

Union Busting Denied By Army In Discharges

Security Cited In Aberdeen Dismissals

WASHINGTON, July 18 (AP)—The army denied "union busting" charges today in the wake of an announcement that it had fired five civilian employees at the Aberdeen, Md., proving ground—scene of many top secret tests.

The War Department said the five, who included physicists and chemists, were discharged "in the interest of national security." It declined to go into details.

The fact that all five are officers of Local 250 of the newly formed CIO Public Workers of America, it said, is "a coincidence and a reflection on the union's discretion in permitting them to serve."

Abram Flaxer, national president of the union who was in Washington attending a meeting, told a reporter the action was "an obvious union busting device."

Harry Spector, president of the Aberdeen local and one of those dismissed, said: "This is strictly a union matter."

Members of a UPWA delegation which tried vainly to protest to Secretary of War Patterson said the union was carrying on an organization drive at Aberdeen and contended the discharge of the local's officers was more than a coincidence.

Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, director of the War Department's bureau of public relations, announced the action by Brig. Gen. Alfred B. Quinton, Jr., commander at the proving grounds, where secret tests are carried out on rockets and other guided missiles as well as on guns, tanks and vehicles.

Quinton acted under a law which empowers the Secretaries of Army and Navy to remove "in the interest of national defense" any Army or Navy employee for subversive activities. Specific reasons for the discharges were not announced.

The five, removed from their jobs June 22, were described by J. H. Mason, Patterson's assistant in charge of industrial relations, as "not mere routine employed." He declined however to describe them as scientists.

Things Look Dark For Agreement On New OPA Measure

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky) said today a senate-house conference committee had found "no common ground" for agreement on the terms of an OPA revival bill.

"It doesn't look so good," Barkley told reporters, when asked about chances of an agreement on the senate-approved measure which administration lieutenants are seeking to revise to meet reported objections of President Truman.

Barkley said a proposal drafted by a subcommittee headed by Senator Radcliffe (D-Md) to provide for the restoration of price ceilings on major items exempted by the senate was in such "rough form" that the committee made no progress in considering it.

He hinted at a possible compromise by which the decision on returning commodities to OPA control might be given to the Civilian Production Administration. He said this would eliminate contentions that the OPA would be arbitrary in its decisions.

Barkley talked to reporters after the conferees ended a morning session. He said they would meet again later in the day for another try at an agreement.

The republican-dominated senate subcommittee's proposal on controls provides for a board with higher authority than OPA to determine whether such important food items as meat, eggs and milk could be put back under price ceilings at a later date. The senate had voted to remove controls on those foods.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), who directed preparation of the proposed compromise, said the house conferees "flatly rejected" it and refused to accept any bill that eliminates price ceilings on important food items.

The compromise would permit the proposed board to return the foods to OPA controls on these findings:

1. That prices had risen unreasonably above former OPA price ceilings, after subsidies were taken into consideration.
2. That the food products were found to be in scarcity and that resumption of price ceilings was "practicable."
3. That such action would be in the public interest.

Entertainers On Two Programs

Howard county amateur entertainers will be featured on two programs tonight, one at Colorado City and another at the amphitheatre in Big Spring's City Park.

J. H. Greene, chamber of commerce manager, will accompany the group to Colorado City and serve as master of ceremonies for the program there. The chamber of commerce is anxious for as many Big Spring people as possible to attend the Colorado City affair, Greene said. He urged that any person who can go and will have space for extra passengers in an automobile contact the chamber office this afternoon. The group will depart at 6 p. m.

The regular amateur contest, with prizes to be awarded winners selected by judges, will open at the City park amphitheatre here at 8 p. m.

Giant Bombers To Circle Over Japan

TOKYO, July 19 (AP)—Giant formations of B-29 Super-Fortresses, staging in the Marianas and Okinawa, will fly over Japan in a great triangle course Aug. 1, Army Air Force Day.

Lt. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead said today the big planes would fly low over the course, which will take in atomic bomb devastated Nagasaki and Hiroshima, and the Tokyo-Yokohama area.

The flight will come just one year after a tremendous heavy bomber formation of 868 planes circled-crossed the war-weary empire with cascades of fire bombs.

Truman Welcomes Truman Opposition

KANSAS CITY—July 19 (AP)—Democratic Representative Roger Slaughter from Missouri's fifth district today welcomed the opposition of President Truman to his candidacy for renomination as a chance for what he called a long overdue showdown on the "future course of the Democratic party."

Expressing the fear that the President "is a prisoner of the Political Action Committee," the robust 40-year-old Congressman in a radio speech last night said he was glad of the opportunity "to determine whether candidates for legislative positions are to be picked at the whim of the executive branch of the government."

Slaughter, seeking a third term, spoke a few hours after Truman at a White House press conference had endorsed Enos Axtell, one of Slaughter's primary opponents.

Ex-Marine Dies In Chair For Rape-Slaying

Protests To The End That He Was Not Guilty

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—Earl McFarland, ex-marine went to his death in the electric chair today still protesting his innocence in the rape-slaying of a young government girl.

"I still say I am not guilty," the 25-year-old veteran of Guadalcanal declared in a statement issued a few minutes before he died at 10:12 a. m. (EST) at the district of Columbia jail.

In his final hours, McFarland agreed to give his eyes to a blind person scheduled to undergo an operation in New York later in the day. The plan fell through, however, Jail Superintendent Curtis Reid said, when McFarland's relatives objected to a post-mortem operation.

Reid did not disclose who had proposed the arrangement for transplanting the corneas of McFarland's eyes to the blind patient. Neither did he identify the patient.

McFarland entered the chair at 10:05 a. m., helped guards adjust the straps. Seven minutes later he was pronounced dead.

He walked calmly to the chair, a cigarette dangling from his lips, to pay the penalty for the murder of 18-year-old Dorothy Berrum of Chipewa Falls, Wis., in October, 1944.

An 11th hour attempt to delay the execution failed last night when Chief Justice Vinson rejected a petition for a stay pending a lunacy hearing.

Truman Expected To Campaign For Congressmen On Individual Basis

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—Democratic politicians forecast today that if President Truman takes the stump this fall he and other party leaders will pick individual congressional contests rather than arrange a country-wide tour.

Associates said that so far as they know there is no thought in Mr. Truman's mind of trying to duplicate the grand tour of 1918 in which President Wilson carried his fight for off-year control of Congress to the people.

The Democrats lost control of Congress that year in a surge which carried the Republicans to

Program To Prevent Third World War Is Outlined By Connally

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—The Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate foreign relations committee outlined today a seven-point program for United States action to prevent the "unthinkable tragedy" of a third world war.

In a record on the Big Four foreign ministers conference at Paris, Connally told the Senate it would be "rank insanity" for any of the great powers to desert at this time the objectives of the United Nations.

None of the major nations wants war, the Texan said. Urging this country to "pin its hope and faith" in the United Nations, Connally proposed:

1. That in international dealings "we must stand firmly on those principles of law and justice expressed in the charter" and "expect other nations to do the same."
2. "We should unhesitatingly make available to the Security Council our full quota of troops, planes and ships necessary for the maintenance of world peace."
3. "We must maintain a strong army, navy and air force so that we may protect our land and our people and fulfill our obligations under the charter."
4. "We must put into treaty form the inter-American machinery contemplated in the Act of Chapultepec x x x."
5. "We should accept the compulsory jurisdiction of the international court of justice over those strictly legal disputes which affect the United States and any other state which has accepted the compulsory jurisdiction of the court."
6. "We should do our utmost to secure at the earliest practicable time complete agreement with respect to the control of the atomic energy and other weapons of mass destruction."
7. "We should lend our full support to the economic, social and humanitarian program of the United Nations and thus help establish those conditions in the world which are essential for enduring peace."

13 Lose Lives In Transport Plane Crash

GOODLAND, Kas., July 19 (AP)—A C-47 military transport plane crashed and burned west here last night killing 10 passengers and three crew members.

The crash, not discovered until this morning, apparently occurred during a severe electrical storm which swept this area last night. Farmers living nearby said they saw a blinding flash in the vicinity but thought it was a bolt of lightning.

Bodies and parts of the plane were scattered for about a quarter of a mile around the scene, in a wheat stubblefield, three miles west and a mile north of this western Kansas City.

Others elected last night were J. W. Burrell, first vice-commander; Neal Barnaby, second vice-commander; Truett Thomas, adjutant; and W. L. Wheeler, Sgt. at arms. Ira Thurman was re-elected finance officer.

Barnaby, who is serving as Sgt. at arms, will succeed H. W. Wright, while Thomas succeeds J. C. Douglas, Jr.

Conducting other routine business, the post voted to meet every Thursday night henceforth. The previous schedule was arranged on a semi-monthly basis.

Two Men Held Here For Investigation

Two men, believed to have been implicated in a burglary at Brady about three months ago, are being held in the Big Spring city jail today for investigation.

They were caught after a brief chase by local police Thursday night, and 17 cases of whiskey, rum and gin were recovered. It is thought that the liquor was taken from a Brady warehouse and stored by thieves until recently. A. G. Mitchell, chief of police said. The two suspects being held here told officers they in-took the liquor from a cache where it was hidden by others, and that they had no part in the Brady burglary.

Officers in a Big Spring prowler gave chase and arrested the pair, after they sped away when police approached their auto on the 200 block of Benton street.

Man Held In Dallas Faces Extradition

DALLAS, July 19 (AP)—Sheriff Smoot Schmid today received a telegram from Sheriff Harlan S. Kallahan of Seattle saying extradition proceedings would be made to return William G. Kensington, 44, ex-convict, to Washington to face a charge of grand larceny.

Kensington, who last year set-up short story writing schools in Dallas and Fort Worth under an assumed name, was held here in connection with charges by a 53-year-old Dallas widow that she had given him $39,000 on a promise of marriage.

He said he would fight extradition to Washington.

Auto Workers Call For Halt In Meat Buying

By The Associated Press
Officials of the CIO United Auto Workers today called for a complete halt to meat purchases over the weekend as they reported prices had already started "to crack under the strain" of the union's meat strike.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW-CIO president, said the campaign for a week-long embargo on meat purchases was progressing well, and added:

"Our goal is to reduce meat purchases to none at all on Friday and Saturday, the heavy weekend shopping days. The increasing momentum of the meat strike since it was called Tuesday indicates that this goal will be reached."

Reports around the country indicated a definite slowdown in sales of meat and butter. Retailers agreed that buying had slumped considerably in the housewives' "roll against higher prices."

In Detroit, Sidney Black, president of the city's Retail Meat Merchants association, said consumers were buying only the "barest of necessities" in meat markets.

At San Francisco, E. F. Forbes, president of the Western State Meat Packers association reported that supplies had increased so much in the past two weeks of free prices that "meat is backing up from retail shops to slaughterhouses."

The price situation is improving daily as supplies increase, according to George Dressler, executive secretary of the National Association of Retail Meat Dealers.

"Given another 30 days, the market will be well stabilized," he said in Chicago.

Men Face Call In September

Although the number required has not yet been specified, the Howard county selective service board has received notice that a call for men in the 19 to 29 (inclusive) year group will be issued for September.

Several requirements also are being re-adjusted. Fathers and registrants in agriculture are not to be considered eligible, new instructions state, but occupational deferments are to be limited to those determined absolutely irreplaceable.

The board also has been instructed to review classification of registrants 26 to 29 years old who previously were found unfit for military service. Postponement of high school students' induction are to be granted only for those specifically authorized, and postponements for college students are to be eliminated. Also to be studied for reclassification are 1-C card holders discharged, who did not have sea or foreign duty service and who were discharged with less than six months total service.

The local board reminded registrants that they still are required to furnish the board with correct mailing addresses.

Rep. Sabath Says Pinnacle His Only Interest

WASHINGTON, July 19 (AP)—The senate war investigating committee issued a subpoena today for the appearance of Rep. May (D-Ky) and Chairman Mead (D-NY) said it expects him to testify Tuesday. May told reporters he had "no comment."

Mead and his colleagues want to hear from May, in public, on his activities in connection with a midwest munitions combine, whose war profits the senate committee is investigating.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) said the committee will take "all steps the constitution will allow" in getting May on the stand.

Mead said the committee had given May "ample opportunity" to appear and was resorting to a subpoena "only because it is absolutely necessary for us to do so."

The committee has received testimony that May interested on behalf of the Erie Basin Metal Products company, Batavia Metal Products company and allied firms that got some $78,000,000 in war contracts.

May has said in public statements that he did not profit personally, that he was merely serving the war effort and doing what all other congressmen had done.

Chairman Mead (D-NY) of the investigating committee read the constitutional restriction on arrest of members of senate or house during a session, except on treason, felony or breach of peace charges.

Then he said:

"The committee expects Congressman May to respect this subpoena."

May had indicated last week he might appear before the committee voluntarily if it would give him the right to call or cross examine witnesses or subpoena records. The committee refused to accede to such terms.

In issuing the subpoena for May's appearance, Senator Ferguson remarked it should be made clear that the committee is "going to take all the steps the constitution allows" to bring the house member before it.

Before it came up with the May subpoena, the committee heard Rep. Sabath (D-Ill) testify that two or three times he had called the Washington office of the combine—but only to get a third for a pinocchio game.

Sabath told the senate war investigating committee, however, that he never had been asked to help the group get war contracts.

He said he merely had played pinocchio a few times with Murray Garson or Joseph F. Freeman, Washington representative of the Erie Basin Metal Products company, Batavia Metal Products company and affiliated firms in an outfit which got some $78,000,000 in war orders.

Earlier, the democratic leaders of both senate and house disclaimed any dealings with the combine's Washington agency.

Senator Barkley said he never had been asked to help get contracts and had never personally telephoned the Washington office of Erie-Batavia. Rep. McCormack (Mass) said he never had made a call to the Washington agency or received one from it.

Murray Garson, an active figure in the combine, once served as an investigator for a house committee, headed by Sabath, which inquired into bondholders protective committees.

Sabath said he thought perhaps he had played pinocchio only once with Murray Garson and two or three times with Freeman. He said either he or former Rep. Samuel Dickstein of New York had called on occasion to get a third for the game.

"I never interceded for them in Washington for anybody at no time," Sabath asserted. "I never was in their office. I never was in their plant. I didn't go to any of their parties or luncheons."

Texas Today—

HERE'S A NEW ORGANIZATION IF YOU'RE GIFTED FOR INITIALS

By JACK BUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff

If you're a rural reader, you may be interested in the W. C. P. F. G. T. S. P. O. T. F. O. S. Maybe you'd like to join. Lots of them have, according to the founder of the cult, Mr. H. B. Fox of the Granger News.

All those initials stand for the "Williamson County Plan For Getting The Sunday Paper On The Farm On Sunday."

"For a long time," says Mr. Fox, "I have been meditating on a problem close to the hearts of us people who live on a rural mail route."

"I don't know whether rural free delivery service pays or not, but on the other hand that's no standard. Highways may not pay a profit, but we need them and where is the politician hearty enough to suggest an end to mail service to farmers?"

He goes on from there. He says Sunday is the one day of the week the farmer has to sit around the house. And, he asks, what's nicer while sitting around the house, than having a bulky Sunday paper to read? After all, you can't read the mail order catalogs every Sunday.

He suggests a substitute Sunday mail carrier — somebody who could probably use the cash, anyway, for this extra service.

"Everybody in favor can join up by agitating for the matter," he says. "Write me a letter. Write the congressman. Write Sen. O'Daniel. He can use it as material in his next filibuster."

If rural subscribers had been getting their Sunday papers on Sunday during June, they would have wondered what happened to June brides. At least in the Marshall area.

"June the month associated with brides, ranks fourth among the first six months of 1946 on the basis of marriage licenses issued," the Marshall News Messenger says.

April was first, May second, February third—and June fourth.

Speaking of weddings — and we were — you can mark up another first for Lake Texoma. A wedding was held on the lake, the first. Miss Myrtle Grinstead of Wolfe City, married Bose A. Hubbard of Denison, aboard a cruiser.

Air Forces Still Trying To 'Educate', Gen. Arnold Says

LOS ANGELES, July 19. (AP)—Gen. H. H. Arnold says the Army Air Forces is still trying "to educate Army and Navy officers as to what an air force is and can do."

The former chief of the Army Air Forces, addressing 600 persons at a dinner in his honor last night, said there are "persons in the Army and Navy who will not yet give the airplane a proper place in the scheme of things."

"Give a good enemy airman 400 atomic bombs and a sneak attack on the United States and then I won't believe the United States could even declare war," he added.

The dinner for General Arnold was arranged by the aviators' post of the American Legion.

Centinarian Decries Swapping Of Mates

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 19 (AP)—Mrs. Kathryn N. Luce, who celebrates her 100th birthday tomorrow, says "what I dislike most is seeing all those young whippersnappers going about trading husbands and wives as if they were selecting clothes."

"Instead of being given divorces most of them should be put in jail," she said yesterday in an interview.

Declaring success in marriage and in all phases of life "is something you must work hard for," Mrs. Luce added:

"That's the trouble with modern life, people try to live with the ease which they get from all their automatic gadgets. What's needed is more hard work, more thrift and more decent Christian living."

Death Of Soldier Is Shrouded In Mystery

KYOTO, Japan, July 19 (AP)—Army investigators failed today to turn up a clue in the death of a 58th Signal Battalion soldier whose nude body was discovered yesterday stuffed in a foot locker.

Lt. Leland R. Brown, of Detroit, head of the investigating detachment, said no evidence had been found of a struggle in the small building where the body was discovered and none in the man's barracks. The soldier had been slugged in the back of the neck before being strangled.

The dead man's name was withheld.

TB Takes High Toll On Latin-America

MEXICO CITY, July 19 (AP)—Tuberculosis kills from 250 to 600 persons per 10,000 deaths in Latin America, said Brazilian Dr. Reginaldo Fernandez, director of Rio de Janeiro's "Miguel Preyra" hospital here today.

Pointing out that the disease is one of Latin America's gravest medical problems, Dr. Fernandez compared his figure with the U. S. tuberculosis death rate of 40 to 45 persons per 10,000.

The Brazilian doctor is in Mexico for the second national tuberculosis and silicosis congress opening here July 21.

British Bakers Abandoning Revolt Against Rationing

LONDON, July 19 (AP)—British bakers appeared today to be reluctantly abandoning their threatened revolt against the labor government's bread rationing plan, which received the stamp of approval from the house of commons early this morning after five hours of bitter debate.

Bread rationing is scheduled to become effective Sunday. By a vote of 305 to 182—one of the smallest government majorities in the 12-month administration of the labor party members defeated a conservative motion to scrap the plan.

Winston Churchill, who spearheaded the opposition, described the plan as an unnecessary and "galling" burden. He admonished bakers, however, to "do their best to make whatever scheme is thrust upon them by the government work as well as possible."

Spokesmen for several bakers' groups indicated that they would follow this advice, and the National Association of Master Bakers was reported considering the relaxation of its decision to disregard the rationing order.

Food Minister John Strachey told commons shortly before the vote that revised crop estimates indicated that the rationing would end "at a much earlier date than seemed likely a few weeks ago."

Tempers were sharp and angry gibes were exchanged during the acrimonious debate.

Russell Blocks Pay Boost For Judges

WASHINGTON, July 19. (AP)—Rep. Sam Russell (D-Tex) blocked an attempt yesterday to secure passage of a bill boosting salaries of federal judges $5,000 yearly.

Chairman Sumners (D-Tex) of the House Judiciary committee asked unanimous consent to consider the bill, which has already been passed by the Senate.

Russell termed the measure "inflationary" and objected.

Summer Time Is Adventure Time

During the summer months we think a great deal about vacation trips — going places we have never been before and doing things we haven't done before. We look for adventure and the enjoyment of new thrills. That is fine for it gives us visions of new horizons, inspires us to try new trails.

An adventure often overlooked is that of adventuring for Christ and His Church. Every town affords a new opportunity to enjoy the thrill of worshipping with new friends in Christ, hearing the Gospel sung by different voices, and hearing the Old Old Story told by a new voice. Adventure for Christ in some congregation wherever you may be each Lord's Day this summer.

With Fewer Votes, Talmadge Grabs Governorship

ATLANTA, July 19. (AP)—Red-gallused Gene Talmadge of the unruly forelocks and the acid phrase is to b governor of Georgia again — a fourth time — but not by popular choice.

The simple — but complicated — fact is that Talmadge won a majority of county unit votes in Wednesday's Democratic primary, open for the first time to negroes who voted in large numbers.

But the candidate backed by Gov. Ellis Arnall, 36-year-old James V. Carmichael — got a plurality of the 700,000-odd votes cast in the primary, the actual election in Georgia.

The county unit system, which was placed on the statute books in 1917, is intended to give political dominance to rural Georgia. Georgia has 159 counties, most of them small, and only a few large cities.

The 410 county unit votes are arbitrarily assigned. No county can have less than two, none more than six. A vote in rural Georgia is worth many times the vote of a person living in Atlanta or Savannah. A candidate must carry a county to get its unit vote.

Cosden Planning Distribution Unit At Sweetwater

One of a series of terminal products plants along a projected pipeline route from the Cosden Petroleum Corp. refinery to Weatherford will be located at Sweetwater, it was announced here Thursday by Marvin Miller, vice-president.

Other plants will be located at logical distribution points, he said, but locations have not been determined.

Only a few men will be employed at the outset at the Sweetwater distribution unit, but when the four inch products line, which has been surveyed to the site, is installed, size of operations will be stepped up considerably.

Previously, the company had announced that the line would be laid in sections, the first possibly to Sweetwater or Abilene, as pipe is available. Extension of the line beyond Weatherford has not yet been determined.

Mrs. Bill Greise To Conduct Class

Tonight is dance night at the YMCA and instruction in square dances and folk dances will be conducted by Mrs. Bill Greise with Jean Ellen Chowns at the piano.

Beginning at 8 p. m., all Y members of various ages will be given instruction in a number of different dances. All are urged to attend the classes.

Revival At Hartwells

Pledge To Aid Veterans, Plea For Security Voiced By Mahon

George Mahon, bringing his campaign for re-election as representative of the 19th congressional to a crowd of upward of 2,000 people at the city park amphitheatre here last night, declared himself for efforts toward a balanced budget and preparedness, but not by "sting veterans and their dependents."

As chairman of the House committee on government financial agencies, he reported that "we have cut off the head of one agency and we will cut off the heads of some others in weeding the good from the bad."

Pointing out that "you cannot pay for patriotism and sacrifice," he said, however, that the government owed it to veterans and their dependents to furnish ample funds necessary for adjustments occasioned by the war and casualties.

He made an impassioned plea for preparedness, declaring that "we cannot afford to take the chance again" of being unable to defend the nation in any eventuality. The real challenge, he said, was to "get off the road to war and on the road to peace."

"atom bomb is here to stay." The question is: Are we here to stay?" He was cheered when he asserted he was opposed to giving away the secret of the atomic bomb to any other nation until it had been demonstrated that international control was effective.

Mahon stressed the importance of going to the record as a basis for casting votes for congressmen. "You want performance, not promises," he said.

Reminding his listeners that his was basically an agricultural district, he reviewed his record in this field. He was a member of a committee which was instrumental in disposing of a 6,000,000 bale cotton surplus to prevent revival of Axis rayon industries, and which also was due in a good measure to the rising cotton market. Much of this surplus which was a drug on the market, was short

M'Gee Named To Racial Group

AUSTIN, July 19 (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson today named Mark McGee, Fort Worth attorney and member of the board of directors of Texas Tech at Lubbock, as chairman of a bi-racial commission to work out a detailed plan for establishment of a negro state university and A. and M. college.

McGee is a former commander of the American Legion in Texas and a graduate of the University of Texas.

The other white members named to the commission are: Dr. E. N. Jones, president of Texas Arts and Industries college at Kingsville; Henry Stillwell, president of Texarkana junior college at Texarkana; G. H. Penland, Dallas attorney and member of the board of directors at Baylor university at Waco; Dr. J. N. Score, president of Southwestern university at Georgetown.

The two negro members named to the commission are: W. R. Banks, principal of Prairie View university for negroes; Dr. M. L. Edwards, president of Jarvis Christian college for negroes at Hawkins (Wood county).

staple West Texas cotton, he said. Similarly, he pointed to his fight in behalf of REA loans and pledged continued efforts with the goal of making electricity available at all farm homes. His committee assignments, he continued, place him in a place of effective power to work for this and other matters, including roads, Farm Credit, Commodity Credit Corporation which he said he intended to keep strong to insure effectiveness of the measure for 92 per cent parity on cotton and 90 per cent on wheat and other products for a period of two years after official end of the war.

He was, he said, the first man from Texas to be named on the committee which has to do with veterans appropriations. Similarly, he is the second man from Texas since the Civil War on the appropriations committee sub-group on War Department appropriations; that he is now eighth man in seniority on the all-important appropriations committee, that next year his district is to be honored with chairmanship of the Texas congressional delegation.

This, he said, was due to the fact that people had invested years in his development as a representative, for "you have to start at the bottom step as a new member." He urged that men with proven records be retained; that those with records contrary to the public will be eliminated; and asked that his record be investigated. He listed his stands on various issues, including votes for the OPA "because I did not want to take responsibility of a chance on uncontrolled inflation."

Mahon was introduced by Martelle McDonald, district attorney and returned serviceman. Music was furnished by Hoyle Nix and his Cowboys and by the Stamps-Baxter quartet.

Time Here For Planning Budgets

Those who look to local governments for services or keep an eye on public expenditures need to be alerted.

For practical purposes, the time for construction action is now at hand, for basic expenditures are determined largely on the basis of the annual budgets of the city, school and county.

The city budget is overdue. If and when it is presented, and it has been promised soon, a public hearing will be called. At this public hearing, all citizens are invited and will be given opportunity to voice their sentiments concerning provisions in the budget. After studying the matter and taking into consideration the views of their constituents, it is obligatory upon the commission to formally adopt a budget.

Basically, the same procedure will be followed as pertains to the county and the local school system. The county begins work on its budget for the next fiscal year (which does not start until Jan. 1, 1947) in July.

The hearing likely will come up in August. The schools' fiscal year starts Sept. 1, thus the budget should be prepared and submitted for hearing prior to that time.

The average citizen, if he complains about tax rates or services, voices his sentiments when stimulated by a tax bill or lack of facilities or services. Under our system of planning expenditures, there is little room for opportunism or juggling.

The proper time to work for whatever interest the individual has at heart is during the time budgets are being shaped. Thus, it is proper that even at this time citizens voice their hopes to their city commissioners, county commissioners and school trustees. However, ample opportunity still exists for public reaction at the public hearings on budgets. The only difficulty to this is that pride of authorship is sometimes a tough nut to crack. In other words, changes at the time of hearings really represent changes, and that means undoing something which has been, although not irrevocably.

Big Build Up For Book, Anyway

It is difficult to pick up a paper and read after the gubernatorial chase without wading through a bunch of stuff on the John Dos Pasos book, "USA." The book got mixed up in the campaign because it was cited in the Rainey-regents tiff, and because Dr. Rainey is a candidate.

Maybe it is an important issue, but it seems to us about all this palaver about it amounts to is a good build up for the tome. If Dos Pasos' publishers are smart, they will move into Texas to reap a harvest from the curious.

New Draft Law Tight And Tough

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Here's the score on the new draft set-up. Selective service has made it tight and tough.

1. Draft boards will start calling men again Sept. 1.
2. Those drafted will be 19 through 29.
3. Since May 15 no youths under 30 had been drafted. This week President Truman told draft boards to take men 19 through 29.
4. Youths still in high school can get deferred. Not so college youths. If called, they won't be allowed to finish out a quarter or semester, unless their draft boards make some special exceptions in individual cases.
5. Fathers will not be drafted, nor will men considered extreme hardship cases. But—a man will not be deferred because of dependents.
6. Every man in the 19-29 age group who now has an occupational deferment will be re-examined. The rule here is very tough.
7. Selective service told the boards not to defer anyone unless he is "indispensable and irreplaceable to the national existence."
8. (This means that almost no one now will have an occupation that can be considered deferrable.)
9. But farm workers still will get the same special consideration—for deferment—that they got through the war. A special section of the draft law provides for them.

(Which means: Deferment for farm workers undoubtedly will be far greater than for any other kind of work in this country.)

7. Draft boards will review the cases of men 19 through 29 who have been found physically unfit for military service.

Which means: Some men now excused from military service because of poor physical condition will find themselves drafted, if doctors think they've improved enough to fit requirements.)

8. There's no quota system based on age. For instance: Draft boards will take whom they can in the group 19-29, and not try to pick just so many of one age, so many of another.

9. Draft boards will consider drafting war veterans if (a) they have not served outside the United States and (b) had less than six months military service.

Which means: If a man served less than six months, but served them in the United States, and was then discharged, his draft board may draft him again.

If a man had been in the service only 2 days or 2 months or any length of time less than 6 months but had been on duty only as far as three miles outside the continental limits of the U. S., he wouldn't be drafted.)

Swiss Have Cow Fights

SION, Switzerland, (AP)—For the farmers living far up in the isolated valleys of the Valais canton in southwestern Switzerland, their annual cow fights are no less thrilling than a heavyweight championship boxing bout to citizens of the U.S.

Toward the end of June herds of the stocky, combative brown and black cattle known here as the "Herence" breed are driven to high pastures just beneath the glaciers and snow covered tops of the Alps to spend the summer.

On the same day approximately 200 cows, chosen from the different stables, are assembled on the grazing ground to determine a queen which will become the acknowledged summer leader of the combined herds.

It is a great honor as well as financially interesting for a farmer to own a queen cow. Rivalries are sharp and often the excitable temper of the Valaisans, noted all over Switzerland, flares in heated argument, sometimes culminating in violent fist encounters and life-long family feuds.

The cow fights start early in the morning. The animals are herded together in as level a field as can be found in this rugged country. Their horns have been blunted and sharp tips removed. The air is filled with lowing and bawling and the tinkle of hundreds of cow bells.

The clashes are short but violent. Two cows will maneuver with lowered heads for a good attacking position, then hurl themselves against each other, locking horns and straining with the whole weight of their muscular bodies until one yields to superior strength.

The trial by individual combat continues for about three days after the arrival at pasture, but the fights never wholly cease all summer as some of the cows try again and again to improve their rating. The queen, however, seldom is attacked after the first flurry, her impressive series of early victories giving her such prestige that other cows apparently feel handicapped from the beginning.

Cakes collapse and pies swell at 8,000 feet altitude.

THE NEW OPA BILL

City Owns Night Clubs

NEW YORK.—Two Manhattan night clubs where the summer seems to find youngsters swarming about in great numbers are the Tavern-on-the-Green in Central Park, and the Claremont Inn on Riverside Drive. . . . Both were formerly operated as night clubs which, despite their location on public property, had bills of fare which would startle the pocketbooks in any bottle with the possible exception of the Colony, Chamber or Twenty-one.

Those prices were hardly what the average New York resident could afford. . . . And when Mayor LaGuardia was reminded of the inequity of the situation, he cracked down and turned both colorfully attractive rendezvous into premises where the ordinary working guy and his gal might be able to get by for an evening, on a moderate budget.

The Tavern-on-the-Green, presents a beautiful sight, winter or summer. . . . Victorias, phaetons and landaus arriving with youngsters in bright dresses and jackets form a delightful warm weather treat for older eyes. . . . The snow in winter, with skaters on the lake just over the rise, give it a seasonal change of color.

LaGuardia's emphasis on the Park being a playground for the average citizen was a lucky stroke for the little guy who needs an occasional night away from his average home. The Tavern has been a constantly profitable operation ever since, with no city government subsidies needed to keep it perking.

The Tavern has both an outdoor and indoor dance floor. . . . In the winter the outdoor space is flooded and used as a skating rink, adding an extra bit of natural color to the premises.

The Claremont Inn combines its good times with a hint of history, cool breezes and an exciting view of the Hudson River, and the George Washington Bridge. . . .

The palatial Inn has been a natural grandstand for a good many notable occurrences. . . . Robert Fulton steamed by the spot which now looks out on the victorious ships of two wars as they drop anchor. . . . The Inn has a goodly sprinkling of tars when the fleet's in. . . . It also was the site of the Battle of Harlem Heights and can boast of having had under its various roofs at various times such gentlemen as Admiral Dewey, Joseph Bonaparte, Lafayette, Talleyrand and a seemingly endless train of almost equally famous names.

Illicit Booze Seized By Board

AUSTIN, July 19. (AP)—Four illicit stills, two in Red River county and one each in Angelina and Marion counties, were seized last month by state liquor control board inspectors, the board has announced.

Total cubic capacity of the four stills was 125 gallons and represented potential evasion of $2,686 in state taxes. The inspectors seized 375 gallons of mash with the stills and made one arrest. One gallon of moonshine liquor was destroyed.

The control board reported revenue collections for June totaling $1,261,465, an increase of $108,350 over June revenues a year ago.

Liquor stamp sales accounted for $889,404 of the total; beer stamps $234,805; wine stamps $43,261; prescription stamps $43; permits and licenses $43,887; confiscated sales $16,844 and miscellaneous $1,183.

International bridge collections were the following: El Paso $7,185; Laredo, $8,609; Hidalgo $5,119; Thayer $728; Brownsville $5,167; Del Rio $778; and Eagle Pass $1,333.

Congressmen Predominantly Honest

WASHINGTON—The Ku Klux Klan has just issued a "fiery summons" to all Klansmen in Atlanta demanding that members meet immediately in extraordinary Konclave. The summons is on a piece of paper about as big as a police summons. In the background is the red figure of a hooded Klansman, and under the heading, "Solemn Summons of the Fiery Cross," appears the following message:

"You are hereby seriously summoned to be and appear at an extraordinary Konclave. Nothing but a providential hindrance can legally justify your failure to be present. Duty, with all the justice of her unquestionable authority, calls. The call is imperative! "By Mandate of His Lordship "The Imperial Wizard."

As a result of this summons, special KKK meetings have been held in Atlanta, attended by more than the usual number of Klansmen. Two questions have been discussed: 1) What strategy to adopt for the Atlanta visit; and 2) raising funds to hire lawyers to prevent revocation of the Klan's charter.

At the instruction of hard-hitting Governor Ellis Arnall, Georgia's Attorney General Eugene Cook has brought an action against the Klan to revoke its charter. Also at the insistence of Governor Arnall, this columnist will deliver a radio broadcast from the steps of the state capitol on Sunday.

but a local jury refused to convict. Later when the justice department discovered that Congressman Gene Cox, also of Georgia, had been paid for lobbying against the government, the attorney general, deciding no local jury would convict, brought no prosecution.

Most Congressmen Are Honest

In the whole history of the United States only one senator has been convicted for lobbying for profit against his government—Senator Joseph R. Burton, a republican from Kansas. Yet newsmen and others who watch the capital close up know of cases where unscrupulous congressmen have taken money for working against the federal government.

Actually, the great majority of congressmen are absolutely honest. This writer, who has seen something of foreign parliaments, from the chamber of deputies in Paris to the schupstina in Belgrade, is convinced that, outside the British empire, no other group of legislators are so honest personally as the American congress. Misguided and frequently wrong they may be, but most of them are honest.

Yet, it is a few bad apples in the congressional barrel that poisons the reputation of the rest. That is why this column has urged that congressmen register their business transactions, their purchases on the stock market, their speculations in rye, silver and cotton, and the chief clients of their law firms with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Wall Street is now required to register with the SEC. Every corporation is required to disclose its major salaries to the SEC. Equally important is the need for our legislators, most of whom have nothing to hide, to disclose their non-government business connections.

Had Congressman May registered with the SEC his connection with the mysterious Erie Basin Lumber company; had he registered the fact that he was president of the Greenbrier Manganese Mining company at the time it was seeking a war contract, then the public would have had a chance to judge for itself whether its interest or May's interest was being served.

colleagues to put their economies on record is Glen Taylor, cowboy senator from Idaho. When the Case bill was before congress, Taylor tacked on an amendment requiring congressmen to disclose all stock market deals, commodity market operations, fees and business connections. Taylor thought this should counterbalance the Case bill requirement that labor unions make their financial statements public, authored by Senator Byrd of Virginia.

Whereupon Senator Byrd withdrew his amendment, on condition Taylor withdraw his. Much as Byrd wanted labor unions to disclose their financial transactions, he didn't want senators to disclose theirs.

No Congressman Is Guilty

The case of Andrew Jackson May and his backstage wire-pulling for war profits illustrates two defects in our politico-congressional system which sooner or later must be cured.

1. The almost-life-or-death power of the chairman of any congressional committee over executive branches of the government.
2. The fact that certain congressional districts are so dominated by political bosses that no matter what a man does in Washington he can't be defeated for reelection at home.

Congressman May comes from a district in the Kentucky mountains, many of whose people no regard him as something of a hero. They believe that Jack May can do no wrong. Prior to Mr. May's incumbency, his district sent a republican, John Langley to congress. He landed in jail for bootlegging. But even after he had been convicted, Langley was re-elected to congress. And when it became clear that Langley did not adequately represent his district while behind bars, his loyal constituents sent his wife to congress instead.

From Boston, Rep. James Curley, another democrat, served in congress for some time while under indictment. Finally, when he was convicted for war frauds, Curley was carried through the streets of Boston on the shoulders of cheering admirers.

In Georgia, not long ago, the justice department attempted to convict Congressman Frank Wheeler for selling postmasterships.

Powerful Committee Chairmen

Second big defect in our politico-congressional system is the power of committee chairmen. Rep. May, as chairman of the military affairs committee can pigeon-hole or pass army legislation. That was why Undersecretary of War Patterson trotted up to May's office to do favors for Erie Basin and why the brass hats literally jumped through hoops at May's beck and call.

When this columnist was probing the cotton speculations of Senator Elmer Thomas of Oklahoma, the agriculture department was asked to investigate the matter. They were asked not only by me but by high-up officials in other departments. Agriculture bureaucrats, however, threw up their hands in horror. Senator Thomas is chairman of the senate committee on agriculture and can strangle agriculture department legislation if he desires.

So despite the fact that agricultural officials admitted they knew about the Oklahoma senator's flagrant cotton speculations, and despite the fact that the agriculture department is charged by law with policing the commodities market, officials refused to do anything about it.

Under the present set-up in congress the ability of a committee chairman is not important. Nor are his ethical standards, nor his honesty. Seniority is all that counts. And as long as a member of congress has been elected ahead of other colleagues of his committee, he can sit in the all-powerful chairmanship, riding roughshod over legislation badly needed by the executive branch of the government—unless the department heads kow-tow to him. Congressional Self-Protection

But few congressmen will move to require such registration. This columnist has talked to some of the senate leaders about the problem. Conscientious Senator Barkley of Kentucky would favor such a move, but is an extremely busy man. So would Senator Austin of Vermont, but he is leaving to join the United Nations.

Only senator so far willing to take the initiative in requiring his

To The Voters Of Howard County:

Martin Co-Leader In 8-Hit Attack Off Bergerson

LAMESA, July 19. — The upstart Lamesa Loboes stymied the Lubbock Hubbers again here tonight as a roaring crowd of 925 watched the home club take a 6 to 4 decision in an error-laden contest.

Lubbock got away to a 2-run lead in the third inning on Al Carr's home run blast over the right field fence behind a walk to Sullivan. The Hubbers got only one more tally off the steady twirling of Jack Hauptert when Kuykendall tripled to center to lead off the seventh and Boyd Watkins squeezed him home.

Gene Bergerson, big left-hander making his first postwar start for Lubbock, held the Loboes hitless and not a Lamesa player reached first base through the first five frames.

The Loboes got started in the sixth when Barton Cook singled, Hauptert sacrificed him to second, and Manager Bob Allaire drove him in with a single to center.

In the seventh Lamesa combined four singles with a costly error by Mellillo after 2 were out for unearned counters and the ball game. The Hubbers made 5 bunts but only Mellillo's mistake hurt.

Tumelson relieved Bergerson during the hectic seventh and shut Lamesa out thereafter.

Hauptert went out of the game in the seventh in favor of pinch-hitter Joe Fortin, but received credit for the win after holding the Hubbers to 7 hits and striking out six.

Allen McPike replaced Hauptert to start the eighth, but he soon retired in favor of Cecil Hart after being touched for 2 hits and 1 run in one-third of an inning. The Hubbers threatened in the ninth on singles by Sullivan and Carr but Pat Rooney dribbled out catcher to first to end the contest.

Lubbock did a repeat performance of the first game of the series, out-hitting the Loboes 11 to 8 but a crucial error and 11 Hubbers left on base helped tell the story. Lamesa had only men stranded.

Drainage Survey Underway In Valley

McALLEN, July 19. (AP) — A survey of proposed routes for canals of a master drainage district of the Rio Grande Valley being made by the US Reclamation Bureau board of review will be expanded next week.
Spokesmen said the survey will be expanded to include the bureau's $65,500,000 overall drainage-gravity irrigation canal project.

Lord Byron Off Game, Dawson Low Amateur

CHICAGO, July 19. (AP) — Defending champion Byron Nelson appeared headed for a trimming in the $10,000 Chicago Victory national open which started today with 55 select professionals and 17 amateurs.

Nelson, who needed overnight coaxing by his cronies to stay in the field for the 72-hole scramble, was just another golfer in a 36-hole carnival for pro-amateur, pro-lady and pro-senior titles which ended yesterday.

Apparently getting Nelson's goat, the 6,929-yard, par 71 course threw Byron for a feeble 74-75-149, seven over standard for the two-day preliminary skirmishing in which such professionals as Johnny Bulla, Harold (Jug) McSpaden, and leading money winner Ben Hogan stole the show.

Bulla, although he failed to cop in any of the three combination championships, waded through the 36-hole preliminaries in 137, five under par, to emerge as the top professional.

McSpaden, whose 68 yesterday gave him a 138 aggregate, shared the pro-senior (partner over 50) title with Arnold Minkley of Chicago whose 163 gave them a 301. Hogan also closed with a 68 for a 141 and teamed with brilliant Louise Suggs of Lithia Springs, Ga., for the pro-lady crown with 301. Miss Suggs added a final 65 to her remarkable opening 75.

Another dejected favorite was Frank (Muscles) Stranahan of Toledo, winner of the recent Kansas City invitational. He outscored Nelson as the pro star's amateur partner with a 72-76-148, but still was six strokes over the top stinn-pure, veteran George Dawson of Glen Ellyn, Ill. Dawson coupled 70 and 72 for a par-matching 142.

Midland Hosts Local Lassies

Midland hosts the American Legion girls' softball team of Big Spring Saturday night in a game booked to begin around 8 o'clock. The Midlanders are of unknown strength. However strong they are, the Legionnaires figure to win since they appear to have returned to form after absorbing a 17-9 shellacking at the hands of Odessa here last week.

Paced by Ethel Trotter, the Legion lassies mauled an All-Star team of the Church league last Tuesday, 19-0, and looked very good in doing it.
Trotter will be behind the dish tomorrow night, taking the slants of either Lefty Todd or LaVelle Reid. Either tosser might get the call.

Others who will stare for the Big Springers are Catherine Redding, Jan and Lois Kinman, Mary Fields, Dean Baldoock, Doris Yates and Charlene Tucker.
The locals hold victories over Sweetwater, San Angelo, Brownfield and Stanton this season. Brownfield and Odessa have been on the long end of scores in other contests with the Legionnaires.

E. J. MILLER Brown County

Two members of the court are from the north and west part of the district, which might suggest that distributive fairness would be served by having one member of the court from the south and east part of the district.

Unanimous Endorsement of the Brown County Bar

We have known Judge E. J. Miller, both as Judge of the 35th District Court, where he served for twelve years, and as an active lawyer in private practice, in which he was engaged for many years. He was an able judge, diligent, industrious, fearless in the law, and painstaking in his consideration and decision of the matters involved. We commend him as having the qualities that eminently fit him for the position which he seeks, that of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals.

Red Birds Replace Brooklyn At Top Of Senior Loop Heap

Dyermen Squeak By Phillies, 5-4, In Nocturnal Go

By The Associated Press

GORDON

Brooklyn's fond dream of a 1946 pennant has exploded into a grisly nightmare today with the Cardinals back in first place and the Dodgers on a six-game losing binge.

Seven games ahead on the July 4th dividing line, the Dodgers have crashed toward their doom on a fatal western jaunt while St. Louis, safe at home, has eaten up the entire lead and forged ahead by a half game.

All is not lost for the Gowanus faithful if the Brooks can pull out of the tailspin before it becomes a habit, for the Red Birds still have two long eastern tours before the curtain drops.

The discouraging factor to the Brooks is the certain fact that St. Louis appears to be leveling off for another of its famous stretch drives.

The Phillies, who kept St. Louis out of first place Wednesday, fought hard to bar the door last night but finally succumbed, 5-4. Heusser sent the Dodgers down for the sixth time, 4-2, in Cincinnati.

Bill Lee halted the Chicago Cubs' upward march with a six hit, 9-3 decision for the Boston Braves.

Pittsburgh broke Dave Koslo's jinx, downing New York, 7-3, after the rookie southpaw had beaten them four straight times.

The Boston Red Sox maintained their 11-game lead over New York by nosing out Chicago, 3-2, on Tom McBride's third hit and second double.

Joe Gordon's two-run homer in the fourth inning was enough help for Mel Queen in recording his first triumph since his discharge from the army. Queen, a loose-jointed righthander with a blazing fast ball, scattered eight St. Louis hits in his 3-1 success.

Other encouraging news to Yankee fans was the word that shortstop Phil Rizzuto probably will rejoin his mates tomorrow.

Gil Coan's speed enabled Washington to trim Detroit, 1-0.

Cleveland got to Russ Christoper for five hits and six runs in a big second inning to defeat Philadelphia, 7-3.

Elliott Pitches VFW To Victory

Tommy Elliott survived a last-inning uprising in which the foe collected five runs to pitch the Veterans of Foreign Wars to an 11-7 triumph over United Body Works in a Muny softball league bout played at the city park Thursday night.

Manhattan Club edged Dub's Garage, 4-3, in the evening's other debate to remain in a contenting position for the lead.

The Vets outthrew the Mechanics and two four-run innings did the trick. They collected their first quartet of tallies in Round Two and repeated that trick in the sixth.

Billy Womack, Horace Bostick, Jake Anderson, Joe Glass and Tommy Davis teamed up to punish the UBW slabsman, J. C. Mittie. Davis drove out a home run.

The Mechanics' one-man gang, Ted Gross, was a standout, both at bat and in the field.

Tonight's schedule:
Coahoma vs. Manhattan, here, 7:30 p. m.
United Body Works vs. Redcaps, 9 o'clock.

Barons To Play Again Sunday

Frank Miller rounds up his Big Spring Black Barons again Sunday afternoon for a baseball exhibition with the Sweetwater Black Shepards on the Salvation Army diamond. Game time is 3:30 p. m. or thereabouts.

The Barons lineup is not set but Harry Dooley, who has baffled most of his opponents this year with a neat curve ball, will probably get the mound call.

Won-and-lost record of the local club has been one of the most impressive in West Texas independent circles to date.

Ford Hits Road For Night Game

Victorious over one Big Spring team a month ago, the White House softball contingent of Colorado City take on another brigade from the Howard county metropolis at 8 o'clock this evening when the Grocers tangle with Big Spring Motor.

The engagement will be unreeled in Colorado City.

The Grocers took the measure of the Coca-Cola club of Big Spring some time ago by a 6 to 3 count but the Fordmen are due to be much tougher.

Dike Tolbert, Motorists' skipper, will lead with his pitching ace, Leon Glenn Bredemeyer, and will bank on such hitters as Charley Teague, Dr. Ed Strauss and Sonny Chapman to supply the punch.

Bartzen Blanks Rank

NEENAH, Wis., July 19. (AP) — Bernard Bartzen, San Angelo, Tex., defeated Dale Rank, Marquette, Mich., 6-0, 6-0, in a third round match of the Western hard courts championship.

Bartzen and Jim Evert defeated Dick Boeren and Gregg Pauley, 6-0, 6-0, in the first round of the men's doubles.

Garden Welter "Go" on KBST Tonight

Two fast-moving welterweights, Tony Pellone (above) of New York, and Charlie "Chuck" Taylor, Coalport, Pennsylvania, battle in the main ten at Manhattan's Madison Square Garden tonight.

Pellone, a long-range boxer, uses a wide variety of punches. He misses a smashing right uppercut with a potent left hook. It is the latter, however, that has gained him most of his wins. Among others, his victims include Billy Graham, Lulu Costantino and Patsy Giovannelli.

Taylor is a nifty package and displays consummate boxing skill, in addition to having a dangerous wallop. He got his first acclaim around Gotham when he defeated Freddie Archer several weeks ago. He looked so good that a lot of the mob climbed on his hand wagon.

Enjoy the excitement, blow-by-blow, on Gillette's Cavalcade of Sports over American Broadcasting Co. and KBST (1490 on your dial) at 8 p. m.

Proves Obliging

VANCOUVER, Wash. — Justice of the Peace Paul Elwell proved that he could be obliging.

He fined attorney Ralph Booth McAbee $10 for contempt of court after he and the lawyer had haggled during the trial of a drunken driving charge.

"Ten dollars could not begin to express my contempt for this court," McAbee retorted to the fine.

The judge obliged: he boosted the fine to $50.

Vets Certified For Purchases

Several veterans in the Big Spring area were being certified for purchasing surplus property today by C. W. Holcomb and D. C. McBride of the Fort Worth War Assets Administration office, who are completing a two-day visit to Big Spring.

The War Assets Administration is sending representatives here on a regular schedule, and veterans can obtain proper certification by contacting them during their visits at the Veterans Administration offices, 206 Petroleum building. They will be in Big Spring again on Aug. 1 and 2.

Certification can be granted here for purchasing any surplus property except passenger cars, station wagons and typewriters, all of which have been frozen, Holcomb said.

Effective Aug. 1, sales of motor vehicles by invitation will be discontinued, the WAA has advised. After that date all vehicles will be catalogued regularly and each prospective purchaser listed on the rolls will receive a copy of each catalogue as it is issued. Purchases then can be made by filling out order blanks and mailing them in. Purchases will continue to be handled in the order of certification dates, however.

Mystery Blast Fatal To Pair

MOKOLUMNE HILL, Calif., July 19 (AP)—Explosion of a bomb mysteriously concealed in a valise, killing two persons and virtually wrecking a building, baffled a crew of investigators today in this Mother Lode gold country community.

Victims of the blast were Richard Quetirolo, 36, and his son, David, 11, killed yesterday when the father opened the old-style valise, which they had found lying under a tree.

Injured by the explosion were Quetirolo's wife, Dora, 30, and their nephew, Jack Quetirolo, 20, both with cuts from glass and splinters.

The bomb went off in front of a building housing the telephone exchange, postoffice and circulating library and broke all telephone lines, smashed every window, blew out postoffice mail boxes and hurled a bookcase through a wall.

Sheriff Joe Zwinge said the bomb hidden in the valise and left lying under a tree across the street from the building mystified law officers and that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been called. FBI area headquarters in San Francisco would neither confirm nor deny that its agents were hunting for whoever left the valise there.

Rev. Smith Speaks To Business Club

Speaking before the American Business Club at regular Friday luncheon, Rev. H. Clyde Smith said the passage of time and life toward the "gulf of eternity" could be compared to "Old Man River," storied old song of romance and legend around which he built his theme.

Smith stated one of the most beautiful and truthful axioms of existence was that found carved above a portal of a cathedral in Milan: "That Only is Important Which is Eternal."

Also featured on the program was M. Bean, vocalist, who sang "Calm As the Night," "Lasso O Mine," and "My Little Banjo," the latter an encore number. He was accompanied by Miss Helen Duley at the piano.

The membership voted to stage a watermelon supper at the city park at 7:30 p. m. Friday. Members of the XYZ club are to be invited, President Loy House announced.

Guests included Jake Anderson, Donald Anderson and Pete Green.

Colorado City Pioneer Dead

COLORADO CITY, July 19 (AP)—L. W. Sandusky, resident of Colorado City for more than 40 years and a prominent West Texas attorney and orator until his retirement about 14 years ago, died unexpectedly here this morning. He was 67 years old.

Sandusky was stricken as he walked to town, falling on a sidewalk a few blocks from his home. He was taken to the local hospital, but was pronounced dead on arrival there. He had suffered partial paralysis a number of years ago, and had not been strong since.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed.

Born in Decatur, Texas, Sandusky spent his boyhood in Kentucky, returning to Texas at the age of 21, and settling in Colorado City in 1904. He was educated at the University of Virginia and the University of Louisville.

He is survived by his wife, to whom he was married in 1908; one daughter, Mrs. H. L. Hutchinson, Jr., of Colorado City, and a granddaughter, Adele Hutchinson.

In addition to his activity in legal circles, Sandusky was an early worker for oil exploration in Mitchell county. He was a member of the First Christian church, the Masonic order, and a charter member of the city's Lions club.

Slaying Suspect May Be Ready To Talk

CHICAGO, July 19 (AP)—The possibility of a new development appeared imminent in the William Helrens investigation today when Warden Frank Sain reported the youth's lawyers intended calling a slay report to the county jail to take notes from him.

Attorneys for the 17-year-old University of Chicago student, who is under investigation in the Suzanne Degnan kidnap-killing and two other slayings, visited him in the county jail for two hours today.

One of the lawyers, John Coghlan, told newsmen that the visit was their idea and not at the request of Helrens. He declined further comment, other than to say Helrens was "in good health and spirits."
