

Truman To Get Honorary Degree From Baylor U

President Plans Visit To Waco On March 6

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—President Truman today completed arrangements to visit Mexico City March 3, Waco, Texas, March 6, and San Juan, Puerto Rico, March 10.

Presidential secretary Charles G. Ross said the Chief Executive will confer with President Miguel Aleman in Mexico, receive an honorary degree from Baylor University at Waco and witness Atlantic fleet maneuvers off Puerto Rico.

He said the time of the President's departure by plane for Mexico City was undetermined but that he will arrive in the Mexican capital at 10 a. m. Monday, March 3.

He will be in Mexico—though not necessarily all that time in Mexico City—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and fly on Thursday, March 6 to Waco to receive the Baylor University degree at a ceremony at 11 a. m.

The degree aroused a controversy among Texas Baptists when it was first proposed in the fall of 1945. The Baptist General Conference of Texas adopted a resolution urging Baylor to withhold the honor because of what the resolution described as Mr. Truman's "reported attitude" toward poker playing and drinking.

The Waco visit will end with a luncheon which the President will have with university president Pat Neff, former Texas governor. Mr. Truman will make a brief address at the ceremony. After the luncheon, he will fly directly back to Washington.

"Soon thereafter," Ross told reporters, "a trip is scheduled that will take the President to San Juan, Puerto Rico, where he will arrive in the morning of Monday, March 10 by plane."

During the Baptist controversy, the Rev. W. L. Shuttlesworth of Houston, Tex., chairman of the Civic Righteousness Committee, said from the general conference floor that "no Baptist school should confer a degree" on any man who "liked" poker and drank bourbon.

ZONING EXPLAINED—

Plan Sets Up Three Areas For Industries

There are, broadly, three industrial areas set up under the proposed zoning program. They are the G, H, and J districts. Each is restricted against certain types, and the J district is the most flexible with only these classifications restricted:

Manufacture of cement, gypsum, etc., distillation of bones, explosives (or storage), fertilizer, gas, glue, dumping of garbage, offal or rendering, petroleum refining, smelting, stock yards or feeding pens, tanning, curing of hides.

The H district is primarily designed for storage of materials, poles, pipe, etc. unloading, petroleum products storage and the area is narrow in confines and hugs the railroad siding.

The G district represents the category of light industry, and the number of restricted operations is great. Types prohibited from the other two kinds naturally are prohibited in a G section plus those permissible in the H and J sections but which, broadly speaking, are apt to create offensive odors, dust, undue noise or create hazards.

Senate Gets Measure For Negro University

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (AP)—A bill providing $2,850,000 for establishment of a first class state university for negroes at Houston was introduced in the Senate today.

The measure was offered by Sen. Lacy Stewart of Houston, who said that the University of Houston has offered to donate 53 acres for use of the school.

It was the first proposed legislation looking toward improvement of state-supported facilities for higher education for negroes. Such legislation had been recommended by Gov. Beauford H. Jester and retiring Gov. Coke Stevenson.

The measure provides also for establishment, in addition to the State University, of a negro A. and M. at Prairie View.

It also makes an emergency appropriation of $350,000 to the board of directors of Texas A. and M. college to make immediately available all courses in professional education, equivalent to those offered at the University of Texas, at Prairie View.

This appropriation would be utilized while the other two institutions were being set up.

Million Dollar Flour Mill Burns

TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 30. (AP)—A spectacular fire destroyed the $1,000,000 Centennial Flouring Mill plant on Tacoma's waterfront today, and threatened to spread to the big Sperry flour mill nearby.

Centennial's 225 employees left the plant safely shortly after the blaze started about 7:30 a. m. Two hours later firemen gave up hope of saving the plant, and devoted efforts to keeping the blaze from the Sperry mill, situated just north of Centennial.

TAX OPPONENTS IN CONGRESS ALMOST FIGHT IN CAFETERIA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Differences over taxes flared into an angry exchange of bitter words and near blows in the House cafeteria today between Reps. Knutson (R-Minn.) and Engel (R-Mich.).

At one point, Engel grabbed Knutson's arm but colleagues said no blows were struck, although the verbal punches flew thick and fast.

Knutson is the main House champion of a 20 percent cut in individual income taxes.

On the House floor yesterday, Engel declared this would help the poor very little, while giving large benefits to persons with high incomes. He said that if the

Proof Of Need For Rent Boost Said Now In Landlords' Laps

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Senator Tobey (R-NH) today opened a Senate inquiry into rents with an assertion that it "rests squarely upon the landlord" to prove any need for higher rent ceilings.

Tobey is chairman of the Senate Banking committee making the investigation. There was no immediate explanation of yesterday's mix-up in which an OPA order proposing to boost ceilings 1 percent was quashed by the White House before it could be issued.

The committee originally was scheduled to hear government witnesses today but Tobey said none would be present. This postponed the appearance of James W. Follin, deputy administrator of the office of temporary controls, who had been expected to explain the mystery of the shortlived rent increase order.

"We believe the average American wants to play fairly," Tobey said in a statement.

"If the landlord is being discriminated against, if he is not getting a fair return on his investment, the American people will want to do something about it, but the American people want to be shown.

China Civil War Flares As US Forces Leaving

'Colossal Gamble' Blasted—

Pay Suit Balance Urged

DETROIT, Jan. 30. (AP)—The United States government, intervening in the Mt. Clemens Pottery Co. case, urged today that portal pay time spent by labor be balanced against periods of time that employes devote to personal pursuits during working hours.

The government's position was outlined a short time after attorneys for the CIO filed briefs declaring the outpouring of more than $4,000,000 in portal pay suits resulted from a colossal gamble to evade the Wage-Hour Act.

John F. Sonnett, assistant attorney-general, told Federal Judge Frank A. Picard, who has been directed by the Supreme Court to assess damages against the Mt. Clemens Pottery Co.:

"It would seem that the court should give due consideration to periods of time that employes are permitted to devote to personal pursuits during normal working hours.

"Plainly, an employer is not entitled to deduct trifling personal-pursuit periods during working hours in computing the work week under the (Fair Labor Standards) Act, and, by the same token, the employe should not be entitled to the addition of trifling periods of preliminary activity.

"As a matter of business reality, such periods should be treated as offsetting each other without the need for keeping records . . ."

Judge Picard adjourned the hearing until 2 p. m., when the National Association of Manufacturers is scheduled to present industry's arguments.

Sugar Workers Said Hungry

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—The Agriculture and Commerce departments joined today in action to increase exports of rice to Cuba where sugar workers are reported in "dire need."

The Agriculture Department amended its rice distribution control order to require that millers set aside a smaller quantity of their output for the American government and encourage export of much of the extra supply to Cuba.

The commerce department's office of international trade announced that it would allow export licenses for immediate shipment of larger quantities of rice to Cuba.

The Agriculture Department said that because of the maritime strike shipments of rice to Cuba during the last half of 1946 were about 700,000 bags of 100 pounds each. This is short of the quantity allocated Cuba for that period.

The department said it is desirable that this unshipped balance move to Cuba at the earliest possible date in addition to the quantities allocated that country for the first six months of 1947.

Big Spring Poll Tax Total Lags

The county tax collector-assessor's office will remain open until midnight Friday to accommodate persons desiring to pay poll taxes. The department will also violate a tradition of long standing in accepting similar business through the noon hour tomorrow. Ordinarily it is closed from 12 noon until 1 p. m.

Total receipts fell behind the corresponding period for 1945 at the close of yesterday's business. Aggregate through Wednesday was 3,281 as compared to 3,361 for Jan. 28, 1945.

Truman To Make Polio Fund Plea

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—President Truman will make a radio address to the nation at 11:45 o'clock (EST) tonight in behalf of the "March of Dimes" campaign.

The address, to run about four minutes, is part of the annual fund-raising drive of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Basil O'Connor, chairman of the American Red Cross, will speak on the same program, which will be broadcast by all major networks.

"Instead of complying with the act, in accordance with those administrative rulings and judicial decisions," they said, "American employes in wholesale fashion gambled on evading the act, hoping to get away with it."

Austria Asks Treaty That Won't Be Burden

LONDON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Austria asked the Four-Power Conference of Deputy Foreign Ministers today to draft for her a peace treaty which could become a "magna carta" for Austrians rather than a burden.

Italy also presented an appeal to the deputies, asking for a share in the writing of the German treaty in view of Italy's co-belligerency late in the war.

Deputies of the United States, Britain and France, meanwhile, appeared to be lined up against the Soviet Union's delegate, who seeks to allot strictly secondary roles to smaller sections in drafting the German peace treaty.

British sources said Austria put herself formally on the record against Yugoslav claims to the Province of Carinthia by asking the deputies for a democratic constitution, membership in the United Nations, early withdrawal of occupation troops and reestablishment of pre-war boundaries.

Italy's plea for a part in the writing of the German peace, was morally justified, her representative told the deputies, by "contributions to the victory of the United Nations."

Ambassador Nicolo Carandini, Italian representative in London, entered the plea in a note to the Big Four deputy foreign ministers, who are deliberating here on German treaty problems.

House To House Search Started

JERUSALEM, Jan. 30. (AP)—British troops swooped down on the Montefiore quarter of Jerusalem early this morning and began a house to house search for the kidnapers of a British banker who stumbled into a clinic dazed and bleeding last night after being held prisoner for 78 hours.

The section — an ancient Jewish quarter outside the old city walls — was cordoned off and several hundred persons were herded into hastily erected screening pens for questioning. At mid-morning it was announced that six had been detained for further examination.

Police also cordoned off and searched the Jewish industrial suburb of Givat Shaul.

Communists Sever Withdrawal Route

Red Liaison Officers Ready To Leave Government Area

SHANGHAI, Jan. 30. (AP)—Communist forces in North China cut the vital Peiping-Tientsin railway today, shortly after the announcement that American military units are being withdrawn from China.

The communists severed, temporarily at least, the route over which U.S. forces must withdraw from Peiping, site of the truce headquarters that will be abandoned with the end of America's long but futile peace efforts.

Associated Press Correspondent John Roderick reported from Tientsin that the railway link was cut at Weishanchang, about midway between Tientsin and Peiping. Fighting still raged there.

Before the communists attacked the government's rail artery, American authorities in Peiping discredited reports that the communists might attack the city before U.S. personnel left.

They asserted the communists were too weak to take either Peiping or Tientsin, although they could delay or imperil the American withdrawal by damaging the railway—which is just what they did. However, such disruptions ordinarily can be quickly repaired.

It was the first serious communist attack on the railway, which once was guarded by U.S. Marines, and was different from the sniping and ambushes in which Marines were caught several times.

While both government and communist leaders speculated over the effects of the departure of the Americans, informed sources in Nanking predicted that all communist liaison offices in government territory would be closed with the possible exception of Nanking's.

Government military commanders long had complained of the presence of top-notch communists in Nanking, Shanghai and Chungking, where they were able to observe and report to Yenan.

Under terms of last year's agreement establishing mediation machinery, Secretary of State Marshall, then special U.S. envoy, pledged that the United States would return communists from executive headquarters at Peiping, as well as liaison officers, to communist territory.

Most of the high-ranking communists probably will return to Yenan, the communist capital. The transportation will be a big job for the thin U.S. air forces remaining in China.

Withdrawal of the U.S. Marines, which American sources in Peiping said would follow the departure of the 1,000 army and civilian personnel from Peiping quarters, will leave few American military forces in China.

DALLAS, Jan. 30. (AP)—A general overhaul of Texas election laws to eliminate conflicts and vague provisions was recommended this morning as the Texas Association of Democratic County chairmen and secretaries convened for its first meeting.

22 Pounds Per Person Increase In '47 Sugar Ration Planned

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21. (AP)—The United States has asked for sufficient sugar from this year's world supply to allow an average of 95.1 pounds per person. Consumption last year averaged about 73 pounds.

This quantity would be divided among individual consumers and industrial users. Last year individuals got ration allowances of 25 pounds. The rest went to industrial users, such as candy makers, soft drink bottlers and bakers.

The American request has been laid before the International Food Emergency Council, an inter-governmental agency which recommends division of export supplies of foods in short supply among importing nations.

In a report issued today, the council estimated the 1947 world sugar supply at 30,100,000 short tons, raw value. This compares with a world consumption of 26,700,000 last year and with a pre-war average consumption of 32,500,000 tons.

The bulk of the imported sugar would come from Puerto Rico and Cuba.

Pre-war consumption in this country averaged 103.2 pounds a year.

The American request for a 1947 per capita supply of 95.1 pounds compares with requests of 92.3 for the United Kingdom, 93.3 for Canada, 70 for Belgium and 15.5 for Italy.

Several Killed As Tornado Hits Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 30. (AP)—An undetermined number of persons were reported killed when a tornado struck Kent, Ala., about 30 miles northeast of here today a few hours after a twister hit Montgomery and injured at least 15 persons.

The State highway patrol said it had an unconfirmed report that four negroes were killed at Kent. At Tallassee, six miles from the stricken community, attendants at a hospital said one negro child had died there and a negro man "is dying now."

Estimates of the number of injured ranged up to 27. That figure was reported by the highway patrol, but the Tallassee hospital said it had 16 victims, 14 negroes and two white persons.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 31. (AP)—A tornado struck just outside Montgomery today, injuring at least 12 persons and leveling a score of houses and barns.

Two of the victims, both negroes, were in serious condition, but there were no reports of deaths.

Roaring in from the southwest, the storm dipped into a rural community two miles past the city limits and just beyond the Army's Gunter Field, only a short distance from where a tornado struck on Feb. 12, 1945, killing 26 persons.

Today's twister cut a swath about a half mile long and 200 yards through the sparsely settled community northwest of the city.

Gunter Field's power was cut off but no damage was reported.

Talmadge Plans Punitive Bill

ATLANTA, Jan. 30. (AP)—Talmadge leaders introduced in the Georgia legislature today their first punitive legislation aimed at quelling official opposition to claims of Herman Talmadge to the disputed governorship of Georgia.

The bill would strip Georgia's attorney general of his power to inquire into activities of public officials, and would force him to accept assistants named by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

The target is Attorney General Eugene Cook, who has refused to recognize Talmadge as governor, and who is representing Talmadge's rival, Lieut.-Gov. M. E. Thompson, in court action to unseat him.

Cook recently rejected two assistants nominated by Talmadge, and accepted four others nominated by Thompson.

Miller Discusses Indian Religions For Presbyterians

The hopelessness of Hinduism and Mohammedism, the leading religions of India, was stressed when E. A. Miller spoke at the third in a series of School of Missions programs at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday evening.

Formerly stationed in India, Miller discussed with the group his observations of Indian life, particularly the religious phases. He declared that there are at present only 6,000,000 Christians in the country, pointing out how much Christianity has to offer the Indian people. He stated that the Mohammedans and Hindus are in constant conflict.

The devotional was brought by Dee Davis. Mrs. H. C. Stipp conducted the missions class for the children of the church.

A pot luck dinner preceded the program.

At 7:30 p. m. Thursday Rev. R. Gage Lloyd will review the book, "Now is the Time," a missionary book which tells of Presbyterian missions around the world. Rev. Lloyd will stress this evening the missionary effort in Mexico, Brazil, China and Japan. Herbert White, stationed for some time in Korea, will speak on life in that Eastern country.

Average American Figure Comes Into Its Own With Designers

U. S. AVERAGE . . . This flattering silk shantung dress is designed for women five feet five or under. Swathed hipline and front pleum add interest.

GLAMOR FOR SHORTIES . . . Proportioned evening gown in spun rayon with colorful silk print bolero and cowl hood. Designed for shorter women, by Varden.

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

HAVE you ever wondered why your new dress didn't look the same as it did when you saw it on the mannequin in the store window? Or have you ever picked out a dress from a picture in a magazine, only to find that it made you look like a pygmy dressed in a circus tent?

It's a common fate of the average woman, of average size, to find bitter disappointment in the fit of clothes she buys in ready-to-wear departments. Often the waistline is too long, the sleeves too long, the skirt too long, even though the garment may fit in circumference. If she buys the dress anyway alteration costs make it more expensive than she planned. If she tries to wear it as is, the proportions are wrong for her figure.

It is a sad but true fact that most designers plan their creations for the tall, willowy fashion models, while the average woman, short and slightly hefty is left with only a dream of how she would like to look.

Since we are not all constructed like Powers models, who usually are at least five feet ten, with a size 12 waist and hipline, it behooves us to look into the proportion of the clothes we buy.

One manufacturer has investigated the measurements of the average woman and found that a large percentage of US female adults are five feet or under in height, with a little more girth than is usually provided for in the standard size dress.

The result is a line of dresses

Research Planned In Blast Furnace

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Rep. Wright Patman (D-Texas) has asked the navy department to cooperate with the Lone Star Steel company in working out a plan for joint use of the Daingerfield, Texas, blast furnace in naval research and in the production of pig iron.

He told reporters that Dr. George Anderson of Dallas, vice president and general manager of the Texas company, is to discuss the proposal Friday with naval officials.

The navy has spent $4,000,000 at the northeast Texas site where a huge blower originally built for the flat furnace now is used in wind tunnel experiments.

Sale of the plant by the War Assets Administration has been delayed because of the navy's interest and also by the opinion of some officials that the Lone Star Steel company's bid was too low.

The first American corn starch factories began operation more than a century ago.

Sheppard Field Offered For Sale

WICHITA Falls, Jan. 30. (AP)—Sheppard army air field, completed in late 1941 at a cost of $88,000,000 and through which 2,000,000 members of the army air forces passed, will be offered for sale.

Texas congressmen were notified in Washington yesterday that the field has been declared surplus. No additional information was given. It was inactivated last fall.

Houston Largest Exporting Center

HOUSTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—The Port of Houston today claimed the title of the nation's largest cotton exporting center during 1946. The Houston Port and Traffic Bureau's office of information said the port during 1946 exported 1,020,810 bales of cotton.

Galveston exported 960,000 bales and New Orleans 647,860.

Corn produces about twice the yield of wheat from one-eighth as much seed.

What! No Ice Cream; Texas Faces Danger

By PAUL BOLTON
Herald Austin Bureau

AUSTIN, Jan. 30.—How would you like to live in a Texas where there was NO milk—and NO ice cream?

Perhaps you don't go for lamb chops; but would you like to get along without beefsteak, or prime rib?

Or butter? What would you substitute in your youngsters' diets?

If all of this is unpleasant-sounding to you, it's merely to bring home the fact that a lot of other people than cattle raisers have a stake in keeping the dread hoof and mouth disease out of Texas.

It may not sound particularly frightening to say that "the hoof and mouth disease will upset our state's economy." Or, "it will break the back of the beef and other livestock industries." But when you say, "It will ruin dairy herds. It will cut off milk supplies. It will eliminate meat supplies," perhaps the danger which now faces Texas may be better understood.

At least a committee from the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association hope so. They've been in Austin to see about getting the legislature stirred up. Governor Beauford Jester is stirred up. They hope to get congress to show some concern.

But most of all they want the people generally to know that every person who eats meat or drinks milk has a stake in this fight.

Members of the committee are Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde; C. K. McCan of Victoria; Joe Finley of the Callahan Ranch, Encinal; and Ewing Haisell of San Antonio, with Chairman Ray Loventhal of the Livestock Sanitary Commission an additional member.

What is the hoof and mouth disease? McCan has a graphic answer: "It's like a combination of trench mouth, athlete's foot in a virulent form, and smallpox." It affects practically all livestock, except horses. They can't eat, they can't drink; they get so they can't walk.

What would happen if the disease gets into Texas?

Well, Texas cattlemen already are getting a foretaste. Finley's Callahan Ranch has been placed under complete quarantine, because a few head of Mexican cattle were placed on it shortly before the discovery of the prevalence of the disease in Mexico. If it had been a dairy farm, no milk would have been allowed to come out of the ranch. As it is, none of the livestock may move until it is definitely determined that the cattle are not infested. Briscoe's holdings are under similar rule.

Water Resources Development Said Incomplete

DALLAS, Jan. 30. (AP)—Marvin C. Nichols of Fort Worth told Dallas engineers here that development of West Texas water resources—vital to other development of the area—is about one-third done.

Nichols, a civil engineer and member of the Fort Worth City Plan Commission, is an authority on West Texas water resources. He spoke yesterday at a joint meeting of Dallas and North Texas groups of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and American Society of Civil Engineers.

West Texas from Dallas westward to the plains escarpment is an area almost devoid of underground water sources, he said, and must depend upon surface storage.

Present storage in lakes located generally near population centers of the area have total annual storage capacity of 2,500,000 acre feet of water (three acre feet of water is the equivalent of 1,000,000 gallons.)

Annual run-off of rains in the area is 3,800,000 acre feet, he said, which could provide 2,500,000 acre feet of water annually after evaporation and other normal loss.

That amount of water would require storage facilities two or three times as great as existing facilities but would support a population three or four times as large as the present 1,500,000 persons occupying the region.

Jap, Unaware War Over, Found Hiding On Truk

PEARL HARBOR, (UP)—The Navy has disclosed the capture, by an employee of the U. S. Commercial Company, of a Japanese who hid in the jungle on Truk since March or April, 1944, and did not know the war was over.

The Japanese, identified only as Yoshida, was captured early this month by Manuel Sproat, acting senior representative of the USCC on Truk. The refugee said he was brought to Truk for forced labor from a prison in Japan, where he was under a theft sentence. He escaped from his own forces when surprised while trying to steal some food.

Truk, a major Japanese base in the Carolines north of New Guinea, was bypassed by United States forces during the war, but was frequently bombed. It was occupied after the surrender. The USCC said the last Japanese to be repatriated left the island on Nov. 10, 1946.

Report of the capture was made by Charles Wade, another USCC employee at Truk, to Richard B. Black, Honolulu executive of the USCC. The USCC is an agency of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and is engaged in colonizing operations on captured Pacific islands with the co-operation of the Navy.

Wade wrote that "while we were at lunch, rumors were flying about that there was a Japanese hiding out in the swamp below the officers' quarters, in a large area of brush between headquarters and supply and the dock. As we walked out of the mess, up drove Manuel Sproat with the Japanese in the back seat, just as the provost marshal was preparing a large patrol. Sproat had sloshed with two natives through the swamp for over two hours on the basis of the rumor. Finally, they picked up a trail and found a small shack with tobacco, sweet potatoes and spinach growing about, and the little Japanese, Yoshida, squatting inside.

"He came willingly, after telling the story that he had hidden from the Japanese because they had tried to shoot him. He said that not until Sproat found him did he know definitely the war was over and that the Japanese all had left the island.

"When offered rice, tears came to his eyes and he broke down on seeing his first rice in almost three years."

Beautification Of Burial Plots Is Commended

Members of the beautification committee's sub-group on the cemetery have commended the city for improvements made during the past year.

George Melear, chairman, said that special emphasis was placed on the special care provision whereby the city maintains burial plots on an annual charge. The number of persons taking advantage of the offer have made a real difference in appearance of the burial area, he said.

In addition, workers under direction of Johnny Johansen have made substantial general improvements to the cemetery, said Melear. He expressed the hopes that church and fraternal organizations could find means to carry on a companion improvement program in their portions of the cemetery.

The committee is considering recommendations to the city for further development and beautification.

Dr. Wolfe Visits New York To Meet Mother

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Wolfe have returned from New York where they met his mother, Mrs. Lina Seifarth, 73, who was permitted to leave the Russian zone of occupation in Germany to make her home with the Wolfe's.

She arrived on the Marine Marlin, a Victory Ship, on Friday, being delayed seven days enroute from Bremerhaven, Germany by terrific storms in the North Sea and North Atlantic.

Dr. Wolfe started as far back as last May seeking to gain permission for his mother to leave Germany to make her home in Big Spring. She was permitted to leave the Russian zone and go to Berlin and thence to Bremerhaven, where she waited from Nov. 22 until Jan. 2 for a ship. The Wolfe's were kept in New York more than a week longer than they had anticipated due to the delay in arrival of the Marine Marlin, one of four ships pressed into emergency passenger service.

Truck Driver, 26, Held For Assault

Dwoid Mason, 26-year old truck driver and married man of San Angelo, is being held in that city on charges of criminal assault on a 23-year old woman picked up south of Big Spring Tuesday.

The woman, who said she had been a waitress at San Diego, Calif., prior to starting to San Angelo where her mother is ill, told officers that she was hitch-hiking when picked up by Mason. Between here and San Angelo, she said, Mason forced his attentions upon her. An examination at a San Angelo hospital confirmed she had been bruised and violated.

Bond of $2,000 was set for Mason.

Flight Pay In Air Corps Under Scrutiny

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee, looking for ways to save Army funds, called today for a look at the number of officers who receive flight pay.

Rep. Engel (R-Mich), chairman of the committee of appropriations told Air Corps officials to furnish details on the actual status of all "flying officers" above the rank of major.

Many officers receiving the 50 per cent extra pay "are not entitled to it," Engel said.

He estimated that 70 per cent of Air Corps officers now receive the flight bonus.

"I'm not opposed to paying flying time to those who are entitled to it," he said, "but I don't see any reason for giving it to men not on actual flying status and who will never be back on that status."

"Air Corpsmen temporarily assigned to other duties, he added, should receive the extra pay if they are required to keep up limited flying activities, maintain physical standards, and expect to be reassigned to flight status.

"If they're to be dropped from the Air Corps permanently and

Market Controls Asked By Growers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Florida and California fruit growers asked Congress today to broaden the authority for controls under the marketing agreements act, as a means of dealing with surplus and sub-standard crops.

Marvin H. Walker, representing the Florida Citrus Producers Trade Association, told the House Agriculture Committee "our industry is about flat on its back," because of a lack of market for its record citrus crop.

He and C. N. McLanahan, secretary of the Tokay Marketing Agreement and California Tree Fruit agreement, pleaded for enactment of legislation by agriculture committee Chairman Hope (R-Kas.) that would permit broader controls in marketing agreements.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sam Hackney Reports on the U.S.A.

Sam Hackney and the missus just returned from a trailer trip around the country. They're tired, and glad to be home, but mighty impressed with what they saw.

As Sam reports—every section has something different; a different way of talking; different tastes in food and drink; different laws and customs. But bigger than all these differences is the American spirit of tolerance that lets us live together in united peace.

"Of course," says Sam, "you run into intolerance from time to time. Individuals who criticize another's right to speak his mind; enjoy a glass of beer; or work at any trade he chooses. But those are the exceptions—and we're even tolerant of them!"

From where I sit, more of us ought to make a trip like the Hackneys—to realize firsthand how America is bigger than its many differences... how tolerance of those differences is the very thing that makes us strong.

through the danger of explosion. Without enumerating all the prohibitions, here are some which establish the idea: Abattoir, acetylene gas manufacture, blast furnace, boiler works, brick and tile manufacture, cotton gins or cotton oil mills, fat rendering, fish smoking and curing, forge plant, paint, etc. manufacture, large planing mills, rock crushers, soap (other than liquid) manufacture, tar roofing manufacture, vinegar factory.

It is difficult to pin down the locations of the districts in type, but for the most part they straddle the T&P tracks from east to west with the exception of the immediate business district, and on the outlying sections of northeast and northwest Big Spring. In all discussions of the zones, it should be borne in mind that they are only apply only to the corporate limits and that prohibitions are not retroactive. Thus, concerns now operating businesses, should they be established, cannot be disturbed in continued, unexpanded operations.

Health Director In Confab Here

Dr. F. E. Sadler of Midland, director of the Midland-Ector health unit, conferred here Wednesday afternoon with County Judge Walton Morrison and H. W. Whitney, acting city manager, concerning continuation of joint city-county support of the local health unit.

County commissioners still are studying the health unit program, and they expect to announce a decision on the joint support plan soon. Heretofore the local health unit program has been financed by the city and county, but heavy rains on county funds occasioned by participation in the purchase of veterans hospital site left future county support in doubt, officials said.

Neff Refuses Comment On Baptist Protest

WACO, Jan. 30. (AP)—Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor University, confirming that President Truman would receive an honorary doctor of laws degree from the university in March, refused to comment today on action of the Texas General Baptist Convention in November, 1945, which objected to giving a degree to Mr. Truman.

Dr. J. T. Harrington, president of the Baylor board of trustees, likewise refused comment.

The convention urged Baylor to withhold a degree proposed at that time because of what the resolution described as Mr. Truman's "reported attitude" toward "gambling and drinking."

Baylor officials announced later the school would confer the degree regardless of the conference action but Mr. Truman cancelled his scheduled trip to Waco because of pressing capital business.

Neff today said he had not announced previously the forthcoming award of the degree because, "I had given the President's secretary my word no announcement would come from Baylor ahead of the White House release."

Baylor authorities said the date and time of the ceremony would depend upon Truman's itinerary.

First Of Street Lights Will Be Installed Soon

Big Spring residents will get an opportunity to see part of the proposed street lighting project in operation sooner than expected, the Texas Electric Service company announced today, as workers began erecting a demonstration segment.

Materials for the entire project, which will include all of Third street from east to west city limits, is not yet available, officials said. However, the electric company has been able to secure enough essential items to erect nine lights, and they are being installed this week on Third street between Main and Gregg.

Steel poles are being used on the demonstration segment, and the first to go up was at the corner of Third and Main this morning. Lamps for the entire project will be mercury vapor type.

Cotton Council Policies To Be Selected Today

GALVESTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Policies and directors of the National Cotton council will be selected here today by delegates to the ninth annual convention at a long final session.

Producers, warehousemen, ginners, crushers, merchants and spinners in caucus late yesterday nominated candidates for the new board of directors. Directors and officers will be elected before adjournment today, probably early in the afternoon.

He said papers were made out with Chicago as the destination.

Philbrick said at no time had the body left the funeral home since it was brought there Saturday.

He said he did not know how the body was to be sent, or when, a reliable source here said, however, that a hearse would take it on the 1,800 mile trip.

Crops Damaged By Dust Storm

By The Associated Press

Soil conservation officials today estimated that yesterday's dust storm in the Tulsa-Plainview area caused between $500,000 and $1,000,000 damage to crops and lands.

Conservation officials at Amarillo said the figures are "guesses" and the total may exceed $1,000,000 when a complete survey is made.

When the sun rose this morning over the Tulsa-Plainview section, it revealed thousands of acres of bare soil where yesterday stubbled or green wheat had stood.

Other fields of wheat were covered with the dust and in some cases, wheat sprouts were cut off at the ground by the blowing soil.

'Fair Trades Bill' Hurdles Barrier

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (AP)—The so-called "fair trades bill" hurdled its first barrier last night when it received a 6-0 favorable vote of the Senate Committee on Commerce and Manufacturing recommending it for Senate passage.

The one-sided vote followed a spirited public hearing in which name-calling, charges and countercharges were fired for three hours by large merchants, housewives, and legislators who filled the Senate chamber.

The bill would make it unlawful for retailers to sell for prices below minimum prices fixed by the seller.

Charles H. Flato of Kingsville, representing the Texas Hardware and Implement Association, declared that association to have voted unanimously in favor of the bill at a Houston convention.

Livestock Bill Changed Slightly

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (AP)—The House and Senate today agreed on two minor changes in a bill granting a $150,000 appropriation to the Livestock Sanitary Commission to combat foot and mouth disease.

The amended bill required the Livestock Sanitary Commission to monthly reports to the state auditor on expenditures from this emergency fund. A technical change in the bill insured that it shall not violate any federal laws, national treaties with other countries or agreements between Texas and bordering states.

High Winds Here Cause Fire Alarm

Wednesday's high winds caused one local fire alarm, when two electrical power lines were blown together causing a short circuit at 220 West Second Street, the Big Spring fire department reported. Firemen answered the call at 2:50 p.m., and there was no damage except to the wires. At 9:30 a.m. Thursday, firemen were called to the John J. Roman residence at 2006 Johnson street to extinguish a blaze which started from a cooking stove in the kitchen. Wallpaper and the stove were damaged slightly.

Local Couple Attend Reception In White House

Capt. and Mrs. John Quinn of Big Spring had a new experience a week ago today—that of being guests of President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman at the White House. In a letter to his mother, Mrs. Mable Quinn, Capt. Quinn, who is attached to the navy department in Washington, said that Mrs. Truman and Margaret Truman met them at the reception, and that the First Lady, and her daughter possessed radiant personalities which could not be captured in pictures. "Mrs. Truman's eyes fairly radiate a pleasant personality," observed Capt. Quinn. Margaret was smaller than he had anticipated. The reception was held in the State dining room, and the "enormously high ceilings" impressed the visitors. Attending were some 50 couples composed of rear admirals, and other senior officers of the war and state departments together with captains of the navy on duty in Washington. After about half an hour at the reception, guests were shown through several parts of the White House, including the East Room, Blue Room, the Red Room, etc. Invitations to the affair were on heavy white linen paper, embossed with the President's seal, surrounded by 48 tiny stars in heavy gold emboss. Capt. Quinn, who had been assigned to the US Naval Academy and to the navy department in Washington, was recalled to Washington after commanding a ship that covered most of the globe during the war.

Junior Solons Blast Jester's Finance Plans

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (AP) — Gov. Beauford H. Jester's suggested "painless" method of financing suggested extension of state services was labelled "shortsighted" and "extremely doubtful economics" by one group of House members today. The five young war veteran members who formally introduced their $38,000,000 natural resources tax to raise school teachers pay and finance farm-to-market roads, joined in a statement commenting on the governor's first message to the legislature. Jester said the current general revenue surplus, and anticipated revenues, would suffice. The tax advocates replied: "We believe it would be extremely doubtful economics to let all the state's savings slip through our fingers in these times of plenty. "Rather, we feel that they should be held intact for some future depression period when they may be desperately needed to alleviate human suffering." Signers of the statement were Reps. Jim Wright of Weatherford, Davis Clifton of McKinney, Sid Gregory Jr., of Gatesville, and Ed Hughes, Jr., of Newton, James Spencer of Athens.

Bridge Burned In Truck Crash

MEXIA, Jan. 30. (AP) — A blazing trailer truck set fire to a bridge over Beaver creek one-half mile south of Centerville on Highway 75 last night, disrupting traffic on a main Houston-Dallas highway. Traffic was being detoured today. Highway department officials estimated it would require two weeks to repair the bridge. The fire began when a wheel of a trailer truck came off, and the weight of the truck smashed a gasoline tank. Sparks caused by friction apparently set the gasoline afire, which in turn caused 480 feet of the wooden bridge to burn. The truck was owned by the Interstate By-Products & Supply Co., and was driven by Rily Lee Taylor, 48, of Fort Worth. The truck and its contents, various waste products, were destroyed. Southbound traffic is being detoured at Richland and northbound at Madisonville.

Banquet To Honor R. G. LeTourneau

A banquet honoring R. G. LeTourneau, internationally known industrialist and layman, will be held at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 12, it has been announced by the Big Spring Pastors association. Attendance will be limited to 150 and tickets will be available through pastors of the cooperating churches. Plans call for an apportioning of tickets on a basis of membership. Arrangements are in charge of a committee composed of Dr. P. D. O'Brien, Dr. C. A. Long and Rev. Gage Lloyd. LeTourneau, who is the largest manufacturer of dirt moving equipment in the world, is to address an open meeting at 8 p.m. in the municipal auditorium. He files more than 200,000 miles per year meeting his speaking engagements alone.

Bill May Benefit County Teachers

Rural school teachers of Howard county will benefit to the tune of something like $8,400 if a bonus bill passed yesterday by the Texas senate is also adopted by the House of Representatives and approved by the governor. The proposed legislation provides appropriation of an additional $75 per month to each teacher of the county's seven schools receiving state aid. Teachers of Knott, Vealmoor, Lomax, Cauble, Midway, Center Point and Gay Hill would share in the bonus. Base pay of the teachers now is but $1,215 annually. The appropriation would be paid for the months from February through May.

Herd Cagers On Road Tonight, Oppose Kermit Here Saturday

Locals Favored Over Sweetwater

Local basketball followers will be privileged to see the Big Spring Steers in action Saturday night. Coach Johnny Malaise, aiming on keeping his preppers in top condition for the second half 3AA league chase, has booked a game with the respected Kermit Lions in Steer Gym for that evening.

The Longhorns open their second half campaign in Sweetwater tonight and will be heavily favored to sack up a win at the expense of the willing but impotent Cayuses. The Big Springers scored 62 points against Pat Gerald's gang in their last outing, which was unreel here.

Currently leading the 3AA standings with six victories in as many starts, the Bovines are slight favorites to finish atop the circuit. They play half their six remaining games in the local field house.

Two of the stronger foes—the Abilene Eagles and San Angelo Bobcats—come here for games.

The Eagles thumped the locals by 25 points recently in Abilene but the result was wiped off the record and the decision was forfeited to Big Spring because the Abilene coach discovered he had used an ineligible man.

Reserve squads of the Steers and Mustangs will tangle in a preliminary bout this evening. The locals will be favored to get back on the glory road.

Green Bay Tops In Offensives

NEW YORK, Jan. 30. (AP)—For the first time since 1938 the T-formation has taken a back seat in the National football league.

In announcing officially today the Green Bay Packers sported the best yardage total on rushing plays and Bill Dudley of Pittsburgh was the No. 1 ball-carrier, league headquarters merely confirmed a couple of facts known to the fans since the season closed.

But the 1946 season was the first in eight years in which a team employing the T-formation failed to top the circuit in yardage gained on the ground.

The Packers, whose attack is built around what Coach Curley Lambeau calls the "cock-eyed Notre Dame" system, piled up 1,765 yards on 560 rushing plays to nose out the Champion Chicago Bears by 46 yards.

The Packers delegated the brunt of their ground-gaining chores to Ted Fritsch and Tony Canadeo. This pair, operating under variations of the old Notre Dame system, carried the ball 250 times between them and accounted for 290 yards of the Packers' total.

Dudley, who quit the Steelers to return to the University of Virginia as backfield coach, owes his league-leading individual total chiefly to the fact he carried the ball 146 times, 40 more than any other player.

After piloting a B-29 in the Pacific, Dudley came back last season to cover 604 yards on the ground and regain the title he won in his season in the league in 1942.

The ex-students association made a similar recommendation in 1938, asking dismissal after the Aggies had experienced a dismal season, but the council did not follow the recommendation and in 1939 Norton produced an undefeated, untied team that was acclaimed national champion. In 1940 the team tied for the Southwest conference championship and in 1941 won it again. Last season the Aggies won four games while losing six. They haven't defeated arch-rival Texas since 1939.

Norton has no comment to make on the situation other than that "I'm surprised at what has been done" and pointing to his record. This record includes a sum to the athletic department treasury estimated at one-half million dollars over a period of 13 years.

Norton recently has been mentioned in connection with the coaching position at the University of California.

Among the first arrivals was Lou Little, coach of Columbia who is a member of the coaches advisory group.

The coaches were called in for the purpose of electing the league's most valuable player of the 1946 season, and had little trouble in agreeing, on Glenn Dobbs, the Brooklyn Dodgers' one-man team and former Tulsa University backfield ace. Dobbs, only player to be elected unanimously to the conference's all-league team, led the loop in punting and passing.

When Bobby Moorman, one of the principals of the now storied last-quarter fracas, exploded and tried goring Ike Robb with an elbow, the referee (R. C. Thomas) elected to dispatch both players to the bench. He could just as easily have left Robb in the game, for Ike had done nothing to create a situation.

If Scudday is dissatisfied with the officiating he has been forced to look upon, we suggest he take up the whistle.

The show gets underway around 7:30 o'clock. All proceeds over and above expenses will be turned over to the polo fund drive.

As a parting shot, the retiring president-treasurer of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, referred to the new minor league czar, George M. Trautman, a lengthy report on his investigation into what he termed the "very, very bad" condition in the class D circuit.

The report, made to association members, contains allegations that players—some of them allegedly former New Orleans bookmakers—threw games according to their bets. The report is frequently punctuated with statements by the players denying the charges.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Our Town's J. O. Newsom will vouch for the fact that our neighbors to the south take their sports seriously. J. O. was in the Plaza Mexico building in Mexico City that bloody afternoon a couple of weekends ago when an overflow crowd became infuriated at a matador, one Lorenza Garza; Garza became infuriated at the mob; with the result that a verbal skirmish ensued and the abused bulls, for a change, took it easy.

"Never again," swears Newsom. He almost cracked a rib getting into the place, and stood in line for hours on before the doors swung open to afford him the privilege of getting battered.

After jimmying his way into one of the pews, he was almost caught in the cross-fire of a barrage of pillows, bottles and vegetables directed at the principals in the ring.

Finally, when the situation down front didn't improve to the satisfaction of the hot-blooded onlookers, they fell to tearing the stadium apart, stone by stone. (The wire services reported damage to the arena was estimated at $100,000).

Garza seemed to be in ill temper when he ushered himself into the battle pits, Newsom recalls. Angered by a picador who had bungled a job while trying to incite a bull with a lance, Lorenza gave vent to his ire on the aide instead of the quadruped, only to bring the censor of the crowd upon his ears.

The proud Garza picked up the stinging rebukes and hurled them back at his antagonists, most of whom seemed far more interested in seeing his hemoglobin flow than Ferdinand's.

A Spanish Fred Astaire by the name of Manolete, stepped in to save the day and soothe the tattered nerves of the paying customers by making hamburger of El Toro.

The final chapter of the sanguinary episode was written in the Mexican courts several days later when Garza was fined the equivalent of $2,000 for inspiring a riot and the promoters paid a heavy penalty for stuffing too many spectators into the stadium.

"Never again," iterates Newsom.

Roy Scudday, the Boswell to the west, apparently has been spoiled by the successes of the Odessa football team in the recent ago.

Master Scudday, himself a great reformer, wants no truck with Mr. Rodney Kidd of the Interscholastic league — whom he accuses of trying to curb the enthusiasm of some of the Bronco Ivory hunters — baseball men who do not take him into their confidence, introverts, one-armed paper hangers and basketball officials who neglect to kowtow reverently in the direction of the temples of learning in the Ector county metropolis.

The omnipotent one attempted to neutralize the defeat of the Odessa basketball team in its recent Big Spring outing by informing his readers that the officiating was not up to law, at least not as good as the Bronces had been accustomed to.

Our heart bleeds for Master Scudday. From where we sat on that particular night, it seemed as if the two arbiters called an honest, if not highly commendable game. They leaned over backwards oftentimes to treat the Hosses with the proper respect.

When Bobby Moorman, one of the principals of the now storied last-quarter fracas, exploded and tried goring Ike Robb with an elbow, the referee (R. C. Thomas) elected to dispatch both players to the bench. He could just as easily have left Robb in the game, for Ike had done nothing to create a situation.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

Auburn Grigger Take Long Walk

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr. NEW YORK, Jan. 31. (AP)—Travis Tidwell, the Auburn freshman who led the nation's college footballers in ground gaining last fall, didn't get a bit of sympathy from his teammates for another ground gaining feat the other night.

Travis had a date in Opelika, seven miles from Auburn, and when he missed the midnight bus he had to walk all the way home.

His pals, noting that "spring" practice starts Feb. 10, just accused him of trying to get into shape before they did.

Recent visitors to the Pennsylvania hard coal (and hard football player) regions include Tulane's Henry Frnka and assorted Bush-beaters from Washington and Lee.

After Yale's Howie Odell and his staff, all tireless students of movies, spent most of a day studying Illinois—Northwestern films, they found 18 plays that might be adapted to Yale personnel and just two they thought worth picking up.

Although he ran for two touchdowns during the National Football League season, Paul Governali of Boston Yanks finished with a net yardage of minus 187 yards, the result of forward passes that didn't get off.

And an observer of the Georgia gubernatorial hubrabub claims that Charley Trippi received nearly 1,000 write-in votes last fall, which at least should give him a claim to the position.

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 30. (AP)—Leading golfers of the country swung into the $10,000 Tucson open today with something like a "Beat Hogan" campaign gathering momentum on the fairway.

The slogan around the El Rio Country Club epitomized how matters stand among followers of the winter golf circuit. It was, simply "Beat Hogan and win yourself a reputation."

Hogan didn't participate in the pro-amateur match yesterday but he managed to get in 12 holes of golf after his return from a Los Angeles radio appearance with Jimmy Demaret, Houston, Texas.

Tiled baths were commonplace in Roman times.

STERLING CITY, Jan. 30.—One of the best games of the basketball season is in prospect when the Ellis Paris quintet of San Angelo and the strong ACC B team of Abilene tangle in the feature game of a March of Dimes benefit program here tonight.

The two outfits have played two games to date, with each holding a victory.

A contest between the Gem Jewelers of Angelo and a strong Sterling Independent club will also be included on the program.

The show gets underway around 7:30 o'clock. All proceeds over and above expenses will be turned over to the polo fund drive.

As a parting shot, the retiring president-treasurer of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, referred to the new minor league czar, George M. Trautman, a lengthy report on his investigation into what he termed the "very, very bad" condition in the class D circuit.

The report, made to association members, contains allegations that players—some of them allegedly former New Orleans bookmakers—threw games according to their bets. The report is frequently punctuated with statements by the players denying the charges.

Union Boycotts Hit By Official

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—R. Stafford Edwards, president of the National Electrical Manufacturers Association, said today on secondary boycotts have increased costs of some electrical fixtures as much as 500 per cent. Testifying before the Senate Labor committee, Edwards urged that Congress outlaw such practices. The committee is considering new labor legislation and among bills before it is one to prohibit secondary boycotts. Generally speaking, this term is applied when a union refuses to handle or work with the products of a company with which it has no direct dispute.

WHAT GIVES 'ROUND TOWN

By LEATRICE ROSS

Opening of the new Rio theatre has aroused much interest in Spanish movies during the past few weeks. Reels shown there, feature Latin American actors, directors, and writers and, while difficult to follow if one does not understand the language, they furnish a novel and educational medium of entertainment. News reels and comedies likewise are in Spanish and music accompanying trailers are in the Mexican rhythm. The theatre, housed in a huge arched building, sports a yellow and maroon front-piece, and modern equipment. Very pleased with their first Spanish movie Sunday afternoon: Kenneth Orr, Billy Chane, George Moore, Mickey Casey, Don Woods, Sam Thurman, Harold Jeffcoat.

Ray Clark and Wanda Rose Bobb left Monday morning to resume classes at Tech. Other Tech students will leave later in the week. A swing vocal trio has been cut out of the high school choral club. It is composed of Doris Jean Clay, Christine Anderson, Pearl Mae Clanton. Another novel idea in vocal entertainment is a "barbershop" type quartet made up of George Worrell, Bobo Hardy, Pat Lamb, Murph Thorp. Both organizations will soon be available for public appearances.

Roy Lee Pool has moved to Fort Worth. He leaves vacant a position as junior representative on the high school student council. The student council presented a panel discussion on the workings of the organization over KBST Monday morning. Dr. O'Brien Talks To Lions On Democracy Democracy, which has found its highest expression in western civilization and particularly in the United States, is nothing new, Dr. P. D. O'Brien told the Lions club Wednesday.

Repeating an address made to the high school assembly in keeping with Lions-sponsored series, Dr. O'Brien declared that "democracy is something that is innate in the human heart, something as old as life itself. It is only under a democracy that the souls, minds and hearts of men reach the highest expression of their talents, he said.

He pointed to the development of the "greatest educational system in the world, the greatest industrial system, greatest abundance of churches and religious expression, abolition of slavery, victory in all its wars, and freedom of speech, press and religion as evidences of blessings under a democracy.

Otis Grafa, president, announced that there would be a joint meeting of the heads of all service clubs the first week in April for the purpose of seeking to coordinate activities. At least two joint meetings of all the clubs each year is anticipated, he said.

Program was in charge of Bob McEwen and was introduced by Judge Cecil Collins, chairman of the club's citizenship and patriotism committee.

Penicillin Plan Nipped Suddenly

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 30. (AP)—A U.S. military government plan to fly German scientists to the United States to learn how to boost Germany's penicillin production suddenly was cancelled on orders from Washington, it was learned today.

Ten minutes before the group of German scientists was scheduled to board the plane for America at Wiesbaden last week, military government sources said, officers stopped them on orders contained in an urgent war department cable.

Instead, these informants said, a committee believed to represent commercial penicillin interests in the United States will come to Germany to probe the possibilities of shipping penicillin bulk from America for packaging in Germany.

Penicillin is urgently needed here to halt the spread of venereal disease among occupation troops and German women—a growing menace which United States authorities have fought by seeking German cooperation.

There are about 65,000,000 males of all ages in the US population.

TIME TO BEAUTIFY

Vines Are Versatile In Garden Planting

(This is one of a series of articles prepared with aid of the chamber of commerce beautification committee.)

So you want vines to climb trellises or drape over an arbor? A good place to start is by determining what you want the vines to accomplish. If it is a wall cover, then English ivy offers year-around cover and clings well to brick, etc. Boston ivy is good but is not evergreen.

If it is a decorative or screen vine you want, how about old fashioned honeysuckle? You can't beat it either for thriftiness or for fragrance.

There are many others, too, which are beautiful and effective. For instance there is wisteria, silver larch, queen's wreath. Some have grown Madeira vines with success and there is balsam.

For a rapid and effective annual vine that produces an abundance, there is always the morning glory—and it is long on blossoms. Improved varieties offer king-sized flowers.

Perhaps you have a gate arch or a fancy trellis around the place. Then there are varieties of climbing roses, some of which produce a profusion of richly colored blooms.

Of course, if you like utility with beauty, there is the grape—the sure shot producer for this section. The vines grow rapidly, but they are afflicted with mid-season insects.

Most vines require temperate pruning, but in the case of grapes only a few buds on each main artery should be left. Some cut back even further than that, for only the new wood makes fruit.

HUSBAND LOSES IN LEGAL BOUT

DETROIT, Jan. 30. (P)—Mrs. Gloria Lee Deane today had wrested a divorce from her athlete husband Raymond whose knowledge of wrestling holds did not help him hold her.

Mrs. Deane told Circuit Judge Guy A. Miller yesterday that her husband frequently carried his college wrestling experience into their home life with "humiliating and painful" results.

"He'd clamp a headlock on me," she told the court, "and then slip into a hip lock and then try the flying mare and he'd toss me right across the room. I always lost."

The United States grows about half the world's corn.

Court Overrules Rerearing Motion

AUSTIN, Jan. 30. (P)—The Court of Criminal Appeals yesterday overruled a motion for rerearing of the case of Marshall Morris of Palestine, convicted of aggravated assault.

The court previously had affirmed his sentence of one year in jail and a fine of $500 on conviction of assaulting Miss Jimmy Gantt, a nurse.

The Board of Pardons and Paroles, however, recommended to Gov. Coke Stevenson in December that the jail sentence be remitted and the fine be reduced to $100. After protests from Palestine citizens, Stevens revoked the clemency he had issued on this recommendation.

A&M Muddle Over Resigning Cadet Officers Being Cleared Up

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 30. (AP)—The situation created at Texas A. and M. College by the mass resignation of approximately 200 officers of the cadet corps appeared headed toward clarification today.

Senior officers of the corps voted last night to return to their military organizations and said they hoped to reassume their positions of authority.

In a statement issued after a closed meeting of the senior class they said they would ask that their commissions be restored "because we feel we owe a duty to constituted authority to carry out our duties as representatives of the US army. We will carry out the orders of the military authorities of the college."

They also expressed their appreciation for the co-operation of the military department of the school.

The Dallas Morning News in a story signed by its correspondent Charles Burton said today the officers voted "to return to their units and to ask for the resignation of the school head."

The News said "the decision to ask for Gibb Gilchrist's resignation came in the form of a motion reported to have been passed by a large majority in the closed session."

Such a resolution was not mentioned in the statement the seniors issued after the meeting. Officials of the school declined last night to comment on the report.

In their statement the seniors said that they had drafted 12 proposals which they felt would give them more voice in student government and hoped college officials would act favorably on them.

The proposals included a request that cadet officers be granted more voice in issuing orders to the corps, senior privileges for freshmen and two weeks advance notice of impending changes in major regulations.

Joint Mexican, US Board May Combat Disease

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—US agriculture authorities were reported today considering proposals to establish a joint US-Mexican foot and mouth disease board to combat Mexico's outbreak of the dread infection.

This was learned from well-informed government officials at the department of agriculture who rushed its "summary of developments" on the Mexican epidemic to:

1. Governors of cattle-producing states.
2. Congressmen interested in the outbreak.
3. The Mexican government and
4. Private organizations affected by the potential threat that the disease might cross the US border.

Informants in a position to know said the subcommittee of the Joint US-Mexican agricultural commission has submitted to the two governments recommendations that a two-nation board be set up to study the Mexican outbreak.

Spoon Bread Gets Face-Lifting With Subtle Flavoring

Spoon bread, always a popular dish with Southerners, has taken on a new flavor which promises to make it even more delightful to the taste.

A subtle flavoring of onion and celery contribute to the bland taste of the original dish, giving it a "personality" of its own. The dish should be served at once to insure a light fluffy texture.

SPOON BREAD SOUFFLE
 1 cup yellow corn meal
 4 cups milk
 1-4 cup chopped onion
 1-4 cup chopped celery
 2 teaspoons salt
 1-8 teaspoon pepper
 1 tablespoon sugar
 3 egg yolks, well beaten
 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten
 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
 Combine corn meal, milk, onion, celery, salt, pepper and sugar. Cook 10 minutes, or until mixture has thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Stir small amount of hot mixture into egg yolks; then pour back into remaining hot mixture, stirring constantly. Fold in egg whites. Pour into a greased 3-quart casserole. Dot with butter. Bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) 1 hour. Brown under broiler for 2 minutes, if desired. Serve at once. Makes 8 servings.

160-Acre Limit On Irrigated Land Opposed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30. (AP)—Officials of the National Reclamation Association prepared today to ask for legislation that would remove the 160-acre limitation on land an owner can have watered from federal irrigation projects.

J. E. Sturrock, Austin, chairman of the association's Land Limitation Committee, who has been discussing the matter with William W. Warner, assistant reclamation commissioner, and other Interior Department officials, said there was little chance the department would approve increasing the limitation.

"Mr. Warner told us the reclamation bureau was not inclined to agree to a change in the existing law," Sturrock said.

"Our committee will meet today and draw up a report recommending that the National Reclamation Association as a body sponsor general legislation to effect the increase. Separate bills affecting only California have already been introduced, but . . . feel they should be made applicable to the entire country."

He said the limitation had not yet been an important factor in Texas but that it was extremely important concerning the proposed Rio Grande Valley gravity canal project.

Lilienthal's Stand On Keeping Atomic Secrets Gains Support

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31. (AP)—David E. Lilienthal's firm stand for keeping atomic secrets appears today to have won him the powerful support of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) in the controversy over President Truman's atomic commission nominations.

Vandenberg told a reporter he is "very much impressed" by the stand Lilienthal took in advocating even greater precautions against leaks than had been taken under military control of the A-bomb project.

After a review of further testimony by Lilienthal, named as chairman of the commission, Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) said he thinks "The battle is over" and the five commission nominees, as well as the general manager, "will be confirmed without serious opposition."

In this testimony, Lilienthal promised that Congress and a military liaison committee will be kept Iowa) said the committee will close its doors next week to hear Lilienthal talk about the spy menace and other security problems.

Italian Dish Gets Below-The-Equator Treatment, Uses Popular Tomato Sauce

Polenta is one of Italy's famous dishes—a cornmeal mush frequently flavored with sharp cheese and used as Latin America uses tortillas and North America uses bread. We don't use corn nearly as much in the United States as they do in Middle America. Here a great share of our gigantic corn goes for feeding livestock and factories, and reaches us as beef, pork, lamb, poultry, eggs, butter, milk, breakfast-cereal, corn oil and hundreds of other industrial products as well.

In Middle America, however, where corn was first developed by pre-Columbian Indians, it remains first and foremost the staff of life—the chief life-maintaining food, just as it has for thousands of years. In today's recipe Middle America adds a dash of Worcestershire sauce to the Polenta and then serves the delicately browned slices with the typical well-seasoned tomato sauce. The corn meal mush mixture can be made in advance, molded in a bread pan and sliced and browned just before serving time. You can even prepare the sauce in advance and store it in a covered jar in the refrigerator. It will keep for several days, too.

So here's the Middle American version of Polenta—a perfect luncheon or supper dish for cold winter days.

- POLENTA
 4 cups milk
 1½ teaspoons salt
 1 cup yellow corn meal
 1 cup grated American cheese
 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 ¼ cup flour
 4 tablespoons fat
 Scald milk in top of double boiler. Add salt. Stir in cornmeal gradually and cook over boiling water for 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Cover and cook 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Add cheese and Worcestershire sauce and stir until cheese is melted and well blended with the cornmeal. Turn into a greased loaf pan (8½x4½x3 inches). Chill for several hours. Unmold loaf and cut into ½-inch slices. Roll each slice in flour. Melt fat. Fry slices slowly in hot fat, turning to brown lightly on both sides. Serve hot with Middle American sauce. Makes 6 servings.

MIDDLE AMERICAN SAUCE

- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 ¼ cup finely chopped onion
 1/3 cup chopped celery
 ¼ cup chopped green pepper
 2 tablespoons flour
 2½ cups canned tomatoes (1 No. 2 can)
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/8 teaspoon pepper
 Melt butter. Add onion, celery and green pepper. Cook slowly about 5 minutes, or until onion is lightly browned, stirring frequently. Stir in flour. Add tomatoes, salt and pepper. Simmer about 15 minutes, or until sauce has thickened. Serve hot as a sauce with Polenta. Makes about 2 cups sauce.

Dinnerware Gift Premium Offered By Cereal Concern

Dinnerware, styled by master craftsmen, now comes in premium packages of Mother's Oats on sale at local groceries. A cup and saucer, breakfast bowl, dinner plate, or other dinnerware is included with each package of oatmeal. Housewives can add to their dinnerware sets with each premium package. Modern and graceful in design, the dinnerware is notably substantial. Also substantial is nutritious Mother's Oats. Oatmeal leads all other natural cereals in Vitamin B1, protein, food energy, and iron; and Mother's Oats has for years been a favorite of mothers whose chief concern is energizing breakfasts for their children. Aside from its breakfast cereal role, oatmeal also serves as an ingredient in cookies, muffins, and bread.

Wine Sauce Makes Fish Glamorous, Different Dish

There are other ways of preparing fish than frying it, but the one which seems to be most "out-of-the-ordinary" is one requiring wine flavoring in its preparation. The secret lies in letting the fish stand for several hours — the longer the better — in a tangy marinade until the flavor permeates all the way through. When you are ready to cook the fish, drain off the marinade and use it as the base for the wine sauce to accompany it.

FISH WITH WINE SAUCE

- 4 tablespoons salad oil
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1 tablespoon onion juice
 1-2 clove garlic, crushed
 4 peppercorns, crushed
 1-8 teaspoon nutmeg
 1-2 bayleaf, crushed
 1-4 teaspoon salt
 1-2 pounds fish fillets
 1-2 cup melted butter or margarine
 1-2 cups fine bread crumbs
 2 eggs, well beaten
 2 tablespoons water
 1 cup white wine
 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
 1 tablespoon finely chopped parsley
 Mix together oil, lemon juice, onion juice, garlic, peppercorns, nutmeg, bayleaf, salt. Place fish into a shallow baking dish. Pour oil marinade over fish. Cover and let stand in the refrigerator for several hours (or overnight); turning fish several times so it is completely coated with the mixture. Remove fish and wipe dry. Strain marinade and reserve. Brush fish lightly with melted butter. Roll in crumbs. Combine eggs and water. Dip fish into egg mixture; then roll again in crumbs. Heat remaining butter in large frying pan. Add crumbed fish fillets. Cook slowly about 5 minutes, or until lightly browned. Turn fish and continue cooking until browned on other side, adding more butter if necessary. Add wine, chopped onion and parsley to marinade. Heat to boiling temperature. Remove fish to hot platter. Serve with wine sauce. Makes 6 servings. This dish is equally good cold.

Try This Recipe For A Healthy, Happy Teen-Ager, With Beauty Dividends

By BETTY CLARKE
 AP Newfeatures Beauty Editor
 The smart teen-ager is the girl who knows that whatever bit of beauty she manages to manufacture for herself to-day will pay dividends tomorrow.

MISS TEEN-AGER 1947... Healthy, happy and wise.

And you can manufacture beauty, say the wise girls. All you do is take a heaping teaspoonful of common sense and mix it up with milk, vegetables, water and good living plus a dash of exercise. You'll see the roses pop out on your cheeks and your figure will take on hour-glass proportions.

The matter of sleep is the most important in this program. Let your girl friends stay up until the wee hours if they like — they'll regret it in a few years when you snatch all the eligible beaux in town. Make sure you get your eight hours sleep and your eyes will keep sparkling and you won't have any tell-tale wrinkles or crow's feet to mar your school-girl complexion.

And you can have a pink and white dewy epidermis if you will eat all the green vegetables and drink all the milk put before you. Instead of the gooey sundaes and heavy pastries that your plump sisters love, get the habit of eating fruit for dessert. When you stop in the ice cream parlor with the gang, it is just as simple to order a lemonade or an orange ade as it is to order a double-chocolate fudge sundae with nuts. You don't have to earn a reputation of being a "tomboy" in order to get a regular quota of exercise. There is nothing better than a good long walk to whip up your circulation. In the spring you can roller skate and in the

Friend Or Relative?

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. Jessie Eli of Tulsa was embarrassed when she went before City Judge J. A. Denny to ask dismissal of charges against two young men whom the night before she asked police to arrest when they paid a "call" at her home. Mrs. Eli told the judge she discovered after the arrest that the men were her husband's brothers, John and Grover Eli, in town for a visit. "I just didn't know my brothers-in-law," she confessed.
