

U.S. Protests Jap Threat On Nanking

Bombing Of Noncombatant Center Called Violation Of International Law; Embassy Moved

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Secretary Hull announced today the United States had made representations to Japan in protest against that nation's announced intention to bomb Nanking from the air.

Through Ambassador Joseph C. Grew at Tokyo and Japanese Ambassador Hiroshi Saito in Washington, the United States conveyed to the Japanese foreign office its opposition to the threatened aerial attack.

Hull said the protest was based chiefly on the grounds that the bombing of non-combatant populations was violation of international and humanitarian laws.

Moreover, he said the American government protested against the threatened action because it might be calculated to interfere with normal relations between his government and China by endangering American diplomatic representatives in the Chinese capital.

Oil Industry Likely To Be Tax Target

Efforts To Boost Levies Due At Special Session

AUSTIN, Sept. 21 (AP)—The gigantic Texas oil industry may be subjected to attacks on several fronts at the tax-raising session of the legislature starting next Monday.

Petroleum producers long have been a favorite target of revenue raisers. Efforts to boost the production tax to as high as ten per cent of value or perhaps even higher will be renewed at the approaching session. It now is 2 3/4 per cent of value or 2 3/4 cents barrel, whichever is greater.

Governor James V. Allred has urged substantially larger levies on oil pipe lines, claiming some of the lines show tremendous profits. The pipe lines are at a disadvantage in fighting back because all of them are large corporations whereas the producing ranks include many small independents.

Rep. Harry L. McKee of East Arthur maintained, in a prepared statement a few days ago, that if the lines were earning too much, the proper remedy was a reduction in rates, not a boost in taxes. He pointed out that rates were regulated by the railroad commission.

If a franchise tax increase should be proposed, as was done at the regular session last spring, it would hit all segments of the oil industry as well as other corporations.

The oil production tax now provides a large share of the state's revenue. It yielded $14,012,743 in the fiscal year ended Sept. 1 and should yield even more during the current year because of greater output.

In addition to the 2 3/4 per cent tax which goes to the school and general funds, oil producers must pay 3-1/2 cent per barrel for support of proration.

A summary of production tax collections during the past 20 years shows that Texas oil operators already are paying far more than they formerly did. Returns in the last fiscal year were approximately $5,450,000 higher than in the preceding 12-month period. The revenue for the 1936-37 was $5,655,664, or only about one-third of what it may be this year even though no increase is voted.

REPORT BLACK ON WAY BACK TO U.S.

LONDON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Justice Hugo L. Black of the United States supreme court, said a usually reliable source today, sailed secretly for home yesterday.

He boarded the City of Norfolk at Southampton, this informant declared. Line offices at London and Southampton said they had no record of reservations for him, but one official, who bade passengers bon voyage, said it was possible that the justice made private arrangements with the captain.

The ship is due at Norfolk, Va., September 29 and at Baltimore on September 30.

Court Docket Is Reduced

Several Cases Disposed Of During Day's Session

In a steady stream of cases the 70th district court docket was gradually being reduced Tuesday as the term neared the half-way mark.

Three additional divorces were granted, a civil suit decided and three cases transferred from district to county court.

Cases against M. N. Majors for aggravated assault, Emilio Diaz and Vincente Cruz for carrying pistols were those transferred.

W. J. Wooster's suit against the First National bank in Big Spring, garnishee in garnishment against H. B. Dunagan ended in judgment against the plaintiff.

Divorces went to Mrs. Lee Lawrence from J. L. Lawrence, Elvada Crouch from A. B. Crouch, and Stella Mae Wheat from J. B. Wheat, Jr. All these women were given custody of their minor children and Crouch was ordered to pay $20 monthly to the support of his. Wheat was awarded custody of his child for three months of the year.

OIL ALLOWABLE IS REDUCED

AUSTIN, Sept. 21 (AP)—The Texas railroad commission today set the basis oil allowable for October at 1,405,844 barrels daily, 42,456 barrels a day under the recommendation of the United States bureau of mines.

The September basis allowable was 1,441,734 barrels. The figure had grown to 1,499,384 by last Saturday due to well completions.

C. V. Terrell, commission chairman, said that "we have set the figure sufficiently below the estimate of the bureau of mines that wells brought into production in October will not cause Texas to exceed market demand."

INSURANCE PAID ON 'DEATH'

Joseph Bibeau, 37, is shown with the wife he married as Frank Foster after a world war shell took away his memory. With them are their three children. An auto wreck restored Bibeau's memory and he returned to his birthplace at Manville, R. I., to learn an aunt had collected nearly all of $10,000 war risk insurance on his "death."

Roosevelt To Invade Court Foes' Domain

Score Appearances On Schedule During Journey

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 21 (AP)—President Roosevelt will start tomorrow on one of his most energetic cross-country conferences and speaking trips since he took office.

In the short space of two weeks, he will make a score or more appearances in eight northwestern and middle western states, leave American shores for a brief visit by destroyer to British Columbia, inspect many federal projects, and deliver at least one "major" speech, at Bonneville dam, near Portland, Oregon.

His first rear platform talk, under a tentative itinerary announced late yesterday at the summer White House, will be made Friday morning at Cheyenne, Wyoming, home town of Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) an anti-court bill leader who penciled the opposition surrender terms which the administration finally gave in on the 50 cent premium increase plan.

He also will visit the home state of Senator Wheeler (D-Mont), another court bill opposition chief, and Boise, Idaho, home city of Senator Borah, republican foe of bill that was returned to the judiciary committee after the death of Majority Leader Robinson.

En route to Seattle and back he will stop in Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota and Illinois.

Secretary Marvin H. McIntyre said there would be only one formal address of the "major" type at Bonneville dam next Tuesday morning. Other talks would be extemporaneous, he said.

Aid Campaign Being Mapped

Envoy Here To Supervise Salvation Army Finance Drive

Preliminaries were being mapped Tuesday for launching the 1937-38 finance campaign for the local Salvation Army unit.

Envoy Mrs. Phil T. Rainey had arrived here to assume charge of the drive. Assisting her will be Major L. W. Canning, in charge of the local post. Mrs. Rainey was here in August of last year to supervise a fund campaign that marked restoration of Salvation Army activities in Big Spring.

Campaign offices will be set up at the Army hall, 122 Main street. Mrs. Rainey said, and subscriptions will be received there.

The army officials planned to call the local advisory board in a session soon, for reorganization purposes and to draw final plans for the fund drive.

"We feel that by now, Big Spring folk recognize the value of the Army's accomplishments here," Mrs. Rainey said. "Although our budget is on a yearly basis, it has been approximately 14 months since a subscription effort was made here. Continuation of the post's activities requires continued financial support here in the city. We are confident that support will be forthcoming promptly and cheerfully."

TO BUILD CAMP

E. F. Robbins, Big Spring, and J. Fred Phillips, Amarillo, Tuesday took out a building permit to construct a five-cabin tourist and trailer house camp on East Third street here. Total cost of the building program, they estimated, would be $2,500.

NEW YORK SEES GREATEST PARADE

Veterans March Again Up Fifth Avenue

NEW YORK, Sept. 21 (AP)—More than two hundred thousand veterans of the great war marched up Fifth Avenue today in the greatest parade this city of notable parades, vast and magnificent spectacles, has ever known.

To thousands it was a homecoming after eighteen years, and it brought a resurgence of those feelings of happiness and gratitude that marked the victory marches of 1919. These same men, now older, grayer, stouter, slower, were then strappings with hard muscles and weather-beaten faces fresh from manning the artillery and the trenches in France.

That high movement of emotions which band music brings was evident long before the parade actually got under way at 8:55 a. m., within the shadow of the eternal light at Madison Square. The throngs were plainly in good spirit. The day, happily, was pleasant for marching and for watching, and veterans stepped along gayly.

Long before the movement of legionnaires got under way New York—at least that part of it, citizenry which could get away from the daily job—had moved into Fifth avenue, parking along the curbs with box lunches and thermos bottles, swarming in from the side streets, filling the countless windows of the tall buildings. They were happy to watch for

Kentucky Man Shot Down On Eve Of Trial

Former Official Faced Charge Of Killing Sister Of Trio

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21 (AP)—The three brothers of comely Mrs. Verna Garr Taylor were charged today with the murder of Brig. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt on the eve of his second trial on a charge of slaying his 40-year-old fiancée, Verna Garr Taylor.

Faced Second Trial

The 41-year-old former Kentucky lieutenant governor and adjutant general was to have gone on trial for a second time today at nearby New Castle charged with her slaying. His first trial, last April, ended with a jury's report it was deadlocked at seven to five for acquittal.

Murder warrants against Roy, Jack and Dr. E. S. Garr, were sworn to by County Attorney Coleman Wright, who said arraignment before County Judge H. F. Walters was deferred until Friday to allow Rodes K. Myers, chief of Denhardt's counsel, time to return the general's body to Bowling Green, Ky.

The warrants were served on the Garr brothers in the Shelby county jail by Sheriff Forrest Barnes.

Wright said the grand jury would convene October 4. What action the commonwealth will take against the Garrs rests with the body.

Three men stepped from an automobile on the main street here last night as Denhardt and Myers started back to a hotel after conferring over final details of the trial scheduled today.

Ran Toward Hotel

"These are the Garr brothers," Myers said he warned Denhardt. The latter ran toward the hotel only to crumple in its entrance with bullets through his head and heart. Myers fled in another direction and came back with hands above his head, to beg that he be spared.

"You are the — who killed my sister and I'm going to kill you," Myers said Roy Garr shouted as the bullets flew.

"You are the — who defended the — who killed my sister," Myers declared Roy shouted at him. "I put my hands up and pleaded with him, the attorney said. "Don't shoot the lawyer," Myers said Dr. Garr cried.

Denhardt died without uttering a word. A crowd gathered and Patrolman Jephtha Tracey came running up. Tracey said the three brothers gave up their pistols and surrendered quietly to him and that Roy said, "I did it."

At his first trial the jury disagreed and Denhardt's $25,000 bond was renewed. He declared Mrs. Taylor committed suicide because of the threats of a jealous suitor. The commonwealth contended Denhardt killed her last November 6 because she yielded to her family's objections and had declined to marry him.

JAPAN, CHINA ASKED TO SITE IN ON LEAGUE PARLEY

GENEVA, Sept. 21 (AP)—Both Japan and China today were invited to participate in league of nations committee consideration of Chinese accusations branding Japan an aggressor nation in the Far Eastern conflict.

Similar invitations were extended Germany and Australia—the latter presumably because of her vital interest in matters affecting the Pacific.

An American representative, Leiland Harrison, minister to Switzerland, took part in the committee's opening session which determined to enlarge its scope to include powers most concerned in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

Public Interest In Governmental Affairs Will Curb Threat Of Dictator, Mahon Asserts

Congress Seeking To Represent Only The People, Solon Tells Local Crowd In Address Before Service Clubs

Rep. George Mahon of the 19th congressional district, addressing a joint meeting of the four Big Spring service clubs, Tuesday commended a growing interest in governmental affairs and said that because of it, "the only dictatorship you fear is a dictatorship of the people."

Despite party loyalty, Mahon reminded that the congress has and is still attempting to "represent the people, not a president, nor a party."

In answering "rubber stamp" charges against the congress, he said it was his belief that that body was seeking to marshal the forces of democracy that it might "be put to work for the common good."

The broad program of social security legislation, he said, was a step in this direction.

"While we may find fault with the means," declared the congressman, "we ought not to find fault with the objectives. It is unfair to impugn the motives of those who have a greater 'Americanism' at heart."

Italy Will Join Sea Patrol

Enters Scheme On Parity With Other Nations

ROME, Sept. 21 (AP)—Italy agreed tonight to join Britain and France in anti-piracy patrol of the Mediterranean.

Foreign Minister, Count Galeazzo Ciano, advised the British and French governments of Italy's readiness to join the patrol, on the basis of parity with those two nations.

Britain and France, the Italian government said, have agreed to satisfy this demand.

Italy previously had refused to join the patrol, set up by nine powers at Nyon, because she was offered only a comparatively minor role, as guardian over the Tyrrhenian sea just off her coast.

$50,000 DEBUT

Presented to society in a lavish debut party in New York, attended by more than 1,000 guests and estimated to have cost more than $50,000, was Gloria Baker (above), 18-year-old half-sister of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt.

FARMER HELD IN HIT-RUN DEATH

MIDLAND, Sept. 21 (AP)—Midland officers jailed a farmer today and planned filing of a murder charge after the hit-and-run death of J. C. Hood, Jr., 28, of Huntington, Calif.

Hood died in a Midland hospital several hours after an automobile struck him as he repaired a punctured tire. His companions, William Burke of Elko, Ill., and Jack Parmelee of Los Angeles, were injured.

GOP Plans For '38 Campaign

Map Strategy For Recapturing Seats In City Areas

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Party strategists from ten cities gathered at republican headquarters today to outline a campaign for recapturing votes and congressional seats in key urban areas.

The meeting of republican chairmen from cities and counties with more than 500,000 population—the first of its kind—was a prelude to a conference Thursday of the executive committee and officers of the national republican committee.

His retirement and the recent death of J. Henry Horaback, Connecticut committeeman, materially reduced the ranks of the "old guard" chieftains.

Hilles, who is 70 and a former national chairman, said he wished to quit now so that his successor could get a "running start" for the 1940 presidential campaign, "the plans of which must be determined in the congressional campaign of 1938."

The latter contest, he said, "will be far more than a preliminary skirmish."

Last Of PWA Items Are Approved

Rejection Of Funds Where Not Needed Endorsed By FD

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 21 (AP)—Announcing approval of final allocations under the 1937 public works extension act, President Roosevelt today endorsed as "sound public policy" Secretary Ickes' rejection of a large number of projects because it was found that the applicants could finance them without federal aid.

In a statement released by Secretary Marvin H. McIntyre, the president was said to have taken this stand in view of the "need to curtail the federal budget and the improved financial status of many communities throughout the country."

The statement also said there had been a "decreasing need" for stimulation of employment through PWA construction "with the passing of the economic extremity," and the president felt that the administration had "fulfilled its obligation under the present law."

The final projects approved were not detailed, but were described as a few of the "border-line" variety. They brought to 1,253 the number of projects under the new program, with grants of $113,034,735 and loans of $58,005,700.

Since the PWA began in 1933, the statement added, allotments have been made for 10,905 non-federal projects costing $2,759,172,739. Of these, 7,845 costing $1,208,439,612 have been completed, creating to date 661,988,747 man hours of direct employment.

The bureau of labor statistics, it was said, has found that for each hour of employment at the site, two and one-half hours of employment are created in industry.

ACTOR SUCCEUMS TO HEART ATTACK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—Osgood Perkins, leading man of several Broadway stage successes, died early today in his hotel suite, shortly after swimming laps from a first night audience for his role in Rachel Crothers' new comedy, "Susan and God." He was 45 years old.

The play, in which Perkins was featured with Gertrude Lawrence, was beginning a week's engagement here before opening on Broadway.

Dr. Ernest Mitchell, the attending physician said Perkins apparently died of a heart attack. He was found in the bathroom by his wife, the former Janet Rane of Boston.

'LAST FLIGHT' U.S. DEBT DROPS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21 (AP)—Amelia's Earhart's book, which she planned to publish under the title of "World Flight," will bear the title, "Last Flight," her husband, George Palmer Putnam, said today.

Putnam said his wife wrote the book shortly before she was lost on a flight around the world.

Must Represent District

Turning to criticism that congress had become a puppet in the hands of a chief executive for the sake of patronage, Mahon asserted that "congressional patronage is no more" an indispensable congressional boon.

"I submit that the representative of the people who does not vote to profit his people, his district will not long endure as a member of congress," he said.

Mahon took cognizance of the furor surrounding judicial changes proposed by the president and regarded it as "not such an unhealthy sign." In fact, he saw in this a manifestation of a real safeguard of democracy for the common good.

He did suggest to his audience however, that the "judicial is of party with other branches of government."

Conservation of Resources

What some regard as departure from an existing type of government, Mahon regarded as legislation designed to correct a system of exploitation which had flourished in past years. Social legislation, he said, was "not for exploitation, but for conservation of our natural and human resources."

Mounting appropriations have become necessary because the people have demanded more and more services. The congress, he recalled, had hidden fifteen millions of dollars for vocational education. "The congress is called upon to provide for the army and navy in greater amounts, Mahon said, and in many other avenues.

"Yet it is a source of embarrassment," he said in his discussion of appropriations for military affairs, "that our own ambassador is forced to forsake his embassy and seek refuge in a U. S. boat."

Plan for Peace

Mahon made a staunch plea for peace, saying that he detected a "dominant note of peace" and pleaded that "we keep this dominant note of domestic concern that the red wine of American youth not again be sacrificed upon the altar of war."

In his defense of party loyalty and the administration, he challenged his hearers to name an adversary.

THE WORLD OF WOMEN

READING AND WRITING

By JOHN SELBY

Some books in appreciation of the scientist—

Even the scientific books, normally rather slow of production, have gotten ahead of us in this frenetically busy season. Not that it matters, in some cases.

George W. Gray is providing something he calls "The Advancing Front of Science" (Whittlesey; $3) for the fall market. It is Mr. Gray's belief that our times witness a series of discoveries comparable with those of what he calls the golden decade, 1895-1905, and his purpose is to describe these advances.

These do not need to be listed, for a lot of them are perfectly familiar to all of us. What is of interest, it seems to this reader, is Mr. Gray's approach, which is vastly more thoughtful and intelligent than that of most scientific popularizers. And it is amusing, if such contradictions titivate you, to see that in Logan Clendening's "The Human Body," mentioned yesterday, the good doctor discounts nearly all stories of centenarians, and that Mr. Gray quotes William Maris Maltott as saying that "there are at least 5,000 people in the centenarian range in the United States."

And Dr. Tobias Dantzig's "Aspects of Science" (Macmillan; $3) is even more exciting. This is not a refutation of scientific discovery as the ideas upon which science and its "advance" rest. These ideas are by no means as scientific as one might suppose; Dr. Dantzig shows that there is a large and fundamental group which are not provable at all, but which represent what he calls the "artificiality of science." And the good Doctor's seemingly casual, sometimes even light-hearted examination of these ideas is a worthy experience for any thinking reader.

There is also a symposium edited by Dr. Forest Ray Moulton and called "The World and Man as Science Sees Them" (Doubleday, Doran; $4) in which a dozen University of Chicago professors dissect the physical and biological world, and another presentation of astronomical knowledge by George van der Bergh entitled "Astronomy for the Millions" (Dutton; $3.50). This Dutch scientist is a chatty soul, with considerable gift for bringing stars down through the light years to you and me.

Appropriations by congress for the suppression of counterfeiting were first made in 1861.

Liquor Cannot Stand The Light Of Truth

ANOTHER WET FALSEHOOD NAILED

Wets are contending in every local option election now that old age pensions and schools are all but dependent upon the revenue received from the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor. Old people and their relatives, in many instances, have been led to believe that this false propaganda is true, and rather than have the old people lose their pensions a great many otherwise drys have voted wet. What are the facts?

According to the treasury department at Austin, last year there was allocated to the payment of old age pension, from liquor revenue $3,315,342.81. That is a sizeable sum to those of us who think in terms of tens when we think of money. But when you consider that this amount must be divided among 121,771 old age pensioners it becomes infinitesimally small. It amounts to exactly $2.66 per month per pensioner, or eight and one-fifth cents per day, about enough to buy one loaf of bread.

THE SPORTS PARADE

BY HANK HART

The California Red Raiders, who have recently participated in the national softball meeting in Chicago, wired here from Memphis, Tenn., for a game Sunday.

In the finals of the first flight of the women's city golf tournament Sunday Mrs. Adolph Swartz triumphed over Mrs. Carl Blomquist, 2 and 1, while Mrs. M. H. Bennett took honors in the second flight when Mrs. J. Y. Robb defeated.

The fellow who clouted out the payoff blow for the Lubbock Tribune against the Continental Oilers in Lubbock Sunday was named Bill Holloway and not Bill Howell as previously reported. His single through Tommy Hutto in the eighth scored Lefty Bettles, first sacker, and Winfield Bredelove, short stop, for the winning runs.

According to the box score received from Lubbock the Forsan team collected only three hits off the offerings of Lefty Blanchard, Loper getting two of them and Beard getting credit for the other one.

There are several members of the local grid machine who played the better part of the opener last week who may slip on the bench when the Mavericks of Eastland high school ride by Friday night. They haven't gotten it out of their heads that, just because they were given a single for the 1936 season, they were made honorary members of this latest thing. The season of '36 is gone; discarded as yesterday's newspaper, and 75 per cent of the gridlers who are playing in the Ok. Belt this year never heard of the self glorified all-stars.

Local football fans will remember Kenneth Heineman who is flashing brilliantly in fall practice at Texas School of Mines this season. He is very familiar with the old District 3, having played against both Big Spring and San Angelo when those two schools won the district championship of '34 and '35, respectively. Although the El Paso Tigers failed to cop either game Kenneth almost turned the tide on each occasion. He weighs only 156 pounds but helped the Ore players beat Texas Tech in a spring game.

Dutch Mosley, the old Cosden baseballer, returned to town for a visit this week. He was on the W. Newton, Okla., team that won the state amateur title this season.

Cleaning the cuff: The North Texas Teachers college is adding to its athletic facilities by spending $6,700 for the job... One of the boys on the Concho state football team is in the sixth grade and weighs only 98 pounds... High school officials are trying to get a man acquainted with athletics to take over part of the freshmen and sophomores coming out for the Longhorn squad... Why doesn't the Forsan school, which year in and year out, puts the best basketball team in this part of the country on the floor, support a football team.

Two Teams Open First Two Series To Decide 1937 Loop Winner

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 21 (AP)—Oklahoma City's pennant-chasing Indians cooked their menacing war clubs today for the invading Fort Worth Cats who will challenge them for the Texas League championship here tonight.

The Redskins finished the regular season 11 1/2 games ahead of the pack... The Cats in third place to the team winning four games in the playoff finals goes the Texas League hunting and the right to meet the Southern Association champs in the annual Dixie Series.

Not since 1934 has the Texas League title gone to the Lone Star State... FORT WORTH, Sept. 21 (AP)—Fort Worth's hopes in the playoff for the Texas League title received a severe jolt today when Ed Greer, veteran righthander, came down with appendicitis.

He did not catch the train with the rest of the club for Oklahoma City where the first game of the series will be played tonight... Mrs. Greer reported that the big hurler was stricken about 10 o'clock last night. A physician was hastily summoned and he advised an immediate operation.

However, a club physician will examine the pitcher today... state, an Indian victory would shut the six-team majority from Texas out of the Dixie Series for the third straight year.

The Indians scored a grand slam by finishing first in the regular season... The Tulsa Oilers, eliminated by Fort Worth in this year's playoff preliminaries, won the Dixie Series last year.

Little Jackie Reid probably will get the call from Manager Homer Peel of the Cats tonight... whose 22 victories this year belie his more than 40 summers, probably will be faced by big Ash Hillin, who was voted the most valuable player in the league this year after setting a modern Texas League pitching record of 31 victories for the season.

After two games here tonight and tomorrow night, the teams will move to Fort Worth for three games... If neither club wins four of the first five tosses, they will return here Sunday to play a sixth and possibly a seventh game.

Scrimmage On Tap For Herd

Steers Take Three Hour Drill On Plains Monday

Coach Pat Murphy took advantage of a perfect day and a fresh group of boys to send his Steer charges through a three-hour drill on the school grounds in preparation for the approaching game with the Eastland Mavericks which will be played in Steer stadium Friday night of this week.

Running two different teams at top speed Murphy and his assistant, Carme Brandon, set a stationary defense up across the line for purpose of going through their plays with benefit of an opposing team... There was no scrimmage play but Murphy indicated that there would be plenty later in the week.

Barking the signals on the first string was Red Womack who made a commendable showing against the Wildcats last Friday night and who may get the call over Raymond Lee Williams against the Eastland bunch.

Sophomore Lefty Bethell was also part of the first string secondary while Johnny Owens was running with the line... Johnny played two quarters against the Wink aggregation last week.

The team will move into the stadium again later in the week for the heavier work.

FOUR DAYS LEFT TO BUY SEASON GRID DUCATS

"Four days left in which to get season tickets to the Steers' home games." That's the warning given out by Edmund Nostetine, who is disposing of the tickets.

HEINEMAN BEST PROSPECT AT TEXAS MINES

EL PASO, Sept. 21—After a week of workouts enlivened by several scrimmage sessions, Texas College of Mines gridlers are living up to pre-season predictions—predictions that may mean a seat near the top of the Border conference ladder at the end of the season.

Indications as to who may form this first eleven came out in the open during the week when Saxon sent his pick of the 38-man squad against a second string aggregation.

Running together in practice, signal drills, and scrimmage sessions were: Horace Matthews and Boyd Arnold, ends; Mitchell Lowry and Odie Pearce, tackles; Jimmy King and John Kieckhefer, guards; John Hanna, center; Kenneth Heineman, quarterback; Capt. O. P. May and Ross Moore, halfbacks; and Buddy Black, fullback. All but three, Krebs, Heineman, and Black are lettermen from his 1936 squad.

In Heineman the Mines have the one man they believe will make Southwest grid fans forget about Slingin' Sam Baugh. "Hurlin" Heinie is Saxon's main scoring threat and so far has lived up to advance notices by hurling the pigskin for scores of long gains in practice.

Crimson Tide May Surprise

Harlow's Men Failed To Win Game In '36 But Tied Tigers

(This is one of a series on the prospects of major college football teams.)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP)—Coaching friends of Dick Harlow have explained away their ornithological colleague's scant success at Harvard by pointing out that he never has a player smart enough to duplicate the intricate maneuvers he maps out while arranging his famous birds' egg collection during his leisure hours.

But it now appears that bald Richard, who has been injecting football guile into his none-too-robust Crimson youngsters in small doses for the past two years, thinks they are ready to step out and take their rightful place in the eastern gridiron parade.

"More and more," Dick says, "this football is becoming a game of angles. Power plays only a part of it these days and most of the stuff we used five years ago is out of date, for everything is deception and faking now."

"I can promise some interesting Harvard football this fall. The situation is most encouraging and the outlook seems brighter every day."

Although the Crimson did not win a single major victory in 1936, it did manage to spurt late in the season to the Princeton 14-14, trail Navy by three touchdowns to two and Yale by only a single point.

Harlow, by some ledgerman, brought his players through the winter without a let-down from their bowl form. A few days ago they started their regular 1937 practice season much superior in playing experience than they were at any time last fall.

Although the Crimson is going to be a bit light, as usual, with a squad averaging 180, starting line running about 185 and a backfield 175, the only weakness appears to be in the center of the forward wall, due to the graduations of a durable center and two strong guards.

The Harvard schedule is exacting and the pressure will probably be terrific four Saturdays in a row: Oct. 2, Springfield; 9, Brown; 16, Navy at Baltimore; 23, Dartmouth; 30, Princeton at Princeton; November 3, Army; 13, Davidson; 20, Yale.

Van Ryn Still In Tourney

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21 (AP)—Play in the 11th annual Pacific Southwest tennis tournament moved into the third round today.

Top seeded in the men's singles, J. Donald Budge of California and Jaron Gottfried Von Cramm of Germany, headed into comparatively easy matches, and the same seemed true in the women's singles.

Much to the consternation of the management, England's Ray Stammers was missing from the singles play.

"Comely Kay went out in an upset yesterday before Los Angeles in own comedy entry, Mrs. Ray Bishop Bixler, 6-4, 2-6, 6-2.

In the upper men's singles bracket, dominated by Jiro Yagiuchi of Japan, John Van Ryn of Austin, Texas, and Henner Henkel, Von Cramm's doubles partner, remained as threats.

The lower draw found Francis X. Shields of Hollywood, Charles Hare of England and Jacques Pignone of France outstanding contenders—until they run into Von Cramm.

Straw Hat Pick Favors Aggies

By FELIX R. MCKNIGHT

DALLAS, Sept. 21 (AP)—Broken legs, charley-horses, indigestion and heatburns barred, the Southwest conference football race, figured on the intricate straw-hat system, should end with Texas A. & M. on top.

At least, that was the name drawn from fading summer's warped and yellowed straw hat after two hours steady shanking of seven penciled slips—Texas A. & M., Arkansas, Rice, Texas, Texas Christian, Baylor, and Southern Methodist.

Innocently enough, the name of Arkansas, defending champion, was drawn second. Quite by accident, to be certain, but it caused some close figuring which revealed the Razorbacks could almost have been pulled simultaneously with the Aggie alp. Perhaps only a half-game, a-revented a "double double pull," figuring a tie somewhere between Oct. 2 and Dec. 4.

A left-handed draw for the third spot brought out Rice Institute with the postscript that it could do better if early season non-conference games leave enough players to finish the season.

Four Teams Even That left four teams—Texas, Baylor, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian—and the straw hat, certain only of the straw hat, the pulling peg ended there. Any one of the four remaining teams would suffer an injustice by the slightest mistake, such as catching a finger on the hatband and leaving Baylor's "upsetting" Bruins in the bottom.

The draw completed, reasons for such coincidences were sought. Perhaps the Texas Aggie Special gave them that half game, enjoy plus a frowning attack and a burly line that boasts one all-American, one all-conference and other potential candidates.

Memories of last season's struggles which Arkansas made against Baylor, Rice, and Texas, lower flight teams, before they came out on top, caused a bit of conjecture.

Also, replacements in the line are admittedly weak and Baylor, Rice and Texas are stronger this fall.

Better judgment almost ruined the Rice selection, a glance at the schedule which starts with Oklahoma, Louisiana State and Tulsa before the Owls start in against conference competition, almost making it five teams left in the hat with any one of them capable of jumping out ahead of the others.

A hunch on D. X. Bible and his Texans wasn't quite strong enough, fear that Texas Christian had bitten off too much of a schedule and over too many miles; uncertainty about Matty Bell's Southern Methodist youngsters who could surprise or disappoint, and a promise made years ago never to "dope" a Baylor team, stopped selections.

Which was the best judgment used in the entire procedure.

Aggies Look To Manhattan Game

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 21—Texas Aggie gridlers are chalking the days off the calendar as time draws near for their invasion of New York and their opening game on Manhattan college on the Polo grounds.

More than a hundred Texans will make the trip, in addition to the Aggie squad of approximately 40 players and its coaches, according to Missouri Pacific lines officials. The party will entrain September 29.

Coach Homer Norton will leave a day earlier as he is scheduled to speak over a nationwide hookup from a New York radio station Thursday night, September 30.

The team will have a workout at Indianapolis, Ind., Thursday afternoon, September 30, and arrive in New York on the morning of the first.

HIGHWAY FATALITIES TO NEW HIGH MARK

Texas highway accidents brought death to 187 people in August, an increase of 33 over the July total, to mark the highest monthly toll since last December when 255 persons were killed, according to a report from the department of public safety.

The deaths resulted from 1,099 crashes, 562 of them involving two or more vehicles. Forty of the 187 killed were pedestrians, the remainder either passengers or drivers.

Night hours when drivers are blinded by approaching lights or become drowsy still remain the period when most of the fatal accidents occur. Speeding was cited as the principal cause of accidents.

Statistics could not account for the increase in August except to point to 72,000 more cars registered this year than were on record in the state a year ago.

Spanish American, Mexican border and world war veteran predicted as he left court after the disagreement that "there will be no second trial." The trial was called at the September term, however, but Denhardt's words came true.

Coroner D. F. L. Lapeley returned a verdict that Denhardt died from a "bullet wound through the head and another through the heart."

An undertaker, however, said Denhardt had been wounded seven times.

Commonwealth's Attorney H. B. Kincaid, Jr., of Henry county (New Castle), who prosecuted Denhardt on the Taylor charge last spring, ordered that nobody be allowed to talk to the Garr brothers, Kincaid said that when the Denhardt case was called at New Castle today he would officially inform the court of the killing and move that the case be dismissed.

Denhardt contended the vivacious La Grange widow, 20 years his junior, ended her own life because of her family's objections to her marriage to the general, who was divorced in 1923.

However, the state claimed the general slew Mrs. Taylor, mother of two daughters, because she refused to marry him.

administration that has done "more to the end of the rehabilitation of West Texas."

He praised the spirit of West Texans and pointed to a similar spirit in Big Spring, of "pounding at what you wanted," which resulted in location of the state hospital for insane here.

Mahon lauded the people of Howard county for not having expected the impossible of me and in realizing the limitations of public officials."

James Little, president of the Kiwanis club, introduced Mahon to the more than 150 men who crowded the Settles ballroom. T. W. Ashley, president of the Rotary club, presided and introduced R. B. Reeder, president of the A. B. C. club, C. L. Rowe, president of the Lions club, W. D. Carment, district A. B. C. governor, and Joe Pond, district Lions governor. Several out-of-town guests were present for the session honoring Mahon.

The deputy was shot during a gun fight in a hotel as he attempted to arrest Ray Fryor, former Donna, Tex., cafe operator.

Ackerman was sent to a hospital with three bullet wounds in his body. Fryor was taken to the county hospital suffering from gunshot wounds in the legs.

Fiesta Near End Of Run

Fort Worth Show Called Success By Everybody

FORT WORTH, Sept. 21 (AP)—Six more nights, and the rip-roaring Frontier Fiesta, greatest entertainment of its kind ever staged in the Southwest, will close its colorful two-year performances, with everybody in Fort Worth happy over its success.

A million people will have closed the gates by Sunday night. Casa Manana and Sunset Trail are headed for the moth balls, possibly to come back in some new form next year.

Everybody is happy, even that little blonde cutie, Mary Roberson of Fort Worth, the second from the end in the chorus. She hopes to tour the country with an orchestra and then go to Hollywood.

The colorful characters who have made the fiesta live and breathe, will be gone Monday. Paul White-man will hit the trail with his musicians; another Paul White-man, the old cowhand who sits on the porch of Sunset Trail's Antor House, will go back to horse trading right here in town.

Frank M. Plearcy, the general storekeeper with the handlebar mustache, will forsake his churns, bustles, strong black chewing tobacco and barbed wire, to hunt a job.

"I've done mighty near everything," the 74-year-old storekeeper said. "I don't reckon I'll starve."

All the buildings on the grounds, site of Camp Bowie of World war days, will be kept intact. Only exhibits in the West Texas chamber of commerce building will be sent back to their respective towns.

James F. Pollock, general manager, beams when he looks at the ledger. The cost so far this year has been $400,000 and the receipts total $391,745 with still almost a week to run.

BOY A HERO, SAVES OTHERS FROM FIRE

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 21 (AP)—Ignacio Gonzales, an 11-year-old boy proved himself a hero and saved 11 children and two adults from possible death from fire that virtually destroyed a frame house this morning.

Fire broke out in the place shortly after midnight while the members of the two families were sleeping. Ignacio, son of Mrs. Herlelinda Gonzales, was awakened by the heat of a burning wall near him and immediately summoned his mother who awakened her other children and also Mrs. Josephine Valdez and her three children who were living in the same building.

Ignacio calmly ushered the children from the house which became a roaring furnace shortly after they gained the outside.

OLD STAND-BY ENTERTAINERS

Two of the old favorites among the varied groups of entertainers to be seen in the modern day circus are clowns and trained dogs. Both will have their share of the ring in Big Spring Friday, when the Seal Bros. circus plays here.

The show will be presented afternoon and night, at the show-grounds on West Third, and a street parade is scheduled for noon.

Surface Tanks Are Being Constructed In Martin County

Construction of earthen tanks has taken an early and commanding lead over all other range building practices under the new government range program in Borden county, E. B. McLeroy, Borden county agent, said Tuesday.

To date 59 tanks have been completed and measured for payment, and at least 40 more will be finished by Jan. 1. Into these completed tanks have gone 136,000 yards of dirt. Size of the dams varies from 200 to 9,949 yards.

"Inadequate surface watering places has heretofore been a serious handicap to Borden county," said McLeroy, "and it appears that ranchmen are rapidly overcoming this matter with the excellent earthen dams which have been constructed this year."

Other practices of minor interest include eradication of cactus and mesquite, contour listing and furrowing, spreader dams and terraces and rodent control.

Approximately 500,000 acres of Borden county ranged in effect by the range program this year.

L. E. Long, pioneer cattleman of Borden county, is serving as range inspector, and A. M. Clayton and Homer Beal, prominent ranchers are on the county committee.

CIO CHIEFTAINS TO MEET ON OCT. 11TH

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—John L. Lewis and the presidents of 32 unions affiliated with his Committee for Industrial Organization will meet in Atlantic City October 11 to map their future course.

Lewis' summons last night was interpreted generally as preparation for a C.I.O. counter-movement against the American Federation of Labor, which meets in Denver October 4.

The Atlantic City gathering will be the first general meeting of C.I.O. leaders in months. The already bitter controversy between that group and the A.F. of L. has been increased since the last federation meeting by C.I.O.-sponsored strikes in the steel and automobile industries.

U.S. Joins Group To Sift Facts In Eastern War

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21 (AP)—The United States collaborated with the league of nations today for the second time in five years in considering a Sino-Japanese conflict.

Marking a significant phase of American policy in the undeclared war in the Orient, the state department instructed Leland Harrison, minister to Switzerland, to represent it on the league's advisory committee as it took up China's protest against Japanese aggression.

The United States is not a league member and ordinarily does not participate in its political activities. It made clear that American membership on the advisory committee will be limited strictly to a consultative basis and that the American representative will not vote.

At the same time, a communication transmitted by Harrison to the league secretary last night said in effect that the United States does not expect to participate in any decisions on policy which the committee might make regarding the Sino-Japanese clash.

MILITIAMEN STAND GUARD AS NEGRO'S TRIAL IS HEARD

MARSHALL, Tex., Sept. 21 (AP)—The trial of Henderson Young, negro youth, charged with crim. assault on a Longview woman Aug. 21, proceeded today, still under protection of state militiamen.

Douglas Reed, husband of the victim, was the first witness yesterday, after a jury on which farmers predominated, was selected. Reed's counsel requested Judge W. E. Strength to request no testimony be printed until the trial had ended.

The negro, indicted with his brother Roscoe, entered a plea of not guilty. The trial of the second was to get under way after completion of the first case.

The negroes were indicted separately on counts of robbery with firearms of Mr. and Mrs. Reed and assault on Mrs. Reed.

WRONG DIRECTION

Two California-bound Missourians Tuesday felt the kick of their native mules in a Texas bottle, and ended by driving eastward in search of the Pacific coast before halting in the Howard county jail.

Arrested for disturbance near their house trailer which they admitted having turned over twice Monday between Big Spring and Roscoe, they entered pleas of guilty to drunkenness and disturbing the peace and paid fines aggregating $56.

Officers said the pair had pointed their car back east in their search for sunny California.

Hoffman An Issue In N. J. Primary

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 21 (AP)—New Jersey voters in a state-wide primary election chose today between a clergyman and a brigadier general of the national guard in the spotlighted contest for the republican gubernatorial nomination.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman, a storm center of state politics throughout his three-year term was one of the chief issues or which voters were asked to decide in choosing between the Rev. Lester H. Clee, pastor of a Newark Presbyterian church and a state senator from Populous Essex county, and Clifford R. Powell, national guard head in the state and also a state senator from rural Burlington county.

The republican gubernatorial battle overshadowed all other primary contests as democrats and republicans nominated candidates for the regular election Nov. 2, when eight state senate seats, a complete assembly of 60 and numerous county and municipal offices will be filled.

LAUNCH INQUIRY INTO CORN DEAL

CHICAGO, Sept. 21 (AP)—The federal government launched an investigation today of the September corn "deal" in the Chicago market as wide price fluctuations continued to disturb the corn pit.

Supplementing an inquiry already started by the board of trade, the Commodity Exchange Administration asked grain commission houses to report all open accounts in September corn as of the close of business Monday, September 20.

Even as the government acted the market gave evidence the "deal" is far from ended. Principal speculative interests on both sides were reported to be holding their ground.

DIES OF WOUNDS

CORSICANA, Sept. 21 (AP)—Monroe Samples, 48, of Blooming Grove, died in a local hospital last night from gunshot wounds. Samples was struck by a charge from a shotgun.

A man was released Monday on bond of $750 on a formal charge of assault with intent to murder. Sheriff Rufus Pevehouse said Tuesday morning the charge would be changed to murder in justice court at Blooming Grove during the day.
