This year's speaker for the Chamber banquet will be Dr. Lauro Cavazos, president of Texas Tech University. Dr. Cavazos grew up on the King Ranch in South Texas, where his father was longtime foreman of the Santa Gertrudis Division. He is the first graduate of Texas Tech ever to serve as president of the University.

The theme for this year's banquet is "To a Brighter Future." The theme was chosen by the Board of Cont. on Page 6, Col. 1

On Monday, March 15, at 8 p.m., in the Muleshoe High school auditorium, the wind ensemble of Hardin Simmons University will perform under the direction of Bill Woods. The concert is free and open to the public.

Bill Woods, director, stated that the concert would offer a wide variety of musical styles and tastes, with something for everyone. The numbers will range in style from the old standard march of J. S. Wagner "Under the Double Eagle" to the French composer Heuri Rene's "Passion in Paint," from the Broadway music of Rodger's "The King and I" to the classical of Hayen's "Orlando Palendri-no," from the plodding of the donkeys in Grofe's "On the Trail" to the latin beat of Perkin's "Fandango," and from the jazzy "Swing Low Sweet Saxes"

Mules Win Second In Wildcat Relays

The Muleshoe Mules Varsity Track team brought home a second place, or runner-up trophy from the Wildcat Relays held in Idalou on March 6.

Fourth place wins went to Hector Orozco with a 54.7 time. In high jump, Ronnie Cox placed fourth with a 5'8" effort. In the 800 meter, Aldo Almanza placed fourth with a 2:07.5 time, and, also winning a fourth place in the 1600 relay were team members J. J. Martinez - 56.54, Monty Hysinger - 54.83; Martin Mendoza - 56.42 and Hector Orozco with 54.76. This was a total time of 3:42.6.

Cox is one of two sophomores who lettered in his freshman year. He has been consistent around six feet in the high jump, and has a chance to break the school record in 1982, says Coach Kevin Wiseman.

Almanza was a regional qualifier in '81 as a freshman and was the second leading scorer off the '81 squad. He was one second off the record in the two mile and will double in the 800 and 1600 in the '82 edition of the Mules.

Regarding the rest of his track team, Coach Wiseman has high hopes for many. Senior George Vela will throw the shot and discuss this year and has strength and quickness.

High School Journalism Workshop Set March 17

The Lubbock Chapter of the American Heart Association will sponsor a Journalism Workshop for area high school journalism students on Wednesday, March 17, at Lubbock General Hospital.

The workshop is designed to heighten the journalistic skills of the students, while making them aware of the different facets of a hospital emergency.

The program includes Jake Henry Jr., Lubbock General Hospital, executive director; Dr. Jan Voda, director, adult Cardiac Catheterization Laboratory and Mary Alice Robbins, reporter for the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

Dr. Voda will speak on Angioplasty, a new catheter technique that may eliminate the need for bypass surgery in some patients.

"Angioplasty is a new procedure which has the capability to open up blockages in blood vessels in the heart without opening up the patient's chest. The procedure eliminates surgery for about ten percent of the patients," Dr. Voda said.

The students will also be given a tour simulating the progression of a heart attack victim's care. The tour includes the rendering of Emergency Medical Services, emergency room treatment, the Coronary Care Unit, and in-patient rehabilitation.

The tour will be conducted by Doak Enagnit, director of EMS; Lorelle Tucker, head nurse, emergency room; Charlotte

"We look to him to become a real challenger before the end of the year," the coach said.

Monty Hysinger is another senior who will be returning from a district championship season in 1981. He was a regional qualifier in the high hurdles and the sprint relay. He has the potential to become one of the area's top hurdlers.

Pepe Martinez, also a senior, brings his cat-like quickness to the shot ring this year for the Mules and should break the 45-foot barrier.

Muleshoe's 400 meter relay team took third place in that event. Team members are Trent Hysinger, J. J. Martinez, Hector Orozco and Monty Hysinger.

County ASCS Officer Cautions Prospective Peanut Producers

With a number of Bailey County producers already planting peanuts, and several others considering the possibility of the crop, farmers should guard against the heavy monetary penalties levied on those growing non-quota peanuts in 1982. All producers are urged to check out all the rules with their local ASCS office.

According to Bailey County ASCS Director, Rusty Williamson, "Much information has been released stating that there is no marketing quota penalty for excess peanut acreage in 1982. While this information is technically correct, it does not go on to explain that heavy penalties will be incurred if non-quota peanuts are not handled according to very strict rules."

To avoid penalties (amounting to $770 per ton) non quota peanuts must be handled in one of the following two ways: (1) offered for government loan at the additional loan rate of $200 per ton, or (2) contracted for export or crushing prior to April 15 on Form CCC-1-05 (available from the buyer or at your local county ASCS office.)

The exception to this would be the peanuts "bought back" out of additional farm stored loan by an approved producer handler and used for seed would not incur a penalty other than the cost of buying the peanuts back (approximately $580 per ton).

Williamson also reminds producers that April 1, 19-

High Plains Cotton Prices Strengthen

High Plains cotton prices improved $5.00 to $7.50 per bale during the week ended March 4, according to Mack Bennett, Area Director for USDA's Marketing Services Office at Lubbock. Growers sold mixed lots of mostly grades 42 and 52, staples 31 and 32, mike 35-49 at around 46.00 cents per pound, up 100 points from a week earlier.

Grade 52, staple 32, mike 30-32 brought about 41.00 cents, up 150 points, Bennett said.

Growers continued to move cotton into Commodity Credit's loan. An estimated 1,181,000 bales of 1981-crop or 50 percent of the production had loans outstanding at mid-week, up from 1,152,000 a week earlier. The survey covered counties served by Lubbock's Marketing Services Office and included Form A, Form G and seed cotton loans. Growers reportedly sold a few hundred bale equities at around $15 per bale.

The Creative Woman

BY SHERYL BORDEN

Topics to be covered on "The Creative Woman" show for March 16 and 20 will include sewing tips using elastic, making our own homemade mixes, comparing the cost of protein and tax tip information.

Kaye McCown, Sales Manager for Ann Silva's Bernina Sewing Machine Center in Albuquerque will demonstrate several ways of sewing with elastic and will show how easy it is to make the tube tops which are so popular during warm weather.

Another special guest on the show will be Linda Mullin, County Extension Agent for Bailey County, Muleshoe, Texas and she will demonstrate how we can make our own homemade quick mixes instead of having to buy the commercial products. She'll compare the cost, time, nutritive value and versatility of making our own quick mixes. Just from the Basic Quick Mix, Ms. Mullin will prepare crescent cookies, muffins and sausage balls.

Also Mary Ellen Payne, Extension Home Economist from Carrizozo will compare the cost of protein. As she explains, meat buying is the biggest part of any family's budget and meat is an important source of protein. But, there are other ways of getting the necessary amount of protein in our diets and some ways are much less expensive.

Concluding the show, Jimmy Webb, a CPA with

A 14-member committee, made up of physicians and former prisoners of war, will advise Administrator of Veterans Affairs Robert Nimmo on new VA benefits for 100,000 living American former prisoners of war.

the public accounting firm of Holloman, Woodard, Widener and Webb in Clovis will talk about earned income credit and what actually constitutes earned income.

"The Creative Woman" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden for KENW-TV. The show is seen on Tuesdays at 12:30 p.m. and also on Saturdays at 2:00 p.m. Viewers may request copies of printed materials offered on the show by calling on KENW-TV's toll-free telephone lines. The numbers are: New Mexico: 1-800-432-2361 and Texas: 1-800-545-2359. Portales and Roosevelt County residents are asked to call at 562-2112.

TRU-TEST PAINTS
PAINTING HELP SPOKEN HERE.

BY Bonnie Blaire
TRU-TEST COLOR CONSULTANT

Dear Bonnie:

Our house has been painted white for many years. It is an older home, solid and well constructed but the wood siding is slightly warped and somewhat uneven. Do you have any suggestions for painting?

Signed, Wondering

Dear Wondering:

A dark, flat finish paint will effectively conceal the irregularity of the siding.

Choose navy blue, deep terra cotta, charcoal or deep brown from the TRU-TEST WeatherAll color card or the Accent colors on the Custom Color Selector.

A sparkling white trim will give your house a crisp, shipshape look. This treatment is especially effective on old Victorian houses with "gingerbread" trim. Or, select a medium dark color like denim blue, gold, brown, oxford gray, etc. from the center chips on cards in Backgrounds B & C of the Custom Color Selector. Trim with white and choose black, deepest charcoal or darkest brown for shutter color.

Be sure to consult your TRU-TEST Paint Specialist at the store about the proper surface preparation before you start your painting project.

I WAS BIG ENOUGH TO BE ON THE TEAM

Then I found Pat Walker's offered a better game!

"I'll never forget the insecure feeling of being fat. It is so frustrating... clothes that pull across the abdomen... jackets too tight to button... waistbands too tight... all just too familiar to me. I wore poly-ester slacks stretched, but now I can even wear daughter's clothes!

To me the most important part of my program at Pat Walker's is the Symmetricon unit which is programmed especially for me, to remove my fat from the right places. The inches just melted away. I lost 6" in the hips, 6 1/2" in my waist, 9" in my abdomen and 7" in my thighs and lots in other places too. (Totally I lost 52 1/2") Some of my friends whose weight is the same as mine are amazed because they are still bigger than I am.

Losing inches is one thing, but losing weight along with them (I lost 30 lbs.) is an assurance of permanent figure correction. The second most important part of my program is Pat Walker's food planning, literally an education in nutrition based on your own metabolism and favorite foods.

If you're really serious about losing weight and are tired of wasting time and money for gimmicks, pills, shots and ridiculous diets Pat Walker's is for you too!

Directors for several reasons. The Board hoped to emphasize that while economic conditions appear to be in a temporary slump, there is still great hope for a brighter future for our area in the long run. The theme is also intended to tie in with the expected beginning of operations later this year at Tolk Station, the Southwestern Public Service Company's coal-fired electric generating plant to the east of Muleshoe.

Track...

84, Mendoza was a regional qualifier in the 1600 meters in 1981 and according to Wiseman, should be a strong contender in the 800 meter and 1600 meter.

John Wuerflein placed sixth in the long jump with a distance of 18'9". Wiseman expects Wuerflein to add depth in the hurdles and provide some strength in the discus.

Jeff Meeks placed sixth in the shot put with a distance of 42'7". Meeks returns to the Mules this year as top weight man, and has the ability to break 50' in the shot and 150' in the discus. In the intermediate hurdles event, Raul Garcia placed sixth with a time of 44.5. He was also a regional qualifier in the pole vault in '81.

Ronnie Angeley will utilize his all-around athletic ability to lead the Mules to another district title. He will be counted on to help the relay teams and will soar in the high jump and long jump.

J. J. Martinez was a regional qualifier in 1981 and returns to the cinders to pick up where he left off. Wiseman expects Martinez to excel in the 400 meters, the long jump, and as a key man in the relay.

Junior track team member Eddie Alvarado may surprise a few folks in '82 as he will provide some quality in the 400 and 200. He should be a candidate for the 1600 meter relay and could drop below 53. flat.

Another junior, Perry Flowers, joins the ranks for the first time as a Mule hopeful in the shot and discus. His overall ability should overcome his inexperience and he may well develop into a fine thrower.

Junior Michael Isaac will be called upon to provide points in the high jump and could top the six foot barrier this year. He will also run hurdles.

Macario Reyes may be a real sleeper this year, and his strong determination will hopefully enable him to excel on the track in the 800 meter as well as the discus.

Chubby Ramos brings his all around talent to the cinders where he will primarily concentrate on the hurdles and possibly the 800.

A steady performer in '81, Hector Orozco should be even better in '82. His specialty is the 400 meters, but he also runs the relays in fine fashion.

Raul Garcia has the determination and desire to break the school record in the pole vault of 12'6". He was a regional qualifier in '81 in this event and also runs a set of intermediate hurdles.

A sophomore letterman in '81, Rene Reyes has enthusiasm and the desire to drop his time close to the two minute flat mark in the 800 meters this year.

Sophomore Thurman Coleman is an up and coming sprinter with great strength. He will run the 200 meter and 400 meter and could easily challenge for a relay position. Coleman could also develop into a fine weight man before district.

One of the quickest men on the weight squad this year is Perry Whalin. If his strength can match his quickness, he stands to tumble some of the top throws in MHS history before he graduates.

Another with top athletic ability is Hector Garcia. He is likely to be a threat in the hurdles with continued hard work. Garcia also has some good potential as a discus thrower.

One of the fastest sophomores around this year is Trent Hysinger. He could break 52 flat in the 400 meter, and may work at the hurdles as well.

Trent's a very gutsy performer with a good chance of making the 1600 meter relay.

Coming back from a successful cross country season, Danny Mata is looking forward to more of the same on the track. His specialties will be the 3200 meter and he should dip below 10:40 in '82.

Freshman Tony Luna holds nearly all of the junior high distance records and moves up to the varsity to accomplish the same. He placed second in the state cross country meet in November and could be one of the area's best if he continues to improve.

Tony Rojas, another freshman, came on strong during cross country, helping the Mules to a fourth place finish at the state meet. He has good stamina and if he can improve his speed, he could letter as a freshman in the 3200.

Wiseman is proud of his track squad and expects great things from them. He knows that he won't be disappointed if the team members give their best effort at all times.

Thurmond On Energy

Senator Strom Thurmond, Republican from South Carolina, has called for accelerated development of nuclear energy, as well as expedited drilling for oil and gas and coal mining.

Thurmond says the nation must move in every way to self-sufficiency in energy, so it won't be dependent on oil from the Middle East as a basic necessity for the welfare of Americans.

Oil drilling has increased rapidly since oil prices were decontrolled and gas drilling is expected to do likewise as gas prices are decontrolled. Coal mining has increased and soon a major plant to extract gas from coal will be operating in the Dakotas.

Nuclear power, too, must be pursued and Thurmond offers a good answer to agitators who picket and oppose nuclear power development. He points out that not a single life has been lost in the years of nuclear power production, while some two hundred coal miners have lost their lives in recent years mining coal.

The same example applies to oil and gas. A number of men recently lost their lives when an oil rig off the coast of Canada collapsed. That was not the first such accident and there are other hazards and deaths resulting from oil and gas extraction.

But nuclear energy, thus far, has been safely developed. Additional safeguards have been found necessary. But, overall, the record is good, better than the record concerning coal or petroleum production.

350,000 Hostages?

William Safire, among the ablest columnists on the scene, raises an interesting point in asking whether we should be thinking of recalling some or all of our 350,000 military force in West Germany.

If the sole purpose of these troops in Germany is to be a tripwire, to insure when they are overrun, captured and killed, we will launch a major nuclear assault on Russia, it may be time to think hard about them.

That appears a reasonable assumption, since we are presently so outmanned and outarmed in conventional military terms. Increasing numbers of Germans and other Europeans are becoming disenchanted with the idea that when these U.S. forces are overrun, the U.S. will then launch a massive nuclear strike--on Germany, where the Russians presumably will be.

Many Germans don't like this idea--they have been devastated twice by war in this century and aren't enthusiastic about a nuclear climax as number three. Thus, either NATO forces should be kept up to strength and technological par, or the case for our 350,000 American hostages in Germany becomes weak.

From the classical historic standpoint, the presence of a tripwire is a worthwhile function, even if one looks at these troops as a collective sacrificial lamb.

But...and this is the key...if we are outgunned in nuclear weapons also, and if the world (and the Russians) know we will not launch a massive nuclear retaliatory strike in case of war (because the U.S. would be devastated worse than Russia), then the tripwire value is negated. Also, as mentioned, more and more Europeans don't favor a strike on Germany.

We are, therefore, currently in the position of trying to persuade our NATO partners to let us arm our forces with weapons which would allow them to put up an effective defense, but there is growing European sentiment against deployment of neutron warheads and other U.S. nuclear missiles. If we are not able to do this, a very strong case can be made for bringing home Americans in West Germany--after a thirty-five year stay.

DISMISSES CHARGE

WASHINGTON -- The U.S. Court of Military Appeals ordered recently the dismissal of the espionage case against 2nd Lt. Christopher Cooke on grounds that the Air Force improperly extracted his "confession" about conveying secrets to the Soviet Union.

ON AID PROPOSAL

MEXICO CITY -- President Reagan's Caribbean aid proposal got a mild endorsement from Mexico's foreign minister, enthusiastic praise by leaders of El Salvador and Jamaica, and cautious support from other allies in the region.

AUTO LAYOFFS SOARING

DETROIT -- Indefinite layoffs in the auto industry hit 250,400 recently--a high for the current three-year slump--and General Motors announced it will close four Fisher Body division plants during the next 20 months.

SOVIETS BUYING GRAIN

WASHINGTON -- The Soviet Union, ending a two-month absence from the U.S. grain market several weeks ago, has purchased another 100,000 metric tons of American corn, Agriculture Secretary John Block said recently.

The Speaker Reports

by Bill Clayton

AUSTIN--As Speaker of the House and as private citizen Bill Clayton, I have always been a firm believer in the State of Texas taking care of its own business. This philosophy, shared by many Texans, has freed our state from so many of the problems which continually plague our federal government today. For instance, Texans are in control of our state agencies; they have not been allowed to grow beyond the needs of the state and the state's financial abilities to support them. One mechanism which has helped us to maintain control in recent years is the Sunset review process.

The Texas Sunset Act, passed in 1977, is a method by which legislators and private citizens can have a voice in the continued existence of all state agencies. Each biennium a set of agencies comes under Sunset review and each agency is closely scrutinized as to past and current operating procedures and performances. The final phase of the Sunset process ends with some agencies being continued with certain changes made in the way the agencies conduct business and other agencies being "sunsetted" because of a lack of need or the fact that other agencies can perform their functions. These changes ultimately result in cost savings, increased work productivity, and a more streamlined state government.

This biennium 33 state agencies are under review in what appears to be the toughest interim yet for a Sunset Commission and its staff. Not only are there more agencies than ever before but the size and scope of some of the agencies are quite large. Such agencies include the Public Utility Commission, the State Board of Insurance, and the Texas Railroad Commission.

Other agencies being reviewed include the Finance Commission, the Texas Employment Commission, the State Banking Board, the Texas Energy and Natural Resources Advisory Council, the Department of Community Affairs, and the Texas Commission on the Arts.

Each agency is required to submit to the staff of the Sunset Commission a detailed written report outlining the basic interworkings of the agency. In the report the agency must answer specific questions such as the number and method of handling citizen complaints; past actions which may have resulted in cost reductions or savings; the number of meetings attended by board members and the amount of per diem received; the type of affirmative action plan in operation, and legislation introduced in previous sessions that merged or attempted to merge similar programs within existing agencies. This report will serve as a foundation to the Commission's overall analysis which will include public testimony beginning in June. Final recommendations will be made to the 68th Legislature which will continue the review process through the House and Senate.

Streamlining our state government is a necessity that becomes more and more crucial as we realize the detrimental effects of such a massive bureaucracy on the federal level in Washington.

U.S. OIL PRODUCTION

Crude oil production in the United States increased as crude imports continued to decline in January 1982, the American Petroleum Institute reported recently.

ON AID

President Reagan unveiled a program of trade, investment assistance and direct financial aid for the troubled countries of Central America and the Caribbean recently and declared he "will do whatever is prudent and necessary" to ensure peace and security there.

St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, died on March 17, 493. The anniversary of his death has been celebrated for centuries not only by Irishmen but by those of other races, and not only by Catholics but by those of other faiths.

In fact, the New York organization in memory of St. Patrick, the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, was organized by both Irish Catholics and Presbyterians, and its first president was a Presbyterian.

The most famous tale about St. Patrick is the one which tells of his banishment of snakes from Ireland. Yet Cardinal Moran, who some years ago wrote an article on St. Patrick for the Catholic Encyclopedia, fails to mention it. He does mention the ordeal of St. Patrick when he was surrounded by demons in the shape of vultures, and tells of the drowning of the demons in answer to his prayers.

Whatever the tale, and there are those who believe several different versions, a great number of people enjoy celebrating the anniversary of the death of St. Patrick, in the middle of this month, every year.

Irishmen, particularly, take pride in the occasion, and on some occasions in the past they have even brought pieces of the "ould sod" from Ireland to observe the occasion.

DRUGS AID TREATMENT

BOSTON -- A new combination of drugs is far more effective than the standard treatment in preventing a sometimes fatal complication of bone marrow transplants, a study says.

ON BRITTLE BONES

BOSTON -- An experimental combination of fluoride and estrogen will strengthen the brittle bones of older women and prevent most of the fractures that are a disabling affliction of old age, a study shows.

The question is as old as wheat farming: Has a yield plateau been reached in wheat production? This question was recently raised at an international symposium on wheat yields. General opinion of most plant scientists was: The potential for further genetic improvement in wheat does exist. With that possibility is the definite probability of continued yield increases. Many scientists pointed out, although the process of refinement and, therefore, yield increases is quite slow and tedious, the increases will be a vast improvement over the varieties of 10-15 years ago. On the very near horizon, for example, are the highly refined techniques of single cell culture and gene surgery. Both of these look extremely promising, though still in their technological infancies. There has been no plateau in technology and what follows technology more closely than yield?

The Sandhills Philosopher

Dear Editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night, lawyers getting ready to handle the trial of a mass murderer estimated the trial would last about eight months. They said it as though it's a routine procedure.

I guess it is. It's nothing these days for a trial to last six weeks, two months, six months or whatever. One civil suit ran thirteen years before everybody got tired and called the thing off.

I got to thinking about this. If it's taking longer and longer to try a criminal and at the same time more and more criminals are being produced, won't that result in longer and longer waits for a man to get tried? Say an 18-year-old is charged with stealing a car, he might be middle aged or older before he's tried and found guilty or innocent, depending on what price range lawyer he can hire.

A man shouldn't have to go through life with a thing like that hanging over him, so I've figured out a solution.

Some men, say an alumnus of Harvard, when they have a son born, immediately apply for his entrance to that school 18 years hence. This assures that the boy, when he finishes high school, can go right into the college of his father's choice without waiting.

Shouldn't a father be equally concerned about getting his son a speedy trial if he runs afoul of the law? Shouldn't he apply for a time slot on the court docket as soon as the boy is born, to be utilized if the necessity arises? Forethoughtness is what gives some people an edge over the others. Getting a son a speedy trial ought to be as important as getting him into Harvard. It's something that's worth thinking about, but not for long.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Social Studies In Youth Freedom Forum

The social studies department of Muleshoe High School sponsored a group of students who attended the annual Panhandle Youth Freedom Forum held on the West Texas State University campus Wednesday, March 10, from 8:45 a.m. until 2:45 p.m.
Special speakers for this citizenship forum were Robert Y. Rowland, C. Brooks Peters, Dr. Barry Duman and Gene Stallings. Robert Rowland, president of the American Citizenship Center of Oklahoma Christian College and a winner of Freedoms Foundation's principals national award for a public address was the first speaker of the day. Mr. Rowland discussed the concepts of liberty and justice. He stressed the idea that with freedom comes responsibility.
C. Brooks Peters, who retired from a distinguished writing career with the New York Times to become a lecturer, covered the early period of World War II as a news correspondent in Germany, where he met Hitler personally and covered more of his speeches than any other reporter. He outlined the life of young people under the Hitler regime and told how they were indoctrinated to build Germany into a super power.
After lunch at the West Texas State University cafeteria, the students heard Dr. Barry Duman, professor of economics at WTSU in Amarillo. Dr. Duman is a popular lecturer on business and economics. Dr. Duman spoke on the free enterprise system giving the characteristics of our economic system stressing why he believes this to be the best system in the world. He noted that the chief advantage of capitalism is personal freedom.
The final lecturer on the program was Gene Stallings, defensive backfield coach of the Dallas Cowboys, who joined the professional coaching ranks after seven years as head coach at his alma mater, Texas A&M. He is now an active and popular public speaker. He told of his experiences as a coach stressing the importance of competition in our society. He repeated over and over to the students the importance of surrounding yourself with good people.

New Elective Course Offered At MHS

An elective English course? Certainly! Muleshoe High School will offer VOCABULARY BUILDING AND COMPOSITION next fall to interested Juniors or Seniors who would like to improve their skills in vocabulary and writing. It will carry "honors" grade points (A Level-III Course) and will be open to students who have maintained at least a grade of "B" in English I and English II.
Although vocabulary and composition are taught in all English courses in high school, this elective course will deal with these two areas independently and intensely. Vocabulary building will be approached through word root, prefix, and suffix studies from Greek Latin origins. This study is designed to greatly increase vocabulary usage and to train students to understand words they have never seen before. The composition part of the course will cover the short paragraph through complete theme writing. It will instruct in all areas of writing that students will be subjected to with higher education. Although the course will require time, it is designed to motivate students to enjoy writing and to be proud of themselves for having achieved a more useful vocabulary and understanding of words which will benefit them for a lifetime.
Mr. Wayland Ethridge, principal of Muleshoe High, explained that the course would be offered if as many as 20 students would enroll in the course. The course will carry elective credit and will not take the place of required English courses. Ethridge stated that probably no other course has been offered to students that will be of more benefit to the serious-minded student.
When asked her comments she said, "I would just like to thank the student body and faculty for making me feel so welcome. The atmosphere makes this experience an enjoyable one."

Older Worker Week Will Be March 14-21

To recognize the importance of meaningful employment for senior Americans, the U. S. Department of Labor has announced March 14-21 as "Older Worker Week." Texas Farmers Union Green Thumb, a rural senior employment program is encouraging both public and private employers to join them in honoring older employees during this week. Older Worker Week is an annual event designed to spotlight the valuable qualities of the mature worker. Green Thumb employs about 1,000 senior Texans in 107 counties. Sponsored by Texas Farmers Union, the program provides part-time work opportunities for people over 55 who are "loaned" to non-profit organizations to provide needed services in rural communities. Green Thumb State Director Diane Parrish says "Older workers value job security while younger workers tend to change jobs frequently. The fact that older Americans lived through the Great Depression while younger workers grew up in an affluent age perhaps affects the way each sees the need for security. Consequently, there seems to be less job dissatisfaction among older workers."

The increasing number of retirees returning to the workforce and employers' favorable receptiveness to their return is evidence of a changing trend in American society. Only a few years ago, 65 was considered to be the traditional retirement age. Mandatory retirement policies were accepted without question and complied with automatically by almost everyone. But today, 79 percent of workers age 55-64 and 73 percent of those over 65 say that they prefer at least part-time employment to total retirement according to a National Council on Aging survey.

Sen. Richard Lugar (Ind) says "For most Americans, work means everything. It's a definition of our lives, the way in which we serve others. To be cut off arbitrarily by law or regulation is devastating."

Surveys have shown that maximum intellectual function is achieved between the ages of 40 and 65. Older employees can evaluate tasks and project outcomes more accurately than can young workers.

The wisdom gathered through experience would appear to account for this. Recognizing this fact, many employers are taking a second look at the mature worker when openings are available in their companies. John Deere (farm equipment manufacturer) hires retirees to guide 14,000 tourists that come to the plant yearly. Union Carbide, Connecticut General Life Insurance and Bankers Life and Casualty Company are among the growing number of businesses who are actively recruiting older employees.

"Hiring the experienced is good business," says Green Thumb Director Parrish. "Green Thumb helps locate jobs for older workers in the private job market," she says, "and when looking for openings, we find that the ticking off of birthdays is the least important measure of a person's true value to an employer."

TEL Class Meet Held

Lena Hawkins was hostess for the Monday meeting of the T.E.L. Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church.

It was announced that Billy Graham had been sent $15 in December; $10 in January and the same amount in March. Local bills were also paid.

Mrs. Hawkins gave the devotional and Stella Morgan prayed for the spring revival at the church.

Members called one of the T.E.L. members, Sadie Howard, who has been ill. Each of the members of the class at the meeting talked with her.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hawkins to Stella Morgan, Minnie Luman, Beatrice Blackburn, Maud Kersey, Corda Taylor, Ruth Timms, Mae Loyd, Mae Adkins, Raneta Dawson, Hazel Reeder, Faye Lambert and the hostess, Lena Hawkins.

Management Pains
A harried business executive went to his physician to get a prescription for sleeping pills only to find out that he was allergic to sedatives.

"What about some of this twilight sleep I've read about? he asked the doctor.
"Oh, that's only for labor," was the reply.
"Good heavens!" exclaimed the executive, "haven't you anything for management?"

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

HEY BUDDY!

Hey Buddy, I just wanted to borrow a match — but I might have been opportunity, good fortune, or death. How would you greet me if I were any one of these, especially the last? No matter how unprepared you are any one of these may come to your house today.

There is a way that you can be ready for whatever may come. That way is the one described in the Bible as trusting in God, knowing that He is good. Ah but who is God that we may trust Him? He is the power who sends opportunity, good fortune and death. To know Him and trust Him is to know life and be freed from all anxiety over death or life. Do you want to know Him? Then seek Him where He may be found, among His people in the Church, and in His witness in the Bible.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Is something wrong with your life — in your career, your home, your family, your health, your money, your love, your peace of mind? The answer is in the Church. He alone can bring you peace and security.

Through the Church God has promised the forgiveness and redemption of His forgiveness and redemption. Without church relation no one is secure, related to God. Every man should be in the Church and the Church be every man.

Use Label On Tax Refund

Taxpayers can help speed up the processing of tax returns by using the pre-addressed, peel-off labels and by double checking their arithmetic before mailing the returns. As simple as the items appear, they are the cause for thousands of errors every year, the IRS says.

The label comes with the tax package in the mail and lists the taxpayer's name, address, social security number and other bits of information which help the IRS in processing the return quickly.

If any of the information on the label is incorrect, the correction can be made directly on the label. Taxpayers should also use the coded envelope included in the tax package. It's pre-addressed and helps the IRS sort returns.

Most errors can be avoided if the return is double checked for accuracy and the label is used.

Scanning Social Security

Stricter laws regarding the misuse of Social Security numbers and cards are now in effect, according to Laura Peacock, manager of the Lubbock social security district office.

A law signed by President Reagan in late December 1981 provides criminal penalties for: 1. using a Social Security Card obtained with false information, 2. using someone else's Social Security number, 3. buying, selling, or counterfeiting Social Security Cards, or, 4. possessing a regular or counterfeit card with intent to sell or alter it.

"An unlawful act affecting the Social Security Card or number is now considered a FELONY, rather than a MISDEMEANOR," Peacock added.

Penalties for conviction can be a fine of up to $5,000 or a prison term of up to 5 years-or both.

According to Peacock, individuals wishing to report misuse of Social Security cards or numbers should call the Social Security office listed in the directory or the HHS hot line in Washington, D.C. at 202-472-4222.

Pre-Hearing Conference Set On United Parcel

The Transportation Division of the Railroad Commission conducted a pre-hearing conference today on the application of United Parcel Service for authority to transport packages within the state of Texas.

Several procedural matters were discussed by UPS and attorneys representing state motor carriers who have protested the UPS application, including potential hearing dates, length of the hearing, and evidence to be presented.

Attorneys for several of the protesting motor carriers also filed motions asking the Commission to deny the UPS application outright, without conducting a hearing.

Prior to the pre-hearing conference, UPS asked the Commission to set eight weeks of hearings on the application beginning May 4. UPS further asked that two weeks of hearing be held in Austin and six weeks be conducted in Dallas. The company said Dallas' central location and excellent transportation facilities would assist witnesses coming to give testimony.

Protestants noted two other major transportation cases already set for hearing during the May-June time frame and asked that the Commission not set UPS hearings before September.

Transportation Division examiner Carol Kingsbery said she would review the transcript of the conference as well as the motions and exhibits and publish a pre-hearing conference order addressing the issues. She estimated the order would be published the week of March 8.

UPS filed the current application for common carrier authority with the Commission's Transportation Division in August.

BIBLE VERSE

"The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise."

1. Who was the author of the above statement?
2. What was his position at the time?
3. What is the meaning of the verse?
4. Where may it be found?

Answer to Bible Verse

1. David.
2. He was King of Israel.
3. God prefers a repentant heart and humble spirit to any material offering one may make.
4. Psalm 51:17.

"I have 17 reasons why H&R Block should prepare your taxes."

REASON #14: If Block makes an error, we'll pay the penalty. And the interest.

We want you to walk out our door with total confidence. So, if our error causes you to owe additional tax, that's all you'll pay. We'll pay any interest and penalty. At H&R Block, we stand behind our work. And we stand behind you.

17 reasons. One smart decision.

1978. In April, 1979, the Commission issued an order concluding it did not have jurisdiction to hear the application because state law does not permit common carriers to operate over irregular routes on irregular schedules as UPS proposes to do.

The Commission's decision was appealed to state district court which ruled the Commission should hear the application. Later decisions by the Court of Civil Appeals and the Texas Supreme Court did not change the district court ruling.

Sheep & Goat Inventory Up

AUSTIN—The Texas goat inventory is up, and for the first time since 1966 the number of stock sheep in Texas is on the rise, Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown reports.

"On January 1, 1982, the number of stock sheep and lambs in Texas was estimated at 2,300,000 head, up 7 percent from last year, and the number of goats and kids was estimated at 1,450,000 head, up 5 percent from January 1, 1981," Brown said.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service reports that the total number of sheep and lambs in Texas on January 1, 1982, was estimated at 2,500,000 head, up 6 percent from a year earlier.

There were 1,130,000 Angora goats which accounted for 78 percent of the total herd and was 8 percent larger than last year's herd.

The 1981 lamb crop totaled 1,250,000 head, up 12 percent from the 1980 crop and new lambs born since October 1, 1981, totaled 198,000 head compared with 140,000 head during the same period last year.
