JOHNSON AND ANOTHER MAN ARE VICTIMS

11 OTHERS INJURED, INCLUDING WIFE OF EXPLORER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13 (AP)—Martin Johnson, 52, noted explorer, died today of injuries suffered in yesterday's crash of a transport airplane, the second fatality among the 13 persons aboard the ill-fated airliner.

James A. Braden, president of a Cleveland, O., ink company, was crushed to death between two seats when the two-motored plane pancaked on a fog-shrouded mountain-side, 15 miles from Union Air terminal, its destination, at Burbank on a flight from Salt Lake City.

Co-pilot Clifford P. Owens and A. L. Loomis, of Omaha, Neb., a passenger, were critically hurt, but none riding in the big all-metal craft escaped without some injury.

Mrs. Osa Johnson, the explorer's wife, suffered concussion and a fractured right knee.

While snow piled up on the damaged wings and fuselage of the airliner, on a ridge 100 yards below the Los Pinos ranger lookout station, two governmental inquiries were set in motion in an attempt to determine the cause of the disaster. It was the major airplane accident in the United States in the last 30 days.

Engine Torn Off.

The big two-motored Boeing, one engine torn off and its nose crumpled, lay like a ghost ship atop the snow-shrouded ridge 100 yards below the Los Pinos ranger lookout station.

From the wreck, one passenger, Arthur S. Robinson of Rochester, N. Y., managed to stagger seven miles through yesterday's storm and called rescuers to the scene. He reached Olive View sanitarium with a fractured foot, possible internal injuries and several crushed vertebrae in his spine.

Medical aid was rushed to the plane and the other injured were removed to the unoccupied lookout station.

The body of Braden was taken to a San Fernando mortuary.

Johnson suffered a fractured leg and other possible fractures and his wife, a fractured leg.

Pilot W. W. Lewis said: "I had formed on the ship and I was driven to the left of my course while attempting to cross the range through Newhall pass."

"One of the motors was spluttering badly. I decided then the only thing to do was to make a forced landing."

"Suddenly out of the fog, directly in front of us, loomed the snow-capped Santa Clara ridge. I turned off my motor and panicked the ship to the side of the mountain."

The Johnsons were to have appeared last night at the Pasadena auditorium in an illustrated lecture on "Borneo."

Johnson, a native of Rockford, Ill., began his world wandering at 14 when he worked his way to England on a cattle boat.

With Jack London.

Later he acted as cook on the "Snark" of Jack London, touring the South Seas.

His marriage to Osa Leighty occurred in 1910 and together they set out on a lecture tour of the western United States. Johnson using material he had gathered in the South Seas.

That toughened them, Johnson said, for their later hardships in the remote places of the earth.

The Johnsons made six trips around the world, hunting big game, taking motion pictures of strange lands and customs, and getting together material for books and lectures.

ALRED STATES PENSION PLANS

MATTSON BOY DEAD 6 DAYS WHEN FOUND

DETAILS OF INJURIES WITHHELD FROM MOTHER

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 13 (AP)—Charles Mattson's flower-banked casket today shielded from the gaze of his sorrowing family the brutal wounds he suffered at the hands of a kidnaper and killer.

Hundreds of officers hunted the 10-year-old Tacoma boy's kidnaper throughout the Pacific northwest as Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Mattson prepared for the ordeal of the funeral services at 1 p. m. (3 p. m. central standard time) today.

Details of the boy's wounds, learned at a closely guarded autopsy, were withheld entirely from Mrs. Mattson and from the two remaining children, William, 16, and Muriel, 14, friends said. No announcement of what the autopsy revealed was made by federal agents or by physicians who conducted it.

One stab wound from the back almost pierced the body, but missed vital organs and left Charles in torture before his kidnaper finally dispatched him, the San Francisco Chronicle said in a copyrighted Tacoma dispatch.

The autopsy also indicated the boy fought fiercely, the newspaper said, "probably in an attempt to escape from an abductor who subjected him to 'fearful inhumanities.'" He fed him barely enough food to keep alive and provided no protection against the bitter cold.

"Death," the dispatch said, "had occurred possibly six days before the frozen body was discovered."

Coroner Otto H. Mittelstadt of Seattle, who examined the body when it was found Monday at Everett, Wash., said he was sure the boy was killed either last Thursday or Friday. Mittelstadt did not attend the autopsy in Tacoma.

Department of Justice operatives kept secret whether they sought one or two men but they had definite clues to guide them toward the man who played the principal role.

Dr. W. W. Mattson, father of the boy, indicated in an anguished cry he believed there was more than one kidnaper. When told the frozen corpse found near Everett, Wash., was that of his boy, he cried: "I feared it. I feared when they pulled that boy out into the night."

Live in Subway

Evicted when they fell $8 behind in room rent, John Marariella, 29, and his wife, Rose, 20, lived in the subway for two weeks until lack of food and imminence of the stork's visit rendered them desperate. They are pictured clinging together as they told police at Brooklyn, N. Y., of their plight. Marariella, a truck driver, lost his job when he became ill.

PRESENT LAW TO BE GIVEN THORO TRIAL

URGES REGULATION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES IN STATE

AUSTIN, Jan. 13 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred told the 45th Texas legislature today in a plainly-worded message he would not approve any liberalization of old age assistance benefits until the present plan had been given a thorough trial.

He reported the condition of the state generally was sound, but made numerous recommendations for legislation including:

Extension of the social security program to the blind, crippled dependent children and others entitled to assistance under the federal laws.

Tightening of the drivers license law and more effective regulation of trucks and buses in the interest of safety.

Enabling laws to make effective constitutional amendments creating a new pardons board and authorizing trial courts to place defendants on probation.

Giving the volunteer parole boards legal status.

Legislative representative re-districting.

Ratification of the child labor amendment to the federal constitution.

Raising additional revenue for old age assistance and general purposes.

To Aid 'Aged Needy.'

The governor said an erroneous impression had been created that the people had voted for pensions for every one over 65 years of age, but declared they had approved "assistance" and that the federal law provided aid to the "aged needy." He said the matter was a clear-cut issue in the campaign for governor.

Asserting the last legislature authorized assistance to the needy only and the problem was being dealt with intelligently he said: "I will not approve any bill liberalizing or extending benefits to those who are not in need until the present law has had a just and fair trial."

He said cost of putting the remaining benefits of the federal social security program into effect would approximate $4,324,000 annually, and he would not approve a law making them available until the legislature provided revenue to pay appropriations.

Rate Reduction Needed.

"The time has come when we must pass an effective regulatory law, one giving adequate power and means to a state commission to regulate the utility rates," he said.

The regular non-luncheon Tuesday will be postponed because of the installation banquet.

Loses $200,000

Loss of $200,000 of uncut diamonds forced Joseph Rose (above) 63-year-old recluse, of Brooklyn, to reveal that he had been receiving relief fraudulently. He accused Louis Gorelick, a friend to whom he had confided his secret, of taking the gems. Rose claims to have been a founder of the New York Diamond Exchange.

MURPHY CALLS NEW MEETING IN GM STRIKES

WARRANTS FOR ARREST OF SIT-DOWNERS ARE HELD UP

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 13 (AP)—Gov. Frank Murphy, determined to effect "an immediate and peaceful termination" of the General Motors strikes, called today for a meeting of company and union representatives in his office at the capital.

The governor, whose previous endeavors to arrange a joint parity failed, dispatched letters to the chiefs of each side as four regiments of Michigan national guardmen converged upon Flint, scene of bloody rioting Monday night.

Murphy requested William S. Knudsen, General Motors executive vice president, and Homer Martin, president of the United Automobile Workers of America, each accompanied by two associates, to meet in Lansing at 11 a. m. (EST) tomorrow with the governor and James P. Dewey, federal labor conciliator.

Pending the outcome of this conference, Murphy requested Joseph R. Joseph, Genesee county (Flint) prosecutor, to withhold service of "John Doe" warrants for the arrest of the several hundred strikers remaining in the Fisher Body No. 2 plant here, outside of which a score of persons were injured in the riot.

The warrants charging kidnaping, vicious destruction of property while rioting, felonious assault and criminal syndicalism, were issued by two municipal court judges here last night.

Sheriff Thomas W. Wolcott said:

TEX'S TOPICS

Every now and then a news story gets away from your newspaper reporters. . . . One almost "happened" recently in Gray county that got away from the entire force of scribes in these parts.

This was due possibly to the fact that everyone who knew anything about it, put the soft peddle down hard, and nothing leaked out—that is, nothing leaked out until the story, if any, was at least three weeks old.

Officials still wish it suppressed for reasons which, possibly are well-taken from officialdom's viewpoint. . . . The story, of course, has dissolved now, although it could have been big at the time it developed. . . . It had something to do with dynamite and workmen. . . . Maybe suspicions were well-based and maybe they were not.

Possibly the "story-in-the-making" still would be a deep dark secret if an Amarilloan hadn't come up here and let the cat of the bag at a public meeting in the presence of newspapermen. . . . When the tell-tale words left his lips, officials immediately showed much concern and lost no time in getting to newspaper reporters to tell them to forget about what had been said.

A newspaperman, true to the profession, can't do that without the pang of conscience dogging him each night for being fickle to his reader-public. . . . In this instance, there is the possibility which still exists that nothing really was wrong. . . . In that event, those who requested that the public not be alarmed by any undue publicity are given the benefit of the doubt.

So, to the public—and to any who may have heard some inkling of this so-called "dynamite" story, we shall say that you haven't yet missed anything—that developments so far do not warrant any assumptions. . . . In any event, something new turns up to disprove our belief that the story, died a-borning, we shall give it to you.

Tenderfoot from the East are guests at our house, this being the first time they ever have nosed their caravan west of the Mississippi. . . . And they arrived without benefit of cowboys or Indians, about which all Easterners, who never have been West, immediately think when Texas is mentioned.

But to give them a little taste of what is left of the Old West it has been arranged with Lon Blanscet, ex-sheriff of Gray county, to transport these tenderfoot deep into the plains and show them ranch life in the raw. . . . You must remember that these Easterners are the type to whom a ten-gallon hat is a rarity. . . . The only place they ever saw one before was in a western movie on their home-town theater screen.

We hope to induce the two male members of the party each to get

EXPLOITS OF JOHNSON ARE NOW RECALLED

CHANDLER, Kan., Jan. 13 (AP)—Martin Johnson's home town found it hard to believe today that the world adventurer who followed the most savage jungle trails with impunity met death in an accident of civilization—a transport plane crash in California.

Only Monday Johnson had complained jokingly of the perils of a modern world.

"Why, I almost got killed by a taxi, this morning," the bald, keen-eyed explorer said as they stopped off at Salt Lake City on their fateful westward plane trip.

Between their trips to the far corners of the world, the intrepid explorer and his equally courageous wife, always found time to visit the town of their romance and marriage. They had hundreds of friends here. Johnson had wandered about from the time he was 14 year old, seeing America, traveling to England on a cattle boat, eventually drifting back to Independence, where his father, John A. Johnson, was a jeweler. He clerked in his father's store and developed photographic plates for the independence folk. When he was 20 he read in a magazine that Jack London wanted another person to sail with him to the South Seas on London's 47-foot craft, The Shark.

Martin Johnson wrote London a letter. London telegraphed back: "Can you cook?"

"A little," Johnson replied by wire. "Will learn more."

He went to a nearby restaurant and hired himself out as a cook. He worked night and day for a week, then joined London in San Francisco.

Another of Johnson's services in hitherto unexplored South Sea nooks with the London consisted of photographing. He later decided his explorations would be recorded entirely

SLANDER SUIT IS FILED BY WALLY'S EX-HUSBAND

LONDON, Jan. 13 (AP)—Ernest Aldrich Simpson, former husband of Mrs. Wally Simpson, has filed a slander suit against Mrs. Joan Sutherland, alleging she said Simpson received a sum of money to divorce his American wife, it was learned today.

Mrs. Sutherland is the wife of Lieut. Col. A. H. C. Sutherland who has been decorated by the government with the Order of the British Empire and also the Military Cross.

Simpson declined to discuss the case except to confirm that notice of the suit had been issued and served on Mrs. Sutherland.

Section Crew Of Eight Killed By Locomotive

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13 (AP)—A freight locomotive backing up in the darkness on the Mojave desert ran over a section crew, killing eight men, the Union Pacific railroad said today.

The accident occurred outside Brandt, a small town on the main line 75 miles west of Las Vegas, Nev.

The crew had been called out at 3 a. m. to clear snow from the tracks at Sima, 10 miles west of Brandt. The men were using a small motor car. Sima is the top of the hill, the down grade of which leads through Cajon Pass into the San Bernardino valley.

EMPLOYERS URGED TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Employers of eight or more men in this section of the Panhandle are urged to attend a meeting in the city auditorium at Pampa tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock when R. B. Anderson of Austin will explain the Texas Unemployment Compensation act. The meeting will be free and employees are also invited to be present.

The act is a Texas law and should not be confused with the Social Security Act. Payment is by employers only and is based on a year's salary.

The speaker is being brought to Pampa through efforts of the Board of City Development and Pampa Credit association. He will be introduced by Travis Lively, chairman of the Pampa Credit association.

"Every man who employs eight or more men and as many employees as possible should attend this important meeting," Mr. Lively said. "I venture to say that 60 per cent of the employers of the state are not familiar with the workings of the act. We are bringing Mr. Anderson to Pampa to explain in detail and to answer questions pertaining to the workings of the act. WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—John Raymond McCarl, former comptroller general, denounced today President Roosevelt's proposal to abolish the comptroller generalship as the South Sea islander's independent accounting system. In a formal statement, McCarl said the proposal to redistribute the comptroller general's duties between the treasury and a new auditor general was a "bold" proposal "camouflaged by an attack upon the administration of the independent accounting system."

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 13 (AP)—Law officers hunted a long knife today as one of the most important clues to the identity of Charles Mattson's kidnaper. The knife was used in inflicting a deep wound in the kidnaped boy's back before he was slain by a blow on the head. Reports of the stab wound came from several reliable sources. The same source said the wound was narrow, apparently made by a long slim blade. They could not say whether a carving knife, stiletto or large penknife had been used but added the weapon was one of the three.

Salary Issue To Be Settled In Afternoon

Gray county commissioners went into session at 2 o'clock this afternoon bent on settling the salary-revenue issue in connection with the reimbursement of justices of the peace, constables and deputy constables.

The commissioners were expected to present their collective plans for "mulling" over after they had given two days thought to the matter following adjournment of their regular session last Monday.

County Judge Sherman White, apparently leaning to the salary plan, still insisted today that the county's 1937 budget must be revised to meet financial requirements if that plan is adopted.

"We are going to operate Gray county in the black this year," the judge stated, "and each department will be required to stay within its budget limitations."

A number of other matters were expected to come up for discussion at today's session of the commissioners' court.

THE OTHER WOMAN LIVES JUST AROUND THE CORNER

It may seem unreasonable, but most men cannot understand why a woman who is usually happy and loving should have recurring periods when her whole character seems changed. He cannot appreciate the distress, the discomfort that all women must endure. He does not know what it is to be housework with an aching back and failing energy. All he does know is that other women seem more cheerful by comparison.

Members and friends of those interested in the revival meeting at First Christian church, will be disappointed to know that because of an attack of flu, George Davis, the evangelist, will be unable to come to Pampa this week. The meeting has been postponed one week and will begin next Sunday night. Mr. Davis expects to be present at this date and the meeting will go along as originally planned.

A large number of special features have been arranged for the opening night including a crayon drawing by Howard House illustrating the song, "Somewhere the Sun is Shining." This picture will be given to the person who has invited the largest number of people to this service and who has the largest delegation present.

Special musical numbers are being arranged by R. L. Allison who will have charge of the music, and include solos, quartets, numbers by the choir and vibraphone solos. It is planned to make the musical portions of the program as varied and interesting as possible.

There will be a meeting of the official board tonight at the church at 7:30. Both the old and the new boards will meet for the transaction of business.

Girl Scout News

Three new members, Vontell Alexander, Clarice deCordova, and Betty Joy Stover, were received by Girl Scouts of troop six when they met at the Little House yesterday. A new assistant troop leader, Mrs. Karl E. Nichols, was introduced.

Mrs. C. H. Robinson and Norma Jean Beagle were visitors. The troop spent most of its meeting hour practicing for a chapel program to be presented at Sam Houston school next Wednesday.

A report on the attendance contest showed the Reds leading by the narrow margin of one point. Present were the following Scouts: Myra Aberson, Elaine Carlson, Jean Chisum, Betty Ann Culbertson, Therolene Devore, Willadean Ellis, Gracie Mae Hinds, Loretta McArthur, Nita Rose, McCarty, Esther June, Mullins, Martha Frances Pierson, Jean Robinson, Billie Sackett, Earlene Shottwell, Doris Taylor, Betty Lee Thomsen, Eula Taylor, Edna Mae Trainor, Joyce Turner, Joyce Wanner, Ora Sue Word, Betty Jo King.

DADS NIGHT AT BAKER PLANNED

Mrs. Purviance Gives Interesting Talk Yesterday

March 18 was set as the date for B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher association's annual fathers' night program, at a meeting yesterday afternoon. Men will be in complete charge of the program and will serve as officers. Contests were planned, with cakes and a quilt as awards.

The speaker yesterday was Mrs. W. Purviance, whose interesting talk on "Friendliness as a Stepping Stone in Character Building" was a program highlight. She stressed that home life develops the aptitude for friendliness just as it is the chief force in molding character.

Accordion solos by Mrs. Jeff D. Guthrie, a Mother Goose playlet by fourth grade pupils, and numbers by school band soloists, directed by W. Postma, completed the program. Miss Evelyn Shanklin led the opening sing-song.

Fourth grade room mothers were hostesses for the social period. The attendance award went to Herman Jones' room.

Your Eyes Are Precious—Protect Them

SEEING UNDER Poor Light WASTES HUMAN ENERGY

Insufficient Light at the office, and inadequate lighting conditions at home are responsible for many business men nodding off to sleep while reading after dinner!

Maybe you don't know it, but there are probably many hours every day when you must force your eyes to strain their tiny muscles so that you may see clearly!

This unconscious exertion may not be noticeable to you—but if too prolonged or too frequently repeated, it may result not only in harmful strain to the eyes but in a drain of nervous energy that can have a serious effect on health.

If you want to avoid the danger of eyestrain, do two things—have your eyes examined by a competent eyesight specialist and have the lighting in your home and office checked with a Light Measuring Meter.

Your eyes can't tell you when light is inadequate for seeing, but a Light Measuring Meter registers it at once. With this simple little device you can learn accurately the amount of light necessary to eye comfort at every type of visual task.

One of our lighting experts will measure your light without charge and will advise you about your lamps and fixtures so that you can get maximum efficiency from the electricity you buy. This service is yours without charge or obligation and we are glad to have you request it. Phone for an appointment to suit your convenience.

SOME DEMOS IN OPPOSITION TO FOR'S PROGRAM

REPUBLICANS FIGHT RE-ORGANIZATION PLAN

By EDWARD J. DUFFY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—Some Democrats joined Republicans today in opposing portions of the Roosevelt program for government reorganization, amid efforts of administration leaders to agree on the best methods of assuring enactment.

Although few took exception to the President's request for six more assistants, arguments centered on these major points:

1. Should the executive be empowered to consolidate the 100 independent agencies, especially those with quasi-judicial functions like the interstate commerce commission, into the regular cabinet departments?
2. Should Congress go beyond the recommendations and economize by hundreds of millions? The President estimated a $30,000,000 saving.
3. Should the comptroller general's office be stripped of much authority, as proposed?
4. Should the civil service set-up, if revised, be based solely on competitive examinations?

The Republican leadership in Senate and House made plans to caucus, once the Administration bill is introduced, in an attempt to unite the opposition.

Senators Vandenberg (D-Mich) and Bridges (R-NH), both mentioned as possibilities for the presidential nomination in 1940, indicated determination to vote against much of the Roosevelt plan.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va) of the Senate reorganization committee differed with the President's recommendations on most major questions.

He said creation of two new cabinet departments—social welfare and public works—would increase government expenditures instead of encouraging the reduction of $500,000 a year he believes possible.

RACE BETWEEN COAST GUARD AND ARMS SHIP

Full speed ahead, the Spanish loyalist steamship Mar-Canabito races through New York harbor with the Coast Guard patrol boat Icarus in hot pursuit—climax of Robert Cuse's frenzied efforts to beat the new neutrality law to the high seas with a cargo of planes for Spain. The Icarus gave chase to serve a writ of attachment obtained by Bert Acosta, aviator who claims the Madrid government owes him $5,000 for services with its army. After the freighter was stopped, a loophole permitted it to proceed.

FIVE CEMETERIES IN BRAZOS RESERVOIR AREA TO BE MOVED

TEMPLE, Jan. 13 (AP)—It requires tact, patience, and a lot of research to move graveyards, says Dr. L. J. Derrick, to whom was entrusted the delicate task of removing the dead from cemeteries that would lie below the water line in projected Brazos reservoir areas. The transfers must be made to comply with a law prohibiting flooding of graveyards.

Dr. Derrick, member of the Brazos district's land department, says he found five. None have been moved, however, as construction of dams has not begun, but he is getting records together against that time.

"This business of moving the dead," says Dr. Derrick, a resident of this area for 25 years, "isn't the most enjoyable work in the world, but it gives one an education in local history. It requires tact, understanding, patience, and a lot of research."

"Take the century-old Tennessee Valley cemetery, within the overflow area of the Leon reservoir near Belton, the largest we know of to be moved. It contains 356 graves and has taken us more than four months to obtain records and consent. "We've identified, marked, and numbered 246 graves, some unmarked since before the Civil war. In some cases three or four generations are buried there, together with a number of Civil war veterans. We traced the identity of some bodies back nearly 100 years, mainly by correspondence and interviews."

Dr. Derrick says sentiment and religion are the chief obstacles to overcome. "People don't want their dead disturbed. We encounter strong family ties, deep-seated traditions, and creeds which object to removal, especially among relatives of Civil war veterans.

"Notwithstanding, the graves must be moved. Sometimes it takes delicate maneuvering to win consent, but for the most part relatives have been considerate."

In new cemeteries, Dr. Derrick says, graves will be arranged as in the old. "The procedure is based upon the desire of the relatives."

Another cemetery of 100 graves was located in the Leon reservoir area, two of about 50 graves each in the San Gabriel area near Georgetown, and one of 100 graves in the Lampasas area.

AMERICANS IMPERILED.

NANKING, Jan. 13 (AP)—Twenty-one Americans, held virtual "prisoners" in the walled, interior city of Sianfu, were reported imperiled today by threats of open warfare between government troops and communist rebels.

The Americans, together with other foreigners, have sought to leave the revolt-torn city but their evacuation has been blocked by military insurgents seeking to establish a communist government in northwest China, authoritative advices declared.

'FLU' ATTACK KEEPS DAVIS IN CHICKASHA

IS PREVENTED FROM GIVING ADDRESS HERE

A severe attack of influenza kept the Rev. George Davis of Chickasha, Okla., from speaking at the chamber of commerce membership luncheon yesterday noon in the basement of the First Methodist church. The luncheon was prepared by the Clara Hill class. Only 10 vacant chairs remained when the crowd was seated.

Dr. Calvin Jones led in a song with Mrs. H. E. McCarley at the piano. Regret that Rev. Davis could not be present was expressed by the Rev. John Mullen who spoke highly of the churchman as a public speaker.

Activities of the chamber of commerce during 1936 were reviewed by John Roby, retiring president. Mr. Roby pointed out the great work done by the highway committee, under President-Elect James E. Collins, and read a letter from Harry Hines, chairman of the state highway commission, which disclosed that he had recommended Highway 209 (Pampa-Borger highway) for federal aid. Mr. Hines has been invited to be guest speaker at the annual chamber of commerce meeting and unless press of business interferes, he will be here, according to a letter received yesterday.

Other major activities of the organization were goodwill trips, fair project, delegations to various places, reception of visiting delegations, and the annual chamber of commerce meeting.

Plans of the Panhandle Conservation association were outlined by C. H. Walker, chairman of the Gray county committee, who invited Pampans to attend an open meeting in Amarillo Thursday morning.

Pampans were urged by Travis Lively to attend a meeting Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock in city auditorium when R. B. Anderson of Austin will explain the Texas Unemployment Compensation act. He is being brought here by the B. O. D. and the Pampa Credit association.

Out-of-town visitors were R. A. Johnson and Joe Jenkins of Amarillo, and John Pennington of Kansas City, Mo.

2 CLAIM STEWARDESS IS THEIR FIANCEE

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 13 (AP)—Stewardess Esther Jo Connor, 24-year-old heroine of the Salt Lake-Los Angeles airliner crash yesterday, will learn in a hospital today that at least two young men are very much interested in her welfare.

Both claim to be her fiancee. When news of the accident was brought to nearby Olive View sanitarium, Dr. A. D. Pedersen, an interne, said:

"She's my fiancee. I tried to talk her out of a flying career. I hope she'll listen to me now."

Dr. Pedersen said he and Miss Connor have been engaged for a year.

A short time later, J. H. Gingles, a machinist, who drove from his Bakersfield home on learning of the crash, rushed into the sheriff's station at Newhall and shouted breathlessly: "How's Miss Connor? She's my fiancee. I've been engaged to her for seven years."

The pretty stewardess, who cheered other injured until aid arrived and was then treated for a fractured leg, spent most of last night at a ranger station, before being brought out to a hospital.

LEAVES SICK BED

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 13 (AP)—Pope Pius left his sickbed today for the first time in more than a month. The pontiff, ill with a variety of old age complications, was placed in a wheelchair especially constructed to allow him to rest without discomfort in his legs, swollen with varicose veins. Prelates said the pope's improving condition might enable him to hold private audiences in the papal chambers.

Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fourth night if needed.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the blood. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs are one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

WHERE PAMPA GOES SHOPPING

"PRICES TALK" LEVINE'S

FOR TEXAS HIGHWAYS?

Texas' highways, to date, have cost Texas taxpayers approximately seven hundred and fifty millions of dollars. License fees from motor vehicles have contributed $202,000,000. Gasoline taxes have accounted for $176,000,000.

Federal aid has donated $91,000,000. YOUR PROPERTY TAXES HAVE CONTRIBUTED $281,000,000—MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL.

Large trucks—those weighing more than 8000 pounds loaded—have paid a total of $27,000,000 in license fees and gasoline taxes, or 3 3/4 per cent of the total cost.

Yet these trucks have been responsible for an additional cost of construction and maintenance amounting to approximately 50 per cent of the total—an amount far in excess of their contribution. These wider trucks result in 25 per cent increase in pavement costs.

Their bigger loads have required thicker pavements, costing from 35 to 60 per cent more; their size has made wider and heavier bridges necessary; maintenance costs have increased through their use and abuse of the highways.

Such extra expenditures are almost solely for the benefit of the big trucks, and are not necessary for the small trucks and passenger cars. YET THEIR COST IS BORNE BY THE OWNERS OF PASSENGER CARS AND SMALL TRUCKS AND BY THE GENERAL TAXPAYER, WHO MAY NOT EVEN OWN A CAR, WHILE THE BIG TRUCKS THEMSELVES HAVE PAID ONLY 3 3/4 PER CENT.

Any increase in present truck loads, size or speed limits will further increase the highway costs which all of us, the people of Texas, must pay.

Texas railroads provide and maintain their own rights-of-way; afford employment to 60,000 men and women (who are also taxpayers); pay large taxes in support of city, county, state and federal governments; and, in addition, pay annually more than $900,000 toward state highway costs. The interest of the railroads in highway regulation is precisely parallel to that of the public.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—Here's news: Art Cohn, sports ed of the Oakland (Calif.) Tribune, writes: "I saw Maxie Rosenbloom make a monkey out of fat, clumsy Kingfish Levinsky and I doubt if Joe Louis could lay a hand on Maxie in 20 rounds." Add super-substitutions: You can't hire Maurice (Big Clipper) Smith of Villanova to walk forward into a stadium... He always backs in.

The New York Yale club has its best wise cracks primed to give Larry Kelley what the boys call "de works" at tonight's dinner to the Yale gridders... Ossie Solem may be called on for double duty at Syracuse... They haven't got an athletic director up there and since Ossie held down that job at both Drake and Iowa, he may be asked to take it over as well as coach the football team.

Golf pros now in California are bunched up at the new Southern California ruling which prohibits them from receiving advice from caddies... Joe Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, is the latest riser in the sports mob... He never leaves the hay until 4 p. m.

The Phillies have a hot prospect in young Hughie Mulcahy, up from Hazleton, Pa., with the sling shot delivery... Blair Cherry of Amarillo high is the No. 1 candidate to succeed Jack Chevigny at Texas... If he does, he'll have to take a cut in salary... Right now, he is among the highest paid high school coaches in the country.

Mike Jacobs will pull out for Miami shortly for a few days with the bangtails... Joe Louis trained for all his big fights, except the one with Schmeling, at Dock's Bier Jert at Pompton Lakes, N. J... For Schmeling, Joe shifted to Lakewood and you all know what happened... So he's back at Pompton Lakes for keeps.

Memories...

HOUSTON, Jan. 13 (AP)—Memories: Lynn Large will be telling his yarn perhaps until the next "buck fever" season starts new ones. The Dallas man, hunting near Leakey, says he came upon two big bucks battling ferociously. Large killed one and the other made for him. The hunter shinned up a convenient tree and had to remain perched on a limb some time before the angry buck departed. — P. S. Large says he used his last ammunition in killing the first buck. He's likely glad the incident didn't occur in the plains country.

An ancient one revived to compete with the season's best. Urshur Vincent, who before he started spinning fishin' tales in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram used to catch a few cats in the Erath county section of the Bosque, tells it.

Many years ago a cowboy driving across the Bosque river near Meridian saw a big catfish come up to breathe in shallow water. The river had been up and was muddy. The cowboy rode out, loosed his lasso, and managed to get it around the fish just back of its gills. It was one of the biggest ever caught in the Bosque, including those Upshur snagged with a pole line baited with grasshopper.

Basketball Over The Panhandle

BORGER, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Spearman boys won the male division of the Perryton tournament last weekend, defeating Perryton in the finals, 21 to 11. The Spearman girls were nudged out of a victory in the finals by the Perryton girls, 16 to 18.

The Phillips boys were eliminated in the second round of the Perryton tourney, losing to the Perryton five after trouncing the Perryton B's in their first contest. However, the Blackhawks returned to the home lot with a trophy for their efforts in the event. Sportsmanship displayed on and off the court by Coach R. F. Newman's athletes gave them a trophy offered by the Perryton school for the "finest sportsmen engaging in the tourney."

The Blackhawks opened their work in the tourney Saturday morning coasting through a tilt with the Perryton B's. The Blackhawks, behind the ace basket pitching of the regulars, constructed a big lead in the first half and the playing in the last two periods was turned over to the Phillips reserves. The final count of the contest was 21 to 15. Scoring for Phillips follows: Huth, 12; Boutler, 5; Fowler, 2; and Redus, 2. Spearman scores were listed as follows: Kent, 7; Hudson, 6; and McWilliams, 2.

'PANTS' ROWLAND REMEMBERS WHEN HE MANAGED WHITE SOX

CHICAGO, Jan. 13 (AP)—Clarence "Pants" Rowland, rounding out 44 years in baseball, says there's no thrill like managing a world series winner and nothing lonelier than being an umpire... and I've been through the whole mill.

Rowland, 54 year old Chicago Cubs scout, started as a mascot for a Dubuque, Ia. team and has been a player, club owner, manager and arbiter in his long diamond career. But the biggest "kick" he ever got from the sport was managing the great Chicago White Sox team which won the American league pennant and world's championship in 1917 over the New York Giants.

"What a team," he breathed reverently. "Lookit those names, boy—Chick Gandil at first, Eddie Collins at second, 'Swede' Risberg at short and Buck Weaver at third. Joe Jackson, Hap Felch and 'Shano' Collins in the outfield and Ray Schalk catching. For pitchers, such men as Eddie Cicotte, Red Faber, Dave Danforth, Red Russell and Jim Scott, among others.

"But it was a tough job, handling that club, in addition to being my biggest thrill. It was as temperamental a bunch as I've ever seen. Eddie Collins, the greatest second baseman of them all, was in a different mood every few seconds.

"But I didn't like this umpiring job. I called 'em in the American league from 1923 through 1927 before I got tired of having few friends and no chances to make more.

"Do I like scouting?" he grinned. "Say—that's the best job in the world. Lots of friends, lots of baseball and the sweetest bosses in the world, yes sir!"

In 10 months California intercepted 6,817 lots of fruit about to enter its borders but suspected of harboring the oriental fruit moth.

LEAGUE CLUBS WILL OPERATE FARM SYSTEM

CLASS AA OUTFIT IS PURCHASED BY GIANTS

BY SID FEDER.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—Major League clubs east of the Alleghenies aren't letting any grass grow under them in building up farm systems in the bushes.

Along with the Giants' recent purchase of a Class AA outfit to lay the groundwork for a chain gang and the disclosure that the Boston Red Sox will have shares in eight clubs this season, the lowly Brooklyn Dodgers came up today with a surprise announcement of a hook-up to include eight minor league teams for 1937.

This big time departure of the Dodgers into the agricultural side of the game may include every sort of material from the highly-regarded Class AA American Association down through Class D. Still pending, however, are negotiations for some sort of working agreement in the association.

Much of the system will be operated through Brooklyn's Class A Allentown farm in the New York-Pennsylvania league. Through this affiliation, the Dodgers will have the pick of any player in Clinton of the Three-eye league (Class D), and Reidsville, N. C., of the Bi-State league, Beatrice of the Nebraska State loop, and Cordele of the Georgia-Florida circuit, all Class D.

These are newcomers to the Dodger chain, which has been expanded in only two years from an original two-club line. Holdover agreements include those with Knoxville of the Southern Association and Dayton of the Class D Mid-Atlantic.

The Brooklyns announced that Bruno Betzel again will pilot the Allentown farm; Clyde Sukeforth, ex-Dodger catcher, will be at the helm in Clinton, and the Reidsville and Beatrice have agreed to let the Dodgers name their respective managers.

The Red Sox' wide-spread organization, too, stretches all the way from Double A Minneapolis to a pair of Class D outfits in Danville of the Bi-State and Moultrie of the Georgia-Florida circuit.

LONGHORNS AND AGGIES TO OPEN CAGE SEASON

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 13 (AP)—Two rivals cuffed about in early-season play, the University of Texas and Texas A. & M., open the Cadets' home schedule in the Southwest conference basketball chase tonight.

Texas, winner of six games in 11 starts but losers of their first two conference games to Texas Christian and Southern Methodist, meets an Aggie team that has won but three games in nine starts.

The farmers dropped their first circuit start to Rice Institute last week. Coach "Hub" McQuinn has drilled his Aggies throughout the last week on offensive play, a sad effort at tossing field goals and gratis shots costing them the Rice tilt.

Capt. Ed Lee, able to play but a few minutes against Rice, will be in the starting Aggie lineup.

RECORD FIELDS ENTERED EACH OF 4 EVENTS

STYMIE PROBLEM WILL BE CONSIDERED THIS YEAR

(Note: This is the seventh of a series of stories written especially for The Associated Press by outstanding sports leaders. They deal with 1936 developments and 1937 prospects.)

BY JOHN G. JACKSON, President, United States Golf Association.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13 (AP)—The year just closed has been full of interest in the golf world, both on the playing and the administrative sides.

As to the former, perhaps the most significant fact that a record field entered each of the four championships conducted by the United States Golf Association. The open championship attracted 1,277 competitors. The sectional qualifying rounds were conducted at more points than ever before, 28. There were 1,118 entrants for the amateur championship, for which 32 qualifying points, another record number, were used.

These facts evidence a great revival during 1936 of interest in golf. It is reasonable to assume that this has been general.

The international aspect of the year's competitions was especially satisfactory. The Walker Cup and the Curtis Cup matches brought together teams of men and women amateurs, respectively, representing Great Britain and the United States. British players were unusually prominent in two of our championships, one, Pamela Barton, being the winner of the women's championship and another, Jock McLean, very nearly winning the amateur championship, captured by Johnny Fischer.

Another significant trend was the continued spread of public course golf, fostered by the construction of many new courses which were financed in part by government funds.

On the administrative side, probably the most interesting happening is the limitation to 14 of the number of clubs a competitor may carry, effective Jan. 1, 1938.

The year 1937 will see further consideration of the stymie problem. Several suggestions have been made, among them being:

1. Complete abolition of the stymie;
2. Abolition of the stymie excepting when self-laid;
3. The device adopted some years ago of permitting the competitor farther from the hole to concede the putt of his opponent;
4. Extend the stymie distance to, say, 10 inches, thus giving recognition to the livelier character of the present ball;
5. Amending the rule to provide that the ball nearer the cup shall be lifted if it lie within either 10 inches of the hole or 10 inches of the opponent's ball.

Harvesters Determined To Ruin Dope Tomorrow Night

COURAGEOUS YOUTH REGAINS USE OF BADLY INJURED HAND

The Harvesters are determined to upset the dope bucket tomorrow night when they go to Panhandle to clash with the Panthers, No. 1 team in the district at the present time, according to the score books.

The game will give the Panthers an opportunity to avenge several terrific beatings administered the Panthers in the last few years, particularly last year when Coach Mitchell's boys in the final game of the district tourney.

The game tomorrow night will be important in that it will establish the favorite to cop district honors. The Harvesters will be the underdogs, and being that they are expected to put up a stiffer fight than usual. According to scores amassed by the two teams against Berger, the Panthers are about 16 points better than the Harvesters, but not a member of Coach Mitchell's crew will admit it.

Coach Gerald will start a lineup that includes three of his regular 1936 starters, while the Harvesters will have only one 1936 regular on the team, Albert Ayer. The three Panthers back from last year are Connie Sparks, N. Sparks and Howe. Sparks and A. Crawford did all the scoring against Berger, and Coach Mitchell will likely tell Ayer to stop Sparks.

If the Harvesters should beat the Panthers it would not be an upset, because the Pampa cagers have been improving daily. It is probable that Topy Reynolds will see a lot of action in the game. Dewey should be back in form. Examinations have interfered with practice this week, and none was held yesterday, but a long work-out was planned for this afternoon.

ROUT MOST VALUABLE. COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 13 (AP)—Texas A. & M. College's all-American guard, Joe Routt, had won designation today as the most valuable player on the 1936 Aggie team. He was awarded a trophy at an annual sports banquet last night.

Fullback Leslie Cummings and Center Charlie DeWare were elected honorary co-captains for last season.

COURAGEOUS YOUTH REGAINS USE OF BADLY INJURED HAND

BOULDER, Colo., Jan. 13 (AP)—For tightlipped courage, Don Sidwell, young Colorado university basketball player, wins the salute of the Rocky Mountain conference sports faithful.

Because of this Kansan's refusal to be licked by a serious injury, he is now a stellar performer on a Colorado team that has stamped itself a major contender for the eastern division championship.

It looked as though Sidwell's basketball days were over when, driving under the basket in a furious melee, the sophomore from Newton, Kas., plunged his right hand through a glass door last spring.

All the major tendons of his wrist were severed. The operation to seal the ugly wound was long and nerve-racking. Surgeons could not give Sidwell an anesthetic because his help was needed in joining together the slashed tendons.

Even when the operation was over, Sidwell's fight was just beginning when he returned to basketball practice, he couldn't seem to control the ball. The fingers of his right hand had lost their cunning.

His coach, Forrest (Frosty) Cox, a former Kansas university star athlete, forces his young guard to practice dribbling by the hour. Gradually his fingers lost their stiffness, regained their skill.

Now "Squatty" Sidwell, as his teammates call him, is a regular on the C. U. team which has marked up 94 points in winning its first two conference games.

UNTERMYER EXPLAINS OPPOSITION TO BOUT

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Jan. 13 (AP)—Samuel Untermyer of New York, president of the non-secretarian Anti-Nazi League, declared today the organization was boycotting the proposed Max Schmeling-Jimmy Braddock heavyweight bout because "Schmeling would take his share of the money back to Germany."

"We are not boycotting the fight itself," said Untermyer, "but we do not believe it is right for anyone from that country to take American money back to Germany."

"We don't want to interfere with the fight itself if the money stays here. We don't want the money, but we don't let it go to Germany," he said.

"If some means can be worked out for him (Schmeling) to get the money and spend it here, it is all right with us for the fight to go on. Germany won't allow any of its money to leave the country, why should we?" he concluded.

CLUTCH DOWN FIRST, FOLKS

Your left foot should get to work sooner than your right toe or fingers. Shove down the clutch pedal before you touch the starter, ignition, or choke. In that way your engine turns independently of your transmission, taking a needless cold weather load off your starter and battery.

Keep the clutch down of course, till your engine is running steadily. That's always next to no time, using special Winter Blend Conoco Bronze gasoline. Quickly you'll hear the steady deep-throated signal of power... Not a lot of half-way "starts," kicking back at your starter with a clank... No endless "pumping" of the choke, wasting your gas and thinning your oil. You discover you are one of the experts, starting up in any cold at the first drop of the hat... on the first droplets of Conoco Bronze. Continental Oil Company

THE FINANCIAL WHIRLIGIG

By LOUIS SCHNEIDER

FEAR. Shutdowns of automobile manufacturing plants will affect the textile trade. The heavy backlog of orders is due mostly to motor company buying. But with deliveries curtailed it "backs up" in mills. That increases the inventory position of the industry. The large supply permits buyers to demand lower price schedules. In all, the situation will turn unhealthy. That is why there is fear expressed by insiders that the boom in the textile trade may die an untimely death.

RUSH. As previously stated in Financial Whirligig, copper producers are worried concerning the price structure. They are not anxious to have the market get away from them. But since this is a seller's and not a buyer's market, red metal prices continue to advance. A warning is being confidentially passed along in copper producing circles that production be speedily lifted to take care of consumers' demands. There is fear current that if the price structure runs higher it will pay foreign producers to crank our mills regardless of the four cents a pound import tax. That is the reason why old mines—which haven't been worked for years—are again being rushed into operation.

SOON. Ford Motor engineers are going full steam ahead with their plans to build a tire manufacturing unit at River Rouge. Informed sources say that the plant will run close to one-quarter of a mile in length. Building contracts are about to be announced. The millinery and other equipment orders will be placed soon after. The inside dope is that orders will be distributed so that labor difficulties in one spot will not hamper completion.

BOOTLEGGING. Coal originated among unemployed miners. When it started mine operators winked at it because they realized it was a work-or-starve problem. But now they are pretty worried because one out of every ten tons sold is a "bootleg" coal offering. The miners sink shallow shafts. They ship the coal to cities by truck. Plans are now being prepared whereby such shipments will stop.

COAL. Coal producers are looking forward to the best first quarter period since 1929. Current shipments are running at about 10,000,000 tons per week. Rush buying is attributed to inventory purposes. There are two reasons. The first is that union contracts expire as of April 1. The second is that since other commodities have spurred in price so will coal. But the big reason for the present large shipments is that of lower freight rates. As for the possibilities of higher coal prices your correspondent has been reliably informed that producers are asking higher prices for two-year contracts. Only immediate delivery requests are booked at present price schedules.

NO. The automobile trade looks for a 1937 output of 5,200,000 cars and trucks. Production schedules have been set for that number. Based on capacities of those in the industry, statistics disclose that 96 units must be produced each minute of the year. With production already curtailed due to sit-down strikes trade insiders confess that the 5,200,000 unit mark will not be reached this year.

TIME. Contrary to so-called well-founded reports the Standard Gas & Electric reorganization plan has not been written. There are "insurmountable obstacles" in the way of an agreement with the various interests concerned. Progress over the past two months has been favorable. Insiders say that as matters appear the final results will not call for a drastic recapitalization plan. But that point will not be reached for some time.

HIGHER. Piano trade insiders look for a continuation of sales expansion during 1937. It is reliably reported that piano manufacturers entered 1937 with the largest number of booked orders in the industry's history. As a result of the demand plus the increase in raw material costs, higher prices will rule in the piano trade during the last half of 1937.

Q. Did Texas ever encourage piracy? T. R. G.

A. The provisional government of 1835, to meet like measures practiced by Mexico, granted "Letters of Marque and Reprisal," authorizing the vessels holding them to prey on Mexican sea commerce. These were in effect letters authorizing piracy on Mexican vessels. The Republic later found it difficult to recall the authorization and stop the practice.

Q. Who was Arthur Ikin? P. K.

A. Ikin was an English consul to Texas in 1844 who wrote a description of the country of that time, published as a "Guide to Emigrants." This book, long out of print, is a rather exaggerated report of the physical aspects of Texas and its opportunities. A copy is in the rare book division of the Library of the University of Texas.

Q. What preacher addressed the Texans at Gonzales the night preceding the battle of Oct. 2, 1835 at Gonzales? T. C. F.

A. Just before midnight of Oct. 1, when the 100 Texans with the little cannon, bearing the banner, "Come and take it," halted at the command of Col. John H. Moore, a few miles out from Gonzales, Rev. W. P. Smith,

FASCISTS CUT LOYALIST LINK WITH TROOPS

800 INSURGENTS ARE ESEIGNED IN OVIEDO

By The Associated Press Europe's powers groped for their own safety today. They watched war in Spain rage on to vicious heights, still safely within its own borders.

Britain turned concentrated attention to her vast rearmament and home defense plans. Officials studied "facts" about the reported insurgent seizure of big British-owned copper mines in Spain and the forced sale of their product to Germany, but took no action.

France hoped for the success of a new plan to stop intervention in Spain by strict land and sea supervision of "volunteers" and munitions movements.

Uncensored reports described the desperate straits of 800 fascist insurgents defending Oviedo, for six months a city of siege in northern Spain. Spanish fascists hailed them as heroes of the second "casualty".

Noncombatant refugees streamed out of Madrid; the few remaining Americans were urged to evacuate.

Outside the capital, fascists repulsed government counter-attacks with a constant sweep of rifle fire after cutting the city's vital link with her troops in the Guadarrama mountain barrier to the northwest.

There still were Spanish naval incidents. Insurgent trawlers stopped and "investigated" a British steamer in the Straits of Gibraltar.

Germany, delivering to Spanish fascists a Spanish government steamer seized as a marine "re-tributive", put the socialist crew ashore on the Biscayan coast.

Spanish Moroccan surveys seemed to show that fears of a German "incursion" were groundless. Spanish government planes bombed the insurgent-held zone, nevertheless, killing several.
