SYBIL THORNE, reckless and lovely, has had ien wretched days of married life. Swept off her feet by the phasiosinte declarations of RICHARD EUSTIS, she married him after five days acquaintance. They met on shipboard on the way to Cuba and were married by the ship's captain in Hayana harbor. During the honeymoon Richard is alternately charming and repulsive. Sybil discovers that he is a contained drunkard and decides to leave him. She writes a note, telling him of her decision, and leaves their hotel to icil MABEL BLAKE what she has done.

Mabel Blake, a Boston social worker, was Sybil's companing on the voyage. To her great amazement she tearns that Mabel has become engaged to an American whom she met in Hayans. Haname is JACK MOGRE. When Sybil's tells them of her determination to leave Richard, Moore and Mabel persande her to give him another chance, and go with her back to the hotel. The girls wait in the lobby while Muore goes up to talk with Richard, who is recovering at the fine from the terrific intoxication of the night before.
