80 Nations Signing Pact To Ban Germ Weapons

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon arranged to be on hand today to witness the signing here by some 80 countries of a treaty to ban germ-warfare weapons.
Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin planned to sign for the Soviet Union, Secretary of State William P. Rogers for the United States.

The United States is cosponsoring the biological-weapons pact with the Soviet Union and Great Britain, another mark of U.S.-Soviet progress in a range of negotiations while the two super-powers are at odds over Vietnam.
The United States and the Soviet Union plan to announce Tuesday a two-year renewal of their cultural-exchange program, expanding somewhat the visits of performing artists, scientists, scholars and the like between the two countries.

Hijacker's Ransom Recovered By FBI

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — The FBI turned over to a U.S. magistrate today $499,970, a parachute and a pistol which it said was taken from the "premises" of a man charged with $500,000 extortion parachute hijacking of a jetliner Friday night.
The Utah man is one of two persons held in separate hijack-extortion-parachute schemes occurring in the western United States two days apart. Arrests have been made in both cases.

Apollo 16 Countdown Begins

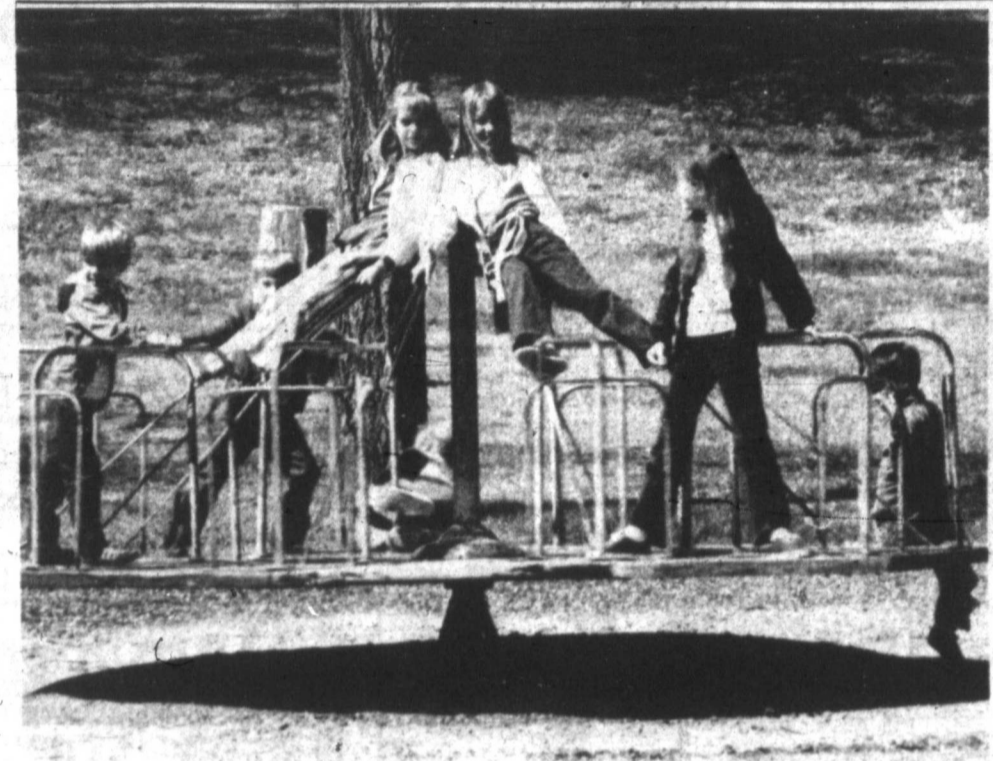

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The countdown begins today for the Apollo 16 mission, man's fifth expedition to the surface of the moon.
The launch team starts the countdown clock at 8:30 a.m. EST, aiming for a liftoff of the Saturn 5 rocket Sunday at 12:54 p.m. Early activities include feeding electrical power to the three stages of the rocket.
The clock starts ticking at 104 hours 30 minutes. Several halts are planned to provide launch crews with rest periods and catchup time on any item that might fall behind schedule.
Key events in the countdown include activating batteries, loading the spacecraft's power-producing fuel cells and pumping more than one million gallons of fuel into the rocket's huge tanks.

Crime Fighting Program Called Wasteful, Corrupt

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House subcommittee has described the government's top federal-state crime-fighting program as riddled with "inefficiency, waste, maladministration, and, in some cases, corruption."
And, the program—which has sent nearly $1.5 billion to states to upgrade law enforcement—"has had no visible impact on the incidence of crime in the United States," the subcommittee concluded.

A copy of the report by the legal and monetary affairs subcommittee on the block-grant program of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration was obtained Sunday by The Associated Press. It will not be made public officially until approved by the parent House Government Operations Committee.
The study also was the subject of a "60 Minutes" report on CBS-TV Sunday night.
Set up under the Safe Streets Act of 1968, LEAA received $800.9 million from Congress for the current fiscal year, most of which was passed on to the states in block grants.
State law-enforcement planning agencies are supposed to distribute most of that money to communities for projects designed to upgrade operations of police, courts and corrections systems.

B52s Attack Targets Deep Inside N. Viet

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers returned to the air over North Vietnam today for the first time in more than four years and hit targets around the big coastal city of Vinh, 145 miles northwest of the demilitarized zone. It was the deepest penetration of North Vietnam ever made by America's biggest warplanes.

Meanwhile, South Vietnam's commander on the northern front said his forces had crushed the spearhead of the 12-day-old Communist offensive across the DMZ and turned the tide of battle.
But there was no letup in the enemy attack north of Saigon and the South Vietnamese command ordered another 20,000 troops into the battle for An Loc, 60 miles north of the Capital.

Over 2,000 Iranians Die In Ravaging Earthquake

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A devastating earthquake crumbled mud brick villages in southern Iran early today and the national radio-television network reported more than 1,000 persons perished.
Unofficial reports from the area 560 miles south of Tehran estimated from 2,000 to 4,000 died.
Gov. Manuchebr Pirooz of Fars Province said after flying over the region that about one-fifth of the houses had collapsed.
The quake, starting at 5:38 a.m.—9:08 p.m. EST Sunday—is one of the biggest ever to hit Iran, registering 7 on the Richter scale, a spokesman for the Geophysics Institute at Tehran University said.

Prime Minister Amir Abass Hoveida set up relief headquarters in his office and was reporting hourly to the Shah, a government spokesman said. Prince Mahmoud Reza, who was traveling in southern Iran, was named to supervise operations at the scene.
Medical supplies were rushed by helicopter to the stricken villages. Army engineers from Shiraz were ordered to look after the water supply and open road and radio links between the villages and rescue operations at Shiraz, Jahrum and Fitoozabad.
The quake area is 120 miles from Persepolis, where world figures gathered last October to celebrate the 2,500th anniversary of the Persepolis monarchy.

Nation's Capital Becoming Major Center For Abortion

By MARGARET GENTRY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a 71-year-old abortion law and a Supreme Court decision upholding it, the District of Columbia is moving into the ranks of major abortion centers.
Directors of four flourishing abortion clinics report an average of more than 600 abortions a week are being performed—or about 32,000 a year. Abortions also are being performed at numerous doctor's offices across the city.

abortion-seekers from many states. Yet, it does not rival New York in the number of abortions performed. That state, which has the nation's most liberal abortion law, reported 164,000 legal abortions in the first year.
The four District clinics say most patients are from Washington and its suburbs. But at one, Pre-Birth, director Phillip Brown said one-third of the patients now come from out of the area.
Women from the South and Midwest form the largest contingent of patients from other than the Washington area.
Washington may be unique in that abortion became legally accepted despite no change in its 71-year-old abortion law and even a Supreme Court endorsement of that law.

Purcell Will Take Part In PHS Model Congress

U.S. Congressman Graham Purcell will participate in the Model Congress at Pampa High School on April 22, John W. Warner, general chairman, announced.
Purcell will divide the duties of Speaker of the House of Representatives with Congressman Bob Price. Senator John Tower will preside over the Senate.
"I am very delighted to know that so many of our youth are taking this kind of interest in the workings of our government," Purcell said when he accepted the invitation to participate.
"The future of our nation is in the hands of involved youth."
Purcell was elected to Congress in 1962 and has been re-elected every term since. He serves on the House Agriculture Committee and is chairman of the largest agriculture sub-committee, Livestock and Grain. He also serves on the Post Office and Civil Service Committee.
The Congressman graduated from Texas A&M in 1946 and from Baylor Law School in 1949.

He served in Africa and Italy in World War II and is presently a lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve. He served as a district judge in Wichita Falls before being elected to Congress.
"I came to really appreciate our youth as a district judge," Purcell recalls. He was the district judge to whom all juvenile cases in Wichita County were assigned while he was on the bench.
Purcell was twice selected as the Outstanding Citizen of Wichita County by different organizations. Last week Purcell dedicated the first vocational school in Wichita County, the realization of more than 10 years of effort on his part to establish the school.
The Model Congress is a joint effort of the Pampa Jaycees, Jaycee-ettes and PHS. Social studies department. Students from 26 area high schools have been invited to attend and participate. They will work on bills in committees and debate them in the same fashion as the actual House and Senate.

Pampa Sets Clean-Up Campaign

Pampa's annual, Paint Up, Clean Up and Fix Up campaign will be conducted May 4 through May 26.
Dates for the annual city-wide renovation drive were set at a meeting this forenoon of the Chamber of Commerce Fire Prevention and Safety Committee and city officials.

The campaign is a combined project of the chamber, city and schools.
City Manager Mack Wofford, outlined the city's plan of procedure for the clean-up.
City trucks will follow this schedule in picking up trash and debris during the four-week drive:
Ward 1—May 1 through May 5; Ward 2—May 8 through May 12; Ward 3—May 15 through May 19; and Ward 4—May 22 through May 26.
Residents are asked to have trash and rubbish collections ready for pick-up on the first day of each week in the respective wards.
A general committee was named to handle publicity for the campaign in the newspaper, poster distribution, service clubs and schools.

Mailed Your Entry Yet?

First entries in the City's contest to name the banquet room in the new M.K. Brown Auditorium began coming in today.
They should be mailed to the Auditorium Contest Editor, The Pampa News, P.O. Box 2198, Pampa, Texas 79065.
A $50 U.S. Savings Bond will go to the person submitting the name judged best by the contest committee.
The rules are simple. Only one name may be entered by each person. Only residents of Gray County will be eligible to enter the contest.
In event the same name is submitted by two or more persons, the entry bearing the earliest mail postmark will be judged the winner.
Deadline for entries will be Tuesday, April 18.

News Funds Let

Congressman Bob Price has notified that the Administration has released $38 million in new funds to help family farmers put in their 1972 crops.
In making the announcement, Secretary of Agriculture, Earl L. Butz, pointed out this raises the operating loan program of the FHA to a new high of $13 million.

Johnson Shows Definite Signs Of Improvement

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson "has few serious danger signals" lingering from last weekend's heart attack and is showing "definite signs of improvement," his doctor says.
Dr. John Willis Hurst, the heart specialist flown here to treat the former president after his attack early Friday morning, said Sunday he felt confident enough in Johnson's condition to leave his bedside and return to his home in Atlanta.
Dr. Hurst treated Johnson in 1955 when, as a senator from Texas, he was stricken by a nearly fatal heart attack. Dr. Hurst diagnosed the latest illness as a myocardial infarction, a closing of the blood vessels into the heart.
Johnson is in "very, very good hands," Dr. Hurst said, noting that "now is a safe time to go or I wouldn't go." He said Johnson wants to return to Texas and will be moved as soon as possible. He would not give any estimate when that might be.
During the weekend, Dr. Hurst said, the chest pains that had brought the former president to the University of Virginia Hospital subsided. He had been visiting the home here of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robb, when he was stricken.
Dr. Hurst refused to speculate on how much heart damage Johnson may have suffered, but said some would be permanent.
Johnson's condition, he said, has become "satisfactory with some signs of improvement."
The former president was "in a very good mood" Sunday. Dr. Hurst said, noting that Johnson now is receiving "standard treatment, nothing unusual," and is no longer being given intravenous medicine.

Horace Busby, a presidential aide during Johnson's administration, also described him as being in good spirits. Asked for an example, he smiled and said:
"You all know Johnson humor doesn't travel very well."

Worry Clinic

By George W. Crane, Ph.D., M.D.
Lorna's Jealous husband has traded her off for many a weekend rendezvous with other men. They attend "swinger" parties, which make Cupid a Communist! Yet marriage is supposed to be a "Capitalistic" affair, where private property rights erect a "Keep Off" sign!
CASE T-549: Lorna D., age 27, is a beautiful woman.
"Dr. Crane," he worried husband began, "I have always been jealous of Lorna."
"She attracts men whenever we are out in public, so I always wondered if she might also be entertaining illicit suitors in my home while I am at work."
"For she has never shown much enthusiasm for sex in our bedroom, which makes me suspicious that maybe she is getting satisfied by clandestine lovers."
"For Dr. Kinsy reported that women are wildly sexual."
"So I started taking her to one of these wife-swapping affairs, as an experiment, and on the advice of my psychiatrist."
"We exchange partners for the night and in this way I can at least control her choice of other male suitors."
"After a weekend at one of these 'swinger parties,' I figure she should be satisfied, at least till next weekend."
"Is this plan generally approved by other psychiatrists?"
MARITAL COMMUNISM
Even the Russian Communists have had to compromise with the "private property" doctrine of Capitalism regarding Cupid.
For the Communists now regard marriage as a private affair and not a "swinger" arrangement!
Furthermore, that Kinsey report was very unscientific when it took the mere opinions of women as facts and then generalized thereon.

For the normal woman is much less erotic than is the normal male.
"But, Dr. Crane," you may protest, "I know many wives who are far more passionate than their husbands."
True enough.
But such women are usually goaded into an artificial interest in eroticism because they suffer from some sexual inferiority complex.
Thus, they are likely to be sterile and fear that they may no longer be able to attract men.
So they are spurred into extra-marital affairs both to prove that they still have enough feminine charm to seduce a male.
But also, often subconsciously, in the hope another male partner might be able to get them pregnant.
Other sexually disturbed women may have lost a breast due to cancer or have had their womb removed because of fibroids.
Skinny legs or extra fat ankles may also make such females feel they are not normal.
Same goes for unduly flat chests or also very pendulous breasts, freckles, crippled conditions or big ears, prominent noses, etc.
So send for my booklet "Sex Problems in Marriage," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 25 cents, and insure a "capitalistic" type of marriage!
(Always write to Dr. Crane, Hopkins Bldg. Mellot, Indiana 47958, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 25 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

OUT OF AN OLD-FASHIONED FAIRY TALE, Christel Mory and Rolf Rossius are all dressed up as star attractions of 20th-century Munich. They arrived by camel for their coronation as prince and princess of the 1972 carnival season in the West German city.

Looking like husband's mother bothers wife

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The letter from Patty in Tacoma, the 25-year-old who looks like a teen-ager, has prompted me to write my first Dear Abby letter.

My problem is the reverse. I look much older than I am, but to make matters worse, my husband looks much younger than he is. John and I are both the same age, but I am constantly mistaken for his mother.

Don't tell me to touch up my hair because John says he likes gray hair. (His mother was prematurely gray.) And I know I am overweight, but John says he likes me this way, and he keeps pushing the food at me. I would like to wear more youthful and stylish clothes, but they don't come in my size. Believe me, Abby, I don't enjoy looking like my husband's mother, so what should I do?

FORTY-TWO AND LOOKS LIKE 60

DEAR FORTY-TWO: You may not enjoy-looking like your husband's mother, but apparently your husband enjoys it. If you really want to look younger, announce that you are going on a diet. Then, with your doctor's help, go on one. And wash that gray out of your hair! Your husband may like the new you better. And if he doesn't you'll be stuck with a lovely figure and a dye job which doesn't last very long, anyway.

DEAR ABBY: Much has been said about thoughtless, stingy, selfish people who impose their hard-of-hearing problem on others by refusing to wear a hearing aid.

But there are cases (I am one) where no hearing aid can be of any help. I am not guessing. I have been to the best audiologists in the world, and they agree that the hearing aid that can help me with my kind of deafness has not yet been made.

So what do I do when I cup my ear and strain to hear until I am nearly exhausted, and people look at me as tho to say, "I'll give this cheap dumb-cluck who's deaf and won't wear a hearing aid a hard time and I'll refuse to speak up?"

HARD OF HEARING

DEAR ABBY: Say, "I am hard-of-hearing. And if there were hearing aid made to help my kind of deafness, I'd be wearing one, so if you have something to say to me, please speak up and let me hear it."

DEAR ABBY: How does one introduce stepparents gracefully? My parents are divorced, and they are both married again to wonderful people. Using the term, "step-mother" or "stepfather" seems so unfeeling.

I love my parents very much, and I truly love their new mates, but introductions are so awkward for me. Can you help?

NAMELESS, PLEASE

DEAR NAMELESS: Why not simply introduce them as "my parents?"

DEAR ABBY: This is concerning the young lady whose newly divorced father objected to her calling him "Dad" because he didn't want to give away his age.

The daughter should have readily replied, "Of course I'll not call you 'Dad,' if you can come up with some other way of letting people know I am not dating a man old enough to be my father." Cooperatively yours,

CAROL IN CAMBRIDGE

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Garden Club Wins Honors

The Pampa Garden Club returned with eleven awards from the twenty-sixth annual meeting of District One, Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. held in Lubbock Tuesday and Wednesday.

First place awards were received for Arbor Day, delegate's report, horticulture (bike trail), and the scrapbook. A special recognition citation was received by the club for being the first in the district to place the environmental education books, "People and Their Environment" in every school. The yearbook received second place, and the president's report and history won third place. Sears-Short Form honorable mention was received for PATE project.

Two Pampa students placed in the speech and poster contests "Action Against Pollution." Roger Riggs placed second in the poster contest for grades 7-9, and Suzanne Bond placed second in the speech contest for high school students.

Mrs. James F. Malone, District One director, presided at the business sessions. Also attending from Pampa were Mrs. Joe Curtis, District One director, and Mrs. Wallace Birkes, president-elect, Pampa Garden Club.

Program highlights included a flower arranging demonstration titled "Great Moments from the Movies" illustrating the ten biggest mistakes one can make in flower arranging, a horticulture program on "Iris, their Kith and Kin" and "Environmental-Enhancement" illustrating work of the Park Administration Department by Jackie Bubenik, Texas Tech, scholarship winner of the Texas B Garden Clubs, Inc.

ESA Chapter Holds Jewel Pin Ceremony

A Jewel Pin Ceremony was held recently by the Kappa Alpha chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas building.

The ceremony, conducted by Mrs. Horace Henley, vice president, represents the culmination of a member's introductory pledge period and the beginning of her true sisterhood in ESA.

Receiving their pins were Mmes. Ed Bailey, Floyd Vaughn, Alvin Bicknell, Roy Floyd, Maxine Dunham and Charles Browder.

The business session was led by Mrs. Ray Woodriddle, president, and Mrs. Glenn McConnell presented the program of Easter customs. Mrs. Jerry Dennis was hostess.

Next meeting will be a social April 20, in the home of Mrs. Glenn McConnell, with Mrs. Horace Henley as co-hostess. Members attending were Mmes. Fern Berry, Hunter

Chisum, Jerry Dennis, Horace Henley, Irvin Hungerford, Milton Jones, Glenn McConnell, Joe Miller, Joel Plunk, Tommy Sells, Norman Sublett, Jerry Thompson, Ray Woodriddle and Bob Wost.

Guidelines Considered

COLLEGE STATION—Provisions are being established to provide nutrition information on pre-cooked frozen convenience heat-and-serve dinners.

The Food and Drug Administration will ask manufacturers to follow guidelines voluntarily, but it won't require compliance.

Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said that the proposal would include minimum levels of protein, vitamin A, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, iron and iodine.

"According to the proposal, frozen dinners will contain meat, poultry, fish or cheese protein; potatoes, rice or other cereal-based product; and vegetables other than potatoes, rice or other cereal-based product."

"In addition," Miss Springer said, "dinners may contain other components."

Another aspect of the proposal is that frozen dinners will contain a minimum of 340 calories and state on the label the actual number of calories.

"These proposals are being evaluated," Miss Springer said. "Indeed this will help standardize frozen convenience heat-and-serve dinners."

WIN AT BRIDGE

10-9 Fit for False-Cards

South wins in dummy; leads the three of trumps and plays his queen after East follows with the deuce.

At this time it is up to West to false-card by playing either the nine or 10. If West plays the five South will have to continue by playing the ace of trumps. The king will drop and it will be curtains for the defense.

After the false card South will have a problem. Should that be a play from 10-9 doubleton or from a singleton the winning play would be to go back to dummy and lead the jack of trumps. South won't know and may guess wrong.

CARD Sense

The bidding has been: West 3♠ North 4♥ East 4♠ South 5♥ Pass Pass 5♠ 6♥ Pass Pass 7♥ ?

You, South, hold: ♠K J 8 6 5 ♣A K 10 8 6 4 2 ♠A K J 8 6 5 4 3 2 ♠A Q 10 9 5 4 3

A—Bid seven spades. Your opponents might be using the same tactics you have and spread for seven hearts. You can't be hurt at seven spades and might make it.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Again your partner opens three spades. This time you hold: ♠Q 6 3 2 ♠A 9 4 ♠A 10 2 ♠A 6 3
What do you do?

Newspaper BINGO

WIN

VALUE BINGO
BUCKS!!!

NO OBLIGATION OR PURCHASE NECESSARY: There is no obligation or purchase necessary. A copy of the paper is available for playing the game at the office of this newspaper - also at the public library - also a Bingo card and/or copies of The Pampa Daily News containing the Bingo numbers may be obtained by mailing your request to this newspaper (please print your name and address clearly.). You may play as many cards as you wish - they are free. Get additional cards - one at a time - each day of the week - from the merchants listed below (ADULTS ONLY).

DIFFERENT COLORED CARDS EACH WEEK: The color of the cards changes each week. To be a winner, you must play Bingo cards of the correct color for that week. Mutilated or altered cards will not be honored. ALL 24 NUMBERS on a card must be matched to win.

CHANCE DETERMINES NUMBERS: Bingo numbers for each week's game are drawn strictly at random at the office of this newspaper. Some duplication of Bingo numbers may appear in the merchants' ads or elsewhere in the paper. This duplication does not affect the game or the total numbers drawn. All numbers for each week's game will appear someplace in the sponsoring merchants' ads - and possibly elsewhere in the paper. Employees of this newspaper and members of their families are not eligible to win any of the prizes. Newspaper Bingo is a program copy-righted and registered by Marketing-Research Associates, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Here's How It Works:

PICK UP FREE BINGO CARDS: Each week (adults only, please), pick up your Free Bingo Cards from the sponsoring merchants listed below. Rules of the game allow the merchants to give you only one card on each store visit. You may, however, make as many visits as you wish each day of the week. THE MORE CARDS YOU PLAY, THE BETTER YOUR CHANCES ARE TO WIN.

HOW TO PLAY: Check the ads in EACH DAY'S issue of The Pampa Daily News. The ads of the merchants listed below will contain one or more "Newspaper Bingo" numbers in the "Bingo Bug" symbol (shown above). Occasionally, numbers in the "Bingo Bug" symbol may be found elsewhere in the paper. Check the classified ad section for additional numbers. IF YOU CAN MATCH (JUST CIRCLE OR "X" THE MATCHING NUMBERS) ALL 24 NUMBERS ON ONE OF YOUR BINGO CARDS WITH THE TOTAL OF THE NUMBERS PUBLISHED IN ALL THE ISSUES OF The Pampa Daily News, EACH WEEK-YOU HAVE A "BINGO"!-AND YOU ARE A WINNER!!!

AT LEAST $50.00 WEEKLY! Winners will share a weekly prize of $50.00 (in "Bingo Bucks" - they spend the same as cash with any of the sponsoring merchants listed below). If there is only one winner, he wins all of the $50.00. If there is more than one winner, all winners will share the $50.00 equally. If there are no winners any week, the $50.00 weekly prize will be added to the following week's prize fund.

CHECK EACH ISSUE OF THE PAPER: A new game will start each Sunday and be completed the following Friday. Be sure to check each day's issue of The Pampa Daily News because some of the numbers may appear in each day's issue. All numbers needed to complete each week's game will have appeared by each Friday's issue. A new set of Bingo numbers will be published for each week's game. A new color of Bingo cards will be available each week at the sponsoring merchants' stores. To be eligible to win, you must play Bingo cards of the correct color for that week's game. The color of the cards for each week's game will be announced each week on this page.

IF YOU ARE A WINNER: If you have a winning Bingo card, on which ALL 24 NUMBERS have been matched with the total of the numbers published during the week in The Pampa Daily News print your name, address, phone number, and the name of the store where you got your winning card, on the back of your card and mail to: The Pampa Daily News, P. O. Box 2198 PAMPA, Texas 79065 (the envelope containing your card must be received by 5:00 PM Monday of the following week)-or bring your card to the office of this newspaper at 403 W. Atchison Pampa Texas by 5:00 PM Monday of the following week.

PRICES ARE DOWN!

We have not waited on government price falls to lower our meat prices! Look what has happened... March 16—Meat prices took a drop. March 20—Furr's Prices were cut. For example: Round steak, then $1.09 was lowered to 98¢; Sirloin steak, then $1.09 was lowered to 98¢. Since March 20 Furr's has sold top quality beef for as low as 98¢ a pound on steak cuts, well under its local competition. It has not waited for the government to ask for lower prices. Furr's is proud to lead the way! It pledges a policy of dropping meat prices when the meat packers lowers its prices.

John Cardinal Krol Optimistic About Future Of The Church

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — John Cardinal Krol, a tall, straightforward churchman with respect for the past and confidence in the future, takes over the presiding chair for the first time this week at a meeting of the nation's Roman Catholic bishops.

"I'm thoroughly optimistic about the future of the church," he said in an interview. "But I'm that way on the basis of the church's experience over the centuries. The record of the past is a good record."

That combination of old-fashioned esteem for tradition and zest about the church's present potentialities marks the outlook brought by the archbishop of Philadelphia to the top post in American Catholicism.

"The role of leadership is to obtain progress at the kind of pace that can be maintained without disaffection," he once observed, adding that it sometimes is necessary "to prod the reluctant and to restrain the ones that are running wild."

Generally regarded as a conservative, Cardinal Krol also displays a progressive streak. While vigilant about doctrine and church order, he vigorously has backed moves for Christian unity, increased church efforts for social and racial justice, greater ecclesiastical candor and a halt to the arms race.

The huge, modern stockpiling of arms, he said, is "a form of insanity."

As for church reforms stemming from the Second Vatican Council, he applauds them. "They're helping, without question," he said. But with his characteristic nod to history, he noted that many of the changes are not as new as they seem.

And he still has fish on Friday, although the church rule for it is no more. Why? "I like fish."

In the present cultural atmosphere, he sees indications of an "authentic renewal" of faith, reversing earlier preoccupation with materialism.

"The evidence is all around," he said. "Sometimes we tend not to notice it. As Scripture tells us, we have eyes but don't see and ears but don't hear. But these things are happening. There is a growing search for the transcendent."

On other matters, he voiced disapproval of proposals for election of bishops, but said he would favor a national church council representing priests and laity if it can be worked out feasibly. He said the church celibacy rule will stand, that he foresees no future pastoral role in the church for priests who have married, though some seek it.

He allowed for the future possibility of ordaining women, but doubted the tradition against it will be abandoned. He urged harder work by the church to implement its social teachings and expressed conviction that ecumenical progress eventually will lead to a reunited Christian church.

Cardinal Krol, head of the big Philadelphia archdiocese since 1961 and elected last fall to be president of the American hierarchy, devoted a recent afternoon to an extensive interview on current church issues.

The office conversation extended into an evening's dinner at his home, a big, gray stone house on the city's spacious, landscaped west side, where he lives with two-priest assistants and a cheery domestic crew of white-robed nuns.

The cardinal, 61, a 6-foot, 185-pound man of ramrod-straight bearing and warm, plain-spoken affability, is the only American on a 12-member permanent secretariat for the church's international Synod of Bishops, and is considered one of this country's leading canon lawyers, a field in which he holds a doctorate.

To relax from his busy church schedule, he plays golf, an occasional evening session of cribbage, enjoys a cigar, which he chews rather than smokes. He plays the piano, sings a hearty baritone. He is gracious, urbane, speaks 10 languages. His Polish surname means "king."

The son of a poor but hard-working machinist in Cleveland, he himself went to work after high school as a meat cutter and later as a food store manager. But a question from a Lutheran fellow worker sent him to the theology books and into seminary.

After ordination, he taught canon law and served successively for 18 years as vice chancellor, chancellor and auxiliary bishop in the Cleveland diocese.

During the interview, his big hands traced an expressive counterpoint to his comments on various church issues and conditions. Following is an abstract of the questions and his remarks.

Q. Since a Lutheran's questions led you into the priesthood and now to the head of the U.S. hierarchy, does that suggest God was using Protestantism to fill the top office in Catholicism?

A. "You'd have to ask God that one. We're all God's children. But it actually was this man who was looking for answers that did it. He knew Lutheranism well enough, had done more religious reading than I had—and was asking questions I couldn't answer."

Q. Considering your heavy visiting schedule in parishes and schools here in Philadelphia, will you be able to keep up this personal touch now that you've taken on this new job?

A. "Well, there are two things. One, I like people. I like youngsters. The other is that I have a conviction that actual presence in meeting people on the scene is something which is indispensable to my work."

Q. How do you look on pressures in the church for its people to share more in its decision-making. Do you think they should be involved?

A. "They are and they should be. However, may I say this, while there is this type of involvement, you know very well that you cannot run anything, not even a ribbon shop, by way of a referendum. There has to be both responsible participation and responsible leadership. Both are necessary."

Q. Do you think means will be found for more participation of priests and laity in choosing bishops?

A. "By way of general consultation, yes, but not by election campaigns. I'm in favor of getting people's views and you have to do it, actually. But I'm not in favor of any kind of public campaigning. There is no limit to the consultation. But the church was not established as a democracy."

Q. What about the Canon Law Society's conclusion that some form of election system is bound to come and that the church should get ready for it?

A. "They're stepping out of their field. The field of canon lawyers is not to carry on movements for changing things. Their specialty is supposed to be the law, its promotion, application and so on."

The U.S. Weather Bureau was established in 1870.

Nixon, Trudeau To Discuss Issues Facing Two Nations

OTTAWA (AP)—There are some things obviously wrong with the timing of President Nixon's meeting this week with Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau, but nothing much could have been done about it. The two leaders are getting together at a time when circumstances seem to foreclose any possibility that they can do much to resolve the most complex difficulties between their governments. The atmosphere for the summit may be less than happy, but is just happened that way. The meeting was arranged well before last year's monetary crisis blossomed and the Nixon administration imposed its 10 per cent surcharge on many imports, producing howls of pain from Canada. The frictions that period produced are still much in with the timing of President evidence. There has been no resolution of stubborn economic differences dividing Canada and the United States. None is in prospect. But the presidential visit could not be postponed—circumstances would not permit it. For more than a decade an attrition process has been eroding U.S. Canada relations. Lately the process has accelerated. Washington has been irked by Trudeau at times. It has disliked, for example, his handling of his exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin. Washington felt some debatable things reflecting on the United States were left unanswered. Under Trudeau, too, Canada has been downgrading her role in NATO. There have been other points of mild friction in foreign affairs.

Levines To Celebrate Anniversary With Biggest Sale In Its History

Levins Pampa store has gone undercover in preparations for its 52nd Anniversary Celebration. Store windows at Levines were covered Saturday night to hide the special displays going up for the Anniversary Sale Courtesey Day, tomorrow, from 12 noon until 9 p.m.

According to Jim Wilson, president of Levine Division Zale Corp., "The 52nd Anniversary Sale will be the biggest in Levines history, because we're growing older faster, but thinking younger than ever!"

Wilson explained that the 150-store chain, begun in 1920 by William and Morris Levine with one small dry goods store in Iowa Park, Texas, has always celebrated its anniversary in the summer.

"We moved the Anniversary celebration ahead three months because Spring 1972 is the most exciting fashion season in years," Wilson continued. "Levines buyers have made such outstanding special purchases of Spring fashions and home accessories that we made the obvious decision: to build a great sale around great merchandise values."

The think-young idea, according to Wilson, is the central concept of Levines new five-year program of evaluation and expansion, keyed to the casual lifestyle. "Youth started the trend," Wilson said, "and now today's man and woman also want versatile fashion that goes anywhere and is at home anywhere." Looking ahead, Wilson noted that Levines future plans include redesigning and modernization of existing stores in the 11-state chain, changes in store concept, and new stores in new growth markets.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, April 10th, the 101st day of 1972. There are 265 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1963, it was disclosed that the United States had suffered the worst submarine disaster in its history. The atomic sub Thresher had failed to surface after making a deep dive in the North Atlantic, with a loss of 129 lives.

On this date: In 1790, Congress passed the nation's first patent law.

In 1829, the English religious leader who founded the Salvation Army, William Booth, was born.

In 1847, the American journalist who established the Pulitzer Prize, Joseph Pulitzer, was born.

In 1849, Walter Hunt of New York City received a patent for his invention of the safety pin.

In 1932, Paul von Hindenburg defeated Adolf Hitler in a runoff election for the German presidency.

In 1945, American soldiers liberated the Nazi concentration camp at Buchenwald, Germany.

Ten years ago: Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said literacy tests were a major device to keep Negroes from voting in the South and called on Congress to curb the misuse of the tests.

One year ago: In Ceylon, a rebel force of about 15,000 was fighting against the army in the island's hills.

Today's Birthdays: Former Ambassador Claire Boothe Egyptian actor Omar Sharif is 40.

Thought for Today: Revolutions are not made by men in spectacles. Oliver Wendell Holmes. American jurist, 1841-1935.
