winter should strike Big Spring sometimes. A person with cold hands and feet isn't doing himself a bit of good when he pulls on heavier gloves and shoe-pacs, according to the QMC. The thing to do is keep the torso warm and the extremities will take care of themselves. Army researchers tested humans in cold-weather chambers and under arctic field conditions and decided, also, that the application of heat to chilled hands and feet has negligible effect in driving out the cold. "Artificial heat has only superficial effect in restoring warmth," is the way the QMC staff put it. Keep the blood circulating, the Army branch advised. In their tests with "guinea" soldiers exposed to low temperatures, the research men found that the blood supply to toes and fingers practically stops when the body is chilled. But if the body is kept warm the flow of blood continues unabated to the extremities and they are kept "reasonably" warm too. In cases where the feet and hands are already chilled, the application of heat to the face encourages blood circulation and helps warm the other parts of the body, the QMC found. However, masks to keep the face warm will not guarantee warm feet. Fright and sudden surprise are two other factors to be avoided when it's cold, the Army recommends. Emotional reaction to both results in a decrease in the flow of the corpuscles, it concluded. Shock, resulting from accident or sudden exposure to danger, is a good illustration of this fact. Again, artificial heat must be maintained if it is to do any good. In deciding how much clothing soldiers must wear to maintain comfortable body temperature, the Army experts invented a new term—a standard—called the "clo." It is the amount of clothing necessary to keep an inactive man comfortable with temperature at 75 degrees. For civilians, it's the equivalent of a business suit. Testing further, the QMC researchers found that it would take boots with soles one and a half inches thick and uppers seven inches in thickness to keep an inactive man's feet warm in 25-below-zero weather. They decided the footwear would not be practical for fighting men, but they're going to work on the problem some more. Following the Army's line of reasoning (for once), it looks from here like the most practical thing for Big Springers to do when those "northern" whistle off the caprock is to: slide into those long-handled —WAYLAND YATES.

Right Form Should Be Chosen For Joint Income Tax Return

WASHINGTON. (U) — MARRIED COUPLES, in choosing the right form for their 1949 income tax returns, have a problem slightly different from that of single taxpayers. For instance, what form for a joint return, or a difference in deductions? And the married couples in community property states have still another kind of problem. Remember there are three forms on which returns can be made: Form 1040-A—the easiest, with the collector figuring the tax for you; the 1040 short form—next easy, where you find your own tax in a table on the back; and the 1040 long form—where you figure your own tax.

IF YOU USE FORM 1040-A OR THE 1040 short form you get without itemizing, a deduction of about 10 per cent for expenses like hospital bills or charitable contributions. If yours were more than that, then use the 1040 long form. There you'll have to itemize but you can claim your deductions in full. And—if one partner in a marriage wants to claim more than a 10 per cent deduction and therefore uses the 1040 long form to itemize, the other partner has to use the 1040 long form, too, and itemize. Now for the use of the forms. You can use Form 1040-A only if your total income was under $5,000 and all of it—except for no more than $100 in untaxed wages, interest or dividends—was in wages or salary from which full tax was withheld in 1949. IF YOU DON'T FIT THAT RULE, BUT your income was under $5,000 you can use the 1040 short form. If you have any income at all from other sources like rent or farming no matter how small it was and even though the total income was under $5,000 you couldn't use Form 1040-A. You'd use the 1040 short form.

Jones and his wife had under $5,000 income. It was all his. She had no income. If they fit the rule for Form 1040-A they can file jointly on it. Otherwise they can file jointly on the 1040 short form. Smith and his wife had under $5,000. Both earned part of that income. His fit the rule for using Form 1040-A but her didn't. In that case they can file jointly on the 1040 short form, but not on Form 1040-A. Or, if for some special reason they wish to do so he can file separately on Form 1040-A while she files separately on the 1040 short form. IN THAT CASE EACH CLAIMS HIS own $500 exemption and each gets the usual 10 per cent deduction allowed a person filing a return of his own. Brown and his wife had total income of $5,000 or more but individually the income of each was under $5,000. They can file jointly on the 1040 long form getting the benefit that comes from splitting their income equally or they can file separately on Form 1040-A (if they fit the rule for it) or separately on the 1040 short form. Kelly and his wife had $5,000 or more income. It was all his she had none. They have no choice of forms. They can't use Form 1040-A or the 1040 short form. They must use the 1040 long form. Then they can file a joint return. From a money-saving standpoint it wouldn't make sense in a case where the husband had income and the wife none for the wife to fail to file jointly with her husband and lose the benefit of split income. Now for the community property states: they are Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, and Washington. In those states if husband and wife wish to file separate returns they can't use Form 1040-A at all. They must use Form 1040 either the short or long forms depending on the size of their income. (Tomorrow: Using Form 1040-A).

Realistic Approach Needed In Talking Peace With Joe Stalin

CURRENT DEMANDS THAT THE western powers make fresh efforts to achieve agreement with Russia and thus avoid a possible atomic war give rise immediately to the vital question of what the demands are based on. Is this idea premised on some concrete development or practical proposal which might appeal to Moscow? Or is it merely the result of wishful thinking? IT'S VITAL THAT THIS POINT BE cleared up before further steps are taken. This is so because we know from long hard experience that there's not the slightest use in going to Moscow and calling for peace simply because peace is good or because somebody will get hurt if there is another war. That would look like an exhibition of weakness and could do untold damage to the cause of peace. I like the realistic way U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson dealt with this problem in his policy statement of Feb. 8. He summed the situation up by declaring that four years of experience "have brought us the realization" that progress towards peace simply by making agreements with the Russians is impossible. The Soviet government is realistic and adjusts policies when compelled by facts to do so. As he pointed out: "You can't argue with a river; it is going to flow. You can dam it up, you can put it to useful purposes, you can deflect it, but you can't argue with it." THEREFORE ACHESON REJECTED all suggestions for new American peace appeals to Russia. In short he based Uncle Sam's anti-Communist strategy on a policy of power. What the western world has to recognize is that Russia is waging her cold war under a concrete plan. It was worked out long ago and is aimed at communizing the world. Thus far nothing has been allowed to stand in the way of this Red drive excepting unsurmountable obstacles. The plan has been adapted to conditions over which Russia had no immediate control but it always has swung back into its straight line when those conditions finally had been met. We can't overcome those facts by wishful or pious thinking. What we have to do before making a fresh approach to Moscow is to ask ourselves whether it will serve Red interests to call off the cold war which is an integral part of the Communist drive to spread communism.

Students Are Invited To View Art Display

Student groups have a special invitation to see the display of original paintings from the Oxford University Press publication "In Our Image", when these works of art are shown in Big Spring next week.

Sixteen of the famous characters of the Old Testament as conceived by artist Guy Rowe, will be on display in Room 1, on the Sefton hotel mezzanine. They represent a new departure in Biblical art, and have created wide comment.

The exhibit will be open from 3 to 6 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m. next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 27-29-March 1.

Art classes, school groups of all ages, and Sunday school classes have an invitation to view the display in groups. They may feel free to come at any time during the exhibit hours. Groups from all of Big Spring also will be welcomed at the art display.

The artist Guy Rowe, has been best known for his Time magazine cover portraits. He worked solely on the portraits for "In Our Image" for three and one-half years, and only two of the characters depicted were painted from life. All other faces he found in stores, on trains, in restaurants and on streets—people he felt expressed the characters he had studied in the Bible stories.

Members of the Hyperion clubs of Big Spring will serve as hostesses during the showing, and are joining The Herald in sponsorship of the exhibit.

RAMBLINGS RIBBON

By Mildred Young

We never do any more. But we used to have the time and we used to be first class radio fans. Meaning that we regularly listened to dozens and dozens and dozens of radio programs, keeping up with what all the characters were doing to solve their many, many problems.

Anyone who has been much of a radio fan knows how hanking it is for programs to chance emcees or characters just about the time they get to seeming like members of the family. Maybe that's why programs which make a hit on the air remain for so many years.

The Barboours, a mythical radio family created by Carlton B. Morse, a former newspaperman. Since 1932, the program has become so familiar or maybe more so to listeners as the family next door.

One of the longest-running shows in radio history may be a dialer regards them as an actual family, rather than a fictional one. Members of the cast receive their fan mail more often addressed to the characters they portray, than to their real names.

Morse left the newspaper ranks and became a member of the NBC San Francisco staff as writer and producer of "The Howl and Thunder Mysteries" in 1929 when he became saturated with the gory whodunits he turned to the opposite extreme to write the story of average American life.

The result was that homey folksy saga of the ether waves, "One Man's Family" heard on Sunday. Some may remember hearing their first program, according to our remembering they were a temporary replacement for the Mary Pickford program.

Including Morse, the writer-producer, there are 21 regular cast members of the program. Five of these have been with the program since it began on April 29, 1932. These are Minetta Ellen as Mother Barbour; J. Anthony Smythe as Father Barbour; Michael Raffetto as Paul Bernice Bervin as Hazel, and Baton Yarborough as Clifford.

The others are Page Gilman as Jack, Jean Rouverol as Betty, Barbara Fuller as Claudia, Tom Collins as Nicholas Lacey, Anne Wilfield as Penny, Russell Thorson as Dan-el Murray, Dawn Bender as Margaret, Mary Lou Harrington as Joan, and Conrad Binyon as Hank.

During the nearly eighteen years of its existence the program has become one of the most honored radio dramas. It won first place on five Radio Guide polls, five Cleveland Plain Dealer polls, five Motion Picture Daily polls and many others.

Mrs. Cecil Nabors Directs Program

Taking part on the program were Mrs. Nabors, Mrs. Tommy Lovelace, Mrs. Raymond Hamby, Mrs. Hardaway, Mrs. W. D. Lovelace, Mrs. Wayne Allen, and Mrs. Pickle. Mrs. Cawthron and Mrs. Nabors also presented a short yearbook sketch following the program.

Review Of Missile Program Is Ordered

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—Secretary of Defense Johnson has ordered a review of the entire U. S. guided missile program.

Such a review either by the defense chief or Congress was demanded last week by Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Texas), who contended Russia is at least two years ahead of the U. S. in guided missile development.

The review has been undertaken by the Defense Department's research and development board and that board's committee on guided missiles, it was learned today.

Their report will be made directly to Secretary Johnson.

A usually well informed source said that Johnson asked the board to review the program before Sen. Johnson demanded such a step. He said the review is necessary because of the size and diversity of the program and to insure that it is balanced and involves no unnecessary duplication.

Different phases of guided missile development are being carried on by the Army, Navy and Air Force, with the help of U. S. and German scientists. Much post-war development has been based on the V-1 flying bomb and V-2 rocket with which the Germans bombarded the London area during the latter part of World War II.

Other developments include bombs which, dropped from planes outside a circle of anti-aircraft defenses, may be guided to targets inside those defenses. The Germans introduced weapons of this type in the Mediterranean during the last war.

Still another field considered of great importance is that of guided anti-aircraft missiles. A new chamber to test ram jet engines, which some scientists expect to power such missiles at supersonic speeds, was developed by the Wright Aeronautical Corp. recently for the Air Force.

Early Hearing On Congress Payrolls

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—An early hearing was promised today by Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) of the House Rules Committee on a resolution to investigate congressional payrolls.

Sabath indicated doubt that the committee would approve the proposal, since many members "may regard it as a reflection upon the members of the House."

The hearing was requested by Rep. Burdick (R-ND), who introduced the resolution last month.

Sabath Afraid Amendment To Empower South

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (AP)—President Truman was urged today by one of his congressional leaders to take another look at a proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the electoral college.

Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) of the House Rules Committee told reporters he has written the President to point out that the proposal might give the South "much greater power than it now possesses."

A resolution embodying the proposed amendment has been passed by the Senate and now is in the House Rules Committee.

It would abolish the electoral plan of choosing the President and vice president and give each candidate for those offices an electoral vote in each state in proportion to the popular vote cast for the candidate. The Constitution now gives the entire electoral vote of a state to the candidate receiving the largest number of votes. The loser gets nothing.

Sabath said he understands that the President has approved the proposed change.

"I have heard it expressed," he wrote the President, "that in a close election, it would give the South a tremendous advantage and perhaps make possible its wielding the balance of power. I am commencing to feel... that it would give the South much greater power than it now possesses."

Sabath concluded with the observation that "I fear that the legislation is not for the best interest of the Democratic Party and of the country."

His position gave support to reports that northern Democrats and many Republicans may team up to beat the proposal, which must get a two-thirds vote in the House before it can be submitted to the states. Thirty-six states must ratify it before it would become effective.

Four Texans Are Missing In Mexico

Figurines And Devices To Hold Up Strapless Gowns Shown In Display

By WILIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff

Two rare figurines are featured among 34,000 exhibits at the allied gift and jewelry show in progress this week at Dallas.

The Royal Worcester Porcelain Co. of England flew them to the United States for the inspection of 7,500 Southwestern retail store representatives expected to attend the show.

And it turns out that the figurines were modeled after a Rio Grande Valley boy.

Here is the strange story of how a South Texas child came to be a model for a figurine made in England:

The boy's mother, Mrs. C. A. Ripley of Mercedes, is an avid collector of figurines. Mrs. Ripley was especially fond of the work of Miss F. G. Doughty, one of England's ranking figurine artists.

Mrs. Ripley wrote to Miss Doughty and the two corresponded for five years.

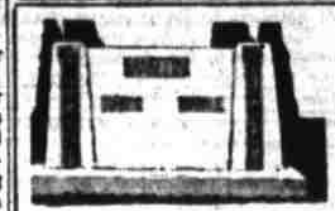

Recently the Royal Worcester Porcelain Co. commissioned Miss Doughty to do some figurines and she decided to express her admiration of the United States by using a "typical American child" as a model.

So she wrote her friend, Mrs. Ripley, asking for photographs of her little boy.

From the photos, Miss Doughty made two figurines. One showed the child with a flock of ducks, the other has him riding a pony. Just as soon as the figurines are released for public sale, a pair will go to Mrs. Ripley of Mercedes.

Lots of fellows—maybe you, too—have gazed, enchanted, at these strapless evening gowns and admired: "Wonder what holds 'em up?"

The fascinating item that does the holding is a new idea in jewelry—on display at the gift show. It is a jeweled link-chain called a "halterette." It goes around the back of the lady's neck and then clips on two sides—at the front of the strapless gown. That's the "double-breasted" model. The "single-breasted" halterette clips on to the front of the dress, goes over the shoulder and slips on to the back of the gown. Lots of suspension, Joe and no more suspense.

Pension Reserves Causing Concern

NEW YORK, Feb. 20. (AP)—If you're worrying about what happens to that dollar in your pension fund before time for you to cash in on it, you aren't the only one. Now even some bankers worry.

The rush to get up more pension funds for more and more people already has company bookkeepers chewing pencils. They must find the money. Whether it's a private or government social security pension, the company puts up at least part.

Trustees of the funds also worry about safe but profitable places to put the money to work. And now, at the top theoretical level, investment bankers are worrying lest these funds swell to a total so great there won't be enough investment opportunities of the required sort to take care of them.

Others, and they may be in a majority, scoff at the idea. But if funds seeking employment should find too few gilt edge securities available, some think that might perk up the market for preferred stock, and even for common stock.

Others think it more likely to put pressure on the U. S. treasury to issue long-term bonds attractive to institutional investors.

Estimates on the additional amount of money in pension funds which will hit the capital market this year range from $500 million more than last year to $1.2 billion more. There is an equally wide variance in guesses as to how this new money will fare. Some think business needs and available capital will about balance this year. But at least one investment house (Salomon Bros. & Hutzler) predicts $1.8 billion in excess funds will be looking for investment chances that aren't there.

However, the Bankers Trust Co. thinks investment markets can take care of the new pension fund money. In an analysis of the capital markets for this year and next, the trust company says today that in 1949 there was about $1.2 billion in new money added to the market through growth of trustees and insured pension funds. The bankers trust believes that by the end of this year, or early in 1951, the rate of annual additions to pension funds may rise to about $1.7 billion.

GOP Pulls A Fast One With Small Business Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21. (U.S.)—Outfoxed by the Republicans on one political issue, Senate Democratic leaders tried to rally their forces today behind an administration legislative program.

Sen. Lucas of Illinois, the party leader, called Democrats into a caucus after the Republicans came out on top in a bit of political maneuvering yesterday over establishment of a small business committee.

With the help of 25 Democrats, 39 Republicans pushed through a resolution by Sen. Wherry of Nebraska, the GOP floor leader, to set up a special committee of 13 to handle small business problems.

Wherry and the GOP thus became the temporary champions of the small business men. Previously the Senate had voted down, 51 to 31, a similar proposal by Sen. Murray (D-Mont.).

The result came because about a score of southern Democrats, led by Chairman Maybank (D-SC) of the Senate Banking Committee, who contended that his group should continue to handle small business matters.

The Republicans joined with the southern Democrats to kill the Murray proposal.

Lucas told reporters in advance of today's Democratic caucus that he wants to get early action on a House-approved bill to increase the number of displaced Europeans who could be admitted to this country.

By agreement, the Senate will vote at 4 o'clock this afternoon on a bill affecting the division of Colorado River water between Arizona and California.

Lucas then intends to bring back before the Senate a measure increasing cotton acreage allotments for this year.

Polio Chapter Expends $1-120 To Assist Four Cases In 1950

The Howard county Infantile Paralysis chapter started the new year with funds totalling $7,400. Fritz Wehner told committee members Monday at the organization's annual meeting.

The total included $4,379 raised this year with the remainder being held over from 1949 funds. Payment of $1,120 in outstanding bills was authorized at the meeting, reducing the balance to $6,280.

Wehner said none of the bills was for aid to the four Howard county children who have contracted polio this year. Three of the 1950 victims of the disease are in local hospitals; one is in Abilene.

The Howard county chapter met with delegates from the Glasscock county infantile paralysis organization for the purpose of combining the two units, but action was deferred when the Glasscock group protested the proposed union.

T. E. Carr, county judge who acted as spokesman for the delegation, explained that the Glasscock chapter had already organized for the year, and that a request for affiliation with the Howard chapter had been withdrawn.

A nominating committee, composed of Mary Cantrell, Lee Milling, and Sam Goldman, was asked to submit names of new officers for the local chapter at the next meeting of the committee. A motion was approved delaying transfer of part of contributions made this year to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Attending the meeting were Wehner, Mrs. Moree Sawtelle, Milling, Miss Cantrell, Herbert Wintner, Lewis Heflin and Goldman.

Present from Garden City were Judge Carr, Mrs. H. A. Haynes, Mrs. Clyde Berry, and Mrs. Cecil Wilkerson. Wehner presided over the meeting.

A fine service of democratic impartiality that meets the needs or wishes of every family regardless of its beliefs or belongings.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21. (U.S.)—A new test to detect pregnancy early, within three weeks after conception, is reported in a new medical journal, Fertility and Sterility, published today.

The test also gives warning of the danger of abortion and loss of the unborn baby.

It was developed by Dr. Edmond J. Farris of the Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology in Philadelphia.

The test gives its answer in 24 hours, he said. Urine from a woman is injected under the skin of immature female rats. If the woman is pregnant, the rats' ovaries become red, and filled with blood.

The test can detect pregnancy as early as three weeks after conception occurs, Dr. Farris said; that

FATHER, 7 CHILDREN

Eight In Family Perish In Blaze

ADDISON, Mich., Feb. 21. (U.S.)—A fire devoured a farm house near here early today, killing seven children and their father.

The only survivor of the middle-of-the-night blaze was the mother, who was badly burned.

Evidently, firemen sent the two-story frame building west up like a puff.

The victims:

Farmer Gerald Beagle, 44. His children: Geraldine, 14; Barbara Jean, 12; Eloise, 10; Norma Mae, 8; Paul, 6; William, 5; and Linda, 23-months old baby.

The other, Mrs. Dorothy Beagle, burned and cut in flight through a window, was in serious condition.

The blaze, believed caused by a defective basement furnace, broke out about 1:30 o'clock in near zero temperature.

Two fire trucks dashed over winter-rutted roads the two miles from the little community of Addison, smoldering ruins were all that remained.

Only one sidewall remained upright. Roof and floors had toppled into the basement, burying the eight victims.

Barefoot and bleeding from cuts on her face and hands, Mrs. Beagle

Crisp Burned Up About Big Debt

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21. (U.S.)—You can change Donald Crisp's last name to cinder. He's all burned up, he says, because a couple of movie producers owe him nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

The character actor told superior court yesterday that he loaned $150,000 to William and Edward Nassour Feb. 7, 1949. They led him to believe they "regarded him as their father," he said, and "as the savior of their business."

Also, he said, they still owe him $90,114.84 on a $27,500 note they signed March 28, 1948.

The Nassours recently sued Crisp, charging he had agreed to accept 20 per cent interest in the movie "Africa Screams" in payment of the $150,000 note but hadn't surrendered the note.

Busted Bust Mystery Solved

READING, Pa., Feb. 21. (U.S.)—The case of the busted bust has been broken.

Last week, an undamaged bust of the Bard of Avon mysteriously appeared on the previously bare pedestal, but no one could explain from whence it came.

Yesterday, police announced five high school students—names withheld because of their ages—had admitted taking the unbroken bust from a private home during a robbery.

Why the five boys decided to deposit the bust in the school auditorium was not disclosed.
