

Larger Army, 3-A Calls Revealed To Committees

Senator Says Forces Will Be 15 Million

Men With Dependents Will Be Inducted By Mid-Summer

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—One senate committee heard testimony today that the nation's armed services will comprise 15,000,000 men instead of 11,000,000 by the end of this year...

The 15,000,000 figure came from Senator Downey (D-Calif.) during testimony on the Austin-Wade-worth bill to mobilize men and women civilians for industrial and agricultural production.

Downey, asserting that unless some such legislation is enacted American armament goals could not be attained, told the committee: "While there is talk about 11,000,000 men in our armed forces by next January, the figure will be closer to 15,000,000."

Meanwhile an appropriations subcommittee made public testimony by Charles F. Taft, assistant director of the office of defense health and welfare services, that "I am convinced from what the selective service people told me, that they are going to get all the 3-A's by the middle of this summer."

The 3-A classification is one given men with dependents. Taft made the statement March 4 while testifying in favor of a $2,973,000 fund, later approved by the full committee, to make grants to the states for the care of children of employed mothers.

He asserted that "as soon as you start drafting the 3-A's—which, according to what selective service has told me, will be pretty complete by the middle of the summer—you will have an increased number of employed women, who have husbands in the army. Many of them won't be able to live on the same standard when they get their allowances, and they will go to work."

Taft's and Downey's assertions came as the senate took up legislation to defer farm workers from military service and as the first move developed toward legislative restrictions on the size of the army.

Senator Revercomb (RWVa.) urged blanket deferment of all farm workers in a floor speech in which he declared that a crop shortage this year "might bring disaster."

Asserting that the time for planning is at hand, the first-term West Virginian added that "action must be taken at once on this subject or it must be forgotten for 1943."

He criticized an amendment offered by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) as likely to be ineffective because it calls for exemption of only "essential farmers."

As the controversy widened, a special White House committee of top ranking presidential consultants called a meeting to draft an initial report on how men and women best can be mobilized for war work.

The committee, composed of Harry Hopkins, James F. Byrnes, Admiral William D. Leahy, Bernard M. Baruch and Justice Samuel I. Rosennan, meets amid persistent reports that the whole civilian war organization may be overhauled.

The roll will be called late today after debate on several proposed amendments. Even though republican and democratic leaders expressed confidence the bill would win overwhelming approval, the assertion of U. S. Ambassador William H. Standley in Moscow that the Russian people are not being told the full story of American aid still excited comment.

Reaction in congress was mixed. It ranged from the suggestion of Chairman Sumners (D-Tex) of the house judiciary committee that this nation "be patient," to the

GROVER C. DUNHAM

Dunham, Robinson Offer Their Names For Reelection

Formal order for the annual city election—on Tuesday, April 6—was voted by the commission in a meeting Tuesday evening, and simultaneously two members whose terms expire this year—Grover C. Dunham and T. J. A. Robinson—filed for reelection.

Neither man had expressed a desire to be a candidate again, but both agreed, at the insistence of fellow commissioners, to stand for reelection. Commissioners whose terms continue for another year are R. L. Cook, W. S. Satterwhite and J. B. Collins.

Dunham, serving as mayor, joined the commission by appointment in 1937, and was reelected in 1939 and 1941. Robinson, mayor pro tem, is concluding his second term, having first been named in 1939.

It was the consensus of other members of the council that Dunham and Robinson had served actively through the period of municipal problems incident to establishment of the bombardier school, and that they were in position to work further as commissioners for the welfare of the city in meeting wartime problems.

Branded by opponents as a slap at organized labor "which is fighting and winning the war" and labeled by friends as a protection to working people, union or non-union, the bill was passed after an hour of sharp debate.

The measure, by Rep. Durwood Manford of Smiley, requires unions to register with the secretary of state; report their financial activities; limit fees charged by unions to amounts needed to meet "reasonable" expenses of unions; requires that union officials, organizers and agents must be Texas citizens if their organizations operate wholly in Texas; and compels unions to file copies of working agreements where a check-off of dues or other union charges is involved.

Earlier Rep. Obel McAllister of Fort Worth introduced a motion to postpone consideration for 30 days. McAllister urged that a final vote be withheld so members could study operation and effect of a non-strike, non-work stoppage agreement between Governor Coke R. Stevenson and Texas labor groups. His motion was defeated.

"In fairness to labor and the governor let's wait on this bill," he asked. Manford, asserting the measure had been considered several times by the house, declared McAllister's motion was intended to kill his bill.

"I'm in accord with the governor-labor pact but my bill has only to do with abuses within labor unions," he declared.

The president sent out invitations to the gathering several weeks ago, shortly after some 40 new democratic house members banded together to obtain more recognition in the formulation of legislative policies and at a time when house republicans appeared to be having their own way on many roll call votes.

Statement of Senator Wheeler (D-Mont) that "Stalin is a realist—he's for Russia first and last," Senator Wiley (R-Wis) called it all a "tempest in a teapot."

Teapot tempest or not, these developments followed Standley's statements: 1. Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles said he had called Standley for a text of his remarks and emphasized to reporters that they were made without consultation with Washington.

2. The Moscow radio broadcast the complete text of a recent lend lease report listing the amount and nature of war supplies shipped from the United States to Russia. Senator Wheeler, informed of this, remarked: "Notwithstanding the fact that the state department repudiated Admiral Standley, the Standley statement apparently did some good."

Thousands of civilians, mingling with men of all branches of the armed services, jammed Canal street last night and bought $1,192,000 in war bonds, rally officials announced.

Eighth Army Stabbing At Mareth Line

Rommel Lost More Than He Can Afford In His Attacks

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 10 (AP)—The British Eighth army, after dealing crippling blows to Marshal Erwin Rommel's armor, has begun harassing and probing activities all along the Mareth line in southern Tunisia, an Allied headquarters announcement said today.

Decisively repulsed last Saturday when he abandoned 50 of his tanks in six attempted thrusts into eighth army positions from his fixed fortifications, Rommel lost two more of his armored machines in the latest clash with Allied patrols, the communique said.

"We know we had won the first round and the enemy is showing willingness to come up for round two," an Allied military source commented today. "We know he has lost more armor than he can afford."

Elsewhere on the 250-mile Tunisian front activity was light, and even most of the armor was forced by bad weather to take a day off. Allied patrols were "extremely active" in northern Tunisia where the British first army is stationed, particularly in the Sedjenane area, the communique said.

The Germans showed little activity there. In the central sector the French completed their occupation of Touzer and sent out reconnaissance parties toward Gafsa, 50 miles to the northeast.

Continuing to pile up the damage done to Rommel, who made six abortive thrusts from the Mareth line last Saturday, the Allies now counted 23 tanks among his losses. Two more enemy tanks had been destroyed yesterday when 80 of his machines were found abandoned.

The weather abruptly restricted the activity in the air, the communique said, and only patrols were flown by the American and British air forces.

Hawaii Returning To Civil Control

HONOLULU, March 10 (AP)—Military government over the territory of Hawaii gives way in part today to civil government after 15 months and three days—ever since the Japanese sneak aerial attack on Pearl Harbor drew the United States into the second world war.

The restoration becomes effective formally at a ceremony at 10 a. m. (3:30 p. m. Central Standard Time) in historic Iolani palace. In the presence of a joint session of the Hawaiian legislature, Territorial Governor I. M. Stainback, Admiral Chester H. Nimitz and Lieut. Gen. Delos Emmons effect the formal transfer of powers.

The 18 military government agencies, mostly emergency organizations established under military rule, are being restored to civilian control. Martial law, however, remains in effect and civil writs of habeas corpus still are suspended.

The latest raid on Munda in which one of the heaviest bombing forces of recent weeks poured explosives on the enemy air field was the 57th made there.

Biggest RAF Bombers Hit At Munich

LONDON, March 10 (AP)—Britain's biggest bombers took to the air last night to blast Munich, cradle of the Nazi party and seat of important war industries, in the 12th RAF assault upon the continent in 14 nights, it was announced today.

Last night aircraft of the bomber command made a heavy attack on industrial objectives at Munich, a British air ministry communique said. "Other aircraft bombed targets in western Germany and laid mines in enemy waters."

"Eleven of our aircraft are missing." It was the second consecutive night that the RAF into southern Germany. The big British bombers made the 1,900-round trip raid to Munich after a heavy assault on Nurnberg Monday night in which Swiss press reports said the old center of that Nazi party stamping ground was razed.

The Germans in broadcasts early today admitted damage had been done in the Munich assault and complained that "cultural places" were damaged. Canadians, who again participated strongly in the attack, said the entire heart of Munich appeared to be "one big fire" at one time, with one explosion shooting flames nearly 2,000 feet into the air.

Jap Bases In Burma Are Hit

NEW DELHI, India, March 10 (AP)—United States fighters, carrying light bombs and machine-guns, yesterday resumed extensive attacks against Japanese installations in northern Burma, an American communique announced today.

Seven direct hits were scored on a bridge in Mogaung, cutting the north approach and leaving the center span sagging, and the town of Mogaung itself was shrouded with fragmentation bombs. A column of black smoke visible for 60 miles was believed to have come from a blown-up ammunition dump and oil depot.

Enemy landing fields at Kameang and Manyet were strafed, and a convoy of 12 motor vehicles and buildings at Wasat and Tingpair were attacked from low altitude.

A fire was started at Matungkean and bombs were dropped on railroad installations at Momywa and factory buildings at Myingyan. No American aircraft were lost, the communique said.

The governor also named Dr. Austin M. Long of Valley Mills, Bosque county, to succeed Joe Frost of San Antonio and Herman C. Custard of Cleburne to succeed Max Junker of Dallas. Frost and Junker resigned. Childers, Wemple and Banks replace respectively D. Irving McCree of Temple, and Dr. J. C. Blair of Kerens whose terms have expired.

Ordnance Output Hits Record High

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—American ordnance manufacturers today had a mass of 50 high speed shells a minute and 500 cartridges a second to shoot at during March production.

That was their production record during February, Undersecretary of War Robert T. Patterson reported yesterday, disclosing that the shops and arsenals turned out 419,000 bombs, 7,500 weapon-bearing combat vehicles and 1,244,000,000 cartridges in the month.

In January and February, he said, they produced 150,000 machine guns, 134,000 sub-machine guns, 5,000 tanks, 28,000 army trucks, 2,000 anti-tank guns and 5,000,000 pairs of marching shoes.

Class 43-4 Men To Get Commissions, Wings Tomorrow

From the Big Spring bombardier school Thursday will go forth another group of men trained in the art of aerial attack, 12 weeks of instruction behind them and ahead of their possible assignment into combat.

They are members of class 43-4, the school's fifth and a class approximately as large as the record 43-5. Commissions and wings will be presented as a climax to graduation ceremonies to be held at the post theatre beginning at 9:30.

The principal graduation address will be made by Don H. Morris, prominent Texas educator and president of Abilene Christian college. Response for the class will be by 2nd Lt. James Spann, a Texan, who has three brothers in the service.

It will be the school's first graduation without Col. Sam L. Ellis, commandant who died unexpectedly Monday afternoon. But while officers and cadets mourn his passing, they will be carrying on the business of war training as they feel their commanding officer wanted it. Diplomas will be presented by the succeeding C. O., Lt. Col. David Wade, and wings will be awarded by Maj. William M. Hendrix, commander of the 2nd training group. The officer's oath will be administered by 1st Lt. Richard T. Allen.

Ceremonies will be inaugurated with the invocation by Rev. R. Fourth Street Baptist church, and by songs—the Air Corps song and the bombardier song—by Sgt. Kling and the post orchestra. The program will be concluded with audience singing of the Star Spangled Banner and benediction by Chaplain Patterson.

The program, in addition to Lt. Col. Wade, lists these officers: department of training—Capt. Fred L. McGinn, Jr., assistant to the director; 2nd Lt. Myron J. Roskopf, assistant director of ground instruction; 1st Lt. Richard T. Allen, secretary; Capt. Chester H. Draper, commandant of cadets. Major Hendrix commands the second group and Lt. Col. Wm. R. J. P. Morgan Said Slightly Improved

BOCA GRANDE, Fla., March 10 (AP)—Slight but definite improvement in the condition of financier J. P. Morgan who is suffering from a recurrence of an old heart ailment, was reported by his representatives today.

A bulletin issued at 9:50 a. m. (CWT) in New York read: "There has been a slight definite improvement over the past 24 hours in Mr. Morgan's condition."

The latest word to come from Gasparilla Inn, where three doctors are in attendance at the bedside of the 75-year-old international banker, was from Jack Vaisley, the manager, who said Morgan was resting easily, although his condition continued grave.

It was a week after he had been stricken that the first news of Morgan's illness was made public yesterday in a New York bulletin from famed 23 Wall street, where his simple desk is the hub of huge financial enterprises.

Authoritative sources that cannot be quoted said Economic Stabilization Director James F. Byrnes and Price Administrator Prentiss Brown had decided to impose ceilings on hogs at around $14.50 per hundred pounds, Chicago basis, or about $1.50 below recent top prices, and to increase corn ceilings from $1 to $1.06 a bushel, Chicago basis.

Withholding Levy Given Approval

Issue Of Current Payments Must Go Before House

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The house ways and means committee today approved a compromise income tax collection plan imposing a 20 per cent withholding levy on taxable portions of all wages and salaries and leaving to each individual the option of remaining a year behind in tax payments or "doubling-up" taxes in one year and going on a pay-as-you-go basis.

No tax abatement is provided. The withholding levy against pay envelopes and salary checks would become effective July 1.

The committee thus abandoned all long-debated current tax collection proposals and transferred to the house floor the issue of whether one tax year should be cancelled to put all taxpayers on a pay-as-you-go basis, as proposed by Boardley Ruml, New York banker.

Approving the compromise plan were 15 democrats and one republican, Gearhart of California. Nine republicans were in opposition.

The republicans issued a statement saying "the mountain has labored and brought forth a mouse," and "it is obvious that the house will have to take the matter into its own hands if taxpayers are to be made current."

The 20 per cent withholding levy (covering both income and victory taxes) would not be an additional tax, but a means of collection against actual taxes.

A spokesman for the ways and means committee gave this explanation: "The plan continues the existing system of collecting the individual income tax with the following exemptions:

"1. Collections in 1942—start withholding as to wages and salaries on July 1, 1942, at a 20 per cent rate (on the taxable portion of this income). The tax collected at the source will be applied against the current 1943 tax due from the tax year (last part of 1942). To the extent that any tax collected at the source exceeds the 1943 tax liability it will be credited against the tax for 1943 or subsequent years.

"2. In the case of new taxpayers whose entire tax liability has been withheld at the source the amount withheld will be credited against the 1943 tax when their returns are filed in 1944. This would affect approximately 4,000,000 new taxpayers.

"3. The plan would do the same thing with those taxpayers who have paid in full their 1942 obligation by July 15.

"4. In the case of those taxpayers whose tax liability is above the withholding rate and those in the first bracket having income other than wages and salaries, they will go ahead and pay their third and fourth installments in 1942, on September 15 and December 15, but the amount of these payments would be the affected part of 1943 obligation, minus payments made under the withholding levy.

"5. The committee is considering a plan to offer a small discount to taxpayers who elect to pay off the past year in full and bring themselves to a current basis. No decision has been reached on the amount of this percentage. (Although 5 or 10 per cent has been discussed). The committee is considering also moving the date for filing returns back from March 15 to an earlier date and the possibility of persons with income other than wages and salaries paying taxes for one year in the subsequent year by a single payment at the time of filing the return, or, at the election of the taxpayer on a monthly basis instead of the present quarterly payments."

DON H. MORRIS

Reds Forced Back South Of Kharkov

MOSCOW, March 10 (AP)—Forced to fall back for about 100 miles over newly-won ground south of Kharkov and in the Donets basin, the Red army today was fighting its bitterest defensive battles since the beginning of its series of winter offensives last November.

Soviet dispatches claimed, however, that the heavy German rush was being held after the surrender of eight key towns despite the fact that the enemy had superior numbers in the area and was attacking violently.

In at least one sector south of Kharkov it was said the Germans had been forced to retreat. On the central front, however, the Red army continued to push westward from Gzhatsk, 100 miles west of Moscow, and southward and southwestward from Rzhnev and got within striking distance of the tip of the German salient at Vyazma.

Farther to the north Marshal Semon Timoshenko's hard-hitting offensive pushed the Germans closer into their fortress of Staraya Russa below Lake Ilmen by capturing Stara Ramushevo and Novo Ramushevo, only 15 miles from their objective.

East of Vyazma they arrived at Temkino and Tumakovo, which are only about 12 or 15 miles from the German base.

(The German high command, carrying out another of its withdrawal "according to plan," announced the evacuation of Bely, 80 miles southwest of Rzhnev and about the same distance northwest of Vyazma. The communique claimed fresh advances in the Kharkov sector, however.)

New Air Command Set Up In China

By The Associated Press. Creation of a full-fledged U.S. air force command in China, fulfilling a hope long cherished by the Chinese, was officially announced today and some quarters declared it marked the beginning of a new phase in the war against Japan.

Military observers said the announcement clearly indicated a sizeable expansion of American air power in the China theater and possibly heralded new bombing attacks on Japan.

Heretofore, China has had the services of only part of the 10th U.S. air force, with headquarters in India.

Under the new setup, the newly activated 14th U.S. Air Force under the command of Brig. Gen. Claire L. Chennault will replace the old China air task force.

On the far Pacific fighting fronts, American-built Liberator bombers of the RAF attacked enemy positions in Japanese-occupied Burma, while Japan showed a resurgence of aerial strength in the New Guinea theater.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said a formation of 26 Japanese bombers and 21 fighters attacked the Allied mountain outpost at Wau in New Guinea yesterday, but caused only light casualties.

Downtown Stroller

Mr. and Mrs. MATT HARRINGTON were in the office the other day for a brief visit. Mrs. HARRINGTON is back to stay awhile again and MATT is off to Amarillo for further flight training. Talked awhile with WILRENA RICHBOURG, who told that she heard ERNEST WINDOM was transferred from California to Pennsylvania. Seems that ERNEST has just about covered the country side since his induction into the army. It was a Big Spring get together in Vernon not long ago, when MIKE MOORE, who is stationed at Childress, walked into the store where Mrs. EDITH MAE WILLIAMSON is working. They really got in some good visiting about the old home town.

It looked like a family get-together the other night at the movies with Mr. and Mrs. M. EDWARDS, Mr. and Mrs. YOOT'S MANSFIELD, and Lieut. and Mrs. WOODROW FERGUSON all seeing the show together. Mrs. MANSFIELD is the former MARY NELL EDWARDS and Mrs. FERGUSON the former ANNABELLE EDWARDS. We love what S/SGT. CHARLES R. SIKES writes his mother about India, where he has just safely landed. He claims it is just like Big Spring with sand blowing all the time. Maybe this section of West Texas will acclimate anybody for India climate.

Had a chat with CPL. DAVE TABOLOWSKY the other morning. He got a few days leave from Childress and was starting his figuring on income tax to be paid. That and other business matters were going to keep him busy during his furlough he decided.

Higher Dairy Prices Sought

WASHINGTON, March 10 (UP)—Sensory investigating reports of the wholesale slaughter of dairy cattle for beef called today for an immediate increase in ceiling prices of dairy products to a level high enough to prevent shortages. Asserting that some high government officials had displayed an apparent lack of familiarity with the dairy industry in freezing prices, a senate agriculture subcommittee sharply suggested that in the future when such problems are under consideration, "indications are that unless cost of production can be reduced or at least held stationary and unless more labor is available to dairymen, the crisis in the industry will become stringently acute by the latter part of the summer," the report said.

Chairman Smith (D-SC) and Senators Wheeler (D-Mont), Stewart (D-Tenn), Aiken (R-Vt), and Bushfield (R-SD), compose the subcommittee which has been surveying the entire field of food production, transportation and distribution. The report said witnesses had testified that ceiling prices placed milk values to the producer at less than the cost of production in some instances and "many farmers already have been forced out of business."

St. Patrick's Day theme was used in the refreshments. Others attending were Mrs. O. P. Griffin, Mrs. J. E. McCoy, Mrs. H. R. Verela, Mrs. A. C. Locke of Houston, Mrs. George W. Hall, Mrs. T. E. Baker, Mrs. Glass Glenn, Mrs. Harry Lees.

Hotels, Restaurants May Be Considered As 'Necessary'

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The War Manpower Commission, stressing the importance all services develop in war-crowded communities, has given its regional directors authority to class hotels and restaurants as "locally necessary," it was learned today. Informed sources, who declined to be named, said this action, which may be broadened in the future to cover still other lines not on the national list of essential activities, was taken to aid hotels and restaurants in getting employees. Without it, they said, food and lodging establishments would be unable to get U. S. Employment Service offices in crowded war centers to hire workers for them.

Reversal Asked On High Court's 'Freedom' Ruling

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The supreme court was asked today to override its 5-to-4 decision of last June that the exercise of free speech, press and religion may be limited by legislative bodies "in times, places and methods" not at odds with the preservation of peace and good order. Reargument was due in a case upholding the constitutionality of municipal license taxes on the sale of literature. Since the June ruling Justice Byrnes, who voted with the majority, has been succeeded by Justice Rutledge, who, while a member of the United States court of appeals for the District of Columbia, voted to hold similar legislation unconstitutional. If the previous line-up of the court is maintained, Justice Rutledge, who took his seat last Feb. 15, will cast the deciding vote. In last June's decision, Justice Roberts, Reed, Frankfurter and Jackson termed such licensing taxation unconstitutional, and Chief Justice Stone and Justices Black, Douglas and Murphy dissented. Should the decision be overruled, it will constitute one of the quickest supreme court reversals in many years. The court agreed to reconsider the ruling after Justice Byrnes resigned to become economic stabilization director. The request for reargument came from members of the religious organization " Jehovah's Witnesses" who had been convicted of violating the contested ordinances in Opelika, Alabama; Fort Smith, Arkansas; and Casa Grande, Arizona.

That Extra Something!

... You can spot it every time

ALL America values the extra service that the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps brings to the war effort. And Americans, too, set store by the simple things that help build morale. Ice-cold Coca-Cola, for example, does a special job in refreshing folks. You know from experience that its taste is deliciously different. And Coca-Cola does more than quench thirst. It brings a delightful after-sense of refreshment that never fails to please. Choicest ingredients and 57 years of experience have helped make it the best-liked soft drink on earth. An original creation to begin with, the taste, refreshment and quality of Coca-Cola set it apart. So make sure you get the real thing. There's no comparison.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called Coke. Both mean the same thing... "coming from a single source, and well known to the community."

Army needs some first. That's why you see plenty of Coke at Post Exchanges. In civil life, Coca-Cola being first choice sells out first, now that there's less of it in wartime.

THE best is always the better buy!

Importance Of Morale Factor In Deferment Request Of Kay Kyser

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—From the self-styled "professor of the college of musical knowledge"—Kay Kyser—to the president of the United States went a question today that could not be answered by tune: Is morale-building a qualification for draft deferment?

Clean Your Plate And Don't Worry About Shortages

NEW YORK, March 29 (AP)—Rake that second helping off your plate if you're worried about a food shortage.

The nation has been on an eating binge, says Roy F. Hendrickson, chief of the Food Distribution Administration, in effect pointing an accusing finger at civilians whose eyes are figuratively bigger than their stomachs.

Asserting last night that the eating spree would be ended by government determination of an adequate civilian diet, Hendrickson said:

"Today we have to start with this question: Just what and how much must we keep at home? Then we can proceed to allocate the rest for war purposes."

"The amount of food which we could use to military advantage in this truly global war is almost limitless. Thus, every bit that we can spare from our tables is that much more to go to war."

He addressed the annual dinner of the Advertising Women of New York, Inc., where practice was lent to his preaching by the serving of a meatless four-course dinner instead of the usual eight courses.

The adequate civilian diet to be determined by the government "may not be as much as some of us think we want," Hendrickson said, adding, "we need not go hungry and unless we are stubborn we need not be improperly nourished."

Some Inquiries On New Housing Lease Program

Interest on the part of property owners appears to be increasing in the lease conversion housing program made operative here last week by representatives of the Federal Home Owners Loan corporation.

The showman serves without pay as a program consultant for OWI's radio committee.

In connection with the case, an OWI official disclosed that the agency has asked for draft deferments for several other celebrities holding similar posts in the past, but that the practice was discontinued two months ago.

Douglas Messervey, head of OWI's radio committee, named the eight as Bob Hope, Edgar Bergen, Nelson Eddy, Lanny Ross, Red Skelton, Freeman Gosden (of the team of Amos 'n' Andy), Harold Peary (the Great Gildersleeve) and Kyser.

Kyser, Bergen and Skelton are the only unmarried members of the group and Kyser, Ross, Skelton and Peary are the only members under 40, Messervey said.

Kyser's case is the only one that has reached the appeal stage and, although the OWI no longer asks deferment for other than full-time, salaried members of its staff in key positions, Messervey added, the agency is supporting him because his case has stretched out for "four or five months" and withdrawal now would be unfair.

NEW YORK, March 30 (AP)—Stocks today extended Tuesday's downward curve, but the market received good support at the lower levels and volume tended to diminish on the decline.

Three-Fourths Of Farmers Sign For War Production

M. Weaver, county administrative assistant, said Wednesday that the farmers were continuing to sign at an encouraging rate for their 1943 war production goals.

He estimated that by the end of the week more than 75 per cent of them would have executed their work sheets and have accepted war crop goals for this year.

Emphasis is being placed this year on as prompt a sign-up as possible, and it had been hoped that most would be through in the first two weeks of the campaign which theoretically ends Saturday.

Legislation No 'Absentee' Cure, Says Mrs. Perkins

WASHINGTON, March 29 (AP)—Secretary of Labor Perkins told the house naval committee today that the "cause and nature of absenteeism are such that legislation is almost certain not to be the real corrective and may result in delaying practical solution by industry and labor."

She appeared before the committee as it neared the end of its public hearings on an anti-absenteeism measure designed to put service uniforms on able-bodied, draft-age men who take unwarranted holidays from their work in war industries.

"The bill which your committee is considering would not, I fear, solve the problem either of absenteeism or of production, x x x The problem before us is to control and discourage absenteeism without having to discharge men as a disciplinary measure in a time

Waner Brothers Together Again, On Brooklyn Club

Lloyd Joins Paul Through Philly Trade

NEW YORK, March 10 (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers have brought the Waner brothers together for the third time on a major league baseball club. The outfield act that worked the fans for 14 years in Pittsburgh and for a short time in Boston now is going into a rehearsal for a Brooklyn appearance. Paul was picked up during the winter as a free agent and Lloyd was acquired yesterday in the trade that sent Babe Dahlgren to Philadelphia. Paul, older by four years and now approaching 40, joined the Pittsburgh club in 1926 and preceded his brother to the big top by one season. For years the pair has been known as "Big and Little Poison," a nickname picked up when the Pirates in 1927 bottled the New York Yankees in the world series and a Pittsburgh fan, not too familiar with the Buccaneers, in a heavy accent called a fellow spectator to identify the "big person on our club."

Paul, now one of three National league players ever to connect for 3,000 hits, was pointed out and his younger brother automatically became "Little Poison."

It was during this season that Paul won the first of his three league batting championships and was declared the loop's most valuable player. And it wasn't their fault that the Pirates lost the world title in four straight to the Yankees as Lloyd batted .400 in the series and Paul .353. The Waner brothers' products like the Dean brothers of St. Louis Cardinal fame, bear little resemblance to ball players. They are slight, dapper fellows and neither, swinging his favorite bat, will push the scales to 160 pounds. Neither has the habits of a ball player, Paul frankly admitting that he sometimes goes an entire week without eating a steak and when it is hot I sometimes go a week without steak," says Big Poison. "Frankly, I don't think meat is the most digestible food in the summer time."

It was Paul who astounded baseball players and doctors last summer by admitting that he was so near-sighted he could not read the signs on the stadium walls in which he played. But Lloyd's eye-sight is okay. During his many years at Pittsburgh he struck out only once in every 40 times at bat. Lloyd is the faster of the two outfielders, but it is an attribute for which Paul claims credit. During their youth Father Waner gave his two sons an acre of melons. For months the two guarded them only to have the largest one disappear a few days before it became dead ripe. It wasn't until the two followed the footsteps of the "thief" that Paul noticed the resemblance between them and those of brother Lloyd. "I have never been able to catch him since," proudly says Paul.

Britons Appeal For Continuation Of Athletics

PHILADELPHIA, March 10 (AP)—The enemy has teased plenty of bombs around on Malta—called the most blasted spot in the world—but there's been more soccer and tennis balls hurled there during this war than explosives. Commander J. S. Barry of the British Royal Navy Submarine Forces said so yesterday, in emphasizing the value of competitive sports in the training and conditioning of fighting men. Commander Barry spoke before the Philadelphia Optimist club after Lieut. J. B. Bengston, U. S. N. bureau of aeronautics, voiced a plea for the continuance of competitive athletics, which he said make young men better subjects for training in all branches of warfare. "Perhaps you'll find it hard to believe, but sports still go on in Malta," Commander Barry said. "Dugouts or air-raid shelters are handy to the football fields. That'll give you an idea of the value we put on sports. "Four days after the British had chased the Italians out of Somaliland, the British navy had constructed a football (soccer) pitch. British and American servicemen have engaged in athletics at every port at which I have ever stopped."

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, March 10 (AP)—With a Brooklyn outfielder squad composed of 41-year-old Johnny Cooney; Paul Waner, who'll be 40 before the season starts; Lloyd Waner, 36; Dixie Walker, 32, and Joe Medwick, 31, Boss Branch Rickey might be accused of trying to work an old dodger on the fans. . . . It's a little different with the Indians, who farmed Ted Scopkowlak out to Baltimore so he could finish his high school course before being inducted into the army. . . . Johnny Cooney's son busted a hand recently knocking a fellow out. He'll never be a Dodger if he's that brittle.

IF BURNED HIM UP
When George Von Elm, former national amateur golf champion, shot a wild one into a trap at Los Angeles Lakeside course recently, he found his ball had rolled into a paper bag. . . . George isn't used to being in traps, or bags either, but the situation didn't stump him. . . . He merely lit a match, burned the bag and then played his shot. . . . Wonder if the match could be counted as his 15th club?

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Paul Minton, Baltimore Evening Sun: "The state senate committee of Arkansas didn't pass a law making the University of Arkansas hire a $12,500 football coach; it simply recommended it. And there's more to the recommendation. The new coach's job is to produce a skilled, colorful and victorious team. . . . That's a tough enough job in the Southwest conference in peacetime without tackling it now."

SERVICE DEPT.
Two former all-American linemen from Michigan, Dutch Slaughter and Ralph Hotkisson, have turned from football coaching to teaching aerial navigation at the University of Virginia navy flight preparatory school. Head Coach Frank Murray and basketball tutor Gus Tebell are teaching the same subject, which has nothing to do with forward passing. . . . Holt-Rast, ex-Alabama end, is Maj. Gen. Jimmy Doolittle's liaison officer in northern Africa. . . . Pvt. Norman Ruble, who's scheduled to fight Joe Goetz on the Sammy Angott-Willie Pop card here March 15, is stationed at Fort Riley, Kas., which also is known as Joe Louis' headquarters.

Play Equipment At Parks Given Inspection

Workers are giving the city park and other playground areas the annual "once over" to insure safe operation of play devices. All equipment at the city park is being checked, said B. J. McDaniel, city manager, and seesaws are being replaced where the need is shown. Similarly, swings are being given new seats in many instances and chains and links are being checked, the latter being replaced where there appears to be wear. The golf course is steadily being improved with the smoothing of some rough spots and clearance of shrubs. Playground equipment at the American Business club park on the West Side and the Mexican Plaza also are being checked and replaced if warranted. At the city park, wire netting was removed from tennis courts due to seeming unpopularity of the material, and it was announced that those who wished to play would have to furnish their own nets.

Porker Grid Squad Short

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., March 10 (AP)—If the University of Arkansas was called upon to open the 1943 football campaign this week, Coach Eugene Lambert would be able to muster at least 21 candidates. This roster includes nine lettermen and seven who were reserves last fall. There are only seven survivors of the once formidable 1942 freshman squad of some 40 candidates. "We'll probably lose many of these boys before the fall campaign starts," Lambert admitted, "but we'll also have available many who are to complete their high school careers this spring. Contacts made during the winter indicate we will get a big majority of Arkansas boys planning to attend college this fall."

Lambert said spring practice will start April 1 and continue for a month. "Building bodies and toughening men's muscles is a first essential in combat preparation," said Robnett. When the going was the roughest in football, it was the best conditioned team that won. "I think I know something about conditioning muscles, and I'm anxious to help make the men here as tough as they come, through a well coordinated physical training program."

Terracing Work Going Full Swing

Terracing is going full swing in Howard county as farmers employ conservation measures that are calculated to pay production dividends immediately as well as over a period of years. With the line running back-log exhausted, the Soil Conservation Service was watching the progress of terracing efforts, which after all constitute the pay-off on establishment of line terraces.

At latest reports there were eight whirlwind type machines throwing up terraces in various sections of the county, there was prospect that three others were in action, and three other farmers were employing plows to construct the ridges which will hold soil and water to fields. C. H. DeVaney, Coahoma, had resumed contract operations with his machine and was reported on the Loveless and Shive farms. R. D. Parker, another contractor, was working two machines on the C. T. McCauley estate. R. L. Warren had a machine going on his place, and J. I. Iden was working his field, too. Kilpatrick and Denton, who farm a section at Richland, were running a whirlwind unit on their place, and M. L. Hamlin, north of Fairview, and E. T. O'Daniel, Coahoma, were constructing terraces on their places. In the absence of reports, SCS officials honored R. E. Martin, W. W. Lay and M. H. Ulmer (who plans to operate night and day) were also running their machines. G. T. Palmer was utilizing disc plows and a small grader on his farm and L. E. Lomax was using a disc while H. O. Phillips was going after his with a mouldboard plow.

Jeff Davis Boys Could Play Again, Except For War
HOUSTON, March 10 (AP)—Except for the war Jeff Davis High would be favored to win the state basketball title again next year. All except three members of the 11-man squad could be eligible in 1944 because they won't reach their eighteenth birthday until after May 1, the interscholastic league deadline. Since lowering of the draft age to 18, most of the boys are looking forward to military service before the year is out. The department announced yesterday that it had taken him into custody as a dangerous enemy alien, adding that Attorney General Biddle has publicly stated that internment should follow denaturalization in such cases. Meyer once declared, the FBI said, that Germany would win the war and that such a victory would be a blessing. Meyer arrived at Houston in 1904 and was naturalized there in 1935. He was born at Nurnberg, Germany, in 1904.

Dr. Meyer Put Under Arrest

WASHINGTON, March 10 (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation has arrested Dr. Heinrich K. M. Meyer, 38, former professor of German at Rice Institute, Houston, Tex., as a result of denaturalization proceedings in federal district court at Houston. Meyer once declared, the FBI said, that Germany would win the war and that such a victory would be a blessing. Meyer arrived at Houston in 1904 and was naturalized there in 1935. He was born at Nurnberg, Germany, in 1904.

State Scholastic League Meet May 6-8

AUSTIN, March 10 (AP)—Most schools have indicated they intend to send representatives to the state literary and track and field tournament here May 6-7-8, interscholastic league officials announced. As a transportation-saving matter, county and district meets were abandoned this year. Regional contests are scheduled April 24.

Pvt Robnett Is Putting Muscles On U. S. Airmen

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY AIR FORCES ADVANCED FLIGHT SCHOOL, BRYAN, Tex., March 10 (AP)—All-American footballer Marshall Robnett, who ran interference for big John Kimbrough for many a Texas A&M touchdown is now preparing to run interference for the army air forces here. Private First Class Robnett enlisted at Lubbock five months ago and was recently transferred here. He works in the physical training department.

"Building bodies and toughening men's muscles is a first essential in combat preparation," said Robnett. When the going was the roughest in football, it was the best conditioned team that won. "I think I know something about conditioning muscles, and I'm anxious to help make the men here as tough as they come, through a well coordinated physical training program."

Titlists Coming Back For Border Olympic Tests

LAREDO, March 10 (AP)—Last year's college-university and high school champions in the Border Olympics will compete in the eleventh annual event Friday as favorites to retain their titles. Entries last night—with still a day of open lists to go—stood at 22 high schools, seven service teams, and seven colleges. The University of Texas' big, well-balanced team, winner in 1942, topped the collegians, and Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio, which won last year's high school honors, was to be back with a strong group. College-university entries included: Texas, Texas A&M, Oklahoma A&M, East Texas State, Southwest Texas State, Southwestern and North Texas State.

San Antonio Franchise On The Block

FORT WORTH, March 10 (AP)—At least one major league club is ready to close permanently its Texas league farm, according to Rogers Hornsby, general manager of the Fort Worth Cats. That club, said Hornsby, is the St. Louis Browns.

"I got it straight from Bill DeWitt, boss of the Browns," the Cat manager declared, "that the San Antonio franchise is for sale for one-eighth of the amount of cash that is held in reserve by the Texas league. That amount is something like $40,000—so the San Antonio franchise can be had for about $5,000." The Browns are offering nothing except the franchise. San Antonio owns no players and has no property. The club has been using a park owned by the public schools.

Two Other Players Lost By Detroit

DETROIT, March 10 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers today removed the names of two more players from a roster that may be no larger than 30 for the start of spring training—next Monday at Evansville, Ind. Pitcher Clarence Gann, a big winner in 1941 with Muskegon of the Michigan State league, is in the navy, giving the Tigers 21 stars on their service flag. Gann was purchased a fortnight ago from Beaumont of the Texas league. Shortstop Bob Henny, former Detroit sandlotter who was utility infielder at Beaumont, has decided to remain on his war job.

High Scorer Finds Self A Celebrity

PHILADELPHIA, March 10 (AP)—George Senesky, St. Joseph's college basketball star who has just set a new national collegiate individual scoring record of 513 points for one season, was mobbed by autograph seekers while watching playoffs in a scholastic league. His coach, Billy Ferguson, and aides had to escort him through the crowd to another part of the stands.

Favorites Knocked Out Of KC Tournney By 'Little' Teams

KANSAS CITY, March 10 (AP)—Take it from me, brother! That was the theme of little York, Neb., College and Eastern Washington College of Education, Cheney, as they continued the popular policy of erasing highly-touted teams from the national intercollegiate basketball tournament. What the brothers took were passes that led to baskets — and grief for favored Akron, O. University and Valparaiso, Ind. University on last night's program that concluded the first round. No brother act in vaudeville ever worked as hard for laughs as Jim and Wayne Keating of York did for goals. Irwin and Bob Leifer and the Lothspich boys, John and Bill, of Eastern Washington were dwarfed by the giant Valparaiso team.

The script said the brother acts couldn't succeed, that Akron and Valparaiso couldn't lose. Well, the facts are these: 1—The Keating duo produced a neat 40 points as York beat Akron 53 to 49; 2—The Leifer brothers tallied 21 points, John Lothspich contributed 18 and Brother Bill turned his attention to defensive matters as Eastern Washington kayped Valparaiso 54 to 42. Don't get the idea that all the favorites are howling out of the competition, however. Pepperdine College of Los Angeles, the west's hope for the championship, managed a 50 to 45 triumph over Kearney, Neb., Teachers.

Another favorite, Appalachian State of Boone, N. C., had a comparatively easy time in beating Simpson College 48-31. One of those chill-and-fever affairs—saw Kansas Wesleyan of Salina eliminate Lawrence Tech of Detroit, 43 to 42, in the afternoon feature. Other first round results: Luther College, Decorah, Ia., 51, Southwestern Oklahoma State, Durant, eastern Oklahoma State, Durant, BLOOD FOR TRAINERS

SALT LAKE CITY, March 10 (AP)—Einar Nielsen, trainer of Utah University athletes for 29 years, is being repaid, ill for weeks, he was given blood transfusions by Capt. Burt Davis and three other Utah football players.

How to Help Your Cleaner Work Faster and Last Longer*

You can do housecleaning faster and better if your vacuum cleaner dust bag is emptied after each use. Excess dust in the bag slows up the air flow and reduces the suction of the cleaner.

Also oil your cleaner as recommended by the manufacturer and pick up hair pins and other articles that might damage the fan or clog the brush. Avoid letting the cord become twisted or frayed.

Your vacuum cleaner is a valuable investment that may be difficult to replace. Timely repairs by an electric shop that specializes in such work will put your cleaner in first-class shape and keep it working for the duration.

Editorial - - Govt. Regulations For Everyone Alike

Until the Congress, which is the supreme authority for making laws in this Nation, takes a realistic view of what is necessary to win the war and be done with it, there will be lack of production and expressions of dissatisfaction from many quarters. If the Congress could bring itself to realize that its authority is over every individual and that every individual should be treated alike, according to ability and need, it would go far toward solving the problem that now is far from solution.

Dictator's Family Life Stalin's Sons Fight The Invader, Too

Henry Cassidy, chief of the Associated Press bureau in Moscow, who twice scooped the world last fall with letters from Joseph Stalin on the second front and the Allied occupation of North Africa, has returned to the United States. In this article he tells some little-known facts about the personal life of Premier Stalin's family.

She Only Winked LOS ANGELES, Calif. (UP) - Municipal Judge Byron Walters has ruled that a woman's wink is capable of meaning so many things that it is worthy of legal investigation. Dr. R. O. Ferguson, called in to examine the sobriety state of Mrs. Carroll McCall Humphries, arrested on a charge of drunken driving, testified that when he asked her if she had been drinking, she just said nothing, but winked at him. The judge held that this was sufficient to hold her for trial.

Hollywood - Propaganda Is Served Straight In New Picture

By ROBBEN COONS HOLLYWOOD - There has been a great deal of gab about how the screen can best dish up war-furthering propaganda, and there have been a great many answers of which the latest, "Hitler's Children," is the most direct. "Hitler's Children" dishes it up straight - and it is confounding Hollywood by its success because Hollywood has said consistently that the fans want "escape" and will take propaganda only if it is tastefully sugar-coated.

The only sugar-coating on this propaganda is that it's so constructed as to be good, engrossing entertainment. It doesn't tell you anything that you can't get, as far as facts about Germany are concerned, from a reading of Gregor Zeltner's factual report, "Education for Death," on which it is based. It interprets this background, and the Nazi "education," in terms of boy-meet-girl, and it is "sensational" only because the barbarian Nazi Kultur and its practices are shocking.

In view of this and attendant necessities, the Senator said, it is the duty of the government to supply adequate substitutes, either real or synthetic, for the dietary deficiencies that are certain to develop. To me, all this is important because so far as I know it is the first public warning from a person in authority that the nation may be in for serious dietary troubles.

One point the Department of Agriculture has repeatedly made is that nobody in this country is going to starve or even go hungry. Not for a minute has there been any occasion to doubt that statement. Up to now (and for the near future) the nutritionists haven't had a hard time of it but there is reason to believe that some of them are worried about what's ahead.

A few agricultural experts who are doing their best to keep up with the kaleidoscopic farm situation admit this: that feeding 130,000,000 million people in this country and our Lease-Lend allies is a combination of so many problems that it could get out of hand in a few weeks or a few months.

One expert recently testified before a Senate committee that if something isn't done immediately to raise the price of milk, the nation's highways will be lined with dairy cows being driven to market.

It's that sort of thing that has Agriculture and the OPA turning handsprings. A great deal this year could hang on those Victory Gardens. They will be much more important than the unsuccessful attempt at hoarding up the backyard in World War I.

Washington Daybook - Food Substitutes Are Demanded By Reynolds

By JACK STINNETT WASHINGTON - Sen. Robert R. Reynolds, chairman of the Senate Military Affairs committee, recently tossed another soft tomato at the bespattered heads of Farm Secretary Wickard and OPA Administrator Prentiss Brown - said tomato being the threatened shortages of vitamins and minerals in the civilian diet. "Unfortunately," said the Senator, "the shelves of our grocery stores throughout the nation are entirely too empty of essential foods - containing the necessary vitamins and minerals. Government agencies should take immediate steps to make more of these foods as well as synthetic vitamins available through grocery store outlets."

"Vitamins concentrates costing millions of dollars were shipped to our British and Russian allies under Lease-Lend because these countries appreciate their importance in bolstering the health, stamina and vitality of their people. "Approximately 200 processed foods... including butter, cheese, heavy cream and meats... have been or are in the process of being rationed," said the Senator.

In view of this and attendant necessities, the Senator said, it is the duty of the government to supply adequate substitutes, either real or synthetic, for the dietary deficiencies that are certain to develop. To me, all this is important because so far as I know it is the first public warning from a person in authority that the nation may be in for serious dietary troubles.

Isolation Island

Chapter 4 "We'll have to put you off in the dinghy," the Captain of the Rose came up a few minutes later. "This is dangerous beach filled with shallows and coral reefs." Landa was still standing beside Jim at the ship's rail, her wide eyes turned toward the familiar shore. The deepening shadows of late afternoon lay on the towering cliffs that rose abruptly behind the crescent of white beach. Several dozen crude Indian huts made of cardboard trunks dotted the sweep of beach.

Outside each hut a small fire was sending a thin pillar of smoke toward the darkening sky. She could see Don's small power boat riding at anchor at the tiny wharf and the dim outline of his figure. Her heart quickened at the sight of him. Then, as her thoughts turned back to her father, she felt frightened and weak. How ill was he? Had they told her the worst? Back of her she heard Jim Blair's laughing voice. "Here's where Captain Estrada gets rid of us."

Landa turned and saw Jim ready to help her down the rope ladder. A faint smile crossed her lips as she went over the side and down the rope ladder with Jim following closely. The sailor manning the oars glided the dinghy expertly through the rolling surf and a tall young man in white caught the prow of the boat as it thudded against the wharf. Landa held out her hand and when he took it, leaped lightly up onto the wharf and ran into his arms. Jim gave Don a thorough look as he climbed more slowly out of the dinghy. He acknowledged grudgingly that he looked a little bit of all right. His Spanish blood predominated in the black hair, the tall, almost elegantly thin white-clothed figure.

Jim moved away up the wharf, feeling the moment was a private one, but Landa's voice called him back. "This is Jim Blair, my guardian on the voyage," she told Don. "Jim, this is..." "Don't tell me. Let me guess," Jim grinned. Don was regarding him with warmly fascinated gaze. He held out his hand. "I am delighted! Excuse my staring. We have so few visitors here they are always a curiosity."

"He's staying for some time!" Landa cried jubilantly. "He's a deep sea diver, sent down by the United States government to investigate the Jap submarine." "Ah, ha!" Don's clasp tightened on Jim's hand. "It's your crew and boat then that's here. Say, you must be our guest at the castle. Much closer - and the natives may be of some help to you. They have been diving for that sub ever since it went down, but it's in almost 300 feet of water." "You see," Landa murmured triumphantly, "I knew you wouldn't escape."

Jim laughed. "Okay. If you'll promise to throw me out when I get to be a nuisance." The two men quickly stowed the luggage in the rear cockpit of the boat and Don untied the bow. Once Landa stopped him anxiously. "Father's all right, isn't he?" Don paused to answer gently.

"He's not too strong, darling." "Fear sprang into her eyes, but she fought it determinedly. "He'll get better now. We'll see to it, won't we?" "We will that, Landa mia," Don said tenderly. He helped her into the wide front cockpit between Jim and himself, touched the starter. The mighty engine roared, sending a mist of spray from the two exhausts. It was choppy backing the surf, and talk was impossible against the thundering bark of the engine.

Don shut the engine to idling speed as the boat pushed into a shallow inlet where a narrow pier jutted out from the bank. Through the trees, Jim caught sight of an old fashioned open carriage drawn by a span of black horses. Michael O'Shanessy came across the expanse of white beach at a rapid stride - a giant of a man, shouting as he came in a voice that sent echoes back through the jungle. "Halgo - my Landa!" Don tossed the bow rope to his father as the boat sidled up to the pier. O'Shanessy fastened it with a strong swift flourish, then straightened to hold out both arms to Landa as she stepped from the boat. Introductions were swallowed up in O'Shanessy's booming welcome. Jim's hand was gripped in bone-crushing fervor as the huge Irishman urged him to make the island and everything upon it his own for as long as he would stay.

"Provided," he added, his broad face whitened with twinkling humor as he led them to the carriage, "you can endure our simple, backward ways." The road that led from the beach up through Landa's father's half of the island was no more than a path cut laboriously through dense jungle. Thick foliage rose up on either side of a well-groomed path. The horses plodded up the gully rising hill at a slow walk. Jim Blair's eyes feasted on the beauty of the place and Landa chattered of each familiar spot. The carriage drew from the thicket into a broad clearing laid out in well-kept gardens that surrounded a lovely hacienda. The white walls of the house now took on a pinkish cast from the ball of sun that was sinking into the sea. Landa smiled at Jim Blair's rap face. "You like my home?" "It's an artist's dream," said Jim quietly.

An Indian woman stood in the doorway. Landa cried "Maria!" and ran up the steps to throw her arms around her. They cried and laughed together. As though at a signal, brown native faces peered from around every corner of the hacienda, sidled around corners, moved out from trees. They were in gala dress, colored embroidered, flaming scarves, wreaths of flowers in their hair.

"Landa's father took a turn for the worse this morning," Jim looked at him in quick surprise. "You mean?" "He won't live through the day," O'Shanessy said heavily.

No Riding for Cadets!
DEL MONTE, Calif. (UP) — Naval aviation cadets now undergoing a strenuous three-month toughening-up at the new Del Monte pre-flight school here, have been ordered to "walk not ride" while on week-end liberty. Riding tends to soften cadets, while the aim of the pre-flight school is to condition them to withstand all physical discomforts. Navy authorities explained in issuing the edict.

Understanding With Russia Essential To Lasting Peace

By WADE WERNER
Former Chief of the Moscow Bureau of the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 10. (UP)—One of the knottier problems confronting United Nations peace-makers has been brought into sharp focus by Vice President Wallace's warning that a third world war appears inevitable unless a "satisfactory understanding" is reached by the western democracies and Soviet Russia.

The subject has been a matter of concern in official and diplomatic quarters here for some time, but until Mr. Wallace brought it into the open in his radio address the tendency was to avoid calling public attention to it.

Lack of a satisfactory understanding nevertheless was becoming apparent through the controversy between the Polish government-in-exile and Moscow over Poland's eastern border, and it pointed Soviet reminders that not only Bessarabia but Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania are considered integral parts of the Soviet Union.

In his address at Delaware, Ohio, the vice president said a third world war was likely "in case we double-cross Russia." Now Premier Josef Stalin and his associates do not hide their conviction that Russia was double-crossed in the first world war, in which she lost Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Bessarabia, part of White Russia and part of the Ukraine.

In 1939 she recovered her White Russia and Ukrainian areas from Poland, in 1940 took Bessarabia back from Rumania and incorporated Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia into the Soviet Union, while part of Finland came back into the union through incorporation into the Finno-Karelian Soviet socialist republic.

Any "unsatisfactory understanding" with Russia, therefore, some students of eastern European problems point out, must take into account the Soviet viewpoint that what Russia regained in 1939-40 was territory she lost unjustly as a "victor" in the first world war.

The end of the "long armistice" between the two world wars also was, in a sense, the end of a "long armistice" in the Russian civil war. Marching westward in September, 1939, the Red army did not merely occupy territory; it opened the way for establishment of Soviet regimes where the previous attempts to establish them, years ago, had failed. When Red troops appeared again in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, the bourgeois parliamentary regimes vanished and Soviet governments appeared.

Before the German invasion of 1941 wiped out all these gains the soviet socialist republics of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania had been officially admitted to the union of Soviet socialist republics and are listed now in article XIII of the Soviet constitution as constituent republics of the USSR. Other occupied areas were similarly incorporated.

When the Germans are driven out again, is the civil war to be reopened once more to determine whether the former bourgeois or the former Soviet regimes shall be reestablished? Will the victorious Soviet union be asked to amend its constitution so as to eliminate the new Soviet socialist republics from the constitutional list?

There are some of the questions confronting statesmen who must seek a satisfactory understanding between the western democracies and Russia. They indicate it will be no easy task. Nevertheless the United States government already has announced its intention to press for United Nations conferences on postwar problems now, without waiting for the end of the war, on the theory that the longer knottier problems are postponed the knottier they are likely to become.

Physical Rejections In Draft Now Running Over 40 Per Cent

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIEGLER
WASHINGTON, March 10. (UP)—One reason why the manpower pinch is going to hit some homes sooner than generally expected: The number of rejections under selective service now is running more than 40 per cent of those examined, the war manpower commission says.

Here's the record.

Approximately one-half of the first 2,000,000 registrants examined were rejected for physical, mental or educational reasons. Of those rejected as physically or mentally unfit, nearly 21 per cent were turned down for dental defects, nearly 14 per cent because of their eyes. Then, early last year, the army lowered its eyesight and dental standards. The rejection figure for the period of May through December was a shade over 30 per cent.

The new increase is attributed to a trend to older men, including married men without children.

Some of the reasons for rejection on physical grounds as listed by the army, in addition to more apparent disabilities, included:

- Chronic sinus trouble.
- Severe hay fever.
- Sores which are "disturbing to such an extent as to be unsightly or which interfere with function of a limb or part to such a degree as to prevent satisfactory performance of service in the armed forces."
- Stammering or stuttering.

What about rehabilitation of rejectees?

More than a year ago selective service headquarters, in response to a request from the president, made plans to rehabilitate some 200,000 rejectees whom Brig. Gen. Well Groomed Hair MOROLINE HAIR TONIC (25)

Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, estimated could be restored to standards acceptable for general military service. Certain rehabilitation tests were started in Maryland and Virginia.

But now the program is dormant.

The reason? A government official who declined to speak for quotation by name said, "a shortage of doctors."

3 letters spelling ACID

You can't stop your engine with the cylinders empty. It can't be done. They'll either load up with their last "suck" of fresh raw gas as you shut 'er off, or they'll be caught with burned stale gas they can't belch out.

In those useless leftovers are corrosive acids, trapped in the engine you can't replace—along with moist "sweat" as the interior cools. Any chemistry freshman knows these causes of biting corrosion. They were always present—long before wartime. Only it didn't matter so much when your car was in frequent use, at speeds that thoroughly warmed the engine—helping to offset the worst acid effects. How different today, when mileage, speed, and average engine heat are all down—giving acid its chance to run riot!

You can't open the engine and keep sponging out any acids or other moisture for half-a-week or half-a-month, when your car stands little used nowadays. But without extra fuss or extravagance you can change to Conoco Nth motor oil and get your engine internally OIL-PLATED.

You're familiar with anti-corrosive plating... like chromium-plating. Just as closely, this protective OIL-PLATING will be kept surfaced to delicate parts by the advanced synthetic substance that's fully described in the celebrated patent on Conoco Nth. Even if your gasoline-rationed car now makes only occasional runs, you can keep corrosion from doing its worst between times. For you can keep your engine OIL-PLATED by changing to Conoco Nth this Spring at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
